WHITE ZOMBIE

Astro-Creep: 2000 Songs Of Love, Destruction And Other Synthetic Delusions Of The Electric Head

Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069

White Zombie's much-awaited follow-up to La Sexorcisto is nothing short of spectacular; the 11 songs on its massively-titled opus are packed full of the dense, rhythmic funk and sleazy style that marked the band's major-label debut. Born of an aesthetic that combines horror movies, Russ Meyers images, lavish fashion and an emphasis on consistent style, White Zombie's music is only part of the White Zombie paradigm. The band's sound is distinguished by just how over-the-top it is; although most bands sound overblown when they cram this much sound into the grooves, anything shy of excess would sound paltry here.

The first single, "More Human Than Human," shares a similar sound to "Thunderkiss '65," the breakthrough single from the last record. The band alters its formula on the rest of the songs, however, leading to the thudding pound of "Blood, Milk And Sky," and the agonizingly slow lead-in to "Electric Head Pt. I (The Agony)," which eventually becomes a standard rock song; in fact, any of the songs here could be a single. White Zombie has done it again, and done it with a style all its own. In essence, Astro-Creep:

2000 is a soundtrack to a lifestyle that is beyond anything normal people experience, but put into the Zombie context it becomes the norm. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

PAVEMENT Woweë Zowee

Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012 212.995.5882

At the top of a medium-sized mountain and just beginning to climb a much bigger one, the guys in Pavement aren't kids any more. The band's great m.o. is irony; but how can we use it now that we're mature, they ask? By learning that there's power in not doing the obvious thing; that misdirection is a kind of suggestion; that you can say exactly what you mean if you pretend it's not, or pretend you're making fun of yourself. There's no "Cut Your Hair" on Woweë Zowee, because anthemic singles are only one mode of musical discourse, and Pavement can do anything it wants effortlessly. Instead, there's "Rattled By The Rush," a skeletal, stutter-step cry of bewilderment at impending responsibility; there's "Grounded," a John Cheever-ish sketch of a doctor, as mighty as a sob; there's the dead-on toss-off "Serpentine Pad." And there's a phenomenal three-song medley that fervently mocks and defends anomie ("AT&T," with its disintegrating chorus of "whatever whenever whatever"), rock (the screaming punk snot "Flux=Rad") and whatever's left of the culture of resistance ("Fight This Generation," an anthem that never quite works itself up into anthem-hood). Like the poet George Herbert,

Pavement invents a new form for every piece, each one wilder than the last and just as improbably mastered. And Pavement is still growing so fast that its imitators will never catch up. DOUGLAS WOLK

EVERCLEAR Sparkle And Fade

Tim Kerr, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

Oregon's Everclear follows up on last year's homespun wall-of-rock debut, World Of Noise, with Sparkle And Fade, a more developed three-dimensional, yet no less explosive, collection of tortured, full-blown guitar-based gems. The band's Seattle-ish sound and basement aura has been subdued somewhat—partly a result of a new drummer and a more professional recording environment—and the net effect is that its garagey/punkish side gets drawn out a bit more. But rest assured that Sparkle And Fade isn't any calculated retro-punk, Green Day soundalike—it noisily careens way too far out of control to fall into that category.

Singer/guitarist/producer Art Alexakis' bloodletting lyrics are still one of the band's hallmarks, with tracks like the more gentle "Strawberry" potently conveying the struggle against drug addiction. The reworked version of "Elektra Made Me Blind," which originally appeared on the band's Nervous & Weird EP, definitively reveals Everclear's newer direction with a smothering widescreen display of driving guitars and cymbals. Clearly profound: "The Twistinside," "Heartspark Dollarsign" and the volatile "Heroin Girl." AARON CLOW

TARA KEY Ear And Echo

Homestead, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800 212.675.9922

Tara Key and her various groups (Antietam, Babylon Dance Band), have always been more of a critics' fave than a popular one, and she's best known for her fervid guitar playing and charged performances; with her second solo album, Ear And Echo, however, Key reaches beyond her previously narrower scope. Considering the musicians who contributed their efforts to this album (most of whom are or were in Antietam), one might wonder why she needs a "solo" outlet, but on Ear And Echo it is clear that

Key has left her more rousing Antietam style behind her and headed down the road of hushed reflection. On many of the songs, Key swaps her signature electric guitar for an acoustic to play (dare we say) pretty pop songs. Even more subdued than Bourbon County, Ear And Echo reflects Key's arrival at the perfect blend of soft instrumentals and her often angular vocals. It's also more exploratory, juxtaposing the feedback and distortion-heavy "Left-Handed Way" against the bluesy twang of "No Tractor Blues," and even including an untitled sweet piano lullaby, the bundle of which is tied together with a thread (the size of a rope) of passion. Furtive-Work

Radio Chart Position: #44

With its third full-length, Ned's has stripped away some of the grungy dust of its debut and produced a fresh take on rock 'n' roll. Brainbloodvolume captures the Radio Breakthrough this week, proving radio's fondness for the group's new approach. With the incredibly long-titled but insanely catchy first single "All I Ask Of Myself," Ned's is making simple rock fun again. Stations turning up the Brainbloodvolume to #1: KRNR, KUCB, WBUQ, WCAL, WKNH, WPLS, WRST and WRUR.

ON THE CHART

Island's PJ Harvey is still holding strong to the #1 spot, though her crown is being threatened by the debut of Slash-Reprise's Faith No More at #2. Arista's Annie Lennox does not budge from #4 for the third week in a row, while both MCA's Pulp Fiction soundtrack (12-7) and Mammoth-Atlantic's Juliana Hatfield (#8 debut) enter the top 10. It's springtime and there are many new releases. This week's new entries include Reprise's Mudhoney (#11), Sire-Reprise's Wilco (#15), Drag City's Smog (#22), Arista's Real McCoy (#25), Arista's domestic version of Spiritualized (#28), 4AD's Red House Painters (#29), Thrill Jockey's Sea And Cake (#33), Elektra-EEG's Tank Girl soundtrack (#35) and Ol' Dirty Bastard (#41). Moving briskly up the chart is the single from Matador's Pavement (24-17), taken from the band's upcoming album. Epitaph's Offspring might be out of the top 10, but the band is still selling records after 54 weeks on the chart (54-34). The latest single from Drag City's Palace shimmies up the chart (49-37), as Will Oldham and group get ready to embark on their first-ever West Coast tour. Retail Position: #2

Slash-Reprise's Faith No More makes an impressive debut on the chart this week at #2. The band has come a long way since its breakthrough single "We Care A Lot": unlike many bands whose careers begin with a hit single, Faith No More has stood the test of time and subsequent releases. Charting Faith No More at #1 this week: Alternative Record Store, Atomic, C.D. Alley, Lou's, Main Street, Shake and Young Ones.

HUM You'd Prefer An Astronaut

RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036

Champaign, Illinois' Hum has grown by leaps and bounds since its first album on the Poster Children's 12-Inch label four years ago. From day one, the band has had to fight for space among a surplus of often derivative, Midwestern guitar-rock bands, but on You'd Prefer An Astronaut, Hum has hit its stride, leaving all its peers choking on its swirling dust storm. The band's sonic approach is simple: relentless, cascading guitar chords dynamically layered around some coolly-delivered vocals, packed together with an airtight sense of melody and rhythm. Songs like "Little Dipper" throw an additional batch of churning, heady electricity to the thick guitar soup, and "The Very Old Man" plays with a gentle interlocking of un-pedaled guitar and voice; but the album's most visceral impact is drawn from an ocean-sized wallop of contrasting harmonics, as on "Stars," "Suicide Machine" and "I'd Like Your Hair Long." The band's got atmospheric, mood and emotion to burn too, as evidenced by the six-minute closer "Songs Of Farewell And Departure," which lies in a spidery expanse of picked tones and hypnotic vocals. Fasten your seat belt, and don't forget to wear your space helmet. COLIN HELMS

MUFFS Blonder And Blonder

Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

Taking an equal number of musical cues from the Fastbacks, Joan Jett and the early brom-beat stylings of the Beatles, the Muffs' sophomore album, Blonder And Blonder, charges along rambunctiously with snappy garage beats and buzzing, punky guitars. While it may sound as if things haven't changed much in the two years since the band delivered its remarkable 1993 debut, we're pleased to report that here, at least, the status quo is a good thing—few bands seem as capable of injecting such an incredible happy-go-lucky vibe into their albums. Lead singer/songwriter Kim Shattuck screams of "I don't need your attitude" on the instant classic "Red Eyed Troll" suggest she's getting some hefty enjoyment out of her apparent exasperation. Perhaps most importantly, Blonder And Blonder easily passes the litmus test for any singles-based album worth its weight in guitars—just one listen breeds an effortless, instant familiarity with each song. One time through and you'll be bobbing your head forever to: "I Need A Face," "Laying On A Bed Of Roses" and "Agony." AARON CLOW

HARDVARK Memory Borge

Fistpuppet/Cargo, c/o DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd.,

Los Angeles, CA 90069

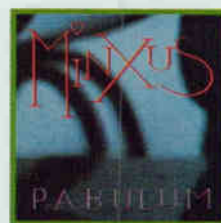

Rising out of the same Champaign/Urba scene in Illinois that spawned the Poster Children and current darlings Hum, Hardvark may share a few musical ideas with its neighbors, but does an admirable job of kicking and punching its ideas until they have conceded to the band's own set of contorted rock standards. Memory Borge, the trio's debut full-length, has its share of straightforward guitar-bent tunes, but really leans back and launches when its songs are peppered with an intriguing flurry of detuned notes, deft, criss-crossing rhythms and Jekyll-and-Hyde vocal shifts. The band knows how to wind its energy into tight little balls and release them at key moments, riding out an angular rhythm or building tension by carefully stringing riffs across a lumbering drum and vocal pattern. The best parts of Memory Borge come when the band is toying with these eccentricities and their resultant bursts of chaos, making a sound that's both actively dark and energetic. Jar your memory to: "Fawn," "Birdseed," "F-C-Wendy-9-4" and "Ropes Tricks Blues." COLIN HELMS

MINXUS Pobulum

Too Pure, c/o American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505

The band's name could connote flirtatiousness or liveliness, but while these terms are applicable to Minxus, they serve as only a tiny fragment of irony presented by the band, which lashes out at sexism, challenges sexual repression and shines a floodlight on behind-closed-door type sleaze. Slightly on the perimeter of the New Wave of New Wave (Elastica, Prolapse), these "indie-pop jazz-ers" put a little swing in their step, with grooves that shuffle and writhe seductively through angular song arrangements. Extreme dynamics accentuate the dramatic feel of Pabulum, the London trio's debut, which unravels like some sort of punk opera, starring singer She Rocola, a diva purging herself of a lifetime of degradation. Tongue deviously planted in cheek, Rocola lets loose with lyrics so blunt ("Vultura," "Wonderful Pair") they would cause Liz Phair to draw breath. Simple comparisons elude Minxus, but sonically, the band capitalizes on the breathing space afforded by three players, allowing the songs to ebb and flow in a raging current. Dive in: "Silk Purse," "Pabulum" and "I Live On Sand." STEVE SAVOCA

ROBYN HITCHCOCK You & Oblivion

Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900 310.474.4778

You & Oblivion is the culmination of Rhino's impressive endeavor to re-issue Robyn Hitchcock's "middle period" recordings (1980-87), and is the only collection of the bunch comprised solely of previously unreleased material. A 22-track bonanza, it consists of recordings made between 1981 and 1987, realized in a variety of locales around England, as well as a few from a live performance at KUSF in San Francisco. It's largely a solo acoustic effort, with Chris Cox or Andy Metcalfe on bass on a couple of tracks and Peter Buck adding 12-string guitar on the mellifluous "Birdshead." Tracks like "Take Your Knife Out Of My Back," "Victorian Squid," "Fiend Before The Shrine" and "September Cones" flaunt Hitchcock's peculiar wit, expanding on the decidedly British psychedelic folk tradition that has its roots in John Lennon and Syd Barrett. Instead of detailed liner notes, the CD booklet contains the first part of "The Professor," a typically eccentric story written by Hitchcock and James Fletcher; the story continues in the booklet for Invisible Hitchcock, an earlier compilation of outtakes and B-sides and companion piece of sorts to You & Oblivion. the great songs of the good old days, like "Smells Like Teen Spirit," "Black Hole Sun" and "The Freed Pig." You Must Remember This might be the first time you hear "Cry Of The Wild Goose" or "Mighty Mississippi"

(a song about the 1927 flood), but these '20s, '30s and '40s pop hits drove the kids wild back in the days before rock 'n' roll. Peter Stampfel (who, in the early-'60s groups the Holy Modal Rounders and the Fugs, pioneered what was called "folk rock," music much more deranged and drug-induced than the term might lead you to believe today) is a walking encyclopedia of old-time songs, but he doesn't just remember them, he reinvents them, poking them with a sharp wit while producer/co-arranger Mark Bingham (former right hand man to Hal Willner) provides each song with a delightfully different backing treatment (country, gospel, Dixieland, R&B, doo wop, accordions, vacuum cleaners!). Stampfel's no Pavarotti, but his idiosyncratic warble is peculiarly endearing—you'll find yourself rooting for his underdog voice to hit the high notes. Along with a few ditties we recognized from Bugs Bunny, and the "Goldfinger" theme snuck in with bluegrass disguise, Stampfel has breathed new life into some forgotten classics. DAVID NEWGARDEN

PETER MURPHY Cascade

Beggars Banquet, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

Gothic icon, prolific songwriter and longtime talent, Peter Murphy has arrived at his fifth solo album, 12 years after the disbanding of his influential first band Bauhaus. Having recorded his last three solo albums with his backing band the 100 Men, he takes a different tack for Cascade, recording and writing with Paul Stratham. Murphy's vocals—subterranean in their depth and as enveloping as sheets of Saran Wrap—remain the hallmark of his music, coloring the songs in dark hues and giving them strength and substance, but they flow more evenly throughout Cascade's 11 songs, adorned by a broader spectrum of backing vocals and instrumentation. The songs are alternately decorated with gristly guitar lines, courtesy of noted six-stringer Michael Brook, and thick keyboard lines, which blanket the moody but effective pieces. Start your descent with the first single "The Scarlet Thing In You," a surprisingly effervescent song buoyed by its crunchy guitar lines, and the moody, tense "Disappearing," with somber horns chiming in. BUTTHOLE SURFERS

The Whole Truth And Nothing Butt

Trance Syndicate, P.O. Box 49771, Austin TX 78765 512.454.3266

When the Butthole Surfers first emerged out of Texas in the early '80s, the world hadn't seen anything like them. And come to think of it, it still hasn't, which is really saying a lot. And with the band currently on hiatus (though rumors of a new record by the summer could well be true), it's nice to see some new Buttholes in the bins. The Hole Truth..., originally released as a bootleg on the Totonka label, culls together live and studio recordings from '82-'93, including some rare early demos and some daytime mayhem from their mid-day slot on the first Lollapalooza. For fans of the band's wild early years (as opposed to their wild later years), it's an indispensable document. Strange stage monologues, weird bullhorn feedback, garbled guitar solos—all that's missing here to make the Buttholes' live experience complete are the topless bald dancer and the driver's education movies and episodes of Charlie's Angels running backwards on a screen behind them. Most of their greatest moments are here in previously unheard forms: "Moving To Florida," "Lady Sniff," "John E. Smoke" and "The Shah Sleeps In Lee Harvey's Grave." Also included is a surreal radio interview from WNYU in New York; listen carefully, 'cause a lot of it moves really fast, and the Buttholes have such twisted logic and rapid-fire repartee that you have to listen two or three times just to catch it all. VARIOUS ARTISTS King Of The Jungle

Instinct, 26 W. 17th St. #502, New York, NY 10011 212.727.1360

A compilation of tracks originally released on the British label Kickin, King Of The Jungle has 20 jungle ambushes spread out over two CDs—a terrific sampler of the capacities of the still-new genre. Most of these tracks suggest a high-speed collision of dancehall, hardcore techno and Chicago house records with the speed control pushed up all the way, but the debris flies differently every time. It feels underground: raw, underproduced, wired to the gills and rough as hell. A lot of King Of The Jungle sounds like it'd be a challenge on the dancefloor, unless you were already so wired that nothing could pry you away from that 170 bpm pulse—that's probably the idea. DJ Monk's "I Spy" trades off a standard jungle battery and half-speed ragga vocal hooks; Bizzy B &

Peshay's amazing, out-of-control "Merder Style" has audible vinyl crackling and keeps breaking down into dub spasms where the beat is inaudible or irrelevant. Other highlights include DJ Massive's "Dance Hall Massive," which opens the compilation and centers on four or five tiny vocal samples that balance each other like arranged flowers, and the nearly Dada "Maximum Style Dub Plate" by Tom & Jerry And DJ Stretch, which jumps on an old lover's rock ballad and a couple of other reggae records and rearranges their face with a brutally wielded editing knife and some gloriously obnoxious Space Invaders noises. DOUGLAS WOLK

RED HOUSE PAINTERS Ocean Beach

4AD, 8533 Melrose Ave., Ste. B, Los Angeles, CA 90069 310.289.8770

Right from Ocean Beach's bright-eyed, folksy intro, the instrumental "Cabezon," it's clear that Red House Painters' fourth album embarks upon a different shore than its predecessors. Although Ocean Beach isn't a huge departure from the moody, neutral-toned soundscapes etched by the band's previous recordings, its clean sound and more controlled use of studio effects emphasizes the band's playing and Mark Kozelek's vocals and lyrics. The relaxed feel of "Cabezon" is reinforced by "Over My Head," a warmly suggestive, acoustic guitar-based song whose almost bouncy acoustic guitar solo and accordion break stand in contrast to the band's generally more restrained playing. The spare "Shadows," shaped solely by Kozelek's voice with piano and organ accompaniment, and the impressionistic "Brockwell Park" uphold the band's high standard for reflective mood pieces, while "Moments," which escalates in intensity over eight minutes, affirms its reputation for the elegiac. Also dip into the delicate "Summer Dress" and the quietly engulfing "San Geronimo." LYDIA ANDERSON

DISCO INFERNO In Debt

Ché, Carrot Top, 2438 N. Lincoln Ave., 3rd Fl., Chicago, IL 60614 312.929.9117

Disco Inferno's latest offers yet another look into the mysterious world of melancholia. In Debt, a compilation of tracks from early EPs and an LP, delivers nearly 72 minutes of unadulterated gloominess. The appeal of D.I.'s somber style lies in its ability to convey as much through the manipulation of sounds as through the manipulation of words. Disco Inferno is for the sophisticated shoegazer: the band doesn't rely on depressing lyrics to convey its tone, but rather its proficient use of various synth elements and its keen sense of timing, which makes each song delightfully dreary, not unlike Joy Division. The 16 songs embrace the listener with their omnipresence, each track crashing over you like a tidal wave of despair and the undertoe wrestling you to the floor, where you are taken prisoner to the clandestine musings of frontman Ian Crause. His vocals are a puzzle, muted and low-key. When his voice rises to an audible level, the cryptic nature of his lyrics promises to leave you scratching your head, or pulling out your hair. "You'll never be like angels/Can't you see you'll never shine," Crause mutters on "Bleed Clean." Though its moniker describes all the things it is not—flashy, upbeat pageantry—Disco Inferno, with its ethereal, morose style, is absolutely brilliant. JENNY ELISCU

OMNI TRIO Music For The Next Millennium

Sm:)e, 740 Broadway, New York, NY 10003 212.529.2600

Jungle is the music of instant gratification—music for people who can't get to the beat or the break fast enough. It's in your face, relentless, and ideal for the on-demand-crazy turn of the millennium. Which is where the Omni Trio comes in. The Trio is actually just one person, Rob Haigh, assisted by a small set of sampled divas (each song centers on a very short vocal sample, like what Todd Terry used to do on his Unreleased Project series). Music For The Next Millennium, basically a collection of British hit dance tracks, is the first domestic full-length single-artist jungle album. Taken as a whole, it can be a little much: getting 12 straight tracks of the same kind of instant gratification is as overwhelming as eating an entire Black Forest cake, or getting a massage that leaves bruises. A track at a time, though, it's invigorating. Jungle is too young to have any real rules, but Haigh is already breaking off from the pack, playing down the dancehall beats and bringing in hints of gentle synth ambience to balance the battering rhythms. "Renegade Snares" even has a chord progression and a bridge. Party like it's 2000 with "Living For The Future (Original Mix)," "Together" and "Mainline." DOUGLAS WOLK

PREACHER BOY & THE NATURAL BLUES

Preacher Boy & The Natural Blues

Blind Pig, P.O. Box 2344, San Francisco, CA 94126 510.526.0373

Sounding kinda like Tom Waits covering Son House or Charlie Patton, or R. Crumb And The Cheap Suit Serenaders out on a weekend bender, Preacher Boy testifies like he's about to expire at any second. Offering up a refreshing and modern take on the blues and unafraid to cast the genre in a new light, he's not your run-of-the-mill old-timey blues revivalist. It's easy to imagine Preacher Boy sharing a bill with G. Love & Special Sauce, Keb' Mo', or other such postmodern, blues reinterpreters; he's not quite as trashy (or hard-rocking) as Doo Rag or Jon Spencer, but he's not staid or bland either. Importantly, Preacher Boy and his bandmates pick up on many of the elements of original blues that are all too often missing from today's rendition of the music: blues as good time music, not as depressing "woe is me" fare. While others reduce the blues to "poor boy long ways from home" clichés, Preacher Boy picks up on the fun and wry sense of humor of the early blues. For instance, "Epitaph" takes a humorous look at names and checkwriting (one can imagine the snickers he's received trying to cash a check made out to "Preacher Boy"). "Please Call My Baby" is a rousing stomper and "De Vamp" is an accurately named raveup, little more than a monstrous riff played over and over again while Preacher Boy screams and hollers on top. JAMES UEN earned England's Senser widespread acclaim overseas. In its original conception, the septet (formed in 1990) was a three-piece thrash metal band. When Saudi Arabian native Heitham Al-Sayed joined as vocalist and percussionist, the band's direction changed. His shrewd political rhymes became a key element of Senser's current sound. Sayed doesn't tiptoe around issues; his biting raps address oppression and social inequities with energy and passion. Soulful vocals by Kerstin Haigh give Senser's songs added appeal. On "Peace," Haigh's smooth, steady voice is a welcome break from Sayed's angry rants. When the two voices mingle together, as in "What's Going On?," Senser's songs are all the more memorable. The polemic nature of Senser's compositions never overtakes the allure of the music itself; on the surface, Senser remains adept at crafting funky, agit-pop songs—its rhymes and infectious beats lingering in your head long after the song is over. JENNY ELISCU

VARIOUS ARTISTS Blackmarket Unreleased

Freeze, c/o Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028 213.467.0151

Like a gardener planting seeds in a garden, this compilation, spotlighting a burgeoning new label, plants new, largely unheard artists in hip-hop's fertile soil. This is not a collection of half-baked demos; these 10 artists are a fully matured and ready to be sopped up by major label headhunters. Shanow—who was once part of Rumpelstiltskin—delivers a slow funk flow on "Remedy Man (Known As The Shanow)," while the emphatic raps on the Jigmastas' "Dayz Of Our Lives" speak directly about the struggles of life in the 'hood. The breathless reggae grind of MC Lyrics' "Woman In The Ghetto" is set off by a sample of Craig Mack's "Flava In Ya Year" for the compilation's most infectious cut. Producer Frankie Cutlass creates a spacious funk-filled environment for MCs Ray Boogie and True Da Grync (who are featured on Cutlass' "Boriqua's On The Set" single) to trade off their solid, chest-beating rhymes. There are no marketing ploys or gimmicks here, just pure, unadulterated music from hip-hop's rising underground. GLEN SANSONE

JOYKILLER The Joykiller

Epitaph, 2798 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90026 213.413.7353

The Joykiller could pack a few rooms with all of the other bands its members have been in. Their collective resume reads like a who's who of Southern California punk, with such seminal bands like TSOL, the Gun Club, the Weirdos, Down By Law, the Vandals and the Adolescents, among others, under their belts. The varied sounds of the members' histories coalesce in the Joykiller, and the result runs the gamut from the most basic in bare-bones hardcore to the relative excesses of Rob Halford-inspired vocals and wailing guitar solos. The biggest difference between the Joykiller and so many of the bands that came before them, however, is its impeccable sense of melody. Though these songs speed by on whizzing guitar and the agile singing of Jack Grisham (legendary ex-frontman of TSOL), they appeal with tricky melodies crammed into short blasts of testosterone-powered fury. The Joykiller features nine tunes from releases prior to this first for Epitaph, but we recommend "Show Me The System," "I Wanna Drink Over You" and "Baby Sitter." CHERYL BOTCHICK

TAD Infrared Ridinghood

EastWest, c/o EEG, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

Corpulent grunge non-icon Tad Doyle and his self-named band have been through a few scuffles over cover art (the most memorable being the bastardized Pepsi logo of Jack Pepsi) and a few labels as well (Sub Pop, of course, and more recently Mechanic) in their relatively short existence, so this EastWest debut could be the first time in its six years that the band sees some of the recognition that its fellow Seattle natives have so far enjoyed. In the past, Tad records were more akin to the grinding sludge of the Melvins, but Infrared Ridinghood sees the band shrugging off excessive grunge stylings for a record that remains appealing to fans of metal and grime, while also offering songs and melodies as opposed to just riff and feedback. Tad's voice varies more than before—sometimes in a familiar throaty growl and other times carrying the dominant strain of the song—so that the band's horizons are expanded to include hard rock head-bobbers like "Dementia" and "Ictus." Diehard fans might want to try the more slovenly "Tool Marks" or "Emotional Cockroach." CHERYL BOTCHICK □

DAHLIA SEED/GARDEN VARIETY"Statement Of Purpose"/"Parker" (7")

Mint Tone, 161-26 Cross Bay Blvd., Ste. 150, Howard Beach, NY 11414

These two Northeastern bands have come together with two ripping rock songs. On Dahlia Seed's "Statement Of Purpose," Tracy Wilson's over-the-top, guttural vocals and heart-wrenching lyrics blanket the solid foundation of droning guitars. The much-talked-about Garden Variety lives up to the hype on the B-side's "Parker" a near-perfect punk pop song ending in a wall of noise. DAWN SUTTER

SUMMER HITS*1000 Moments Of Natural Flotation (7")

Silver Girl, P.O. Box 161024, San Diego, CA 92176 619.282.9843

If My Bloody Valentine had been a Beach Boys contemporary, and recorded on an eight-track board set up in the garage, it might have sounded like the Summer Hits. Chiming coils of melodic guitars and steel wool-like masses of distorted ones leap off the three cuts on the SoCal band's second single. The crunchy "Laetitia" chugs along with woozy abandon, while "Liftoff" slows the pace down, its tremoloed guitars eventually succumbing to an annoying cassette feedback tone. "Mod Cinema" sprawls over the flipside, working itself up to a satisfyingly repetitive motif that would make Unrest proud. LYDIA ANDERSON

PALACE "West Palm Beach" (7")

Palace, c/o Drag City, P.O. Box 476867,

Chicago, IL 60647 312.455.1015

Palace has become quite prolific in the past year, releasing an album and an EP within six months of each other, along with two singles, and there are plans for a new album later this year. This latest single recalls the Palace Brothers' debut album There Is No One What Will Take Care Of You, marking a return to a full-band sound with a sparse feel. "West Palm Beach" and

"Gulf Shores" share more than just related titles: compared to previous Palace songs, both evoke thoughts of almost restful days and balmy nights with their lazy guitars and peaceful keyboards, while still weaving the kind of mournful epic tales Palace is known for. DAWN SUTTER

MAGNETIC FIELDS"All The Umbrellas In London" (7")

Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514 919.929.0711

By now Stephin Merritt's largely electronic recordings (with the Magnetic Fields and the 6ths) are receiving some much-deserved attention. This single's melancholy A-side strolls at an even pace, bells chiming, electronic strings ringing, while Merritt sings, just audibly (lyrics are included for the curious), about rain and depression. "Rats In The Garbage Of The Western World," on the flipside, is quite different from Merritt's recent recordings without being a huge departure: with a faster beat and vocal delivery, it swings like an early Depeche Mode or Soft Cell club hit, its bleeping synths swirling around an imaginary dancefloor. LYDIA ANDERSON

ALGER HISS Alger Hiss

Alger Hiss, 416 E. 9th St. #20, New York, NY 10009

212.673.7197

New York trio Alger Hiss' six-song cassette is extremely promising. The songs are not only well-performed, exhibiting the band's honed musicianship, but the compositions are intriguing both stylistically and structurally. Employing an engaging blend of aggressive rhythms and dissonant guitar work, Alger Hiss delivers songs that are fraught with passion and energy. Vocalist/guitarist Jordan Mamone adeptly crafts sparse vocal lines that, when they do surface, are even-toned and low-key. In most instances, these melodies are set against a guitar haze that begins quietly but quickly reaches a crescendo, bursting into a high-decibel assault that washes over you like a flood of sound. On "Ground Glass," Mamone's frenzied chord-work is matched by a brief, but cathartic, vocal wail that conveys the taut mood of the piece. "Cast Stiff"'s furious pace is infectious, showcasing drummer Hajji Majer's versatility. Revealing their labyrinthine structures, Alger Hiss' songs are structurally elaborate, but not so complicated as to be imposing. Once you get lost in the maze of these songs, you'll never want to leave. JENNY ELUSCU

BISON Low Speed Chase (EP)

Bison, 7 Locust Terrace, Cambridge, MA 02138

617.491.9492

Not that it necessarily needs to, but Bison's tape could get by solely on the strength of the irresistible pop songwriting of its lead track, "Dead Center." Powered by a snappy rhythmical bed chased by a tightly wound stop-and-start guitar line, the song's chorus hook is tough to resist, punched out by gritty vocals and crisp breaks. The rest of Bison's demo is nearly as impressive: What it lacks in wisdom it more than makes up for in earnest delivery and the youthful bravado of some clever songwriting twists and turns. Kinetic speed is key to the fervent pulse of songs like "Kerosene," whose blurred guitar strum makes up the focus of the song. Even on the EP's least successful tune (an angsty number that, as far as we can tell, addresses Kurt Cobain's suicide), the band cancels out its thematic goof with the power of its delivery. In time, Bison's riff-writing instincts and power-pop sensibilities should hit the mark with more and more regularity, making for a tough and spirited rock band. CHERYL BOTCHICK

Blue Note, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

The period in Blue Note's history from about 1967 to about 1972 was, in some sense, the crucible for everything from fusion to acid jazz. Jazz musicians, casting about for inspiration, found it in the amazing soul and, especially, funk records that were on the radio. As funk made its way from "Cold Sweat" to Parliament, it established itself as a rich and flexible field for improvisation. Instead of the complex, solo-impeding changes of more formal pop, it had only a few basic chords in each piece and interesting rhythmic devices for a challenge, and if a particular vamp sounded good, it could be extended as long as needed. The jazz musicians who picked up on funk gave it back their extraordinary musicianship, not only in their solos but in their grooves. Less obvious and looser than James Brown, Sly Stone and the Meters' originals, jazz-funk has become the thing to sample (Blue Note's Blue Break Beats albums are wildly popular) and to imitate (acid jazz pretty much owes its existence to this stuff). It's also great to just listen to—with grooves stretching out for six minutes or more, it's easy to get caught up in it and just sit there bobbing your head happily. The newest batch of the label's Rare Groove series includes five "lost groove" titles—the compilation (awesome unissued tracks and alternate takes—check out Reuben Wilson's "Hold On, I'm Comin'"), trumpeter Donald Byrd's Kofi, B-3 organist John Patton's Boogaloo and Lonnie Smith's and Lou Donaldson's live albums. It's a testament to the creative fertility of the musicians and the depth of Blue Note's archives that the unreleased titles are as good as their reissued cousins. Smith's Live At Club Mozambique is the best of the bunch, kicking off with a fiery take on James Brown's "I Can't Stand Myself" (oddly listed as "I Can't Stand It" and credited to Smith) and happily grooving along for an hour-plus more. Green's 1969 Carryin' On isn't all great—the promising-sounding "Cease The Bombing" is the slow, Muzak-y mood-spoiler that seems to have been a contractual obligation for most of these titles—but it's got great James Brown and Meters covers, and Green's own "Upshot," which could just as well have been an original by one of them. And Kofi, though it's the least funky of the bunch, strictly speaking, is also one of the most interesting: five extended, African-inspired pieces (with Brazilian percussion!) that point towards early-'70s fusion. DOUGLAS WOLK

Column by James Lien

LUCKY DUBE Trinity

Tabu, c/o Motown, 5750 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90036 213.634.3500

After a long-running string of excellent albums for Shanachie, South African reggae star Lucky Dube steps into the major label arena with Trinity. And while some might presumably fear dilution of his message in the face of the mainstream, the results are pleasingly to the contrary. Like recent efforts from Barrington Levy or Steel Pulse, Trinity puts Dube's strength to the fore without compromising his talents to meet commercial expectations. "Feel Irie," the album's lead track, is a confident clarion call for the power of reggae music, and the track is jammin'. To these admittedly somewhat jaded and cynical ears, which have heard an awful lot of watered down commercial reggae in their day, it's kind of unexpected to hear Dube call out "We feel Irie" near the song's end and have it ring so true—the production is big and glossy, the sounds are modern and awash in digital sheen, but it is irie. There's a few R&B moments that sneak in later in the CD, but for the most part, this is exactly where this kind of classic reggae should be—not relegated to the graveyard of a vintage reissue bin or smeared with layers of R&B-oriented overdubs. This is real reggae, pure and simple, powerful and irie. Other great cuts: "Trinity" (featuring strings by the Soweto String Quartet), "My Brother, My Enemy" and "Big Boys Don't Cry."

MIKEY DREAD Come To Mikey Dread's Dub Party ROIR, 611 Broadway, Ste. 411, New York, NY 10012 212.477.0563

There's nothing more intriguing than the idea of Mikey Dread picking up the phone and calling a few of his friends over for a Dub Party. And with friends like Flabba Holt, Style Scott, Jackie Mittoo and the late Bingy Bunny, you know what kind of party it will be—a crucial one. And so it is with Mikey Dread's latest, although sometimes this CD relies a little too heavily on electronics—"computer dub" is an oxymoron, like police protection or athletic scholarship. Real musicians paid by the hour can provide more blood and fire than the most elaborate programs some Silicon Valley whiz can put together. Still, many tracks stand out, among them "Sound Check," "Tourist Dub," "Haile Selassie Centenary Dub" (which loses much of its punch since the Centenary, like most of these recordings, occurred in 1992), and "Joyride," which will have fans of vintage '70s reggae smiling with its motorcycle sound effects. Significantly, this is one of the first new releases produced for CD by the ROIR label, a longtime reggae stalwart on the cassette market which previously licensed its tapes to overseas companies for CD release; Michael even includes a "(ROIR) Commercial Dub" that boasts, "Going on tour? Buy a cassette from ROIR!" Mikey's always been a figure to watch in dub circles, and with Dread at the controls of this party, it's a dubbed out and crucial time, indeed.

BLAMELESS The Signs Were All There China, 111 Frithville Gardens, London W12 U.K. 081.742.9999

America is still the prime source for post-R.E.M. rocksters updating American roots and folk-rock sincerity—Counting Crows and Live, to name two. After a debut single ("Signs") on Rough Trade Singles Club and two more with China, Sheffield quartet Blameless can lay claim to such exalted company on the evidence of this debut album. Not that The Signs Were All There is American-concentrate—the record capably reflects the band's British heritage, imbibing Scots blue-eyed soul, Northern R&B grit and a guitar sensibility that generally connects to indie rock. Singer Jared Daley suitably falls somewhere between an open-larynxed Sting and a British Eddie Vedder—a gravelly, natural soul voice that spearheads a collective mastery of melodic resignation. The wistful, out-of-sorts melancholy permeating the songs is derived from a particularly British source too, that of adolescent pains suffered under '80s yuppie/capitalism and urban decline—Margaret Thatcher's legacy, in other words. The band's desire to escape its surroundings is note-for-note mirrored by some achingly gorgeous melodies—the waltz-rhythmic "So Debonair," the lilting "Made Up My Mind," the opening brace of "Town Clowns," "Don't Say You're Sorry" and a re-recorded "Signs," plus more quasi-thrash charges like "Blueprint" and "What If?." While talk of Brit invasions is based around the likes of Blur and Oasis, the chances are that Blameless will be the one to transcend the transatlantic barriers.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

FLINCH was voted Best New Unsigned Band at 1994's In The City convention; the trio's second single "Jamie D" is clear evidence why. Both tracks—the B-side being the slower, throbbing "Salt"—are lean, sensual, nervy buzz-pop located between the Breeders and Elastica. Until another word comes along to replace 'sassy,' then 'sassy' will have to do, but this is unflinching, grown-up territory, with lasting melody. Note: the band is signed to Dilo!, formerly known as Clawfist, the label started by Nick Brown of the Membranes (Dilo!, 231 Portobello Road, London W10 U.K. 0171.267.5228)...

DARYL ANN is a rare Dutch export—O.K., name more Netherlanders who draw from the guitar-pop classicists—Crosby, Beatles, Stills, Beach Boys, Nash, Big Star and Young. After last year's debut single and a six-track EP and a recent personnel change, the debut album is trailed by "Stay," which, like the following "Hot Smoke Sassafras," employs DA's usual crafted fluency and lightness of touch, airlifting those clean, chiming guitar lines and keening harmonies. The honeysweet formula doesn't always work—the band's cover of Big Star's "Thirteen," while closely tracking the original, needs something to replace Chilton's unmimicable doleful beauty (Hut, 429 Harrow Road, London W10 U.K. 0181.960.6195)...Taken from the band's debut album Workshy, London quintet ANIMALS THAT SWIM's new single "Pink Carnations" is about as pop as these Animals get, with the group's unique mix of breezy laconicism, with flighty, bleak trumpet at the fore. Four new tracks bulk up the 7" and CD versions—"Kandy Kars" and "Del Fresco" are short, offbeat instrumentals in between "New Boots" and "Harry Dean." More songs for sitting around the pub or kitchen table to, then, with subtle hooklines and that affecting Raymond Carver-ish imagery (Elemental, 64 Mountgrove Road, London N5 U.K. 0171.359.2232).

FURTHER OUT

KIM SINH The Art Of Kim Sinh

King, 2-12-13 Otowa Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 112, Japan

The King World Music Library is a pretty great collection of close to a hundred albums of musical traditions from around the world, but this one is a particularly amazing and unusual treasure. Released in Japan in 1992, it came to my attention in our own CMJ New World column (thanks to international playboy Cliff Furnald), but only recently was I able to find a copy for sale (it's now getting widespread distribution by Koch). Unlike most artists recording for King, blind singer Kim Sinh is not a strict traditionalist but plays cai luong, a popular Vietnamese song style based on traditional folk music of Vietnam and China, and apparently some Western influence. Sinh sings and plays the traditional dan nguyet, but when he pulls out a loosely strung, homemade Hawaiian bottleneck guitar and an amplifier, tradition goes down the toilet. Although he claims to have never heard American blues and jazz, Sinh's bent notes, bluesy slides and meandering improvisations seem to be partially born of the Mississippi Delta. In a haunting voice, Sinh sings of loneliness and heartbreak, and as the badly translated (and sometimes comic) liner notes point out, the music has an "oddly warped, unique flavor."

GAMELAN PACIFICA Trance Gong

What Next?, c/o Nonsequitur, P.O. Box 344, Albuquerque, NM 87103 505.224.9483

Gamelan Pacifica is a Seattle-based group playing original compositions for Indonesian gamelan. Most of the material on Trance Gong is very faithful to the traditional sounds, with a bit of rhythmic experimentation and electronic processing which doesn't disturb the spirit. American antecedents such as Lou Harrison, Anthony Davis and Harry Partch have borrowed from gamelan but taken it much further away from the original. While I applaud Gamelan Pacifica's very competent display of this demanding discipline, the group is more interesting when it is less faithful and staid. On the title track, an unidentified looping plucked (banjo-like) instrument is joined by deliriously swirling chimes and a vigorous rototom drum orgy. The beautiful and vibrant "Gending Erhu" is composed for a made-in-U.S.A. aluminum gamelan and an erhu (chinese fiddle), which plays a lyrical melody line over a stately gamelan rhythm, much like Harrison's work for gamelan and mixed instruments. John Cage's 1948 piano work "In A Landscape" is nicely re-orchestrated for gamelan. The liner notes are quick to point out that this was done with Cage's approval, but I'd be more interested in hearing an interpretation that Cage didn't approve of.

ANOUAR BRAHEM Khomsa

ECM, 1540 Broadway, 33rd Fl., New York, NY 10036

Khomsa, Anouar Brahem's fourth ECM album, consists of compositions originally written for Tunisian film and theater, but he's re-recorded this material in a loose improvisational setting, without the structural constraints of soundtracks. Brahem plays the oud, Arabic forefather of the lute and the guitar, and a good part of the character of Khomsa stems from the beautiful sounds of the oud, accordion (Richard Galliano) and violin (Bechir Selmi), in addition to these musicians' adventurous and inspired improvisations, both in solos and in various combinations of instruments. The music touches on jazz, Tango Nuevo and Tunisian flavors, with frequently obvious filmic drama. There's only a bit of the generic "ECM-sound"—house rhythm section Palle Danielsson and Jon Christenson are present, but session horse Jan Garbarek must have been busy working on someone else's ECM album (Jean-Marc Larché provides a similarly sterile and overwhelming soprano saxophone, thankfully on only two tracks).

DAVID SANCHEZ Sketches Of Dreams

Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

David Sanchez's tenor and soprano lines, elliptical in the manner of Wayne Shorter's during his salad days (in the early '60s with the Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers), roam freely between Africa and the Americas on Sketches Of Dreams, the saxist's outstanding, second effort for Columbia. Pianist Danilo Perez (the leader's creative ally and fellow ex-Gillespian), bassist Larry Grenadier and drummer Adam Cruz are integral to this CD. So, too, to a lesser degree, are trumpeter Roy Hargrove (three cuts) and percussionists Leon Parker, Milton Cardona and Jerry Gonzalez. Four of the nine pieces are from Sanchez's pen (Perez adds another), and the album's seamless coupling of bop locutions with Afro-Caribbean rhythms lives up to the title and provides the astute listener with a transfixing, utterly compelling experience.

ERNIE WATTS Unity

JVC, 3800 Barham Blvd., #305, Los Angeles, CA 90068

EASTERN REBELLION

Just One Of Those...Nights At The Village Vanguard

MusicMasters, 1710 Highway 35, Ocean, NJ 07712

Tenorman Ernie Watts enjoyed a banner year in 1994: In addition to playing a prominent role on Always Say Goodbye (Verve) with Charlie Haden's Quartet West, which topped CMJ's jazz chart, his own album, Reaching Up, not only affirmed his bop chops but also shot to the top of the chart. Reaching Up, Watts' first-ever unadulterated straight-ahead effort, flowed so gracefully that jazz scribes wondered why he'd bothered previously with such tame pop-jazz fare. Obviously heartened by the success of Reaching Up, Watts once again hews to the straight (but hardly narrow) stuff on Unity, a quintet forum boasting Geri Allen (piano), Jack DeJohnette (drums) and the unusual, but potent, two-bass tandem of Eddie Gomez (acoustic) and Steve Swallow (electric). Cut live, direct to two-track, Unity is a strong showcase

ON THE CHART Verve's Christian McBride is still "gettin' to it," sitting at the top of the jazz chart for the 10th straight week. But there was lots of movement throughout the chart. Gramavision's Medeski Martin And Wood had a resurgence (9-3), RCA singer Carmen McRae leaps (21-5) and Atlantic saxophonist James Carter steadily ascends (10-6). Novus' Steve Coleman And Five Elements made an impressive chart debut at #9. It was big week for new entries all around: Antilles trombonist Steve Turre at #11, Verve saxophonist Joe Henderson at #16, the second album from John Zorn's Masada on DIW (Japan) at #20, Evidence's McCoy Tyner Trio (which had been bubbling just under for weeks) at #21, JVC's Ernie Watts at #23 and Novus' Antonio Hart at #24. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) for the leader's composing skills (he penned four of the 11 tracks) and darkly rich blowing. The four-rhythm package, with the bassists complementing one another tonally (sometimes sounding like a contrabass/electric guitar duo), allows Watts to venture widely and freely comment on the proceedings. Choice airplay options include Watts' own title track and Oscar Pettiford's "Triticism." Eastern Rebellion, a cooperative hard-bop unit headed, off and on, over the past two decades by pianist Cedar Walton and drummer Billy Higgins, has developed a distinct ensemble personality over the past few years with the frontline addition of tenorist Ralph Moore (whose participation in the new group Native Colours for Concord was lauded in this space last week). On tenor or soprano sax, Moore is comfortable at any tempo or in any key, and while his style is distinct from those of his predecessors in this group (George Coleman and Bob Berg), he swings with deep-bodied assurance. Walton, one of the most engaging composers on the scene (three of his pieces appear here), writes bracing melodies whose chords and contours are ideally suited to Moore's neobopping sensibilities. Walton, Higgins and bassist David Williams (featured to fine effect on "Django" as well as "Seven Minds," composed by the late Sam Jones, the band's first bassist) are a complete, self-sufficient unit, as proven on various trio endeavors over the years, and at New York City's Village Vanguard, whose audiences are as demanding as they are sophisticated, the foursome gels from the git and provides 68 minutes of high-impact bop rendered with keen sensitivity.

J.J. JOHNSON Tangence

Verve, c/o PolyGram, 825 8th Ave., New York, NY 10019 212.333.8000

HAROLD LAND A Lazy Afternoon

Postcards, 225 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10012 212.966.6083

Trombonist J.J. Johnson and tenor saxophonist Harold Land are respected elder statesmen and vital living links to the modern jazz canon. In the late '40s, Johnson's quicksilver legato lines earned him a recording slot alongside bop titan Charlie Parker, and in subsequent years he contributed significantly to sides by Bud Powell and Miles Davis when he wasn't recording under his own name. Land, a soulful West Coaster (no effete Cool stuff for him), is revered for his work in the mid-'50s with the Max Roach-Clifford Brown Quintet, a short-lived unit (owing to trumpeter Brown's tragic death in an auto accident) but one of the most influential in jazz history. (Johnson, incidentally, also recorded alongside Brownie, on The Eminent J.J. Johnson for Blue Note.) Johnson and Land, heard mostly over the years in small groups, are featured on these CDs in resplendent orchestral settings. A huge orchestra of brass (trumpets, trombones and French horns), woodwinds and strings (violins, violas and cellos), orchestrated and conducted by Robert Farnon, wraps Johnson's resonant 'bone in soft, cushiony velvet on such well-known compositions as "The Meaning Of The Blues," "The Very Thought Of You," "Amazing Grace" and Johnson's best-known original, "Lament," all of which are strong candidates for airplay. Trumpeter Wynton Marsalis, no stranger to orchestral work (in jazz or European-classical music), adds his own piquant solo voice to two numbers with the orchestra; on another selection, "For Dancers Only," Johnson and Marsalis duet sans orchestra. Land's compelling tenor voice, strong yet tonally fragrant, is ideally suited to a large-scale string framework (and not just because his late comrade, Brown, made one of the most enduring string recordings of all time). The title track, "You Don't Know What Love Is," "You Go To My Head," Duke Ellington's "In A Sentimental Mood" and Thelonious Monk's "Round Midnight" (all under five minutes) are given sweeping, uplifting treatments. Clearly, Land relishes the opportunity to blow bounteously, beautifully, alongside a kaleidoscopic array of voices. Land is at the top of his game here on tunes arranged and conducted by Ray Ellis, who, you may recall, laid the backdrops for Billie Holiday's bittersweet Lady In Satin LP of 1958. Lady Day's voice, by then, was destroyed but not defeated, whereas Land's is flexibly cogent and venturesome. Especially worthwhile are "Nature Boy" and "You Go To My Head," which benefit markedly from Billy Higgins' supple drumwork underneath the enveloping expanse of strings. Selections from Tangence and A Lazy Afternoon, perhaps in tandem with saxist Joe Lovano's recent big-band collaboration with Gunther Schuller (Rush Hour, Blue Note), will sound splendid back-to-back.

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

Liam Hawley and co. (a.k.a. the Prodigy) jump three places (4-1) with their latest XL-Mute album. Moonshine's Trip Hop Test compilation holds steady at #2. This week's highest new entry, and one which is certain to enjoy a long residency here, is the Orb's Orbvs Terrarvm (#16), the group's latest full-length for Island. In at #23 is Towha Tei, of Deee-Lite fame, on Elektra-EEG, while Moonshine's Law Of The Jungle compilation re-enters at #25. The biggest jumper of the week is the album from Daum Bently (a.k.a. Freaky Chakra), which moves up 13 spots (24-11). (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

WOODY McBRIDE Electris (EP)

Communiqué, 1914 N.E. Pierce St. Uptown, Minneapolis, MN 55418 612.788.4297

One of the Midwest's most prolific scenesters is DJ ESP (a.k.a. Woody McBride), whose Communiqué label is undoubtedly one of North America's most forward thinking and refreshingly non-self-promoting dance organizations. McBride re-thinks the analog tools at his disposal, and comes up with consistently original dance tracks. The A-side's burning "Electris" is a flanged exercise with a hammering kick and high-hat pattern, while the flip's two pieces possess the metallic glint and a rushing energy of a subway train barreling through the station. Keep an eye on Communiqué; this label is going to prove highly influential in the coming months.

THE ELECTRO REVIVAL CONTINUES

From the Jedi Knights to Detroit's Aux 88 and Ectomorph, the hidden histories of electro are back. The nascent German Ladomat label has just released a finely chiselled set of tracks which demonstrates that the electro revival is more than a provincial affair. The self-titled EP by NETTO is cleanly produced, veering from deep hardhouse on "Instant Soul" and "Aldi" to scalding 808 work on the appropriately titled "Electro Funk." The Germans have rarely had success with house and electro, so this EP is an unexpected surprise. Well worth investigating (Ladomat, c/o Max Brauer, Allee 163, 22765 Hamburg, Germany 40.430.6091)...The original, yet often overlooked, Infonet label has released one of its best records in some time, the Space DJs EP, produced by Ben Long and Jamie Bismire. This quirky four-tracker has unmistakable electro influences, particularly on the bouncy "Missing" and the jazzy electro stylings of "Celestial Funk." The heavier moments come during "Red Shift" and the title track, which retain a purposeful groove through the layers of electronics (Infonet, P.O. Box 6436, London N10 2QQ U.K. 0181.442.0790)...I'll be damned if there isn't a heavy electro track on the new double-12" by NATE

WILLIAMS, one of the most reliably overpowering track-makers in North America. What we have here are four tracks of dense, reverberating dancefloor ignition fuel. The A-side's "Count Your Steps" is an electro-influenced stomper with a needling kick drum and thick atmospheric bass lines, while the other three tracks have a housier texture, without sacrificing their hardness (Power, 648 Broadway, Ste. 600, New York, NY 10003 212.982.2506).

ELSEWHERE

Junglists always look forward to releases from the burgeoning Second Movement label in the British Midlands, a drum and bass outpost that rarely disappoints. The hell for leather momentum of "Can't Hold Back" by ASEND, remixed by the Back 2 Basics crew, is staggering. Incorporating vocal snippets from Carlton's Bristol deep house anthem "Do You Dream," this is a percussive maelstrom which never stops moving. As jungle releases reach the saturation point, it's crucial to single out exceptional records. This is one of them (Second Movement, Ste. B, 39 Upper High St., Wednesbury, West Midlands WS10 7HJ U.K. 0956.499359)...You can count on DJ Pierre to come up with tracks that move through your body and mind like a slow, cleansing fever. Witness the hypnotic movements of "A Feeling I Know" by TIME WARP and you'll hear what I mean. Against a backdrop of winding, off-pitch bass lines and sharp snare cracks, Pierre pushes the boundaries of the instruments to the snapping point. The "W.P. Mix" on the A-side is a long, entrancing exercise with an insistent, looped vocal sample. Strong stuff indeed (Groove On, c/o Strictly Rhythm, 920 Broadway, New York, NY 10010 212.254.2400).

RAVE REVIEW

ORB

Orbvs Terrarvm

Island, 825 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl., New York, NY 10019

When Alex Paterson first introduced the world to his hallucinogenic cosmology with the celestial "An Ever Pulsating..." single in the spring of 1990, the world of ambient music was forever changed. Drawing on Lee Perry, Brian Eno and god knows what else, Paterson and crew re-tooled dub atmospherics to almost surreal effect. Their latest outing is perhaps their most ambitious. As with other Orb records, Orbvs Terrarvm is as much a global travelogue as an electronic dance record. The Orb's reading of the western hemisphere here is meant to resemble a 16th century Mercator projection of the earth, all the way down to the Middle English "v" in place of "u" in the titles. And the most overwhelming piece here is "Slvg Dvb," a 17-minute excursion to the ends of the earth and beyond. With production and writing help from secretive German sound visionary Thomas Fehlmann (of Marathon), Paterson widens the palette and canvas on which he is working, and thus Orbvs has the same epic qualities as The KLF's Chill Out, with guitar chords stretched then snapped, bass lines suspended across the mix like a frail rope bridge, and other-worldly sound effects attenuated and burred only to burst to the surface minutes later. With Orbvs Terrarvm, the Orb remains one of the few ensembles capable of occupying that ever-shifting region between the dancefloor and cyberspace, negotiating the boundaries at every step.

ON THE CHART American's Jayhawks remain firmly at #1 for the sixth straight week, and they're not likely to be unseated soon, even though Pointblank-Virgin's John Lee Hooker remains at #2 for the fifth straight week. Top movers this week include Rykodisc's Morphine (26-5), Zoo's Matthew Sweet (19-7), Beggars Banquet-Atlantic's Grant McLennan (30-11) and 4AD-WB's Wolfgang Press (29-13). Highest debut is Oh Boy's John Prine at #14, perhaps the only real challenger to the Jayhawks' domination of the chart. Other cool debuts this week include Capricorn's Sonia Dada at #20 and Paladin-Giant's Steve Forbert at #31. Top Add: 1) John Prine; 2) From Good Homes; 3) Tanita Tikaram; 4) Guy Clark; 5) Steve Forbert.

FROM GOOD HOMES Open Up The Sky

RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036

Although New Jersey's From Good Homes has already been placed with the legends of neo-hippie bands, the group's music on its major-label debut, Open Up The Sky, is much more diverse than that of most of the breed. It's a bubbling stew of pop, which finds FGH leaping from rootsy folk to muscular jazzy jams to bouncing Celtic-inflected jigs to spicy Cajun rhythms, all performed with a solid groove and striking hook-filled melodies. The band's constant touring over the past five years has led to sturdy and forceful ensemble play and a substantial, fanatical base of fans on both coasts.

Highlights include the swirling mood piece "I Only Want," the Cajun hoedown "Fruitful Acre" (with a guest appearance from Rockin' Dopsie), the sultry riff rocker "Let Go" and the appropriately breezy "If The Wind Blows."

A.J. CROCE That's Me In The Bar

Private Music, 9014 Melrose Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90069 310.859.9200

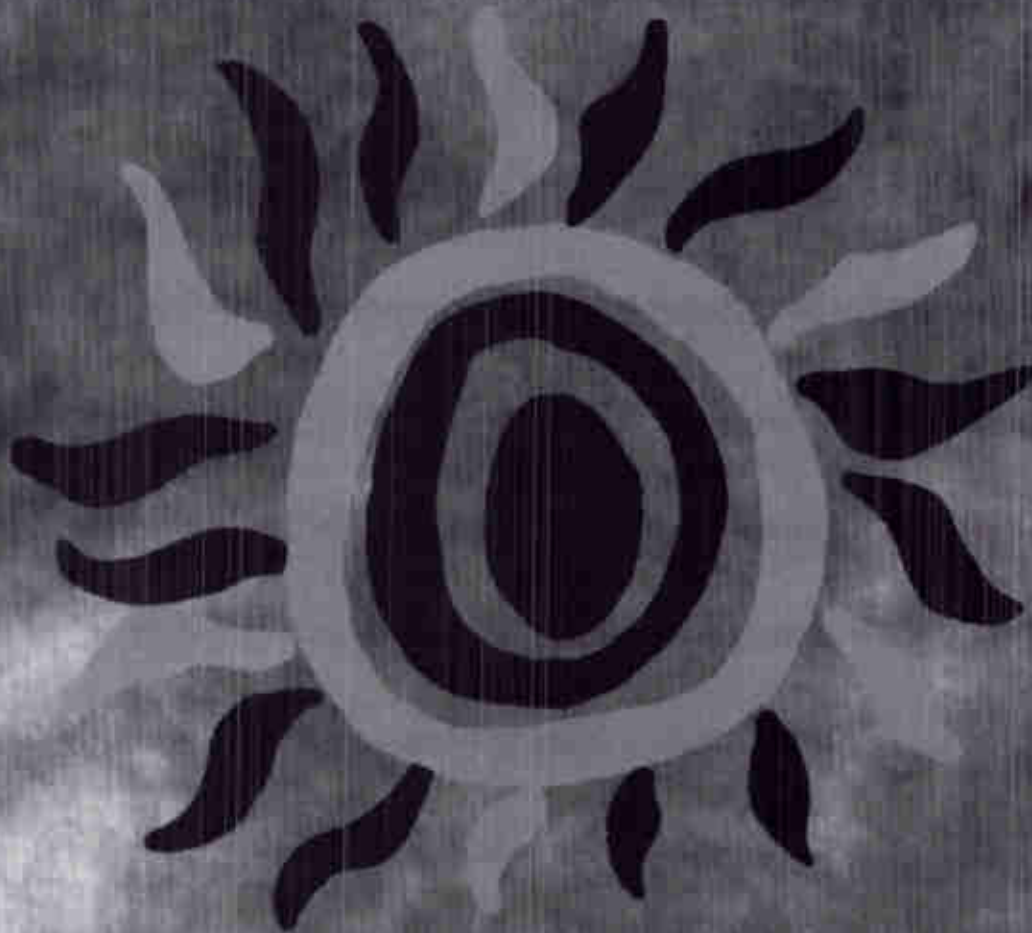

That's Me In The Bar may only be A.J. Croce's second album, but it carries the feel and style of a much more mature artist. A modern day R&B artist at heart, Croce infuses each tune with a different flavor from his multi-dimensional bag of tricks, achieving engaging results almost every time. With an all-star supporting cast, including Ry Cooder, David Hidalgo, Waddy Wachtel and Jim Keltner (who handles drums and production), Croce brings his songs to life with unremitting energy and sophisticated soul. His witty lyrics, wispy croak of a voice and hopping songcraft recall the urban country style of Lyle Lovett and bear the Americana influence of Randy Newman, Tom Waits and Dr. John. Top shelf tunes in this bar include the bluesy title track, the stately elegance of "Night Out On The Town," the New Orleans funky "Pass Me By" and the sweeping grandeur of "Some People Call It Love."

SHORT SHOTS

Those who enjoyed Eric Clapton's last acoustic blues excursion owe it to themselves to give a listen to When A Women Gets The Blues, the latest from RORY BLOCK (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140 617.354.0700). It's billed as an intense set of traditional "women's blues," with Block covering tunes from the likes of Robert Johnson, Son House, Skip James, Blind Willie McTell and others with stunning guitar work and remarkable vocals that strike to the very core of the blues. Roots records this authentic surface too infrequently for this one to get lost in the shuffle. On performances like "Peavine Blues," "Tallahatchie Blues," "On The Wall" and "Railroadin' Some," Block reveals the impact of her early learning experiences with Reverend Gary Davis and Son House...Those of you who think of Sugar Hill (P.O. Box 55300, Durham, NC 27717 919.489.4349) as a traditional blue grass label are in for a surprise with the label's latest release, DON DIXON's Romantic Depressive. His first album of new material in nearly six years, it delivers 11 tracks of his trademark pop-soul with an edge. "The Righteous Side Of Love," "I Should Know Better," "25,000 Days" and "Never Slow Down" burn with a remarkable fire and slot Dixon next to top of the heap songwriters like Marshall Crenshaw and Elvis Costello...CHRISTINE LAVIN is the perfect antidote to the oh-so-serious folk singer syndrome. Please Don't Make Me Too Happy is her first record for Shanachie (37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860 201.579.7763). With her fabulous wit and an expanded production, Lavin sets her sights on life in the mid-'90s and hits a bullseye nearly every time. "Constant State Of Want," "Waiting For The B Train," "The Secrets At The Wedding" and "Star 69" stand out among yet another winning set of tunes from one of the most clever songwriters of our day.

JACKPOT!

I know these two recordings may seem to be completely irrelevant to one another, but underneath the obvious intentions of Egyptian Rai (ARC US, P.O. 11288, Oakland CA 94611) by HOSSAM RAMZY and You Must Remember This..., the long-awaited return of Holy Modal Fugscapper PETER STAMPFEL (Gert Town, 8359 Fig St., New Orleans, LA 70118), are some very close alliances. Ramzy's version of "rai," the Algerian electro-pop folk form, is hardly comparable to the original. He takes the folk music of Egypt and twists it, turns it and has an immense amount of FUN with it. Stampfel has an allegiance to old-timey country music and the tunes of Tin Pan Alley, and through his unique voice (a generous description) and aggressive playing style, he also contorts the originals into something strange, funny, yet loving. Special credit goes to producer Mark Bingham (talk about strange alliances) for taking the insanity of Peter Stampfel and nurturing it with his own more polished brand of mental disease. Horns, sampled steel drums and a tuba bass line make their take on "Goldfinger," one of the most endearing pop covers of the year so far. Similar magic occurs in Ramzy's music, with Sudanese accordions, cheesy keyboards and some sinewy trumpet taking out, ney and local percussion on a joyride through the various forms of the north African Middle East. These fusions of the less than obvious are what make music grow and take new root. Take Stampfel's membership list of the "heavenly band" as the real explanation of these new fusions from old sources: Jimi Hendrix, Baby Dodds and Charles Mingus and the Charlies: Christian, Patton and Poole. Now that's a hell of a band. Add Oum Khalthuum and Spike Jones, and you get close to both artists' core.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

After weeks at #1, Xenophile-Green Linnet's Varttina (3-1) has finally been dethroned, and the new king of the heap is RealWorld-Caroline's Justin Vali Trio (2-1). Reggae stalwart Israel Vibration climbs higher on our charts with On The Rock, the group's latest outing for RAS (5-2). In a world dominated by reggae dreads, African artists and moaning didgeridoos, the sound of Indian music is often under-represented on our charts. Not any more: our highest debut is a stunning collaboration between Shankar With Zakir Hussain & Vikku Vinayakram, Raga Aberi on Music Of The World (#15 debut). Further down, new entries from Gamelan Pacifica's intriguing album on ¿What Next?-Nonsequitur (#17) and Rounder's Tish Hinojosa (#19) are complemented by debuts from Shanachie's Bunny Wailer Retrospective (#24) and Qbadisc's Cuban Gold: Bajo Con Tumbao, a wonderful compilation of acoustic Cuban music. ALIZADEH LIVE AND ALMOST LIVE

If you have followed this column for any length of time you will have learned about my pet passions, not the least of which is the music of Iranian composer and string master HOSSEIN ALIZADEH. So you will understand how excited I was to hear he was going to be giving a rare American performance in my own little town, when he came to play at Yale University in March. The program was to be two improvisational works, one based on the "Dastgah Homayun" for setar and tombak, the other "Dastgah Nava" for tar and tombak. Sadly, I have never seen a performance more cursed by inconsiderate planning. The new Luce Hall is an atrocious little cheesebox lecture hall, the sound system was two built-in squawk-style speakers, the heating system hummed continuously and the security alarm went off at the very highest moment of passion in the first set. (To his group's credit, it found the rhythm of the alarm pulse, matched it and roared to a dramatic finish!) But Alizadeh and percussionist Pejman Hadadi couldn't seem to find their mutual muse until the last few brilliant moments of "Reng-e-Nava" at the close of the concert, and much of the mostly Iranian audience seemed bored with the dynamic, daring approach Alizadeh takes to his music, expecting, I think, a more melodious, romantic Persian classical style.

Which makes the release of Alizadeh Live At The Los Angeles Festival (Kereshmeh, 12021 Wilshire Blvd. #420, Los Angeles, CA 90025 e-mail: sdy@netcom.com) all the more rewarding and exciting. Here is master Alizadeh at his very best, totally engrossed in the rhythms of "Dastgah Nava," totally involved in the amazing nuances of the tiny yet mighty sound of the tar, and completely in sync with tombak player Madjid Khaladj. Alizadeh is a special composer, because he is neither a populist nor an elitist. He knows the classical Persian repertoire in all of its complexities, yet he never allows that structure to inhibit his personal expression. In some ways, he is probably closer to the ancient, more improvisational music of Persia and certainly more of a folk musician in that respect. He aggressively experiments with the individual tones and shapes of every note he pulls from the strings, and there is passion on this live recording that is unlike most Middle Eastern classical music.

ETC...

Here's yet another great disc from Madagascar; RICKY AND MBASALALA's Vocal Music From Madagascar (Wergo, Weihergarten 5, D-55116 Mainz, Germany) is an import, but well worth the trouble. This is an all a capella set, a richly textured mix of African and European roots that has not a little resemblance to American gospel music, and certainly will appeal to fans of Zap Mama for its sweet, pure intensity.

Qbadisc strikes a mother lode with its second set of Cuban Gold: Bajo Con Tumbao (Qbadisc, P.O. 1256 Old Chelsea Sta., New York, NY 10011 212.620.0320). I admit my bias for the acoustic approach, and here it is in all its glory, from the searing opening by Orquesta Aragon to the smoldering finish (cheesy synths and all) of Orquesta Original De Manzillo. It's smooth and its tasty.

Only Windham Hill Records could produce a "radio ready" version of an eletro-acoustic ambient collection and keep a straight face. Skip the Path For Radio, a mild, safe "ambient journey," and take a more interesting route. The Aerial: A Journal In Sound (Nonsequitur, P.O. 344, Albuquerque, NM 87103) is truly a "alternative" set from the children of Cage. Here is a collection of some of the music world's most enigmatic, individual artists doing work that ranges from incomprehensible to just plain unlistenable, all in the name of breaking rules, creating new ideas and, above all, making something really new. The names run from the familiar (Larry Polansky, Mary Jane Leach) to the obscure, and each one is a unique experiment. Argentine composer Ricardo Dal Farra collaborates with Swedish sax player Mats Gustafsson in "Xastock," which moves from a slow, wave-like ambience to a frenetic tsunami of sound as the sound of the sax is reprocessed and amplified beyond recognition. Also exciting is Leach's "Xantippe's Rebuke," a piece written for eight recorded and one live oboe. The results are somewhere between a transcendental church pipe organ and an inviting nightmare, one rich in acoustical metaphors. Canadian artist Ellen Band closes the program with "Railroad Gamelan," again an unmatched use of common sounds in uncommon ways.

Peace.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant movement in airplay.

KEEPIN' IT DIRTY: As we predicted one week ago, Elektra's Ol' Dirty Bastard has snatched the #1 position from DGC's Roots, who fall from 1-2. ODB picked up a whopping 18 #1 reports this week and will probably be a fixture at the #1 spot for many weeks to come. Bad Boy-Arista's Notorious B.I.G. just won't let up, as Ready To Die climbs 6-3 after 28 weeks on the chart and Wild West-American's The Nonce moves its fine debut from #7 to #5. Some of this week's strongest gainers include Priority's Dr. Dre (23-17), who keeps our heads ringin', Delicious Vinyl-Capitol's Masta Ace Incorporated (40-19)—see Blowin' Up and pop trio TLC (36-23). New debuts this week come from Columbia's Big L at #13, PMP/RAL-Island's Montell Jordan (#24), Sire/Maverick-WB's Dana Dane (#27) and Illtown-Motown's Rottin Razkals at #33. On the Retail chart, Ol' Dirty Bastard (2-1) has an impressive first week in stores, bumping Interscope's 2Pac from 1-2. Making a big jump is the New Jersey Drive (12-3) soundtrack, while we welcome in new entries from Columbia's Big L at #13, the Pump Yo Fist: Hip-Hop Inspired By The Black Panthers compilation (#11), King Tee (#17) and Kama Sutra at #22. ROTTIN RAZKALS

Rottin Ta Da Core

Illtown/Mad Sounds,

c/o Motown, 5750 Wilshire Blvd.,
Los Angeles, CA 90036

Get too close and you're likely to be beaten to a pulp by the jagged-edged rhymes of Rottin Razkals. Ghetto bastards with nothing to do but swing hard-hitting rhymes that paint the "keep it real" mantra on the street sidewalk, Fam, Diesel and Chap rely solely on Naughty By Nature for Rottin Ta Da Core's accessible brand of street-core hip-hop. NBN constructs all of the album's music and pens most of the album's lyrics, making this essentially a Naughty By Nature record recorded by another crew. While the trio clearly reflects what years of ghetto-life can do to a person's tolerance and rationale ("Batter Up" featuring NBN's Treach), party jams like "Hey Alright," which samples the Isley Brothers' "Caravan Of Love," make for a refreshing break from the album's stress and brute force. One the most lyrically sound cuts is "One Time For Your Mind" (you can almost picture Treach throwing down the same raps), which settles back into a slow-rocking soul tempo while the crew's reality raps are smooth and fluent. NBN's Treach does finally share the spotlight on the heavy-nod of "Life Of A Bastard," where he proves himself to be the original black bastard. While Naughty By Nature gets ready to release its third album, the group is keeping its skills in check and takes a fiery new crew under its able wing. Take a bite of: "A-Yo," "Frustration" and "Come On Y'all."

RODNEY O & JOE COOLEY Everlasting Hits

React, 9157 Sunset Blvd. #210, W. Hollywood, CA 90069 310.550.0233
Where do we start dissecting the long and illustrious career of Rodney O & Joe Cooley? What do you mean you don't remember?! This high-powered duo have been a virtual hit machine since 1987 and, dammit, they deserve a greatest hits package. Well, we may be embellishing their impact in hip-hop history books, but O & Cooley have produced some bumpin' old-school hits, well-preserved on this collection, Everlasting Hits. For the most part, greatest hits packages in hip-hop are just plain silly, especially when most artists have a catalog you could count on one hand. What this collection does well is assemble all worthwhile Rodney O & Joe Cooley cuts onto one disc, which is especially handy since the group has been bouncing labels since their first hit, "Everlasting Bass." Such bell-rocking jams as "This Is For The Homies" and "DJ's & MC's" rock with old-school intensity, while other tracks seem to just fill the CD's allotted time. It's interesting to note that the group's last album, Fk New York (a title that had the East Coast looking for their gats), came from a group that made its best music sounding like a crew from the Boogie Down Bronx.

SINGLES FILE

Probably the second best thing to come from the New York City borough of Staten Island (the Wu-Tang Clan being the first) is a new 21-year-old lyrical warrior named KING JUST. About one year ago, he ripped eardrums to shreds with his debut, "Warrior's Drum," and now he's ready to do it again on the Easy Moe Bee-produced "No Flows On The Radio" (Black Fist, c/o Select, 16 W. 22nd St., New York, NY 10010 212.691.1200). The snare drum cracks like bricks dropping on your head from a 10-story window, while Just garnishes the chorus with a crowd-rousing, chanted chorus. The CD-5 also features the nightmarish cut "Escape From The Zoo" and a new mix of "Warrior's Drum." Just's album, Mystics Of The Gods, is expected to drop in May...Although it kicks like a wild bronco, "Just A Little Flava" by the D&D PROJECT FEATURING II UNORTHODOX (Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019) may be one of the most amusing tracks—on a lyrical level—we've heard in a few weeks. The D&D concept is to pair young hip-hop lions with accomplished producers; a full-length release is expected in May. Brooklyn's II Unorthodox appears to rip standard hip-hop fare on the surface, but they also mix in impressions of Sammy Davis, Jr. and Snagglepuss, to name a few, which make this fun cut worthy of repeated listening...Following the underground hit "Puerto Rico" in 1994, FRANKIE CUTLASS answers the bell once again on "Boriqua Is On The Set" (Violator, c/o Relativity, 79 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10003 212.337.5300). Injecting Puerto Rican pride (he even samples "Puerto Rico") over a prickly assortment of keyboard effects, Cutlass delivers hardcore jeep beats off the cuff and gives Latino rap the shot in the arm it has long needed.

THE BRITISH ARE COMING!

With the speed-freaked rhythms and dancehall bass of jungle music working their way over from the dance halls of England with increasing success, some of us are left to wonder if Yankee hip-hop is still making an impact over there. Well, by the sound of the new single by KRISPY 3, hip-hop still maintains a pulse—and a pretty strong one, too. Krispy 3 is a trio from the English town of Chorley, Lancashire. Sharpening its skills since 1989, the group features a track called "Listen Up" on the alternative music compilation/magazine called Volume 13 (Volume (UK), c/o Triage International, P.O. Box 448, New York, NY 10014 212.989.4545). The Craig Mack influences are easily detectable in the deliveries of producer Mr. Wiz, Microphone Don and Sonic G., while big bass and a colorful wash of voice, scratches and melodic samples reverberate with brilliant intensity. There's also another hip-hop track by a Manchester-based five-piece called KALIPHZ (say kahl-eeefz), who sink in superficial and unconvincing prattle about death and hoodlum life that would have a hard time frightening a pre-schooler, but you may want to try it on for size anyway...Rapper/author/thespian ICE-T has a role in the new film Tank Girl (based on a British comic strip), in which he plays Tank Girl's boyfriend, who is part man, part kangaroo! Ice also has a track called "Big Gun" on the soundtrack (Elektra, c/o EEG, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019), on which he raps about his girlfriend's demeanor, giving us the impression that she could hang with the hardest muthafuckas described in any hip-hop track ("It doesn't matter 'cause the girl stays strapped/She say she had enough of men and now she's looking for payback").

WORD IS...

MURDER WAS THE CASE THAT THEY GAVE ME: The murder trial of Snoop Doggy Dogg and his two associates has been postponed nine days, and will now commence on April 23. In 1993, Snoop and two other suspects were charged in the shooting death of Phillip Waldemarum...National Football League defensive lineman Reggie White has started a new record label called Big Doggie Records. The label aims to promote more optimistic messages in hip-hop and give youths more positive reinforcement. Big Doggie's first single, "Pass It On," will come from label VP MIKE-E. The label also plans to release a single by the young group Y.W.F.C. called "Rap & Read"...Hip-hop elitists will be interested to know that Funkmaster Flex has done a remix for Duran Duran's commercial-friendly remake of Melle Mel's "White Lines"...New York-based crew the Lost Boyz has inked a record deal with Uptown Records...Tommy Boy Records recently hosted a party at New York's Palladium club to celebrate the release of the New Jersey Drive soundtrack. Following a performance by Naughty By Nature (whose Poverty's Paradise will be released May 16), a GMC Jimmy or $15,000 cash prize was raffled off and awarded to Brooklyn's Greg Young. Needless to say, Greg elected the cash over the wheels.

MASTA ACE INCORPORATED

"The I.N.C. Ride" (12")

Delicious Vinyl, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028
Radio Chart Position: #19

These days, if your track contains the word "ride" in the title, you're obliged to relax the groove, add a few slick samples and tailor your sound for hours of non-stop mackin' and profilin'. Masta Ace may be one of the most underrated rappers out there right now. "The I.N.C. Ride" shows his versatility and ability to appeal to any hip-hop fan. From last year's raw "Crooklyn" single to the polished, slow-rolling "The I.N.C. Ride," Masta Ace covers the whole spectrum. This week his single jumps from 40-19 and lands 20 of 135 radio reports—he also takes home the #3 Add. Stations riding Ace top five include: CHUO, CKCU, KAMP, KJCC, KSDJ, KVSC (#1), WBUQ, WECB (#1), WLHA, WRDP and WRSU.

STEVIE WONDER Conversation Peace

Motown, 5750 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90036

With 31 records under his belt, Stevie Wonder has been putting into words and music the pictures in his mind. His unquenchable optimism has been at the forefront of his music, and for the greater part of the '70s, records like Innervisions, Fulfillingness' First Finale and Songs In The Key Of Life defined Stevie as the great humanitarian and musical genius he remains today. These days, Stevie keeps a low profile. He's been working on the 13-track Conversation Peace since finishing the soundtrack to Spike Lee's Jungle Fever. What you have is a four-year project that, although not as rich as his past works, sparkles with varied hues and colors as only a Wonder work can do (check the title track). Ornate decor and high-tech orchestration accompany most of the tracks, but the soul power of cuts like "Rain Your Love Down," the mellifluous "I'm New" and the insightful, shadowy love song "Taboo To Love" help diffuse some of the luster and invite the listener into Stevie's love-filled land of harmony and understanding. GLEN SANSONE

CHARLES & EDDIE Chocolate Milk (sampler)

Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

Although the title says "sampler," the six-song precursor to pop/soul duo Charles & Eddie's Chocolate Milk plays more like an LP—it's fully-satisfying despite its length. This duo is deeply rooted in a rich, soulful heritage which reveals influences ranging from Smokey Robinson (in their light, low-calorie voices) to Al Green on "Sunshine And Happiness" (not to be confused with Green's "Love And Happiness"). You could say their voices came 30 years to late, but hearing them croon with equal parts of sensitivity and passion similar to Terence Trent D'Arby on the numbing "Wounded Bird" or the infectiously danceable "24-7-365" makes us glad that they're here today. Also featured is their hit, "Would I Lie To You." GLEN SANSONE

This Is Acid Jazz: The Jazz Of Boogie Back

Instinct, 26 W. 17th St. #502, New York, NY 10011
212.727.1360

The picturesque and improvisational side of soul music has never sounded as crucial as it does when it comes from London's Boogie Back Productions. Following last year's compilation The Soul Of Boogie Back, its jazzy successor offers 11 new cuts from the London groove machine, featuring familiar artists such as Galliano, Incognito and Bjork. Although the word "jazz" is in the title, it doesn't mean you're likely to find anything calculated or traditional in the jazz sense (it's about as jazzy as a Stanley Jordan record); the tracks are embraced by warm, jazzy riffs and plenty of spontaneous runs on a wide variety of instruments. Most interesting is the use of steel pans on the Breakfast Band's "Skylarkin'," while Richard Bailey (Incognito) carries the percussion on the Latin-jazz loaded "Caravan" by Ananda. GLEN SANSONE

DRIPPING GOSS Blowtorch Consequence
 Another Planet, 740 Broadway, New York, NY 10003
 212.529.2600

Arising in 1991 from the ashes of improvisational avant-noise band Warm Jets, Dripping Goss began its musical journey by tirelessly touring NYC's seedy Lower East Side club circuit and eventually moving on to release two albums on its own BTG label. Although its not-quite-alternative, not-quite-metal sound caused the band to fall between the cracks of the early '90s grunge wave, Dripping Goss remained true to its distinct musical vision, never compromising its expansive style to fit the latest trend. Now, with many of today's up-and-coming acts crossing over into multiple formats, Blowtorch Consequence will likely secure Dripping Goss the long-overdue attention it deserves. Similar to Kyuss' free-flowing rhythms, the album's lush soundscapes swirl into a cascading pool rich with aggression, individuality and emotion, while the distorted, sometimes bizarre-sounding vocals recall the eccentricity of the Butthole Surfers' Gibby Haynes. "Cat Piss Carpet" soars with elastic, reverberating guitar wails that accentuate wordless vocal howls delivered in an eerie chant-like fashion, allowing the listener freedom to create his or her own interpretation of the song, while the spastic, churning grinds of "Blowtorch" will set fire to any Loud Rock radio playlist. Also check out the thick glow of "Moodring," the catchy, distinct thwack of "Here," the doomy groove of "Lesters Undone" and the dense rumble of "Willoughbe."

BRUISER PICK

ARGYLE PARK Misguided

Spending his youth traveling the world with his missionary parents, Argyle Park "chieftain" Buka was exposed to many different cultures, events and obscure forms of music, all which inspired him to create this amazing debut album, Misguided. At any given moment, pelting industrial-techno sheets of noise, rife with death-like vocal growls, descend into doomy, gothic instrumental breaks infused with ghostlike spoken word, while grindcore-speed jaunts riddled with hardcore punk elements give way to swirling, tribal dance beats throbbing with sampled noises and Middle Eastern rhythms. Calling Misguided "diverse" is definitely an understatement, as it draws from so many different musical styles. While the album flaunts the band's precise musicianship with lavish arrangements, the lyrics paint a stark picture of sadness, emotional distress and intense hardship, apparently stemming from a "single event that devastated a New York state community" (although specific details of the event are never revealed). Additional musicians joining Buka and his bandmates Dred and Deathwish on their enlightening musical quest include Jim Thirlwell (a.k.a. Foetus), who performs spoken word on "Refuge"; Prong's Tommy Victor, who lends his vocal pipes to the brain-bashing "Skin Shed," as well as his guitar and bass prowess to the sonic whirlwind of "Doomsayer"; Circle Of Dust's Klank, who belts out lyrics on the crushing "Headscrew," alongside the Crucified's King Salomon; and a host of others too numerous to mention.

With a lineup like this, Misguided will certainly make a huge impact at both Loud Rock and alternative radio. Check it out, you won't be disappointed.

DEICIDE Once Upon The Cross
 Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, Ste. 407, New York, NY 10012
 212.219.0077

Contrary to what some people tend to think, I do not condone murder, ritual sacrifice or torture, nor do I enjoy feeding on the raw, bloodied flesh of my helpless victims; however, I do believe in continuing to review all forms of music, including some of the most extreme, demonic gore around, especially when the band has proven itself to be one of the industry's top satanic death metal contenders, selling thousands upon thousands of records, while raking in hordes of dedicated new fans with each malevolent release. Deicide remains as evil, lethal and brutal as ever with its third crushing musical desecration, Once Upon The Cross. Exploding straight from the deepest, darkest bowels of hell, Glen Burton and his blaspheming brethren expel a noxious cloud of suffocating heaviness rife with unrelenting speed-core riffs, unholy growls, merciless pounding and grinding rhythms. Once you get past the stomach-turning album artwork, it's only a matter of time before the powerful musical onslaught of Once Upon The Cross will have every pulsing, headbanging nerve in your entire body writhing in ecstasy. Lend an ear to the razor-sharp wrath of "Christ Denied," "When Satan Rules His World," "They Are The Children Of The Underworld" and "Behind The Light Thou Shall Rise." ☒

TED NUGENT Spirit Of The Wild

Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

One thing's for sure: this ain't no soft-around-the-edges-Damn-Yankees-pop-crap. Rock 'n' roll's shit-kickin' master of the strings screams back onto the scene once again like a Southern-fried, flaming arrow from hell on Spirit Of The Wild, his 27th release in a never-ending stretch of scorching hit albums that have collectively sold 20 million copies to date. Recalling his raw-rockin' "Cat Scratch Fever" roots, Mr. Nugent blasts out of the gate full speed ahead with the throbbing, white-lightning riffs of "Thighraceous," and continues his classic, fire-breathing assault straight through to the last funky, thundering wail of "Just Do It Like This." Marking the return of Derek St. Holmes, who performed as alternating lead vocalist with Nugent on many of his previous albums and tours, and introducing the skin-bashing talents of new drummer Denny Carmassi (Heart, Coverdale/Page), Spirit Of The Wild captures the true essence of straight-ahead, pure rock 'n' roll "intentionally designed to piss off liberals...and to make genuflecting geeks at the church of denial squirm and lose sleep," according to Nugent. Attacking each song with the ravenous force and agile aggression of a lion ripping apart his unsuspecting prey, Nugent will undoubtedly roar to the top of the Loud Rock charts in no time at all with cookers like the hysterical, foot-stompin' "Kiss My Ass," the steel-barreled shake-'n'-rumble of "I Shoot Back" and the tribal groove of "Primitive Man."

BROKEN HOPE Repulsive Conception

Metal Blade, 2345 Erringer Road, Ste. 108, Simi Valley, CA 93065-2200 805.522.9111

In a time when countless death metal bands are disappearing as quickly as they appeared, it's rare to find a band that has endured over the years, pounding out an uncompromising blend of brutal death metal music that remains as true to its roots and as popular as ever with its legions of dedicated fans. With its third release, Repulsive Conception, Broken Hope unleashes yet another twisted, violent exercise in complete pummeling death metal devastation through ghastly, blood-dripping growls and spit-fire riffing, interspersed with doomy churns and slow, crushing grinds. Although just as heavy and brutal as any previous Broken Hope effort, Repulsive Conception displays a diverse array of songs encompassing much more elaborate arrangements, including the surprisingly beautiful instrumental flow of "Essence Of Human Pain," a psychotic rendition of Twisted Sister's "Captain Howdy" and the orgasmic explosion of "Engorged With Impiety," featuring Testament's James Murphy on lead guitar. All the sick and demented fans of Broken Hope's trademark disturbing lyrical messages need not worry, as titles like "Chewed To Stubs," "Swallowed Whole" and "Freezer Burnt" speak for themselves. Also check out the blinding ferocity of "Dilation And Extraction" and the rabid sting of "Pitbull Grin."

COMBINE "Norfolk, VA"

Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001 212.989.2929

The raw creativity and stripped-down, roaring alterna-punk rock energy of "Norfolk, VA" will definitely churn out more than a few heaping loads of positive response for Combine. Hailing from Norfolk, Virginia (as if you haven't figured that out already), Combine prefers to rattle off one loud, clamorous gem after another rather than lose any of its volatile punch within rambling rhythms or drawn-out melodies. Although for the most part the songs are blatantly constructed to hit you in the head like a ton of bricks, an underlying catchiness, hidden within the album's framework, slowly but surely begins to surface upon careful listen, sucking you straight into Combine's powerful, gnashing jaws. Claiming to have gotten most of its inspiration from "human absurdity," Combine concentrates on the simplistic, fun nature of the music itself, rather than weigh itself down with the angry, angst-riddled attitude that usually goes hand-in-hand with the majority of bands belonging to the same musical genre. Check out the hypnotic thump of "Javaman," the raucous grind of "Suckboy Vs. The Hermaphrodite," the steady blast of "Ephedrine" and the jarring groove of "Cattle My Rage."

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM "Smoked Out" (5")

MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608

Flotsam And Jetsam is currently gearing up audiences for its first release in three years, Drift (due out at the end of April), with the album's first single "Smoked Out." Despite citing Frank Sinatra as a key influence (!), vocalist Eric AK belts out aggressive lyrics in traditional Flots fashion through snarling guitar riffs and furiously pounding rhythms, while delivering a powerful message of betrayal on "Smoked Out." Although still retaining its signature rough-and-heavy musical edge, Flotsam And Jetsam has developed a much tighter rhythmic sound, guaranteed to blast off the mainstream doors that the band began to slowly creak open with 1992's successful Cuatro. Keep an eye out for the full-length, as it will certainly be a major Loud Rock chart contender. □

SHUDDER TO THINK "X-French Tee Shirt" Epic

The second single from Pony Express Record, "X-French Tee Shirt" is four minutes of typical Shudder To Think art-rock convention: Craig Wedren's operatic coo, an inconceivably long yet undeniably compelling vocal hook/chorus, cryptic lyrics, and an angular song structure based around a single guitar chord. The video works from a similar premise: Its primary setting—Wedren's-eye-view as he peers out the eye slot of an ascending service elevator—is a simple enough concept but manages to bring in a few enigmatic twists both in the clip's structure and content, as Wedren travels past each floor and room in the building. He doesn't see anything outright bizarre—just himself and the band performing and a few other things—but this kind of weird self-observation takes on an almost inexplicable normalcy when paired with the song. As the elevator reaches the top floor and heads back to the basement, the hook has fallen in line with the images, and both have subtly wormed their way into your head. CH

COMMON SENSE

"Resurrection" Relativity

"Resurrection" is a sparse, jazzy hip-hop jam sprinkled with piano and some vicious old-school scratching, and the video features Common Sense himself languishing in the rich, urban surroundings of his hometown Chicago. With some of the footage looking like it was shot with a real budget and the rest looking like a homemade documentary, the clip mixes gritty film stock with black-and-white video footage of the streets, subways and people that fill Common Sense's lyrical palette. He may be delivering his narrative from the comforts of a bar stool, but his vivid word-portraits and acute hip-hop stylings take place in a world beyond the limits of any old watering-hole. CH D

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

The top of the chart is shaken up a bit this week with LaFace-Arista's TLC moving into the lead (9-1) while Out Da Gutta-Interscope's 2 Pac continues his forceful climb to the top, coming in at #2 and remaining #1 on the Urban 40 for the third week in a row. 550-Epic's Raphael Saadiq gains considerable ground this week, leaping 59 places (66-7). Mercury's two clips (rap and vocal versions) for the theme from Panther, "Freedom," also make an impressive collective showing in their second week on, moving 63 places (75-12). The release of Oasis' U.K. version of "Live Forever" on Epic returns the clip to the chart at #15, while Slash-Reprise's Faith No More claims the week's highest debut at #25.

ROYAL TRUX "You're Gonna Lose" Virgin

Who'da think that the bloozy, bastardized rock purveyed by Royal Trux was really just a front for a bunch of science geeks? Certainly not us. But "You're Gonna Lose" presents just that—the Trux performing a series of seemingly pointless physics experiments at various famous architectural sites around Paris. Some raw performance footage, thrown in for good measure, shows off frontwoman Jennifer Herrema's infamous posturing, but the rest of the clip is spent diagramming and testing different formula's that only the Trux seem to understand. The surprising downpour of cheeseburgers on the band at the video's end is a nice touch. CH

"Wha Will Save Your Soul" Atlantic

The debut video from San Diego's Jewel Kilcher looks a bit like it takes place at the bus stop restroom of lost souls, with Jewel herself playing a kind of distant keeper over a number of weary road-travellers, including an old man who guards his fish-bowl and a transvestite who self-consciously attempts to apply some lipstick. Throughout the sometimes unnerving goings on, Jewel stands alone with her acoustic guitar against the cold tile wall, sometimes retreating to the warm, candlelit ambience of her own stall. Her musical and vocal style may mirror that of bluesy, Southern folk bands like Lone Justice, but her throaty near-yodel is a trademark all her own. AARON CLOW

BEOWULF "2¢" Restless

While "2¢" contains its share of movie footage (the song is taken from the soundtrack to Tank Girl), it's the colorful animation done by original Tank Girl comic book artist Jamie Hewlett that really makes this clip standout from the ranks. While the band slugs out its energetic pop-punk anthem atop the actual tank used in the film, the viewer is bombarded with cartoon stills and animated fragments that meld into a fast, trigger-action rush of colors and performance footage. Nothing too fancy, but plenty of action. CH □

RECORD CO Joe, John, Sarah & Alex, One Wing Promotion, Mt. Holly, NJ 609.265.3890 Hey there my little kiddies, it's time to pay up...President Hillary needs some new shoes. If you think tax amnesty is in your future, well don't throw away those old Get Out Of Jail Free cards and don't collect $200, may we suggest some company for the ride up the river...Beautiful World as you reflect on better days, Heavy Shift for the deep, inner-soul cleansing, Heather Eatman for a conjugal visit now and then, and after a hard day on the rock pile, nothin' feels better than a full-blown Migraine to call it a day. Before we call it a day I'd like to share with you some very heavy music: Manhole, Beefmasters, and S.I.V. Give me a call to get ya some...and in closing, congrats to Randy "Daddy x2." Talk to ya soon...

Gretchen Lindensmith, National Retail Marketing, Independent Label Sales, New York, NY 800.274.7957 ext. 7943 Out now through I.L.S. is the fabulous return of the Durutti Column. Sex & Death is the first release from frrr/Factory too, a sort of resurrected Factory Records (you remember them). Pray for a U.S. tour. Also out from frrr is the compilation Counterforce, a collection of ambient musings with jungle breakbeats sequenced by Mark Gage from Vapourspace and featuring the Goldie Presents Metalheads track "Inner City Life." It will drive your roommates nuts. Coming soon is the U.S. debut of the Underground Lovers, a fine Australian pop export, as well as Alone And Forsaken—a new compilation of Hank Williams Sr.'s frighteningly dark looks at life. It will drive your roommates to drink. Also coming through I.L.S. this spring are new releases from Marshall Chapman, Apache Indian, Zero, and Boukman Eksperyans, as well as a Jungle Massive compilation and lots of other goodies. Love the new Lida Husik or go home.

Stephen Shafer, Promotions, Moon Ska Records, New York, NY 212.860.0300 We've been so busy that we haven't had the time to chat! Since last time, Moon has opened a storefront office at 150 East 2nd St. in NYC's East Village (phone: 212.673.5538/e-mail: moonska@pipeline.com) Our name has changed from Moon Records to Moon Ska. It seems that there is a small gospel/rockabilly label down in Memphis that has been around since 1956 (we've only been around since 1983). Oh well. We also have ska releases from Boston's Allstonians, Toronto's Arsenals, Tampa's Magadog, DC's Pietasters and Australia's Porkers! Upcoming releases include a greatest hits package from the NY Citizens, as well as the "godfather of ska," Laurel Aitkea: a compilation of Spanish language ska bands titled Latin Ska; the long-awaited second CD from NYC's Scofflaws; the debut CD from Boston's Skavoovie And The Epitones; a re-release of the Toasters Thrill Me Up; and another double CD ska comp titled Spawn Of Skarmageddon. If you would like to be on our promo mailing list to receive these releases, as well as our monthly ska newsletter, let us know! Thanks and goodbye!

Gary Jay, Andre Marlon, Tracy Mollis, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ 908.679.9111 What does that guy in Rancid say right before the line, "I want your salvation, whoa-oh"? Anyone? I can't figure it out. Savor the flavor, Urban Dance Squad's Persona Non Grata. Step off the R.A.T.M. comparisons and listen to the songs. I will go to bat for this record, Tommy at Virgin will go to bat for this record, Michael Jordan won't go to bat for this record because after his dismal failure as a baseball player he's back to carrying the entire Chicago Bull franchise on his bony shoulders. Tank Girl...Lori Petty in a film destined for USA's "Up All Night" in a matter of months, the soundtrack features new songs from Bjork, Belly, Veruca Salt (Nina Gordon, I love you!), Portishead, Magnificent (Stone Temple Pilots) Bastards, Bush, Hole, Devo, L7...Monster Magnet, drink in Dopes To Infinity, this record will redefine your standards of psychedelic rock, don't miss the spaceship, baby!!!!...Got to hear the new Melissa Ferrick album, Willing To Wait. Whatever your singer/songwriter bias might be, give this record the spins it so richly deserves. It's nothing short of wonderful. Matthew Sweet is 100% Fun and 100% all over college radio, have you carted up your flexi-disc yet? The Prodigy...techno-schmechno, be creative and mix this in with your punk rock. Buzz, buzz, Earth Eighteen and Gwen Mars coming in April, new Tears For Fears in June! Bob W., sticks and stones pal...keep the free plugs coming, you make my job easier!

Iven, Iven Walters Mgmt., East Village Jazz/Rock Coalition, New York, NY 212.246.1934 Alt/Rock News: As the Paint dries...you can see and hear them at Coney Island High (15 St. Marks Place) Saturday, April 8 during Green Door, at the Continental (3rd and St. Marks) Saturday, April 15 at 10 p.m., and at Webster Hall on April 27 at 11 p.m. Goatboy, produced by Roger Greenawalt (the Murmurs, Nils Lofgren) at Power Station, is circulating around and the sheep are bah-ing at "Little Faggot." Funk News: the Adam Holzman Band featuring Mitch Stein on guitar, Ju House on drums, Freddy Cash on bass and Aaron Heck on saxophone, has just finished tracking for their second Lipstick Records release at Power Station. The street date is August '95. Nome Sane! (Teddy Kumpel, Tony Scherr, Brian Dunne and Andy Middleton) is playing in Montreal at Bourbon Street April 18 and 19 and at Night Magic April 20, 21, 22. Also in NYC at Le Bar Bat (311 W. 57th St., NYC) on May 2 at 9:30 p.m., and from HMV, Montreal, PQ. On the AAA Front...Michelle Yules has recently returned from playing the NEA extravaganza in Nashville, TN and will be back in TN (Memphis, this time) for Crossroads '95. Yee ha! In between, the Bitter End, Tramp's (SHOF Showcase) and Le Bar Bat. Her cassette (CDs to follow) is starting to get airplay. It's also available at Downtown Music Gallery (address above) and at gigs...like L.I.U. Southampton Coffeehouse on May 7th at 8p.m....more dates.

Hal/Howard, Tommy Boy/Major Payne, Touch And Go, Chicago, IL 312.463.8316 Is Bo Diddley really coming to Chicago to kill Veruca Salt? Will Sofia Coppola and Stephen Dorff really get back together at the Elgin New Music Nights Festival? Will Loud Lucy shut the fuck up? Are the Silver Jews pork eaters? Are the suns certain and distant or volcanic? What's to happen when Bo's joined on stage by DJ Dougie McCombs, a sober David Yow, and 30 various Louisville musicians in a rousing rendition of Chicago's "25 or 6 to 4" at the Empty Bottle? These and more questions will be answered in the Chicago version of the hit movie Singles coming to theaters this fall. Filming is set to begin sometime this spring, so plan your vacations if you want to be an extra. In the meantime, releases by Flying Saucer Attack, the Denison/Kimball Trio, and Lab Report may or may not be gracing your presence. Rethink your playlist if not. Bands in pursuit of floors to sleep on: Seam, GYSB, Laughing Hyenas, Bad Livers, Palace Brothers, Gaunt, Tortoise and the Sea And Cake. Let ☐ them know they are loved. Also, from Hal's Bitter Corner: I'm really excited to have seen Traci Lords charting higher than Killdozer and Laughing Hyenas. Can the influence of hip college radio bring back Samantha Fox? Please tell me it's because Killdozer won't... (gulp) nevermind. I'll be counting on your keen senses of artistic merit when Touch And Go releases Don Johnson's long awaited comeback.

Don Blanchard, 21st Circuitry Records, San Francisco, CA 415.896.2001 Do you enjoy 50% guitar rifled into 50% electronics with the power of punk? When hate comes to your house! Hate Dept. hits the West Coast as promised in late April. So far confirmed dates are Thursday, 4/20 in Sacramento at club D-Konstrukt, 11291 Folsom; Saturday 4/22 in San Francisco at "A Winter Gone By" in the On Broadway Space at 435 Broadway at Montgomery; Monday, 4/24 at the Off Ramp in Seattle with SMP (Reconstruction/Cargo) and And Christ Wept (Vuz Records); Thursday on 4/27 in Portland at The Garden, 506 W. Burnside. Southern California dates will be in May so check next week's Dialogue. Sampled speed metal, synth chords as thick as a molasses straight shot, yet music like the shots are straight from the desperate whiskey bottle all night long: Gracious Shades comes out with their loaded second release Aberkash to radio in May. Not even the thief stealing all their equipment could stop the Shades' intricately powerful mix of now brand-new electronic devices. A ravester's bad trip. Schnitt Acht, Chemlab, 16 Volt, Hate Dept., Pinch Point (two ex-Contagion members), Gracious Shades, Some More Crime, Sterile, and some underground talent to be flash fired in your face are just part of the amazing line up on our Coldwave Breaks compilation also out to radio in May.

Valentina Andreetta, Radio and Publicity Sensei Records, Beverly Hills, CA 310.274.4050 By now most of you should have received the latest release from L.A.'s Spiders & Snakes (their third), entitled Oddities: The Glitter Years. Produced by the legendary Kim Fowley, the man who brought us Joan Jett, Cherie Currie and the whole grrrl rock genre, this latest outing by Spiders & Snakes features the literary debut from the band's platinum-writing frontman Lizzie Grey in the form of a 34-page mini sci-fi paperback tucked neatly inside the CD artwork entitled The Glitter Years! As for their music, imagine if David Bowie, Ian Hunter and the late Marc Bolan got together at a midnight screening of The Rocky Horror Picture Show and wrote an album together! Other offerings coming up from our eclectic label roster include "roots reggae" master Alric Forbes (a genuine article from Jamaica) and East Coast metal merchants Frostbite, produced by Cinderella axeman Jeff LaBar. Scheduled for servicing in late April...

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2135 Some radio "gurus" are saying Skid Row's Subhuman Race is too "thrashy" for their airwaves...C'mon people, let's not get out of hand, let's not blow this out of proportion... "My Enemy" is an over the top hard rock track and so are about 10 other songs on the record, but if you're playing the likes of Quicksand, Monster Magnet, Faith No More, or White Zombie, there's no reason to shy away from the heaviosity of Skid Row...If "My Enemy" is too much for you, jump on "Into Another," just like WXTB, KILQ, KEGL, and about 70 other stations have. Skid Row is not a thrash band! Skid Row is not an alternative band! Skid Row is a rock band! The slew of amazing rock records out right now is truly fantastic! Standouts include Foetus, Mad Season, Maids Of Gravity, Monster Magnet, Filter, Sick Of It All, Orange 9mm, Core and Bad Seed...of course, Collective Soul, Melvins, Encorium, Demon Knight, Samiam, Page/Plant, Bad Religion, Sugar Ray, and T-Hip hold their own!! Get ready for the Motor City Madman himself. He's back and he's loaded. "Kiss My Ass!"

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY 1.800.627.4782 ext. 2144 A gripe from me in this time of neverending fundraisers: If you're calling for premiums, please know what records you want. Don't say "whatever you've got," 'cos I've got a lot and I'm not sending it if you've never played it. I realize you need to raise $$$, but why should I send you something that you've probably sold? If you have no idea what you want, then don't call me at all. Most of you are specific, but some of you have no clue. Please take my advice and get one if you're gonna beg for goodies. Spiritualized is on the road with Siouxsie and the Banshees. The latest Purple Tufted Propaganda has tour dates and a fun little quiz. I promised that Pure Phase would blow you away. It's aurally orgasmic. (Did I just write that?) Any of you that are familiar with Spaceman 3 already know the genius behind Spiritualized and are playing the hell out of Pure Phase, so the rest of you better follow suit and listen to "Medication," "The Slide Song," "These Blues" and "Lay Back In The Sun." Wake up to the raucous sounds of Sleeper and their debut album, Smart. They'll be in NYC 23-25 April, LA on the 29th at the Whiskey, a Glastonbury slot and a proper U.S. tour this June. In the meantime, "Inbetweeners," "Bedhead" and the yummy "Delicious" are making waves at radio. If you dig the danciness of Echobelly and the trashiness of Elastica, you'll love Sleeper!

Tommy "Big Country" Delaney, Virgin Yee-Haw, New York, NY 212.586.7700 You must take notice of the Royal Trux "You're Gonna Lose" contest. I sent out many flyers. Figure out the words to the Trux song of the same name and win autographed Trux posters and vinyl.

Send in your entry today!! I can't wait to show Neil and Jennifer your translations, maybe they'll redo some of their lyrics just for you. In any case, keep discovering Royal Trux Thank You and what it means for college music. It'll keep you sane. Thanks to all who have been battling for their support. Urban Dance Squad are on the road and on the airwaves. This band is no rehash, this is the right one baa-by. 2 for 15, 1 for 12, 4 for 17, what are these you ask? No, not bargain prices, but typical John Starks' shooting performances. Well, UDS should be wailing over every CD player in sight. With so much to choose from, how can you not get it done? Vernon Yard's new daffy ducks, the Maids of Gravity have a self-titled album and a vibe that will just not be tamed!! Check out "Only Dreaming," "Your Ground," and "20th Century Zen" if my words of persuasion are not enough. King Crimson have reunited and created Thrak, the most mind-altering piece of music from this group yet. Robert Fripp, Adrian Belew, Tony Levin, Trey Gunn, Bill Bruford, Pat Mastelotto...music legends. End of story. They have influenced everyone from Jimi Hendrix and Yes to Nine Inch Nails and Nirvana. They are the seed. You will learn. On the way soon: New music from Whale (and you thought that single was cool, wait for this), the Verve (will absolutely destroy you) and Bushwick Bill (and you thought it ended with Scarface).

Bob W., Triage, New York, NY 212.989.4545 Succeed: be everyone's "friend" and never say what's really on your mind. Gain wealth: avoid controversy, kiss ass and never tell the truth. And so on, and so on...On a happier note, Triage will be sending you the new album by The Fall, Cerebral Caustic. Also new albums from: Nemo from Belgium, licensed from Brinkman Records; For Against on Rainbow Quartz; Pussy Crush—power-punk-female-lead-pop (think Helen Love) on La Di Da; Vic Chestnutt on Texas Hotel (a true genius); Butterfly Child from Ireland on Hit It! (another album due on Dedicated, too); Dart from S.F. on U.K. Ché Records and more, if you can believe it. These are all records that we will be sending to you, not just calling you about, so get in touch if you want to make sure you get 'em. And of course, be true to thine playlist.

Margot Edwards, Engine/Blackout Records, Somerville, MA 617.629.0766 Here you have it, all the ingredients for an exciting dialogue. The Goops: on tour with Samiam and now also Sense Field, but of course you knew that. Outcrowd: "Better Faster...ever after, ever after..." the single so catchy I hum it while walking down the street. Deadguy: "Running With Scissors" and "Extremist," not just for your hardcore show, share with everyone (all of the above: label band plugs). Going to see Shellac with Kustomized, Chavez, and Brick Layer Cake Wednesday at the Middle East. I can't wait! (mention of bands not on label to look hip). The Cows are coming to town soon, wonder if they're staying at my place again (unabashed name-dropping). Looking forward to opening for Green Magnet School at their record release party (shameless self-promotion). New CDs by Tugboat Annie and the Tulips should be on your desk soon if not already, check them out (more band plugs). Thanks for the tape, Chuck (MD reference), you rule! Please send one with the sex-ed stuff on it (inside joke you're not supposed to get). Whew, I'm exhausted. Oh no, I forgot to mention my favorite MDs and industry pals. Well, I'll do that next time.

Joshua Bloom, Two Homeboys Chillin', NYC

212.741.2672 Non-weasels look here! Before the advent of e-mail addresses, the @ symbol was rarely used. Now that people know that the symbol means at, we are subject to an endless list of thank you's to "so-and-so" @ "so-and-so." Is there a reason for this shameful display of ass-kissing? A radio station thanks a record label for what? For sending them a CD? A record label thanks a radio station for what? Playing their CD? There's nothing better for me than when I call a radio station to ask about a record I've sent and the person of the other end responds with an enthusiastic tone in their voice. I feel as if I've made a human connection. Instead of acting and reacting like a machine whose job it is to push for airplay and chart positions, I'm talking to a fellow music fan. On the other side of coin are the calls where the person on the line is unfriendly, doesn't care about you or your record and generally thinks that they know best about all things "alternative." People like these fail to realize that they may be talking to someone who could hip them to something amazing. Could it be that some of us are out here to open minds before wallets? So by now, you all have Boom Band. 200 of you are playing it. Record #2 out 9/95. Thanks go out to...whoops! I guess I'm out of space.

Pete Burness, Fat Wreck Chords, San Francisco, CA

415.284.1790 Greetings. We here at Fat would like to welcome ourselves to CMJ. This whole subscription and Dialogue business is new to us so just play our records OK? (No Use For A Name, Good Riddance, Guns N' Wankers, and Fat Music For Fat People). Anyway, if you'd like to receive our shit and don't get it currently send us an essay 100 words or less, answering the question, "Why my station should be serviced by Fat Wreck Chords," a copy of your SAT or GRE scores, and a picture of your pimple covered butt, to Fat Wreck Chords at P.O. Box 460144, SF, CA 94146. Bye!!

Scott Trunda, Music Director, WKDI, Dekalb, IL

815.753.1278 As I'm writing this dialogue, I'm cranking the new album from Cold Water Flat. I'm convinced that these guys will be kicking somebody's ass in the very near future. A special thanks goes out to Lisa at MCA for hooking this station up with everything. And now it's time for the usual round of thank-yous. Debbie at Island for helping big time with the CD 6-pack promotion. Thanks also goes out to Kelly at Mammoth, Chad at Sony, and everybody else who has helped. I'd also like to say that Rob at Warner is the man, for the Van Halen CD. A huge kiss and hug goes out to Shannah at Sony for everything. I owe you a night out on the town in Chicago. A hello to Gina at Blood Records. And a thanks for talking about anything beside tracking. Last but not least a shout out to my bros: Spackelle at Interscope, Chuck at Immortal (where's my movie?), and Corey and Phil at McGathy. That's it for now, as time permits I'll write more Dialogues. By the way, here are my office hours: Mondays and Wednesdays 1-4 p.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays 2-5 p.m., and Friday 1-2:30 p.m. I'll catch everybody's act later. P.S. (Hey, you know who) I've got a pair of Bon Jovi tickets for Chicago. Wanna go?

Chris and Shawn, Music Department Humans,

KVSC, St. Cloud, MN 612.255.3126 A note to interested parties: we are now resuming our specialty reporting to RPM, World Music, and Beat Box, so please start burying us with like music. All three genres of music are included in our normal rotation, and they also have their respective weekly programs. It was a little difficult for us to corner these specialty hosts in the past to get their playlists, but after I threatened to have Shawn tackle them and ladle em' up with a barrage of wet kisses, they've complied (and if you've never been kissed by Shawn, consider yourself blessed) to the fullest extent. Punkheads: remember Shawn's "Undercurrents" program? He's been tickled pink by the amount of punk he's been getting (last week he had a green mowhawk and was down to a svelt 101 pounds). And I too have a program, called "Abstractions," mainly a venue for sound collage, noise, gothic, audio art, tape manipulation type stuff. Anyone servicing this type of music, please contact me! I have funky playlists if you'd want to see what sorts of insanity gets thrown from our transmitter. Lastly, thanks to everyone, you know who you are, who speak to us on a quasi-weekly basis (pimento lovers of the world unite!), with respect to Teresa at RAS. I think I have enough room to say Wally Pleasant will be performing at our birthday celebration May 15th, and we're extremely hyped!

Brian Mason, Jedi Knight, WGLS, Glassboro, NJ

609.863.9457 Lastly, please take note of the above phone code if you want to reach me because the old number was disconnected, due to our upcoming move to brand-spanking new studios, and will not work. I'm sorry if you have been unable to get through, but I've been trying to inform as many of you as possible. We also have one of the foxing or fixing machines whatever you call 'em and its number is 609.256.4704. As for e-mail, give us a little while on that, were still trying to kermit our Saturn. To all the CMJ staff, keep up the good work and give the guy who came up with the lime-green borders a raise, it's most dopely phat. And first off, let me say Pond can come and practice their joy before death in Philly anytime.

Dan Fullick, Program Director, KSDJ, Brookings, SD

605.688.5559 For starters, I thank those labels that fill up our mailbox, not our voice mail. Phone calls are great, but please! With that out of the way I will shed light on all those who missed the best ignored album of '94: Jawbreaker's 24 Hour Revenge Therapy. It never ceases to amaze me that Hole sold more than 10 albums, and Jawbreaker's masterpiece went virtually unnoticed. Oh well, such is rock and roll. One band to keep an ear out for is the Smoking Popes. This is the best example of pop punk that I have ever heard and that isn't redundant and boring (ah-hem...Green Day). We charted the Smoking Popes' first two releases from Johann's Face Records of Chicago. The band has told me that they will probably sign to a major soon, and rerelease their newest album, Born to Quit, with a few extra songs. Good luck finding the indie release because the majors aren't letting Johann's Face produce anymore. Face To Face could also make gains beyond the punk scene this year. We now have an e-mail address: KSDJ@brookings.polaristel.net. Yes, with this old Mac, we are the smoke-huffing, rusted-out Volkswagen of the information super highway.

Seth Soffer, Music Director, WKDU, Philadelphia, PA

215.895.2580 Here's my Hits Jr. attempt to communicate with this fashion industry we call college music. I would like to start off with a condemnation of the opaque "lets do it for the money" comeback of the Circle Jerks. If you're dead, stay dead. As my friend Brendan would tell you, "It's a sure sign of the impending apocalypse." This apocalypse is coming; no doubt, especially with the number of vapid bands littering the charts like Throwing Muses, PJ Harvey, Bettie Serveert, Quicksand and Belly, just naming the top five entries. You can dig deeper and find even more trash like 90% of the CMJ Top 150. It saddens me that this top 150 list is missing such integral components of my listening experience such as: To Live And Shave In LA, Temple of Bon Matin, Gate, Skullflower and the Hinkies. An optimist could say I am smarter than the rest of you, but a pessimist would say I'm an asshole. Whichever is the case, I would like to share a bit of advice: If your day job is as a manure salesman, then you're going to come home smelling like shit. Remember that, all you promoters out there.

Paul & Scott, Big Phat Bastards, WJUL, Lowell,

MA 508.452.9073 Alright, all you record company pigs, make sure y'all got your expense accounts (Jeff Marks) when you meet us because between the two of us we weigh in at more than the entire WWF: We eat more than your average Third World nation at one sitting and we drink more beer than Ireland at a soccer match. We gots to send out mad-phat big-ups to all our boyz & gurls: Crazee mad props to Lisa & Stephanie at Vision Trust (if it was legal I'd marry you both, but only if Orange 9mm will play), the ruler of all nations Pete "Ironman" Rosenblum, da crazee snowman Smitty @ Epic (I'm comin' to ya house to bust phat thru da powda and catch MAAAAD air), Vicki @ Radical (get ready for the NYC bowl-off), Sudi and Corey @ McGathy (y'all just mad crazee m8thaf8ckas), Andre and Joanne @ AIM (it's gotta be the tea, ma brotha), Mami @ Roadrunner (good luck wif ya new MAN), John and EF @ Columbia (where's Stompbox now?), Margot @ Engine (See ya at the Middle East if they ever have another good shov), Jonathan @ Epitaph (you're all just a bunch of sell-outs to us, sucka), and finally, the Bitch @ Interscope (Jeff, where's my stuff?) Music that makes our booties bounce: Orange 9mm, Strife, Anal Cunt, Quicksand, 6L6, and starting May 9, Otis.

Carol Schuck, WCRD, Muncie, IN 317.285.1467

WCRD is now FM! Well, FM from 3 p.m.-8 a.m. We are sharing a transmitter with a Muncie High School. Needless to say, the high school already does not like our alternative format. They are threatening to pull the plug on us if the language of our format does not improve. So, this is where you come in! Record companies, please send us as much radio-edited music as possible! This will be greatly appreciated and WCRD will love you forever.

Scooter Pegram, Station Manager, WLHA,

Madison, WI 608.262.1206 A quick hello to say thanks to all the record companies for being patient with us at WLHA. We have been undergoing a major staff transition over the past few months. We "old timers" such as myself will be graduating in May, and we have now hired a bunch of energetic kiddies to take over station operations. Speaking of young guns, we have new music directors to serve you. Genevieve Atlas, Joshua Lenius and Jesse Buerk will be holding office hours every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in the late afternoon/early evenings. They look forward to hearing from all of you. Myself, I am ending my five year reign as WLHA's boss and heading away to graduate school. Before I go, some new groups to keep your ears on: Chucklehead, Day Of Reckoning, Funkin Do Me and Tampa's Rosewater Elizabeth...and without question, the new KMFDM disc kicks (look forward to their upcoming tour). Peace to all in the biz-happy trails...to the record companies and my staff at WLHA, thanks for the memories. ☐

LOUD ROCK DIALOGUE

Michael J. Schnapp/Stephanie Pensyl, EM
Records, New York, NY 212.492.1812 Queensryche kick off the Promised Land tour April 14 in Kalamazoo and oh, what fun it is to air Queensryche specials while utilizing your Road To Promised Land—Arrived radio-only promo CD! Selections go as far back as their self-titled debut EP (i.e. "The Lady Wore Black") and also now includes hits from Promised Land such as "I Am I," "Bridge" and "Damaged." Speaking of "Disconnected," we just dropped in the mail to you a Queensryche "Disconnected" single featuring three versions of "Disconnected" and it includes three tracks previously unavailable in the U.S., such as a live acoustic version of "Silent Lucidity" recorded in Astoria, London in October of '94. The "Disconnected" CD-pro also features the track "Dirty Lil' Secret," a song which was recorded during the Promised Land sessions. AND you will also find a version of "Someone Else" with guitars, drums and bass (the LP version only featured Geoff Tate's vocals and acoustic piano). And mark April 10 on your calendars as the Queensryche "Disconnected" add and airplay date! Congratulations to Moist who snagged this year's Best New Group at the Juno Awards after performing "Push" (Junos are the Canadian equivalent of the Grammys). Call if you need another copy of the Moist LP Silver. Butt Trumpet is getting set to tour again to bring to you the live attack of "I'm Ugly And I Don't Know Why," as well as other great songs like "Funeral Crashing Tonight" and "I Left My Flannel In Seattle." You can play these songs on your metal show and make your listeners so happy they'll dial up the phone and let you know themselves! Plus, air these songs because Schnapp is sick of listening to old eight-tracks and wants to hear Butt Trumpet on YOUR station!

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia Records, New York, NY
212.833.4989 Cheers to the entire WXTB crew for making Livestock '95 a complete blast! Medlin, you rage! Dokken put on one shredding show, proving once again that George Lynch is one of the all-time greatest guitar players ever! I don't think y'all spun every track on that C.O.C. record, Deliverance. Get to it. "My Grain" is pure power in a Sabbath-meets-ZZ Top (circa '73) vein, and as Jay Huguen, will attest, all the stuff that rock and roll dreams were made of. Yes, Mad Season does fit on playlists that include Death and Bolt Thrower. Jim Thirlwell is available to do interviews on behalf of Foetus. Get ready to pick the brain of a true musical genius. Is it me, or does the new Jayhawks record get better with every listen?

Dan "Spit" Fitzgerald, Columbia Hard Rock/Metal
Retail, New York, NY 212.833.4289 Any of you retail cats out there who also DJ at local clubs should be calling me in regards to Foetus' Gash (in stores April 18)! If you are spinning at a local club, or have a friend who DJs at a local club, call so I can set you up with Foetus vinyl. I'll set you up with some other goodies so the kids at the clubs will know that they can come to you and buy Foetus' Gash on April 18. More on this later. C.O.C. continues to reign at the registers thanks to retail support and lots of radio action. Plenty of double-sided full-color posters are on hand, so call to give your store a facelift. Look for a Spring/Summer C.O.C. club tour, at which point you can see for yourself why C.O.C. is headed to gold status (and beyond). All winners of the C.O.C. tour display contest (mentioned here last issue) should hold tight until C.O.C. gets back from Europe. At that time, I'll shoot you out the personalized, autographed framed C.O.C. posters. Got a chance to check out Dokken at Livestock in Florida and 20,000 screaming animals singing "Kiss Of Death" pretty much blew me away! New Dokken album coming soon. Thanks to Brian Medlin and all at WXTB and Heather and Mike at Ace's Records. Haven't watched the sun come up in awhile, but that's Tampa for ya. On deck: Season To Risk!

Jill/Kelly, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL 708.297.6538 Just saw Opressor with Broken Hope last Sunday. Opressor kicked ass and Broken Hope deserves to be huge. I'm so into this band! It was great meeting Carlos and Eric from WCLC and Ryan from WVUR. Thanks for coming to the show. I noticed Cheryl Valentine's dialogue last week and the tidbit about how the only day of the year that there has never been a tornado touchdown reported is on January 16. That's my birthday! So technically, on January 16 a tornado touched down in East Stroudsburg, PA and I was spawn as a result! I have the smartest intern at Red Light! Kelly, metal director at WLRA, and my assistant who talks to all C & Ks made the dean's list and got almost all A's last semester! Too bad she's president of her sorority. Anyway, Michigan Death Fest horror stories next week, major signing announcement hopefully next week, Solitude updates too. Thanks for the support and patience.

Russ Miller, Rockworld Records, New York, NY
212.996.2727 By the time you read this, you should have already added Bad Seed's "Empty" and you should be well into the thick, musky, meaty, sweaty, bone crunching, primal groove. If not, then geez, don't you think you should try it? If for some reason you did not get a copy of this record yet, let me know, we wouldn't want you to miss out now would we?

Smitty, Epic Records, New York, NY 212.833.5988 Fight's "Blowout In The Radio Room" should be blowing speakers out in your control room by now, if not, let your fingers do the walkin'. Korn, on tour with Marilyn Manson and Danzig and the "Need To" edit crankin' on the airwaves. Firehouse album out April 18 (same day as Fight's Small Deadly Space). Call for info and/or abuse.

Joe Guzik, Sony Music, New York, NY 212.833.8873 What's up? I hope everyone is psyched for the new Fight. Check out the first single, it's called "Blowout In The Radio Room." Adds on the full-length are 4/18. Call me about any specifics. Gash, the full-length by Foetus, will be available in stores April 18. Let all your Jim Thirlwell heads know. Hope you all received the full Mad Season. Korn and C.O.C. are still doing incredible, keep playing that beautiful music. See ya.

Marni Halpern, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY
212.219.0077 It's April 3 and 4 and it's time to add Decide's new release, Once Upon The Cross. Glen Burton and company have composed new satanic love songs for you to share with your loved one. Tracks to check out are the title track, "They Are The Children Of The Underworld" and "Christ Denied." Death's release, Symbolic, is getting spin after spin after spin. Keep playing "Zero Tolerance" until Simon says stop! I want to thank everyone who will be doing interviews with Death this week. If I did not get to you to set one up, please call me. They will be heading over to Europe for about a month, then back for a U.S. tour. Thorn's album, Bitter Potion, is being much appreciated by KLOL, WKLL, KISW, WPCR, KZRQ, WSGR, WKNC and more. If you are "still" reviewing Thorn, please listen to "Flesh Of Skies," "Thorn" and "Tense." They are different and damn proud of it! Start playing "Get Chained," "Power Is My Life" and "Murder Is My Religion" off of Holy Gang's release, !Free TysonFree! If anyone needs anything related to Machine Head, like giveaways, stickers, posters, etc., call me.

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA 404.463.1009 Hopefully by now you will have received the devastating debut CD by Full Circle entitled Negative. The band cites such diverse influences as White Zombie, Pantera, Prong and Primus. I think you will find it one of the top heavy groove metal releases to come out in recent memory. We are looking for adds on April 17 and 18. Every song kicks, but we suggest the title track as the lead play. The band is also available for interviews. Don't be left behind on this!

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL
708.916.1155 What a Spring this will be. First off, everybody should be playing the crap out of Accept. Their new disc, Death Row, takes us back to the "Balls To The Wall" days. The sales are there, so don't even try to say you don't have Accept fans in your town. I'll be getting liners done in a few weeks, so if I still don't have your info, give me a call. I'm sure you've all heard of the Crowbar release date. Their latest, Time Heals Nothing, is due out May 23. Too bad for those not here this summer, because Crowbar is a part of Noizfest with Pro-Pain, Overdose and Testament. Malevolent Creation's latest also due out in May and look for a tour to start with Milwaukee Metalfest. Two new ones from Pavement in April, first is Oklahoma's Uglystick with their self-titled debut and Crawl with their industrial twist debut Earth. Solitude is still raging on the charts, watch for another tour to hit this summer.

Catherine "Jack" Enny, Ignition Marketing, Los Angeles, CA 213.937.1727 Jack...as in Daniels. That's what they called me at the rockin' Fu Manchu show at Hollywood's Gaslight. They were bringin' down the house playing cuts from Daredevil (bong load)! Loud, proud and dangerous to know! Don't miss out on this mo-fro ride! At Fu shows you can always seem to find the likes of Keith Morris of the legendary Circle Jerks (new record coming out on Mercury) or members of the Melvins (stock up on Stoner Witch...they're going out with White Zombie) or Kyuss (just finished a new record for a rumored July release on Elektra) or Corrosion Of Conformity (Deliverance is on constant repeat on my ghetto blaster) or White Zombie, whose new album Astro Creep 2000... has got to be one of the best, heavy-rockin', honkin'-huge-motor-runnin'-greazy-machine-drivin' and yes, headbangin' albums of the year! What's with the industrial comparison!? This album sonically grooves and breathes and definitely is "More Human Than Human" and certainly more human than industrial! Speaking of an industrial vibe that cuts through the boundaries of being pegged industrial, Jim Thirlwell's Foetus, whose album, Gash (Columbia), rocks heavy and techs out in a hard, but feel-good way. The 12" Null album cover says it all! Feels good, don't it. Stock up for those exclusive Foetus listening parties being thrown across the U.S. of A. We've come for your children. Faith No More on tour and carving their own awesome path with King For A Day, Fool For A Lifetime. Kinda like what Jack Daniels'll do for ya.

Jay Huguen, A&M Records, Los Angeles, CA 213.856.7139 Ground zero baby! Monster Magnet explodes straight to the top of the universe! "Negasonic Teenage Warhead" detonates and WE as a FORMAT have made it so. Block show spins and college radio are selling this sucker and we've got top five requests after two weeks! This is what we're all here for. Video containing pizza, puke, asteroids, explosions, cars and donuts accepted to SuperRock and 120. Now, take a breath and find your new L.A. Guns Face Down EP. Adds this M/T. Do the right thing. NP-Avail, Strange Moment, Wanna Go? Surf the net and find me at KLAATU13@AOL.

Lauren Goldwasser, Concrete Marketing, New York, NY
1.800.666.6382 x1700 There's only a month and a half till you guys leave for summer break (or graduate!), so let's get cracking on the great new tunes! Monster Magnet!!! Massive shout out to Dave @ WVUA, John @ WERS, Jeff @ WDNR, Dave @ WGAO, Dallas @ CFCR, Dan @ KRLX and Jim @ WCLH for charting Dopes To Infinity at #1! You rule and hopefully more stations will wake up and realize that this record kicks ass! Call for Quicksand giveaways! They're in Europe now and will be back in the states for some more killer shows. Fight!!! A Small Deadly Space adds on 4/17! How awesome is the new White Zombie!!! I have interviews and tour dates (with Melvins-yippie!). Tour kicks off May 9! Foetus full adds on 4/17! "Verklemmt" is the single you should be spinning! KMFDM on tour with Dink starting S/3. Track #3, "Flesh," is heavy and fast enough for metal airplay! I have plenty of giveaways, so call me! By now you should have the All full. Try out track #7! Check into Steve Vai's latest, Alien Love Secrets. "Bad Horsie" rips! I have interviews as well! Warrant has proved that they can make a kicking CD. I have giveaways and dates! Kix is back and doing what they do best! Check out "911." Coming up: Die Cheerleader, Filter (finally!), Slaughter and Gwen Mars! Anyone that has any Milwaukee Metalfest info, let me know! E-mail me at lilaur@aol.com

Gavin Bryars

It begins with a horrible sound: a muffled tearing of metal dulled by a rush of water, a feeling of dread that settles in the silence afterwards. It's the first sound you hear in The Sinking Of The Titanic, (Point Music), composer Gavin Bryars' interpretation of the events of April 12, 1912. Last year, another Bryars recording, Jesus' Blood (constructed from a tape loop of a hobo singing a snippet of a mournful hymn), garnered considerable critical and popular acclaim, making him one of the few contemporary composers, alongside Philip Glass or Henryk Górecki, who have penetrated the mainstream consciousness. Considering his subject matter and the powerfully moving music he's wrought from it, it's no surprise.

Titanic is based loosely upon the popular narrative account of the greatest shipwreck in history, and the report that the band continued to play hymns while the ship went down. Using the chordal structure of the hymn "Autumn" as a root and the poetical conceit of the band playing all the way to the bottom, Bryars builds a piece of music that is at once lullingly peaceful and immensely frightening. At one point, barely audible behind the droning hymn, the ghostly voices of survivors, recorded on taped interviews, describe the eerie sound of the iceberg scraping the hull and the mood on board before the great ship sank inexorably towards the ocean floor.

"In the whole sequence of events in which I sort of researched from the impact of the ship down to its final sinking, there are different environments which come into play with the musicians themselves, for example, Bryars explains. "As the water rises, clearly they're moving into other spaces, and then up into the open air, and ultimately into the water, of course. And one of the things that I did was to spend time with the plans of the ship, seeing exactly how they moved from one space to another, where their living quarters were, and in which rooms, which spaces on the ship were there pianos. In which rooms did musical performances take place, whether informal or formal. So all those things, the actual real spaces of the ship, get translated into kind of imaginary spaces in terms of the way the music can progress. So although I wasn't consciously thinking, 'Okay, let's have this space equal the ballroom, that space equal that and so on,' the idea is a part of the whole piece anyway."

"When I [wrote Titanic] I was working in an art college, and was working around [visual] artists who were interested in art which had ideas, rather than which was only just a visual surface. And I was thinking, well, what would be the musical equivalent of that, something in which the ideas were as important, maybe even more important than the way it sounds.

"What I did first was to make a series of notes, and I felt that in a way, reading through those notes on the piece was as important to the piece as hearing it. Just texts, little draft notes, reading through that information and the kind of thoughts behind it, were in fact the piece."

Bryars' reference to his "notes"

reveals through an unconscious pun the way in which text intersects music in his world; clearly for Bryars, the musical score is just one of many texts surrounding The Sinking Of The Titanic, and music is just part of the story.

When asked why he seems drawn to such compelling subject matter as the Titanic and the sad hobo's hymn of Jesus' Blood, Bryars' reply is perceptive but not without a touch of humor. "Well, I do find that the music that I take the most pleasure from is that which actually has some kind of emotional punch of some sort or another. And if I'm doing something, then there is some kind of emotional color to it. Not to say that I'm sort of deliberately trying to make people sad, or pull on their heartstrings or anything. But it seems to me that music which is emotionally cool is not the kind of music I tend to write."

Bryars' future plans include a tour of the U.S., possibly in the fall. "I'm planning a North American tour with my ensemble, and this will almost certainly be a piece that I will be doing. There's actually discussion at the moment—what I basically plan to do is offer two different programs, one with Jesus' Blood in the second half, and one with Titanic in the second half, with the first half being more recent pieces. There's one plan that's quite a way down the line for me to do a special version of Titanic with my ensemble with symphony orchestra in Winnipeg."

"It's the kind of thing which I think everyone is distantly aware of, the whole kind of mythology, the sort of metaphors of the Titanic. I mean, it had that sort of force. You mention marine disaster and the Titanic is still the one that people refer to. The Titanic is the one, because it has this huge sort of almost emblematic significance.

"If someone were to say to me, 'Could you please write me a piano sonata,' I'd have to say probably not. I could may well write you a piano piece, but I'd have to think about what I'm doing, why I'm doing it, and what is the image, what is the kind of source of the material that's drawing me into making this music." JAMES LIEN
