Gordon Gekko Must Be Proud: Radio's Million-Dollar Contests

by Jeft Silberman

Heard the cliché "cash is king" when it comes to contesting? Well, with the recent rash of million-dollar cash contests at stations such as WHTZ (Z100) New York, KHS Los Angeles, WTMX Chicago, Jacor's "Mix" stations, and WWZZ (Z104) Washington, D.C., big-cash contesting must now be considered a royal flush.

But there's a joker in the deck: Because an employee of the firm that pioneered the million-dollar revival left. to offer the contest at his own company, we have the quandary found in Boston, where both WXKS-FM (Kiss 108) and WBMX (Mix 98.5) are running their own versions of the milliondollar promotion

With many PDs having long felt that cash contesting was being up-staged by multimillion-dollar lotteries and Publishers Clearing House-type giveaways, it was inevitable that the ante would be uppen. And PDs who are running the contest say that the contests are winning back even jaded

"I saw some recent numbers on the percentage of our listeners who play contests." WWZZ PD Dale O'Brien says. "Anywhere from 20% to 25% of our audience participate on a continuous basis. That's a significant amount of audience, playing just your typical radio contests. When there's a milliondollar jackpot, you have to figure that number is considerably higher.

What's more, the odds of winning a million dollars through a station are considerably better than the state game. "We tell our listeners that they

Billboard Countdown Is Back (Online)

JEFF SILBERMAN

Airplay Monitor's sister venture, Billboard Online, has launched Billboard Radio at billboard-radio.com, featuring an on-demand weekly countdown of The Billboard Hot 100 written by Billboard's Fred Bronson and hosted by Billboard radio editor Chuck Taylor. Country Scores First Triple-Play Since '82

NOT SINCE THE EARLY '80s has a country artist managed to score three consecutive crossovers to top 40. Kenny Rogers last did it in '81. Dolly Parton did it in 1977-78. Alabama did it in 1981-82. Eddie Rabbitt did it in 1980-81. Anne Murray, whose history was really in both formats, pulled it off in 1978-79. Crystal Gayle never managed three in a row.

But this week, the top 40 remix of Shania Twain's "That Don't Impress Me Much" (Mercury) vaults the title onto the mainstream audience and detection charts. The title's mainstream debut comes a week after its initial appearance at adult top 40, where it moves 39-29, with a 61% increase in spins.

AUDIENCE VS. SPINS: Although rhythmic stations have eagerly embraced Lauryn Hill's second solo title, "Ex-Factor" (Ruffhouse/Columbia), her solo debut track "Doo Wop (That Thing)" continues to show growth at mainstream top 40. No doubt aided by accolades presented to Hill by the Grammys and the Soul Train Music Awards, "Doo Wop" increases nearly 8% in audience, despite being flat on the spins chart, with some additional help from 15 more spins at WHTZ (Z100) New York.

Another artist shows the power of his major-market following this week. Ricky Martin appears ready to make a splash at top 40, as "Livin' La Vida Loca" (C2) debuts on the rhythmic top 40 audience chart at No. 34. The title just misses debuting on the mainstream audience chart. In each case, the song's audience reach is well ahead of its spin-count ranking. Martin's sole chart appearance in Monitor to date was "Maria," which peaked on the rhythmic chart at No. 33 in September 1996.

MOVIN' ON UP? Twice a year, we reorder the playlists on Top 40 Airplay Monitor's Power Playlist pages to reflect TSA cumes from the spring and fall Arbitron books. If the playlist pages have looked different in recent weeks, it's because they reflect those changes. One surprise in particular is worth noting. WSTR (Star 94) Atlanta is now the third-most-listened-to mainstream top 40 in America. Atlanta is market No. 12, but Star's cume puts it ahead of larger-market outlets in Dallas, Houston, and Philadelphia.

Civil-Rights Groups Drop Report On FCC

A coalition of 30 civil-rights groups has dropped a 460-page tome on the FCC's doorstep, explaining why they support the reinstatement of the commission's EEO rules, despite a move afoot in Congress to keep the FCC out of the social-engineering business. The coalition wants a ban on the exclusive use of word-of-mouth recruitment. It wants the FCC to require a station to document its contacts, applicants, promotions, and compensation.

Following the controversial Katz memo and a recent FCC study that found that R&B and Spanish stations bill, on average, 30% less than general-market stations, the civil-rights groups would also require a broadcaster to certify it is not using an ad agency or rep firm that allows "no black, no Spanish" dictates. The coalition includes the Rainbow/PUSH Coalition, People for the American Way, and the National Bar Assn. Several broadcasters also signed on, including Mega Communications CEO Alfredo Alonso, Radio One CEO Cathy Hughes, Emmis CEO Jeff Smulyan, and former Radio Advertising Bureau chair Skip Finley.

Last week, Rep. Mike Oxley, R-Ohio, filed

Last week, Rep. Mike Oxley, R-Ohio, filed legislation that would force the FCC to halt what he called the "Orwellian" practice of requiring broadcasters to record and report the racial, ethnic, and gender characteristics of applicants and employees. Last March, the D.C. Circuit's U.S. Court of Appeals ruled the former rules were unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, a study by the Minority Media and Telecommunications Council reports that one in four broadcasters lied about whether word-of-mouth was the means used to fill a job vacancy. The study, performed by Audrey Murrell of the University of Pittsburgh, found many other claims of using recruiters or placing ads were "unverifiable."

During a Senate hearing last week, John McCain, R-Ariz., said he plans to hold hearings on restructuring the FCC, while fellow Commerce Committee member Judd Gregg, R-N.H., said merging the FCC with another agency may make more sense. McCain also announced plans to tack an amendment onto a bill this week telling the FCC to quickly finish its review of broadcast ownership rules.

CAPITOL: RADIO ONE GOES OUTSIDE

Radio One has invested $1 million in PNE Media Holdings, a Baltimore outdoor-advertising company.

At a media conference in New York last week, CBS CEO Mel Karmazin revealed that CBS is in negotiations to buy several Internet-related companies, saying CBS is committed to becoming one of the biggest players in the Net business. Karmazin, by the way, made $195 million in 1998. A company SEC filing says he made most of that by exercising stock options.

Jacor and Clear Channel stockholders have given their blessing to Clear Channel's proposed $4.4 billion buyout of Jacor. The deal still needs FCC and DOJ approval.

Separately, Triathlon Broadcasting shareholders have approved the merger agreement with Capstar. The deal is expected to be finalized by the end of April.

Satellite radio broadcaster CD Radio says Lucent has figured out how to design critical microchip technology needed for CD Radio receivers. The chips determine whether satellite or land-based repeaters have a stronger signal and how to blend the two. CD Radio's satellites are set to launch early next year.

ARBITRON'S SPRING CLEANING

Arbitron will add two spring/fall markets: Muskegon, Mich., ranked No. 217, and Decatur, Ill., ranked No. 246, bringing the number of rated radio markets to 270. Arbitron has also added Hispanic ethnic controls to Colorado Springs, Colo., and Salt Lake City. A black ethnic control will also be added to Seattle. The spring book runs April 1-June 23.

Promos Look Ahead To The Holidays

Despite an April full of events, from Easter and income tax day to baseball's regular season and springtime activities, two May holidays-Mother's Day and Memorial Day-finished one-two on the Topical Barometer.

That doesn't mean some stations aren't still springing into spring. Triple-A KKZN (the Zone) Dallas is giving away tickets to the Texas Rangers' opener. Pitcher Barbara Luchsinger hasn't announced how the Zone will give away the ducats, noting that last year listeners called in when they heard the ghost of Harry Carey.

In natural parks, country WBEE Rochester, N.Y., celebrates Kite Tails and Sand Pails at a "rented" park. "Everyone coming can get sand pails, sponsored by a vendor, and make sand sculptures of our logo for a trip to the big castle, Disney World," Stephanie Hogerman says. There's also a kite-flying contest, using kites with the station's logo on them, and onsite registration for water-sports equipment, camping gear, and a trip to a national park. "[We] do the cooking and barbecue, host an ice cream-eating contest—everything that makes family events special," says Hogerman.

Elsewhere, stations are ending their winter excursions for spring ones. Spring skiing is still big in Denver, but "the ski season comes to an end in a few weeks," country KYGO's Garret Doll notes. "Then we start the camping and mountain biking."

R&B KPWR (Power 106) Los Angeles is

closing down ski season with live mixing and snowboarding parties at local ski resorts, moving its mixers to Venice Beach, where its Flava Unit will in-line skate with listeners and give away prizes, says Dianna Obermeyer. "Also, [morning host] Big Boy will kick off spring break weekend with a live broadcast at Magic Mountain. Power 106 listeners are admitted to the park before it opens to ride all the coasters without lines.

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: STAFFING UP

When it comes to staffing up a promotion department, 75% of the Promogandists say they're well-staffed, while only 25% say they need reinforcements. The size of their staffs ranges from about 10 (including interns) to more than 30. And more than 75% say they feel confident enough to delegate a lot of work to subordinates. However, top 40 WPXY

Rochester, N.Y.'s Tristano Korlou warns, "I'd like to delegate as much as possible, but I hate to do it often. Promotions people become really good at their jobs when they go out and see what their listeners are expecting from the station. Sitting behind a desk keeps my focus on the paperwork, but it doesn't help me keep in touch with my listeners."

Where to find quality promotion talent? Many cite local colleges; some cite friends and acquaintances. Ironically, country KNIX Phoenix's Vicki Fiorelli says, "Good parttimers are the ones with no interest in being in radio. Of my 11 P/T [staffers], only one wants to be in radio—and he doesn't even know exactly what he wants to do. Good promo people have technical brains, can lift up to 50 pounds above their heads, and are friendly. I can train them on the rest."

Getting good help is tough; keeping it is even worse. "It is high burnout," top 40 WNKS (Kiss 95.1) Charlotte, N.C.'s Diana Ades says. "The perks are OK, but they want you to 'show them the money.' My GM is really good at trying to keep us happy—and it isn't always easy—with days off, buying lunch/drinks, and just by sharing [our] pain."

KPWR's street-staff jobs, paying minimum wage plus perks, "are for 15-24 months," Obermeyer says. "After that period, unless the employee is working for another goal, [he or she] gets burnt out and lacks the enthusiasm needed for daily promotion. This is common in L.A., where new employees want a full-time air shift or to be MD [in] three months.

QUICK HITS

WNKS morning duo Ace and TJ are leading a Hillbilly Heist by raffling off the BMW from the Loomis Fargo heist, the second-largest armored truck heist in America ($17 million was taken by 20 "hillbillies"). Money from the heist was used to buy the car, now owned by a local children's charity. "We are currently taking the car, decaled completely, to different locations for 'heist hits' and are selling raffles, with 100% of proceeds going to the charity," says Ades. "It has gotten us great press and lots of attention around town.

For its Wolfapalooza concert (actually the George Strait Country Music Festival, which the station has renamed on-air), country KPLX (the Wolf) Dallas tied in with Ticketmaster, so everyone who orders tickets by phone registers with the station to win ticket upgrades. Playing it Strait is Paul Williams.

Also on the concert front, adult R&B WVAZ Chicago (V103) is throwing a For Women Only concert, featuring Tyrese and Ginuwine, April 21 at a secret location. Connie Welch will certainly be able to attend.

When modern adult WKZL Greensboro, N.C., afternoon jock Terrie Knight had Eagle-Eye Cherry in for the standard interview and a song, he also invited listeners into the studio for the occasion—but the station made them all bring food. Terrie Knight's Covered Dish Party With Eagle-Eye Cherry "was huge," says PD Jeff McHugh. "We got TV and print out of it, and it cost us exactly $34 in snacks. Cherry said he loved Terrie's meatballs." Chef from 'South Park" had no comment.

Is Top 40 Finally Over Its 25-54-itis?

When top 40's national numbers first started to rebound in 1996-97, a strange phenomenon occurred. While the format still posted its highest numbers in the teen and 18-34 demos, it was showing disproportionately large gains at the upper end: 25-54 and 35-64. In the case of the latter demo, that meant going from the mid-fours to the high fours, hardly challenging country or AC's upper-end strength but still not the pattern that you might have expected: booming with younger demos first, then filling in the older adults once the format reached critical mass, as it did during 1983-85.

But even as recently as a few years ago, mainstream top 40 was still very much an adult format. There was the occasional "When 1 Come Around" or "Lightning Crashes," but for the most part, the format was driven by two genres, the singer/songwriter modern adult crossovers and the first wave of hits from the dance/pop revival ("Another Night," "Be My Lover," etc.) Both had roots in '70s music, whether disco or early-'70s soft rock. There was no reason an adult shouldn't have been comfortable. Not only was hip-hop, the scapegoat for the format's early-'90s trouble, gone, but there was hardly any uptempo R&B music on mainstream top 40, just in case the adults didn't Even with the format rebounding, top 40 was still having a hard time recovering fully from its early-'90s bout with 25-54-itis. Back then, PDs stung by listener defections to country and the format's rapidly crumbling station base tried to give adults what they were supposed to want. Strangely, no matter how many oldies they threw in, no matter how wimpy the currents, it didn't help. Teens, who had nowhere to go, stayed with top 40, even if they weren't as welcome. Adults went away anyway.

Trying to super-serve adults on their own turf was a hard habit for top 40 PDs to break, even once the Telecom Bill passed and deregulation supposedly allowed group owners to pursue 18-34 on one frequency and let somebody else in the cluster bring in the 25-54 numbers. But the adult music in 1997 ("You Were Meant For Me") was better than the adult music in 1993 ("When She Cries"), and the net result was a healthier format anyway.

All this by way of explaining a reversal that may have finally kicked in last fall, as evidenced by Monitor's most recent national Arbitron numbers, which show the format up slightly overall, back up in teens and 18-34, but down a 10th of a share in 25-54 and 35-64. Even with the usual fourth-quarter ballad glut, last fall was arguably the first time that top 40 really sounded like top 40 again, both in terms of genre balance (at least in terms of everything but dance/pop in those pre-"Believe" days) and because of an increased number of R&B titles and harder modern rock crossovers.

This may not have been a conscious decision but the result of outside forces. It's been the case for a while now that adult top 40, having gotten hotter itself, isn't supplying the same number of ballad hits or pop records with tempo but no intensity that it once did. With dance/pop less readily available, and many PDs starting to look askance at all things Spice-y, there was no choice but for mainstream programmers to come to grips with at least a few R&B crossovers, especially when they were as undeniable as "The Boy Is Mine" and "Too Close." Meanwhile, many modern rock outlets, looking to separate themselves from modern adult and top 40, found some harder hit records—"Inside Out," stream top 40 played anyway.

Top 40 certainly didn't become a 12-24 format last fall, as the PDs of Jerry Clifton's "Extreme" stations would probably be quick to point out. But it sounded a little more like its old self, even if there wasn't quite the preponderance of great uptempo records there had been a year earlier. Was it good for the format in the long term? My guess is that top 40 growing in the demos that it's supposed to control is a good thing and that being down a 10th or two in 25-54 is something the format can survive if it wants to grow its audience for the future. Whether some of the individual top 40s that were off this fall (despite the format's improved national showing) rebound will be key.

It helps that there's some upper-demo music this winter that doesn't sound like upper-demo music. Having Cher bring dance/pop back to top 40 is a good thing. So is the triumph of Britney, Backstreet, and B*Witched (and 'N Sync, even though it's screwing up my attempt at alliteration here) over PDs' concerns about teen acts. Even if you don't accept that the best way to get 35-year-old women to listen to top 40 is through their kids, those acts now provide the pop balance songs at the format. Just as top 40 had to turn to country because adult top 40 was no longer supplying it with traditional power ballads, it's now the teen acts that are the steadiest supplier of those songs, as borne out by the success of 'N Sync and the Backstreet Boys at AC

Ít's often held that PDs aren't able to listen like civilians. And yet what we saw at the format last fall might not have happened if the PDs and listeners hadn't both undergone the same subtle hardening of their tastes that happens as every new generation moves into the adult demos. Listeners who'd heard the format get just a little edgier each year since the early '90s weren't freaked out by "Inside Out" or "Pretty Fly"; now it seems that programmers have eased themselves back into the rock (and R&B) pool are in a unique club," KIIS marketing director Von Freeman says. "They're not playing against the entire state of California; they're only playing against the cume of the station. That paints a picture that our contest is more attainable than the lottery—especially since a listener won the contest the last time we ran it."

"We're getting people calling in who never called the station before," WBMX PD Greg Strassell adds. "It's definitely creating excitement in all demos, not just [among] the younger-end [listeners], who normally are the primary players in the other contests.

RULES OF THE GAME

There are several ways the million-dollar gambit is played. The most popular is the Birthday Game, which is being played at KIIS, WWZZ and at both WXKS and WBMX. The caller who gets through with the same month as the selected birth date wins a cash prize in the neighborhood of $1,000. The caller who also has the same date wins a larger amount, say $5,000. (The aforementioned numbers can be adjusted to fit the station's frequency or for any other reason.) The caller who matches the previous two and the birth year wins the million. Some stations sweeten the pot, awarding some cash to everyone who gets through, regardless of whether he or she has

Z100's game is based on the person's Social Security number. Callers get $100 for getting through; $1,000 for matching the first number of the last four digits; $5,000 for matching the first two; $10,000 for matching the first three; and a million for all four digits. (Other stations have used the "million-dollar" tag in other ways, e.g., giving away tickets to participate in state or regional lotteries.)

If the contest is run for a finite period of time, there is no guarantee that you'll ever have a million-dollar winner. You can better the chances of that happening by increasing how often you play the game. KIIS, WBMX, and WWZZ run it only in mornings, although they offer listeners the chance to win smaller cash amounts throughout the day. WXKS runs it more often, including 20 times a day on Thursday. WBMX and K11S pre-fer mornings-only contests to spotlight attention on their morning shows. Kiss 108 is doing it more often on Thursday to differentiate itself from Mix's contest. The cost of doing this depends on the length of the contest, the amount of cash given away at each level, and the frequency at which the game is played.

Not surprisingly, the response to the giveaway is impressive. "[Morning man] John Lander can't use the phones to call out when the contest call-in starts, because all the lines are jammed," WBMX's Strassell notes.

"Our 800-line phone bill is up significantly, which I believe is a direct result of people calling in to play the contest," O'Brien adds. "I don't mind if it results in a bigger audience.

There are other ways to measure the reaction," Z100 PD Tom Poleman says. "People stop you in the streets to talk about it, or they ask our Party Patrol how they can play. We get good feedback on the request lines. All are indicators, but ultimately, the impact you look for the most is in the Arbitron book."

IMPROVING YOUR BOOK REPORT

There may be a million ironies in Naked Greed City, but one of the choicest is the fact that while all of the programmers believe that bigcash contests positively affect a station's cume and, to a lesser extent, TSL, it's difficult, if not impossible, to determine exactly how much. (Sometimes, the intent of the contests is merely to stem the impact of a competitor, as was the case when WKRQ [Q102] Cincinnati did one of the first seven-figure giveaways in the early '80s.)
"We'll look at the week-by-week [data] in Arbitron; that's the ultimate report card, as always," Z100's Poleman says. "We have specific ratings goals for each period, and at the very least, we expect to see a cume bump. But to be honest, there are multiple factors that contribute to whether we reach our goals. We also do a directmarketing campaign that could affect it, as do an improved morning show and any musical adjustments we make and a more-focused positioning statement. We're never operating in a vacuum. Furthermore, the ratings system itself is imprecise, so in the end, we just want to see some sort of positive movement.

Nor is there any guarantee that the increased audience will stay on after the contest. At best, the contest brings more listeners to your spot on the dial, and then it's up to the other positives of the station to keep them there. "You can't be so arrogant to assume that the contest will automatically juice the ratings, especially in the long term," KIIS' Freeman says. "Their impact is like getting a steroid shot. It can be a short-term fix, but if you don't have a compelling product on the air, it doesn't matter how much you give away."

THE BATTLE OF BOSTON

Further blunting the potential impact of a bigbucks game is having two big-bucks games in the same market, which brings us to Boston. In a nutshell, it seems that WXKS bought the contest package from FilmHouse late last year for a pre-Kiss Concert run this spring, believing it had exclusive rights. Unbeknown to them, the IO Television Group, run by former FilmHouse employee Tony Quinn, sold the same basic contest to WBMX in late January.

"We looked at [the contest] like we were buy-ing a jingle package," WXKS PD John Ivey says. This game should be exclusive; you certainly don't want someone else doing exactly what FilmHouse agrees and several weeks ago took IQ to court over proprietary rights. While both parties' lawyers plan their case strategy, both sta-tions are running the same game, figuring out ways to differentiate their contest from the other. Kiss runs it more often (20 times on Thursday), doubles the $1,000 participation prize if the caller is a member of its Kiss Club database, and emphasizes the heritage angle, having run the birthday contest on its 10th anniversary and now on its 20th. Mix believes that since it started marketing the game first, with TV spots on both 'Oprah" and "The Rosie O'Donnell Show," it captured top-of-mind perceptions. Plus, it has smaller cash payouts throughout the day, based on listeners calling when they hear Barenaked Ladies' "If I Had A Million Dollars."

HOW OFTEN IS TOO OFTEN?

The Boston situation magnifies a concern several programmers have: The more the game is played, the less its potential impact. Z100's Poleman believes that in most cases, the second time ou play a cash contest is less effective than the first. "It depends," WWZZ's O'Brien counters. This contest could still work if you had a winner for the second. If people see someone win a million, they'll think they have a chance to win the next time. Even so, we decided early on that even if there was a winner when the contest ran during the winter book, we'd start a new one for the spring book

WXKS' Ivey likes to schedule big and small promotions through the year like peaks and valeys, but KIIS' Freeman says, "The size of the prize or the frequency of the contest doesn't matter, as long as each one is creative and fun to play. You could do a million-dollar game 52 weeks a year, as long as the personalities keep it interesting and the games are fun. But as soon as the DI sounds bored with the contest, it won't work.'

WBMX's Strassell also stresses the importance of creative, fun games to combat the potential pitfall of having the next promo be overshadowed by the million-dollar contest. Ivey licks that problem by having the Kiss Concert right around the corner. "In every book, you need to compete with something exciting," Poleman says. "Before this chance-base contest, we did the Phrase That Pays and $25,000 Thursdays. You just need something slightly different to keep things fresh on the air.

Since the day contesting started, everyone has tried to come up with a new way to manipulate the numbers," O'Brien says. "Giving away a big prize will never end, and if a million dollars works, then who's to stop someone from giving away $2 million or $5 million, as long as there's an insurance company willing to sell it and a station willing to pay for it? And when you're in a very competitive market, you need to do whatever it takes to draw attention to your station.

MONITOR PROFILE

Everything's A-OK For OM Mike McCoy At Market Leader KJYO Oklahoma City

The old saying about some things changing and some staying the same rings especially true for KJYO (KJ103) Oklahoma City. It was one of the first of a handful of stations owned by Lowry Mays and Clear Channel when it signed on 16 years ago. Mike McCoy came on as PD 10 years ago, and while Clear Channel has grown into one of the radio superpowers, McCoy, now OM, and KJ103 have crafted consistent, market-leading success for much of this decade. Most recently, after dropping 10.6-9.9 in the fall Arbitrons (while still retaining the market crown), KJYO zoomed back up to 10.9 in the most recent winter Arbitrend.

McCoy, who is also OM for AC sister KQSR, attributes K[103's continued success to a "structured" consistency. "There's more structure here than in the Army," he says. "A lot of our programming philosophies and techniques have been in place for quite a while, which has led to a lot of consistency over the years. The bottom line is that when our listeners punch up KJ, they know exactly what they're going to get.'

Now we can choose from Mike McCoy Operations Manager KJYO Oklahoma City Several genres'

'We had a hard time finding

seven powers.

Owner: Clear Channel Ratings: 10.8-11.9-10.6-9.9

Right now, they're getting a lot of high-quality hit music. "Top 40 music is as good as ever remember it being," McCoy says. "It has been that way for the past 18 months. Before that we had a hard time finding seven powers. Now we can choose killer music from several different genres, from pop/rock to rhythmic and modern pop. I pity anybody not programming mainstream top 40.

Here's a typical hour on KJYO: Will Smith, "Miami"; Marcy Playground, "Sex And Candy"; Monifah, "Touch It"; White Town, "Your Woman"; All-4-One, "(She's Got) Skillz"; Sugar Ray, "Every Morning"; TLC, "No Scrubs"; Barenaked Ladies, "One Week"; Brandy, "Have You Ever?"; Smash mouth, "Walkin' On The Sun"; Lauryn Hill, "Doo Wop (That Thing)"; and OMC, "How

If anything, McCoy says, the wealth of hits has made it a bit difficult for new music to get air time. "It becomes challenging," he admits. On the one hand, there are some records that you have to get on your playlist as soon as possible. They can't wait their turn. [On the other hand], there are songs that aren't obvious hits, and you have to give them time to develop. You have to decide what are your priorities, and those that aren't have to go back on the shelf until you can find the right place for them.'

One thing that has changed at KJ103 is the air staff. APD/MD Joe Friday, who does middays, is the dean of the air staff, with nine years under his belt. At the other end of the spectrum are Scholar Brad in nights and Eric Chase, who went from P/T to afternoons on his 21st birthday. Also new is the morning show of TJ and Tooker, who came from country KHKI Des Moines, Iowa.

"The minute they got here, I handed them a book that was filled with memos about the station and the market, as well as other pertinent facts on the city, to get them up to speed as quickly as possible," McCoy says. "But better yet, they took their own initiative to get out there and see what the city is all about.

They're very creative, well-prepared, and very funny, as Tooker has been a stand-up comedian, opening for the likes of Paula Poundstone and Wayne Newton," he continues. "They recently made a Super Bowl bet, with the loser walking back to the station from Miami-Miami, Okla., that is. As it turned out, Dan lost, and it took him four days to get back. During that time, he raised money for the Children's Miracle Network while still doing the morning show with TJ, who was in the studio. It made for great

McCoy notes that the station has long been a steppingstone for air talent, so he spends a lot of time coaching the staff. "I brought them up from baby DJs and promoted them to drive-time positions," he says. "Some move on to major markets; others become established here. Either way, developing new talent is something we have to do, especially in an age of consolidation."

Even so, developing talent hasn't come easy. "I find that it's getting harder to find people who are willing to work hard and pay their dues," he says. "When I got into this business-back when we played vinyl-more people were willing to do whatever it took just to get their feet in the door. I don't see that mentality in many of the up-and-comers anymore, but when I do, I'll work with them. If they can meet me halfway, I'll help them with their career, which is why there's been a lot of success stories at KJ103."

Although KJYO is enjoying its widest lead over the rest of the pack in at least six months, McCoy keeps a keen eye on the competition. 'We've got about three forms of AC in the market, yet we're also targeted by the rock station, so we consider everyone to be our competition," he says. "We've had some really competent programmers come through this market, from Buzz Bennett to Jon Zellner, so I never ignore the people across the street. However, nobody has been able to really impact us, because we take a proactive role in assessing our station.

"One of the things that has really excited me about working here the past 10 years is that we've been able to keep ourselves motivated," McCoy adds. "We've been No. 1 consistently for years, but we never take it for granted. Every year we tear our station apart and look for areas where we may be vulnerable. We attack ourselves to strengthen and grow the station. I'm fortunate to work with John Roberts, who is a great strategizer. He and I set up game plans for our station that always include how and where we could be attacked. It keeps things interesting."

McCoy's experience as a programmer and a member of the Clear Channel family bodes well for continued success in the future, especially with McCoy working with new market manager John Mullen. "I've had a relationship with the Mays family from early on, back when Lowry used to visit the station regularly," he says. "It feels good to be with a company, even as big as it is now, that has the same people on top. It means we still do business the same way, and our view of success hasn't changed. We realize that the listeners don't care [about] station sales or owners. All they want is compelling radio, and while some corporate groups may turn their stations into big jukeboxes, we will never lose our desire to create great radio.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 600 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 900 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Crossover Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 900 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Air-power awarded to those records that attain 800 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a builet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 400 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Compiled from a national sample of data supplied by Broadcast Data Systems. 107 mainstream top 40, 34 rhythmic top 40, 76 adult top 40 and 62 crossover stations are electronically monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on a chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 2,000 detections (mainstream), 600 detections (adult top 40 and crossover) for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. 1999 Billboard/BPI Communications.

THEY'VE SOLD OVER 28 MILLION ALBUMS WORLDWIDE
