what's in a name

gig-o-lo (jig' lo',/zhig'-) n. A young man who is paid by women to love them, if you get my drift. A stud for hire, with or without a mustache. [From Old French giguer, to dance, gigue, leg, fiddle. [See Richard Gere.]

aunt (ant, ant) n. 1. The sister of one's father or mother. 2. The wife of one's uncle. Pronounced differently from one family to the next. Not necessarily an old bat with an umbrella. [From Middle English aunte. See Aunt Bee (Andy Griffith); Aunt Jemima (kitchen table).]

ant (ant) n. Any of the various social insects of the family Formicidae, characteristically having wings only in the males and fertile females, and living in colonies that have a complex social organization. [From Middle English ante, amete. See Adam Ant, New Romantic, Leather Pirate Gear.]

gig-o-lo aunt (jig'lo',/zhig ant) 1. Great song by Syd Barrett; Five minutes and forty-seconds of off-kilter pop heaven by the psychedelic freakster genius and former mastermind of Pink Floyd. [From Hippy English, lysergic acid diethylamide. See The Madcap Laughs and Barrett lps.]

GIG-O-LO AUNTS (jig'lo',/zhig ants) 1. Musical group; sonic purveyors of the three speed rock. The sound of shifting gears. Love rock meets sizzle pop. 2. The most satisfying ride since the banana seat. [From Beat English, cool; from Hippy English, groovy, from Stoner English, wuh!; from Skater English gnarly, from Prep English, sweet. See FLIPPIN' OUT - forty-nine minutes of sonic splendor on the RCA Records Label due in April.]

Ronny Jordan: Quiet Revolutionary

For English guitarist Ronny Jordan, a life in music has meant forging his own path, melding the sleek stylings of modern acid jazz and the energy of hip-hop with the sophistication and artistry of pure jazz. Clearly, what sets him apart from the hosts of other acid jazz artists emerging from the U.K. is his unwavering commitment to his instrument. Despite the sophistication and poise of his soloing, Jordan is much too street-smart and full of the flavors of modern life to suit up and play straight jazz. His newest album The Quiet Revolution, is saturated with sultry funk instrumental beds, yet groove is not the first element Jordan mentions when asked what he listens for in music. "I would say the melody, if anything. The melody, and the sounds. And obviously, I love a good groove." Unconsciously, he's just revealed the formula for The Quiet Revolution, which features the impeccably cool tone of Jordan's guitar playing placed over a sophisticated, sinewy hip-hop backdrop. The sound has proven popular—Jordan's album is still top ten on the CMJ Jazz chart after 19 weeks.

"I'm not the kind of guy who'll just go into a studio, and get a groove happening, and just play over a groove," Jordan elaborates in his crisp English accent. "There's more to it than that. I like songs with substance. It's got to make sense, musically. There's a lot of jazz stuff out there which I don't really like, this sort of fusion stuff. I cannot focus into that. I like stuff with meaning, feeling is more like it. Sometimes, it doesn't have to be like 50 notes in one bar, it could be just three or four notes, but as long as it's saying something..."

"What one has to remember is, as an instrumentalist, you've got a bigger burden than a singer. It's obvious that singing, someone with a really fine voice—that's the ultimate musical instrument. Nothing comes across more than a really good song sung by a good singer. Playing an instrument, it's all about sound, and how you define the melody. You have to tell a story."

To Jordan, the ultimate musical expression occurs when a listener loses his or her awareness that the musician is even playing an instrument at all. "Okay, I basically play a wood box with strings. A box. And if you're playing a horn, you're just playing a piece of metal with keys on it. Now, the aim is, you've got to transcend that. The aim of any instrumentalist is to transform that from being just a box with strings into a voice. So when a fine instrumentalist comes before your very eyes, and plays, you're no longer looking at a guy who's just holding a piece of material. The sound, in your head, it just takes your mind away. You're in dreamland, you know. And to me," says the visionary guitarist, "that is the pinnacle of any instrumentalist."

UNITED FUTURE ORGANIZATION United Future Organization (Talkin' Loud/Verve Forecast, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Attention all earthlings! Do not attempt to adjust your sets! This message is being beamed on all channels, through all media. The U.F.O. has landed, and the entire planet will now awaken to the vibrations. U.F.O. (United Future Organization) is a Tokyo-based collective which is fusing hip-hop, jazz and acid jazz stylings, creating a totally unique sound of the future now. At the helm of this funky musical spaceship are Tadashi Tabbe, Toshio Matsuura and

Raphael Sebbag, and their debut album demonstrates the pairing of acid jazz and hip-hop as fully as it's ever been done: We've had US 3, Guru, Soul II Soul, Gang Starr's "Jazz Thing," and now, suddenly, hip-hop and acid jazz take on a whole new spin. Perhaps what's most intriguing about the U.F.O. story is how the group's collective artistic sensibility transcends the role of traditional musicians. These guys aren't just producers or remixers; their activity extends to fashion design, art, packaging and even promoting shows. They're not just creating their own music, they're forging their own lifestyle to groove to. With its blending of computer technology, raw soul grooves, hip-hop style and jazz finesse, U.F.O. is more than just a wild and exotic new flavor of hip-hop jazz; U.F.O. is one of those bands which not only comes up with fresh sounds and grooves, but reminds us what an interesting and exciting time we're living in right now. —James Lien

GANG STARR Hard To Earn (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Over the course of his career, Gang Starr's Guru has set himself up as the wise old man of rap, telling those still struggling how to succeed, and more generally, giving axioms on how to survive. But rather than falling into pedantry (see BDP) or idle boasting (Run-D.M.C.), Guru couches his message in a hard, but still believable and honest style. Now that Rakim has thrown in the towel (for now at least), Guru's flat monotone is the sexiest voice in rap, rough edges smoothed over by his frank approach, a point

he acknowledges in "Mostly Tha Voice." Hard To Earn's songs have a rudimentary formula: a slow, basic rhythm track, a few selected samples (both supplied by Mr. Understatement, DJ Premier) and Guru's vocal dominance. The first single, "Mass Appeal," epitomizes this style: a simple six-note hook, repeated chants of the title and Guru laying down the law about other groups that are only interested in getting paid. Most of the songs touch on that topic, one which obviously fascinates Guru, but his criticisms are genuine: "(I hate) fake MCs/They always act hard/But won't walk the streets without their bodyguards" ("Suckas Need Bodyguards"). Although one might expect a lot of jazz samples, it seems as if Guru exercised all of that with Jazzmatazz, so Hard To Earn is stripped down to its fundamentals; "my religion is rap," Guru says. Believe. —Megan McLaughlin

PANTERA Far Beyond Driven (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—If, after 10 years of metal nearly drowning in its own big hair and faux biker excess, Pantera can render all the hyphenation arguments (alternating/grunge-/industrial-) positively mute, wouldn't you loosen your waistband and bow down to this new, latest god? Well, start reaching for that buckle because Far Beyond Driven does exactly that. This 56-minute blast of clear-cutting noise flattens the surrounding genre landscape with its self-obsessed, singular focus on the zen of ugly noise. Seldom have genre distinctions (especially in codification-mad metal) been so utterly meaningless. The record's elements—there isn't a tinnitus-producing noise left off the Pantera palette—are arranged not so much in song structure (save for the Alice In Chains looking-glass ballad "Planet Caravan"), but in squalls of contrasting, explosive dynamics. Singer Phil Anselmo's existential wails are tangled in a complex series of riffs and thudding basslines that ignite like crossed high-tension wires every measure or so. They sound just too consuming, too taxing merely to ascend to the air-guitar altar of white adolescent empowerment. Far Beyond Driven is so obsessively loud and brutal, even its extended fadeouts claw at the speakers, refusing to go easily. Even if you don't normally buy into this savage amusement, Pantera has just become absolutely fucking essential. —Scott Frampton

MADDER ROSE Panic On (Seed, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—This unassumingly powerful quartet stole hearts and minds last year with its passive/aggressive debut LP Bring It Down, whose delicate balance of melodicism and angst captured a fair amount of early press. Panic On, Madder Rose's follow-up and the band's first major-label release, builds upon Bring It Down's earnest expression, refining the band's character without altering its core ingredients: Mary Lorson's plaintively sweet vocals, Billy Coté's increasingly commanding guitar playing and their joining of hope and despair into a unified songwriting aesthetic. Lorson's clean intonation and the band's flirtation with folk sounds could stir up comparisons to Suzanne Vega, which ultimately attests to Lorson's and Coté's thoughtful, crafted songwriting. Panic On's first four songs are simply stunning: The album's effervescent introduction "Sleep, Forever" leads right into the languorous longing of "Car Song," which heightens Madder Rose's fusion of delicacy and crunch. Then it's onto the breezy title cut, billowing with shimmering guitars, and the eloquently simple "What Holly Sees," laced with beautiful harmonies. Other lovely shades of red include: the irresistibly catchy rocker "Drop A Bomb," the dazzling displays on "Margaret" and the red-faced "Black Eye Town."

OVERWHELMING COLORFAST Two Words (Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)

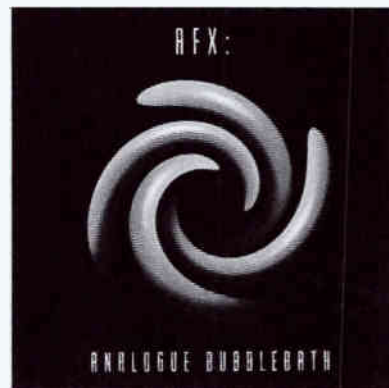

Even the speediest, most raucous tunes on Overwhelming Colorfast's sophomore LP Two Words are essentially pop songs when you get right down to it. Amidst frontman Bob Reed's harsh vocals (again owing much to Bob Mould) and overdriven guitars (again owing much to Hüsker Dü/Minutemen) there are bright melodies, bridges and changes befitting the best power pop. In fact, Reed's best songs on Two Words are the ones which clock in under three, and sometimes even two, minutes. The relatively "underproduced" approach to the record is a plus; Two Words' raw one-take feel shines through, emphasizing the heart of the songs with no attempt to point Reed as rock's new guitar god. While Reed's musical references are at times downright overt, he's certainly borrowing with the intent to infuse college pop with the spark and volume of punk. Perhaps on subsequent releases he'll begin to shed his influences more and we'll find out just how good he really is. Until then, these tracks are sure to please the punk/pop fan in us all: "Toss Up," "Every Saturday," "How Ya Doin'," "How Can It Be" and the best song of the lot, "Roy Orbison."

BRAND NEW HEAVIES Brother Sister (Delicious Vinyl, c/o EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

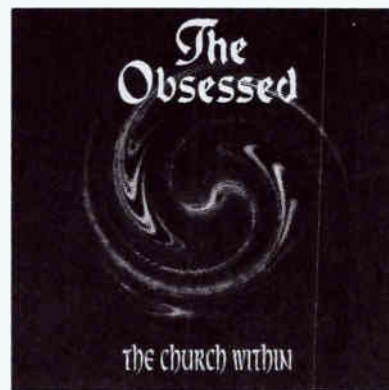

Brand New Heavies' sophomore effort turns up the power on their jazz/soul fusion, making for a record that is listeningly soulful and less slick Brit-jazz. Lead (American) vocalist N'Dea Davenport (most recently heard on Guru's Jazzmatazz project) has the warm R&B sound of classic early '80s disco, adding a diva's touch to the cool glitz of the music. On some songs ("Spend Some Time," "Day Break" and the single "Dream On Dreamer"), the thumb-popping bass and sharp drumbeats sound like outtakes from Kool & The Gang or Chic—the Brand New Heavies draw some inspiration from the previous decade's live (not studio-manufactured) funk bands. While their style is mainly soulful pop, the Heavies also tackle reggae ("People Giving Love") and the adult-oriented jazz pop

("Spend Some Time," "Los Burritos") that was featured on their debut. With acid jazz taking a sharp upswing in popularity, Brother Sister's swing towards a more radio-friendly sound is the best move the band could have made, both to expand its sound and to increase its presence. Mellow out and groove to: "Ten Ton Take," "Fake" and "Snake Hips."
—Megan McLaughlin

AFX Analogue Bubblebath (EP) (Mighty Force, c/o TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)

Richard James may or may not be the Mozart of techno, but James, also known as Aphex Twin and Polygon Window, is definitely creatively fertile enough that this glimpse of his earliest released work is fascinating. Analogue Bubblebath, now on CD for the first time, was one of the first records to use "dirty" analogue-synth sounds to humanize techno just as it was evolving from Detroit house's mechanically pure structures. Three years later, it holds up well—especially "AFX 2," whose plush textures, while still overlaid with a dance beat, anticipate James' later ambient recordings.
—Douglas Wolk

OBSESSED The Church Within (Columbia, 550 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10022-3211)

Love. Pain. Hate. Mix these emotions in a blender, add one part caffeine, two parts attitude, and a dash of remarkable riffage and pour yourself a tall bloody glass of the Obsessed. With current metal successes like White Zombie and Pantera as fans, it's no surprise that The Church Within is marked by its overwhelming energy. After several years of inactivity, the Obsessed has reformed with its original members, drummer Greg Rogers (ex-Scratch Acid) and bassist Guy Pinhas (ex-B.A.L.L. and Scream). Frontman Wino's lyrics cast the world as a dismal place from which he desperately wants to escape. "Streetside," with its grievous guitar and bashing rhythmic cymbals, depicts life at rock bottom: "From the corner is where it starts/Torn in half like a dollar bill..." Stagger into "Blind Lightning," a shocking tale of a dreamer accompanied by a steady, grating guitar. The racing scale guitar solos on "Neatz Brigade" are so feverish that they intimidate the rocking main

GODSTAR Lie Down Forever (EP) (Taangl, P.O. Box 51, Auburndale, MA 02166/617-965-5673)—Nic Dalton started Godstar when he was living in Australia, and though he joined the Lemonheads after the recording of It's A Shame About Ray (taking the place of stand-in bassist Juliana Hatfield), he was able to keep his group down under alive. Its new EP is full of stripped-down pop songs, especially those on which Dalton plays all the instruments, evoking a J Mascis Green Mind-set. "Kitchen," written by Dalton and originally featured on It's A Shame About Ray, is an example of his lo-fi one-man recording sound, and though sparse in comparison to the Lemonheads' version, the song's delightfully peppy backbone remains intact. Godstar may not be flashy, but it does show off Dalton's pop writing sensibilities. Shining bright: "Turn Around," "Kitchen" and "It's Down To You To Make It Up To Me."—Dawn Sutter

CHARLATANS Up To Our Hips (Beggars Banquet, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—When the neo-psychedelic Manchester movement hit its stride in 1991, the Charlatans were one of a handful of bands leading a flock of sleepy, dancing ravers to a temple of blissed-out, drugged-up euphoria. But as the scene became increasingly trendy, a number of groups jumped out with ecstasy tablets in one hand and wah-wah pedals in the other, attempting to make a quick buck by aping the tastemakers. Pretty soon a backlash began, and bands which embraced dance beats, spiraling effects and '60s garb (even the innovators) were forced to adapt and adjust in order to survive. While the odds seemed stacked against the Charlatans, who relied heavily on sound manipulation in the past, the band has emerged from the rubble of Manchester with a fresh new perspective and a revamped sound influenced largely by Faces, Rolling Stones and The Who. Up To Our Hips, the group's third record, is warm and organic, filled with natural instrumentation and a soulful groove. While the group once veiled its songs in "waka-waka" waves of wah-wah and trademark Hammond swirls, it's now placing more emphasis on the strength of its songwriting. Numbers like the stealthy "Come In Number 21" and the sleepy "Autograph" are still buoyant and groove-centric, but in a rootsy, earnest way rather than a fashionable, zoned-out one. Also, wade in the Hip sounds of "Feel Flows," "Jesus Hairdo," "Patrol" and the single "Can't Get Out Of Bed."

—Jon Wiederhorn

ROB WASSERMAN Trios (GRP, 555 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019/212-424-1000)—Trios is everything you'd expect and more from a record that combines the bass prowess of Rob Wasserman with pairs of fine musicians to form these one-off trios. Brian Wilson emerges to sing with daughter Carrie on "Fantasy Is Reality/Bells Of Madness," whose sentiment and melody are reminiscent of the Pet Sounds era. Another of the album's many highlights features Elvis Costello and Marc Ribot joining Wasserman for Costello's "Put Your Big Toe In The Milk Of Human Kindness," Elvis' attempt at a whistle-along Disney tune. Les Claypool of Primus and Chris Whitley pair up for the brisk and swampy "Home Is Where You Get Across," and Jerry Garcia and Edie Brickell turn in inspired performances on their two collaborations. Neil Young and Bob Weir also show up for a slightly funky track, "Easy Answers," though the highest highlight (if not just for Wasserman) is "Dustin' Off The Bass," featuring Wasserman with the late blues master Willie Dixon and drummer Al Duncan, who played with Chuck Berry. Wasserman's guest list may resemble certain all-star Grammy jams gone awry, yet there's not a note or ego out of place here; even his collaboration with Bruce Hornsby and Branford Marsalis is an invigorating jam.

love to be thought of as part of a long distinguished line of shrewd decadence-mongers that extends from J. Edgar Hoover to Little Richard to Lou Reed to Malcolm McLaren. Although Meade's sleaziness seems a bit, shall we say, studied (look too closely and you'll see the goon from 9th grade homeroom who wore a Dr. Who shirt everyday), yet seeing some clown from Bartlesville, Oklahoma, prancing around in mascara and a feather boa like he's Michael DesBarres can be damn refreshing in these stuffy, post-punk days. The Kittens' latest, Pop Heiress, is decidedly poppier than past efforts, and tunes like the title cut and "Closet Song" betray a surprising melodic leaning towards late '70s and early '80s British New Wave. That's not to say that the early '70s glam influence has been tossed aside: "I Ride Free" grooves like something off of The Slider, and Matt The Hoople and Hunky Dory-era Bowie are definitely the reference points for dramatic ballads like "Dive Into The Sea" and "Soldier On My Shoulder." To the credit of the Kittens and producer John Agnello, though, they rarely indulge in obvious retro gestures, and as a result, Pop Heiress never comes across as a 47-minute history of British Pop from 1970 to 1981.

SOUNDTRACK Backbeat (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—February 7, 1994 marked the 30th anniversary of the Beatles landing in the United States on the way to the Fab Four's legendary appearance on The Ed Sullivan Show. The movie Backbeat takes us through the evolution of the Fab Four, concentrating on the relationship between John Lennon and Stu Sutcliffe, from the Quarrymen through the Silver Beatles, from the Cavern Club in Hamburg, Germany, to the rock 'n' roll covers that the Beatles started out playing. To recreate these songs for the soundtrack, producer Don Was assembled a band of some of today's underground stars; The Afghan Whigs' Greg Dulli (who has a natural John Lennon-like voice) provides vocals on all but three tracks, and the rest of the sextet—Thurston Moore (Sonic Youth), Mike Mills (R.E.M.), Dave Pirner (Soul Asylum), Dave Grohl (Nirvana) and Don Fleming (Gumball)—captures the raw energy and enthusiasm of those early years, elements that took the place of the not-quite-fully developed songcraft of a band that changed the face of rock 'n' roll. Songs like "Money," "Twist And Shout," "Bad Boy," "Please Mr. Postman" and "Slow Down," are historically accurate and also re-create the early sound, spirit and attitude of the Beatles circa 1962 without treading over well-trodden ground.

—Andy Skibins

INCOGNITO Positivity (Talkin' Loud/Verve, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—At first listen, the lavish, smoothed-out soul found on Incognito's second release seems better suited for an all-CD contemporary jazz/fusion playlist than for a disheveled college station. The London-based label Talkin' Loud has been instrumental in the western migration of acid jazz, which covers a wide spectrum of styles. Despite the fact that Incognito may be to acid jazz what Grover Washington, Tom Scott and Chick Corea are to pure jazz, the group's domesticated, neo-soul/jazz provides colorfully dynamic arrangements and enough flashy romps from its extensive number of musicians to prevent Positivity from going down with a sappy aftertaste. The optimistic vocals of Maysa Leak (who is assisted by Mark Anthoni and Sarah Brown) once again provide a silver lining to the group's playing, which, due to its technical exuberance, approaches urban-soul with a jazz instrumentalist's thirst for reverence, while miscalculating the intrinsic merits of sweaty heart and soul. Feel the vibes on: "Step Into My Life," "Smiling Faces," "Givin' It Up," "Talkin' Loud" and "Do Right."

—Glen Sansone

VANILLA TRAINWRECK Mordecai (Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl., Carrboro, NC 27510/919-932-1882)—With the release of last year's Sounding To Try Like You, North Carolina-based quartet Vanilla Trainwreck took a decided half-step toward a more concise and listener-friendly approach to noise-rock. Vanilla Trainwreck's third full-length release, Mordecai, finds the band journeying even farther down that same road. From the first notes of the album opener "Alex," it's clear that the band hasn't lost its knack for creating focused, sensory-saturating, introspective songs about real life and real experiences. Mordecai thrives on making compelling beds of light guitar hooks with fat, distorted blankets of guitar patiently and attentively stacked upon them. Rather than get carried away in scattered disarray, each song has a distinct center while still executing its own brand of controlled madness. The brief "Lie Detector" is a prime example, steadily and gradually encroaching upon a full explosion of guitar noise, yet offering continual assurance that one particular texture or melody will pop out just enough to grab ahold of easily. Bathe in the wash of "Sister," "Pearl" and the escalating tension of "Colliscope."

—Aaron Clow

CROWS Crows (Amphetamine Reptile, 2645 First Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55408/612-874-7047)—Two ex-U-Men are the nucleus of this Seattle-based group, and despite its location the band is far from grunge (which is now dead, according to The New York Times), and yet even farther from the eardrum-bursting character that is assumed of most Amphetamine Reptile bands. The Crows rely on oozing bass rhythms to carry their songs. A fair comparison might be Surgery on downers. The lyrical style of John Bigley falls somewhere between that of Thin White Rope and God Bullies, his gravel-pit, low-tone, half-hearted screams infusing a creepy, sleepy feeling into the listener's

JAZZ BUTCHER CONSPIRACY Waiting For The Love Bus (Creation, c/o Tristar Music, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-

3211—Pat Fish and his not-so-jazzy ensemble have released at least a dozen albums (we've lost count) and have become as much a staple around college stations as worn-in suede coats and yellow-stitched Doc Martens. Fish's crisp, unmistakably British voice, sparkly clean songs and witty, astute lyrics are a winning combination, whether distilled into a frenetic burst or drawn out over the course of a languorous ballad. Waiting For The Love Bus, the Butcher's first release through Tristar Music, is one of the band's most beautifully crafted, warm-sounding LPs. The dreamy opener "Rosemary Davis World Of Sound" is a soft springboard for Fish's inviting vocals with multi-chromatic strands of gentle guitar lines woven through. From there, the Love Bus stops at the upbeat "Bakersfield," featuring the curious chorus "I want to take you to Bakersfield" and a rugged guitar-and-organ crunch; the catchy pop number "Kids In The Mall/Kalinigrad"; the darker-hued "Baltic"; and the raunchy (for the polite Butcher, anyway) "Killed Out."
—Lydia Anderson

SWIRL Touch (Half-A-Cow, c/o Dirt, P.O. Box 1053, Knickerbocker Sta., New York, NY 10002/212-226-1632)—It's almost too easy to use Swirl's moniker as an all-encompassing description of its sound. Yet this Australian band's post-Church haze of daydreamy pop lends itself to no more appropriate imagery. Having won over the likes of the Lemonheads' Nic Dalton (he signed them to his Australian label Half-A-Cow early on) and much of Sydney's music press, Swirl now lies under the auspicious blanket of attention that fellow Aussies Godstar, the Hummingbirds and Cosmic Psychos enjoy. Touch conveniently collects two of the band's Australian EPs for stateside release. Swirl, although well versed in the MBV school of feedback warmth, doesn't use this as its primary wash of sound, instead keeping the sound to a soft simmer while simple guitar ticklings sketch colorful melodies. The almost eager voice of guitarist Ben Aylward is wrapped in the angelic sighs of bassist Nicola Schultz, which builds the songs into passages of sweeping grandeur, allowing Swirl a velvety presence that is both downcast and innocently hopeful. Just listen to the swelling beauty of "Fade Away" and "Tide," the slow-burn of "Find Your Life" or the jangly breeze of "Afraid" and "My Small Life" to see why this trio has become one of Down Under's bright hopes.

CHARLES LLOYD The Call (ECM, 1540 Broadway, 33rd Fl., New York, NY 10036/212-930-4996)—When it comes to making deeply transcendent jazz music, many feel the call, but few can truly rise to the challenge of making music that really matters. Charles Lloyd has been doing just that for decades, making music that literally stuns and delights, transfiguring the moment in which it is heard. For years, he has explored the most free-roaming, open-ended, metaphysical areas of jazz, seeking to further its meditative, other-worldly potential, a musical current dating back from his days in the '60s as Chico Hamilton's musical director. On The Call, the tone may be subdued and the feeling very sparse, but the music is no less deep or revealing. "Nocturne" almost isn't a song at all; instead, it's a free-flowing collection of thoughts translated directly and unequivocally into musical terms, held together only by the pensive lines of notes emanating from Lloyd's instrument. He is a man of tone: The timbre of his instrument is so pure and resonant, it's difficult to conceive of his tenor saxophone as an ungainly-looking thing made out of a metal tube with a reed in one end. In his hands, it is a voice, a cry, a sound that transcends place and time.

—James Lien

INSPIRAL CARPETS Devil Hopping (Mute, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Manchester, schmanchester. That particular scene has been unified only by geography for years now, and Inspiral Carpets never quite fit into it anyway. Too pop to be a dance band, too tough-minded to be a pop band, and too danceable to be a rock band, the group has charted its own keyboard-driven course for a long time. With Devil Hopping, it's finally put the pieces together, and come up with its strongest album to date—a dozen '90s dancefloor updates on '60s garage punk. "I Want You" jumps the starting gun with a thunderous three-minute drumstorm (look for the impart single, on which The Fall's Mark E. Smith overdubs a bizarre rant), and while the rest of the album doesn't have quite as much bouncing-around energy, a lot of it comes close. The Inspirals continue to play up their distinctive keyboards, and hook a bunch of these songs with them. "Lovegrove" has a Vox line straight outta the '60s; "Saturn 5" takes an Animals-ish organ part and overlays it with some long-hair-flapping guitar and nifty three-part chorus harmonies. Do the devil hop to the above, plus "Party In The Sky" and "Uniform."

VARIOUS ARTISTS EthnoTechno: Sonic Anthropology Volume 1 (Wax Trax!, c/oTVT, address above)—The intro to Ethno-

Techno: Sonic Anthropology Volume 1 prepares us for a 75-minute world-wide tour of technology, scanning world-band radio transmissions as it introduces some of the stops made along the compilation. EthnoTechno gathers some of techno's leading innovators, mixing trance/ambient sounds, tribal and house with pan-global flavors to create world music for the electronic age. Juno Reactor's "Alash (When I Graze My Beautiful Sheep)" adds Burundi drumming and Tuvan throat singing to its ambient soundscape. Andrew Weatherall's Sabres Of Paradise turn "R.S.D." into a cross-cultural dub anthem. Richard H. Kirk's (of Cabaret Voltaire) Sandoz project contributes "Limbo," which features vocals from the Yoruba people of Africa amongst its pulsing electronics. Other tracks, like the Mere Mortals' "Ethnologik," mix even more elements together, whirring us through the sounds of India, Africa and South America. Other destinations along the way incorporate the sounds of traditional Japanese melodies, the pygmies of central Africa and the Shawnee Indians of North America into this truly state-of-the-art anthropological anthology.

CARMINE Carpé Patio Flounder (Velvet Dwarf, P.O. Box 1724, Roswell, GA 30077/800-525-2505)—The debut release by Atlanta's Velvet Dwarf Records is also the debut album by Atlanta's Carmine. The trio plays quirky, aggressive, almost jazzy power pop borne out of frustration and confrontation. Using enthusiastic, driving rhythms, Carmine wields lighthearted word-play to convey its cynical attitude, but does so without taking itself too seriously. Jeffrey Barnes' dominating guitar fills the grooves, blurting out in stunted spurts in spots and carrying the rhythmic torch in others. His vocals, shared with bassist Darren Bain, express the cynicism with an almost wise-cracking swagger, confidently singing lines like "It's irrelevant/I'm an elephant/And the world is a roaring mouse" ("Irrelevant Elephant") without hesitation. Produced by label head Tim Holbrook (Arrested Development, R.E.M., Smashing Pumpkins), Carpé Patio Flounder, created by a band raised on '70s television, lends a voice to its TV-addicted generation, an idea summed up in the closing "In The Void." The Big Ragoo: "Your Biggest Fan," "Mitch" and "Empire Of The Air/All Men."
—Andy Skibins

MATTHEW SWEET Son Of Altered Beast (EP) (Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028)—While Son Of Altered Beast is more like a promo CD-5 than a proper EP, it's still an enjoyable release. And for fans with an insatiable Sweet tooth, it's a must-have. The disc features a melancholy remix of "Devil With The Green Eyes," a studio outtake and five live tracks recorded in small clubs, each of which feature ex-dBs drummer Will Rigby. The outtake, "Ultrasuede," is sleek and catchy, with surging guitars and sharp vocal harmonies, but most of the live cuts are markedly more jagged. An exception is "Someone To Pull The Trigger," which is slow and somber, with emotive pedal steel guitar courtesy of Greg Leisz (of k.d. lang's band) and vocals that drip like shed tears. The remaining concert numbers were recorded at Washington DC's tiny but unquestionably hip 9:30 Club, lending them a charged feel. "Superde-formed" opens with a feedback squeal and abounds with abrasive guitar chops; "I Wanted To Tell You" reels with Richard Lloyd's dizzying guitar licks, and a cover of Neil Young's "Don't Cry No Tears" is a reverential homage to one of Sweet's idols.

JACKPOT!

TOWNIES The Red Carpet Parlay Of The Decade (Little Voice Records, P.O. Box 57162, Washington, DC 20037/202-588-0216)—Remember the chill the first time you heard American Music Club, Galaxie 500, the Feelies, Shrimp Boat, or whichever dreamy band became your personal obsession? Well, that same chill, that same warmth, that same weird feeling of finding a new friend emerges from the glow of the Townies' first CD. The Townies don't attempt to do a lot, but what they do, they do beautifully: crystalline guitar rock in a post-Velvets vein without attitude or pretension. A lot of it has a strong bedroom-y feel to it, like Sebadoh, but without the snarl or goofy slack-erisms; instead, they're just ordinary people. We'll be frank: Singer Greg Jones doesn't have much of a voice, just a low-key, grainy kind of whisper, like a young Lou Reed back when he had a vocal range of five notes instead of two. But he turns what most would consider a hindrance into a strength. His vocals are unassuming and carry a ring of truth that belies the thought behind the lyrics. There's a spooky, phase-shifted spaciness about the guitars—songs that sound like they were composed under very low lighting conditions, very late at night. And hey, "Ex-Friendville" even sounds like it might have come from the pen of Ray Davies. High praise, yes, but this is good stuff.

—James Lien

FYI

On the acoustic side of things is PIPPY BERNSTEIN, just a girl and her guitar (302 N. La Brea #195, Los Angeles, CA 90036/213-993-3350). Bernstein plays folk in a style similar to that of New Yorkers Brenda Kahn and Roger Manning, or fellow Californian Cindy Lee Berryhill. "You're Always Riding The Fence" has a nearly country-and-western feel, while the other songs on her demo tape are marked by a more laid back California sensibility. Her songs are typical of the genre: descriptive streams of consciousness backed by simple and sparse guitar strums. And though the notes are simple and the vocals a bit off-key (her vocal style is reminiscent of Syd Straw), her songs are intriguing without attempting to send a deep and powerful message to the world (Pippi's songs are about hippie boyfriends and other everyday occurrences). The folk genre may be a bit overrun with every slacker picking up a guitar and venting a bit of anger—David Lowery would say that the world needs another folk singer like he needs a hole in the head—and though we are not sure whether or not Lowery needs a hole in the head, Pippi Bernstein's a folk singer that we just might need.
—D.I.Y.

SWELL Forget About Jesus (EP) (Psycho Specific, c/o American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—Swell's second album ...Well (the band's first on American) captured widespread attention, introducing the sweeping yet unpretentious artistry of this San Francisco band to a wider audience. "Forget About Jesus" is the only song on this new EP lifted from the band's upcoming third album 41, and its surprisingly effective melding of lush, Gary Numan-ish organ sweeps and rootsy guitars bodes well for the album. Also included are the laid-back, loosely percussive "Hell No," the increasingly tense "What I Saw" and "Forget About Dean," a well-constructed cut-and-paste reworking of the title track. —Lydia Anderson

GLAZED BABY Squeeze The Tail, Suck The Head (7" EP) (Allied, P.O. Box 460683, San Francisco, CA 94146/415-431-5698)—We're not quite sure what a Glazed Baby is either, or what this single's title implies, but we do know that this trio knows how to rock. "Under Nancy's Boot" grooves undeniably with a thick, burrowing bass line that drives and pounds like an 18-wheeler, tempered with growling vocals and a flurry of guitar whine. The flip, "Rebecca," features a disturbing bit of tinkling guitar, thundering skin-slammings and the voice of a terrified girl being led through some strange confessional. —Colin Helms

GUIDED BY VOICES Static Airplane Jive (7" EP) (City Slang, Am Treptower Park 28-30, 12414 Berlin, Germany/30-688-34312)—Guided By Voices has swamped listeners with a peck of new material, including two new import 7"s and a domestic EP on Engine. Static Airplane Jive has six songs, and though most of the Dayton, OH, group's songs are quick punches,

"Big School" and "Damn Good Mr. Jam" are longer than a minute—virtual epics in comparison to other releases. The songs are lo-fi classics; frontman Robert Pollard's songs are ridden with absurd lyrics and indelible hooks. "Hey Aardvark" is a quick spurt of catchy, scratchy recording. —Dawn Sutter

EVA LUNA "Loverstay" (7") (Sugarfrost, 149 Wellbrow Road, Walton, Liverpool L4 6TY, England/051-525-9158)—Angelically pretty but cuttingly precise, Eva Luna is a chamber ensemble among indie-pop bands. Both sides of this single are built on a heartbroken Brit-voice and a percussively strummed acoustic guitar, with a little bass or a few keyboard swells thrown in. There's a little bit of tambourine when the cherry-blossom "Loverstay" gets to an especially intense bit, and the flip's only percussion is a quietly percolating drum machine that segues the Field Micel-like "Sing To Me" into another wide-eyed ballad, "China Doll." —Douglas Walk

ABLE TASMANS The Shape Of Dolls (EP) (Flying Nun, P.O. Box 677, Auckland, New Zealand/649-377-4607)—Although New Zealand's Able Tasmans are less widely known than some of their labelmates and have never had a state-side release, their lush, folksy music stands tall and proud alongside NZ's critical favorites. With three LPs under their belt, the Tasmans release the five-song The Shape Of Dolls, highlighting their graceful, piano-laden pop with crisp production by Victor Grbic (Verlaines). "Dog-Whelk" is sheer blissful beauty until its angry finish, "The Big Bang Theory" is a more up-beat organ-filled romp and the title track has a sing-songy chorus and sweet harmonies. —Lydia Anderson

3524)—Sideshow's follow-up seven-inch to last year's Eggplants and Sunspots LP shows us that the band is still reveling in the excitement of Mid-western punk rock. The trio's scratchy recordings of guitars dance around its heavy bass grooves, conjuring up the noise resulting from a game of Twister between the Poster Children and Tar. "Rust" and "Face Foot Ladder" prove Sideshow to be well above local-band status. —Dawn Sutter

EDDY DETROIT "Seed Of The Oyster" (7") (Majora, P.O. Box 78418, Seattle, WA 98178)—A longtime collaborator of the Sun City Girls (who put in an appearance here on background vocals), Eddy Detroit mines a similar Eastern-psychedelia vein. Of the four tracks here, "Seed Of The Oyster" is the highlight, a verbose 'shroom-pop track arranged for sitar, bongos and unearthly harmonies. "Pyxymphony" and "Jungle Captive" are sprinkled with hail-on-tin percussion and nonverbal vocals—imagine Sun Ra's Arkestra playing the Yma Sumac songbook. A brief a cappella howl rounds out this EP. —Douglas Walk

FROST SUITE "Dont Know Youre Born" (10") (Ché, P.O. Box 653, London E18 2NX, England/081-530-8381)—Frost Suite's music is full of odd combinations and angular noises that fit together awkwardly, yet still appeal, like a gangly 12-year-old girl whose unfinished features hint at the beauty to come. The band's hybrid lies somewhere in the realm of Cocteau Twins and Th Faith Healers, recalling the atypical female vocals of the former and the aggressive musical style of the latter. The vocals of Canadian singer Katie Zeibots are enchanting. —Dawn Sutter

JACKPOT!

HOWLIN' WOLF Ain't Gonna Be Your Dog: Chess Collectibles, Vol. 2 (Chess, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608) [cat. no. 9349]—He was the stubbornest, ruggedest, tail-draggin'-est', most low-down bluesman of all time; there was only one Wolf, and that was Howlin' Wolf. His gruff and grumbly voice was even grittier than Captain Beefheart, Tom Waits and Dr. John, making those guys sound like choirboys in comparison. This collection of awesome rarities and previously unreleased gems presents two CDs filled to the gills with prime, vintage Howlin' Wolf, an unbelievable treasure trove of riches that spans from his early days in Memphis to his time as Muddy Waters' chief rival on the South Side of Chicago. Of all the Chess boxes immortalizing great artists, Wolf's box is probably the thinnest of the series towards the end, largely because of the tastes and preferences of its compilers and their general aversion to the psychedelic "blues rock" of the later Chess period. It might also have had something to do with the fact that during the late '60s, Wolf generally didn't like the bands he was paired with, the songs he was given, the people who worked the records and the ways in which they promoted them. Sound ornery? You bet, but at its heart, Wolf's uncompromising individuality translated into some of the most starkly haunting music ever made. Now if only Chess would reissue Wolf's one incredible later LP, This Is Howlin' Wolf's New Album, which features the Wolf moaning over a wildly heavy and psychedelic backdrop of monolithic blues-rock, recorded contemporarily to Led Zeppelin's first album. Also in this new series: a truly awe-inspiring Muddy Waters collection, which was Vol. 1. Next up: Etta James and Little Walter. —James Lien

DR. JOHN The Dr. John Anthology—Mos' Scocious (Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778) [cat. no. 71450]—In addition to being the acknowledged role model for Muppet bandleader Dr. Teeth, Dr. John has been one of the towering, legendary figures of New Orleans music. The music and characters he first concocted in the late '60s have created a legacy that survives to this day, and with albums like his most recent Goin' Back To New Orleans, he's showing that he still has a few tricks and potions left up his sleeve. But the Dr. John character—supposedly based on a self-styled West African prince who sold elixirs and assorted gris-gris in New Orleans in the mid-1800s, but in reality largely based on a little-known New Orleans singer, Prince La-La—represents more than just a weird, eccentric voodoo persona and a relic of the psychedelic early '70s. Whether he was aware of it or not, when Mac Rebennack first put on the feathers, sequins and psychedelic baubles, he was also taking New Orleans music into a new dimension. There was no one else in the position to do what he did—no one else had his background. Hanging out in recording studios as a teenager, he witnessed firsthand the explosion of New Orleans rhythm and blues that birthed rock 'n' roll; his father repaired sound systems in clubs and bars, and Rebennack often points to the influence of his father's jazz and country 78s; his aunts provided tales of Crescent City characters like the legendary Jump Sturdy; his sister gave him books on Haitian voodoo that no doubt inspired his thinking in the days before the transformation; his decision to leave New Orleans to pursue a career as a session musician in L.A. gave him distance and a perspective on New Orleans that lent itself to the creation of a fictional creature of Crescent City mythology. Viewing him in the harsh light of day instead of the usual fog and smog of a dimly-lit hoodoo room, one could say that Dr. John was the first post-modern New Orleans artist, the first to build something new by fusing many strains of the old. The early material found on Mos' Scocious is the blueprint: pure, primal New Orleans R&B soaked with Crescent City undercurrents of drugs, hoodoo, hokum and superstition—storms rolling in out of the gulf, ghoulish TV characters ("Morgus The Magnificent" was a real person who used to host a late-night horror-movie program), and legendary, half-crazed, carefree junco partners rambling and roaring in and out of town. When the Dr. John persona finally parts the mists and enters the disc on "Gris Gris Gumbo Ya Ya," it's like a fog rolling in. As the earlier bacchanals of "Black Widow Spider" and "Walk On Guilded Splinters" give way to more traditional New Orleans musical ruminations of "Iko Iko" and "Memories Of Prof. Longhair," one begins to sense the importance of the good doctor's monumental place in the history of New Orleans music. But still, one wonders if the car manufacturer who used "Right Place, Wrong Time" in its commercial gave much thought to the not-so-thinly-disguised drug reference in the line "I was in the right vein/But I must've had the wrong arm." —James Lien

LENNIE TRISTANO Lennie Tristano/The New Tristano (Rhino, address above) [cat. no. 71595]—Lennie Tristano's eponymous first Atlantic album, often known by its later title Requiem, is perhaps the most vivid and fully-realized glimpse into the jazz pianist/composer's fascinating sonic world. A jazz analogue and predecessor to Stevie Wonder, Tristano was a multi-instrumentalist (piano and reeds) whose work in the late '50s and early '60s also strengthened his music from a technical end (how many blind pianists get credit as "recording engineer" on their own records?). Reclusive and seldom-recorded, Tristano was one of the leading figures on the thinking side of jazz, a brilliant conceptualist and a legendary teacher and developer of talent in others (Lee Konitz was among his students, and a young Arthur Taylor contributes drums to the live side of Lennie Tristano). His playing left some listeners cold at the time, but some 30 or 40 years on, it's not only still stimulating and unique, it seems to make perfect sense. (To get a perspective on the caliber of his talent, he played in New York with Charlie Parker and Dizzy Gillespie in the '50s.) Tristano's ideas extended beyond the angular melodic lines of the bop of his era and into more radical ideas, such as tape manipulation, overdubbing, the use of electronic echo effects as a musical device ("Line Up"), and even the perception that time itself is not a rigid set of rules but a variable that can be modified or altered to musical effect. And so, in "G Minor Complex" (from The New Tristano, 1962) we hear piano passages that sound uncannily, presciently like a CD stuck on a glitch, or a tape loop repeating on a reel. More than just a neat little trick of a stuttering piano line, this kind of innovation becomes even more significant when placed in a larger context of the late '50s: Burroughs is cutting up texts in Tangier, more and more television channels are appearing on the dial, jet travel is shrinking the distances between places, and in jazz, people like Charlie Parker and Charles Mingus are breaking just about every rule and tradition. The finest moment on Lennie Tristano comes in "Requiem," an elegiac blues piece for Charlie Parker that's equal parts Frederic Chopin, Louis Armstrong's "West End Blues," and Tristano's own invention. The album's legendary cover photo, showing a stark black-and-white close-up of Tristano's head in profile, is one of those telling, deep shots; in the riveting music inside, we get to hear the sound of his brain at work. —James Lien

JOE HIGGS Life Of Contradiction (Lagoon) (France, c/o ROIR, 611 Broadway, Ste. 411, New York, NY 10012/212-477-0563) [cat. no. 1010]—If you like the stuff of myths and legends, you'll believe the tales told about Joe Higgs and Bob Marley—Higgs, at the time of these recordings a 20-year veteran of the Jamaican music scene, is often cited as a tremendous influence on Bob Marley, giving spiritual and musical advice to the young rebel musician. Tales abound of the two engaging in deep private discussions, away from the hangers-on and Bob's fellow Wailers, in the years before Marley broke big internationally. Joe Higgs had a style and voice that transcended reggae—believe it or not, the title track sounds uncannily like a Peter Dinklage outtake circa '78, while "She Was The One" features a churning beat that's as much soul music as it is reggae. At moments like these, his music is psychedelic in the truest sense, as the tones and timbres of the instruments seem to blur together: The organ sounds like a bass, the guitar sounds like an organ, and the lead guitar sounds like something from 10 years in the future, all pretty bold stuff to be coming out of a humble Jamaican studio circa 1975. Higgs was largely overlooked in the wave of reggae "discoveries" of the late '70s—with a career spanning back to the '50s, perhaps he was unfairly perceived as being too old, not fitting into the popular stereotype out of The Harder They Come of the reggae singer as a skinny young rebel dread with a big knife on his belt. In hindsight, Higgs' music was far more complex than that of virtually any other Jamaican musician of the era, save for Marley and Lee Perry, and it's a shame it wasn't more widely known. —James Lien

Flashback is CMJ's biweekly reissue column dedicated to the rediscovery of great music from years gone by. Send all reissue material for review to Flashback!, c/o CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position, #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART FOCUS

Luna

The songwriting talents of Dean Wareham first surfaced when he was the leader of Galaxie 500, and have only grown since he formed Luna. His style, heavily influenced by the allusively simple Velvet Underground, produces quiet, melody-rich music wrapped in a warm security blanket, revealing his insecurities through trembling vocals. Bewitched, his second record with Luna (which also features former Chills bassist Justin Harwood and ex-Feelies drummer Stanley Demeski), displays Wareham at his most confident. Bewitched benefits from Wareham's expanded songwriting talents, and the players' collective warmth, making the album as beguiling as its name suggests. Led by the West region (#12), the album climbs 80-21 in its second week on the chart. 81 out of 449 top 35 reporters this week are charting Luna, led by top five reports from KANM, KCPR, KSCR (#1), KSDT (#1), KSLU (NY), KTEQ, KUCB, KUCI, KVSC (#1), KZSC (#1), WLFR, WORT, WRCM and WRSU.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

The month of March has been full of changes on the retail chart. In its second week on the chart, A&M's Soundgarden gains the top In-Store position and enough momentum to whiz from #43 straight to #1, a position it acquired so strongly that it's doubtful the band will relinquish it next week. Also zipping up to the top of the chart, and nabbing the top spot at radio, is Nothing/TVT-Interscope's Nine Inch Nails (11-2). Bursting into the top 10 and causing further shifts on the chart's continuity, Warner Bros.' Elvis Costello enters the chart at #4, earning the title of #1 Retail Breakthrough.

The rest of the chart remains at a status quo for the most part, with but a few shifts and surges. Those making the breaks include: Sire-Reprise's Morrissey single (30-21), MCA's Rhythm Country And Blues compilation (57-23), Too Pure-Elektra's Th Faith Healers (46-35), Columbia's Bruce Cockburn (41-36), Sub Pop's Red Red Meat (43-37) and Spinanes (52-43), Continuum's Beautiful People (67-50), Radioactive's Dig (63-54) and Capitol's Cocteau Twins (#56 re-entry), who are currently on tour.

New faces are springing up everywhere this week. At #16, Virgin's Sam Phillips leads the group of those aspiring to enter the top 10, while Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr is close behind at #22. The Aphex Twin's "On" single on Sire-WB enters at #27 (see Retail Focus), and Unrest arrives at #48 with its swan song single on Teen Beat. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

APHEX TWIN

You can call him Aphex Twin or you can call him AFX or you can call him Polygon Window or you can call him Caustic Window or you can call him Metapharstic or you can call him Richard James. James has been releasing ambient and techno records under a flurry of pseudonyms. Making music since his teenage years, this English boy-wonder has released material on Mighty Force, R&S, Warp and now Sire-WB. The latest release by Aphex Twin is the "On" single; his first U.S. single under the Aphex moniker, it's already a hit in the U.K. James' first major-label album, Selected Ambient Works Vol. 2, is scheduled for release on April 12. No matter what name he's using, Richard James is making a giant leap for music in his genre.

THIS & THAT

A spin doctor (indie promo person) called me the other day to ask whether I'd received No Strings (MCA), the new CD by singer SHEENA EASTON. I said I had. He asked if I'd listened to it. I said I had not. He asked why not? I said why should I? He said because it's an album of standards. I said whose standards? He said everyone's standards, the Great American Songbook, songs like "Someone To Watch Over Me" and "Body And Soul" and "How Deep Is The Ocean" and "The Man That Got Away." I said yippee. He said so you'll listen to it? I said I would not. He said why won't you? I said that while I have nothing against Easton—an attractive young lady, a capable actress (Miami Vice, TV commercials) and pop/R&B singer—I've heard nothing in her body of work to demonstrate that she is worthy of this music, music that has uplifted and consoled, inspired and ennobled listeners for several generations past and many to follow. I said these songs, as interpreted by singers who'd 'shedded and studied and struggled and suffered in the name of singular spontaneous invention, have withstood the test of time and the vagaries of taste. He said standards are standards. I said that's right. He said so you'll listen to it? I said I would not. Standards have standards too... From No Strings we move on to CDs with strings. J.J. JOHNSON, the first-generation bop trombonist and still a major presence on the scene, informs CMJ that his forthcoming Verve studio recording will be a "rather ambitious project" with "strings galore and a lot of woodwinds." The trombonist, whose previous outing was Let's Hang Out, will be the primary soloist on a program of ballads and personal favorites arranged and conducted by Robert Farnon. "His forte is the lush, plush, elegant, bold orchestral stroke," Johnson says of Farnon. "I like that kind of environment, and I've always wanted to record in that setting." The spy Indianapolis resident, approaching 70, adds that he hopes to corral Wynton Marsalis to guest on two or three selections. The repertoire for the trombonist's upcoming project is expected to include one of his most famous compositions, "Lament," and a song he's been waiting to record for years, "Dinner For One Please, James." Says Johnson of the latter tune, "Nat 'King' Cole's recording of this song many years ago made me fall in love with it. It's got wonderful lyrics, and it's a dynamite piece of music." ... Strings—namely, electric guitar—figure less prominently, albeit importantly, on trumpeter JACK WALRATH's latest CD, Serious Hang (Muse, 160 W. 71st St., New York, NY 10023/212-873-2020). Walrath, a heady brassman perhaps best known for his work with the late Charles Mingus, returns to his early professional roots (stints with Jackie Wilson and Ray Charles, circa 1971) and puts the accent four-square on funk in leading his Masters of Suspense quintet (Don Pullen, organ; Dave Fiuczynski, guitar; Michael Formanek, contrabass; Cecil Brooks III, drums). Fiuczynski's guitar, at times Hendrixian, at others Pat Martino-ish, is the needle of sorts as the fivesome knits a loose, deep, commodious pocket. The trapwork on the James Brown-associated "Get On The Good Foot" is occasionally ham-handed, but overall, this number and a lively reworking of Mingus' "Better Get Hit In Your Soul" are likely to be favorably received by trad-jazz stations inclined toward lively, blues-imbued grooves. Elsewhere on Serious Hang, Walrath (a card-carrying avant-gardeist and occasional Third Streamer with strong credentials on the bop block) playfully, and respectfully, genre-hops on his own "Monk's Feet" and reaches back some four centuries for the Bulgarian revolutionary song "Izlyal E Delyo Haidoutin," which begins as an elegy and is transformed into a rallying cry. A serious, well-studied (at Berklee) player and composer, Walrath shows yet again that his brawn matches his brains; when he plays funk, he ain't just slumming... Incidentally, Pullen, who's been showing up increasingly behind the B3 in

ON THE CHART

Atlantic enjoys the view from the top again this week, as Cyrus Chestnut holds on for his third week at #1. JVC's Ernie Watts won't go quietly, bidding for the top spot again after slipping slightly last week (4-2) in a very tightly crowded top five. Novus-RCA's Mitchell Forman makes the big jump of the week, moving his tribute to Bill Evans up 23-12. Atlantic's Carl Allen is the first of only two new entries this week, coming in at #19, ahead of a rare blues entry, from Bullseye Blues-Rounder's Charles Brown

(#24). Releases falling just short of the top 25 this week are Elektra's George Gershwin, Atlantic's Mike Stern and Blue Note-Capitol's Joe Lovano. Happy spring, and watch out for forthcoming releases from Wynton Marsalis, Charlie Haden Quartet West, Ellis Marsalis and Terence Blanchard, amongst a heavy spring release period. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) recent years (check out his sterling work on David Murray's Shakill's Warrior for Columbia a few years back), demonstrates yet again that he's one of the least clichéd practitioners of the jazz organ... Pullen and his B3 also figure prominently on the challenging, complex and convention-shattering Exotica from composer/producer/auteur KIP HANRAHAN. Hanrahan, whose 12-year-old

American Clavé label (which also boasts recordings by Astor Piazzolla and poets Ishmael Reed and Paul Haines, among others) is now being distributed by Rounder (1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700), is rightly renowned for assembling seemingly mismatched musicians to play unusually structured music that frequently defies conventional metric divisions, tonality and narrative subject matter. Hanrahan's 1992 Exotica, like his previous efforts—much of the American Clavé catalogue is being reissued—keeps the clavé, or heartbeat of Afro-Caribbean music, and employs to the fullest the protean talents of Pullen, bass guitarist/vocalist Jack (ex-Cream) Bruce, guitarist Leo (ex-Meters) Nocentelli and trap drummer Robbie Ameen. Ameen, in particular, is astonishing on Exotica, which, several continents and time zones removed, stylistically, indicates that Hanrahan's ears haven't been deaf to the rise of hip-hop. It was Hanrahan's wife, Nancy, if memory serves, who was instrumental in returning Pullen to the B-3 in the mid-to-late-'80s when she conceived a Pullen-on-B-3 concert as producer of the now-defunct "New Jazz At The Public (Theatre)" series, the most inventive programs of the era. Hanrahan's recordings, while immensely edifying and enjoyable to attentive listeners, defy easy analysis in so a short a space. I strongly suggest you ring up Rounder and get Exotica as well as the two-CD American Clavé sampler, which is a valuable (re)introduction to Hanrahan's risk-taking genius.

GANG STARR Hard To Earn (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Boasting such cornerstones as 1990's Step In The Arena, Guru's beat-defying Jazzmatazz venture, and the turntable/production exploits of DJ Premier, Gang Starr has become an influential force in hip-hop. Not to be confused with any side projects, Hard To Earn is a biting hip-hop paragon, replete with Guru's monotone voice, thriving on raw passion and his prodigious, self-supporting phrasing. You're not going to find the jazz meditations or play-along rhymes that were once a trademark back in the days of "Jazz Thing" but serve a lesser purpose now that jazz/rap is no longer new (Guru states: "Yeah, I know I used to act relaxed, but now I'm cuckoo"). This is authentic Gang Starr, dark and menacing, pushing and shoving its way to the front with its steady rhythms, cutting loops and Premier's less-is-more production ("Mass Appeal"). Guru places himself at the top of his field, and his delivery is patient, as he speaks the dictator dialect of a mouthpiece who knows what it takes to make it and survive the long haul ("ALONGWAYTOGO"). "Brainstorm" shows off to the competition the refined, symmetric relationship between DJ Premier and Guru as MC. There's little room for fun and games on Hard To Earn, as Gang Starr talks about gun violence on "Tonz 'O' Gunz" while maintaining a death grip on fly-by-night, not by might, rappers—"Blowin' Up The Spot" states: "Ya want some props dawg, here's a biscuit." Like Daily Operation, Hard To Earn also acts as a springboard to showcase the group's homeboys (Jeru Tha Damaja is already large), most notably on "Speak Ya Clout." Also check: "Code Of The Streets," "The Planet," "DWYCK" (which was previously released as a B-side to "Ex Girl To Next Girl") and "Comin' For Datazz."

ON THE CHART

NOT THAT HARD TO EARN: Boy, talk about making it look easy! After a lengthy stay at #1, Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (1-2) is passed over by Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr, which, after only two weeks on the chart, moves Hard To Earn to the top (2-1)—just like the group promised. Still awaiting an LP release, Columbia's Nas (7-5) continues to rally supporters for "It Ain't Hard To Tell," while down below Hoppah-Columbia's Kurious (14-12) and Ruffhouse-Columbia's Fugees (Tranzlator Crew) (20-13) continue their steady climb north. RECORDS ON THE MOVE: Jive's R. Kelly (21-14), Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (23-19), Tuff Break-A&M's Intelligent Hoodlum (34-23) and Scarface-Priority's Conscious Daughters (39-26). Also, keep an eye on this week's debuts from Tommy Boy's Quinton (#29), Assault-Big Beat's DFC (#35), Wild Pitch-ERG's N-Tyce (#36) and Epic Street-Cold Chillin's Freddie Foxxx (#40). This week's Adventure Picks: 1) KMD; 2) Domino; 3) Black Moon; 4) Gang Starr; 5) Conscious Daughters; 6) Quinton; 7) Brand New Heavies; 8) Nas; 9) Treacherous 3; 10) UMC's. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

key non-rap groups to inspire the bulging swell of jazz/soul-influenced hip-hop. The Heavies' logical pairing of jazz, funk and soul (along with the velvety vocals of N'Dea Davenport) started with their mostly instrumental self-titled debut, creating a buzz in the hip-hop community (which led to Heavy Rhyme Experience Vol. 1—uniting the group with actual rappers) both for its nostalgic recreation of '70s funk ("Fake") and for the live, resourceful energy it established. Brother Sister sees the group maintaining much of the same vibe that propelled previous works (although appearing more cohesive), but also makes an effort to include more vocals, more sanguine soul ("Spend Some Time," "Back To Love") and even a taste of reggae on "People Giving Love." The Brand New Heavies probably would've had a number one record if it were 1977, yet they are more than a faceless revival group; their underlying coolness and unshakable funk overtones are the record's strongest attributes. Looking beyond the first single "Dream On Dreamer," N'Dea Davenport's dreamy vocals are perfectly adaptable to the heavier grooves on the title-track, and when the record breezes through the sugary disco and relaxing soul of "Keep Together," the group becomes an intimidating force. Still, the group fires off a few low-flashpoint funk monsters like "Snake Hips" and the horn-happy "Ten Ton Take," which keep the record vibrant and exquisitely blissful. Apply the sunscreen on: "Have A Good Time," "Mind Trips," "Keep Together" and "Day Break."

5TH WARD BOYZ Gangsta Funk (EP) (Rap-A-Lot, 12337 Jones Road, Ste. 100, Houston, TX 77070/713-890-8486)—No longer stifled by Los Angeles as the preeminent center for hardcore thrillseekers, Houston, Texas, has produced some of the deepest gangsta funk with notable groups like the Geto Boys and Scarface leading the way. The three-man wrecking crew known as the 5th Ward Boyz (representing the infamous Houston ghetto) has already launched its first bomb with the release of last year's debut Ghetto Dope, and follow it up with an EP that confidently speaks for anyone leading a life on the ghetto streets. As artistic and boastfully romantic as Scarface ("Same Ole Shit"), E-Rock, 007 and Low-Life do more than deal monotonous hardcore scripts; their cuts are based on ideas that go from the simple, hook-heavy funk found on the title track to the "Lo Life In The Streets," which deals with the betrayal of friends and the frustrations and madness that a life on the streets can develop. Also bite into "Underground G's," which features fellow Rap-A-Lot crews 5th Ward Juveniles, Gotti and Kaos.

DEF12

K.M.D. "What A Nigga Know" [96 BPM] (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—After the unpretentious Mr. Hood album, K.M.D. returns with its streamlined freestyle raps, highlighted by an ambient sample from Jody Watley's "Looking For A New Love," which helps sharpen the hook on "What A Nigga Know" (produced by Master Of The Zeroes) and heightens the possibility of crossover action. The B-Side features the flavorful "Constipated Monkey" and the jazzy sax-sampled "Q3."

JAM ON IT

MORE SINGLES BOUND TO SATISFY: The second single from DOMINO, entitled "Sweet Potato Pie" [96 BPM] (Outburst/RAL, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211), will undoubtedly continue Domino's momentum, as it shows off more of his gangster crooning (a combination of singing and rapping) and catchy wordplay. The video is pretty slick too...Gang Starr protege JERU THE DAMAJA drops a clean and dirty edit of his second single "D. Original" [100 BPM] (Payday/frr, c/o I.L.S., 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019/212-603-3927), which borrows a sample of Guru's voice, a kickin' beat and an atonal piano riff under Jeru's sharp, microphone punch...Also be sure to spin the latest single from the PRIVATE INVESTIGATORS, "Who Am I (God)" (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210/215-884-3308), featuring a remix from Diamond D. called "Diamond D Main Pass." Word Out.

WORD IS...

DICK CLARK JOINS DOWN SOUTH! Perhaps they shared a Molson or a Bud at this recent New York gathering. My best guess is that Dick couldn't rap a present, but he's got crazy skills on the wheels. Anyway, here's Big Beat's Down South hanging with American icon Dick Clark.

ON THE CHART

GUARD YDUR DOGGY BONE: Although Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (1-1) has managed to keep his paws on the top spot for another week, Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (9-2) is eager to attain chart supremacy by taking the #1 position on the Beat Box radio chart. The street funk found on the new EP from Rap-A-Lot's 5th Ward Boys (22-9) has helped Gangsta Funk make a splash at retail, while we watch EastWest America's Das EFX

(15-11) and Jive's R. Kelly (24-14) make some of this week's biggest moves. Outside of our one newcomer to the chart—Mercury's Nefertiti at #25—we welcome back chart alumni Ed O.G & Da Bulldogs (#19), Virgin's Shyheim A.K.A. The Rugged Child (#20), Luke's 2 Live Crew (#21) and Tommy Boy's K7 at #24. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

DR. DRE's Death Row Records is about to venture into the lucrative world of movie soundtracks (not that the company needs the cash or anything) when it releases the soundtrack to the film Above The Rim. Artists featured on the soundtrack include SWV ("Anything"), AL B. SURE (covering Al Green's "I'm Still In Love With You"), H-TOWN, 2PAC and THA DOGG POUND...PETE ROCK & C.L. SMOOTH will be releasing a new album on Elektra early this summer...In Los Angeles, 2Pac has been ordered to serve a 15-day jail sentence for the assault and battery of director Allen Hughes (Menace II Society). In addition, 2Pac must also pay $5,400 in fines and perform 45 days of community service...DA LENCH MOB's T-BONE has been arrested on suspicion of a murder that occurred in a Los Angeles bowling alley. T-Bone's lawyers claim that T-Bone had left the bowling alley long before any shooting occurred and is six inches shorter than the description of the alleged gunman. The group's J-DEE was arrested last June and is being held without bail until his arraignment on March 21.

BLOWIN' UP

FUGEES (TRANZLATOR CREW) Blunted On Reality (Ruffhouse, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022) Radio Chart Position: #13—Despite the slow start of "Boof-Baf," New Jersey's Fugees (Tranzlator Crew) have found the correct formula for Blunted On Reality. Perhaps one single wasn't enough to tell the real story behind this trio, which is made up of Haitian descendants Pras and Clef, along with female MC Lauryrn's impetuous rhyme skill. In just five weeks, the Fugees have taken their debut to the doorstep of this week's top 10, ready to tangle with many longtime chart hogs. Of this week's 130 radio reports, Blunted On Reality rolls up 18 reports, including KAOS (#1), KBCC, KCCR, KCLU, KCRW, KGRK, KHSU, KMSU, KSMC, KUOM, WCBE, WHFR, WKDT, WLHA, WLOZ, WRHO, WXCI and WXDU in Durham, North Carolina.

WHAT IN THE WORLD

TITO PUENTE'S GOLDEN LATIN JAZZ ALL-STARS In Session (Tropijazz, c/o RMM, 568 Broadway #806, New York, NY 10012/212-925-2828)—Unless you are rhythm dead and tone deaf, you won't need a review to coax you into playing this recording. Tito Puente, the king of the timbales, assembled an amazing group of old guard musicians, young lions and mid-generation greats to play in New York City in 1992. So successful was that week at the Blue Note that the group embarked on a world tour, and released a live album recorded at The Village Gate. Now Puente and the group have made a studio album of great Latin jazz. You won't find a review of the album here, just a run-down of its remarkable cast of characters: Mongo Santamaria (congas), Dave Valentin (flute), Andy Gonzalez (bass), Charlie Sepulveda (trumpet), Mario Rivera (saxes), Giovanni Hidalgo (percussion), Hilton Ruiz (piano), Ignacio Berroa (kit drums) and a guest vocal by James Moody. This is as hot and as masterfully played as it gets! Play it

PANDIT SWAPAN CHAUDHURI The Soul Of Tabla (Interworld, 139 Noriega St., San Francisco, CA 94122/415-242-9788)—For those folks who think of the tablas as a limited instrument, a percussive force used to accompany the sitar or sarod, here is an album that will open your ears to the real melodic beauty of these complex and wondrous skins. Swapan is an acknowledged master of these paired drums, having worked with Ravi Shankar and Ali Akbar Khan, as well as being named director of percussion at Ali Akbar Khan's music school in California. His technique is highly technical, yet equally sensitive to the gentleness as it is to the power of the music. On The Soul Of Tabla he is accompanied by simple sarangi (a bowed instrument) and the drone strings of the tanpura. The richness of melody in each of these four tal falls solely in the hands of the drummer, and the vitality of northern Indian music is rarely so beautifully and modestly conveyed.

TRANSCENDING THE NORM

Back when there was a Yugoslavia, an artist named BORIS KOVAC was making music that defied all known categories. His was a mix of traditional folk music, progressive jazz, rock and minimalist classical sensibilities that became a cult legend in the late '80s. Most of the material on his two albums, which were never available in the U.S., are now on one CD, Ritual Nova I & II (ReR (UK), c/o Cuneiform, P.O. Box 8427, Silver Springs, MD 20907-8427/301-589-8894). His incorporation of the voices of folk singers, zithers and strings into an electro-acoustic jungle of swirling sounds, along with a percussive thunder, underscores his intense reed playing. The resultant soundscape is both soulfully transcendent and frighteningly corporeal, a new form of folk music for the 21st century...It's funny how certain terms become hip, giving you the impression that the music they represent is somehow new. Ambient is just such a buzzword these days, as if the music sprung out of the current craze for techno (disco?) and new age music is becoming a monstrous new form. KLAUS SCHULZE was making this music in the early '70s in Europe, where it was just called progressive or weird. His recordings and his collaborations with artists like Steve Roach have defined the ambient movement before any marketing department heard the word. The Essential 72-93 (Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929) offers a comprehensive

ON THE CHART

Tarika Sammy holds on as #1 for another week, with Ellipsis Arts' massive Africa Never Stand Still compilation breathing closely down the Madagascanian group's collective neck (3-2). Right behind them both in hot pursuit is Algerian sensation Khaled, moving down 2-3 but still a major factor on the chart. In all honesty, it could be any of the three, or even Hugh Masekela (6-4) on top next week. Right out of the gate, Angelique Kidjo is our highest debut at #12; come to think of it, she might be in the running for #1 herself in a couple of weeks. Our other debut of note is Heartbeat's Tony Rebel Meets Garnett Silk (#15); this renewed interest in Rebel causes his Vibes Of The Time to re-enter our chart at #17, after he had briefly dropped off last week. And now, a look at a few names that are likely to loom large on the chart in the coming weeks and months: Ali Farka Toure & Ry Cooder (Toure's last release was on the chart for nearly half a year, but never reached #1), Terror Fabulous and the unstoppable Worl-A-Girl. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) history not only of Schulze's work, but of the whole electro-planetary musical movement of the last two decades, documenting the music that was co-opted by dozens of "new age" wanna-bes and techno-trancers over the years...The Jewish theater and dance music called klezmer has enjoyed a worldwide revival in the last decade, with respectful revivals by bands like the Klezmorim and wild reinventions like the Klezmatics. Last year Don Byron made his dedication to the klezmer-inspired work of Mike Katz, and now another group of jazz musicians takes its turn at the music on Voice Of Joy (World Class, c/o Hearts Of Space, P.O. 31321, San Francisco, CA 94131/415-242-8888). KOL SIMCHA is a Swiss-based klezmer-jazz ensemble of piano, bass, drums, flutes and clarinet. The group's approach is smooth but never studious, and it imbues these songs with a modern jazz groove that sets Kol Simcha apart. Singular arrangements like "Hip Hop Hora" (not what you might think!) and mournful tear-jerkers like "Why" and the clarinet solo "Shir Hamaalot" bring a different perspective to this ancient Eastern European sound...Keep an open ear for: JAZZHOLE (Bluemoon, c/o Mesa Bluemoon, P.O. Box 5510, Glendale, CA 91221/818-841-8585), whose acid jazz wordplay and acoustics will twist your brain; TADASHI TAJIMA's solo shakuachi (Japanese flute) on Shingetsu (Music Of The World, P.O. Box 3620, Chapel Hill, NC 27515-3620/919-932-9600); and JON ROSE's "opera perverse" about the Rosenberg atomic spy case, called Brain Weather (Cuneiform, address above).

KENNY LARKIN

KENNY LARKIN Azimuth (Warp, P.O. Box 474, Sheffield S1 3BW England)—A couple of striking, sensuous EPs forged in the spirit of the city's founding father, Derrick May, marked Detroit's Kenny Larkin's debut on the just starting +8 (Canada) label a few years ago. After an extended hiatus, Larkin returns with Azimuth, a series of enormous, complicated electronic symphonies infused with a harsh, beautiful warmth. Quite simply, this is the best techno record of the year, and it's one you can dance to. Let me just begin with the accompanying 7" which contains two verifiable masterpieces that crawl around the edges of your consciousness before heading straight for your feet. The LP/CD contains 11 tracks of pure invention, best described by Eddie Fowlkes' term "techno soul." With its minor-key synth swells and flat, rigid handclap patterns and a kick drum for a beating heart, perhaps the finest track here is "Q," found in different versions on the 7" and LP. Since techno's birth in Detroit in the mid-'80s, the music seems to have retreated into opposing camps: one side being the non-dancefloor experimentalist, the other, raging hardcore boffins. Larkin brings the music back to its roots while never becoming nostalgic; rather he insists on uncompromising modernity.

FIRE ISLAND "There But For The Grace Of God" (12") (Junior Boy's Own, The Saga Centre, 326 Kensal Road, London W10 England/081-960-4495)—Machine's "There But For The Grace Of God" became a massive NYC gay disco anthem in 1980, co-written by August Darnell (a.k.a. Kid Creole). This tale of white flight set to an enormous, rumbling rhythm went on to become a pop hit. Now the ever-inventive team of Terry Farley and Pete Heller has resurrected this jewel of a song for consumption by the post-rave club culture, and their label, Junior Boy's Own, has once again refused to release a trendy record, and so a lot of people don't like this track. The slow-building grandeur of the intro is reminiscent of the beautiful chords of Ce Ce Rodgers' garage classic "Someday" and the vocals of Love Nelson are idiosyncratic, to say the least, sounding alternately campy, tender and mocking. The "Roach Motel" mix is the most impressive, with its rolling, arpeggiated bassline and rousing backing vocals by Nu-Colours (including the huge vocal breakdown at the track's conclusion). I just can't get this one off the turntable.

U.S. INDIE UPDATE

It wouldn't be a good week in the dance world without a record from the DJ Pierre/Phuture axis, and the new Phuture single, "Spirit," will do

ON THE CHART

Not much movement this week, particularly in the top five, with Island Red-ILS' Orb hanging in at #1 by a wide margin, while Sire-WB's Aphex Twin single remains comfortable at #2. If you want a projection for the coming months, there's a good chance that Sire-WB's release of Aphex's Selected Ambient Works Vol. II will remain in the top five through August, judging by the single's performance in this chart. There's a couple of new entries this week: Exquisite Corpse on Kk-Restless debuts at #23, while labelmates Psychick Warriors Ov Gaia move up four places (16-12). Nesak International's compilation of Brooklyn hardcore entitled Strictly For The Hardcore (and featuring Lenny Dee, Adam X, Damon Wild, etc.) enters this week at #25. This week's compilation count: eight. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

just fine. Laden with heavy bass rumblings and kamikaze snare hits arranged beneath twanging synth blasts, this is a smoker of considerable force. The whole crew gets involved on the flip, with DJ Pierre's "Tribal Mix" really doing damage, while the ever-peculiar Felix 'da Housecat delivers an off-key, dark, moody mix. Strong stuff (Strictly Rhythm, 1650 Broadway, Ste. 312, New York, NY 10019/212-246-0026)...Out in the Midwest, the warming trend shows no signs of letting up. A fine example is the punchy "Inside Out" by Shay Jones. Ms. Jones has been an in-demand vocalist over the past year, having worked on projects with a number of Chicago producers. Her latest outing is the debut single on E-Smoove's Focus label, and it kicks like a newborn. In an ideal world, this would be a hit record; despite its underground leanings, it is a wonderful soul song at the core. But unfortunately it will most likely be purchased solely by DJs. Check out E-Smoove's "Funk Revival" mix and the exquisite "Dew It In The Raw" dub for some heavy bass mechanics (Focus, 4750 W. 137th St., Crestwood, IL 60445/312-489-6700)...The prolific San Franciscan mix wizard DJ EFX has just released his best EP to date, entitled San Francisco Trax. Vol. 1. The A-side's "Acid Carnival" mix is a percussion-heavy tour de force with the acid machines set for maximum impact. The glancing keyboard stripes squeeze their way between the rumbling drums with remarkable agility. Apparently, we can expect one EP in this series per month. Can't wait (Underground Construction, c/o Strictly Hype, 9209 Ivanhoe St., Schiller Park, IL 60176/708-678-1271)...The highly praised Stickmen from Toronto just teamed up with +8's John Acquaviva for their new single, "Caffeine 4 Daze" by The Cappio Bros. Who would have guessed they'd put out a blistering set of acid tracks set to 909 drum tracks that wouldn't sound out of place on Dance Mania? Mintsoulis and Zwarich (the Stickmen) just won't put out the same record every month, and this is one of their best to date (Stickman, 34 Marilake Dr., Toronto, ON, Canada M1S 1V7/Ph/Fax: 416-321-5509).

JACKPOT!

KILLBILLY Foggy Mountain Anarchy (Crystal Clear Sound, 4902 Don Dr., Dallas, TX 75247/214-630-2957)—Now this is more like it. Not that we didn't like the first Killbilly record—no sir, 1992's Stranger In This Place (Flying Fish) was a fine record. It just didn't fully capture the only thrash/bluegrass band in the world in full frenzy. Foggy Mountain Anarchy, on the other hand, goes all out, proving these guys can pick and grin with the best of them, and then jump into the mosh pit. Killbilly has put on some of the most entertaining shows I've seen in the past five years, and the band finally gets to display its might and energy on record with Foggy Mountain Anarchy. The final three cuts—the crowd pleasing hoedown "Pass That Whiskey 'Round," a full-tilt take on Hüsker Dü's "Hare Krsna" and the Ramones-style punk "Drivin' Around"—were all recorded live in the studio without overdubs and are presented as a medley, bringing you as close to killer hillbilly heaven as you can get without being in the same room with these maniacs. Not that Killbilly doesn't get serious on occasion; "Heaven Is A Small Town" and "I Wonder If I'll Ever Be The Same" are choice nuggets in Killbilly's country/bluegrass fusion, while "Diesel Dazey," "Mountain Dew Or Die" and "Cheatin' Side Of Town" display this band's good ol' boy sense of humor and effervescent Texas charm.

Before we get to the rest of the records this week, I'd like to say that on any other week the next three releases would be Horizons Jackpot picks. All are worthy of a great deal of your attention.

MIKE HENDERSON Country Music Made Me Do It (RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036)—Although Mike Henderson's name may not be immediately recognizable, some of you have either heard his songs or his guitar playing through the work of Emmylou Harris, John Hiatt, Kevin Welch and a whole bunch of Nashville artists. Country Music Made Me Do It, his debut as a frontman, is to sure rank as one the top records out of Music City at year's end. It crackles with the kind of country that brings to mind the high lonesome sound of Hank, Sr. and the foot-stomping honky tonk of Buck Owens. From the driving "Fountain Of Youth" to the guitar/fiddle rave-up "Wishful Thinkin'" to the low-down strut "The Restless Kind" to the bluegrass tinged "That Train Don't Stop Here Anymore," Henderson and friends serve up tasty grooves combined with evocative lyrics that are the essence of country music.

VARIOUS ARTISTS OKra All-Stars (OKra, 1992 B N. High St., Columbus, OH 43201/614-294-3833)—The leaders of the four bands that record for the tiny yet highly respected OKra label—Ricky Barnes (Hoot Owls), Hank McCoy (Dead Ringers), Dave Schramm (Schramms) and Jeb Loy Nichols (Fellow Travelers)—got together with a bunch of musician buddies in the fall of 1993 to record this delightful, laid-back collection of original material and inspired covers from the likes of John Scott Sherrill ("Wild And Blue"), Merle Haggard ("Shade Tree Fix-it Man") and Prince ("Purple Rain" done up bluegrass style, if you can imagine it). These four come from groups that aren't that similar stylistically, so it's a pleasant surprise they work so well together. Nichols' vocals are especially haunting, and it's a treat to hear him sing real country songs as opposed to the roots rock/reggae fusion style for which his band is known. Don't miss Schramm's contributions: the pensive "She's Taken All His Toys Away" and the striking acoustic ballad "Conqueror's Song." On a business note, OKra is without domestic distribution at this point and, from what I've heard, is interested in hearing from prospective distributors for this release and the rest of its catalog.

SETTERS Setters (Watermelon, P.O. Box 402088, Austin TX 78704/512-458-6275)—The Setters are Walter Salas-Humara of the Silos, Alejandro Escovedo and Michael Hall. These impressive songwriting talents have assembled a winning collection of moody folk and jaunty roots rock, with the help of producer Gurf Morlix, (producer and guitarist for Lucinda Williams). Recorded in 1992, this set was originally only available as a German import in the fall of 1993. In the meantime, some of the songs here have been released on individual solo projects or performed frequently at recent shows, making them familiar to fans, but the chemistry between these three talents lends a special air to the proceedings, as if the trio was just sitting around someone's living room and swapping songs. The Setters' dark and forceful version of the Stooges' "I Wanna Be Your Dog" is sure to make Iggy smile. Salas-Humara's "Susan Across The Ocean," Escovedo's "Tell Me Why" and Hall's "River Of Love" are prime examples of each Setter's skill as a tunesmith. Taken as a whole, this is not just a hack side-project; rather it may go down as one of the more memorable records of the year.

SHORT SHOTS

While we're on the subject of interesting collaborations, be sure to check out the new EP from the DOMESTIC SCIENCE CLUB (Discovery, 2052 Broadway, Santa Monica, CA 90404/800-377-9620). Few groups can harmonize like this trio from Dallas, composed of singer/songwriter Sara Hickman, ex-Dixie Chicks member Robin Macy and Patty Lege of Texas bluegrass band Red Oak. They straddle a fine line between cute and sincere with their quirky combination of swing and folky pop that's strengthened by solid songs and appealing arrangements. Check out the breathtaking, a capella "Working Man," the playful "Sweet Tooth" and the bluesy sway of "Peaches And Cream" to discover what makes the Domestic Science Club such a delectable treat...One of my favorite releases from last year came from BARENCE WHITFIELD WITH TOM RUSSELL. Their second effort, Cowboy Mambo (ESD, 530 N. Third St., Minneapolis, MN 55401/612-375-0233), is an equally mixed up affair. They cover a broad range of songs from the likes of Steve Earle, Gram Parsons, Richard Thompson, Jimmie Rodgers, Pop Staples and others with inventiveness and passion, while slipping in a few of Russell's excellent originals for flavor. Some of the experiments don't catch fire this time, making Cowboy Mambo a bit less enthralling than their first record, but it's a worthy listen nonetheless... Somehow it seems natural to talk about IAN TYSON after mentioning Tom Russell. They've worked together in the past and there's even a song on Tyson's new record, Eighteen Inches Of Rain (Vanguard, 1299 Ocean Ave., Ste. 800, Santa Monica, CA 90401/310-451-5727) that they wrote together ("Heartaches Are Stealin'"). Since the early '80s Tyson has released five albums in his native Canada, sold lots of records and won a bunch of awards, but surprisingly this is his first new U.S. release in over 20 years. Tyson's a true cowboy, and his music reflects his experiences as a cattle rancher and rodeo competitor. Songs like "Chasin' The Moon," "M.C. Horses" and "Old Corrals And Sagebrush" accomplish the neat trick of being both contemporary and traditional...The second effort from CAROL FRAN & CLARENCE HOLLIMON, See There! (Black Top, P.O. Box 56691, New Orleans, LA 70156/504-895-7239), is a funky combination of Louisiana soul and Texas blues. Veterans of the Texas Gulf Coast scene for many years, Fran's vocals and Hollimon's guitar work have never been better. Few acts today can slip from the second line sounds of "Daddy Daddy Daddy" to the slinky R&B of "Are You Serious?" to the roadhouse-style instrumental "Blabs" with this much ease, and maintain the listener's attention throughout.

UPCOMING RELEASE NEWS

Baltimore duo and long time Horizons faves disappear fear has signed to Philo Records. The group's initial self-titled release is set for June...PETER CASE will release his fourth solo record, Peter Case Sings Like Hell, on Vanguard in early April. In keeping with that label's tradition, it will be more folk/blues oriented than his previous records...Expect More Songs Of Love And Murder, the second LP from the BEACON HILL BILLIES (led by the Blood Oranges' Jimmy Ryan), on ESD towards the end of April...MARTY BROWN's third for MCA, Cryin', Lovin', Leavin', is scheduled for release on April 26...DON WALSER, the leader of one of the best country bands in Austin, has signed to Watermelon Records. He's currently recording with Ray Benson for a release due in the summer...The IGUANAS will release their second LP for Margaritaville, entitled Nuevo Boogaloo, on May 1, during the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival.

BRUISER

MY DYING BRIDE

Turn Loose The Swans

(Peaceville, c/o Futurist, 6 West Greene St., New York, NY 10013/212-226-7272)—

There was a time when a violinist auditioning for a doom or death metal band would limp home with a black eye, a broken nose and fiddle strings wrapped around his neck. But that was before metal became an arena for exploration and discovery. Now, virtually anything goes, so long as it's heavy enough to sink an oil tanker, a feat My Dying Bride could accomplish with it eyes closed. Turn Loose The Swans is a dank, festering epic that's easily the band's most daring and devastating release to date. Trudging and plodding at a lumbering stomp without sounding like Black Sabbath, My Dying Bride, mingles guitar harmonies, gothic background vocals, ominous keyboards and weeping violin lines into a multi-textured pastiche of darkness. As bleak and hopeless sounding as Joy Division or Christian Death, My Dying Bride is eminently more intense, relaying lengthy tales of misery and woe as it assaults with sledgehammer rhythms and buzzsaw riffs. Only one song on Turn Loose The Swans is under five minutes, with three clocking it at over nine; this allows My Dying Bride to weave its tales slowly, building mood and atmosphere with the turn of each crinkled musical page. It was a dark and stormy night, and as the lighting crashed from the sky, the suffering children sat in the cold and fueled their anguish with "Your River," "The Snow In My Hand," "Turn Loose The Swans" and "Black God." —Jon Wiederhorn

COVEN

Boneless Christian

(Red Light, 880 Lee St., Ste. 208, Des Plaines, IL 60016/708-297-6538)—Like

Piledriver and S.O.D., Seattle's Coven writes crushing thrash metal songs with ridiculous tongue-in-cheek lyrics. The band satires religion, politics and violence with total irreverence. But under the scathing, sicko lyrics lies a rhythmic foundation carved in bone. Guitarists Paul Hash and Dean Babbitt churn out a hearty combination of ripping riffs and searing leads fronted by Jay Clark's hardcore bark, and backed by the barreling beats of drummer Jason Moody. Boneless Christian, Coven's second full-length album, finds the group on the attack, offensively targeting Satan worshippers ("Satanic As Hell," "The Master's Tool"), gun owners ("Just Add Violence") and, of course, Christians ("Christycle/ Reaming The Pope," "Boneless Christian"). While lines like "I put the demon in her mouth where God's word was once supreme/Unprecedented cum bath to a symphony of angel's screams" ("Fuckin' A Nun") are utterly tasteless, they're sort of [dare we say it] comical when put in context. Coven wants to show how completely absurd bands like Cannibal Corpse and Autopsy are by taking vitriolic prurience to illogical extremes. Either that, or the members really are sick, perverted motherfuckers: "We could feed every Christian to the hungry and the homeless/But before you do you'd better make sure they're boneless." —Jon Wiederhorn

DEAD FLY BOY

Self-Titled Debut

(Sector II, c/o Futurist, address above)—

What the hell do southern Wisconsin boys know about riff rock and hardcore rap? When was the last time you saw a kid from a state whose mascot is a fucking badger, grow up to do anything more musical than hum showtunes in a cornfield? Okay sure, there's the Milwaukee Metal Fest, but other than that, Wisconsin seems about as likely to cultivate rockers as Manhattan is to breed potato farmers. We figured Wisconsin bands weren't worth their weight in toe cheese. Then along came Dead Fly Boy to discount our East Coast snobbery and prejudice towards the Midwest. Inspired by Metallica, Public Enemy and Henry Rollins, Dead Fly Boy is a heavy, expressionistic outfit that plays crunching rapping metal from the heart (fortunately, the band only raps part of the time). Self-Titled Debut, the band's first album, strikes with sharp, rhythmic stabs and pummeling beats. Unlike most rap-metal bands, which use guitars primarily to embellish their dope beats and fly rhymes (that's rap-speak, y'know), Dead Fly Boy crafts locomotive riffs and clever, effective licks that stand out as primary elements of its songs. Guitarists Steve Truesdell and Bruce Ralston have the background and skill to make their six-strings wince with pain and cry out in fury, and vocalist Terry Kaprelian has an equally diverse vocabulary that includes balladic croons, metallic growls and attitude-laden raps. Word to the badgers: "I Don't Think So," "Maybe," "Klusterfunk" and "Blind."

TINFED

Synaptic Hardware

(Primitech, P.O. Box 210330, San Francisco, CA 94121/415-668-0406)—As the technological cold-shouldering of the computer age sets itself upon us, and the disheartening presence of AIDS, radioactive fallout, immoral medical advancements and virtual reality further distance us from humanity, art reflects these changes. Enter Tinfed. Like an industrial craftsman who seethes with the rage induced by inescapable technological nightmares and consequently embraces the harshness through a barrage of sound, Tinfed is the product of a computer age gone awry. Making its debut with Synaptic Hardware, this northern California trio builds its sound with rigid percussive structures, layering tribal pounding and warstrong drum machines with a surgically inflicted guitar burn. The result is a rugged engine of sound that methodically picks apart societal ills with the strength of an overcharged drill. Despite this frigid presence, a dark and sinister current of melody belies the album's structure, surging through the percussive discharge in a near pleading gesture for human thought. The line of distinction between a sample and a soundbite quickly thins, and lyrics dissolve into thoughts of confusion and despair in cyberspace. Tinfed is a war waiting to happen, a calculated stab of electronic design, rhythmic and frightening, unsettling and tense. Down-load these: "Burning," "Interjectory," "Cleansed" and "Mannerism Project." —Colin Helms

THE POOR

Who Cares

(Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, New York 10022-3211)—With so many bands

carefully following hard rock trends, The Poor is a refreshing shot in the tattooed arm. Rather than being current or cutting-edge, The Poor sounds as if it's been in a time capsule since the mid-'80s. The band specializes in straight-ahead hard rock in the vein of early Van Halen and AC/DC, which isn't surprising since drummer James Young is the nephew of AC/DC's Angus and Malcolm. Blood ties alone would be enough to generate interest in this band, but its music stands on its own—maybe not with the mosh pit crowd, but surely with the still vast legions of anthem-lovin' air-guitarists. While The Poor may not be as emotionally fulfilling as Pearl Jam or as challenging as Rage Against The Machine, the group is a strong reminder that hard rock is great party music. Indeed, Who Cares would be the ideal soundtrack for a basement keg party, or for the traveling fair's Tilt-A-Whirl. The highlight of the record is "More Wine Waiter Please," but "Poison," "Dirty Money" and "Downtown" are also noteworthy as well. Also check out "Hair Of The Dog," which is not the Nazareth tune of the same name, although that classic would sound perfect done by The Poor, a band that seems retro at first, but is, in its own way, quite contemporary. —Brian Ives

SHORT PLAYS

ORANGE 9MM

Orange 9mm (EP)

(Revelation, P.O. Box 5232, Huntington Beach, CA 92615-5232/714-375-4264)—

With half spoken, half screamed vocals, brawny, brawling guitars and riveting rhythms, Orange 9mm is reminiscent of the Rollins Band crossed with Jesus Lizard, a sound that's in high demand in today's rage-stricken, post-punk music scene. The band's cathartic cacophony is so timely, in fact, that several major labels are already stalking the fledgling noise band. Not that Orange 9mm is trying to be trendy or marketable; the group just copes with today's violent, rancid climate by using the appropriate tools of the era. Savage and unrelenting, Orange 9mm carries the force of a 45-caliber barrel to the temple. See red with "Driver," "Dry" and "Can't Decide."

DEMO-LISHED!

SINTILLION

Crispy Elevator Crunch

(Nemesis Music Ltd., 30 Maple Ave., Ste. B2, Eastchester, NY 10707/914-337-0701)—

Sintillion cites Biohazard, Pantera, Suicidal Tendencies and Sepultura as influences, but to us the band sounds a whole lot more like Spreading The Disease-era Anthrax. Sintillion brims with New York 'tude and bears elements of all those bands that used to open for Overkill on Long Island through the late '80s, which isn't necessarily a bad thing. Sintillion knows how to hook into a power-groove, and guitarists Kurt Rempel and Steve Scheluchin certainly have enough chops to keep the band thrashing. Also featuring James Gibbons' forceful, dramatic vocals and the solid rhythms of bassist Brian McKean and drummer Kenny Braun, Crispy Elevator Crunch is a powerfully enjoyable listen. A couple more demos, and Sintillion should be ready for the big time.

DIALOGUE

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

The CROWBAR/Pantera tour is just around the corner. Do you find yourself craving something new from Crowbar? Well I've got it. Crowbar Live +1. That's right, a brand new track, "Numb Sensitive," and it goes for added March 28. Just wait till you hear this one for the first time. Also, be on the lookout for the new video from Crowbar, "Existence Is Punishment." To everybody on DEMENTED TED, thanks! Thanks! Thanks! Some of you still need to check this one out. Don't deny your listeners this brutal disc. We've got a kick-ass tour just around the corner with Unleashed and Broken Hope. Interviews are still available, so call me!

Smitty, Epic Records, New York, NY (212) 833-5987

What do you get when you mix two hard workin', hard rockin' Epic dudes and one stellar metal maiden? The best fucking metal department in the business, that's what! Tons of welcome to Cheryl Valentine, now on board the good ship Epic...May she take us into new uncharted chart positions where no Metal department has gone before. Actually, even she'd be hard pressed to beat our numbers for PRONG and SEPULTURA, numbers one and two respectively, thank you very much! I'll buy that for a dollar! The tours continue with Prong doing a bunch of headline dates starting April 1, while Sepultura converts any remaining skeptics through mid-April. Call for tickets or giveaways... FIGHT continues a very impressive debut album chart run with "Immortal Sin." Stay tuned here for more Fight surprises. A lot of you took a shot of THE POOR and received a really positive response. For those of you who refuse to stick your toe in the water, check out "More Wine Waiter Please" from The Poor—last one in is a rotten egg. Smokin' new singles are approaching from INFECTIOUS GROOVES ("Violent And Funky" CD-proj) and ALICE COOPER ("Unholy War" with Chris Cornell) for your listening pleasure. Call for info...Holy shit! OZZY wins a Grammy! Congratulations! Cheryl makes her Epic debut here next week, so until next time, c-yaal

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

And now it's time for the Hollywood hard music Pepsi challenge! What band continue to grow with their new single "Let Down," gain converts to their indescribable, unique blend of aggressive music, are held in high regard by many hipster bands from the Northwest, are getting amazing press including a five dagger review in Rip magazine, will be joining CANDLEBOX on another batch of dates, are heavily rumored to be joining other Northwest hard-hitters in June and deserve the love, attention and commitment from all of you radio types? If you guessed ELEVEN, you win a set of Ginsu knives, and if all of our ravings have yet to sink in, you will win a set of Ginsu knives in flight as they are thrown at you! It's time for radio and records to work together on exhausting ourselves with our art of Eleven persuasion...We have only begun to fight!

Jesse Lombardi, Century Media/Lonely Planet, Los Angeles, CA (310) 396-0094

Where is my PSYCHOSIS record? Where is my fucking Psychosis record? Did you get it? Well, it should be there? Add it as soon as you get it. SUN, did you get Sun? Sun is an amazing band that opened for Pearl Jam in Europe. It is very cool, so check it out and add it! WARGASM is going top 10! Phones are smoking from Wargasm's Dreadnaut Day. GRAVE is making great impact, many of you still need to expose this rare and collectable EP. UNLEASHED live in Vienna is getting good airplay. Keep on the Across The Open Sea LP, the tour is coming, so get ready! SPUDMONSTERS need your attention! This record is a lot of fun, so play it and chart it. COMECON is keeping strong airplay—moving up still! INTRICATE is it! If you listened to it, I know you're playing it! Just chart it! EYEHATEGOD—a very cool band with more controversy than God! Can you believe they are burning my records in the South! The cover is offensive, kinda. We had a party for the band—basically a "get fucked up via Century Media before the BIOHAZARD show" party. The turnout was amazing. Cool bands, cool industry types, open bar, even Dave Downey made it! The Biohazard show reminded me of L'amours—I even lost my Beastie hat in the pit! Dave, send me a new one, or Tommy. Peace-out. God bless the radio station that sent a dusted blunt to my office.

Marni/Psycho/Wayne, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

You crazy college kids—NAILBOMB is the number one most added. Life is good. Almost everyone is charting and playing the hell out of this record. We'll give someone a dollar if he or she can guess what "Vai Tomo No Cu" means. We sure as Hell don't know (Marni and Wayne). Psycho probably does, but he won't tell us. Just kidding. LIFE OF AGONY and TYPE O NEGATIVE are doing amazingly well. There are going to be more dates added to their tour with STICK, so call us for more info. Lots and lots of interviews. Soon Type O's video for "Christian Woman" will be out on MTV. When you get a chance to see it, make sure your jaw doesn't totally hit the ground with your tongue hanging out. This video proves what we've been saying all along: Pete Steele is God! SEPULTURA continues to kick the shit out of people across the country! Do the words "sold out" mean anything to you? If they don't, then go to the venue and stand outside like we fucking did for an hour and a half. Shannon Donahue from KHSU said, "They kicked my ass!" Look for the new "Refuse/Resist" video real soon on Headbanger's. Don't forget BIOHAZARD and FISHBONE on the road!

Tony Parrish, Sinbad Productions, Louisville, KY (502) 447-BAD1

Our thanks go out to WDJM, WRBB, WSMR, WMFO, KKUP, KMSA, KSID, WUSS, KTOO, WDTY, KTEQ, KEOL, WDNR, KZSC, WNHU, WVUR, WFBG, WVUA, KIEV and others that have put DAVID LA DUKE's "Rock Hard Rocker" on the airwaves. David La Duke giveaways are available, all you need to do is ask! Drop us a note, give us a buzz or fax. Toronto-based hard rock act TRYTON has been added to the line-up on the upcoming Int'l Rockers Hard Music Ball. Tryton's presence has extended onto prime-time nationwide television, twice on CBS's Forever Knight and on CFTO across Canada. Their video "Burning The Cradle" reached number 10 on Muchmusic's "Power 30" chart in Canada and was recently voted best video, unsigned band by the L.A.-based Rockline Music Network. Some other rockers on "The Ball" are: BIRD OF PREY (featuring Jeff Duncan (ex-Armored Saint)), BOGUS TOMS (featuring Michael Hannon (ex-Salty Dog)), Phil Naro (ex-Talas/Peter Criss vocalist), OLIVER MAGNUM, COUNT VIGLIONE and others. No doubt this will be a ballbuster!

Alex Parker, Promotions Guru and Carver Of Big Melons, R.E.X. Music, Nashville, TN (615) 370-8813

I have a friend who works for a medical firm that specializes in blood and semen processing. Last week, a guy came into the office to have his sperm tested for fertility. He was given the standard test cup and then he asked if he could take it home. The company had no policy against this, so he was allowed to leave with the specimen cup. Around closing time, the guy returned looking very pale. Carefully placing the cup on the front counter, he said, "Man, I thought I would never finish filling that thing up." Well, that just goes to show you how stupid some people are. Needless to say, my friend didn't have the heart to tell the guy that he only had to supply one dose of semen. Speaking of orgasmic experiences, you guys should have the CIRCLE OF DUST Brainchild CD in your station at this time. If not, call me. This band could be bigger than the Beatles, but probably not. Video clips of "Telltale Crime" are available for those of you who can put them to use. Please give this CD a chance at your station. Remember you are making the future of music happen today. Be looking for PASSAFIST (our latest bash at making a hit record) to hit your mailboxes soon. Imagine The Clash making an industrial album. Until next time, keep it in the road.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (212) 830-2144

What more can I say? STICK Stick Stick Stick Stick Stick Stick. Heavy Bag Heavy Bag Heavy Bag Heavy Bag. "Grind," "No Groovy," "Stoning," "Disposable," "Fuel," "Zero," "Conditional" and "Taught to Lose." Choose one or more and play it over and over and over. Stick is on the road. You want to see the show? You want to interview the band? Call me at the above number for all tour-related stuff. The long-awaited West Coast live dates (since Foundations in September) for Stick—with Type O and Life O—are: March 15/Reno, 16/San Francisco, 17/Berkeley, 19/Hollywood and 20/Phoenix. MUZZA CHUNKA just finished a kick-ass tour in support of Fishy Pants. Keep your eyes and ears open for more live dates. "Float" is picking up at stations that missed the boat the first time around. If you were one of those, find the CD and give it a spin. Call if you need anything.

Steve McClure, Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

As you can tell from the new phone number, we have relocated to the Atlanta, Georgia, area. The new address is P.O. Box 745, Tyrone, GA 30290. New fax # is (404) 463-8646. DAVID T. CHASTAIN's Next Planet Please is receiving rave reviews from everyone who hears it! If you didn't get your copy, let us know. IMPERIUM's Too Short A Season is due out April 12. This incredible band from the Netherlands sounds like a mixture of the best parts of Megadeth, Metallica and the progressive leanings of Fates Warning and Dream Theater. This is a really great CD. Look for the attack in April.

Stephanie Pensyl, Mercury Records, New York, NY (212) 333-TILT

As most of you know by now, Cheryl Valentine has departed Mercury/Stardog Records in order to pursue opportunities at Epic. Until a replacement is named to fill the throne, you still can call us here at 212-333-TILT for information, tour dates, guest lists, interviews, and the status of Kiss My Ass, the KISS tribute album. FYI, the latest word is a June 7 release date (and wait 'til you hear the MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES' interpretation of "Detroit Rock City"). June will also bring Mercury greatness to you in the form of the long awaited SHOOTYZ GROOVE J.I.V.E. LP. I know how much you love "The Craze," so keep in the groove by continuing to pump the EP. Also in June, you will get your ears on the full-length debuts from DOWNSET and KERBD OG. GRETA will be on the road in the beginning of April, and it's rumored an ancient tiki curse will be enacted if you miss them this time around. Again, don't be afraid to call and express your love for our fine Mercury artists.

PHISH "Down With Disease" (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)— Pearl Jam may not need a video to help its success, but Phish's mammoth underground success can only benefit from this bright and clever video. "Down With Disease" is full of sing-a-long bits and classic rock riffs, though Phish's prodigious musical talent keeps the song from sounding like AOR formula: the keyboards are deep and wild and the guitar licks are more surprising than predictable, making any comparisons to the S*;* D*c** shortsighted and unfair. Showing off Phish's loony humor in the first half of the video (the band goes scuba diving in a fish tank with its dog) and revealing the enthusiasm of Phish's live set (beach balls zooming and bandmembers jamming while using a mini trampoline) "Down With Disease" does an outstanding job displaying the bright facets of Phish. The band tours constantly, so there's a good chance you'll get to witness all of this live. (SC)

DIGITAL UNDERGROUND "Whassup Wit The Luv" (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300)— Where's a Senate committee hearing when you need one? Hip-hop is in the news everywhere you look these days, and not because it's the most creative, rapidly-expanding genre of popular music, but because of its alleged effect on urban violence, drug use, domestic violence, blah, blah, blah. You think anyone is considering hip-hop's positive effect on urban life? You think any of those sanctimonious suits will recognize the inherent value of "Whassup Wit The Luv"? Fuck 'em—this video is great. Shot in a homey (in both senses of the word) black and white, camcorder style, the clip focuses on the convivial atmosphere of a home recording studio. The soulful sound and underplayed emotions both respond to the epidemic of urban violence (both physical and emotional) without posturing, preaching or pedantry. The goings on in Washington aren't the point of this video in the least, but the extended-family vibe of this video makes the irony of a bunch of politicians squabbling over hip-hop's effect on urban violence pretty much inescapable. reviews continued

EUGENIUS "Blue Above The Rooftops" (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Charisma is not Eugene Kelly's middle name, but he and his band Eugeniuss seem to make their lack of energy in "Blue Above The Rooftops" work for them. Some members of Eugeniuss go so far as to crash on couches to strum their guitars lazily. The star of the video is the song itself, a great big sugary pop song that harks back to an era of great pop and not a trend. As for the video, just imagine a Teenage Fanclub clip, but without so many clever winks at the camera. (SC)

WILLIE NELSON "Afraid" (Justice, P.O. Box 980396, Houston, TX 77098/713-520-6669)—Yes, Willie Nelson. Suffice it to say there are few performers in the world that handle a standard as well as Willie and "Afraid" from his timeless new CD Moonlight Becomes You is proof of that. Don't be surprised if Nelson gets welcomed by a younger crowd the way Tony Bennett was last year. (SC)

ANGELIQUE KIDJO "Agolo" (Mango c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/212-995-7800)—This fiery African vocalist recorded her latest LP Aye at Paisley Park studios. That fact should give you some hint as to how downright American "Agolo" sounds. If it weren't for the fact that she sings in her native tongue (Fon) "Agolo" would sound just like the best that US pop/dance has to offer. The rhythms are bright, with fewer of those slick impersonal textures that weigh down the majority of radio dance tracks. As for the video, "Agolo" is an eyeful, worth every penny and every hour of meticulous computer programming that went into making this golden and ornate clip. (SC)

DIE MONSTER DIE "Swallowed" (Roadrunner, 225 Lafayette St., Ste. 407, New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—What makes "Swallowed" such an effective video is its ability to not only heighten the visual approximation of Die Monster Die's music itself, but to draw the viewer further into the band's dark and biting character. Driven by fierce guitar sweeps and the chirping vocals of Alice Cohen, a kaleidoscope effect frantically refracts and whirls images of the band and the odd characters that populate the clip, from the woman prodded in the mouth with a fork, to the tongue-wagging man in a diving suit. There's something slightly off-kilter going on here, and that's probably just how the band would want it. (CH) ▼

NEWSREEL

We'd like to take this opportunity to tell you about two of VMJ's recent additions to our list of reporters. Many of you are probably already familiar with Pure Rock TV, hosted and produced by Marc Synal. Airing on Time Warner Cable to over three million households in New York and New Jersey, Pure Rock TV features a variety of celebrity hosts and on-tour specials for all things hard rock and metal. On a more hip-hop tip is Cape Video Soul, produced by Joseph Bey Jr. Serving the Massachusetts Cape area for the past year, Joseph and co. will be picked up by ASC 1 Satellite (128*W) to reach areas in Canada, Mexico and other parts of the US. Feel free to contact us for more information about these and other shows.

GUEST DIALOGUE

Scott McCloud of Girls Against Boys, Touch And Go Recording Artist

What am I thinking about? I'm thinking about how I'd rather be in France, dammit. I'm thinking about thru traffic and I'm enjoying the pleasant glide of the Grand Caravan SE. I'm familiarizing myself with the music of Jawbox (my favorite flavor).

How is road coffee so fucking hot? You dump six creams in and it's still scalding. A new theory: it's not exactly water that they use, it's heavy water from select nuclear power plants (distributed solely to McDonalds and 7-11). It gets hotter than water, perhaps wetter than water.

Accident on the freeway. Cars spinning like tops. It's the tops. Top of the world, Ma! Look at me now. Doing 25 on the Snowworld Way—South, West, East Coast. Come back again, do it again, like Steely Dan. What does a guy have to do to get a drink around here? Ooh-la-la, tres bien. There was a guy on the side of the road. He'd crashed his pick-up...all his belongings spewed on the road. He stands there with a stupid expression on his face. I feel fine. It's a smoking day. What could be better?

We feel that everyone should be playing Venus Luxure No. 1 Baby all night, all day. Thank you. Merci mon chien. I'm hoping everybody's having a goddamn good time. Never played in Florida before. Is there sound or is it a silent movie? We'll be lucky if we get there by soundcheck...Lucky, lucky, lucky.

RECORD COMPANY

Marvin Gleicher, President, Smash/Island Records, Chicago, IL (312) 751-0020
The best records of 1994 will be NIN, SHEEP ON DRUGS and the Beastie Boys.

Todd Sievers, American Recordings, Burbank, CA (818) 973-4545
Everybody should be enjoying SWELL's import

EP Forget About Jesus by now. The album, titled 41, will be out April 12. This is the third chapter to Swell, an album about moving on and growth. The number 41 is the address of their old recording studio and home on Turk St. in San Francisco. It was the home of pSycho sPecific Records, their own record label and their first three albums. They shot all of their videos in that warehouse and created all the artwork for their releases there. It was the foundation and beginning of this amazing band. The time came for them to leave their home, who knows where it will lead them, but I'm sure we will find out through their next album. Please listen to 41 from intro to outro without interruption and take it as a whole; I think you will enjoy it as much as I do...THEE HYPNOTICS, JOHNNY CASH and MESSIAH are all releasing their next albums at the end of April. Feel free to contact me for more information about any of the above. Have a Swell day.

Charlie Amter, Twin City International, St. Paul, MN (612) 645-6361

Hello from the "indie" city. We still love college radio. Here's some proof: GREEN MAGNET SCHOOL's Revisionist is currently rewriting the history of rock. Sonic Bubblegum will eat Sub Pop's crumbs any day...especially tasty Boston crumbs. 77 LUSCIOUS BABES round out the CD EPs for radio this month with their latest on Big Money, Bionic. TRENCHMOUTH on tour with Jawbox. Go see them. Upcoming stuff from the TINDERSTICKS (Bar/None), DOLLFACE (Crackpot), GNEISSMAKER (Skenel), SWOB (Project A-Bomb), and a couple of 7" records from the Generator label. Play some Pussy! Feel free to call us up anytime.

Jon Grimson, Nat. Promotion Manager/Progressive Music, Warner Bros. Records, Nashville, TN (615) 320-7525

Tori Amos has personally asked Native American artist BILL MILLER to open for her on her upcoming U.S. tour! You will recall that Bill's critically-acclaimed Warner Bros. release The Red Road was released last fall, and many CMJ and folk stations fell in love with his unique blend of ethnic and contemporary music...In other related news, Bill is in Chicago filming a video of the song "Reservation Road." Bill Miller will also be one of the featured performers at the upcoming Public Radio Conference in San Antonio on April 10 as part of Warner Bros. and Philo/Rounder's co-presentation of a live taping of World Cafe...Expect strong response at radio and retail as more people have a chance to see Bill Miller's charismatic live performance during this tour! Suggested tracks from The Red Road are: "Reservation Road," "Trail Of Freedom," "Faith Of A Child" and the atmospheric instrumental "Dreams Of Wounded Knee." Please contact me for more info, press kits or re-service copies of The Red Road.

Edie Lundeen, Disco Queen a k a Alternative Promo, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-9111

Thanks to all of you fabulous stations that are playing the hot new alternative band BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME! The band is currently on the road, doing a tour which they booked all by themselves, and what a tour it is! They will be playing with great bands such as the Melvins, Lunachicks and For Love Not Lisa during their trek across America in their way-cool van. Be sure to check them out when they are in your town. Also, I will be very generous and put you on the guest list for any of their shows, so just give me a call. Be sure to read CMJ's review of the Beats The Hell Out Of Me record, which was in issue #368, February 21...Look for new stuff from GWAR and SKREW in your mail in the near future. Take care...

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

All you need in life is caffeine. Really. DIE MONSTER DIE are doing great—a big "thanks" to all of you who have taken this band under your wing. They'll tour through April, and we have cassettes and posters for giveaways. Interviews and tickets are easy to arrange too! You'll soon be getting a CD single for "Swallowed," with a bizarre cover of a very famous Lynyrd Skynyrd song...How could a side-project from members of SEPULTURA and Fudge Tunnel not be great? NAILBOMB—live it...The MOON SEVEN TIMES 7=49 is on its way to radio-types right now. Can you say "luscious?"...Coming soon: BLACK TRAIN JACK.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (212) 830-2144

I have a cold and it won't go away. It's really annoying when everyone complains about where they live. Everyone in the Northeast is constantly complaining about all the snow and how fucking cold it is. People in California complain about the earthquakes and mudslides and fires and droughts. People in the South complain about the heat (but it's dry and not humid, right? Sure). People in the middle of the country complain about tornadoes and cold weather and floods and droughts and bands bypassing their town. Is anyone ever content with where they choose to make their home? I shall thrust my opinion on you whether you like it or not...I like the snow and the cold weather and I will continue to live in climates like this. I hate the summertime heat and humidity and sunshine, but I can tolerate the brief change for three months. Bring on the brisk air! Music you ask? SARAH McLACHLAN Fumbling Towards Ecstasy. Play it. CHAPTERHOUSE Blood Music and the Global Communication ambient version of the album. Play it. CRASH TEST DUMMIES God Shuffled His Feet. Mmm...People dig it. Do you? STICK Heavy Bag. Play it. Coming soon to a mailbox near you in April: THE CHURCH. In May: THIS PICTURE, CRANES and the FAMILY CAT. In June: Airheads soundtrack. In July: SPIRITUALIZED. Seeyalterbye.

Gary Jay/Amy Nathanson/Loretta Windas, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ (800) 275-0091

Little known facts about Old Bridge, NJ: 5. Generally, folks like Smashing Pumpkins' "Mayonnaise" much better than "Disarm" or

"Today." 4. We think this whole "Ice" thing is a bad marketing scheme...beer is beer. 3. The best selling varieties are ribbed, followed by ultra-thin (a most like wearing nothing at all) and the mint flavored kind. 2. Liquor stores close at 10:00 p.m. (but if you slip the guy a 10-spot, he'll let you grab a quick six after hours). 1. There is no actual bridge...Spent most of the weekend listening to: new Surgery, Jawbox, Mark Lanegan, KMFDM's Angst, Minor Threat's Complete Discography, Picasso Trigger, Prong, Eve's Plum and Big Black's Songs About Fucking... Watched my alma mater Rider College win the NIEC tournament and head to the NCAA basketball dance, I got wood...Meanwhile, back in Gotham City, we've got new records from: MATERIAL ISSUE, THAT PETROL EMOTION, BUKIMI 3, TEXAS, C.C. ADCOCK (blues is blood), THE VELDT and EAT, and we're looking forward to bringing you new stuff from HOPE FACTORY, the FENWICKS, Brace Yourself!, a cool tribute to Otis Blackwell (who's that? You're showing your age, kids), TOUCH OF OLIVER and SMART BROWN HANDBAG before the summer! Pass the dutchie 'round the left hand side, and don't be strangers.

Bcomshakalaka! Brand spankin' new stuff from Caroline! Shhh...definitely laid back and beautiful the debut of BARK PSYCHOSIS. Their record Hex will show you why people are calling them "the next big thing out of England."... Also, the first new release from Astralwerks this year hits your desk this week. Barramundi—An Introduction To A Cooler World, featuring JAYDEE and TRANSFORMER 2, is one that will let your mind expand and put you in a different world...Next up, X Marks The Spot is a benefit record which is going to help create political and social awareness for the first free election in South Africa. It features such great artists as GEOFFREY ORYEMA, PAUL SIMON, PETER GABRIEL and UB40...As we look into our Magic 8 ball we see the following tunes coming your way soon: PEACH Siesta, SEEFEEEL Quique, ADRIAN BELEW Here and FUDGE Southside Speedway...Once again we wanted to remind you about our newsletter coming your way. We want you to be involved with it, so we are asking you to write down what you are digging or what's going on at your station. Send it to Caroline Records, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001...A message from Chuck, "Keep playing the hits!"

Adam J. Pollock, Polygram Label Group, New York, NY (212) 260-3942

10 a.m. Monday morning—just getting into the first cappuccino. Tip to New Yorkers, the Croissant Shop on 50th & B'way makes pretty good ones these days, although midtown is still in the dark ages coffee-wise. Great 25-cent movies though...First thing I put on the CD player this week is the new album from cajun guitar picker C.C. ADCOCK, it hits the stores and college radio this Tuesday—which is two weeks ago now, so if you need one call me. Great soul food blues, makes me want a beer and bucket of wings. So the "In The Name Of The Father" track (from the soundtrack of the same name) goes out to radio on the 14th, there's lots of great stuff on this album, hope you radio-types are playing at least one track. The MEAT PUPPETS are off in Europe with Soul Asylum and Nirvana (tip to Kurt—next time just use the Do Not Disturb sign). Look for a 10" of B-sides in a few weeks, the boys will be back in the USA for a tour in April. New music in April—FRET-BLANKET, PAUL WELLER, STAKKA BO and CONSOLIDATED. Now on tour—MANTISSA and the INDIANS, so go see 'em.

Will Simon and Scott Perry, Thirsty Ear/Beggars Banquet Records, New York, NY (212) 889-9595

It's right around the corner. The smell of fresh cut grass, the sound of firecrackers thrown in the stands and brawls in the right field bleachers. I'm talking about the baseball season and '94 should be pretty nutty. So please excuse the baseballisms. Leading off on everyone's lineup cards should be SMALL BALL PAUL. This band from St. Louis pounds out 10 tracks for both power and average on their first full-length entitled You In Flames. SBP will tour the Southeast with Seam and will be playing at SXSW. Playing with them in Austin will be QUEEN SARAH SATURDAY, who will then hit the base path in Texas and the Midwest. Meanwhile RADIAL SPANGLER will also rock out in Austin and then tour up through the Midwest. On the mound, SUNDIAL throws a psyche-out pitch with Libertine a spaced-out wah-wah-packed, guitar freak out. A few stations will be pleased this week to find in their mailboxes the HAIR & SKIN TRADING CO. import "Loa" 12" (on clear vinyl). Hopefully ROLLERSKATE SKINNY is still batting cleanup with Shoulder Voices. They should be touring in the spring. Future Beggars All-Stars include the CHARLATANS, DYLAN, RIPE and the BLUE AEROPLANES. Give Scott or myself a call for info, guest lists or rotisserie tips. Will's extra-base hits: Refrigerator, I Like Walt comp, and the Scooter in the Hall.

Todd Heinz, Nettwerk Records, New York, NY (212) 979-0745

Hi. Sometime in the middle of last month I celebrated my two-year anniversary of promoting records to college radio. I just want to say that the experience has been the most spiritually fulfilling and life-enriching thing I have ever done. I feel the people I have met in the college radio field are the some of the most vital and exciting folk alive in the world today. I love you all. Anyway, keep your eyes open for a CD5 from PAPA BRITTLE. All you RPMers take note: there are a bunch of Jack

Rosie V. Estrada, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

Greetings!...Thanks to each station who has made my life easier, by sending that little questionnaire back to me (if you haven't yet, please do so!). Aside from all those little two-pointers and above that we continue to have in sunny San Fernando Valley, we're hanging strong and so are the DEAD MILKMEN, who have been packing the house from the West to East Coast. These fellas are so energetic on stage, that you can't help but join in and rock along with them...Let's feel good about helping out our planet Earth, and support the Alternative NRG record, which contains a little something for everyone!...Another happening band which won't let you down is ELEVEN, who are currently touring with Candlebox, so be a trend-setter and call us for dates tix and interviews! (If you passed this album up before, give your listeners a chance to check it out, do them a favor and play it!) Before I go though, make sure to review the BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA album and the new Freedom record by YOTHU YINDI, which you should have by now.

John Di Maio/Brett Greene, Radioactive Records, New York, NY (212) 489-4820

You've just received the first new music in two years from LIVE. This special 10" single "Selling the Drama" is a limited edition for college radio only. Both we and the band remember your tremendous support for the debut Mental Jewelry, and as a thank you, you'll get the new single two weeks before the rest of the planet. CD singles to follow. The full CD Throwing Copper is yours April 10. Thanks for the good words on ANGELFISH! We're glad to hear many of you are dipping into some album cuts, outside of the single "Heartbreak To Hate." The cavalcade of stupid flyers will continue... collect 'em all.

Dominic Hollman, Milan Entertainment, New York, NY (212) 782-1279

Are you playing the DROVERS yet? If you're in the Midwest, you already know what I'm talking about. To everyone else (in case you don't know), they're featured on the Blink soundtrack. And chances are they'll be in your town soon, as they bring their Celtic-tinged brand of rock on tour constantly...Alternative, you say you play alternative?—well here's the real alternative: Gregorian chants. Heavenly Peace is Milan's second album of the chants which originated in the 5th and 6th century (talk about staying power!), and are still alive today. These chants are the basis for all Western music. If it weren't for the Gregorian chants, where would Pearl Jam be today?...

Attention David Lynch fans—the stirring soundtrack to The Elephant Man is now available for the first time on CD. This was Mr. Lynch's first major film, and the score was composed by JOHN MORRIS (also known for his work with Mel Brooks). Not to be missed...Hot on the heels of last year's soundtrack, and just in time for this year's home video release, comes More Songs And Music From Gettysburg. This volume contains some of the most popular songs of the era (the Civil War era, for those uninitiated)...

Other upcoming Milan soundtracks include Sirens, Clean Slate and Raise The Red Lantern. For more information on any of these releases, please do not hesitate to call.

RETAIL

Dale Johnson, Retail Promotions, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

Why, oh why, is 1994 the year of the great intern famine. Food for thought...Anyways, despite the fact that there are very few free laborers around here, I managed to finish my FAILURE mailings with only a little insomnia and exhaustion. Fondest memory: Catchin' the new 90210 and Melrose episodes on Wednesday night, all the while rolling Failure posters with help from Slash radio pixie Kerry Murphy, Dave and Chuck from the Want Adds, and all around helpful guy, Scumking. Say goodbye to Sidney, Matt. So now that we spent all that time rollin' the damn things, put them up already! Oh yeah, heap lots o' in-store play on the Magnified CD too—even if it does have that annoying-as-hell gold stamp on it that says "For Promotional Use Only"—whatever happened to drillin' holes in the thing? I won't demand it back—I promise. Things to shout about: GRANT LEE BUFFALO are opening six dates for Pearl Jam in the Midwest, and L7 are finishing up their next slab, tentatively titled Hungry For Stink. Rock on, one and all! Oh yeah. We need interns. Call. Now.

VIDEO

Sheri Sinclair & Scott Pastorell, Energy Records, New York, NY (800) 235-5678

Well, hello! Thanks to those who are airing the new video from SOULS AT ZERO, "Grey World." It's picking up more and more programmers every week. Don't be the last to realize this video kicks ass. You made it top 10. Thanks again...In other Energy news, PRO-PAIN have completed their European tour and are home gearing up to record the much-anticipated The Truth Hurts. Look for a summer release on this one!...Our newest edition to the Energy family is LARVA. Larva are currently putting the finishing touches on their debut LP, Waiting For Daybreak. Keep an eye out for this one, coming at 'cha soon! Call us if you need anything. 'Til next time...XOXO

Amy Caldwell, Music Director, WARP, Potsdam, NY (315) 267-2511

Do you ever feel old? Well two weeks ago I did. I decided to travel to some real cities. I ended up in Washington, DC, to visit a friend (Hi Brandon!). Along the way I tuned in to some great radio stations. I gave a big thumbs up to WSUC, Cortland; WCLH, Wilkes-Barre; WSYC, Shippensburg. They kept me entertained on my ride. DC made me feel young again, I even ended up piercing my tongue (so, Adam (Sub Pop), are you getting yours done?), and getting a tattoo. I can't express enough thanks to Adam and Suzy at Sub Pop for working me into the SPINANES/RED RED MEAT show in Montreal. The show was great and Rebecca and Scott and Glen were very cool people. You know what? The In The Name Of The Father soundtrack has a few killer cuts (yes, I know we already know this!). My DJs love GREEN APPLE QUICK STEP. Next month we have the MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES at Potsdam (OK, who at Mercury is their promotions rep, I thought I might have heard from them by now?). Well, at this point in time, I have absolutely no clue where I am going with this. If anyone has any suggestions, give me a call. Boy is my brain warped.

under the direction of our Radio/Television curriculum. Our format will be half urban and half alternative videos, but as I said, we don't have any yet. Feel free to call me at 315-866-0300 ext. 238 between noon and 2 p.m. Monday-Friday. Or send videos to: HCTV, 100 Reservoir Road, Herkimer, NY 13350, Attn: Mike Schultz. I look forward to hearing from you so we can make this show a reality.

Christopher Joy, ex-Music Director, KBVR, Corvallis, OR (503) 737-3640

Oregon has one of those weird quarter systems, so I'll be graduating soon (March 17 is my last day of finals, forever). First of all, Jennifer Gore will be taking over my job officially the first week of April (after spring break). She's been helping me review for awhile and knows the ropes pretty well. If anyone harasses her though, I will personally call you up and make your life a living hell. It'd make my life much more enjoyable to harass some of the people who have called to bug me about their shitty music the past year and a half. Second, a big 'fuck you' to all the people who called up and were all hype for music that sucked. Don't tell me "you're gonna love this" when you haven't even met me and don't really know what I like. Third, 'fuck you' to CMJ also for ripping off our station manager monetarily with your stupid convention. Hope to see you in court on that one, jerks. Finally, there are too many people to thank for making my job enjoyable. Here are a brief few: Sam (Projekt), Kate (Silent), Jonathan (Virus), Tim (C/Z), Jonathan (Elemental), Charles/Brian (Soleilmoon), Bob/Mark (Triage), Todd (American), Leslie (Imago), Dave (Want Ads), Paul/Chuck (Immortal) and too damn many more. It's probably good that your getting rid of a fascist like me in college radio.

Myron Meyer, Secular Music Director, KCFS, Sioux Falls, SD (605) 331-6691

First, incredible apologies for last semester. I returned a grand total of zero phone calls and pissed off a lot of people. This semester will be different. There are three lines of communication: 1. Call me in the office Monday, Thursday or Friday from 1-3 Central time. Leave a message on the machine Tuesday or Wednesday and it will be returned within 36 hours. Leave a message with anyone else at your own risk. (I have lost more messages that way.) The number's above. 2. Faxes can be sent to the President's office at 605-331-6615. They will get to me. 3. E-mail me at Myron.Meyer@thecoo.edu. Internet is up and running at SFC (woo-woo). God bless Les Paul and the Information Superhighway...In other news, cool stuff around here can be found with: NEIL IHDE's new 7", "I Love Deb (And I'm Gonna Marry Her)," BILL AND SHANE Who Rules?, the new one from DECKER, "Today I Sang Something," Barbie Goes To Hell from POPPINGAI and the 7" "Karavististoltenow" from SUSANDY. Until next time, I need a girlfriend.

Tarkus Kayoa-Bonaqeraj, Music Director, KEOL, La Grande, OR (503) 962-3397

Well, here we go again with the annual BMI College Radio Logging System. It's great that playlists sent in can directly affect a musician's royalties. The only problem with the way that it's done is the fact that most radio stations are on weekly programming schedules and BMI only accepts logs for a random three day period. In our case, they'll miss two killer blues shows, a great third world program and a handful of locals-only spotlights. These are the artists who could really use the shot in the arm. BMI should have lots of fun doling out the cash from my show, as occasionally I'll spin old scratched rekkids by the HAMPTON GREASE BAND, NEW TWEEDY BROS., TWINK, ULTIMATE SPINACH, GURU GURU and TRIPSICHORD MUSIC BOX...Somebody quick sign up CHURN from Portland, OR. Imagine OPHELIAS, GENTLE GIANT, CHOTCHKE, PHISH and MONKS OF DOOM and you'll get the picture...I should say that one cool thing about sending in a Dialogue letter to CMJ is that I don't have to fear some cutting editorial rebuttal, unlike sending in a letter to—let's say—Thrasher magazine's mail drop. (Yeah, right Tark. Get a life, bud. T-ed.) Oh, I love the way the answering machine girl says "thank you" when you call CMJ's report line.

Brent Wilcox, Producer of Night Land, KOTR, Cambria, CA, and WorldWind and Cryptomusicology, KCBX, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 927-1953

Start with two words: LATIN PLAYBOYS! Right now I'm enjoying BRIAN DEWAN, the Hendrix of the electric zither. Otherwise, MEAT PUPPETS still hot, and RICHARD THOMPSON of course. New stuff from THAT PETROL EMOTION, SLOWDIVE, GONE and DOWNY MILDEW. Still pumping BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE and RISE ROBOTS RISE. Hmm...checkin' the lists...OYSTERS, THE LEVELLERS, LUNA and the GLEE CLUB...Great to see BLIND MR. JONES domestically! M.I.R.V. is weird and cool. I like the surf sludge of the ULTRAS, and can't write a Dialogue without the MEKONS. TORI AMOS goes head to head with KATE BUSH, but SARAH McLACHLAN and LOREENA MCKENITT are sneaking up on them both (OCTOBER PROJECT waits for a rematch). Looking forward to SONIC YOUTH and NINE INCH NAILS, but PRAXIS will keep listeners awake until then! Still love SEALAND POETS, and have rediscovered NO SAFETY. ROLLERSKATE SKINNY and SUNDIAL have their moments...MEDICINE and THERAPY? make a nice couple...BABBLE and ONE DOVE will stick around longer than ENIGMA (outmatched by a dozen ambient bands since his first album)...A quick international tour: MATERIAL, OUMOU SANGARE, TARIKA SAMMY, KHALED, VÄRTINÄ, AFRICAN HEAD CHARGE, DUB SYNDICATE, AISHA KANDISHA, COURT MUSICIANS. In weirder territory—the ORB, AUTECHRE, SHINKUKU THIEF, new/old FRIPP & ENO, HELDON and RICHARD PINHAS...FRED FRITH, CHARLES HAYWARD and a longtime fave of mine, HECTOR ZAZOU's debut band, ZNR. New mailing address: 2450 Main St., Ste. 1554, Cambria, CA 93428. Fax me at (805) 927-0384, email me at brent.wilcox@genie.geis.com. Send me music!

Michael Falkenberg, Music Director, WMUH, Allentown, PA (610) 821-3239

Greetings from WMUH in fabulous Allentown, PA. Hi, my name's Michael Falkenberg and I'll be your new MD/liar at least for this semester. The only reason that I'm annoying you with these stupid words that don't really matter one way or another to most of you is to announce our (MUH's) bold step into the exciting information age of the 1990s. We twisted arms and robbed banks and somehow ended up with a fax machine. The magic code is (610) 821-3539 so y'all can send us all the lies you can possibly cram in a sheet of paper. Hell, we might even believe what you tell us. Now it's time to tell you how the new PAVEMENT record and then the new LUNA record saved the month of February for me. Of course, that's what you thought too, being the all-seeing, all-knowing alternative person that you undoubtedly are, reading some loser's Dialogue in the CMJ ghetto. So since you are a totally hip alternative mover and shaker, why don't you own the newest SEAM record? Why didn't you play it when you got it? What's your problem? You should be happy you have Touch And Go service. Also, thanks to Dejadisc for making my week. Now that I've wasted your time, give me a call. I really am a nice southern boy who likes to talk about music with like-minded folks, not the bitter and jaded Gerard Cosloy wanna-be that I must seem like.

Brett Sokol, Staff Liaison, WRUW, Cleveland, OH (216) 368-2207

There are so few books written on the topic of free-form radio, you'd have to conclude that the only thing financially riskier than operating a free-form station is writing about it. All the more reason to laud the publication of Radiotexte, a swell new collection on the art of transmission. From Trotsky and Adorno to creeping playlists, Dutch punks and the proper care and feeding of an airstaff, things stay just the right side of weighty. Write the publisher at: Semiotexte, 55 S. 11th St., Brooklyn, NY 11211-0568...On the crucial short list: Kent, OH's FUZZHEAD have a new CD out that bridges the gap between P-FUNK and the DEAD C in a way last year's Forced Exposure LP only hinted at. I convinced guitarist Bill to mail out a handful of promos to those of you I know well—the rest should wing a $13 check to: Bill Weita, P.O. Box 257, Kent, OH 44240. Yours truly is still flogging the VILE CHERUBS CD on White Heap Records, featuring several cats you might know better from their Dischord D.C. jazz outfits. Program guides, not just playlists, to our bizness office: P.O. Box 11967, Albuquerque, NM 87192-0967. Sending $10 works too.

Jen Matson, Music Director, WHRB, Cambridge, MA (617) 496-4936

My voice mail system continues to be inundated with phone calls while I sit quietly at the station during my office hours (Tuesdays, 10 a.m.-1 p.m.) opening mail or playing Tetris on my new laptop computer/toy. Maybe I should clarify: the above-listed number is for voice mail only; the number listed under our station heading in the Radio Reports section (617-495-4818) is the station number. Please call the station number during my office hours or whenever you need to speak to a real, live human being. That said, the scads of mail everyone has been sending us are being duly sorted and processed, giving us new items for our playlist every week. While GUIDED BY VOICES may not yet be dominating our charts, I'm sure they will soon with the release of their new album sometime next month. Until then, we're content to play any of a multitude of tracks from the four recent GBV releases: three singles and one CD. It's nice to see that one of the song snippets from the Propeller album show up as a full-fledged song, "Damn Good Mr. Jam" (a k a "...anything for free..."), on the "Static Airplane Jive" single. GOD IS MY CO-PILOT similarly live on in a multitude of releases (as they always have); the number of rock WHRBies at the GIMCP show this month may even exceed those present at THE EX AND TOM CORA show last month. Ah yes, here the avant-garde does rule supreme...

Wesley Brown, Fac/Adv, WGAJ, Deerfield, MA (413) 773-8412

It's that time of year again. WGAJ has appointed a new team of music directors for 1994-95. Kristen DeAmicis is now at the controls and rapidly gaining altitude. Jesse Vega-Frey has signed on as assistant MD, along with Mo (the Mortician) Kohtani for the loud stuff. Look for their reports in your stratosphere soon...I'd like to extend a special thanks to Nora Zuckerman who has been guiding our music charts as MD for the past two years. During this time, Nora has helped to establish WGAJ as a beacon of the alternative music scene in Western Massachusetts. Thanks Nora, and enjoy your retirement...Many thanks to everyone who helps to keep our mailbox filled with cool music (P.O. Box 248, Deerfield, MA 01342). As soon as Kristen has set her regular office hours, we'll let you know. Wave on!

Amacker Bullwinkle, Program Director, KFJC, Los Altos Hills, CA (415) 949-7260

KFJC is broadcasting via satellite from the South By Southwest Music Conference in Austin, TX, March 17, 18 and 19. Not only are we sending the signal out, but we are offering it to any college station who would like to broadcast it—either live or tape delay! Thursday night's Rounder Records showcase will feature MARCIA BALL, the CACTUS BROTHERS, the HELLECASTERS and JUNIOR BROWN. Friday's Hightone Records showcase will display the talents of DAVE ALVIN, GARY STEWART, the

LOVED ONES and the ever-charming ROSIE FLORES, not to mention (OK, so we are) that the MC is the ir-REVEREND BILLY C. WIRTZ. Saturday night, we'll send up the sounds of the SILOS, COTTON MATHER, TOAD THE WET SPROCKET and GIANT SAND. We will also be airing interviews with such acts as BIG SANDY AND THE FLY-RITES, SIR DOUGLAS QUINTET, the OYSTERBAND, MONTE WARDEN, OMAR AND THE HOWLERS, the BAD LIVERS, ERIC'S TRIP, ROGER MANNING, the WOGGLES, TEXAS INSTRUMENTS, LUCINDA WILLIAMS, KELLY WILLIS, CONCUSSION ENSEMBLE, PHIL ALVIN, SPORE, CHUCK PROPHET, KIM WILSON, and LOU ANN BARTON. So far, KALX, KUSF, KBVR, KGNU, KPFT, WDCR, WEOS, WMUH, WWEC, CFCR, CRJC, WEMU, WFDU, WRBU, WRPI are all set to carry it. If you are interested in carrying this for free just call me at (415) 424-1442, or Brian Potter at the numbers above.

Jeannine Caesar, Music Director, WSJR, Philadelphia, PA (610) 660-1082

Yes, WSJR is back into the swing of things and reporting in CMJ again. Now you may be thinking, "Who the hell is this?" Well... just because we're not as big as KROQ or WDRE doesn't mean we're not good! Actually, quite the opposite. The winter break was one that didn't want to end, but it did, and we are anxious to start up again with a new staff. New blood is always a good thing, especially when it takes one woman to fill the shoes of two male music directors (Jeff, Tim, it's a joke!). We even have an official "format" now. Maybe you can guess what it is. I'll give you some hints: it's a very large genre; it starts with the letter A; it includes bands like PEARL JAM, the RAMONES, SWERVEDRIVER, the BREEDERS, etc. I think you can figure it out. We really have our shit together (thank you dictator Sean and crew). And I just know that all of those representatives from various record companies are just dying to call up this new music director and see what she's like. I can just feel it. If you are one of these people, do not hesitate to call. Until next time, later.

Jen Lucas, Music Director, WRBC, Lewiston, ME (207) 777-7532

Heya all you CMJ readers. My name is Jennifer J. Lucas and I'm the new music director of WRBC, Radio Bates College, 91.5 FM in Lewiston, ME! My office hours are Monday and Thursday 4-6 p.m. and Tuesday 3-5 p.m. You can call me for whatever you deem important, I'm sure I'll need the break. Our office number is 207-777-7532. If I'm too enthralled in a new CD single or 7" to get the phone, please leave a message and I promise to get back to you ASAP. We just bought some new CD shelving and we'd love to fill it up, so send a plenty of discs for guaranteed airplay. To give you some idea of my favorites, how about STING, MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES, VIOLENT FEMMES, SINEAD O'CONNOR, TORI AMOS, BELLY and NEIL DIAMOND... not necessarily in that order. The rest of WRBC is especially open-minded, so don't think that we actually play Neil, that's just my own sickness. Just thought I'd introduce myself to everyone out there. Peace.

Joseph Ghirmay, Reggae Music Director, WXJM, Harrisonburg, VA (703) 564-4688

Reggae and dancehall is luring in more and more listeners at JMU where I do my radio show, and at home, DC, where I DJ at two clubs—the Ritz night club and the Urb night club. Send me all of your promotional records and they will get aired from the radio station and mixed at the clubs. I will send you a playlist every week to keep you informed. Also, send me catalogs for records as well as merchandise. Need more vinyl, especially new BUJU, SHABBA and BOUNTY KILLER. I'm using CD's and tapes, because I cannot find the new music around the area. Mix tapes upon request.

CMJ MUSIC MARATHON SEEKS ARTISTS

The CMJ Music Marathon is accepting applications for bands wishing to play this year's convention. Applications can be obtained by calling CMJ at (516) 466-6000. The deadline for submission is July 1, 1994, for domestic artists and June 15, 1994, for international artists.

OLYMPIA GOES YO YO

Yo Yo Recordings is sponsoring a five-day music festival on July 12-16. The event will be held in Olympia, Washington, at the Capitol Theater. There will be one show on Tuesday and two shows per day for the remaining days. Among the 40 bands scheduled to perform are the Spinanes, Lync, Lois, Carp, Heavens To Betsy, Beck, god-headsilo, Some Velvet Side-walk, Unwound, Mary Lou Lord, Cub, Kicking Giant, Excuse 17, Muckilteo Fairies, Crayon, Crabs, Long Hind Legs, Blood Thirsty Butchers and Cop Ass Grinders. The cost of a full four day pass is $40, and checks should be made out to Yo Yo Recordings. Registrants should also send a photo of themselves (no larger than 2" x 2"). To register or receive more info, write to Yo Yo Recordings, P.O. Box 10081, Olympia, WA 98502.

RHINO GOES TO THE MOVIES

Rhino Records has announced the formation of Rhino Films. The company is already involved with many projects, one of which is working with author Hunter S. Thompson to produce a TV series. Rhino Films, in association with producers Roberta Friedman and Steven Reich, has also acquired the rights to the best-selling techno thriller The Cuckoo's Egg, a true story of counterculture astrophysicist Cliff Stoll, who became an unlikely American hero when he almost single-handedly broke up a KGB computer spy ring.

OOPS!

In the Orchids review which ran in NMR #370, we mistakenly listed the wrong phone number for Widely Distributed. The label can be reached at (312) 465-2558.

RECORD NEWS

Consolidated has signed with London. The band will release a new album in June and will continue to work with Jack Dangers (Meat Beat Manifesto)...Singer Dave Baker has left Mercury Rev. Guitarist Jonathan Donahue will take over the role as lead vocalist...Chicago-based Wax Trax! Records has emerged from bankruptcy after filing Chapter 11 on November 19, 1992. The emergence from bankruptcy is due in part to a large cash infusion from TVT Records. The label is currently planning to release The Black Box, a retrospective showcasing the best of Wax Trax's 13-year history...San Francisco denizen Jonah Sharp, who records under the name of Space-time Continuum, is currently working on a debut solo album for Astralwerks-Caroline...Ron Goudie, former A&R executive at Enigma Records and Restless Records, has announced the launch of a new label called Sector 2 Records. The label will be headed by Goudie and based in Houston...Steve Wynn has signed with Mute Records and will release his first solo album, Flourescent, on March 29. The album includes contributions from Howe Gelb of Giant Sand, John Wesley Harding and Victoria Williams.
