BILL LASWELL:

RAW MATERIAL

...conversing with producer/bassist Bill Laswell, a word that keeps cropping up is "work." He is certainly busy enough, with at least a half-dozen releases currently on the market and more on the way; but since everything he does is of such a high musical quality, one can't help but think that he might be using the word's other meaning, in the sense of art. Since the late '80s, Laswell has been expanding his musical approach, going beyond the limited confines of record production or musical composition, employing a loose collective of musicians in constantly evolving combinations and settings, in much the same way as a sculptor uses varying techniques and colors to create different textures and effects.

Laswell uses a broad range of musical personalities on his records, and we wondered if his music is often dissected by interviewers asking who plays on what, going down the list of names on the album jackets. "Yeah, a lot, all the time," he says. "People are obsessed with understanding, and I'm trying to kinda disconnect the brain and move out of that area. Everybody wants to know everything, and I really can't even remember most of it. I think it's just the sound—you experience it, and you either relate to it, or you don't. Or maybe you learn to. But breaking it down into the kind of old way of understanding, the process, the format, and the result. Even calling it music is dated, I think. It's something else. It needs no description, or practically no discussion."

For a man with a battery of boutique labels, a veritable army of musicians and a seemingly endless stream of ideas, the future holds a myriad array of releases and planned projects. In addition to recent releases from Material and Praxis on Laswell's two boutique labels, Axiom and Subharmonic, respectively, Rykodisc plans to release the first five recordings from the Black Arc imprint, another of Laswell's labels. These include albums by Third Eye and O.G. Funk, as well as Zillatron, a wild futurist junkfest with Bootsy Collins, and an album by the Buddy Miles Express, featuring the famed ex-Jimi Hendrix drummer. Also, the Japanese label DIW has released Live From Soundscape, a 1981 recording of a live free-jazz improvisation performance featuring guitarist Fred Frith and Material co-founder Michael Beinhorn. There are also several projects in the holding tank, including several albums on Laswell's own Axiom label.

Laswell elaborates: "The next [Axiom] release is by a Chinese singer, who's also a writer, named Liu Sola. It's called Blues In The East, and it's based on two really ancient Chinese fables, which are kind of tragic stories, which she related to a sort of blues-oriented feeling. So she created this music, which was written based around Chinese classic and folkloric music and opera singing, and juxtaposed it with blues: James Blood Ulmer, Amina Meyers, Jerome Bailey, Fernando Saunders were the basic blues band. Then there's Hakim Bey's T.A.Z., done as a record. And the third is a double CD that is not even close to being realized—what I would call an ambient translation of the entire [Axiom] catalog, put into two hours of music. As one piece of music. Which is really difficult to imagine, but it's gonna happen somehow. And the fourth thing is, what we call the funk project. I have the two last things that Eddie Hazel recorded [Hazel was the vastly influential guitarist for George Clinton's Funkadelic/Parliament who died in 1992]. There's a lot of stuff with Bootsy Collins, Jerome Bailey, with George Clinton and Bernie Worrell. And that will be in a way a kind of tribute to that kind of music. Very psychedelic. I'm doing a project called Chaos Face, that's on Subharmonic. It's really sort of brutal, high-speed techno."

From there, the release schedule gets more tentative, but the ideas keep flowing. The Laswell universe is a fluid, ever-changing place, full of hypotheticals, possibles and maybes: It seems that for every one project that sees the light, there are at least three or four others that may or may not materialize. Looking into the future, Laswell relates, "There's plans to do more field recordings. In Australia, I'd like to do an Aboriginal record, and something in Mongolia. Those are what we want to do, but not necessarily planned. And there's the beginnings of a collaboration between William S. Burroughs and Ornette Coleman, but that hasn't really developed yet."

From techno to aboriginal, from ambient to speed metal, there's plenty of space left to explore within Bill Laswell's vast musical universe.

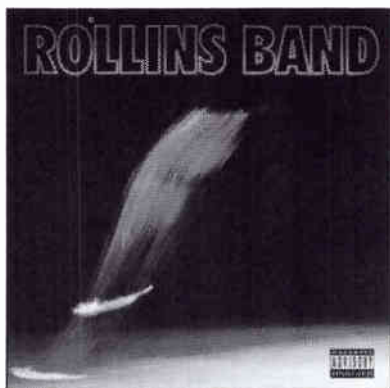

—James Lien

Essential New Music

ROLLINS BAND Weight (Imago, 152 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Even if you've already tagged Henry Rollins' burgeoning mass market exposure (and subsequent pop culture appeal) as the rock underground parlor discussion of the year, there is one thing that immediately strikes you about Weight: this record belongs to the Rollins Band. This is no idle comment; the band's onrushing tsunami of fusionary noise nearly overwhelms Henry, and that should tell you something. If Rollins, who at best is candid and engagingly confrontational and at worst belligerent and compulsively self-reliant, is not immediately the most compelling thing about one of his records, you know that the Rollins Band has achieved something pretty special. Of course Rollins, who has a preternatural affinity for Nietzsche's precept "That which does not kill me makes me stronger," rises to the challenge, but his lead-en raps and cathartic wails are less the issue than the rumbling grooves of the re-invigorated rhythm section

(featuring new bassist Melvin Gibbs) and Chris Haskett's brilliant guitar work, which has reached a new level with this record. The timing for Weight couldn't be better. Just when you think that you've heard it all before, that you've heard all the Rollins you need to hear, the Rollins Band comes up with something bigger, better and stronger than Henry himself. Heavy indeed: "Fool," "Shine," "Liar" and "Step Back."

—Scott Frampton

RODAN Rusty (1/4 Stick, c/o Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)—The latest monster from Louisville, KY, has four heads and eight hands, two voices (male and female) and stirs more emotions than our last Godzilla nightmare. Rodan received quite a bit of preliminary praise before its first album was even released, and Rusty's 42 minutes of music has no trouble living up to its advance hype. The album's six songs are long and draining, each one loaded with antagonistic intensities: soft guitar strums, melodies and whispers that develop slowly, finally emerging in an unrecognizable state of overwhelming noise and screams. The schism of soft and loud is present both from song to song as well as within songs, which range in time from just over two minutes to over 11 minutes. The dichotomy of dynamics binds the album together, making it nearly impossible to pull out individual songs, and forces the listener to hear the album as a whole. The thematic vibe of Rusty is summed up in "The Everyday World Of Bodies," which finishes with the disturbingly desperate screaming delivery of the reassuring words, "I will be there/I will be there/I swear!" We'll be there, on the edge of our seats.

SEEFEEEL Quique (Too Pure/Astralwerks, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)

—For the most part, techno and indie-rock are still mutually exclusive art forms, but with the release of Quique, perhaps they won't stay separate entities for long. While it would be naive to think a single release would prompt Moby to start melding guitar grooves into his computerized constructions, or Pavement to lapse into ambient dub mid-song, Seefeel's first full-length album is a sonic revelation for the two genres. Blurring the distinctions between electronics and guitar rock even further than My Bloody Valentine did with its sample-rich Loveless album, Seefeel has managed to attract both a loyal indie-rock following and a devoted dance crowd in England with its unprecedented blend of guitar rock and ethereal dubscares.

Quique (pronounced "keek," which means "who," "what," "shit" or describes an electronic drum sound, depending on what language you're speaking) is made up primarily of guitar samples manipulated and transmogrified through the magic of computer chips. But while the composition of the record is impressive, it's the songs themselves that make Seefeel special. Distant and otherworldly, yet warm and somehow familiar, tracks like "Climactic Phase #3," "Filter Dub" and "Charlotte's Mouth" cast their spell with airy loops of sound that reverberate for aeons. There are only the barest traces of vocals, but with music this entrancing, lyrics only get in the way. Quique ass!

—Jon Wiederhorn

GIL SCOTT-HERON Spirits (TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)—Gil Scott-Heron's political themes and impassioned words are so inextricably tied to his work—perhaps more so than any recording artist in history—that it's easy to lose sight of his importance as a founding father of rap and skill as an interpreter of jazz, fusion, soul and the blues. Spirits, his first studio record in over 10 years, covers most of the musical and lyrical ground Scott-Heron has crossed in the last quarter century, with innovative and timely updates to both sound and text. Whether or not Scott-Heron is fully appreciated as one of the first "rappers," his new tracks "Message To The Messengers," "Don't Give Up" and "Work For Peace," with their smooth internal rhymes and keen commentary, stand out as some of the most truthful minglings of voice, bass and beats this decade. His dissection of black-on-black violence, responsibility versus finger pointing, and personal respect in general make Gil Scott-Heron more than the wise elder statesman of black music. One can sense his stylistic and topical relevance by hearing Gang Starr's "Mass Appeal" alongside "Message To The Messengers," or Arrested Development's "Tennessee" with "Don't Give Up." With Spirits, Scott-Heron has once again addressed the issues, and his timing and results have never been better. Broadcast these: The reworking of Coltrane's "Equinox" on the title track, "The Other Side (Parts II & III)" and the those mentioned above.

GROOVE COLLECTIVE Groove Collective (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—The 10-member Groove Collective grew out of New York City's pioneering Giant Step jazz dance club, touting a funky mix of flavorful bebop jazz and rhythmic hip-hop. The collective's mixture of horns and woodwinds (trumpet, trombone, sax, flute) with vibes, piano and exotic percussion makes Groove Collective more than just the latest acid-jazz record—it is a far reaching, pan-global hybrid of sounds and energy. Recorded live at a Giant Step event, the mostly-instrumental Groove Collective is a non-stop barrage of sounds, as quiet and reserved as a solo flute or as lively and dense as its multi-instrumental trade-offs, all powered by a hip-hop beat that provides the net for the improvisational jam. With nods to some of the jazz world's greatest legends (John Coltrane, Count Basie and Duke Ellington), the Groove Collective succeeds in amassing slinky groove after groove, showing off its members' talents as jazz artists and using its tight grooves to capture these imagination-stirring moments. Groove to: "Rahsaanasong," "Rentstrike," "Whatchugat" and "El' Golpe Avisá."

SURGERY Shimmer (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—On Shimmer, Surgery continues its quest to bridge the gap between noise-core and '70s boogie. While still a long way from appearing at Charlie Daniels' next Volunteer Jam, the '70s blues-rock influence that bubbled noticeably under the surface of last year's Trim, 9th Ward High Roller EP bursts through in a big way on Shimmer. The groove-laden chaos of "Nilla Waif" sounds like quintessential AmRep noise, but Scott Kleber's extended, bloozy guitar noodlings on "Off The A List" and "Gulf Coast Score" recall Ted Nugent or Lynyrd Skynyrd (honest), and on "Vibe Out," lead singer Sean McDonnell lifts the chorus from the Stones' "Live With Me." Thankfully, there's no need to worry about an attempted AOR sellout: Surgery's jaded, cynical outlook prevents it from becoming another tool for the Man, and there is plenty of noise for everyone on Shimmer. Check out the above tunes, as well as "No. 1 Pistol" and "Didn't I Know You Once," and catch the first glimpse of a better day when Lower East Side fringe-dwellers, classic-rock plebes and bikers will see eye to eye.

BONNIE RAITT Longing In Their Hearts (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—After some 15 years in the biz, Bonnie Raitt has earned quite a resume, and acquired quite a few trophies on her mantle, but all the success and acclaim hasn't altered her down-to-earth musical style one bit. To say that Longing In Their Hearts is just another great Bonnie Raitt album is to sell her short: With each sure-footed, classic album, she inches closer and closer to pure American treasure status, without any end in sight, and without any of the inconsistency or erratic career moves of so many of her counterparts such as Neil Young or Bob Dylan. This album features key musical contributions from Levon Helm (The Band), Benmont Tench (Tom Petty's Heartbreakers) and Ricky Fataar (the Rutles), and there are also a bunch of other musical friends who drop by to lend a helping hand or two, including Richard Thompson, the Memphis Horns and Mitchell Froom. Hats are also off to producer Don Was, who can adroitly produce such world music exotica as Khaled and Ofra Haza, only to bring it back home to his own roots and produce an album this down-to-earth and full of warmth. Also check out the album's last track, a searing duet between Bonnie on acoustic slide and blues harpmaster Charlie Musselwhite.
—James Lien

MAGNETIC FIELDS Holiday (Feel Good All Over), P.O. Box 148428, Chicago, IL 60614)—Stephin Merritt is a brilliant tunesmith first, a brilliant musician second, and an agent of depression third. Merritt, who is now the Magnetic Fields' studio incarnation more or less by himself, writes polished, multifaceted, glistening gems of pop songs—think Cole Porter, or the Brill Building masters—and arranges them for synthesizers that buzz, twang, hiss and whine in carefully balanced layers. There are occasional nods to the band's pop predecessors ("Deep Sea Diving Suit" borrows a Byrds riff, "Take Ecstasy With Me" choogles like a pastoral "Let The Music Play"), but Merritt's own hooks are every bit as haunting as his forebears'. Beneath the honeyed musical textures of Holiday, though, is a bleak, bitter and dryly witty lyrical world-view; in "Strange Powers," for example, Merritt croons about riding a ferris wheel "under more stars than there are prostitutes in Thailand." These songs are all about failed escapes, fruitless attempts to get away from heartbreak and banality, and they're all beautiful enough that you'll never notice unless you listen closely. Every moment of Holiday has some detail of its arrangement or Merritt's singing that's unexpected and perfect, from the overloaded synth crackle of "Torn Green Velvet Eyes" to the way the deadpan vocals of "The Trouble I've Been Looking For" play against the song's air-raid-siren keyboards. Also unipolar: "Desert Island," "In My Car" and "The Flowers She Sent And The Flowers She Said She Sent."

SAUSAGE Riddles Are Abound Tonight (Prawn Song, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., Ste. 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)

—Sausage: sliced and diced fatty chunks of weird particles with meaty grizzle that doesn't really taste like meat. Like fine wine, the three members of Sausage have improved with time in the five years since their last jam session. Talented bass player Les Claypool (of Primus fame) joins forces with old friends Todd Huth (guitar) and Jay Lane (drums) to perfect a state of unconsciousness normally unattainable during the waking hours. "Prelude To Fear" includes Claypool's familiar thwappin' bass with Lane slammin' the beat right along with him (almost impossible, but Jay is dazzling). Sit back and relax to the more than seven minutes of "Shattering Song," whose reckless riffs were recorded at a faint pianissimo level, and become stronger and louder, like a train gaining speed as it approaches. The fast pickin' "Toyz 1988" showcases Todd Huth's bluesy style; "Girls For Single Men" layers talking voices over one another in a dream-like sequence so real that you might wake up with tiny beads of water on your brow. It's just Sausage's way of penetrating your imagination. Experience the above, along with the title track, "Here's To The Man" and "Caution Should Be Used."

Bill Frisell This Land

BILL FRISELL This Land (Elektra Nonesuch, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

—As he did with last year's study of various American composers, Have A Little Faith, Bill Frisell has opted for a vintage photograph as the cover art for his latest record, This Land. The choice is fitting, since Frisell's compositions are bred of nostalgia and imply something exquisitely American, even at their most reckless. On "Resistor," it's not hard to imagine the chaos of the early motor car disrupting the stillness of the sleepest Depression-era town with random backfire and unskilled driving, as Frisell's guitar lines skirt around Joey Baron's frisky drumming. The kind of humor, abandon and lyricism that flows through these tracks also makes it easy to see why Frisell's next releases are of his scores for selected works of silent film master Buster Keaton. For Frisell, This Land is as standard as it gets, as if he were returning to the rules and structures he had already broken years before. Oddly enough, this doesn't result in the depreciation of one of the greatest sonic innovators of the guitar; rather it's the excavation of an expres-

HEAVENLY PEACE Chants And Liturgies From The Monasteries Of Europe (Milan, 1540 Broadway, 29th Fl., Ste. D, New York, NY 10036/212-782-1086) and BENELECTINE MONKS OF SANTO DOMINGO DE SILOS Chant (Angel, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Pope Gregory, the pontiff from 590 to 604, lent his name to the vocal chants of Europe's Benedictine Monks. Some 1400 years (!) later, following renewed interest in the musical form after Enigma's use of Gregorian chants on its hit "Sadness, Pt. 1," the evocative vocal sounds of these chants is gaining widespread attention, with several albums documenting the music's wonder by present day devotees. The Heavenly Peace album contains spiritual and stirring sounds from five of the most renowned monasteries in Europe, displaying the mesmerizing nature of this ageless music. Chant displays the spirit of the Spanish order of Benedictine Monks Of Santo Domingo de Silos, which has become a pop wonder in their native land. Throughout the ages, monks have devoted their lives to spirituality, and these two albums evoke the seclusion and resonance of these timeless chants and serene liturgies, which have stood the test of the ages and will continue to do so for countless centuries to come. —Andy Skibins

ETTA JAMES Mystery Lady: Songs Of Billie Holiday (Private Music, 9014 Melrose Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90069/310-859-9200)—Within the limited context of rock 'n' roll, Etta James has been around, literally, forever. In 1955, she scored her first hit at age 17 with "Dance With Me, Henry," and since then has earned a reputation as one of the most talented singers of the last 40 years. Etta's latest, Mystery Lady, is a tribute to one of her earliest heroes, Billie Holiday, and James sounds more committed to this set of material than she has to any in far too long. Although her reputation mostly rests on her blues/soul shouting, James cut a few sides for Chess in the mid-'60s that proved her perfectly capable of handling more delicate jazz/pop material. On Mystery Lady, Etta once again puts aside gospel-like testifying in favor of restraint and understatement. The tone throughout is reverent, but it becomes clear that while their lives shared some similarities—including the pressures of fame at a young age and heroin addiction—Holiday and James are very different singers. What their voices

COTTON MATHER Cotton Is King (Elm, P.O. Box 67C87, Los Angeles, CA 90067/310-550-1500)—With its full-length debut Cotton Is King, Austin-based, suit-donning quartet Cotton Mather has placed itself firmly in the midst of several better-known guitar-pop icons. The band skillfully blends the easy-flowing melodies of Squeeze with the tight harmonies and quick pacing of They Might Be Giants, then adds a rockier edge reminiscent of Elvis Costello's work with the Attractions. While songwriter/vocalist/guitarist Robert Harrison seems to enjoy indulging the other bandmembers with the straightforward, listenable pop often associated with these aforementioned bands, he often ends up creating songs that inventively, yet accessibly, waver from pop predictability. The staggering lyrical pac-ings of "April's Fool" sharply contrast the fluidity of the song's bassline and open-chord guitar strummings. "The New King Of Trash," the album's hardest track, gloriously conveys the band's sense of humor ("If you're looking for someone who'll never get fat/I can do that") and features a healthy dose of the shimmering, water-logged guitar leads found all over the album. Other shiny yet non-synthetic tracks: "Miss Information," "The Words Of Shaman Roger" and "The End Of The Line." —Aaron Clow

KOKANE Funk Upon A Rhyme (Ruthless, c/o Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)—Between his first album and this sophomore effort, rapper Kokane has turned his attention to the funk, defined here as what George Clinton did between "Chocolate City" and "Atomic Dog." Funk Upon A Rhyme is covered with Clintonesque recitatives, speak-singing and harmonized choruses, whomping grooves, wailing Worrellish keyboards and gut-quaking Bootsified bass—the title phrase of "Shit, Goddamn" naturally continues "get off your ass and jam." The music here, by Kokane's cousin Cold 187'um (of Above The Law), may sound just like sampled Parliament, but it's all played live; the only sample on the album is a cleverly manipulated snippet of Chuck D. on "Bakin' Soda Free." Having eschewed his previous sampling career, Kokane is now a protector of true, live funk, lashing out at fake funklers and lyrical biters—although his own rhyme style (pausing and bearing down on the last word of a phrase) owes more than a bit to Ice Cube. The most interesting moments of Funk Upon A Rhyme are when Kokane uses his wild, sardonic multi-octave singing voice, as in the mean-spirited ballad "No Pain No Gain," or the chorus of "My Day Is Coming." In places, the album is marred by pathetic misogyny and anti-Asian hatred; "Slow Burnin' 22.5° Fahrenheit" and "Don't Bite The Phunk," though, funk as hard as anything that'll be recorded this year. —Douglas Wolk

VARIOUS ARTISTS Darn It! Poems By Paul Haines (American Clave, 213 E. 11th St., New York, NY 10003)—On Darn It!, an impressive double-CD compilation, the works of poet Paul Haines are set to a wide variety of sounds, written by such disparate musicians as Carla Bley, Robert Wyatt, Mary Margaret O'Hara and Henry Threadgill, among others. Oddly enough, his poetry is not the focal point here; rather, the music's emotional impact is the most moving element, each musician obviously working hard to convey the majesty of poetry through his or her sounds. While poetry can often sound stilted and somewhat stuffy (especially in this context), Haines' poems are obscure but not snootily so, and when paired with the music, are made complete. What makes this compilation rank with the more successful of these ventures is that the musicians involved have clearly been chosen for their ability to translate this music adequately rather than their mere queue potential. Special (because all of them are regular) highlights include: Robert Wyatt's "Curtisy,"

STEVE TIBBETTS The Fall Of Us All (ECM, 1540 Broadway, 33rd Fl., New York, NY 10036/212-930-4996)—It's been almost five years since Steve Tibbetts' last album, but it's not as if he's been idly sitting by since his last ECM outing: Since dropping off the tapes, the questing guitarist has travelled extensively in Europe, India, Nepal, Tibet, Canada, Malaysia, Java and Bali, absorbing experiences and knowledge that he plugs into his music. (Best journal entry: "Monkeys steal wife's glasses.") In a way somewhat similar to Bill Laswell's globe-questing fusions and explorations, Tibbetts weaves esoteric and far-flung influences into his music to create something startlingly original, without counterpart or precedent. It's not a patronizing pastiche of incongruous "worldbeat" sounds taken harshly out of context; instead, the intention is more cerebral, meditated, intuitive: Tibbetts doesn't sound exactly like John McLaughlin jamming with Tibetan monks and a gamelan orchestra, but his music dazzles you the same way. The Fall Of Us All is actually to some extent two albums in one, the first an electric outing, the second a quiet but no less impressive acoustic set. Together the two form a listening experience that juxtaposes fury and thunderous percussion with meditative, winsome acoustic moods. The Indonesian imagery of the album's stunning cover art is more than just packaging exotica; it's a clue to the visionary music inside. Just as Tibetan and Indonesian artifacts and artwork may dazzle the eye with their beauty and detail, Tibbetts' electric playing in particular captures the same quality and depth of lucid perception. —James Lien

WILLIE NELSON Moonlight Becomes You (Justice, P.O. Box 980369, Houston, TX 77098-0369/713-520-6669)—Behind native-Texan Willie Nelson's scruffy exterior, the battle-scarred guitar and outlaw stare of his eyes, he's an artist who has lived and performed according to his own set of laws—although playing chicken with the I.R.S. may be going a bit far. Nelson has been a country music innovator since the '60s, though younger generations may identify him only with Farm Aid or duets with Julio Iglesias: Moonlight Becomes You (done in the spirit of his 1978 landmark Stardust) shows all the grace and candor of his talk-ish vocals and workman-like songwriting ethics. Performed with a small outfit of musicians (fiddle, acoustic guitars, piano), Nelson reflects on love, loss and the pains love can spur with a big stary sky sense of romance and pondering emotion. Mixing old standards ("Sentimental Journey") with a few stirring tunes of his own ("December Day," "In God's Eyes"), old Willie can still embrace a song with a masterful and understated brilliance. Other potential classics: "The Heart Of A Clown," "Please Don't Talk About Me When I'm Gone," "Have I Stayed Away Too Long" and "You Always Hurt The One You Love."

—Glen Sansone

MORNING GLORIES Morning Glories (Headhunter, c/o Cargo, 3058 Clybourn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-935-5683)—The Morning Glories turned some heads last year with an EP on Kokopop. The band attracted even more attention during its lengthy U.S. tour, in no small part because of its van, a decorative Muppet mobile bought by guitarist/vocalist Christian Gibbs, who used to work in the mailroom at The Muppet Show. As noteworthy as the group's vehicle is, however, the release of the Morning Glories' eponymous debut album is a fairly momentous event of its own. Rougher and edgier than the four-song EP, the new album is a powerful expression of youthful exuberance, vibrating with restless zeal and rocking with abrasive guitars. But while Morning Glories rumbles as noisily as the band's road van, its music is crafted carefully, with every distorted rhythm feeding smoothly into the next. Pop it's not, but the album does feature a clever array of hooks and moody, melodic vocals that belie the boisterous guitar tones, making the disc deceptively listener-friendly. Vocally, Gibbs (who played with Modern English until he wasn't allowed back into the U.K. after an American tour) sounds like a cross between Neil Young and J Mascis, but musically, the band is far more diverse, scaling a wall of indie-rock techniques that range in emotion from intensely brooding to lazy and lackadaisical. Glory rules on "Strange-hold," "Coming Down" and "Hollow."
—Jon Wiederhorn

LILYS A Brief History Of Amazing Letdowns (EP) (spinART, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798/212-343-9644)—Two years after their debut album In The Presence Of Nothing, the Lilys return with this five-song EP (a sixth track, "Evel Knievel," is a brief noise-piece). Singer/guitarist Kurt has an iron grasp on the secrets of loud guitar pop, piling layers of roaring harmonies onto the surprisingly lithe riff of "Ginger" and unleashing a stormy strum-solo over the gnarled chords of "Jenny, Andrew & Me" (possibly a reference to the Lilys' neighbors in Tsunami). The cryptically-titled "YCJCYAQFTJ" is as terse as old Wire but sweeter and lazier; "Any Place I've Lived" twists around itself, cocooned in a soft blanket of over-dubbed guitar.

—Douglas Wolk

LOUD FAMILY Slouching Towards Liverpool (EP) (Alias, 2815 W. Olive Ave., Burbank, CA 91505/818-566-1034)—1993's Plants & Birds & Rocks & Things marked the re-emergence of Scott Miller, following his pop-centric work with Game Theory. Slouching Towards Liverpool collects a few live tracks (two recorded at WNUR), a new version of "Take Me Down" from Plants & Birds and a cover of Big Star's "Back Of A Car." The Big Star cover is a natural, as Miller, who could be considered a protege of Alex Chilton, has had a major role in redefining "intelligent pop." He uses his lyrical gift to create songs with wit, irony and meaning, which all come across reverently on this cover version. A new full-length album is in the works, and it's scheduled for release this fall.
—Andy Skibins

GALLIANO What Colour Our Flag (Talkin' Loud, c/o Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Sometimes, joy is the best protest. Galliano's pan-urban approach goes beyond its music; as the record's title suggests, the group takes on multiculturalism as a political cause. The result is a remarkably varied and multi-faceted group of songs that still manage to sound like the work of one cohesive group, the goal of which is not to protest the injustices of the world as much as to thrive in spite of them. Galliano is usually associated with the burgeoning acid jazz scene, mostly on the basis of the vibe-heavy grooves of songs like "Prince Of Peace" (which also appears on the Giant Steps compilation). What Colour Our Flag, however, has its sights set on larger territory. Many of the songs follow the m.o. of "So Much Confusion," which peppers straight-up soul with jazzy rap phrasings, but the group is adept at any number of funk, dub and world music flavors, and revels in the idea of taking its sound all over the map. The group's bag-of-tricks approach to its arrangements is part of the fun. It's hard not to be seduced by a group that can give you the strong, soulful vocals of the title track and the ska-dub of "Phantom" in successive songs. Also: "Jus' Reach" and "Cemetery Of Drums."
—Scott Frampton

BABBLE The Stone (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—After leading '80s dream-pop supergroup the Thompson Twins for nearly a decade, founding members Tom Bailey and Alannah Currie decided to take a much-deserved rest. What emerges at the other end of this break is Babble's refreshing and roomy debut, The Stone, which gathers together four additional musicians for a thickened, yet bright, blend of sampled Indian percussion, electronic rhythms and background synth washes. While the beautiful, drifting melodies made famous by the Twins take center stage for several tracks on The Stone, the music itself is much fatter, heavier and more immediate overall (though no less dreamy and atmospheric), revealing the more relaxed and introspective side of its writers. The relatively poppy "You Kill Me" is a great example of Babble's intermingling of electronic and acoustic sounds—a light, wiry secondary bassline providing an arresting centerpiece as a warm, clunky, sampled snare hammers out a steady, methodical thud in the background. While it would be easy to turn such a beat-oriented, meditative album into a monotonous string-along project, Babble's primary strength lies in its clever approach and treatment of each track, ensuring a constant variety of inventive, energetic songs. Drift with "Beautiful," "Space" and "Drive."

LONDON SUEDE "Stay Together" (5") (Nude (UK), c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Due to the usual legal problems, plain old Suede has become the London Suede, at least for those on this side of the pond. "Stay Together" continues the group's penchant for the grand romantic gesture—it's nothing less than a Bowie-fied rewrite of "Hey Jude," clocking in at just under 8 1/2 minutes. After the passionate, fatalistic pop song (of the "and if a thermonuclear warhead crashes into us..." variety) that takes up the first four minutes, there's a lengthy, swoonsome continuation of the chorus with strings, horns, radio talk and everything but the orchestral podium. Also noteworthy is "The Living Dead," an acoustic number sprinkled with (Ziggy) stardust.
—Douglas Wolk

TRICKY "Aftermath" (12") (4th & Broadway, 400 Lafayette St., 5th Fl., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500)—With musical influences including Slick Rick, Public Enemy, Ultramagnetic MC's and Augustus Pablo, Tricky's stateside debut "Aftermath" has more of a drowsy, ambient dub coolness to it than any overbearing hip-hop innuendos. A former member of Soul II Soul spin-off Massive Attack, Tricky hooked up with Martina, whose gentle, schoolgirl vocals add a hypnotic dimension to an already-mesmerizing strain. Although each of the four mixes is only slightly different (becoming more languid with each mix), the "I Could Be Looking For People Remix" is peppered with murky, far-away sampling and choppy sample beaks. A full LP is expected this summer.

—Glen Sansone

D-GENERATION "Wasted Years" (7") (Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/213-423-0281)—D-Generation's second single doesn't quite live up to the vicious fury of its frequent New York live shows (an unbelievably fun combination of the Dead Boys, Bowery Boys and Don Rickles), but gives a good indication of the wallop the band's brand of glammy-punk packs. While D-Generation's unabashed snottiness, appearance, somewhat familiar sound and all the recent hype have earned the group the hatred of the local art/indie-rock fust-pots, no one can deny the band's ability to come up consistently with choruses so catchy it's hard to believe none of D-Gen's heroes ever thought of 'em before. "Wasted Years" and its B-side, "Next Big Parade," are excellent examples of what will eventually earn D-Generation worldwide musical domination or failure not seen in the entertainment world since Manimal.
—Steve McGuire

VERUCA SALT "Seether" (7") (Minty Fresh, P.O. Box 577400, Chicago, IL 60657/312-665-0289)—Whether it's fair or 100% descriptive, Veruca Salt will invariably be compared to the Breeders, and for the best reasons, too. The band's seductively sweet vocals and crisp song hooks are reminiscent of that band, especially on the immense catchy "Seether." The slightly less successful "All Hail Me" has a more garage-y flavor, but its snappy, layered vocals make the tune's very basic guitar thud a cut above.

—Lydia Anderson

TEENGENERATE/STEPFORD FIVE "Growing Up Wrong"/"Snake Lady" (7") (Demolition Derby, c/o Cargo, 3058 N. Clybourn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-935-5683)—Coming from Japan, Teengenerate has somehow arrived at the Bellingham, WA, brand of straight-up garage rock. "Growing Up Wrong" is all-out mono feedback combined with garage rock grooves. The Stepford Five are four women from the gravel pit. The fuzzy rock 'n' roll of "Snake Lady" provides a rough and dirty side of the New Zealanders.
—Dawn Sutter

BOB STARKER Seven Songs (7" EP) (Chimp, 3 Cedar Sq., Abacus #2, Cambridge, MA 02140)—Starker, a saxophonist from Killbuck, OH, decorates his sax playing with guitar, drum machine, chuckling, found sounds and weird noises on these brief, charming instrumental pieces, recorded on a home 4-tracker. They range from the spare cacophony of "Monkey Clock" to the Frank London-like multi-sax knitting of "Weaving Home Drunk" (accompanied by what sounds like a large sheet of metal being hit by a mallet) and the jaunty "Thug Parade." All of these tracks have a welcome weirdness, and none of them outstay their welcome.

Shiva Speedway

SHIVA SPEEDWAY Shiva Speedway (P.O. Box 390643, Cambridge, MA 02139/617-625-1506)—On its uncompromising demo, Cambridge's Shiva Speedway offers up a slice of life that's radically different from the mail-bags full of stale, tepid Stone Tool Pumpkins sound-alikes that our beleaguered postman drops on our doorstep every week (sometimes we'd rather lug them around for a living than have to sit and listen to pathetic rewrites of "Plush" and "Sober" all day). For starters, Shiva Speedway is not the kind of band to waste money and paper on lavish bios, folders and goofy gimmicks, or send promotional plastic vomit along with its submission—the band's three-song tape is spartanly packaged (a crudely-documented picture of a multi-armed Shiva waving checkered flags provides the only ornamentation), instead letting the monstrous, untameable din of its music speak louder than anything else. And speak it does: If Babes In Toyland, L7 and Hole kicked open the door for women in rock, Shiva Speedway roars through it after them at hellacious speed, taking out most of the wall as it blasts through. Okay, so there is a guy in the band, but Dezaray De Carlo's vocals, Pam Nicholas' drums and Heidi Spaerstein's guitar outnumber Todd Katz's bass, three instruments to one, so there's no doubt who's in charge here. Though not quite as awesome as New York City's Cakelike, Shiva Speedway is nonetheless one of the most raucous, delightfully antagonistic and pure punk demos we've heard in ages.

—James Lien

FYI

In typical put-your-worst-song-first Futures infamy, GRAIN's demo CD (c/o Log X, P.O. Box 173, Diamond Bar, CA 91765/213-656-7925) bids the listener to skip right past its lead track, "Nerve Chair." Though the opener boasts a few points of interest (a nice guitar sound and an interesting instrumental passage smack in the song's middle, for example), the better material is clearly in the band's other songs. Grain's sound is steeped in '80s rock, but refreshingly not the sort of moody and atmospheric post-Sisters Of Mercy brooding that so often ensnares young bands. "In The Skin" features a snaky guitar track, "Animals" is thankfully neither a Pink Floyd nor a Pearl Jam cover, and "The View" recalls the dreamier, (somewhat) happier Robert Smith of The Top or Kiss Me Kiss Me Kiss Me (though its vocal riff nicked from "Creep" really irks us—see our gripes above). At times, vocalist Mike Murray sounds a bit like a young Wayne Hussey, or even Robyn Hitchcock in his spookier, creepier moments. Though there isn't any other band we can name that sounds exactly like Grain, there's something vaguely familiar about this sound that's hard to put a finger on: we've either heard it somewhere before, or it just hasn't quite gelled completely into its own entity. But perhaps growth in songwriting coupled with a crisper, more focused production (everything here is a wash of chorus and echo) could bring the band's strong potential to full flower.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on a combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART FOCUS

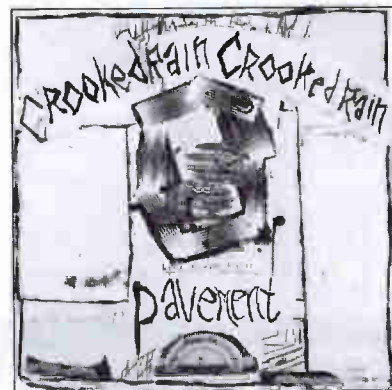

Pantera

Not only has metal lacked support from radio over the years, it has been suffocating itself both with a bad rep and poor displays of, well, excess. Pantera, on the other hand, continues to break down the barriers between all music that is loud, igniting its newest album, Far Beyond Driven, into a savage frenzy of loud noise and volatile riffs that rise above metal's feigned shortcomings. Far Beyond Driven continues to impress at radio, enjoying its second straight week at #1 on the Loud 100, while leaping 59-4 at Progressive retail and 93-47 on the CMJ Radio Top 150. CFRU, CKUT, KSMU, KSRH, KTSC (#1), KTUH, KVHS (#1), WARY (#1), WCCG, WCCR (NY) (#1), WCWP (#1), WGAO, WLCA, WRGW, WRPI, WRUV, WRUW (#1), WSTB (#1) and WTSR lead the way for 63 stations playing the album, of the 442 top 35 reporters, with top five reports.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

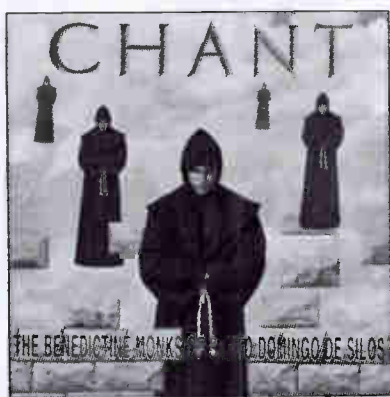

ON THE CHART

As gusty March gives way to rainy April, last week's #1, Nothing-TVT/Interscope's Nine Inch Nails (1-3), gives way to Sire-Reprise's Morrissey (27-1). A&M's Soundgarden remains at #2 for the second week in a row. Making big waves in the top 10: EastWest America's Pantera (59-4) and Capitol's Bonnie Raitt, debuting at #8.

Angel-ERG's Benedictine Monks Of Santo Domingo de Silos are updating the sounds of the past and making it the hip new thing (41-22; see Retail Focus). Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr speaks for the present-day progressive, and moves up 41-22. The Oscars brought a resurgence of soundtracks to the chart, including such winners as Epic Soundtrax's Philadelphia (56-31) and Virgin's The Piano (#42 re-entry).

This week's chart is full of debuts. Delicious Vinyl-EastWest America's Brand New Heavies rush in at #15, followed by Beggars Banquet-Atlantic's Charlatans (#18) and Victory-PLG's Yes (#19). Other fresh spring faces include: Death Row/Interscope's Above The Rim soundtrack (#35), Seed-Atlantic's Madder Rose (#36), Warner Bros.' Loreena McKennitt (#37), Hollywood's Brian Setzer Orchestra (#56), Chrysalis-ERG's Proclaimers (#65), External-ILS' Meices (#66), Drag City's Smog 7" (#69), Kill Rock Stars' Unwound (#70) and Amphetamine Reptile's Dope, Guns And Fucking In The Streets Vol. 8 single (#75). (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

BENEDICTINE MONKS OF SANTO DOMINGO DE SILOS

Monks and monasteries are not usually considered a gauge for what is hip. However, the recent popularity of their music has put monks on the trendsetting tip and proven the timelessness of a musical style that's been around for some 1400 years. Several albums have been issued in the past few weeks, including Angel-ERG's Chant, which moves up 42-21 on the Retail chart and enters as the #15 Breakthrough. The album is a collection of Gregorian chants sung by the Benedictine Monks Of Santo Domingo. The soothing melodic chants of the monks have already been a big hit in Spain, and now their popularity is spreading infectiously in the U.S.

"The Songs Must Be Sung To Be Saved"

The singers of Africa know this phrase well. Griot, jali and storyteller all play a central role in the cultural, political and social life of all societies, but few revere their cultural caretakers like the people of Africa. This week seems to have brought an unusual number of recordings from the African continent to my door. Of course, my passion for the singers of the Wassoulou of Mali makes The Wassoulou Sound Volume 2 (Stern's, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-925-1648) the top pick of the week. It includes grand-mistresses like Cumbia Sidibe, this-generation stars like Sali Sidibe and Nahawa Doumbia (stunning tracks from both) and some new voices that will surely be the next generation's queens. The driving mix of traditional fiddle, ngoni, balafon and electronics that have made Syllart Productions famous is at the forefront here, and on "Kankeletigui," the incredible voice of Djeneba Seck makes it clear that the new generation is formidable competition. Les Soeurs Sidibe, a trio of sisters, offer a powerful vocal sound backed by a thrashy, percussive, electro-acoustic production that any fan of Tom Waits or Pete Thomas could appreciate. The other stand-out track (in an album of 10 great songs) is the overwhelming "Barika Bognala" by Bintou Sidibe. Again, the production is raw and upfront, a perfect foil for a voice that has the texture of raw silk. The Wassoulou Sound again blazes the way, and I'm sure we'll see another outpouring of full albums by some of the new faces presented here. Nothing would make me happier.

SALIF KEITA, the man who introduced the music of Mali to most of the world, is now officially a grand master with the release of The Mansa Of Mali...A Retrospective (Mango, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500). I raved about his influence enough last week, so I'll stick to the tracks this week. The two critical songs from his first solo album are here: the lush "Sourareba" and the soaring, funky vocal showpiece "Sina," as well as tracks from his subsequent albums and some less-than-essential work from a movie soundtrack. But the central moment of the set is a classic from his Ambassadors days. "Mandjou" is a swirling, sultry 12 minutes of pure soul, drenched in the Latin sound so central to the band. Funky organ, surly horns (including a mute trumpet solo that rivals anything you've heard from Cuba), and Kante Manfila's phenomenal guitar and balafon are reason enough to have this album in your collection.

Music Of The World (P.O. 3620, Chapel Hill, NC 27515-3620/919-932-9600) goes east, west and south to complete the second African Odyssey. Unlike the Malian music above, this album goes straight to the roots, three musicians in three solo sets, just a voice and a plucked in-

ON THE CHART

Holding on to the #1 slot is Ellipsis Arts' massive Africa Never Stand Still compilation, enjoying its third straight week at #1. Just behind, it's Angelique Kidjo (5-2) and her Mango-mate Khaled (2-3), followed closely by veteran world musical traveller Hugh Masekela (4-4). The debut of Salif Keita's Mango retrospective, The Mansa Of Mali, at #20 is no surprise to fans of world music, as programmers are no doubt digging into the disc's abundance of riches, including several live tracks. Also, there's a long-awaited entry from Hector Zazou, whose Sahara Blue project on Crammed

Discs-Tristar debuts at #23 after weeks of falling just below our 25 cut-off. Please note: There are two records currently out by Tuvan throat singers, Huun-Huur-Tu on Shanachie (9-10 this week) and Shu-Oe, out soon on RealWorld-Caroline. Please do not lump these two releases together or combine them in your playlists, as they are two separate ensembles and two separate albums. We want to avoid any confusion on our charts in the coming months. Thanks! (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) strument. Malinke griot Djimo Kouyate and his harp offers the music of Senegal. Seleshe Damessae performs traditional-style music of Ethiopia on the krar, a gut stringed harp, with a rich, thickly syncopated vocal. From the South comes the mbira and songs of Dumi Maraire, who has travelled the world making the music of the balafon and mbira available to all. Each offers a new look at the roots of some of the world's most popular "world music."

Just in your door should be what may become my record of the year, Talking Timbuktu (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678) by ALI FARKA TOURE WITH RY COODER. Two of the world's guitar masters and their respective ensembles make the connections between Africa and the Americas obvious in a crystalline set of music. Just go listen to it, and we'll talk more next week.

The title of this week's column comes from a new album of children's music by LADYSMITH BLACK MAMBAZO (who are also currently starring in such dubious endeavors as candy commercials). The Gift Of The Tortoise (Music For Little People, P.O. 1460, Redway, CA 95560/800-346-4445) features stories told by Gcina Mhlope in English about the beauty and power of the southern African land. Joining the a capella songsters are a chorus of kids and a few musicians, including Johnny Clegg on guitar. A few moments on the album get a little sticky, and I could do without the sound effects that run through most of the production, but these are minor complaints. The record presents the music and tales of the Zulu people in clear, intelligent and fun settings that will be perfect for adults from 3 to 93.

Some other new music that should not slip past you: IBRAHIMA CAMARA is a Senegalese artist and teacher who has been in the U.S. since the '70s, and he and his Boston-based band have put together an album of high-tech Afro-pop, Sama Yie: My Sweet Mother (Upbeat Productions, 872 Massachusetts Ave., Ste. 2-7, Cambridge, MA 02139/617-661-1796; fax 497-0675). It's direct, visceral music with none of the recent over-hyped production of Senegal's most famous mbalax master...Just like Tito Puente's recent recording of Latin jazz, AIRTO MOREIRA AND THE GODS OF JAZZ is an all-star cast of pop-jazz and Brazilian groove on Killer Bees (B&W Music (UK), c/o Groove Marketing, 6253 Hollywood Blvd., Ste. 917, Hollywood, CA 90028/213-962-3642). Flora Purim, Stanley Clarke, Herbie Hancock, Hiram Bullock, Chick Corea, Gary Meek and Mark Egan—what more needs to be said?...MILI BERMEJO fares much better on her second Xenophile-Green Linnet release (43 Beaver Brook Road, Danbury CT 06810/203-730-0333), Casa Corozón. Simple, sweet productions surround a voice so rich it'll fill your heart, and her take on Silvio Rodriguez' "Ti Amaré" will break it.

Peace.

DOPE!

DRED SCOTT

DRED SCOTT Breakin' Combs (Tuff Break, c/o A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)—In many ways, New York/Los Angeles native Dred Scott is like any hyper-babble rapper. His sharp, quick-witted raps are often creative, occasionally righteous and always funky. That may not set you brimming with enthusiasm, but simply put, Dred Scott is a proficient, hip-hop purist. Scott's music is not about reaching for the most revolutionary musical statement or innovative rap style, yet his all-purpose rhymes (from street to wailly jazz) and funk/jazz beds are neatly formed (exclusively by Dred Scott, too) and trod along quite happily, changing with his moods rather than by a calculated format. With a purist's reputation, Dred Scott is an artist in touch with the essence of his artform, returning to hip-hop's roots on "Back In The Day" and "To Da Old School," which features human beat box and guest vocals from Tragedy. Dred's bi-coastal rhymes slip by with the quickness of Souls Of Mischief ("Nutin' Ta Lose," "Can't Hold It Back"), while cracking you in the head on the warm, A Tribe Called Quest-like jazz feel of "Check The Vibe" (featuring vocals from Adriana), which discusses self-hatred. Refusing to fall into one particular mode of funk, Breakin' Combs is constructed with lingering jazz samples, loops and lively beats that never falter. While Dred Scott's versatility may invite more comparisons than anything, his respect-demanding skill will keep the party going until the early dawn. And don't think we didn't notice the Blue Note-styled cover either. Check: "Duck Ya Head," "The Story," "Funky Rhythms," "Liar" and "My Mind Is Drifin'."

MAESTRO FRESH-WES "Naaah, Dis Kid Can't Be From Canada?!!" (LMR Street, 40 W. 57th St., Ste. 1510, New York, NY 10019/212-586-3600)—Yo! Break out your Toronto Argonauts gear because one of the hardest working rappers in Canada returns with his third, and strongest album to date entitled "Naaah, Dis Kid Can't Be From Canada?!!". While rap artists from north of the border continue to lobby for the respect of hip-hop meccas like New York and Los Angeles, Maestro Fresh-Wes remains reclusive in his northern city of Toronto (although his 1990 LP went platinum there), poking fun at Canada's reputation (only in the title) and presumably mocking the reaction of someone who first hears his colorfully East Coast rhyme technique. Probably one of the best lesser-known rappers, Maestro's unrelenting, sugary-sweet lyrical drops are best exemplified when he states: "No additives, no preservatives/I'm granulated, often imitated, never duplicated." The LP is self-produced, except for four cuts which were quarterbacked by Showbiz, and Maestro's rhymes are supported by just enough beat and sample work (both hardcore and jazzy) to not become overbearing or cluttered. Wes delivers blustery boasts on "Certs Wid Out The Retsyn," friendly Salt-N-Pepa-like wordplay on

ON THE CHART

AIN'T NO STOPPING US NOW: Those boys in Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (1-1) have reinforced their lead over Jive's A Tribe Called Quest with an astounding 26 #1 reports this week—19 more than ATCQ's 7. With most of the top 10 sitting still for another week, two artists with new singles storm back into the limelight: Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (15-9) and Outburst/RAL-Chaos' Domino (21-10). With Jive players Casual (13-11), R. Kelly (14-12) and KRS-One (20-14) all making progress, we notice the big jump by Elektra's K.M.D., which moves "What A Niggy Know" 34-16, far ahead of debuts from Uptown-MCA's Heavy D. & The Boyz (#31), Tuff Break-A&M's Dred Scott (#32) and Assault-Big Beat's DFC at #36. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Gang Starr; 2) K.M.D.; 3) Above The Rim; 4) Coolio; 5) Brand New Heavies; 6) Wu-Tang Clan; 7) Hard 2 Obtain; 8) Freaks Of Nature; 9) KRS-One; 10) Jeru The Damaja. "Brown Sugar" and smart moralizing on "Makin' Records," which instructs peers to concentrate on the music and not the exploits of the industry. Don't think Canada is all about Bryan Adams and the Blue Jays; Maestro Fresh-Wes breaks out from under the ice and shows many American hip-hop know-it-alls how to get the job done right. Canada's in effect: the jazzy "I'm Drinkin' Milk Now," "Mic Mechanism," "How Many Styles" and "Higher Level."

DE LA SOUL Clearlake Auditorium (EP) (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300)—

Just when you thought the dark waning moments of De La Soul's Buhloone Mindstate were approaching, the Strong Island posse comes up with something for their fans and collectors looking for that rare 12" or EP. Well hang on tight to this one. The ambiguously titled Clearlake Auditorium is a brilliant slab of De La album cuts and a couple of conceptual, unreleased treasures that make this clear vinyl EP worth breaking a few arms for. Featured are some Buhloone's best cuts, including "In The Woods," "I Am I Be," "Patti Dookie" and the Maceo Parker-graced "I Be Blowin'," while A Tribe Called Quest picks up a mic on the big, rubbery-grooved "Sh.Fe.MC's" (an abbreviation for "shocking females"). "Stix & Stonz" is an old-school reunion

GROOVE COLLECTIVE Groove Collective (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—The proverbial "pike" is getting increasingly crowded with soul-patched groove-meisters who come praising the free-expression made available through acid jazz music. Groove Collective (whose members are regulars at any Giant Step gathering) are more than just a group that fuses hip-hop with jazz and vice versa. The Collective is a brooding group of progressive, freeform musical impressionists that allows acid jazz's improvisational freedoms and deep-rooted vibes and rhythms to carry it along. Produced by Gary Katz (Steely Dan), Groove Collective's rhythmic (the predominant force here) and melodic excursions make full use out of everything from vibes (courtesy of Bill Ware on "Balimka" and "Genji Monogatari") to worldly rhythms that go beyond the average steady-funk or heavy swing beat, including the lively Latin and African textures on tracks like "El Golpe Aviso." Groove Collective is both visually and aurally stimulating, as it sketches uninhibited landscapes with its infinite soloing and multi-layered rhythms, which make physical contact with the listener, building up life-giving musical emotion. Groove on: "Rentstrike," "Rahsaanosong," "Whatchugot," the rap-tainted "Buddah Head" and the languid "Saturday Afternoon."

Guess who? At a recent Board Aid event raising money for LIFEbeat, these two hot dogs donated $5,200 to the music industry AIDS organization. During the event, which was held at Snow Summit Ski Resort in Big Bear, CA, House Of Pain's Danny Boy and Everlast showed everyone their finest Tommy Moe impersonations before posing for the camera.

ON THE CHART

HAIR OF THE DOGG: By the slightest margin, Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (1-1) fights off the relentless pursuit of Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (2-2), which won't be satisfied until it reaches the #1 position. Gang Starr had better act fast because speeding up the chart is Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Above The Rim soundtrack, (10-4) which is likely to pass the top-charting releases by next week and take over the #1 position. Reaching new peaks this week include Scarface-Priority's Conscious Daughters (12-7) and Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (17-8). WELCOME TO THE PARTY: Adding a breath of fresh air are debuts this week from Assault-Big Beat's DFC, which enters Things In Tha Hood at #10; Brother Sister from Delicious Vinyl-EastWest America's Brand New Heavies at #17 and Hoody-Moonroof's Frankie Cutlass at #20. car for about five minutes before being pulled over. The cops approached the vehicle with guns drawn and ordered the group to lie on the ground, at which time the men were handcuffed and stepped on, while police searched their van. The bandmembers were never advised on why they were pulled over or why they were being treated in such a humiliating manner. They were held in a San Francisco police station for 45 minutes before being released, at which time police said that they had "probable cause" to treat them that way because they "fit the description of four black guys that wear knit hats and drive a van that are suspected of robbing stores in the area." Wu-Tang's METHOD MAN stated: "This experience was just another example of the arbitrary abuse and racism black men are subject to in this country. We were treated like animals and felt that our lives were threatened."

K.M.D. "What A Niggy Know" (12") (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019) Radio Chart Position: #16—In just its second week on the Beat Box chart, Elektra's

K.M.D. makes this week's boldest move by pushing "What A Niggy Know," the first single from Black Bastards (due out May 3), from 34-16. The single also tucks the #2 Adventure Pick under its belt. K.M.D.'s wry wit and effective sampling of Jody Watley's "Looking For A New Love" are the main proponents of this fresh, head-nodding single. Of this week's 122 radio reports, K.M.D. scoops up 18 reports (that's 15% of all reports) and lands its sole #1 report at KGRG in Auburn, WA. Other stations in the know: CHRY, KAOS, KCCR, KCLU, KHSU, WBAU, WECS, WHUS, WMCC, WMUC, WNMC, WQHS, WRCT, WRKC, WRSU, WSRN and WXCI's Dave Sampson in Danbury, CT.

BITES O' THE APPLE

Kenny Barron and John Hicks, wonderful though they are, may be heard with more people, in more settings, but pianist TOMMY FLANAGAN is truly elegance and poetry personified. His Let's Play The Music Of Thad Jones (Enja, c/o Koch International, 177 Cantigue Rock Rd., Westbury, NY 11590/516-938-8080), is exquisite. Cushioned by the contrabass of Dane Jesper Lundgaard and the drums of Lewis Nash, who's become the first-choice stickman of numerous luminaries, Flanagan launches with gusto into a program of compositions by the late trumpeter/composer/bandleader. Two of Jones' most venerated (and covered) tunes, "A Child Is Born" and "Mean What You Say," are given rousing treatment. Flanagan's 10 fingers on the Hamburg Steinway concert grand in the Chestnut Room at Tavern On The Green (where he'll perform April 5-17) should rivet all eyes and ears. Info: 212-724-2561...The late Thad's brother, pianist HANK JONES, also fetes his frere on a new trio homage.

Upon Reflection—The Music Of Thad Jones (Gitanes/Verve c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019) teams Hank with yet another of his brothers, drum titan Elvin, plus the sturdy bassist George Mraz. The aforesaid two Thad numbers, among 10 total selections, also appear on this sterling studio offering. These two piano-trio CDs present bountiful programming possibilities, back to back...With a U.S. debut recording on Blue Note (Cruisin' and a week at the hallowed Village Vanguard (May 3-8), the Berklee-trained Japanese pianist JUNKO ONISHI marks her coming-out in distinctive fashion. Board-tested with the likes of Betty Carter, Joe Henderson and the Mingus Dynasty band, this promising 26-year-old (whose CD aligns her with drummer Billy Higgins and bassist Rodney Whitaker) will surely be prodded, poked and propped up at the Vanguard by Wynton Marsalis' top-shelf swingsters, bassist Reginald Veal and drummer Herlin Riley... LYNNE ARRIALE, increasingly visible in the Big Apple's finest piano establishments, steers wide of sentimentality yet nonetheless achieves an intimate ethos on her CD debut, The Eyes Have It (DMP, Park Square Station, P.O. Box 15835, Stamford, CT 06901/203-327-3800). The brightness and balance of her approach are affirmed rather than belied by her subtle rhythmic suspensions. Her empathetic accompanists, bassist Jay Anderson and drummer Steve Davis, not to mention the label's critically lauded 20-bit recording process, contribute to the beguiling fluidity and harmonic sparkle of the leader's pianistry. Arriale's lolling gait, in conjunction with Davis' softly rounded, highly resonant trapwork, makes "My One And Only Love," in particular, eminently program-worthy. Her conception, extolling timing as much as content, will be on display in duet at Cleopatra's Needle (April 8-9) and in a trio at Zinno (April 11-16)... Three distinct generations— octogenerarian Doc Cheatham, T.S. Monk and Joshua Redman/Nicholas Payton—aim to cohere, not collide, on-stage as guests of the 16-piece, Jon Faddis-directed Carnegie Hall Jazz Band on April 21. As part of a concert entitled "The New

We alluded to how close the top of the chart was last week, and the top three remains a tightly bunched group. Atlantic's Modern Jazz Quartet rides to victory this week, leaping 3-1 as it garners 40 reports out of the 117 reporters this week (#1 at WDOM, WMEB and WRRG). Atlantic labelmate Cyrus Chestnut clings to the #2 spot he held last week, as the young lion pairing of Roy Hargrove & Antonio Hart remains poised for another run at the top, slipping 1-3. A pair of veterans debuts in the top 10: Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet

West lands the romantic Always Say Goodbye at #8, while Private Music's Etta James debuts her tribute to Billie Holiday at #9. Qwest-Reprise's all-star tribute to Miles Davis, by Herbie Hancock, Wayne Shorter, Ron Carter, Wallace Roney and Tony Williams debuts at #11, while Windham Hill's Turtle Island String Quartet (#18), Blue Note-Capitol's Joe Lovano (#19), Columbia's Ellis Marsalis (#23) and Verve-PG's Gabrielle Goodman (#24) also make first-time entries. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Legacy" at Carnegie, drummer Monk, reedman Redman and trumpeter Payton will honor (and hopefully interact with) elder, fellow participants Cheatham, drummer Panama Francis and saxist James Moody. As new, commissioned works have been promised, this program suggests little of the slapdash approach endemic to all-star, ad-hoc tribute extravaganzas with millennial monickers. Info: 212-903-9750... ELVIN JONES, that master of polymorphous percussion, brings his Jazz Machine to a newly opened jazzspot, Downstairs at the Metropolis, on Union Square West, an area with high hopes of upward cultural mobility. Jones (appearing April 15-17), whose group includes trombonist Delfeayo Marsalis on the front line, will be followed the week after by the quartet of alto master Lee Konitz. Bill Warfield's exceptional big band expects to leave its imprint on Tuesday nights...Another big band making some joyous noise is the MARIA SCHNEIDER JAZZ ORCHESTRA. The Gil Evans-inspired bandleading composer, whose aggregate has been happily ensconced at Visiones on Monday nights for many months now, has come out with her debut CD, Evanescence (Enja, address above). The title track is an 11-minute homage to Evans... On the heels of Evidence Records' release of Walk Don't Run, his jazz-guitar variations on the Ventures (variations, themselves, on plectrists Chet Atkins and Johnny Smith), axeman JOSHUA BREAKSTONE heads uptown for an April 26-30 quartet gig at a new much-talked-about, art-deco jazzspot, Iridium. Breakstone's accompanists will be Bill Mays (piano), Michael Moore (bass) and Dennis Mackrel (drums). The leader's single-note, blues-serrated lines are especially sharp on the Japanese CDs Remembering Grant Green (a lively romp with onetime Green associate Jack McDuff on organ) and The Compositions Of The Beatles, two volumes presenting the same stellar cast he employs on Walk Don't Run: pianist Kenny Barron, bassist Dennis Irwin and the deep-pocket drummer Kenny Washington. Having issued Walk Don't Run in the U.S., Evidence (1100 E. Hector St., Ste. 392, Conshohocken, PA 19428/215-832-0844), a classy company that has distinguished itself on the reissue front, would do well to issue these other titles, too. On his comeback CD last year, Profile (Heads Up), alto saxman RICHIE COLE couldn't quite make up his mind whether to pop or bop. Cleaned up, no doubt chastened a bit, Cole is back on the scene, his Woody fluency and oftentimes engagingly manic populism intact. With guitarist Vic Juris, bassist Ed Howard and drummer Victor Jones backing him up for a week at Fat Tuesday's (April 19-24), and with a curious jazz public in front of him, Cole should have no excuse not to blow.

JACKPOT!

CHANELLE

ROCKMELONS "Love's Gonna Bring You Home" (12") (Remixes) (Mushroom, 555 King's Road, London SW6 2EB U.K.)/071-371-7383/CHANELLE "Work That Body" (12") (Great Jones, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10002/310-276-4500)—With these two thumping singles, New York's master producer and keyboardist Eric Kupper demonstrates that his creative energies have never been more potent. Though Kupper's been circulating through the New York dance world for years, his name remains largely unknown outside of the incestuous London-New York axis. These two fine records should change that. Kupper takes "Love's Gonna Bring You Home" by Australian indie-kids the Rockmelons (from the Mushroom stable) and tears it apart, reassembling it over a bouncing bassline and snappy percussion. The vocals of Doug Williams are fed through the sampler, Kupper taking the sort of liberties with the band that it was unlikely to do of its own volition. You can't imagine (or maybe you can) how many "dance remixes" of rock records are so lifeless and weighty, so this is a real shock. The dub is where it's really at, with the vocal snippets tumbling over high hat and snare sprays while Kupper's electrifying keyboard strokes keep the whole thing barreling along with immense energy. That same electric, sprawling sound characterizes Kupper's keyboard chops on Chanelle's cover of the Taana Gardner West End classic "Work That Body." The intro alone is worth the price of the single, and the flip's "Hysteria Dub" turns the synth hooks into piano chords to devastating effect. Neither of these records are anti-commercial and there's no reason why anyone who enjoys lean, uptempo house tracks won't be thrilled to hear them at inordinate volumes. With Kupper's hysterically clean production, these little whippersnappers just won't calm down.

THE FURTHER ADVENTURES OF DAVE CLARKE

Well, if you haven't guessed by now, Dave Clarke is the U.K.'s best techno producer in a long time. He's really going from strength to strength with projects for the Manchester-based Bush label, as well as his own Magnetic North organization. The latest treat from Clarke is the two-track 12" by FLY BY WIRE/GRAPHITE. Graphite's "New Beginning" has the sort of opening kick drum that'll freeze you in your tracks, then send you into a frenzy. Clarke's tracks simmer slowly, building in intensity and suspense until they reach a fevered conclusion. Fly By Wire's "Last Voyage" is a more Germanic affair with a distorted 909 kick drum and screeching synth swipes. I can't tell you what a relief it is to hear techno with so much imagination and physical momentum at a time when dreadful, formulaic tracks are all around. And Clarke has a stack of goodies to release over the next few months (Magnetic North, Unit G, 44 St. Paul's Crescent, London NW1 9TN, U.K./071-284-0434).

ON THE CHART

The top five once again shows little signs of change; everyone's just waiting for that Apex Twin epic on Sire-WB to come out later this month, but James' first Analogue Bubblebath EP (now domestic on TVT) leaps 10 places (18-8), catching up to the "On" single, which drops one place (2-3). The compilation of singles from U.K. "progressive" house label Stress jumps two spots this week (4-2). The highest new entry is Moonshine's domestic release of the Italian single by FPI Project, in at #14, while the full-length from Oliver Lieb's Spicelab, which is now domestic through Planet Earth, debuts at #22. The other new arrivals this week are Wax Trax!-TVT's Sister Machine Gun full-length (#13), and Moonshine's latest installment in its U.K. breakbeat compilation series, this one entitled Speed Limit 140 BPM Plus Four (#23). THE NIGHT CHICAGO LIVED PT. II

The flow of great dance music from Chicago seems endless, so we'll talk about three of the latest and greatest. Strictly speaking, DJ Pierre is a Chicago ex-patriate, having moved to Jersey City a while back, but he's never really lost the spirit of his native city. He's now released his first, eponymous LP of sorts (which contains two entirely new tracks and batch of Strictly Rhythm singles), which demonstrates his remarkable versatility behind the mixing board. From Paula Brion's uplifting vocal and the grungy bassline of "Generate Power" by PHOTON, INC. to the bounce and drive of JOINT VENTURE's "Master Blaster," Pierre can create a groove that'll stop for nothing. The two new tracks are nothing to laugh at, particularly the warbling, bass-heavy "Blazing Inferno," which grabs ahold of the body like a cat clinging to a wool sweater, refusing to let go. Ten tracks of mayhem, pressed at a good volume and mercifully spread over two pieces of vinyl (Strictly Rhythm, 1650 Broadway, New York, NY 10019/212-246-0026)... Curtis A. Jones (known to all as CAJMERE) just dropped the fifth volume of his consistently thumping "Underground Goodies" (12") series for all to enjoy. He continues in the jazz-house vein that he virtually invented last year with Dajae's "U Got Me Up." The bubbling "Jazz Jungle" is a sweat-soaked percussive workout with the occasional serpentine sax figure thrown in for good measure. Cajmere's kick drum sound has to be heard to be believed, perfectly carved to compel movement in any sentient being (Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch #218, Chicago, IL 60622/312-642-8008)... The suddenly prolific Robert Armani has turned some of his energies to hard house tracks imbued with a Chicago sensibility. Using his real name, ROB WOODS, Armani kicks up a storm on the new Just A Little Bit EP. He certainly has been listening to fellow Chicagoan Cajmere, but you can't hold that against him with tracks as good as this. The A-side's "Just A Little Beat" has a characteristic hard kick-drum with rapidly-moving vocal samples dropping in and out of the mix, while "LifeStyle" has softer, glancing synth lines. This is an impressive second effort for Armani's new house project (Blue Village, c/o ACV Via A. Coppi 4/c (A) 00179, Rome, Italy/06-7806466).

JACKPOT!

SUBDUDES Annunciation (High Street, P.O. Box 9388, Stanford, CA 94309/415-329-0647)

The three years between albums have been trying times for the Subdudes. They were dropped by EastWest in 1991 after their second release drew critical praise but not much notice from radio. Then, they recorded a third album in 1993 that was never released. When they signed with High Street, the Subdudes decided to improve on their finished work by recording a couple of new songs, making changes to some songs that had already been recorded and dropping a few others. It seems all the trials and tribulations have served them well, since Annunciation is without a doubt their strongest work to date: a supremely soulful combination of New Orleans-style blues, rock and gospel, augmented by skillful playing and blissful vocal harmonies. The Subdudes have always set down one hot groove after another, and here they're at their peak. Heavenly: "I Know," "(You'll Be) Satisfied," "Late At Night," "Save Me" and "Sugar Pie."

SHORT SHOTS

In October of last year, JERRY JEFF WALKER celebrated the 20th anniversary of his classic album Viva Terlingual by returning to the same dancehall in Luckenbach, TX, where he had recorded in 1973 for a new recording session celebrating the spirit of Texas. Viva Luckenbach (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678) features many of the same players and friends that appeared on the first record. It includes a rousing take of "What I Like About Texas" with Gary P. Nunn; the sing-along tribute to his band, "Gonzo Compadres"; the honky-tonkin' "I Makes Money (Money Don't Make Me)," and an updated version of Walker's credo for life, "Gettin' By." While it may not be the earth shaking equivalent of the original, Viva Luckenbach is a fine document of one of Texas' best ambassadors circa 1994. Of all the established artists coming out of Nashville these days, MARTY STUART makes the biggest effort to incorporate his hardcore country, bluegrass and gospel roots into his current recordings. On Love And Luck (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608), Stuart takes a few chances (the hot pickin' instrumental "Marty Stuart Visits The Moon," a beautiful cover of Gram Parsons' "Wheels") and records a couple of excellent new songs ("Oh, What A Silent Night," "Kiss Me, I'm Gone"), all the while sounding like he's having the time of his life...Blues fans should check out the first two packages in a new series of releases from Chess (c/o MCA, address above) called Chess Collectibles. Volume 1 is from MUDDY WATERS, entitled One More Mile, while Volume 2, Ain't

Gonna Be Your Dog, features HOWLIN' WOLF. Both are two-CD sets which collect rare and previously unreleased recordings from the Chess vaults spanning the artists' time with the seminal label. Both collections are a must for anyone with a serious interest in the blues...What kind of music do the CARPETBAGGERS play on Nowhere To Go But Down (Clean, c/o Twin\Tone, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-872-0646)? It's sort of old-time country, but filtered through an indie-rock sieve—think the acoustic side of Uncle Tupelo with a brighter shine. The Carpetbaggers play without drums, making their sound remarkably clean, yet still very rhythmic, and their songs concentrate on the classic country themes of life, heartbreak, death and a sly sense of humor. Nowhere is well worth a listen; check out "I Can't Trust My Senses," "Better Life Without You" and "Saddest Clown At Happy Hour."

SXSW ROUNDUP

This year's South By Southwest Music And Media Conference, held March 16-20, was the customary overwhelming orgy of music, schmoozing and more music, with only brief time-outs for necessities like sleeping and eating. With the prospect of nearly 500 bands playing over five nights—not including "outlaw" performances at BUTCH HANCOCK'S Lubbock Or Leave It gallery/performance space, JIMMIE DALE GILMORE'S star-studded St. Patrick's Day party, day-long schedules of in-store appearances at nearly every record outlet in town and the BMI stage inside the Austin Convention Center—one could literally spend his or her entire waking hours surrounded by an extraordinarily broad range of sounds from folk and roots rock to reggae and rap to punk and jazz and all the combinations in between that define the music of the '90s.

This year's keynote speaker/performer was JOHNNY CASH, who appeared with a guitar and sang a few songs that were a stark mix of death and brutality, quite in contrast to the bright acoustic setting. Cash also shed some light on his upcoming project for American Records and praised Rick Rubin for revitalizing his musical vision.

The panels seemed an intelligent, if at times irrelevant, attempt at presenting worthwhile topics for discussion with a scope that satisfied novices as well as convention veterans. Two stuck out as more laudable than the rest. The panel on the current big-buzz radio format, AAA, lent some interesting perspectives to the growing pains it's enduring, as well as pointing out some of its strengths and weaknesses. The Writing Critique panel was a lively dialog and dissection of the various styles and presentations of music criticism from daily newspapers to monthly magazines.

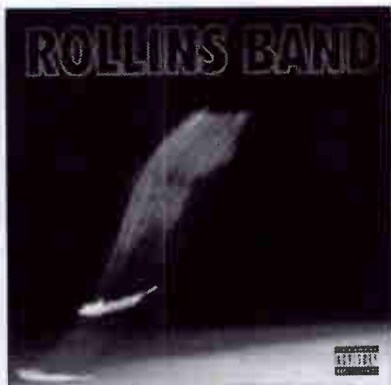

Whoever schedules the showcases at these things should pay more attention to which acts are playing against each other and try to set things up so that nearly impossible choices don't have to be made. Was it really necessary to have LUCINDA WILLIAMS, KILLBILLY, the BAD LIVERS, GIANT SAND and BILL LLOYD all appear at the same time on Saturday night? It's the nature of the beast; with so much music there's bound to be some conflicts. There were other times, though, when there were really no acts of interest playing, so there is something to be said for balance. Here's how one weekend went: Wednesday started off at the Continental Club with the hard rock and blues of the BLUEBONNETS, featuring ex-Go-Go Kathy Valentine on stinging lead guitar, while the IGUANAS previewed a few tunes from their upcoming Nuevo Boogaloo. Their energetic combination of Latin rhythms and horn-laden, New Orleans-styled roots rock had the packed house doing the rump-shaking boogie. Thursday night saw an incredible line-up take part in Jimmie Dale Gilmore's St. Patrick's Day Party at the Austin City Coliseum. While not an official SXSW event, it's become a traditional part of the media's yearly Austin visit. This year's party was a nearly six-hour marathon that featured the likes of the PICKETTS, SANTIAGO JIMENEZ, JR., SYD STRAW, BOB MOULD, MICHELLE SHOCKED, a reunion of the original FLATLANDERS with Gilmore, JOE ELY and BUTCH HANCOCK, TISH HINOJOSA, MONTY WARDEN, ANGELA STREHLI, MUD-HONEY and more. RODNEY CROWELL joined Gilmore and his band for a song, while LOU ANN BARTON and MARCIA BALL appeared with Strehli to reprise their roles of the "Dreams Come True" tour. All in all, it was a diverse evening of music that may not sound cohesive on paper, yet had plenty of high points, before ending up with a raucous version of Buddy Holly's "Oh Boy" with all of the artists performing together. Then it was over to catch the end of JUNIOR BROWN'S set, where his adoring fans were whooping and hollering into the early morning hours. Friday night boasted two highlights: BIG SANDY & THE FLY-RITE BOYS and the TRUE BELIEVERS re-union. Big Sandy and the Boys were one of the big surprises of the weekend, and provided a welcome blast of fresh air. Their sharp combination of swing, rockabilly and country played with maximum energy and significant chops was novel and retro at the same time. The True Believers' show lived up to its billing. Although they had apparently only practiced a couple of times the previous week, from the first burst of guitar it seemed as if they had never broken up, as they blasted through tunes from their recently Rykodisc-reissued Hard Road with the power of 10 lesser bands. An unsolicited comment overheard in the audience that night seemed to say it all: "This is the best fucking band in the world!" The evening was rounded out with a sparkling performance by ROSIE FLORES. Guest appearances by Ely, Hancock and Gilmore made it even more special. One of the best new ideas at this year's event was the free-to-the-public, open-air early-evening showcases that took place outside the Driskill Hotel. Saturday night's show featured FLACO JIMENEZ and his conjunto band, which had the crowd literally dancing in the streets, especially when FREDDY FENDER joined them for a couple of Texas Tornadoes tunes. Later, the SILOS played a mesmerizing set that featured material from their new CD, Susan Across The Ocean. While it's always a treat to catch Lucinda Williams, her late-night show with a full band in front of a hometown crowd was made more appealing by the appearance of some fine new songs along with bunch of old favorites. SXSW never officially ends until the Sunday night party at La Zona Rosa, a large, partially enclosed bar/restaurant/performance space, with the ALEJANDRO ESCOVEDO ORCHESTRA. With backing by at least 15 pieces, including violins, a cello and a four-man horn section, Escovedo put on a dynamic, sprawling set that spanned his entire career and ended with a surprisingly dead-on version of the Rolling Stones' "Sway," which ended a long but satisfying weekend on a particularly soothing note.

wrap-around riffs often raise the ghost of Hendrix, deftly inter-twining heavy harmonies with fat, melodic solos. Rollins is at his best on tracks like "Shine," which don the skin of a mega-muscled guru, proselytizing a sermon of self-reliance combined with his own "just do it" mindset. And while Weight contains its share of simmering, obstinate tracks, it also shimmers with a couple of more experimental, instrumentally-oriented songs like "Tired," which sounds like something you might expect to hear on an artsy album like Meditations On Mingus. You've got the power with "Step Back," "Fool" and "Civilized."

SAUSAGE

Riddles Are About Tonight

(Prawn Song, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd. #1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—Riddles abound, huh? Okay, here's one for ya. Q: What's noisy, throbbing and smells like pork soda? A:

Sausage, a funky, driving trio composed of Primus bassist/vocalist Les Claypool, Porch guitarist Todd Huth and Charlie Hunter Band drummer Jay Lane. It's no coincidence that Sausage sounds a whole lot like Primus, but it's hardly a matter of one band aping another. Ya see, before Primus guitarist Larry LaLonde and drummer Tim Alexander hooked up with Claypool, Huth and Lane were two-thirds of the original Primus lineup, and Sausage was the name of the demo which earned Primus its first praise on the Bay Area scene. When Huth and Lane opted not to tour with Claypool, Les hunted down other members, but the original lineup remained on good terms. Riddles Are About Tonight is made up primarily of re-vamped demo cuts and other unreleased Primus songs. While the record could pretty easily be mistaken for today's Primus, there are some fundamental differences. Sausage is a bit less avant-garde and a bit more straightforward, adhering to single grooves instead of haphazardly hopping from one rhythm to another. The band is also more in tune with reality, which makes its songs seem less surreal and cartoony. Huth's guitar hacking is jazzy and improvisational, but heavier and more ripping than LaLonde's, lending Sausage a more potent sound. Similarly, Lane's drumming is more forceful and significantly less complex than Alexander's. Primus comparisons aside, Riddles Are About Tonight is a crunchy, gyrating earful of delight. Chomp on "Prelude To Fear," "Toyz 1988," "Shattering Song" and "Girls For Single Men."

ROLLINS BAND

Weight

(Imago, Carnegie Hall Tower, 152 W., 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—For the follow-up to 1992's The End Of The Silence, the Rollins Band decided to lock itself in its own studio located in a cabin out in the woods. Given this environment, one might imagine the absence of big city energy would mellow the band a bit. But if anything, the relative harshness has only solidified and roughened up the group's sound. The addition of bassist Melvin Gibbs has brought a more fluid approach to the band's concrete instrumentation, yet the songs on Weight are no less confrontational. Guitarist Chris Haskett's they wanted to, Oderus Urungus and his fellow cannibals/musical butchers could doff their armor and pour out their fake blood tomorrow because This Toilet Earth is a fine, accomplished record with tight guitar work and precision rhythms. Instead of gouging from a power metal perspective as it has on past offerings, Gwar approaches This Toilet Earth from the vantage point of a hardcore freak who has just discovered funk and jazz. The songs feature barks instead of growls, jams instead of riffs, and highlight diversity over speed. "Pepperoni" roams the realm of Parliament/Funkadelic with sensual wah-wah lines and a soulful funk groove, while "The Insidious Soliloquy Of Skulhed Face," taken from the band's upcoming full-length film, features an assortment of musical styles, including crunching guitars, operatic vocals, showtune-style piano and a bizarre jazz break. Musically, Gwar may have grown up, but lyrically it's as juvenile ever, continuing the tradition of sicko prurience with titles including "Penis I See," "Saddam A Go-Go," "Slap U Around" and "The Issue Of Tissue (Spacecake)." Gwar doesn't bleed for its art, it kills. Sacrifice yourself at the Toilet with the above, plus "B.D.F.," "Filthy Flow" and "Jack The World." —Jon Wiederhorn

STUTTERING JOHN

Stuttering John

(Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

Now that H-h-h-howard Stern has announced his c-c-candidacy for g-g-governor, Stuttering John may well wind up playing the shock jock's inauguration p-p-party if he doesn't have a bigger gig lined up that evening. While John is a character of r-r-ridicule on the Howard Stern Show, on his own he's a competent vocalist and a skilled guitarist. He doesn't even s-s-stutter, delivering multi-syllabic lines tunelessly and confidently, which kind of makes us w-w-w-wonder if John exaggerates his speech impediment on the air, but that's another issue entirely. Stuttering John is a bluesy, hard rock record p-p-packed with foot-stomping rhythms and sing-along choruses. Songs like "Gypsy Morning," "Get Off My Lawn" and the ballad "The Place" make an obvious n-n-nod to Aerosmith, while many other tracks, including "Daddy's Money" and "Kid Don't Look Pretty," sound more like '80s Van Halen. Derivative? Sure, but Stuttering John puts a new, c-c-c-cocky punch into some traditional rock sounds. The musicianship throughout is tight and crisp, with drummer Bruce Valero and bassist Bill Pitus providing strong support for John's lead work. The only problem we have with Stuttering John is the slow emotion-dripped tracks which are too sappy for our t-t-tastes. But then again, as Stern might say, you've got to do something to get laid, especially when you're not exactly a smooth t-t-talker. J-j-j-jam on the above, plus "Talk My Way Out Of It" and "Do What You Do." —Jon Wiederhorn

Ride

(Atlantic, address above)—The first time we listened to Godspeed's debut Ride was in the car. Big mistake. Power-sludge music like this causes beats-per-minute to turn into miles-per-hour, and we ended up flying 85 miles-per-hour, catching ourselves just in time to avoid the speed-gun of a leering cop. Just listening to the tape, you can smell the sweat Godspeed thrashes so violently. Produced by Rachel Bolan (of Skid Row) in the lightning speed of three weeks, Ride was recorded totally live, using stage monitors instead of headphones, which makes these guys sound tighter than a poser's spandex pants. Hailing from New Jersey and initially operating under the name Social Decay, Godspeed decided to shake the rest of the world with its crushing metal skill, having already garnered an immense hard-core following in the New York area. Disobeying rules and traditions by having two bass players (Chris Kosnik and Rob Hultz) and mixing alternative and metal styles give Godspeed an edge amongst its competitors. The title track displays frightening guitar talent, but the lyrics tend to be repetitive. Step up to 100 m.p.h. with "Not Enough," which displays impressive bass technique. Finally, don't forget to trip out to the instrumental on the last track. —Lana Michalko

SOUNDTRACK

The Crow (Interscope, c/o Atlantic, address above)—The Crow is a film based on a comic-book series about some guy whose girlfriend gets killed, so he puts on tons of white face makeup and stalks the street avenging her death. While the movie was being made, actor Brandon Lee was accidentally killed on the set when a gun that was supposed to be loaded with blanks wound up containing live bullets. As a result, the ending of the film had to be changed and the footage had to be edited around his absence. Sounds pretty dismal to us, but while the film may be a real turkey, the soundtrack is a winner. Featuring new tracks by some of the hottest live bands around, the disc opens with a gloomy dance track by The Cure (hey, what's that doing here), but quickly solves its existence in the land of maximum volume with a tense, chugging industrial cut by Machines Of Loving Grace. When the machines are gone, the Stone Temple Pilots take over with the emotive ballad "Big Empty," followed by "Dead Souls," a brooding masterpiece by Nine Inch Nails. Rage Against The Machine surges and sways with the jazzy rap-metal tirade "Darkness" and Rollins Band delivers a fine batch of screaming noise on "Ghostrider," before Helmet lashes out with an experimental guitar storm on "Milktoast" and Pantera slays all the wimpy bands on the disc (Violent Femmes, My Life With The Thrill Kill Cult, Jane Siberry, etc.) with the hardcore garnished gem "The Bridge." Unfortunately for metal freaks, half the album is composed of relatively tame alternative rock, but the freshness and intensity of the new loud cuts should keep the disc in heavy rotation. —Jon Wiederhorn

DIALOGUE

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

I'm penning my Dialogue with the one and only crazy Steve Woodward, so I'll be quick. DIO, Dio, Dio. Keep on the Strange Highways. Keep in mind tour dates will be posted next week. Please continue to support one of metal's greatest assets proudly...As you read this, we all do the dance of happiness as CANDLEBOX goes gold! Pat yourself on the back now! Since I was too hungover to write my Dialogue last week, a mighty "thank you" goes out now to Lonn "the king" Friend and Christina "the Goddess" for taking such good care of STRIP MIND and putting on the most amazing Rip party ever. New music from L7 and JOAN JETT is coming your way, and look the fuck out for BIOHAZARD's State Of The World Address, which is coming your way late May. And remember, we are coordinating your Biohazard interview and ticket needs for this last leg of the Biohazard/Fishbone/Kyuss tour. P.S. Thank you to everyone giving ALTERED STATE's Darkness Visible a chance. It does work, don't give up!

Jill and Jeannie, The Red Light Records Death Squad, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-OK,FUI

Hey you, wipe the lunch off your face and dive into that big stack of CDs and pull out the GUTTED Bleed For Us To Live and OPPRESSOR Solstice Of Oppression. We are going for adds Monday, April 11! Check out the packaging of these CDs. This may sound weird, but they look beautiful! You will also be receiving SARKOMA's Integrity, the band's second R.L.R. release. You'll be shakin' your groove thang all around the station. They have a real funky thrash sound. The add date is Monday, April 18, so look for the postcard. And we have SKATE-NIGS just around the corner. I can't thank you enough for the fucking amazing, outrageous, phenomenal, super-doooper support you have all given this COVEN release. Without radio where would we all be?

Matt Young, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

"Triad" is the next radio single from PITCH SHIFTER. An edit CD with a cover of Sabbath's "NIB" will be in your face the first week in April. The add dates are April 11 and 12. Word from the road is that the shows with CARCASS are all sold out! Easter Sunday at the Limelight is gonna be a mess. I can't wait. Go see 'em if ya can. BLOOD FROM THE SOUL is the band you can't ignore. The granddaddy of all Napalm "projects," these guys simply force you into a frenzy. LAWN-MOWER DETH punk rock purists in the style of Bad Religion and Green Day. Play "Somebody Call Me A Taxi." The Old interview at WSOU was crazy. Thanks to Randy Metal and Wayne. Play "Happy Tantrum" now. SCORN's newest would have made your Valentine's day a lot more interesting (ha). The new NAPALM DEATH is sick! DISGUST and A.C. are coming soon. No fronts, no tricks, no soap box politics. God Bless Earache!

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

How about that Crow soundtrack! It's virtually a who's who of the most happening artists of our time...NINE INCH NAILS, STONE TEMPLE PILOTS, RAGE AGAINST THE MACHINE, ROLLINS BAND, HELMET, PANTERA, MACHINES OF LOVING GRACE...the list goes on! This is, by far, the greatest soundtrack of the decade! If you haven't added The Crow you must be dead or something!

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

CROWBAR will be in the studios at MTV's Headbanger's. They will be stopping by while on tour with Pantera. Are you going to the show? Let me know! We'll be setting up for interviews, liners or just to hang with the band before the show. DEMENTED TED will be hitting the road in mid April, so get your phoners in now! Dates will continue past Reno, NV, so keep your eyes peeled. HINGE is just out of the studios preparing for the May release of their debut disc. Oh yeah, add Crowbar Live +1 now!

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

To quote a fabulously respected programmer from the Northwest in regards to ELEVEN, "I was convinced by just listening to the CD, but live? Holy Shit!...Their story has only just begun." Yes folks, Cathy Faulkner from KISW is raving, as well as the whole station starting from my metal partner in crime up there, Rob Oxford, spreading to the alternative show with Damon Stewart all the way into heavy rotation! This band deserves to be played at any format (just wait for the urban remixes...just kidding). If you care to partake in the live show experience while they are out with Candlebox, give us a call and we will hook you up strong with tickets and interviews. "Let Down" is the metal track and "Reach Out" is the AOR tune, so get with one of these now before you feel "left out" and "laughed at." I would also like to introduce a new cohort in crime in the hard music department named Bruce Tousinau, who now sits in the Kevin Estrada seat of promotion. Return his calls at (818) 560-4346.

MORRISSEY "The More You Ignore Me, The Closer I Get" (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Steven Morrissey is an easy target. It's easier to make fun of that sulking contradiction of a character he's created over the years than it is to appreciate fully his worth as an artist. Love him or hate him, the Moz can sing, and his self-absorption and self-loathing is still interesting and relevant, with this track adding a twist to all of those preconceptions. "The More You Ignore Me" is filmed to heighten the image of Morrissey as a post modern poster boy. Shot in black & white, the clip has that pale purple tinge of movie posters of Monroe, Dean and Presley, a fitting tone that matches the song's obsessive theme. (SC)

US 3 "Tukka Yoot's Riddim" (Blue Note c/o Capitol, 810 Seventh Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Tukka Yoot, one of three rappers employed by US 3, is a Jamaican Londoner whose quick ragamuffin patter is just one of things making US 3's more than just hip-hop beats over jazz samples: it's reggae, Stax soul and more. This clip packs the energy of a sultry discotheque (could be London, Paris or New York) in camera moves that try to keep up with the dancers, Tukka and the rest of US3. The main hook of the track (a killer sample from Grant Green) repeats incessantly, adding to the speed and "riddim" of this wonderful follow-up to "Cantaloop." (SC)

GAVIN FRIDAY & BONO "In The Name Of The Father" (Island, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Following Sinead's video from the soundtrack to In The Name Of The Father, this title track is also one of the most effective incorporations of movie footage in music video. In this clip, Gavin Friday (a favorite of folks like Bono and Peter Gabriel and Hal Willner) outdoes Bono and his crooning for intensity, delivering his lines with conviction as the film's most powerful scenes (explosions, an enraged Daniel Day Lewis, riots and marches) unfold behind him. BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA "Lady Luck" (Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521)—Before there was rockabilly, all the hep cats were swingin' to the jump jive of Louis Jordan, and no one knows that better than Brian Setzer. "Lady Luck," the first video from the Brian Setzer Orchestra, captures that era's seedy glamour with copious gold and silver lamé, stiletto-heeled, feather boa-wearing vamps and wise guys living it up under the glow of neon lights. NYPD Blue's David Caruso's tongue-in-cheek cameo as a nefarious romeo in a lavender sport coat only adds to the blood-spilling, gin-swilling, dice-throwing fun. Setzer, whose dead-on portrayal of Eddie Cochran was one of La Bamba's high points, holds his own with the TV heart throb, and even shows him a thing or two of what baggy-pants, big-guitar, shiny-jacket charisma is all about. —Scott Frampton

OBSESSED "Streetside" (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—This is hard rock in the pits, the way it's meant to be experienced. The only thing missing is the crowd, but there's no loss of energy as Obsessed thrash it out in this graffiti-covered club/rehearsal space. The camera movements attempt to give you motion sickness, but they just add to the punch of this muscular black and white video. With this raw sound and all the dizzying pans and shots of cool-looking instruments, "Streetside," doesn't look that different from a Beastie Boys video. (SC)

HOLE "Miss World" (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—If you're lucky (or smart) you'll be able to see Hole (Courtney Love's band) for what it is, a pretty darn good pop/rock band with all the wit, melancholy and self-loathing (see Morrissey) with which to identify. With subtle references to the film Carrie, "Miss World's" twisted look at youth and glamour and the pains and pressures therein, succeeds as a raw and wry pop hit. Put all that "Kurt's Wife's Band," and "Seattle Chick Band" stuff behind you and check out this lead song and video from the upcoming Hole LP. (SC)

RECORD COMPANY

John Di Maio, Radioactive Records, New York, NY (212) 489-4820
LIVE. The sequel: Throwing Copper. Pain no longer lies on the riverside.

Keith Moran, Radio Promotions, Restless Records, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-2423

The new SISTER PSYCHIC CD Surrender, You Freak is at your station right this very minute. Songs to check out include "Velvet Dog," "Death By Fascination" and "Happiness." The band is on tour throughout the West Coast. Also out at this time is the new CRAIN CD called Heater. I have 25 copies left on vinyl for those who prefer vinyl over CD. If you have not listened to this release as of yet, please listen to "Blistering" and "Hey Cops!" The SWAINS new CD is Sonic Mind Junction. Twelve inches are on the way to dance/RPM directors. AMINIATURE continues to tour. Look for new dates in the East and Midwest. Thanks for all of your support for the band. More stuff coming up includes JACK LOGAN, NOVA MOB, MILK and more CRAMPS reissues.

Adam Lewis, Mike and Mike, Promo Dudes, Concert Ideas Promotions, Boston, MA (617) 254-2543

Haven't bothered doing one of these in a couple of years, so we'll try to keep it short and sweet. Thanks to the over 200 stations that supported the ANGRY SALAD Guinea Pig EP last fall. The band is currently working on more material and touring all spring. They just did dates with Cracker and Counting Crows. Upcoming college dates with A Tribe Called Quest, Live and others. Kudos also to everyone for the support on MR. RIGHT, WOODPECKER, the AQUANETTAS, GUTTER and even NEW MODEL ARMY. Shows you how long it's been since my last Dialogue...Records being worked right now: FOGGY NOTION Going To The Sun on Sudden Records. The band hails from NYC. Check out "Rabbit," "I Know" and "Drive." Also, be sure to give a listen to JONI'S BUTTERFLY'S debut The Unknown, on Surreal Records. This Connecticut band's debut was produced by Steve Luongo...Coming in a couple of weeks is a cool limited edition 45 from Boston band EVELYN SWOONS. It's a teaser of more to come this summer. Be on the lookout for it. Call if you need anything. Luv+kisses.

Adam Bernstein, Radio Dreamboat, Sub Pop Records, Seattle, WA (206) 441-8441

Where'd you get your figures?

Kerry Murphy, Radio Darling, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

Where'd you get your figures?

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

How now brown cow? Life's mental. Anyone who could explain to me exactly how women tick would be well worshipped. While I'm asking, could somebody also direct me towards a three-bedroom apartment in Manhattan?...On to things that I'm sure about: DIE MONSTER DIE! Tour dates galore, interviews and overwhelming college response to the tracks "Toad," "Swallowed" and "Slumber" are making this great "new" band happen. Thanks! The MOON SEVEN TIMES 7=49 has also been opening some eyes. An interesting note about this beautiful album; there are about 13 extra tracks (from ambient shorts to sound effects) after the last listed track. Why? So that when you play this CD on random play, it makes for some incredibly interesting interludes and unexpected surprises. Check it out! NAILBOMB = extremity. Call if you don't have a copy of this superstar side project. BLACK TRAIN JACK is coming—call if you can't wait until release. Bye!

The Rock For Choice spoken word benefit is at the Kitchen in NYC on April 25...The WRENS' debut should be spinning at your station now—don't miss this astonishing 23-song debut. Top choices are "Darlin Darlin," "What A Girl" and "Ruth."... Thanks to the stations who interviewed KMFDM, KRAMER, BRAINIAC, ESEL, TWITCH and BRIDGET recently. Kramer's Secret Of Comedy is out mid-May, call to schedule interviews... CATHERINE'S Sleepy EP (produced by Billy Corgan) is out this spring on TVT, with an album out this fall...KMFDM is heading the "Angsfest" tour, starting in late-April with SISTER MACHINE GUN and Chemlab...ESEL are on tour soon with Pitchblende, Brainiac is playing in the Midwest/West Coast this spring, the Wrens will be in Asia and Switzerland this summer, and the ROOKS are on tour soon in Czechoslovakia...Has anyone ever seen Rebecca Gates and Lewis Largent in the same place?...If you haven't spun Pulled From The Wreckage, you're missing some of the best of Grass. With two cuts each from the first eight releases, it's the cream of the pop...FLUFFER is in the studio now with Kramer...Zine choices: Cake (3028 Ewing Ave. S. #201, Minneapolis, MN 55416) and Off My Jammy (Box 22138/1400 Washington Ave., Albany, NY 12222)—see the "Brushes With Greatness"... He's a snoozer baby, so why don't we kill him?

It's good to be greeted by childhood friends every now and then. I just spent my weekend checking out episodes of Schoolhouse Rock on ABC, and Sesame Street had Los Lobos singing "Elmo And The Lavender Moon." Awesome. Too bad that new Land Of The Lost kinda blows...Time to get out of hibernation and catch a real rock show: SMALL BALL PAUL are currently going up the Atlantic coast, playing with Seam, Picasso Trigger ▶ or some local treasure. For a taste of the action, give You In Flames a spin...HAIR & SKIN TRADING CO. may finally come over for some live dates...A specially-selected group of you shall receive the import-only "Threshold" single from ROLLERSKATE SKINNY, featuring two non-LP doses of jubilant pop insanity. Catch Rollerskate Skinny opening for Pavement on the West Coast starting April 19...Good to know you're groovin' on SUNDIAL's British psychedelic delight, Libertine. Rock out, space out, see 'em live this summer...We can't wait to give you the finger: Spirit Finger, the latest release by the DYLANs, comes out April 19...So now that you have Up To Our Hips by the CHARLATANS, could a tour be very far behind?...MTV's Man On The Moon spoken word radio show really has a great nocturnal feel to it. Dig it. Call for copies... In your future: BLUE AEROPLANES and RIPE. Don't forget: You gotta give up the duckie if you wanna play the saxophone.

Todd Sievers, American Recordings, Burbank, CA (818) 973-4545

Right now I am listening to Chet Baker sing from his soul. He has such a sweet voice, why don't people sing like this anymore? So stripped down, truly low-fi and from the heart, it's very powerful. Warner Bros. just released Frank Sinatra live from Paris and Sub Pop is putting out the modern day Combustible Edison, but it's just not the same. Tom Waits is very close to Chet Baker, but he's more like Louie Armstrong. Chet is so charismatic he could probably sweep your date right off your arm by just looking at them. Where is the Lance Romance lounge singer of the '90s? It's time to put the bleeding soul back in love songs, I am a cancer, a romantic, I love it...Enough romance talk. American has an amazing release schedule planned for the month of April, starting with SWELL's 41. By the end of the month, you will have full albums from THEE HYPNOTICS The Very Crystal Speed Machine, JOHNNY CASH American Recordings and MESSIAH 21st Century Jesus. The Johnny Cash album is a bare-bones, stripped-down traditional record. It's the man in black and his guitar—nothing else. The strength of Johnny's baritone voice is intense, it commands respect. When you receive the album, you should listen to "Down By The Train," Tom Waits wrote it for him! My favorite new record is Beautiful Rat Sunset by the Mountain Goats. It's out on Shrimper and more than worth your time to find.

Patrick Flynn, National Manager Alternative Promotion & Marketing, November Records, New York, NY (800) 343-8921

Basic promo spiel...EAT Epicure debuts at #125 on the CMJ 150. Some of you may remember Eat from their major-label debut Sell Me A God back in '89/'90. If not, check out your record libraries if you want to hear the first Eat record. I've gotten some requests for it and I don't have any to send out. Not very often does a band work in reverse. Meaning, putting out their first album on a major label then turn around a few years later and put out the second album on an indie. It seems like it's usually the other way around. Call if you want giveaways, IDs, posters (the big import kind) with Agne's "no willie" cover art, or what we refer to as the John Wayne Bobbitt pose. If you get a poster, feel free to use your imagination to draw your own parts. I have a big one, imagination I mean...Dancehall Massive is breakin' out. We sent CDs to world, reggae, dancehall DJs and specialty shows. We just got the vinyl in, so if you want wax, call us. Call us if you didn't get either at all. Any of you alternative MDs that are into dancehall and you feel so behooved to twist this disc during regular programming, this is a slammin' compi-lition you might want to play. Massive respect to those of you who are playing/reporting it, and be on the lookout for Dancehall Massive 2.

Scott Giampino, Touch And Go Records, Chicago, IL (312) 463-2907

First off, a tip of the hat to those in radio playing our stuff. Without it, I'd still be chimney sweeping. Secondly, we all should be nice to Dawn at CMJ. Lastly, April 4 is coming up very fast. Does anyone care? You do, you have to. In bucket number one we have FLOUR bringing us Fourth And Final. This record is exactly that. It's also his first in three years. Sure there's a drum machine, but that's from necessity, not predilection. And it's melodic, what with Flour playing all pieces, not abrasive. What would Brian Paulson say? He'd produce it...Next up, Louisville's RODAN's debut album Rusty on Quarterstick. You will want to hear this one. Probably on your desk right now! The New York Times says one of the "bands of '94," Alternative Press says they're a "band to watch in '94" and The Rocket picked 'em as one of the "top 10 best live bands." One couldn't make up better thumbs-up patrol. Look for them on an extensive U.S. tour as you read...Also, TRANSMISIA's Dumbshow on Invisible. Why yes, they are from Croatia! Really...MOUNT SHASTA's Put The Creep On out on Skin Graft. And yes, it is produced by, name drop, Steve Albini...Also, BEDHEAD with What Fun Life Was, and DISTORTED PONY is back with Instant Winner, both on Trance... Out soon, new MEKONS, JESUS LIZARD, PIGFACE, ARCWELDER, SUPERCHUNK, man oh man, a lot more. Don't forget about KILL-DOZER and MULE either.

X MARKS THE SPOT

On April 27, 1994, 20 million South Africans will go to the polls to vote for the first time. In support, Caroline Records will be releasing X Marks The Spot, a 15-track compilation CD, to raise funds for non-partisan voter education and citizenship training in light of the upcoming elections. The record features tracks from Peter Gabriel, Paul Simon, Johnny Clegg And Savuka, UB40, Hugh Masekela, the Neville Brothers, Ayub Ogada, Geoffrey Oryema, Youssou N'Dour, Ghorwane, Siyakha, Eyuphuro and Devon. All of the artists, producers, engineers, record companies, publishing companies and lawyers are waiving their royalties and professional fees for the record, and Tower Records/Video, which will carry the release exclusively, will return its profit on the disc back to the cause. As a result, close to 85% of retail receipts will go directly towards the South Africa-based MATLA Trust, an organization aiming to uplift disadvantaged South Africans and promote the development of a democratic society.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

KCOU in Columbia, MO, has changed its call letters to KEJ. The station says its format will remain the same.

MD Speff Jerber and I wandered around downtown NYC people-watching in Washington Square Park. We got to see our first real live cop car chase through the park! Who says these things only happen in the movies? We even saw four undercover 21 Jump Street cops arrest the guy. Speaking of the NYU area, isn't Laure the cleverest?...Check your mail for my newsletter and the next few issues of CMJ for you chance to win an acoustic guitar autographed by SARAH McLACHLAN. Fumbling Towards Ecstasy is Sarah's current album, "Possession" is the single. Other songs to investigate: "Good Enough," "Hold On" (which is slightly different from the No Alternative version), "Fear" and "Ice Cream." If you want to interview Sarah, call ASAP...Not since that "Things That Make You Go Hmmm" craze have people had such reverence for humming. The CRASH TEST DUMMIES' "Mmm Mmm Mmm Mmm" has taken America by storm! You guys all got this record months ago when it was released. You probably just tossed it aside, so please look again before telling me it wasn't serviced to you...THE CHURCH will have Sometime, Anywhere to you the end of May, with "2 Places At Once" as the first single on your desk in a few weeks. In the "don't quote me" department, some release dates have been "subject to later release," such as SPIRITUALIZED and the CRANES. THIS PICTURE in June, FAMILY CAT this summer and the Airheads soundtrack in June.

Sivan, Wax Trax!/TVT Records, New York, NY (212) 979-6410

What do A Tribe Called Quest, Disposable Heroes, Henry Rollins and the advent of acid jazz all have in common? The influence of the legendary GIL SCOTT-HERON. As the fusion of jazz and hip-hop prevails, we've witnessed a social norm defined. The times have finally caught up with this revolutionary, and there's no denying that Spirits is one of the most significant and anticipated releases of the 1990s. Spend some time with hip-hop's forefather, and let the world know what you think...SISTER MACHINE GUN launches a tour in support of The Torture Technique, with predecessors KMFDM. An unforgettable pre-show body-piercing party is scheduled for NY in May, and plenty of tickets, posters and cassettes will be available throughout the tour...Oh, and since I've been bragging, I shouldn't forget to mention that TVT signed CATHERINE. Billy Corgan produced their infectious EP Sleepy, to be released May 4 (name-dropping noted). In September, Butch Vig will serve up a Catherine full-length that'll undoubtedly be one of your favorite records this fall! These folks are just blistering with pop super-stardom!...Soon, look for CORDS' latest EP, Gasping For Air. Simply stated, it's fuckin' awesome. Enigma? Deep Forest? This month's flavor is a more intelligent New World endeavor: EthnoTechno, Volume 1. Pretty damn eclectic, hmmm?

Dorian Cummings, Cruz/SST/New Alliance Records, Lawndale, CA (310) 430-7687

By now all of you should be playing the new GREG GINN remix of "Don't Tell Me" from the Dick album as well as many of the great tracks from the RIG album Belly To The Ground. The tracks on the Rig album that kick my ass are "Tania" and "Buried Alive." Both projects are available on CD and vinyl. These two artists have just started their extensive United States and Canada tour and are inevitably coming to your town. This will be Greg Ginn's first tour in seven years (since his Black Flag daze) and this is Rig's first of many tours to come. If you haven't already seen the show, be sure not to miss it, cuz you'll definitely miss out and hate yourself the next day when everyone is saying how brilliant the show was and you have no idea what they are talking about. Look for GONE remixes, TRANSITION and TROTSKY ICEPICK to magically appear on your desk very soon. Thank you for your early support, and I am more than happy to be of service to y'all. Until next time...

Dietrich Schoenemann, Instinct Records, New York, NY (212) 727-1360

What up. The second day of spring and the first episode of Model By Day airs tonight...A big thanks to all who charted Rising High-Trance Injection. The INFLUX tracks in particular have received a strong response...On the acid jazz tip, New Voices has gotten props from everyone except the charts. Give me a call with your feedback...If it's not in your CD player already, Plug In + Turn On should be arriving any day. Too many standout tracks to list and almost all of the 19 tracks are exclusive to this compilation. Be sure to check out the debut of TERRE THAEMILTZ and the world's first look at PROTOTYPE 909 incorporating Midi into their sound. Definitely not a comp to be ignored...Let me leave you with some shouts to some stations that do the music some justice...WEVL, KQUA, WDJM, WQAC, WCUR, WKDT, WUNH, ACRN just to name a few. Peace.

Mike Kondo, Sky/Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA (800) 966-4244

Not to be offensive, but I'm just kinda curious to find out how many people in the viewing audience have been asked to be sperm donors (women excluded)? So much for the fun and frivolity. Thanks to all the stations who have been spinning the new FIVE-EIGHT CD Weirdo. The response has been really great, and the video for "Karaoke" will be available soon. Also the band is planning their first trip westward in May. Who was it that said go west young man?...Not to be overlooked is the new CD by the FLESHTONES Beautiful Light. The Fleshtones have been putting out great music since some of you were just eight years old. Now this is a band with longevity. Take a listen to "Mushroom Cloud" and watch for the 7" of "Take A Walk With The Fleshtones" soon to be on your desk as they say...Other projects coming up include MUSTANG LIGHTNING and BLUERUNNERS on Monkey Hill Records, which we will be distributing. Until then sit back and relax and enjoy the ride.

Adam J. Pollock, PolyGram Label Group, New York, NY (212) 603-3942

All you college radio types should have received the way cool MEAT PUPPETS Raw Meat 10" last week. It contains four non-Too High To Die tracks plus "We Don't Exist," and should help you keep the pups in heavy for a while. It will also be available (free with purchase) with the vinyl version of the album that's in stores 5/5. Now that the Meat Puppets, INDIANS, MATERIAL, In The Name Of The Father records are in various stages of (successful) development, it's time to start talking about some new music. FRETBLANKET are a lovely young four-piece from Stourbridge (home of the WONDER STUFF) whose first recordings came out on Neck Mohican Records. Their Twisted EP goes to college radio this week, look for the album in June. The debut from STAKKA BO and the wonderful new PAUL WELLER hits stores in May with tracks to radio in April. Stakka Bo are in the Stereo MC's vein, two guys and a girl from Stockholm doing the white boy rap/funk thing. In case you've been listening to REO Speedwagon for the last 20 years, Paul Weller was the founder of the most important punk/pop band of the late '70s and now makes great R&B-tinged rock.

So your life is a ball of confusion? Have you met me yet? Chances are not likely for I am never where I should be, almost never where I am. Perplexed? Swell. So the BRAND NEW HEAVIES and PANTERA fulls should be in everyone's players and at the top of the charts for comparisons to these have not yet been recorded on CD. So who doesn't like getting their teeth cleaned? Who doesn't like the DENTISTS? Catch 'em on tour at the 9:30 Club, DC, with Shonen Knife, first week in April. For other shows, keep your ears open, as well as your mouth, for the man with the fluoride and drill wants you to open wide. Did you catch BUFFALO TOM? They never cease to amaze me. A packed crowd in DC can't be wrong for the nicest band in the business to date. Look out for the new DAMBUILDERS and other wicked projects EastWest loves to conjure up. While words are available, and appreciations not yet announced—an enormous thanks to: WUMC, WGMU, WCUA, WDTS, WRGW, WVAU, WIRE, WGMB, WHSR, WFWM and of course WPLS. To others, you know who you are, continued support is always obliged and never forgotten. For info on up-and-coming releases, or just to express greetings and salutations, drop me a buzz anytime, or contact your local rep, for they're the coolest group of people in the biz. Stupid tacky messages are always accepted. Until next time...

Kerri Savage, Relativity Records, Torrance, CA (310) 212-0801

Go Syracuse! I'm still in the running, and I couldn't help but pick B.C. as runner up because I just love and miss Boston so damn much it's maternal...Things I'd add into heavy petting: OVERWHELMING COLORFAST...mmm...mmm...good. Even better than peanut butter, just ask batty. Meices—yum, I'm wearing my advance thin...Sucra Tape, the greatest new band from the most promising new bubbling mecca of sludge...Seana Baruth...wins...have I mentioned that Allister Crowley is my great grandfather? I love New York because in one week I can see Joel, Tim Michael and Andy, not to mention Raskin and Sohrab, Johnny Temple and Scott Roblowe, Eric's Trip, Chick and Joyce and Greg Dulli. Wow. Grab a friend and go see LUCY'S FUR COAT, they are love inducing and playing in your favorite club soon. PISS FACTORY's new EP is radio friendly and radio only—yeah! They are on tour and would like to meet you, business entity that you are and impress them with your knowledge of dirty clubs. A clean version of BLOOD OF ABRAHAM's Future Prophets CD going to radio and is a beanbag toss away. Extra credit: Who has my video tape? Answer: Dorks are overrated. Thanks for always being special. Dish dish dish...Ben, we will miss you in manic depressive raunchland.

RETAIL

Danielle Flores, Alternative Retail, Elektra Entertainment, New York, NY (212) 275-4031

Slante. There be a bit o' the usual turmoil in our midst, but fear not, as ye have already (at least, ye should have) acquired the latest sounds from our hallowed decks. Aye, that would be the likes o': LUNA's Bewitched (they're on tour with Low), TH FAITH HEALERS' Imaginary Friend (still some shows left avec the BREEDERS), the LEVELLERS' self-titled release (they're on the road with COMPULSION—who also have a CD5, "Boogie Woogie," out; Comforter, their full-length, is out in May), MOTLEY CRUE's Motley Crue (it is, zinks, a blessed record), POOKA's Pooka (it's magically delicious, check out this spritely duo, they'll be opening for Kristin Hersh), INSPIRAL CARPETS' Devil Hopping (they've never sounded finer), PHISH's Hoist (ahoy, it's mighty good) and STEVE WYNN's Fluorescent (his solo outing). Soon-to-be-outers: NICK CAVE & THE BAD SEEDS' Let Love In, VIOLENT FEMMES' New Times and DROWN's Hold On To The Hallow. Argh, we thinkst we need a bigger boat.

By the time you read this, it will be baseball season...and the new MEICES (External) record will be in your store. This slammin' three-piece will be on the road soon, and check your mail for a Meices retail display contest...TRIPPING DAISY's (Island Red) tour went great. Audiences love these guys, so you should all be aware. "Blown Away" is the next single, and the video is great, so look out for it...ONE DOVE played three West Coast shows to great response, look for them to tour soon as well. "E," the new single from LaTOUR, is getting a lot of attention at retail and clubs. Anyone out there who does well with dance music should check this out. LaTour will be touring beginning April 13...Also in the dance vein, "Aftermath", the solo project from TRICKY (4th & B'way) of Massive Attack fame, should be out about now. Slow and funky, it has a definite ambient feel, and gets under your skin quite nicely...Play WILLIAM S. BURROUGHS in your store and sell many copies...SHEEP ON DRUGS have a new one out, From A To H And Back Again, on Smash. More industrial dance for your local gothic bingo extravaganza...In case I haven't mentioned ORB yet, I know you're selling tons...I don't have room for everybody else, so if you need me, I'll be home watching The New Adventures Of Superman.

RADIO

Walter Valencia, General Manager, WODU, Norfolk, VA (804) 683-3441
Just wanted to mention that on April 15-17, 1994, WODU radio will be hosting a college radio conference here at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA. To be discussed are issues important to the college radio community: programming, security, music servicing, etc. It's free and open to all college radio stations and industry personnel who can make the trek down to the Old Dominion. Oh, I almost forgot to mention the bands we've got coming. Did I neglect to disclose that on Friday, we're gonna have the ROPERS, SMALL 23, HOSE.GOT.CABLE, FUDGE and PITCHBLEND? Or how about our Saturday line-up of SUPERCHUNK, POLVO, ARCHERS OF LOAF, PAINT, EDESEL, ULTRACINDY and POOLE? If you're interested in coming down or would like some more information concerning our event, please feel free to call the number above. Hope to see you there!

Kevin Curnow, Program Director, WXAV, Chicago, IL (312) 779-9858

Just a huge, big thanks letter. First to WALLY PLEASANT. Wally came here to the southside in February to play a benefit party for the station. Wally donated his services for the evening, and I think he probably greeted every guest personally. A truly nice guy! Next, everyone who sent door prizes for the party: Kris at Atlantic, Chuck at Virgin, Todd at EMI, Scott at A&M, Pete at EastWest and Rosie at Hollywood. Thanks! And, finally to Jenny at Rhino and David Hudson with ZI. This band fuckin' rocks live in concert! Dweezil with those riffs, Ahmet with those hips! Too much fun. Thanks for the help and understanding. Oh yeah, how about those Alligator guys? Three red-hot records: CHARLIE MUSSELWHITE, KOKO TAYLOR and now SUGAR BLUE. If you're smart you're already playing them and you know what I mean. Long live da blues!

Tes & Tex, Taco Shmell, KSCU, Santa Clara, CA (408) 554-4907

BRAT-ta-tat-ta-tat-MOBILE. Brrrrm. Brrrrmmm. Brrrrmmmm. Errrrck! Tex is in MWF 8:30-10 a.m. PST. Check out the NEST. Tes is MWF 12-2 p.m. PST. Yo-yo-me-go-go. Et tu? Bobb Amidon is now handling RPM/dance/techno/house/ambient music. He is in ThF 12-2 p.m. PST. Weeee. It's the GLEEEEE CLUB in S.F.! For your industry notes: KSCU reports to Hits also. Double bounce on that snare drum! Also, for those that always ask us about stores, Underground is gone, so scratch that. New store is Tower. Another one? Yes. This one doesn't have an indie section, but I was happy to find LOIS, Rock Kills Stars, International Hip Swing and Julep in there...So, the Capitol Records pigeonhole thing with LISA GERMANO didn't work out. Sure the 4AD thing is not shoe-gazing, but I still have trouble matching that title, Inconsiderate Bitch. Everyone who met her at Gavin knows she's a cool person. Hmmm. "Ow. My finger jingled like jello." Local schmocal stuff: SKETCH OLIVES, WADE, JFKFC, ENGORGED WITH BLOOD and the Nest.

Ribo, Music Director, KDNK, Carbondale, CO (303) 963-0139

By way of introduction, Ribo here (yes, I have a "real" name, but my friends call me Ribo—please feel free). I am a returning music director at KDNK, replacing Missy Bowen (who originally replaced me). Missy is now station manager of our exemplary community radio station, and we will continue to provide our listeners with a wide variety of the great music we receive. Although I'm here at least five days a week from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. MST, I prefer to take music calls on Thursday and Friday, as, like most community radio types, I wear many hats and am often involved in other projects elsewhere. My objective as music director is to provide the gamut of alternative music to KDNK's DJs and listeners, be it rock, blues, jazz, folk, world, NAC...whatever is good music on both independent and major labels. My own contribution to KDNK's varied programming is a show of "prog-rock" from around the world. Don't smirk—if your definition of "prog-rock" is SUPERTRAMP, you're missing out on some exceptional music from ANGLAGARD, EDHEL, OZRIC TENTACLES, and ECHOLYN and ANCIENT VISION from this country; from the Canterbury groups like SOFT MACHINE, CARAVAN and NATIONAL HEALTH, and the veterans still cranking out great tuneage like PHIL MILLER, ROBERT WYATT, RICHARD SINCLAIR and DAVE STEWART. And, thankfully, the list goes on...

Luke J. Smith, Co-Station Manager, WPUR, Purchase, NY (914) 251-6971

I thought it would never come, but finally spring is here, unfortunately I am stuck at home watching MTV's (horrible) third annual Spring Break show, for my spring-break. WPUR is currently updating our charter, bylaws, job descriptions, etc. We would love to know how other stations are currently running things; so if you want to send us a copy/or whatever, that would be great. The following people are no longer with us: James Lance, Ron Archer, and Christian Gunther. Please send stuff to: Dave Gorgos (indie/alternative/MD), Bill B. (loud/folk), Seth (jazz/world), IV, (blues), Sebastian B. (hip-hop/r&b/urban) and George (RPM, techno, dance). Thanks to Jason Smith (WCDB) for the wonderful tour, stickers, talk. Rebecca and Scott (of the SPINANES) for being the coolest, most down-to-earth, people in the world. The following bands bring joyful tears to my eyes: the Spinanes, COMBUSTIBLE EDISON, PAVEMENT, STEREOLAB, TH FAITH HEALERS, MORPHINE, UNREST, RAINCOATS and THAT DOG (whose song "Paid Programming," I love). Hey indies, WPUR loves you! (send more goodies). Last but not least, WPUR would love to distribute your 'zines on our campus (send us a copy). Ta ta for now, see you all later.

Matt Sullivan, Music Director, KASB, Bellevue, WA (206) 455-6154

Special thanks to Chuck at Virgin for the CRACKER tickets. It was a diverse set, which included music from rock to punk to country and back to rock again with the hit "Low" and then even some older CAMPER VAN BEETHOVEN material. For anyone sick and tired of cliched, white boy guitar rock, check out BEN HARPER Welcome To The Cruel World. Some suggested tracks are track #1 ("The Three Of Us") and track #2 ("Whipping Boy"). An album like this doesn't come out often, so show Ben some respect and take a listen to one of the best albums of the year. Another thank you goes out to Kris Metzdorf (I hope I spelled your name right) at Atlantic for an awesome SWEET WATER concert and for everything else. Hopefully Sweet Water's follow-up to their extraordinary major label debut will give them the recognition in which they more than deserve. Last but surely not least, thank you to Adam at Sub Pop for an awesome RED RED MEAT album. Other albums making noise here at KASB, include the latest releases from JAWBOX, GREEN DAY, NINE INCH NAILS and the DAVE MATTHEWS BAND. Thanks again to everyone. Goodbye!

John Anderson, Call Me Phlegm, Jack-Of-All-Trades, WVUR, Valparaiso, IN (219) 464-5383

I was talking to a label rep about Dialogues, and during the conversation she said, "Well, I don't read the Radio Dialogues because there's usually nothing important in them." Well. Just remember that we're not little radio whores...we're people. Checkmate. A few questions: When's the new RIDE due out? When will ELASTICA be released domestically? I've been predicting that they'll be big for almost half a year now, so when they do, you heard it here from Phlegm first. Somebody help me with these questions, and I'll give you a big, wet sloppy kiss. But until then, MEDICINE, the new PAVEMENT, BEASTIE BOYS, SUNDIAL, AUTECHRE, and most of all SAUSAGE (Les is God. Period). keep me content. Some thanks: Amy from AIM for her help in my selection for a new position at the station (for more details, call), Todd at American for the way cool EPs and especially Andrew Kaiser at WBCR for just being one of the coolest people to walk the face of this earth. It's nice to know that there are people out there that care to find out more about you than what you've posted for the week in your report. I feel loved again. And if you want to get in on the loving, you know where to reach me, and if you don't like the phone or fax, try the Internet address JNA8157@exodus.valpo.edu.

Brent Wilcox, Producer of Night Land, KOTR, Cambria, CA, and WorldWind and Cryptomusicology, KCBX, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 927-1953

Thanks a million to Tristar for releasing HECTOR ZAZOU! New stuff that sounds good to me right this instant...EAT, NINE INCH NAILS, VALENTINE SMITH, SWELL is, er, real good. And the remixed/remodeled LISA GERMANO (I liked the first version as well). Gotta rave some more over LATIN PLAYBOYS...BARK PSYCHOSIS is really nice, but has the most misleading name since CRASH TEST DUMMIES...THE EX & TOM CORA is excellent (though I like anything Tom does). Lots of requests for FRENTE's "Bizarre Love Triangle"...and AFRICAN HEAD CHARGE too. New! New! New! the FAMILY CAT, JONATHAN RICHMAN (en Espanol), BALAFON MARIMBA ENSEMBLE, LIBANA...can't have this whole Dialogue boldface, how about some small print right here...JAMES, the ORB, RICHARD PINHAS, BORIS KOVACS, and have I mentioned the SEALAND POETS yet again? It's just my opinion, but Incredibly Strange Music is really just incredibly kitschy music, and the novelty wears off quick. You want strange? Try the Yearbook, Vol. 3 compilation. Maybe I'll expand these blurbs into my own tip sheet and host flashy Wilcox Seminars in ten years. Any takers? New mailing address: 2450 Main St., Suite 1554, Cambria, CA 93428. Fax me at (805) 927-0384, email me at brent.wilcox@genie.geis.com.

Kip Ellis, Hip Hop/R&B Music Director, WARC, Meadville, PA (814) 332-3376

Hello, My name is Kip and I handle all the urban flava that comes out of our slamin' little radio station WARC. We are in an area where the only other outlet for rap or R&B is MTV Jams (and you know how that goes!) I've been in this position for almost two years and it's been phat. The only problem is when the industry contacts forget to look out for the little man. There are several labels that still can't get the service right, after two years and many phone calls. (You know who you are!) I am writing this Dialogue to give attention to them so that we can get this straight. If you are a rap/r&b promotions rep and you don't know me please call me at (814) 332-3376. My office hours are Tues. and Thurs. from 12-2 p.m. We play the most hip-hop and R&B in this area with shows on Monday and Saturday nights from 7 p.m. to 2 a.m., and my show the "Saturday Morning Smokeout" on from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. every Saturday. Please help make our shit even phatter. Feeling the turntables right now on WARC are: SUDDEN CHANGE, QUINTON, AHMAD, FREAKS OF NATURE, NKOTB, KMD and Big Blunts.

Shawn Scallen, Music Geek, CKCU, Ottawa, ON, Canada (613) 788-2898

1. My office hours are Wednesday and Thursday from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Eastern. Sorry to sound like a genital, but it is pointless to call me at any other time for "tracking" purposes because at any other time my computer isn't set up. (And I don't usually have a chart until 5:59 p.m. Tuesdays anyways.) 2. As well as being a music geek, I am a computer geek. You can Email me at an914@Freenet.Carleton.CA, it's a lot more convenient, time-saving and paper-saving to send me info there. Also I will "call" you back on Internet, as it is free. Please let me know if you are E friendly! 3. We play vinyl! From punk rok [sic] to techno to hip-hop. 4. Since our Top 35 appears here each week I will only fax charts upon request. If you really have to have a second copy of the chart, please call, email or fax (613-788-4060) me and I will fax you when your product charts. (I will mail/fax/email to labels/bands who do not get CMJ and I will fax specialty charts to all the labels who appear on them). 5. HOOVER, RODAN, PHLEG CAMP, CODEINE, SILKWORM, KEROSENE 454, BUZZOVEN, CRAIN, Divination, MATERI-

AL, DOC HOPPER, ANTON FIER, JAW-BREAKER, ORANGE 9MM, SINKHOLE, PRAXIS, STEEL POLE BATHTUB, STAR PIMP, KID CHAMPION...

William Marion, Station Manager, WPLS, Greenville, SC (803) 294-3045

Greetings from the Deep South. This is my first Dialogue entry and probably my last since I only have three months left in the world of academia. I have a very specific purpose behind this Dialogue entry so I try to keep it to the point and quite short. Last year someone from a record company (let's say X) wrote a Dialogue complaining about the lack of professionalism on the part of college radio in that college radio personnel did not: return phone calls, keep office hours, keep promises and keep their word. Well I am sure that this individual X had this problem, no doubt there are plenty of us out there. I recently had a run-in with a major label (I won't say who, I don't want to harp on anyone in particular). I spoke to this particular college department four or five times, four or five people took my number, and four or five people told me they would call me back on those respective days. Now I realize there are lots of stations out there and everybody is busy, but this is ridiculous (if you're too busy to call back then tell the college radio brat to call you back, don't make promises you can't keep). I am just trying to make reps aware that they need to pay the same courtesy that they are requesting from us. To anyone who's great about returning calls and doing what they say they'll do, please ignore this Dialogue, I don't mean to offend you.

Al Mitchell, Night Jock, WROX, Norfolk, VA (804) 640-8500

Greetings. Since this is my first Dialogue, let me introduce myself. My name is Al Mitchell. Some of you might remember me as MD for the new defunct WOFM in Chesapeake in the late '80s. Well it's been a few years. Anyway, I'm not the MD here, but I am the night jock at WROX. We're a new (six months) alternative, non-college commercial 50,000 watt station in the Hampton Roads market (Virginia Beach). I also host a special show once a week specializing in local, independent, import and otherwise underground material. I am in dire need of indie releases for programming this special show. Please address material to Al Mitchell, Nocturnal Transmissions, WROX, 500 Dominion Tower, 999 Waterside Dr., Norfolk, VA 23510. Fax (804) 622-WROX. I'm usually around for calls M-F 5-6 (Eastern). Thanks.

Eitaro Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI (808) 956-4848

Yo, we're back on CMJ charts from Ha-wa-ii. Catching rays for all you's in colder climates, KTUH is the only college radio station in the 50th state (and don't forget that we exist!), going strong at 100 watts. Of the recent music buzzes in Honolulu, there's one that all should take note of...the Jap-Rap (short for Japanese Rap) scene. Already receiving some exposure with MICROPHONE PAGER (heard on Tommy Boy's Planet Rap), TAKAGI-KAN and SDP (on DE LA SOUL's Buhloone Mindstate), and Brownsound Production releases, Jap-Rap is the new sound. Look out for RHYMESTER—smart lyrics (all in Japanese) giving insight to the daily life for Japan's youth (people labeling others according to blood types, trying to deal with seeing old schoolmates finding better success, emergence of pride for school uniforms...), mixed with pure fun, highlight their 1993 release Ore Ni Iwaserya (File/Sony). Key samples include Chaka Khan, Funkadelic, and even laughing babies! They've opened for NAUGHTY BY NATURE, ONYX and RUN-D.M.C. in the last months. Also demo in the works...ORIENTAL CONNECTION. Want to know more about this scene? Call me MWF 2-5 p.m. PST (5-8 p.m. EST). Jap-Rap. It's a dawn of a new style...On that note I'm out to the beach!

RED, HOT & COOL

The Supper Club, New York City, March 21

The latest installment in the acclaimed Red Hot series of AIDS awareness projects is Red Hot & Cool, a visionary collaborative blending the talents of young hip-hop and acid jazz stars with those of funky, venerable jazzmen. Produced in cooperation with Giant Steps, this gig was an invitation-only taping for the PBS special, Red, Hot & Cool. In true Giant Steps form, the line for the guest list was around the block, and the list in the doorman's hands looked like a veritable hip-hop/acid jazz version of the telephone book. Once inside the velvet ropes, one could see Don Cherry and the Watts Poets pave the way for a duet jam with Carleen Anderson and Ramsey Lewis, with the funky piano master laying out thick, groovy chords on the Fender Rhodes. Next up was one of the evening's early high points: Guru took the stage with Donald Byrd and British guitarist Ronny Jordan to recreate their collaborative tracks off of Guru's Jazzmatazz project. Already, the show was off to a flying start, and the intensity didn't abate for one second, as DJs Femme Fem of the Young Disciples, Jazzy Nice and DJ Smash spun unstoppable 12" sides in between bands. The next live music came from the Groove Collective, who were joined in this once-in-a-lifetime performance by legendary jazz drummer Tony Williams. Williams, known for his thick, percussive chops, slammed into his kit and laid down a pounding, irresistible, go-go-inflected groove. As the Collective jammed on "Buddha Head" from their new self-titled CD, he wreaked havoc on the hall with his incredible, polyrhythmic drumming; every 16 bars, he'd tuck into a breathtaking fill, and the crowd went even more berserk with each pass over his tom-toms. Next up was French rapper M.C. Solaar, who busted his unique French freestyle in a subdued, jazzy mood, with legendary bassman Ron Carter supplying the bottom end. Then it got even heavier: Me'Shell Ndegeocello jammed with Joshua Redman, and the two were joined by the elementary funk science of legendary guitarist "Wah Wah" Watson. Then, Dignity and Justice teamed up with Lester Bowie, Wah Wah and Joe Sample for a moving slow jam. Then, as midnight approached, the Last Poets took the stage, joined by tenor sax titan Pharaoh Sanders, who literally screamed through his horn, testifying on an impassioned, chaotic free-for-all rendition of the Poets' "This Is Madness," before Byrd, Jordan, the Groove Collective and about a dozen other of the night's performers crowded on the stage for a transcendental all-star jam on Sanders' "The Creator

Has A Master Plan." Okay, so maybe you weren't there, but rest assured you'll get to see what went down: Red, Hot & Cool will be released as a CD on GRP Records, and a two-hour AIDS awareness special, featuring performances and interviews, will air on PBS this fall. —James Lien

THE MONTH IN REVIEW

SOUNDGARDEN Superunknown (A&M)

"[On Superunknown], it's as if Soundgarden has taken the best parts of Temple Of The Dog and its own previous music, and moved into new realms, to where even the most cynical and jaded of listeners can only agree that Soundgarden is one of the most annihilating, shredding bands in whatever's left of hard rock these days."

UNITED FUTURE ORGANIZATION United Future Organization (Talkin' Loud/Verve Forecast-PG)

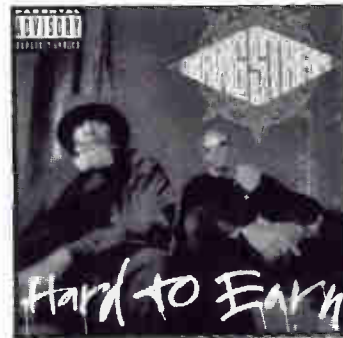

"With its blending of computer technology, raw soul grooves, hip-hop style and jazz finesse, U.F.O. is more than just a wild and exotic new flavor of hip-hop jazz; U.F.O. is one of those bands which not only comes up with fresh sounds and grooves, but reminds us what an interesting and exciting time we're living in right now."

PANTERA Far Beyond Driven (EastWest America)

"If, after 10 years of metal nearly drowning in its own big hair and faux biker excess, Pantera can render all the hyphenation arguments (alterna-/grunge-/industrial-) positively mute, wouldn't you loosen your waistband and bow down to this new, latest god? Well, start reaching for that buckle because Far Beyond Driven does exactly that."

GANG STARR Hard To Earn (Chrysalis-ERG)

"...rather than falling into pedantry (see BDP) or idle boasting (Run-D.M.C.), Guru couches his message in a hard, but still believable and honest style... Hard To Earn is stripped down to its fundamentals; 'my religion is rap,' Guru says. Believe."
