Mainstream Top 40 No Longer A Stranger In Rhythmic Markets

by Jeff Silberman

Mainstream top 40's resurgence is long-established these days, yet the breadth of its success is still opening eyes among many in the industry, particularly in markets that have long been considered rhythmic top 40 strongholds, especially in the West and Southwest. Consider:

- KDND (the End) Sacramento, Calif., passes longtime rhythmic power KSFM (Jammin' 102) for the first time ever in the summer book.

- KHFS (Channel 933) San Diego overtakes rhythmic XHTZ (Z90) and comes within two-tenths of a share of first place 12-plus.

- After years of lagging behind crossover KPWR (Power 106) Los Angeles, mainstream standard-bearer KHIS ties Power two books ago, then pulls ahead, becoming the top-rated English-language music station.

- Although rhythmic KTFM San Antonio has since reopened its lead over the past two books, new mainstream rival KXXM (Mix 96) posted one of the biggest first books of any mainstream top 40 and has maintained a surprisingly strong beachhead in a market that hasn't accepted a mainstream in more than a decade.

- Similarly, KBKS (Kiss 106) Seattle is third in its market, about a share behind rhythmic KUBE. And unlike San Antonio, where KXXM controls both the mainstream and modern AC franchises, Kiss has hot AC competition that also plays pop/modern product.

While there are market-specific reasons for the success of mainstream top 40 in the "Golden Triangle" between San Antonio and Seattle, PIDs cite two similar themes in analyzing their success. One is educating a significant segment of the market to the advantages of variety. The other is the wealth of multi-demo pop hits that attract all seg-

U.S. Payola Investigation Eyes 80 PDs

More than five dozen radio programmers are under federal investigation for breaking payola laws. Sources confirm that 80 PDs at Spanish-language stations throughout the U.S. and in Puerto Rico are under investigation for allegedly taking bribes from Fonovisa Records in exchange for spins.

During the week of Oct. 25, Fonovisa VP of promotion Jesus Gilberto Moreno paid a $50,000 fine and was sentenced to two years' probation (Billboard, Nov. 6); he pleaded guilty to paying more than $1 million to programmers in 1997 alone.

"That gives you an indication of the magnitude of how widespread this was," Assistant U.S. Attorney Richard Robinson tells Monitor.

The label, which is owned by Grupo Televisa, was fined $700,000 for falsely reporting promotional expenses to the Internal Revenue Service; Fonovisa president Guillermo Santiso was also fined $200,000 and given two years' probation for income tax violations in connection with payola payments. Santiso could have received a prison sentence of up to six years.

Santiso and Gilberto Moreno are now assisting the Justice Department and the IRS in their investigation of radio station employees, according to Robinson. Agents have also subpoenaed payroll data from stations and bank account information for the dozens of PDs suspected of involvement, sources say.

While the case centers on Fonovisa and its station relationships, Robinson says other Latin labels are also under scrutiny. He adds that no

R&B label or station is suspected of violating the law, an L.A. Times report to the contrary. As part of the investigation, agents are examining Billboard's 1997 Hot Latin Tracks chart, sources say. It indicates Fonovisa acts typically accounted for a quarter of chart positions in the first half of the year; after the alleged bribes ceased, Fonovisa's chart presence was cut in half. At present, no acts are under investigation, say sources.

Earlier this year, one Latin music executive declared that payola-related activities at Spanish radio stations have been waning lately (Billboard, July 24). "You can just look at the charts. There is less control by the labels at the top than there used to be," the executive said.

The Justice Department would not reveal whether a grand jury has been seated in the case, although sources indicate charges will likely be brought within the next few months.

Fonovisa Records approached the government in 1997 after it uncovered irregularities within its promotion department.

According to court documents obtained by Billboard, Fonovisa's illegal activities began in 1992, when the label allegedly reported $1.5 million in promotional expenses that it did not incur. In 1996, a year after Santiso became president of Fonovisa, the label began writing checks totaling $425,000 to a promotion entity that, in turn, cashed the checks and kicked back the money to Fonovisa, according to court documents. The kickbacks were then used to "make 'payola' payments to program directors," according to the papers. FRANK SAXE

'American Woman' Finally Makes Airpower

Lenny Kravitz's "American Woman" (Virgin) achieves hard-fought Airpower status this issue at both mainstream top 40 and modern AC. The song is in its seventh week at mainstream top 40 and its sixteenth week at modern AC. Although the title has been in the top 20 of both the modern AC audience and airplay charts, it has never gained in both audience and detections in the same week until now, making it eligible for Airpower.

R.E.M.'s "The Great Beyond" (Warner Bros.) marks the band's first appearance in Top 40 Airplay Monitor since "Daysleeper," which went to No. 33 at adult top 40 and to No. 24 on the modern AC chart last fall. The first track from the "Man On The Moon" soundtrack, "Beyond" scores the Most New Stations and Greatest Gainer awards both at modern AC, where it debuts at No. 33, and at adult top 40. The song is detecting on 23 adult top 40 and 19 modern AC reporters, led by dual reporters KMXB Las Vegas (39 spins), WTMX Chicago (37 detections), and KTOZ Springfield, Mo. (30 detections).

Ricky Martin's "Shake Your Bon-Bon" (C2) picks up Greatest Gainer and Most New Stations honors at mainstream top 40, where it debuts at No. 27.

Phil Collins' second track from "Tarzan," "Strangers Like Me" (Walt Disney) enters the AC audience chart. The first song to be released from the soundtrack, "You'll Be In My Heart," went to No. 1 in its sixth chart week, where it resided for a total of 10 nonconsecutive weeks. Fifteen AC stations are playing the song, led by WNNM Chicago, where the song was played 20 times in the past week, and WLTW New York, where it was played 18 times.

PEOPLE MONITOR: Look for former Jive senior VP of promotion Jack Satter to join Beyond Records in a senior promotion capacity.

AMFM's Market Manager Roll Call, Cont'd.

As AMFM continues to fill out its cluster manager lineup, country WUBE/WYGY Cincinnati GM John Rohm is named cluster VP for AMFM's Pittsburgh stations, including adult top 40 WPHH. He replaces Michael Frohm, who segues to R&B oldies WJMO-FM Washington, D.C., as national sales manager.

In other GM news, former AC KRTR and top 40 KXME Honolulu GM Austin Vali returns to the stations as GM, after a two-year hiatus on the mainland, under new LMA operator Cox.

AC WEBE Bridgeport, Conn., GM Vince Cremona is named senior VP of Aurora Communications, which also includes country WINE and album WRKI Danbury, Conn., and AC WFAS-FM White Plains, N.Y., where interim PD/afternoon host Steve Jordan exits.

aggressive on R&B titles of Monitor's mainstream reporters under previous PD J.J. Rice. Under current PD Tommy Frank, it's gone heavier on not just R&B but pop/dance product too.

Airplay Monitor's European sister Music & Media reports that legendary European top 40 Radio Luxembourg, for many years the only real British top 40 competition for BBC Radio 1, returns to the air this month on both AM and the Internet with a broad-based adult top 40 format and original DJ Emperor Rosko.

New Cox top 40 WYAP (the Beat) Atlanta adopts the call letters WBTS.

PROGRAMMING: TIM FOR TOM

KRQQ Tucson, Ariz., PD Tim Richards transfers to the PD post at new mainstream top 40 sister WKQI (Q95.5) Detroit. He replaces Tom O'Brien, who's been concentrating on WWWW for several months now.

KKDM (Kiss 107.5) Des Moines, Iowa, MD/afternoon host Greg Chance adds PD stripes, replacing Mike Blakemore, now OM of the cluster.

PEOPLE: DID JOCK'S TEASER VIOLATE NON-COMPETE?

The Portland (Maine) Press Herald reports that Saga Communications, owner of adult top 40 WMGX, has filed a lawsuit in Cumberland County Court claiming that former WMGX morning co-host Lori Voornas, who left the station two months ago for an as-yet-unspecified job with the crosstown Citadel cluster, violated her non-compete by sending out letters on Citadel stationery teasing her role in the new "W??? Morning Show." Citadel GM Mike Sambrook tells the paper that Voornas hasn't been on-air yet and thus hasn't violated her non-compete. Ironically, Maine's state legislature struck down non-compete clauses, but Saga says it shouldn't apply to those signed before they were abolished.

At crossover reporter WPGC-FM Washington, D.C., programming assistant Thea Mitchem is upped to MD, and morning producer Reggie Rouse is named APD. They replace Maurice Devoe, now PD of WPHI Philadelphia.

Adult top 40 KRSK (Rosie 105) Portland, Ore., taps Terry Boyd for mornings, replacing Jeff Elliott. Boyd is a veteran of WKRQ (Q102) Cincinnati and was most recently at country KKTU Eugene, Ore.

Former top 40 KNIN Wichita Falls, Texas, morning host Corey "the Fitz" Fitzner joins

'America' Woman

country KKBQ (93Q) Houston as morning stunt man, replacing BoBo.

KIKI (194) Honolulu MD James Coles exits, while across the street, KQM PD Jacque Gonzales James gets her morning show into gear by teaming night personality Stan the Man with Hawaiian Bryan and the Lovely Leikai (the latter two were out of radio before this gig).

KJYO (KJ103) Oklahoma City PD Mike McCoy moves afternoon host Eric Chase to nights, replacing the exiting Scholar Brad, and brings in Todd Barrett (aka Boomer) from classic rock WBGG Miami for afternoons.

WPST Trenton, N.J., gives midday personality Gabrielle Vaughn assistant MD stripes.

WKCI (KC101) PD Kelly Nash has rechristened ex-WDRQ Detroit MD Jimi Jamm as KC101 afternoon personality Jimi Spears.

At WFMF Baton Rouge, La., the former WLSS (Loose 102), which reclaimed its heritage call letters last week, PD Flash Phillips moves himself from mornings to afternoons and taps Margie Maybe from afternoon co-host duties at R&B rival WEMX (Max 94.1) as morning co-host.

Danny Wright joins KZQZ (Z95.7) San Francisco as morning producer from AC rival KIOI.

Former country KUBL Salt Lake City jock John O'Rourke returns to Fort Wayne, Ind., joining adult top 40 WMEE as APD/middays. Also, WMEE p.m. driver Boomer is named MD, and WMEE part-timer Aaron Roberts takes nights, replacing Ange Canessa, who joined top 40 WGTZ Dayton, Ohio, as PD.

Top 40 WHTF Tallahassee, Fla., P/T Big

Woody Hayes joins country sister WAIB for mid-days, replacing J.D. Page, who joined top 40 WBAM-FM Montgomery, Ala., as morning co-host.

Top 40 WXYK (the Monkey) Biloxi, Miss., PD Scotty Valentine goes on-air for an abbreviated midday shift. Top 40 WZRT Rutland, Vt., night jock Justin Lloyd joins for nights.

FORMATS: A STAR CALLED ALICE

Longtime adult top 40 WYXR (Star 104.5) Philadelphia flips to a rock-leaning hot AC format as Alice 104.5, similar to sister WWWW Detroit. PD Kurt Johnson and his staff, including morning host Nancy Glass, remain on board. Production director Dan Kelly will take a 1-3 p.m. shift that will result in remaining shifts being shortened when jocks return to the air Nov. 15.

Here's a monitor of WYXR on its first day, Nov. 4: Cheap Trick, "The Flame"; Phil Collins, "Suspension"; matchbox 20, "3 AM"; Wang Chung, "Dance Hall Days"; Rembrandts, "I'll Be There For You"; UB40, "Red Red Wine"; Natalie Imbruglia, "Torn"; Tom Petty & the Heartbreakers, "Free Fallin'"; Chicago, "Feelin' Stronger Every Day"; Van Halen, "(Oh) Pretty Woman"; and Sting, "If I Ever Lose My Faith In You."

After several months as a much more mainstream top 40 outlet, WWHT (Hot 107.9) Syracuse, N.Y., swings back to a much more rhythmic approach this week, although a few pop/rock titles (Red Hot Chili Peppers, Santana) remain on the station for now. WWHT had been the most

Promos Discover The Power Of Pokémon

What's the best promo bait this holiday season if your target listeners are 18-44 parents? Pokémon. KTLA-TV Los Angeles' local morning show held a promo where viewers could call a Warner Bros. phone number to win passes to "Pokémon: The First Movie." The WB switchboard received about 70,000 calls a minute, which crashed the phone system not only there but at nearby Disney and NBC studios too. Six hours after the broadcast, WB was still getting 10,000 calls a minute.

R&B oldies WZMX (Z93.7) Hartford, Conn., will trade Pokémon cards for canned goods. Tristano Korlou now knows who Ash is. When top 40 CKIK Calgary, Alberta, offered Pokémon prize packs for its Halloween Phrase That Pays, "the response was huge," says Michael Godfrey. More Pokémon swag can be had at Atlantic Records, which is promoting the film soundtrack.

Album rock KEGL (the Eagle) Dallas has begun its Show Us Your Cans food drive. Broadcasting live at five Hooters locations over a 10-day period, canned-food donors get T-shirts. "Larger donations get signed CDs, jackets, and special band-art canvases," says Loren Condon. "The biggest daily donation wins an autographed guitar from Metallica, Foo Fighters, Tool, and others."

R&B KPWR (Power 106) Los Angeles just finished its Hip-Hop Millionaire finals. Contestants qualified by correctly answering hip-hop trivia questions. One finalist, randomly drawn, had 106 seconds to choose one of several moneybags that contained from $10,000 to $1 million. Dianna Obermeyer notes that the contestant chose a $50,000 bag—right next to the big cash bag.

do requires us to find a client to pay for it, beg for it, or cut something we planned, based on a belief that the new activity is stronger, more topical, and more important."

However, a vocal minority were a bit wary of those who claim that their budgets haven't been altered. "Doesn't everyone run low on their budgets at this time?" one asks rhetorically. "As promo people, we know to spend it when we can and then beg [for it] when we can't."

"I don't know of any station that's right on track with their budget," says another. "We've had our budget cut every quarter since Jan. 1. I never have money to work with, but we somehow find it. Our last big marketing push is in October and early November for the fall book, yet we have to run a call-in contest that only costs us the prize money. There is no money for a database or direct-mail program. December is very lean; thank goodness we have Toys for Tots to wrap our arms around!"

What to do when fourth-quarter funding disappears in a cloud of Wite-Out? "I have a big list of really cool promotions we couldn't get to for back-up," says one panelist. "It's good to have an arsenal of ideas from other markets or just promotions that can help with a client buy or any opportunity that comes your way."

"It's very important to create a marketing plan that has several options for the following year or two," says another. "For instance, I scheduled a big fall at-work listener program that costs $100,000, but we did a bigger summer program than expected and had very little money left for fall. We had to go with a plan-B fall contest. At least we had a plan instead of scrambling at the last minute."

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: STRETCH-RUN BUDGET CRUNCH?

It's fourth-quarter time, when corporate downsizing in the past forced radio stations to cut back on promo plans. Apparently, however, last year's cutbacks made stations more savvy about saving up enough for crunch time this year. Almost 60% of our panelists say their fourth-quarter budgets haven't changed, while 28% had to either make cuts or run lean to make up for what they have lost. A fortunate 12%, due to either a great year or new competition, had their budgets enhanced for the fourth quarter.

Speaking for the majority was a promo ace who says, "We have a long budget process that maps things out in detail with regard to spending. Anything coming to us during the year that we want to

QUICK HITS

Modern rock KXPK (the Peak) Denver night jock Rover McDaniels will "star" in Rover Uncut, a 24/7 Internet experiment featuring his private life. Video Webcams have been set up in Rover's bedroom, living room, and home recording studio to continuously stream high-quality video to thepeak.com and denverbarzone.com. The cameras will stay on for a 30-day period, and anyone entering his residence at that time will have to sign a legal waiver allowing their likeness transmitted over the Internet. Thinking this would work better if Rover was replaced by Sharon Stone is Frank Canale.

Country KEEY (K102) Minneapolis welcomed the Shrine Circus to town one day before its official run. A sky-diving clown landed in a ring across from the Target Center. K102 gave away tickets to the first 102 people and distributed posters, popcorn, and peanuts to everyone who stopped by. "We had coverage on three different TV stations," says Diana "Three Ring" Buckmann.

Modern adult KMXB (Mix 94.1) Las Vegas will Mix'n'Match Your Way to Y2K, with prizes such as a Nissan Mix-Terra, Millennium Carnival Cruises, and Y2Kash. Caller No. 29 selects two numbers between 1 and 94. If the numbers reveal two grand-prize squares, the caller wins a cruise. Revealing two of the same artist hooks $94: having no matches wins Y2K swag. Revealing the M-I-X and Terra squares on the board all at once wins a car. A cheat sheet is available on the station's Web site. The last Web site contest cheat sheet received more than 200,000 page views in one month, says Jen Markham Wynn.

Why Some Dance Hits Never Get Here

Any discussion of the relative dearth of dance/pop product on the radio in the U.S. inevitably prompts the question of why America is so different from Europe, where there's always been a greater acceptance of dance/pop. Some of that stems from Europe's longstanding appetite for all things bubble-gummy, a category that usually includes Eurodance. Increasingly, however, it seems like an economic issue.

Over the past 12 to 18 months, Europe has consistently produced any number of seemingly viable dance/pop records that either didn't come out in the U.S. ("Looking For Love" by Karen Ramirez), came out on indies after a major-label bidding war failed to produce a deal ("You Don't Know Me" by Armand Van Helden), or were actually owned by American labels that didn't release them here ("Sweet Like Chocolate" by Shanks & Bigfoot).

Seemingly, many U.S. labels don't believe there's enough upside with a dance record, even if it garners airplay. Arista was willing to create a viable album around Real McCoy's "Another Night"; most labels assume that unless the producer of this week's hot dance record wanders in with five viable follow-ups, there's no act worth the investment. And, to some extent, radio can blame itself for this reluctance, having helped jack up the cost of any new project to its current level.

In Europe, by contrast, the difference in both investment costs and potential upside are a lot different. Labels have long learned to make these records recoup their costs by licensing them for compilations. U.S. labels have done a better job in that regard over the past few years, but it's still hard for a label to pay $200,000 for a song knowing that it's more likely to help sell copies of "Now 3" than its own album.

Even when an international dance hit makes it to these shores, there's the issue of timing. Dance records often spread through Europe during the summer, then become U.K. hits around Labor Day, when British vacationers bring those songs home from the Spanish resort of Ibiza. European labels often hold off on licensing those songs for the U.S. until they chart in Britain in hopes of sweetening the deal. It took until early November for Eiffel 65's international hit "Blue" to go to Republic/Universal, while Ann Lee's "2 Times" is apparently off the market until an album is finished. That's how warm-weather European hits often end up being held until the following winter in the U.S.

That's not a problem for every record. "Believe" proved that a great dance song can be a hit at any time of the year. And "Blue" will likely prove indestructible too. But not every viable dance hit has survived a six-month lag between Europe and the States, i.e., Mousse T. Vs. Hot & Juicy's "Horny," which went to Columbia in a reported bidding war, was held for the "South Park" soundtrack, and wasn't the radio hit it deserved to be here. And given the resistance that dance already faces in the States, having these songs out in summer could only help.

It's also hurt dance music's prospects a little that it can no longer break off of R&B radio or out of black clubs. After the mid-'80s, R&B radio ceded most dance/pop material to rhythmic top 40. But even then, a dance record with a black vocal could still count on some R&B support in Chicago and the Northeast. In this era of "blazin' hip-hop and R&B," the idea of, say, Ultra Naté's "Free" as an R&B record wouldn't even occur to most PDs, although the recent slew of R&B hits with tempo (Montell Jordan, Donell Jones, etc.) proves there's some appetite for danceable music other than rap.

Top 40 PDs, too, can find rhythmic material from other sources than Europe these days. They've got the teen acts, the Latin crossovers, a handful of homegrown dance hits ("Waiting For Tonight," "It's Not Right But It's Okay," etc.), and the R&B hits that they're a little more willing to acknowledge than before. So it's easy to imagine a PD reading this and not thinking it was such a great tragedy to not play (or even listen to) something called "Horny," especially when top 40 now has core artists in other genres.

In fact, having core artists at top 40 ought to make it easier to play reaction records from dance or any other genre without having to worry about whether there's an act there—Ricky Martin and Smash Mouth can pick up that slack, and you still have the freedom to program a viable reaction record without having to feel guilty about playing "disposable" music. Even when there's other viable music happening at top 40, the appetite for dance/pop never really disappears. PDs get sick of it; the audience doesn't. Even in times of abundance, missing hit records is never a good thing. But it's easier than ever to see why it's happening.

ments of the population, including the Hispanic audience, whose allegiance to rhythmic top 40 was once considered a given.

TAKING BACK THE HILL

PD Dan Kieley attributes KIIS' resurgence to a simple concept: "We decided to be a great mainstream top 40 again," he says. "The station had swerved and gone in different directions. We've done a better job finding our own path musically in being the top 40 station and not a Hispanic dance or a modern pop station or a 'best hits of the '70s and '80s' station. As a top 40 station again, we're always meeting our listeners' expectations."

MD Michael Steele also points out that before KIIS returned to the center, KYSR (Star 98.7) "owned the variety hill. As they niched and became more of a modern AC, they gave us a chance to take back that image, and that's what we're all about," he says.

That situation was practically duplicated in San Diego, where at one time modern adult KFMB-FM (Star 100.7) owned the mainstream hill. "Star paved the way for us, in a sense," KIIS PD Diana Laird says. "But they evolved into a more modern adult [stance], and on the other side of us was Z90. Fortunately for us, neither one of them was playing Britney Spears, Backstreet Boys, and Christina Aguilera."

KXXM PD Krash Kelly adds, "We're playing music that hasn't been heard here before. Even now, we're the only station playing 'Steal My Sunshine' and 'Smooth.' Plus, we started playing Britney Spears and Backstreet Boys months before [KTFM], and we're still playing them a lot more."

"Our audience is attracted to us—and is staying with us—because they finally realize this station plays the hits 24/7. We don't do mix or specialty shows. Whether it's 2 a.m. or 2 p.m., we play what San Antonio wants to hear. That's why we can own the matchbox 20 image, the Ricky Martin image, and the Sarah McLachlan image."

HAVING IT BOTH WAYS

In Albuquerque, N.M., crossover KKSS (Kiss) PD Tony Manero saw the writing on the retail wall. "We saw the sales of Britney Spears, Backstreet Boys, and 'N Sync, so we threw their songs into our call-out. They didn't test well with our PIs but did well with our P2s. There was a definite hole for pop- and modern pop-leaning stuff," he says.

"At that time, [rhythmic top 40 competitor] KYLZ was playing Britney Spears and dabbling in the 'N Syncs of the world while still trying to play hip-hop. Instead of doing that, we decided to keep KKSS focused and give people an avenue to hear that music all the time," says Manero.

So he signed on top 40 KCHQ (Channel 105.1) and moved KKSS MD Jackie James over to be PD. "Albuquerque has changed dramatically," James says. "Five years ago, there was no modern rock or modern AC station, just an AC and Kiss, which would play DJ Quik at 9 a.m. and follow it with Collective Soul. Few artists were ever exposed. When the Sarah McLachlans came out and the AC wouldn't address them, that's when the modern AC [KPEK] signed on. Then more people began hearing these pop records. Now they're being exposed to everything."

And even when mainstream top 40 went away in many markets, there was MTV, which continued to educate the audience on a variety of genres. "MTV has made quite a big impact on Albuquerque," James adds. "Its impact is bigger now than ever. I always notice when they add a video for a record we're not playing. Now everybody pays attention, and it has helped our audience become well-versed in new music and genres."

Some rhythmic top 40s in Western markets are also taking notice. As KUBE Seattle OM Shellie Hart notes, "A hit is a hit, and when the Backstreet Boys and Christina Aguilera become a part of the lifestyle fabric, we address it. Now that they are so huge that they are the daily topic of conversation with young adults, we have acknowledged those acts. At the same time, I respect the tolerance level of my PIs. We play those records when they're red-hot and get off them the second they start to burn. And we never play too many at one time."

LIVIN' LA VIDA MAINSTREAM

Beyond the pop-culture appeal of mainstream's core acts, there's also a growing Hispanic female taste for pop music. "It's absolutely true," says Mike Donovan of Vallie Richards Consulting. "As noted in a recent Wall Street Journal article, Hispanics are a lot more assimilated in this country than what was commonly thought. In fact, some of the auditorium and library testing that we've conducted has shown that to be true. Hispanic female scores on pop records are as good as any female demo. They don't necessarily just like Latin artists and music."

This has helped mainstream top 40s mirror the listener composition of their markets. "[KXXM's] listener breakdown is identical to San Antonio itself," Kelly asserts. "Our audience is 55% Hispanic, 40% white, and 5% black, which is the exact makeup of the market. We're not just a white female station but a mainstream station."

"Obviously, in a market that's 42% Hispanic, attracting them is very important, and we've always done a pretty good job at that," Kieley says. "Having one of the best morning talents in the world in Rick Dees, he'll bring females to the table. Our challenge was to do a better job of keeping them after 10 a.m."

How did they do that? "We made KIIS bigger than life again," Steele says. "When Dan first got out here, we were giving away pizzas. Now we just had a $2 million winner. That's a big difference."

There's also a lot more competition for both rhythmic/R&B partisans and Hispanic listeners. Beyond the greater number of Spanish-language FMs, there's also been the boom in "Jammin' oldies" stations, which have also had the effect of fragmenting the rhythmic audience, although even on the mainstream side, KIIS's Kieley notes, when R&B oldies rival KCMG signed on, "they exploded and actually hurt us 35-44. Fortunately, they [sound] much different today."

Yet reclaiming that upper end hasn't been the key to KIIS' resurgence as much as attracting the long-ignored teens, a key audience for rhythmic stations but also one that sometimes ended up there by default, because they had no mainstream choice. "A lot of people ignored teens except for MTV and the WB [TV network], and they seem to be doing OK," Steele says.

"If you're going to be a top 40, be a top 40!" Kieley states. "Don't be ashamed of teens. They love this format, and if you program this music correctly, you can have teens and adults."

MONITOR PROFILE

The Domino Theory Of Top 40 Returns WFLZ Tampa, Fla., To Dominance

The good news about Dom "Domino" Theodore's ascension to the programming post at WFLZ Tampa, Fla., is that he's taking the reins of one of the country's flagship top 40s. Then again, he's also taking over a station whose former OM, B.J. Harris, is VP of programming for owner Clear Channel—and who is still in the building, co-hosting the morning show with M.J. Kelli. A bit of pressure to perform, perhaps?

No pressure, Theodore says. "After [previous PD] Jeff Kapugi left to program KSLZ, B.J. put me to the test. At first, he was very involved in every aspect of the station. He held my hand through some things right after he named me interim PD. After a while, he just let me run with the ball. Now, I have an incredible amount of autonomy. B.J.'s so involved with the national scene that I'm not at all uncomfortable with him doing mornings. One of his key philosophies is to not stand over people's shoulders. . . . I agree with that philosophy, as I don't stand over [MD] Stan Priest's shoulder with the music log. I look at the big picture. I don't have to worry about getting every segue right, because he does."

Dom Theodore
Program Director
WFLZ Tampa, Fla.

Owner: Clear Channel
Ratings: 6.5-6.2-5.9-6.5

'Now that we do have competition, victory
matters more'

The big picture was a challenge in itself when rhythmic top 40 rival WILD (Wild 98.7) overtook WFLZ for the first time ever in the spring book. "That, in and of itself, was enough to really get our people motivated," Theodore says. "Wild's hit on our low end was expected, yet it was a wake-up call [that said that] we needed to get back to our roots as a true top 40. We were playing too many oldies in middays, as we tried too hard to protect our upper end from [adult top 40] WSSR [Star 95.7], which, at that time, was a competitor. We basically forgot our low end [until we] said to ourselves, 'Wait a second, we're a female 18-34 station. That's what we do best.'"

"So we had a staff meeting where we decided that we needed to be who we were regardless of what anyone else was doing," he adds. "At the same time, [Jacor] merged with Clear Channel, Star became our sister, and we retooled our position in the market. We were able to sacrifice a bit on the upper end to maintain our 18-34s. Besides, top 40 is not a 25-54 format, and even though we weren't as concerned with that demo, we're still in the top three 25-54."

"I'm real proud of my staff. We rose to the occasion [by going 5.9-6.5 in the summer book, reclaiming the top 40 lead]. The fact is [the spring ratings wobble] didn't affect our bottom line. We didn't lose one penny on our books, so [our turnaround] wasn't inspired by a financial desire but our desire to win."

"It's very different from when we were used to being No. 1 and not facing competition. We were able to get the staff excited [once Wild signed on]. Now that we do have competition, victory matters more."

Musically, WFLZ didn't stray much from its traditional menu. "We've always been on the rhythmic side of mainstream," Theodore says. "In all of our up cycles, we skewed toward the rhythmic side, but we still played pop and modern hits. There's always a tendency to overreact [musically] when a new competitor makes an impact, but we stayed the course, and we were able to do it successfully."

Here's a sample of WFLZ during p.m. drive: TLC, "Unpretty"; Mariah Carey Featuring Jay-Z, "Heartbreaker"; Fatboy Slim, "The Rockafeller Skank"; 98°, "The Hardest Thing"; Santana Featuring Rob Thomas, "Smooth"; Marc Anthony, "I Need To Know"; Britney Spears, "(You Drive Me) Crazy"; Brian McKnight, "Back At One"; Blessid Union Of Souls, "Hey Leonardo (She Likes Me For Me)"; Shaggy, "Luv Me, Luv Me"; Savage Garden, "I Knew I Loved You"; Lou Bega, "Mambo No. 5 (A Little Bit Of . . .)"; and Christina Aguilera, "What A Girl Wants."

Dayparting has also been a constant on the station. "There are different audiences listening at different times of the day," Theodore says. "Plus, people do different things at different times of the day. What they want to hear in the office is usually more conservative than what they want to hear when they're out at night on the weekend. We play what's appropriate for our listeners' lifestyle. As a format, top 40 has become less conscious of their listeners' lifestyle, and that's a shame. Stations that reflect their audience's lifestyle will attract more people who listen around the clock, so we daypart around the clock."

When it comes to its morning show and its promotional presence, WFLZ has historically courted "calculated controversy. We're one of the few stations in the country that does things intentionally where we practically hope to get sued for the publicity. It has always been that way, and it will always be that way . . . and we'll always get away with it," Theodore says.

Among some of the station's greatest hits: "Erecting a billboard that 'teamed' M.J. and B.J. with O.J. Simpson as 'M.J., B.J., and O.J.'" The station also sold T-shirts of the billboard. Simpson's law firm sent them a cease-and-desist order and demanded that all proceeds be directed to Simpson. They complied.

• After the morning show got Jerry Seinfeld's unlisted phone number and called him incessantly, the comedian called Clear Channel head Randy Michaels and demanded he fire the duo. They stopped calling.

• Another billboard that hyped M.J. and B.J., only this time pictured as B.J. was a photo of Monica Lewinsky. "We were waiting for them to threaten to sue us, but they never did," Domino says with a trace of sadness.

Being so promotionally pro-active has allowed Theodore to head-off sales promotions of the "giving away Bic pens on the air" variety. As for the hot issue of tying in with the station's Web site, Theodore expresses concern that some stations have their priorities backwards. "The Web site is just a tool, like research and billboards," he says. "We have to figure out ways to enhance the station and reach more listeners, but you can only do so much with a Web site right now to create more listeners."

"Doing good radio is the top priority, and everything else should lead to that end," adds Theodore. "You don't let the tools program the station. If the tools could program the station, you wouldn't need a PD. The good PDs know how to use the tools in combination with their gut. If they have a vision for what the station sounds like, and they have that sound in their ears, chances are they're going to be really good PDs."

Songs ranked by number of detections. ( ) Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrences and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Crossover Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. ○ Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Adult Top 40 Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrenents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. (○) Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrences and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Compiled from a national sample of data supplied by Broadcast Data Systems. 110 mainstream top 40, 33 rhythmic top 40, 77 adult top 40 and 61 crossover stations are electronically monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on a chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. 1999 Billboard/BPI Communications.
