THE POPULARITY OF TOP 40 RADIO is cyclical in a sort of seven-year-itch way: It may fall in and out of favor, but in time, the love always returns. As a result, the format is doggedly tenacious and everevolving, maintaining its relevance as a destination for its 12-34 core audience.

Billboard Radio Monitor salutes top 40 radio with a special issue devoted to the format's top 40: programmers, MDs, broadcasters and a sprinkling of stations.

The top 10 are ranked. The remaining 30 are mutually admired. Enjoy.

SENIOR VP OF PROGRAMMING, CLEAR CHANNEL/NEW YORK PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WHTZ NEW YORK

TOM POLEMAN SEEMINGLY HAS IT ALL: He's

the foremost top 40 programmer in the nation; his talent has elevated him to the position of senior VP of programming for Clear Channel/New York, with command over the most-listened-to top 40 in America, WHTZ (Z100); he has Jessica Simpson's and Rob Thomas' numbers stored in his cell phone—and somehow, despite such a tornado of success, he remains one of the nicest guys in the business.

Before his stint at Z100 began in 1996, Poleman held programming and on-air positions at KRBE Houston; WKCI and WAVZ New Haven, Conn.; WALK Long Island, N.Y.; and WVBR Ithaca, N.Y. Once he arrived in New York, he steered an off-course Z100 back to its mainstream top 40 roots and doubled the ratings, returning the station to iconic status.

Poleman is also active in giving back to the community, and in June 2004, he was honored by LIFEbeat for his commitment to the organization, including a public service campaign he initiated, utilizing celebrity artists to promote HIV prevention.

On a national level, he serves as Clear Channel's top 40 format brand manager and liaison, creating nationwide programs and initiatives for the company's 125 pop stations. Poleman told Billboard Radio Monitor in a recent interview, "I think the future is very bright for top 40. We need to celebrate what's great about the format. Now is the time to get really excited about top 40 and what it should be—the larger-than-life contests, exciting marketing tactics. I'm looking forward to a great report eard."

JOHN IVEY

REGIONAL VP OF PROGRAMMING, CLEAR CHANNEL/LOS ANGELES PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 KIIS-FM LOS ANGELES

programming one of the country's foremost top 40 stations in the No. 9 market would signify a remarkable career. But John Ivey oneupped himself: After seven years as the highprofile PD of mainstream top 40 WXKS (Kiss 108) Boston—where he made famous #2 the consummate summer radio festival Kiss Concert—he crossed coasts to helm mainstream top 40 KHS-FM Los Angeles. "When I was approached about the job, I had by no means thought of leaving Boston," Ivey told Billboard Radio Monitor. "I thought I'd be here another 10 years. I told my wife the only two stations in the country that I would leave this one for, if I was successful here, were Z100 New York and KHS in L.A. When you're in this business, that's obviously the peak of the mountain." Well, almost. A year later, Ivey was promoted from PID to regional VP of programming for Clear Channel/Los Angeles.

Today, Ivey has certainly earned stripes as one of the smartest programmers in the business. After 30 years in the industry, he says, "Top 40 is definitely a balls-of-steel format. You wake up in the morning and realize that top 40 may not be the hottest flavor right now, but the cycle always turns, so you better protect your heritage while you're catching up."

TOM CUDDY

VP OF PROGRAMMING FOR FM STATIONS, ABC RADIO

#3

TOM CUDDY SAYS the defining moment that set him on a path toward a career in radio came when he wasn't accepted into Harvard Medical School. But the Ivy League's loss turned out to be broadcasting's gain.

A 25-year veteran of ABC Radio, Cuddy joined WPRO Providence, R.I., as an air personality in 1980 and was elevated to PD of WPRO-AM-FM two years later. In 1987 he moved to New York as VP of programming for ABC Radio Networks and executive producer of syndicated shows "American Top 40" and "American Country Countdown."

In 1990 he returned to local radio as VP of programming for WPLJ New York. Six years later, he was promoted to his current job as VP of programming for ABC Radio's FM stations in Los Angeles; Chicago; Dallas; Washington, D.C.; Atlanta; Detroit; and Minneapolis. He remains based out of WPLJ.

Most of his peers know his résumé. But here's a little-known Cuddy factoid we uncovered: He has a sweet tooth, and he likes to share the goodies with his staff. A self-avowed "chocolate chip cookie connoisseur," Cuddy says, "I'm too generous with all the sweets—candy and cookies—in my office and [the staff] finds it difficult to stay on a diet."

He thinks the employees would say that is his most annoying quality. But what is his most endearing? "The staff is still searching for one," he says modestly.

While Cuddy is a serious-minded guy, he gamely answered even our silly questions.

If one-hit wonders ruled the world, we asked, who would be their leader? Cuddy chose Nena of "99 Luftballoons" fame.

And asked who would win a brawl between mainstream top 40 programmers and adult top 40 programmers, he gives the nod to the adult guys like himself, noting, "As a group, we have more rhythm."

Take that, Harvard. —PHYLLIS STARK

SCOTT SHANNON PD/MORNING SHOW CO-HOST, ADULT TOP 40 WPLJ NEW YORK

ABC'S WPLJ NEW YORK enjoys a rare gift in the radio world: consistency. The adult top 40 boasts a programming and sales team that has remained in place for more than a decade. It lays claim to a dedicated listener base that seldom strays. As a result, WPLJ has grown into a heritage force in the nation's No. 1 radio market; it has been on the air for 33 years. PD Scott Shannon—who got his start in broadcasting in 1969—certainly brings his own share of history and panache to the station.

His career in radio found its unexpected start when Shannon was drafted to serve in the U.S. Army. While stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C., he got his first job at the mic on weekends at WFBS-AM. He was transferred to Fort Benning, Ga., and quickly hooked up with WCLS-AM Columbus, Ga.

After his tour of duty, Shannon worked 7 p.m.-midnight at WABB Mobile, Ala., where he took on the moniker Supershan, "the fastest mouth in the South." His ratings combusted into a 72 share—you got that? A mighty 72 share. Next, he made stops in Memphis, Nashville, Atlanta and then as PD at famed top 40 WPGC Washington, D.C. When he left the station for WRBQ (Q105) Tampa, Fla., as PD/morning host, WPGC was No. 1 in the ratings. It was in Tampa that Shannon invented the Morning Zoo concept. "It's like 'Saturday Night Live,' 'The Tonight Show' and talk radio," he said then, with parody songs, comedy skits and biting editorials. Within a year, the station had more adult listeners than any other station in the nation.

By the time he got to mainstream top 40 WHTZ (Z100) New York as PD in the late 1980s, Shannon was a legend. Ironically, in his eight years there, a primary mission was to bludgeon WPLJ, his future home; he once called the station "wimp radio."

Then, in the late 1980s, he retreated to Los Angeles, where he launched his experimental and highly touted KQLZ (Pirate Radio 100.3)—but in 1991, he returned to New York to helm the very station he had belittled, which, for a short time was deemed WPLJ: Mojo Radio.

"When Shannon joined 'PLJ," promotion director Theresa Angela says, "My thought was, 'Here's this guy that made my life miserable. What the hell is he coming here for?' "But she was pleasantly surprised. "He was a sweetheart. We heard all these rumors that he was this monster and that he was going to come in and everyone was going to get fired, and it was so not like that."

It is safe to say that Shannon and morning teammate Todd Pettengill have become such an entrenched part of the New York radioscape that Shannon's reputation will always be associated with playing in the major leagues of New York. In addition to their traditional morning hijinks, Shannon and Pettengill have also released a number of popular CDs, drawing together the best bits from their show.

In 2003, the National Assn. of Broadcasters inducted Shannon into its Hall of Fame; he and Pettengill were also named major-market morning team by Billboard Radio Monitor five times. On the national level, Shannon is the official voice of the Sean Hannity talk show, heard on 400 radio stations across the United States; and he is PD/host of the new True Oldies Channel, syndicated by ABC Radio Networks.

Former Clear Channel/Atlanta regional VP of programming Tim Dukes told Monitor in 2004, "I recently had dinner with Scott Shannon. I hadn't seen him in a long time, but he is still so absolutely full of energy and in love with radio that he inspired me beyond words. Here's a guy who has achieved so much in this business but still has a passion level like a teenager who is about to do his very first airshift. If you love what you do, passion is easy to come by."

PAUL "CUBBY" BRYANT MD/AFTERNOON PERSONALITY, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WHTZ NEW YORK

WHAT'S IN A NAME? For Paul "Cubby" Bryant, pretty much an entire career. The mainstream top 40 WHTZ (Z100) New York MD was a senior in high school in Virginia Beach, Va., when he got his first job as a DJ, working for WGH (Star 97) in his hometown. Initially, he used the moniker "Bear," after the legendary football coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. But being a youngster, he was tagged "Cubby" instead. Today, millions of fans know the jock on a first-name basis as the easygoing drive-time personality at Z100. Cubby worked his way to the nation's No. 1 radio market in 1996 by way of top 40 KRBE Houston, where he worked on-air and as MD. His boss happened to be

Tom Poleman, who moved to Z100 as PD in 1996—and he invited Bryant to join him. At that point, the station was ranked No. 20 in the market; a year later, the new team had hoisted to No. 7 12-plus. Today, of course, it is the top-ranked top 40 station in the nation. "It's everybody's dream in the music business to work in the No. 1 market,"

Bryant told The Virginian-Pilot way back when. "It was such a challenge to try and resurrect such a legendary radio station." New York has been plenty good to Bryant in return. Over the past nine years, he has loaded his mantel with awards, including six nods from the Billboard Radio Monitor and New York Metro A.I.R. awards. He has appeared on "Hollywood Squares," as a judge on WNBC's "Gimme the Mike" and host of WPIX-TV's Saturday Night 70s. Bryant confides on the Z100 Web site that if he were not on radio, he might be an air traffic controller. But it sounds like he's already moving in the right direction, eh?

-CHUCK TAYLOR

TODD SHANNON

OM/PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WIOQ (Q102) PHILADELPHIA

TODD SHANNON MAY SHARE a last name with another of top 40's leading men—WPLJ New York's Scott Shannon—but this programmer has cut his own path in the radio business.

In 2002, Clear Channel flip-flopped Brian Bridgman (also profiled in this issue) from his PD role at WIOQ (Q102) Philadelphia to Todd Shannon's spot at KHKS (Kiss) Dallas—and vice versa (Shannon had previously worked for KDMX [Mix 102.9] Dallas). It did not take long for the radio vet to sniff out exactly what the No. 6 Arbitron market was all about.

"The market has completely changed since my arrival," he says. "We have competition coming at us from all directions, but that makes it all the more fun. I am proud of the team we have in place. It is one of the strongest I've ever worked with."

Shannon told Billboard Radio Monitor last year, "Q102 has always had a rhythmic lean. Straight, white mainstream music is a component to the music mix, but it does not dominate the sound of the station. We continue to play the right mainstream titles together with the best rhythmic product. With the rich, rhythmic history in Philly, what may look urban or rhythmic on Q102 is accepted as the mainstream in Philadelphia."

As of November 2002, Shannon—who has also worked at WNCI Columbus, Ohio, and KHTS San Diego —became OM/PD of Q102 and one of Clear Channel's highly touted top 40 brand managers (ironically, he also oversees R&B/hip-hop competitor WUSL [Power 99], along with CC properties WDAS-AM, WSNI, WDAS and WJJZ). In his time at Q102, the station has experienced some major on-air upheavals, but the PD remains on top of the scene, viewing his competition with open eyes—particularly WRDW (Wired 96.5), which leans heavily rhythmic.

Comparing Q102 with Wired, Shannon says, "The stations couldn't be more different. Now more than ever they are leaning more urban with their currents, recurrents and gold titles. Based on the latest ethnic breakouts, they are the second hip-hop/crossover station. For months they have been competing against our sister station, Power 99, on the streets for business, not Q102."

One challenge he finds he is facing these days is the level of the stars to spin at mainstream radio: "Top 40 is definitely not the same as it was seven years ago. Gone are the high-profile, format-exclusive superstars like 'N Sync, Backstreet Boys, Britney [Spears] and Christina [Aguilera]. We need more mega-superstars to call our own," he says.

On the other hand, Shannon feels armed to go to battle with competing technologies. "Sure, there will be some of Howard [Stern's] audience that follows him to Sirius, but I see the smart phone being the biggest threat in the coming years. Clear Channel is executing a massive rollout of [high-definition] radio in 2005. No question, this is a huge leap in the right direction for terrestrial radio."

—CHUCK TAYLOR

"CADILLAC JACK" McCARTNEY

VP OF PROGRAMMING, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WXKS BOSTON PD, RHYTHMIC TOP 40 WJMN BOSTON

THERE ARE ANY NUMBER OF Cadillacs on the radio lot, but there is only one "Cadillac Jack" McCartney. A Beantown top 40 radio veteran, McCartney was correctly identified by Boston Magazine in 2002 as a programmer "who is watched and copied by programmers across the country."

In the most recent Arbitron survey, WJMN (Jam'n 94.5) was the No. 3 station in the market with a 5.1 share 12-plus, while WXKS (Kiss) scored a 4.9, good for No. 5 in the market.

McCartney has been PD for Jam'n since June 1994, when he joined from Kiss, where he had been MD for three years. In 2001, he was named VP of programming for Clear Channel/Boston and doubled back, adding oversight for Kiss.

Interestingly, he was MD at former Kiss rival WZOU for a year and a half until he jumped ship in '91. WZOU eventually morphed into WIMN.

One thing that is in McCartney's favor is his willingness to try something different. In 1995, McCartney was spotlighted by Billhoard Radio Monitor for putting rap gold from the late '80s and early '90s into WJMN's mix—something its rhythm crossover or R&B counterparts weren't doing at the time. McCartney was taking on longstanding industry wisdom that rap hits had no shelf life, especially those by artists who are not current hitmakers.

McCartney defended his decision by saying that when he was spinning Salt-N-Pepa's "Push It" or Naughty by Nature's "Everything's Gonna Be Alright," "we're not talking about really old records. We're talking about three to six years ago—songs that were substantial hits and tested well for us.

"We're basically a top 40 station that plays rhythm music, and most top 40 stations have a substantial audience that really loves some of the older tracks," McCartney added.

Years later, McCartney made musical changes at WXKS that, at least partially, contributed to that station's success.

In 2002, Kiss scored its first No. 1 ranking 25-54 in more than a decade. McCartney, who had added oversight of Kiss the previous summer, had tweaked the music. The station had been leaning more rock before he realigned it. So much so, in fact, that he believed it was missing its mission of representing listeners' top choices.

The adjustments included adding songs from R&B artists like Alicia Keys and hip-hop's Nelly. "Before last fall, Kiss wasn't quite as broad musically," he told the Boston Herald at the time.

"Other stations are defined by a certain sound," McCartney said. "We're top 40. We play the biggest songs of all the different sounds."

Though he has become a fixture in the Boston market, McCartney previously worked as assistant PD/MD at WKSS Hartford, Conn., and WEZB New Orleans. He got his start as a teenager at WKCI New Haven, Conn., eventually working his way up to afternoons at mainstream top 40 WHTZ (Z100) New York.

-KEN TUCKER

TRACY AUSTIN

PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 KRBE HOUSTON

TRACY AUSTIN told Billboard Radio Monitor last year that although top 40 has recently been dominated by hip-hop crossover hits, she is still invested in pop music with staving power. "A lot of the urban stuff is really reactionary, so it's easy to put on the air, but you have to keep an eye on what you'll have to play for recurrents," she said. As PD for KRBE Houston, Austin sticks to her guns. While the station consistently plays hot hits from the R&B and hip-hop arenas, she keeps staples like JoJo's "Leave (Get Out)" and Maroon5's "She Will Be Loved" around—a formula that has helped keep the heritage station a dependable destination in the Houston community (104 KRBE Earth Day Festival notwithstanding). Flanked on either side by R&B/hip-hop stations in the latest Arbitron numbers, KRBE holds its own at No. 5 against a heavy R&B-formatted allegiance. Austin notes that top 40 is all about "finding a balance." And she would know. Austin worked as MD at Los Angeles' KHS-FM during the most recent peak of pop, with 'N Sync, Britney Spears, Backstreet Boys and Christina Aguilera leading the way. Next, she headed east to become PD at WKSS Hartford, Conn. She subsequently segued to her native Texas in February 2002. Speaking as an industry veteran, Austin has seen many "scenes" of mainstream top 40, this year being no exception. "Top 40," she says, "still has to be about painting a nice picture of variety about what's available." -KATIE HASTY

MD/ASSISTANT PD, WBBM-FM CHICAGO

ERIK BRADLEY STARTED IN RADIO fresh out of high school in 1988. He worked as MD at the former WCKZ Charlotte, N.C., and at KBEQ Kansas City, Mo., and listened to endless WBBM (B96) airchecks. In October 1993, he landed his dream gig at the station.

"B96 is one of the stations I always idolized as a youngster in the music industry," he confides. Why? Long enamored with Chicago, Bradley "absolutely fell in love" with B96 on his first visit to the city. "I thought Eddie & Jobo were the greatest morning show my ears had ever heard—and I still feel that way." He also "just loved the way B96 represented this city and all that it offers."

The influential rhythmic top 40 outlet stays cutting edge, he says, by breaking new music, remaining local, trendspotting and "having smart personalities who represent the station and deliver our messages."

If you've ever been to a Chicago Bulls game and bumped to the music blasting in the United Center, thank Bradley. He is the music operator for the Bulls and for the Major League Soccer team Chicago Fire.

TOP 40'S TOP 40

DAN BOWEN PD, WSTR ATLANTA

DAN BOWEN IS A NASCAR FAN who likes to wear neckties to work. That may sound like an odd combination, but Bowen seems proud of both qualities. "It may be hard to believe," he says, "but I was a NASCAR fan long before it was cool.

Wait," he hedges, "Is it completely safe to call it cool yet?"

As for his shirt-and-tie work attire, Bowen speculates that his staff finds this to be his most annoying quality. Asked what they consider to be his most endearing, Bowen says he's "still asking around to find out the answer to this one. Nothing yet, but I'll keep looking."

We also asked Bowen, Why did you get into radio? Was it just for the girls, or what? His unconvincing reply: "Uh, no, not at all. It was because I love music. Yeah, that was it. It was the music."

A native of central Ohio, Bowen graduated from Ohio University and got his start in radio at WATH/WXTQ Athens, Ohio. An internship at WNCI Columbus, Ohio, led to 12 years of employment there as promotion director, and later, MD/assistant PD. In 1996, Bowen joined Jefferson-Pilot as PD of KWMX Denver and supervised the format change to rhythmic top 40 as KS107.5. A year later, he made the move to WSTR (Star 94) Atlanta.

While he's nowhere close to it yet, we asked Bowen what he thinks the legal age limit should be for grown men programming top 40 stations. Conspicuously avoiding a direct answer, he says, "I think I'll go with 'Age is only how old you feel' on this one."

Finally, we asked Bowen a question we also put to Infinity's Jon Zellner: If you were a piece of broadcasting equipment, what would you be and why? Bowen chose "a webcam in the production studio to be sure there is nothing happening in there late at night."

KID KELLY

HOST, "BACKTRAX USA 80s." "BACKTRAX USA 90s" DIRECTOR OF POP PROGRAMMING/ SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PROGRAMMING, SIRIUS SATELLITE RADIO

IN HIS NEARLY TWO DECADES in the radio business, Kid Kelly has dipped into nearly every part of the talent pool. He is well-known as a No. 1-rated on-air talent, assistant PD and OM at mainstream top 40 WHTZ (Z100) New York. He is the host of nationally syndicated "Backtrax USA 80s"-heard on 250 stations nationwide-and "Backtrax USA 90s"-heard on an additional 120 stations. And he is a pioneer in the land of satellite radio, as senior director of programming for Sirius Satellite Radio, overseeing no fewer than eight stations: Sirius Hits 1, Starlight, Sirius Love, Totally 70s, Big 80s, the Pulse, Vacation and the Strobe.

"Most radio folks thought I had lost my mind when I came to Sirius," Kelly says. "But the reality was simple: I had done everything I wanted to in terrestrial radio and was ready for a change. The opportunity to be in on the ground floor of Sirius was something that I truly believed in and knew would be huge.

"Everything is appealing about satellite radio," he adds. "We are not constrained by Arbitron. We don't have 15 salespeople to accommodate every moment of the day, and the [Federal Communications Commission] isn't breathing down our backs. What's not to like?"

Even so, Kelly still admires terrestrial radio and doesn't view satcasters as an impediment to FM. "Radio has always had competition from emerging media and has always survived. Frankly, I think satellite and terrestrial radio are in the same boat of having to compete with iPods, which I consider the bigger Kelly also wonders how the potential undoing of independent promotion is going to affect artists' careers at top 40.

"I suspect that we'll start to see pop artists develop organically, as they've been doing for years at hip-hop and R&B stations, and radio must be willing to pay better attention to their audience and have the courage to give them their shot," he says. "Top 40 is a fluid format, so it will be very difficult to make a long-lasting impression."

Kelly attributes the success of his "Backtrax" shows to their being a shout-out to top 40 memories.

"You decide at a certain age what music will affect you; when it stops being played and you give it some downtime, that gives us the chance to isolate it and bring back a pleasant place in their minds," he says. "It reminds listeners of what they were doing, how they felt, a sense of well-being and happiness."

As a broadcaster who has worked in terrestrial, satellite and syndicated radio, Kelly believes he has experienced the best that the business has to offer.

"My first gig was for minimum wage in Willimantic, Conn.," he recalls. "I knew I wanted to be in radio since I was 7. I used to call Jay Thomas at then-top 40 99X when I was 10 and ask him how to get into radio. He would call me an a-hole and hang up. I was thrilled he answered the request line and spoke with me. Jay now works at Sirius. I recently shared the story with him; we had a good laugh." -CHUCK TAYLOR

BRIAN BRIDGMAN

PD, KKRZ PORTLAND, ORE.

BRIAN BRIDGMAN HAS HAD AN old-fashioned radio career: His résumé reads like a road map, with plenty of famous destinations along the way. Like so many of top 40's top 40, he started in the business as a kid, on-air at AOR KWK St. Louis at the age of 17 in 1983, where he was known as "the Rock & Roll Kid." But top 40 was in Bridgman's blood, and he has stuck with type T40 since. As he worked his way up the ladder, Bridgman put in time at many of the most renowned top 40s in the nation: in the Mid-Atlantic at the late top 40 WAVA Washington, D.C.; on the West Coast at mainstream top 40 KHS-FM Los Angeles; back east as PD of top 40 WNKS (Kiss 95.1) Charlotte, N.C.; north as OM of mainstream top 40 WIOQ (Q102) Philadelphia and PD of adult top 40 sister WLCE (Alice 104.5); then southwest as PD of mainstream top 40 KHKS (Kiss 106.1) Dallas. A year ago, probably quietly panting from exhaustion, he conquered new territory, shooting to the Pacific Northwest as PD of Clear Channel's heritage top 40 KKRZ (Z100) Portland, Ore.

On a tribute Web site for KWK, Bridgman recalled, "I basically bugged anyone/everyone to get an on-air job since I was 14. I think they gave me a job to shut me up. I was a busboy as well during the week, but thought, 'What are you doing? Take the job.' Immediately everyone in school was asking if I was on the radio. I tried to downplay it, as I was very shy, but I remember letting the job go completely to my head. It was a lot to handle at a young age, but I was having the time of my life." -CHUCK TAYLOR

KID CURRY PD, RHYTHMICTOP 40 WPOW MIAMI

KID CURRY IS APPROACHING HIS 15th year at WPOW (Power 96), having risen to PD in 1996 after arriving in 1990 as a DJ. What's even more impressive is that he began his career at the same station in 1976, when its call letters were WMJX.

Since 1990, WPOW has changed its tune several times. "We've gone from freestyle to dance to hip-hop," Curry says. "We change to what our target is into."

He calls working with new talent one of the highlights of his career. "I get to program a legendary radio station with the best GM in the business [Greg Reed] and the most talented group of fresh radio people I've ever worked with," he says. "As of today, I only have one person on my on-air staff that has ever worked at a radio station. For all but him, it's their first radio job, so there are none of the ghosts of past PDs. They've only learned one style-ours."

Curry isn't concerned about satellite radio. "There's a billion radios out there in America," he says. "It's going to take some time for satellite to catch those kind of numbers. There's 4 million satellite subscribers, but there's about 275 million of us. And remember, content is king!" -BRAM TEITELMAN

MIKE PRESTON

PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 KBKS SEATTLE

MIKE PRESTON HAD PROGRAMMED for Nationwide (KWSS San Jose, Calif.) and Gannett (KSDO San Diego) before he landed at WPLJ New York as MD in 1989. And he had already met Scott Shannon, though the legendary personality/programmer didn't remember him. When Shannon arrived at the ABC adult top 40 in 1991, "I told him that I met him before," Preston says, "but he was absolutely certain that he had never met me. I tried to convince him, but no luck."

At a Christmas party two years later, Shannon grabbed Preston and escorted him to a wall of photos outside Shannon's kitchen. There, on the "wall of

CARSON DALY

HOST. "CARSON DALY MOST REQUESTED" HOST, NBC'S "LAST CALL WITH CARSON DALY"

AT THE AGE OF 31, TV/radio personality Carson Daly is as much a broadcasting veteran as most frazzled industryites twice his age. It all began when he interned for Jimmy Kimmel on KCMJ Palm Springs, Calif. From there, he was zapped by the radio bug and worked on-air in San Diego and San Francisco, then hit the big time at rock KROQ Los Angeles-and then, MTV came calling. As host (and eventually executive producer) of the wildly popular "TRL," Daly catapulted to idol status among the shame," was the proof: a snapshot of Shannon and Preston with record promoter Billy Brill at the 1985 Bobby Poe convention. Smiling, Shannon turned to Preston and said, "See, Mike, I told you I'd met you!"

As it did with Shannon, patience is paying off for Preston at KBKS. Riding high on a wave of exceptional music and an ensemble morning show that has taken root, the Infinity mainstream top 40 is savoring its best ratings in a year. It rose from a 3.6 share 12-plus in the summer 2004 Arbitron to a 4.3 share in the fall. Its share among 18-34 women grew 9.1-10.4 in the same period, while it climbed 12.9-16.7 with listeners 12-24.

"We've been sticking to being mainstream and balanced for about four years, and I think that tack and the Jackie & Bender morning show connecting are the two major reasons for a nice fall showing," Preston tells Billboard Radio Monitor.

Remaining "mainstream" is a mission statement you'll hear echoed over and over if you spend any time with Preston, assistant PD/MD Marcus D or music coordinator Brittany. It's also reflected in the station's slogan: "No. 1 for all the hits."

"While rhythmic music now truly is the center of massappeal music," Preston says, "we continue to find strong pop/rock, alternative-rooted pure pop and even some adult titles that will work well, not just in individual songs but in an actual mainstream flow of today's hits."

You'll also hear a variety of perspectives in the morning show, which involves three girls and two guys living their lives on the air. Adding to the real-world motif is that Jackie and Bender are married.

"We all feel the days of song parodies, phony commercials and the like have become passé," Preston says. The audience, however, has become enamored of the show's phrase that pays: "Jackie & Bender hate stupid people."

Preston and Marcus D believe homegrown talent is essential to radio's future, and they work hard on developing young'uns who come to the station from local colleges and Nathan Hale High. Some of these students have gone on to be jocks and traffic anchors.

Two years ago, KBKS was one of the first U.S. radio stations to broadcast a digital signal full time. The station's morning show has a daily blog on its Web site and makes some on-air content available through podcasting. For Preston, it's all part of "remaining relevant in the face of all the digital options" and reflecting "what the listeners are vibing on, not trying to create it."

Now, about this Scott Shannon dude . . . -PAUL HEINE

12-24 set. Since, he has hosted or appeared in more than 40 diverse TV shows—from the annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade and "It's a Very Merry Muppet Christmas Movie" to the "USO Special for the Troops." He also now holds a coveted late-night host spot on NBC via "Last Call With Carson Daly." But the guy has not deserted radio. He is currently heard on more than 100 radio stations on the nationally syndicated "Carson Daly Most Requested," in addition to helming his own production company, Carson Daly Productions, and a record label, 456 Entertainment. "The job at KROQ was more than I ever hoped for. I always wanted to work in music and be around it," he is quoted as saving on the MTV Web site. "Then MTV gives me a call; it's been an -CHUCK TAYLOR amazing trip ever since."

wait until they're out of high school before devoting their lives to the broadcast business. But Ryan Seacrest was an early bloomer, working as an intern at his hometown top 40 WSTR (Star 94) Atlanta at the age of 16. Impressed by his talent, the station offered him the nighttime shift, where he quickly polished his skills. Meanwhile, Seacrest finished high school and went on to the University of Georgia, where he majored in journalism. While a freshman at UG, he was drafted to host ESPN's "Radical Outdoor Challenge"—but it was still radio that made his blood percolate. His next stop was top 40 KYSR (Star 98.7) Los Angeles, where he held a highly ranked afternoon drive slot for six years. Then Hollywood came calling: Seacrest started four years ago as host of a modest reality show called "American Idol." The resulting fame—E Online named the 29-year-old one of the "20 Young Guns Under 30 Who Hold Hollywood's Future in Their Hands" and People magazine voted him one of its 50 Most Beautiful People—only fueled Seacrest's radio career. A year ago, he took the reins of the morning show at Clear Channel top 40 powerhouse KIIS-FM Los Angeles from the omnipotent Rick Dees; the show is now No. 1 with women 18-49. He also took over for Casey Kasem filling a pair of giant shoes—counting down Premiere Radio Networks' "American Top 40" every week in the United States, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. His trademark sign-off may be "Seacrest out," but the entertainer is anything but. -CHUCK TAYLOR

PD, KHKS DALLAS

WHEN TOP 40 KHKS (WILD 100.3) DALLAS flipped to the "Jack" format last summer, KHKS PD Patrick Davis might have gotten the best end of the deal. Having cornered the market for mainstream top 40, Davis has brought the station up from a 3.1 share to a 4.0 within a year, with no other mainstream top 40 station in the market to speak of. Since 2002, Davis aided in putting the Clear Channel-owned station at No. 5 in a market of 33. Davis was appointed PD after a stint working as OM for "Kidd Kraddick in the Morning." Davis has helped to maintain the station's reputation for staying committed to the hits and going light on the rock tracks, keeping in tune with the station's longstanding dedication to the core values of the format (which even managed to ride out the wave of new-country format flips in Texas and beyond throughout the '90s). Prior to holding the reins on the widely syndicated morning show, Davis served at other mainstream stations, including a gig as PD/morning man at WFMF Baton Rouge, La., and PD/p.m. driver at KWTX Waco, Texas. -KATIE HASTY

RICK DEES HOST, "RICK DEES WEEKLY TOP 40"

RICK DEES IS FORTUNATE. He has maintained a strong enough radio career to prevent his calling card from being solely the 1976 hit "Disco Duck"—though a No. 1 hit and 4 million singles is certainly nothing to quack at. In fact, Dees' recording career has included a Grammy Award-nominated comedy album, "Hurt Me Baby, Make Me Write Bad Checks." But with more than 35 years behind the mic, Dees' fine legacy is destined to be broadcasting. Like many radio legends, he discovered his passion early. At 17, he worked at a country station in Greensboro, N.C., then moved to top 40 in Ridgeland, S.C. Next came Winston-Salem, N.C.; Chapel Hill, N.C.; and Memphis. In 1982, Dees got the break of a lifetime, as morning man of heritage mainstream top 40 KIIS-FM Los Angeles. He held the post for 22 years, surrendering to Ryan Seacrest just last February. Meanwhile, his "Weekly Top 40" syndicated radio countdown remains a force to be reckoned with. The show reaches more than 70 million listeners a week via 350 radio stations in the United States, more than 125 countries and 27 ships at sea. Dees is also a member of the Radio Hall of Fame, he hosted "Solid Gold," has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame and has been honored with 10 consecutive Billboard Radio Monitor Awards. "Sure, I love being a performer and doing comedy," he has said. "But radio is it. I just absolutely love it." It loves the guy right back.

ROBIN JONES

VP OF PROGRAMMING, RADIO DISNEY

IF THERE IS A CHANNEL that proudly maintains the "pop" in top 40 radio, it is nationally syndicated Radio Disney, which targets kids 6-14 and their moms. The network reaches some 3.2 million preteens and another 2.4 mothers a week—a demographic that advertisers have grown to squeak over. Behind the success of Radio Disney, which is available on 55 AM radio stations, Sirius Satellite Radio, XM Satellite Radio, Music Choice and DirecTV, is VP of programming Robin Jones, who has been PD since the network launched in 1996. Among her accomplishments: bringing the Backstreet Boys to the States. She told Billboard Radio Monitor last year, "I remember getting their CID in Europe and thinking it was really cool. Yes, we were instrumental in putting them on the air and maybe even first." Radio Disney fields 2 million calls a week, which Jones said is a primary driver of its playlist: "Songs only get rotation if we get calls. Simply, it goes back to what our audience wants." She added that the greatest reward of her role is the part that Radio Disney will permanently play in listeners' lives. "We're playing music for the age demographic that is first discovering music and the artists that they will hang onto for life. I call it the Donny Osmond principle," she said. "If I saw Donny on the street today, I'd probably burst into tears, because he was it when I was 10."

TODD CAVANAH

PD, WBBM CHICAGO VP OF RHYTHMICTOP 40, INFINITY

WHAT MAKES WBBM-FM (B96) the most-listened-to rhythmic top 40 station in America? It helps that it programs to a hip-hop nation in radio's third-largest market. Beyond that, PD Todd Cavanah attributes B96's enviable success over the past two decades to not standing still. It is what keeps any product successful over a long period of time, he suggests, from soft drinks to radio brands. "We've constantly adjusted our look, our sound, our research and our personnel to reflect the target audience."

While there have been many incarnations since Hot Hits WBBM-FM bowed May 2, 1982, the perennial top 40 franchise has had only three PDs: Buddy Scott, Dave Shakes and Cavanah, who joined in January 1989, juggling air talent duties while simultaneously serving as Elektra's Chicago rep. Promoted to MD/midday personality in May 1990, Cavanah then became PD in July 1993.

Like a winning coach, Cavanah says, a successful programmer needs to look at the game film (read: research) and make the right adjustments. "We're always prepared for attacks and vulnerabilities, and we ask ourselves, 'What do we want to protect? What are we willing to let go?' We are very focused. We also get the job done for our advertisers, too," he says.

Despite a full-court attack by crosstown Clear Channel mainstream top 40 WKSC (Kiss), B96 remains on top, posting a 3.9 12-plus, a 7.0 with women 18-34 and a 14.1 for persons 12-24 in the fall 2004 Arbitron.

Heard on the station since the 1980s, Ed Volkman and Jim Bohannon signed a seven-year contract reportedly worth more than $21 million in July 2002, following a well-publicized bidding war between Infinity and CC. Acknowledging that Eddie & Jobo "still want to win and they're big team players," Cavanah believes top 40 has relied too much on morning shows at the expense of other dayparts. "If we're going to continue to grow the radio station, we need to have something else. I think every station is going through that, finding the next big stars," he says.

There's more to the Killer Bee than mornings, music and marketing. Last year the station bowed a new night duo, Stylz & Roman. "They are on fire," Cavanah says. He calls afternoon personality Roxanne a star and applauds the hit mixes midday host Brian Middleton plays during the "B96 Lunch Party."

Apart from morning-caliber talent 24/7, the audience magnet for B96 is its music, which just happens to be the new mainstream. "It doesn't matter if you're African-American, Hispanic or Caucasian, everyone's into the same music, for the most part," Cavanah says. "We're really at an advantage right now with what's a mass-appeal format."

The former pizza maker also looks after KFFM Sacramento, Calif., and KLUC Las Vegas. As VP of rhythmic top 40 for Infinity, he offers perspective on competitive situations and serves as a sounding board for ideas to keep stations focused.

What's the most satisfying element of his job? "When you have another radio station in town attacking you constantly and talking smack to the record people and the advertisers, and every month you get a report card that says you're beating them," Cavanah says. "The other satisfying thing is to see the jocks I've worked with and to hear great radio coming out of the speakers at B96. It's their success and their hard work, but it's my guidance, and I feel like I'm giving something back to the industry."

Despite increasing competition from iPods, satellite radio and other media options, Cavanah says a 20-something share in teens in the latest Arbitrend proves the station is "still cutting edge and still cool. They're coming to us for a reason. There are stations that have content and programming problems. B96 isn't one of them."

JEFF KAPUGI OM, WFLZ, WBTP and WMTX TAMPA, FLA.

IF YOU DO A SEARCH for Jeff Kapugi's name on the WFLZ Web site, you get just one interesting hit.

A small bio starts out, "First off, if you value life, don't call him 'Booger.' He's tried really hard to shake that name, and the only place that even mentions it now is this site."

Kapugi has been with Clear Channel and its previous incarnation, Jacor, since 1989, when he was involved with the station's hugely successful launch as the Power Pig. But just because we can't let anything go, we spent an unusual amount of time dwelling on Kapugi's nickname.

Seriously, we asked the Clear Channel top 40 brand manager, what's with the whole "Booger" thing, and do you really physically harm people who still call you that? He reluctantly confesses that it "was one of those last-minute name changes at the Power Pig. I have [former PD] Marc Chase to thank for that."

An hour before he went on the air one day, Chase told Kapugi he no longer wanted him using the air name Jeff Kaye and instructed him to come up with something else. When everything Kapugi thought of proved to be "lame," Chase told him "Use 'Booger.' '

"My wife called me on the hotline after the first break and said 'Booger?!' She's now affectionately known as 'Mrs. Booger.' There are a handful of people that are grandfathered into using that name still, but for the most part I lost that when I went to St. Louis. Some of the old Tampa people still can't shake it." Apparently, neither can we . . .

Other stations on his résumé include WCRX Chicago; WXLC Waukegan, Ill.; WJTW Joliet, Ill.; KSLZ St. Louis; and Tampa stations WDUV and WSSR. He caught the radio bug in high school, working with a friend at the school's 10-watt station; the pair did a morning show as "Mutt & Jeff." He's still obsessed with any music by ELO and wants to make it clear that he thinks "Jeff Lynne is a god!"

Asked what his staff finds to be his most annoying quality, Kapugi replies, "I am a stickler for details and am very picky about how my logo gets used. I think my promotions directors hate me when it comes to artwork."

But he also has a soft side. "I know that everyone has a life outside of what happens at the radio station, and I respect that," he says. "I treat people the same way I expect to be treated. It goes a long way."

Because of his experience with the Power Pig, we asked Kapugi what other kinds of farm animals lend themselves to station mascot duties. Apparently confused by our definition of "farm," Kapugi suggests: "the two-humped camel. The humps lend themselves to logos, and NTR possibilities." -PHYLLIS STARK in October 1975, little did the radio world know that 102.7 was destined to become the stuff of top 40 legend. In summer 1984, riding the wave of a renewed pop era with the coming of Madonna and Michael Jackson, the station logged an unheardof 10 share in the nation's No. 2 market—the highest rating in the history of Los Angeles radio. Today, KHS-FM reaches more than 2.5 million listeners per week and is renowned as the home of "Rick Dees in the Morning" from 1981 to 2004 and current national media celebrity Ryan Seacrest. In addition, the station has given away the biggest cash prizes-of $1 million and $2 million—in the history of the business, while its annual Wango Tango and Jingle Ball have become nationally known events. All said, the outlet's success has led to record revenue; in 2001 and 2002, it was the highest-billing station in the country, posting $61.3 million in revenue. Last year, Clear Channel's KIIS-FM was the No. 1-ranked mainstream top 40 station in the United States, according to BIA Financial Network, trailing AC WLTW New York and news WINS New York, with revenue of $60 million. KNHC (C89.5) SEATTLE KEEPING DANCE MUSIC ALIVE IN THE U.S.

KIIS-FM LOS ANGELES

THE NO. 1-BILLING MAINSTREAM TOP 40 STATION IN THE U.S.

WHEN KIIS-FM LOS ANGELES SIGNED ON

KEEPING A BEAT IN THE UNITED STATES is

nearly impossible these days, as an entire generation grows up without exposure to dance music on the radio. Even those few commercial outlets that tip the dance card are never a sure thing: In Miami just last month, Cox's WPYM (Party 93.1) was popped like a balloon and flipped to active rock. Sigh. If there is hope to be had, it squarely points to KNHC (C89.5), a non-commercial tucked away in a converted classroom at Nathan Hale High School in Seattle. The station has been in motion since 1971, evolving over the years into its current menu of house, power dance and electronica, giving love to such European household names as Anastacia, Jem and Eric Prydz. In 2003, the Village Voice named C89.5 the best high-school station in the nation, writing, "A station that broadcasts hi-NRG disco all day, punctuated by the occasional goth specialty show is automatically the best in New York, especially if it webcasts"-which the station does, at c895fm.com. PD Jon McDaniel, a 1987 graduate of Nathan Hale, says, "There's so much that is open to us, from Christina Aguilera to imports we see on the charts in Europe. We're run like a top 40, but we're a clear alternative. There's never a problem finding music that makes everybody feel good." -CHUCK TAYLOR

CAT COLLINS PD, RHYTHMICTOP 40 KQKS DENVER

CAT COLLINS HAS PROGRAMMED rhythmic top 40 KQKS (KS107.5) Denver for nearly seven years, but he says the high point of his career came just several weeks ago, when the NBA All-Star Game was in Denver.

"KQKS hosted 32 events over four days," Collins says. "We were actually in four places at once on any given day for concerts and parties. I've never been more proud of the radio station. We owned the streets, and the on-air execution from the staff was the best. From my standpoint, outside of the ratings success we've had here, that's definitely the highlight."

Aside from that, Collins says that owner Jefferson-Pilot's support of the station, as well as the talent he has been able to develop are satisfying aspects of his job.

"I consider my APD/MD John E. Cage to be the best top 40 MD in America, and our morning show, which we put together in-house [Larry, Kendall & Kathie] has been first or second 18-34 adults for the last two years, which is no small feat in Denver. I'm as proud of all of our other talent as well. We do a fantastically good job of positioning this station and continually evolving with a young adult audience."

Collins has programmed KQKS almost from its beginning, assuming the PD reins just one year after the station signed on.

"Our position as a rhythm top 40 has remained the same, but the music has naturally bounced around," he says. "That's dictated by pop culture, not programming. Obviously, the last few years, it's been dominated by hiphop, and in the last year or so, you've seen a resurgence of R&B pop, like Usher and Alicia Keys. We're going to go where our audience wants us to go."

Collins picks Usher and Ludacris as artists that define his station, saying KQKS would draw the line at playing an artist like Kelly Clarkson, since she's a little too mainstream for the station's rhythmic-leaning sound.

Collins isn't intimidated by the growth that satellite radio has experienced recently. "First of all, radio's commitment to being local is a huge advantage over satellite," he says. "We're going to need to learn to coexist with satellite radio. It's not going anywhere. At the same time, I believe every operator in America of every facility for terrestrial radio controls its own destiny.

"If you put an entertaining product on the air that is welldefined and comes through with the expectations you set for your audience, you don't need to worry about satellite. That encompasses commitment to spend on the product, to market the product and to develop talent. If you're truly committed to that, satellite radio will not be an issue. If you're not, you have the ability to get your ass kicked.

"As cocky as it might sound, I'm not worried about it at the station I work at," he continues. "We're a well-defined brand that has a lot of love for it from its consumers, so I'm not too worried about XM or Sirius having a more compelling hip-hop station than mine." -BRAM TEITELMAN

CASEY KASEM TOP 40 LIVING LEGEND

IF YOU SUGGESTTHE WORDS "TOP 40" to folks who don't live and breathe radio for a living (and even some who do), their immediate response is likely to be "Casey Kasem." Even though Premiere Radio recently farmed out the most famous broadcasting voice in history to count down only AC and adult top 40 hits on "American Top 20 With Casey Kasem" (giving his prized "American Top 40" to Ryan Seacrest at the beginning of 2004), Kasem personifies pop music radio to an entire generation.

Kid Kasem originally dreamed of playing pro baseball in Detroit, where he grew up as Kemal Amen Kasem. But by 1956, the radio bug had bit him hard; he began his first full-time DJ gig at WJBK Detroit. He followed with DJ stints in Cleveland; Buffalo, N.Y.; and Oakland, Calif. In 1963, he landed a shift in the nation's No. 2 radio market at KRLA Los Angeles.

Unfortunately, in time, his PD frowned upon Kasem's fondness for comedy sketches. When two of his fellow on-air comic DJs were canned, pride went to battle with practicality as Kasem searched for a way to save his hide.

In a tale that has become legend, a frustrated and anxious Kasem, 30 minutes before beginning his evening air shift, fished from a trash can a magazine called Who's Who in Pop Music, which contained trivia about hit music artists. He began leading into songs with bio teasers, then introducing records with stories about the artists and their songs. In that instant, not only was a job saved, but the engaging formula behind what would become "American Top 40" was born.

On July 4, 1970, with a half-dozen stations on board, "AT40" and its host, Casey Kasem, began the historic four-hour weekly countdown. Now, as then, "the King of Countdowns" remains focused on his listeners, offering one formidable explanation for his longevity: He knows his audience.

"I picture people in a car, with mom and dad in the front seat, a couple of kids in the back seat and a grand-parent as well," he told Billboard a few years ago. "I want to entertain each and every one of those people at some time during the 20 minutes that I believe they are listening to me. In that time, it's up to me to entertain, whether it's a story they like, a statistic they didn't know or a letter that they can empathize with."

As he climbed to radio's pinnacle during the course of a nearly 50-year career, Kasem has followed that familiar personal mantra he has employed since his Detroit days in the mid-1950s: "Keep your feet on the ground and keep reaching for the stars."

"I don't know that I'm that much different than I was back in those days," he says. "I believe that my basic principles, my sense of ethics, my values through the years have been honed and sharpened. It's a wonderful thing when someone tells me that they know exactly what the expression means, that they get the message."

DIANA LAIRD

PD, RHYTHMIC TOP 40 XHTZ and MAINSTREAM TOP 40 KHTS SAN DIEGO

DIANA LAIRD WAS NAMED one of the 50 people to watch by San Diego Magazine in 2004, yet anyone in the know about top 40 radio is aware that she has been one to watch for quite some time.

"She's one of the rare individuals in radio who knows her audience," local radio observer Chris Carmichael told the magazine.

"She'll keep her stations on top, continuing to reinvent the format as necessary."

In 1996, the self-described "rock chick" took over the PD reins at heritage crossover-rhythmic KGGI Riverside, Calif. Because Laird cut her teeth at rock stations like WSHE Miami and KJFX Fresno, Calif.,

Billboard Radio Monitor had to ask, "Can a white girl from a classic rock station program a Latino-targeted rhythmic top 40?" The answer was yes. "Not having a lifelong passion for the format actually made me more objective about it," Laird said at the time.

Later, when she moved to San Diego as PD of KHTS, her ability to understand the audience paid off again. A year after she joined the station, it had its best book 12-plus and ranked No. 1 with women 18-34.

"I've always felt [that our music] strikes a good balance between gut and research," she said. "I'm not living the lifestyle of a 22-year-old female, so how can my gut always be right? At the same time, I don't think programming solely on research is always right either."

Laird added duties for XHTZ in 2002. KEN TUCKER

SENIOR VP OF PROGRAMMING/WEST COAST, CLEAR CHANNEL

IT WAS LAST DECEMBER when Michael Martin relinquished his day-to-day PD duties for Clear Channel's R&B/hip-hop KMEL, rhythmic top 40 KYLD (Wild 94.9) and adult top 40 K1OI (Star 101.3), all in San Francisco. His newest assignment: Clear Channel senior VP of programming/West Coast. This position caps a 17-year run as a market leader in San Francisco. Among Martin's programming highlights is garnering KYLD-once KMEL's arch-rival-some of its best ratings in the mid-1990s. No wonder Martin had taken on KMEL as his second station by mid-2000. And it was only about one year later that he added his third PD stripe in San Francisco, for KIOI. Of his triple programming role, Martin told Billboard Radio Monitor at the time, "I saw an opportunity to utilize the relationships I have with the industry and how they could benefit a station that's now playing current music. So I just saw a great synergy between the stations and really wanted to do it." He described his duties as shifting from a single-station focus to more of a cluster strategy. "Overseeing a cluster, it's more of a puzzle," he noted. "If I move this station to the left a little, how will it affect these other two stations, and how can I surround the market?" -TONY SANDERS

PD, WNTQ (93Q) SYRACUSE, N.Y. TOP 40 SYNERGY CAPTAIN, CITADEL

ON HIS FIRST RADIO JOB, Tom Mitchell met the woman he would marry. This year the couple is celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. Between then and now, Mitchell has pro-

N.Y.; WTIC-FM Hartford, Conn.; and WNTQ (93Q) Syracuse, N.Y., which he joined in 1996. Top 40 since 1983, 93Q is "the huge, mass-appeal, mainstream pop station in Syracuse," he says, the one that can draw 50,000 people to an annual balloonfest, the one that consistently ranks first or second in women 25-54 and in 12-plus cume. Fall 2004 "election book" aside, Mitchell says top 40 is in an up cycle. "The supply of current music is rich and varied," he says. The format's biggest programming challenge is audience fragmentation, not just from competing stations but from competing technologies, like the Internet, MP3s, 500-channel cable TV, DVDs, videogames and cell phones. "Even in the car, all of theseexcept cable TV and [the] Internet—can be accessed, and it seems as though Wi-Fi will impact cars soon," he says. "But there will always be an important place in the landscape for terrestrial radio as a medium of local entertainment, information and advertising." In addition to keeping 93Q on top, Mitchell also serves as OM for Citadel's other Syracuse properties and moderates monthly conference calls with the other Citadel top 40 PDs, facilitating dialogue and disseminating information from corporate. -PAUL HEINE

ROB MORRIS

PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 KDWB MINNEAPOLIS CLEAR CHANNEL

WHILE MOST PDs SPEND THE YEARS DOTTING

around the country in search of a higher rung on the career ladder, Rob Morris, PD of KDWB, has been uncharacteristically stable. After working in Ohio for a decade, he joined the Minneapolis station in 1994 as assistant PD/MD under Mark Bolke and Dan Kieley. In August 1997, he was promoted to PD of the mainstream top 40 station—and he has been locked in place since. Despite some heavy competitive hits over the years, Morris led the station to its highest 12-plus share in spring 2000, with a 9.2 share. He is not doing badly now either: KDWB is one of the few mainstream top 40s in the land to actually see an up-trend in the fall 2004 Arbitron ratings. The station ticked from 4.4 to 4.7 12-plus, finishing at No. 5 overall in the No. 16 market. Like most of the wiser PDs in top 40, Morris knows that the key to maintaining credibility and popularity starts with musical balance. "We certainly fall into lulls like we tend to be in now, when you skew one way or the other in terms of rock or rhythm product," he recently told Billboard Radio Monitor. "But the passion scores for the right records are there. They're always going to be there for those top songs, because those are going to be the songs that people want to hear the most, but sometimes you get that drop-off after 10 or 15 songs. Top 40's usually best when the down-the-center-lane music is hot and you're getting cume from outside that really wants to hear that music, too. If you venture back [when] you had the Backstreet Boys and 'N Sync and stuff like that that was very hot, you were drawing in people from outside that would come to the radio station to hear that because that was pretty much the only station that would play it." -CHUCK TAYLOR

CAROL PARKER MD, ADULT TOP 40 WRQX WASHINGTON, D.C., ABC

CAROL PARKER IS A BALTIMORE GIRL, a single mother to a 10-year-old son—"I'm an ice hockey mom"—and she wholly loves what she does. And as with other natives to the market area, Parker has never felt an urge to leave.

Her radio career is also modest. Her path has led her from one top-ranked station to another. Now firmly ensconced at WRQX (Mix 107.3), she says, "There is not another place on this planet where I would choose to work. I started here, like, a thousand years ago as the producer for one of the morning shows and did afternoon traffic and I did weekends, and then I left. And then 10 years went by and there was a music director opening, and I thought to myself, 'Well, I've never done that.'"

That's how Parker sums up about 20 years in radio in

ORLANDO

PD/MORNING CO-HOST, RHYTHMICTOP 40 WLLD TAMPA, FLA., INFINITY

"WE CALL THE STATION 'WILD,' but it's also a lifestyle station," WLLD (Wild 98.7) Tampa, Fla., PD/morning co-host Orlando says. "Whether you're a doctor that skips his rounds to go play golf or a kid that's ditching class to go hang out and smoke pot with their friends, everyone gets wild in a certain kind of way, so they turn us on for that. We're the soundtrack to their insanity." Hence the station's new slogan: "Everyone gets wild from first breath to death." Orlando has worn several hats since arriving at WLLD in 1998. His morning show duties, he confides, are a mixed blessing: "It cuts into your nights, so you don't get to feel the crazy vibe of the city. The upside is that you have your finger on the pulse of the station." In the morning, Orlando adds, he sees an example of anything at WLLD that's going wrong or right. "If you're on the air, you get immediate feedback, but if you're in morning drive, you get it that much more." WLLD has "stayed the course" in the time he has been programming it, Orlando says. When he began, "the No Limit stuff, like Master P, was big, but the more underground dance stuff like Sonique and Amber was also prevalent," he recalls. "I was helping to bridge the gap between top 40 and rhythm. It's a little darker now, lots of 50 Cent and the Game and stuff that's so thugged out that you have to find those records in between to soften the edges." -BRAM TEITELMAN

JOHN PEAKE

PD, ADULT TOP 40 KLLC SAN FRANCISCO INFINITY

JOHN PEAKE JOINED KLLC in July 2001 after a year abroad as the "mission director" for the Paris-based NRJ Radio Group.

The European experience taught him a great deal. "The most important lesson I learned," he says, "was that radio must remain culturally relevant in order for people to make listening part of their daily habits. We are very fortunate that [in the] U.S., radio has played a significant role in our pop culture history."

Peake says that in Europe, radio is not part of most adults' pop culture, which makes it difficult, if not impossible, for the medium to be integrated into their daily lives. He believes there is a lesson to be learned for American programmers.

"Think about what is happening to radio in the U.S. right now," he says. "If we do not give young people real reasons to listen to radio, it is unlikely we will ever get them to listen as adults."

With San Francisco's proximity to Silicon Valley, Peake knows from whence radio's future competition came. In 2002, he told Billboard Radio Monitor that his station was "no longer competing against other radio stations—we're competing for people's time."

"I need more of their time that they give to their MP3 player," he said. "I just want a half-hour more of their time a week."

Peake got his start at a Washington, D.C.-area AM station while in high school. He has also programmed KRBE Houston; WAPI Birmingham, Ala.; and KRQQ Tucson, Ariz. -KEN TUCKER

D.C.: humbly and without too much detail. After a while, the story starts to unfold.

Her first radio job after college was answering phones at country WPOC Baltimore, then owned by Nationwide Insurance. She helped in the commercial traffic and promotions departments. Clearly bitten by the broadcasting bug, Parker studied for her broadcast license, her ticket to on-air opportunities.

"I used to sneak into the studio and make tapes, and then I'd play them for the PD and he'd say, 'Keep working at it.' Finally they gave me a weekend shift. I was so ecstatic. I got to run NASCAR races on Sunday mornings."

Her persistence landed her a full-fledged weekend shift at WPOC. Eventually, someone at WMZQ, the newly created country outlet in Washington, heard Parker and offered her an airshift. That was during the late 1970s/early 1980s. She rose through the ranks at WMZQ to become PD.

"I was there for a good long while, and then I took a break," but she stayed in the market. Next on the airshift résumé was an evening gig at WLTT (W-Lite) "and then I came to Q107." The incarnation of 107.3, also as a top 40 FM, "was probably the best experience of my life. I worked for [radio consultant] Alan Burns."

Next came an extended break from commercial radio, working at Voice of America. That gig ended when Parker found out about the MD position opening up at Mix 107.3. "I think I got the music director job because I begged."

Now in her 10th year as MD at the FM, her programming philosophy can be summed up this way: "All I want to do is make this station one that somebody can't turn off. I want them to punch us up and literally say, 'I love that song. Wow!' That's all I want to do."

Parker says she couldn't be happier. She also couldn't be much more humble. "Can you imagine? I get to pick songs every day. I think anyone could do what I do. I just believe I'm blessed to be the one doing it. I'm just here, I work really, really hard, and I love it."

JOHN REYNOLDS PD. MAINSTREAM TOP 40

PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WNKS CHARLOTTE, N.C.

JOHN REYNOLDS HAS TAKEN a long and winding radio road to the PD slot at WNKS (Kiss 95.1) Charlotte, N.C., starting as a 14-year-old at suburban Milwaukee AM WGLB.

His career has taken him from Madison, Wis., to New York, where he was an assistant promotions director and weekend jock at renowned WHTZ (Z100). In fact, Reynolds is one of only a handful of programmers who have made the leap from promotions. "I think it's one of the most valuable things I've used in programming," Reynolds says of his promotions background. "Having that knowledge and skill-because of the connection you have with the sales department-really brings you in with a great understanding of what's going on with clients and sales." Six years ago, Reynolds came to Charlotte for his first programming gig from KHKS Dallas, where he was assistant PD/MD/ midday jock. In 2000, he added oversight for AC sister WQKC (K104.7), which was classic hits WSSS at the time. Reynolds, a Billboard Radio Monitor programming award winner, says his philosophy is simple: "Play the hits, be bigger than life, and be compelling." The key to succeeding with that philosophy is "building a staff of people around you that are passionate about radio and what they do," Reynolds says. Equally important is sharing goals and ideas with his staff. "The more people know. about where you're going and what you're trying to accomplish, the better they'll perform," he says, "because they're part of it -KEN TUCKER and they know the plan."

J.J. RICE

PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WBLI LONG ISLAND, N.Y. TOP 40 FORMAT COORDINATOR, COX RADIO

THAT ELUSIVE DREAM of attracting teens and their moms is reality for mainstream top 40 WBLI Long Island. "We play big mass-appeal hits," PD J.J. Rice says. "Our goal is to play nothing but powers, whether they're going up or going down."

That strategy has made "Long Island's No. 1 hit music station" palatable to upper demos, even though it targets 18-34. Aggressive hip-hop and alternative songs start at night and don't get daytime play until they test with 25-34.

Rice would also like to let you in on a little programming secret: He wins by being local. New York be damned, everything at 'BLI—jocks, traffic reports, promotions—revolves around Long Island. "Our listeners think it's cool to be on Long Island," he says. "Competing with [New York stations] makes us even better."

Rice prides himself on having beaten mainstream top 40 WHTZ (Z100) New York in Nassau-Suffolk for a record 15 consecutive books, and for posting the highest 25-54 rank (No. 4) of any top 40 station in a top 20 market.

As top 40 format coordinator for Cox, Rice influences a cumulative audience of more than 2 million people, who tune in to a diverse roster of stations including WBTS Atlanta; WPYO Orlando, Fla.; WAPE Jacksonville, Fla.; WHZT Greenville, S.C.; KELZ San Antonio; and KHPW and KCCN Honolulu.

ROB ROBERTS

OM/PD, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WHYI MIAMI CLEAR CHANNEL

ROB ROBERTS IS THE REVERED PD of heritage top 40 WHYI (Y100) Miami. In 2002, he earned his regional VP stripes, taking on responsibility for Clear Channel's entire Southeast Florida region. Roberts first programmed Y100 in 1993. Back then, the FM had become essentially an adult top 40 when Roberts and then-consultant Bill Tanner picked up the tempo and brought the station up to a 5 share. Roberts wasn't necessarily the PD one would have expected to take Y100 in that direction. After years of programming adult top 40 KRLB Lubbock, Texas, he switched to oldies at KZKL (Kool 102) Albuquerque, N.M. Y100 GM Dave Ross heard the station while on vacation, and tapped Roberts for Y100's duopoly partner, oldies WAXY (now elassic rock WBGG). Three months later, Roberts got the Y100 stripes. After Miami, Roberts programmed adult top 40 KDMX (Mix 103) Dallas. He had just settled in at oldies KXKL (Kool 105) Denver when Y100 PD Casey Keating left for KIOI San Francisco in 1996. Soon after, there was a deal on the table for Roberts to return to Y100-and it has been pretty stable since. Y 100's longtime morning show, now in its 10th year as "Kenny & Footy," is anchored by 25-year veteran Footy; Kenny Walker celebrates 10 years as co-host. Roberts' basic philosophy for his morning show is, "If you can't punch in and laugh within five or 10 minutes, then we've failed our mission. There has to be a feeling of outrageousness, without losing Y100's community-outreach image." -TONY SANDERS

JEFF WYATT

REGIONAL VP OF PROGRAMMING, WASHINGTON, D.C./BALTIMORE OM, MAINSTREAM TOP 40 WIHT WASHINGTON, D.C., CLEAR CHANNEL

TALK ABOUT A RADIO PROGRAMMER with the Midas touch. Industry veteran Jeff Wyatt, currently VP of operations for mainstream top 40 WIHT (Hot) Washington, D.C., has been a founding father of some of the format's most enduring radio stations.

In 1982, he left the assistant PD post at heritage WXKS (Kiss 108) Boston to start up one of the first true rhythmic top 40 outlets, WUSL (Power 99) Philadelphia. As PD/afternoon drive jock, he helped catapult the station to No. 1 in the market. In 1986, Emmis tapped Wyatt to launch rhythmic top 40 KPWR (Power 106) Los Angeles, where he grew into the role of regional VP of programming, overseeing outlets in New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Houston. In the early '90s, he segued to afternoon drive at KIIS-FM Los Angeles, working his way to PD.

Wyatt says, "It was my honor to learn how to establish new radio stations from Richie Balsbaugh and the late Sunny Jo White at Kiss 108, then work with Bruce

Holdberg and Don Kelly to put on Power 99 and see it still thriving today; and to work with Rick Cummings and Don Kelly to put on Power 106 and see it still owning the market on the base of that same coalition audience. And starting a top 40 in D.C. with Tom Poleman and Bennett Zier in 2001 was the greatest experience yet, with all the tools we have today to do it right and create great radio."

Wyatt also ran his own Wyatt Consulting Services in the mid-1990s, which led to an opportunity to be part of the launch team for Chancellor's Mega 100 Los Angeles, the first Jammin' Oldies outlet in the country. He anchored and directed the station's first morning show and consulted with management through a highly successful first year.

In D.C., Wyatt assures, he is now having his best time in broadcasting. "Man, working with Bennett Zier and [Hot MD] Albie Dee to keep this one growing across our [five-state], 26-station trading area is a challenge every day worth getting up for and getting excited about," he says. "And leading others to success—watching them reach their personal goals, make their bonuses, go from wondering if they can, to smiling because they did—is very rewarding."

Wyatt has gotten to know the Capital market pretty well at this point. He also served as PD of WJMO (Jammin' Oldies) and country WMZQ in D.C., before "returning to the most exciting format of all, top 40," at Hot, he says.

Wyatt has hosted the internationally syndicated "American Dance Traxx" and was fill-in host for "Rick Dees Weekly Top 40" and "American Top 40 With Casey Kasem." He has won two Billboard Radio Monitor OM/PD of the year awards.

He says without hesitation that he is still having a blast doing it: "Some people say the fun days are gone, but there's always something happening that keeps it special. Bet they can't say that at the Department of Trucks and Potholes."

JON ZELLNER

VP OF HOT AC PROGRAMMING, INFINITY OM/PD, ADULT TOP 40 WBMX BOSTON

MANY WOULD-BE BROADCASTERS grew up listening to a transistor radio hidden under their pillow at night. But that was not enough for Jon Zellner.

He had a pretend radio station set up in his bedroom. At an early age, he was already memorizing the Billboard charts by listening to Casey Kasem every Sunday morning. Radio, as a career, was his only ambition.

"I never had a plan B," Zellner says, "I grew up listening to the likes of Steve 'Smokin' Weed and Walt 'Baby' Love on 99X in New York." Meeting Wolfman Jack on a third-grade class trip to NBC sealed the deal.

"My first airshift was on my high-school radio station in Franklin Lakes, N.J., at the age of 14," he says. The first 45 he ever bought was "Ride Captain Ride" by Blues Image, and he confesses that it is still one of his favorites.

He admits to having one geekish quality left over from his youthful chart obsession. His co-workers, he says, are "tired of finding out what song was No. 1 on the day they were born."

Prior to his move to Boston a year ago, Zellner was Infinity's VP of top 40 programming and OM/PD of KMXV and KSRC Kansas City, Mo. His career has also included memorable stints at KTHT (Mix 102.7) Fresno, Calif.; KYIS (Kiss-FM) Oklahoma City; KOY-FM (Y95) Phoenix; KZZP Phoenix; and WKZL Greensboro, N.C.

Since he has worked in top 40 and adult top 40, we decided to ask Zellner, If top 40 artists and AC artists got into a rumble like the Sharks and the Jets, who would win and why?

While he hedges a little, noting, "that would depend on who the artists were," Zellner ultimately gives the advantage to the top 40 acts "since so many of them are traveling with posses these days."

While we were asking stupid questions, we also put to Zellner our version of the famous Barbara Walters question: If you were a piece of broadcasting equipment, what would you be and why?

His answer: "A seven-second delay, so I could dump out of some of the things I say before anyone hears them."

SAMMY SIMPSON PD. ADULT TOP 40 WWZZ

WASHINGTON, D.C.

SAMMY SIMPSON IS A 20-YEAR broadcast veteran who has spent the last 15 years as PD, marketing director or promotions director at some of the biggest stations in the United States, including Clear Channel's WHTZ (Z100) New York and Bonneville's WWZZ/WWVZ (Z104) Washington, D.C. In early 2004, he jumped into the PD slot at Z104, exiting his position as director of marketing and promotion for ABC Radio's crosstown adult top 40 WRQX (Mix 107.3) and smooth jazz WJZW. Simpson started his career at a one-kilowatt AM in Mebane, N.C., and has worked in a number of markets and formats, pulling in just about every job: OM, PD, MD, on-air personality, morning show producer, marketing director. In addition, Simpson has produced hundreds of award-winning events, including concerts at New York's Madison Square Garden. He was named top 40/pop radio marketing director of the year at the 2000 Radio Music Awards and at the 2002 Gavin Seminar. He has been nominated multiple times for promotion/marketing director of the year by Billhoard Radio Monitor and other industry trades. One of the latest innovations Simpson has engineered is a 30-minute daily afternoon podcast of station programming, tailored to local subway commuters. -TONY SANDERS foundation that we lean where pop culture's leaning," Tear says, "If we're hip-hop-heavy now and that's where the hits are falling, that's the demand from the audience." To that end, WDRQ recently unveiled a new slogan: "All the hits, all the time." When asked if one act represents WDRQ best, Tear names three that indicate the variety heard at his station: Eminem, Green Day and Kelly Clarkson. When asked what out-of-format music he has been listening to, Tear responds, "Sooner or later, they all come to top 40," mentioning Keane's "Somewhere Only We Know" and the Killers. -BRAM TEITELMAN

CHUCK TISA PD, RHYTHMIC TOP 40 WRDW PHILADELPHIA

BEASLEY'S WRDW (WIRED 96.5) had an inauspicious start as Philadelphia's latest rhythmic top 40 station 16 months ago: "Rocco the Janitor" (who later became the station's morning man) commandeered the studio of the AC station formerly known as "the Point" to play his favorite records. Since then, WRDW has proved to be a formidable competitor to Clear Channel's WIOQ (Q102), beating it in several books, including the most recent in fall 2004.

Since the sign-on, Tisa says, the staff has grown closer. "When we all first got here, there were a bunch of people that didn't know each other, and there was nowhere to go," he says. "We've really grown together as a team, and there's a lot of camaraderie together."

Musically, Wired reflects the nation's rhythmic top 40 trends, with Ciara, 50 Cent and Lil Jon among its most-played artists. And we mean it when we say "most-played": The station's powers are typically spun upwards of 100 times per week, with some getting spun as many as 132 times, or almost once an hour. That's among the highest rotations on the Billboard Radio Monitor top 40 panel. "It's really all about building cume," Tisa says. "And to show that it's paid off, this was our second trend where our morning man, Rocco, actually out-cumed Howard Stern 18-34." -BRAM TEITELMAN

MOST AIRPLAY ADDS: registering six or more detec tions at the most stations for the first time this week.

Gracin's song captures Greatest Gainer honors, up 3.1 million audience impressions, and marks the first time in three years that a label has knocked itself out of No. 1. When this happened last, the label was Curb, and it did it three times in a row when Steve Holy. loDee Messina and Tim McGraw had successive chart-toppers during a seven-week stretch that began in the

Gracin's feat also marks the first time in two years that the format has seen a solo male artist make his first appearance atop the chart, ending a dry spell that began when Joe Nichols made his first appearance at No. 1 with "Brokenheartsville" in the March 21, 2003, issue

Lyric Street also takes the Hot Shot Debut on this week's chart with Brian McComas' "The Middle of Nowhere," which starts at No. 48.

COWBOY UP: McGRAW HITS MAINSTREAM CHART

After initially tasting mainstream top 40 chart success this past fall on Nelly's No. 1 smash "Over and Over," Tim McGraw debuts on his own at No. 39 with his former No. 1 country hit, "Live Like You Were Dying." McGraw becomes the first male solo country artist to take one of his own recordings to the mainstream top 40 chart since Garth Brooks peaked at No. 26 with "Hard Luck Woman" in 1994.

"Dying" is the first former No. 1 country track to hit the mainstream top 40 chart since Lee Ann Womack's "I Hope You Dance" debuted in March 2001, eight months after it reached the top of the country chart. That is the same amount of time it has taken McGraw to cross over, as he hit No. 1 on the country list back in July.

McGraw still has a way to go to match his wife's No. 1 crossover output: Faith Hill took three country charttoppers—"This Kiss," "Breathe" and "The Way You Love Me"-to the mainstream chart between 1998 and 2000.

50 Cent's No. 1 Total

50 Cent carns his fifth No. 1 on the R&B/hip-hop chart as "Candy Shop" (Interscope), featuring Olivia, leaps 3-1 and takes Greatest Gainer honors with a 1,062-spin increase. 50 Cent is now tied with Nelly for the most No. 1 songs on the chart by a rap artist.

He also sets a new spin record on the rhythmic top 40 chart as "Candy Shop" becomes the first song to surpass the 5,000 spin mark at the format. Snoop Dogg Featuring Pharrell's "Drop It Like It's Hot," which accumulated 4,933 spins in the Dec. 10, 2004, issue, set the prior mark.

'HOLIDAY' SAILS TO MODERN TOP 10

Green Day climbs 19-9 at modem rock with "Holiday" (Reprise), claiming Greatest Gainer and Most Airplay Adds honors. It is the third top 10 track from the album "American Idiot" and the band's 15th modem rock top 10. That moves Green Day into a fourth-place tie with R.E.M. for most modem rock top 10s, it also marks the second time Green Day has had at least three top 10 songs from one album. Its 1994 collection "Dookie" produced five top 10s, including three No. 1s.

Robert Plant's "Shine It All Around" (Sanctuary) jumps 26-9 at heritage rock, earning Greatest Gainer, Most Airplay Adds and Airpower stripes. That gain is the longest leap into the top 10 since U2's "Electrical Storm" climbed 30-9 in September 2002.

Usher Catches Up To Justin, Janet

With a 6-4 climb for "Caught Up" (Zomba) at mainstream top 40, Usher becomes the first artist since Justin Timberlake in 2002-03 to place four singles from the same album in that chart's top five.

At rhythmic top 40, "Caught" sneaks up 11-10 to become Usher's fifth top 10 on that list from "Confessions." The last artist to place five top 10s at rhythmic from the same album was Janet Jackson in 1993-94. Timberlake's singles came from his "Justified" album, and Jackson's emanated from her "Janet" set.

HitPREDICTOR column

IT IS A GOOD WEEK for new faces on the HitPredictor pages. Many of this week's adds are from acts that find themselves HitPredictor recipients for the first time.

A rock band joins the ranks on the mainstream top 40 HitPredictor chart this week. Relient K scores with its latest, "Be My Escape." This is the band's first song to earn HitPredictor status in any format.

There is a newcomer at rhythmic top 40 as well. K-Young earns an HP star for the first time with "Happy Together," a version of the Turtles' No. 1 Billboard Hot 100 hit from 1967. Ciara and Marques Houston each add their latest to the rhythmic column this week. Ciara scores with "Oh." She's no newbie, though. Her previous hit "1,2

Newcomers Make A Move

Relient K, K-Young, Acceptance Earn First HitPredictor Stripes

Step" was an HP in two formats, including this one. Houston hits with "All Because of You." He has had an HP in the past, but not at rhythmic top 40. "Clubbin" earned a HitPredictor at R&B/hip-hop back in 2003.

Faith Evans earns her first solo HP this week at R&B/hip-hop with the addition of the track "Again." She has appeared here recently, collaborating with Twista on "Hope" just a few months ago. "Again" looks poised to quickly top that track here and on the airplay charts.

Columbia rock act Acceptance accepts an HP at modern rock with "Different." The song earns a solid 67.4 in that format. The band is another new face this week on the HitPredictor charts.

"4 gargantuan mainstream CHR hit cleverly disguised as a country song.

So cleverly disguised, thank goodness, that our out-of-touch competitors are afraid to play it."

— Jeff McHugh, PD/WKZL

"#1 across the board, including 17-22, 23-29, and my P1's! Thanks for the hit and supporting my brand...we REALLY do play ALL the hits!"

-Chris Edge, PD/WNOU

"I've played 'Live Like You Were Dying' about 900 times on 107.5 The River and over 800 of those spins have been in power and the record continues to be a callout monster. You just can't keep a good song down."

—Rich Davis, PD/WRVW
