A November Thought for a December Day

HOLIDAY SOUND—IN THE ROUND

Too early to think about Christmas shopping? Not a bit! But shopping this year shouldn't be as difficult as it usually is. Science has given us a boost. Research into new and better means of producing musical entertainment in the home has turned up the perfect gift for the entire family—the stereophonic phonograph.

Stereophonic phonographs range in price from under a hundred dollars for a basic unit up to hundreds of dollars for a complete home entertainment center which includes AM-FM radio, tape recorder and reproducer, stereophonograph and sometimes even television—all of it in one handsome furniture cabinet.

That's Audition's November thought for a December day.

ALBUM REVIEW

Check List

Among the many long-playing albums released last month, those reviewed here are considered to be the best. They have been so chosen by the reviewing staff of The Billboard, business newsweekly of the music industry. Reviewed prior to their release, these albums are now in stores throuout the country.

□ BELAFONTE SINGS THE BLUES—Harry Belafonte. RCA Victor LOP 1006—The singer's fans will find an interesting new Belafonte sound in this album. His performances on new and older blues tunes are relaxed, intimate and earthy. Ork backing is excellent. "Hallelujah, I Love Her So," "One for My Baby" and "God Bless the Child" are standout selections. This is one of his best. Good cover sketch of the artist.

□ LET'S GET AWAY FROM IT ALL—Patti Page. Mercury MG 20357—Here's a tasteful package of standards. Patti Page wraps up a group of nostalgic themes—some swiny, others dreamy—in her usual creamy vocal style. Selections include "Autumn in Rome," "Basin Street Blues" and "April in Paris."

□ MORE SING ALONG WITH MITCH—Mitch Miller & the Gang. Columbia CL 1243 — Mitch Miller's first "Sing Along" album was an immediate best-seller, and this follow-up package should enjoy similar success. Miller again features happy, community sing-styled group vocalizing on a flock of oldies — "Moonlight and Roses," "For Me and My Gal," "There's a Long, Long Trail," etc.

□ JIMMIE RODGERS SINGS FOLK SONGS—With Hugo Peretti Ork. Roulette R 25042—Jimmie Rodgers tackles a collection of folk songs here for good results. Tunes include "Soldier, Won't You Marry Me," "Black Is the Color," "The Riddle Song" and "Waltzing Matilda." Rodgers handles them with feeling and the ork backing by Hugo Peretti is excellent. The selections are also available on three different EP's, EPR-1, 315; 316 and 317, for the younger fans.

□ PRIMITIVA — Martin Denny. Liberty LRP 3087 — Martin Denny has another exciting album for hi-fi addicts and a sock follow-up to his previous "Exotica" LP's. Album spotlights such fascinating instruments as the Japanese Kota Buddhist prayer bells, a 200-pound carved rhythm log from New Guinea and other equally exotic items. Romantic off-beat wax, and striking cover photo. A natural for stereo.

□ ELLA FITZGERALD SINGS THE IRVING BERLIN SONGBOOK (2-12)—With Paul Weston Ork. Verve MG V 4019-2—Miss Fitzgerald has another sure-fire disk in the latest in her series of song books by various composers. This time the spotlight is on Irving Berlin. With excellent settings by Paul Weston she runs thru 31 of the tunesmith's most loved melodies with irresistible charm. The album is a real work of art. The notes by Nat Hentoff are interesting and informative. Cover shot of the artist is attractive.

□ ONLY THE LONELY — Frank Sinatra. Capitol W 1053 — A natural! Sinatra seems to become greater with each new effort. In addition to a lovely new Cahn-Van Heusen album title tune, the set includes several other numbers that suggest of a feeling of being alone or loneliness. Ork backing by Nelson Riddle is, as usual, first rate. Fine cover sketch of the artist.

□ DYNAMIC DAKOTA STATON — Capitol T 1054 — A potent follow-up album to her previous hit packages, "The Late, Late Show" and "In the Night." Set spotlights Miss Staton a fine group of tunes—some of which are not too often heard. Arrangements and ork direction by Sid Feller enhance the thrush all the way. Tunes include "Some Other Spring," "Let Me Off Uptown" and "Night Mist." Excellent for both pop and jazz fans. Good cover shot of the artist.

□ GREAT SONGS FROM THE GREAT SHOWS OF THE CENTURY (2-12)—Jane Morgan With Frank Hunter Ork & Various Artists. Kapp 5006 — This is one of Miss Morgan's finest offerings. The de luxe, two-disk set is attractively packaged, highlighted by a lovely cover shot of the artist. Songs from many of the great shows from 1900 to the present are given lush, warm vocals by the thrush, with good instrumental backings. It's a wonderful item.

□ JULIE IS HER NAME, VOL. II—Julie London with Howard Roberts, Guitar and Red Mitchell, Bass. Liberty RLP 3100 — With a feeling of jazz and poetry, the thrush purrs her seductive way thru "Little White Lies," "Spring Is Here," "Goody Goody" and other evergreens. Backed solely by guitar and bass, in high style, Julie scores mightily in this LP, with sound a feature. Luscious cover.

□ SONGS OF THE FABULOUS CENTURY (2-12) —Roger Williams. Kapp KXL 5005 — Pianist Williams has another likely hit package with his latest, a de luxe two-volume set. He runs thru 25 of the century's top standards with excellent support from the Hal Kanter and Marty Gold orks. Center fold of the jacket highlights the attractive packaging with several photos of outstanding events from 1900 to the present. It's a fine production with strong prospects.

□ THE ROARING 20'S, VOL. 5—Enoch Light & the Charleston City All Stars. Grand Award 33-378 — Grand Award came up with a good idea with its first "Roaring Twenties" set a long time ago and this fifth volume in the series proves the idea is still sound. It is like the other sets, containing songs of the 1920's played and sung with the pep and vim and style of that era, making them good for listening, dancing or background music at parties. Enoch Light is in charge of the ork, and the songs range from "The Best Things in Life Are Free" to "A Cup of Coffee, a Sandwich and You." The cover is attractive.

□ AFRO-CUBAN INFLUENCE —Shorty Rogers' Big Band. RCA Victor LPM 1763 —Big band, Afro-Cuban arrangements by top-flight West Coast jazz man Rogers provides many exciting moments. Personnel includes a flock of well-known Coast musicians with an expanded percussion section. Side one is a new selection, "Wuayacanjanga (Suite)," which is excellently executed. It's a fiery, rhythmic work that is given colorful and interesting ork effects. Side two includes "Manteca" and "Un Poco Loco."

□ JAZZ NEW YORK—Manny Albam and His Jazz Greats. Dot DLP 9004—Manny Albam and the Jazz Greats, who have turned out some fine sets for Coral, have switched to Dot, and Albam's first set for the label keeps up the fine standard he set on the other label. Set features an ork composed of New York's top musicians, including B. Brookmeyer, A. Cohn, G. Quill, P. Adams, B. Glow, D. Byrd, Z. Sims, E. Costa, M. Hinton, et al. The tunes include standards and originals, and Bix Beiderbecke's fetching "In a Mist." The ork plays with drive and feeling and the sound is excellent.

□ LOUIS UNDER THE STARS —Louis Armstrong with Russ Garcia and Ork. Verve MGV 4012—The great artist gives a brace of standards his wonderful and soulful, gravel-voiced treatment. His usual, excellent trumpet stylings are nicely backed by conductor-arranger Russ Garcia. The combination of talents puts this package in the top-flight category. Appeal is to both pop and jazz buyers.

□ MILESTONES —Miles Davis. Columbia CL 1193—This is one of Miles Davis' best to date. In addition to Davis' fine tone and talent the package spotlights excellent group and solo work on the part of the other members of his sextet. Most of the six tracks are done in a fairly brisk tempo. "Milestones," the album title, is enough to sell the album. Good cover shot of Davis. Personnel includes J. Ad-derly, alto sax; J. Coltrane, tenor sax; P. Chambers, bass; R. Garland, piano, and "Philly" Joe Jones, drums.

□ KISMET—The Mastersounds. World Pacific WP 1243—The Mastersounds give the selections from the Broadway hit of several seasons ago a refreshing and listenable jazz setting. This should prove as successful as their jazz treatment of "The King and I." In addition to the delightful and thoughtful jazz arrangements, the sparkling sound is a notable feature. Cover shot of a pretty girl in Oriental costume is an added lure.

□ ON CAMPUS WITH THE DUKES OF DIXIELAND VOL. 8 —Audio Fidelity AFLP 1891—The Dukes turn to a group of college tunes for their latest presentation. As with their previous releases the sound is outstanding. All extremes from the booming of the tuba to lightly percussive sounds on the cymbals come thru with extreme clarity. Bugs will have a field day with the set. Musically and jazz-wise, it compares to their other efforts.

□ THE COSMIC SCENE—Duke Ellington's Spacemen. Columbia CL 1198 — A swinging performance of standard jazz pieces and some new songs by Ellington and eight of his all-stars. Included are "Avalon," "Body and Soul," "Perdido," "St. Louis Blues" and "Bass-Ment." Package will be relished by the artist's admirers, for it really swings and contains creative arrangements. There are urban notes by Irving Townsend about the personnel and each of the tunes.

□ RAVEL: BOLERO, LA VALSE, RASODIE ESPAGNOLE—New York Philharmonic Ork. (Bernstein). Columbia ML 5293—Bernstein gets a hypnotically exciting presentation of "Bolero" from the orchestra. Sound is excellent and continually mounts in vigor to the work's crescendo. All of the impressionist's wonderful orchestral colors on the other selections are interpreted to their fullest. Competition is formidable, but popularity of works and the strength of the conductor's name should make this a strong favorite.

□ DVORAK: NEW WORLD SYMPHONY —Chicago Symphony Ork. (Reiner). RCA Victor LM 2214—A virile, broad, exciting conception of the popular romantic work with Reiner's baton making the ork soar. A solid addition to the basic library which should do very well against multiple competition. Provocative cover shot of the Statue of Liberty.

□ STRINGS BY STARLIGHT —Hollywood Bowl Symphony Ork. (Slatkin). Capitol P 8444 — Attractive settings of romantic and modern works are given sensitive performances by the string section of the Hollywood Bowl Symphony Ork. It's a light, lush program that should find as much acceptance as previous releases by the orchestra. Slatkin's tempos are deliberate and even without becoming saccharine. Selections include "Waltz From the Serenade for Strings," by Tchaikovsky, "Adagio for Strings," by Barber and a lovely setting on "London-derry Air" by Percy Grainger.

□ SAINT-SAENS: CONCERTO NO. 2; FRANCK: SYMPHONIC VARIATIONS —Artur Rubinstein, Piano with Symphony of the Air (Wallenstein). RCA Victor LM 2234—Rubinstein performs the busy concerto with surety, displaying his usual dexterity. The variations are given an elegant interpretation. The Symphony of the Air under Wallenstein assists the artist capably in presenting the intricate, romantic selections. Despite competition, the Rubinstein name is a strong buy incentive.

□ BARBER - MENOTTI: VANESSA (3-12) —Various Artists; Metropolitan Opera Ork. and Chorus (Mitropoulos) RCA Victor LM 6138—The Barber-Menotti modern-romantic work, one of the highpoints of last season's Metropolitan Opera offerings, received critical acclaim. The disk version comes attractively packaged with a copy of the libretto and biographies of the principals. A history of the commission of the opera and incidental background notes by Francis Robinson add to the over-all appeal. Fine performances are presented by soloists.

□ BEETHOVEN: TRIOS NOS. 1 & 5—Joseph Fuchs, Violin; Pablo Casals, Cello, & Eugene Istomin, Piano. Columbia ML 5291—More selections by the trio from the 1953 Prades Festival, displaying sweet blendings and firmness of approach. Casals photo on cover should help lure chamber music fans. It fills in neatly for those who've bought the more important Beethoven trios by the same group of stars.

□ THE ORGAN —E. Power Biggs, Organist. Columbia DL 5288—A 12-inch LP plus a profusely illustrated, hard-bound, 40-page slick paper book make up this aural and visual guide to the king of the instruments, compiled by E. Power Biggs. Modern and historic organs are seen and heard, and artwise and sound-wise, it's a magnificent job. Should make a prime gift offering, as well as being a must for students and organ enthusiasts.

□ SPAIN —Chicago Symphony Ork. (Reiner). RCA Victor LM 2230—The bittersweet musical influence of serious composers from the south of Spain is explored by maestro Reiner and the rich-sounding Chi ork, drawing on selections by Granados, Manuel de Falla (including a lively set of dances from "Three-Cornered Hat"), and Albeniz. Packaged in de luxe style, with an informed, poetic set of notes by Vincent Sheean, the album is a first-rate introduction to the cream of Spanish orchestral works.

□ BORODIN: STRING QUARTET NO. 1 —Vienna Konzerthaus Quartet. Westminster XWN 18715—The first LP of this lesser known Borodin work, tuneful and Austria-flavored, should win a host of chamber music enthusiasts. Carried off with great style by the players, it can even attract some "Kismet" fans who like Borodin melodies.

STEREO: Facts their new

Matching speaker for Model 834

Matching speaker for Model 833

Matching speaker for Model 838

CHOOSE NEARLY ANY of the new stereo records. Play them on almost any stereo phonograph. And practically every listener will be thrilled the first time he hears stereophonic sound.

But the phonograph purchaser who will enjoy all the unequalled pleasure of true stereo's total realism, now and for years to come, is the one who hears and heeds this advice from recording engineers:

Choose a true, balanced stereophonic phonograph—one in which the two sound channels are “separate but equal” right from the tone arm, through matched amplifiers, to identical speaker systems. (And place those speakers at least six feet apart.)

Also, the wise buyer will make sure his new phonograph has an accessible control for balancing the channels... and one master control panel so they stay in balance when bass, treble and volume are adjusted.

EVERY ONE of those important features is included in every complete Capitol Stereo Phonograph. Capitol's own recording engineers — pioneers in stereophonic sound—developed these true, balanced stereo instruments. Custom designers styled the hardwood cabinets.

These other facts, too, help explain why Capitol Stereo Phonographs give the greatest value in the whole wide world of sound:

Each model pictured has its own matching speaker cabinet, available separately (as shown with the featured console and leather portable)

- Capitol's three deluxe console models are all available as AM-FM-phono combinations
- Capitol backs every set with its free service warranty
- And any of the 11 Capitol phonographs for 1959 will play standard recordings brilliantly.

The deluxe console featured at right (Model 836) actually sells for less than $300; its matching four-speaker cabinet for under $100 (usual Eastern retail prices).

The place to buy a stereophonic phonograph is the store that offers a demonstration of high-style, higher-fidelity, highest-value Capitol Stereo Phonographs.
