Sam Cooke (left) one of the record industry's most consistent hit-makers, riding an unbroken chain of eight smash singles, relaxes with George R. Marek, vice president and general manager of RCA Victor's Record Division. The two are discussing the continuance of Cooke's highly successful relationship with Victor which the artist has just sealed with the pen he is holding. Currently big with "Red Rooster," the artist has been fire-hot with such best sellers as "Frankie And Johnnie," "Another Saturday Night," "Send Me Some Lovin'," "Nothing Can Change This Love," "Bring It On Home To Me" coupled with "Havin' A Party," and "Twistin' The Night Away." Sam will appear on Jerry Lewis' ABC-TV'er Saturday, Dec. 7. Giuseppe Verdi is the gent in the background.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

The unfortunate mechanics of publishing a weekly magazine make somewhat belated the following words about our late President, John F. Kennedy.

But, the shock, and, more so, the tragedy of his untimely death and the quality of his leadership require our expression at this time. While the period of official mourning draws to a close, all of us who were witnesses to this event will carry the dark deed of his death for the rest of our lives. And, hopefully, carry and convey to those generations to come the high character and purpose of the man.

The staff of Cash Box extends deep sympathy to the family of President John F. Kennedy.

To our new President, Lyndon B. Johnson, who must now undertake the awesome responsibilities of the office, go our prayers for guidance in the difficult days ahead.

"IRRESISTIBLE... SHEER EXUBERANCE... A HEAT WAVE built up by frenetic, rhythmic dancing, by rousing and incantatory singing and by the sheer exuberance of a stageful of attractive performers."—Howard Taubman, N. Y. TIMES

"A WHIRLWIND OF FUN... Burgie's music and lyrics are top drawer, flying high above the current Broadway level of musical scores."—Gene Palatsky, NEWARK NEWS

"TALENT... PUTS BANG IN BIMSHIRE. An always pleasing... rousing score trips lightly over the corn-and-sugar fields... and the result is a very pleasant evening."—James Davis, DAILY NEWS

"'BIMSHIRE' EXUBERANT ROMP, equipped with tunes that should get big plays on disc jockey shows and juke boxes, the large company sails through this entry with ingratiating enthusiasm. It won a rousing reception."—Robert Coleman, DAILY MIRROR

"LUSTY... ENJOYABLE... Burgie's music is in the island idiom... it is irresistible."—Norman Nadel, WORLD TEL & SUN

"FINEST MUSICAL COMEDY. Moments currently on view in New York... infectious buoyant."—Emory Lewis, CUE

Broadway And Films Highlight Victor's 12-LP December Release

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records has announced that its 12-album release for Dec. will feature two original cast Broadway show albums, the film tracks from three new Hollywood flicks and seven pop LP's.

The casters include "110 In The Shade," the new Merrick musical, and the new Mary Martin vehicle, "Jennie." The soundtracks are "Fun In Acapulco" with Elvis Presley; "Charade," with score by Henry Mancini; and "The Cardinal," with musical score by Jerome Moross.

The pop album line-up includes

"500 Miles Away From Home," with Bobby Bare, "We Give A Hoot!" with the Womenfolk and The Villagers; "Gold Hits Volume Two" with various artists including Artie Shaw, Perry Como and Mario Lanza; "Diamonds By The Dozen Country Style" with Eddy Arnold, Gene Autry, Chet Atkins, Hank Snow, Skeeter Davis and others; "The Joe Daly Trio At Newport;" "Old 'N' Golden Goodies" with Neil Sedaka, Della Reese etc.; and "Serenata Sin Luna Volume Three" with Jose Alfredo Jimenez.

Victor Nabs "Foxy" Cast LP

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records has concluded arrangements to cut the cast LP of "Foxy," the David Merrick musical that will open on Broadway in Feb., starring Bert Lahr. The announcement was made jointly by Merrick and Joe Linhart, Victor's A&R producer of Broadway musicals and motion pictures.

"Foxy," with music composed by Robert Emmett Dolan and lyrics by Johnny Mercer, will have its Broadway premiere at the Ziegfeld Theatre on the evening of Feb. 13.

The book for the musical, which is based on an adaptation of Ben Jonson's famous "Volpone," is a collaboration of Ian McLellan Hunter and Ring Lardner Jr. which centers the play's action in the Yukon during the exciting gold rush period. Robert Lewis is the director of "Foxy." The show was scheduled for a Broadway bow sometime ago, but it was cancelled after a short run in Alaska.

Prior to its opening in New York, "Foxy" is scheduled to play for one week at the Hanna Theatre in Cleveland, starting Jan. 4, and for a four-week run at the Fisher Theatre in Detroit, beginning Jan. 13.

The original cast recording of "Foxy" is scheduled tentatively for the week following the musical's opening on Broadway in Victor's Webster Hall studio.

Victor's cast LP stakes so far this season include "110 in the Shade" (another David Merrick show) and "Jennie," both of which have started their Main Stem runs, and "Dolly," the upcoming Jerry ("Milk & Honey") Herman musical.

Liberty Pubbery Build-Up; Branches In N.Y.; H'wood

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records is stepping-up its pubbery activities with the opening of two new offices for the operations, with the naming of two execs to take over their helms.

Dick Glasser, general manager of the firm, Metric Music and its subsidiaries, Travis & Post, acquired in the Liberty purchase of Imperial Records, announced the opening of offices on the west coast and in the east.

Tom LiPuma, formerly promo man for the label, will head the west coast office, at 1156 N. La Brea, Hollywood, and Ed Silvers, coming from the A&R dept. of Liberty, will head the eastern outlet, at 157 West 57th St.

Along with the space expansion, Glasser also announced that Metric has also set-up foreign operations in England, Australia, France, Germany and So. Africa.

Metric, Glasser said, is augmenting its staff of seven "Top 40" and "good-music" writers with an "open-door" policy on both ends of the country for new material and dubs.

PP&M Get RIAA Award For Their LP Debut

NEW YORK—Peter, Paul & Mary doing smash LP and singles sales for Warner Bros. Records, are getting their first gold record from the Record Industry Association of America (RIAA). Award is for their first album, named after them, which has topped the one million unit mark in domestic sales, and, as far as the RIAA is concerned, has sold at least a $1 million worth of albums.

The trio followed its first LP with two other great sellers, "Movin'" and "In The Wind."

Currently on tour, the group is playing through the South during the first weeks in Dec., including Atlanta's Municipal Auditorium (4), Greenville (5), Columbia (6), Greensboro (7) and Charlotte (8).

ROSA Sets Meet In N.Y. Jan. 11-12

PHILADELPHIA — Irv Perlman, head of ROSA, the one-stop association, has announced a meet of the group on Jan. 11-12 at New York's Americana Hotel. It will be a closed meeting for ROSA members and other one-stops.

Sherrill Joins Epic's A&R Staff In Nashville

NEW YORK—Billy Sherrill, formerly manager and chief engineer of the Sam Phillips Recording Studio in Nashville, has joined Epic Records as a pop A&R producer.

Sherrill will headquarter at Epic's Nashville offices and supervise the recordings by such artists as David Houston, Jim & Jesse and The Virginia Boys, Stan Hitchcock, Obrey Wilson, Shirley Ray and Linda Brannon. He is responsible to Bob Morgan, the label's exec producer. Sherrill has many years experience as a musician, recording engineer and producer.

London Records Announces Distributor Changes

NEW YORK—Herb Goldfarb, national sales manager of London Records, has announced that all London product and all its subsid labels will be distributed in Oklahoma by Big State Distributors of Dallas which has been handling the label's line in Northeast Texas for many years. Goldfarb said the change was effective immediately.

Decca Records Distributing in Cincinnati will distribute London product in Kentucky, Southern Ohio and parts of West Virginia to become the fifth Decca branch handling the London line.

WB Pacts Freddy Cannon

Maitland said that the addition of Cannon was another "indication of our intention to achieve the kind of success in the singles market that we've enjoyed with albums." He said the label would be dealing with top indie producers and "constantly be on the lookout for available talent that will insure that success for us."

Cannon will work with singles director Joe Smith in the production of his disks for WB.

CHRISTMAS RECORD ACTIVITY

Under normal sales circumstances, reports this week would have probably shown a more clearly defined sales pattern of Christmas albums as well as a better indication of breaking Christmas singles. But because of the tragedy of the weekend before last, as well as the abbreviated week due to Thanksgiving Day, reports were light and sharply defined trends in Yuletide disk sales were difficult to determine. Nevertheless, the titles mentioned below were disks which did receive sales reports.

KENNEDY TRAGEDY & THE RECORD BUSINESS

NEW YORK—As political pundits assess a world without John F. Kennedy, the music world can also ponder the meaning of the late President's tragic death within its own confines.

It is well known that the late chief of state and his widow spearheaded many efforts to arouse a new pride and concern for the arts, music and otherwise, both in their creation and outlets for their exposure.

Now that half of this great culture-minded team is gone, and with him, for the time being at least, the significance of the office in influencing a continued growth of the arts in America, those in the arts may hopefully await words from President Johnson, and perhaps the new First Lady, too, regarding a continuation of the late President's feelings for the arts, just as he has vowed to maintain the political policies of his predecessor.

It is a certainty that Jacqueline Kennedy will be a great influence, on a much less publicized scale, of course, on the cultural arts once her period of mourning is over.

What about the music business itself? There will certainly be the voluminous albums and singles (paying tribute to the memory of President Kennedy, releases, hope was expressed, that should be of material selected with good sense and presented with good taste (see below). Musical tributes to the late leader will undoubtedly be greatly accentuated by the current popularity of the folk idiom, whose form makes for natural "modern-day-ballads" paying homage to his achievements and philosophy.

Radio, following a total blackout of rock 'n roll music between the time the President was shot and the day of his funeral, resumed normal programming last Wed. (27). Traders were concerned that Top 40 programming would have a hard time of it in the weeks following the President's death. But, as one music librarian put, "life goes on," and stations which leaned toward teen-market sounds were airing such material by week's end.

Also by week's end, the record buying public had at least two LP's paying homage to the late Chief Executive. Working at top speed to bring the discs to market were 20th Century-Fox, which rushed an LP, "A Documentary: John F. Kennedy—The Presidential Years (1960-1963)," culled from Fox Movietone News filming of speeches by Kennedy; and Documentaries Unlimited, a Long Island City label which debuted with "Profile in Courage," a coverage of the assassination story with a narrative by New York radio personality-columnist Barry Gray.

In the singles field, Savoy Records is rushing this week (2) a gospel record called "That Awful Day In Dallas." The song was written by Brother Thurmon Ruth, a deejay at WSRC-Durham, No. Carolina. He sang the song over the telephone to Savoy execs Herman Lubinsky and Fred Mendelsohn, who had him fly to New York and cut the song with The Harmonizers, the label's gospel group.

Among the many events cancelled because of the tragedy was the presentation of manuscripts of the late composer Vincent Youman to the Library of Congress, scheduled for last Mon. (25) in Washington, D.C. Part of the commemoration of the 65th anniversary of Youman's birth, the presentation will be made at a later date.

British Labels Reject Use Of Trading Stamps

LONDON—As the battle of the trading stamps continues to rage in Britain with increasing velocity, several record manufacturers came out last week with a firm rejection of the practice.

In a statement to the trade, E.M.I. outlined both its policy and the legal position in the matter. The label confirmed that records under all E.M.I. labels are sold, subject to conditions as to the maintenance of their retail prices. The issue of gift trading stamps to any customer in connection with the sale of any of the company's products subject to retail price maintenance, would constitute a breach of these conditions. E.M.I. warned that, in their opinion, the gift coupon is a reduction in the selling price and that, quite apart from any terms there may be in their agreements with registered dealers, Section 25 of the Restrictive Trade Practices Act provides the means for a supplier to take proceedings against dealers who sell below the fixed prices. The statement signified that E.M.I. intends to exercise these means should it find any breaches of its trading conditions.

Decca and Oriole have issued similar statements but at press time no statements were available from Philips and Pye.

C-P Names 2 Distributors

NEW YORK—New distributors in St. Louis and Montana have been named by Cameo-Parkway Records, according to the label's Herman Kaplan. The new outlets are Roberts Record Dist. in St. Louis and R&M Dist. in Billings, Mont.

Columbia Unveils 20 New Dec. LP's

NEW YORK—Columbia Records has announced the release of 20 new albums for Dec. with an issue that includes 8 Masterworks, 10 pop albums, the original soundtrack recording of "East Side, West Side," the new CBS TV'er, and an addition to its language series, "Pasaporte Al Ingles."

The Masterworks entries are "Vienna, My City Of Dreams" by Richard Tucker; Ravel's "Valse Nobles et Sentimentales," Faure's "Pelleas

And Melisande Suite" and excerpts from Berlioz' "Damnation Of Faust" by the Philadelphia Orchestra conducted by Charles Munch; Brahms' "Sonata No. 1 and No. 3" by Isaac Stern; "Eileen Farrell Sings French And Italian Songs"; Strauss' "Don Quixote" by the Philadelphia Orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy; Beethoven's "String Quartet No. 13 In B-flat" by the Budapest String Quartet; Rachmaninoff's "First And Fourth Piano Concertos" with pianist Philippe Entremont and the Philadelphia Orchestra; and "Suite For Harp And Chamber Orchestra" by Harry Somers with Judy Loman, harpist, and "Serenade Concertante" by Murray Adaskin, and "Concertante No. 1" by Jean Papineau" all by the CBS Orchestra conducted by Walter Susskind with Mario Bernardi as pianist.

The pop release includes "Hit Songs From Meredith Willson's 'Here's Love'" by the Merrill Staton Voices; "All Star Hootenanny" by various artists; "Outstanding Jazz Compositions Of The 20th Century" by various artists; "Piano In The Foreground" by Duke Ellington; "Drummin' Man" with Gene Krupa; "Romantically" by Johnny Mathis; "This Life I'm Living" by Carolyn Hester; "The Young Beat" by Les Brown; "Dancin' Round The World" by Frankie Yankovic; and "Javier Solis Sings His Latest Hits."

Angel's Schnabel Set: An Expensive Hit From The Era Of 78's

NEW YORK—Angel Records has a collector's item hit in a 13-LP teaming of pianist Artur Schnabel and Beethoven.

Label said last week that it had sold 3,000 copies of the expensive release (list price: $77.98) in its first weeks, the number of packages it planned to have in stock for three months. Diskery is now rushing 7000 additional packages, thus making a total of 10,000 copies it believes it will move by the end of Jan.

With the collection under a buy-three-get-one-free-offer, many dealers are offering it on a much less than list-price basis, an average of $36, the label reported.

The complete performances of Beethoven's sonatas by Schnabel, made between 1932-37, are in their second release in the U.S. over the past 11 years. Victor released the recordings, also in a deluxe package, back in 1952. The Victor pressings were sold only in this country, whereas the new Angel pressings (completely re-transferred, that is from old 78 masters to tape to LP) will be released in England at the rate of two or three LP's a month.

The recordings were first issued in England between 1935-40. They were pressed and released by HMV on a strict subscription basis with no retail distribution. At that time, the complete set cost around $300.

Angel's biggest single-package release before the Schnabel set was the Walter Gieseking collection of the complete Mozart sonatas, presented on 11 LP's.

UA Bows "Tom Jones" Track

NEW YORK—United Artists Records has just released the soundtrack to "Tom Jones," the sensationally received English flick version of Henry Fielding's classic novel. Score is by John Addison, who also conducts the soundtrack orchestra. When the flick recently premiered in New York, critics termed it one of the funniest flick comedies of all time.

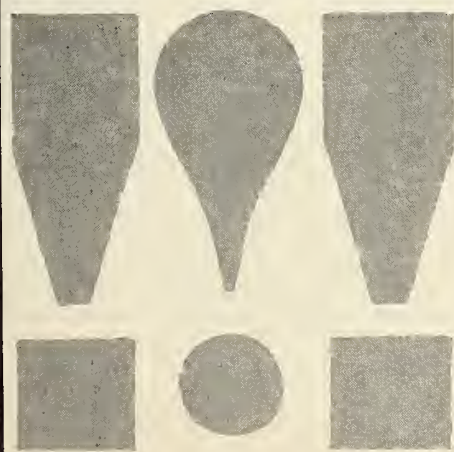

FATEFUL WEEKEND'S EVENTS AFFECT SALES AND SURVEYS

Because of the tragic events of last week and the fact that the nation was completely at a stand-still to observe the death of our late president, reports on the progress of records were strongly affected.

New releases, which arrived at the dealer level just prior to the fateful Friday, received absolutely no air exposure from radio and sharp gains by any brand new records were, in most cases, difficult to determine, due to a definite lack of business activity from Friday at noon until Tuesday, Nov. 26th. For this reason the Cash Box Top 100 singles chart shows so few late releases breaking in this week.

The Top 100 singles chart and the Top 100 Album chart, both affected by the same situation, this week cover the very limited survey period of the week ending Friday, Nov. 22. Our surveys were tabulated Tuesday, Nov. 26, showing very little of the Thanksgiving week's sale. The Thanksgiving holiday also pushed our deadline up one day, further limiting the length of the survey period.

The Looking Ahead feature, compiled on Wednesday evening, Nov. 27, shows some of the late activity on newer singles. The Radio Active compilation covers air play prior to Nov. 22.

Pick of the Week

"BABY, I DO LOVE YOU" (2:30)

[Mother Bertha, Trio BMI—Spector, Greenwich, Barry]

"MISS JOAN AND MR. SAM" (2:00) [Mother Bertha BMI—Spector]
THE RONETTES (Philles 118)

The exciting in-person femme trio, now a top wax attraction as a result of their "Be My Baby" chart-topping Philles bow, can make it two smasheroos-in-a-row with this sensational new entry. Side, tabbed "Baby, I Do Love You," is another big-sounding mashed potatoes stomper that the gals and their instrumental support deliver in ultra-commercial manner. Coupler's a wild, free-wheeling jazz-inclined instrumental.

"THE LITTLE BOY" (2:22) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Stillman, Wood]

"THE MOMENT OF TRUTH" (2:14)

[A.I.M. ASCAP—Satterwhite, Scott]

TONY BENNETT (Columbia 42931)

The songster's back with another class showing for the charts, the top-side here being a warm reading of a lovely little tune called "The Little Boy," whose lyrics have a catch ending: the one who tells the tale about a happy childhood is the child now grown-up. Dick Hayman directs the attractive ork backing. Flip portion is a swinger with Ralph Burns at the baton (it's from an LP, "This Is All I Ask").

"DEEP IN THE HEART OF HARLEM" (2:49)

[January BMI—Radcliffe, Spencer]

"HAPPY GOOD TIMES" (2:29)

[Olimac BMI—Oliver, McPhatter]

CLYDE McPHATTER (Mercury 72220)

The warbler could make a big return to the charts with his latest Mercury effort, a moving, social-message drama, "Deep In The Heart Of Harlem," set to a soft, Latin-beat ork-choral backdrop created by Alan Lorber. "Happy Good Times" is a power-packed rock-a-twister under Stan Applebaum's direction.

Christmas Picks

"HAVE YOURSELF A MERRY CHRISTMAS" (2:26)

[Leo Feist ASCAP—Martin, Blane]

"HOW SHALL I SEND THEE" [P.D.]

FRANK SINATRA (Reprise 243)

"Have Yourself A Merry Christmas," certainly among the greatest pop-styled Christmas songs ever written, if not the greatest, is sensitively portrayed by the vet artist, who warbles the tune on the soundtrack of the upcoming flick, "The Victors." Side should be a major airtime item in the weeks ahead. Les Baxter's Balladeers sing the wonderful spiritual on the flip side.

"MERRY CHRISTMAS" (2:56) [Prigan BMI—Logan, Price]

"AULD LANG SYNE" (3:21) [Prigan BMI—Logan, Price]

LLOYD PRICE (Double L 728)

Price, who made a big chart comeback with his still-selling "Misty" session, can have a big Holiday item on his hands in this new Double L stand. It's an infectious thump-a-rhythm entry, tabbed "Merry Christmas Mama," that Lloyd and his combo-chorus support deliver in attention-getting manner. The year-end traditional gets a swinging going-over on the flip.

CHRISTMAS RE-ISSUE PICKS

"JINGLE BELL ROCK" (2:29) [Cornell ASCAP—Beal, Boothe]

BOBBY RYDELL & CHUBBY CHECKER (Cameo 205)

Christmas Best Bets

THE JAYNETTS (Tuff 374)

• "SNOWMAN, SNOWMAN, SWEET POTATO NOSE" (2:36) [Winlyn—BMI—Stevens] The Jaynetts, who clicked solidly recently with their best-selling "Sally Go Round The Roses" could get similar sales action with this seasonal entry based on the "Old MacDonald Had A Farm" melody. It's geared for much turntable action.

(B+) "SNOWMAN, SNOWMAN" (Instrumental) [Winlyn—BMI—Stevens] The teen dance crowd can get plenty of dancing pleasure from this instrumental version of "Snowman." The beat is infectious.

CARLA THOMAS (Atlantic 2212)

• "GEE WHIZ, IT'S CHRISTMAS" (2:40) [East BMI—Thomas, Cropper, Trauth] Lark can have a seasonal hit in this inviting rock-a-cha-cha thumper that she multi-tracks with telling effect. Strong side that rates close scrutiny.

(B+) "ALL I WANT FOR CHRISTMAS IS YOU" (2:00) [East BMI—Williams] This end's a pleasant beat-ballad Yuletide entry. Side also can garner a healthy share of Holiday airtime. Top end, tho, carries the weight.

SI ZENTNER (Liberty 55648)

(B+) "THE JAMES BOND THEME" (1:49) [UA-BMI—Norman] The big band of Si Zentner lashes out with a pulsating and rhythmic treatment of the "James Bond Theme," which has become the trademark of the "Dr. No" and newly completed Bond flick. The trombonist and crew are at their usual very best here. Good airplay side.

DODIE STEVENS (Dolton 779)

(B+) "DOES GOODNIGHT MEAN GOODBYE" (2:23) [Screen Gems Col-BMI—Greenfield, Goffin, Keller] The love song from "The Victors" gets a warm and caressing treatment from Dodie Stevens on this new entry from Dolton. The lark's romantic reading coupled with a highly effective sans-lyric choral-ork backdrop is ear-arresting.

(B+) "SAILOR BOY" (2:13) [T.M.—BMI—Gari, Basile] The thrush goes uptempo on the undercut with a hymn-to-his-charms offering that sports a danceable beat and teenage appeal.

JOHNNY NASH (Groove 0026)

(B+) "IT'S NO GOOD FOR ME" (2:30) [Valley BMI—Giant, Baum, Kaye] The warbler's got a sad teen-market tale to tell about a lost-love, and he does it with lots of convincing vocal drama. A striking rock-a-string ork arrangement backs-up. Merits airtime.

(B) "TOWN OF LONELY HEARTS" (2:25) [Valley BMI—Giant, Baum, Kaye] A further emotional expression for teen audiences.

AARON NEVILLE (Airecords 333)

(B+) "I'VE DONE IT AGAIN" (1:36) [JARB BMI—Neville] The chanter tells a dramatic tale of broken romance on this medium-paced, full ork-backed tear-jerker. Tune has some impressive lyrics and a danceable, teen-angled melody.

(B+) "FOR EVERY BOY THERE'S A GIRL" (2:16) [JARB BMI—Neville] Slow-moving, shuffle-beat r&b lament in which the artist effectively utilizes the dual-track technique.

BILL ROBINSON (American 1023)

(B+) "THE COW" (2:40) [Tequesta BMI—Robinson, Wilson, Bowers] There's a new teen-dance called the Cow, and its related to teen audiences with lots of bright blues-rock appeal by the songster and his support, tabbed The Quails. Atlantic Records is handling this hectic addition to the teen-step catalog.

(B) "TAKE ME BACK, BABY" (2:15) [Tequesta BMI—Robinson] Upbeat blues bouncer.

JAY & THE DELTAS (Warner Bros. 5404)

(B+) "BELLS ARE RINGING" (2:43) [Marmor & Doral BMI—Waller] As the title indicates, the date allows for chimes-like gimmicks throughout, which the song team does with pro teen-market sense. Some good-old-fashioned rock chanting here.

(B) "SUPER HAWK" (2:06) [Marmor & Doral BMI—Adkinson, Christoffersen] Further tricks of the chant-rock trade.

BETTY JOHNSON (World Artists 1014)

(B) "WEDNESDAY'S CHILD" (2:21) [Integrity & Nancy ASCAP—Wolf, Bower] Appealing folksy entry.

THE CHANDELLES (Dot 16553)

(B+) "EL GATO" (2:23) [Dundee BMI—Clayton] This is hot combo rockin', with most of the big sounds coming from a sizzling guitar. A wild-one that could grab lots of teen attention.

(B) "JETSTER" (2:08) [Dundee BMI—Clayton] More power-house teen-beat business from the guitars.

BIG MAYBELLE (Brunswick 114 209)

(B+) "HOW DEEP IS THE OCEAN" (2:23) [Irving Berlin ASCAP—Berlin] The vet blues songstress breathes some new life into the years-back Irving Berlin-penned standard on this throbbingly bitter-sweet rendition of the plaintive ballad. Eye it.

(B+) "EVERYBODY'S GOT A HOME BUT ME" [Williamson ASCAP—Rodgers, Hammerstein] On this lid the lark turns in a first-rate job of the emotion-packed blues-tinged sturdie.

SILAS HOGAN (Excello 2241)

(B+) "I'M GOIN' IN THE VALLEY" (2:09) [Excellorec BMI—Hogan, West] The vet r&b chanter unleashes his potent, wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this infectious, hard-driving low-down traditional blues lament. Side boasts some top-flight, extremely funky harmonica work.

(B) "LONESOME LA LA" (2:21) [Excellorec BMI—Hogan, West] More fine blues sounds. This one's a lively, uptempo happy ditty with a contagious danceable beat.

ROBERT MERSEY (Columbia 42923)

(B+) "BUSY BUTTERFLY" (1:40) [Ross Jungnickel-ASCAP—Mersey] Bob Mersey and ork come up with an easy-paced and lilting instrumental that spotlights a tinkling clavichord backed by some lush strings. It's a catchy melody in the Bent Fabric-Alley Cat manner that could catch on with a bit of help from the deejays.

(B) "SONG FOR ROSEMARY" (2:28) [Anatole - BMI—Domino] A blues-tinged offering on this end with some easy-going wordless doings from background choral crew.

GARY MYERS (Edit 2005)

(B+) "POOR LITTLE BABY" (2:15) [Cepha-BMI—Triune] Gary Myers gets an impressive send-off here from all-girl chorus and a big-sounding ork as he smoothly and pleasantly warbles his way through this ballad romancer. Side is very danceable with an infectious quality the teenagers might dig.

(B) "IF (YOU'D ONLY BE MINE)" (2:15) [Cepha-BMI—Triune] Here's a lilting hymn-to-her-charms opus brightly backed by a tricky tango beat. Good ops and jocks fare.

Best Bets

BURL IVES (Decca 31571)

● "TRUE LOVE GOES ON AND ON" (3:03) [Frank ASCAP—Adler, Ross] A tender expression of the timelessness of true love is touchingly conveyed by the vet artist. The Gordon Jenkins ork-chorus stand is aptly warm. A sentimental session that could be another singles success for Ives.

(B) "I WONDER WHAT'S BECOME OF SALLY" (2:58) Advance ASCAP—Ager, Yellen] A pleasing offering of the perennial.

JOHNNY CRAWFORD (Del-Fi 4231)

● "JUDY LOVES ME" (2:07) [Screen Gems-Columbia BMI—Barry, Kornfeld, Altfeld] Crawford can recapture his Top 100 chart ways with this delightful new teen beat cha cha ballad about a school love affair. Tempting, chorus-backed entry that has what it takes for a trip to hitsville.

(B+) "LIVING IN THE PAST" (2:37) [Contento, Dragonwyck BMI—Gates] This softer cha cha ballad weeper makes for an ear-arresting companion piece.

PAM DICKINSON (Gambit 1109)

(B) "JOHNNY AIN'T THE ONLY NAME" (1:50) [Mimosa BMI—MacRae] This dual-voiced teen-appealing cutie takes a subdued rock-a-cha-cha ride. CIRCA distributes the deck nationally.

THE ROUTERS (Warner Bros. 5403)

● "SNAP, CRACKLE AND POP" (2:13) [Wrist BMI—P.&L. Vegas] The title's a 'trademark' of a popular breakfast cereal and the session's a contagious up-tempo thumper. Tag's vocally interjected a few times along the way. Could see its way to chartsville.

● "AMOEBIA" (2:13) [Marathon-Tailormade BMI—P.&L. Vegas] This end's a steady beat instrumental affair that also has the sounds necessary for stardom.

BOBBY WATTRELL (Magnasound 701)

● "BYE, BYE BLACKBIRD" (2:15) [Remick ASCAP—Dixon, Henderson] The old novelty of the 20's moves into the rockin' 60's with strong teen vitality in the form of singer Wattrell and his busy ork-chorus accompaniment. Could catch-on big.

● "TERRY" (2:42) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Loudermilk] Same sort of attention-getting work here, too. Can also make it.

THE TIKIS (Minaret 115)

● "BIG FEET" (2:09) [Chu-Fin BMI—Masters] The Tikis can make a solid chart impression with this exciting instrumental rocker that has a flavor of "What'd I Say." Title's repeated a few times along the way. Keep close tabs on it.

(B) "ONE MORE CHANCE" (1:56) [Chu-Fin BMI—Masters] This end's a catchy blues-styled rock-a-rhythmic that the crew carves out vocally and instrumentally. Atco distributes the label nationally.

BROTHERS FOUR (Columbia 42927)

● "HOOTENANNY SATURDAY NIGHT" (2:15) [Saunders ASCAP—Uhry, Lewine] The group has hits in the past and they can do it again with this lively high-powered hoot-styled (with audience applause) infectious extremely fast-moving pop-folk ditty. Eye it.

(B+) "ACROSS THE SEA" (2:50) [Frigate BMI—Gotz] On this end the group dishes-up an appealing slow-moving melodic tradition-styled ballad.

CAROLYN CRAWFORD (Motown 1050)

● "FORGET ABOUT ME" (2:20) [Jobette BMI—Crawford] There's an intriguing make-up to this bluesy romancer, and it's not lost in the commanding warble by the thrush and her active combo-chorus backdrop. Could be another success for the hot Tamla-Motown disk setup.

(B) "DEVIL IN HIS HEART" (2:25) [Jobete BMI—Gordy] Pacing here in brisk and overall sound is what'll please the youngsters.

THE BLENDERS (Witch 117)

● "BOY'S THINK (Every Girl's the Same)" (2:09) [Venetia BMI—Jones, Robinson] Philosophy expressed in the tune's title is conveyed with bright rock charm by the femmes. Backing their fine teen color is a merry rock-a-cha setting. Could happen. Diskery is an affiliate of the Cortland label of Chicago.

(B) "SQUAT & SQUIRM" (2:24) [Venetia BMI—Jones] Snappy doings by the vocal and instrumental personnel.

THE DELCOS (Sound 7 Stage 2515)

● "STILL MISS YOU SO" (2:28) [Mishawaka BMI—Henson] Sounds of solid teen value emanate from both the songsters and their guitar-led combo backing. Despite the plaintive idea of the tune, the date moves with speedy-beat finesse. Could score.

(B) "JUST ASK" (2:20) [Mishawaka BMI—Henson] Light upbeat blues-ballad performance by the boys.

DICK ROMAN (Smash 1859)

● "SO CLOSE (YOU NEVER SAW ME)" (2:20) [Sigma Seven—BMI—Phillips] Dick Roman steps out impressively on his Smash wax debut with this lush-sounding ballad romancer. The chanter gets some top-drawer big ork-choral backing for his smooth and polished delivery. Watch this one move out smartly.

(B+) "FALLING" (2:24) [Emarey—ASCAP—Roman, Ovelette] More first-rate warbling by the songster on this ballad with a beat opus that shines with lyrical finesse.

IKE & TINA TURNER (Sonja 2001)

● "I'M GOING BACK HOME" (1:43) [Placid BMI—Turner] The vet r&b hubby and wife team could have a fast noisemaker on their hands with this rousing, chorus-backed, shufflin' affair with an extremely happy romantic theme. Plenty of potential here.

(B+) "IF I CAN'T BE FIRST" (2:12) [Placid BMI—Turner] Hard-driving, raunchy traditional blues weeper essayed with poise and authority by the artists.

IVORY JOE HUNTER (Smash 1860)

(B+) "THERE'S NO FORGETTING YOU" (2:23) [Sigma Seven BMI—Piro] The vet blues chanter warbles warmly amid an ork-chorus arrangement of the type that Ray Charles has been backed with of late. Pleasing ballad portion.

(B) "MY LOVER'S PRAYER" (2:52) [Sigma Seven BMI—Piro] Touching stand by the songster, who gets another lush ork-chorus setting.

DOROTHY BERRY (Challenge 59221)

(B+) "YOU'RE SO FINE" (2:20) [West Higgins BMI—Finney, West, Schofield] Lark and her exciting combo-chorus support do a neat shuffle-beat job on the famed teen oldie. Overall sound is in today's femme disk groove and could mean something.

(B) "CRYIN' ON MY PILLOW" (2:02) [Dragonwyck BMI—Gates] Tune here bespeaks of today's melodic clicks, and the same personnel give a solid run for teen coin.

ARTHUR LYMAN GROUP (Hi Fi 5080)

(B+) "CHARADE" (2:40) [Southdale & Northern ASCAP—Mancini, Mercer] The big flick tune is surveyed with inviting waltz tenderness by the distinctive Lyman group. A fine, sensitive version of the oft-cut opus.

(B) "ARTHUR'S LINE" (1:40) [Arvee BMI—Clarke] More familiar-sounding Lyman work in a relaxed jazz-swing vein.

GLADYS TYLER (Coral 62389)

(B+) "I'M IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE" (3:00) [Robbins ASCAP—McHugh, Fields] The old sentimental is expressed with warm blues feeling by the thrush, who's got a good unhurried, organ-led combo-chorus sound backing up. Could some attention.

(B) "HURRY ON DOWN TO MY HOUSE" (2:30) [Champion BMI—Tyler, Grooves] Semi-belt, party-time blueser.

AL CAIOLA (United Artists 677)

(B+) "BURKE'S LAW THEME" (2:40) [Four Star Television BMI—Gilbert] The guitarist tops an interesting swinging, yet rock-oriented reading of the main-title of the popular TV'er. Commercial instrumental doings that could make some noise.

(B) "SMOKE SIGNAL" (1:54) [Alpane ASCAP—Wolfson] Familiar ditty goes out west on a big-sounding orchestral wagon-train.

THE PAULETTE SISTERS (Contempo 907)

(B+) "FOR YOUR LOVE" (2:15) [Beechwood BMI—Townsend] Ed Townsend's years-back hit (both as writer and performer) is pleasingly surveyed by the smooth-sounding larks. A nice, hint-of-the-beat ork backs-up. Diskery is the Arthur Godfrey firm, which is handled by UA.

(B) "SUSQUEHANNA MOON" (2:05) [Contempo BMI—Wolfe] Inviting folkish ballad display.

WILL MERCER (Constellation 109)

(B+) "PENNY CANDY" (2:15) [Santly-Joy ASCAP—Siegel, Carroll] Performer agreeably revives a cute waltzer from "New Faces of 1952." Deck's folkish nature could realize some exposure.

(B) "WILLOWY BILLOWY LAND" (2:20) [Melody Trails BMI—Taylor, Silverstein] A date with a more direct folk-market sound.

JERRY MURAD'S HARMONICATS (Columbia 42875)

(B+) "THE STREET OF LINDEN TREES (Lindenstrasse)" [Geller, Stanton] The longtime harmonica crew does an engaging job on a typical German-styled sentimental. The fellas playing and that of their rhythm accompaniment nicely retain the tune's Rhine flavoring. Good jukebox item.

(B) "THE LAST OUTPOST" [Pedersen] The harmonicats go swingin' on this end.

THE DEBS (Double L 727)

(B) "JUST ANOTHER FOOL" (2:30) [Prigan & Angie BMI—Forbes] Team gives an inviting account of a wistful item.

THE SQUIRRELS/THE PHILADELPHIA MINSTRELS (Cameo 284)

(B+) "GRANDMA'S HOUSE" (2:12) [Wyncote ASCAP—Hill, Wisner] This end features the Chipmunk-like Squirrels on a happy tune with a ricky-tick quality. A natural for kiddie exposure, and a host of adults will also find joy in listening.

(B) "THE GIRL THAT I'LL ADORE" (2:18) [Wyncote ASCAP—Hill, Wisner] A cheerful Mummings-type outing by The Philadelphia Minstrels.

PAUL PEEK (Mercury 72181)

(B+) "THE RIDDLE OF THE PAPAHOOS" (2:37) [Raleigh BMI—Chase, Wade] This is zany business involving a "mysterious" Indian tribe called The Papahoos and a tongue-twisting riddle about them. Could make a stir among teeners.

(B) "THE GOOD OF LOVE" (1:52) [Famous ASCAP—Ballard, Morris] Peek turns-out a big-sounding vocal in this fast-paced romantic.

THE SENTIMENTAL SIX (Era 3117)

(B) "INFINITY" (2:07) [Anthony ASCAP—Hinkle, Sackrider] Though obviously dressed in a "Telstar"—like sound, the opus has melodic appeal, and could its way on lots of turntables.

(B) "ENCINADA" (2:14) [Anthony ASCAP—Barbata] Here, the group turns to an exciting Afro-Cuban-rock display.

SHARON MARIE (Capitol 5064)

(B) "RUN-AROUND LOVER" (1:50) [Sea of Tunes BMI—Wilson, Love] A standard teen rhythmic is displayed with a pro upbeat style by the lark, who gets fine rock color from the combo-chorus. Worthy of teen-market spins.

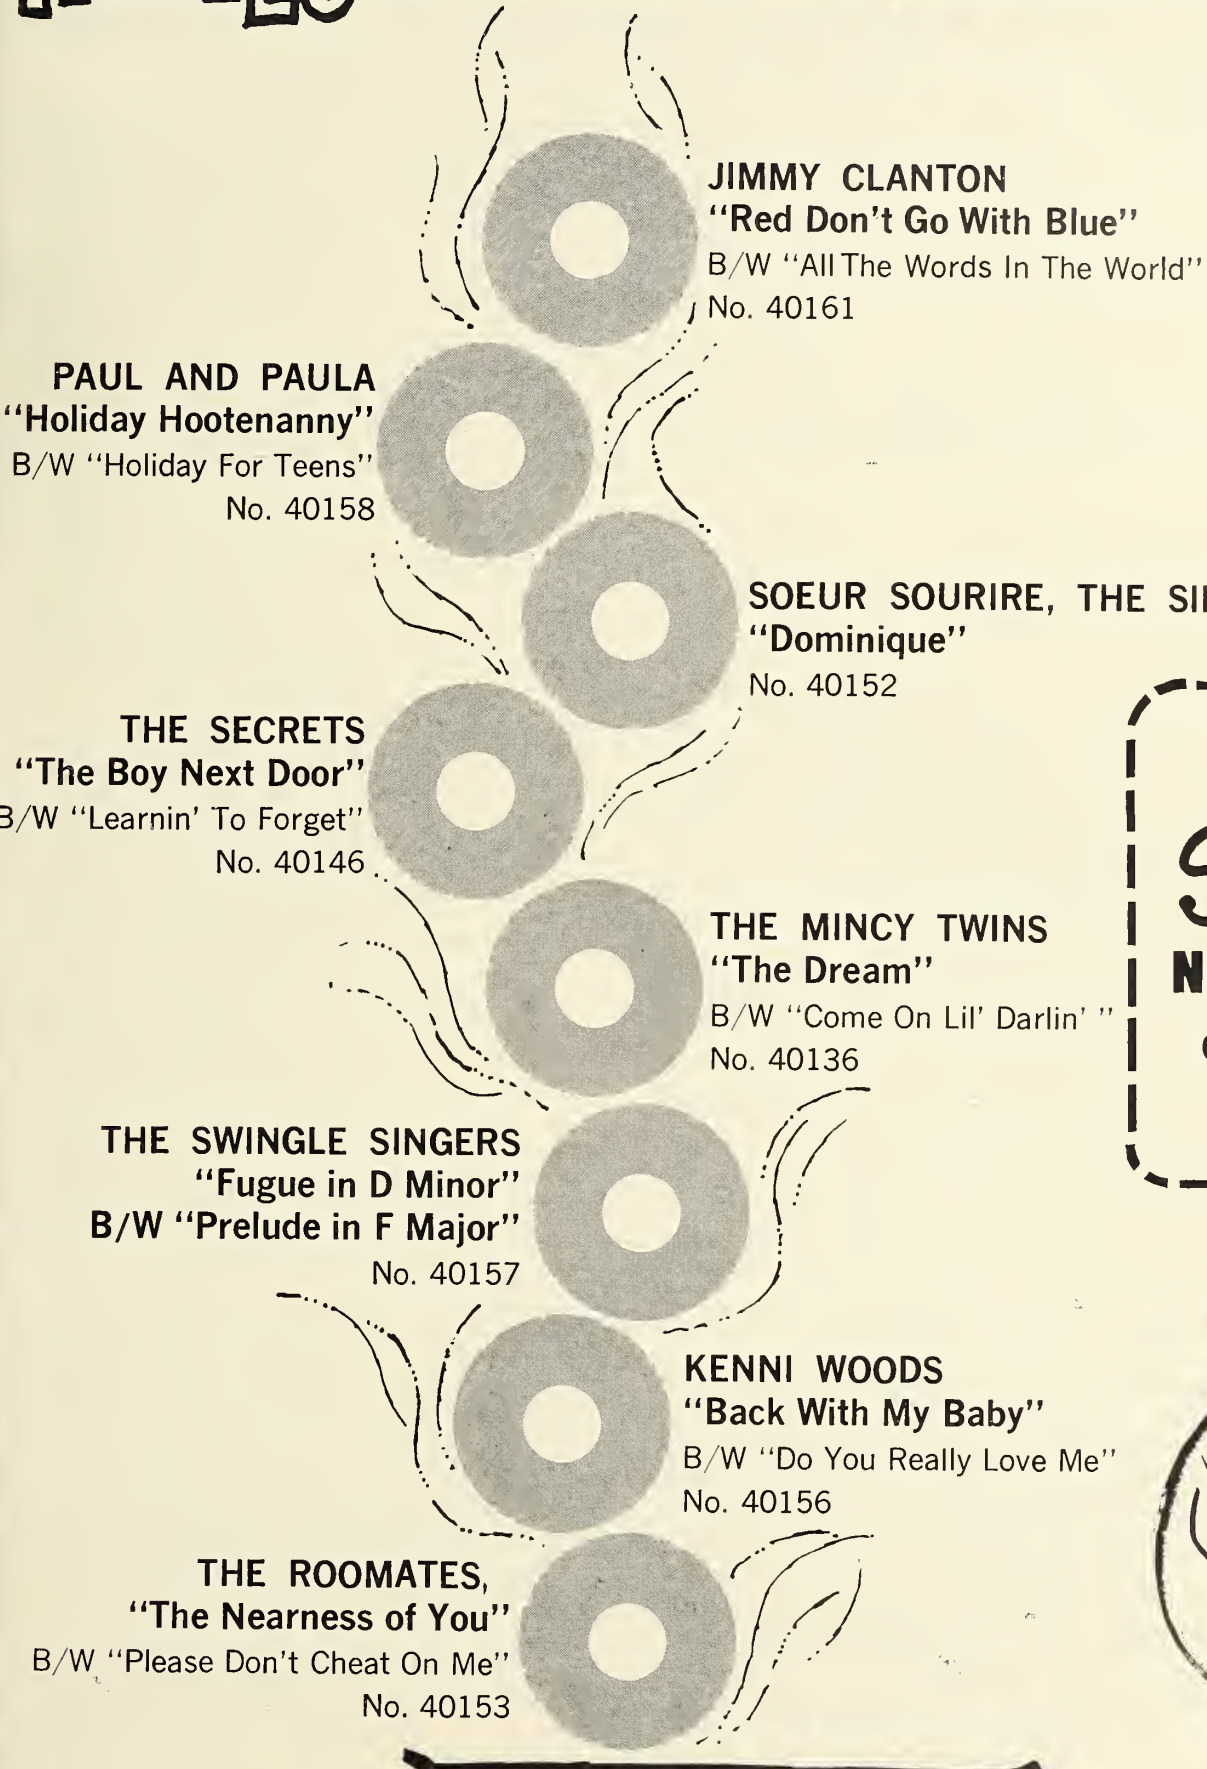

(B) "SUMMERTIME" (1:30) [Gershwin ASCAP—Gershwin, Heyward] Yet another rock translation of the "Porgy & Bess" classic. Basic tune is still there.

ROYAL ROBINS (ABC-Paramount 10504)

(B+) "TURN ME LOOSE" (2:35) [Patricia BMI—King] Blues team's lead is a potent vehicle for the emotional-laden opus. His vocal companions and backbeat-highlighted combo serve him well in the backdrop. Teeners will go for the drama here. Song is not the old Fabian hit.

(B) "THE COUNTRY FOOL" (2:00) [Minit BMI—Biggs] Things are not going so well for the fella here, too, but the sound is a rapid-fire attack.

THE STORYTELLERS (Columbia 42930)

● "ENGAGEMENT PARTY" (2:17) [Day-Hilliard-ASCAP—Hilliard, Garson] Here's a new group that serves up some fine harmony and vocal artistry on this melodic ballad-weeper. It's the usual broken heart tale but tastefully and smoothly rendered by the crew. Plenty of sales and airplay potential here.
(B+) "WHERE THE BLUEGRASS OF KENTUCKY (MEETS THE GREEN OF TENNESSEE)" [Day/Hilliard-ASCAP—Millet, Byron] The singers pleasantly explore a folk-flavored item that could get attention in a variety of programming areas.

BILLY & THE ESSENTIALS (Mercury 72210)

● "YES SIR THAT'S MY BABY" (2:14) [Bourne ASCAP—Kahn, Donaldson] Billy & Co. can have another big money-maker on their hands as a result of this contagious, thumpin' "My Boyfriend's Back"-flavored teen re-fitting of the oldie. Dandy, chart-bound entry.
(B) "THE LAST DANCE" (2:09) [Merjoda, Dandelion BMI—Madara, White] This end's a pretty, soft shuffle beat-ballad wistful.

THE RENAULTS (Chicory 1600)

(B) "TWO FACE" (2:23) [Chicory BMI—Storace, Ricci] Triangle troubles are related with effective bounce-beat novelty by the good-sounding teen songsters. A lively display that's reliable teen-format programming. Label is distributed by London Records.
(B) "TEN QUESTIONS" (2:19) [Chicory & Platschon-Florentine BMI—Hawkins] More sentimental teen gestures by the group, but gimmick touches are still present.

EARTHER DOSS, JR.

(ABC-Paramount 10496)
(B) "SHE'S GOT MY NAME" (2:30) [Apt ASCAP—White, Applebaum] Singer Doss and his back-up sound are quite effective in relating this tale, which, however, can run into play difficulties in view of its theme: a married fella is in love with someone else.
(B) "I'M WILLING" (2:50) [Art ASCAP—White, Snyder] Doss, built on the smooth vocal lines of Johnny Mathis, does a nice ballad job here.

PAUL POTASH (Mercury 72183)

(B+) "BLUE TAIL FLY" (2:15) [MRC BMI—Adapt. by Potash] One of the most popular folk tunes becomes an infectious middle-beat blues-pop vehicle for the nifty rock talents of countryish warbler Potash and his combo-femme chorus support. Natural for teen-set pleasure.
(B) "TAKE THE TIME TO SAY GOODBYE" (2:32) [Larry Shayne ASCAP—Schorr, Woods] Interesting slow-beat blueser.

KENNY ROSSI (Mercury 72211)

(B+) "I'LL NEVER SMILE AGAIN" (2:18) [Pickwick ASCAP—Lowe] The warbler does a tasteful reading of the fine old sentimental. Backing is a pleasant combo-chorus affair, including a teen-minded shuffle-beat touch. Could get around.
(B) "DON'T PUT ME ON" (2:25) [Merjoda BMI—Madara, White] Contagious rockin'. Tune is somewhat similar to the years back Don Gibson hit, "Oh Lonesome Me."

JOEY RIVERS (Pat 103)

● "BETTER BETTER BETTER" (2:40) [Patore—ASCAP—Tobias, Ormont, Rivers] Joey Rivers comes up with a wild-sounding vocal, slightly Anka tinged in delivery, and a natural delight for the teen set. Falsetto shouts of the tag are reminiscent of the "Candy Man" while-back opus. The jocks and ops should be on it in short order.
(B+) "POOR MAN" (2:30) [Patore—ASCAP—Tobias, Ormont, Rivers] Here's a blues-flavored wailer with an interesting Latin beat backdrop. The chanter's reading is feelingful.

RONNIE & THE HI-LITES (Win 252)

● "UPTOWN - DOWNTOWN" (2:12) [Jildana ASCAP—Weiss, Hi-Lites] Ronnie & his crew make another strong bid for chartdom with this pulsating pounder that has Ronnie looking all over for the right chick. Sock hop item.
● "HIGH SCHOOL ROMANCE" (2:39) [Jildana ASCAP—Weiss] This half finds the boys in a winning beat-ballad pose. Top notch arrangements by Hal Weiss on both ends of this teen dynamite.

THE CHELL-MARS (Jamie 1266)

(B+) "ROAMIN' HEART" (2:06) [Dandelion-Hi Mar BMI—Wilson, Kern] Supported an intriguing back-beat sound from the combo, the gals tell a sad tale with good teen emotion. A sound of interest to the teen set.
(B) "FEEL ALRIGHT" (2:15) [Dandelion-Hi-Mar BMI—Wilson, Kern] This end starts off ala a meaningful gospel date and goes onto highly rhythmic gospel-styled business.
RED HOLLOWAY (Prestige 287)
(B+) "MONKEY SHO' CAN TALK" (2:10) [Pres BMI—Holloway] Red Holloway could create a fast stir with his high-powered "Watermelon Man"-styled jazz instrumental. Side has enough good things in it to garner plenty of spins.
(B) "CRIB THEME #4" (2:15) [Pres BMI—Holloway] More fine jazz sounds. This one's a slow-moving, funky affair with some interesting blues progressions.

MR. BASS (Felsted 8694)

(B+) "ANYTIME (Part 2)" (2:26) [Hill & Range BMI—Lawson] This is an interesting "live" dinking of the old Eddy Fisher hit, which, this time around, gets an easy-go bluesy reading from the deep-voiced artist, whose real name is Jimmy Ricks. Could spell success with sufficient airtime.
(B) "ANYTIME (Part 1)" (2:37) [Hill & Range BMI—Lawson] An even more leisurely paced reading of the tune.

DIAN & GREENBRIAR BOYS (Elektra 45005)

(B+) "SALLY LET YOUR BANGS HANG DOWN" (2:20) [P. D.] Dian and the Greenbriar could breathe some new sales life into the old folk standard. Tune is dished-up in an appealing, hard-driving bluegrass style. Deejays should really dig it.
(B+) "IF I WERE FREE" (3:11) [Carte BMI—Edmonson] On this end the gang offers a slow-moving, extremely plaintive soulful tear-jerker.

SONNY BOY WILLIAMSON (Checker 1065)

(B+) "TRYING TO GET BACK ON MY FEET" (2:07) [Arc BMI—Williamson] Williamson could create a fast stir with this medium-paced harmonica-backed self-penned ode all about a guy who is attempting to put himself on the right track after a broken romance.
(B) "DECORATION DAY" (3:02) [Arc BMI—Williamson] Slow-moving, funky, low-down r&b traditional tear-jerker read by with sincerity by the chanter.

JOHNNY SHIELDS (Armour 4466)

(B) "OUT OF SIGHT, OUT OF SOUND" (2:29) [Nom BMI—Ottis, Hunter] The tune, of course, is "our-song" to lots of older teeners, and this performance conveys it with years-back warmth. Strings are part of the backing for Shield's understanding vocal.
(B) "CRYING IN THE CHAPEL" (2:11) [Valley BMI—Glenn] Another teen classic, also done with early rock-ballad years feeling.

JOHNNY RAY GOMEZ (Applause 1001)

(B+) "LONELY FOR LOVE" (2:00) [Peter—BMI—Gomez] The songster has come up with ear-arresting melody smoothly delivered in the multi-track fashion with a potent choral-ork backdrop. Strong teen-appeal here with the lad's Rick Nelson-styled approach.
(B) "KICK OFF" (2:15) [Peter—Jan—BMI—Gomez] A rapid-fire instrumental on the undercut with a strong surf flavor. The electronic organ solo merits honorable mention.

TOMMY MOSLEY (Moonglow 226)

(B+) "WOULD I LOVE YOU" (2:45) [Walt Disney ASCAP—Russell, Spina] Label's new warbler digs into the old hit catalog with a teen-minded ballad warble. An organ & chorus top the easy-go, yet active backdrop. Diskery is currently making chart news with waxings by The Righteous Bros.
(B) "JUST TO HOLD MY HAND" (1:50) [Lion BMI—Perryman, Robey] This end moves along with a wild-rock attitude.

CHRISTMAS

ROBERTINO (4 Corners 101)

(B+) "CARO GESU BAMBINO" (2:17) [Southern ASCAP—Soffici, Cariaggi] The young Italian singing star, who made his U.S. debut last weekend, tenderly renders the lovely Xmas song in his native tongue. A warm stand that overcomes the language barrier. Kapp Records distributes the disk.
(B+) "SANTO NATALE" (2:20) [Larry Spier ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning, Nardone, Ottaviano] Another warm Holiday expression.

DON ROMANO (Merry-Go-Round 104)

(B+) "CHRISTMAS RINGS A BELL" (2:50) [Rest-A-While-ASCAP—Roddie, Ely, Coleman] Here's a warm and feelingful Yule offering by Don Romano who gets a lilting assist from an all-girl chorus. The songster has a deep, rich voice much like the Como of a decade ago. Side seems destined for a multitude of holiday spins and sales.
(B) "HAPPY NEW YEAR" (1:37) [Blue Jay/Rest A While—ASCAP—Roddie] The holiday season is extended on this end to take in the gayety of the New Year. A clever arrangement includes banjos and Lombardo-like saxes. Pleasant listening.

THE JACK HALLORAN SINGERS (Reprise 245)

(B+) "THE CHRISTMAS STAR" (3:00) [Webster & Blen ASCAP—Webster, Weisman] The tender Yuletide number is presented ala "Little Drummer Boy" by the skilled song group. Inviting entry for more serious programming during the Holiday Season.
(B) "WHAT CAN I GIVE HIM?" (2:28) [Webster & Blen ASCAP—Webster, Weisman] A similar presentation by the group.

JIMMY MCCRACKLIN (Art-Tone 826)

(B+) "CHRISTMAS TIME PART ONE" (2:15) [B-Flat BMI—McCracklin] The vet blues songster could pull plenty of seasonal loot with this medium-paced, self-penned Yuletide entry. Side boasts some first-rate lyrics and a swingin' commercial beat. Could be big.
(B+) "CHRISTMAS TIME PART TWO" [B-Flat BMI—McCracklin] Logical continuation of the above. This side's a little more bluesy than the top side.

SOUPY SALES (Reprise 244)

(B+) "SANTA CLAUS IS SURFIN' TO TOWN" (1:35) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Gillespie, Coats] The popular TV personality offers a merry surfin'-theme re-write of the old pop Xmas favorite. He's supported by a spirited combo-chorus stint meant for teen ears.
(B) "SANTA CLAUS IS COMIN' TO TOWN" (1:30) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Gillespie, Coats] The Soupy Sales Band goes to town on the ditty.

ARTHUR LYMAN GROUP (HiFi 5081)

(B+) "RUDOLPH, THE RED NOSED REINDEER" (1:18) [Marks—Marks] The happy Yuletide favorite is brightly decked out by the popular instrumental crew. Programmers have a novel jazz-minded reading of the ditty here.
(B) "WINTER WONDERLAND" (2:10) [Bregman-Vocco-Conn ASCAP—Smith, Bernard] The listener is taken to some warm Caribbean locale in this Afro-Cuban reading of the evergreen.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

KATZ—St. Louis, constantly creating new contests to attract listeners, has come up with an exciting new contest aimed at the area teen-agers. The contest is called "KATZ's Lucky Number Notebook Contest," and reaction has far exceeded expectations. It works this way: Each school day, Jimmy Bishop, the station's top air personality, visits a school and takes pictures with the students. Once a week, a picture of a chosen school appears in the St. Louis Argus, with several students encircled. This is called KATZ's "Magic Circle," and is in itself a contest, the school children identifying themselves from the picture, and notifying the station to claim their prizes. In addition, Jimmy Bishop passes out numbered KATZ stickers for the students to paste on their notebooks. Every afternoon, during Bishop's 3 to 6 segment, numbers are called every half-hour. When a student hears his or her number called, they have 48 hours to come to KATZ studios to collect their prize. Prizes consist of transistor radios, watches and cash as well as other useful items. The contest runs in conjunction with the Educational Assistance Fund formed by KATZ, which is directed by school-teachers and welfare workers, helping to keep needy children in school.

The Senate last week approved action by its appropriations committee cutting funds for the FCC $400,000 under House-approved figures and $1,000,000 under the agency's requests. The Senate voted $15,400,000 for the FCC. The appropriations committee included an admonition to the FCC to stop its trend toward tougher regulation, thus making the fund slash very pointed. There was no debate and no action on the floor about FCC or FTC appropriations so the committee language stands.

An 18-year-old Mount Prospect, Illinois youth who is a hemophilac and a patient at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge, Illinois, has been helped through a difficult time, thanks to intensive efforts on the part of WLS-Chicago. Responding to a request from the hospital, the station aired an appeal for donors with rare AB type blood every two hours throughout the station's 24-hour schedule for a period of three days. The hospital reports that hundreds of calls have been received as a result of the WLS announcements.

WWDC-Washington is conducting its 20th annual Christmas drive in behalf of more than several hundred residents at the District Home for the Aged and Infirm at D. C. Village. Last year the station raised over $7,500 for the District Home as well as for other old and needy persons. One of the yearly features of the Christmas Drive is the Art Brown Birthday Party on Dec. 16th, broadcast 5:30 A, to 10:00 A, from the Presidential Arms. All funds raised by Brown are turned over to the residents at D. C. Village.

On the air competition in the Maryland State Jitterbug contest began last week on WJZ-TV-Baltimore's Buddy Deane Show. Of the 123 couples between the ages of 14 and 19 who have entered the contest, a group of finalists will be selected during off-camera auditions this week. During the six weeks that the contest is scheduled to run, three couples will appear each day Monday through Thursday. Viewers will be asked to vote by mail for their favorites. On Saturdays, a weekly champion will be selected from four daily winners. During the final week, impartial judges will select three winners from the weekly finalists. First prize will be $100, second prize is $50 and the third-place winning couple will receive $25. Each winner will be given a trophy.

Joe McCauley, WIP-Philadelphia's Morning Mayor now has the added title of "Maestro" McCauley. With only two days promotion exclusively on the station, more than 1500 persons recently turned out to see the deejay lead the Royal Canadian Air Force Band in the 1500 seating capacity Ballroom of Convention Hall.

Received word last week that Franklin Broadcasting Company, New York, subject to the approval of the FCC, WEW-St. Louis has been purchased by a group of St. Louisians headed by Charles P. Stanley. The purchase price was in excess of $500,000. Stanley, well-known in broadcasting industry, is a native of St. Louis and has been vice-president and general manager of the station under the ownership of Franklin.

KRAK-Sacramento listeners recently came to the immediate aid of a large family in dire need of clothes and shelter. It all started when Reverend Charles Washburn of Lincoln called the station to seek aid for Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Umstead and their 12 children. The Umstead home had been completely burned to the ground and every material possession in the household utterly destroyed. Emergency sleeping arrangements were made through the Red Cross and to other community services, but the need for clothing and household items persisted, KRAK went into action and asked its listeners for help in this matter. The switchboard was lit up for hours with donations of all kinds. Help was pledged from all areas of the station's coverage area.

WXYZ-Detroit personalities recently staged the largest benefit dance of 1963 at Detroit's Walled Lake Casino. Donations totaling nearly $3,000 for a local mother of three teenage sons, who were each killed in separate automobile mishaps. Among the WXYZ deejays on hand for the benefit were Dave Prince, Joel Sebastian and Lee Alan.

People like listening to the pre-1950 songs and performers. That's WJRZ-Newark's conclusion after looking at the overwhelming response to its "Old Timers Day." Letters came in from all over the area complementing the station on its choice of music and on the whole idea. Always sensitive to listener demands, WJRZ program director Norman Roslin is going to devote the Sunday with Hollis show to the old-timers. Every Sunday, Steve Hollis will play only music of the pre-1950 eras in addition to his interviews and special features.

RECORD RAMBLINGS

NEW YORK:

Montovani, London's top disk seller, has just cut his second Christmas album, "Christmas Greetings From Montovani," that will surely take its place with his first LP as a best-selling Yule entry. The maestro is currently playing to SRO crowds on his seventh American in-person concert tour and his forthcoming concert at Philharmonic Hall next month is already a sell-out. Certainly not the least of his many accomplishments, Montovani recently received his sixth gold disk for his "Exodus and Other Themes." . . . Last week Capitol Records played host to a group of teenagers at the White Brick Inn in Hempstead, Long Island. The "Hot Rod Nite" affair was emceed by Arnie Christie and Roy Batachio appeared for the diskery. The 300 teenagers were greatly thrilled with the prizes given by the label which included a portable phonograph, 25 LP's in a carrying case, 25 singles in a carrying case and a flock of hot rod kits and Kingston Trio LP's. Although the hot rod sound is a West Coast innovation, the kids at the White Brick Inn seemed to really dig it. . . . Al Neiburg's standard I'm Confessin' is a revival click via Frank Ifield. The clefter has also provided Della Reese with a newie tagged, "Then You'll Know."

Lark Damita Jo and Brook Benton have a slick new single on Mercury tagged, "Stop Foolin'." . . . Sid Friedman of WNEP-TV in Scranton will present the Don Anthony revue at the Keystone Theater in Towanda, Pa. beginning Dec. 5. Featured in the revue are Karen Jensen, Roy Calhoun, the Dennis James ork and Don Anthony. . . . Mickey Eichner sez Jubilee's got an overnight hit in "Beyond The Sea" by the Reveres. Also happening for Mickey are "Soul Monkey Twist" by Donald Height and "Dawn" by David Rockingham. . . . Marcia Weinstock at Prestige infos that Jack McDuff's "Live" LP and "Rock Candy" single are racking up substantial sales and are strong chart prospects. . . . T. J. Johnson's Teen Life Record Hops continue to be great successes in the Met area. A recent hop featured the talents of the Emotions, Barbara Chandler, Johnny Shields, Michael-Ann and Anthony Roma.

Phil Wesen at London sez the sales are top-drawer on "Whispering" by the Bachelors and "Long Tall Texan" by Murray Kellum (MOC). One of the most potent vocal albums to come out of London in some time is the new Georgia Brown issue tagged, "Georgia Brown Loves Gershwin." . . . Laffman Andy Griffith is back on the wax scene with a newie dubbed, "Antony And Cleopatra" on Capitol that is reportedly doing very well in a variety of markets. . . . We goofed dept: Two issues ago we inadvertently crossed the names under the pics of Johnny Cymbal and Jon Corey. To both artists go our apologies. . . . In the last issue in the pop single reviews the writer credits on Pat Boone's Dot waxing of "That's Me" should have read Northern-ASCAP-Keller, Hess. . . . Lark Teddi King did a great stint on the Steve Allen TV'er last week singing an Allen original tagged, "Impossible." Teddi was formerly on Victor and Coral. . . . Folks South of the Border are digging the keyboard magic of Earl Grant nitely at the famed La Fiesta in Juarez. Earl's newest for Decca is the "Fly Me To The Moon" LP. Another stalwart for Decca, Burl Ives has a new deck, "True Love Goes On And On" backed with "I Wonder What's Become Of Sally." Hirsute Ives heads for Nashville and more wax sessions.

Allan Dale moves into the Living Room this week (2) for a two-week stint in a bill that includes Lark Irene Reid and comedienne Renee Taylor. . . . April Stevens and Nino Tempo, just coming off a chart topper tagged, "Deep Purple" (Ateo) came by the CB offices with promo rep Bob Altschuler. Bob Kornheiser at Atlantic predicts a Yule hit for "Gee Whizz, It's Christmas" by Carla Thomas on Atlantic. Jack Fine sez he's getting top airplay on a Calif. breakout dubbed "Ko-Ko Joe" by the Righteous Bros on Moonlong which is distributed by Ateo. . . . Cameo's promo manager Rhett Schwartz buzzed the other day to tell us that Don Covay's newest for Parkway "Turn It On"

Miss Sorry Eyes" (Ascot), both of which are doing nicely.

Morty Wax, indie promo rep, working away on Ray Bolger's Christmas deck, "L'il Elf" on Armour. Ray will return to the East coast soon for a deejay tour. Morty also calls our attention to a strong new L&L release, "Think On These Things" b/w "A Great Big Faith" by Maury Laws and his chorus and ork. Both sides were clefted by Fred Williams. . . . Bernie Lawrence says everybody's wailin' the grooves off the Ken Jones Orch dinking of "Chicken Pot Pie" (Almont).

CHICAGO:

There's much excitement being generated at Chess Records by the recent release of Nick Noble's new single, the main theme from "The Cardinal" (Stay With Me). Hopes are high looks like a biggie. Red also told us that WIBG was playing the hits, but the softer ones. . . . Lovely Tina Robin made ten radio and TV appearances in the past few weeks to plug her new Mercury singles entry, "It's Too Late Now." . . . Mat Parsons of Golden Crest buzzes that "A Rang A Lang A Lang" by the Montells is happening nationally. . . . We met Merl Kilgore in a restaurant the other day. Merl's one of the nicest and one of the busiest guys in Nashville. His visits to the big city are too few. Indie promo rep, Mike Kelly, reports he's working hard on Don Ramano's "Christmas Rings A Bell," on Merry-Go-Round and Pete Shrayder's "Little that this will be a real big one for the popular songster. . . . After 14 years on the local scene, Sam Fox of Famous Music is closing shop here and moving to the New York office. . . . Local lad Ray Lanae cut a single on Crystal tagged "Time After Time." . . . Bill Crowden unveiled his swank drum center at 218 S. Wabash last week. Known as Drums Unlimited, the firm carries a most complete stock of drum equipment and components. . . . Sammy Kaplan sends word of a single that's making hit news down Michigan way. Side is "Another Tear Must Fall" by The Chevells on Butane. . . . Another award for Brook Benton—this one

JOHNNY CYMBAL

Our condolences to Barney Fields whose dad passed away on the west coast 11/15. . . . Liberty's Harvey Goldstein advised that the new Jan & Dean deck "Drag City" is scoring all over the country and that the label will soon release the pair's LP of the same title. Also new is a package by Bobby Vee titled "I Remember Buddy Holly" and singles "The Storm Is Over" by The O'Jays (Imperial) and "Don't Send Flowers" by Joyce Paul (Imperial). . . . Radio-TV personality Jack Karey is now doing Greyhound spots on Harry Volkman's Sunday segment (NBC-TV). . . . At RCA-Victor Dist. they're concentrating on Al Hirt's single clip. "Java," from his "Honey In The Horn" LP; Jim Reeves' "an Old Christmas Card," Sascha Burland's "The Chickens Are In The Chimes" and Norvel Felts' "Mountain Of Love." . . . Publicitor John Quinlan and deejays Jimmy Dunlap, Don McIlvaine and Burt Burdeen attended open house at Lucky's Inn's new location.

In the fore at United Record Dist. are recent entries "I'll Be There" by Betty Everett (One-derful), "Don't Turn Your Back On Me" by Johnny Sails (Mar-v-lus) and "The Gorilla Walk" by Plookie McCline (Jerry-o). Latter deck has reportedly broken here. . . . John Muse clews us in on some fast movers at Apollo Record Dist. List includes "Baby Don't Do It" by the Five Royals (Todd) who, with songster Joe Henderson, will do a show here 12/20; "Peaceful Little Valley" by Peter & Ulysses (Heart-break), "Solitude" by Johnny Lytle (Riverside) and "I Got It Bad & That Ain't Good" by Jesse Mae Robinson (Melic). . . . Summit's r&b specialist Carl Proctor made the local rounds with Chi visitor Teresa Lindsay in behalf of her single "Gotta Find A Way" (Correc-tone). Songstress climaxed the trip with a swingin' session at Budland. In the pop department, promo man Norm Ladd hails newie "Surfin' Bird" by The Trashmen (Garrett) as the "wildest sound Summit's ever handled," adding that initial action is very strong.

Edwin Barg boasts a Columbia powerhouse in Marion Worth's "My Dolly Has A Pain In Her Sawdust." . . . Lot's a hullabaloo at Garmisa Dist. over the new Ray Charles single "That Lucky Old Sun" (ABC-Paramount). Bobby Garmisa expects it to be a whopper! . . . M. M. Cole pubbery's Jimmy Cairns is mourning the passing of Mrs. M. M. Cole widow of the firm's late prexy. . . . Dot outings in the local spotlight, according to Barney Fields, are Dale Ward's "A Letter To Sherry," Jimmy Gilmer's follow-up "Daisy Petal Pickin'" and Pat Boone's version of "Some Enchanted Evening" which is already getting pics in this area. . . . The Ahmad Jamal Trio opened at London House 11/26. . . . Main topic at Decca, of course, is the new Brenda Lee coupling "As Usual" b/w "Lonely Lonely Lonely Me," with everyone chalking up another hit—or two—for the little lady.

Al Morgan's current stand at Ray Colomb's Supper Club has reportedly sparked local interest in his "At The Dunes" LP. . . . In addition to a big breakthrough with Nick Noble's new vocal "Main Theme from The Cardinal (Stay With Me)," Chess Records is reporting action on "Tonight Love Me" by Sugar Pie De Santo (Checker), "One Of These Old Days" by Little Milton (Checker) and "I Just Can't Help It" by The Clickettes (Checker). . . . The Johnny Lewis Trio, currently appearing at the Club Adria in Lake Bluff, have been booked for a return engagement at Pier 66 in Fort Lauderdale this January.

HOLLYWOOD:

Gunter Hauer of Jamie/Guyden Records in town and making the rounds with Mike Sheperd promoting "Rags To Riches" by Sammy and The Sunliners. . . . Two of The Murrmaids, group currently riding high with the Chatahoochee release, "Popsicles and Icicles," are daughters of recording his new Colpix album, "At Last. . . James Darren." Disk marks entry of composer-arranger Marty Paich into the record production field. . . . Chris Kochoff, executive producer of "The Jack Linkletter Folk Festival" says the one-niter attraction has been racking up sellouts throughout the Midwest. Show features Joe and Eddie, The Big Three, Les Baxters Balladeers and Raun MacKinnon. . . . Stan Pat Promotions elated over airtime and reaction on the West Coast to "Java" by Al Hirt, the single pulled from his album "Honey In The Horn." . . . Paul McKimmie, of Independent Music Sales, San Francisco getting a Bay Area breakout for "Baby, Look It Over" by The Martinels.

All Smiles

BIOS

Barry & Tamerlanes

The three young Californians who form Barry and the Tamerlanes are Barry DeVorzon (their leader) and his team mates, Terry Smith and Bodie Chandler, are currently hitting together with their first recording of "I Wonder What She's Doing Tonight," which is also the title of the group's first album.

Terry and Bodie met while attending UCLA and the Tamerlanes quickly joined up with Barry DeVorzon for their first song (and first hit) together.

Terry is currently co-starring with a hundred thousand other guys for Uncle Sam & Co., and has been getting weekend passes to record with Barry and Bodie. As for the latter two, both Barry and Bodie are talented song writers and have been successful, both together with other writers and on their own in penning some of the most successful recent vintage songs.

Clancy Bros. & Tommy Makem

The Clancy Bros. are from the south of Ireland, County Tipperary, and Tommy Makem is from the north. Tommy made his singing debut at age five. Ten years later, he formed his own singing band in County Armagh. At seventeen, he was one of Ireland's leading dance band vocalists.

Liam, the youngest Clancy, has studied acting at the National College of Arts in Dublin. While at school, he became interested in folk songs, began to collect Scottish and Irish folk music. Like Tommy Makem, Tom Clancy also worked in Ireland as a band vocalist. Pat Clancy, the eldest, is the world traveler. He has lived in India, the Virgin Islands, etc., and has worked variously as a painter, actor and diamond hunter.

A few years ago the boys met in New York and decided to form a folksinging team. An audition for night club impresario Max Gordon, an appearance at his club, the Blue Angel, and subsequent rave reviews convinced the boys that they should continue as an ensemble. They've been together ever since. The group is currently riding the LP charts with "In Person At Carnegie Hall."

ALBUM REVIEWS

POP PICKS

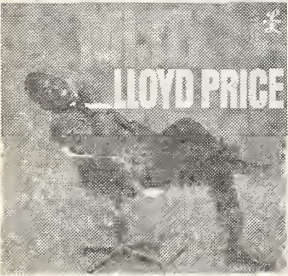

"GOLDEN FOLK HITS"—Bobby Darin—Capitol ST2007

Bobby Darin, equally at home with romantic ballads, rhythm and blues or folk songs, turns to the biggest folk hits of the past year or so for this new issue on Capitol. The versatile chanter could score his biggest album triumph to date with this top-flight package which includes "Blowin' In The Wind," "Greenback Dollar" and "Don't Think Twice." Superb performances by Darin here should send the set to top ten territory in short order.

"BLUE GENE"—Gene Pitney—Musicor MS3006

Gene Pitney comes up with a mood-setting package of the blues on this new Musicor album session. The songster, with a string of top-ten tunes to his credit, is already making chart inroads with this set which includes his current blockbuster, "Twenty Four Hours From Tulsa." Other slick tracks here are "Autumn Leaves," "Maybe You'll Be There," and "House Without Windows." Disk is Pitney's best effort to date.

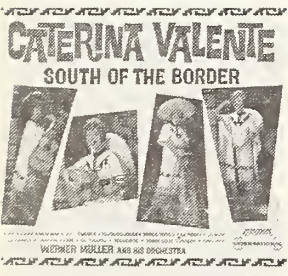

"MISTY"—Lloyd Price—Double L SDL 83003

Lloyd Price tags this power-packed session after his recent pop-r&b hit of "Misty" and includes eleven other big band-backed newies and sturdies in a similar bluesy vein. The chanter's wide-range baritone voice carries him in fine stead on "You're Nobody Til Somebody Loves You," "On The Sunny Side Of The Street" and "Trouble." An imaginative, highly-listenable set.

"110 IN THE SHADE"—Original Cast—RCA Victor LSO-1085

The musical, making the grade with the critics and public, should be a Broadway draw for some time, making this cast LP a solid inventory item. Purchasers will be taking home a musical score full of lyrical moments as provided by Harvey Schmidt (music) and Tom Jones (lyrics), whose "Fantasticks" still delights Off-B'way audiences. Inga Swenson and Robert Horton have come from non-singing flick and TV roles to portray, with surprising vocal skill, the lead roles.

"SOUTH OF THE BORDER"—Caterina Valente—London International TW91292

Caterina Valente has captivated the world-at-large with her expressive and wide-range vocal stylings and multi-lingual talents. On this new LP outing from London International, the lark directs her attention to a host of Latin melodies and gets some superb musical backing from the ork of Werner Muller. Top-flight listening enjoyment here as the thrush delightfully essays "La Malaguena" (a new version), "La Flor De La Canela" and "Donde Esta Corazon." Her fans on both sides of the Atlantic should come out in strength for the package.

"I'M LEAVING IT UP TO YOU"—Dale & Grace—Montel MLP 100

Taking the hit-singles route to the LP field, the strong duo of Dale & Grace performs its album title success, as well as 11 other teen tunes, most of them teen classics (e.g. "We Belong Together," "Let the Good Times Roll," "Casual Look"). Tempos are interestingly varied, ranging from countryish plaintive blends (with strings) to infectious attacks. Worthy teen-shelf waxing.

POP BEST BETS

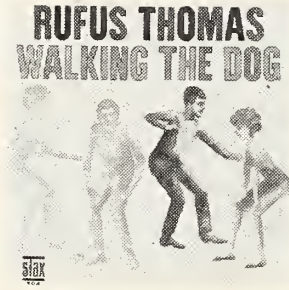

"SING A SONG WITH THE KINGSTON TRIO"—Capitol SKAO 2005

The Kingston Trio seem sure to reach the charts in no time flat with this novel album in which the group re-creates the instrumental backgrounds of some of their biggest hits. The package comes complete with lyrics and chord symbols for young musicians. The crew turns in top-drawer performances on such favorites as "Tom Dooley," "Where Have All The Flowers Gone?" and "Greenback Dollar." Disk looms as a natural for heavy Xmas sales.

"VOILA!"—Les Compagnons De La Chanson—MGM E4181

Les Compagnons De La Chanson, France's leading vocal group for almost two decades, showcase their winning choral technique on this group of folk-flavored items from MGM. The songsters offer up some top-flight harmony on these inventively arranged tunes which include "Les Comediens," "Telstar," "L'Enfant Aux Cymbales" and "Cheveux Fous Et Levres Roses." The set is loaded with Gallic charm and lilting melody. A first-rate offering.

"WALKING THE DOG"—Rufus Thomas—Stax 704

Rufus Thomas tags this Stax album romp after his current singles click, "Walking The Dog," and includes with it eleven other similarly flavored rhythm tunes geared for teenage dancing pleasure. The beat here is easy-paced and pulsating as the chanter delivers up flavorful renditions of the tag tune, "Mashed Potatoes," "Land of 1,000 Dances" and "I Want To Be Loved." The set looms as a hot item.

"HERE'S LOVE"—Merrill Staton Voices—Columbia CL2099

Here's a spritely treatment of the songs from Meredith Willson's new musical, "Here's Love" by the voices of Merrill Staton making their debut on Columbia. Despite the natural attraction for cast versions of musicals, this interpretation could be a brisk holiday seller. The Frank Hunter arrangements are top-drawer and the choristers shine as they render sparkling readings of "Here's Love," "The Big Clown Balloons" and "Love, Come Take Me Again." Eye it for rapid acceptance.

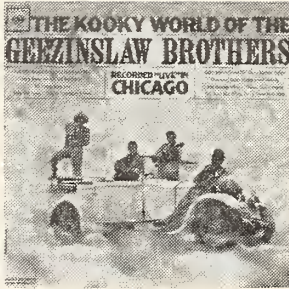

"QUIET VILLAGE"—Les Baxter—Capitol T 1846

Here is the best of Les Baxter highlighting a dozen tunes culled from his earlier albums and wrapped up in one package. The orkster, one of the masters of musical exotica recreates some of his single goodies here in his inimitable fashion in a set geared to delight his loyal following. Slick sides here are "Quiet Village," "Taboo," "Garden Of The Moon" and "Temple Of Gold." The set is a pleasant late hours mood companion.

"THE ORIGINAL TARRIERS"—Kapp KL 1349

Although the Tarries has changed through the years the famous folk group originally started with Erik Darling and Bob Carey. This fine Kapp disk features Darling and Carey singing and playing a top-flight program of a dozen folk sturdies. The songsters are in superb form on "East Virginia," "Tom Dooley" and "This Land Is Your Land." Loads of historical interest here.

"THE KOOKY WORLD OF THE GEEZINSLAW BROTHERS"—Columbia CL 2100

The Geezinslaw Brothers kick off their career on Columbia Records with this delightful, fresh-sounding LP. The group's sound is cross between traditional folk and country and western and their act is mixed with spicy, homespun humor. The boys are in fine high-spirited form on "Cotton Fields," "Sally Was A Good Old Girl" and "He's Been Workin' On His Banjo." Deejays should really dig the set.

"SKI SURFIN'"—The Avalanches—Warner Bros. WS1525

The Avalanches could strike album paydirt with this instrumental session on Warner Bros. which spotlights the surfin' sound but with a tasteful and lyrical approach to melody. The crew displays a lot of musicianship as they effectively apply their musical format to both standards and surfin' tunes. Bright bands here are "Winter Wonderland," "I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm," "Sleigh Ride" and "Ski Surfin'." A group to watch.

"THE ORIGINAL HOOTENANNY—Volume 2"—Various Artists—Crestview CRV 807
The label clicked with the first volume of this series and this new edition featuring a host of popular folksingers could create plenty of sales excitement. The set spotlights such name artists as Gibson and Camp, Theodore Bikel, Josh White, Erik Darling, etc., reading such evergreen folk items as "Lonesome Traveler," "Trouble" and "Cotton Fields." Eye the package for rapid consumer acceptance.

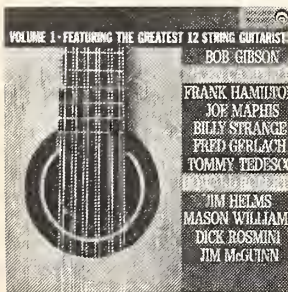

"THE CARIBBEAN AT NIGHT"—RCA Victor International FSP 116
RCA Victor International comes up with a top-notch dance package spotlighting the rumba and the bolero. The Orquestra Namorados do Caribe read a dozen danceable items in rhythmic fashion. Pop favorites included in the set are "Tender Is The Night," "Stella By Starlight" and "Andalucia." A good holiday entry with the party season in the offing.

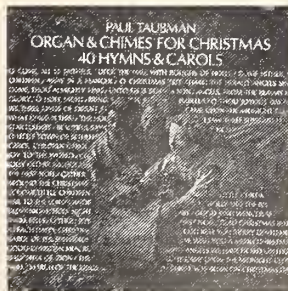

"BROADSIDE BALLADS—VOLUME 2"—Pete Seeger—Broadside BR 302
Here's potent package of contemporary folk songs sung by Pete Seeger. Most of the selections here are of the "message-song" variety and the vet folksinger aptly communicates the basic values of the tunes. While accompanying himself on the guitar Seeger turns in outstanding performances on "Who Killed Davey Moore," "What Did You Learn In School Today" and "Hard Rain's A-Gonna Fall." A standout achievement.

"SING SONGS OF THE NEW LOST CITY RAMBLERS"—Aravel AB 1005
The New Lost City Ramblers (Mike Seeger, Tom Paley and John Cohen) offer a fine sampling of selections from their own rich musical repertoire on this Aravel LP outing. The group's ethnic bluegrass-styled folk approach is effectively showcased on such well-known items as "Don't Let Your Deal Go Down," "Railroad Blues" and "Who's That Knocking At My Window." Fine listening throughout.

"THE TWELVE STRING STORY—VOLUME I"—Various Artists—Horizon WP 1626
Here's an impressive package which tells the story of the 12-string guitar by featuring a dozen of the nation's most famous guitarists reading a batch of guitar standards. Highlights of this monumental disk are "Finger Buster Blues" by Dick Rosmini, "Meadowlands" by Fred Gerlach and "Careless Love" by Jim Helms. LP should create stir with musicologists as well as the general collector.

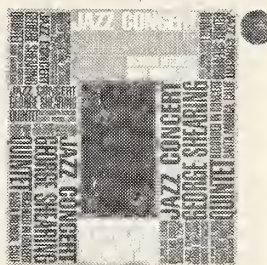

"ORGAN AND CHIMES FOR CHRISTMAS"—Paul Taubman—Columbia CL 2075
For centuries the organ and chimes have been identified with Christmas music. On this new Columbia Yuletide entry Paul Taubman presents a sparkling program of 40 favorite hymns and carols utilizing the interesting melodic effects of the organ and chimes. Among the standout tracks here are "Away In A Manger," "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear" and "Joy To The World." Superior listening for the entire family.

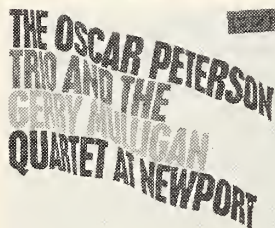

"CHRISTMAS AT ST. GEORGE'S WITH THE CHAMBER BRASS PLAYERS"—Request RLP 10063
The Chamber Brass Players of Gotham's St. George's Church exhibit consummate skill and feeling for this all-too rare form of carol presentation. The players include the sacred songs of Christmas that have become international favorites during the past four centuries. The theme here is Medieval as the players perform "Joy To The World," "Silent Night," "The First Noel" "I Saw Three Ships" and a host of others. A superb Yuletide offering.

JAZZ PICKS

"JAZZ CONCERT"—George Shearing Quintet—Capitol ST 1992
George Shearing has earned many laurels in the past and this new swingin' set cut live at a recent concert in Santa Monica, Calif. ranks as the pianist's best effort in quite a while. The group's melodic midstream style is potently showcased on "Walkin'," "Love Is Just Around The Corner" and "I Cover The Waterfront." Jazzophiles should come out in force for the album.

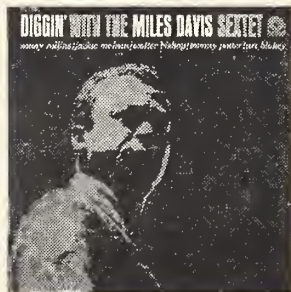

"THE OSCAR PETERSON TRIO & THE GERRY MULLIGAN QUARTET AT NEWPORT"—Verve V-8559
The scene is the Newport Jazz Festival, the time is 1957 on these diskings by two standout jazz attractions. Each combo gets a full side, the Peterson crew performing on four tracks, Mulligan's outfit having its say on three tracks. With the exception of two ballad stands—Mulligan has a lovely "My Funny Valentine,"—the sessions are breezy jazz swingers. A fine jazz combo teaming from Verve.

JAZZ BEST BETS

"THE URBIE GREEN 6-TET"—Command RS857SD
The Urbie Green 6-Tet, made of six of Command's top-flight instrumentalists, join forces on this album outing to come up with some expressive and free-swinging jazz. The trombonist, aided by Doc Severinson on trumpet, Walt Levinisky on alto sax, Barry Gailbraith on guitar, Milt Hinton on bass and Don Lamond on drums, turns out some pulsating treatments of "Slidework in A Flat," "Body And Soul" and "Tangerine." Good jazz coupled with the Command stereo sound makes for potent listening.

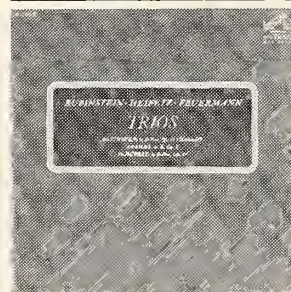

"DIGGIN' WITH THE MILES DAVIS SEXTET"—Prestige PR 7281
Here's another one of the hard-driving sets by Miles Davis during his days with Prestige. On this set the trumpeter is teamed up with an accomplished crew of supporting jazzmen including Sonny Rollins, Jackie McLean and Art Blakey. Davis makes his expected melodic, lyrical statements on "Dig," "It's Only A Paper Moon" and "Out Of The Blue."

"SIGNIFYIN'"—Lou Donaldson—Argo 724
In era when many jazz musicians are so involved with musical abstractions that form becomes insignificant, Lou Donaldson stands as refreshing example of purist-styled originality. The vet alto saxist is above all a superb technician and his midstream style is neatly woven into the confines of some fine melodic wailing. Donaldson shines on "Time After Time," "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" and "I Feel It In My Bones." A splendid album.

CLASSICAL PICKS

"TRIOS"—Rubinstein, Heifetz, Feuermann—RCA Victor LM 7025
Artur Rubinstein, Jascha Heifetz and Emanuel Feuermann combined their extraordinary talents more than two decades ago to record these chamber pieces for RCA Victor. This deluxe, two-disc set represents their only recorded effort and stands as a monumental entry. The virtuosi perform Beethoven's Trio in B-Flat (Archduke), Brahms' Trio in B, and Schubert's Trio in B-Flat. The set merits special attention from the classical collector.

BEETHOVEN: Symphony No. 7, The Vienna Philharmonic Orch/Solti—London CS6093
Beethoven's 7th Symphony, characterized by an unusual gaiety, standout themes and flowing melody is executed with appropriate charm and rhythmic intensity by the Vienna Philharmonic with Georg Solti at the helm. The work, an almost abrupt departure from some of the heavier compositions which preceded it, reflects soaring spirits from the opening strains of the first movement through its scintillating finale. A potent listening experience.

Twenty-Year Custom

UA Inks Tucson Boys Chorus

NEW YORK—Art Talmadge, President of United Artists Records, has announced the signing of the Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus to an exclusive, long-term recording contract involving singles and album product. The group, a unique attraction of the American concert stage, previously recorded for Capitol Records.

The Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus was founded in the fall of 1939 by Eduardo Caso, their current director. It has burgeoned into an organization of well over one hundred boys from an original roster of eight. Their ages range from eight to 16 and they are currently divided into three groups—30 seniors, 50 intermediates and 50 juniors. The touring chorus is chosen from the best voices of the senior and intermediate groups and—barring chickenpox, measles, overnight baritones and other occupational hazards of boy singers—consists of 25 to 30 members.

The Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus has, in the past decade, travelled all over the world and have been acclaimed in the key capitols of Europe, in Canada and Australia. In addition, they are familiar to millions of radio listeners and to video fans through stellar outings on the Ed Sullivan Show, Wide Wide World and the George Gobel Show, among others.

The initial single by the chorus was issued by United Artists Records last week. It is called "African Noel," a Holiday item.

Jan Bradley On Stacy With Xmas Single

CHICAGO—A new label, Hootennay Records, a subsid of the Chicago based Stacey label, bows in this week with its first release, featuring Jan Bradley. The debut disk is a Christmas single dubbed "Christmas Time."

The vocalist is best remembered for her hot single "Mama Didn't Lie" which hit big under the Chess Record banner earlier this year. She fulfilled her contractual agreement with Chess with a follow-up disk titled "These Tears."

Cal Cagno & Boyce End Pubbery, Artist Tie-Ups

NEW YORK—Joe Cal Cagno has announced the resignation of Tommy Boyce as a partner in the firm of Calboy Music and its label affiliate, Calboy Records.

An artist-management agreement between Cal Cagno and Boyce, a singer-writer, has been dissolved. Boyce, until recently a Victor disk artist, will continue to publish his material through Calboy. Both parting of the ways were termed amicable.

Cal Cagno, former manager of Ray Conniff, also manages comedian John Byner and the new duo of Wendy & Joey, whose latest Calboy disking is tagged "Driftin' from Me."

Darin & T. M.

HOLLYWOOD—There was a credit error in last week's Capitol ad featuring Bobby Darin's latest release "Be Mad Little Girl." The record was billed as a T. M. Production. Darin's releases are not T. M. Productions since the artist has an exclusive contractual tie with Capitol. He does own T. M. Productions which produces Wayne Newton's recordings as well as decks by the Reveres and the Junior 5 for Capitol.

Orlecks Become Grandparents

NEW YORK—Joe Orleck, publisher of Cash Box, and his wife Pauline last week became grandparents for the first time when their daughter Arlene Cronin gave birth to a boy. The young lad's name is Gary. His father is Shelly Cronin.

Instrument Industry Sets June For Future Trade Meets

CHICAGO—The last week in June has been set as the permanent date for all future annual trade shows and conventions of the music instrument industry.

Music dealers and manufacturers overwhelmingly favor that period for the event, several polls have shown, and every effort will be made in the future to hold the trade show at that time, announced William R. Gard, executive secretary of the National Association of Music Merchants, sponsors of the Music Show.

Date for the 1964 show is set for June 28 to July 2 at a new site, the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago, to accommodate the dramatic growth of the Music Show in recent years. End of June dates have also been set for the 1965 and 1966 shows at the Conrad Hilton and a similar pattern of dates will be maintained for future years.

"Buyers as well as dealers have indicated not only by their vote but also in communications to the NAMM that the last week in June is preferred for the Music Show because this period is best for all segments of the industry," declared Gard.

"The selling season has slackened off at this time, giving music dealers and buyers a breather to assess future sales prospects. Sizing up merchandise the end of June, buyers can project the sales picture for Fall and place orders then. The June date gives manufacturers enough leeway during the summer months to gear production for deliveries in the Fall in time for the big selling season that runs right through the Christmas holidays."

"The Music Show, which has become recognized as one of the outstanding business events of the nation, provides a marketplace at precisely the right time for the industry—a meeting ground of buyers and sellers during the month of the year when buyers are doing most of their buying and manufacturers are projecting the marketing picture for future months. In the past when we have held the Music Show in late July, we have found often that most orders have already been placed.

Gard pointed out that the late June date is also most convenient since the Music Show can then be held before the hot weather arrives and usually there is less conflict with vacations and other events.

"Last year's poll on the show date showed a margin of 116 to 68 in favor of late June for the Music show," Gard noted. "This year's questionnaire on the show dates resulted in similar margins for the end of June as the show time. All categories of the music business indicated preference for the end of June date for the Music Show and we plan to stay with this schedule as closely as possible in future years."

The prospectus for the 1964 Music Show will be sent to exhibitors early in December, Gard reported and will include the exhibit halls and sample room layouts for the new site of the show at the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

Galli-Curci, The Colloratura, Dies

NEW YORK—Amelita Galli-Curci, one of the leading operatic vocal lights at the Met during the 1920's, died last week (26) of a lung disease in her home in La Jolla, Calif. A death certificate said she was 81 years old.

The coloratura, who retired 25 years ago after two decades of superlative singing, was an extremely popular disk attraction on the Victor label. The label reportedly sold more than $440,000 worth of her first two disks within months after their release in 1917.

Born in Milan, Italy of a Spanish mother and an Italian father, the performer made her American debut with the Chicago Opera on Nov. 18, 1916, her birthday. She joined the Met in 1921 and ended her career at the famed opera house on Jan. 24, 1930. After the Met, she continued to sing at concerts, retiring completely from singing engagements in 1937.

Rondo To Can-Am

NEW YORK—Songster Don Rondo has joined the artist roster of Canadian-American Records. Artist will cut singles and album product for the diskery. Last heard on the Atlantic diskery, Rondo scored his biggest disk success with the million-seller, "Two Different Worlds," released on Jubilee Records.

Epic Reports Strong Pre-Xmas Sales

NEW YORK—Epic Records, concluding its best sales year yet, is moving into the Holiday sales season with an active Christmas catalog, according to Len Levy, general manager.

The label started to move its Xmas merchandise this year well before Thanksgiving along with special merchandising and selling aids.

Doing a major sales job for the diskery in this area is hitmaker Bobby Vinton's "four-band" single, "4 Songs of Christmas," featuring "Silver Bells," "White Christmas," "O Holy Night" and "The Christmas Song." Helpful in achieving a solid reaction to the deck, Levy pointed out, is the songster's current hit, "There! I've Said it Again."

"People are coming into record stores," Levy noted, "to purchase Bobby's latest hit single . . . and while there are attracted by our special Christmas counter display for Vinton's four band single . . ."

Since Nov. 1, 100,000 copies of the Vinton Xmas deck, his first of Holiday material, have been sold, Levy said. The "There! I've Said it Again" waxing set a new one-day sales record for the label on Tues., Nov. 12, a day after its release, when 94,000 copies were sold.

With virtually no airplay reported on Epic Christmas product—due to their early release—Levy explained that strong sales were due to the "aggressive" merchandising Epic had done at the retail level.

2-LP Lester Lanin Set With 18 Basic Dance Steps

NEW YORK—Epic Records has released a special 2-LP Lester Lanin package designed to cash-in on the strong party season ahead.

The set features 18 basic dances performed in the exact tempos as taught by professional studios on a total of 28 separate bands. In fact, label topper Len Levy believes the label has arrived at the perfect solution for both dance instructors and pupils: recordings of dance music that can be used in the professional dance studios as well as being enjoyed as a casual home dancing album.

The package includes six foxtrots ranging from slow to fast; three waltzes; a Lindy, as well as newer dances such as the twist and the bossa nova. Purchasers also get an illustrated description booklet written by dance authority and instructor, Edwin J. Sims.

As Holiday Season Dawns, St. Nicholas Music Starts Its Promo Drive On Xmas Tunes

NEW YORK—The Xmas catalog of Johnny Marks' St. Nicholas Music has come to life once more for a new round of Holiday Season exposure.

A promo by the firm is underway on behalf of new and old diskings of its Yuletide favorites.

The line-up this year includes 15 new recordings of the now classic novelty, "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer," including versions by Johnny Mathis (Mercury), The Platters (Mercury), Andre Kostelanetz (Columbia), The Crystals (Philles), Dick Liebert (Victor), and Robert Rheims (Liberty).

"Rudolph," reports St. Nicholas, moves into its 15th year with sales of over 37,500,000 records, including six million of the original Gene Autry reading for Columbia, and over three million sheet music copies. A color short featuring the song will again get international screenings.

The pubbery's second best Holiday seller, "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day," has 19 new diskings this year, including dates by Bert Kaempfert (Decca), Dick Liebert (Victor) and Robert Rheims (Liberty). Other Seasonal songs to receive exploitation from the firm are "The Night Before Christmas Song," "When Santa Claus Gets Your Letter" and "A Merry Merry Christmas to You."

There are 125 printed arrangements of St. Nicholas' songs for use by schools, colleges and churches, with more than 300 recorded versions.

Marks' million-selling "Christmas Community Lyric Book" has already gone over 300,000 this year, the company reports.

Chapin Leaving Columbia For Lincoln Center Post

NEW YORK—Schuyler Chapin is leaving his post as veep in the creative dept. of Columbia Records at the end of this year to become a veep in charge of programming at New York's Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

Chapin, with Columbia since 1959, will map programs and schedule attractions when the Center's concert halls are being used by resident attractions.

Columbia has not announced Chapin's successor at the diskery.

Wayne Newton To Debut At Copa

NEW YORK—New York's Copacabana nitery, which is becoming a sure-fire showcase for talents who reach disk stardom, is hosting songster Wayne Newton for the first time this week (5). Newton, who has played the nitery's upstairs lounge, is being billed with comic Myron Cohen for a three week engagement.

Newton's first big hit was the recent "Danke Schoen" on Capitol Records, followed by current noise-maker, "Shirl Girl." He's a protege of Bobby Darin, who inked the artist to his T.M. Production outfit shortly after it was formed by Darin. His exposure outside of disks has included guest stints on the Jackie Gleason show and such niteries as Lake Tahoe, in Nevada, the Fremont Hotel in Las Vegas and the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel in Dallas.

LEFTY FRIZZELL (Columbia 42924)

The vet country hit-maker seems to have one of his strongest releases in quite a while with this new Columbia release tagged "Saginaw, Michigan." The tune is a medium-paced, easy-going chorus-backed lament in which the chanter tells a sensitive tale about a couple from two different worlds. "When It Rains The Blues" is a tradition-oriented melodic bluesy tear-jerker dished up with loads of poise by Frizzell.

"VALLEY OF LOVE" (2:13) [Hotpoint & Yonah BMI—Smith, Hughey]
"GAMBLIN' MAN" (2:20) [Hotpoint & Yonah BMI—Smith, Hughey]
CAIN GRANT (Sims 154)

Newcomer Cain Grant could very well have a fast hit on his hands with this ultra-commercial Sims outing tabbed "Valley Of Love." The tune is an infectious, shufflin' chorus-backed country romancer essayed with loads of poise and authority by the chanter. The flip, "Gamblin' Man," is a hard-driving folk-flavored lament with an interesting funky flavor. Also merits a close look.

ARTHUR 'GUITAR BOOGIE' SMITH
(Starday 6737)

(B+) "THE STUTTERING SONG" (2:11) [Starday BMI—Smith]
The vet country performer should grab some fast spins with this extremely infectious fast-paced novelty item. Deck could skyrocket.

(B+) "BACK TO HIS HOLE HE WENT" (1:55) [Starday BMI—Smith]
This time out Smith offers a clever chorus-backed affair about a guy who had a little too much to drink.

JOHNNY FITZMORRIS
(Columbia 42925)

(B+) "WAH-PA-PA-PA" (2:14) [Ridgeway BMI—Fitzmorris]
Johnny Fitzmorris kicks off his Columbia career with clever chorus-backed twangy novelty which boasts an effective, commercial chorus chant. Watch it.

(B+) "THESE TWO ARMS" (2:42) [Camarillo BMI—Fitzmorris]
The chanter's wide-range rich baritone voice carries him in good stead on this melodic, slow-moving tender, tradition-styled country ballad.

LINDA FLANAGAN (Decca 31569)

(B+) "THE KEEPER OF THE KEY" (2:34) [Vidor BMI—Devine, Howard, Guynes, Stewart]
If this fine deck is any indication of her talents, Linda Flanagan has a promising future indeed. The lark's wide-range, bell-clear voice carries her in good stead on this tender, shuffle-beat chorus-backed romancer.

(B) "HOLD ON TO HAPPINESS" (2:00) [Tree BMI—West, Walker]
Rousing, uptempo ditty which offers a practical approach to romantic involvements.

BOB TAYLOR
(Cotton Town Jubilee 107)

(B) "IF I HAD BACK WHAT I USED TO HAVE" (2:40) [Cotton Town BMI—Taylor]
Newcomer Bob Taylor turns a winning performance on this slow-moving bluegrass ode about a twosome that breaks up.

(B) "WALKING THE STREET" (2:18) [Cotton Town BMI—Taylor]
Lively, medium-paced country blueser with some extremely pretty lyrics.

MARTY MARTIN (Anvil 1001)

(B) "HOOTENANNY SANTY" (1:51) [Hotshot BMI—Thompson, Martin]
Marty Martin might create some sales excitement with this delightful folkish country novelty Yuletide offering. Just right for seasonal spins.

(C+) "ALL I GOT FOR CHRISTMAS WAS A BROKEN HEART" (2:39) [Hotshot BMI—Thompson, Martin]
This one's a slow-moving ballad also with a timely Christmas theme. OK chanting.

BILLY DEATON (Shannon 777)

(B+) "I HEARD JENNY SINGIN' (ON THE RADIO)" (2:02) [Acclaim BMI—Busby]
The chanter has had hits in the past and he can do it again with this rousing chorus-backed ditty about a guy whose gal is a professional lark. A natural for airplay.

(B) "IS IT REALLY OVER" (2:16) [Tuckahoe BMI—Reeves]
Slow-moving, tender lament essayed by Deaton with enough assurance to garner plenty of spins.

DONNY KING (Princess 4028)

(B) "MR. BLUE" [Tata BMI—King, Ward, Copeland]
The songster tells a feelingful bluegrass-styled ballad about a man who yearns for romance. Could cause a stir.

(B) "JUST A FEW WORDS AWAY" [Tata BMI—Moore]
This time out King complains about his inability to express his inner most thoughts to the gal of his dreams.

ROCKY & HAL (T 1912)

(B) "YOU WONDER WHY" [Town & Country BMI—Watkins, Rauch]
Rocky and Hal make some mighty pretty harmony on medium-paced lyrical weeper with some fine counterpoint portions.

(B) "NITE TRAIN" [Pam Lee BMI—Forrest, Washington, Simpkins]
On this end the boys offer a top-notch instrumental treatment of the years-back blues hit.

SCANDINAVIA

SCANDINAVIA

The tragic news about the murder of President John F. Kennedy reached Scandinavia around 8 PM yesterday (Nov. 22) local time. All over Scandinavia, broadcasting stations and TV changed their programs and announced show programs were not aired. TV in most cases stopped their transmissions, keeping their channels open for whatever news programs they could get over the international Eurovision links. In the meantime, serious music was aired, with exception for interviews with the Prime Ministers and Foreign Secretaries. On Saturday, a day when entertainment shows usually appear on radio and TV, certain changes were announced all over Scandinavia. In Stockholm, a great outdoor show was to be arranged in one of the city parks by the Lion's Clubs with participation by many local artists on the Saturday, but early Saturday morning it was reported that the show had been abolished.

DENMARK

New sheet music from Wilhelm Hansen, Musik-Forlag includes "Erica" with Danish lyrics (Sig Dog Ja, Erika) by Aud and Sven Krumbak, "Ich Komm' Ja Bald Wieder, Madeleine" with Danish lyrics (Jeg Kommer Tilbage, Madeleine) by Peter Spar, who also is responsible for the Danish lyrics to "Der Schatz Im Silbersee" (Skatten I Sölvsoen). "Die Grosse Freiheit" with Danish lyrics (Det Söde Liv) by Jack Barry, "Lonely" with Danish lyrics by Aud and Sven Krumbak and "The Legion's Last Patrol" (Concerto Disperato) complete the list of new releases from Wilhelm Hansen. Automatically, these songs are published by Ehrling & Löfvenholm AB in Stockholm and Norsk Musikforlag A/S in Oslo.

Hede Nielsen's Fabrikker A/S expects a lot from "Maria Elena," now released with Los Indios Tabajaras, as well as in a Danish recording with Svend Nicolaisen's Ork., both on RCA Victor.

FINLAND

Finnish Broadcasting Co-TV has announced a competition for songs to the Eurovision Song Festival that will take place in Copenhagen, March 21, 1964. Invited are nine Finnish composers, who have all contributed with songs in the local competitions the last years.

Finnish radio just arranged a poll to find out the most popular male Finnish singers. The result, as presented in the program "Kaleidoscope," was as follows: 1) Taisto Tammi (Decca), 2) Eino Grön (Scandia), 3) Kai Lind (Scandia), 4) Olavi Virta (Scandia), 5) Reijo Taipale (Scandia), 6) Tapio Rautavaara (Broadway), 7) Lasse Mårtensson (RCA Victor), 8) Veikko Tuomi (Odeon), 9) Johnny (Scandia), and 10) Mauno Kuusisto (RCA Victor). The labels are listed in brackets after the names. The next poll arranged by "Kaleidoscope" will deal with foreign artists.

NORWAY

Eilif Meyer of A/S Nera is very happy about the sales results of the EP "Dagligliv I Folkehjemmet" (Daily Life In The Welfare Country) on RCA Victor. The records debut on the fifth spot on the Norwegian charts this week. Meyer got the idea to this record when he heard Vaughn Meader's "The First Family," and contacted writer Arild Feldborg, asking him to try to do a local version of this. Feldborg did so and it was recorded with Rolf Just Nilsen, imitating the voices of Prime Minister Einar Gerhardsen and other members of the Norwegian government. Also heard on the record is Ragnhild Michelsen. The success of the record has inspired to a second one, "Jul I Folkehjemmet" (Christmas In The Welfare Country).

NRK (Norwegian Broadcasting Co.) recently arranged a poll for "The Song Of The Century." Winning the poll was the tune "Norge I Rødt, Hvitt Og Blått" (Norway In Red, White And Blue—which is the colors of the Norwegian flag). Iversen & Frogh A/S, the EMI distributor, has just released a recording with Jens Book-Jensen.

It is reported here that Egil Monn-Iversen, one of the top names in Norwegian show biz, is planning to leave his company, Egil Monn Iversen A/S, and is planning to sell out his shares in the company. Mr. Iversen has not been available for any personal comment to this news, which has been published in some of the leading Oslo dailies. Egil Monn Iversen A/S is one of the leading record biz in Norway of today. The company is also busy in publishing field, motion picture production and as artists agency.

SWEDEN

Publisher Thore Ehrling to Ireland for business talks. . . . British singer Johnny Angel in Stockholm, eventually looking for engagements. . . . Gerry and The Pacemakers to Stockholm for p.a.'s Nov. 25th. After Stockholm, they continue to Copenhagen.

EMI (Skandinaviska Grammophon AB) has rushed out "Washington Square" with The Village Stompers, b.w. "Turkish Delight" on Columbia. Anna Sundquist, who made a sensation as stage debutant earlier this year in "Stop The World . . ." in Stockholm, has debuted on records with an EP for Columbia.

GREAT BRITAIN

Following their success with Reprise, Cameo-Parkway, Chess, Checker and Argo, Pye Records Ltd. has concluded negotiations to distribute the Hickory label in Great Britain as of 1964. The deal, which gives Hickory its own label in this country, was set by Pye's managing director Louis Benjamin and Wesley Rose, president of Hickory. Discussions were also held with Teddy Holmes of Acuff-Rose (in association with Chappels). Besides country and folk style music by artists such as Roy Acuff, Wilma Lee and Stoney Cooper a number of disks by pop artists will be issued from a roster which includes Sue Thompson, Kris Jensen, Bob Luman, Dean and Mark etc. It is hoped that artists on the Hickory label will come to England for the launching party in January.

Peter Baumberger, vice president of RCA International Ltd. in London coincidental with Duane Eddy's current British tour. In a special interview with Cash Box, Baumberger stressed the concentrated effort which RCA has put into its European operation over the past twelve months. The Geneva H.Q. has been working closely with RCA's European licensees and affiliates in a unified effort not only to bring U.S. stars over for TV and p.a.'s but to make them an integral part of the European record scene via local language recordings and local material. Considerable success has already been achieved with Little Peggy March, Paul Anka, Neil Sedaka and now Duane Eddy.

The fabulous Beatles were the guests of honor recently at a private cocktail party hosted by the directors of E.M.I. in recognition of their outstanding sales of LP's, EP's and singles during the past twelve months. EMI chairman Sir Joseph Lockwood presented Silver LP's for "Please, Please Me" and "With The Beatles" the latter qualifying on advance orders only. Their A&R manager, George Martin, personally gave each Beatle a miniature Silver EP, for "Twist And Shout." Other awards were made by the Editor of "Disc" for quarter million sales of "Twist And Shout" and "She Loves You." America can expect an attack of Beatlemania early in 1964. The group will definitely appear on "The Ed Sullivan Show" on February 9th.

Publisher Noel Rogers just back from a two-day visit to Paris and meetings with Jerry Juroe, United Artists representative, discussing the musical release of "From Russia With Love" movie.

Jeff Kruger of Ember Records just back from Belgium where he completed a deal with Eddie Barclay of Barclay Records. In early December, the first two albums under the new deal will be issued. "Maurice Chevalier" and "Qui" by top French recording star Charles Aznavour featuring two of his best selling "For Me Formidable" and "O Toi La Vie." Both albums are packaged in deluxe presentation and lavishly illustrated with pictures and tributes.

From the BBC-TV production "Elizabeth Taylor In London," Ember issued a single, "Elizabeth." The score for this documentary was penned by Ember's A&R manager John Barry and published by Screen Gems. Original TV soundtrack released on Colpix.

Publications Francis Day, Paris, this month celebrated their 40th Anniversary. Jack Denton, manager of the Paris office since its inception, welcomed representatives from all over Europe including Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Day, David Day, Bert Corri, Ben Nisbet and Alan Holmes from Great Britain; Guiseppi Gallazzi (Italy); Bruno Botcher and Johann Michel (Germany); Cor Smit (Holland); Augusto Alguero (Spain); Cedric Dumont and Jane Peterer (Switzerland) and Madame Dulieu (Belgium).

Whoever named The Caravelles was certainly prophetic. With their very first disk they have not only hit the British charts but they are soaring up the American Top 100 (currently No. 11) thus qualifying for a Cash Box International Award. Offers for the duo to visit America have been pouring in and negotiations are now going ahead for them to appear on "The Ed Sullivan Show" early in the New Year. American Mercury has taken the rights to their next four singles for Stateside release which includes its current release "I Really Don't Want To Know" issued on Decca/Ritz. The Caravelles are also featuring in the charts of Norway, Sweden and Australia.

With composer Jerry Lordan already under contract, publishers Francis Day & Hunter has signed another talented songwriter, Alan Klein, to an exclusive contract. Klein penned the score of "What A Crazy World" first produced as a stage show and now successfully transferred to film as a vehicle for Joe Brown. Pan Musik handles all copyrights of "What A Crazy World" and Pye is issuing a title LP featuring many of its stars including Joe Brown, Marty Wilde, Susan Maughan. Other single recordings are being lined up.

Brian Poole and The Tremeloes new Decca disk "I Can Dance" is a repeat of their previous hit "Do You Love Me" with different lyrics. Interesting to see if it can get away again. Brian and the boys fly to Sweden on Christmas Day for a two-week season there.

Dominion Music all set for a revival of an old American number "Money." Originally recorded by The Casuals but never released here the number has now been waxed by Bern Elliot And The Fenmen on Decca which looks all set to hit the charts. Polydor has issued a version by King Size Taylor and The Beatles have included it on their latest LP "With The Beatles" on Parlophone.

Another American number being revived is "You Really Got A Hold On Me" which was recorded by The Miracles and released on Oriole. Although big in the States it never got away over here but now two cover versions have hit the British counters Cliff Bennett And The Rebel Rousers on Parlophone and The Gamblers on Decca. This, too, is a track on the Beatles' new album "With The Beatles."

Lenny Peters, blind musician and singer, has been signed to a long term contract by Oriole Records, which has just issued his debut disk "And My Heart Cried" published by Ambassador Music.

The old spiritual "Go Tell It On A Mountain" has been brought up to date by The Classmates, who have recorded their version on Decca. Associated Rediffusion were inundated with requests for a commercial recording of the number after the group had sung it on their "Our Man At St. Marks" serial. Copyright is owned by K.P.M. Music.

Frankie Vaughan makes a return visit to Copenhagen at the end of the month for two concerts at the K. B. Hall. He will also appear on TV with Danish recording star Bent Fabric and make TV appearances in Stockholm and Oslo.

Noel Howard-Jones, general manager of Robert Stigwood International Ltd., currently in New York and Chicago on a ten day visit for conferences with Vee-Jay whose artists it represents in Europe.

Quickies: Scottish singer Andy Stewart just returned from an extensive tour of the Far East tele-recorded a BBC show for screening on St. Andrews Night (30th November). . . . Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Levy (Oriole Records) who have just celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary. . . . Manfred Mann r&b group waxed "Cock-A-Hoop" on Pye. . . . Johnny Duncan and the Kingpins cover "The Ballad Of Jed Clampett" on Columbia. . . . Decca released 39 EPs in one week. . . . Art Lund arrived in Britain to play lead in "No Strings." . . . Oriole reports excellent advance on latest Spotnicks waxing "Sailor's Hornpipe." . . . Songwriter Buddy Kaye in town for two-week visit. . . . New James Darren on Colpix "Back Stage." . . . Over a million copies of RCA's "South Pacific" album have been sold bringing a ray of sunshine into one in eighteen British homes.

AUSTRALIA

Our article on singles of two weeks back has brought in some interesting replies, including one from Jack Argent of the Leeds Music publishing group. Jack believes the sentiments expressed in the article must be accepted by the entire industry. There is a general belief here that part of the problem stems from the fact that many leading radio stations are rush importing potential hit singles from the United States and England and exposing them the minute they are received, the net result being that some hit market is created and record companies are loath to miss out so they release quickly any new record that stands any chance. For quite a time now there has been a feeling in the trade that the solution is for the Australian Federation of Commercial Broadcasting Stations to suggest that member stations refrain from playing any record not locally released. This practice apparently exists in other countries and works quite successfully for both radio and the music industry. Attempts have been made to achieve this in Australia before but it hasn't worked out. On the matter of "middle of the road" singles, Jack Argent believes that the only answer is a complete and thorough survey of the market. He feels that it is hard to imagine the same consumer buying things like "Painted Tainted Rose" and "Maria Elena" along with records such as "Wipe Out," "Shake Baby Shake" or "Hangin' Five." Then again would these same people buy a semi-religious hit like "Royal Telephone" or a jazz-slanted single like "Washington Square"? Jack Argent—one of the most respected publishing authorities in the business—is of the opinion that unless a market survey is made, record companies have no alternative but to grope in the dark and churn out a mass of singles to try to cover the whole area of the possible singles market. Most people who have remarked on the editorial in question were definitely of the opinion that far too many singles are released in Australia.

Famous English born movie star Diana Dors is in Australia for a cabaret season for some of our leading hotels. Miss Dors is appearing on the same bill as Johnny Lockwood, who is returning to the cabaret scene after two years of playing Fagan in the musical "Oliver!"

EMI has launched the Encore label throughout Australia with an initial release comprising 18 albums at the very low price (retail) of 29/6d. each. In its release notice EMI advised dealers that the low price is made possible by the use of attractive standard type packaging. The first issue of the Encore label covers a wide range of top quality performances from operatic arias to Victor Sylvester, Russ Conway, Gracie Fields and selections from the movie "Hit The Deck."

John Laws, one of Australia's most prominent disk jockeys, is now on a tour of the United States. John plans to visit most leading record companies, music publishers and radio and television stations. A move is also being made to have John Laws do some disk jockey shows for a leading station in Los Angeles. We know that the hand of friendship will be extended to John no matter where he travels in the United States.

Alan Heffernan, who for many years was closely associated with the late Lee Gordon during some of the biggest and most exciting shows ever seen in Australia, has opened "Surf Centre" at Earl's Court in Melbourne. Alan has big plans for this venture and arrangements have already been completed to use most of Australia's leading stars at the centre, which will operate every night of the week.

Belinda Music (Australia) Pty. Ltd. and associated companies and Woomera Music Pty. Ltd. (the publishing house of W & G Records) have announced the conclusion of a new agreement whereby original works obtained by either in their respective areas may be submitted to the other for recording consideration and where records result through these activities, the copyrights will be shared by the two houses. This is a great step forward in the breaking of the "Iron Curtain" which is so often all too evident between Sydney and Melbourne. The move is a matter of great satisfaction to Ron Gillespie (Woomera Music) and Norman Whiteley (Belinda Music) who negotiated this new kind of alliance which can be of tremendous help to Australian writers and artists.

American publisher Howard S. Richmond was in Australia recently visiting with Roy Farr from the Essex music group. Unfortunately, Howard was confined to his hotel for a great deal of his time with a spine ailment. It is known that Richmond was quite excited about the Australian scene and sees great potential here. We all hope your health has improved Howie and that you'll come again. Incidentally, Roy Farr is doing well with a nice batch of hits and has signed an agreement with MCA for the operation of their music interests in Australasia.

Essex Music advises that the broadcasting restriction on the successful show "Stop The World—I Wanna Get Off" is lifted as of December 1. The show is expected to open in this country early in the New Year.

Cash Box had a nice letter recently from Al Martino, who is now back home following a very successful hotel appearance season in Australia. Al is currently riding our best seller list with two sides "Living A Lie" and "Painted Tainted Rose."

In a further expansion of their move into the local recording field, Australian Record Co. are out with a new single (on CBS) by a new group, The Telstars. Their new single carries "Blackout" c/w "Board Walk."

"I'll Sail My Ship Alone" is the title of the new single released by Festival for Patsy Cline, the coupling is "When You Need A Laugh." The disk should do well here because the late Patsy Cline has a great number of loyal fans in this country. Another interesting single through the Festival group (on the Leeton label) is "She Is The One Girl For Me" by Lonnie Lee. The song is based on the theme from the highly rated new film epic "The Great Escape." A huge promotion plan for the single is planned in association with the screening of the film in Australia.

The highly controversial (in the United States) 20th Century-Fox label single "Now" by Lena Horne has been rush-released here through the Festival group. While it is a fact that we have no integration problems in this country, most Australians are well aware of the situation in America as a result of wide press, radio and television news coverage of the scene in the United States.

ARGENTINA

It seems that Palito Ortega has done it again! His new waxing, "Deci Por Que No Queres," is getting very interesting sales reports from the retailers, following the success of "Despeinada" and his previous hits, "Media Novia," "Dejala Dejala" and several others. Palito's career, since its start about two years ago, shows one of the highest percentages of chart riders (compared with all his releases) of the record industry in Argentina. Besides, now his own tunes (he composes most of his own waxings) are recorded by other local artists: "Deci . . ." ya six other versions, and seems to be on the way to the top of the charts. Ortega will travel to Spain early in 1964, and has several propositions from other countries; he is currently appearing on RCA's "Club Del Clan" TV'er, on Channel 13.

Regarding Ortega, Julio Korn Publishers informs that it has received notices of several recordings of his songs, made in Spain. The artists and labels are Carlos Romano ("Zafiro") and Raymond ("Regal"), who cut "Media Novia"; "Rafael Mendoza y Los Big Boys" (Polydor), Los Siete de Oro (Odeon) and Gelu (RCA) have cut "Bienvenido Amor"; Los Xochimilcas from Mexico have waxed "Despeinada," which was still number one in the Mexico charts this week.

Federico Tortone of Serenata informs about several new releases by his label. Recently inked lark Esther Melfi has cut "Acuarela Del Rio," "Que Lo Diga Dios," "Cuando Estemos Solos" and "Correntada." Esther will be strongly promoted by the label, through radio and TV. Tango director Armando Pontier has cut two tunes dedicated to football (soccer) team River Plate, and also has recorded an EP containing "Nuestras Cosas," "El Tigre," "Para El Recuerdo" and "Tabaco."

News from CBS: tango singer Julio Sosa has finished his fifth LP for the label, supported by Leopoldo Federico's orchestra. Some of the titles are "Que Me Van A Hablar De Amor," "Nunca Tuvo Novio" and "Calor De Hogar," all promoted through Sosa's appearances on TV 13 in the "Tango Cocktail" program. The label plans to release the second single by Sandro, artist recently inked; the first one was "You're The Devil In Disguise." Los Teen Agers, artists from the province of Cordoba, have also a new title in the market: "Dime Por Que" and "Buenas Fiestas." Ricardo Roda is currently performing on TV 13, in the "Ritmo y Juventud" program: his latest single is "Que Hago Con El Latin."

Odeon is releasing an album by Brazilian Artist Gilda Lopes, with several Brazilian and international hits, like "El Arlequin De Toledo," "Non, Je Ne Regrette Rien," "Quiero Paz" and "Nata Per Me." Other Odeon outings are "Esos Locos Dias De Verano" by local artist Danielo, "Que Falta Que Me Haces" by Miguel Montero and "Mi Malacara Y Yo" by Alfredo de Angelis. There are also singles by Jan y Dean (Liberty); "Honolulu Lulu," The Beach Boys (Capitol); "Surfer Girl," and Frank Pourcel (Odeon); "Ma Chanson Est Pour Toi." The label is preparing the release of the first The Beatles records; next week we'll report about the first titles to be marketed.

Mauricio Brenner of Fermata informs about the promotion of "The Night Has A Thousand Eyes": it has been cut by Los Tammys (Philips) and Johnny Carrel (CBS); Los Tammys will also cut "Bailemos Surfing." Juan Ramon (Disc Jockey) will wax "Se Mi Voui Lasciare," "Se Mi Perderai" and "Te Guardare En Mi Corazon." This one is the main title from Mondo Cane." Los Trovadores del Norte (CBS) have cut "Cautiva Del Rio," written by Anibal Sampayo.

Microfon is releasing a new single by Jackie Wilson: "Shake A Hand" b/w "Say I Do." Now under promotion are "Rock Y Baladas" and "Rock Y Hits," recorded by several Cadence artists, as we reported previously. On the local side, the label is going to release a new album by Cholo Aguirre, containing the latest folk hits and several new tunes penned by himself.

Producciones Fermata is promoting the album with the soundtrack music from "Mondo Cane," recorded by Riz Ortolani for the Cam label in Italy. Mauricio Brenner considers that "More," from this album, is one of the best tunes of recent times, and hopes it will reach the charts very soon.

Disc Jockey plans to launch a new teen artist from the province of Salta, named Tony Ruiz. Ruiz is also a composer, and his first recording will be "Dolly Peggy." DJ has also inked La Sonora Veracruz, a tropical music combo; its first waxing will be "La Pachanguera," penned by Oscar Anderle.

Anibal Alverdi from Music Hall informs that Rodolfo Zapata is appearing in "Brahunda," a musical TV'er aired by Channel 7 Thursday evenings. Other artists in this program are Fabianna Fabian, Rafael Hidalgo and Los Nocturnos. Hector Vrela will perform all December on radio, via the Glostora Tango Club, on LRI.

MEXICO

Harold Geller, BBC Orchestra conductor (London) and owner of Lynn music publishers, came to Mexico to interchange ideas with Mario Freidberg, Disco Importadora general manager. Mario was recently elected director of public relations of the Mexican Association of Record Producers.

Ready to appear at "Terrazza Cassino" night club are the vocal group The Platters, who are taking the place of Carmen Cavallero, who performed successfully for ten days. The Platters will release in Mexico two new long plays: one on which they sing Spanish songs like "Brazil," "Only You" "Siboney," "Amor," "Twilight Time" and others. On the other Platters album, there are Christmas songs like "Jingle Bells," "Christmas Time," "Silent Night," "Holy Night," "White Christmas," etc.

Italian singer Emilio Pericoli arrived to the Mexican capital and immediately were presented at "Estudio De Pedros Vargas" TV show. Emilio decided to record several new songs in Spanish.

Under the name of "El show de los frenéticos," RCA has an album with songs like "Devil In Disguise," "Along Vacations," "I Will Follow Him," "I Am Pop-eye The Sailor Man," "Bat Masterson," "Despeinada," "Tequila Con Limón" and others, sung by artists like Palito Ortega, Los Matemáticos, Pily Gaos, Los Jets, Los Sinners, Los Intocables and Emily Cran.

At the reopening of the night club Señorial appeared for the first time in Mexico, singer Eartha Kitt, who received a big promotion before her performance. Eartha sings several songs in Spanish. A flick starring César Costa, Patricia Conde and Oscar Madrigal is showing in several theaters of the country. "Dile que la quiero" (Tell Laura I Love Her), is the name and the artists sing songs like "Fever," "Tell Laura I Love Her," "Walk Right In" and others.

RCA Victor released a sensational single with 28 guitars and voices singing our traditional song "Las Mañanitas."

Folk singer Maria de Lourdes will leave town to start a tour of the Orient, performing first in Indonesia as special guest of President Sukarno. After that, Maria will be presented in Tokyo and finally in Hong Kong.

Italian singer Lorenza Lori is having a wonderful acceptance with a new RCA single which includes the songs "All The Boys And Girls" and "Chiao." Lorenza will appear with her first long play recorded in Mexico in the Reader's Digest promotion.

Chico O'Farrill, the best arranger in Mexico, released a new long play for CBS on which he includes, in tropical rhythm, songs like "Tu Solo Tu," "Echame A Mi La Culpa," "La Feria De Las Flores," "Cucurrucecu Paloma," "Llegó Borracho El Borracho" and others.

Luis Arcaraz Jr. (son of the late famous composer and orchestra conductor) is performing with his father's band, and signed a contract with RCA, the label on which he made his first recording, "Sortilegio" on which he also sings.

DUSA company released on the Philips label a wonderful album with the duet The Blue Diamonds, singing old standards like "In A Little Spanish Town," "Bye Bye Blackbird," "Vaya Con Dios," "Baby Face," "Margie," "Isle Of Capri" and others. And speaking about DUSA, it is having big sales with the two extended plays released with the music from the Spanish picture "Canción de juventud" (Youth Song) sung by beautiful actress Rocío Dúrcal, who in a few weeks has become a new favorite of the Mexican public.

Mexican trio Los Montejo signed a contract to perform in several places of Los Angeles, the city that has a considerable Mexican population. Los Montejo are considered one of the best singers of our southeast music.

From the international CBS catalog, we received the new recording pressed in Mexico, made by George Maharis, "Moon River" and "My Kind Of Girl" and with The Village Stompers the songs "Washington Square" and "Turkish Delight."

BRAZIL

CBS released a new collection of albums for November, with some hot numbers, like "S Rhythm," featuring Ray Conniff and Billy Butterfield. Several months ago, the other LP with the two top artists, entitled "S Different," went to the top of all lists of best-sellers. "Novamene Chick Tally" (Again Chick Tally), with the pianist Chick Tally and his rhythm group, in famous boleros. A solid dance package. "Juramento," presenting a new songster, José Barbosa, who's also an inspired composer. "Boleros Inesqueciveis" (Unforgettable Boleros), with Jorge Silva reading twelve all-time boleros, with Brazilian lyrics. "Pensando Em Voce," the return of Alcides Gerardi, consistent chart rider, responsible for a series of great hits. "Johnny Mathis," album in which CBS gathered a collection of the best renditions of Johnny Mathis, among them "Caravan," "My Funny Valentine" and many others. "Samba De Boite," with Conjunto CBS, rhythm group in the "nightclub style."

After several attempts, Agnaldo Rayol—a real good singer, with a strong and romantic voice—is on top of our best-sellers' lists. The disk responsible for this victory, is "Acorrentados"—a bolero by Carlos Briz, with Brazilian lyrics by J. Miranda and Genival Melo. In less than a month, the standard is in second place in Sao Paulo and in third among Brazilian best sellers.

VS Records released its first LP. The album is entitled "Os Imortais" (The Immortals), with Rogerio Duprat and His Orchestra, playing in the "bossa nova" style, some classical music, including the overture of "O Guarany," Brazilian opera by Antonio Carlos Gomes. Good arrangements and correct interpretations.

Waldemar Roberto, Chantecler's exclusive artists, went to the United States to invite Frank Sinatra, in the name of Sao Paulo's Government, for a tour in Brazil, sponsored by Mrs. Adhemar de Barros, president of Brazilian Charity Institutions.

Luiz Bordon, Paraguayan harpist, living for many years in Brazil, was inked for two more years by Chantecler Records. Bordon is an ever-present artist on our charts.

Chantecler Records released a new collection of albums. Ely Carmargo, for the third time, waxed "Canções De Minna Terra" (Songs Of My Country) a good selection of folk songs, with guitar accompaniment by the talented Professor Paulo Barreiros. "Mágoas De Um Chorao" (Sorrows Of A Weeper), featuring sax solos, in the old style of Brazilian romantic music, by Domingos Pecci. "Biriba Boys No. 4"—with the Biriba Boys, group of nine musicians, very popular in Sao Paulo for the dancing style of their interpretations. In this album, the Biriba Boys rendered a series of current hits.

RCA completed the November releases with two LPs. "More The Ventures," with this very popular group, doing "More," the great International hit, and many others, like "Sukiyaki," "Let's Go," "Runaway," etc. "30 Anos De Sucesso" (Thirty Years Of Success), with the vet songster Vicente Celestino. The title refers to the time that Vicente Celestino has been recording for RCA, because his career really began in 1915, when he recorded his first 78 rpm. Celestino is undoubtedly an idol of the Brazilian public and this album is the recognition of an entire life dedicated to the Brazilian popular music.

Sarita Montiel, the Spanish artist, is now in Sao Paulo, doing a show in the Record Theater and TV Record, Channel 7. The lovely Spanish songstress is obtaining a great success.

Brazilian Record Companies are now preparing, for prompt release, their productions concerning Christmas Festivities. Some have already released some records, but only in the first days of December, the retail stores will be able to present them to the public. At the same time, these Companies are selecting and pressing the first Carnival Hits for 1964, because the three days dedicated to King Momo, will be in the beginning of February. Philips waxed already two albums, "Carnaval" volumes 1 and 2, with 24 carnival marches and sambas, sung by the entire Brazilian cast of the label.

Juca Chaves, Brazilian composer and singer, is in Lisbon, on his first tour of Europe. The Portuguese public welcomed him with the warm and kind sympathy that is a tradition of the Portuguese audiences. Juca is very well known for his political caricatures in music and, oddly enough, on the other hand, by his romantic "modinhas," a style of Brazilian madrigals, which he explores with intelligence and good taste.

Odeon Records has issued a big collection of Nov.-Dec. albums. There are 16 entries, including local product, Xmas albums and dates from abroad, including such attractions as the 101 Strings, Stan Getz-Luiz Bonfá, Ray Anthony, Rolf Harris, Frank Ifield, Nat King Cole and others.

GERMANY

Work has already begun for the 4th German Pop Music Festival. Instructions for entering the contest have been sent to composers and lyric writers as well as press men all over the country. Here are some of the basic rules. Each lyric writer and composer who is either a German citizen or has lived in Germany for 10 years can enter. Each writer may send in 5 songs or lyrics or any combination. The writers must send in lead sheets and simple demos on tape or on record. The songs must not have been recorded or played anywhere. It costs 100 Dm (25 dollars) to enter each song and the monies received go to defray the costs of the festival. 18 songs will be chosen by a jury and presented on TV with the artists who record them on the 9th of May, 1964. 12 songs will be chosen for the finals to be held in Baden-Baden on June 13, 1964. The show will be televised and the program will also be offered to Eurovision for European wide viewing. The winner of 2 years ago "Zwei Kleine Italianer" (Two Little Italians) went on to sell over a million records and last year's winner "Ich Will 'Nen Cowboy Als Mann" (I Want To Marry A Cowboy) has passed the 1/2 million mark in sales. It's an important contest and certainly a proving ground for new writing talent here in Germany.

Karlheinz Busse reports that he has taken over film star Elke Sommer for records and has produced the first goodie for Philips here. Elke has also recorded the same songs in Italian and the waxing has already been released in Italy. Karlheinz has also recorded Italian star Betty Curtis for his Italia label distributed by Metronome here. He's ridin' high at present with "Slop In Capri" by Peppino Di Capri which entered the top 10 a few weeks ago.

Peter Rebhuhn of Rolf Budde Music reports that the firm is going great guns with the song "Blowing in the Wind" which has been done in German by Peter, Paul and Mary and a new waxing is now out by Marlene Dietrich for Electrola. Budde Music also has the flip side of the Dietrich record, a German recording of "Puff" (The Magic Dragon).

August Seith of Seith and Chappell Music reports top action with a new German waxing by The Medium Terzett and the German recordings by The New Christy Minstrels of "Green Green," two new German sides by Little Peggy March and "I Love You" (And Don't You Forget It) by Caterina Valente and Sylvio Francesco. New hits for the firm include goodies by Gerhard Wendland, a German version of "Take These Chains From My Heart" by Heid Bruhl, "Pick Up The Pieces" by Peter Beil, "Sweeter Than Honey" by Gisela Marell, "Blue Velvet" by Wyn Hoop and "Fools Rush In" by The Ricky Boys. The firm also has two top hits with "Washington Square" and "Witchcraft" by Elvis Presley.

Electrola Records has put out a special publicity report on The Beatles who are beginning to sell very well here with their product. The firm reports that the Gitte waxing of "Ich Will 'Nen Cowboy Als Mann" (I Want To Marry A Cowboy) has passed the 500,000 mark in sales and 4 records. "Buona Notte" by Rocco Granata, "Vom Stadtpark Die Laternen" (The Lanterns In The City Park) by Rex Gildo and Gitte, "Mitsosu" with Jacqueline Boyer and "Rote Lippen Soll Mann Kuessen" (Lucky Lips) have all passed the 250,000 mark.

Deutsche Grammophon reports that MGM will be releasing 7 classical LP's in March and also 7 in April of 1964. The LP's include new recordings by such favorites as the Berlin Philharmonic under the direction of Herbert Von Karajan doing the Beethoven Symphonies and many others. The new press and public relations man for Edition Marbot, Bert Varell reports that the French tune "Une Clarie De Lune A Maubeuge" is getting a second trip around and looks like it will be greater and bigger than ever due to the fine new waxing by Mr. Acker Bilk under the title "Moonlight Tango." The record is already in the top 30 in Germany.

Two good Columbia singles hold the new release spotlight at this writing. Both are by Canadians. The first is one of the most commercial narration pieces to be heard in some time. It's a case of producer turning artist, as the well known Columbia man in Nashville, Frank Jones makes his disk debut with this item entitled, "The Picture." Although it's not exactly aimed at the Xmas market, the religious nature and the appeal that is always created by a kiddy story line will make it a good sales item during this Christmas season. Frank, although now a leading light in the record industry, worldwide, through his production efforts with Columbia team mate Don Law, is a Canadian, and an ex-deejay. His warm delivery of the narration on this Columbia side will establish him as an entertainer as well as producer. The second Columbia side of special interest to Canadians, marks the disk debut of beautiful Denyse Ange. This lovely young Canadian entertainer has appeared on numerous TV shows in both the U.S. and Canada, and is constantly in demand for P.A.'s. Her Columbia waxing of a catchy tune called "March Of The Angels" may carry her onto the country's hit charts in short order. It's a bouncy, and very commercial item, that carries the production signatures of Jones and Law from Nashville. Part of the tune is sung in French. She deserves to have a big hit, and this new Columbia side could well be it for pert 'n pretty Denyse. Frank tells me that the Columbia people have high hopes for their latest outing, spotlighting the talents of a Canadian.

New sides from Mercury feature some of the biggest names in C&W hit circles of late. Although the artists are big names in the C&W field, their latest outings, in two instances Mercury debuts, are aimed at pop markets as well. Dave Dudley debuts on the label with, "Last Day In The Mines," while Roy Drusky appears on the label for the first time with a cutie entitled, "Peel Me A Nanner." The Drusky outing was penned by "Mr. Hit," Bill Anderson. Also expected to garner a full share of air time is a new Mercury side by Rex Allen, "Tear After Tear."

Newest Canadian talent to be recorded by the Quality Record people is a young Regina gal, fifteen year old Loreen Church. George Struth figures her Barry debut, "That's What You Do," to make a good impression in the sales columns across the Country.

A couple of the best sides in a long time turned up recently on a new Reprise outing by Alex Zanetis. He's the same fellow who has a truck load of composer credits to his name. His song writing efforts include such biggies as, "I'm Gonna Change Everything," "Guilty," and "Snap Your Fingers." "Why Leave Something I Can't Use" seems to be the money side of the new Zanetis release, but don't overlook the flip, entitled, "Speak To Me." Jim Reeves is doing considerable promotion on behalf of the cleffer turned singer, and we are inclined to agree with Jim that the good session by Alex Zanetis "deserves its rightful place on everybody's hit parade."

Good deejay reaction has been noted in several Canadian markets to the newbie on Columbia by Doris Day. It's the title song from her new movie, "Move Over Darling." It won immediate favour with CKOY-Ottawa's Ted Daigle and also appears on the (11/25) CJSP-Leamington chart. Excellent ballad this time out for Doris.

Young entertainer from Sherbrooke, Quebec represented on a good new Arc release. He is Jimmy James, host of a regular TV seg in his hometown. His good side on Arc is "In The Middle Of A Dream." It's an item that top pop as well as smooth deejays will like. It's the English translation of one of the best selling French singles in some time by Petula Clark. John Porteous is pushing hard to get Jimmy's good outing onto turntables across the nation. It's a good commercial swinger.

Morty Craft is making some chart noise with a new waxing on Regency of the one time sales giant, "Wheels." The original version by The String A Longs was a blockbuster in numerous Canadian markets, and the Craft updating of the tune could happen all over again. Already it is showing well on pick lists at CKOY-Vancouver.

CHUM-Toronto is getting tremendous action for a great RCA Victor side by The Anita Kerr Singers, "Waitin' For The Evenin' Train," (see lead CB-Canada, 10/26) It is far and away one of the smoothest sounds on record in these many months. Another version of the side is also getting some deejay attention. It is the waxing of the good tune from "Jennie" by The Buffalo Bills on Warner Bros.

Top Xmas item for the teen market will be the newbie by Paul and Paula. Expect "Holiday Hootenanny" to be a Xmas biggie this year. Another top Xmas attraction is out on Mercury by Johnny Mathis. It pairs "The Little Drummer Boy" with "Have Reindeer Will Travel." Solid single sellers out on Quality currently are: "You Don't Have To Be A Baby To Cry," on Mercury by The Caravelles. The Singing Nun continues to be the hottest act on the record scene this year, as "Dominique" smashes sales record after sales record over at Quality.

The Connie Francis French language recording "Danke Schoen" is rapidly developing into a strong seller in this country, indicates Quality's Lee Farley. Meanwhile, the 20th Century Fox release of Lena Horne's "Now!" is awaited with interest by Canadian spinners. The controversy inspired by the side, south of the border probably won't occur here, but only time will tell. Those Canadian spinners who have heard the side on American stations that are playing it seem to feel that it is anything but objectionable. "That Boy John" shows signs of becoming a top ten item in short order. The good side by The Raindrops is just nicely getting underway in this country, but if early reaction means anything it'll be a chart topper in double quick time.

Good deejay reaction noted to the new Nina Simone single on Colpix. "Little Liza Jane" has that winning sound.

Red Roberts is very excited about the good reception from dealers and deejays alike to the new LP sets by Brenda Lee and Ricky Nelson. They'll be big sellers during the Xmas season for sure.

Paul White indicates that Capitol has rushed an album by The Beatles into production. This is one of the most talked about record acts in Europe. The reaction to the British stars there is something akin to the reaction to Elvis Presley when he first swivel-hipped his way onto the North American record scene some years ago—and then some. Paul says that the LP, from EMI in Great Britain, has stacked up 280,000 advance orders in that country, and gives every indication of being a sky rocket on the Canadian sales scene, soon. Hot single by the group currently is "She Loves You." It gets additional air play daily as the fad now described as "Beatlemania" spreads.

Deejay Dave Palmer from Saskatoon's CKOM indicates that the recent (11/13) "CKOM Fall Cavalcade of Stars" in that city's arena was a complete smash. Headlining the event were: Bobby Vinton, The Rivingtons, The Crystals and Bobby Comstock and The Counts. "There! I've Said It Again," the new Bobby Vinton single, was played first in Canada, according to deejay Palmer, on his show as Vinton guested with him on CKOM.

CKY-Winnipeg reports "Drip Drop" by Dion DiMucci to be among the station's hottest singles currently, chalking up big chart gains every week. The Winnipeg powerhouse also reports good action on the Anita Kerr release, "Waitin' For The Evenin' Train."

HOLLAND

Spanish soprano Victoria de Los Angeles, heard on His Master's Voice, appeared in concert and song-recitals both in Amsterdam (with The Concertgebouw Orchestra) and The Hague from Nov. 20-29. Dealers were supplied with advertising material and additional information.

Bovema's president Gerry Oord and his son Gerry Oord Jr. paid a working-visit to the United States starting Tuesday, Nov. 12.

Two Dutch versions of German hits provide as a recording comeback for vocalist Annie de Reuver. Imperial hits the stands with her "Cigarettes" and "Waarom Kan Liefde Zo Wreed Zijn."

Holland is still going mad for Eddie Cochran disks. Gramophonehouse's Liberty-label released Cochran's "Drive In Show" and "I Almost Lost My Mind."

Every Wednesday and Friday-afternoon Bovema's own radio show is on the air on Radio "Veronica." The program contains the latest hits of the week.

Hans Tecker, label-manager for classical Decca-repertoire in Holland, told Cash Box that he was very satisfied with the first selling-results of Decca's new production "Carmen." Sales in mono and stereo during the first few weeks after release have surpassed expectations already. The new Carmen features Regina Resnik, Mario del Monaco as Don José, the Finnish baritone Tom Krause as Escamillo, and Joan Sutherland as Micaela. The young, most promising conductor Thomas Schippers of the United States leads the Suisse Romande Orchestra. Illustrations are by the famous French painter Bernard Buffet. Together with Britten's "War Requiem," the production of "Carmen" is considered here as being the highest sales-potential Deccaset of the second half of 1963.

John Ros of Phonogram reported that Dutch Decca will release a recording here of The Willis Brothers. The three Willis Bros. were featured in the "Hootenanny Show," promoted by Connie Gay, in the Amsterdam RAI-building as part of the American Food Exhibition in Holland. The Show was broadcast via Dutch TV. Another prominent feature of the Hootenanny Show is Monument's Bobbie Staff, 18 year old girl vocalist who is getting a great deal of the applause.

Erroll Garner, whose Octave recordings are released here via Philips' Phonographic Industries, was special guest-star on Saturday, Nov. 9 in Amsterdam, to play at a Benefit Concert in behalf of the people who have outlived the earth-quake that destroyed the city of Dousadj in Persia. The Dutch Princess Beatrix has taken up the task to look after the interests of Dousadj's rebuilding (the city will be re-named "Beatrix") and collect the necessary funds of which this Benefit Concert was a part. So it happened that Erroll Garner played for the Dutch Princess. A few days later, Erroll Garner was special guest-star again in a TV show, entitled "Scala." During the Show, he was introduced to Jack Bulterman, well-known arranger and composer of popular music in Holland, and for many decades the important man behind young talent. To the pleasure of all present. Erroll Garner's quick-witted musical mind improvised on a jazzy composition by Jack Bulterman, entitled "Liza." Also during Mr. Garner's stay in Holland, the film "A New Kind Of Love" was shown to representatives of the Dutch Press. The movie, for which Erroll Garner wrote the music, will be premiered in Holland this winter.

There is a tremendous interest for the RCA top hit "Maria Elena" by Los Indios Tabajaras in the Netherlands. Firm expects that this single will take a very good position on the Dutch Hit parade. Back at his swinging beat best is Elvis Presley with his latest release: "Bossa Nova Baby"—"Witchcraft." Also very much liked and appreciated by the Dutch teenagers is Bobby Bare with his "500 Miles Away From Home" Little Peggy March made her first single in the German language: "Bobby Küsst Wunderbar." Dutch RCA artists also released some very successful singles: Eddy Denver with "Donna"—"Say Mama" and The Black Arrows with "Mr. Molto"—"Candy Dancer." Very popular at the present in Holland is the Italian teenager music. Italy's teenager star No. 1, Rita Pavone, appeared on the record-market with "Wenn Ich Ein Junge Wäre" (If I Were A Boy)—"Okay—Okay." Michele's "Se Mi Vuoi Lasciare"—"Cosa Vuoi De Me," and Nico Fidenco's "Goccia Di Mare"—"Se Mi Perderai" are doing very well, as well as Rita Pavone's "Il Ballo Del Mattone," which is noted near top-score!

Last week Sunday the biggest German Show that ever visited Holland, was presented by Paul Acket in Nijmegen and Valkenburg. Appearing on the show were Gitte, Rex Gildo, Fred Bertlemann, Manuela, Rainer Bertram, Ann Louise Hanson, Grit van Hoog, Carlos Otero, Nora Nova, Mike Roger, Mats Bahr, Ken Morris and as special guests Joey Dee and the Starlighters.

Also last Sunday the Chris Barber Jazz Band made a concert in the Hague, promoted by Paul Acket. This was the first Barber-concert in Holland in 3½ years. Same impresario will present on Jan. 4 the Max Roach Quintet, Cannonball Adderley Sextet (February), Thelonious Monk (March 6), and Ella Fitzgerald plus Oscar Peterson Trio plus Roy Eldridge Quintet (April).

The Gordy-Motown-Tamla line, released by Artone's subsid Funckler Records, is definitely breaking through in The Benelux. Such current releases as "Mickey's Monkey" by The Miracles, "Heat Wave" by Martha & The Vandellas and "La La La" by Little Stevie Wonder (lifted from his "12 Year Old Genius" Album) are doing fine, especially in the city-areas.

Strongly promoted in each town where the flick is playing, the original Colpix soundtrack album of "Lawrence Of Arabia," released by Funkler, is rapidly becoming standard catalog material. Sound proof that a well directed picture-platter tie-up can be highly effective.

Seeburg Mobile Demonstration Studio Team Helps Place 750th LP Console

J. D. Cooper, leading Texas operator, says: "With Seeburg LP Consoles and Consolettes we have been able to put locations on a more favorable commission arrangement. Seeburg equipment creates the location demand and the player appeal . . . the Mobile Studio helps us prove it."

A Seeburg Mobile Demonstration Studio working closely with music operators in Texas and nearby states has carried directly to locations a convincing demonstration of the Seeburg LP Console and Stereo Consolettes.

And it has helped these operators secure more profitable commission arrangements.

Says J. D. Cooper, owner of Cooper Amusement Co., Houston, an operator for 18 years, "It's easy to understand why the Mobile Studio that worked with my locations has been so successful. Location owners see and hear for themselves, without interference or interruption, what enormous player appeal Seeburg equipment has.

"The Houston area has been plagued with unprofitable location leasing arrangements. With the LP Console system we have been able to get locations off rentals and onto profitable commission arrangements."

Cooper has completed the installation of 34 LP Consoles and 87 Stereo Consolettes in 60 days. Herb Christopher, Houston, whose La Riviera Lounge now has a new LP Console and Consolette installation, says the whole demonstration took no more than 15 minutes. "It's the finest phonograph I've ever seen. I'm happy to have it in my spot."

MUSIC FOR PROFITABLE PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT

JOHN F. KENNEDY 1917 - 1963

The unfortunate mechanics of publishing a weekly magazine make somewhat belated the following words about our late President, John F. Kennedy.

But, the shock, and, more so, the tragedy of his untimely death and the quality of his leadership require our expression at this time. While the period of official mourning draws to a close, all of us who were witnesses to this event will carry the dark deed of his death for the rest of our lives. And, hopefully, carry and convey to those generations to come the high character and purpose of the man.

The staff of Cash Box extends deep sympathy to the family of President John F. Kennedy.

To our new President, Lyndon B. Johnson, who must now undertake the awesome responsibilities of the office, go our prayers for guidance in the difficult days ahead.

45th Parks Show Opens In Chicago's Sherman House

■ 10 Coin-Vending Firms Exhibiting

SHERMAN HOTEL, CHICAGO — Close to 6,000 visitors were expected to attend the 45th Annual National Parks Show which was scheduled to open here Sunday, December 1, and continue through December 4, according to International Association of Amusement Parks, Pools and Beaches. More than 100 exhibitors will display equipment and merchandise. On hand representing the coin-operated segment of the industry will be the J. F. Frantz Mfg. Corp., exhibiting counter games; Gold Medal Products, popcorn machines, popcorn, and a new hosiery machine; International Mutoscope, exhibiting an automatic photo machine; Johnson Fare Box Co., coin counting equipment; Mike Munves Corporation, a new shoe shine machine, the Ingo Gripper, the Kissin' Kupids machine, and a horse ride; Philadelphia Toboggan, a skee ball game; Southland Engineering, the "Speedway" and "Time Trials" amusement machines; Standard-Harvard, a metal typer; and Victor Products and Urban Industries Inc. Cash Box copies will be made available to visitors.

Group business promotion with emphasis on more profitable operations will be an important part of the agenda for more than 6,000 representatives of amusement park, kiddieland, pool and beach, and recreation area owners and operators.

Robert E. Freed of Salt Lake City, president of the amusement park association, said latest available statistics show the breakdown for goods, equipment, services and refreshment sales in the growing market is $2.2 billion.

More than 100 exhibitors will display equipment and services for amusement parks, kiddie parks, carnivals, arcades and fairs ranging from new design in games and rides to a new plastic "pre-fab," gaily colored portable building that can be taken down and stored as a tent.

The keynote address of the convention will be delivered at 11:15 a.m., Monday, December 2nd, by Dr. R.C.S. Young, General Motors Corporation, Birmingham, Michigan.

John S. Bowman of Chicago, executive secretary of the International Association of Amusement Parks, said the formal business session of the convention will be held on late Monday forenoon, December 2nd, and it will be followed by several presentations including an address on vending machines.

John B. Kelly, Jr., the former Olympic sculling champion, a celebrity in his own right in addition to being brother of Princess Grace of Monaco, will be keynote speaker on Monday afternoon, Dec. 2, for the Pool and Beach Operator Session Program of the International Association of Swim Clubs, Pools and Beaches.

Kelly will speak on "Importance of Physical Fitness in Your Pool-Beach Program."

The six-foot, one inch, 200 pounder is national vice president of the Amateur Athletic Union, and resides in Philadelphia. He is president of the John B. Kelly, Inc., Masonary Contractors company.

Milton Metsky of Brookside Swim Club, Vauxhall, N.J., the program chairman, pointed out that the Pool and Beach sessions are open to both members and non-members of private-ly owned operations. John E. Philipps of Philipps Aquatic Club, Dayton, Ohio, will preside.

Pauline and Joe Orleck Proud Grandparents

NEW YORK—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Orleck, President and Publisher of Cash Box, became proud grandparents on November 19 when their daughter Arlene gave birth to a baby boy, Gary, at New York Hospital here. The parents, Arlene and Shelly Kronen, reside in Queens, N.Y.

Southland Exhibits From 4 Booths

■ 'Time Trials' Displayed

BUD LURIE

SANTA MONICA, CALIF. — Bud Lurie, Sales Manager of the Southland Engineering Corporation, manufacturers of kiddie rides and amusement machines here, left for the Parks Show in Chicago's Sherman Hotel last week. The firm will display a complete line of its coin-operated kiddie rides and the newest amusement machine—"Time Trials"—a competitive game requiring skill and based on a speed-time theory. It was not known whether the earlier hit—"Speedway" would be displayed. "Speedway" has a race car principle which pits two players against one another.

The firm's kiddie ride line has grown in acceptance with coin machine operators and business people outside of the industry entering the business for the first time. The Southland rides feature a selection of fiberglass bodies (frog, dinosaur, horse)—which can be interchanged on the same motor platform. The company will use four full exhibit booths to display equipment before the parks show convention.

Seeburg Leads Coin-Vending Stocks As Market Soars After Re-Opening

■ Up More Than 4 Points On Tuesday Trading

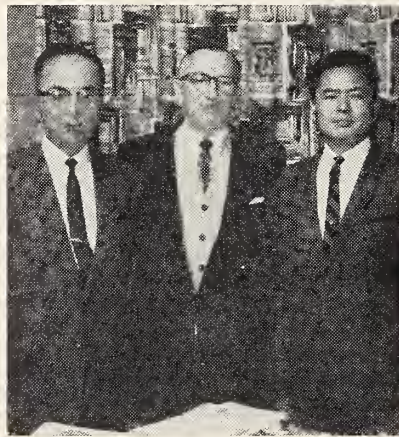

NEW YORK—The increase in stock prices traded across the major exchanges in the USA last week had some stocks of coin machine and vending firms linked with the gainers. When the market opened for the first time following the tragic death of President John F. Kennedy, orders placed with brokers over the weekend and during the closed holiday on Monday, brought about a surge when the ticker began almost one hour behind on Tuesday morning.

Biggest gains were made by The Seeburg Corporation whose stock price rose to 22, up 4%. Among the losers were Macke Vending down ½; American News, —¼; ARA —⅞. The stocks with increased selling prices following the market opening on Tuesday, but not including trading which took place on Wednesday or Friday, are as follows: ABC Vending up 1½ to 13½; American Automatic Vending from 5¼ to 5½; Interstate rose to 11½; Servomation up ⅜ to 19; SFC Financial Corp. up ½ to 14½; Vendo up 1 to 16; Wurlitzer off ¼ to a 16½ bid price; Canteen up ⅜ from 13; Universal Match up ⅛ to 14; and Estey Electronics down from 2¾ to 2 bid price on OTC exchange.

Before the assassination of the President, most of the vending stocks were selling close to their 1963 highs. At the news of the tragedy the entire market dropped. At the opening of the trading on Tuesday, however, as is seen above, most of the coin machine and vending stocks rebounded to former prices.

Cleveland Coin Visitors

CLEVELAND—One of the most aggressive coin machine operating companies in Japan today is the Sanya Trading Company of Yokohama. In addition to general operating routes, the firm specializes in servicing army camps throughout the area. Last week representatives of Sanya visited Cleveland to meet Morris Gisser, President of Cleveland Coin International, a leading export coin machine firm.

The visit was the first for both gentlemen, shown above with Gisser (center). The purpose of their trip was to discuss further expansion of Japan's import programs. They placed a substantial order with Cleveland Coin, according to Gisser.

The Japanese firm also distributes machines in Japan, and stated that they were impressed with the coin machine industry, as they have seen it, in this country. Both sales representatives anticipate a return to Gisser's exporting firm in March of next year.

Hold Shuffle Tourney

MANCHESTER, N.H.—The annual Moose Lucky 7 Shuffleboard Tournament was held November 16 and 17th at the Moose Temple in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. with teams from New England and New York State competing for top honors. Top honors were won by the Waltham Lodge of Waltham, Mass. team No. 2 and second place was won by the Bridgeport, Conn. Lodge. Third place was won by Norwich, N.Y. All games were played on American Shuffleboards furnished by Tri State Amusement Co. of Manchester, N.H.

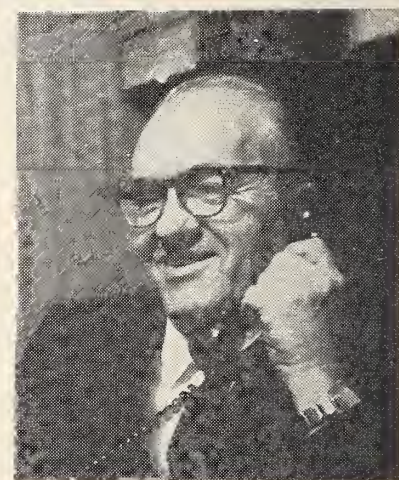

Munves Premieres New Shine Machine

NEW YORK—Joe Munves, Sales Manager of the Mike Munves Corporation, leading arcade machine distributors here, left for Chicago's Sherman Hotel last week to display before an expected 6000 conventioners a new coin-operated shoe shine machine called "Kwik-Shine."

According to company officials, the machine features a one-piece tamper proof metal body, with horsehair brushes which do not require washing or cleaning. The brushes apply a neutral wax polish to brown or black shoes. Cotton buffers shine the shoe via a ¼ h.p. motor. The shine takes two minutes. The machine can be pre-set.

Included in the machine is a coin counter, according to Dick Greenberg, a Munves employee.

Greenburg advised Cash Box that in addition to the shoe shine unit, Munves will have on exhibit, the following machines: "Kissin' Kupids;" "Ingo Gripper;" a new postage vendor; and possibly a talking horse which was in the final stages of production last week. The Munves catalog, a fixture at each Parks Show will be distributed to visitors.

CMMA Makes First Payment On $1500 Pledge To MOA

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA—Checks drawn on individual and association accounts continued to find their way into MOA coffers last week with George Miller, President of CMMA here advising Cash Box that a check in the amount of $600, as part payment toward an earlier $1500 pledge, was mailed to Lou Casola, President of the Music Operators of America whose main office is in Chicago.

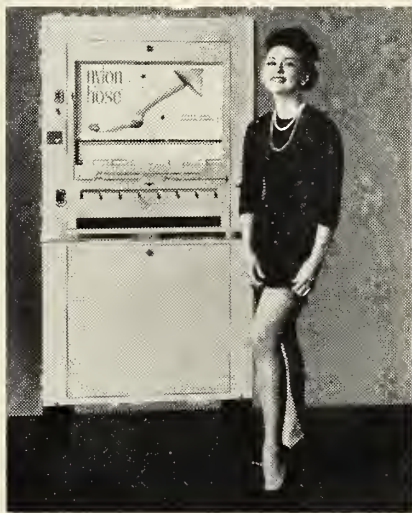

The check, according to Miller, is to help support MOA battle against adverse legislation served up on a national level. Miller believes the national fund should be of a sizeable amount to negate periodic requests for funds whenever legislation detrimental to the industry comes about.

Miller said that it is the duty of every individual to support the national association as it is the only "watchdog" for national legislation which affects every operator.

Offices in Chicago were happy about receiving the additional funds, and according to MOA officials, the drive for financial support will continue.

MOA execs traveled the eastern seaboard earlier organizing locals in New Jersey and the New England area. (CB Nov. 30).

New Hosiery Vendor

CINCINNATI—Gold Medal Products Company, Cincinnati, has started production on an automatic vending machine which dispenses ladies nylon hosiery in the same way as cigarettes and candy are currently vended.

Gold Medal, a producer of nationally distributed popcorn, cotton candy, and other refreshment machines, redesigned and adapted to the dispensing of nylon hosiery an experience-tested detergent vending machine widely used in coin-operated laundry locations, according to the company.

The hosiery is available from the machines in six standard sizes plus stretch lines, in seamless flat knit and seamless mesh, at department store competitive prices. Color will be the overwhelming favorite, a neutral beige.

The hosiery vending machines are not intended as competitors with department stores, according to Gold Medal sales manager J. C. Evans. They will be stationed at strategic locations of high feminine traffic, such as large office buildings, where replacement hose can be purchased immediately and conditions make it inconvenient or impossible to purchase from a regular retail outlet.

Coin Machine—Vending Firms Alerted To U.S. Census

NEW YORK—Firms producing, selling or servicing coin-operated vending machines will take part in the 1963 Economic Censuses, covering manufactures, mineral industries, business and transportation, the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce has announced.

Mandatory, Confidential

The censuses are taken every five years, and all firms are required to report, under terms of the Census Act (13 U.S. Code). The law provides that information concerning an individual firm must be kept confidential and may be used only for statistical purposes. File copies retained by the firm are also immune to court orders and other legal processes. Every Census Bureau employee takes an oath not to reveal information concerning an individual or firm contained in a census report.

In addition to their use in guiding decisions in business and Government, the Economic Censuses have recorded the growth of the Nation's industrial and business economy for a century and a half. The Census of Manufactures was taken first in 1810; Mineral Industries in 1840; Business in 1929, and the Census of Transportation is being taken for the first time in 1963.

Conducted by Mail

The censuses will be conducted entirely by mail, with forms going to large multi-unit firms in mid-November but with the bulk of the forms being mailed about mid-January. Deadline for filling out and returning the forms is February 29, 1964.

Census Bureau officials indicate that they prefer forms to be returned promptly even if it is necessary to use some estimates rather than delayed past the deadline to permit auditing.

Questions Fit Activity

Each firm will receive a Census form with questions designed to fit its major line of activity. Questions are similar to those in the last Economic Censuses, covering 1958, and were decided on after consultation with several thousand representatives of different industries and businesses. Most firms will fill out only one form, but those with multi-unit operations will fill out a separate form for each "establishment."

Each firm will report its kind of business, location, type of ownership, dollar volume of business in 1963, size of payroll in persons and dollars.

MANUFACTURERS

Forms sent to manufacturers include questions on man-hours of production workers during each quarter of 1963, capital expenditures, dollar value of plant inventories, fuels, electricity and contract work, costs and consumption of principal items of materials, and quantity and value of individual products made. The form also asks for changes in ownership of operation during the year, kind and value of any contract work, dollar volume of miscellaneous receipts and resales. The form asks each firm to list any products worth $50,000 or more on the form.

Service-Industry and Household Machines

Manufacturers of service machines used in industry and in households will receive Form MC-35S. Such firms are requested to report the amount in sales of automatic merchandising machines (sales of the machines themselves—not what they dispense) and of coin-operated mechanisms and parts. The same questionnaire will go to manufacturers of commercial cooking and food-warming equipment; commercial, industrial vacuum machines; and other devices. Asked also of these firms is the number of production workers usually employed on "Selected metalworking and related operations performed in this establishment during 1963."

WHOLESALE

Questions included in all wholesalers' forms in the Business Census cover dollar volume of sales to different classes of customers, such as retailers, other wholesalers, exporters, etc.; operating expenses and inventories; receivables and bad debt losses; warehouse and other inventory space; type of operation, and sales by commodity lines.

Commercial, Industrial, Farm Machinery, Equipment, and Related Trades

Wholesalers of these products will receive Form CB-50H. Questions on "commodity lines" on this form include value of sales of coin-operated machines under the general heading "Store, office machines, equipment and supplies."

Manufacturers' sales branches and sales offices in the coin operated machines' industry will receive Form CB-51H, "Machinery (except electrical) and Allied Products," with applicable questions similar to those on the wholesalers' forms.

Under one of the main headings—office, store, commercial machinery is included a question on sales of automatic vending machines. Those receiving this form will be asked to report also "machine rental and royalty receipts from customers" and "receipts from services and sources other than the sale of merchandise."

RETAILERS

Census forms to be filled out by retailers will request more detailed information about various lines of merchandise sold than in previous censuses. Census officials recognize that many retailers will have to estimate the dollar volume or percentage of sales for individual product lines. Retailers who engage public accountants to fill out their forms should provide their accountants with dollar or percentage figures for each line of merchandise listed on these dealers' forms. Departments or concessions of other firms located in the retailer's establishment are to be reported.

Miscellaneous Retailing

Vending machine operators will receive Form CB-59E entitled "Miscellaneous Retailing" to fill out. First specific question on the form that applies to such operators comes under "Method of Selling." Here a check will be required opposite "operating merchandise vending machines."

If operating vending machines is the respondent's primary business he will make note of this on the form. Also, a section bearing the title "merchandise vending machine operators" requests information on number of each type of machine on location at the end of 1963. The types of machines listed are: cigars, cigarettes, and tobacco; silk and ice cream; soft drinks—bottled, cup; coffee, soup, other hot beverages; candy, confectionery, gum, nuts; hot foods; cookies, crackers, biscuits and other non-refrigerated foods; sandwiches, salads and other refrigerated foods; and "other types."

SERVICE BUSINESSES

Firms that serve other business firms or the public will receive special forms designed to obtain information about their particular services.

COIN-OPERATED MACHINE BUSINESSES

Firms engaged in coin-operated machine businesses other than merchandise vending machines will receive one of three forms, depending upon the type of machines operated or services rendered. Firms engaged in supplying amusement and recreational type machines such as juke boxes, pinball machines, etc. will receive Form CB-79B. Those supplying service type machines (washing, weighing, locker rental etc.) will receive Form CB-72C, while firms which rent or lease or repair coin-operated machines of all types will receive Form CB-73B. All three forms carry the same section which operators of coin-operated machines are requested to complete in addition to the general inquiries common to all forms.

Natl. Rejectors Shows Coin Changer Conversion Kit

ST. LOUIS, MO.—National Rejectors, Inc., previewed a conversion kit that gives 5¢, 10¢, 15¢ and 20¢ versatility to its widely used Series 7600 coin changer. The kit was put on display at the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages Convention in Dallas, Texas.

The 4-Piece Conversion Kit can be installed on any 5¢ or 10¢ sale 7600 changer. After conversion, a changer can be adjusted quickly and easily on location to vend at 5¢, 10¢, 15¢ or 20¢. The adjustment requires only two simple steps, moving a price cam and re-positioning a lobe on the motor cam.

The kits, which NRI expects to market early in 1964, can be installed in an operator's or bottler's shop, or at an NRI service branch, for a small labor charge. They will also be available factory-installed on new 7600 changers.

National Announces Crown Line Of Candy, Cig Vendors

ST. LOUIS—A new series of console-size cigarette and candy merchandisers—the Crown Line—has been announced by Albert F. Diederich, president of National Vendors.

The Crown Line embodies the latest in contemporary design, with a wide variety of color combinations for maximum compatibility with individual locations.

Included in the line are two cigarette and one candy merchandiser. They are successors to the Consoline merchandisers—the Series 222 and 800 cigarette machines and the Series CC De Luxe candy merchandiser.

Crown Line features include gold and natural aluminum trim, with smart display panels designed for greatest merchandising impact. Cabinet colors are buckskin, charcoal and champagne white. On each side of the display panels are vinyl sections, in walnut, turquoise or Newport white. The cabinet and vinyl colors will be available in any combination.

In the display panels of the cigarette merchandisers are personalizing sections for the location name. Complete sets of letters are furnished with the machines. The personalizing section is styled to add to the attractive-

B&W Premium Catalog Lists 600 Items

LOUISVILLE, KY.—The 1964 edition of the famous Raleigh/Belair Premium Catalog is being distributed nationally by Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation, manufacturer of the two cigarette brands.

The new 64-page catalog, biggest in the publication's 31-year history, offers consumers almost 600 top-quality, nationally advertised personal and household premiums.

Important new categories have been added this year, and premiums offered in the other popular areas have been expanded. Camping equipment is included this year, and customer requests have prompted the inclusion of clothing items such as sport shirts, socks, and gloves. Many new household items, particularly bathroom accessories, are offered this year.

Five million copies of the catalog are being distributed. During the next year, B&W predicts, American consumers will redeem more than 1 billion Raleigh coupons for the premiums, and the items they receive will have a retail value of more than $12-million.

B&W considers its Raleigh/Belair premium operation as an advertising expenditure, and consumers pay nothing extra for the coupons. Raleigh or Belair packages contain one Coupon each, and there are four bonus coupons in each carton. The coupons have a cash redemption value of 3/4¢, but when redeemed for premiums in the catalog they are worth up to 1 1/2¢.

Brown & Williamson is the only cigarette manufacturer that operates and administers its own premium coupon redemption program.

New UM Offices

ST. LOUIS—Universal Match Corporation announces the new address of its Executive Offices effective November 25, 1963. The new address is Executive Building, 515 Olive Street, St. Louis 1, Missouri. Telephone: MAin 1-2700.

ness of the merchandiser even when the location name is not put in.

One of the cigarette merchandisers has 20 selections, with an 850-pack capacity; the other has 22 selections, with a 616-pack capacity. The candy merchandiser has 10 selections, with a 240-item capacity. The cigarette merchandisers will vend at three prices, the candy merchandiser at two. Three-price vending and a five-selection gum and mint unit are available as extras in the candy merchandiser. With the gum and mint unit, the candy merchandiser has nine candy selections, boosting the total to 14, with a 416-item capacity.

The merchandisers are 54 inches high and 34 3/4 inches wide.

NAMA Steps Up Op Alert Program

CHICAGO—Cigarette operators were advised last week to take the offensive in the Operation Alert campaign by speaking out with the true facts as proven by results of the Gilbert Research Report on Teenage Smoking and the current status of the cigarette machine and its effects on teenage smoking. NAMA is convinced that the time has come for the public to be made aware of the insignificant part played by vending machines in overall teenage cig sales. These figures are made clear in the Gilbert report, which was mailed to every member and most of the larger companies.

So far, the strategy has worked in Connecticut where newspaper attacks have been calmed down, in California, where news editorials supported NAMA's program, over NBC network, where editorial and news comments have been guided by NAMA reports, as was the recent Newsweek report.

Lorillard To Make Kent, Newport Cigs In Luxembourg

LUXEMBOURG—The P. Lorillard Company announced last week that it will build a $2 million plant at Ettelbruck here. The firm is obviously seeking a larger share of the currently booming European market for US filters. The building is expected to be the first of a planned series of overseas investments. Lorillard is the third largest cigarette maker in the world. The brands Kent and Newport are among those scheduled for overseas manufacture. The factory is expected to be completed by January. The plant will be jointly owned and operated by Lorillard and Heintz van Landewyck, a leading European tobacco company.

Canada's Health Minister Attacks Teenage Smoking

■ Calls For Educational Program

OTTAWA—Health Minister Judy LaMarsh said here last week that Canada's federal government and eight of the ten provinces in Canada are convinced there is a proven relationship between cigarette smoking and the mounting death toll from lung cancer. A two-day conference met last week on the smoking-health issue. The conference is sponsored by the federal government. Representatives from the provinces, spokesmen for the tobacco industry, doctors, cancer experts and other interested parties attended.

Miss LaMarsh indicated that the conference will conclude in favor of a nationwide federal-provincial educational campaign to persuade teenagers to avoid cigarette smoking.

New Curtiss Sales Mgr.

CHICAGO—Joseph W. Pridmore, vice president, Marketing, Curtiss Candy Company, Chicago, announced the appointment of Francis F. Robare, as general sales manager.

For the past eight years, Robare has been in sales management at Lever Bros. For eight years prior to this, he worked for the Pillsbury Company.

According to Pridmore: "Robare comes to Curtiss with a broad experience in the marketing of food and non-food products in many different channels of distribution."

From 1942 to 1946, Robare saw service with Infantry of the U.S. Army in the E.T.O. with A.G.D. under Patton.

Mr. Robare lives in the Chicago suburb of Western Springs with his wife, the former Yvonne Guizerix, of New Orleans, and two children: Lisa, 12, Kim, age ten.

He was recently elected president of the Ridgewood Civic Association.

The new NAC Board of Directors meet at the Americana prior to the start of their recent convention. Reading clockwise from left to right: Chip Follon; Clifford Lorbeck; Jack O'Brien; Floyd Bennett; Lee Koken; Welcome L. Weaver; Loyal Haight; Louis L. Abramson; Augie J. Schmitt; Spiro P. Model Vending Declares Div.
 PHILADELPHIA — The Board of Directors of Model Vending, Inc., declared a cash dividend of four cent per share on November 4, payable December 5, 1963, to stockholders of record November 20. This is the first cash dividend declared by the company since its shares were publicly offered in July, 1961. As of November 12, 1963, there were 401,869 shares of Common stock outstanding. An additional 22,846 shares of Common stock are being held in Treasury, according to Company officials.

According to William Slawe, board chairman, "The Board's decision was largely inspired by the company's increasing earnings and greater operating efficiency. Our recently installed data-processing equipment, for example, has greatly reduced costs and we are continuing to cut other expenses."

Concessionaires Ask Tobacco-Candy Industry Support

CHICAGO—In order to establish closer liaison between concessionaires and the candy, tobacco and related industries, one of the first steps taken by the newly elected president of the National Association of Concessionaires, Edward S. Redstone, Northeast Drive-In Theatre Corp., Boston, Mass., was the creation and appointment by him of a special NAC committee to serve as a line of communication with these important industry segments.

Named to head this committee is Irving Shapiro of Concession Enterprises, Boston, Mass., who is a regional vice-president of NAC.

Other members of Shapiro's committee are: Abe Bloom, Balaban & Katz Theatres, Chicago; Nat Buchman, Theatre Merchandising Corp., Boston; Harold F. Chesler, Theatre Candy Distributing Co., Salt Lake City, NAC Treasurer; Loyal Haight, W. S. Butterfield Theatres, Detroit, NAC Concessionaire segment director; Lee Koken, RKO Theatre Division, Glen Alden Corp., New York City, a past NAC president; Julian Lefkowitz, L & L Concession Co., Detroit; Jack O'Brien, New England Theatres Service Corp., Boston, NAC second vice-president; Spiro J. Papas, Alliance Amusement Co., Chicago, a past NAC president; Kendall Way, Modern Sales & Service, Inc., Dallas; Jack Wilson, National General Corp., Beverly Hills, Cal., and Jack Yellin, Stanley Warner Management Corp., New York City, who is director-at-large of NAC.

In announcing the creation of the NAC Liaison Committee to the Candy, Tobacco and Related Industries, President Redstone declared that one of its principal aims will be to cement a closer working relationship between NAC and these industry groups.

Said Redstone: "For many years there has been need for closer contact between concessionaires and the candy-tobacco industries." Their interests are very closely related by virtue of the tremendous market which concessionaires offer these industries and it should therefore behoove them to become more active in the affairs of NAC.

"This can be accomplished in many ways," continued Redstone. "First and foremost," we welcome all of them into membership in our association. In addition, there are other avenues that are worthwhile for them to explore and that is exhibiting at future NAC trade shows and generally participating more closely in our conventions.

"Our trade show, which recently closed in New York City, and which obviously was such a tremendous success, very dramatically demonstrated the great interest which concessionaires have in seeing and learning more about the products which they buy and sell. Candy and tobacco products being among the principal items which they handle, it would therefore seem appropriate for more of these manufacturers to participate in these annual trade events."

Eastern Flashes

Tenth Avenue wasn't much different than any other avenue in the United States last week. It was sad. The machinations of the coin machine business began again though around Tuesday and gradually the stunned silence which was referred to by so many reporters slowly turned to small conversation and eventually full-scale business but not without everyone aware constantly of the scar-like impressions left on the memory of every living American. And so the coin machine business, like so many other businesses, slowly but surely picked up steam and rolled on to the close of another business week, but it was unlike any other business week we have ever experienced. The memory of one of America's finest men was everywhere to be seen.

Conventions bring business men to town and the Parks Show which is scheduled to begin this week (Dec. 1-4) was bringing them into Chicago, from New York, (John Bilotta) and Philly (Bill Kane) and Long Island City (Larry Galente) and Tenth Avenue (Joe Munves). But the interest that once was there via the Chicago Coin and Bally booths, and the Exhibit Supply reps, and the other arcade and amusement machine firms, wasn't there this time and according to many people it won't be there next year either. NAPPB officials intend to find out why the giant coin machine firms no longer find a market in the outdoor showmen. Others intend to stay with the Parks Show as long as they bring 6000 people together each year. Bud Lurie of Southland Engineering will display four booths of equipment before the outdoor amusement men. The Mike Munves Corporation wouldn't miss a Parks Show if they held it in Oshkosh. And little Johnny Frantz, the counter game's biggest booster, will be on hand as usual. We didn't note the presence of Auto-Photo on the exhibit list nor did we see any vendors with intentions of showing.

The metal typers, the non-coin machines, the rides, the merchandise equipment et al will show, of course. International Mutoscope is showing a plastic vendor and perhaps a photo machine. Todd-Williams' Bill Kane will exhibit the tv remote unit we have heard so much about but they will show it at the Bismarck Hotel and Bilotta, the remote unit's biggest supporter forecasts a one million seller (!) (And that's small for big John).

Art Brier told us that Bill Gross was in to see the Weiner Bros., Smoke-shop distribs, and liked the sales performance of these boys very much. "They're getting the machine into the hands of the larger operators and the service reports are coming in with excellent ratings," said Art.

The Bally people are satisfied with 'Hootenanny' sales to date. The pingame evidently has loads of player appeal, judging from reports out of Chicago.

The trade will be happy to know that Miller-Newmark's Bill Miller is back on the job after recovering from an illness that had him at home for about four months.

Nick Melone and Sol Lipkin are doing a dandy job selling the 'Electra II' these days. Sol expects to curtail road trips during the holiday periods.

Larry Meyers, National Sound's Sales Mgr., expects the 'Symphonair' background music unit to receive a great reception once the company's sales reps hit the road. Advance interest stemming from early announcements support this thinking. Jackie Prygoff, former Runyon service head, is President of the corporation.

When Scopitone comes into the USA with its movie-music machine, the man who helped pave some of the way for the future talent-film segment of this business won't be on hand to see the fruits of his labor. George Wood, account exec at William Morris Agency, has passed away. No official announcement has been made of a replacement.

Harry Berger writes us from Jamaica that his flu bug left somewhere between Tenth Avenue and the tropic isles where he's vacationing. In the meantime, US Billiard execs Al Simon and Al D'Inzillo work feverishly to produce the tables necessary to fulfill demand.

Bobby Gordon, Jack Gordon's son, joined the Seeburg crew on their recent stint in Europe. . . . The pingame business is beginning to look like it's old self again. Bally, ChiCoin, Gottlieb, Keeney, and Williams, all making 5-balls. . . . And no less than 6 factorys turning out pool tables.

Sam Morrison of Musical Moments continues to work like a demon building his route. When Sam isn't counting coins he's packaging them. Outfits around the country are advertising 5000 Lincoln pennies for $55.00 to coin collectors. That's 10% dad, and it ain't hay.

The New York State Operators Guild will hold its meeting and dinner at the Governor Clinton Hotel in Kingston, NY, on December 18. And if it wasn't for the expert secretarialship of one Gertrude Browne, we would not be aware of this fact. Be sure you attend. The NYS meetings are seldom fruitless, always lively, and never dull.

The Irving Kaye Company plans some surprises for its distributors in the coming weeks and the production crews are working day and night to make sure the distribs have the merchandise when they need it.

Did you get a letter from Monsignor John F. Kelly, asking for a check for Cardinal Spellman Servicemen's Club? Well, what are you waiting for? Send money.

Abe Lipsky reported reaping nicely at home. He won't rush back too soon. Not until he's sure he can take the grind. In the meantime, Leo Rosenberg is holding down the fort.

At press time it was learned that the Mike Munves organization, exhibitors at the Chi Parks Show, expected to have on hand a new coin-operated shoe shine machine (Kwik-Shine) along with the standards—Ingo Gripper, Kissing Cupids, and a new postage machine.

Sandy Moore was a late Parks Show entry and reportedly expected to premiere a new coin-operated "talking horse" ride, a new idea fitted out with a tape unit installed. No details were available.

Pauline and Joe Orleck became grandparents on November 19 when daughter Arlene gave birth to a bouncing baby boy who is now named Gary. Gary's pop, Shelly Kronen, is a lawyer in town. The baby was born in New York Hospital and everyone is doing just fine!

Chicago Chatter

The tragic untimely death of President Kennedy crowded all other activity out in this, as well as, all other areas of this nation. It's all been said in eulogies and through the watchful eye of the television camera with unbelievable timeliness and accuracy. Little did we know as we left United Mfg.'s. Bill DeSelm and Ray Riehl, at the Round Robin Restaurant Friday afternoon, and entered a cab that the horrible events had struck with such suddenness. There was an empty void, and it affected everyone.

Ed Doris of Rock-Ola Mfg. was visibly shaken when we chatted with him t'other day . . . Delbert Coleman, who met Pres. Kennedy some time ago, was greatly affected . . . Significantly, most every coin machine firm was shut down out of respect for the late president on the day of his funeral. The indication we received was that an overwhelming majority of the coinmen and their families joined most other Americans in attending proper memorial services in places of divine worship. Everyone's prayers are with Pres. Lyndon Johnson, to whom the reins of government leadership were passed.

There's no happiness this week at First Coin Machine Exchange, where Joe Kline, Sam Kolber and Fred Kline were so outspoken in their remorse over the events of the past few days . . . Stan Levin, of Atlas Music Co., informed that the doors were shuttered last Monday. Bill Phillips and Chuck Harper were on the road on business, and due back to their respective homes for Thanksgiving Day feasting with their families.

We walked in on a sad Empire Coin Machine Exchange gang following Sad Monday, where Empire owner Gil Kitt and vice prexy Joe Robbins were practically speechless . . . Meanwhile, David and Dorothy Gottlieb, D. Gottlieb & Co., have a very important function to concern themselves with before departing for Miami Beach—the gala Gottlieb Memorial Hospital Ball, in the Guildhall of the Ambassador West Hotel, Saturday evening, November 30. Also on hand in formal attire will be Mr. & Mrs. Alvin Gottlieb, Mr. & Mrs. Nate Gottlieb, Mr. & Mrs. Judd Weinberg, Mr. & Mrs. Manny Skibell, and a huge throng of well known personages.

Patrick L. O'Malley, Pres. of Automatic Canteen, postponed a previously planned press conference last Monday, Nov. 25, in honor of our late President Kennedy. This was a terrible blow to Pat, who was a friend of the president . . . Good news was set aside temporarily, offset by the sad tidings, at Chicago Coin, where Mort Secure advised of the fine acceptance ChiCoin is receiving with the brand, new "Spotlite" puck bowler.

A morgue-like atmosphere was visible at World Wide Distribs, generally a happy place full of activity last week. The sadness was shown by Nate Feinstein, Irv Ovitz, Harold Schwartz, Fred Skor, Howie Freer, and all of the employees at World Wide. An almost unbearable calm seemed to affect everyone who walked in.

We got the word from Bill DeSelm and Ray Riehl, at United Mfg. Co., that a new, revolutionary amusement game—"Bank Pool" puck shuffle alley, with billiard balls instead of bowling pins—is being released this week with a lot of fanfare befitting the occasion. Considerable excitement is permeated by several ball setups for banking and ricocheting for high score. Distribs are very enthused over this new release.

A somber air of sadness was visible on the face of Williams Electronic Mfg.'s. prexy Sam Stern all last week, over the unfortunate news of the tragedy in Dallas. He and Jack Mittel were not in the mood to discuss the exceptional acceptance they're enjoying with Williams 4-player flipper amusement game, "Merry Widow."

Monday morning Art Weinand, prexy of J. H. Keeney & Co., and Clayton Nemeroff went to appropriate memorial services. Tuesday was a very busy day at Keeney. Clay and his wife departed for the weekend to rest at the Whitcomb in St. Joseph.

Paul Huebsch, director of sales at Rowe AC Services, returned from a weeklong business trip . . . Due to heavy sales with Bally's "Hootenanny" pinball amusement game it was difficult for Bill O'Donnell and Herb Jones to take a lot of time from their busy schedule to mourn the death of the president. However, they joined all Americans in wishing our new president success in all his endeavors. The Bally plant was a scene of despair last Tuesday.

It's back to business as usual for Johnny Frantz and Don Congdon, of J. F. Frantz Mfg. Co. They brought their "Kicker & Catcher" and "Little League" baseball counter amusement games into the IAAP (Parks Show) exhibits, where Johnny is expecting a lot of action in booths 154 & 155 . . .

Among the local coinmen expected to visit the Sherman House during the Parks Show are: Ted Rubey and Estelle Bye (she's actually a lovely coin-lady!), of Marvel Mfg. Co.; Herb Perkins, Purveyor Distribs; Hank Ross, Marcine Wolverton and Bob Jones, of Midway Mfg. Co., who are enjoying terrific action everywhere with Midway's "Race Way" (animated) amusement game. Also Chet and Bob Gore, and Dick Kotal, Exhibit Supply Co.; Clarence Schuyler, of Games, Inc.; MOA's Bob Blundred; and definitely last but not least Joe Schwartz and Mort Levinson, of National Coin Machine Exchange, who are reporting fine local sales with Gottlieb's "Flying Chariots" 2-player pinball amusement game.

Wico Corp.'s. Milt and Morrie Wiczer will make the scene at the Parks Show this weekend. Ed Ruber is out of town on an extended business tour . . . We certainly look forward to seeing Charles (Jimmy) Johnson, prexy of Globe Distribs, and his gal "Friday" Corinne on the exhibit floor. Jimmy's always good for a few "animated" yarns and gags when he's in the mood . . . Don't forget, copies of Cash Box magazines will be on hand at the Parks Show, available to visitors.

Sensational action built into new Bally HOOTENANNY

Fast and furious action insured by clever HOOTENANNY playfield layout and brand new actionizing features. New Spark-Plug Button triggers plain Rubber Rebound into explosive action of a Sling-Shot Kicker, blasting ball directly into nest of 3 Thumper-Bumpers. New Scoring-Post scores like a Bumper in half the space of a Bumper, keeping front field open for exciting criss-cross ball action. HOOTENANNY crams more action, suspense and "came-close" repeat play appeal into a single colorful playfield than any game in recent years.

Ball shot through new Progressive-Scoring Lane scores 10 with both Gates closed . . . 30 when top Gate is opened by skill. Extra skill opens both Gates, which remain open until Free Ball escapes through Lane, ringing up 100 on the way.

2 Carry-Over Features

Each Free Ball lights next letter of HOOTENANNY. Lit letters remain lit from game to game until Specials are scored by lighting complete name. Double carry-overs keep players coming back.

Frantz Counter Games At Chi Parks Show

JOHN FRANTZ

CHICAGO—Johnny Frantz, prexy of J. F. Frantz Manufacturing Company, this city, advised last week that his modified line of coin-operated counter amusement games will be exhibited in booths #154-155, at the Parks Show, from Sunday, December 1 through Wednesday, December 4, in the downtown Sherman House.

"As usual," he said, "we'll be conveniently located just off the main entrance aisle on the huge exhibit floor, where we will be on hand with Don Congdon to greet all our old coinbiz friends."

Frantz explained that his ever-popular original (re-designed) "Kicker & Catcher," which will grace the exhibit, is now in production and available at a low cost.

Other new production models include: "Little League" baseball, "Long Shot" basketball, and "Pot O' Gold."

He stated that all of the Frantz counter games have been redesigned in a modern motif to meet present day demands, and greater profits. He particularly stressed the colorfully designed screen glass, and new scoring arrangement.

"Actually," Frantz asserted, "we are placing the greatest importance in making available to the operators in all territories the best possible money making opportunities."

"And, the best way to accomplish this is to put on the market low cost, high quality amusement games."

All four Frantz models are available for 1 cent and 5 cent play.

Dual Showrooms Make Dual Selling Role

PHILADELPHIA—It was only a matter of time before the David Rosen Inc. distributing firm built separate showroom facilities for its vending line. While the veteran coin machine firm has always had the space shown above left, recent expansion into vending via the Rowe AC line, necessitated the quarters now renovated and shown above, right. Ops are also fulfilling the dual coin-vending role in growing numbers.

California Clippings

Shipments of new model games continue to arrive and sales of the new items still going at a brisk pace. . . . At Simon Distributing Co., Jack Simon in Chicago this week to attend the Forty-Fifth Annual convention of the International Association of Amusement Parks. Accompanying him back to Chicago was Joe Simon a recent Los Angeles visitor. . . . At Amco Music and Vending, Leo Simone, regional sales manager for Seeburg returned from a trip to Portland, and reported the Seeburg roving Van, now in that territory, was a huge success with the operators. Amco is holding an open house to mark the formal opening of the new San Diego branch at 3535 Enterprise with most operators in the area in attendance. Phil Krasnow is the new salesman in the vending department reportedly doing an excellent job. . . . RCA-Victor's new singing star, John Gary was a visitor at California Music Co. this week. . . . At the Wurlitzer Factory Branch, Tsugio Kushujama, the Wurlitzer distributor for the state of Hawaii was in town visiting with Clayton Ballard. Royce Garris and Cliff Nugent were in Victorville this week, and Leonard Hicks was covering the desert area. . . . At American Coin Machine, Bill Lanzy reported the shop busy with the repairs of all types of used equipment. . . . At Leuenhagens Record Bar, Wayne Newton had called Mary Solle to check on sales of his new Capitol hit, "Shirl Girl." Mel Bly, vice president of Challenge Records in with The Champs new release, "San Juan" which Mary predicts will be their next big hit. Bill Miller Returns To His Desk

■ Recovered From Long Illness

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.—Bill Miller, President of Miller-Newmark Distributing Company, distributors of the Rowe AC Automatic Services music and vending lines in this territory, returned to his post actively as head of the large distributing firm last week after suffering from an illness which had him away from the office for about four months. Miller was at his desk last week for the first time since summer.

Sales Manager Jack Gallagher told Cash Box that Miller can be expected to actively participate in a regular schedule effective immediately. The firm's new building located at 3767 East 28th Street was officially opened last month. Gallagher said that the Rowe AC "Tropicana" sales score has continued very high since the introduction which was held in conjunction with the Open House celebration (CB Nov 16) "It should prove to be a fine tonic for Bill," stated Gallagher, who added that the phono sales to date was conclusive evidence that the juke box was in for a good sales season.

Miller-Newmark is currently holding a clearance sale on certain equipment and Gallagher said that the firm was promoting sales to foreign import firms.

coffee gets a bitter "bite"

unless it's heated right...
as in the Rock-Ola coffee heating system

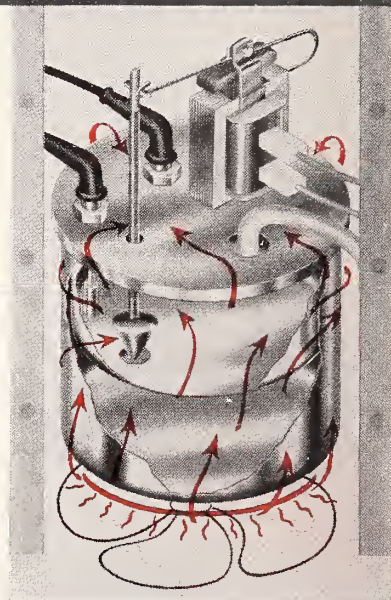

MODEL TRLB-M

The Rock-Ola Model TRLB-M Batch Brew Coffee and Hot Drink Vendor makes a great cup of coffee . . . 9½ cups per batch, to be exact . . . then keeps the flavor great by keeping it heated right.

Simple, yet highly effective, the TRLB-M heating system consists merely of an insulated heating box which contains a reservoir pot. Inside this reservoir pot the brewed coffee is blended while it is being heated—consistently and evenly throughout—by a simple heating element located below and not in contact with the canister. A small fan circulates the hot air produced by the heating element. In this manner, constant ambient heat is provided without overheating coffee or running the risk of burning coffee sediment. So, from the first cup to the very last drop, the flavor stays great . . . with no "bite."

The Rock-Ola Model TRLB-M is the perfect high-profit, high-volume vendor as it batch brews and consistently serves perfect coffee. Brews it automatically . . . always from freshly ground coffee . . . serves it four ways: black, black with sugar, with cream, with sugar and fresh cream. Extra cream and sugar buttons are standard. Also serves delicious hot whipped chocolate and soup. ⅛ H.P. Tecumseh Compressor maintains refrigeration at 38°F.
