WORLD SAXOPHONE QUARTET

Metamorphosis
(Nonesuch, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

Comprised of Arthur Blythe and Oliver Lake (more or less leaders) and augmented by David Murray and Hamiet Bluiett (more or less the enormously talented co-conspirators who don't always get the credit they deserve), the World Sax Quartet has been making a rubbery mess of the rulebook for brass bands for eons now. Known for stretching the axioms of the horn section to suit their own whims, fancies and ideas, the WSQ manages, in the process, to single-handedly rearrange the very ideas of what a brass band should be and what it can or can't do. The Dirty Dozen may be better to march or dance to, but the WSQ is more seriously interested in firepower: They build complex brass structures rippling with strength and tension constructed from the simple base of their four horns (oh yeah—this time there's loads and loads of crazy drumming, too). If four wildly gyrating, simultaneously improvised melody lines screaming over a multi-layered bevy of authentic African percussion seems like it might just be your bag, then you'll absolutely dig "The Holy Men" or "Metamorphosis." Meanwhile, "Ballad For The Black Man" may be some of the most eloquent and resonant playing on its theme and subject matter ever, while "Africa," "Lullaby" and "Masai Warriors Dance" are so utterly amazing that they make other bands' horns seem like so much useless plumbing and aluminum hardware by comparison.

URGE OVERKILL

Supersonic Storybook
(Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)

In the Greatest Third LP by a Chicago Rock Band prizewinner, Urge Overkill now looms as the Terry Norris to Cheap Trick's Sugar Ray Leonard, Supersonic Storybook coming on sparring terms with Heaven Tonight (plus Nate Kato does bear a Silly Putty-likeness to Robin Zander). Always the indie scene's most glamorous and sartorially splendid live act, they've finally made a record as classy and impeccably well-put-together as one of their onstage outfits; all components—vocal, melodic, rhythmic and Nate's honky-with-soul guitar—fit into a whole that's messianically greater than the sum of its parts. In a subversive way, this is the most mid-'70s redolent Urge has ever been (the Steppenwolf organ fills and their cover of Hot Chocolate's "Emmaline" isn't the least of it). Nate's guitar leads are let loose for a lingering, unrushed stoner timelessness that only "Head On" had a grasp on previously, and within the indolent iridescence of the playing, the band can sift in stadium anthems ("The Kids Are Insane") LaBelle/War kitsch ("Bionnaissance"), a dependable encore for sweaty clubs ("Today Is Blackie's Birthday") and indie-band-as-the-last-frontier for redemptive rock songs ("Vacation In Tokyo"). Urge Overkill sticks to its guns with enough instrumental juice to run all but the Sonic Youths and Dinosaurs out of town, but they have an attitude that's irresistible to any doobie-smoking 15-year-old.

Illuminated
(Link, c/o Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521)

The 360's are all about guitars, melding the tightly packed electric interplay of the best Pretenders with the squalling feedback and dreamy rhythms of heavier, darker dual-guitar combos. Sort of like Nirvana with a female singer and a humongously raucous production job, the 360's aren't afraid to take those amps and guitars and pedals and play real songs, proving that even at this young stage, this band certainly knows how to sink a pop hook into the fleshy jaws of a dark and slightly sinister guitar attack. You can sense buried undercurrents of unease and desperation beneath the loud and brash guitar fanfare, as the 360's delve deeply into guitar murk and mire, drenching their sound in a dark ambience that suits the generally somber lyrical tone. No matter what, the six-strings are always in-between your ears, right where they belong, often phased, flanged or distorted to an extreme (the title track and a couple of others almost have a Lush-like feel), but always borne on strong melodic wings. Spin these: "Deadpan Superstar," "Texas," "It," "Heroine" and the title track.

LEGENDARY PINK DOTS

The Maria Dimension
(Play It Again Sam, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)

The Legendary Pink Dots have been claimed as influences by everyone from your standard bunch of high-school basement goths to the decidedly unethereal Voivod, and with their 13th release, such adaptability and disparate appeal makes more sense than ever. The band's absorption of just about every artsy, intellectual rock movement of the past 25 years is mapped out clearly—'60s psychedelic frolic, '80s psychedelic twee and '70s prog meanderwankings form the three petals of the Dots' florid parlor-pieces. Vocalist Edward Ka-Spel is responsible for those nagging visions of the Pastels playing early Emerson, Lake & Palmer covers, or the Dukes Of Stratosphear if they had really been New Order instead of XTC. (Pretension is a fine thing if handled properly, but listing tea cups as one of the instruments is somewhat out of hand.) What rescues Ka-Spel's more blatant Barrett-ings are his nearly-as-whimsical melodies, and the overall reverberations of all phases Floyd are loftier in their ambitions than Floyd ever was, the techno-churn never lapsing into truly embarrassing pomposity. The Nice handled its art-school manifestos with as much gaiety and sense of adventure, and for a band to aim so unconditionally for the heavens and actually bring back lab samples is rare and encouraging. Go for baroque: "Disturbance," "Pennies For Heaven," "Home," "Belladonna" (not a Stevie Nicks cover) and "Third Secret."

MIND FUNK Mind Funk (Epic, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—Mind Funk is of a singular breed—its sound is held inclusively within metal's bounds, but it doesn't succumb to metal's less than cogent tendencies and it has a magical ability to wriggle out of metal's funk/thrash/AOR/etc. sub-groupings. The band tosses around suitably elastic rhythms, plays rough and rickety, and delves beyond the three-chord, sub-cranial slam in both lyrical and instrumental composition, but MF bears no relation to any catchphrase that normally sends A&R grunts a-slobbering. The Jersey five's debut is notable for its physicist's dexterity in balancing easily abused powers for an animated, quintuple piledrive. The band batters about repetitive, maximum-strength riffing to within an inch of overkill, setting up head-snapping grooves that don't bury their intellects. Pat Dubar goes out of his way to hit the very reaches of his vocal range, but he doesn't ham it up too much and the band's always stampeding right behind. Moderated throughout by their admirable sense of restraint, they've got the mechanics of contagious songwriting down to an equation so that all the more heaviness can be harnessed without crushing their pop-hit potential. Top Cuts: "Big House Burning," "Blood Runs Red," "Innocence" and "Touch You."

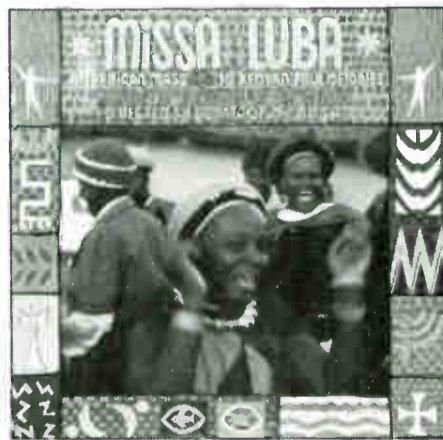

VARIOUS ARTISTS Le Mystere Des Voix Bulgares, Vol. III (Fontana, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Marcel Cellier, who has brought to the attention of American audiences the compelling and exquisite vocal beauty of the Bulgarian RTVB Choir, brings us, in Vol. III, the works of four different Bulgarian choirs. The gravity-defying magic and beauty of these various choirs is fully captured in this third volume. Made up of singers recruited from the countryside, these choirs carry on the 500-year-old Bulgarian vocal and song tradition. On this 14-song release, pain, joy and hope all are explored with the complex emotional effect that history has bestowed upon Bulgaria. The four choirs—Choir Trakia, Choir Rodopi-Smolian, Choir Talbuhin and the RTVB Choir—are uniquely assigned a repertoire that is most fitting to each persona. The work of the Trakia Choir, in particular, has an honesty and upfront sincerity that suggests a genuine musical vision. Put together, all four choirs good us into a renewed appreciation and understanding of the richness of the Bulgarian folklore.

NOVA MOB The Last Days Of Pompeii (Rough Trade, 611 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-777-0100)—As a concept album, The Last Days Of Pompeii is as all-encompassing and perplexing as the stories it tells. Former Husker Grant Hart and his new band, Nova Mob, have created an album which has elements of the past—Pliny The Younger's chronicling of the fall of Pompeii and the WWII stories of German rocket scientist Wernher von Braun—for bricks, and Grant's imagination and his band's musical expertise as its mortar. While we couldn't entirely sort out Grant's musical science fiction (maybe we're not supposed to understand it all), The Last Days Of Pompeii does boast some of Grant's finest songs to date. "Admiral Of The Sea," exposed to us in January on an EP, is included here in its original form and again in a more subtle take (the "79 A.D. Version"), which is hauntingly powerful with its muted bassline. "Wernher Von Braun" is a perky pop song recalling some of the more melodious Husker moments, while "Space Jazz" is decidedly unjazzy, with its William S. Burroughs-like far-away vocals and driving rhythm that's as ominous as the advancing of troops. Other picks: "Where You Gonna Land," "Persuaded" and the title cut.

MUUNGANO NATIONAL CHOIR OF KENYA Missa Luba (Philips, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—The Muungano National Choir Of Kenya, a chorus consisting of 60 native Kenyans and one of Africa's premier choirs, charts the spread of international music with their awe-inspiring LP. Missa Luba is an essentially African piece of music, rich in harmonies and arresting rhythms and pulsations, superimposed onto the structure of the Latin mass. The choir brings forth a degree of emotionalism and sheer beauty revealing the depth of meaning associated with the Catholic religious ceremony. Boniface Mganga, the renowned Kenyan conductor, gives Missa Luba a precise and sharply contoured reading that makes clear why this beacon of musical virtuosity and beauty holds its audience after thirty years (Missa Luba first came to worldwide attention in the late '50s). The second half of this recording finds the Choir delivering hymns derived from Tanzanian, Zimbabwean and Kenyan melodies. This recording's resolution is passionate, wrenching and yet has a light soaring spirit that will captivate any music lover.

TERMINALS Uncoffined (Flying Nun, P.O. Box 677, Auckland, New Zealand/649-774-607)—With a primitive psychedelic garage feel and a surf punk agitation, New Zealand's Terminals give us a slice of the '60s the way it was lived on that distant island, and the way they're still living it today—no trendy modern toys here. Like a less-polished Chills, this quintet offers a basic organ-ornamented lineup, with the sometimes odd, trembling vocals of Steven Cogle (a slightly more stable, deeper piped Tiny Tim of the South Pacific?) giving voice to the melodious din. It's the jaunty harmonic interplay that commands the attention though, carrying the tunes above the standard guitar wash with a choral rush that possesses an offbeat brand of pop dignity. Recorded with the band's original lineup, the frenzy of Uncoffined, their debut LP, finds its heart in being honestly retro—the songs carry on a tradition instead of just going back and ripping one off. Open up "Love, Hate, Revenge," a cover of the Avengers tune (a band from New Zealand in the '60s), "Frozen Car," "Before It Rains," "All Their Lies" and "Hungry Joe."

MAD PROFESSOR Psychedelic Dub (Ariwa, c/o RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC, 20015/301-588-9641)—Hear ye, hear ye, hear ye—hear the latest from that man across the water, the Mad Professor, a.k.a. Neil Fraser, a.k.a. one of the maddest madmen currently producing some of the most whacked-out dub reggae ever dubbed. Verily, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a VU meter than it is for simple mortal minds to understand the Mad Professor's methods and his psycho, diabolical production ways. On this aptly titled hallucinogenic smorgasbord, the 'Fess delves deep into the heart of the dub mystery, taking us on a heady, heavy psychedelic dub trip that boggles the mind in its internal spaciousness and external outrageousness. It's a little like snorkeling through a reef with schools of luminescent fish swarming about you on all sides, as the Professor's different intriguing sounds and samples buzz and blip in and out of the mix. A master of the secrets of the master tape, the mighty 'Fessor knows when to be cool and clinical, and when to be steamy and tropical, blowing the lid off a brewing cauldron of swirling dub. Sample the steamy brew of "Go Deh Nelson, Go Deh," "In King David's Style," "Psychedelic Dub," the fluid "Don't Drink The Piss" and the ghosts in the machines of the inscrutable "Man From Senegal."

SKEPTICS Amalgam (Flying Nun, P.O. Box 677, Auckland, New Zealand/649-774-607)—The Skeptics' fourth record is an end-to-end unbroken spell of orchestrated melancholia. Understated by even NZ standards, about the only thing they have in common with the jingle-bells pop of more famous Flying Nun groups are those droll accents, everything else brushing up against melodic parameters from a paranormal direction. The Skeptics' ambience of opaque, Middle Earth miasma is derived from samples of strings, horns and unidentifiables all twisted from a "Tomorrow Never Knows" nightmare, droning through like muddy, subterranean rivers. Their music, a plaiting of those somber and distinctly unchiming samples with instruments that spurt out notes at intervals, is no less capable of inducing semi-hypnotic states than with a more traditional approach. Yet, with the fife-and-drum percussive march and nasal, coldly Eno-like vocals, Amalgam is far from the airborne swish of Straitjacket Fits or the lushness of the Verlaines; it's the kind of record that seeps into your bones like a cold fog.

Submerge yourself in "And We Bake," "Felt Up," "Threads" and "Sheen Of Gold."

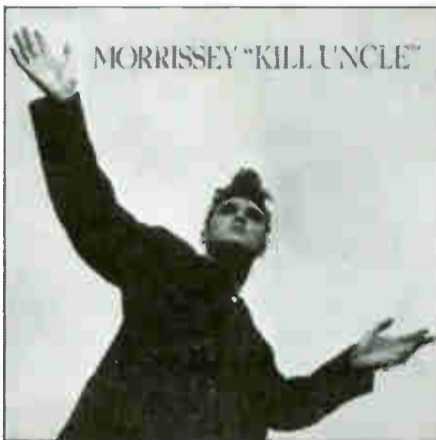

MANUFACTURE Voice Of World Control (Netwerk, c/o I.R.S., 3939 Lankershim Blvd., Universal City, CA 91604)—If there was a Grammy given for the Best Pop Industrial Recording, then Manufacture's second LP would be a shoo-in. Ever since Pretty Hate Machine, the groups that make up the industrial genre have been striving to open up their sound from hateful, garbled crunchmusic to include more melodic, passionate and understandable strains. This Boston duo of Perry Geyer and Brian Bothwell has softened the edge without losing it by adding Gregg Hawkes (yes, the Cars keyboardist) to co-produce and Nigel Butler to sing on a few of the more techno-pop tunes ("Control Yourself" and "New Decision"), yet the growling industrial attitude never flags. "My Destiny" is an atmospheric piece that sounds like it's being beamed in from a space ship, and the final cut, "Emergency Broadcast," burns with the image of nuclear holocaust. Voice Of World Control might tend to lean into Depeche Mode territory a bit much for many purists, but the variety of textures and tones on the LP make it that much more palatable. Top Cuts: The aforementioned, "A Measured Response" and "Running Mad," which has a Far Eastern feel thanks to the added vocals of Bel Canto's Anneli Drecker.

BIG DISH Satellites (East West America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Lush and wistful, Big Dish's third album is a sweeping testimony to the talents of vocalist/songwriter/multi-instrumentalist Stephen Lindsay. Formed in Scotland in the early '80s, this quartet plays simple, romantic blues-influenced pop along the lines of The Blue Nile and Paul Young, flowing with heart, soul and emotion. Lindsay's solemnly crafted tunes, with sympathetic production by Warne Livesey (Midnight Oil, The The) have an inspirational air that levitates like the mist off the loch, floating at varying depths as they unknowingly consume you. The songs themselves have an abundance of imagery, telling melancholy stories of hardship and glimpses of a personal reality that touch a chord with everyday folk. Lindsay uses his artistic and poetic influences to give his craft that much more sincerity, like a painter who uses broad strokes to map out the smooth scenario, and then skillfully adds in the details that give the big picture its focus. Take a big scoop out of "Miss America," "25 Years," "Big Town" and "Shipwrecked."

MORRISSEY Kill Uncle (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—If you take in Kill Uncle alongside Morrissey's first two solo albums—Viva Hate and the Bona Drag comp.—you'll realize that his latest should have been his first. Musically, it is a significant departure from the Smiths, and could have made a bolder statement than his first solo venture. This is not to say that Morrissey doesn't sound like himself anymore; his trademark voice is still the most noticeable and pleasant (in a morose, self-pitying kind of way) instrument on the record. This album rambles through more styles than we're used to from Morrissey; a bit of Far East spice and strings on "Asian Rut" and the perky shuffle of "King Leer" for example. The bulk of the songs are tenderly rendered, with restrained musicianship and a '40s crooner-style from the front man—listen to "Sing Your Life" and "Mute Witness." His voice, drifting over songs like "Driving Your Girlfriend Home" and "The Harsh Truth Of The Camera Eye," mixed with his dolorous lyrics, lead you to believe he's just waiting for David Lynch to give him a cameo as a night club act in Blue Velvet 2. Highlights of the album include "Our Frank" and a taste of the hard edge on "Found, Found, Found."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Texas Funk (Rastaman Work Ethic, 2129 Lexington, Houston, TX 77098/713-529-0614)—They came from all over the Lone Star State, tumbleweeds blowing in their paths, Stetsons perched atop dreadlocked heads, bass guitars and brass sections in tow. They traversed infinite dirt roads, dodging armadillos and roadrunners in search of a unified destiny: Texas Funk. The sounds compiled here make up a fairly representative sample of the most active bands in the Houston, Austin, Dallas and Denton areas. The musical energy emanating from two generations of bands playing a mixture of funk/punk/soul and rap has melded them into a coalition of sorts, dedicated to wiping out the conservative socio-political constraints placed upon artists struggling for creative freedom in the heart of the Bible Belt. Bands like the Big Boys, Bad Mutha Goose, Slackface, Ten Hands, Sprawl and the Daylights came first, drawing crowds with variations on the theme through punk and psychedelic routes. Second generation sprouts include Bouffant Jellyfish, BillyGoat, Joe Rockhead and animated psycho-rappers Retarded Elf. Many of their talents are displayed for all to hear on Texas Funk, thanks to a cohesive approach at verbalizing everything from inner-city oppression to the confines of clothing. Pass the tabasco for: Retarded Elf's "Thunder Pimp," Slackface's "Time," BillyGoat's "Leche," Joe Rockhead's "Red Zone," and Sprawl's "Shum."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

AL PERRY AND THE CATTLE Good 'N' Bitter (7" EP) (Erl, 418 Madison Ave., Albany, NY 12210/518-432-0851)—Congrats to Erl Records for having the smarts to add an Al Perry And Cattle single to their decidedly non-dicey roster of no-fi U.S. bilge. Perry & Swine have yet to propagate a single clunker in their all too rare and scattered recordings, this time taking the A into Screaming Trees-styled goo-goo muck that slinks and oozes like a snake in the mud. The B mines the more familiar corn-fed blare that AP&C have shat out so mightily the last few years. Mas, por favor.

CAVEDOGS Six Tender Moments (EP) (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Capitol has picked up this much-deserving band after the demise of Enigma and has released six more tasty morsels of prime Cavedog pop in celebration. Four of the six tracks were recorded last year in the studio, making them more current than the recordings on Joyrides For Shut-Ins. Leading off the whole affair is a slightly different recording of "Tayter Country," produced by studio guru Ed Stasium (Ramones, Living Colour). Other highlights include "Heartland Jingo Polka," which sounds to us like an acoustic rendering of the Lennon-esque "Proudland" from the LP, an acoustic song called "Glass Eye" recorded live at KCRW and a cover of the Kinks' "I Need You" recorded live at WERS.

FATAL JELLY SPACE Hole (EP) (Flying Nun, P.O. Box 677, Auckland, NZ/649-774-607)—Hole is four songs, all extended, tribalistic polemics, dominated by Jacinda Klouwens' strident, albeit tuneful, wail. Her lead hue and cry puts a harsher cast upon the more softly encroaching rhythms, which take their sweet time to mesh with Frankie Bodi's guitar into inextricable brambles, part folky Throwing Muses, part fuzz jamboree. While the piano-led "Moonlit Track" reminds us of Mecca Normal's isolated fervor, it's "Miseriah" and "Death Fuck Pop" that are most distinctive for detailed, woozy spirals of distorted strings, with banshee (Banshee) vocals keeping the band stiff and upright.

DEADBEATS I Burn (7" EP) (Vacant Lot/Tulpa, P.O. Box 860, Willimantic, CT 06266/203-456-2301)—After three years of perfecting their no-fi vision, the Deadbeats first actual record captures summery, naif Bus Stop labelsque melodies and underfoot guitar plinking with the exact same fidelity one would get walking past a house with a band rehearsing in its basement.

WOODCHIPPER

WOODCHIPPER Bricklayer (7" EP) (Vacant Lot/Tulpa, P.O. Box 860, Willimantic, CT 06226/203-456-2301)—A big fat toga party of early-'60s shimmy, sort of a slower, thuggish Girl Trouble. Kevin Kraynick's vocals are deep, menacing and Tad-like, as the band thumps through two Sonics-style roof-raisers (title track and "She Got Elected") and, to cover all bases, a tender ballad ("Laid").

THUMPER Thumper (c/o Tucher Bros. Mgmt., Sto. A, P.O. Box 2745, Champaign, IL 61825)—This is indie scratch n' rasp in a whole new shade of plaid. Upholding all of what's been held dear to a Midwest-spawned scene (including Albini production), Thumper has more than their share of smarts when it comes to writing non-derivative songs and playing the same old fuzzy rock with challenging fills. The vocalist brays and wheezes as though his jaw were unhinged, a little like that Squirrel Bait guy but meaner, and the musical mess emulates the Bitch Magnet guitar morass not a little bit; there's also some truncated Das Damen evident in the band's inability to let a simple chord progression lie, screwing with time changes and rhythms the way a kid would punch buttons on a blender. Thumper's studio side portrays some monstrously metallic bass/drum maneuvers ("Laid") especially) and the live songs show them in even better circumstances, sharp and tight as bands who've spent many more years stuck in cross-country vans, with heart, soul, spit and shine.

in Two Nice Girls' beer-swilling', rollicking (though obviously kinda sarcastic) goodtime sentiments—Zabel is a straight-up great vocalist and equally strong persona much like other countryish gals that have made memorable and relatively recent splashes, like Maria McKee or Kelly Willis. Write to manager Paul Lovett to hear it (6411 Oriole, Dallas, TX 75209/ 214-357-6580), but believe us when we say that songs like "That's Just Fine" and "If You Let Me" are the pick of the litter here at the Futures desk. . . . Syracuse, NY's JAMIE NOTARTHOMAS' 12-song LP (P.O. Box 322, Eastwood Station, Syracuse, NY 13206) highlights his impressive kinda-folky singing and songwriting amid considerably inferior production and musical backing (except for two newer cuts featuring members of 10,000 Maniacs). While his lyrics can be equally profound and ridiculous, five of his songs here shine—and the jokey "Pay Your Tax" is a potential country novelty hit vaguely along the lines of "Take This Job And Shove It" that could possibly typecast him in the wrong direction. Written before the Gulf War, the song is oddly timely: "For tens of centuries man has known it takes sacrifice to gain/The Mayans gave their lives so that the gods would give them rain/Thousands of humans sacrificed so the rest of us won't go poor/It's true, 'The economy is best when the country is at war.'" —D.I.Y.

F.Y.I.

Well, gosh and double golly, if our big cold hearts didn't absolutely melt when we first heard this here demo tape from MICHELE ZABEL AND BACK TO ZERO. These three gals from Seago,

Texas, are completely capable of defrosting the iciest of personalities. Unlike other countryish, female ensembles of late, Zabel and company don't hide behind the cloakish mystique of an Indigo Girls or share

ALWAYS LISTEN TO THE VOICE OF EXPERIENCE.

Well, maybe not always

In 1988, we signed an exotic 19-year-old named Tanita Tikaram, who just months earlier had made her London club debut. With producers Rod Argent and Peter Van Hooke, Tanita created a compilation of alluring melodies—some somber, some sprightly—that quickly had The New York Times comparing her to Joni Mitchell and Leonard Cohen. By the spring of 1989, this mysteriously mature newcomer's debut album, ANCIENT HEART, with its sultry smash, "Twist In My Sobriety," had sold millions worldwide. But if you absolutely insist on listening to the voice of experience, let us suggest EVERYBODY'S ANGEL, the much-anticipated new release by Tanita Tikaram, who, at a ripe 21 years, has finally come of age.

JACKPOT!

RASPBERRIES Capitol Collectors Series (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine, Hollywood, CA 90028)—Like contemporaries Big Star and Badfinger, Cleveland's Raspberries were a brilliant Beatlesy guitar-pop band at a time when Yes and Grand Funk Railroad were the hot-selling rock acts. Their chilling hooks, soaring harmonies and matching suits put them in the right place at the worst possible time, but they made some of the greatest pop of the era, and their influence was to arise less than five years later in the power-pop "underground" that flourished in the late '70s and has now found a home with Jellyfish, Posies and Material Issue. Although the band featured no less than three singer/songwriters, Eric Carmen wrote their few hits—his high voice and self-pitying lyrics masked the acute pop sensibility that made "I Wanna Be With You," "Let's Pretend," the scorching "Tonight" and especially "Go All The Way" (their first and biggest hit) near-perfect pop singles, all filtered through Jimmy Ienner's ultra-radio-friendly production. But the band soon found itself in danger of being crushed by the wimp factor, and they responded by releasing their best album, the hard-rocking Side 3—which flopped to the mystification of all. Incidentally, Todd Rundgren saw the Raspberries performing Little Eva's "The Loco-Motion" at that time, and within weeks had made their arrangement of the song a #1 hit for Grand Funk. Had the Raspberries recorded the song, it might've saved their career. With an altered lineup, the band recorded one more album—which included yet another Carmen should-have-been-hit, "Overnite Sensation"—before calling it a day; Carmen pursued a briefly successful solo career, the rest dropped into near-obscurity. At any rate, 20 years after the fact, this fab-as-fuck compilation—77 minutes, 20 songs (plus two old radio ads as bonus tracks) and a 16-page booklet with exhaustive liner notes and loads of hilarious period shots—finally does the band justice. Also pluck the lilting "If You Change Your Mind," the Beach Boys spoof "Drivin' Around," "I'm A Rocker," "Ecstasy," "Don't Want To Say Goodbye" (Beatles-meet-Bee Gees), and (for humor value only) "I Saw The Light" and "I Reach For The Light."

BARRY & THE REMAINS The Remains (Legacy, c/o Epic, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—While lucky owners of the seminal '60s-punk comp Nuggets might know of Boston's Remains from their pulverizing contribution, "Don't Look Back," and maybe Beatlemaniacs recognize the name as the band that opened for the Fab Four in 1966, populus generalis sadly knows zilch of one of America's swankest garage bands. Save for a couple of expensive French imports, there've been no available recorded artifacts of the

Column coordinated by Craig Marks

Remains' briefly (and barely) shooting star. Fortunately, the wrong has been righted by the band's original label, Epic, and this 21-track disc should land the band their proper due. Perhaps only Paul Revere And The Raiders' '60s output can match up against the Remains' combination of snap, crackle and pop, spry British Invasion melodies matched with the crunch of prime six-oh American snarl, and capped by the soulful, Jaggeresque wail of lead singer Barry Tashian. The Remains didn't know the meaning of the word filler; every song they recorded in their shortlived career was concise, powerful and should/could have been a hit. Amazingly, the exact opposite proved true, and the band never once hit chart paydirt; "if they didn't have bad luck they wouldn't have any luck at all" could've been their epitaph (their shuffling version of "Diddy Wah Diddy," for instance; collided with Capt. Beefheart's). Choice Remains: "Why Do I Cry," "Lonely Weekend," "Heart," "You Got A Hard Time Comin'" and "Don't Look Back."

RED FOLEY/LORETTA LYNN/BILL MONROE/ERNEST TUBB/KITTY WELLS Country Music Hall Of Fame Series (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—

In cooperation with the highly esteemed Country Music Foundation, MCA has launched the first five volumes of its Country Music Hall Of Fame series, an eventual 11-volume set that will see future collections from the Carter Family, Sons Of The Pioneers, Jimmie Davis, Floyd Tillman, Tex Ritter and a multi-artist compilation. The opening sets span the course of country music's rich and varied past, from the 1940s to the modern era: Bill Monroe is the living embodiment of bluegrass, both its creator and still one of its strongest proponents, and from "Blue Moon Of Kentucky" to "New Mule Skinner Blues," his purity and heart have won him a place in popular music history. Kitty Wells was country music's first great female superstar, and the proof's here for the taking, her unadorned, quivering voice still as affecting as it was back in 1952, the year "It Wasn't God Who Made Honky Tonk Angels" was released. Ernest Tubb could barely carry a tune and had no vocal range, yet he looms large as one of country music's most endearing and enduring legends, his down-home warmth and everyman charm coupled with brilliant musical instincts and a first-rate band (also see Rhino's live 1965 disc). Loretta Lynn's personal life and career has been exhaustively chronicled (Cool Miner's Daughter), but her fiercely independent music less so; she forever changed the role of women in country music with hits like "Don't Come Home A-Drinkin'," "You Ain't Woman Enough" and, later on, "The Pill." Finally, Red Foley, best known as the composer of the hit "Old Shep" (the one about the dog), was a wildly popular performer for over 20 years, and helped bring country music to television with Jubilee U.S.A. The recordings have been carefully restored without being stripped of their original intent, and the liner notes and cover art further add to the superb package.

GRAND FUNK RAILROAD Capitol Collectors Series (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—

Grand Funk's sweaty, bluesy, music-for-the-masses approach apparently hit the right nerve at the right time with the earthy, great unwashed open-air rockfest crowd at the turn of the '70s—by the time they recorded their third album in early '71, they were already millionaires. These were the '70s, after all, and extended jams like "Inside Looking Out," "Heartbreaker" or "Closer To Home" date the music almost as much as Mark Farner's goatee, but hey, Grand Funk was just about the biggest and baddest, so get with it. It's kinda neat to watch the disc unfold and see how the band managed to squeeze lots of their early freeform blowing and jamming into shorter, more single-ready time constraints—"Footstompin' Music" has a screaming guitar solo, an organ solo, a 10-second drum solo and a catchy chorus, all clocking in under four minutes! However, the Funk never managed to successfully sustain success, and by the end of the decade, it was over—the group had split up and Farner was running an "alternative energy store" with his wife in upstate Michigan. But after an unparalleled string of 10 consecutive gold albums (for perspective's sake, that's as many as Zeppelin), face it, man, Grand Funk was hot, hotter than Blood, Sweat And Tears, BTO or any other similarly named, nostalgically embarrassing bands of the decade. Remember, they're coming to your town, they'll help you party down...

MAHLATHINI & THE MAHOTELLA QUEENS The Lion Roars/ MAHOTELLA QUEENS Marriage Is A Problem (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860 201-579-7763)—

All hail the mighty Mahlathini, the "Lion of Soweto," South African musician par excellence, so far unsullied by Byrne, Simon or any other Western influences which might dilute his undeniable musical powers! Bow down to the wonderful Mahotella Queens, vocalists and dancers extraordinaire! As prime originators of the stuttering, popping, jittery Afro-pop known as Mbaqanga, no one need ever doubt that Mahlathini and the Queens' work compiled here on these two discs is totally original and groundbreaking—there's even accordions in spots, and a feedback guitar part on one track! We'd love to tell you more, but as is sadly so often the case, Shanachie has provided virtually no information at all about the recordings on this disc in their liner notes and packaging, leaving a number of nagging questions to frustrate the otherwise spectacular listening experience.

Many of the releases reviewed in Flashback can be ordered through Midnight Records. For a free catalog, write to 255 W. 23rd St., New York, NY 10011 or phone 212-675-2768.

Screaming Trees

Kitchens Of Distinction

CHART TALK

Column by Mark Glaser

Hypnolovewheel: Praying for Top 20

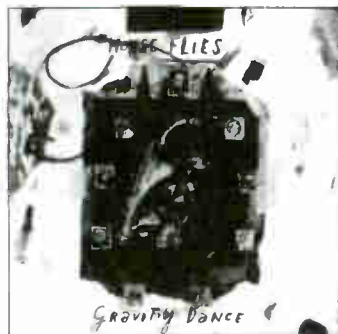

Stetsasonic: The hip-hop band deserves another chance

Mother Jones: For the fourth week in a row, the mother of all records is Jesus Jones, and it ain't going away too soon, if its huge lead is any indication. Also in J.J.'s favor is the strong follow-up single, "International Bright Young Thing," which debuts at #18 for the Breakthrough Cut and has huge crossover potential. Meanwhile, the Screaming Trees, after dropping 2-3, go back up 3-2, while nabbing a #1 in the West. The Trees hold a slim lead over the hard-charging Kitchens Of Distinction (6-3), which leads with strength in the East (#2) and has only been on the chart for three weeks. In contrast to the quick success of the Kitchens is Eleventh Dream Day, which has slowly but surely gained, this week inching up 8-6 with a #2 in the South regional.

Green Sees Green: Joining the Top 10 this week are Sire-WB's Dinosaur Jr. (18-9) and Virgin's Divinyls (12-10). Both projects are seeing amazing sales: Dino has stung Sting and grabbed the #1 Retail slot, while the Divinyls have reportedly sold upwards of 250,000 copies. Knocking on the Top 10's door are Shimmy-Disc's Bongwater (22-17), the R.E.M. single (72-18; the LP will definitely do the trick) and Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers (31-20). We apologize for spelling the LP title incorrectly—Pioughd—instead of the obvious Piouhgd. For further elaboration, please call Jerry Rubinhgo.

Why Ask Why?: We here at CMJ are certainly pleased at the success of artists like Tad (128-57), the Feelies (#76 debut), Hypnolovewheel (#96 debut) and Shonen Knife (#97 debut), but we're more than a little perturbed at the lack of success of the following deserving artists: Robert Forster (104-122), H.P. Zinker (132-127), Brand Nubian (136-135; #122 peak) and Stetsasonic (140-off). We've all heard the tired list of excuses—how 'bout giving something even slightly different a chance?

Top 35. Out of that 57, it's strange that only four stations are in the South, what with the folksy, violin-driven tunes that the Flies weave so well. For those who haven't given the band a proper listen, check out "Sally Ann," "Roadkill" and "Needles On The Beach."

On that note, it's great to see Ithaca, NY's Horse Flies doing relatively well. On their second LP on MCA, Gravity Dance, the band combines weird images with simple melodies that sometimes border on Supertramp territory (but don't let that scare you off!). While MCA's re-issue of their first LP never made the Top 150, the follow-up moves 94-74 with 57 stations—that's over one-fourth—reporting it in their

ON THE CHART

After a five-week reign at the top, Sting (1-4) has finally been knocked down to size by the Green Mind of Dinosaur Jr. (2-1), who also retains the #1 In-Store honors. Charisma's Enigma, who debuts In-Store at #7, moves up 5-2, and Food-SBK's Jesus Jones holds steady at #3. Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers jumps up 10-6 and 9-2 at In-Store, with the remaining records in the top 10 shuffling around.

A loud wail was heard from Morrissey this week, as Kill Uncle debuts at #15 hot on the heels of its release. The King Of Misery will probably challenge J. & Co. for the top spot. Movement upward this week from 4AD-Reprise's Lush (14-12), who're about to hit the road with Ride (15-14), and Sub Pop's Tad, who is clambering up the chart 36-18. Also on the move are Shimmy's Bongwater (21-16), Touch And Go's Jesus Lizard (27-24), A&M's Kitchens Of Distinction (33-28), Creation's import My Bloody Valentine EP (44-35), Boner's Melvins (45-37) and Beggars-RCA's Buffalo Tom (55-40).

Lots of new entries to watch out for this week. Mercury's Material Issue begins their overthrow at #46, Epic's new Motorhead LP (#1 at Rockit and Venus) charges in at #52, and MCA's Londonbeat debuts at #63. Two from Arista this week too: Jack Frost, a collaboration between ex-Go-Between Grant McLennan and the Church's Steve Kilbey, at #59; and the Hollow Men, who have graced the radio charts for a while now, at #64.

Next week should see the debut of the Feelies' fabulous new record, Time For A Witness, on A&M, which was bubbling under the In-Store chart this week.

JACKPOT!

MOVIE STARS Head On A Platter (Whirlaway, 2261 Market St., San Francisco, CA 94114/415-553-4131)—Categorizing the Movie Stars' music is a lot harder than listening to their effervescent second release, Head On A Platter. Presenting an amalgam of various American styles—Tex-Mex, bluegrass, country, norteno, polka, twangy folk-rock and even a surf instrumental—with startling ease, they captivate with a combination of smooth male/female harmonies and facile playing. There's more than a few bands covering this roots-rock territory these days (Blood Oranges, Poi Dog Pondering and Flophouse come to mind) but none perform with this much verve, throwing out pop ditties that will surely get you moving. The instrumental combination of pedal steel, accordion, guitar, mandolin and upright bass give each song the required kick; add the bright vocals of bassist Jill Olson and songs like "Cancer Song," "She's Barking" and "I Fall To Pieces" become downright infectious. Just to prove their roots are in the right place, the Movie Stars serve up a rockin' take on Phil Ochs' "Chords Of Fame" and a loving, down-home version of the Louvin Brothers' "I Wish You Knew." Pure and simple, Head On A Platter proves that this is a band to watch—they play today's country music with remarkable spirit and vision.

MAURA O'CONNELL A Real Life Story (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—Maura O'Connell proves it's not so far, really, from Ireland to Nashville. All it takes to bridge the gap is a beautiful voice and the intrinsic ability to select great songs from the cream of today's songwriters. Simple, right? A Real Life Story is her second release for Warner Bros. following two years as lead singer for traditional folkies De Danaan, during which she became a major star in Irish music. O'Connell explores a variety of moods from the flat-out rock of Greg Trooper's "Ireland" to the deeply felt love of Shawn Colvin's "I Don't Know Why" and makes a political statement by including the anthemic "Guns Of Love." The delicate production work of Greg Penny (k.d. lang, Rickie Lee Jones) allows each song to breathe and grow, placing O'Connell's stunning vocal talent at the fore, where it shapes each melody with breathtaking beauty. Her takes on John Hiatt's sly and sweet "When We Ran" and Tom Waits' stark, moody "Broken Bicycles" are equally touching, showing Maura O'Connell to be perhaps the premier songstress of our day.

NIKKI MEETS THE HIBACHI The Bluest Sky (Moist, P.O. Box 3597, Chapel Hill, NC 27515/919-929-2533)—This North Carolina duo follows last year's enigmatic Hanna's Amorphous Hat with another set of tunes that recall windswept days at the beach or a shadowy night under the full moon. The Bluest Sky is a whirlpool of strummed guitars and the exquisite vocal combination of John Gillespie and Elaine Tola a.k.a. Nikki Meets The Hibachi. With occasional cello, piano, percussion and banjo added to the brew, they carry the listener into an atmospheric netherworld, at times psychedelic, other times so down to earth you can almost smell the dirt beneath their feet. Comparisons to the more ethereal side of the Indigo Girls are not out of order, even if this is a male/female duo, while those who are familiar with Miracle Legion may see a likeness there as well. Nevertheless, the introspective lyrics and soaring nature of their harmonies are a marvel and the production is crisp and clean, perfect for NMTH's simple, stark tunes. Gaze into these: "A Million Times," "Love," "Days Like These" and the title track.

THE COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME SERIES

MCA Records (70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608), in conjunction with the Country Music Foundation, has released the first five of the 11-disc Country Music Hall Of Fame Series, which covers the history of country music. From the 1940s, there's a disc devoted to honky-tonker ERNEST TUBB and one from vocalist RED FOLEY. The '50s are covered with the first great female country artist, KITTY WELLS, who helped open the way for the ground-breaking LORETTA LYNN, whose disc covers material from the '60s and '70s. There's also a 40-year retrospective of bluegrass from the man credited with being the father of the genre, BILL MONROE. Despite the age of some the sides and the lack of masters in some cases, the overall sound is fine. The pops and clicks lend an air of historical authenticity and most of the performances shine through. Monroe's disc is a fascinating listen, plainly tracing the folk/gospel/blues roots of bluegrass and featuring such classics as "Uncle Pen," "Blue Moon Of Kentucky" and "Walk Softly On This Heart Of Mine." Lynn's set is sure to be a favorite with her fans as it contains most of her big hits like "Coal Miner's Daughter," "One's On The Way" and "Don't Come Home A Drinkin' (With Lovin' On Your Mind)," her first #1 hit. Each disc contains an extensive biography of the artist and full notes on the individual recordings which were originally released on the Decca or Coral labels. Any of these five would be a welcome addition to any country-music lover's collection. Look for the final six discs of the series to be released in the spring, featuring SONS OF THE PIONEERS, CARTER FAMILY, JIMMIE DAVIS, FLOYD TILLMAN, TEX RITTER and a multi-artist compilation.

BLUES POWER

The flow of first-rate new blues releases continues. Don't pass up the new one from ELVIN BISHOP, Don't Let The Bossman Get You Down (Alligator, P.O. Box 60234, Chicago, IL 60660/312-973-7736). Having his first taste of success with the Paul Butterfield Blues Band in the '60s, Bishop has been long considered to be a master blues guitarist. This is his second release for Alligator and it's filled with his loose, good-times style, as well as some tasty licks on the slide guitar and a bunch of juke-joint horns. Check out "Murder In The First Degree," "My Whiskey Headed Buddies" and the extremely funky "You Got To Rock 'Em" for a bit of wide-eyed fun... One of the young guns of the slide, JOE LOUIS WALKER, has been captured in all his glory on Live At Slim's Volume 1 (Hightone, 220 4th St. #101, Oakland, CA 94607/415-763-8500). Walker's music is full of soul and his guitar attacks are fierce single-note flurries that get the live audience cheering for more—there's a rockin' duet with Angela Strehli on "Don't Mess Up A Good Thing"; homeboy Huey Lewis sits in on harmonica on "Bit By Bit"; and he let's it all hang out on the blistering slow blues of "Don't Play Games"... The core of the LEGENDARY BLUES BAND is the rhythm section of Willie "Big Eyes" Smith on drums and Calvin "Fuzz" Jones on bass. They recorded and toured with Muddy Waters from the '50s to the early '80s, until Muddy's health forced him off the road and the band, along with Pinetop Perkins, went out on their own to keep the blues alive. Perkins left them awhile back but they continue mightily with a new incarnation on U B Da Judge, their third release for Ichiban (P.O. Box 724677, Atlanta, GA 30339/ 404-926-3377). There's a traditional laid-back feel to the proceedings, with vocalist/harpist Madison Slim blowing slow and mean, while Smith and Jones set a simmering, rock-solid pace. Get down and dirty with "Things Could Be Worse," "I Don't Trust You, Man" and "When The Blues Come Around"... Charisma (1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019) has started Point Blank Records, a new blues-oriented label and their first releases are impressive. ALBERT COLLINS leads the pack with Iceman, a funky display of his distinctive guitar playing and gritty soul. He's joined by the Uptown Horns who really fill out the sound, while "The Iceman" picks and riffs his way to blues heaven... Collins is one of those who've obviously influenced LARRY MCCRAY as demonstrated on his Point Blank debut, Ambition. McCray covers a lot of stylistic ground, from the straight-ahead rock of "Keep On Walking" to the steaming down-home flavored take on Otis Spann's "Country Girl." But his vocals always have a soulful edge that keeps the material in the blues vein.

ON THE CHARTS

... And we hear a mighty CRASH as the ice begins to break! Megadeth retakes the Loud 100, College and Audience charts away from Slayer (who slips to #2), but the Motorhead LP roars in with the highest debut since Metallica's Justice LP almost three years ago. Queensryche takes over the top slot at retail, while Alice In Chains treads water on the Loud 100 but roars 8-1 at Commercial, while Napalm Death finally cracks the top 10, with Godflesh close behind at #11. Others jumpin' the jump include Saigon Kick (20-14), Fear Of God (31-17), Cyclone Temple (45-19), Fear Of God (30-23), Mordred (60-28), Treponem Pal (51-34) and Morgoth (41- 36), while Great White comes in strong at #18. See yuz next week...

JACKPOT!

KRONOS QUARTET Hunting: Gathering (Kevin Volans, 1987)/KRONOS QUARTET AND ASTOR PIAZZOLLA Five Tango Sensations (Piazzolla, 1989) (Elektra Nonesuch, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY, 10019)—Kronos has always been on the cutting edge of modern music, both as an artistic and a commercial endeavor. Since the release of "White Man Sleeps" they have searched for a repertoire that crosses the line from "serious" music into the world of pop, hoping to attract an audience that, if not from the mainstream, is at least from the larger world of Laurie Anderson and the Knitting Factory. Their recorded performances have met with critical and monetary success by appealing to the senses directly, and the mind later. On these two CD "singles" they continue the exploration. Volans' Hunting: Gathering is a gentle, somewhat fractured journey through the sonic landscapes of the world. While surely a "European" style piece, this South African composer reaches into the melodic subconscious of Africa, fragmenting lines from Malian kora, Ethiopian songs and most notably, mbira music from the Shona people of Zimbabwe. The result is a chaotic aural experience that results in an elusive unity of spirit.

Five Tango Sensations, by contrast, is a series of compositions that rely heavily on a continuity of theme. "Asleep" is sad, melodic, centered squarely on the tango, and its most famous modern voice, the bandoneon of Astor Piazzolla. "Anxiety" evokes dark danger, fueled by staccato cello lines and anxious chords, a tango from the most dangerous dancehalls on earth. Where the Volans piece challenges through chaos, Tango entices and threatens through a melody that curls a beckoning finger from a dark alley.

INGRID KARKLINS Willowbush (Willow Music, 500 Terrace Drive, Austin, TX 78704)—There are a few artists out there that I always look forward to hearing more of—Ingrid Karklins is near the top of the list. Her last cassette was a marvelous combination of low-tech production and high creativity. Willowbush follows up on that creativity and adds a little more production value (mid-tech?). She surrounds herself with a crew of wonderful musicians, notably Austin bassist Steve Bernal and drummer Thor Harns, whose rhythm work gives the pieces a great hard edge. Together they make Latvian folk melodies into popular American folk-rock with a touch of jazz, and a bit of Kate Bush. What I've liked best about Ingrid's work is that she manages to hold on to these folk roots, no matter how weird the arrangements get. Synthesized bells, environmental noises and unearthly sounds seem to reinforce rather than detract from the regional flavor. Not content with revival and emulation, she makes a case for Latvian music in the 21st century. The other leap on Willowbush is her original songs. "Crack The Slab" owes a lot to the Burroughs/Anderson contingency, heavily synthed and eerie. A traditional song, "I Rode The Wolf," is a dark and frightening ride on drums, strings and electronics. Ingrid's

ON THE CHART

Nobody's anywhere near dethroning Bob Marley & The Wailers from number one, so be expecting us to resume commentary on the top of our chart in a couple of months. . . . Below Bob, we find big jumps by the Jolly Boys, Ali Farka Toure, Le Mystere Des Voix Bulgares, and the new Niney The Observer compilation. Other movers and shakers this week include the wonderful Missa Luba album, the Mighty Diamonds, groundbreaking music from Boiled In Lead and yet another new release from the ever-popular Mad Professor. Take care, over and out! (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) voice has toughened up to make the change, as well, adding a rough-hewn breathiness to her otherwise high, gentle vocals. The acoustic pieces also manage to rise above the imitative, due mostly to her delivery of the lyric, sweeter but no less declarative. An excellent instrumentalist (harp, violins, keyboards, whistles, etc.), arranger and writer, Ingrid Karklins is one of those "oughta be famous" artists that's only available to you if you want to be bothered to try something different, and ask for and cue the cassette. Recordings like this are what non-commercial radio is all about.

OUMOU SANGARE Moussolou (World Circuit, 18a Avenue Road, London N6 5DW, England, available through Stern's, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012)—Get out your American Thesaurus Of Superlatives. You'll need them all by the time you get through the last track of Moussolou. Here is a singer of strength and soul from Mali. Oumou Sangare takes a different approach from the now familiar griot sound. She is sweet and smooth, and achieves her goal in a cry and a whisper rather than a shout and a whirlwind. While there is no denying the chill you get from the upper-register soaring of someone like Nahawa Doumbia, there is a warmth and determination that exudes from Sangare. She is Lady

Day to Doumbia's Aretha. The arrangements are something else, as well. Recorded in Abidjan (African music made in Africa?) with local musicians, it is a wonderful blend of Sylla's sensibilities and regional acoustics. There is evidence of modern touches in these songs, but they are carried out on nkoni, shakers and bongos, guitars (including Sangare), chorus and wonderfully coarse violin. Only the bass is allowed to provide an electric touch, and it absolutely throbs most of the time.

CRANKY (PART 3)

I saw Sting's new, highly publicized packaging. A longbox that promised that the "end of the longbox" was at hand. A bold and daring move from Mr. Sting and this week's winner of the Cranky Award, A&M Records. What a brilliant scam. "Environmentalism is just around the corner!" Oh, yeah, and save the box, they say it will be a collector's item someday. Sure, I'll put it right next to my collection of gasoline-fired transportation devices from the '60s, the ones that were going to be this decade's dinosaurs. Never trust an Englishman with only one name. It seems that guns DO make the man, so stand back when G.B. gets aroused!

To whoever is still interested: "Peace."

FRESH!

MAXIN' WITH A FULL-CLIP

44 MAX Maxin' With A Full Clip (Gold Key, c/o Ichiban, P.O. Box 724677, Atlanta, GA 30339/404-926-3377)—Georgia isn't all peaches and Southern hospitality—that's what you'll realize after hearing this fine debut from the Atlanta trio known as 44 Max. The group, which formed in 1987, creates a raw street-friendly sound through the use of flashy '70s funk, rugged beats, imagery and wisdom which they call "The Atlanta Sound" but more strongly resembles a West Coast sound. DJ Cloud's styles range in everything from hardcore Public Enemy/Ice Cube ("C.O.D.E., "Political Frameup") to a looser-running but aggressive Prince/pop jams ("Players Rolling A Stone"). Lead vocalist Sir Cheek fires off a stimulating assortment of social commentary, street-smarts and strong messages of inner-city knowledge, as on "Rewind The Future," which seeks to uplift the youths of the inner cities. Their creativity clearly lies in the storyline lyrics Sir Cheek paints with messages mixed into gripping scenes of life on the street. Also check out: "Second Without A Pause," "Tear The Lid Off," "Dee, Watch My Back" and "Both Barrels."

RICO . . . SUAVE

It's time for a change of pace. Rather than the usual review after review, I've decided to step up the pace and give you a wider taste of the music I've been receiving/hearing. . . The first flavor up for tasting is the latest creation from Boston's MANUFACTURE. Their new LP, Voice Of World Control (Netwerk, c/o I.R.S., 3939 Lanker-shim Blvd., Universal City, CA 91604), boldly follows up 1988's Terrorvision with their fusion of man and machine in a dramatic explosion of cutting-edge technology (ex-Cars keyboardist Gregg Hawkes helped produce) and pulsating beats and rhythms that hypnotize the mind. Manufacture also satisfies all those saturated with industrial/post-modern dance music with less subliminal tracks like "New Decisions," which reeks of Depeche Mode with its stiff vocals from Nigel Butler and techno-pop melody. Most of the LP is an expressive instrumental display of socially revealing broadcast samples and sounds that, when mixed with the rest of their ever-changing pulses, produce vivid textures and tensions. Other picks: "World Control," "Running Mad," "Drug Squad" and "The Bogey." . . . If you receive two records in the mail with almost identical names, do not be afraid. You have just been subjected to O-Matic Hell. The new releases from BASSOMATIC entitled Set The Controls For The Heart Of The Bass (Virgin, 9247 Alden Dr., Beverly Hills, CA 90210) and CRUNCH-O-MATIC called Caution Do Not Play (Smash, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019) are worthy of a short review-o-matic. Bassomatic is a taste of tomorrow's urban dance sound. It blasts off with the opening "In The Realm Of The Sences" with a steady pulse embroidered with futuristic samples of voices, synths and sound effects but travels onward to adapt different styles to their own creativity ("Rat Cut-A-Bone"). Lead vocalist Sharon Musgrave's voice is warm and soulful and after being sent through all sorts of effects and loops, the group effectively shows how interesting a union between American soul and 21st

ON THE CHART

Five weeks and counting for Erick and Parrish! The duo known as EPMD (1-1) has gone over the one-month plateau for Business As Usual. Is there anyone out there who can give them a run for their money? A likely contender will be Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs, who have taken their single "I Got To Have It" into the Top 3—their LP will be released any day now. Jeffrey Sledge is sleeping a little bit better tonight now that Gang Starr has finally broken the chains and shoved, shoved, shoved their way to #5! Main Source (9-8), Monie Love (13-10) and Young Black Teenagers (14-11) have all crept up a few, while chart veterans Paris (11- 12) and C & C Music Factory (12-13) stall out. This week's highest debut goes to the soundtrack from New Jack City (#18). Besides Ice-T, the soundtrack features cuts by Guy, Keith Sweat, Troop/Levert with Queen Latifah, and 2 Live Crew. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Tony D; 2) Yo-Yo; 3) Young Black Teenagers; 4) Definition Of Sound; 5) New Jack City; 6) Nikki D; 7) Gang Starr; 8) Kid Capri; 9) Genius; 10) Brand Nubian and the bonus 11) Brand New Heavies. century technology can be. Hailing from London, the outfit is quarterbacked by producer/mixer William Orbit (a fitting name) who has worked with such heavies as Madonna, The Cure and Erasure and is destined to put this group on the map here in the U.S. . . Crunch-O-Matic is more hardware than heart and soul. Computer feedback and robotic voices scream over processed rhythms that are simple yet powerful and usually have a surprisingly live sound. There's not a whole lot here that has any real lasting value so I'm not going to mention any cuts. The most impressive thing about the record is the fascinating fashion in which the samples and computer babble work together in creating the atmosphere of the music. . . If you want to hear something a little more rootsy and downright funky, check out the LP from the LAST POETS entitled Freedom Express (Celluloid, 330 Hudson St., New York, NY 10013/212-741-8310). Ask any of the schooled and most influential rappers (Chuck D., KRS-One) where they draw their inspiration from and somewhere on that list you are bound to find the Last Poets. Formed back in the '60s, the group is the first to convey the original street knowledge that has been carried on by rappers today. Their natural sound touches on light jazz grooves and funk while their messages are about injustice, prejudice and inequality while they present younger black generations with their original culture. Any true fan of rap music is strongly encouraged to tune into the positive vibes from the Last Poets.

DEF 12

DEFINITION OF SOUND "Now Is Tomorrow" [120 BPM] (Cardiac, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019/212-977-8020)—It's like a cycle, with one catchy hit after another. Whether it's Enigma's "Sadness Part 1," C & C Music Factory's "Gonna Make You Sweat" or EMF's "Unbelievable," there always seems to be a new dance single that's sending shock waves through the club scene. This new house pumper by the British duo of Kevwon and the Don takes Q-Tip-type rapping and the sparkling groovy vocals of Elaine Vassell and throws them over an unrelenting beat that should help rocket this cut to the top of dance charts nationwide. De La Soul whips up a catchy remix on the B-side.

JACKPOT!

RAY DRUMMOND Camera in A Bag (Criss Cross (Netherlands))/Maya's Dance (Nilva (Italy)), both titles c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140—On any given night in or around the Big Apple, jazzbos are likely to see Ray "The Bulldog" Drummond on stage, hunched over his contrabass, his head swaying from side to side as deep, warm, rounded notes burst forth from his instrument—with precision, with strength, with clarity. Since arriving in New York City from California in 1977, Drummond's name has been a constant in jazz club listings around town. Yet, paradoxically, the 44-year-old bassist is so much in demand as a sideman (the first choice for everyone from Johnny Griffin and David Murray to young hotshots Benny Green and Steve Nelson) that he has had little time or, until recently, opportunity to do his own gigs and recordings as a leader. Now, thanks to two new straight-ahead releases, plus more to come from DMP, the Bulldog's compositions and patented melodic playing, deeply moving in the lower registers, can be heard, out front, in all their glory. Camera In A Bag, a 59-minute DDD studio outing by the Drummond-led quintet—David "Fathead" Newman, tenor sax and flute; Steve Nelson, vibes; Kenny Barron, piano; Marvin "Smitty" Smith, drums—is an expansive concept date, rich in color and detail, that achieves often-mesmerizing rhythmic density without the busyness one might expect from such an expanded percussive backline. The 67-minute Maya's Dance consists of two quintet sessions anchored by pianist Niels Lan Doky and drummer Alvin Queen. Reedman Manny Boyd and trumpeter Tom Harrell comprise the front line on the 1985 fivesome; saxist John Richmond and trumpeter Eddie Henderson grace the 1988 session. Well done.

THE MAIN EVENT: HORN VS. McRAE

Vocalist-pianist SHIRLEY HORN has surely made good on the promise indicated in the title of her marvelous new Verve recording, You Won't Forget Me. The album, boasting cameos by superstar soloists Miles Davis, Toots Thielemans, Buck Hill and the Marsalis Brothers, seemed destined for a No. 1 chart slot (which it got in issue #224), and Horn is finally getting the media splash she has deserved for decades (though, in defense of the media, she dropped out of the biz for many years to raise her daughter and has often been reluctant to venture far from her home base in Washington, DC). Horn could be competing with another album on which she and her trio are featured. Novus-RCA (1133 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10036) is poised to issue Sarah—Dedicated To You, CARMEN McRAE's lovely tribute to the late Sarah Vaughan, for which Horn and her rhythm men provide exquisite accompaniment. Making matters worse (or better), Horn will

ON THE CHART

After letting others toy with the #1 spot the last two weeks, Marcus Roberts (#1 reports at KRCC, KUOP, WAPS, WBMB, WEIU and WIUP) takes back the honors (2-1) for his third week at the top overall, switching places with the Chick Corea Akoustic Band. The only other change in the Top 5 is guitarist/keyboardist Ray Obiedo (6-5). The big jump in the Top 10 goes to the collaboration by Steve Lacy And Mal Waldron (13-8), with Lacy taking the soprano sax to new heights. Debuts for trombonist J.J.

Johnson (#12), with his live return; the versatile Jon Faddis (#16); alto saxist Vincent Herring (#19), with help from pianist Mulgrew Miller and trumpeter Wallace Roney; the Just Friends compilation tribute to Emily Remler (#20); and saxist/composer Jan Garbarek (#21). Look out for new releases from young heavyweights Courtney Pine and Wynton Marsalis in the next few weeks. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) be competing with her longtime friend McRae, who calls herself "Shirley's biggest fan in the world." From her hotel suite on the road, McRae told CMJ: "I've wanted to do a record with Shirley for a long time. Ah, those chords she plays!" McRae, whose previous Novus album was a stunning tribute to Thelonious Monk, tried without success to induce Horn to sing on Sarah—Dedicated To You. "I asked her... so I don't want to take the blame," McRae said with a laugh. "Shirley is very shy, a real worrier. I had to keep reassuring her that she had nothing to worry about." Nothing except that, in all likelihood, she'll be competing with McRae in a friendly way for chart supremacy. On this score, everyone—Horn, McRae and especially jazz mavens—will be a winner.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

Space constraints last time out precluded my recommending "Pull My Daisy" as a choice airplay option from multi-instrumentalist DAVID AMRAM's new Live At Musikfest! CD (New Chamber Music, 928 Peekskill Hollow Road, Putnam Valley, NY 10579). "Pull My Daisy," an ode to hipness sung by Amram, sports words written by the beat poets Neal Cassady, Jack (On The Road) Kerouac and Allen Ginsberg. This tune would sound great in a set including pieces from Mose Allison, Dave Frishberg and Jay Leonhart (whose cool new CD, Life Out On The Road: A Jazz Journey, is available from Nesak, 311 W. 43rd St., New York 10036)... Speaking of nifty combinations, here's a sort of topical trivia item you might toss out to your listeners. Without identifying the song or artist, play the track "O.E.I." from organist JOEY DeFRANCESCO's superb new Columbia recording, Part III, and ask callers-in to identify the trumpet player. Most, methinks, will answer: Miles Davis. Which is wrong. The muted solo is taken by none other than DeFrancesco, who, after just one year of practice, has developed a piercing, plaintive tone strikingly reminiscent of Miles circa 1955. Three years ago DeFrancesco, then 17, toured Europe with the Davis band. He hasn't been the same since. Then again, nor has any other young musician who has left Davis' employ—but not his influence—to pursue a solo career... For his third Novus-RCA (address above) effort, Honey, JAMES MOODY returns the soprano saxophone to his woodwind arsenal. Why should Kenny G get all the gelt? Moody, alternating between soprano and tenor, waxes rhapsodic on such standards as "It Might As Well Be Spring," "Someone To Watch Over Me," "I Can't Get Started" and "When You Wish Upon A Star." Returning from his previous outing as drummer Akira Tana and bassist Todd Coolman. Sitting into the piano chair, and performing with his customary elan, is Kenny Barron, who worked in Moody's band some two decades before. Moody's working keyboardist, Marc Cohen (who missed the recording date due to an injured hand, since healed), contributed three compositions. Diehard mainstayers will be delighted that the new Moody album is all-acoustic, devoid of any electronics. (Moody, for his part, would have preferred a synth or two.)... Keep a close eye on your mailbox for a package from Blue Note containing guitarist JOHN SCOFIELD's second entry for the label, Meant To Be. As on his previous Time On My Hands, SCO opts for a pianoless quartet, and once again Joe Lovano sets the session on fire with his blowtorch of a tenor. More on the album when it's officially out...

GUEST DIALOGUE

By Falling James of the Leaving Trains, SST Recording Artist

Entartete Musik (Degenerate Music)

We are living in an age of man-made weather and inaccurate astrology; just like the '60s, burnt-out, half-informed musicians are becoming more credible leaders than elected politicians. This does not indicate that rock musicians are leading and researching more; it only means that once again the Right is slipping into undisguised, short-sighted genocidal treachery. The pretense of dealing politely on their level (underestimating the enemy, much less sleeping with 'em) has passed.

The subject is impeachment. Work for George McGovern for President in 1992. Failing that, an immediate cessation of tax payments by citizens—hawks and doves alike—is the only way to relieve ourselves from moral culpability, from being accessories to armchair quarterback murder.

The President sold arms to the enemy. His son is a crook. The Vice President and Secretary Of Defense are both hypocritical draft dodgers. Israel, unlike Iraq, has 200 atom bombs. Like Iraq, Israel invaded another country—Lebanon. Sanctions, anyone? And when do we invade South Africa and Northern Ireland? The war on minorities is stupid, and in case anyone but Jello Biafra hasn't noticed, we have all lost many of our rights of free speech and assembly in the past few years.

We're bombing the Garden of Eden. 'Nuff said?

A lot of people ask me about the painting by Fred Spears on the cover of our new album, Sleeping Underwater Survivors. It is a World War I U.S. military recruitment poster based on the sinking of the Lusitania. A woman is shown cradling her baby in her arms as they both sink into the green, translucent water. Beneath them lies the slogan: "ENLIST." I urge all purchasers of this album to cross out the offending word. Or if that's too literal for you, consider the juxtaposition of "enlist" and "sinking." We think there is a connection.

Now, the question: Do we stay and fight like the Jews in the Warsaw ghetto, or is it time to leave the planet?

We independent record execs have to do a lot of the dirty work ourselves. I write this after having organized the shipment of HOLLOW HEYDAY's Verge EP and of PITBULL's "Don't Push Me, I'm A Regular Guy" 7". I worked until 5 a.m. and I smell a bit like a guinea pig, but don't worry, radio people, I doubt that the essence could've made its way into your record mailer. . . . My toils were well worth their effort. These records are exceptional enough to make it my sincere pleasure to bring them to your broadcast booths. I wear a satisfied smile as I now go off to cleanse and replenish the body.

Hello. ELVIN BISHOP, Elvin Bishop, Elvin Bishop, Elvin Bishop, Elvin Bishop! The man's latest is just too good to overlook. Put it in regular rotation this instant. Give You Gotta Rock 'Em a good listen and be initiated into the world of blues rap or "swamp rap," if you will. It's got that good ol' '70s wah-wah, funk sound to it and that should count for something nowadays. His message is simple, he doesn't give a fuck about image. He makes honest, unpretentious music that needs to be heard. It's so easy to play the new Steaming Foetus single, or the new Rumples Foreskin 12", or the latest CD5 from Smashed Infant but when was the last time you really challenged your listeners with something unique? LITTLE CHARLIE AND THE NIGHTCATS' latest, Captured Live, falls into that category as well. Upbeat, West Coast swing-infected jump blues is one way to describe it. These guys sure know how to get the joint jumpin'! Don't relegate this fine stuff to the blues shows, I'm sure you play reggae, rap and world music outside the specialty shows so why not do the same with blues? Gavin was most excellent, we saw some great shows (Ball, Barton & Strehli at Slim's; Limbo-maniacs, Primus and the aforementioned Elvin Bishop) met some great people and generally had a really swell time. Until next time, feign excellence.

Ken Katkin, Homestead Records, Rockville Centre, NY (516) 764-6200

Those losers and pussys from Norton Records, the A-Bones, have been threatening our heroes the GIBSON BROTHERS with all kinds of malfeasance. As some of you may know, the Gibson Brothers poke some fun at the A-Bones (in a friendly way) on their new LP, The Man Who Loved Couch Dancing. The press kit accompanying the record explains the comical misunderstanding between the two bands, and explicitly states the respect and admiration that the Brothers truly feel for the A-Bones. Apparently, this friendly rivalry was too much for the musically insecure A-Bones. Unable to fight their own artistic battles, the brattish A-Bones have chosen to go crying to the Legal System to fight for them. "Our lawyers can beat up your lawyers," they taunted, while hiding behind their lawyers. The Gibson Brothers are not about lawyers and lawsuits. Their music speaks for itself. They have challenged the A-Bones to a comradely "Battle Of the Bands" at Maxwell's (the A-Bones' home turf) to bury the hatchet and settle the issue once and for all. They have invited the A-Bones to respond on vinyl or in print, anytime, anyplace. The A-Bones, through their out-of-town attorneys, refused these invitations. While they should have been grateful for the free publicity afforded them by the Gibson Brothers, the prima donna-ish A-Bones have instead attempted to punish the Brothers' "crime" of jest, with DEATH for the record... While Homestead Records is undertaking every possible course of action to keep the record in print, there is a significant chance that we will be forced, like Kuwait, to knuckle under to evildoers! Please publicize this fact on your stations. And while you're at it, give a spin to the possibly soon-to-be-rare Man Who Loved Couch Dancing LP. Or give me a call if you don't have the record, and hurry up before the A-Bones have their way!

So, here it is, the official announcement: Virgin Records U.S. will indeed release, toward the end of May, the new record by our old friends, JAPAN, however, they do not call themselves Japan anymore. All four original members (David Sylvian, Mick Karn, Steve Jensen and Richard Barbieri) now refer to themselves as RAINTREE CROW. Despite the name change, the music is classic Japan. The first track you'll receive (as an import 12") is called "Black Water." IT'S A BEAUT!!... By now you all should have received the latest CD by one of my favorite people, LENNY KRAVITZ. The LP is entitled Mama Said and the first track out at radio is "Always On The Run," which Lenny co-wrote with Slash (of Guns N' Roses). My fave song on the record is the one entitled "It Ain't Over Till It's Over," which sounds like an explosion in a '70s factory! "What Goes Around" is a tribute to Curtis Mayfield, and "Flowers For Zoe" is a lullaby for Lenny's daughter. There's definitely a lot going on in this record. Listen to it loud! Lenny will be on tour in May. JOE JACKSON is now signed to Virgin Records and has an album coming out in April entitled Laughter And Lust. This record takes us back to when Joe was king, back to the days of Look Sharp! and I'm The Man. This is CLASSIC JOE. The first track off the record will be "The Obvious Song"... So what does everybody think of MALCOLM McLAREN PRESENTS THE WORLD FAMOUS SUPREME TEAM SHOW? This record incorporates samples of everyone from Sir Lawrence Olivier (in "To B Or Not To Be"), to Sting and the Pointer Sisters (in "Romeo And Juliet") to Aretha Franklin (in "Un Coche De Agua Negra") to John Bonham and Barry White (in the "Buffalo Gals" remix). This is one WACKY piece of work! Be sure to check it out!

We recycle. We live in the Great Pacific Northwest. We make records by cool bands like the BLUE HEARTS, PAPA WEMBA and more. Our most recent release is called Satyricon... The Album. It features songs and words about love, sex, drugs, beer, fruit and paranoia by a passel of local bands, namely POISON IDEA, GREG SAGE, DHARMA BUMS, NAPALM BEACH, MIRACLE WORKERS, KILLING FIELD, CRAZY 8'S, SWEATY NIPPLES, OBITUARIES, JACKALS, INDIGO ZEROS, OILY BLOODMEN and HITTING BIRTH, plus poets WALT CURTIS and MARTY CHRISTENSEN.

The album includes some alternative mixes and unreleased tracks. Okay, okay, some people have moved out of town but they all called PDX home at some point. And they all rolled in the mud, the blood and the beer at Portland's legendary Club Satyricon. You probably wanna talk about this. We do. Write: Comm3-CCP, MUZYKAL 'NAYA ZHIZN, Sadovo Triumfalnaya 14-12 103006 Moscow, USSR... Current activities include Soviet talent development and promotion; this year's Soviet delegation to NMS will include Comm3 artists for the first time. Meanwhile, back at the ranch... materializing any day now—POOP-SHOVEL's I Came, I Saw, I Had A Hotdog, a Comm3/Oscar Meyer production. Also, European pressings by Montreal's SHLONK with their debut album, Eee-yow, and SPONGEHEAD's long-awaited album, Legitimate Beef. Note: Our European pressings will be serviced to a select group of stations in the vinyl format... Comm3 is happy to welcome WRUV's Carolyn Wolfe on board. She'll be working with us on coordinating retail and radio support for Comm3 bands on tour. ARSON GARDEN will be performing at SXSW. See ya there...

Glenn Boothe, Island Records, New York, NY (212) 995-7874

Put away your Websters and listen to "My Definition Of A Boombastic Jazz Style," the Top 10 U.K. smash from Toronto's DREAM WARRIORS. Import copies of the 12" are headed your way with the full album following in April. By now you should have the new single from PHRANC, "I'm Not Romantic." Our favorite folky is backed by Two Nice Girls while the rest of the album

(due out in mid-March) features collaborations with Syd Straw and Dave Alvin (of Blasters fame). TONY D. follows soon after with his debut, Droppin' Funky Verses. His previous work includes production credit on the Poor Righteous Teachers and King Sun albums. Check this out!!!... BOB MARLEY's Talkin' Blues is a collection of previously unreleased live and studio tracks with some interview segments rounding the whole thing out. Especially noteworthy is the track "Am-A-Do" which (for some unknown reason) is only now surfacing for the first time... Two of our acts are currently criss-crossing the country; the BUCK PETS and DRIVIN' N' CRYIN'. Wanna go, gimme a ring. For those attending the South By Southwest convention, keep an ear out for our latest signing, the BLUERUNNERS (as well as DNC)... Over and out...

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

Robert Sietsema of Mofungo is publishing a food fanzine. It's called Down The Hatch, and if you send him a SASE and a nice letter, maybe he'll send you one (Robert, c/o The Mofungo Foundation, 92 Perry St. #9, NYC, NY 10014)... Next time you're on the phone with Lori Teitler, ask her where Lenny Kravitz gets off encouraging others to "Rock The Vote" when he couldn't bother to register himself (too busy sampling Public Enemy to get out of the house?). Likewise, the Village Voice reported that the wonderful "Rock The Vote" campaign and Sean & Lenny's "Give Peace A Chance" project are represented by the same PR firm that puts such a neat spin on Exxon's public image... "They said we'd be artistically free/When we signed that bit of paper... They meant let's make a lot of money/And worry about it later." Robert Griffin's favorite band, The Clash, did a lot of silly things in their time, but "Complete Control" ought to be required listening for anyone who thinks signing to a major is automatically cool... Actually, any project that breathes new life into Adam Ant's career can't be all bad, can it? (please don't answer)... As crossover "rap" turns out progressively lamer characters (Hammer, Vanilla Ice, Gerardo), it's almost time for the Johan Kugelberg 12". He can't dance, he can't sing, hell, he can barely speak English. But he looks great... So did all those Material Issue songs get much better in the three years since they were first recorded, or did M.I. making the CMJ cover have anything to do with the label they're on? You can call it maturity, progression, whatever you want, but the message we keep getting is that Material Issue, Eleventh Dream Day, etc.'s "improvement" always coincides with their signing to a larger label. I guess releasing your own record just pushes your development back by four or five years... The real international pop overthrow of 1991 is called Supersonic Storybook, despite the lack of P.O.P. materials, complimentary bars of soap, etc... Contest Time: Name three indie labels Pavement didn't send their new demo to, and we'll send you the 360's CD someone sent us by mistake...

Sue Patel, Netzwerk Productions, Universal City, CA (818) 508-3130

Note the above address and phone number—I'm an L.A. woman until April 1. So if you need to contact me for interviews (remember the FALLING JOYS are on tour), tracking, records (the new MANUFACTURE record Voice Of World Control is due out March 4) and/or just to gab, you can find me at the above phone number in a haze of pollution... The Falling Joys on tour: 2/28 New York; 3/1 Cambridge, MA; 3/2 Montreal; 3/4 Toronto; 3/5 Ann Arbor, MI; 3/7 Milwaukee; 3/8 Chicago, IL; 3/9 Minneapolis, MN...

Paul V. and Super Dave, Warner Bros. Records, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3566

Although it's been a few weeks since the Gavin, we still want to congratulate a few of you geeks for winning those awards—to Kurt and Max from WFNX—it was worth the wait, huh? Well deserved. Also, just want to let you know that Paul V. torched his "very limited edition" Pop Will Eat Itself jacket. Maybe Bruce Flohr can have another one "specially made" cuz it's really rare... NOT! Call us and ask how Super Dave rocked the softball field. Not bad for post-hernia status. Well, the big news of the week is, of course, the cancellation of Twin Peaks... er, no, we mean the fantastic R.E.M. single. You added it, right? We hope that college radio doesn't get smarmy and decide that R.E.M. doesn't "need college radio anymore." When you hear this album you'll know that it's tailor-made for us old fans. Out Of Time is nothing short of brilliant, and will be in your hands on March 7. If you need a record to seal your cutting edge status it is DINOSAUR JR.— already feeling tipsy by being on "The Wagon" are WBRU, WHTG, KJJO, KTCL, WOXY, KACV and WRAS. Green Mind is a real development for J and Co. If any of you college radio people need vinyl on Dinosaur, give us a call. You should also know about the pride of Columbus, OH (besides WWCD...), the ROYAL CRES-CENT MOB. "Konk" is that funkrockthang at its finest and Midnight Rose's is really strong. We're also doing extremely well with the JUDYBATS. Native Son+ air-play = phones and sales! Watch for the Judybats on tour with the Oyster Band and then with John Wesley Harding (luv his record!). We've also got great response to the new THROWING MUSES with "Counting Backwards." This is their most accessible track to date—if your listeners like the Pixies, they'll definitely like Throwing Muses. The LP hits March 7. We're still going guns with BOOK OF LOVE and DANIELLE DAX, and you should all have the pro-CD from the awesome GOO GOO DOLLS called "Just The Way You Are." Add it, play it, rock it! Hey, has anyone out there heard the new import from ex-Propaganda singer Claudia Brucken called "Kiss Like Ether"? It's really cool! Next week, we betcha you'll be adding JULEE CRUISE. Huh? Just wait, you'll see.

Greg Dubrow, Sky Records Inc., Philadelphia, PA (800) 779-0759
Walking down South Street here in Philadelphia, I saw a woman refuse a homeless man some money. The very next moment a man pulled up in a Jaguar and asked her for a quarter for the meter, and she readily obliged... Keep your eyes open for MAMA ROO, a hard-rocking bluesy band with an album out now. It will work on more than just blues shows. Also, the latest BULGARIAN WOMEN'S CHOIR compilation is out, and ready for play. Might not hit Top 10, but it's cool and interesting, and worthy of more than just "specialty bin" status. While you're at it, don't forget SPOONER, the CHILDREN and CHICKASAW MUDD PUPPIES. FLAT DUO JETS will be out in a few weeks, with tour dates to follow. Call me toll-free (see above) or Mike Kondo at (800) 442-3142 if you need anything.

Giana Bernardini, Alias Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 546-1863

You ever get a burn from trying to pour yourself a cup of coffee while the machine is still percolating because you really couldn't wait another 43 seconds for it to finish brewing? No, I guess it's just me... Congrats to Sup Pob for their decision to remain independent in the truest sense of the word. But I gotta say, for a label as cool as they are, sometime it seems like they're trying awfully hard. What's with the lame, gross-out Dialogues?... Tried to call HYPNOLOVEWHEEL to let them know that a lot of people seem to really love their record, but Peter and Stephen were out getting contact lenses. Must have been prompted by the recent rash of "geek" references in reviews of Space Mountain. By the time their tour starts, they'll all look like Danzig, I'm sure.

RonSSTer, SST Records, Lawndale, CA (213) 430-7687

Dragstrip Riot is the remedy for basic animalistic rock cravings and the FLESH EATERS is the group that has concocted this double-album feast of pure, gut-pounding sound. The Flesh Eaters have been scorching L.A. and S.F. clubs lately and plan to hit the national trail this summer... Now that the LEAVING TRAINS have unleashed Sleeping Underwater Survivors, they're gonna hammer down a few L.A. dates to gear up for their European tour this spring. Falling James and his Trains will do a U.S. tour as soon as they're done fuckin' with the folks across the large lake... HR and his Human Rights posse are headed way out West this month to do shows in L.A., S.F. and Mexico. There will no doubt be some serious rasta rock events in HR's very own Charge stylee... Another man with inimitable style, Roger Miller, will take his NO MAN persona and ultimate power duo on the road this week with the "Whamon The USA" tour... Peace, Love & Friends don't let friends listen to corporate rock.

Esther McGowan, Merkin Records, Baltimore, MD (301) 234-0048

Romper, bomper, stomper, doo... Who've been good girls and boys? In my magic mirror I see John at CJIV, Peter at WMNF, and Paul at WODU, who are charting BUTTSTEAK ahead of the crowd. I know a massive onslaught of Buttsteak chartings are on the way... And for all the Do-Bee's out there—here's an interesting Merkin band anecdote. High Times (the magazine for pot-smoking perpetual hippies everywhere) included a list of "100 Cool Things" in the most recent issue, and listed the MONKEYSPANK record at #6!!! It was just below Pink Floyd, sex, bong hits and a few other notable activities that I can't remember. If that isn't impressive I don't know what is... All this is directed at all the indie label Do-Bee's—if anyone has any new and interesting schemes for marketing and distribution, we'd love to share ours with you.

Andy Wombwell, Wax Trax Records, Chicago, IL (312) 252-1000

Embrace the Psychic Assault!

KK Records licensed by Cargo Records America, Inc.

SWAINS could be the hype of next year. "Don't Call Us" a remake of the '70s Sugarloaf hit, is certainly more catchy & radio-minded than the original.

AAK deals with emotional extremes: hate, terror, lust, confusion, stress, pleasure and pain are all here, coupled in most cases with threats to the listener.

Two-record KK COMPILATION includes Force Dimension, Insekt, Smersh, Jah Wobble, Philadelphia Five, Kode IV, Purr, Pearls for Swains and six others.

PHILADELPHIA FIVE still has the power to reveal the sadness and madness of life, frustration and sex combined in an irresistible groove.

yet? Hopefully you have and you are aware that it is: A) not "industrial" (whatever that is) and B) not dance (well, you can dance if you want to). Anyway, it is a different sound for both Chris and Wax Trax. So, as my good friends Marla and George Michael are always saying, "Listen without prejudice." The full LP, Whiplash Boychild (?) is coming soon... Also out now: COIL's "Windowpane" single, from the forthcoming LP, Love's Secret Domain... More music to channel your "sexual and brain energy" as only Coil can. Keep your eyes peeled for the stellar "Windowpane" video in finer clubs and video outlets everywhere. The band shot it themselves along the Mekong River... AND the debut from Austin, TX's own SKATENIGS. A lot of you are telling me that you can't play this one because of those pesky FCC rulings and threats... is every college station in the Boston area up for license renewal this spring? It sounds like some kind of sinister plot to me... Anyway, I wouldn't want any of you to lose your license (well, okay, I wouldn't mind if a couple of you did), but don't be afraid to push the FCC rules to the limit of their vagueness.

Alan Mann, Strange Fruit Records/Dutch East India Trading Distribution, Rockville Centre, NY (516) 764-6200

We were surprised and confused to hear that nobody at CMJ was "enthused" enough about the Peel Sessions compilation Manchester So Much To Answer For to review it in these pages. Surprised because of the generally favorable reaction we've had to it, and confused because someone there was "enthused" enough to feature it on a recent TDK New Music Report short. Oh, well, it's not for me to tell people what they should like—and honestly, I'm not much into the Inspiral Mondays UK myself—but the album is a lot more than just the current Manchester thing. It's a diverse collection of 20 Mancunian bands past and present, and in addition to the usual suspects and tracks by the BUZZCOCKS, SMITHS and CHAMELEONS that are also on their individual Peel Sessions, it includes a great epic FALL track that's not on their Peel (and to me makes the LP worthwhile by itself), as well as songs by BLUE ORCHIDS, the FRANTIC ELEVATORS (with Mick Hucknall circa 1981), NEW FAST AUTOMATIC DAFFODILS, DUB SEX, A CERTAIN RATIO and some cool funk by RUTHLESS RAP ASSASSINS and KISS AMC. So if you want to check it out, give me a call... Look for the newest Peel Session LP by ADAM AND THE ANTS, three vintage sessions from 1978-9, and watch out in the weeks and months ahead for brand new Peel LPs by TEENAGE FAN CLUB, TIM BUCKLEY, the STRANGLERS (old stuff), a double session by NEW FAST AUTOMATIC DAFFODILS, a new session by HAPPY MONDAYS and a new compilation with tracks by the CHARLATANS, LOOP, the SHAMEN, WHERE'S THE BEACH, BABES IN TOYLAND, RIDE and THE FARM, among others. This, of course, in addition to the back-catalogue re-releases. Plenty to get enthused about!

Current Caroline works in progress: NAKED RAYGUN'S tour kicks off 3/9/91 in Memphis (call for dates or consult local listings). It looks like MUSSOLINI HEADKICK will tour the U.S. with KMFDM, while BORIS MIKULIC will probably try to get back into the U.S. New stuff that just came out as you read this—the psychedelic LEGENDARY PINK DOTS The Marla Dimension, A SPLIT SECOND "The Parallax View" and the Megaforce comp., Deeper Into The Vault (unreleased), ANTHRAX, OVERKILL, SOD, TESTAMENT, etc.). Still kicking around—MONSTER MAGNET "Murder" 7", ACTION SWINGERS "Fear Of A Fucked Up Planet" 7" and BAD BRAINS Rock For Light posters for display. This spring, look for debuts from SPRINGHOUSE, CHUCK TREECE, SMASHING PUMPKINS and the mighty BLOODY STOOLS.

Toni (writing this at 2:45 a.m.) Michaels, Music Director, WSFX, Nanticoke, PA (717) 821-0933
Graveyard shifts tend to get a bit tedious after a while. Especially after working it for a year. Everyone who reads this is very lucky to be home sound asleep at this hour (2:45 a.m.). Very cool stuff going on at WSFX. February 20, we gave $89.00 away to one lucky winner. We also did a live remote where almost 400 people registered to win the 89 bucks. On the same day we gave away hot chocolate to people (students and staff) who had 89.1 tuned in their car. If they didn't, well we just had to jump in their car and tune it in for them. We also did our first live (long distance) broadcast of our school's basketball team from Pittsburgh and another one from Bethlehem and they were both great successes. April 6 is just around the corner and, for those of you who don't know, WSFX is hosting the Pennsylvania Regional College Radio Conference. If you need info call me on the horn at (717) 821-0933. Mark this date on your calendar—this day is going to be a total blast. The two highlights of the day will be two bands: SEE DICK RUN from Detroit and a local act, FABULOUS DISASTER (if anybody remembers Nigel our music director from last year, well this is his band). Well, being CMJ won't let us write pages and pages of Dialogues anymore I guess I'll cut out here. But I must hype some bands: BUTTSTEAK (a must listen in my book), the HOLLOW MEN, EMF, REMBRANDTS and HORSE FLIES. Hello to John (Skippy) McFadden (core) and Charles and Tom (Caroline) C-YA's.

Dexter, Music Director, WBRU, Providence, RI (401) 272-9550
Comments: It's a week o' Fish here at WBRU with an add for AN EMOTIONAL FISH (I am your knight in shining armour and I come to your Emotional Fish) and a screamer of the week slot for SCHOOL OF FISH. An interesting tidbit on the latter F.Y.I. Josh Clayton-Felt of School Of Fish was in Karyn Bryant's class at Brown University until he dropped out to go and get discovered. Well congratulations to Josh. Here's another newflash from Providence—I've been disappointed for another year as music director. I'm looking forward to even bigger and better things in my second term. Now for a few well-deserved Thank You notes: Andrew at Reprise for great REPLACEMENTS fix. The band sounds even better in their mature years, still rocking but also handling the mellow stuff like never before. As always, a good time. Thanks also to Andrew for NEIL YOUNG fix. If this show is coming to a theater near you, you would be ill-advised to miss it. Truly a night I will never forget (because I lost a good portion of my hearing). On a final note, WBRU would like to thank the entire free world for once again voting us one of the top stations in the country in the Rolling Stone Readers' Poll. In celebration, we'll be chucking a big old party with the FEELIES in late March. Stay tuned for details...

Hello once again from the gang at CTR-FM 101.9 and Discorder Magazine here at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, Canada. The March issue of Discorder is now out and available for your scrutiny. Tell us what your band or label or station is up to and we'll send you the most recent Discorder which includes features on YO-YO, SCREAMING TREES, MEAT BEAT MANIFESTO, RIDE, HAPPY MONDAYS, HANK THE HOBO, BUFFALO TOM, Jeopardy MC Alex Trebek, Britain's POPGUNS, the MONTREAL JUBILATION GOSPEL CHOIR, a report from a recent truck and tractor pull that made its way through town, a sort-of-exclusive fax interview with HENRY ROLLINS, plus lots of stuff on the Vancouver scene for you stations looking for demo tapes and the like. So write us! Again: CTR = 1800 watts throughout Vancouver/22+ hours per day on the air/300+ volunteers/800-thing current library/no rotations—all airplay chosen by programmers/70% indie/20% canon/25% regional local. Again again: Discorder = 17,500 copies each month throughout Vancouver and into Washington/32-48 pages a month/subscriptions $15CDN to Canada/$15US to States/$24CDN to world... Send: Lloyd + Randy, CTR 101.9 FM/Discorder, 6138 SUB Boulevard, Vancouver, BC V6T 2A5. Phone: (604) 822-3017. Fax: (604) 822-6093. Note the new phone numbers... Charles Panossian is god. Todd Bisson, open your mail. And Gerard Cosloy, are you ever gonna send us stuff?

Jean Garten/George Scudleri, MD/DP, WRTV, Yonkers, NY (914) 378-8024

We have a winner!!! Congratulations to Vinni at MCA Records for winning 1st prize in WRTV's Wall of Fame Contest! Most artistic goes to Beatrice at Boomerang and best overall mailing label goes to Lisa at Atlantic. Thanks to all who participated! Stuff we really like: HINTERLAND, BLUE RODEO, CHAGALL GUEVARA, ELEVENTH DREAM DAY and KITCHENS OF DISTINCTION. Now available, on cassette only, a 45-minute live interview with HINTERLAND. The tape contains: "Handle Me" and "Stanley's Minutes" performed live in the studios of WRTV. We've done some fancy editing and removed any references to our station and the time it was recorded. For more information and to receive your copy give us a call.

Michael Donaldson, Music Director, WUCF, Orlando, FL (407) 823-2664

Uh, congrats go out to our own Pat Dougher who is now in New York schmoozing for a living with Combat Records. Those who know him, be sure to give him a call and wish him the best of luck. Those who don't know him, his name is pronounced "Doo-er". Our tradition of insane metal programming continues with Tom Antolick at the helm. On my front, huge budget cuts have taken away my ability to return phone calls so it is extra important that you call during my office hours. Those hours are Mon 4-6; Wed 4-6; Thu 12-5; Fri 2-5 EST. If you aren't servicing us, you should be, so get in touch. Also, leave your address if you want to start getting a playlist. Kudos to YO LA TENGO for playing on our airwaves and into our hearts. Orlando drivetime radio never sounded so good. Uh, bye.

Mark Sturm, Music Director, WMUA, Amherst, MA, (413) 545-2876

It's been a while, I'm sure you care. RUDOLPH GREY teaming up with RASHIED ALI is every bit as satisfying as expected, and fits well with new additions to our library such as PETER BROTZMAN teaming up with his son CASPAR, indie rock supergroup VERMONSTER's fangasmic collage of genius pop opuses, both new SKULLFLOWER sevens, MOTHERFUCKERS doing LSI 25, the best STRANGULATED BEATOFFS I've heard to date and a swell slab of SUN CITY GIRLS. Naturally, we've not yet tired of BORBETOMAGUS' Snuff Jazz, NAKED CITY's Torture Garden or ZEN VIKING's Mammy, for that matter. We're capping it all off with swell reissues of AYLER and COLTRANE. Fuck you all.

The critically acclaimed Italian labels Black Saint/Soul Note Records, in conjunction with DIW Records of Japan, have just signed a joint U.S. distribution agreement. The newly formed Sphere Marketing & Distribution Inc. is the umbrella organization owned by IREC president and Soul Note founder Giovanni Bonandrini and Hirakazu Susabe, president of Super Stop Japan, the worldwide agent for DIW Records. Sphere will serve as exclusive U.S. distributor for the following labels: Black Saint, Soul Note, DIW, Mythic Sound, Jazz Up and Top Box. Recent releases include Segments by Geri Allen; Charlie Haden/Paul Motian; Live At Pit-Inn, Tokyo, Japan by Sun Ra Arkestra; and My Way by Lester Bowie's Brass Fantasy.

HOORAY FOR HOLLYWOOD JAZZ

Capitol Records recently held a ceremony to dedicate the mural entitled Hollywood Jazz: 1945-1972, which is on the south wall of the Capitol Records building in Hollywood. The mural was funded by the Los Angeles Jazz Society and was painted by Los Angeles artist Richard Wyatt. It pays tribute to artists and clubs that have helped establish Hollywood's name in the jazz world. Included in the 88' x 26' mural are images of Duke Ellington, Billie Holiday, Nat King Cole, Ella Fitzgerald, Shelly Manne, Dizzy Gillespie, Charlie Parker, Miles Davis, Gerry Mulligan, Chet Baker and Tito Puente.

MIND OVER MATTERS

Welcome To The Real World

by Karen Lee Kahn, Bodega Group

Those who ignore history are doomed to repeat it. So in line with this, here's some HISTORY.

LESSON #1: There was once a commercial station in NYC called WPIX. They actually played new artists they liked—they built careers. They played Squeeze, Madness, the Police in 1979. They were creative, playing two tracks by the same artist on Tuesdays. In short, they gave us a breath of fresh air not heard since FM originally played album-oriented not pop-hit-mega-group-everyone's-playing-them stale music. This was seen by WNEW, which had long since abandoned their cutting-edge format in favor of their current "We only play the Top 30 in Billboard," as a major threat to their domination of the NYC airwaves. WNEW began a campaign to remove WPIX. They started programming live gigs by the Police and other artists they had previously ignored, then they threatened artists that if they did any shows for WPIX or WPLJ then WNEW would never play that artist. They got away with this for awhile until they tried it on the Charlie Daniels Band. This made Billboard in October 1980. But by this time, WPIX had gone off the air. WNEW then went onto a heavy metal binge in their current Top 30 format.

LESSON #2: The Trend. When "My Sharona" came out, the majors (always five steps behind) thought New Wave is happening let's go get us a club band. Of course, by this time there were no ready bands left: Sire had beat them all to the punch by signing the Ramones and the Talking Heads, Blondie, Television and even the Shirts were signed up. New groups don't happen overnight; it takes time for a group to find its sound and audience and chops. But this didn't stop the labels from signing any warm bodies with instruments. Most of them flopped and new music was declared over. Sometimes a major would sign a band and then turn around and tell them to do a cover which most groups considered the ultimate insult to their creative vision.

"When all of the independents have been sold to the majors and the majors control college-oriented music, will they KILL IT?"

These days, it seems to me, creativity, uniqueness of sound and pushing the envelope are not part of most new groups' (yes there are always exceptions) repertoire. Instead, they opt for a reinterpretation (or copy) of the '60s. I know most of you were born post-'60s but that's not an explanation. Today, the "Cover Tune" is the norm.

LESSON #3: There once was a trend called "disco." While we were here at CBGB trying to get the world to listen to Talking Heads, the Bee Gees were selling us John Travolta and the Bridge and Tunnel crowd. All the majors were in heaven until one day they realized not many people bought disco records. Most people went to discos for their disco, so the majors canceled disco. Which brings me to THE POINT. When all of the independents have been sold to the majors and the majors control college-oriented music will they KILL IT? They're already pushing college radio into the payola scandal of the '90s. Music directors at larger, more influential stations have told me point blank that they were catering only to the major label which was going to employ them upon graduation. This has been confirmed by others at their ex-stations who now have to mend the fences. Corruption of college radio is the order of the day. Music directors should not be local reps for anyone. Plane tickets to go across the country to see acts like Bob Mould is PAYOLA. Do you know what royalties are? Royalties are payments to the writers and musicians based on sales and airplay, not on promotional copies. So when you get 10 records FREE the band gets the shaft. No royalties (unless you're big enough to call the shots) are paid on promotional copies. To compound this, most newly signed artists get the lowest rates of royalties.

When you focus on the known you keep the edge of the envelope in sight. And when a trendy group releases their LP one 12" at a time they dominate the charts and leave little room for a new artist. This is what I call the Lionel Ritchie Syndrome. At least Michael Jackson takes a break after selling 24 million albums. So when you have finished listening to the latest Bob Mould, Pixies and Poi Dogs maybe you'll give five minutes to a band you've never heard of. Then maybe you'll know how to escape the inside of the envelope and lick the stamp.

NEIL YOUNG & CRAZY HORSE/SONIC YOUTH Madison Square Garden, New York City, February 4 Nassau Coliseum, Uniondale, NY, February 22

Possibly not since peanut butter and marshmallow Fluff first met on two slices of white bread has a pairing generated so much excitement and made so much sense as the coupling of Neil Young & Crazy Horse and Sonic Youth on tour together, both perhaps the last great practitioners of that near-extinct strain—"rock." While your typical Neil Young 1991 audience (most either thirtysomething nostalgia buffs or younger, late-teens pancho wearers) weren't exactly wild for the guitar histrionics and Loisaida snarl of SY, neither were they expecting the non-stop barrage of feedback and electricity that Crazy Horse slugged out. Sonic Youth more than held their own in the voluminous hockey arenas, with Thurston especially enjoying himself, dedicating nearly every song to someone or another (Richard Hell, the Action Swingers and even Neil himself) and providing the paparazzi with endless photo ops, climaxing in the spine-tingling finale "Expressway To Yr Skull," as Thurston and Lee Renaldo wrung out squalls of white noise long after the rest of the group had left the stage. Kim's husky, coarse vocals never sounded quite so punk rock as they did reverberating around the cavernous hall, serving as both an unabashed feminist dictum and a reminder of the original sock of the D.I.Y. aesthetic.

Neil tore it up, more so at the Coliseum than at the earlier

Garden show, perhaps as "life on the road" led to a looser, more "ragged" and more inspired performance. There's zero subtlety involved when Neil & Crazy Horse take the stage; from the opening whomp of "Hey Hey My My (Into The Black)" to the surprise encore of "Welfare Mothers," the Horse plowed through song after song of electric gtr glory, Young ceaselessly wrenching distortion, feedback and general mayhem and discordance from his trusty six-string, ably and loudly supported by the "world's third-greatest garage band." Nearly every number was centered around a long and winding solo, Young stalking the stage, hunched over, squeezing out sparks. The performances of "Love And Only Love" and particularly "Fuckin' Up" were so full of fire they threatened to explode during Young's extended forays, Neil seemingly oblivious to everything except creating maximum noise. About the only downside was the bare-bones electric version of Dylan's "Blowin' In The Wind," a well-intended barb at the Gulf War, but too obvious and ponderous for any real emotional impact (a yellow ribbon tied around a giant microphone and an introductory recording of Hendrix's "Star-Spangled Banner" were the other wartime concessions). But crackling versions of "Like A Hurricane" (with keyboard), "Cortez The Killer" and "Tonight's The Night" conclusively proved that witnessing Neil Young work out his own personal demons is still as cathartic an experience as rock 'n roll can offer.
