The Return Of The Happy Hour

There was a time that when five o'clock rolled around, folks poured into the local lounge for a Rob Roy and some soothing music. The music was fervently pop, with jazzy overtones, vibes and crooners, stand-up basses and chanteuses. Now that the '80s have finally come to an end and the '90s are in full swing, rock musicians are expanding their horizons, looking even further back than the Melvins or the Ramones for inspiration, even searching out entirely different styles of music. The latest trend of inspiration is lounge music—greats such as Martin Denny, Juan Garcia Esquivel and Julie London are now being rediscovered. Lounge is a genre once considered "adult," which would place groups playing this music right next to VH-1 on the indie-rock taboo list. Over the past five or six years, however, there have been several to join the trend who are definitely not adult-oriented, including the Coctails and, most recently, Love Jones and Combustible Edison. Though the bands' musical styles are drastically different, they share a thematic trend of out-of-the-ordinary instrumentation and impeccable fashion sense, adding up to a multi-dimensional package that gives the bands' performances another dimension. These musical groups are delivering more than just notes: They're purveyors of an aesthetic.

Combustible Edison is one such purveyor. The band is a prime example of the toll the rock-'n'-roll experience can take on a band. With one exception, all of the band members were once in the rock band Christmas, which grew frustrated with the genre. The idea to play "lounge" music full-time began with the Tiki Wonder Hour, a casual get-together at a local pub where the group played a type of music which just came "more natural" to its members. Love Jones, which includes ex-members of Squirrel Bait, also grew frustrated with punk rock. "Despite our punk-rock pedigrees, we enjoy playing melodic pop music," says vocalist Jonathan Palmer. The more contemporary pop of Love Jones has a Las Vegas feel to it, complete with jazz and swing inflections. Jazz has been a big influence on the Coctails, whose last album Long Sound was entrenched in the genre, but who remain integrated stylistically and continue to play rock as well—the band draws from Devo as much as Denny. The group does not agree with its "lounge act" label. "The term 'lounge' implies a casualness, something that is not serious," explains multi-instrumentalist Mark Greenberg.

But it is more than just a musical common ground that groups these bands together—it is overall performance. Whether it be tuxedos or stripey tees, all three bands have or have had dress codes, giving a more polished feel to their performances. Both Love Jones and Combustible have stage acts: Love Jones's is filled with between-song banter, and CE's is more of a staged performance that includes pseudonyms such as The Millionaire (Michael Cudahy) and Miss Lily Banquette (Liz Cox). These performances, and the group's use of unusual instruments like vibraphones and bongos, set them apart from the ever-popular grunge riff-raff.

Surprisingly, despite lounge's initial kitschy and campy novelty, the bands say there has been an overwhelmingly positive reaction to their music. People find the music accessible, a colorful sound that just happens to be a traditional pop music form.

The existence of an actual Cocktail Nation, however, is very questionable. Three points might make a plane, but do three bands a nation make? There certainly has been a revolution, broadening the definition of band performance. Says The Millionaire, "We just want to detoxify the concept of 'easy listening.' Who ever said listening had to be hard?"

—Dawn Sutter

Suggested Listening: Coctails: "Winter Wonderland" (7") (Hi-Ball) 1994; Long Sound (Hi-Ball-Carrot Top) 1992; The Early Hi-Ball Years (Carrot Top) 1992; Here Now Today (Hi-Ball-Carrot Top) 1991; Hip Hip Hooray! (Hi-Ball) 1990; Combustible Edison: "Cry Me A River" (7") (Sub Pop) 1993; I, Swinger (Sub Pop) 1994; Love Jones: Here's To The Losers (Zoo) 1993.

Essential New Music

HAMMERHEAD Into The Vortex (Amphetamine Reptile, 2645 First Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55408/612-874-7047)—Since Hammerhead has relocated from Fargo, North Dakota, to Minneapolis, it's no wonder that the group is so full of anger and confusion. As New Yorkers know, wintery isolation and desolation lead to an abnormal amount of self-evaluation and deep contemplation. Into The Vortex, Hammerhead's second LP, is wrought with the results of this bleak brooding. Minimalism is important here, even more than on the first album or the Evil Twin EP; the vocals are spare, relying on aggressive instrumentation—violent drumming and back-aching guitar—to carry its weighty topics. "All This Is Yours" is a cry for an unnamed savior; "Someone should clean this dirty world/someone should save all the pretty girls" is an obviously unanswered cry, since the sentiment is echoed throughout the record. Hammerhead's view, remains slightly skewed and full of discontent, although its music is increasingly focused. This concise approach has Hammerhead pounding more furiously and forcefully than ever before. "Brest," "Galaxy 66" and "The Starline Locomotive" all threaten to sweep us Into The Vortex.

—Dawn Sutter

CELL Living Room (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—Living Room, Cell's impressively mature follow-up to 1993's Slo-Blo, is proof that although a band may hawk a gutsy, fuzz-driven wall-of-sound attack, it doesn't mean that it isn't capable of writing songs that contain more than punk's "everything sucks" lyrical spewings or grunge's simplistic riffing. Despite the fact that Cell's unconfining song constructions make its sound a bit difficult to pin down (a more introspective, lyrically wiser version of Black Market Flowers?), the band will never be accused of suffering an identity crisis. Credit two-thirds of this to the band's unit-solidifying, relentless touring schedule, and the other third to Jerry DiRienzo's personal, dynamic-intensive vocals. While DiRienzo's voice is not always on key, it plows its way through melodic crunch-rockers like "Come Around" as effectively as it glides within "Fly," arguably Living Room's poppiest here being a relative term. Production by John Agnello (Screaming Trees, Redd Kross) lends a warm, rich and well-balanced texture to the guitar blending, all the while ensuring that the band's live intensity remains intact. Sensitive rock? Intelligent punk? Maybe so, but rock purists need not worry about Cell—Morrissey they sure ain't.

—Aaron Clow

BARK PSYCHOSIS Hex (Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—The British band Bark Psychosis demands patience of its listeners, and rewards them with lush, near-abstract gorgeousness. The group waited four years after its first single to put out its debut full-length, and even last year's single "Scum" took its time getting to its conclusion—22 minutes, in fact. The seven loose, dark compositions on Hex are in no hurry to get where they're going, either. In some cases, they have no intention of going anywhere in particular, and simply dive and surface through layers of Seefeel-ish keyboard and bass. No matter how loudly Hex is played, it's still quiet. Graham Sutton's voice and texturally rich guitar playing become audible from time to time, but never surge to the front of the mix for more than a moment; the same goes for the odd bit of trumpet or vibes, and for the Duke String Quartet, which makes an appearance here. Keyboardist Daniel Gish (who recently left the band) drives most of the songs with piano, sequencers and long-held, gradually mutating synth chords. This is resolutely non-rock, non-obvious music. Bark Psychosis prefers to creep under your skin and take over your mood rather than leave you humming a hook. For Hex induction, start with "A Street Scene" and "Eyes & Smiles," which builds incrementally to a powerful instrumental passage. —Douglas Wolk

COMBUSTIBLE EDISON I, Swinger (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—Combustible Edison is a conundrum. The group has made a fine album, but you sort of have to buy into its myth to enjoy it. Liz Cox and Michael Cudahy, formerly of Boston perennial Christmas, have become

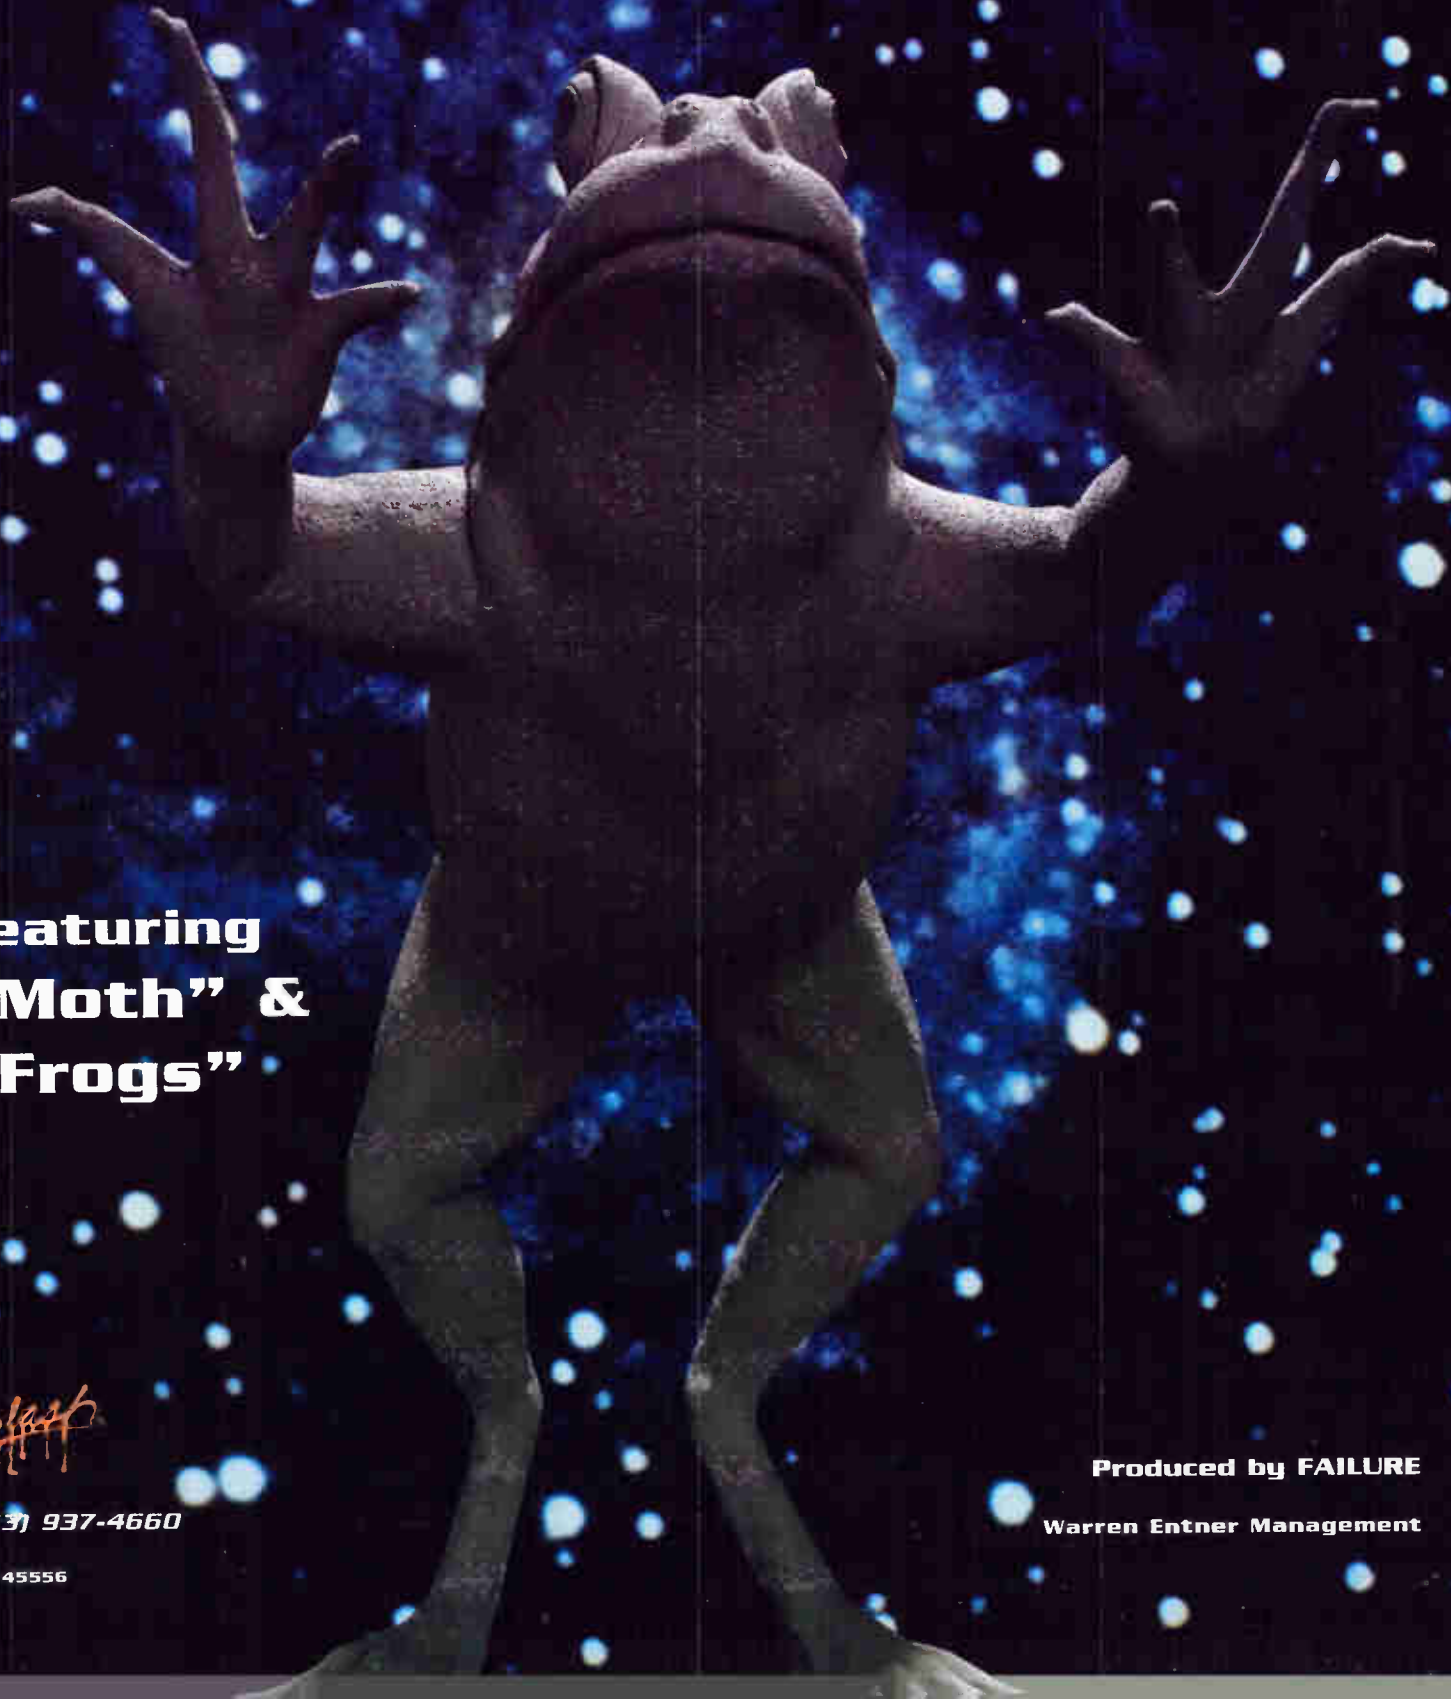

"Miss Lily Banquette" and "The Millionaire," and embraced Perry Day & Kingsley and Doris Day as their new rock gods. The five-piece band has impeccable white spats, prog-lounge chops and cocktail-hour effervescence. Combustible continually teeters on the edge of cheesiness, but never falls in, mostly because the group is perfectly serious about its style. "Miss Lily" sings elegantly and confidently on a handful of these numbers (her take on "Surabaya Johnny" matches Lotte Lenya's stride for stride); the rest are instrumentals, written with a respectful eye on easy-listening's past masters and played with a light touch and good humor (love those vibes!). The arrangements are varied and carefully worked out: Listen closely, and you'll hear lots of interesting things going on within each track. I, Swinger is an oddity—how many records would sound equally appropriate on a punk-club sound system and in the lobby of the local Holiday Inn?—but beautifully executed. Burning inventors give you so much more: "Breakfast At Denny's" (that would be Martin Denny's, we imagine), the extremely "exotic" "Guadaloupe," and a graceful, lilting cover of "Cry Me A River."

MATERIAL ISSUE Freak City Soundtrack (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Material Issue's genuflection at the altar of late-'70s power-pop has made the group the object of some ridicule, but on Freak City Sound-track, the Chi-town trio displays its influences proudly, and proves its critics short-sighted in the process. Vocalist Jim Ellison still affects Robin Zander's vocal inflections and phrasing style, power-pop legend Mike Chapman (the Sweet, Suzi Quatro, the Knack) produces, Cheap Trick's Rick Nielsen plays guitar on a couple tracks, and, like the girl-crazy chronic bachelors who preceded him, Ellison continues to squeeze plenty of hummable verses and memorable, sing-along choruses out of his perennially adolescent angst and confusion regarding the opposite sex. The band's stubborn insistence pays off in spades: Those who are fortunate enough to not have the free time to dissect pop records, or are too young to remember skinny keyboard neck-ties, should have no trouble finding Freak City Material Issue's most consistently appealing record to date. Chapman's production is refreshingly raw and burly, and lease-breakers like "Going Through Your Purse" and "Very Good Thing," while far from departures from the power-pop formula, have so much wide-eyed innocence and enthusiasm behind them that they sound remarkably fresh. Girls, Girls, Girls!: "Kim The Waitress" (a Green Pajamas cover!), "She's Going Through My Head" and "Ordinary Girl."

SISTER MACHINE GUN The Torture Technique (Wax Trax!, c/oTVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)—Sister Machine Gun is the brain-child of Chris Randall, who first came into prominence while playing keyboards with KMFDM in '91. The Torture Technique, the follow-up to SMG's 1992 debut Sins Of The Flesh, reaches beyond its Nine Inch Nails/KMFDM influences to twist and bend the limits of the techno/industrial borders. The opening "Salvation" begins with record-needle scratches and pops, removing the stigma of too much reliance on technology, and continues the boundary-breaking with its three-power-chord guitar progression. Mixed in is Randall's furious shouting, reduced to detached ramblings on certain tracks, raging guitars, thundering live drums and a mixed bag of programmed noises and pulses taking the forefront. Drugs are a recurring theme, notably in "Krackhead," "Wired" and "Cocaine Jesus," which bare the album's sense of vulnerability. Produced by Die Warzau, The Torture Technique keeps its edges hard in the classic Wax Trax! manner, like an addict in search of his next fix, heaving and panting with a wide-eyed stare that doesn't back down. Satisfying Torture: "Wired," "Sacrifice," "Salvation" and the title track.

—Andy Skibins

McCOY TYNER BIG BAND Journey (Verve, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019—McCoy Tyner, legendary pianist and bandleader, returns with another outing from his outstanding big-band project. Recorded over a full year ago, Journey swoons with the majesty of the blues; refreshingly, the emphasis here is on the ensemble, the collective and the conceptual side of the music rather than on tireless solos and long-winded blowing. Tyner is one of the few jazz musicians who can solo so effortlessly (and egolessly) that you almost don't even notice that his playing stands out from the ensemble. There's a decidedly tropical tinge to certain tracks here, including the "Samba Dei Ber" that opens the disc and "January In Brasil" that closes it out. Brazilian music has always held a fascination for the great jazz musicians, and Tyner is no exception. While the big-band concept may seem a little incongruous in light of the fact that most jazz of the last 30 years has been made by small combos with fewer than five members (not least of all Tyner's own work with the legendary John Coltrane Quartet), but in Tyner's capable hands, the big band is helping to keep alive a lush tradition of jazz stretching all the way back to the ballrooms and dancehalls of half a century ago. Hard-head jazz mavens will want to skip the Dianne Reeves vocal selection "You Taught My Heart To Sing," but "Juanita," "Peresina" and the above-mentioned Brazil-inflected tracks will send any jazz big-band lover into a guaranteed swoon.

—James Lien

FMOB Once In A Blue Moon (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—If there's one thing that can be said for the integration of genres (hip-hop, jazz and R&B here), it's that it allows creative formalities to be blurred by the sharing of diverse musical convictions coming from different, but not alien, sectors of the musical galaxy. Producers Denzil Foster and Thomas McElroy are no strangers to the industry. While their client list includes platinum artists like En Vogue, Tony Toni Tone and Club Nouveau, they let their passion for be-bop, hip-hop and R&B stretch over this danceable collection of genre-hopping tunes. Foster and McElroy submerge the 12 cuts on Once In A Blue Moon in lush production: heavy rhythms, live jazz performance and equal parts of soulful harmony and above-average rapping. On cuts like "The Vibe (Pump)" and "We Came To Move Ya," the pair creates perfect party morsels, but unlike many groups that aggressively pursue resourceful rap/jazz crossbreeds, FMOB most often remains within the safety of its four funky walls, rarely taking the beat or music into unpredictable turf. But if Once In A Blue Moon occasionally falls short on innovation, it also consistently shines with its well-tuned, pop-flavored hip-hop/jazz. Move to: "Be Bop 2 Hip-Hop," "One Love," "T's Joint" and "I Keeps A Kit." —Glen Sansone

SUPERSUCKERS La Mano Cornuda (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98101/206-441-8441)—Any thoughts of the Supersuckers being a PC rock group are out the door: La Mano Cornuda begins with a dedication to "the good fuckers and those who want to become good fuckers," and includes songs like "She's My Bitch." The Supersuckers (named for a porno flick) are not about politically correct agendas—they're just about fun, the kind of fun that's oblivious to the world around it, playing hooky melodies that make us forget everything and jump around the room. The band, which named its first album The Songs All Sound The Same, has fulfilled its prediction, since the songs on La Mano are little different from the ones on the band's last album, The Smoke Of Hell. That's not a detriment here, however; the band doesn't want to prove anything, it just wants to have fun, and that's what rock 'n' roll is all about, isn't it? With lyrics like "She's no riot girl/She's just a riot/If you've got something new to do/She'll try it," the Supersuckers take their carefree attitude to the brink of obnoxiousness, but no one ever said obnoxious wasn't fun. Get your hands on this: "Creepy Jackalope Eye," "Clueless" and "The Shmooze." —Dawn Sutter

CRAIN Heater (Automatic, c/o Restless, 1616 Vista Del Mar Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-957-4357)—It's probably not much of a coincidence that Louisville, Kentucky's Crain hails from the same town from which Slint emerged. Relying on a rigorous muscling of bass and drums, tempered with moody guitar scapes and wound together with the intensity of a bear trap waiting to spring, Crain seems ready-made for the obligatory

Steve Albini treatment. Instead, recording assistance falls into the hands of Whodini (guess who! Not the '80s rap band, that's for sure), and Heater becomes less thrusting than, say, the Jesus Lizard, and more dark and stormy, almost foreboding in its thundering strength. An LP and a handful of 7" singles preceded Heater, which explains where this trio's skillful grip on its instruments was methodically tightened. Drummer Jon Cook pounds his kit off the floor with fearsome determination, bassist Jason Hayden stomps thick, black notes over the rhythmic hammering like a boot heel, and Tim Furnish layers his maelstrom of tense guitar noise with subdued melodic undercurrents. Each song flurries effortlessly through percussive attacks and dynamic gear shifting, from the relentless fury of "Save Me Your Head" to the iron-willed control of "The Waste Kings" or the aptly titled "Blistering." Hayden's vocals are the last scalding touch, emoting lines like "That cop—just kicked, the shit—outta me" ("Hey Copst!") with a staggered low whine or shuddering scream. —Colin Helms

DAZZLING KILLMEN Face Of Collapse (Skin Graft, P.O. Box 257546, Chicago, IL 60625/312-404-8624)—There's a really good reason people (in this case St. Louis' Dazzling Killmen) choose to have Steve Albini produce (make that "record and engineer") their records: He makes things sound like they really happen when sound first comes out of the amp, only bigger and slightly more menacing. This six-song LP shows the Dazzling Killmen have a menacing sound of their own, and their fierce desire to make records the way they want to (they're neck and neck with Fugazi in the race never to sell out) affords them a frightening amount of sonic freedom. Borrowing the ethics of such gripping rhythm sections as Laughing Hyenas/Mule and, to an extent, Jesus Lizard, the Killmen shine when the proceedings are at a minimal level of control, though the band displays a surprising wealth of precision throughout. VARIOUS ARTISTS Plug In + Turn On (Music For A Technologically Advanced Society) (Instinct, 26 W. 17th St. #502, New York, NY 10011/212-727-1360)—Techno is evolving and mutating so fast, spreading through the club scene like a white-label virus, that the only way for those of us on the periphery to keep up is by scanning through the copious compilation discs that attempt to define the genre. That said, Plug In + Turn On is a friendly companion to techno's multifarious goings-on. It divides its mammoth 130+-minute length into two discs, one "trance" and one "ambient," and features some of the best-known names in electronic music (outside the WARP encampment), many of which supply a song to each disc. Cabaret Voltaire, which was fucking around with machine music back in the Pong days, and GTO (née Greater Than One) are the two most notable, but significant contributions are found in every corner of the collection. New York club DJ

Terre Thaemlitz, for random example, came up with both the slyly danceable "Freakazoids And Robots" and the bizarre "Hovering Glows," which offers nary a beat amid chirping birds, EKG beeps, voices endlessly distorted by echo and low growls that sound alternately like the contented purring of a huge cat and a flatulent pillow. If only it came in bottles: CabVolt's "Low Cool," Mothering Noise's "Blossom Tranq'd" and Mysteries Of Science's "Softly Sing The Angles."

ALEX CHILTON Clichés (New Rose (France), c/o ROIR, 611 Broadway, Ste. 411, New York, NY 10012/212-477-0563)—We're in love. Well, maybe not with a person per se, but with the idea of being in love. Even better: We're in love with the idea of incredibly cool people being in love, and there's nothing cooler than two totally jaded people suddenly falling for each other in a totally cool and jaded way. Alex Chilton knows this, and has turned in a supreme collection of ballads and mellow material on Clichés, his first newly-recorded release in years. Since his re-emergence as a cover artist supreme in the late '80s, he's moved from rendering obscure swamp pop nuggets and pre-Brit-Invasion teen anthems and delved into a deeper shade of soul; his last real outing, Medium Cool, first explored this Chet Bakerish, smoke-filled, empty dancefloor direction in the 20 minutes before it went out of print. The thing about Chilton that's evident from hearing him croon "All Of You" or "My Baby Just Cares For Me" is that the man has miles and miles of style, and a great deal of it is never seen by most people in America: style like an Aston Martin convertible, an anonymously crowded bistro on a narrow carless street, or a snazzy European television commercial that's not picked up for U.S. release. That's what makes this import-only ballad set so special: ol' Alex, fine 'n' mellow, is as radiant a crooner as ever but too smart and savvy merely to render songs as an entertainer. His warm, weary voice is imbued with all the infamous, sexy, slacker aura of all the strange and weatherbeaten years gone by.

two well-received EPs, is a masterful mix of adrenaline and atmosphere. Like much ambient techno, Spicelab hooks into repetitive loops, then feeds off them, gaining strength through simplicity. But while bands like the Orb and Aphex Twin go for soothing dub beats when they use percussion at all, Spicelab layers pulsing dance beats, handclaps and vibrant video game noises into its galaxy of sound. All the energy could have interfered with the galactic climate if the songs weren't constructed suitably, but the velocity and excitement is stretched over a long enough period of time (three of the four songs are over 14 minutes) that the vigorous elements swirl harmlessly into the void along with everything else. Like Plastikman, Spicelab makes no effort to hide the fact that its creator indulges in psychoactive substances. Lieb's past aliases have included the names Psilocybin and Azid Force, and Spicelab is an obvious reference to the mind-expanding drug in Frank Herbert's Dune. Whether this has any direct bearing on Lieb's music is something only he knows, but Lost In Spice is filled with the kind of throbbing redundancy that renders time meaningless. Let the Spice flow with "Cold Chillin'," "Spicelab" and "Lost In Spice." —Jon Wiederhorn

FIVE-EIGHT Weirdo (Sky, P.O. Box 724677, Atlanta, GA 31139/404-419-1414)—One of Athens, Georgia's favorite bands returns with another highly charged set of power punk, with a couple of gut-wrenching ballads thrown in to keep it interesting. Five-Eight is now a four-piece (rhythm guitarist Sean Dunn joined up last year), and its sound has been magnified a few times. Solid sheets of guitar noise back up singer/guitarist Mike Mantione's anguished yowl, while the rhythm section pounds it out fast and furious. These guys have been compared to Hüsker Dü more times than seems fair, but Bob Mould's Sugar compadre David Barbe produced Weirdo, and it's a perfect match. From the raging chords of "Mystery James" to the tortured fury of "Behead Myself" to the gloomy guitar duel "Stars" to the almost acoustic setting of the title track, Five-Eight covers a lot of musical ground with a rare amount of emotion and plenty of youthful agility. —Jim Caligiuri

UNCLE JOE'S BIG OL' DRIVER Uncle Joe's Big Ol' Driver (Headhunter, c/o Cargo, 3058 N. Clybourn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-935-5683)—Lump them in with the currently hyped San Diego "scene" all you want. The fact is, the only thing Uncle Joe's Big Ol' Driver has in common with fellow San Diegans Rocket From The Crypt, Fluf and Miniature is a love for energetic guitars. No, these four boys would much rather listen to some old Stones records than Gang Of Four, much rather sweat through a set for a pitcher of beer than for any indie-rock credibility. UJBOD plays the kind of unabashed, burly four-chord rock 'n' roll that your uncle used to listen to on his eight-track, the kind best heard with a cold Bud in hand and a pack o' smokes rolled in yer shirt sleeve. But don't assume that Bad Company is an all-encompassing point of reference—on the contrary, UJBOD would sound a lot more like Superchunk if it weren't for those crazy-go-nuts Chuck Berry styled guitar leads and Hammond organ swells underneath the meaty romp. In fact, this rough-hewn driver swings like any well-worn thrift store club used by many garage bands; it's just that where other groups channel their energies into punk throttle, UJBOD cracks another six-pack and draws a classic AOR hook from its bag. Tee off to the hearty barrel of these nuggets: "Don't Go," "Stoners Live In Costa Mesa," "Mary Anne" and the head-on muscle of "Possible Driving Song." —Colin Helms

PACIFIC JAZZ ALLIANCE Cool Struttin' (Planet Earth Recordings, 6634 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-468-9494)—Hip-hop jazz is definitely the most significant new flavor to be created in music in some time, and while US 3, Solsonics and Guru's Jazzmatazz are at the forefront of this burgeoning musical field, there's plenty of rich talent and deep expression all the way down to the underground; contrary to Guru's swaggering, artists like those three represent merely the top of a vast pyramid, rather than the music's pure inventors or sole practitioners. These days, the West Coast seems to be leading the way in this funky revolution, particularly the soulful, funk-heavy scenes of San Francisco and Los Angeles, where jazz and hip-hop mingle into new and exciting permutations almost every day and night of the week. The Pacific Jazz Alliance is a collective ensemble, united under the direction of writer-producer Shawn Lee, aided and abetted by such names as funky keyboardist Keith Cianca, Gap Band trumpeter Art Manley, and the inimitably loopy, sample-happy craziness of the Dust Brothers (best remembered for their awesome production work on the Beastie Boys' Paul's Boutique). The Alliance's debut, Cool Struttin', is a breezy, funk-coated affair that's imbued with a strong mid-'70s vibe (think the optimism of Stevie Wonder coupled with the grooves of Donald Byrd, the Blackbyrds and

LUXURIOUS BAGS Quarantine Heaven (Twisted Village, P.O. Box 35604, Brighton, MA 02135/617-562-0507)—It's known that the man whose nom-de-lo-fi is Luxurious Bags has spent some time playing in St. Johnny; otherwise, the identity of the Connecticut-based racketmaker is kept closely guarded. Quarantine Heaven is the first CD appearance of 1992's Voluntary Lifelong Quarantine (previously reviewed in these pages), paired with the ludicrously rare earlier album From Heaven To My Head. Heaven is a feedback-riddled collection of songs that fragment into noise, noise that coalesces into songs, and noise in whose patterns can be heard something fairly song-like. "I Wanna Be Your God" smothers the Stooges' anthem of a similar title in hiss, squall and blear until the only distinguishable element is its three-chord progression; the closing "Abandoned—50 Feet Under" is perpetually on the verge of turning from a lovely wash of ugly sound into something more structured, but never quite makes it. Also check out "This Pipework Leads Nowhere" and the roaring, pitch-free "Powerline."

SHEEP ON DRUGS From A To H And Back Again (EP) (Smash, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500)—Duncan and Lee, a.k.a. Sheep On Drugs, emerged from a stagnating London club scene in the summer of 1991, shocking and confusing clubgoers with their consuming, blinding performances and their anti-establishment attitude. Following up the band's spring '93 debut, appropriately titled Greatest Hits, the six-song EP From A To H And Back Again puts the electronic futurists further into their cynical techno-terror-ism. The guitar-oriented title track opens things up with the energy suggested by its twisting name, infusing wild samples and squeals into the mix to dizzying effect; "Cathode Ray" is the evil twin of the Jesus And Mary Chain's "Sugar Ray," scorching the demands of television addictiveness in its swirling maelstrom of pulsing effects, while the new mix of "Drug Music (More Or Less)" equates drugs and music behind its more low-end techno beat.

Also included is a new mix of 1992's "Motorbike" and a more ambient mix of the title track.
—Andy Skibins

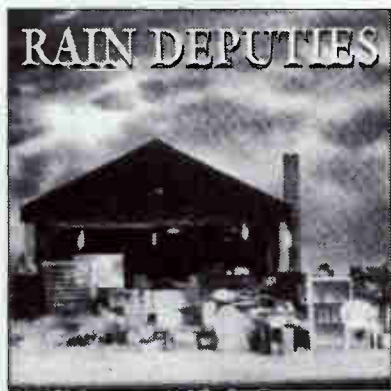

HARD 2 OBTAIN Ism & Blues (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Without the immediacy of either a provocative message or a catchy musical hook, it's easy to dismiss groups such as Hard 2 Obtain, a straight-ahead rap trio from Long Island. What the group lacks in instant appeal, however, it makes up in warm, understated samples and a kickin'-back rap style. Referencing pop culture ("like George is to Weezie," lyrics from Chaka Khan and Kool & The Gang and the musical Annie) and their buddies, Hard 2 Obtain keeps its range of lyrical content small and insular, creating an atmosphere of a few talented guys hanging out around the turntable. The beats are mostly mid-tempo, an occasional PE squeal marking the otherwise mellow music. With its mellifluous rhythms and relaxed rap style, Ism & Blues is an album the listener can dance to as well, without getting too riled up. Smooth and cool with: "Jokers World," "L.I. Groove" and "Time."

RAIN DEPUTIES Rain Deputies (EP) (Deputy God Studios On Hudson, 145 Palisades St., Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522/914-478-5759)—Though the Rain Deputies' address suggests a Dobbs Ferry, upstate New York existence, their music is warmly imbued with the spiritual, musical stamp of classic Austin, TX, college rock; on their five-song demo CD, they invoke the songwriting twang and fire of the True Believers and Doctor's Mob. Their formula for briskly-pumping rockers and confectionery pop-hooked guitar lines also includes a little Matthew Sweet popper (especially on "Somewhere In Between") and a bit of Silos-esque, Soul Asylum-ish songwriting flair (on "Rust Iron Sun"). The Rain Deputies combine these elements and more, pulling together a distinctive sound that's nonetheless straight-between-the-eyes American pop, as much an heir to CCR as to R.E.M. or Let's Active. Though their choice of a Stones cover could have been better (we'd have rather heard their take on a more obscure tune from Metamorphosis or Between The Buttons), their rendition of "No Expectations" is nonetheless sufficiently re-imagined in a lethargic, Cowboy Junkies-like mold to transcend the usually ill-fated rote reverence typical of so many Stones cover versions.

ing sepulchers. The band's sound is equally rooted in vocalist Kathy Green's haunting voice and the lush, resonant backdrop of the music behind her, which tints the music like an ornately-crafted tapestry or a stained-glass window. If Star 69 can escape from the clutches of old, '80s-style obsessions (Catholic imagery went out with Billy Idol and Sex Gang Children), it can move onto a more refreshing and current sound, as it does on "Like A Bird," which points the way to a stronger direction, with a more potent, less pretentious lyrical stance and a more fully-realized musical backdrop...The only thing better than being in an unsigned band is being in more than one unsigned bands. Illinois' HONCHO OVERLOAD, which features a guitar player who doubles in another unsigned area fave, Hum, is a new ensemble rising out of the ashes of the presently-named band Bad Flannel. (The band also apparently features two former Poster Children.) But beyond the resume, the music on Honcho Overload's CD Smiles Everyone (Mud, 201 N. Coler, Urbana, IL 61801/217-384-4835) tows the heavy college rock line; at its best ("Brain Bath," "Gershwin") it's a raucous din that probably goes over well with the crowds at the Jesus Lizard, Jawbox and Royal Trux shows the Hanchos have opened. The band needs more growth and a stronger lyrical presence, but it's definitely one to keep an eye on from the hottest-of-hot musical states. It'll reportedly have a newer CD out later this year.
—D.I.Y.

Fans of ethereal art rock labels like 4AD and C'est La Mort should check out the demo tape from New York's STAR 69 (c/o Kate Gaffin/212-989-1171).

Throbbing, weeping violin lines, dreamily-strummed acoustic guitars and soaring diva-esque vocals sweep through the post-Cocteau Twins milieu of its music, evoking images of gothic statuary and decay.

MUDHONEY/JIMMIE DALE GILMORE
Mudhoney/Jimmie Dale Gilmore (EP)

(Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—At first, country and garage seems like an unlikely combination. This strange EP comprises five songs, only one of which is a true collaboration. Mudhoney slows down Gilmore's "Tonight I Think I'm Gonna Go Down-town" (which he recorded with his previous band the Flatlanders and on his solo effort After Awhile), adding a hint of evil with Mark Arm's recognizably nasal vocals, suffusing it with the band's own punk-rock twang. Returning the favor, Gilmore changes very little for his version of "Blinding Sun" (from Mudhoney's album Piece Of Cake), singing the song with country slowness, rendering it unabrasive and almost soothing. The two meet on Townes Van Zandt's "Buckskin Stallion Blues," given life through Gilmore's effusive voice and Mudhoney's rippling guitar solo and twangy guitar crunch, proving that the two are not as different as we might think. Gilmore's and Mudhoney's original versions of their songs round out the EP. —Dawn Sutter

ROCKET FROM THE CRYPT "Ufo, Ufo, Ufo"
(7") (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill,

NC 27514/919-929-0711)—It's no "Hippy Dippy Do"; this time Rocket's rockin' melodies are harsh and buried under a heapin' mound of feedback. "Ufo, Ufo, Ufo" (which features a groovy picture of Elvis for its label) reels at a break-neck speed, much too fast for choreographed saxophone swings. "Birdman" jumps and hollers with RFTC's usual enthusiasm. —Dawn Sutter

SUPERCHUNK "Precision Auto, Parts 2 & 3" (7") (Merge, address above)—For its 50th release, Merge has come up with a nifty thing: a single featuring "Precision Auto," from Superchunk's album On The Mouth, in two drastic remixes by Mark Robinson. Part 2 displaces the song's guitar solo into a squeal of feedback at the beginning and the end, runs the riff backwards and forwards, distorts the vocals, and adds a little overdubbed whooping from Robinson. Part 3 runs Mac McCaughan's vocal by itself for a while, then throws in a dubby bass/drum section, and surrounds the whole mess with Robinson's a cappella hooting of the song's two-note hook. Maybe now that Unrest has broken up he's got a future as a professional remixer. —Douglas Wolk

SPINANES "Sunday" (5") (Sub Pop, address above)—This promo CD-single has a radio-friendly remix and a charming demo version of the wistful

"Sunday," but the bonus tracks are even better. "Hawaiian Baby," from the duo's second single, makes its first appearance on CD; it's more subdued than recent Spinanes material, but it's an astonishingly beautiful song—to say that it's better than anything on Manos isn't to knock a superb album, but to note that this is a phenomenal performance. The disc is rounded out by an unlikely but mostly successful cover of Mission Of Burma's "Fame And Fortune," with Rebecca Gates' double-tracked vocals smoothing off the original's rough edges while preserving the song's bitter wisdom. —Douglas Wolk

BUZZOVEN Unwilling To Explain (7" EP)
(Allied, P.O. Box 460683, San Francisco, CA

94146/415-431-5698)—Believe it or not, North Carolina has spawned a lot more musical heaviness than you would expect from its indie-rock history. This fact is undeniably proven by Charlotte's Buzzoven, whose debut album To A Frown began burning ears early last year and earned frequent comparisons to such mighty stalwarts of punk-metal innovation as the Melvins or C.O.C. These three tracks continue where Buzzoven's previous endeavors left off, using gargantuan riffs, gut-scraping vocals and massive doses of distortion to further the more pummeling rhythms of "Behaved" and "Done" and the oozing grind of "Hollow." —Colin Helms

PIGPEN "Kind Of Dead" (7") (Cavity Search, P.O. Box 42246, Portland, OR

97242)—Instrumental avant-jazz-rock doesn't often make it onto 7" singles, but this is a welcome exception. Pigpen, a quartet from the Northwest, is led by keyboardist Wayne Horvitz (known for his work in jazz ensemble The President), and the two tracks here are brief, daring explorations of what it's possible to pull off with a keyboard these days. "Kind Of Dead" has a disturbing Middle Eastern female vocal sample in front of a percolating groove, along with stabs from a saxophone (or sax emulator); "Pattern 56/Interlude" has atonal, Residents-like motifs strung together by a horn line that echoes Henry Threadgill, as well as a peculiar spoken-word bit and laughter in the middle. —Douglas Wolk

DEVIL DOGS Choad Blast (EP) (Empty, P.O. Box 12034, Seattle, WA 98102/206-323-3775)—Everything this band records is a call to arms for the Saturday night swingin' crowd—1994

rock with a punch of '60s roll. This six-song EP (which follows last year's Crypt/Sympathy LP Saturday Night Fever) begins with the "Theme From The Devil Dogs," which usually begins or ends most of the band's live shows, and sums up the Devil Dogs' enthusiastic approach. Grab a beer and put on NYC's punkabilly from the garage. A virtual blast: "Bless You," "Radio Beat" and "Can't Get Enough Of You." —Dawn Sutter

BARDO POND "Trip Fuck" (7") (Drunken Fish, 8600 W. Olympic Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90035)—The waters of Bardo Pond contain quite a few delightful little sounds if you just know where to listen. "Trip Fuck," for instance, is a lazily textured journey of skittering drum patterns, hiccuping samples and a delicate wash of guitar reflections that eventually get lost in the depths of the cool liquid. Its B-side, "Hummingbird Mountain," despite an extremely muddled recording, contains some tastefully sticky bits of guitar noodling and droning melody that hint at a larger, hazier presence somewhere. —Colin Helms

JACKPOT!

UNDERWORLD Dubnobasswithmyheadman (Junior Boy's Own, The Saga Centre, 1st Fl., 326 Kensal Road, London W10 England/081-964-4414)—A dance trio which poses with guitars; a dance trio which plays wholly live (yes, without DAT back-up); a dance trio which incorporates rock/pop boundaries. What's going on? Having mutated from New Romantic eccentrics Freur (a cult hit with "Doot Doot"), a seven-piece, funk-driven Underworld released two (ignored) albums on Sire in the mid-to-late '80s, but this is phoenix-from-the-fire material. The difference between then and now is the 3-D presence of cutting-edge DJ Darren Emerson, who joins Karl Hyde and Rick Smith in a head-on clash between dance music and rock/pop song culture resulting in Dubnobasswithmyheadman, an endlessly open, fascinating hybrid that is fast becoming a seminal recording. U.K. trance, Belgian techno and Italian house motifs link arms with ambient, dub, Kraftwerkian and synth-pop textures, laced with elegant guitar latticework, computer wizardry and provoking lyrics in a beautifully seamless package. Eight tracks and 72 minutes provide acres of space to explore, so each track is like a tiny labyrinth, leading you through striking, undulating territory, with several breathtaking vistas, especially "Dirty Epic," where the commercial warmth of the Stereo MC's "Connected" is expounded into a cinemascopic, and "Cowgirl," whose murderous wall-of-techno drive matches 1993's epic single "Rez." Other highlights include the monstrous but never gratuitous 13 minute "Mmm...Skyscraper I Love You," where Hyde's cut-up/collage lyricism goes haywire, the vocoder vox and trippy sequencer swing of "Spoonman" and the slowmelting "Tongue." Melody Maker has called the album "the greatest record ever" (the drugs, the drugs!), but you can understand the enthusiasm: with Dubnobasswithmyheadman, true club culture finally rises from underworld to overground, with 'band' and 'album' status intact. You could even say the future starts here.

SISTER GEORGE Drag King (Catcall, 142B St. Pauls Road, London N1 2NL England/071-226-8145)—From the label that put together the Huggy Bear/Bikini Kill album and U.K. tour comes the London-based Sister George. As the press release says, "A word about Queercore...nah, on second thoughts..." Suffice to say, the band consists of two lesbians, two gay men, a name from the iconographic '60s film of lesbian desire, and a 'political' agenda equal to its need to make a potent racket. The songwriting is primitive, the playing ramshackle, the effect joyous and bristling. Drag King is punk rock with a more eclectic, drag the Riot Grrrl blueprint of garage-poppy gait and bone-dry production (from Tom Greenhalgh of the Mekons), soldered together with grungy-metal sub-Stooges guitar foliage. The blunt corners, sharp edges, lyrical spearheads and Ellyot's brattish vocal make for an arresting noise; "Let's Breed" is a hollering chant; "Rococo Subversive" and "Handle Bar" are the heavy sisters in this company; "Krap" stirs in some acoustic levity while "Virus Envy" is pure Punk Rawk. Sisters are doing it for themselves.

OVER SEAS

TERRY EDWARDS Plays, Salutes And Executes (Stim, P.O. Box 132, London W3 8QX England/Phone Wayward PR, 071-978-8611)—This CD is a reissue of sorts, since it gathers up Terry Edwards' three EPs, but the world should know more about him, once of Gallon Drunk and a man with the most John Peel radio sessions under his belt after The Fall. For reasons unknown, the trumpeter has felt driven to pay tribute to the Jesus And Mary Chain, The Fall and Miles Davis, swaying between the reverential and revisionist, but always letting the tunes run free. The Mary Chain's "Never Understand," "The Hardest Walk" and "Everything's Alright When You're Down" come on like sublime, long-lost '50s instrumentals, baxes and brass squealing madly, while The Fall is bizarrely turned into a Two-Tone concoction—"Totally Wired" is reggae, "Bingomasters Breakout" is ska, while "The Dice Man" is "Bo Diddley and Quincy Jones in Jamaica," according to the sleeve notes. The four Miles Davis compositions bear strange fruit, with jazz, big band and punkish momentum. There are three bonus tracks: The Clash's "Version City" (TV cop theme treatment), the Damned's "New Rose" (loopy string quartet) and the Sex Pistols' "Bodies" (hoary glam rock). Strangely strange yet oddly normal; ladiesandgentlemen, I give you Terry Edwards.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Violence Controversy Violence Controversy. The music press seems full of it: gunshot during a Cypress Hill show in Liverpool, heavy police presence outside the Snoop Doggy Dogg gig in London; full-color scenes of blood-dripping cuts on stage at a S*M*A*S*H show. On a different tip, Suede was pulled up by the police after a Brighton show for no other apparent reason other than Brett Anderson's advocating of drugs in the press appears to have been noted. While on the subject, the sleeve of THESE ANIMAL MEN's debut single "Speed King" (that's three 'e's) has caused a 'controversy' featuring a bowl of white powder and several straws. "As far as we're concerned," reported guitarist Hooligan (Hooligan?), it's a back-to-basics tour: for those who don't read U.K. political minutiae, is PM John Major's term for the government's political/moral crusade that might work if it weren't for all the Tory politicians subsequently being involved in 'sex' scandals. As for These Animal Men, if their comments are meant to be ironic, it's indistinguishable from the real thing. A huge yawn emerges from the nation's youth—or not?...After the limited-edition tease of "Stutter" comes ELASTICA's second single "Line Up." It's pretty much the definitive short, sharp pop nugget, sparting all the New Wave characteristics—punk at heart, poppy in nature—in an irresistible 3:16 package. The guitars are dirty and blunt, the bass dirty and rumbling, the vocals raw and sassy, with the added bonus of the drummer making vomity-style noises on the beat. Picky observers have noted similarities to Wire's "I Am The Fly," and it's obviously so, yet such is Elastica's gutsy verve that the plagiarisms won't last long. Evidence is provided by the three remaining tracks. "Vaseline" is an 80-second burst with another thrilling chorus and Blondiesque "la-la-la's"; "Rocknroll" and "Annie" (the latter pair are taken from a John Peel radio session) are equally adrenalinized and perfectly formed, with crunching guitars and flying choruses. If Elastica were around in 1978, it would have been at the front of the pack then; as it stands in 1993, there is little competition (Deceptive, 1st Fl., 130 London Road, London SE1 U.K./071-620-1383)...TINY MONROE arrived on the scene even before Elastica, but it's taken the band a year to follow up the initial flurry of acclaim. Also a limited edition of 1500 (7" blue vinyl in a special 'newspaper' wrap), "VHF 855V" is an ode to a favorite, deceased car with an assured, robust guitar-pop undercarriage, with a sea-shanty momentum and singer NJ (who is of the Asian/Northern English/Scottish extraction) cooing and cajoling in the driver's seat. On this showing, Tiny Monroe lacks Elastica's killer pop instinct but it has a sweeter edge that it should keep investing in (Laurel, c/o Automatic PR, 3 Wansdown Pl., Fulham, London SW6 1DN U.K./071-386-7172)...It seems like every second band has a female singer/songwriter—at last, we all chorus, serious representation. Brighton sextet SHARKBOY is fronted by the six-foot, Nico-esque Avy, whose smoky-nightclub melodies radiate with both menthol-cool and tucked-up-in-bed ambience. Its second single, "Razor" is the group's poppiest moment, featuring cushioning cellos in place of rampant guitars, yet the song is still a slithery, languid beast, but the B-sides ("Bright Things Lie," "Dear Gilda," "Show Me Now") fully develop the 3 a.m.-dreaming feel. The album is due in April; further ecstatic explanations await until then (Nude, 38 Langham St., London W1 U.K./071-388-5300)...The 7" single is being kept alive by bands wanting to make a cheap initial impact. The debut from Belfast punk-pop classicists ASH has a B&W sleeve that opens out to reveal the phrase "guaranteed real teenagers," which sums up "Jack Names The Planets," a winsome, autumnal-pop spin—sugary vocal and customary shaggy guitars around a daisy-chain melody, like a Creation/Sarah marriage. "Don't Know" is another blast of sweet-and-sandblasted pop; maybe it's the knowledge the band comes from Belfast, but there is a touch of the Undertones—and Protex too—to Ash's make-up (La La Land, 19 All Saints Road, London W11 1HE U.K./071-3243-1287)...Half-Japanese SATELLITE's "Fat Elvis Shoots Another" is a miniature blitzkrieg that surfs the same memorable '50s/'60s wave as early, urchin Mary Chain—candy melody and willing vocal smothered in feedback squall. The flipside, "You," is more medium tempo, twice as long, with more prominent lead guitar snaking its way through the overdub maelstrom (Infectious, 555 Kings Road, London SW6 U.K./071-371-7383)...Glaswegian quartet A.C. ACOUSTICS also makes a 7" single debut. "Sweatlodge" chops up radiated guitars resonating with a rare nervous tension with moments of delay and decay as a familiarly pained, buried vocal gets lost within his plaintive protest. "M.V." also opens and closes its pressure valves, but stresses the sparsely haunting aspects—lonesome guitar shivers, cymbal shimmer, vocal turbo—and adding a slowboiling climax, almost like a miniature Spiritualized or Codeine playing the hobo-blues (Elemental, 64 Mauntgrove Road, London N5 2LT U.K./071-359-2232).

Martin Aston, 125B Crofton Road, Camberwell, London SE5 8LZ, England/071-703-3281.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). WCLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART FOCUS

Th Faith Healers
Following last year's debut Lido, England's Th Faith Healers became the latest British band to suffer having to put the U.K. tag onto the end of its name. Successfully shaking the addendum, Th Faith Healers bare more than just their tails on their sophomore effort, Imaginary Friend. With a focus on minimalism and repetition, the Healers jam through this latest batch of careening songs, which are built around driving, repetitive riffs and brought to life by layers of guitar noise and penetrating grooves. Sounding almost improvised in spots, Imaginary Friend finds many playmates, as it jumps 78-20 in its second week on the chart. KDIC (#1), KDVS (#1), KORD, KSDT, KSSB, KTCU, KUCI, KUCR, WBCR (NY), WBGU, WHUS, WORB (#1), WROC, WRSU, WSBF, WSOE, WUSC (#1), WVKR (#1) and WXPL all enjoy their new Friend with top 5 reports.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

Sneaking up like Brutus, leaping, bounding and pushing everyone out of the way, DGC's Beck races from #18 straight to #1, and captures the top In-store spot, too. Matador's Pavement holds steady at #2 and earns second seat at In-store. Atlantic's Tori Amos falls down 1-3 after four weeks at the top, while Charisma's Enigma remains at #4 during its fourth week on the chart. Arista's Crash Test Dummies make a small hop (9-8) and Nothing/TVT-Interscope's Nine Inch Nails is also on the last track, shutting up 25-11.

Other records on the move this week include: Zoo's Tool (36-29), Arista's Ace Of Base (55-33), Trance Syndicate's Crunt (45-39), Sub Pop's Mark Lanegan (48-40) and Red Red Meat (60-44), and RCA's Cowboy Junkies (68-59). Among the familiar faces reappearing on the charts this week are Capitol's Mazy Star (#41), Reprise's Stone Free: A Tribute To Jimi Hendrix (#66), Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots (#68), DGC's Urge Overkill (#73) and Elektra's Bjork (#75).

Several releases make debut appearances this week: Elektra's Luna (#14; #1 Retail Breakthrough), Sire-Reprise's Morrissey (#31), Columbia's Bruce Cockburn (#42), A&M's Soundgarden (#43), Too Pure-Elektra's Th Faith Healers (#47), Giant-Warner Bros.' Hammer (#47), MCA's Rhythm Country And Blues compilation (#57), Heavenly (UK)'s Saint Etienne (#60), Ecstatic Peace's Sonic Youth/Yamatsuka Eye EP (#61) and Deceptive (UK)'s Elastica (#74). Beware of the Ides of March. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

BECK

It seems as if Bong Load-DGC's Beck appeared out of nowhere even though he has been hanging around the West Coast making music for quite some time, receiving little attention until now. Beck's debut album, Mellow Gold, makes an incredible showing this week, bounding up 18-1 after only two weeks on the chart. The album incorporates an eclectic rainbow of musical styles, from rap and funk to folk and blues, not to mention plenty of random noises. The success of the album, bolstered by the radio-friendly "Loser" and its top In-store position, is only a small surprise, coming after the popularity of such strange lo-fi bands as Ween. After such an auspicious beginning, what will Beck's future bring? Whatever becomes of him, he certainly won't be called a "Loser."

A-BUZZ IN THE BIG APPLE

Ripples and rumbles are no big deal in the Big Apple, the city so nice they had to name it twice. Amid the jackhammers and the bulldozers and the Babel of cabbies, nobody pays much mind. But a buzz, now that's another matter. Unlike the afore-said excrescences, a buzz starts sub-rosa, *sof*to voce, and gains in volume and intensity and impact as it passes from mouth to ear. At the moment there's a definite buzz on about two particular performers—vocalist JEANIE BRYSON and alto saxist ABRAHAM BURTON. Bryson, whose debut CD (I Love Being Here With You, Telarc) made this listener's '93 Top 10 list, has finished mixing her much-awaited Telarc follow-up and is being courted, none too subtly, by industry bigwigs eager to secure her stunning vocal services if and once she becomes a free agent. One is loath to term this nice-nice fandango as tampering, per se, but Bryson, a true jazz singer, had best be careful. Some of the sweet voices singing in her ear are in fact sirens, tempting her to cross over to the shores of pop-jazz commerciality. She's led a charmed existence since I Love Being Here With You came out last year. This stunning, all-acoustic CD, combined with her easygoing palsy-walsy charm, made her a seemingly instant attraction in the New York metro area, where she resides and where, in actuality, she has gigged virtually nonstop for nearly a decade. I Love Being Here With You scored heavy rotation on the metro area's trad-jazz radio station, WBGO-FM, and one song, the Latinish but acoustic "Bitterweet," managed to get airplay, inexplicably, on the Apple's contemporary/love-jazz counterpart, WQCD. In addition, her one vocal contribution ("Fallen") to guitarist Larry Coryell's abysmally slick CTI CD, Fallen Angel, is turning up on WQCD and turning on fans of the station's easy-listening, high-caloric, often electronically glazed pseudojazz. That Bryson has managed to entice the ears of these blissed-out love-jazz listeners without queering her deal with unforgiving straight-ahead mavens is amazing. And lucky. Fortunately, Bryson—the daughter of composer Connie Bryson and the late trumpet titan Dizzy Gillespie—insists that she hasn't and will not sell out. The singer has temporarily replaced saxist Sam Newsome in trumpeter Terence Blanchard's working quintet, with whom she'll appear at the city's prestigious Blue Note club April 26-May 1. By then Columbia will have released The Billie Holiday Songbook, a Blanchard's orchestral tribute on which Bryson sings four numbers. Her own forthcoming Telarc CD, which sports (shades of Dizzy) several Latin pieces featuring hornmen Claudio Roditi and Paquito D'Rivera, including two of her most-requested stage numbers ("Solamente Tu" and "Simple Song," both penned by her mother), should further ingratiate her with fans of pure jazz singers. Now comes word, from an inside source, that she has cut a song for the next Columbia outing from saxist Grover Washington, Jr., a *mer*shman with zero (or near-zero) credibility

After a slow two months at the beginning of this year, our first real chart battle is finally under way. Atlantic's Cyrus Chestnut emerges victorious this time (2-1; #1 at KCSN, KHSU, WDET, WDPS, WNHU and WRST), claiming his second week at #1 from the clutches of JVC's Ernie Watts (1-4). Verve's McCoy Tyner Big Band runs a close second (4-2), while Novus-RCA's pairing of Roy Hargrove & Antonio Hart (3-3) gives the youngbloods some time at the top. Elsewhere, Prawn Song-Mammoth's Charlie Hunter Trio continues its upward climb (10-7), as Triloka's Hugh Masekela borders on the top 10 (21-11). Atlantic's Gerald Albright has this week's top debut, playing it Smooth at #14. Also making new entries this week are CTI's Donald Harrison (#22) and Justice's Sebastian Whittaker (#25). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) with fans of real jazz. Upon delivering the news, before I crumpled to the floor, the source hastened to add that the Washington project is straight-ahead, all-acoustic. "There's not a single electronic twerp on the whole thing," the source said. Called in, at the request of Freddy Cole as a last-minute replacement for another singer who blew off the date, Bryson dueted with Cole on "For Heaven's Sake." (Cole croons two other pieces on his own.) This album of standards, produced by Todd Barkan and slated for summer release, boasts a top-shelf crew comprising pianist Hank Jones, bassist George Mraz, drummer Billy Hart or Lewis Nash and hornmen Robin Eubanks, Bobby Watson and Eddie Henderson. Well, wonder of wonders. It looks like my record collection will include one Washington piece after all. Nevertheless, methinks the engaging Bryson had best keep an eye on her ass. The sirens are fixated on the same spot...The buzz about altoist Burton, the 22-year-old Jackie McLean acolyte, has been building over the past few years thanks to his bravura performances, on-stage and on disk (for Enja and Verve), with the hard-driving, well-drilled Wailers quintet led by drummer Arthur Taylor. The recent performance by Burton's own quartet before an overflow audience at Visiones was so electrifying, so revelatory that Gust Tsilis decided, then and there, to record this unit pronto. Tsilis, fortuitously, happens to be both the talent booker (with proprietor Andy Lugris) at Visiones, an important New Jazz venue, and the stateside eyes and ears for the German-based Matthias Winckelmann, head of Enja Records. Tsilis, a gifted vibist/composer himself and an Enja recording artist, was so blown away by Burton's band (Marc Cary, piano; Billy Johnson, bass; Eric McPherson, drums) that he immediately called Winckelmann and convinced him to get the band into the studio without delay. Burton, an edgy, extroverted player with the energy of McLean, the nascent charisma of Cannonball Adderley and commanding technique, led his foursome through several dynamic sets that had the audience screaming with delight and surprise. Tsilis, seldom given to hyperbole, described the event as a cross between a Coltrane concert circa '64 and a revival meeting. Having scored a coup by landing the incredible vocalist Kevin Mahogany (whose Double Rainbow is epiphanic) on Enja's doorstep, Tsilis didn't need to blow any smoke to convince Winckelmann about Burton's fire. At press time, the band was expected to hit the studio, with Tsilis producing, any day. Stay tuned.

DOPE!

TREACHEROUS 3 Old School Flava (Easytee/Wrap, c/o Ichiban, P.O. Box 724677, Atlanta, GA 30339/404-419-1414)—For anyone who has ever picked up a mic to rip a rhyme, the legendary raps of the Treacherous 3 are more than likely to be a significant benchmark in his or her hip-hop education. Kool Moe Dee, LA Sunshine, Special K and DJ Easytee, who originally came together in 1978, return in force after disbanding in 1986 (when Kool Moe Dee went solo) with the release of Old School Flava. While most new-school rap struggles to find an identity, often resorting to sex, violence or getting high to peddle itself, the artistic merits of rhyme craftsmanship have taken a backseat to disposable visual stimuli. Old School Flava is a merrily boastful, rhythmically supreme return to swift lyrical technique and toughness, while acting as a memorandum ("Lower The Boom") to new jacks to re-check their skills before they claim supremacy, because the boys in T3 are as sharp as ever. The old-school swagger, untarnished confidence and hyped-up wordplay (I still can't stop flailing my fist to "Feel The New Heartbeat," a remake of their own "Feel The Heartbeat") digs up days when raps were illustrated by hand-clapping, break dancing and Adidas sweat suits instead of guns and misogyny. "We Wid It" is enhanced by a round table of hip-hop royalty including Chuck D., Heavy D., Big Daddy Kane, Grandmaster Caz, Tito (Fearless Four) and Melle Mel. Best of all, no attempt has been made to repackage or market the crew to today's younger rap fans; they approach this record as if their previous release was only one year before. The Treacherous 3 dusts off its old, worn turntables, and operates with pure old-school sensibilities, the album's most refreshing aspect of all. Don't call it a comeback: the Fat Albert-induced "We Come Phat," "The Mic Wreckers," "Mo Money Moe," "Sun Is Up" and the spoken word "A True Story."

ON THE CHART

RADIO RELAXATION: After 16 weeks on the Beat Box chart, Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (1-1) is still taking top honors behind its slammin' "Electric Relaxation" single. But the pressure is turned up by the debut of Guru and DJ Premier's (a.k.a. Gang Starr) Hard To Earn (#2 debut), which appears to be ready for the impending battle ahead. While Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (2-3) and Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (3-4) take a breather, EastWest America's Das EFX (10-6), Columbia's fast-rising Nas (11-7) and Jive's Casual (13-9) make the most noise in the top 10. Don't count out Hoppoh-Columbia's Kurious (17-14) or Outburst/RAL-Chaos' Domino (21-15)—both artists are armed with new singles—and acid jazz sensations the Solsonics on Chrysalis-ERG (35-26) continue to climb. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Da King & I; 2) KMD; 3) Fugees (Tranzlator Crew); 4) 2Pac; 5) Ice Cube; 6) Black Moon; 7) Gang Starr; 8) Jazzhole; 9) Ed O.G. & Da Bulldogs; 10) Nas. Rico...Hooo!" from the Frankie Cutlass penned and produced cut is becoming one of New York's underground favorites. As DJ and producer of The Frankie Cutlass Show, Cutlass gathers together a combination of ragamuffin and gravelly, hard-core voices for this oversized, bass-buzzing compilation, much like the Bobby Konders/Kenny Dope-produced gatherings. The music here is all about deep-cutting beats. Given appropriate touches of smooth and ambient sampling, the resulting tone and power sounds as though it's booming out of the trunk of a local homeboy's Pathfinder. Madstyle and Evil Twins (who also check in the Cypress Hill-sounding "Faces Of Death") throw 40 oz. rhymes and blunted threats on "Redrum," while two rugged dancehall gems are turned in by Rayvon ("Brooklyn Girls" and "Girls Fresh"), which blend in with the album's otherwise cavernous voyages. Of course, the cut of choice remains either of the two mixes of "Puerto Rico" (the original features the same bass line as Organized Konfusion's "Fudge Funk"). Also boom: the Busta Rhymes-sampled "Back On The Scene" and "Here We Go."

PACIFIC JAZZ ALLIANCE Cool Struttin' (Planet Earth Recordings, 6634 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-468-9494)—Explorers and protagonists in the acid jazz scene are on never-ending searches to acquire the fattest and funkier grooves, regardless of origin. From Guru's heavy hip-hop renderings to the Solsonics' Afro-Cuban musings, the borders continue to be challenged and expanded. Kansas native Shawn Lee captains the Pacific Jazz Alliance, a collective (analogous to rap's "posse") of soul performers who tinker with and hold true the energy of alterna-urban soul. Breathing life into loosely arranged jazz/soul, Cool Struttin' steers through sanguine musical exchanges while remaining necessary listening for aspiring players of the game. Featured is trumpeter Art Manley, who mastered his craft while playing with the Gap Band, and production team the Dust Brothers, who, aside from working with Tone Loc and Young MC, left their deepest impression on the Beastie Boys' Paul's Boutique. Strut through: "Art's Groove," "No Brain" and "That Is Why I Sing The Blues."

DEF 12

FESU "Blind, Cripple And Crazy" [100 BPM] (Nuff Nuff, c/o Continuum, 380 Ludlow Ave., Cranford, NJ 07016-3228/908-709-0011)—Citing Nation Of Islam founder Elijah Muhammad as a prime inspiration, Houston's FESU (Yusef backwards, but without the "Y") presents some headstrong raps, which reveal a young mind discovering knowledge of self while looking at the frustrations and ills affecting the black community with the temperament of Death Certificate-era Ice Cube ("Niggas are past the state of emergency/you can't talk for ya self, can't work for ya self, what the fuck you got to say for ya self"). The single's moody production is trimmed of all fat, and FESU's lyrics have a dramatic, theatrical effect although his rash generalizations (i.e. whites are evil devils) and absurd representation of women leaves plenty to be desired.

ON THE CHART

In another week where Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (1-1) remains top dog, this week's top five remains unchanged: Priority's Ice Cube (2-2), Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (3-3), Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (4-4) and Motown's Queen Latifah (5-5). Making a splash this week is the new slice of fabricated life by Giant-WB's Hammer, who debuts The Funky Headhunter at #6. Also making a notable debut is the fourth album from Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr, which enters Hard To Earn at #9. The coming weeks promise to be interesting, as Columbia's Kurious (22-12) picks up momentum and Houston's 5th Ward Boyz debut their Gangsta Funk (EP) at #22. BLOWIN' UP

GANG STARR Hard To Earn (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104) Radio Chart Position: #2—The two members of Gang Starr (Guru and DJ Premier) like to refer to the New York City borough of Brooklyn (the planet, that is) as their stomping grounds, although Guru's roots are also found in Boston, Massachusetts. The duo's fourth album, Hard To Earn, is a caustic display of their undeniable hip-hop credibility and toughness. As it blasts into the top 10 this week at #2—while also being the #7 Adventure Pick—Hard To Earn is rapidly proving to be Gang Starr's biggest hip-hop statement to date. Gang Starr culls 68 of 140 total Beat Box reports this week, including 11 number one reports, from KUNM, KUTE, KVRX, KWBU, WBAU, WCBN, WECS, WFNP, WIXQ, WMRE and WMUC.

JACKPOT!

MATERIAL Hallucination Engine (Axiom, c/a Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500)—Everybody's doing the world fusion thing, most with little talent, little respect and little sense of creative adventure. Thank God for Laswell, Shorter, Collins and company, who come back again with another international travelogue of the mind. I could fill up the review with just a who's-who: the names Bill Burroughs, Shankar, George Basil, Simon Shaheen, Aiyb Dieng, Jonas Hellborg and Sly Dunbar are just a taste of this omni-continental cast of musical madness and beauty. Bill Laswell has once again constructed a unified field from diverse atomic particles, making the chanting voices and drums of India at home with the funk of Detroit and the heat of the Sahara. From its earliest inception, Material has always been at its best when the overall sound, almost a blur on first listen, opened up a Pandora's box of weird ideas and subtle idiosyncracies. Layer upon layer and groove over groove, this is ambient texture with a vicious bite. This is the dilemma of Material, a genre-less quality that makes them accessible to all and still a mystery untold. "Words of advice for young people": open your head and let the demons in.

OMAR PENE AND SUPER DIAMONO Fari (Stern's, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-925-1648)—The mbalax sound of Senegal is now pretty famous due to the international stature of Youssou N'Dour. But while N'Dour continues to grease and polish his roots with the oil of pop culture, Super Diamono has held on to the more raw, stripped down sound that first brought this West African rock hybrid to the world's attention. True, the group has opted for some of the silicon glitz of Paris, but at the core is still a heavy bass groove, a throbbing drum and soulful hits of brass that keep the music spitting fire. Pene's voice lacks the pyrotechnics of N'Dour, but he replaces it with a warmth that more than makes the difference, slithering out a phrase here and nipping on a line there, expressive and altogether charming. Super Diamono makes a club-style music that begs for a pint of thick, yeasty beer and a night of dancing.

TERRESTRIAL TUNES

DUNYABÉLÉ has been charting in Europe for a few months now, and its brand of West African/European rock merits your attention here in America. Tchon Tirmi/Trembling Earth (Funfundvierzig, Schmiedetwiete 6, D-23898 labenz, Germany) is aptly named, because its heady mix of Guinee-Bissau roots and Caribbean spark will keep the crowd stomping the ground and shaking the dancefloor. A pan-African sound incorporates music from all over the continent, with tastes of West, East and South permeating the bass-heavy rhythms of the band. Dunyabélé can pull out the sweet ambience of Salif Keita and then rumble into a bone-jarring reggae throb with a township spirit. That the band is a mix of African

Green Linnet's Tarika Sammy takes #1 this week (2-1), bouncing over Tommy Boy's Big Blunts (1-4), Ellipsis Arts' Africa Never Stand Still, which makes an impressive 6-3 leap, and Mango-Island's Khaled (3-2) to reap our top honors this week. Our highest debut comes from Värttinä's Oi Dai on Spirit-Green Linnet, which enters at #11. Other debuts include Heartbeat's Mandators (#20) and the incredible Mojo Rock Steady compilation (#24). A warning to our New World reporters: Due to a confluence of events, it looks like the next big thing is going to be chanting monks. There are several CDs due for imminent release on different labels that feature the denizens of various abbeys and monasteries. Please try to be specific as to which release it is you're playing when you report, citing the artist, title and label—just saying, "Oh, it's those monks" to our report-takers will not be sufficient, and we won't be able to accept your playlist without full information. and European musicians only speaks more highly of its dedication to a new sound with roots in the old lands...Oud master RABIH ABOU-KHALIL and his multi-talented bands have been merging Eastern ethnic with subtle jazz trimmings for many years. The German label Enja (c/o Koch International, 177 Cantigue Rock Road, Westbury, NY 11509/516-938-8080) has now reissued three of his earlier albums from the MMP label. The 1987 release Between Dusk And Dawn brings together the core band of Glen Moore (bass), Glen Velez and Ramesh Shotham (percussion), joined by reedman Charlie Mariano in Abou-Khalil's most jazz-oriented recording. The 1989 quintet, featuring Sonny Fortune on the sax, produced Bukra, a more solidly Middle Eastern excursion that nonetheless left plenty of room for wailing on the reeds. By the time it made 1990's Roots And Sprouts, the ensemble had dispensed with the reeds in favor of more Arabic instruments like darabukka, nay and violin. This album best displays the classical roots of Abou-Khalil's compositions, as well as his improvisational genius on the oud and Moore's brilliant attack on the double bass. As a bonus, they pull out all the stops on a slithering Persian version of Duke Ellington's "Caravan"...Sometimes it works and sometimes it doesn't. Such is the case with Borderland (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763) by American "world music" ensemble LIBANA. This group has talent, good material from Eastern Europe, North Africa and the Middle East, and a devotion to the political motivations of the new age of world music. What it lacks can really be summed up in a comparison. The album opens with a Finnish folk song from the now Russian region of Karelia. You probably know this as the title track of the VÄRTTINÄ album, Oi Dai (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Road, Danbury CT 06810/203-730-0333). Värttinä plays it with a dark, passionate soul, a grind of strings and a pulsing, heartfelt vocal attack. Libana plays it like a museum piece, interesting if you haven't heard it before, but lacking either the punch of the original source or the creative spark needed to carry it into a new land.

REQUISITE RICHARD

I have always had a nightmare about RICHARD THOMPSON. I'd dream that he: 1. got a major label contract, 2. made the cover of glossy pop music rags like CMJ, and 3. started putting out middle-aged pop crap like most of his aging contemporaries. Instead, he has done numbers one and two, and made what may be his best album to date, Mirror Blue (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028). All the elements of a great Thompson recording are here in abundance; dark pathos, vicious wit and poetic romance pepper the album like a sonic filé, a burnt roux generously garnished with fresh ideas and old acoustics. A friend commented that Richard Thompson has developed something of a formula: an anthemic rocker or two with a screaming Stratocaster solo, a bitter joke about an old lover, a funny rocker and at least one acoustic guitar-rooted ballad that will tear your heart out. Formula it may be, but given the songs that come out of that recipe, he is still a mile beyond every other rock songwriter out there. His songs have a universal character that makes you slap your forehead in recognition. At their cruel best they are a catheter that drains out the poison in your soul through a mix of anger and humor. "I Can't Wake Up To Save My Life" is the kind of nasty yet clever diatribe we all wish we could unleash on an ex. At the other extreme is the acoustic "Beeswing," one of his best romantic ballads to date, a sweet, passionate look back on love that is damn near perfect. In between are a dozen carefully crafted songs about cars, women and fast food that will inspire, delight and infuriate you. If this isn't enough, Mirror Blue is also creatively produced and performed, with an up-front and in your face sound of trashy drum sounds (Pete Thomas has one of his best sessions ever here!), acousto-electric guitar chops and Thompson's usual blend of medieval reeds and Fender electronics. The rockabilly thrash of "Shane And Dixie" has already gone into my top 10 best rock songs ever, simultaneously all-British and totally Sun Studios. Pardon my purple prose and extreme hyperbole, but Mirror Blue is one of Richard Thompson's most exciting albums. I may very well decide it is his best after a year of listening. And being one of his best puts it heads above just about every other piece of plastic with a digital signal of an electric guitar on it made in the last 20 years.

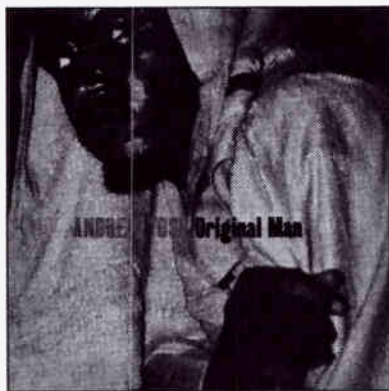

Peace.

CRUCIAL!

ANDREW TOSH Original Man (Heartbeat, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—Andrew Tosh, son of the late, great Peter Tosh, is another of the second generation of reggae stars to emerge in the '80s. While the other great offspring of reggae's greatest group, Ziggy Marley and his brothers and sisters the Melody Makers, saw an almost immediate rise to fame and critical acclaim, Tosh's reputation has come more slowly and deliberately. And so it is in 1994 that his debut album sees its first domestic release, featuring a new remix and additional dub tracks that extend its running length to a healthy 70 minutes. Andrew builds the bedrock for his emergence by covering several well-chosen selections from his father's great catalogue (in fact, his first performance was singing one of his father's songs at the memorial service in honor of his death). Here he covers "Same Dog," "Jah Jah Guide Me," "Dog Bite" and a reworking of "I'm The Toughest," recast here as "I'm The Youngest." From there, Tosh offers his own original songs, such as "Original Man," "Heathen Rage" and "Riches," each of which fits in with and even furthers the legacy of his father's titanic talent. Produced by the ubiquitous Niney The Observer, Original Man is a remarkable first effort, and lays a solid groundwork for the future. With Tosh's recent appearance on the Never Ending Wailers project, and this album finally making it into the bins in the States, the stage is being set for Andrew Tosh to carry on the piercing vision and potent message of his father. In his liner notes, Roger Steffens describes Andrew Tosh as a "tough young warrior," an apt and fitting description for the son of one of reggae's most revolutionary, extraordinary figures. Few are the stars these days who burn with such passion and conviction, which is why Andrew's Original Man is such an important and timely release.

compilation, but this one isn't too far from the truth. This collection of Tappa Zukie-produced gems leads off with Beres Hammond's "Putting Up Resistance," an auspicious start, and the collection only builds upward from there. Beres' wonderful voice also appears on the track's reprise, "Resistance," with help from the bubbling narrative voice of the inimitable U Roy. This is the kind of reggae that's commercially viable and very pop, but still succeeds without compromising itself, offering the perfect blend of authenticity and modern sounds. Other high points here include "Keep The Faith" by Frankie Paul, Brigadier Jerry's "Bangarang" and Yami Bolo's "Be Still Babylon," one of his strongest ever tracks. Programmers seem to be sinking their teeth into this one, as it's been charting solidly ever since the week of its release—a rare and telling feat for a compilation amidst the glut of various-artist collections awash in the marketplace.

PETER BROGGS Reggae In Blues (Golden Harvest, 3286 M St. NW, Ste. 200, Washington, DC 20007/202-337-5860)—It might seem strange and contradictory to someone used to reading tirades against technology and keyboard programming in this column, but this is a very modern, very electronic-sounding record—and it's great. How can a reviewer decry one record as soulless, machine-driven music, and praise another that uses the same instruments and technology? The answer is simple: it's the soul of the artist, the performer, the musician, the producer that makes all the difference. This album is long on soul, plain and simple—it's there in Peter Broggs' unadorned, unassuming vocals, the rich bass lines of Chris Meredith, and the ever-present rhythm guitar of Brian Silverman. Broggs has long been a cult favorite among reggae connoisseurs, and Reggae In Blues, though heavy on synths and new sounds, does not disappoint. The premise of a bluesy reggae album isn't really what this is about. This album is closer to the soul roots of reggae, imbued with a modern, underlying "world music" flavor that only serves to underscore the irrepressible universality of reggae's irresistible pulse.

BUNNY WAILER Crucial! Roots Classics (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763)—Given the mixed reviews of Bunny's recent Never Ending Wailers project (a record that has interestingly garnered every level of critical reaction from lavish praise to unmitigated scorn), one wonders whether the world will notice this collection of essential Bunny Wailer material from the end of the '70s and the early '80s. Whatever one thinks of the recent Wailers CD, it's nice to hear some of the vintage Bunny Wailer material resurface, especially in the light of all the attention that Bob Marley has been receiving lately. As rudeness and ragga styles run rampant, it seems that people are in fact once again picking up on the message and positive content of reggae's greatest moments and performers, whether the music is old, new, or as was the unlikely case with The Never Ending Wailers, a little bit of both. The singles culled together for this album represent some of the finest moments from one of the strongest periods in Bunny Wailer's phenomenal life as a reggae musician. "Peace Talks" is a quintessential reggae song: powerful words, irresistible rhythm and lots of spacey echo and dub effects, while the traditional drumming that adorns "Old Dragon" gives it a deeply spiritual feeling that today's synths and drum programs can never capture. The title literally says it all: this release is as crucial and classic as reggae can get.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Best Of The Best Volume 1 (RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015/301-588-9641)—So, it's the Best Of The Best, eh? It's a pretty daunting name for a

psychick warriors ov gaia

DJ FUNK-1 Street Trax (EP) (Underground Trax, c/o Barney's, 3400 W. Ogden, Chicago, IL 60623/312-521-6300) and PSYCHICK WARRIORS OV GAIA Psychick Rhythms Vol. 1 (EP) (Kk, c/o Restless, 1616 Vista Del Mar Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-957-4357)—From the east side of Chicago to the southern Dutch town of Tilburg, the minimalist meltdown rages on. Though we already mentioned the Psychick Warriors record as an import about five months ago, its domestic release is welcome indeed. Those hoping for the deep ambient trance excursions of the previous Psychick Warriors records can look elsewhere ("Warning," the liner notes read, "this object has nothing to do with art or artificial intelligence"). Instead, these two Dutch wizards have drawn inspiration from the steam-rolling, slice-and-dice 909 rhythm tracks of the Chicago underground and concocted six fast-moving drum workouts that eschew samples and sustained synth chords in favor of pure, four-on-the-floor physical impact. And the galloping "Break/shifted" is not so dissimilar to the manic "Knock Knock" on DJ Funk's Street Trax EP. For a city with such a rich African-American musical tradition, mysteriously, Chicago has never truly developed an influential hip-hop scene. But in many ways, the jackhammer rhythms of DJ Funk, Robert Armani, Paul Johnson et al. represent rap's spirit in the city, albeit with strikingly different technology and ideas. And yet this music has remained, like D.C.'s Go-Go world, invisible to most of the North American dance world. Its influence is felt strongly in Europe, however, and the Psychick Warriors Ov Gaia are only its most recent converts. It boils down to this: Get your hands on both these enormously enjoyable records before the week is out. Is this techno or is this house? I'll let you be the judge of that.

DUKE AND PIERRE

If DJs Duke and Pierre are competing with one another to release the most records in the shortest time, they're certainly in a dead heat, "heat" being the operative word, especially with the blistering "8 Min. Of Techfunk" and "Encore." Encore is one of DJ Pierre's moodiest EPs to date, with unusual tribal sounding drum patterns and filtered, barely heard vocal snippets. The A-side's "Battle Mix" of "War Drums" has the characteristic Pierre heavy bass swell overlaid with bongo and low tom swatches and distant shouts. The flip's "Wonderful" is built round an insistent vocal sample, its suspense building over the full nine minutes, 50 seconds. A true delight (Nervous, 1501 Broadway, New York, NY 10036)...DJ Duke is never one to mislead a demanding listener, and with "8 Min. Of Techfunk," what you see is what you get. Duke's warbling, ceaseless percussive drive is well in evidence here, buffeted by insidious acid squelches and fore-shortened string blasts. The flip's "12 Min.

ON THE CHART

Another week at #1 for Alex Paterson and Co.'s Orb, whose live tracks still reign. Richard James' new Aphex Twin single on Sire-WB rests comfortably at #2, while his Selected Ambient Works Vol. II was just released overseas by the U.K.'s WARP to great fanfare. Virgin's domestic issue of the ambitious Ambient: A Brief History Of Ambient Music Vol. 1 double CD, featuring Eno and Hawkwind among others, debuts at #10, while the stripped-down rhythm tracks of Psychick Warriors Ov Gaia, now out domestically on Kk-

Restless, continues to climb (23-16). Moonshine's unusual acid jazz comp Acid Jazz Test—Part 1 debuts at #22, no doubt the first of many to appear here. And Darren Emerson's acclaimed Underworld LP on England's Junior Boy's Own scrapes onto the chart at #25. Both Nothing/TVT-Interscope's Nine Inch Nails (15-9) and Wax Trax!-TVT's KMFOM (11-7) see upward progression this week. This week the chart was culled from 83 reporting stations. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

To Do It" is a tribal percussion-based reworking of this contemplative, spooky outing from the Thompson St. turntable wizard (Sex Mania, c/o Power Music, 211 Thompson St. #4P, New York, NY 10012/212-982-2506).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

A worrying trend in the dance world (one that has plagued the film industry for quite some time) is the endless stream of remakes and unimaginative second takes on records that should have been left alone. But I should have realized that the ever-inventive Olav Basoski wouldn't let that happen with the explosive "Windows '94" by S.I.L. The original was a prescient, up-tempo, tribal, instrumental house track which won Basoski many admirers. He's wholly re-worked this monster, with four mixes that might as well be entirely new tracks. The production is impossibly crisp and punchy, with warm rounded keyboard sounds impacting the solar plexus and the sort of percussive drive that demands a physical response. This is a record that is nearly impossible to dislike (Work, c/o Rhythm Distribution, Hempoint 6v, Amsterdam, Holland/20-681-3446)...Detroit's ROBERT HOOD has released a marvelous evocative set of deep techno tracks, entitled "Minimal Nation" (double 12") on Jeff Mills' Axis label. Spread over four sides of vinyl, this EP confirms Hood's ability to suffuse the most cold, off-balance electronic sounds with an almost melodic warmth. The second disc is the better of the two, the majestic "Unix" and "Rhythm" which seemingly come from somewhere other than this planet. Their skimming keyboard hits and back-wound, slippery edits over synth sounds sound as if they were cut too short until you realize they sound perfect. Graceful techno from a real innovator (Axis, 515 W. Briar St. #403, Chicago, IL 60657/Tel/Fax: 312-975-2445).

ARGH!!! IT'S THE LOUD ROCK REPORT

RECORDS

Far Beyond Driven

(EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—During a recent discussion with Prong, Tommy Victor told us he had only heard the new Pantera record once, and that he had to turn it off half-way through because he couldn't stand it any more. "I was getting depressed because it was too damn good," he said, reminding us of a gig in which Pantera played after Prong and promptly blew New York's brightest off the stage. That's the way it is for Pantera—all or nothing, and usually all. The band doesn't believe in half-measures or compromises, making Far Beyond Driven one of the finest metal releases of the last decade, right up there with Master Of Puppets, Among The Living and Reign In Blood. Even though Pantera has already established a solid core following, the band refuses to play it safe, taking sharp musical corners at 120 miles per hour, exploring foreign sounds and styles with wild abandon. On Far Beyond Driven guitarist Dimebag (formerly "Diamond") Darrell uses a slide on several riffs and throws subtle C&W licks into the mix, and the band experiments with nerve-grating industrial techniques on "25 Years" and "Good Friends And A Bottle Of Pills." Then there are the sudden tempo changes and complex rhythms sandwiched between ominous Sabbath licks and barreling thrash beats. But the most noticeable thing about the new Pantera record is just how much angrier it is than the band's prior output. Darrell's guitar slashes with Southern malice on "Strength Beyond Strength" and "Slaughtered," and Anselmo's vocals bubble with uncontained hatred on "Good Friends And A Bottle Of Pills," exposing the twisted thoughts of damaged subconscious: "I fucked your girlfriend last night/While you snored and drooled, I fucked your love." Far Beyond Driven, indeed. Pantera is simply unstoppable.

OBSESSED

The Church Within

(Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022)—Way back in the day, the Los Angeles hardcore scene had Saint Vitus and the D.C. punks had the Obsessed. Although their brutally slow, Sabbath-centric sound seemed almost perversely left-field at the time (a sentiment best expressed in the Saint Vitus song "Born Too Late"), both bands were embraced by the local punks and would prove to be seminal influences as time went on, inspiring bands like Black Flag to bridge the gap between punk and metal. After releasing two import-only records on Hellhound, and some homemade tapes that were traded by a rabid cult of punks, convicts and bikers, singer/guitarist Scott "Wino" Weinrich disbanded the Obsessed for about five years so he could replace original Saint Vitus frontman Scott Reagers. In 1991, Wino reformed the Obsessed with drummer Greg Rogers (ex-Scratch Acid) and bassist Guy Pinhas (ex-B.A.L.L. and Scream), and the band's new record, The Church Within, is about as solid a metal record as you're likely to hear this year. The old sound is still intact, but, thankfully, the Obsessed shuns the approach of simpletons like Sleep and the Melvins, who reduce the Sabbath sound to a plodding sludge of indiscernible low-end that screams, "Hey, look at us, we're HEAVY!" The Obsessed isn't afraid to mix up tempos (although slow is favored), and, like Kyuss, understands the sweet science of metal as taught by Sabbath, Deep Purple and Zeppelin: Songs are heavier when they move. The difference is like watching the fat bully on the playground sit on his victim until he cries "uncle" (effective and amusing, but it gets boring) and watching someone who can really fight—watching Wino kick someone's ass would be fun. NOTHING! LEFT! INSIDE! "Blind Lightning," "A World Apart," "Streetside."

MOTLEY CRUE

Motley Crue

(Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Before we completely ruin our credibility, let us remind you that a long time ago Motley Crue was a ballsy, ripping metal band. Too Fast For Love and Shout At The Devil were both potent, rebellious cries from a young, virile outfit that hadn't yet discovered how to make a buck. Once it learned, however, the Crue quickly became formulaic and goal-oriented, glossing over its rough edges with mawkish melodies and radio-friendly ballads. But with the departure of vocalist Vince Neil, the band has taken on an entirely new, street-savvy image. Motley Crue, self-titled perhaps to signify the band's musical rebirth, is a crafty, aggressive hard rock album in the tradition of Aerosmith's Pump, but geared more towards the cutting-edge '90s. New singer John Corabi even sounds a bit like Steven Tyler, replacing Neil's histrionic yelp with gritty, bluesy emotion. While past efforts sacrificed originality in favor of safety, on Motley Crue the band steps out on a limb, testing the waters with daring rhythms and semi-provocative lyrics: "Are you ready for suicide/Let me run a razor across your throat" ("Uncle Jack"). "Misunderstood" combines punchy guitar rhythms with tasteful strings, "Power To The Music" chugs along in anthemic ecstasy and the single "Hooligan's Holiday" is a party rock stomper that features layered guitars and semi-distorted vocals. Not bad for ex-candy-ass pretty boys.

ANATHEMA

Serenades

(Futurist, 6 Greene St., 2nd Fl., New York, NY 10013/212-226-7272)—When it comes to promo items, we thought nothing could phase us. We'd seen bongos, dripping IV units, fake vomit and bagged meat. We'd emptied envelopes dripping with fake blood and greased with Vaseline. But when we opened the packaging that contained Anathema and gazed at the freebie tucked inside, we almost lost our lunch. A small plastic cube containing a kernel of corn lay before us, and squirming around the vegetable chunk was a single maggot. How nauseatingly appropriate. Anathema is the kind of gothic doom

By the time you read this, you should be immersed in the Superunknown! "Let Me Drown," "Mailman," "The Day I Tried To Live" and "Limo Wreck" should rule your world. Be pleased that you no longer have to play your sixth generation dub tape. All indications point towards a huge SOUNDGARDEN project and it all starts now and begins with you! The question mark impacts with an exclamation point! Troublegum is the strongest and most streamlined THERAPY? yet! 4,000 copies sold in two weeks confirm that. "And you... can't hide...the KNIVES!" Congratulations to Simran "Ace" Kumar from WRUW, Cleveland for stuffing the ballot box and winning the DAMN THE MACHINE leather jacket. Tallahassee in the house!

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

Okay, so did you dig on the Grammys? How long will it be before the metal community gets a little respect? It goes on every year, metal artists get dissed. The BLACK SABBATH, MOTORHEAD and MORBID ANGEL tour has almost 90-percent of the venues sold out. How can you not love that? All three records are in the stations, so just do it. DIO is gearing up for a spring tour. We have radio interviews still available. This record is one of the best Dio has to date. TAD is also doing phoners, if we missed you give us a call. The FOR LOVE NOT LISA tour is panning out fine. More sales, more airplay, more fans. Dig on "Rocket Ride," it's going to work for ya. MUZZA CHUNKA's tour is the same. By now you have "Float" on the air, check out the tracks you did not listen to before. You'll be amazed. Anyway, way to go to Rittberg and Schnapp, dudes.

Marni/Psycho/Wayne, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

NAILBOMB, Nailbomb, Nailbomb! How amazing is this record!?! FYI—There are only four songs without any cuss words: "Wasting Away," "Blind And Lost," "Sum Up Your Achievements" and "Religious Cancer." And for those stations who are daring enough to play the other tracks, there's no excuse to not be all over this CD. We must say that you guys are killing with the LIFE OF AGONY record. These boys are all over the place. Every one should be on "Through And Through." If you already played the hell out of this song then try "This Time." TYPE O NEGATIVE is totally staying strong over the airwaves. Both of these bands are on tour together with STICK. A big "thank you" to those stations who are doing interviews with them at soundcheck. Please call us if anyone else would like to do the same. SEPULTURA's new single "Refuse/Resist" is mighty devastating. Oh my, the new video for this song is the most amazing radical clip known to man/woman. It will blow your fuckin' mind. There are more dates for the Sepultura, Fear Factory, Fudge Tunnel and Clutch tour. Yes, there is another killer tour happening—BIOHAZARD and FISHBONE. Call us for more info. BLACK TRAIN JACK...MACHINE HEAD...

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

As I sit and ponder over the meaning of life with my trusty trigger Bart the goldfish, I realize that each individual should gain as much from life as possible. If that gain has to be in the form of music, so be it. If, just maybe, it happens to be in the form of spreading the inspirational word of DEMENTED TED to your huge listener base, then let it be. And if, by any chance, you personally would like to speak with these mesmerizers of music, then just give me a call. They will be available for phoners through March. Then they hit the road for a 70-date tour with Unleashed and Broken Hope. Did anybody watch Headbanger's when PANTERA announced their tour with Crowbar? Watch future Headbanger's for the upcoming new video from Crowbar, "Existence Is Punishment." STRESSBALL is still planning to hit the road with Genitorturers in April. Do you need anything? Let me know.

Matt Young, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

PITCH SHIFTER are such friendly guys that they are flying over here this week to talk to all of you! Yes, interviews are happening now (3/10/94). Call us! Radio edit singles for "Triad" are coming. In the meantime spin "Diable." The tour with CARCASS starts in L.A. on St. Patty's day. The new SLEEP song is "Aquarian." Play it! MEATHOOK SEED won't go away! "Famine Sector" rocks! BLOOD FROM THE SOUL is makin' a mess of all kinds of shit. This record is a ground breaker. Lou Koller (Sick Of It All) brings his hardcore angst to your CD player! Give him props. LAWNMOWER DETH are punk! (Nuff said.) OLD's "Happy Tantrum" needs to be on the airwaves for all to enjoy! SCORN is slowly but surely turning heads. Track number nine is "Scorpionic." Play it! God Bless Earache! 212-DIE-9090.

The other B and B (Beth and Bill), Futurist Records, New York, NY (212) 226-7272

"Heh, heh, did you hear about the Peaceville Pets?" "Heh, heh, heh, heh, you said pet." "AUTOPSY and ANATHEMA are cool." "Heh, heh, heh, heh, you said enema." "No, you dillweed. I said Anathema." "Yeh, Yeh. I really like MY DYING BRIDE." "You've got a dying bride." "No you bung hole." "You sperm stain." Add Autopsy and Anathema on March 14 and 15 and My Dying Bride on March 21 and 22, or we will put Peaceville Pets in your hair.

Jill and Jeannie, The Red Light Records Death Squad, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538

Okay! You've got the COVEN and you've added it. If you don't have it please call. If you are a "K" or a "C" ask for Jeannie. If you are a "W" ask for me and we'll send you out a copy. We haven't heard one bad response to this release, it's amazing! Even Lonn loves it! Thanks for your support, metal radio! We have several more goodies comin' your way over the next few months. I'll start with OPPRESSOR from Chicago and GUTTED from Toledo. The radio impact date we're lookin' at is Monday, April 11. You will be getting a postcard in the mail, so keep an eye out. Then we have SARKOMA from Chicago and SKATENIGS from Hell. As of now we are looking at a Monday, April 25 radio impact date. This is subject to change and probably will, so I'll send you a reminder postcard closer to that time. You can also hear a track from the PLEASURE ELITE on the next F-CD and Skatenigs on the A.N. Quake Rock '94. Um, um, um, keep playing the VICTIMS OF INTERNAL DECAY and POST MORTEM and let me know if you need Coven giveaways. Oh! Skatenigs are gonna be doing ID's, so call and get in line. Later.

Mark Morden, MD, WSGR, Port Huron, MI (313) 989-5564

While still recovering from RAGING SLAB and PAW, a concert soooo viscerally exhausting it exceeds any pithy description, it occurred to me that the metal department of WSGR is an insular, self-contained unit, and I've scarcely a life outside the hard music genre. Therefore, and yeh, belatedly, the highlights and most winning moments of '93 are metal related. The Top 5 are: 5) An industry luncheon at Live Bait during McGathython, 4) My participation in a Foundations Forum panel, 3) Celebrating my birthday this past September with Cheryl Valentine and MIND BOMB, 2) All the concerts and all the interviews I'd had the good fortune to nail, and 1) Autographing the breasts of a Z-Rockette who'd drunkenly assumed I was a member of PRO-PAIN. The downside of '93: 1) All the concerts and all the interviews I couldn't squeeze into my chaotic schedule, and 2) The unfortunate discovery that the new coffee maker in my office is not pause and serve. Ouch. And out. ■

metal band that brings to mind images of decaying corpses and successful suicide attempts. Picture Pornography-era Cure fronted by a growling asthmatic crossed with the most somber Celtic Frost and you'll begin to grasp the band's brooding intensity. The tempo on Serenades rarely rises above that of a funeral procession, and frequently slows to a gut-lacerated crawl, the songs progressing with the determined lethargy of a starving man in an endless tunnel crawling towards a distant light he knows he'll never reach. Drummer John (no last names, please) is a bit sloppy, but guitarists Daniel and Vincent harmonize superbly, combining harrowing acoustic segments with brutalizing electric ones and bassist Duncan leads the march to the gas chamber with deep, precise rhythms. Abandon all hope, your life is over: "Lovelorn Rhapsody," "Under A Veil (Of Black Lace)," "All Faith Is Lost." —Jon Wiederhorn

SHORT PLAYS

KILLING JOKE

Exorcism (EP)

(Big Life, 225 Lafayette St., Ste. 601, New York, NY 10012/212-941-1666)—With ex-Killing Joke bassist Raven now playing with Prong, and everyone from Prong to Ministry to Nirvana acknowledging debts to Killing Joke, it's about time the metal world receive proper introduction to the English band that did as much for industrial hate as Slayer did for death metal. Exorcism sees the original Killing Joke lineup—Jaz Coleman, Youth, Geordie and Big Paul—reuniting for the first time in years and leaping forward into the razor-edged, beat-oriented sounds of today. Some of Exorcism is probably too computer-centric for most head-bangers, but "Exorcism" is rife with grinding guitars and "Another Cult Goes Down" features electrifying noises and bizarre guitar effects over a throbbing dub beat. The Joke still has a killer punchline. —Jon Wiederhorn ■

REVIEWS

PAVEMENT "Cut Your Hair" (Matador, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Not content with being one of the most unabashed sing-alongs of the year (if not ever), Pavement's "Cut Your Hair" has now become one of the finest videos (actually there are two versions) of '94 as well. Making a video can't be considered a sell-out or a dampening of cred when the results are this good. The band enters a barber shop to sharpen that cute slacker look. What follows is a series of terrific visual jokes as each member approaches the chair. Describing them on paper is about as effective as writing something like: "and then Charlie Chaplin does this thing with his hat that's really funny." Just suffice it to say that all the jokes are perfectly played. OK, one of the band members blows a cot out of his nose, happy? Version two of the video focuses on the black and white TV seen in the background of the first clip. On the TV, Pavement mock (quite poorly) playing the song. Again, to appreciate the full humor of "Cut Your Hair" part two, you just gotta see it. (SC)

CELL "Milky" (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—"Milky" is one of the more unassuming and thankfully effective videos to come about through the use of typical, grainy, black and white edits we've seen in a while. Of the more memorable shots used in the clip, those featuring the hammer-wielding members of Cell smashing records hurled at them from off-screen are particularly charming. Taken from its second album, Living Room, "Milky" is a good example of the vibrant melodic crunch that lead Sonic Youth's Thurston Moore to twist DGC's arm into signing Cell back in '92. (CH)

ELVIS COSTELLO "13 Steps Lead Down" (Warner Bros. 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Blaring guitars, howling vocals, snappy drumming like backfire, bubbling bass and keyboards sliding wildly over chords—even a butthead can sense it: "These old dudes kick ass." While it's never been easy for pre-MTV artists to look as comfortable in a video as artists raised on the genre, this clip from Costello's new LP Brutal Youth conveys the frenzy of Elvis and the Attractions (who join him here for the first time in eight years) pretty well. It doesn't hurt either that they blow away bonds half their age too. (SC)

PRONG "Snap Your Fingers, Snap Your Neck" (Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Industrial/metal monster Prong has been joined by a couple of former members of Killing Joke and produced its most user-friendly song to date. "Snap Your Fingers..." is an edgy, paranoid bellow with a wallowing three-chord chorus. Everyone in the video is sweating bullets, caught in rapidly shifting darkness, as guitarist Tommy Victor spits out invective. Scenes of heavy industry (machines that grind or whomp with the precision of Prong's rhythm section) play in the background as some poor bald sap gets beaten down by life. We'd also like to compliment Victor on his very effective facial hair: The Therapy? look is catching on, apparently. (DW)

YAGGFU FRONT "Left Field" (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Last year, Yaggu let us know who they were with a wacked-out (definitely not wack) video called "Busted Loop." Their latest, "Left Field," is another winner, funky and trippy in a De La sort of way, with a luscious Hammond organ punctuating the spaced-out blips and bleeps that float through the track. Like De La Soul, the guys in Yaggu Front never act like a bunch of bad ass rappers, instead you get the clear impression they're having fun doing what they do, making inventive and fun hip-hop. (SC)

SEPULTURA "Refuse/Resist" (Roadrunner, c/o Epic, address above)—One of Sepultura's strengths is that it is able to take the universal idea of political oppression and make it personal and real. In other words, "Refuse/Resist" takes stock news footage and combines it with crowd shots to convey Tip O'Neil's maxim—It's not often you see a former Speaker Of The House and Sepultura mentioned in the same sentence—"all politics is local." The means of the clip are simple; crowd shots and performance footage are intercut with scenes of mass protest, police brutality and other shockingly real moments of violence. That's it, but it's more than enough to make a powerful statement. Of course it doesn't hurt that the impact of clubs against riot police shields and the detonations of tear gas canisters are punctuated by Sepultura's thundering roar. (SF) ▼

NEWSREEL

As you may have noticed VMJ has a new look, but it has not affected the chart information found within its pages. Printed playlists have been abbreviated to a style similar to that of our Radio Airplay listings. With this method, we hope to print more lists. Those requiring more information on video playlists and/or a specific artist may request tracking information at the cost of $25 per artist/video. Direct VMJ inquiries to Steve (ext. 20) or Colin (ext. 28).

DIALOGUE

GUEST DIALOGUE

Mark Matthews of the Dentists, EastWest America Recording Artists
Colin was our biggest fan.

At every gig, Colin would be right there at the front, clapping during songs and calling out for his favorites in between. He became essential to any Dentists performance, and it came as no surprise when Michael decided to invite Colin along for our European tour in the spring. In theory he was the roadie, but his contribution was to be far more valuable...

Things began brightly enough. Colin is one of life's great communicators, and he had no trouble confusing the locals with his bizarre colloquial jokes and rubber face, as we cruised through Belgium and Holland. His piece de resistance came when we picked up the Hitchhiker on the way to Berlin.

Colin never really grasped the concept of Berlin (before the wall came down), and although we tried to explain, he just assumed he was on some dangerous journey to a Stalinist labor camp cut off from the rest of the world. At the end of the trip, I don't know who was more confused, Colin or our Hitchhiker!

The Hitchhiker, a native Berliner, wanted a lift through "The Corridor," an official road linking West Germany with West Berlin through what was then East Germany. The road, the barren scenery, and the Hitchhiker all contributed to the surreal atmosphere inside the van, and Colin added that little bit extra by interrogating the Hitchhiker thoroughly, much to our amusement. A typical exchange would go something like: Colin: "So...er...do you get much Western music then?" HH: "Western music? Country and Western?" Colin: "Yeah...could be...could be..."

The conversation went on like this for some time, with Colin treating our guest like a man who had been frozen in ice for 300 years, and the Hitchhiker taking all Colin's questions deadly seriously and being polite. Colin rounded the journey off by remonstrating with everyone about a monument, consisting of an old Russian tank on top of a concrete plinth, at the very end of "The Corridor."

"What's that for?" he asked our German friend. "It's to commemorate their part in the Second World War," he was informed. "Didn't bloody win though, did they?" said Colin.

I think it came as a bit of a shock when we explained that the Russians were actually on our side, and Colin became temporarily quiet for about 15 minutes while his memory banks tried to cope with this revelation.

The Hitchhiker unhitched shortly afterwards, Berlin survived our visit, and that journey passed into legend. We don't see Colin anymore. He temporarily emigrated to Australia where he gained employment as a chef, but rumours are that he's back in England, complete with Japanese girlfriend. I can hear that successful chat-up line now.

"So...do you get much Western music, then...?"

Chuck and Steph, People, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

We have a new 1-800 line! Here it is: 1-800-566-9497. Use this if you want a CD you never received or you want promos or whatever. We'll check the machine a few times a day, and we may even answer if we're in the mood. This number is for those low on money—our regular one should be used if you can do it...BEN HARPER coming to a city near you. Welcome To The Cruel World rules my world...SHONEN KNIFE will tour in the spring. No dates yet, but we'll let you know—play Rock Animals or die...Take a spiritual trip with ENIGMA and "Return To Innocence" on The Cross Of Changes (Geez, how cheesy can I get?)...By the time you read this shit, you will have a masterpiece on your desk—the new SAM PHILLIPS CD Martinis And Bikinis, produced by T Bone Burnett (her hubby). Coming soon: the Backbeat soundtrack, featuring your fave punk rock boys—Greg Dulli! Don Fleming! Thurston Moore! Mike Mills! Dave Grohl! Ahhhh! The story of the Beatles' beginnings...Don't let the "Darshan" edit by SYLVIAN & FRIPP get lost. Thanks to some creative marketing it looks like every other CD single. This excellent tune is 17 minutes long on the album, but is edited to four-and-a-half for your listening pleasure...Play the Ambient CD! Supplies limited so order now...Blues freaks: JOHN HAMMOND and COLIN JAMES AND THE LITTLE BIG BAND...Don't forget The Piano soundtrack.

Amy Siegel, Detour M, Belleville, NJ (201) 759-4881

By now everybody should have a copy of Back On Earth by VALENTINE SMITH. Our thanks to everyone who's given us early support, and the band has had a whole lot of fun doing their phones and live in-studios. Those of you back East should get the chance to catch VS live soon—they've got upcoming shows slated from DC to Albany to Boston and points between, with more to come. Of course, it's gonna be hard for them to top playing Madison Square Garden last weekend. No joke, I'll fill you in! The reviews are great, the adds are coming in, even in this heavy release period. Those of you still uncertain, hey, give it a shot—people like Valentine Smith. If you can't find your copy or you want more info, give me a call!

Sivan, Wax Trax/TVT Records, New York, NY (212) 979-6410

Yummm, there's nothing like the acrid taste of nasal spray dripping down the back of your sore throat. Oh, what desparation'll do to you on the Gavin rebound! A healthier hello to all those other ailing radio and record reps I finally had a chance to meet in San Fran!...Alas, SISTER MACHINE GUN releases The Torture Technique, featuring the single "Wired." This record's so bleepin' good that we're sponsoring body piercing record release parties for it all over the country! Call if you want to get your station involved and haven't heard from me yet! And then be sure to display your masochism while SMG engages in perhaps the finest menage a trois of sorts: a tour with KMFDM and Chemlab, in progress!...Word has it that some of you are passing out over "Light," KMFDM's newest CD5 from Angst... GIL SCOTT-HERON and his celebrated album Spirits will be in stores on March 29. Hopefully some of you West Coasters caught him on the MTV spoken word tour...Out now is the AFX Analogue Bubblebath EP, Richard James' first Aphex endeavor. Ethno-Techno: Sonic Anthropology Vol. 1 will stun you all soon, featuring tracks by JUNO REACTOR, JONAH and SABRES OF PARADISE...The CONNELLS continue to tour while AUTECHRE wraps up a quick jaunt with the Orb's DJ Lewis...By the way, Stephanie and Chuck's new Enigma album on Virgin samples at length TVT's ANNE DUDLEY & JAZ COLEMAN back-catalogue release Songs From The Victorious City...

Leslie Alfano, Imago Records, New York, NY (800) 524-9475

Hello. Yes, it's been awhile since I've written one of these. Here is the latest...ROLLINS BAND Weight (workout man) is coming! Shipping 3/25, you will all be destroyed by this. Raw, raw, raw! Vinyl, CD, cassette—all for you my children. U.S. tour dates should start in June. Hope you all caught Hank on Jay Leno 3/1 talkin' up his film debut The Chase, with Charlie Sheen. Hank as a cop? Can you picture this? He loves pigs so much! Siskel & Ebert thumbs up? Academy award? Check it out! FYI: Melvin Gibbs is the new bassist...MAGGIE ESTEP No More Mr. Nice Girl to you 4/11. Listen to her music (her band is I Love Everybody)/comedy/performance art style. Patti Smith of the '90s! NuYo (spoken word label)/Imago in your face shit! Some of you caught her on the MTV Free Your Mind tour with John S. Hall and Reg E. Gaines. Did you like it? Let me know. See her on Arsenio 3/1?...ORANG-UTANG full album Dead Sailor Acid Blues arrives 4/25. Adjective please. Quirky, melodic and loud! You should have already received their 7" "Bigger Chunk" b/w the b-side of "O Polly Cow" (love the coughing and barfing). If not, call our 1-800 number and receive your copy now! Look for tour dates soon! Next: the FIGGS, LOVE SPIT LOVE (Richard Butler's new band), PAULA COLE, MY HEAD, BASEHEAD and GIANT SAND.

Beth Littrell, National Promotions Director, Velvet Dwarf Records, Atlanta, GA (800) 525-2505

Here are two names you may be unfamiliar with that I hope soon will be amongst your favorites: CARMINE and Velvet Dwarf. The latter being the name of a new indie label offering some of the best left-leaning music in the Southeast region and the former being the name of Shirley's (as in Laverne and) boyfriend a k a The Big Ragoo, also the name of our first band. No comparison, no hype, no big "story," just an energetic highly original and extremely talented trio including former Insane Jane drummer. The record Carpe Patio Flounder will be en route in the coming weeks and you should have the limited edition three-song CD on your desk (or in that big pile o' music in the corner). Please check it out, it's on air already on WRAS (Atlanta's superbig, super-cool college station), and deserves to be heard nationwide. Really. Thank you for your attention. Please take my calls. Good day.

Scott Giampino, Touch And Go Records, Chicago, IL (312) 463-2907

Talk about a hot-head! Of course, I'm describing myself. If only I could have power go to the people. On March 14, that's what KILLDOZER will do on their first album in over three years! Aply titled Uncompromising War On Art Under The Dictatorship Of The Proletariat, this album'll knock all that pansy democratic rock out of the grunge-filled air(waves). The cover art alone is enough to inspire burnings of many books...Next up, MULE's new EP Wrung. Trio. Twisted bumping and grinding dampness. Damnit, pass the Jack! Remember, their last LP was one of Spin's "10 Best Records You've Ever Heard"...SUPER-CHUNK's back with "The First Part," a new Merge single precursing the new April album. Yes there's non-LP tracks... Also the BREAD-WINNER Burner LP. After their last tour, they decided to call it quits. Fear not, Merge has taken care of business. This posthumous release has all their seven-inches and compilation cuts. Heavy... Speaking of, Skin Graft's DAZZLING KILLMEN round out the March 14 releases. Heavy. Dare say, Crossover? Speed fans and riffaholics will slap their respective hippies on this one. This LP's so precise, Fidel Castro would spend the night in the White House reading Skin Graft comics just so he could listen to Socks the cat purr a version of it. These bands touring along with DON CABALLERO, GIRLS AGAINST BOYS, with Jawbox. HYENAS and RODAN! Busy down-trodden worker class right wing bees you'll be. That makes Mr. Stalin and I happy communists.

Dan Poppe, Spirit Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 252-1139

Howdy, folks. It's been ages since I've been in these pages. Thanks to everyone who has added and is supporting WADE. I truly love this band, and it's fun to watch others also become hopelessly addicted to their music. If you haven't yet added it (for shame), go back and listen to "I Swear To God" and "Barely Human," the most immediately accessible tracks on the CD. Our radio tracking for this project is being done by the wonderful Jonathon Obera at Virus Promotions. If you haven't spoken with him yet, give him a call at 415-788-4787. Watch for information on Wade's first national tour soon. Speaking of tours, San Francisco's PLUM will play a rare series of dates this month before entering the studio to begin their full-length debut. Call me for details of Plum shows in S.F., Chicago, Eugene, Portland and Seattle... Yes, we did finally release the long-rumoured collaboration between Grotus and Consolidated members MARK PISTEL and PHILIP STEIR. No, there are no promo copies available on this

Rich Holtzman, 4AD Records, Los Angeles, CA (310) 289-8770

While in San Francisco last week, I saw the future of rock music. The future goes by the name Lunchbox, don't miss their cassettes. Something else that impressed me, Errol from WVFS and Sue from WRUV see LISA GERMANO playing an electric set at Ace Cafe (they told me they liked it?). Lisa's live show, like her newly mixed record coming out in April, are more centered around her harder, more noisy edge. Happiness is definitely something you do not want to miss out on. Thanks for all the continued support on the GLEE CLUB. For those interested I just got in some 12" remixes of INSIDES, call if you want one. Things I would play the hell out of if I were at a radio station; Latin Playboys, Frentel (they are able to do justice to a Chris Knox song) and House Of Limbo.

Scott Carter, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 469-2411

When you're not watching Sidney go bonkers on Melrose Place you should be playing the new THERAPY? album. If any of you radio folks want a copy of the green vinyl LP of Troublegum please call me now. I've got about 20 copies left. When you're not watching Billy and Alison wine to each other, you should play the SOUND-GARDEN album. My favorite tracks are "Spoonman," "Superunknown" and "Black Hole Sun," but that's just me. And when you're not watching Jo getting beat up by another horrible choice for a boyfriend, play that SWERVE-DRIVER EP with all those extra cuts. When I'm not dating Nancy Kerrigan, I listen to Pavement, Soundgarden, African Head Charge and Fizzy Lifting Drink.

Anne Gleeson, Break Thru Promotion & Marketing, San Francisco, CA (415) 626-7611

First things first, it was really great meeting everyone at Gavin! I'm not gonna name names 'cause that would take up my whole word allotment. Suffice to say that everyone was fantastic—radio and record people alike, and I'm really happy to have faces to names...Silkworm, Spinanes, Jad Fair (hi to Sue and Errol) all brilliant. But now life has to return to normal. Anyhow, Break Thru has some good stuff coming up—I'm especially excited about the STANLEY JORDAN record, Bolero. Also, keep an ear out for some of our old favorites: MEAT PUPPETS, E, the INDIANS, DIG, JAMES, as well as CHAPTERHOUSE, the RAMONES and POSSUM DIXON. Until next time, I miss you and hopefully I'll be talking to you soon.

Stephanie/Lisa and Caris The Andrew Angels, Vision Trust Promotions, San Francisco, CA (415) 752-2564

Wow! What a mello Gavin '94. Thanks to all that have entered the atmosphere of CANDY PLANET, debuted on the top 150 at #118! Like a rocket in your pocket...we want to go up...way up...Just saw EVERCLEAR live, love that twangy, pop/punk sound. We will be sending this intoxicating experience soon. March '94, yes, March 14 is the add date for the long-awaited third release from the BRAND NEW HEAVIES, Brother Sister...this is their year. Talk to you all soon.

RETAIL

Ted Bonar, National Retail MoFo, Independent Label Sales, New York, NY (800) 274-7957

Using this space on loan from my partner in retail domination (Gretchen, Goddess of Knowledge), thought I'd let you know about a few things: hitting the street now is ANGELIQUE KIDJO's Aye on Mango Records. You should all remember Logozo from a few years back, and this is the soon-to-be-huge follow-up from everyone's favorite sparkplug-o-fun from Benin. Also from the continent of groove on March 22, SALIF KEITA releases The Mansa Of Mali: A Retrospective—the golden voice of Africa is back, and the tour is on in April...If rai music is your thing (and it should be), then check your stock on/wiggle your butt to KHALED N'ssi N'ssi (Cohiba/Mango). More things on the cool-and-hip ticket is Rebirth Of Cool and RONNY JORDAN (4th & B'way), Giant Steps Vol. 1 (Payday/frr), and of course Tougher Than Tough (Mango). For those who know the flava, check this dopeness: JERU THE DAMAJA (Payday/frr), DOUG E. FRESH (Gee Street Independent), DRED SCOTT (Tuff Break) and MYSTERME AND DJ 20/20 (Gee Street Independent). You down, my brotha. Back to the wordy stuff for a sec...if you're not on my mailing list, what's the problem? Call the free phone number above and let me know who you are. There are additions to be made and over 6,000 retailers in the country—so identify yourself! I will give you all the TLC I can, plus play copies.

VIDEO

Dave Ross, Producer, Future Flash, Melbourne, FL (407) 254-0020 ext. 23 Greetings from Central Florida. Sorry to hear about all that cold white stuff piling up across the country (now I remember why I left the Northeast). What's hot in Melbourne? Two words: GREEN DAY. Our phone has been ringing off the hook for the past month from viewers craving some "Longview." Thanks to Eleanor at Warner Bros. for the Green Day goodies (our viewers love anything free!). Also big: POSSUM DIXON (thanks to Aron at Telemotion), DAVID BOWIE (thanks to Debbie at Endless) and the CHARLATANS. Coming in April: Future Flash debuts on a new station that will increase our potential households by 900%! Also, a change in production location has already begun. Stay tuned.

RADIO

Andrew Deimel, Dance Music Director, WERG, Erie, PA (814) 871-5841

Attention stations with dance shows. WERG is playing DJ tapes from around the country as part of our dance programming. If you are a DJ or know one, please send tapes for airplay to Andrew Deimel, c/o WERG, University Square, Erie, PA 16541 (ask for DJ permission first). We play underground dance including hardcore, house, trance, tribal and underground breakbeats. We are currently networking these tapes to other stations, call for details. A big thanks to Joe at Modern Music in Baltimore, Scott Henry, Lievien Degeyndt and Mike at WSYC for their help and support. WERG is trying to focus on promoting the underground scene and showcase the talents of the DJs interested in the same goals. Peace.

Andy DiGiovanni, Rock Director, WDOM, Providence, RI (401) 865-2460

Lisa is now concentrating on DJ and disciplinary "schtuff," and so I have obtained a new assistant for my record company relation needs...Eric Schmidt. He's here on Tuesdays. We have a new fax number. It's 865-2959. Start faxing us stuff like crazy. Everything. Concert dates, last week's issue of The Popular Bullcrap Newsletter, your birth certificates, anything. This way we may get a fax machine in our own office! Other things we're working on: a new concert/info line for our loyal listeners, a "spoken word" program and a new video channel... Has anyone out there heard of Mystic, CT's 17 RELICS? Why should a band so good go so long without getting signed? Somebody please help me out here...and help them out, too. And while you're at it look into HONEYBONE—a local Providence band that will be opening up for the SAMPLES (in a cool WDOM show) on April 11 at The Strand. Speaking of shows, clubs and the like, we now have a wealth of venues in town. The Living Room just opened up again...and it's the closest place to us. In fact, it's almost within walking distance. Lastly, I would like to clarify the point made in our last Dialogue regarding Top 35's. WDOM has a very extended and variety-packed playlist. Given the amount of music we consider current at a given time, there is not much of a difference between what is on the chart and what is not on the chart.

Charles Lurks, Low-key, Space-happy Operations Director, KCFV, Ferguson, MO (314) 595-4463

Okay, okay, I know it's been awhile since I last spoke to anyone, but it's hard to find time to talk when you have DJs at KCFV who are the most undisciplined, scuffiest and downright strangest people the great American Midwest has to offer. I spend half my time running around the station with an axe trying to get them to stop playing non-format music, and the other half is spent trying to keep them from blowing up our transmitter (again). But things are actually running quite well for a change. We slammed the new NINE INCH NAILS album into our rotation within twenty-four hours of its arrival, and the KMFDM remixes are a real hoot (that's midwestern for "cool," by the way). SARAH McLACHLAN has everyone wrapped around her finger here, as well as TORI AMOS, JAWBOX, BECK, SLOWDIVE, LEVELELLERS and COURSE OF EMPIRE. WILLIAM S. BURROUGHS scared the hell out of everyone and TOM WAITS made most of us join a circus. UNCLE TUPELO is a local favorite, as well as the PLANETS. We've also been endeared to ONE DOVE, Alternative NRG, TINFED, WADE and ZENI GEVA—so keep the stuff comin', we bloody can't get enough! That's all for now, see you on the flipside. Oh, wait—almost forgot...for you cynical MDs who think your station is too cool to play U2 or PEARL JAM because they made it big and slam others that do—who the fuck do you think you are? Peace.

Fred Mastromarino, Music and Metal Director, WSJU, Jamaica, NY (718) 990-6563

All right, that's it, I've had it. No more snow. You hear me God? No more snow! I'm really sick of having to joust my neighbors for parking spots. I'm also really sick of shoveling: shoveling the walk, shoveling my car out and shoveling my parents' cars out. We have been reduced to primitive times here. Every man/woman for him/herself. And I'm stuck at home watching TV. It's a good thing I have cable or I would have missed this guy from New England make chocolate all day, and I would have missed the Benny Hill marathon. Otherwise, everything's great here in the Big Frozen Apple. Great new stuff from GIANT SAND, ROSE CHRONICLES, PICASSO TRIGGER, GREEN DAY and COURSE OF EMPIRE. I'll speak to you all again someday. If I can find a spot near my neighborhood.

Pete Kernast, Folk/World Music Director, WTSR, Trenton, NJ (609) 771-3200

The axiom that states "they don't make them like they used to" could very well apply to Heartbeat Records CD release Soldering by Stanley Beckford and the STARLIGHTS, which features music the group released in Jamaica in the 1970's. Finding most of today's current dancehall recordings to be incredibly uninspired, the glorious roots-rock groove of Soldering got me quickly smilin' and body jolmin', not unlike the ABYSSINIANS Satta Massagana reissue of last year. It's truly soulful music you just can't fake...Other outstanding current releases rattling through my brain are MARIA KALANIEMI's release on Xenophile/Green Linnet—Maria being a virtuoso accordion player on probably one of today's most maligned instruments. Also, the incredible throat singers from Tuva, HUUN HUUR TU on Shanachie's 60 Horses In My Herd. Just a couple of examples of how authentic music always seems to shine above the poseurs!...Next time I'll have some impressions from the 6th Annual Folk Music and Dance Alliance Convention that may be of interest to college radio DJ's, especially on the community volunteer end of it. Later.

Stephen Thompson, Music Director, WLHA, Madison, WI (608) 262-1206

Thing one: I want to let all record company types (both radio and press) know that I'll be in Manhattan during the last week in March, spreading good cheer and complimentary copies of The Onion. The Onion is a popular satirical and entertainment-based weekly published on two (soon to be three) college campuses, and I'm the entertainment editor. Thing two: I'd like to send a message to all Dialogue contributors. Please don't waste CMJ's space and my time bitching about how station x plays STONE TEMPLE PILOTS or doesn't play some great indie band. It's especially frustrating when radio stations do it. Do you know how lucky you are to even have a radio station? WLHA has endured budget cuts, threats of eviction, phone calls from the FCC, bad press and everything short of locusts in the past year. We're incredibly fortunate to still exist. Forgive me if I sound bitter here, but it'd be nice if you'd all take a moment to count your blessings. Thing three: SILKWORM is unbelievably great. Play them, not the Stone Temple Pilots, and be hip like me.

Rob Schultz a k a Reggae Rob a k a The Spaceman, Music Director, KAGU, Spokane, WA (509) 484-2820

First off, my apologies to anyone who tried to call us at 509-484-3802 (and also the person who has that number). I screwed up on our first few reports this year, thinking we had a direct line on ext. 3802. Sorry for the fuck-up, but thanks to everyone who managed to find the right number. Music-wise things are sounding pretty good on KAGU; I'm trying to keep things out of the mainstream as much as possible, while still including some of the good stuff which even the mindless masses have taken a liking to. Adventure picks! GEEZER LAKE, UI, SEVEN DAY DIARY, STEEL POLE BATHTUB. Yes, I think we were the only station west of the Rockies to report Geezer Lake. What's up? Do you people out there really prefer SHONEN KNIFE's third grade pop to real, different and intelligent music? Let's hear it for substance, innovation and creativity! As always, I am looking for new reggae. Thanks to Heartbeat, RAS, Shanachie and others for the support. If you have any new stuff, I crave cool Rasta Riddims, I-tinually. Lots of new dancehall reggae and old compilations are out, but where's all the new Jamaican music in the traditional reggae style? I have also started a new techno/fusion program on Saturday night from 9-midnight. Lots of remix action, techno, wild jazz fusion and more. Some spoken word material like WILLIAM S. BURROUGHS, GIL SCOTT-HERON and others would be cool to add to the mix.

Tesin "Tes" Uy & Tex "Jim Nightshade" Long, Musical Morphine Manipulators, KSCU, Santa Clara, CA (408) 554-4907

sniffles, coughs and muffled breathing sounds, we attempt to track records and carry conversations. What a Gavin memory...Well, Tes has a cold and will remain in bed for the next few weeks. Tex is healthy and will truck out to South By Southwest. Stop by Tex's hotel room to say hello. Tex will be voyaging down to Texas with a member of the band BRIDGET. "Where do the melancholy people reside...Not here. Not there. But instead inside. Behind the thin skin sheets of flesh and blood, from the heart and mind come the spiritual flood..." Diane "Lady Di" Liu is the cool promotions chick that you saw running around the Westin St. Francis with stacks o' Shmades. She's also our ticket giveaway, record release party, artist interview and more goddess. "If I died a thousand lives I'd be 100% recycled" Subculture and Video Fusions are our cable TV music video programs. "I was spelunking and almost got stuck in the earth behind my brother. It was harrowing!"

Mike B., WMNF, Tampa, FL (813) 238-8001

Personally, I'm damn glad the Olympics are over. If I hear the names Harding and Kerrigan one more time, I'm going to lose it! Inside Edition and A Current Affair should be blown off the face of the Earth for constantly boring us with that shit! Aggggh!...Now on to the more lighter side of things...Chris White's Dialogue in the Feb. 21 edition was one of the funniest I've ever read. I hope everyone didn't take it "too" seriously. Remember, one man's opinion is another man's... Oh, you know what I mean. Congrats to Gary at AIM on working the new VELDT CD. The North Carolina combo are great guys and deserve the best. Good luck...Watch out for Tampa's NON AGGRESSION PACT on Cargo Records. In yo face industrial and hip hop rhythms. Local filmmaker George Marco will be behind the 35 directing their first video...If you're a fan of 4AD (and who isn't), our own ROSEWATER ELIZABETH are the next best thing to DEAD CAN DANCE. They'll be making an appearance at WMNF's Tropical Heatwave in May and will be releasing their first EP on 24 Hour Gas Station Records sometime soon. Hopefully I'm going to have my own label running one of these days. Remember, Brazil 66' Records. Until then, keep your feet on the ground and keep reaching for the stars. For America's Top 40, I'm Casey Kasam...

This is so much more worthwhile.)

PARODY IS OKAY

On March 7, the Supreme Court unanimously overturned a lower court's judgment that 2 Live Crew had infringed the copyright on Roy Orbison's classic, "Pretty Woman." There is no explicit mention of parody in the law, and though the issue had never been addressed by the Supreme Court, lower courts had considered many such cases. Under copyright law, a portion of any work may be used without permission for criticism or comment. According to The New York Times, "Justice Souter stressed that courts must make a case-by-case determination of whether a parody, or any other form of borrowing copyrighted material qualifies as fair use." 2 Live Crew had accredited "Pretty Woman" to Roy Orbison and William Dees, as well as to Acuff-Rose Music. The group's battle is not finished, however; the group must still prove to the lower courts that it did not borrow any more of the song than necessary to make a parody and that its parody did not hurt the market for the original song.

ATLANTA DRUMMER DEAD AT 30

Alan Page, drummer for the Opal Foxx Quartet, died February 27 of an apparent heroin overdose. Page was 30. The Atlanta-based group had just released its album The Love That Won't Shut Up on Long Play Records. Page also drummed for other Atlanta groups, including Dirt, Seersucker and Kick Me. Contributions in his name may be made to the Atlanta Boys And Girls Club of the Salvation Army, 164 Carroll St., Atlanta, GA 30312.

RECORD NEWS

Acclaimed Louisville, KY, band Slint has reformed and recently recorded some new material with Steve Albini. An album will be released on Touch And Go... Sparked by the re-issue of the band's old records—Raincoats, Odyshape and Moving—the Raincoats have also reformed. The band is currently touring Europe with Nirvana and plans to play select dates in the U.S. as well. The group has a limited repertoire of new songs, but will be doing plenty of its much lauded older songs... Thee Hypnotics have signed to American Recordings. The band's debut album for the label will be released on April 12... Palm Fabric Orchestra is an instrumental group formed by Frank Orrall and other members of Poi Dog Pondering. The band's first album Vague Gropings In The Slipstream will be released on Carrot Top on April 18... Combustible Edison will celebrate the release of its debut album I, Swinger by playing the New York

City opening of the new Roman Polanski movie Bitter Moon.

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

Josh Rosenthal has been appointed vice president of alternative music marketing at Sony Music Distribution. Rosenthal previously held the position of associate director of artist development at Columbia Records... Glenn Davis has been named executive vice president of Roadrunner Records. Davis was previously a music lawyer with a Los Angeles law firm... Diane Valensky has been promoted to director of regional video promotion for Geffen and DGC records. She will handle promotion for video outlets other than MTV and VH1.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Planet Earth Recordings is looking for interns to work in its L.A. office. For more information call 213-468-9494... Imago Records is currently seeking interns for the publicity, marketing and A&R departments. Interested parties should call Marcelo Romero at 212-246-6644.
