Market Drop Leaves Radio Stocks Down But Not Out

■ Anxiety over budget spurs decline; radio seen in better shape than other industries

BY ROY FURCHGOTT
R&R WASHINGTON BUREAU

Radio stocks took a beating in Monday's (12/18) stock market plunge but probably avoided any long-term damage, say industry analysts.

"[Radio stocks] definitely all got hit [Monday]," said Tim Wallace at S.G. Warburg. "They were not hit as heavily as technology stocks were. The fundamentals in radio still appear to be good, and the telecommunications bill looks like it is going to pass, so the future looks very bright for radio."

Monday's 101.5-point Dow Jones nosedive was driven by Wall Street jitters over the government's inability to strike a balanced budget deal. Analysts said investors were counting on a lower federal deficit to hold down inflation rates, allowing the Federal Reserve Board to cut interest rates.

"Monday was not a great day," said Alex. Brown analyst Drew Marcus. "The stocks were down across the board. Also, the regulatory issues are coming to a head with fierce lobbying [on the telecommunications bill]."

No Long-Term Danger

Radio stocks may have fared slightly worse than the rest of the market, partially because radio had been such a high-flying category. "It looks like the percentage decline was greater [than the rest of the market]," said Duff & Phelps analyst Jim Goss. "The fact that these stocks did very well this year makes them very vulnerable in a 100-point drop."

Logan Becomes PD At KYCY/SF

KYCW-FM/Seattle PD Eric Logan has been named PD at Alliance Young Country sister KYCY/San Francisco, effective January 2. The post had been vacant since Larry Pareigis left for the top promotion slot at Almo Sounds

(R&R 10/6).

"Eric has his roots in Country radio," said KYCY VP/GM Tom Matheson. "He's proven himself in battles in Oklahoma City and Seattle, and we welcome him to the Young Country staff here."

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

R&R overall '95 chart share honors go to Atlantic Records. The multiformat success of Hootie & The Blowfish plus a fifth-place finish in Country helped Atlantic secure the top spot. For a complete look at the year in music, see Sound Decisions on page 20.

1995: Prelude To Change

■ Regulatory year in review: Telecom, minority tax certificate repeal, Infinity fine lead news

BY HEATHER VAN SLOOTEN
R&R WASHINGTON BUREAU

1995 was a year marked by regulatory and legislative squabbles, quibbles, and outright screaming matches that brought the radio industry to the brink of massive change. Among the major political and regulatory developments of 1995:

The Telecom Bill

Telecommunications legislation that would relax or eliminate the FCC's radio ownership limits was supposed to be a slam-dunk in 1995. But it defied a spring deadline, a summer deadline, a late-fall deadline ... and still the process grinds on. As the year winds down, a joint House-Senate committee is still working out the differences between the measures passed by the two houses, both of which would repeal the radio ownership caps.

However, President Clinton has threatened to veto any bill that grants too much media concentration. FCC Chairman Reed Hundt has also weighed in against "excessive" concentration, threatening to use the FCC's power to block license transfers to control expansion or, alternately, to revive minimum public interest requirements if broadcasters are de-regulated.

The FCC's Minority Tax Certificate program saw its demise in early 1995. The 17-year-old program provided capital gains tax deferrals to companies that sell radio, TV, and cable properties to minority-controlled firms.

In January, the House began questioning whether the FCC had exceeded its authority and whether the certificates actually fostered minority ownership of broadcast properties.

Civil rights groups and minority broadcasters vehemently defended the program, but the House killed the tax certificate program in February; the Senate followed suit a month later.

President Clinton signed the '95 ROUNDUP/See Page 8

Hamilton Named SF Combo PD

■ He'll program Nostalgia KABL-AM, '70s KBGG-FM

Industry veteran Bob Hamilton has accepted the PD chair at Shamrock Nostalgia/'70s Oldies combo KABL-AM & KBGG-FM/San Francisco. He begins his new assignment on January 2 and succeeds Gerry McCracken, who returned to program Country WHKO/Dayton about six months ago (R&R 7/14).

GM Bruce Blevins told R&R, "In a market that has many FM problems, we have one of the best ones technically. If we [program] something people really like, we'll have a very large audience; Bob's the guy who can do that for us. He's had experience [programming] some great Oldies stations, and [KBGG is doing] a younger version of that format."

Coles Is L.A.'s Easy Choice As PD

Viacom has transferred 18-month Lite AC WLTW/New York Programming Coordinator Tony Coles to Los Angeles, where he'll become PD of Soft AC KXEZ-FM. Coles succeeds Dave Beasing, who recently replaced Randy Lane as PD of Viacom Hot AC KYSR-FM/L.A. (R&R 12/1).

"Viacom takes pride in its AC stations and is willing to give me the tools needed to turn things around," Coles told R&R. "Since I have an AC background, this should end the rumors that KXEZ will be changing formats. The station has a lot of potential, and we have to maximize the ratings."

"Already knowing Viacom's AC philosophy and having [Beasing] in the same building are big

He will be working closely with Quad Teck owner Hank Waring, whose company specializes in audio/video sound enhancement. Commenting on his departure, Krizman said, "R&R has been 22 years of my life that I thoroughly enjoyed, especially the people I had the privilege of working with over the years. And I hope to stay in touch with those who became friends.

"I'm very excited about the new challenge of working with Hank to introduce to the American recording and film industries the most sophisticated audio technology that addresses the sterile coldness and returns the warmth of analog."

"When Dick first approached me with this opportunity, I was absolutely thrilled for him," said R&R COO Erica Farber. "It just never dawned on me that he would actually accept it! Now that the realization is sinking in, the

Eureka Lives! L-Band System To Be Tested In San Francisco

The Electronic Industries Association has received permission to test the Eureka 147 DAB system on the L-band. The National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) had until recently opposed the test.

Testing will take place in San Francisco from January 31, 1996 through April 30, 1996 at specific times each day. The NTIA initially disputed the L-band test because the band is reserved for military flight testing and the group worried that a DAB test might interfere with flights.

Broadcasters are opposed to the test for other reasons. Eureka 147 would potentially create a third band that could compete with — or replace — AM and FM. The NAB and its membership evaluated the standard years ago and rejected it.

Canada, Europe Approve

Canada and Europe are leaning toward the Eureka standard — in fact, some have already adopted the standard. Foreign Eureka proponents would like the U.S. to come on board. The larger the market using Eureka, the less equipment will cost broadcasters and listeners.

The NTIA has conditionally cleared Eureka for testing provided it does not interfere with other L-band operations. Eureka has signed an agreement with the NTIA, which is representing the Department of Defense, the armed forces, and the Aerospace & Flight Test Radio Coordinating Council, to suspend testing if it causes any interference to military test flights.

Broadcasters say they are comfortable that the standard can not be adapted. They feel it is unlikely the military will abandon the band, which it says is essential to national security.

Telecom Bill Hung Up On Radio Caps

The fate of a massive telecommunications bill that could dramatically affect every form of electronic communications — from television to the Internet to telephones — now appears to hang on the issue of radio deregulation.

At presstime, deregulation proponents said that Sen. Ernest Hollings (D-SC) was holding up the bill by refusing to compromise on radio ownership limits, which he opposes. Also, conferee staffers were meeting to hammer out compromises on these lingering issues. Staffers were saying the bill could still be completed before the Christmas break, although the final draft would not be readied until after the new year.

Fields Nixes Another Term

Rep. Jack Fields (R-TX) has announced he will not seek another term. The 15-year veteran of Capitol Hill also serves on the Commerce Committee and is Chairman of the Telecommunications Subcommittee.

Fields attributed his decision to the upcoming arrival of the baby he and his wife are expecting. He said he wants to take a more active parenting role. So far, it is unknown who will replace Fields, although Billy Tauzin (D-LA) and Michael Oxley (R-OH) have been mentioned. If the Democrats win back the majority, former chairman Ed Markey (D-MA) would likely resume his previous position.

Three Banks For Three Radio Companies

Three investment houses have announced they will provide continuous ratings/stock performance coverage of three radio companies.

Dean Witter Reynolds analyst Alan Kassen launched the coverage of Emmis Broadcasting with a "buy" rating. Kassen projected earnings per share of 91 cents for fiscal 1996 ending in February. Goldman Sachs analyst Richard Rosenstein initiated coverage of Infinity Broadcasting with a "moderate outperform" rating. Oppenheimer & Co. began coverage of Multi-Market Radio Inc. by giving the company an "outperform" rating. Analyst Edward Atorino estimated prices in the next 12 to 18 months will hover in the mid-teens.

FCC Goes Dark — Again

The federal government budget battle has shuttered the FCC for the second time in a month — close to 2000 employees have been laid off until further notice.

The FCC will maintain a skeleton crew to monitor and act on any emergency situations. Also, the staffers who are running auctions have been exempted from the furlough, so auctions will run as scheduled.

SUCCESS STRATEGIES FOR RADIO

FEC's Cash-Flow Crunch

The Federal Elections Commission announced it is 40% short of money owed to presidential candidates for federal matching funds. The cash-flow problem means fewer political ad dollars in the first part of the year, but the FEC plans to rectify the shortfall by April 1996.

The 10 eligible candidates will receive $22 million in the first half of 1996 and the rest later in the year. FEC spokesperson Ian Stirton explained that general election funds must be set aside before matching funds are doled out. And because it is hard to predict the number of candidates and the amount of checkoff receipts from tax returns, it is difficult to anticipate such a cash-flow problem.

Chancellor Proposes Deal With Bankers Trust

Chancellor Broadcasting, on the heels of FCC clearance to buy Shamrock Broadcasting, has proposed a $270 million financing deal with Bankers Trust in New York as the lead institution.

Chancellor made the following presentation to 30 bankers: It is seeking a $160 million six-and-a-half-year loan, a $70 million eight-year loan, and a revolving loan of $40 million — all at "LIBOR" interest rate plus 3.25%. "I wouldn't say it was lock, stock, and barrel," said Chancellor CFO Eric Neumann. "But they seem to like our company. I think we will get it done."

Fraud-Free FCC

The FCC has released the semiannual report of acting Inspector General Walker Feaster.

Feaster is the FCC official charged with investigating allegations of fraud, corruption, and mismanagement at the agency. He gave the agency a clean bill with only one investigation still pending.

Paul Brachfeld, acting Director since the resignation of Robert Andary in May 1995, did find some computer security problems, which the report did not detail for fear of giving hackers too much information.

The office has also created a hotline for reporting violations. The number is (202) 418-0473.

bill, which would also partially fund a health insurance tax deduction for the self-employed. The bill was retroactive to January 17, in order to prevent Viacom from deferring up to $640 million on the $2.3 billion sale of its cable TV stations to a company headed by an African-American entrepreneur.

Indecency

The past year also saw several more battles in the never-ending war over broadcast indecency.

On the legal front, broadcasters lost two crucial fights as a federal court upheld both the FCC's right to regulate indecency and its policies for doing so. Both rulings are on appeal to the Supreme Court.

In late August, Infinity Broad- casting agreed to pay the FCC $1.715,000 million to settle several outstanding Howard Stern-related indecency proceedings. Sources said that Infinity, one of the FCC's toughest opponents on the indecency issue, agreed to settle with the agency in order to ease anticipated future station acquisitions.

Satellite Radio/DAB

The FCC gave a preliminary green light to satellite-delivered radio, awarding spectrum to four firms that propose to broadcast 50 channels of digital-quality sound nationwide.

The proposal would give 12.5 MHz spectrum to American Mobile Radio Corp., Primosphere L.P., CD Radio, and Digital Satellite Broadcasting Corp.

Broadcasters and the satellite providers duked it out at the FCC: The NAB called the satellite groups purveyors of "pie in the sky," while the satellite groups accused broadcasters of fretfully "squawking like chickens."

The broadcasters continue to push for restrictions, including limiting satellite radio to subscription service only. The FCC has yet to make a final ruling, but it has given the satellite providers cause for alarm — FCC Chairman Reed Hundt has expressed an interest in starting from scratch and auctioning off the spectrum that was promised to the satellite groups for free.

Equal Employment Opportunity

The FCC addressed the Equal Employment Opportunity issue bright and early in the year by slamming Golden West Broadcasters with a $20,000 fine, WMYG-FM/Braddock (Pittsburgh) with a $16,000 fine, and WWCT-FM/Peoria, IL with a $10,000 fine — all for EEO violations.

Jesse Jackson's Rainbow Coalition attempted to block the license renewals of several stations it said had poor EEO records.

The FCC adopted "Standards For Assessing Forfeitures" in EEO cases last February. The standards — not rules, according to the FCC — were applied retroactively and did not allow broadcasters an opportunity for comment.

The Supreme Court case Adarand Constructors v. Peña — which ruled that the government programs designed to rectify past discrimination must be closely tailored to meet a compelling government interest — fueled calls throughout the industry for reform of the FCC's EEO policies. A Washington law firm, representing a group of broadcasters, asked the FCC to prove that its EEO programs meet the Adarand test.

In October, FCC Commissioner Susan Ness proposed an EEO overhaul that would make it easier for broadcasters to meet the agency's EEO requirements. Among the changes Ness suggested:

- Stations achieving EEO hiring goals should not have to document how the hires were made.
- Record-keeping should be simpler.
- The FCC should broaden the list of acceptable recruitment methods.
- The Commission should give incentives for broadcasters to participate in cooperative recruitment.

Telecom Bill Hung Up On Radio Caps

earlier this week said that broadcast concentration was the last issue to be resolved before the bill could go to the president.

"Broadcasting is the last big one we got," he told the Associated Press. "Broadcasters are the problem. They are really asking for too much here."

"Broadcasters are not the problem. We want to deal," said NAB spokeswoman Lynn McReynolds. Although the NAB's official position has been for total deregulation of radio, she offered, "We could live with the voices test in the House proposal."

The House proposal creates three ownership tiers: In the top 25 markets, it allows unlimited ownership of TV and radio stations provided there is a minimum of 10 voices — meaning owners — in the market. In markets 26-100, there would be unlimited ownership if there was a minimum of six voices, and in markets outside the top 100 there would be unlimited ownership if there was a minimum of three voices.

Hollings has objected to unlimited ownership for radio as has President Clinton. Clinton has threatened to veto any bill that did not address concentration of media.

A TOAST TO RADIO'S 75TH — The Interep Radio Store and McCann Erickson jointly sponsored a reception to salute the 75th anniversary of radio. Posing for posterity are (l-r) Interep West President George Pine, Radio Marketing specialist Michael Rich, McCann Exec. VP/Creative Director Nina DiSesa, Interep President Marc Guild, McCann Sr. VP/Media Dir. Mark Stewart and Exec. VP/Worldwide Media Director Ira Carlin, and Interep Sr. Account Manager Diane Feyer.

To My Fellow Talkers...

We've all been flooded with hype about "HOT TALK!". Some consultants have made reputations exalting its virtues, and some stations have blossomed under their tutelage. We'd all like a little more space to stretch out from under the political, how-to, or expert-oriented formulas we have somehow been pigeonholed into for a bit too long.

To make talk more entertainment oriented and...well just fun. goes against yesterdays grain of the serious news image that has limited Talkers. If you're a Talk sister to a music FM dominator, you know where the attention and the promotion budget goes. YOU KNOW WHAT ITS LIKE TO BE "2ND TEAM" OR "THE OTHER STATION."

Well, fight back! Get Hot! GET THE HOT TUB RADIO PARTY! It's time to put some FM pace and excitement back into Talk, and The Tub does all that and more.

The Hot Tub Radio Party is currently syndicated in cities from Phoenix to Myrtle Beach, Portland to Pittsburgh, Greensboro to Burlington on formats ranging from Classic Rock and Oldies to Adult Contemporary and Country. Tub Talk obviously is a POWERFULLY EFFECTIVE ENTERTAINMENT TOOL that wins even when it's programmed into the music destination mainstream. When coupled with a Talker, The Tub lowers demographics, becomes a feature that EXPANDS LISTENER AUDIENCE and gives personality power to Talkers who are in competitive ratings driven markets.

HERE'S A DEAL. To those Talkers that take the plunge into Tub Talk on our barter basis, we'll supply free satellite engineering and equipment, including a dish (owners love free equipment), the service of a top ad agency to do graphics, artwork, TV commercials or other promotional services you need. Computer Web page hook up, digital studio production for on-air imaging power, sales tools and training and value added packages to insure successful sales revenue...ALL FREE! Plus, we are the only network offering national advertising revenue sharing back to stations!

The Tub is in 24 hours a day! Take from 1 to 24 hours on an exclusive market basis. Take the turn onto the entertainment highway.

WIN TODAY WITH THE TUB.

'ZINE SCENE

Eat It: Jackson's Disorderly Conduct

The "viral infection" that hospitalized Michael Jackson may have been a deadly eating disorder. The Globe speculates bulimia, claiming the 122-lb. singer secretly binged and purged on fast food, cookies, chips, salsa, and frosting.

The diagnosis is anorexia according to the National Enquirer, which reports that the 125-lb. singer "doesn't actually eat, he just grazes" on sprouts, carrots, and celery.

In either case, the Star says that even on the brink of death the 115-lb. singer was so germ-phobic he wouldn't drink the hospital water, had an expensive air purifier installed, and ordered the air and heating ducts covered with cloth.

Garth Brooks's wife Sandy is so concerned about her tubby hubby's weight she has three sensible meals flown to him daily on tour (Globe).

Jackson

New Music Forecast: Cloudy

"Probably the Quarrymen would've gotten signed right off the bat. Then Stu Sutcliffe would've died and that would be it — there would be no Beatles" — producer David Kahne on the state of today's new rock music (Entertainment Weekly).

Elsewhere in the mag's gloomy year-end wrap-up, Nashville marketing consultant Holly Gleason says the country boom has gone "beyond flattening to boredom," with the public tiring of "hat acts, Barbie dolls, and Eagles clones."

Out Of Character!

Two Florida women who once wrote fan letters to Barry Manilow received two in return after tailgating the mensch/icon post-concert. The notes Manilow scribbled as he got out of his limo read "You're very rude" and "Leave me the @#$$ alone" (Globe).

Luciano Pavarotti turned down a cool million to get naked for the pages of a racy Italian magazine. But when the offer doubled, the portly tenor caved, with the proviso that no frontal nudity would be involved (Globe).

Lovett Or Leave It

Splitsville is sure a chummy place for Lyle Lovett and Julia Roberts. According to the Globe, the singer smooched and serenaded his estranged wife at a birthday bash for her sister. At a subsequent wedding where Julia was maid of honor, Lovett sang "Stand By Your Man."

Also from the Globe, the on-again marriage of Whitney Houston and Bobby Brown looks off again, as Brown canceled a $200,000 second honeymoon in Bali. Quoth Entertainment Weekly cover girl Houston: "They say he cheats on me. I haven't caught him yet. If I had, I'd break his f—ing neck."

Tom Jones's marriage is considerably more open, as the crooner demonstrated on a recent Australian tour. The Globe reports Tom turned the tables and tossed his own undies to a pair of strippers getting "downright kinky" in his hotel suite.

"I told her she was acting like her mother — and she slapped me in the face!" — record producer and accused wife beater Andre Fischer claims his ex Natalie Cole was the real hitmaker of their household (Globe).

Glass Kickers

Julio Iglesias narrowly escaped death in a recent plane mishap, according to the Globe and the Star. The windshield of the crooner's private jet reportedly shattered over Chesapeake Bay, forcing pilots to nose the craft into a controlled dive to keep from crashing.

Glass also rained o'er Janet Jackson, who according to the Star thought she was shot when an antique flashbulb exploded in her face recently. Though the red-hot shards missed her eye, crew members on Jackson's video shoot for "Twenty Foreplay" urged her to get checked by doctors. She refused, leery of adding to the family's publicized medical woes.

Words To Live By

"Be a vegetarian. Avoid drinking alcohol. Smoke pot if you can't get to sleep. Read. Be very reclusive. Don't go to parties very often. Do a half-hour of yoga every day. There is no more. And mind your own business" — Chrissie Hynde's blueprint for living (Us).

Dolly Parton credits plastic surgery with helping to make her 50 years happy. "Sometimes I see myself on TV and think, 'What is that turkey jowl hanging from my neck?' or 'I'd better get my pair off the ground!' That's when I do something about it, and I'll continue to do so as the need arises — or, in my case, falls" (Star).

Get Away With Murder!

Competitive reality for radio in the 90's means higher reliance on promotions than at any other time in its history. What it also means is a tireless tug of war between advertisers, stations, and listeners. While quality station promotions remain critical to the successful marketing of a station, value-added promotions have become critical to station buys. Reconciling these two views is the complex role of today's Promotion Director and the need for which Promotional Warfare was created.

Promotional Warfare is the most complete book on promotions on the market today, containing more than 1,000 pages of promotional ideas from the top stations across the country.

Promotional Warfare is indexed as follows: Billboard, Bumper Sticker, Charity, Contest, 42 Holiday categories, Marketing, Merchandising, Miscellaneous, 65 Sales categories, Station Vehicles, Stunts, and many more.

Each individual promotion contains detailed information on set-up, time and cost requirements, sponsorship opportunities, and benefits for both the station and the community.

Added Marcus, "One has to be careful not to let one's emotions fluctuate with the daily momentum of stocks — unless you're sitting where I am."

Logan added, "I'm very excited to be part of a great team and have the opportunity to work with such an exceptional staff. The San Francisco market is known for great radio, and that's what Young Country is all about."

Before joining KYCW in June '94, Logan spent two years programming KEBC/Oklahoma City, the station where he began his radio career more than nine years ago.

This move should serve to end speculation regarding KYCY's format future, which has been in question since the announcement that Infinity was buying Alliance.

Atlantic Nabs '95 Label Honors

□ MCA, Arista tie for second; Warner, Epic round out Top 5

Atlantic Records grabs the top spot in R&R's 1995 Label Performance Review thanks to the crossover success of such artists as Hootie & The Blowfish, Brandy, Collective Soul, and All-4-One.

Atlantic ranks No. 1 in CHR/Pop and Adult Alternative, No. 2 in Hot AC and Rock, and No. 3 in both CHR/Rhythmic and Alternative).

Arista and MCA were No. 2 and 3 respectively. Both continued their traditional strong showings in Country (MCA No. 1, Arista No. 2), CHR/Rhythmic, and Urban (Arista No. 1, MCA No. 2 in each format). Rounding out the top five are Warner Bros. -- which turned in a first-place showing in Rock -- and Epic,

For Arista, much of the credit goes to sub-label LaFace act TLC. The female trio score the No. 1 CHR/Rhythmic single with "Waterfalls," a song that also ranks as the No. 4 track on the Urban chart and the No. 9 hit on the CHR/Pop chart. The trio also grabs the No. 7 record ("Red Light Special") and No. 8 ("Creep") at more album. That track also earned high chart positions at Alternative (No. 8) and CHR/Pop (No. 20).

Atlantic also scored impressive crossover success with the song "I Can Love You Like That." Platinum-plus vocalists All-4-One's version hit No. 11 at CHR/Pop, No. 18 at CHR/Rhythmic, No. 14 at Hot AC, and No. 7 at AC. Meanwhile, country million-seller John Michael Montgomery hit pay dirt with the track (No. 9). The two acts did the same thing two years ago with "I Swear." Montgomery also recorded Country's No. 14 track with "Sold (The Grundy County Auction Incident)," while label-mates Neal McCoy

CHR/Pop, as well as the No. 13 track ("Red Light Special") at Urban.

For Atlantic, it was the year of the Blowfish. The multiplatinum four-some's album, "Cracked Rear View," saw three tracks -- "Let Her Cry," "Hold My Hand," and "Only Wanna Be With You" -- cross over to multiple formats, including CHR/Pop, Hot AC, and both Active Rock and Rock. Another significant contributor is Collective Soul. The rock band earns the number one song on and Tracy Lawrence claim the No. 17 and No. 19 songs with "They're Playing My Song" and "If The World Had A Front Porch," respectively.

Another major contributor for Atlantic is newcomer Brandy, whose singles "Best Friend" and "Baby" rank No. 7 and No. 9, respectively, on the Urban chart. Both tracks also crossed to CHR/Rhythmic, with "Baby" ranking as the 16th most popular song in the format.

OVERALL CHART SHARE

Following on TLC's heels is newcomer Monica on Rowdy. The vocalist posts the No. 2 song on Urban radio with "Don't Take It Personal," which also crossed over to CHR/Rhythmic (No. 5).

On the MCA front, the label picked up crossover success with Soul For Real on Uptown/MCA. The band has the No. 6 CHR/Rhythmic and No. 7 Urban single with "Candy Rain." The group also score the No. 9 record at CHR/Rhythmic with "Every Little Thing I Do." The label remains a country powerhouse, picking up the No. 1 single with David Lee Murphy's "Party Crowd" and the No. 3 record with Trisha Yearwood's "Thinkin' About You."

At Warner Bros., a healthy portion of the label's success can be attributed to crossover hits by Seal and Madonna and their No. 1 label ranking in Rock. Seal's "Kiss From A Rose" is No. 3 at CHR/Pop and Hot AC and No. 8 at AC. Madonna's "Take A Bow" comes in at No. 10 on the CHR/Pop chart, No. 7 at Hot AC, and

No. 3 at AC.

At Epic, crossover success came in the form of Brownstone, which scored a No. 12 Urban and CHR/Rhythmic hit with "If You Love Me" and the No. 10 Urban hit with "Grapevine." Also contributing significantly are Silverchair's "Tomorrow," the top song at Alternative,

TLC

Pearl Jam's "Better Man," the No. 3 song at Rock.

Ruby's 'Paraffin,' 'Tiny Meat' Eating Up Alternative

It's a common problem facing label promotion execs — momentum builds on your new act's debut single, but a handful of major-market stations start adding another track.

Such is the case with Creation/Work/CRG alternative band Ruby. The group's lead single, "Paraffin," last week picked up four adds at Alternative radio, while debuting at No. 47 on the Alternative charts. KROQ/Los Angeles, KITS/San Francisco, and KOME/San Jose have already jumped on "Tiny Meat."

Geordie Gillespie, Work Group National Director/Alternative Promotion, sees it all as part of artist development. "It's awkward from the traditional radio promotion standpoint, but no one gets to know a band through only one single. Some stations have discovered 'Tiny Meat,' which shows us and radio there is more than one hit on the album. It also signals that Alternative is willing to play more than one [current] track, like the old Album Rock stations did."

Gillespie will stick to the label's original plan by continuing to work "Paraffin" to radio, followed by "Tiny Meat" in early 1996. To set the stage at radio and retail, Work mailed a CD-5 and a ruby-red 10-inch single to college and Alternative radio and mom-and-pop record shops.

Videos for both tracks have been completed, and the label plans five showcase dates in early February, followed by a club tour in March. The album will be released January 9.

Loud/RCA Mixes It Up

Talk about the benefits of correctly targeting your audience: "Every Day And Every Night," a Loud/RCA

mix show DJs about one month ago. "The mixes played it and it started to heat up immediately. We have a great relationship with the mix shows. They're a big part of taking what's happening on the street and getting that played on the air."

Michelle is currently making select appearances with Flex.

Victor

Records tribute to club DJs by Yvette Michelle produced by Funkmaster Flex, is finding early success at Urban and CHR/Rhythmic stations. Last week the record had nine stations on CHR/Rhythmic and 59 stations with 13 adds on Urban. The song is the lead track from Funkmaster Flex's hip hop compilation album, "Funkmaster Flex Presents The Mix Tape Volume 1."

While on first spin the track comes across very mainstream, Loud Records — home to the Wu-Tang family — is treating "Every Day & Every Night" as a street record. "There was some real excitement about this project when Flex delivered his album. We all felt we can go all the way with this," says Loud Records VP/Promotion Jonathan Rifkin.

"We're pretty much a street hip-hop label. And while this sounds more mainstream than most of our other records, there's still a very strong street appeal to the song. Not only do club and mix show DJs identify with the song, but clubgoers and listeners as well."

Loud/RCA serviced the track to club and

Rush Guitarist's 'Promising' New Single

Alternative is the flavor of the year at radio. But the success shown by band Victor's lead single, "Promise," shows how enduring and popular the Canadian power rock trio Rush remains at Rock-based radio. "Promise" last week surged 45-25 on the Rock chart and debuts at No. 31 on the Active Rock chart.

Victor, the first non-tribute solo project from a Rush member (guitarist Alex Lifeson), has seen public demand build well before the airplay release date.

Lea Pisacane, Atlantic Records Director/National Album Promotion, says, "Rush is probably one of the most Interneted bands around. Their fans heard about the project and started calling us as early as May and June. That helped us a lot in setting up the band at radio. It showed the fan base exists, and that it's both young and old."

It also helped temper Active Rock and Rock radio's anxiety about playing Victor, since many stations over the last few years had either purged or dramatically cut back on Rush product in their libraries. Another plus, Pisacane says, is that "[Lifeson] stayed true to his style of music."

"He wails on this album. The forcefulness of the record helped eradicate a lot of concerns about how it would fit in on the radio."

With no real need to introduce the band to radio because of its heritage, Atlantic opted to work the rock media. "We did a lot of pre-release press," Pisacane says. "Any rock magazine knows this is an event, so we capitalized on that."

MUSIC NEWS & VIEWS

Gunners, Stooges Reunions In The Works?

Look for a new album from Guns N' Roses and a possible reunion of Iggy Pop and the Stooges. According to the Gunners' manager, Axl Rose, Slash, and Duff McKagan are in the studio working on new material for an album slated to be released next year.

Guns N' Roses

Also on the reunion front, Iggy is saying he'd like to re-establish the Stooges with certain members. That's after he finishes promoting his new album, "Naughty Little Doggie." Another fun rumor: Debbie Harry and Chris Stein are said to be thinking about re-forming Blondie.

Snuffing The 'Stuff'

Quincy Jones will adhere to the South Korean government's request that the song "Stuff" be dropped from his current album, "Q's Jook Joint." The term 'stuff' is said to be slang for drugs in the country. Jones says he made the decision out of respect for the cultures of other countries.

Stocking Stuffers

Pearl Jam fan club members reportedly will receive a holiday present courtesy of the band and Joey Ramone. It seems the tape was rolling when Joey joined Pearl Jam onstage for a cover of the Dead Boys' "Sonic Reducer." The band is said to be mailing the track to Pearl Jam club members.

Also add this to your Christmas CD collection: "Voice Of The Homeless II," a 10-track album on Mag Records/MCA featuring former homeless people playing and singing classic holiday tunes. Offering up a guest performance as lead vocalist on "Angel Man" is MCA artist Patti LaBelle.

MCA/Universal Home Video salutes the Doors with the release of "The Doors Collection" on laser disc. The disc features three home videos ("Dance On Fire," "Live At The Hollywood Bowl," and "The Soft Parade"), as well as unreleased material including interviews with the three surviving members, a rare Ray Manzarek UCLA student film, filmed moments from John Densmore's one-man play based on his best-selling "Riders On The Storm" book, and a video of Robby Krieger singing a version of "The End."

L.A. Rappers Remember Eazy-E

Some of Los Angeles's biggest names in rap are getting together for a series of performances in honor of Eazy-E, who died of AIDS earlier this year. Slated to perform are Dr. Dre, Tha Dogg Pound, and DJ Quik, among others. Ice Cube is also said to be coming aboard. The shows kick off December 27 and runs through the end of January. Additional details were still being worked out at presstime.

The Red Hot Organization continues its series of album compilations benefiting AIDS awareness with a new project devoted to the Beat Generation. It celebrates the life and writings of beatsters such as Jack Kerouac, Allen Ginsberg, and Charles Bukowski.

Van The Man Gets Jazzed

Van Morrison releases the first jazz record of his career on Verve Records, January 9. "How Long Has This Been Going On" was recorded at the renowned London jazz club Ronnie Scott's and features such tracks as "Moondance" and "That's Life."

Hard Rock Rocks New Year

Lastly, the Hard Rock Cafe continues its free New Year's Eve shows. On the bill this year: Goo Goo Dolls (Las Vegas), Matthew Sweet (Los Angeles), Better Than Ezra (Honolulu), Meat Puppets (Chicago), Rembrandts (Maui), Subdudes (San Francisco), Freddy Jones Band (Phoenix), Deadeye Dick (Houston), Wailing Souls (Newport Beach), and John Mayall & The Bluesbreakers (New Orleans).

Studio Outtakes

DGC/Geffen Records band Hole are in New Orleans rehearsing songs for their new album ... The Buzzcocks have inked a long-term deal with IRS Records and are holed up in Berkeley, CA's Fantasy Studio. Neill King (Green Day, Rancid) is producing the set, which is slated for release on January 23 ... Zoo Entertainment alternative band Tool plans to head into the studio in early '96.

Donovan ("Mellow Yellow," "Sunshine Superman") is in the studio with American Recordings' Rick Rubin. The pair has whittled down the number of songs for a new album to about 20. No official release date has been set. Donovan just wrapped up a series of West Coast concerts ... Capitol Records alternative group Butthole Surfers are in New York at the Greene Street recording studios doing overdubs and remixing for the new album, slated for a March release ... Work Group artist Heather Nova has just returned from London, where she was recording material for her next album.

Kevin & Bean Bumped Off Album Chart!

KROQ/L.A. morning personalities Kevin & Bean are not pleased with Billboard after learning that their sixth annual charity cassette, "How The _____ Stole Christmas" (aka "How The Juice Stole Christmas"), was excluded from the Billboard 200 album chart.

Through December 10, 76,581 copies of the cassette were sold through the Warehouse's 132 stores in the Los Angeles area — good enough to be the best-selling recording in L.A. during that period and a potential debut at No. 22 on the Billboard 200 album chart.

But Billboard's Michael Ellis says the cassette isn't eligible for a chart ranking because it was only available at one chain. "We consider that a promotion for that chain. Our policy is we do not allow albums not available to all chains to come on the chart. It's not helpful to the retailing industry as a whole."

Meanwhile, KROQ VP/GM Trip Reeb says, "There have been conversations and they have been totally reluctant to address the problem. We were told what parameters needed to be met for it to show up and we satisfied those parameters by making it available in a few other stores."

And, as Gene (Bean) Baxter told the L.A. Times, "It makes us wonder if everything Casey Kasem ever told us was a lie!"

Doug Gilmore becomes PD of Urban AC WMMJ/Washington.

Is Philadelphia about to get its second Talk outlet? A growing buzz says the CBS Radio Group will soon return its struggling Sports WGMP-AM (formerly WCAU/Philly) to the Talk format. CBS Radio Group President Dan Mason told ST: "We are moving forward with the Sports format for now." But he added without elaboration: "And then we go from there."

WWDB-FM has been Philly's only major Talk outlet since 1990 when CBS switched out of 'CAU's Talk format to simulcast WOGL-FM's Gold sound. The station picked up the Sports format and WGMP calls in March of last year.

Another one bites the dust: Radio host Sonny Bloch's son is the most recent confessor to charges of helping his father defraud investors in radio station moneymaking schemes. Paul Bloch pleaded guilty last week to conspiracy to commit wire fraud and interstate transportation of monies obtained by fraud. The younger Bloch is the fifth person to admit a role in the scheme. His father continues to deny any involvement.

Early Holiday For Morning Drivers

Despite being in the height of the holidays, many major market stations across the country are locking up morning talent in preparation for the new year. A few of them:

- WSIX/Nashville morning personality Gerry House signs a new performance agreement with parent company SFX Broadcasting that will keep him at the Music City Country powerhouse into the next millenium.
- Hot AC KYKY/St. Louis morning man Guy Phillips's new contract enables the 17-year station mainstay to keep waking up "Phillips & Company" listeners through 2001.
- WIBF/Philly hires KPNT/St. Louis morning co-host Sarah Clark for wakeups. It also brings in former Y100/Philly middayer Bret Hamilton in middays and WKBQ/St. Louis MD Kenny Knights for afternoons. Wes

Changes at Gannett's '70s KKBH (The Beach)/San Diego: PD Jack Silver and morning man Brian Whitman are out. OM Gwen Roberts is now holding down the programming fort, but who's going to do mornings now? ST's super hetrodyne-powered ears managed to hear former KIIS/L.A. afternoon delight "Big" Ron O'Brian doing fill-in last weekend. Hmmm!

Yetnikoff Back In Biz?

The Wall Street Journal reports former CBS Records chief Walter Yetnikoff and movie producer Jon Peters will team to create a new full-service music company early next year. Yetnikoff, who has recently bought non-controlling interests in five independent record labels, is close to raising his start-up goal of

Thanks to Lava recording artist Edwin McCain and former Alarm frontman Mike Peters, who wowed the crowd with separate performances at the world-famous Club R&R recently.

WXTU/Philly received extensive press following a police-truck chase last week. It all started when a thief ripped off a fully loaded Pepsi truck and proceeded to lead New Jersey State Police on the low-speed chase during morning drive. 'XTU personalities Gina Preston and Michael Lynne immediately got on the air and offered concert tickets to any cell phone-equipped driver who could give play-by-play. A listener accepted their deal and followed the caravan for the next 40 minutes. After approximately 100 miles, the driver surrendered without a struggle, and the listener who said he did it only for the free concert tickets, also received his 15 minutes of fame.

Resolved: Six Ways To Make Your Station Better In '96

As the current year wanes, let's reach back across 1995 for some ideas you might want to consider implementing in the new year. There aren't many truly new suggestions here, but they're all good enough that you should have considered adopting them sometime ago.

- Polish those talent communications skills. As consultant Bill McMahon explained at the NAB Radio Show, many allegedly "difficult" air talents are really the victims of poor management (R&R 9/22). Too many managers, McMahon contends, fail to understand and communicate effectively with the types of people who make the best talk hosts.

According to McMahon, the most egregious management miscues include providing little or no feedback, urging the talent to emulate other successful personalities, emphasizing the negative, and failing to understand the host's vision and goals for their show.

- Bond with the GSM. Today's savvy PDs understand that it's no longer enough to do a good job of programming their stations and managing their departments. Those who want to keep their jobs must also be supportive of the sales effort (R&R 8/25).

According to consultant Jim Tazarek, "Programming and production people can't just stand on the sideline and ignore the pressure [to boost net operating income]. If they do, they'll be replaced by a satellite dish real fast." Taz urges PDs to take the initiative to build a strong relationship with their GSMs

Sales And Programming: Sparks Or Synergy?

Looking for more strategies on nurturing that all-important programming-sales relationship?

Veteran Talk manager and consultant Jim Tazarek will address that very issue during the 1996 R&R Talk Radio Seminar, February 22-25 at Washington, DC's Grand Hyatt Hotel. Tazarek's "Building The Sales-Programming Relationship" workshop is just one of 15 sessions targeted specifically at Talk radio programmers, producers, and managers.

For registration information, call (202) 783-3822.

— a relationship that makes for mutual understanding and constant dialogue on crucial sales-programming issues.

- Review your promos. Take some time to make sure you're getting the most out of your on-air promotion efforts. As consultant Lorna Gladstone emphasizes, the time invested in such efforts probably represent the largest single portion of your promotion budget (R&R 12/8).

She also recommends that stations approach their promotion efforts in the same manner as advertisers who use the radio to sell their products. That means attaching a dollar figure to the air time for the campaign, establishing a schedule designed to meet pre-established reach-and-frequency goals, and promoting the right "product features," i.e., touting the personalities instead of their guests or topics. It also means assigning your best production people to create the spots.

- Formatics, formatics. The new year is the perfect time to make sure your air talents are up to snuff on formatic fundamentals (R&R 7/21). WRKO/Boston PD Al Mayers observes, "This is a ratings business and Arbitron credits listening in three ways: call letters, personality name, and frequency. You've got to keep that information in front of the audience."

- Don't slip into a politics-induced coma. With the 1996 elections looming, politics obviously will be an important and hot topic. But don't let your station drown in a flood of tepid talk on the latest campaign developments and minutia of the process. Think carefully before bombarding your audience with a steady stream of pipe-puffing political experts and "insiders."

As you go about plotting your campaign coverage strategy remember these words of wisdom from the greatest political talk host of all time,

TOP 15 TALK TOPICS

Talk Radio's Killer Topic: O.J. Simpson

Take two grisly murders, add one celebrity defendant, mix in a half-dozen flamboyant attorneys, a handful of nefarious minor characters, and a dollop of race issues. Roast over a media flame while basting with endless uninformed opinion. That was the recipe for the No. 1 Talk Topic for 1995 — the O.J. Simpson trial and its aftermath.

The case showed up in the Top 10 for 10 straight months, overshadowing such crucial-but-less-captivating topics as the Republican revolution in Congress, affirmative action, welfare reform, the looming presidential election, and the bombing of an Oklahoma City federal building.

1. O.J. Simpson Trial
2. Affirmative Action
3. Welfare Reform
4. Newt Gingrich's Contract With America
5. Bosnia
6. 1996 Presidential Race
7. Oklahoma City Bombing
8. Balanced Budget
9. Medicare
10. U.S./Japanese Trade War
11. Powell For President
12. Women's Conference
13. Million Man March
14. Militias
15. Foster Nomination

Rush Limbaugh: "People turn on the radio for three reasons — to be entertained, to be entertained, and to be entertained."

- Audit your money talkers. Financial talker Sonny Bloch's legal woes serve as a reminder that programs purveying financial advice must be carefully monitored (R&R 2/10). As communications attorney Irv Gastfreund notes: A licensee is ultimately responsible for everything that goes out over its signal. While that doesn't mean the station has to guarantee the truth of every claim made on-air, management must make an effort to screen out questionable material. If you are currently airing a money-talk show, resolve to do the following:

- Set guidelines establishing the station's commitment to providing solid information, reiterating management's commitment to avoiding all conflicts of interest, and obeying all relevant laws and regulations.

- Do full background checks on anyone who wants to host a money show.

- Require all financial talkers to provide station management with full financial disclosure statements.

- Air disclaimers urging listeners not to make investments until they have sought the advice of a financial expert who is familiar with their situation.

Top Songs Reflect Format's Music Mix

Despite Alternative's influence, 1995's biggest hits come from all genres

While a radio station's ultimate survival depends on Arbitron ratings, record labels are simply judged on the number of records they sell. Airplay and exposure on radio, broadcast TV, video channels, and now the web, typically help drive sales and make or break each project. The 1995 label report cards for Pop and Rhythmic airplay are listed below.

Many times a label's goals differ from those of a radio station. Many programmers wisely use sales figures as part of their decision-making process. Those who can afford the tools add input from callout, requests, charts, networking, and good old-fashioned guts. Radio is simply looking for the hits, but it's not as simple as it sounds. It astounds me every year to see how few songs reach the Top 10, let alone Top 5 or Number 1. In 1995 there were 10 number ones on the Pop chart and 12 Rhythmic number ones. With continuing format fragmentation, songs are taking longer to reach the chart and staying on it longer than in the past. The Top 10 songs of '95 spent a combined 299 weeks on the Pop chart and 318 on the Rhythmic chart.

Here's another item of note. When Union Of Souls), Rock (Collective Soul, Van Halen), and everything in between.

Who Ruled The 1995 Charts?

As they say, the hits are the hits, and Atlantic ruled the roost in 1995. Pop shares, garnered over 722,000 total plays and an 11.29% share on numerous hits from bands like Hootie & The Blowfish, All-4-One, and Jamie Walters. Arista dominated the Rhythmic chart with a 15.74% share and almost 300,000 plays. Helping put Arista on top were three number ones from TLC and a chart-topper from Monica.

The following charts include songs that reached the Top 10 during 1995. Labels are listed in order of respective chart share and ranked by total plays. Songs are listed in descending order by 1995 year-end chart position.

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

you look at the year-end Callout America charts, also check out the variety on the Pop chart. While many of America's CHRs jumped on the Alternative bandwagon, the top songs of the year reflect mixes of R&B (TLC, Boyz II Men), Dance (Real McCoy, Nicki French) Pop (Martin Page, Blessid

RHYTHMIC CHART SHARE

Four number one hits — including three by TLC — and 11 songs in the Top 10 totaling 213 weeks on the chart helped Arista hold down the number one chart-share position. The number one hit by Soul For Real and six songs in the Top 10 totaling 131 weeks on the chart put MCA in second place. Rounding out the Top 3 rhythmic labels was Atlantic, scoring three Top 10s from Brandy and one from All-4-One compiling 88 weeks on the chart.

CHR/POP CHART SHARE

Atlantic shows the power that one megaselling album with major airplay can have on a chart share. With two number one songs, a number two, plus another still on the chart, Hootie & The Blowfish helped Atlantic be the one in 1995. It was a similar situation for Arista driven by TLC and Real McCoy, followed closely by A&M with Blues Traveler, Sheryl Crow, Bryan Adams, Janet Jackson, and Gin Blossoms leading the charge.

Callout America. HotScores

By Tony Novia

The year-end CalloUT AMERICA charts on the following pages consist of eight different breakouts: A national ranker amongst women 12-34, plus demographic breakouts of women 12-17, 18-24, and 25-34, as well as regional breakouts from the East, South, Midwest, and West.

CalloUT AMERICA is the only weekly industry chart based solely on the opinions of more than 400 females aged 12-34 who are screened and identified as CHR/Pop listeners. By comparison, CalloUT AMERICA uses twice the weekly sample size of MTV and VH1's national weekly callout.

To qualify for CalloUT AMERICA each week, a song must be in the Top 30 on the R&R CHR/Pop chart. All research calls are made in the Top 41 Arbitron-rated markets containing an R&R CHR/Pop reporting station, and results are then balanced by region and demo.

Every qualifying respondent is asked to rate each song on a 1-5 scale — 1 indicating a strong dislike, 5 meaning they like the song a lot. A song must be familiar to a respondent before they can rate it.

All songs are ranked in descending order by their overall favorability score and rounded off to the nearest hundredth decimal point. For these year-end results, scores includes results from every week that a title was tested. The familiarity score shown is the title's peak familiarity during the period it was eligible for CalloUT AMERICA testing.

To qualify for the year-end survey, a song must have been tested for a minimum of four weeks and achieved a minimum 50% familiarity. Clip and save this CalloUT America chart to help you program currents and recurrents in 1996.

Callout America Wake-Up Call!

It only takes one glance at the year-end CalloUT AMERICA charts to see 1995's national hits and misses by demo and region.

It should come as no surprise that the best-testing songs of the year received the most airplay. And as we've been telling our label friends all year, the best-testing songs equal sales. Look at the correlation between the national best-testing songs of 1995 and the year's best-selling albums. Here it is in black and white: Hootie & The Blowfish, TLC, Boyz II Men, Live, Green Day, Coolio, Alanis Morissette, and Pearl Jam ruled at the top of CalloUT AMERICA and in retail sales.

While much of our business is built on hype and apprehension, you can't discredit the facts. The hits are the hits. Our weekly CalloUT AMERICA charts point out the songs that listeners like/dislike and does it with incredible consistency. While callout cannot choose new music for you, it's certainly a crucial roadmap once your audience is familiar enough with a song to give their opinion on it. One thing is for sure: If you're not playing the hits, you will ultimately fail.

The opportunity has arrived for label promotion staffs, artist managers, indies, and tip sheets to understand how to read and use callout like most programmers do. How much more of a wake-up call do you need? The CHR format is ranked 10th in America; it was third in 1989. CHR has lost nearly 650 stations over the last seven years. About 300 viable CHR stations are left, give or take a few. We can continue to turn our heads, make excuses, and pretend it's going to turn around, or we can act now.

The good news is R&R has chosen to act. Callout is not the end-all be-all. But it's a great start and a chance to help begin turning things around. While many respected programmers at major-market stations use callout, the majority of their station peers can't afford the expense. That's where CalloUT AMERICA comes in, making regional/national information available weekly to everyone. Like it or not, callout will continue to drive the CHR/Pop chart and many other charts in 1996. Thank you for making CalloUT AMERICA the most important weekly chart in our industry.

Breakers: Songs registering 2000 plays or more for the first time. Bullets awarded to songs gaining plays over the previous week. If two songs are tied in number of plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Most increased Plays lists the songs with the greatest week-to-week increases in total plays. Weighted chart appears on R&R ONLINE.

NUTHIN' BUT A JAM'N THING — Brandy, Coolio, Montell Jordan, Brian McKnight, Salt-N-Pepa, Shai, Silk, Soul For Real, and Xscape, joined to make WJMN/Boston's "Jam'N 94.5 Super Jam" a success. Enjoying a backstage moment are (l-r) Salt-N-Pepa's Cheryl "Salt" James, WJMN morning man Baltazar, and the group's Sandy "Pepa" Denton and Spinderella.

LET'S PARTY WITH WOOKIEE — Island artists (back l-r) Erick Sermon and Redman were more than happy to party with WOCQ/Ocean City PD Wookiee when they came to town. Also having fun is intern Kevin Lipson (l).

New Names Top The Year-End Chart

1995 will be remembered as a great year for new artists: Nine of the year's Top 10 songs were either the artists' first single or a song from their first album.

Los Angeles native Montell Jordan nabbed the top song of the year with "This Is How We Do It." "This" stayed on the chart 21 weeks.

"Don't Take It Personal (Just One Of Dem Days)" by Monica came in second, followed by "Ask Of You," the debut solo release by Tony Toni Tone's lead singer Raphael Saadiq. Mo-KenStef finished fifth with "He's Mine."

Rounding out the Top 10 were "Candy Rain" by Soul For Real,

"Best Friend" and "Baby" by teen star Brandy, "Freak Like Me" by Adina Howard, and "Grapevynne" by Brownstone.

Tina Moore, Jesse, K-Ci Hailey of Jodeci fame, Miss Jones, Monteco, and A Few Good Men.

The only established act who landed in the year-end Top 10 was TLC. Four songs from the group's "CrazySexyCool" album found their way into the Top 95: "Waterfalls" finished at No. 4, along with "Red Light Special" (No. 13), "Creep" (No. 21), and "Diggin' On You" (No. 69).

Brandy also placed four songs on the year-end chart. In addition to "Baby" and "Best Friend" in the Top 10, the star of the forthcoming UPN TV series "Moesha," came in at No. 22 with "Brokenhearted," a duet with Boyz II Men's Wanya Morris; last year's late hit, "I Wanna Be Down," came in at No. 59.

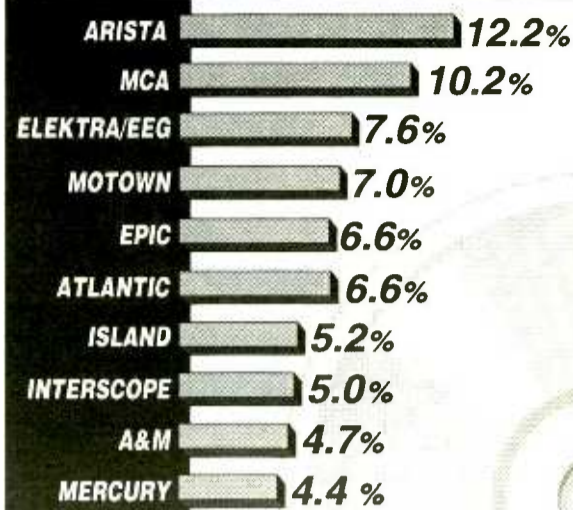

And what would a year-end chart be without several appearances by writer/producer/performer extraordinaire Kenneth "Babyface" Edmonds? Babyface wrote and produced Boyz II Men's No. 1 hit, "Water Runs Dry," Jon B's "Someone To Love" (on which he shares lead vocal credits), and "Pretty Girl," TLC's "Red Light Special" and "Diggin' On You," and "Exhale (Shoop Shoop)," the latest chart-topper from Whitney Houston. Not to mention the fact that LaFace, the label Babyface co-founded with L.A. Reid, placed six songs on the Top 95.

Two songs from Michael Jackson's "HIStory" collection made Top 95 showings: "You Are Not Alone" came in at No. 20, while "Scream," a duet with sister Janet, placed 52nd.

Barry's Comeback

Boyz II Men had the most charted singles in 1995 with six — five on their own and one with Mariah Carey. Immature racked up five

URBAN CHART SHARE

Congratulations to the staff of Arista, which copped honors as Urban's top label with 12.2% of total plays. MCA, which finished second in total plays, led the pack with 29 charted songs, followed by Arista (23 songs), Motown and Elektra/EEG (tied at 21), Island (16), A&M (15), Atlantic (14), Mercury and Columbia (tied at 13), and Interscope (12).

hits — four on their own and one with Monteco. Brandy, TLC, Gerald Levert, and Mary J. Blige each had four.

Veteran performer Barry White made a strong comeback in 1995 with three charted songs, including the two Top 10 hits "Practice

What You Preach" and "Come On."

The growth of gospel and inspirational music also should be noted. Hits by BeBe & CeCe Winans, Kirk Franklin, William Becton, the Island Inspirational All-Stars, and Anointed charted in 1995.

Accomplishments Start With AC

1995's conclusion marks the beginning of Hot AC's year-end chart

As 1995 ends, a new R&R tradition begins: Hot AC boasts its very own year-end chart! This special wrap-up column assesses chart performances both from AC's Mainstream and Hot factions.

One subtle difference between the two charts was that Hot AC-charted songs were more likely to remain in print over extended periods. Twenty-two Hot AC songs logged at least 20 chart weeks, compared to 16 on AC. Martin Page ("In The House Of Stone And Light"), Dionne Farris ("I Know"), and Hootie & the Blowfish ("Hold My Hand") kept their songs on Hot AC's Top 30 chart for 30+ weeks. AC's high — shared by five songs — was 27.

Etched In 'Stone'

It's fitting that the top song on R&R's debut Hot AC year-end chart is by a debut artist: Martin Page. Actually launched in 1994, "In The House Of Stone And Light" s Hot AC chart history jumped into the Top 10 after five weeks; it remained there for an astounding 28 consecutive weeks. Ironically, it was No. 1 for just one week, but held the No. 2 and No. 4 spots for seven weeks apiece.

In contrast, AC's leading song — the Eagles' "Love Will Keep Us Alive" — enjoyed 20 Top 10 weeks, including eight at No. 1.

Seal followed up "Prayer For The Dying" in dramatic fashion by keeping his second format release, "Kiss From A Rose" (from the "Batman Forever" ST), at No. 1 for 11 weeks.

Time For 'Sleep'

Sophie B. Hawkins's 1995 accomplishments deserve an award for perseverance. When her "As I Lay Me Down" first appeared in AC's

New & Active (2/17/95), we couldn't have expected its wild ride.

It remained in New & Active for an unheard-of 17 consecutive weeks before finally debuting at No. 30 (6/16). The next three weeks were anything but historical — a second week at No. 30 and two straight weeks back in New & Active. When the song returned to the chart (7/14), it didn't falter and eventually peaked at No. 2 (for five non-consecutive weeks). Her Hot AC run was much smoother and included a six-week No. 1 run.

Multiple Hits

There was plenty of artist variety this year, with a only a handful of artists claiming multiple Top 30 hits. Based on songs debuting 1/6-12/1, AC's triple-threat winners are Hootie & The Blowfish, Elton John, and Linda Ronstadt. Those with a pair each include Blessid Union Of Souls, Michael Bolton, Jim Brickman, Mariah Carey, Gloria Estefan, Bruce Hornsby, Joshua Kadison, Annie Lennox, Martin Page, Selena, Rod Stewart, Curtis Stigers, and John Waite.

Anita Baker charted a solo release and a duet with James Ingram; Jon Secada appeared in the Top 30 once on his own and a second time with Shanice.

An astounding four Hootie tracks and three Elton John tunes landed on Hot AC's Top 30. The following had two: Jann Arden, Blessid Union Of Souls, Michael Bolton, Mariah Carey, Sheryl Crow, Gloria Estefan, Gin Blossoms, Dave Matthews Band, Seal, Rod Stewart, and Luther Vandross.

Bonnie Raitt landed in the Top 30 as a solo artist and via her Bryan Adams duet.

Escalating Debuts

AC's typical 1995 debut position was 27.6, compared to 28.4 in '94 and 28.8 in '93. More songs hit the AC chart this year (103) than in the last two: 92 in '94 and 98 in '93. AC's best chart weeks were 8/11 and 11/10: Four songs found their way on the chart and, in each case, the songs appeared in the final four slots.

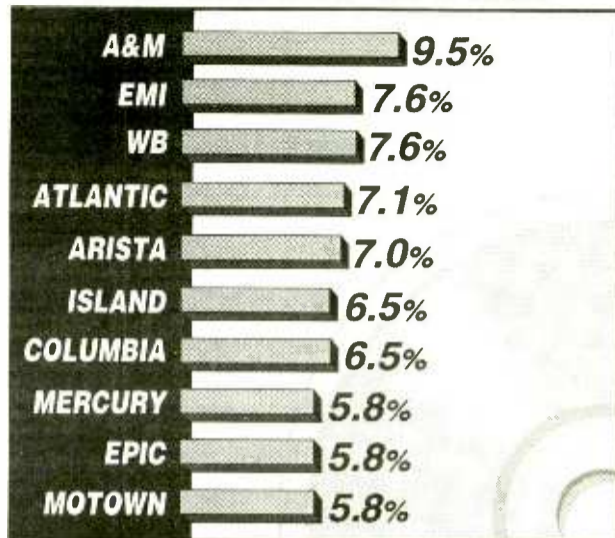

Of the 98 songs reaching Hot AC's chart, the average debut spot was nearly identical of its AC counterpart: 27.4. Hot AC's most dynamic week for new music was 10/27, when five songs debuted.

Comeback Kids

Those wondering how a new Beatles release would perform were granted their wish on 11/24, when "Free As A Bird" debuted on AC (No. 23) and Hot AC (No. 29). "It was 20 years ago today" (okay, it was 19 — 12/3/76) when "Ob-La-Di, Ob-La-Da" (No. 33) edged out Kenny Nolan's "I Like Dreaming" on R&R's Pop/Adult (now AC) chart.

Fourteen years have passed since the Eagles' last AC hit, "Seven Bridges Road" (2/13/81). Other established acts returned this year, with their last AC chart year in parentheses: John Waite (1984); Christopher Cross (1986); Foreigner, Manhattan Transfer, Stevie Wonder (1988); Debbie Gibson (1989); After 7

AC CHART SHARE

Engineering No. 1 AC and Hot AC victories, A&M is this page's clear-cut winner. Moving from No. 3 last year, the label was helped by Bryan Adams's seven-week No. 1 run. Eighteen of "Have You Ever Really Loved A Woman?"'s 27 chart weeks were in the Top 10.

Columbia entered '95 with six of the last seven AC titles, including last year's honors. While slipping to No. 6, the label ends the calendar year with Mariah Carey No. 1 on AC & Hot AC's charts.

Tied at No. 2, EMI (No. 9 in '94) and WB (No. 7 in '94) make the most dramatic increases. New to this year's Top 10: Atlantic, Island, Epic, and Motown.

Among those welcomed to the chart for the first time: Blessid Union Of Souls, Blues Traveler, the Corrs, Del Amitri, Des'ree, Michael English, Dionne Farris, Firehouse, 4PM, Gin Blossoms, Sophie B. Hawkins, Jordan Hill, Hootie & The Blowfish, Natalie Merchant, Midsouth, Martin Page, Selena, and Take That.

Format Charters Carry Great Weight In '95

No. 1 R&R AC and Hot AC songs have never carried greater weight. In previous years, some songs could "steal" a week in the top spot only to quickly fade the following week. This year (1/6-12/1), only 17 titles attained No. 1 status on our two charts. AC posted 11 No. 1s, Hot AC 10, and four titles were duplicated on both charts.

Vanessa Williams ("The Sweetest Days" and "Colors Of The Wind") and Elton John ("Believe" and "Blessed") were the only artists to occupy AC's top spot with two different songs. Such a feat didn't occur in Hot AC.

Staying Power

Once a song reached the top this year, it relished the experience. In the year's first 26 weeks, for example, a grand total of four songs reached first place on the AC chart; three titles occupied Hot AC's penthouse for the chart year's final 24 weeks.

Chronologically, these are 1995's cream of the crop. "Exclusive" means a song reached No. 1 on one of the two charts. Total weeks at No. 1 is followed by the peak position on the other chart.

There were simultaneous AC and Hot AC No. 1s in 27% of the 48-week chart year: Eagles (2/10); Elton John (4/21-5/12); Bryan Adams (6/2-6/16); and Seal (9/15-10/13).

HOT AC CHART SHARE

Twenty percent of the year's Top 30 tracks were on A&M, allowing it to become Hot AC's first Label of the Year. WB's combined 19 weeks at No. 1 from Seal (11) and Madonna (8) were the most of any label. Island's 10 from Melissa Etheridge (4) and Elton John (6) were good enough for runner-up honors. A debut Atlantic act turned in one of the year's most significant accomplishments: Hootie & The Blowfish had three of the year's Top 20 songs (No. 6, No. 16, and No. 17)

Breaker History

Achievement criteria for Breaker was elevated to boost its true value. AC's five-year Breaker history is:

1991	1992	1993	1994	1995
86	103	95	88	61

In addition to the dramatic dropoff, check out AC's average Breaker chart position.

1992	1993	1994	1995
21.2	22.1	21.8	15.5

Hot AC's 56 Breakers usually fell at 16.7 on the chart.

New Artists Thrive & Drive '95

■ Sixteen upstarts arrive at Top 15; only 1991 was friendlier to freshmen

So much for the myth that radio has closed the window on new artists.

Only once since 1974 have more new artists had a Top 15 hit for the first time than in 1995. Even more amazing, four of this year's Top 5 records — and five of the Top 10 — are from artists who achieved their very first Top 15 record in 1995. Sixteen acts hit the Top 15 for the first time in '95 (the 22-year high was 19 in 1991). Five of those notched a pair of Top 15s and two placed three tunes in the Top 15. Those numbers might have been even higher if more than six of the 16 had a Top 15 hit before July 1. Only Kenny Chesney, George Ducas, Wade Hayes, Ty Herndon, Alison Krauss, and Shania Twain turned the trick in the first six months of this year.

Top Top 15s

A total of 257 records charted in 1995 — down from last year's 262. Of those, 132 peaked at or above No. 15. Those 132 hits were divided among 60 different artists, including three duets recorded by otherwise solo artists.

The breakdown for recent years shows:

- '94: 54 acts, 136 Top 15s, 262 charted records
- '93: 61 acts, 146 Top 15s, 244 charted records
- '92: 55 acts, 138 Top 15s, 260 charted records
- '91: 66 acts, 135 Top 15s, 264 charted records
- '90: 68 acts, 146 Top 15s, 257 charted records
- '89: 62 acts, 139 Top 15s, 257 charted records
- '88: 70 acts, 142 Top 15s, 258 charted records

• '87: 68 acts, 139 Top 15s, 256 charted records.

The 16 artists who achieved Top

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

15 status for the first time in '95 accounted for 25 of the 132 Top 15 hits and for 23 of the Top 95 of '95.

The acts/Top 15 hits comparisons for the last few years are:

• '94:	10/21

• '90:	9/15

How Past Classes Fared In '95

Of the 10 artists hitting the mark for first time in '94 — David Ball, John Berry, Blackhawk, Mavericks, Neal McCoy, Tim McGraw, Ken Mellons, Tractors, Rick Trevino, and Lari White — seven turned the trick in '94: Ball, Berry, Blackhawk, Mavericks, McCoy, McGraw, and White.

A bit of a toll has been taken on the Class of '93. Of the 13 artists with a Top 15 for the first time that year — Boy Howdy, Brother Phelps, Tracy Byrd, Gibson Miller Band, Faith Hill, Toby Keith, Chris LeDoux, Martina McBride, John Michael Montgomery, Robert Ellis Orrall, Larry Stewart, Doug Supernaw, and Clay Walker — only Byrd, Hill, Keith, McBride, Montgomery, and Walker managed the feat this year.

Looking back a bit further, of the seven acts earning Top 15 status for the first time in '92 — Confederate Railroad, Billy Ray Cyrus, Radney Foster, Tracy Lawrence, Lee Roy Parnell, Michelle Wright, and Wynona — only Lawrence and Parnell were counted among those ranks this year.

Attrition only slightly grazed the Class Of '91, which had an all-time high 19 acts — Brooks & Dunn, Mark Collie, Rob Crosby, Davis Daniel, Billy Dean, Diamond Rio, Sammy Kershaw, Hal Ketchum, Little Texas, Ray Kennedy, Shelby Lynne, McBride & the Ride, Pirates Of The Mississippi, Collin Raye, Mike Reid, Remingtons, Pam Tillis, Aaron Tippin, and Trisha Yearwood — reach the Top 15 for the first time. ### COUNTRY CHART SHARE

MCA reigned as the top Country label for an unprecedented fifth consecutive year. The label placed nine different records on top for 11 weeks in '95. Arista took second-place honors for the fourth straight year, with seven chart-toppers. RCA arrived third with six No. 1s.

MCA also led the way in Top 5 songs with 15. Arista was second here, too, with a total of 11 Top 5s while Epic was third with 10 Top 5s.

the 19 did it again. This year, the number is down to nine — B&D, Diamond Rio, Kershaw, Ketchum, Little Texas, Raye, Tillis, Tippin, and Yearwood.

Ten acts posted Top 15s in 1990, with four managing the feat in '95: Mark Chesnutt, Joe Diffie, Alan Jackson, and Doug Stone. Missing from that class are Jann Browne, Carlene Carter, Kentucky Headhunters, Robin Lee, Mac McAnally, and Marty Stuart.

Continuing to make hits was the stellar Class Of '89. Of the seven artists who initially hit the Top 15 that year — Clint Black, Suzy Bogguss, Garth Brooks, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Lionel Cartwright, Lorrie Morgan, and Travis Tritt — only Bogguss, who took the year off to have a baby, and Cartwright didn't hit the Top 15 this year.

On a more somber note, a real reflection of these fast-turnover times is that of the eight first-time Top 15 achievers of '88 — Larry Boone, Rodney Crowell, Skip Ewing, Patty Loveless, the McCarts, Billy Joe Royal, Shenandoah, and Jo-El Sonnier — only

Loveless and Shenandoah turned the trick this year.

Number Ones

A total of 29 artists accounted for 45 No. 1 songs in 1995, similar to last year when 29 acts put 48 records on top.

Leading this year's chart-topping parade was George Strait with two No. 1s, one of which — "Check Yes Or No" — spent three weeks at the top. Tim McGraw laid claim to No. 1 for two weeks with "I Like It, I Love It."

Eleven artists scored multiple chart-toppers. Posting three records at No. 1 were Alabama, Clint Black, Alan Jackson, Tracy Lawrence, and Reba McEntire. Claiming two No. 1s were Brooks & Dunn, Wade Hayes, Patty Loveless, Tim McGraw, George Strait, and Clay Walker.

Of the 16 acts scoring Top 15s for the first time, five notched No. 1s. Jeff Carson, Ty Herndon, David Lee Murphy, and Shania Twain each had one No. 1, while Wade Hayes had a pair.

In 1994, five of the 10 acts post-

Country Remains Hot Stuff In '95

■ Garth, Reba, Shania help format mine more gold and platinum than last year

Country's gold and platinum standard held steady in '95, as 100 albums gained RIAA certification for reaching sales landmarks. The three-digit breakthrough was a slight increase over the 98 albums certified in 1994.

To no one's surprise, Garth Brooks rolled over the numbers on his tally of customers served, with "No Fences" moving two million additional copies for total sales of 13 million. Five additional Brooks albums moved forward for multi-platinum awards.

It was also a big year for Reba McEntire, who saw her latest album — "Starting Over" — achieve one million in sales while her catalog of older releases (dating back a decade to "Have I Got A Deal For You") reached gold and platinum. Tanya Tucker's "Greatest Hits, 1990-1992" (Liberty) hit platinum, but she struck gold with five other albums. Among those was a pair of Columbia discs released more than two decades ago — "What's Your Mama's Name?" and "Would You Lay With Me?"

Shania Twain, the year's hottest newcomer, hit triple-platinum with her second Mercury release, "The Woman In Me." Mercury also saw a 1989 release, the Kentucky Headhunters' "Pickin' On Nashville," reach double-platinum.

It took only two months for George Strait's "Strait Out Of The Box" to sell a million copies. That wouldn't be an unusual accomplishment, except that this was a four-CD/cassette compilation.

Country fans will shell out big bucks for a boxed set, if it's the right package by the right artist.

Alison Krauss — who swept October's CMA Awards — had her first million-selling album, "Now That I've Found You: A Collection." It was issued on the independent Rounder Records.

Nashville And Elsewhere

Country extended its sphere of influence even more in '95, beginning in January with Lorrie Morgan joining Tom Jones and Queen Latifah as hosts of the nationally televised American Music Awards in January.

Here's a brief recap of what happened in Country during the past 12 months:

Emmylou Harris and her acoustic band, the Nash Ramblers, performed their farewell concert in February at the Ryman Auditorium. Diamond Rio formed Diamond Rio Racing and bought a piece of the Winston Cup Racing Team of Wilson-Inman Motorsports.

Faith Hill cancelled three months of concert appearances to recuperate from laser surgery on her throat. She bounced back with her second album, "It Matters To Me," and its first hit, "Let's Go To Vegas."

Multi-instrumentalist Jeff Huskins became an official member of Little Texas, replacing Brady Seals, who left to pursue a solo career. Brooks & Dunn became the very first country act to ing Top 15s for the first time — John Berry, Blackhawk, Neal McCoy, Tim McGraw, and Rick Trevino — had No. 1s, with McCoy hitting the home run twice.

In '93, three of 13 had No. 1s; in '92 it was three of seven; in '91 seven of 20; in '90 two of ten; '89 two of nine; and '88 one of eight.

A Toast To Country, You, & '95

Finally, at this reflective time of year, we should all take a minute to look back not just on 1995, but on the last few years. Most of us are so busy with our day-to-day jobs we don't really appreciate the truly incredible heights Country has attained.

Thanks, too, to everybody who took the time to contribute to this column in the past year.

And, from all of us at R&R/Nashville — Shawna Hayhurst, Jennifer Scruggs, Calvin Gilbert and me — have a wonderful holiday and a very Happy New Year!

have its picture on a Visa credit card. Singer/songwriters Kieran Kane and Kevin Welch formed the independent Dead Reckoning Records with drummer/producer Harry Stinson and songwriter/musician Tammy Rogers. Ricky Skaggs signed with Atlantic Records, releasing the album "Solid Ground."

Liberty released "Come Together: America Celebrates The Beatles," an album of Fab Four songs performed by Tanya Tucker, Willie Nelson, Little Texas, Sammy Kershaw, Billy Dean, and others. Neil Diamond participated in a hula-hoop contest on Music Row as part of a Columbia promotion for Wade Hayes' "Don't Stop." Two Elmwood, OH women were charged with murder after they allegedly killed their elderly landlady in a bizarre scheme to meet Reba McEntire.

Hootie & the Blowfish joined Willie Nelson and Neil Young, and John Mellencamp in Louisville for the 10th annual Farm Aid concert. The "last annual" Harlan Howard Birthday Bash in Nashville included performances by Chet Atkins, Steve Earle, Donna Summer, and Blackhawk.

4Runner named singer-songwriter Billy Simon the replacement for baritone singer Billy Crittenden, who quit the group after the success of "Cain's Blood." Alan Jackson's November concert at the tiny Ernest Tubb Record Shop in Nashville aired live on local WSM-AM and was taped for a Westwood One radio special.

'NAC Is Still All About The Music'

□ Despite tighter playlists, format's music provided depth and quality in 1995

In a column centering on the role of currents in the format (R&R 1/20), WQCD (CD101.9)/New York APD/MD Steve Williams noted, "Although we've become much more mass appeal in recent years, NAC is still all about the music." A review of the year-end charts solidly confirms his view.

Strong Vital Signs

In spite of — or perhaps because of — a trend toward tighter playlists, the caliber of music presented to NAC listeners in 1995 was high. With fewer available slots for new music, programmers were forced to cull the very best of the best. The result was an impressive array of the format's signature evocative, smooth, and sensuous tunes. NAC's superstars maintained the expected richness of their musical contributions. Some of last year's debut artists hugely successful follow-up releases. Others — like Rohn Lawrence and Bob Mamet — broke through from other formats and established themselves in NAC. Radio continued to embrace new talent and innovation, which is surely one barometer of any format's health.

With very few exceptions (Enya's year-end release is one), New Age music virtually fell away from NAC in 1995. The number of suitable titles and the airplay they received, was so minimal that WNUA/Chicago reportedly folded what remained of their New Age category into jazz. In its stead, AC crossovers and soft UAC vocals became a more potent force at the majority of NAC stations, especially those under the Broadcast Architecture aegis.

And while the ratio of instrumentals to vocals generally held at about 70/30, there appeared a slight trend toward increasing the number of vocals in the mix. And this is a concern to some who fear AC may become the operative letters in the format's moniker.

Format Stalwarts

Format superstars demonstrated their endurance in 1995. Paul Hardcastle's Jazzmasters (whose "Walkin' To Freedom" is the top track of the year), Pat Metheny, and Spyro Gyra all went to No. 1, while David Sanborn, Nelson Rangell, Incognito, Keiko Matsui, Larry Coryell, George Duke, Stanley Clarke, Randy Crawford, and Special EFX all placed with Top 5 tracks.

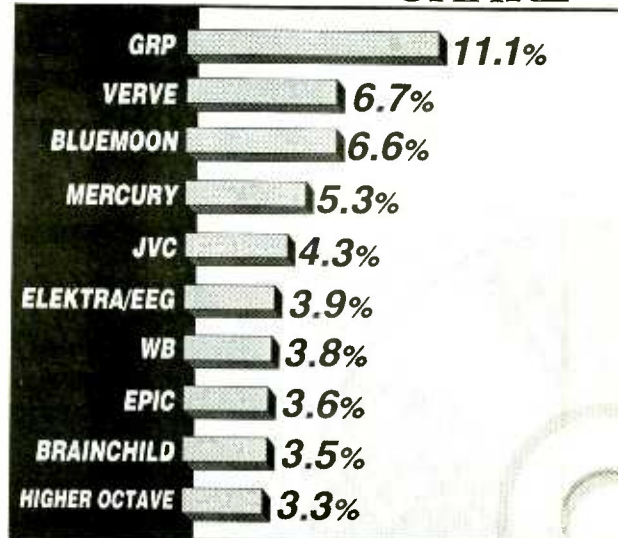

Richard Elliott, Billy Joe Walker Jr., Jeff Lorber, Anita Baker, Tom Scott, Peter White, Joe Sample, Fourplay, Vanessa Williams, Lee [Ritenour] & Larry [Carlton], Rick Braun, Herbie Hancock, John Tesh, Boney James, Bobby Caldwell, Third Force, Simply Red, Dave Koz, Alex Bugnon, George Benson, and Oleta Adams all made impressive showings on this year's NAC playlists.

New Faces

Any discussion of a format's health must explore the degree to which it embraces new artists. By that criterion, NAC was in peak form during the past year, upholding its commitment to new artists by breaking, among others, Andy Snitzer, Count Basic (both of whom had tracks at No. 1), Craig Chaquico, Doc Powell, Celi Minucci, Jim Brickman, Greg Adams, Jeff Golub & Avenue Blue, Hillary & Bob James, Evan Marks, Rohn Lawrence, Bob Mamet (whose track "Greenstreet" held No. 1 for seven weeks at year's end), Brian Culbertson, Isaac Hayes, Chris Botti, Marc Antoine, Journey's Neal Schon and Jonathan Cain, Des'ree, Slim Man, Heavy Shift, Jon B., Joe Taylor, Phillippe Saisse, and Paul Taylor. Even a casual glance at the artistic contributions of artists new to the format in 1995 is extremely impressive; they set a standard of excellence that one can only hope will be equaled in the coming year.

At the beginning of the year, All That Jazz President Cliff Gorov foresaw the rise in popularity of groove-supported muted trumpet (R&R 1/6) and NAC programmers proved him prescient. Rick Braun's "Beat Street" (Mesa/Bluemoon) went to No. 1 and

NAC CHART SHARE

GRP RULES — With more than 11% of chart share (eight tracks and 10 albums in the NAC Top 95 charts), GRP took the label performance crown, up from second place last year. Verve Group, which didn't even place in last year's Top 10 labels, surged to second with nearly 7%. Mesa/Bluemoon was a close third, up from ninth. Mercury careened from invisible to fourth. JVC placed fifth: their Jazzmasters "Walkin' To Freedom" was the No. 1 track of '95.

Elektra/EEG moved up to sixth from 10th place a year ago. Warner Bros., which was last year's top label, dipped to seventh. Epic dropped from fourth to eighth. Brainchild remained in the Top 10 at ninth; Higher Octave moved in at 10th.

stayed there for nine weeks, a feat never achieved before in the NAC Album Chart's eight-year history, and it topped our Year-End Albums Chart. And new artist Chris Botti's debut release, "First Wish" (Verve Forecast), also went to No. 1, establishing him as one of the format's most significant and vibrant new voices.

Promark President Marla Roseman predicted that hybrid sounds would influence NAC (R&R 1/6): Hip-hop fused with NAC during 1995 at the intersection of Antoine and Basic. Although that sounds like a French Quarter destination, two of the year's coolest new artists — Marc Antoine and Count Basic — merged international ambiance with street rhythms to drive the format in a fresh direction. Basic's smash "M.L. In The Sunshine" placed second on the Top 95 and remained at the top of the Tracks Chart for 11 weeks.

Tracks Vs. Albums Controversy

When R&R debuted a Top 30 NAC Tracks chart one year ago, a lively debate began — one which continues to this day — regarding whether it is the nature of NAC to be tracks- or album-driven. Proponents of BA's Smooth Jazz approach maintain that a tracks mentality has propelled their stations to unprecedented success. But about half of the NAC reporting panel are "non-aligned" stations that routinely play several tracks deep on many CD titles.

Stations such as KKSf/San Francisco and KIFM/San Diego are dominant ratings forces in their markets while retaining their identities as album-oriented stations. Even a casual comparison of the year-end tracks and albums charts reflect these differences in programming orientation: When programmers mine several cuts from an album and diffuse the impact of a single track, the album can be huge —

NAC NOTES By Carol Archer

This week, we'll let the last charts of 1995 speak for themselves. Instead, we cast an eye to the coming year in the form of SW Networks Smooth FM PD Mike Fischer's observations on what lies ahead for 1996.

"First, it's going to be an incredible year for sign-ons. The format will continue to flourish in a big way, both satellite and local," begins Fischer. "But we're approaching the crest of the wave in terms of sign-ons.

"This will be a defining year for NAC in terms of the format's stability. There's been a tremendous growth spurt in '95 and we'll see the same in the next year. But then we'll see a leveling off — and that means that we'll really have to prove our endurance. With nearly 40 sign-ons in '95, the proof will be in the pudding. What are these stations really going to accomplish? In order for the format to reach the next level of flourishing, owners are going to want to see it perform.

"I thought [Granum Pres./CEO] Herb McCord's comment regarding the flip of their Boston Soft AC [WSSH] to NAC WOAZ was very telling. His confidence in NAC is such that he was willing to give up several million dollars cash flow to invest in longterm success.

"Musically, if GRP's proposed releases for the first two quarters are any indication of what's to come, we are in for an exciting year. It's only going to get better!"

Rock Rolls Past Fads And Fashion

The new "Spin Alternative Record Guide" — one of my early holiday gifts — begins by posing the question everyone in the industry has asked this past year: "What is alternative rock?"

In approaching the question, the Spin editors describe alternative's rise to mainstream status. Here's their partial explanation:

Jane's Addiction and the Lollapalooza tours, MTV airplay, R.E.M., the half-myth of Generation X, and many other factors had to do with alternative's breakthrough, but ultimately it was the Seattle grunge of Nirvana, Pearl Jam, Soundgarden, Screaming Trees, and Alice In Chains — Joe Sixpack wailings you didn't need a college radio pedigree to understand — that convinced the major labels to again promote loud rock music played by young people not wearing spandex.

"Loud rock music" ruled in 1995, with Rock and Alternative sharing more music than ever before.

Generally, Rock wouldn't play Natalie Merchant or PJ Harvey, and Alternative wouldn't play Tom Petty or Van Halen. Other differences included such factors as percentage of library music, presentation and delivery, male/female audience ratios, and strong guitar-oriented music.

It was a year of few absolutes, but it was also a year of change and transition for many Rock stations. New styles of previously "unacceptable" music found a home — or at least a temporary shelter — at Rock. Audiences were more flexible in what they'd accept from a Rock station, even to the surprise of programmers themselves.

Rather than attempt to describe what each format was playing, it's easier to describe what they wouldn't play.

ROCK CHART SHARE

The Top 10 labels generated nearly 80% of Rock in 1995. The Top 3 — Warner Bros., Atlantic, and Reprise — accounted for 37% of the format's music. The next six — Columbia, Geffen, Epic, A&M, MCA, and Virgin — produced 37.5% of the music. Interscope's showing underscores that the independent label is now inarguably a major contender.

All of the factors beg the bigger question, "What is rock music?"

Part of the answer can be found in the "Top 95 Of '95" (next page) which lists the consensus tracks among Rock programmers. See the box below for the total number of plays per song in the Top 10. Due to the mid-year split in Rock, the statistics are best presented in one year-end Rock chart. However, we will have individual year-end charts for Rock and Active Rock in 1996.

Warner Leads The Rock Pack

The No. 1 Rock Label Of The Year award — based on chart performance — goes to Warner Bros., whose total number of plays tallied a whopping 560,202, accounting for 14.5% of the format's music. The Bunny Hutch's rank is owed to such artists as Tom Petty, Van Halen, Goo Goo Dolls, R.E.M., and Red Hot Chili Peppers.

The format's artist-based loyalty certainly played a factor in overall success. Multiple tracks from Tom Petty, Van Halen, R.E.M., Candlebox, Goo Goo Dolls, and Red Hot Chili Peppers were pivotal for VP/Promotion Kenny Puvogel's team. Other Warner Bros. artists contributing to the label's chart success were Flaming Lips, Shaw-Blades, Jennifer Trynin, Rod Stewart, and Ruth Ruth.

Immediately behind was Atlantic with 556,467 total plays, registering at 14.4% of Rock's 1995 artists. Artist loyalty helped VP/Promotion Danny Buch's gang with multiple track airplay on Collective Soul, Hootie & The Blowfish, and Stone Temple Pilots. Other contributing artists were Bad Religion, Billy Pilgrim, Cracker (Encore disc), Offspring ("Batman Forever" ST), Page & Plant, Pantera, Skid Row, Smile, Sugar Ray, Ted Nugent, U2 ("Batman Forever" ST), Seven Mary Three, CIV, and Edwin McCain.

Ranking in the No.3 position was Reprise with an artist-combined total play level of 314,702 for the year. The label's Rock strength came from Green Day, the Black Crowes, Alanis Morissette, Filter, and Neil Young. VP/Album Promotion Michael Linehan's crew also did well with tracks from Mother Hips, Danzig, Jayhawks, Eric Clapton, Pete Drogge, the Cult, and Faith No More.

More New Artists Dominate Format

While new artists began to play a prominent role last year, the cream of the crop rose to the top of the chart in 1995.

New Artists

The No. 1 song was "Tomorrow" by Silverchair, a new band discovered by WNNX (99X)/Atlanta PD Brian Philips on a trip to Australia. Remarkably, four of the Top 5 songs of the year were by new artists — Better Than Ezra "Good" (No. 3), Bush "Comedown" (No. 4), and Alanis Morissette "You Oughta Know" (No. 5).

Of the 174 different artists who charted in '95, 81 (47%) did so for the first time. Here's a look at the top 10 new artists, based on total plays from all songs that charted during 1995:

Artist	Total Plays
• Bush	98347
• Better Than Ezra	73940
• Alanis Morissette	70918
• Sponge	62130

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

• Elastica	50655
• Dave Matthews	47678
• Silverchair	47071
• Foo Fighters	45208
• Blues Traveler	40370
• Presidents Of...	38316

Songs Reaching No. 1

Eleven songs reached No. 1, one less than in 1994 (Note: R.E.M.'s "Bang And Blame" was No. 1 on January 6, but sustained most of its chart life last year and did not finish in the Top 95 of '95).

Here's a look at what songs finished No. 1, how many weeks they remained on top, and where each song finished on the year-end chart:

Artist/Song	Weeks	Year-End
	No. 1	Chart
• LIVE Lightning Crashes	9	7
• GOO GOO DOLLS Name	6	2
• BETTER THAN EZRA Good	6	3
• ALANIS MORISSETTE You Oughta Know	6	5
• GREEN DAY When I Come Around	5	27
• U2 Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Me	4	19

Multitrack Artists

Despite the format becoming more single-oriented, 54 artists still placed multiple tracks on the chart. Green Day — which had some carryover from their debut album, "Dookie," last year — had four songs chart in the Top 95. The Bay Area punks were the most consistent band on the chart: "When I Come Around" (No. 27), "J.A.R." (No. 36), "Geek Stink Breath" (No. 37), and "She" (No. 38).

Bush was the only other act to log four songs in the Top 95 — "Comedown" (No. 4), "Little Things" (No. 16), "Everything Zen" (No. 25), and "Glycerine" (No. 95). Two groups posted a trio of songs: Live "Lightning Crashes" (No. 7), "All Over You" (No. 9), and "White, Discussion" (No. 64); and Pearl Jam "Better Man" (No. 33), "Corduroy" (No. 41), and "Immortality" (No. 92).

Chart Highlights

Some 258 songs made the Top 50 chart this year. Here's a look at the number of songs that achieved chart milestones:

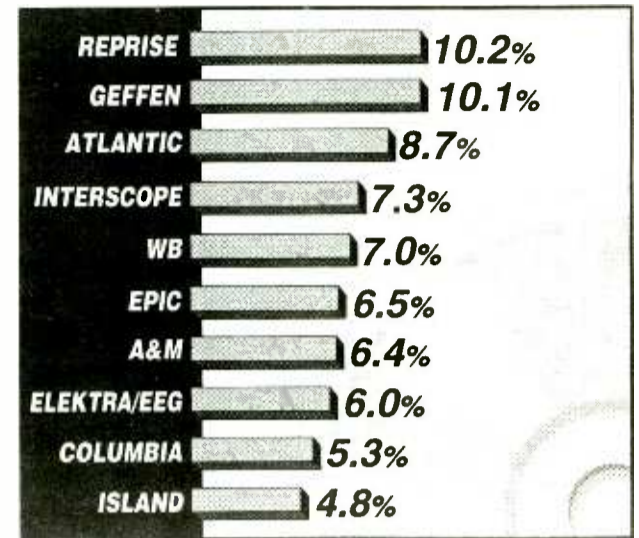

• Top 5	42 (16%)
• Top 10	67 (26%)
• Top 20	120 (47%)

ALTERNATIVE CHART SHARE

REPRISE BACK ON TOP — Reprise edges out Geffen/DGC for the honor of top Alternative. Interscope and Columbia are new entries, finishing fourth and ninth, respectively. WB and Reprise are the only labels to maintain Top 5 status since we began tracking year-end Alternative charts (then New Rock) five years ago.

ME, SELF, AND CHUCK — Zoo's Thomas Westfall (l) and Matt Mahaffey, frontman for new Spongebath/Zoo recording artist Self (c), visit the Inland Empire to do some bonding with KCXX/Riverside PD Chuck Summers.

HOW SWEET IT IS! — The management staff at XHRM (The Flash)/San Diego enjoyed a good, old-fashioned smoke-out to celebrate their Summer '95 Arbitron book (2.5-3.2 12+). Smiling are (seated, l-r) NSM Lee Wieman, owner Luis Kaloyan, GSM Tim McCarthy; (standing, l-r) Promotion & Marketing Dir. ## The First Wave Of Holiday Station Concerts

For the past three weeks, more than 30 Alternative stations have staged sold-out holiday concerts. Here's a look at how stations put a particular spin on their event. Stay tuned for more photos in the next few weeks. If you would like to see photos from your event in R&R, please send them to: Shawn Alexander, 10100 Santa Monica Blvd., 5th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90067.

EDGE CHRISTMAS CONCERT — KDGE/Dallas held its third annual "Edge Christmas Concert" featuring the Toadies, Nixons, Deep Blue Something, Lisa Loeb, Rentals, Matthew Sweet, Del Amitri, and Tears For Fears. The event attracted a standing-room-only crowd of 8000; all proceeds will be donated to children's charities. Although not on the bill, No Doubt stopped by the Edge show to perform a special rendition of their hit song, "Just A Girl." Hanging out just prior to surprising the crowd are (l-r) KDGE PD Joel Folger, co-APD Alex Valentine, and No Doubt's Tom Dumont.

HOLIDAY HOOTENANNY — The Caulfields, Lisa Loeb, Better Than Ezra, and the Goo Goo Dolls played at the second annual WPLY (Y-100)/Philadelphia "Holiday Hootenanny." The station gave away all tickets to the show via on-air and various ticket raids and asked listeners to bring non-perishable food items. Before the Caulfields took the stage, Y-100 listeners were treated to a music video of morning man Barsky's "When The Boys Come Out And Play" (the Philadelphia Flyers fight song), which is a parody of Offspring's "Come Out And Play." Y-100 collected 3827 pounds of food for Greater Philadelphia Food Bank. Backstage are (l-r) Y-100 Promotion Director Lynn Jeanrenaud, Lisa Loeb, Y-100 PD Garrett Michaels, and APD/MD Chuck Tisa.

JINGLE BELL JAM — WMRQ/Hartford had Heather Nova, Eve's Plum, Garbage, the Rentals, Letters To Cleo, and the Toadies on the lineup for its "Jingle Bell Jam." Tickets sold for $14 dollars and a portion of the proceeds benefited the Foodshare of Greater Hartford. Getting comfy with Heather Nova (c) are (l-r) WMRQ morning co-host Heather Lockwood, MD/nighttimer Gina Crash, former middayer Adrian Healey, and Kevin The Afternoon Guy.

NEW MUSIC SCENE

- Artist: Self
- Track: "Cannon"
- LP: "Subliminal Plastic Motives"
- Producer: Matt Mahaffey
- Label: Spongebath/Zoo

• Essentials: Self is a near-perfect name for this band. Creator Matt Mahaffey is not only its singer/songwriter, but also produced the album. Mahaffey plays the majority of the band's instruments, and compiled the band's homemade samples used on "Subliminal Plastic Moves." Brother Mike shares credit for the guitar and bass tracks.

Matt, a 22-year-old native of Kingsport, TN, began playing drums in a local band at age 12. Since meeting Spongebath Records President Richard Williams, Matt put his education at Middle Tennessee State University on hold to pursue recording. He has also moonlighted as a drummer in a band named Ella Minopy (now known as Spongebath recording act Fluid Ounces) to save enough money to build a home studio. Self, derived from one of its own song titles, was discovered by Zoo at the Nashville Extravaganza Music Convention in January 1995. The touring band pictured above includes (front, l-r) Tim Nobles (bass), Matt (vocals/guitar), Jason Rawlings (drum); (back, l-r) Mike (guitar), and Chris James (keyboards/samples).

• Influences: Prince, XTC, Frank Black, and hip-hop music.

• Artist POV: "There really isn't that much hip-hop influence on this record," says Mike. "I tried to keep it as diverse as I could by writing songs from different instruments. This could almost be a concept record, because a lot of the songs were related to signing a record label deal and having to put a record out for everyone to hear. That was completely frightening to me."

"I didn't start playing the guitar until [nearly] three years ago when I started getting into alternative music. I got into the art of distortion really fast. My entire concept was to combine synthetic and acoustic instruments, without it sounding computerized or phony. Sampling has always fascinated me. Often the melodies will come from the samples. I try to treat them as an instrument. The groove on "Superstar," came from putting my CD player on search and sampling the click. Once I slowed it down there was this big melody going through it. I just stuck a beat underneath it and wrote the chorus around it. It was easy to make."

New Music Scene highlights breaking artists charting for the first time.

EDGECAPADES — MTV filmed six hours of footage from KEGE/Minneapolis's "EdgeCapades" with 13,620 listeners rocking to the Meat Puppets, Oasis, Del Amitri, Lisa Loeb, Goo Goo Dolls, Toadies, and local favorite Flip. KEGE lined up various booths of environmental and charitable organizations. Tickets sold for $9.37; the station will donate proceeds from the event to the homeless. KEGE aftermooner Matt Hansen (l) enjoys a memorable moment with GGD's John Rzezniak (c) and Robby Takac (r).

For The Record

I've received several comments about my column two weeks ago (R&R 12/8) "37 Of Top 100: NoAlternative." One remark that shouldn't be overlooked is from WOWW/Pensacola, FL VP/GM Mike McGough.

McGough mentioned that I listed Mobile as a market without an Alternative station, despite the station's spectacular showing in the Spring '95 Mobile Arbitron survey (3.5 12+, third 18-34, fourth 18-24, and second 25-34). That was a valid point! However, despite WOWW's impressive ratings, the station is listed outside Mobile's Arbitron metro survey area (below the line).

Format Sets Milestones In First Year-End Breakouts

R&R's inaugural year-end Adult Alternative chart finds two of the year's most talked about new artists — Dave Matthews Band and Hootie & The Blowfish — finishing first and second, respectively, in the Top 95 Of '95.

Separated by a mere two plays, neither the Dave Matthews Band record ("Under The Table And Dreaming") or the Hootie & The Blowfish album ("Cracked Rear View") actually hit No. 1. But both became the first major-label debut releases to sustain a chart position for each week of the year. Both albums debuted on the chart last year: Hootie & The Blowfish (R&R 8/12/94) and Dave Matthews Band (R&R 10/7/94). Congratulations to the hard-working staffs at RCA and Atlantic.

To appreciate the significance of the Matthews and Hootie chart performances, you have to go all the way back to milestones set years ago on R&R's AOR chart. For example, the Black Crowes' debut, "Shake Your Money Maker," appeared on the AOR chart for 76 weeks split between 1990-91. Before that there was Bruce Springsteen's "Born In The U.S.A.," which registered 70 weeks on the AOR chart during 1984-85 and Fleetwood Mac's self-titled album, which logged 60 weeks in the '70s.

Chart Stamina

Albums stay on the chart longer due to stations playing multiple tracks. Artists whose albums were released later in '95 might have fared better owing to stations rotating songs more frequently and a 31-to-43 increase in reporting stations.

A total of 126 albums charted in '95. The average number of weeks an album spent on the chart was 21. The following artists had albums that registered more than the average number of weeks on the chart:

Artist	Weeks On Chart
• DAVE MATTHEW... "Under The Table And..."	48
• HOOTIE & THE... "Cracked Rear View"	48
• BLUESTRAVELER "Four"	41
• TOM PETTY "Wildflowers"	38
• DEL AMITRI "Twisted"	37
• JOAN OSBORNE "Relish"	35
• JAYHAWKS "Tomorrow The Green Grass"	31
• CHRIS ISAAK "Forever Blue"	29
• SONIA DADA "A Day At The Beach"	27
• COLLECTIVE SOUL "Collective Soul"	27
• NATALIE MERCHANT "Tigerlily"	26
• BETTER THAN EZRA "Deluxe"	22

Chart Facts

Here's a look at the 10 albums that hit No. 1: Chris Isaak's "Forever Blue" (11 consecutive weeks), Tom Petty's "Wildflowers" (10 weeks), "Empire Records" soundtrack featuring tracks from the Gin Blossoms, Edwyn Collins, and the Cranberries (seven straight weeks), Natalie Merchant's "Tigerlily" (seven weeks), "Boys On The Side" soundtrack featuring Bonnie Raitt, Sheryl Crow, Melissa Etheridge, and the Pretenders (five straight weeks), Bruce Springsteen's "Greatest Hits" (three weeks), Jayhawks' "Tomorrow The Green Grass" (two weeks), Annie Lennox's "Medusa" (one week), "Friends" soundtrack featuring Toad The Wet Sprocket and Hootie & The Blowfish (two weeks), and Melissa Etheridge's "Your Little Secret" (one week).

Thirty albums (24%) obtained Top 5 status; 52 albums (41%) achieved Top 10 during the course of 1995.

Track Chart Debuts

As the year progressed, more stations began focusing on one or two emphasis tracks. In late September, after faxing a proposed Top 30 tracks chart to our reporters and record labels, the message was clear that a tracks chart would be a useful tool. With the industry's support, R&R debuted a weekly tracks chart to complement the Top 30 album chart (R&R 9/22).

ADULT ALTERNATIVE CHART SHARE

ATLANTIC TAKES CROWN — 1995 marks the first year-end chart for Adult Alternative, with Atlantic capturing the honors. The four leading finishers — Atlantic, WB, A&M, and Reprise — recorded more than 40% of the chart shares in the format. Capricorn was the only non-major label to crack the Top 10.

SAN DIEGO LIFE — Jude Cole recently popped in for a visit at KUPR/San Diego; (l-r) KUPR MD Clark Novak, Island's Dave Barbis, Cole, and KUPR PD Sherman Cohen.

Top New Artists

Here's a look at the format's Top 10 new artists, based on year-end chart rank:

- Dave Matthews Band
- Hootie & Blowfish
- Natalie Merchant
- Joan Osborne
- Better Than Ezra
- Alanis Morissette
- Edwin McCain
- Dionne Farris
- Willy Porter
- Todd Snider

SHAVE & A HAIRCUT — WNEW/New York morning guy Pat St. John took off his headphones and put his life in the hands of a Brut Barber Shop professional — Maria Monitto — who gave him a free, on-air, straight-razor shave. That kicked off the Brut By Faberge Sailing Series, which benefited SoundWaters, a charity dedicated to protecting the waters off Long Island Sound.

SUPER NOVA — Work/CRG recording artist Heather Nova recently graced the stage at KBCO/Denver's Studio C for a three-song live performance and interview with middayer Nathan Perry. Relaxing after the show are (l-r) Work/CRG local Jay Friedstein, Nova, MD Scott Arbough, Perry, PD Mike O'Connor, Work/CRG's Geordie Gillespie, and Heather Nova Band cellist Nadia Lanman.
