KENNY NOLAN, LAST YEAR'S NO. 1
NEW POP SINGLES ARTIST HAS A NEW ALBUM
FULL OF POP SINGLES TO SHARE.

Kenny Nolan has recorded hit songs like "I Like Dreamin'." And he's internationally renowned for writing monster smashes like "Lady Marmalade," "Get Dancin'" and "My Eyes Adored You." So it's no surprise Kenny was voted Billboard Magazine's Top New Pop Singles Artist.

One listen to his album "A Song Between Us" featuring Kenny's best new songs like the title track, "Your Love It Takes My Breath Away," "But Love Me" and the irresistible "I'd Love You To Love Me Back," firmly establishes Kenny as a contender for new awards.

EDITORIAL

In The Headlines

The record and music business is as important to Hollywood today as the film industry was in the thirties, forties and fifties. This fact is re-emphasized on David Frost's latest offering to television entitled "Headliners." Invariably, the "headliners" of the week have included some currently successful singers like the Bee Gees, Gerry Rafferty or Bonnie Tyler.

The show, which is geared to the gossip-oriented America of 1978, is undeniably a vital showcase for musical artists in the prime time network slot. Frost strives to mix the show with guests from the film, political and musical arenas, with the latter getting more and more attention.

And another interesting sidelight that does not necessarily speak well of the world in which we live is the week's news set to music. This sequence gives the viewer the hard news of the week in rhyming one-liners that make even the most depressing story more than palatable.

The program has been RSO-dominated, but then again so are the charts and box-office figures. Interviews with John Travolta ("Grease" and "Saturday Night Fever") Olivia Newton-John and the Bee Gees are not out-of-line because these personalities are the current headliners.

The key element of this show is that it provides mass exposure for new artists with successful music. Frost seems to be watching the charts and we hope he continues to offer musical talent on a weekly basis. Better that than another cops and robbers show.

NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

- RCA Records to distribute Salsoul, Roadshow as part of label president Robert Summer's more aggressive stance for the company.
- Sales of soundtrack albums continuing to expand beyond traditional levels, paralleling films' box office receipts.
- Retail store locales seen as increasingly important in current retail explosion.
- Motown Records, CTI Records and Grover Washington Jr. settle two-year legal battle.
- Chi-Sound Records expected to switch distribution from United Artists Records.
- Retail price competition in New York City market fierce, lowballing on $7.98 list product on the increase.

RCA Adds Salsoul As Part Of 'More Aggressive' Approach

LOS ANGELES — In keeping with RCA Records president Robert Summer's promise to make the label "more aggressive," RCA has announced it will distribute Salsoul Records in the U.S.

In addition, RCA is expected this week to confirm that it has acquired distribution of Roadshow Records, formerly distributed by United Artists Records.

Joe Cayre, president of Salsoul, said of the new pact, "We believe in the independent distributor. However, our situation is such that with a company like RCA we would only have to deal with one company instead of 27 independent distributors."

"We have good rapport with their people and we believe with Bob Summer at the helm, that company has turned around," Cayre said. "Morale is high and they are high on our product and we thought it would be very interesting for us to make the move at this time."

RCA will distribute Salsoul only in the United States, excluding Puerto Rico, Cayre said. Salsoul's foreign licensees will be unaffected by the agreement. Cayre also said the RCA/Salsoul deal will cause no staff reductions at his label and that, "we still retain our full identity as a company."

"It's a good relationship," Cayre added. "We have a type of label with product they don't particularly specialize in. We believe we just fit right in there."

Summer said, "This new association is a welcome challenge and most certainly an expression of great confidence in Salsoul and our distribution capability. We look forward to a mutually profitable relationship."

RCA officially begins distribution of Salsoul July 1, but Cayre said the first product under the new deal will be shipped

July 5. The first RCA/Salsoul release will consist of five singles and four albums.

While Roadshow president Nick Alberano said "nothing is firm right now" of a Roadshow/RCA distribution agreement, reliable sources indicate the deal will be made official this week. Richard Mack, former vice president of national promotion for CBS Records, reportedly will join Roadshow/RCA in a key position.

Salsoul has notified its distributors of the change, Cayre said, and told them, "we will take all of our product back if they wish to send it back. We will give them a check immediately upon receipt of the product. But I think most of them will probably keep it because the price they bought it for is a little bit less than what they could buy it for now from RCA."

Seek New Labels

Shortly before he was appointed RCA president, Summer said (Cash Box, March 18) that the company would more actively seek out new labels to distribute in musical areas where the company felt it could use additional strength.

The additions of Salsoul and Roadshow presumably are designed to increase the label's profile in the areas of R&B and disco product.

"Every company has holes," Summer said at that time. "If you can fill those holes through distribution, that's when it truly pays off." He indicated in March that RCA may also go after labels in the jazz/fusion field, but would not look for new country labels because RCA's existing strength in that area.

CTI, Motown, & Artist Settle Legal Dispute

NEW YORK — Creed Taylor Inc., Motown Record Corporation, and recording artist Grover Washington Jr. have settled the lawsuits that have been pending between them for nearly two years.

Details of the agreement reached by the three parties were not made available at press time.

However, Jerry Wagner, president of CTI Records, Taylor's record company, stated that CTI no longer had any business affiliation with Motown Records. Wagner also indicated that CTI had no immediate plans to re-hire employees recently laid-off.

In addition, Wagner would neither confirm or deny reports that Washington's next album would appear on the Motown label.

CTI Records is currently "alive and well," Wagner stated. Further developments in the situation, he said, would be made public shortly.

Mix Of Store Types, Locales Prove Vital To Retail Growth

by Aaron Fuchs

NEW YORK — Diversification and a willingness to mix mall and free-standing store locations are proving to be important characteristics of the continuing retail explosion, a Cash Box survey of leading retailers has revealed.

Disc Records, a 34-store chain, is a prime example of a mall-oriented chain that has begun to include free-standing stores. Gary Arnold, Disc's midwest regional manager commented, "What you're reaching now in a lot of cases is a saturation point in terms of regional mall development. When the first mall came into a town, it really had a dramatic impact there. Everybody said, 'let's go to the mall' like it was the eighth wonder of the world. Today, that has worn off. It's been found that a town can afford to support two or three malls."

"So now," Arnold continued, "we'd like to complement what we already have in those markets with free-standing stores. By doing that we've been able to get larger stores and do a lot of things we haven't been able to do in mall stores such as staying open later and in general not having to abide by mall hours."

Market Research

Arnold gave another reason for the more favorable attitude towards free-standing stores. "There's better market research today by record retailers as well as more cooperation between retailer and manufacturer. A manufacturer might give indicators to accounts like, 'I think you should set up in this location, there's good radio here.' So there's more consideration to choices of location than haphazardly saying, "I think this looks like a good crossroad, let's put up a store here."

Joe Bressi, vice president of the Stark-Camelot chain in Cleveland is another mall-oriented retailer who's given more consideration to free-standing stores. They are, according to Bressi, the most suitable locations for the increasingly popular super-stores, one of which Stark-Camelot

Music-Oriented Movies Mean Soundtrack And Film Success

by Joey Berlin

LOS ANGELES — With the Robert Stigwood Organization leading the way, a rash of music-oriented motion pictures are finding a receptive audience among moviegoers and record buyers that has sent box office and LP sales figures skyrocketing. The most recent box office totals in Variety place "Grease," "Saturday Night Fever" and "Thank God It's Friday" near the top of its top-grossing films list, while this week's Cash Box Top 100 Albums chart has the soundtracks to all three movies in the Top 10.

While the record industry has surpassed the film industry in total earnings in recent years, the marriage of the two in the form music-oriented films is producing happy results for all. Producers on both sides are finding that movies and soundtrack albums are each other's best promotional tools.

"Saturday Night Fever" is the perfect marriage of music and movies," says Al Coury, president of RSO Records. "Next to John Travolta, music was the star of the film. 'Saturday Night Fever' is now the biggest-selling record ever, and with it going to 1,100 additional theatres this summer we're looking for a steady increase in sales."

'Grease'

As successful as "Fever" has been (with billings above $100 million and record sales surpassing 14 million units), another film from Paramount with a soundtrack LP on RSO is currently outpacing its box office and record sales figures. "Grease," starring John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John, has already grossed more than $20 million in its first two weeks' billings and the movie soundtrack, already well over double platinum, is #9 bullet on the Cash Box LP chart. These figures are far above those for "Fever" at a comparable stage.

"It took a week to 10 days for the success of 'Saturday Night Fever' at the box office to reflect in soundtrack sales," notes Coury. "But 'Grease' started selling at an incredible rate immediately after the movie's premiere."

'Two Reasons'

"There are two reasons for this," explains Coury. "John Travolta is now an established star and the picture itself has a

(ECM 1 1109)

Layers and layers of guitar textures richly appoint this ultra-guitar album. John Abercrombie is the whole cast of Characters and a maker of intricate, multi-tracked songs that breathe naturally, seductively. This truly solo effort proves Abercrombie every bit as comfortable and capable in that capacity as he's been playing behind Gato Barbieri, Billy Cobham, Dave Liebman, Dreams and a host of others.

The man whose Solo Concerts was voted album of the year by Time, Stereo Review, The New York Times, and down beat brings together the quartet of Jan Garbarek, Palle Danielsson and Jon Christensen for My Song. Recognized in jazz, pop and classical circles, Keith Jarrett has won success with integrity, the likes of which colors this very melodic record from start to finish. His intuitive sense of the lyrical phrase has never been better articulated.

European "house" bassist Eberhard Weber is a veteran of countless sessions on the Continent and four albums for ECM, one, The Colours of Chlöe, a German grammy award-winner. He's one of the leading practitioners of the solid-body stand-up bass, the most visible forum for which has been his band of a couple of years, Colours. It features ex-Soft Machine drummer John Marshall, expatriate reed/woodwind expert Charlie Mariano and pianist Rainer Brüninghaus. The music is as concerned with the dynamics of quietude as with virtuoso cookouts. The result is nothing less than sublime.

Dave Holland has played it all: from Miles Davis to Bonnie Raitt, Anthony Braxton to Vassar Clements. But on Emerald Tears he plays it all in the literal sense: everything on the record is Holland and his versatile bass. This rare glimpse at the world of the solo bass finds Holland tackling subjects worthy of several instruments. But he delivers it with total command.

On ECM records and tapes.

... Al DiMeola and Earl Klugh, original electric guitarist in Corea's Return to Forever with Connors. Though at the height of pyrotechnical rock in the 70s, Bill has altered his style here to that of the acoustic guitar, adding even further ideas of melodic clarity. He leads a quartet this time composed of Jan Garbarek, Jack DeJohnette and Chick Corea.

John Abercrombie with Dreams and Billy Cobham; Dave Holland with Miles Davis, Chick Corea, Anthony Braxton; and Jack DeJohnette with Miles, Charles Lloyd; make this quite a well-rounded trio, capable of playing, as this record illustrates, anything. An ambitious approach to improvisation.

Twenty-four-year-old guitarist Pat Metheny patents a whole new range of harmonic shadings on this, his third ECM effort. He and his young band have fashioned a mellifluous, shimmering sound rich and deep enough to drown in. The music favors textural as well as technical variety; yet the collective punch matches that of any of the "name" bands now operating in "jazz-rock" areas. Aided by pianist Lyle Mays, drummer Dan Gottlieb, and bassist Mark Egan, Pat Metheny further establishes the knockout power of the understated guitar.

Equally fluent on guitar and piano, Brazilian Egberto Gismonti may well be a household name after touring the U.S. this spring. His first album for ECM, Dança Das Cabeças, was voted pop international record of the year in Germany and record of the year by Stereo Review. This, his latest LP continually crosses over the line between the erudite and the popular. A very approachable cache of melodic invention.

Chi Sound Records To Announce New Distribution Pact

by Carita Spencer

LOS ANGELES — Chi Sound Records, until now distributed by United Artists, will announce details of a new distribution deal with a major label on or around July 6, according to owner Carl Davis.

"At this point, we will be leaving UA," Davis stated in a phone interview, "but as of yet we have not consummated any deals."

Davis went on to say that Chi Sound's decision to leave UA was due to a combination of factors, including the recent distribution deal between UA and Capitol.

Foreign Market

"Even more significant," Davis explained, "is the need for Chi Sound to go with a company that can do the kind of marketing and merchandising that is necessary for black artists. We also want to expand into the foreign market so we want to make sure that the company affords us that opportunity. This means the assurance from the company's foreign licenses in those markets that they can do the job on Chi Sound product that we would like to have done."

The label's roster currently consists of Walter Jackson, Manchild, Gene Chandler and a female vocal trio, Sugah. First releases under the new agreement will be singles from the latter two artists with an album by Chandler due shortly thereafter.

History

Chi Sound signed a distribution agreement with UA in April-May of 1976, shortly after Davis had formed the company. Prior to that, Davis had worked in A&R for Columbia (in 1960) and later (1967) with Brunswick Records. In addition to bringing the Chi-Lites and Tyrone Davis to prominence, Davis also produced "Whispers" and "Higher and Higher" by veteran singer Jackie Wilson under a production agreement with Brunswick.

Prosperous Year

"For years I've been making dollars for record companies," said Davis. "I anticipate the balance of this year being very prosperous for Chi Sound."

Campagna, Reitman & Moinet Named VPs At A&M Records

LOS ANGELES — Ernie Campagna, Bob Reitman and Al Moinet have been appointed to vice president positions at A&M Records, announced Gil Friesen, A&M president.

Campagna, a 10-year A&M veteran, has been named vice president of sales. He was A&M's first local promotion man, first regional man, served as vice president and founder of A&M New England, was the label's first national singles sales manager and, in 1977, he was appointed national director of sales. In his new position, Campagna will oversee the daily operation of the sales departments and report directly to Bob Fread, senior vice president of marketing and distribution.

Retail Battle Fierce In NY; Full Scale Price War Looms

by Aaron Fuchs

NEW YORK — Almost a year after Jimmy's Music World declared bankruptcy, competition remains fierce among New York retailers. In fact, recent developments indicate that an intensification of lowballing practices may soon result in another full scale price war.

Large department stores, especially Korvette's, have proven to be a major factor in keeping prices low. Although the chain maintains a shelf price of $5.88 for $7.98 list albums, its sales price on roughly 20 featured albums per week are the lowest and most heavily advertised in the area. Ben Karol, of King Karol Records, which has three stores in Manhattan, bitterly commented, "You just can't compete against Korvette's unless you're General Motors."

However, Disc-O-Mat, a record chain with two units in Manhattan has also proven to be provocative among local retailers. Disc-O-Mat sells all $7.98 albums for $4.49, the lowest advertised shelf price in New York. In addition, this past October, the chain opened up another store on Broadway and 43rd Street in Manhattan, one block away from King Karol's. Karol's retaliated by lowering its shelf price on all "current popular" from $5.99 to $4.49.

Karol declared, "Anyone who sells all $7.98 albums for $4.49 is headed for disaster, and we're doing our best to push them along."

Ed Beda, one of Disc-O-Mat's co-principals, responded, "We can understand his (Karol's) anger, but it was not our intention to undercut him. We took over a store that Jimmy's previously had, and we felt that the groundwork had already been done." Steve Stoff, a buyer for Disc-O-Mat, added, "We came in here with one price. We did not raise or lower it. Now he's going under us, but we will not fall for it."

Lowballing May Spread

Although George Levy, president of Sam Goody's, stated that the limited advertising of lowballers has kept the price war localized, recent retailer moves indicate that situation may change.

Disc-O-Mat, for example, has recently stepped up its newspaper, radio and TV advertising, and Alexander's has begun advertising the new Bruce Springsteen album at $3.88, the lowest price at which a $7.98 list album has been advertised in New York in recent months. By comparison, Jimmy's was selling $7.98 list albums for $3.99 when it was the area's leading lowballer.

Why has competition intensified? Joe Abady, president of Tape King, a Manhattan one-stop, offered this appraisal: "For five months 'Saturday Night Fever' carried the music business. Now that it's no longer hot, and nothing has come along to take its place, they need to do something to drum up business. There's a price war starting again and I can see it lasting through the summer."

Polygram Keys Multi-Label Theme For New Campaign

NEW YORK — Polygram Distribution, Inc. will implement its first multi-label marketing campaign in July, according to Jon Peisinger, the company's vice president of marketing development.

The program, "Dateline Hollywood, Dateline Broadway," keys in on all soundtracks and original cast albums distributed by the firm, including current LPs like "Grease" (RSO), "T.G.I.F." (Casablanca), "Saturday Night Fever" (RSO), and the soundtrack to the forthcoming film, "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band" (RSO). The campaign will also include catalog items featuring "2001: A Space Odyssey"

There have been very few people who have devoted their lives to both entertainment and public service and have managed to achieve success in both. As an artist/singer/songwriter Harry Chapin has generated a gold album ("Verities and Balderdash"), a gold single ("Cat's In The Hat"), an Oscar nomination and two Grammy nominations.

As an individual involved in public service, Chapin has co-founded World Hungry Year (WHY), where he undertook a personal campaign in Washington D.C. and effectively lobbied congressmen and senators to pass a resolution for governmental commission on world hunger. Another major thrust of Chapin's public concern is his participation in the Performing Arts Foundation. Appearing with other celebrities, he has raised the thousands of dollars in matching funds for Ford Foundation Grant to support legitimate theatre in America.

Despite his public service activities, Chapin remains devoted to his recording career at Elektra/Asylum. He has just released his ninth E/A album, "Living Room Suite," a musically complex and ambitious effort that brings together a roster of student and jazz musicians along with his touring band. Having composed nine new songs for the LP, Chapin will include many of these in his concert presentation.

a most unique single by

David Johansen

Four years ago, David Johansen was the lead singer and co-songwriter for one of the most critically acclaimed and controversial bands of the early '70s, the New York Dolls. The group's debut album cover boldly pictured the quintet in tight fitting satin attire and heavily made-up with rouge, mascara and lipstick. The Dolls were quickly labelled as one of the leading purveyors of the glitter-rock scene, with Johansen as its leader.

But today, a few years after the break-up of the relatively short-lived Dolls, Johansen has resurfaced with a more accessible, less radical image, a new solo career and a new album on Blue Sky Records. In the midst of his current national tour Johansen is finally moving away from the shadow of the Dolls and establishing himself as a long-term solo artist.

Johansen, who was born and raised in Staten Island, New York, admits to having been something of a terror as a child. "I was a typical hyper kid," says Johansen, "(and I) was always in trouble for some reason or another. Other parents used to ban their children from me."

Later on during his teenage years, Johansen started hanging out in the Greenwich Village scene, where he met other aspiring musicians and various artists. "We were in an art scene where everybody was either a filmmaker, poet, writer or painter," said Johansen. "Some of the guys hanging out and I weren't doing much of anything at the time, so people would ask us what we were doing. We said we had a band, although we really didn't at the time."

"Finally, people started to ask us, 'Well, if you're in a band, when are we going to see you play?' So we started to rehearse in a bicycle garage on Columbus Avenue. We practiced for about four months, then we started playing shows."

From that point the Dolls went on to become the house band at the Mercer Arts Center, and it was not very long before the group had attracted a large local following and were signed to Mercury Records. However, mainstream pop audiences found it difficult to identify with the Dolls' sexually rebellious, uncompromising stance; thus the group was well received only by rock critics and a limited number of devoted fans.

After releasing two albums, the Dolls decided to break up due to the band's constant, exhausting touring and the pressures of attempting to establish such a controversial outfit. "We were just tired of playing together as the Dolls," explained Johansen. "To be a 'Doll' was fun, but it was a bit limiting. What were we supposed to do, be 'Dolls' all our lives? Now with my new career, I can just go out and be myself, David Johansen."

With his first solo album, the singer/songwriter offers a varied collection of tunes, ranging from several guitar-laden hard-rock numbers to such romantic, tender works as "Frenchette" and "Donna." As his more moderate cover clearly indicates, Johansen is not so much an ex-glitter rocker or a New Wave forerunner as he is a straight-ahead rock 'n' roller who is launching a highly promising future with an exciting new band.

The Cars

The level of energy and excitement at Elektra/Asylum's recent bash for The Cars at Boston's Park Plaza Hotel was typical. The audience was packed with young men and women modeling disco and punk fashions, and when the quintet climbed the ballroom's stage to the sound of screaming sirens and souped-up engines, the crowd rose from the adjoining tables, encircled the band, and began dancing. Looking like dazed visitors from Mars, the group responded with a rousing batch of tunes from their auspicious label debut.

Were the guests paid to dance? Ric Ocasek, the Cars' principal songwriter, lead vocalist, and rhythm guitarist, was incredulous. "Don't forget, we've got a scene here in New England," he said by phone from his home in Newton, Mass. "Most of these people can't seem to sit still, anyway. Besides, we're giving them something to do. Who the hell wants to sit around and watch? Parties are supposed to be fun!"

The Cars formed in January, 1977, playing small clubs in the Boston area, and in "headspinning" time, people began wearing homemade Cars T-shirts and sporting toy car pins on their lapels. A cult was born.

Previously, Ocasek and bassist Ben Orr had run through a string of unsuccessful "avant-garde trips" in bands with names like Milkwood and Richard and the Rabbits (that incarnation teamed them with present keyboardist Greg Hawkes). And with the addition of guitarist Elliot Easton and David Robinson (drummer for the original Modern Lovers) the Cars lineup was executed.

"All of a sudden, it began to click," Ocasek recalled. The band cut a live, two-track demo of their current U.S. single, "Just What I Needed," and it became a number one request on Boston's top progressive stations, WCOZ and WBCN. "They really played the hell out of it," he said. "It definitely helped to groom our audience."

On the strength of the single, in addition to appearances at major Beantown rock venues as the opening act for groups like Bob Seger, Geils, Nils Lofgren and Foreigner, E/A signed the band last winter and shipped them off to London's Air Studios with producer Roy Thomas Baker (Queen, Journey). The Cars finished the LP in just twelve days.

"We wanted to tie the band around the theme of the Car — the American way of life," he offered. "It's the only form of privacy that's left in this country where you're free to dream with the radio on."

The group's affection for pop, experimental, and underground artiness makes for an accessible synthesis of new wave and power pop, and the success of the group's single (a bulleting #68 on this week's Cash Box Singles chart) attests to the music's commercial potential.

Looking ahead, the group plans for a cross-country tour in July; they'll make their European debut in September, and will record a second LP in November. Ocasek said that he would consider the inclusion of Brenton Wood's "Gimme Some Kind Of Sign Girl" on their next LP, one of the two cover songs the Cars perform live. "Hey, don't lose sight of the fact that it's a first album," he said. "There's plenty of room for development."

Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers

SANTA MONICA CIVIC — If Chuck Berry were to pass the torch of rock 'n' roll down to the person who could best carry it into the 1980s, he would have a hard time finding anyone more qualified than Tom Petty.

In his one-hour set, Petty delivered the kind of solid, classic American rock of which Berry, the father of rock 'n' roll, would be proud. In fact, Petty's "Anything That's Rock 'n' Roll" could provide the same kind of anthem to the youth of 1978 that Berry's "Rock 'N' Roll Music" gave the teenagers of 1958.

Dressed in black from head to toe, Petty often struck the defiant, rebellious pose that has always been an important part of the rock image. In his new single, "I Need To Know," for instance, he seemed to exert an urgency, a sense that something of tremendous impact would happen any minute.

The Heartbreakers give Petty the instrumental support he requires to carry off his persona. Lead guitarist Mike Campbell often rings from his guitar the kind of intense, piercing solos to complement Petty's vocals.

Petty seems intent on making sure there is an adequate supply of undiluted rock available, and it shows in his lyrics. While "Listen To Her Heart," is a Byrds-flavored love song on the surface, many of the lines could be interpreted as examples of Petty's "you can't take away our music" philosophy: "You think that you can take her away/ With your money and your cocaine... She's gonna listen to her heart."

Petty also exhibits the charisma and even sex appeal that extends his attraction beyond just the music. He has personality.

After about 50 minutes of non-stop rock, the band was called back for three encores, which included a rollicking version of "Route 66" and a surprising but effective "I Fought The Law." With the success of the new album and the show, it now seems only a matter of when, not if, Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers will step into the broad-based commercial acceptance they deserve.

Randy Newman

ONTARIO PLACE FORUM — Achieving commercial success does not necessarily mean having to compromise one's artistic approach to music. With Randy Newman, widespread acceptance over the AM airwaves last year with his hit single, "Short People," has meant only that he is no longer one of popular music's best-kept secrets.

Indeed, Newman has not sacrificed one iota of passion in performance or socially-relevant songwriting in his ascendance up through the ranks of singer/songwriters. His solo performance before more than 5,000 at the covered outdoor Forum facility was an effective display of personal revelation and strong musical impact through simplicity.

Newman's songs are terse, yet tough vignettes that demonstrate his unparalleled ability to garnish social indictments with the proper sprinkling of wit. His onstage persona is that of the sharp-tongued intellectual, his music is that of the spiritual-moralist.

Alone at centerstage behind his piano, Newman spun two dozen songs during the evening performance, all of which had a point to make. But where Newman excels is being the cunning social critic. Whether he's condemning bigotry, nuclear weapons or depersonalization, Newman is a stark realist. His quick wit is but a sugar coating for his rock-solid observations.

Newman progressed through material from his numerous albums, but the audience was clearly most familiar with his work from his last album, "Little Criminals." Still, when he played "Short People" halfway through his set, no one seemed content to leave. Newman's lyrical and musical spell are too compelling a force to walk out. He received strong response for "Political Science," "Louisiana" and "Riders In The Rain" when he got the crowd to sing a chorus with him (he then dubbed the audience voices "a bunch of Neil Youngs").

He finished his set with his classic "Sail Away," and then encored with "Lonely At The Top" and "My Old Kentucky Home." While he has had no problems in attracting sizeable crowds to his previous Toronto performances, the reaction to this latest Newman concert is a clear sign of even better things to come.

Foghat Sweet

NASSAU COLISEUM, UNIONDALE, NY — Like Savoy Brown and the Climax Blues Band — British bands indebted to the blues as their source of inspiration — Foghat has toured this country steadily since its inception in the early '70s. As a result, the group's audience has blossomed here over the course of their seven LPs, which includes their current "Stone Blue" outing.

Dave Peverett is Foghat's chief composer, and the group's hard-driving blues flavor reflects his single-minded penchant for the genre. Their formula may be narrow and one-dimensional, but the results they churn out are impressive. The lead and slide guitar interplay of Peverett and Rod Price mesh with incredible precision and fervor; this excitement gelled best on blues-rooted staples like Elmore James' "It Hurts Me Too," which featured Price's slashing slide atop the steady rhythmic bottom supplied by Craig MacGregor on bass and Roger Earl on drums.

The band's rollicking set of supercharged electric blues captured the crowd from the opening chords of "Fool for the City" through their second encore of Chuck Berry's "Maybelline." The set was spiced with excursions into straight Chicago and Delta blues, which the band certainly plays better than most better-known English and American groups. As white bluesmen, they are both assertive and deliberate, and their intensity was unrelenting.

Sweet, who are coming off of a Top 20 single in "Love is Like Oxygen," opened the show featuring tunes from their fourth Capitol LP, "Level Headed."

The group's tough instrumental patterns and bright vocal harmonies generated an enthusiastic audience response. leo sacks

Robert Palmer Pousette-Dart Band

LONG BEACH TERRACE THEATRE — Either Robert Palmer loves to perform or he is a great actor. The Island Records artist literally bounced out on the Terrace Theatre stage at the start of his recent performance there, and his exuberance lasted the entire set, to the delight of an appreciative audience.

Palmer's style is a mix of reggae influences and rock energy, tied together by his powerful stage presence. He combines sensuous vocals with cat-like grace in his stage movements, keeping the crowd's attention riveted on himself while his top-notch five-man band pours out driving rhythms and catchy melodies.

This night, Palmer opened with "Some People Can Do What They Like," followed by his current hit single, "Every Kinda People," which evokes memories of Marvin Gaye's classic "What's Goin' On." Other highlights of the 14-song set included the throbbing mid-tempo rocker "Under Suspicion," "Pressure Drop" with its hot reggae beat, and "Night People." The use of two keyboard players supplied a rich texture for all the material taken from Palmer's four Island albums.

But as strong as Palmer's set was, he still managed to save the best for last. His second encore, "You're Gonna Get What's Coming," was a sizzling, pulsating masterpiece, the kind of song that the audience takes home with it, unable to get the infectious rhythm out of its collective head. And all this was done with just a mediocre sound system, making the Robert Palmer group's achievement all the more impressive.

Opening act the Pousette-Dart Band was not nearly as impressive. While much of the quartet's instrumentation soared, the group's songs didn't quite seem to click. Let's blame it on the sound system and hope that next time around Pousette-Dart will be as good as the material on its three Capitol LPs.

Tom Robinson Band

THE STARWOOD, L.A. — Politics and music are strange bedfellows to those of us soothed by apolitical pop. New wave music attempted to address that complacency, but many found the message of the new wave either too abrasive or simply, too unintelligible. The Tom Robinson Band is a new band from England that offers meaningful, accessible lyrics in conjunction with powerful rhythms.

The Starwood engagement was the TRB's first show on this side of the Atlantic. However, TRB was not an unknown quantity to the packed house. News travels fast. The single "2-4-6-8 Motorway" made the top 5 in England and held down the #1 spot in Sweden at the end of 1977. TRB is considered by many to be one of the most important new bands to emerge recently from England.

The show proved the point. Utilizing material from its new "Power In The Darkness" album, TRB offered tight and melodic "crisis music," fueled by Robinson's steady bass playing and lead vocals. Danny Kustow provided assailing guitar solos and bedeviled stage enthusiasm. Nick Plytas, the newest member of the group, offered the kind of backing organ licks suited to the punchy kick turns delivered by Brian Taylor on drums.

"Don't Take No For An Answer" gave the show an emphatic beginning. Robinson leaned against Kustow to sing the slow and amusing tale of "Martin," a buddy who always helped a friend out of a jam. The jovial sing-song nature of the tune drew immediate and unprompted audience participation on the chorus.

The Tom Robinson Band is a rock 'n' roll quartet with a new approach. The howling for repeated encores attests to the fact that the unique TRB combination of political commitment and music overdrive is working.

Melanie

CARNEGIE HALL, NYC — As the title of her current Midsong release indicates, Melanie is indeed photogenic, but not just another pretty face. Her return to the New York stage after a long absence proved that she still has what it takes to please a crowd.

As soon as she appeared onstage, Melanie communicated an overflowing joy and effervescence. Part of the reason for her happiness, evidently, was the fact that the show was being broadcast by WNEW-FM. Melanie repeatedly thanked WNEW and their tri-state listeners for making the evening a premier event and for their support through the years.

Throughout her set, interrupted by one intermission, Melanie sustained a mystique which was a blend of personality and charm. She performed a number for her own compositions, including "Beautiful People," "Spunky," "Ground Hog Day" and "Look What They Done To My Song, Ma," as well as covers of such tunes as Jesse Winchester's "Yankee Man," Eddie Floyd and Steve Cropper's "Knock On Wood," and the Rolling Stones' "Ruby Tuesday."

Her band was nothing less than excellent. Highlighted by Melanie's longtime performing companion, Sal Ditroia, on acoustic and classical guitar, the group included Robbie Georgia, Robert Michael Leone, David Mason and Donnie McCracken. In addition, the drumming duo of Chris Parker and Gary (Coffi) Hall, along with percussionist Tony Ramos, provided Melanie with a solid rhythm base.

Peter Brown

THE BOTTOM LINE, NYC — Although he has been on stage for only a month, Peter Brown proved to be a commanding performer and capable bandleader. Six months ago, Brown was making music alone, overdubbing all the tracks to his original material on a four track tape recorder in the bedroom of his parents' home. One of those songs was "Do You Wanna Get Funky With Me," which, after slight modification, became a million seller.

Brown's set was well-paced and eclectic, alternating hard-rocking numbers like his stepped-up version of Pink Floyd's "Have A Cigar", with pure funk tunes like his own "Fantasy Love Affair" and Stevie Wonder's "For You." His band, as well, reflected this diversity. Its six-member nucleus rock oriented, with electronic music overtones. They were augmented by a vocal trio, Wildflower, whose singing was decidedly gospel-soul flavored.

The highlight of the show was Brown's smash, "Do You Wanna Get Funky With Me," which he extended to a twenty minute tour de force. Brown walked the stage, his cap slung low, alternating singing and playing a kit of small percussion instruments called roto-toms. Maintaining his exhilarating pace, Brown sequed to his latest hit recording, "Dance With Me". Betty Wright, Brown's Labelmate proceeded to heighten the excitement by joining him onstage.

Opening for Brown was a young comic, David Sayh. Sayh routinely mined a predictable range of subject matter, from greasers to test-taking and general high school nostalgia.

Hubbard Gets Back To Jazz With New 'Super Blue' Album

by Alan Sutton

LOS ANGELES — Freddie Hubbard sat at an L-shaped conference table in Columbia Records' Century City headquarters, joking with the DJ from a local jazz/R&B station as they wrapped up the first in a day-long series of press interviews that began at 10:00 a.m. It was now 11:20. Minutes later, with someone else doing the cross-examining, Hubbard was asked how he felt about interviews and the myriad of other old trumpet player responded, "It's important to meet with the press and let them know how you feel. Most jazz artists haven't taken the time to do that, but I'm willing to because there aren't that many people that are into jazz. It will help the music and let the people know a little about what you are like as a person."

During the '70s, Hubbard's recordings for CTI, and later Columbia, became more pop oriented than in the previous decade when he was hailed as "the next Miles Davis." A jazzman for most of his career, Hubbard began experimenting with electronics, strings, voices and extra instrumentation. Besides his own compositions, the albums often featured covers of recent pop hits like "Midnight At The Oasis" and "Too High." Now Hubbard says those days are over: He has a new album, a new band and a bold new commitment to the preservation of mainstream jazz.

Tired Of Rock

Hubbard's dissatisfaction with pop/crossover music came to a head with his 1977 Columbia release, "Bundle Of Joy." Although it was his most commercially successful album, Hubbard griped that he was tired of posing as a rock artist and of record companies and producers telling him what to play.

"Most of 'Bundle Of Joy' was done over the phone," Hubbard pointed out. "He (producer Bert DeCoteau) was in New York and I was in L.A. and we talked about the music over the phone — you can't do that. It

WFSO Buyers Hoping Tampa Is Only 1st Link In Its Chain

by Joey Berlin

LOS ANGELES — The dream of many radio people, to own their own station, will soon become a reality for former KHJ-KFRC operations manager Michael Spears and his two partners, former KFRC sales manager Bill Bungeroth and Paul Bilzerian. The trio, co-owners of International Broadcasters, Inc. WFSO, have pooled their personal funds to buy in Tampa and will take over station operations around September 1, pending government approval of the transaction.

"We were looking to buy a station in the Sunbelt, but our primary focus was on the west coast," explained Bilzerian during a recent interview at the Cash Box west coast office. "Then we became aware of the possibilities in Tampa and now we feel extremely fortunate to get into the market."

Tampa's Strengths

The International Broadcasters triumvirate went on to list the factors that have made Tampa the fastest growing market in the Top 25 nationwide. Rapidly approaching Miami as the largest city in Florida, Tampa is experiencing a tremendous real estate and population boom, creating a growing job market in the city's key industries — tourism, electronics, cigar manufacture and brewing. Tampa is also the country's eighth largest deep water port.

WFSO is currently a free-form AOR station, the only AOR on Tampa's AM band. Now a daytime, WFSO is set to become the market's fifth full-time signal soon. And the new owners are also pleased with their position on the dial, 570, which will allow their programming to be heard by a potential audience of 1.3 million people.

Quiet Market

"Tampa has been a relatively quiet market lately," indicates Spears. "When was the last time a record broke out of Tampa?"

WARNER TO DISTRIBUTE ECM — ECM Records has recently signed a manufacturing and distribution pact with Warner Bros. Records for the United States and Canada. Pictured at the announcement ceremonies seated (l-r) are: Mo Ostin, Warner Bros. board chairman and president; Bob Hurwitz, ECM managing director; and Ron Goldstein, director of Warner's jazz and progressive division. Standing (l-r) are: Bob Krasnow, Warner Bros. vice president, talent; Thomas Stowsand of ECM/Germany; and Charlie Lourie, Warner Bros. product manager.

EAST COASTINGS — IT'S A JAZZ TOWN — Jazz is everywhere this week in New York, as Newport celebrates its 25th anniversary. Everyone from Count Basie to Cecil Taylor, it seems, is in town, representing every facet of jazz music. Taylor's midnight concert at Carnegie Hall was one of the festival's highlights so far, as the avant-garde genius furiously assaulted the keyboards, non-stop, for well over an hour. Steve McCall, regular drummer for Air played with Taylor and added to his mushrooming reputation by turning in a virtuoso performance of technique and subtle precision. It was an historic night for jazz, the kind that has kept Newport flourishing for a quarter of a century.

STRANGE TRANSPOSITIONS — A curious movie briefly surfaced in Manhattan recently. Called "The Punk Rock Movie," it featured performances by The Sex Pistols, The Clash, TAKE TO ARIOLA — Taka Boom, former member of Undisputed Truth and sister of Chaka Khan, has been signed to Ariola Records and will soon begin recording her first solo album for the label. Pictured after the signing are (l-r): Scott Shannon, Ariola senior vice president; Boom; and Jay Lasker, Ariola president.

September 9.

TASTY BAIT — Stiff Records trying to purchase some old rockabilly masters? Yep, and that belovedly weird record company from over the ocean now has scouts sniffing in Tennessee and Texas... Will John Klemmer and Stanley Turrentine heed the words of the recent Billy Joel song "Movin' Out"? (or to Burbank, at least)... Watch for a "best of" J. Geils package being prepared at Atlantic... The original Sun Records version of "High School Confidential" by Jerry Lee Lewis is being set for re-release.

NAMES IN THE NEWS — Robert Stigwood, who'll be in New York July 20 for the world premiere of "Sgt. Pepper," has donated opening night proceeds to the Police Athletic Association... The Commodores, who just started their national tour, are set to cover 79 cities on 84 dates between now and November 23... Cy Coleman, fresh from winning a Tony for "On the 20th Century," will produce a disco version of the hit Broadway show's original cast album... Odd couple? Pianist Carla Bley and drummer D Sharpe (a Modern Lover) are teaming up for a European tour... Celebrating Johnny Blitz' return to good health, the Dead Boys will storm CBGBs for a comeback concert series beginning July 6... Tom Paxton will give a free concert on Wednesday, July 5 at 4:30 p.m. at McGraw-Hill park on 6th Avenue between 48th and 49th Streets... Signed: to Capitol — Crimson Tide

(from Alabama, of course) and to Columbia — Irakere, from Cuba... And best wishes to Steve Allen (of Buddy Allen Management) and his new bride, Debbie Grande.

CALLING ALL A&R MEN — The Ballroom, that Soho spawning ground for songstresses like Jane Olivor and Judith Cohen, was the scene for another auspicious debut recently. Regina Cacchione turned in a tremendous performance on the Ballroom stage, especially impressing the audience with her own knock-out material. If "Normandie," Cacchione's show-stopper, is an accurate indication of the woman's vocal and writing talent, then the industry may have another dynamic female star to contend with in the very near future.

REVVED UP — Elektra/Asylum leaves no doubt as to how they feel about their new act The Cars. Accordingly, the label threw a bash for nearly 1,000 radio and press people last week at Boston's Plaza Park Hotel. After the banquet, The Cars performed, and, according to Cash Box junketeer Leo Sacks, they did an "amazing" cover version of Brenton Wood's soul classic "Gimme Some Kind Of Sign Girl."

VEGAS THROAT? — No, it has nothing to do with an old profession that's legal in Nevada. "Vegas Throat," according to a story in the Wall Street Journal, is "the most dreaded disorder of The Strip" in Vegas. Apparently the dry desert air, smoke-filled rooms and strenuous schedules have caused many a performer to be stricken with a temporary and costly throat problem. The malady is hushed up by the singers, who fear economic reprisals from casinos, but many are reported to seek the advice of Beverly Hills doctor Edward Kantor — on the sly. Says Kantor: "Some of my patients would rather enter the office through the back door."

CONDOLENCES — Cash Box extends sincere condolences to Don Kirshner, whose father Gilbert Kirshner recently died after a long illness. Born in Poland in 1902, Gilbert Kirshner immigrated to America as a young man and opened a tailor shop in Harlem. Among many other good deeds, Gilbert loaned his son Don $50, over 20 years ago, enabling the future rock impresario to make his first demo tape. Mr. Kirshner, a long time resident of Washington Heights in Manhattan, is survived by his wife Belle, his two brothers and one sister. charles paikert

POINTS WEST — BACK SO SOON — Following the recent announcement that the planned July 4 concert in Leningrad, U.S.S.R. would be delayed, last week Soviet officials announced the Beach Boys/Santana/Joan Baez show has been cancelled. The reason given by the Soviet spokesmen was that there were "historical imprecisions" in the concert film script. In addition to the free concert itself, film producer Dimitri de Grunwald had planned to make a motion picture of the event entitled "Carnival." In a prepared statement, concert promoter Bill Graham said, "We've been working on the Russian project for two years and KIPNER SIGNS WITH RSO — Singer/songwriter Steve Kipner recently signed a recording deal with RSO Records. His first release is the single, "Love Is Its Own Reward," produced by Jay Gradon.

CALIFORNIA JAM 2 — Various Artists — Columbia PC2-35389 — Producers: Various — List: 13.98

This double live documentation of the outdoor rock event is nothing short of spectacular. "California Jam 2" is quite a superlative live sampler of a good cross-section of America's top rock talent. All acts (with the regrettable exception of Bob Welch and Foreigner) that appeared are faithfully represented. Heart, Santana, and Aerosmith are standouts, with Mahogany Rush, Ted Nugent, Dave Mason and Rubicon offering excellent competition during their portions of the program.

GET IT OUT'CHA SYSTEM — Millie Jackson — Spring/Polydor SP-1-6719 — Producers: Brad Shapiro and Millie Jackson — List: 7.98

With her last album approaching platinum status, Millie Jackson has affirmed her position as a vocalist/composer/co-producer of major proportions. Jackson's latest effort is a tasty, affectionate assortment of her own compositions plus a few well chosen cover renditions, including Kenny Rogers' "Sweet Music Man." Jackson's expressive vocals remain powerful yet controlled on this LP, which also boasts fine string and horn arrangements.

PETER GABRIEL — Atlantic SD 19181 — Producer: Robert Fripp — List: 7.98

As the lead singer and composer of Genesis for seven years, and now as a solo artist, Peter Gabriel has attracted a devoted legion of pop fans and critics for his ingenious, imaginative progressive rock recordings. Gabriel is one of the very few performers who can expertly combine sophisticated studio technology with his passion for the personal, human emotions derived from traditional rock 'n' roll. A more unified set of songs than his first solo effort, this LP will assure Gabriel of vast AOR and Top 40 success.

WHITE MANSIONS — Various Artists — A&M SP-6004 — K Producer: Glyn Johns — List: 9.98

Complete with a 28-page illustrated booklet, "White Mansions" tells the musical tale of the destruction of southern culture during the American Civil War. Englishman Paul Kennerly conceived the project and wrote all the songs. Waylon Jennings and Jessi Colter play a major role in this epic story supported by country, rock and folk music. A project as enormous and difficult as "White Mansions" rarely materializes, but the beauty of this album is that it instructs as well as entertains.

STRANGERS — Johnny Bristol — Atlantic SD 19134 — Producer: Johnny Bristol — List: 7.98

With his latest effort, Johnny Bristol has concocted another stirring, dynamic work that displays Bristol's versatile skills as a singer/songwriter/producer/arranger. Every track on his album features soaring, fluid vocals that are supported by a potent rhythm section, infectious female background vocals plus bright, shimmering horn and string charts. Including the upbeat "Strangers In Dark Corners" and the intimate, surging ballad, "She's So Amazing," this LP is an extremely strong pop and R&B pick.

GETTING GO — Lori Lieberman — Millennium/Casablanca NLP 8005 — Producer: Paul Leka — List: 7.98

A singer/songwriter who has long been underrated, Lori Lieberman on her latest LP has delivered a powerful, moving work that displays her versatile pop skills. Lieberman possesses an evocative, wide-ranging voice which comfortably handles this intimate, challenging assortment of tunes. The album's material focuses upon Lieberman's own compositions, but also features the Eagles' "After The Thrill Is Gone" and other cover versions. For pop, MOR and possibly AOR play.

SINGLE — Bill Champlin — Full Moon/Epic JE35367 — Producer: David Foster — List: 7.98

In The Beginning there were the Airplane, the Dead, Big Brother, Quicksilver, and the Sons of Champlin. Always a cult favorite, the Sons finally called it a day recently and we now have group king pin Bill Champlin on his own and "Single." An excellent album, this work displays an over-all spirit that is both infectious and good-timey with the accent on tight, rollicking funk and stirring ballads. In short, an auspicious, competent debut by a veteran in cahoots with producer David Foster.

COMMON GROUND — Paul Winter — A&M Records SP-4698 — Producers: Paul Winter, Oscar Castro-Neves and David Reene — List: 7.98

A conceptual recording that uniquely explores the musical sounds of whales, wolves and eagles, Paul Winter's fifth A&M album blends the oboe instrument with the 'singing' of an eagle, the cello with the 'performance' of a whale, and the sax with a timber wolf for an experimental work that is highly successful. Also supported by African chants and Brazilian rhythms, this LP is deserving of pop attention.

THE RHINO ROYALE — Various Artists — Rhino RNLP 002 — Producers: Harold Bronson and Richard Foss — List: 7.98

This is funny stuff: A 12-track sampler from the guys at Rhino records of L.A. (a store and indie label... sort of a poor man's British Virgin Records) of demented hysteria and tasty bad taste. "Artists" making the scene include Wild Man Fischer, Ruben Guevara, and Fred Blassie. AOR should sandwich a few bits in between their normal routines to keep their phones active. If not, we still have the party record of the year on our hands.

NATALIE... LIVE! — Natalie Cole — Capitol SKBL-11709 — Producers: Charles Jackson, Marvin Yancy and Gene Barge — List: 11.98

Recorded live in Los Angeles and in New Jersey, this two-record set spectacularly captures the beautiful, energized performances of Natalie Cole at her most exciting. Cole's soulful, jazzy voice is in fine form here, as she gracefully handles this varied collection of tunes ranging from the gospel "I'm Catching Hell" to "Lucy In The Sky With Diamonds," and of course, her several hit singles. For pop, R&B and MOR formats.

NIGHTWATCH — Kenny Loggins — Columbia JC 35387 — Producer: Bob James — List: 7.98

Hot off his top selling debut solo album after breaking up his partnership with Jim Messina, Kenny Loggins has emerged with a satisfying follow-up effort. On this album Loggins successfully blends sophisticated jazz textures with hard-rocking rhythms for a sound that can only be called singer/songwriter fusion music. Exquisitely produced by jazzman Bob James, this LP is highlighted by such cuts as "Somebody Knows" and the title track. For a variety of formats.

DREAM — Captain & Tennille — A&M SP-4707 — Producer: Daryl Dragon — List: 7.98

With their fifth American album, the Captain & Tennille have emerged with another inviting, infectious collection of pop-rock confections. Containing a balanced selection of playful upbeat tunes and intimate, tender ballads, this LP is sure to please the duo's large following. "Love Me Like A Baby" and "Dixie Hummingbird" are just two of the many appealing tracks on this effort. Tennille's vocals remain in top form on this LP, which is for Top 40 and MOR playlists.

SPARK OF LOVE — Lenny Williams — ABC AA-1073 - Producer: Frank E. Wilson — List: 7.98

With his second ABC solo album since leaving Tower Of Power, Lenny Williams has created a fiery, invigorating work which even betters his stellar effort last year. "Spark Of Love" boasts superior production and arrangements that spur Williams to sing at his explosive, riveting best, while also providing fans with several first-rate dance floor numbers. Highlighted by the aching "You Got Me Running" and "Midnight Girl," this LP is a pop, R&B, and disco pick.

IN THE NIGHT-TIME — Michael Henderson — Buddah BKOS 5712 — Producer: Michael Henderson — List: 7.98

Michael Henderson's current single, "Take Me I'm Yours," is a fine example of the expressive vocal performances and solid arrangements that prevail on this pop/R&B disc. On "Take Me", Henderson's full, powerful and distinctive voice is assisted by the pleasant accompaniment of vocalist Rena Scott. In addition to the single, "Happy," and "Am I Special" are also standouts. For a variety of formats.

FAME — Grace Jones — Island ILPS 9525 — Producer: Tom Moulton — List: 7.98

Grace Jones created a big splash among disco fans with her first Island album, and with the much anticipated "Fame" she seems certain to win over both disco strutters and mainstream pop fans. This LP displays sizzling, pulsing arrangements by John Davis plus crisp production by Tom Moulton. Jones' voice has continued to improve, and the use of whispery female background vocals is also effective, adding up to a solid package of disco and pop excitement.

GIVING IT BACK — Phil Hurtt — Fantasy F-9552 — Producer: Phil Hurtt — List: 7.98

Having composed "I'll Be Around" for the Spinners and "Sunshine" for the O'Jays, Phil Hurtt is not exactly a newcomer to the pop scene. On his debut album, Hurtt has emerged with a soulful, compelling work which features his vocal, songwriting and production skills. Hurtt is a capable, appealing vocalist, but it is his expressive material that makes this effort a winner. In addition, the LP is boosted by tasty arrangements from Richie Rome.

EDITH PIAF AT CARNEGIE HALL: JANUARY 13, 1957 — Peters International PLC 2014/15 — Producer: None Listed — List: 9.98

Recorded in 1957, five years before her death, this two-record set captures Piaf's vocal artistry in peak form. The Carnegie engagement was originally recorded for one-time broadcast on European radio, but after lengthy negotiations, the album has been made available for commercial release. The LP's song repertoire is effectively divided between French and English compositions, and features superb orchestral and choral arrangements.

ADOLESCENT SEX — Japan — Ariola SW 50037 — Producer: Ray Singer — List: 7.98

Although this quintet calls itself Japan, the group hails from Britain and does not exhibit any Asian flavoring in its music. Distinctly a hard-rock outfit, Japan is led by the aggressive vocals of David Sylvian and the guitar work of Rob Dean. Containing such unusual song titles as "The Unconventional," "Wish You Were Black" and "Transmission," this LP is suitable for AOR airplay.

Jukebox Reps Urge C'Right Tribunal To Reject Location List Requirement

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Representatives of the country's jukebox owners and operators have repeated their opposition to the location listing requirement as the Copyright Royalty Tribunal works to clarify jukebox royalty procedures. In recent testimony before the Tribunal, the Amusement and Music Operators of America (AMOA) protested the location list method of monitoring jukebox record play for determining royalty distribution to songwriters.

The Tribunal has inherited a variation of the location listing problem which the Copyright Office dealt with last year. At that time, AMOA argued that a location listing was "totally impractical and chaotic" as a requirement for jukebox applications and certificates.

Now, the problem arises again in regard to sampling procedures for distributing royalties to songwriters, ASCAP and SESAC proposed the location list method; only BMI does not subscribe to the plan.

AMOA's Garland Garrett, Sr., chairman of the government relations committee, told the Tribunal that AMOA members "cannot live with these requirements" and, he warned, there is talk of taking the case to court.

Under the proposed rule, each jukebox company operator would be required to supply the Tribunal with a list of names and addresses of every client, and supplement

Rafferty Is Platinum

LOS ANGELES — "City To City," Gerry Rafferty's latest album on United Artists Records, has been certified platinum by the RIAA.

tal lists of additions and deletions each month. Also monitoring employees from the rights societies would be allowed access to the interior of any jukebox selected for sampling of record plays.

Confidential Info

There are two main arguments AMOA offered. First, the requirement would overburden those small jukebox operations with barely enough staff to keep them in the black now, they say. The extra paperwork and record-keeping would be a heavy load for "Mom and Pop" operations, they claim. Second, the proposal to make a list of clients' names and addresses public is regarded as detrimental, if not disastrous, to confidential business practices. The AMOA has argued that "forced disclosure of this information would intrude upon the operators' business relationships with their customers."

60% Move

The constantly changing locations of boxes also enters into the AMOA's arguments. The fact that about 60% of all jukeboxes are moved once a year makes the location listing a difficult and expensive (some say totally impractical) procedure. Besides, AMOA argues, the same information is readily available from trade publications' charts. Operators respond to questionnaires from RePlay and Play Meter about what records are most-played in each area of music, and that information is compiled and published for public information. The AMOA members confirmed for the Tribunal that their buy lists are generally very close to the trade charts' findings, especially for the Top 10 or 20 songs.

Group Formed To Appear In Movie

LOS ANGELES — An eleven-member rock group has been put together by producer/director Robert Altman to appear in his film, "A Romance," currently filming in Los Angeles. The group, Keepin' Em Off The Streets, features one of the movie's lead players, Marta Heflin, four other vocalists and six Los Angeles-based studio musicians. The group will perform eleven original tunes in the film.

The vocalists, who also have roles in the film, are Ted Neeley, Heather MacRae, Steven Sharp and Tomi-Lee Bradley. Band members include group leader Tony Berg on guitar, Craig Doerge on keyboards, David Luell on saxophone, Jeff Eylich on Bass, Art Wood on drums and Butch Sandford on guitar.

Allan Nicholls, co-author and associate producer of "A Romance," was responsible for the origin of Keepin' Em Off The Streets. Nicholls has written or co-written most of the eleven songs and also serves as the group's musical producer.

Home Video Sales Rise

NEW YORK — U.S. market sales to dealers of home video cassette/tape recorders totaled 27,994 units in May 1978, according to figures compiled by the Marketing Services Department of the Electronic Industries Association.

The May sales figure brings total sales for 1978 to 111,151, and more than doubles January's sales of 13,567. These figures represent the first disclosure of home video tape recorder sales. Compilation of sales figures began in 1978, and are based on reports from 11 leading manufacturers and importers of these products.

Goody-Pickwick Merger Finalized

LOS ANGELES — The Pickwick International-Sam Goody merger was finalized last week under terms of a stock transaction involving approximately 125,000 shares of common stock in American Can, Pickwick's parent company.

The 28-store Goody retail chain becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary of American, like Pickwick, but will operate as part of Pickwick. Under terms of the agreement, Goody shareholders will receive .1811 of a share of American Can common stock for each share of Sam Goody common stock. Goody reported sales of $55.1 million and net income of $435,725 during 1977.

Jerry Jaffe Appointed At Polydor Records

NEW YORK — Jerry Jaffe, who has been named director of national promotion for Polydor Records, will also supervise a new regional promotion structure for the label.

The promotional realignment will include Jim Collins, who has been promoted to director, national singles promotion, a soon to be named album promotion director, Randy Roberts, newly named special projects promotion manager; and Andrea Ganin secondary radio administrator.

In addition, Polydor has appointed three new regional promotion managers: Jeff Trager, western region; John Derek, midwestern region; and Phil Stanley, southeastern region.

FEATURE PICKS

THE SPINNERS (Atlantic 3493)
If You Wanna Do A Dance (3:42) (Mighty Three — BMI) (Bell/Bell/James/Bell)

Hey, let's strut with The Spinners! America's favorite Rubber Band Men are back with a new single bursting apart with that certain something that's gotten millions of people to gyrate on his planet's disco dance floors. An excellent record from one of the classier R&B outfits of the past, present and certainly the future.

KENNY NOLAN (Polydor PD 14486)
A Song Between Us (4:47) (Sound of Nolan/Two One Two — BMI) (K. Nolan)

The title cut off Nolan's latest album starts off slowly, but builds up to a powerful hook that features full, rich production and Nolan's always improving vocals. A soaring love song with a number of moving instrumental passages, this looks like a pick for pop, adult and MOR formats.

ARETHA FRANKLIN (Atlantic 3495)
More Than Just A Joy (3:01) (Mayfield — BMI) (C. Mayfield)

Aretha doing a Curtis Mayfield tune . . . what could be more natural and inspiring? The second single culled from her "Almighty Fire" LP has Aretha wailing out her love for her man over Mayfield's excellent production savvy. Sax embellishment adds another plus to this classy lady's superlative vocal work-out. R&B with Top 40 cross-over potential, as usual, for our Lady Soul.

MICHAEL MURPHEY (Epic 8-50572)
Paradise Tonight (3:45) (Timberwolf — BMI) (M. Murphey)

Here's a love song that makes the listener feel warm all over. Murphey sounds like Don McLean on this second single off his "Lonewolf" album. Subtle instrumentation, tasty steel and rhythm guitars and Murphey's pleasant singing make this cut a good bet for pop and adult contemporary programmers.

L.T.D. (A&M 2057)
Holding On (When Love Is Gone) (3:57) (Almo/McRovscod — ASCAP) (J. Osborne/J.L. McGhee)

A highly pronounced, funky bassline highlights the first single from L.T.D.'s new "Togetherness" album. A bright, deep pop sound coupled with the recent pop success of "Back In Love Again" make this one a good Top 40 bet, as well as R&B.

ROBERT GORDON (Private Stock 45,203)
Fire (2:47) (Ramrod — ASCAP) (B. Springsteen)

Gordon's new single from "Fresh Fish Special" was written by Bruce Springsteen, and deserves the same success Patti Smith achieved with "Because The Night." It's a sizzling story of lovers passion with Gordon's hot vocals evoking memories of Elvis Presley. This pulsating rocker is perfect for Top 40 as well as AOR.

TOWER OF POWER (Columbia 3-10780)
We Came To Play (2:46) (Kuptillo — ASCAP) (Castillo/Kupka)

When this R&B powerhouse says they came to play, they mean it. Funky rhythms underlie the famous T of P horns and some good time singing. The title track from the group's latest LP has gotten such response as an album cut that it had to be released as a single.

SNAIL (Cream 7827)
The Joker (3:39) (Eas'l Duzit/East Memphis — BMI) (R. Zacuto)

With its powerful rock 'n' roll guitars and rhythm, Snail's first single off its debut LP could be the one to break this Santa-Cruz-based quartet into the national spotlight. Vocals and lyrics are reminiscent of the early Doobie Brothers. Top 40 and AOR should jump on this one.

SINGLES TO WATCH

WILLIE NELSON (Columbia 3-10784)
Blue Skies (3:32) (Irving Berlin — ASCAP) (I. Berlin)
 Taken from Willie's "Stardust" collection of American pop standards, this single, with its haunting harmonica and subtle string arrangement, should be popular on summer nights. Country and Top 40 potential.

THE MEMPHIS HORNS (RCA JH-11309)
Our Love Will Survive (3:16) (Memphis Five/Six Continents/Knockwood — BMI) (Mitchell/Floyd/Kirk/Floyd)
 The first single from the band's new LP, "Our Love Will Survive" is a well-produced upbeat sound that features the horns with stronger backing vocals. The band has been a favorite at R&B stations and initial reaction to the single shows that it could draw high numbers.

BERT SOMMER (Capitol P-4602)
The Song's In Me (3:17) (Sommer Songs/Home Grown/Blackwood/April/Morning Picture/Fire & Water Songs — BMI/ASCAP) (Sommer/Kasha/Hirschhorn)
 Sommer is looking for that big single to break him into mass acceptance and this could be the one. This effort, with its rich production and catchy hook, sounds a lot like Barry Manilow. Pick for pop and adult contemporary formats.

JIM RAFFERTY (London 5N-20097)
(Don't Let Another) Good Day Go By (3:28) (Essex Music International — ASCAP) (Jim Rafferty)
 Yes, Jim is Gerry's brother and this single, produced by Gerry from a forthcoming album, has much of the same easy going, low-key feel of "Baker Street," although Jim's voice has a slightly darker tone than his sibling's. Top 40 and MOR potential.

DELLS (ABC AB-12386)
Super Woman (3:12) (Groovesville/Razzle Dazzle — BMI) (Spears/Joyce)
 R&B stations are already jumping on this one and pop stations shouldn't be far behind. A strong bass line, subtle horns and funky vocal touches are the key ingredients that make this a potential chart topper.

COOPER BROTHERS (Capricorn CPS-0303)
Rock And Roll Cowboys (3:08) (Welbeck — ASCAP) (R. Cooper)
 "Lock up your daughters and hide your silver away," say the Cooper Brothers, because those rock and roll cowboys are on the loose. Smart banjo-picking and guitar support give an earnest western-rock flavor that help make this an excellent pop add.

THE HEATERS (Ariola 7706)
Put On The Heat (3:35) (Big Neck Music) (M. Connell)
 If infectious pop-rock is your bag, then you'll love the Heaters. The first single off their debut LP features the group's trademarks — a catchy hook, enticing harmonies and a fun-filled flair in production. A pop winner.

CHARLES JACKSON (Capitol P-4598)
Ooh Child (3:35) (Jay's Enterprises Inc./Chappel and Co. — ASCAP) (Barge/Jennings/Reed/Upchurch)
 This single from Jackson's "Passionate Breezes" LP is not a cover of the 1970 hit by the Five Steps, but is an infectious, heavily rhythmic track with a penetrating guitar line throughout. Top 40 and R&B pick.

STEVE KIPNER (RSO RS 902)
Love Is Its Own Reward (3:29) (Red Cow — ASCAP) (Kipner/Leigh)
 An a cappella intro leads into a tender love song on Kipner's RSO debut. Full-blown production brings the max out of Kipner's clean vocals. With the label's hot streak, this looks like another pop hit.

MICK JACKSON (Atco 7091)
Blame It On The Boogie (3:29) (Global — ASCAP) (Jackson/Jackson/Krohn)
 The first single release from the re-activated Atco label is a bouncing fun-filled song spiced up with punchy horns and smooth harmonies. Jackson delivers a tasty vocal and the whole thing adds up to a great summer add for pop and R&B.

RONNIE McDOWELL (Scorpion SC-0553)
Animal (2:10) (Brim — SESAC) (R. McDowell)
 McDowell's new single shows a harder-edged side to his music. Backed by the Jordanaires, he sounds like a young Elvis, complete with pulsating rhythms, finger-snapping and passionate lyrics. For Top 40 and country.

TROOPER (MCA-40924)
Raise A Little Hell (3:38) (Survivor/Top Soil — BMI) (Smith-McGuire)
 This is a hand-clapping, hard-driving rocker, produced by Randy Bachman. Irresistible rhythms and angry lyrics make it a good bet to become this summer's crank-it-up and get down song. Good pop pick.

JAMES DARREN (RCA JH-11316)
Let Me Take You In My Arms Again (3:11) (Stone Bridge — ASCAP) (N. Diamond)
 A pop hit-maker from a few years back, Darren is back with an upbeat love song written by Neil Diamond. Banjo backup and full vocal support helps out, but Darren's own singing is capable of sending his career on a "time tunnel" trip back onto the charts.

MICHAEL NESMITH (Pacific Arts PAC45-101)
Roll With The Flow (3:55) (Screen Gems/EMI — BMI) (Nesmith)
 Recorded live on Nesmith's recent tour of Australia, this single features a harder, more driving rock edge than the studio recording of the tune. With its stinging electric guitar and Nesmith's fiery vocal, this should be a solid Top 40 summer record.

GRACE JONES (Island IS 102)
Do Or Die (3:22) (Savi — BMI) (Robinson/Bolden)
 Grace Jones has long been a giant on the European disco scene. This track shows her stuff. Her vocals are backed by a steady bass drum beat with congas providing additional texture. Strings and horns round out the arrangement making this a single likely to receive strong dance floor action.

JAZZ

ON JAZZ

Given his choice George Benson would like to make an album with the Count Basie Orchestra. The prospect of a meeting such as that should be of interest to all jazz fans. Now if someone would just invite Basie, Benson, Norman Granz and Tommy LiPuma to the same cocktail party!

The Milestone All Star tour which is set to get underway shortly will feature Sonny Rollins, McCoy Tyner, Ron Carter and drummer Al Foster.

Tenor sax star Johnny Griffin will return to the US for his first tour in fifteen years beginning in September.

David Murray, the latest new star of the avant garde, has a new LP on India Navigation recorded at the Lower Manhattan Ocean Club.

Xanadu Records has an evening of its artists scheduled for July 15 at the Montreux Festival. Among the artists involved are Dolo Coker, Al Cohn, Sam Noto, Barry Harris, Ted Dunbar, Frank Butler, Billy Mitchell, Ronnie Gauber, Sam Most, Sam Jones and Blue Mitchell.

July 1 was officially Lionel Hampton day in the state of New York. Andrew Stein, Manhattan Borough President, hosted a tribute to the great jazzman which featured a twelve-piece band in celebration of Hamp's 50th anniversary as an entertainer.

The Newport Festival is proving to be another smashing success. Among the many entertaining concerts were a pair by Count Basie and the Orchestra. At Avery Fisher Hall, Basie was joined by Milt Jackson, Dizzy Gillespie and Joe Williams.

At Roseland, Roomful of Blues played strong opening sets and Eddie Lockjaw Davis joined his former boss for some rousing tenor sax.

Best wishes to Orrin Keepnews, Fantasy/Prestige/Milestone VP, who enters the hospital for heart bypass surgery shortly.

The latest Savoy releases include single LPs by Booker Ervin and Slam Stewart-Erroll Garner and double albums by Johnny Otis and Gigi-Gryee-Duke Jordan-Hall Overton.

The latest Inner City releases include "Light Year" by David Pritchard and "The Harold Danko Quartet featuring Gregory Herbert." Also from Inner City on the Choice label comes "Tenorlee" a rare album of all tenor sax by Lee Konitz.

Chiaroscuro has four new releases: "Mckenna" is a solo album by pianist Dave McKenna; "The Journey" by Dollar Brand, "Orchestra, Duo and Septet" by Hamiet Bluiett and "When Summer Is Gone" by Max Kaminsky. The latter is Kaminsky's first album in many years. bob porter

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

IMAGES — The Crusaders — ABC Blue Thumb BA 6030
Producers: "Stix" Hooper, Wilton Felder and Joe Sample — List: 7.98

For years, The Crusaders have been playing the kind of music that many current groups are just discovering. This newest batch is brisk, and clean with the ever-present Crusaders rhythm. Four out of the five in the group contributed to the album with Felder's "Covert Action" a particularly sensual stand-out. Once again, the band exhibits cohesiveness as a unit, but also flashy solo performances showcase the professionalism of the veteran group.

THE BERLIN CONCERTS — Eric Dolphy — Inner City 3017 — List: 11.98

Dolphy was a virtuoso musician whose untimely death in 1964 robbed the budding avant grade movement of one of its most promising performers. This double album contains some splendid work by Dolphy and his small band including trumpet great Benny Bailey. Regardless of whether he plays flute, bass, clarinet or alto sax, Dolphy was in excellent form here. Should be a strong sales performer.

EASY — Grant Green — Versatile 6002 — Producer: Vic Chirumbolo — List: 7.98

Green is one of the finest melodic guitarists and this is his first LP in a couple of years. Much of Green's playing in recent years has consisted of endless vamps over rock rhythms but here he loosens up and presents a strong version of "Just The Way You Are" and the music is generally more melodic than is customary. Mario Sprouse did string and horn charts while Hank Crawford and Jorge Dalto assist on the solos. A strong air play candidate.

ALIVEMUTHERFORYA — Billy Cobham, Steve Khan, Alphonso Johnson and Tom Scott — Columbia JC 35349 — Producers: Billy Cobham, Alphonso Johnson, Steve Khan and Tom Scott — List: 7.98

Fresh from their triumphs at the Montreux Jazz Festival, this all-star quartet has produced a very exciting live LP. Although the music here is from previously released albums, instrumentalists Khan, Scott, Johnson and Cobham, along with Mar Soskin, contribute to each other's tunes with some electrifying jamming. This interesting jazz atmosphere stimulates each player to his highest potential.

BLUE NOTE MEETS THE L.A. PHILHARMONIC — Various Artists — United Artists BN-LA870-H — Producer: Georg Butler — List: 7.98

Last August, jazz greats Carmen McRae, Bobby Hutcherson and Earl Klugh joined forces with the L.A. Philharmonic Orchestra for a unique musical occasion. All three jazz artists were benefited by the orchestra, which supported the threesome (performing separately) with exquisite taste and care. The orchestra, guest conducted by Calvin Simmons, was perhaps most advantageous to McRae, providing the veteran songstress with impeccable backing textures and shading.

AT THE SPORTPALAST — Johnny Hodges — Pablo Live 2620-102 — Producer: Norman Granz — List: 13.98

When one talks about tone on saxophone, one talks about Johnny Hodges first. Hodges has been gone for several years but this double album from 1961 presents him with a small band of fellow Ellingtonians including Harry Carney, Ray Nance and Lawrence Brown. The recording is excellent and the music superb. There is so little Hodges available today that this is bound to be a strong performer.

Sunny Side Up/Wilbert Longmire

SEASON TO TASTE WITH WILBERT LONGMIRE.

If you like your music on the sunny side, try a little bit of Wilbert Longmire. Wilbert is a very tasty guitarist who comes to Tappan Zee Records on the recommendation of George Benson. For most of his life, he's been playing behind people like Red Prysock and Jack McDuff. And now he's ready to start cooking on his own.

His debut album "Sunny Side Up" is favored with just the right kind of instrumental accents. Because Wilbert Longmire serves up music the way you like it: sometimes hot and spicy, and always delicious.

MERCHANDISING

MONEY RUN — Columbia Records and radio station K-100 recently sponsored a "Run For The Money" record-grabbing spree at the Peaches outlet in Hollywood in which two winners were allowed 100 seconds to grab as many records as possible. Columbia recording artist Eddie Money (right) was on hand to congratulate the winners along with K-100 air personality Bruce Chandler.

RSO Campaign Aids Sales Of Bee Gees LP Catalogue

by Dale Kawashima

LOS ANGELES — As a result of the Bee Gees' unqualified success with the "Saturday Night Fever" soundtrack, RSO Records and Polygram Distribution recently coordinated a marketing program titled "Discover the Bee Gees" to draw attention to the entire Bee Gees catalog.

The campaign, which was conceived last April, has been geared toward fans of the "Saturday Night Fever" soundtrack who were unfamiliar with the Bee Gees' other RSO albums.

Fan Awareness

"With the success of 'Saturday Night Fever,' almost 14 million people were turned on to the music of the Bee Gees, but many of them were not familiar with the group's earlier albums," explained Mitch Huffman, RSO's national sales manager. "So we thought a campaign should be initiated to make them aware of the catalog that was available."

Discounts, advertising and merchandising programs have been implemented on Bee Gees product in release prior to "Saturday Night Fever." These albums include "Odessa," "Main Course," "Gold,

Vol. 1," "Here At Last... Live," and "Children Of The World."

Merchandising Aids

Merchandising aids in the form of special Bee Gees order pads, posters, buttons, mobiles and iron-ons displaying the campaign theme, "Long before you got the Fever, the Bee Gees were making great music," have been made available to record stores, one-stops and rack-jobbers.

As part of the label's marketing effort, a national display contest has been set up. The two accounts with the most creative window or in-store Bee Gees catalog displays will win duplicate prizes of an all-expense paid trip for two to the Hollywood premiere of the motion picture, "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band."

According to RSO's Huffman, the best selling albums in the catalogue have been "Gold, Vol. 1," "Here At Last... Live," and "Children Of The World."

"The campaign has been extremely successful," stated Huffman. "I would say we have doubled the amount of sales in June of the Bee Gees catalog over the group's sales in previous months."

RCA Plans Campaign For New Rocket LPs

NEW YORK — RCA Records has coordinated an extensive nationwide marketing campaign for The Rocket Record Company's July releases. Included in the campaign are new albums from Colin Blunstone ("Never Even Thought") and Lorna Wright ("Circle Of Love"), which will ship July 28.

The Rocket albums will be launched, according to RCA, with an extensive array of merchandising tools, including special mailings, posters, mobiles, contests, album minis, ad mats, four-color press kits, radio spots and trade ads.

RCA has also prepared sixty-second spot announcements for each artist's album, which will be tagged to local accounts or dealers in New York, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Atlanta, Los Angeles and Seattle. The label has also planned a series of listening sessions for radio, retailers and pressing in key markets throughout the country during July.

WILL THE REAL ... — Elektra/Asylum Records' merchandising department has produced new artist standups of Andrew Gold and Eddie Rabbitt for in-store display. Shown (l-r) are: George Steele, E/A marketing vice president; Rabbitt; Lynn Schneider, E/A merchandising director, and Gold.

TOP ALBUM BREAKOUT OF THE WEEK

Double Vision — Foreigner — Atlantic

AirPlay

THE REAL DON STEELE STORY — The announced format and call letter changes at Ten Q in Los Angeles have brought more attention to the station than at any time since it last changed format and call letters. And with the change to a country format, some of the station's high-powered Top 40 dj's are moving to greener pastures.

The Real Don Steele informed us recently that he declined to stay on after the impending changes were announced so that he could take advantage of an offer to be a part of "The Radio Show." The television program, described by producer Chris Bearde as "a satire on all radio formats with music and comedy," is targeted for national syndication, possibly through Metromedia. The show goes into production this week.

"It's going to be a new style '80s variety show," says Steele. "Radio on TV, with AM, FM, soul and news segments in three-minute numbers. It'll visualize the usual radio headtrip. I'll be doing a larger-than-life version of myself, and we've got Dianne Bennett signed on to be our 'Rona of Rock.' The combination of Monty Python-style humor with rock 'n' roll in prime time will be a killer."

Steele is very excited about the chance "to jock on TV," but he knows he'll be getting back into radio at some point. "I don't have the station lined up yet, but I'll be jocking in L.A. again, I'm sure. I captured teens for Ten Q, but had 18-34s as well. The only reasons I left were because of the chance to do TV and the format change. And I still don't know why they decided to change formats anyway."

ARTISTS ON THE AIR — Warner Bros. artists Wendy Waldman and Marc Jordan will be appearing together in Texas and Oklahoma this month in a series of specially priced concerts co-promoted by the label and four local radio stations. Kicking off the series will be a show at the Texas Opera House in Houston on July 13 with Y94 co-sponsoring. KLBJ-FM in Austin will sponsor the show the next day at the Armadillo World Headquarters. Oklahoma City's KATT will host a show at the Amphitheatre there on July 15 and the mini-series winds up at the Dallas Palladium on July 16 at a free concert to be broadcast live over KZEW-FM/Dallas . . . On the subject of live broadcasts, Capitol's Steve Miller Band played the first rock concert ever put on in the three-year-old Meadowland Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J., and it was aired live over stations WNEW-FM/New York, WBCN-FM/Boston, WCCC-FM/Hartford, WYSP-FM/Philadelphia and WWDC/Washington. The concert, which also featured the Beach Boys, Pablo Cruise and Spanky Brown, marked the first live broadcast for the Steve Miller Band . . . Fantasy's David Bromberg recently finished a whirlwind nine-day promo tour that included visits to WXQI, WRAS and WKLF in Atlanta, WLWB/Louisville, WSAI and WEBN/Cincinnati, WMMR/Cleveland, WDVE and WYDD/Pittsburgh, WABX and KQRS/Minneapolis, KZEW/Dallas, KFML, WZZM/Detroit, KSHE and KADI/St. Louis, KAZY and KBPI/Denver and KDKB and KBBC/Phoenix.

VO SECERTS — Elektra/Asylum recording artist Carly Simon made a rare broadcast interview recently in Los Angeles over KNX-FM for an upcoming station special about her career. Pictured (l-r) are: Simon; and Christopher Ames, KNX air personality.

Bonnie Simmons farewell interview at KSAN/San Francisco was with the Kinks' Ray Davies. Davies also did Rock Around The World and Inner-View while in California. . . The Dixie Dregs are set for a live concert from the 5th Floor Recording Studio in Cincinnati, to be aired over WEBN July 3. . . Another Capricorn band, the Cooper Brothers, has a July 3 radio date to tape a concert at the Agency Studios in Cleveland. The show airs over WMMS July 5. . . Peter Gabriel was in L.A. doing radio interviews last week. His rap with Earth News Radio's Lew Irwin took place in the Cash Box conference room, and the Atlantic artist also did Star Trak and Record Report along his other stops. . . Atlantic's Foreigner did Watermark's American Top 40.

ALL-TIME TOP 10 — Listeners of Drake-Chenault's more than 250 consulted stations were polled for their selections for an all-time Top 10 hit list. The winner was the Beatles' Hey Jude, followed by "Stairway To Heaven" by Led Zeppelin; "Can't Help Falling" by Elvis Presley; "Yesterday" by the Beatles; "Bridge Over Troubled Water" by Simon and Garfunkel; "Colour My World" by Chicago; "Cherish" by the Association; "Night Fever" by the Bee Gees; "Mandy" by Barry Manilow and "The Way We Were" by Barbra Streisand. A one-hour countdown will air on July 4 on participating stations. . . When the Supreme Court handed down the Bakke decision on June 28, National Public Radio read the entire decision over most of its member stations. . . King Biscuit Flower Hour schedule for July reads: July 2 — The Grateful Dead, July 9 — Alice Cooper, July 16 — Bob Marley & The Wailers, July 23 — conversation with the Rolling Stones and July 30 — California Jam II featuring Aerosmith and Santana, which will be a 90-minute special.

NEW JOBS — Martin Perlich has replaced Eddie Kritzer as producer of Rock Around The World. Perlich's credits include stints with WMMS, KMET, the Daily Planet feature syndication and NBC-TV's "Midnight Special". . . Tim "Cosmos" Watts, music director at 194 in Richmond, will be leaving to take over the 2-6 a.m. shift at WCAO/Baltimore. Kevin Bonners will pick up Watts' 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. shift at Q94. Q94 is accepting tapes and resumes for a new MD. Send them to PD Ralph Wimmer, Box 1394, Richmond, Va. 23211. . . Alan "Brother Love" Smith, MD at WCAO, will leave the station at the end of the month to do promotion for Atlantic Records in Atlanta. Scott Richards, a former MD at Q94, will be the new MD and take over Smith's 6-10 p.m. slot. . . New WLS/Chicago assistant MD is Loren Cavallero. . . Also at WLS, air personality Bob Sirott has agreed to terms on a new one-year contract, but only after adding a clause calling for new uniforms for the station's football team. . . WSKW in central Maine has a new PD, Al Taylor, who will switch his air shift from PM to AM drive. WTOS-FM/Sugarloaf, Maine also has a new PD, Todd Nussey, who had been MD. Both the new Maine PDs are replacing Dean Steeves, who is leaving his D-OD spot at the two stations to do afternoon drive at WBLM-FM in Lewiston/Auburn, Maine. Bob Dow, GM at the two stations, is taking over as operations manager at both cities. . . Former Ten Q jock Willie B. is going to WRKO/Boston to do nights. . . Beverly Cox is now doing 6-10 p.m. at KFRC/San Francisco. She had been doing the 2-6 a.m. shift.

Spears Group Buys Into Fla.

"But we recognize that we are three outsiders who have a lot to learn before we come in and start changing things around," adds Spears. "We want to move down into the area (all three of the new station owners plan to move to Tampa this summer) and check out the competition as well as the market itself. We have been doing a lot of research and we will be doing a lot more. But we won't be making any programming decisions until we move into the market."

With his programming experience, Spears will concentrate on that area. But the partners agree that they will be experimenting with group decision making on most major decisions.

"We like to think that we will be using three minds collectively," says Bilzerian. "But owing to our particular skills and experiences, Mike will direct programming, Bill will direct sales and I will concentrate on legal and financial matters, as well as sales."

Future Growth

Bilzerian will probably be heading up International Broadcasters' search for additional radio and television properties to purchase as well. The company hopes to expand rapidly in the coming five to 10 years.

"We want to take things one step at a time, one acquisition at a time, but looking ahead 10 years from now I hope we will have 14 stations (the maximum allowed by law for a single broadcast group)," says Bilzerian. "And we see ourselves as being in the communications business, so we would like to acquire television stations, too. We'd prefer to stay in the Sunbelt, but if an opportunity is ripe somewhere else we'll look into it."

Spears and Bungeoth met while both were working at KFRC, the RKO chain's

San Francisco outlet. "We were talking about our futures, how we'd both like to get into ownership positions," remembers Bungeoth. "When we started getting serious, we called up Paul (who was completing his MBA at Harvard at the time), who I had met in Army Officers Candidate School in 1968. We gave Paul two minutes to decide if he wanted in with us or not — and he jumped right in."

Both Spears and Bungeoth have nothing but praise for RKO and are proud of their association with the chain. They cite long lists of people who helped them learn the skills they will need to operate WFSO.

"When you're on a 'Super Bowl' squad, you can't help but learn from the people around you," comments Spears. "People like Paul Drew, Pat Norman and Charlie Van Dyke know so much about radio that some of it just rubbed off. And Dwight Case has to be given credit for giving everyone enough room to achieve his potential."

Century's K-West Names Cole PD

LOS ANGELES — Bobby Cole, program director at Century Broadcasting's San Francisco station KMEL, has been named PD at Century's Los Angeles outlet, KWST (K-West). Cole, who will also stay on as KMEL's PD, takes over from Century's national PD Bob Burch. Burch had been filling in since Paul Sullivan left the station this spring.

K-West also has a new music director, Bob Gowa, who is also the station's production director. In addition, Gowa will take over the 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. air shift from Bob Taylor, who is no longer with the station. Changes took effect June 28.

HOW DID KANSAS K.O. KIRSHNER TO GET A CONTRACT?

Remembers Kansas' Steve Walsh, "Before our record deal, we heard that Don Kirshner's representative, Wally, was coming to see us and decided the only thing special we could do was show him a full house of people who really got off on us. It's true, we used somewhat unusual means . . . we charged the kids .50¢ and bought them all the beer they could drink. And they consumed quite a bit before Wally got there. Everybody was enjoying themselves so much and Wally really got off on it. But, after the show, we were scared because he was holding his head. And we said 'uh oh, that loud, huh?' And he said, 'no, no. You guys were great! But I got hit in the back of my head with a beer bottle about five minutes ago.' It was a plot, but it worked for us!"

HOW DID PAUL WINTER GET IT ON WITH A WOLF?

Explained Paul Winter, "In making my album 'Common Ground' I went to the Sierra Mountains to see what kind of response I would get from the wolves. There were 13 of them, and when I began playing they would all respond. But after awhile, most of them would stop. But this one wolf, Ida, would howl as long as I would play and answer back just about every phrase that I played on my saxophone with a similar kind of phrase as if she were imitating me. So I took a portion of those taped duets and used it at the end of the song 'Wolf Eyes.' I felt thrilled because Ida was heard still singing phrases similar to the ones I had played for several nights after I left. A very distinguished scientist, who heard Ida, has now started a new study on imitative howling patterns of wolves."

WHY WAS CHUCK MANGIONE BAF- FLED ABOUT FEELIN' SO GOOD?

When Chuck's album "Feels So Good" hit #2 on the pop charts, he said, "To me it's like being in the land of make believe to see this kind of thing happening. Because I didn't do anything differently than I did before (15 years). I wrote some music and made a record and it seems to be the right record for the right time. And to see that many more people being introduced to the music every day is just an amazing thing to me. And when you're doing something you love and believe in and people out there are reacting to it, I just can't think of better feeling than that. And I didn't set out purposely to make a single. I've never done that. But of all the records and product out there that that many people could possibly be interested in me is baffling!"

WHY DOESN'T A HIT CLICK WITH GENESIS?

Explained Tony Banks of Genesis, "Our song, 'Follow You, Follow Me' just evolved out of jamming around. We used to play it for hours on end. I was surprised when it became a big hit in England. I never really felt it was a hit single, myself. I thought maybe it was just a little too light. I would hate to have a hit the size of something like Fleetwood Mac. You have to follow it up, which is always a problem plus you know the record is being bought just because it's the big thing around at the time. I'd like to feel people buy our albums because they're really into them. You want a certain amount of sales because it beefs up the sales, but I really don't fancy it too much."

HELP SUPPORT THE HOLLYWOOD SIGN

The plan to restore the sign has the support of the Mayor, City Council members, the film industry, architects, musicians, businessmen, residents throughout Los Angeles—just about everyone.

Now the only support it needs is your tax-deductible donation—the most important support of all.

Please make your check payable to the Hollywood Sign.

Mail it now to the Hollywood Sign, Hollywood, California 90028.

In return, you won't get a cute button, a plaque or a letter of praise—we can't afford those things.

What you will get is something much bigger—a beautifully restored sign.

Word Announces 'New Song' Program To Break New Acts

WACO TX. — Word, Inc. has launched a nationwide promotion campaign aimed at breaking new artists on labels distributed by Word.

Titled "Bringin' A New Song," the campaign is built around 12 acts recently signed whose albums will be showcased during the next several months. The featured artists will include: Wendell Burton, Steve Camp, Terry Clark, Andrew Culverwell, DeGarmo & Key, Farrell & Farrell, Fireworks, Gospel Seed, Amy Grant, Pantano/Salsbury, Nedra Ross and Alwyn Wall Band.

In Store Program

Promotion will first be directed toward in-store promotions, starting July 5. Next, a six-week tour will be scheduled for eight geographical regions across the country, backed by radio and TV appearances. The final phase, lasting through September and October, will focus on space advertising in leading Christian publications, record surveys and charts.

In-store promotion will comprise 30 percent of the budget. More than 1,000 prepacks are being prepared, along with a four-color poster and a banner, a 60-album floor dump, bio booklets, and a special edition of Jesus Music News.

Truth Records Direct-To-Disc LP

by Donna Barham

NASHVILLE — Paragon recording group Truth, managed by Roger Breland, recently finished sessions at Sound Stage Studios here where they recorded what is believed to be the first gospel direct-to-disc album.

Although direct-to-disc recording is not a new method to the industry, it is new to gospel music. While the 18-member group worked with engineer Warren Peterson of the Sound Stage, Peterson was working with Glenn Meadows at Masterfonics whose studio owns the lathes used to cut the disc.

Pressing In Germany

The new album's release date is not yet known because the stampers are being pressed in Germany for maximum quality.

According to producer Bob McKenzie, "We believe we have captured the best of both worlds with the direct-to-disc recording. A natural adrenalin flow comes from live performances and with this we can capture the excitement of a live performance and the record excellence found on a record.

"Not many groups will be able to record this way because of the accuracy and high energy level it requires," McKenzie said. "With Truth, certain things happen in their live performances, an added excitement. In the studio they have a chance to become accurate, but sometimes that adrenalin isn't there. In this incidence, they were playing for their lives. They did their best for the next guy's sake, because they knew they only had one shot."

Danny Gaither Signs With Benson Company

NASHVILLE — Christian artist Danny Gaither has signed an exclusive recording contract with Impact Records, a division of The Benson Co. The agreement calls for Gaither to record five albums over a three-year period.

Produced by Joe Huffman, Gaither's first release will be marketed this summer. Gaither's brother is Bill Gaither, arranger, artist and songwriter, and head of The Bill Gaither Trio.

A colored vinyl in-store airplay album will introduce featured artists, highlighting selected songs. Inside each of the artists' albums will be an additional free bonus sampler record; will feature all twelve artists. In addition, a different LP will be offered each week at a special price.

For retailers, a sales presentation pamphlet will spotlight each artist. A pre-pack order form will be available, featuring 60 albums plus tapes.

Pilot Program

In-store promotion is being linked to the artists' tours and to radio and TV play. The in-store LP will serve as a pilot program on radio to begin a 13-week series of shows. Each of the other twelve programs will focus on a single artist.

Each of the eight designated regions of the country will be toured by three or more artists. Each artist tour will be backed by interviews and guest shots on radio and TV, radio spots, album giveaways, and campaign jingles.

50 Stations

The top 50 Christian radio stations in the country will be the targets of the drive for increased airplay. Paid advertising will accompany each tour, and will also be directed toward the overall campaign.

Word Appoints McCracken; Two Others Appointed

WACO, TX. — Word president Jarrell McCracken has announced the appointment of Glenn E. Bailey of Hamburg, Pa. as financial administrative assistant.

Bailey, who recently received an MBA from Harvard University will report to Word financial vice president Thomas E. Wolfe and will assume responsibilities for inventory management and cash flow application.

Bailey did his undergraduate work at Oral Roberts University. He was named to Who's Who among students in American colleges and universities.

In other appointments, Johnny Lowrance has been named administrative assistant for Canaan Records, announced Word vice president and director Marvin Norcross. Word distributes Canaan Records.

A native of Waco, Lowrance will assist Norcross in all areas concerning Canaan. Prior to joining Canaan, Lowrance and his wife were members of The Lowrance Trio.

GRT Acquires Ranwood

NEW YORK — GRT Corporation has acquired Ranwood Records, distributor of Lawrence Welk recorded music. Ranwood, Los Angeles based, will be integrated into GRT's record group in Los Angeles. Larry Welk, formerly vice president and general manager of Ranwood Records, will become president of the GRT record group. Ranwood vice presidents Chris Hamilton and Morry Goldman will also join the GRT record group. Hamilton becomes vice president, administration, and Goldman is vice president, sales, Ranwood Records. Welk will report to senior vice president Herbert B. Hershfield.

John Fischer LP Out On Word Gospel Label

LOS ANGELES — "Inside," a new gospel album by John Fischer, leads the list of new releases on the Word label. Also new on Word's Solid Rock label is "Hit The Switch" by Pantano and Salsbury, who formerly were with JC Power Outlet, a Christian rock band.

OMAC STARTS GOSPEL BRANCH — The OMAC booking agency of Bakersfield, Ca., has entered the gospel field with the recent signing of Alvis and the Barnettes for exclusive booking representation. Shown (l-r) at the signing are: J.D. Hardy, vice president and head of OMAC gospel division; Alvis Barnette; Arleigh Barnette and Jack McFadden, OMAC president.

Recording Career New Goal For Elektra's Jack Clement

by Bob Campbell

NASHVILLE — Chet Atkins has called him an "authentic genius."

At 46, Jack "Cowboy" Clement has written numerous hit songs, produced 25 gold records, built nine studios, established a record company (JMI) and publishing house (Jack Music) containing a valuable catalogue and played a major role in the discovery and success of such artists as Charley Pride and Dickey Lee. Now Clement is sinking his energy into a recording and performing career.

He has recorded an album (his first) for Elektra/Asylum, and a single, "We Must Believe In Magic," occupies the #84 spot this week on the Cash Box Country Singles chart. In a recent interview at his home, Clement discussed the current Nashville music

WILLIAMS MAKES RARE APPEARANCE

— ABC recording artist Don Williams recently made his second appearance on the "Tonight Show" with Burt Reynolds as host. Williams, who sometimes shys away from talk shows, agreed to appear with Reynolds because of the friendship they have shared since working together on the movie "W.W. and the Dixie Dancekings."

MCA Is Supporting Joe Ely With Full Promo Campaign

by Donna Barham

NASHVILLE — Joe Ely who released his first solo LP a little over a year ago, is now the object of a major marketing and promotional campaign by MCA Records, according to label officials.

A native of Lubbock, Texas, Ely achieved widespread critical acclaim with that first album, "Joe Ely," but only marginal airplay and sales.

"Not since the early stages in the careers of Lynyrd Skynyrd has an artist on the label achieved such overwhelming praise from the press," said John Brown, country marketing director for MCA.

"Ely's press credentials have aided in gaining airplay, which can be a difficult task for an album oriented artist," cited Jeff Lyman, national country promotion director for MCA. "But in this case, there have been instances where program directors have added Ely's records to their playlists simply because they have read something favorable on him in the trade publications or in the consumer press."

"Traditionally, country radio stations do not include album cuts in their formats," added Kelly Delaney, MCA's country publicity director. "Breaking an album action in country radio is difficult, but this has been our direction with Joe. Now we're compounding positive information to non-believers and country stations are responding by adding album cuts to its playlists."

With the release of Ely's second album, "Honky Tonk Masquerade," in February, MCA sponsored an international tour, "From Lubbock to London." Beginning with a kickoff party-concert in Austin and scene and his unorthodox recording methods. He also reminisced about his Sun Record days and the pleasure of recording Louis Armstrong.

Clement cut his musical teeth in the primitive Sun Recording Studio in Memphis, Tenn. in the mid-'50s, working under Sam Phillips (who discovered Elvis Presley). Clement went to work at Sun in 1956 and produced Roy Orbison as his first act. In the next few months, Clement produced and engineered Jerry Lee Lewis's classic "Whole Lot Of Shakin' Going On."

Clement's Method

Clement's description of that session provides an insight into the Clement method of recording — his firm belief that capturing the intangible 'feel' of a song is more important than technical perfection with numerous overdubs in Clement's opinion, most studios and the popular method of hiring session musicians hinder rather than help a record.

"We did 'Whole Lot Of Shakin' Going On' in one take," said Clement, who has built a 24-track studio in his house. "We had been working on a song I wrote called 'It'll be Me,' which eventually came out on the flip side. But we were kind of stuck because we had been working on it too long. I went out in the studio and said, 'Why don't we work on something else for awhile and get back to this?' Jerry's bass player, J.W. Brown, said, 'Jerry, why don't we do that song we been doing on the road that people like so much?' I went in and flipped on the mono Ampex and sat down. Jerry Lee did 'Whole Lot Of Shakin' Going On' and that was it — no overdubbing, no nothing. You get a surge when you do something once. You culminating with a performance at this year's Wembley Festival, Ely included 10 dates throughout Europe with Merle Haggard and was well received by country fans.

"We selected key cities where we wanted the band to perform and coordinated with his booking agency to arrange the dates," explained Brown. "Then we supported the dates to the various areas; obtaining local in-store airplay; running heavy amounts of radio advertising on key country and AOR stations; doing live radio broadcasts; and just basically covering all the bases to achieve full impact from his performances."

In addition to Austin, national stops on the tour included Houston, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Chicago, New York, Amherst, Atlanta and Nashville.

Most recently MCA and the Odyssey Record Store chain co-sponsored a "Joe Ely Breakout Party" in San Francisco, an area where he has a strong following. "The people from Odyssey showed interest in the product and wanted to do a full-fledge promotion on it," said Guy Covington, MCA sales manager for the Bay area. While San Francisco was the focal point, the promotion included all Odyssey stores, not only in California, but Washington, Idaho, Oregon, Utah, New Mexico, Arizona and Nevada as well. The promotion campaign was highlighted with a concert by Ely and his band at the Keystone Club in nearby Palo Alto. The performance was broadcast live over KFAT radio.

Brown said the odyssey promotion was

WILLIE NELSON (Columbia 3-10784)

Blue Skies (3:32) (Irving Berlin — ASCAP) (I. Berlin)

Willie is hotter than ever, and with his "Stardust" LP still dominating the country charts, this Irving Berlin song has been pulled from that album. Equally as strong, if not stronger, than his previous single, "Georgia On My Mind." This release should see instant adds across the country.

TAMMY WYNETTE (Epic 8-50574)

Womanhood (2:51) (Tree Publ. Co. — BMI) (B. Braddock)

Tammy's beautiful vocal style, coupled with a haunting instrumental beat, make this single a sure bet for programmers. Good placement of the male bass harmony adds to the all-around, captivating sound.

CONWAY TWITTY (MCA-40919)

Boogie Grass Band (2:19) (Bucksnot — BMI) (Ronnie Reno)

Strong bass guitar and good banjo work highlight this bluegrass tune. Conway mentions Bill Monroe along with other bluegrass giants and even closes out with some yodeling.

WHITE MANSIONS — Various Artists — A&M SP-6004 — Producer: Glyn Johns — List: 9.98

This concept album, written by Englishman Paul Kennerley, traces the lives of three characters, as seen through the eyes of a drifter, and how the three evolve as Southerners during the Civil War. The songs are sung by Waylon Jennings, Jessi Colter and the Ozark Mountain Daredevils' John Dillon and Steve Cash. The lyrics paint several vignettes of various issues of the Civil War, from slavery to "white trash" to the fall of a southern gentleman. Packaged with a 28-page libretto, the LP will be the focus of a major A&M campaign.

JERRY LEE LEWIS KEEPS ROCKIN' — Mercury SRM1-5010 — Producer: Jerry Kennedy — List: 7.98

Among his other endearing characteristics, Jerry Lee Lewis is highly unpredictable. Just when you think he has abandoned rock 'n' roll forever, what does Jerry Lee do but reach back and pound the ole piano harder than he has in years. There is some country on this album, but there are also new versions of "Blue Suede Shoes," "Sweet Little Sixteen" and "Lucille." His new single, "I'll Find It Where I Can," is not exactly parlor music. This is good. I lean Jerry Lee Lewis at his best.

LOVE ME WITH ALL YOUR HEART — Johnny Rodriguez Mercury SRM1-5011 — Producer: Jerry Kennedy — List: 7.98

It's hard to go wrong when you have the good looks and rich baritone of a Johnny Rodriguez. This album overall is not as strong as some of his previous records, but Rodriguez is one of country music's premier ballad singers, and he depends heavily on the slower numbers here. There is a mixture of old and new material. Rodriguez blends "Love Me With All Your Heart" and "Ramblin' Rose" with "It's Hard To Be A Cowboy These Days" and "Leavin' As Fast As I Can Crawl."

LOVE OR SOMETHING LIKE IT — Kenny Rogers — United Artists UA-LA903H — Producer: Larry Butler — List: 7.98

After a successful career in pop music, Kenny Rogers has moved steadily and surely into the country market and added a certain elegance to the field. No one in music possesses a more controlled, appealing voice, and Kenny can adapt to virtually any style of music. His new album runs the gamut from country to straight pop with a touch of rock. The title cut, "Momma's Waiting" and "We Could Have Been The Closest Of Friends" are outstanding.

get something you can't get any other way.

"When you are overdubbing, it sounds kind of nice when you are doing it," Clement added. "But you got to always remember you are messing around with time and space. The record you hear on the radio never happened all at once. Overdubbing is something I like to play with when I want to fool around with my 24-track, but I don't want to make all my records that way.

Produced Jennings

"I like to stack tracks and all that stuff, but I was doing that 20 years ago — mono to mono, mixing and echoing," continued Clement, who produced "Dreaming My Dreams," Waylon Jennings's first gold album. "I don't even want to use much equalization because I want to have a room that sounds like a room, not a recording studio. I think recording studios are the worst place in the world to make a record. I've already proven to myself I can make records in a house (Clement recorded his E/A album in his attic studio.)

Clement has been building the nucleus of a house band — a band he can take on the road and then bring back in and make records. "Peace and Quiet," Crystal Gayle's road band, works with him when the group is in town. And Clement has formed an alternate band, including a horn section and two female vocalists, which he utilizes on a continuous basis. In truth, Clement believes the present method of hiring session musicians makes little sense in making 'natural' music.

"I'm into learning several songs and working up a little repertoire with the band of stuff you are not even going to record — songs just to get the band moving and to get the licks out there," Clement said. "Then you can decide what you want to cut. A band has got to play more material than you are going to cut, and they need some instrumental stuff. People go into recording studios, and they don't have a warmup period like you do in any other athletic endeavor, and music is an athletic thing. You got to get your body into it. I make music in my attic up there and the musicians have to stand up. I want musicians to go out on a limb. You can't get musicians to go out on a limb in a clinical studio. There is a thing of sorta going for it that is lost around here. It rarely occurs to anybody to get out there and go for it. So you fall off the limb every now and then, nobody's gonna say anything.

"Also, there is no pacing in a studio," Clement added. "You go in a studio, and they want the tape rolling in five minutes. One thing about mono, you had to run the thing through four or five times so the engineer could get his part down. I think it is wrong to learn a song and then record it. I think you ought to learn a song over several days with a band. You should experiment with it in different keys and different tempos, and then cut the thing. But you go imagine a studio musician having to deal with up to four uptight producers in a day's time — four different soap operas? It can drain you.

Clement Begins Recording

"But I'm proud of my studio here," Clement continued. "The studio is something I have had to do in spite of everybody because nobody understood what I was doing. The studio has been a fight — not using baffles, earphones, all that stuff. I waited them all out. All these young elves I've got around here have never done it this way. They have never made a record in three minutes. That is what I really want to do. I may take six months getting it ready, but I am gonna cut something in three minutes. That is one of the reasons it took me a year-and-a-half to cut my album. I said I can cut one in 30 minutes, but it takes a year-and-a-half to cut one in that time."

Clement is well aware his views are singular and a touch off-center. But other people's opinions are not his concern. Clement is concerned with making music.

"I get a big kick out of myself," said Clement, who once produced a horror movie, "Dear Dead Delilah," starring the late Agnes Moorhead and the late Will Geer. "I

MASTER OF CEREMONIES BILL MACK (WBAP)

The Country Column

MCA's Bill Anderson is the proud father of a 7-lb. boy born June 25. He and wife, Becky, have named their first born James William, IV. Congratulations Bill and Becky. In other news, Bill's touring schedule for most of July includes dates throughout the Midwest. Because of his recent success as a game host and in a soap opera cameo spot, more of the same is brewing for the future.

Churchill recording artist Don Drumm paid a recent visit to the Cash Box office. Don has put a new band together that he really believes in and will begin touring as soon as everything is ready. In the meantime, he will continue doing commercials and playing in Chicago clubs. "Just Another Rhinestone" is hot on the CB singles chart at #37 and his album is "Bedroom Eyes."

Bill Anderson

Vern Goshlin's new manager, Ron Blackwood, has big plans for the Elektra artist beginning with a solution to the identity problem and improving Vern's public image. It seems Vern has picked up the Nickname 'The Hawk' because his style is recognized as free flowing and high flying — so in the future, all of Vern's dress will be patterned after the free flowing and high flying design of the hawk.

MCA's Loretta Lynn recently made her second appearance on Tom Snyder's "Tomorrow" show. During the interview, Loretta admitted that she was responsible for the stage name her sister Brenda uses. Seems that while passing the Krystal hamburger place, Loretta commented that that would be a good name for an up and coming young star. So — 'K' was changed to 'C' and thus emerged Crystal Gayle.

Back Door Record's Chuck McDermott and Wheatstraw made a recent appearance at the Old Time Picking Parlor. The country band hails from Boston which goes to show that country entertainers come from all over.

RCA Records has just released a new single by Dickey Lee called "My Heart Won't Cry Anymore." ABC recording artist Don Williams, Noel Fox, and songwriters Bob McDill and Wayland Holyfield joined to form the background vocalists on the cut. The song was written by Pam Hand Byer and Eva Aldridge.

The Statler Brothers recently completed a concert tour that grossed over a million dollars. The Mercury artists, along with special guest star Barbara Mandrell of ABC Records, entertained on 32 concert dates during the first half of 1978 and drew over 202,000 fans, including 16 sellouts. The Statlers next tour is scheduled for September.

Rumor has it that TCB Band, composed of Elvis Presley's musicians James Burton, Glen D. Hardin, Ron Tutt, Jerry Scheff and Emery Gordy, will be releasing an album on the Inergi label. A single of the album will be released immediately from the forthcoming LP.

Newsweek Broadcasting Service selected Jeannie C. Riley for one of its three-minute "Today's Woman" features. Filming was done in and around the Riley home, with Jeannie readying daughter Kim for her 8th grade graduation and later onstage in concert. "Today's Woman," a New York based production is syndicated in 55 markets nationwide and concentrates on news, celebrity profiles and issues of particular interest to women. Jeannie is also set to make her fourth appearance on the PTL Club July 10. Joining her will be Jamie Buckingham, the author of the book, "Harper Valley to the Mountaintop," to be released this summer.

The original RCA Nashville Studio B, the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum's first exhibit located apart from their building, celebrated its first full year as a tourist attraction in mid-June. Some 33,485 visitors toured the facility during its first year of operation.

Ariola's Mac McAnally recently performed at the Exit Inn before two packed houses. Songs included cuts off his new album "No Problem Here" (he wrote all the songs) and other songs from his repertoire such as "It's A Crazy World" and "Real People." Opening for Mac was Mercury artist Robert Byrne. Byrne won this year's American Song Festival for his tune "Bound To Know The Blues."

Ovation Records didn't know it had hired a recording artist when Joe Sun was hired as director of country promotion, that is until he cut "Old Flames (Can't Hold A Candle To You)." After two weeks on the Cash Box singles charts it is already #68 bullet. Joe was formerly a DJ in Key West, and coming to Nashville five years ago from Minnesota, has rekindled his interests in songwriting and harmonica playing. He and producer Brian Fisher have almost completed an album which they hope will be ready for release in September. In the meantime Joe will be putting a band together and getting ready to go on the road, hopefully in August.

GRT Shuttters Its Nashville Office

NASHVILLE — After nearly four years of operation as a country record label here, GRT Records has announced that it will close its offices effective July 1.

Tom McEntee, director of Nashville operations, said the closing has been expected for quite some time.

GRT's pressing plant and distribution operations will not be affected by the closing. However, recently Scorpion announced it has discontinued its distribution agreement with GRT.

The closing of GRT is the second label in recent months to discontinue operations in Nashville.

Vintage Vault Albums Released By Gusto

NEW YORK — Gusto will release four new albums in their King Vintage Vault Series which draws on 1950's masters from the vaults of King, Federal and Deluxe Records. Included in the release are "14 Original Greatest Hits-The Five Keys," "17 Original Greatest Hits-The Five Royales," "16 Original Greatest Hits-Otis Williams And His Charms," and "King-Federal Rockabillys" featuring Mac Curtis and Charlie Feathers.

Other albums being prepared for the series are "Starday-Dixie Rockabillys," featuring George Jones and Link Wray, four gospel albums, including a Swan Silvertones package, and a Wynonie Harris album.

Sumner Hospitalized

NASHVILLE — Entertainer J.D. Sumner, who traveled for years with the late Elvis Presley and sang bass harmony on his records and in concerts, recently underwent open-heart surgery here.

For the past few months, Sumner has been traveling on the road headlining his own "The J.D. Sumner Show." However, he suffered a heart attack June 21. During an examination, doctors discovered he had previously suffered an unreported mild heart attack and recommended surgery.

like to sit back and watch me and see what I am going to do next. I'm serious most of the time, especially when it comes to making music. But I am not serious-minded. You know, music is unorthodox. All of the greatest artists that I have ever known were unorthodox. Are people looking for a poet or a businessman? Elektra gave me enough money that I owe them a professional job. I'm gonna go out there and sing. If they want me to go on the road, that's fine. I'll do whatever it takes. I like to give people their money's worth. I would also like to do some producing for Elektra, but they don't seem too interested in hearing it. I might just produce some stuff on JMI, press up 50 copies and hand them out at filling stations. I never did make records just to make money anyway."

Clement never produced the late Elvis Presley (Presley left Sun Records a few months before Clement joined the company), but he remembers hearing Presley for the first time — it was a sound which changed the pace of popular music.

"People have forgotten that Elvis started off strictly as a sound," Clement said. "They immediately responded to that sound — a long time before they saw him gyrating around. I remember hearing his first record, "That's All Right, Mama," for the first time. I heard it the next day after Dewey (Memphis d.j.) had played it the night before. Somebody came on the radio and said, 'here is that record everybody has been calling in about.' I mean it was instant.

'JASON' IN NASHVILLE — Jon Walmsley, better known as Jason on "The Waltons," recently completed recording work at Pete Drake's Studio here. Walmsley also signed a booking contract with the Nashville-based Lavender-Blake Agency. Shown in the studio are Shorty Lavender, Walmsley and Pete Drake.

MCA Backs Ely

so successful and listener response so overwhelming that the same basic program is planned for Los Angeles, Dallas, Minneapolis and other markets. Additionally, Ely recently performed at the Western Merchandisers Convention in Amarillo and is scheduled to entertain at the Record Bar Convention in Nashville during August.

"Our basic goal is to create an industry awareness of Joe at all levels," summed up Brown.

While airplay has steadily increased at country and AOR stations, MCA is also busy building Ely an audience at the college level. He is scheduled to appear later this year at several regional conventions of the National Entertainment and Campus Activities Association (NECAA).

"Response from college radio stations has been extremely pleasing," Lyman said. "Much of this was due to his performance of the 'Thirsty Ear' program." This is a syndicated show combining the taped live concert and interview format that is being aired on approximately 150 college radio stations.

"It has been a slow steady process," concluded Brown. "But we believe in Joe Ely and his music, and with a little luck, he should be a well established artist soon."

It was a breath of fresh air on the air waves. I loved it. The record was just a lead guitar and a bass with Elvis playing rhythm guitar. He made charming records. It shouldn't have stayed at that raw point all the time, but it should have always been able to revert to that. Elvis went Hollywood. That's what happened to him."

Clement has worked closely with Waylon Jennings. Jennings and Clements are also personal friends. Unlike some major performers, Clements believes Jennings still places high priority on his music.

"Waylon still has a spark," Clement said. "He is a lone ranger in my opinion, and he is going to remain a lone ranger. He is gonna make some bad records, but he is gonna make some exquisite records. Waylon is still moving."

Although Clement has worked with the likes of Jennings, Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee, Chet Atkins and other industry giants, he holds special reverence for the late Louis Armstrong.

"The week I spent working with Louis Armstrong was one of the most rewarding experiences of my producing career," Clement said. "He is my favorite all-time guy to work with. I produced an album on him about 10 years ago. I sent him about 25 songs to pick from — some things I had written, some things I just liked. I took a band up to New York. We got to the session and here he comes walking in, looking just like a walking statue. There he was. He was great. That is one thing I would like another shot at, working with Louis Armstrong."

COUNTRY RADIO

THE COUNTRY MIKE

KFIX GOES COUNTRY IN K.C. — Kansas City has yet another country radio outlet as Strauss Broadcasting's KFIX-AM announced plans to switch the station from adult contemporary to country. At the same time, KFIX has announced that they have hired Don Rhea as music director. Rhea had previously been with KCKN/Kansas City for more than 16 years. In addition, KFIX has hired other staff members who were formerly with KCKN, including Mike Shanin, who was most recently operations manager, and before that, news director at KCKN. Shanin will hold the title of station manager at KFIX-AM. KFIX-FM will continue with its present adult contemporary format. Joe Abernathy is VP/GM for both stations. Station sources indicated the target date for the format change will be July 17. KFIX was formerly KBIL, a Mack Sanders station. Congratulations to Don Rhea on his new position and the fact that he'll be back working the morning shift, as he has for the past 16 years. Rhea can be reached at 816-3400.

Lee Shannon

MUSIC DIRECTOR PROFILE — It's a long way from Shubert, Nebraska to Indianapolis, but that's the trip Lee Shannon has taken in broadcasting during the past 20 years. Shannon started at KTNC/Falls City, Nebraska in 1958. From there he went to KNIM/Maryville, Missouri and KNCY/Nebraska City. In the early '60s Shannon gravitated between KSTT/Davenport, Iowa and KFDI/Wichita. Shannon has also had stints at WKBN/Youngstown, Ohio and WQUA/Moline, Illinois. In 1968 Shannon went to WIRE/Indianapolis, where he has been ever since. Most of those years have been spent as music director.

Fred Hildebrand, general manager for KVOC/Casper, Wyoming, confirmed that Ron Tatar from WWOK/Miami will be starting as PD sometime around the middle of July. Hildebrand says Tatar will also play a part in the selection of music, along with music director Barb Richardson. You should be able to reach Tatar after July 1 at 307-265-2727.

As most of you have heard by now, the ARB figures that have come back so far are some what less than impressive. WHN/New York, KLAC/Los Angeles, WMAQ/Chicago and WJJD/Chicago all lost points in the April/May sweep. On the other hand, WGBS/Los Angeles, WSNI/Philadelphia and WHIM/Providence had increases in their ratings. Things may look grim, but all the stations losing points still look good in their respective markets considering the size of those markets, and until the ratings from some of the other markets come in, it's really too soon to generalize about how country radio has performed during this book. As usual... Country Mike will keep you informed.

WWVA Begins Full-Scale Campaign For Second 'Jamboree In The Hills'

WHEELING, WEST VA. — Radio WWVA here has launched a major advertising campaign in support of the second Jamboree in the Hills, the two-day country music show slated for July 15 and 16 at the Brush Run Park amphitheatre.

Spot radio time on a one-and-two-week 'flight' basis, on country music radio stations in 25 markets in the northeastern and midwestern United States, plus weekend newspaper display space in the same markets are the media base of the WWVA campaign.

Television was added to the media campaign this year utilizing film clips from the 1977 'Jamboree In The Hills.' The film excerpts were taken from the two-hour television show produced and marketed on Home Box Office Television by the Columbia Pictures Pay Television Division.

Target Markets

Target markets for the promotion of "Jamboree In The Hills '78" included: Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Allentown, Johnstown and York in Pennsylvania; Buffalo, Lancaster, Schenectady, Troy and Rochester in New York State; Columbus, Cleveland, Akron and Youngstown in Ohio; plus Washington D.C. and Baltimore, Maryland.

Other local level promotion including follow-up deejay promos and contests are also being arranged for this First Class Blue Ribbon Country Music Spectacular.

The 'Jamboree In The Hills' radio spots, primarily one-minute commercials in shows appealing to country music fans, stress the roster of country music stars due to appear at the outdoor event (Bill Anderson, Moe Bandy, Roy Clark and Buck Trent, Dick Curless, Dave Dudley, Crystal Gayle, Tom T. Hall, Barbara Mandrell, Ronnie Milsap, Stella Parton, Charley Pride, Dave and Sugar, Mel Tillis, Mary Lou Turner, The Blue Ridge Quartet), and the all-family aspects of the two day attraction. Adult tickets are $25 for the two-day event.

30 Per Week

Average-per-market frequency for the radio spots was 30 per week. Newspaper ads are couponed for mail ordering of tickets directly from the "Jamboree In The Hills '78" office at WWVA. This year VISA and Master Charge can be used to purchase tickets. About 23% of all orders have been purchased with one of the cards. A toll-free number (1-800-624-5456) is also available for everyone outside of West Virginia.

Nelson Expands Publishing Firm

NASHVILLE — Columbia Records artist Willie Nelson has opened offices here for his Willie Nelson Music Publishing Co., newly appointed general manager Charlie Williams announced last week.

Approximately 10 years ago, after Nelson left Tree Publishing, Nelson set up Willie Nelson Music primarily to house his own songs. The company has been administered by the Neil Roshen organization in Danbury, Conn. Williams said Nelson now plans to expand the company by signing new artists and working his catalog, which includes Johnny Bush's classic "Whisky River."

"Willie and I have been friends for some 20 years," said Williams, who wrote the liner notes on Nelson's first album. "We got together not too long ago, and he said he had decided to activate his publishing company and sign new writers. He wants to expand the scope of Willie Nelson Music. We will be looking for good songs, not just country songs. I don't think anymore there is any such thing as a country song or a pop song. There are just good and bad songs."

Willie Nelson Music includes such Nelson songs as "Good Hearted Woman" and "Pick Up The Tempo." The offices will be located at 59 Music Square West.

Orbison Ends Affiliation

NEW YORK — Roy Orbison has discontinued his affiliation with Monument Records. Terms of the agreement include Orbison's purchase of his unreleased new album. Monument retains the rights to its catalog of previously released Orbison material.

TV Campaign Set By Licorice Pizza

LOS ANGELES — The 20-store Licorice Pizza chain here began a unique institutional advertising campaign June 26 on local TV aimed at promoting its image as a full line retailer with reduced prices and comfortable surroundings.

Consisting of 141 spots running 26 days, the campaign is an attempt to capitalize on the chain's name through the slogan "Licorice Pizza, the tastiest music in town."

In two 30-second and four 10-second spots, six different professional actors, playing typical record buyers, talk about the stores' attributes, take a bit out of an LP, and close with the slogan.

John Houghton, vice president of the chain, in a two-day video presentation to press, vendors, distributor and branch people, explained that the TV theme will be used in radio and print spots as well. Store personnel will wear T-shirts imprinted with the slogan, "Licorice Pizza, the tastiest music in town," and the LP-with-a-bite-missing logo.

Looking ahead, Houghton noted, "We feel that if we have a strong enough campaign, vendors will want to get involved in the future on a co-op basis."

NBC Gets 'Sound Of Music' Rights For $21.5 Million

LOS ANGELES — NBC-TV and 20th Century-Fox Film Corp. have agreed in principle to the licensing by Fox to NBC of the motion picture "Sound of Music" over a long-term period for the sum of $21.5 million, according to Alan Ladd, Jr., president of 20th Century-Fox Pictures.

NBC will have the right to televise "Sound of Music" 20 times over a period of 22 years, under terms of the agreement, beginning when the film is first available in October 1979.

E/A To Issue 7 Albums

LOS ANGELES — Seven albums are scheduled to be released July 11 by Elektra/Asylum Records. These albums include David Gates' "Goodbye Girl," "Laura Allan," "Thistles" by Bim, "Cred," "Blood Brothers" by the Dictators, "Tony Orlando" and "Carole Bayer Sager . . . Too."

Rogers & Cowan Named

LOS ANGELES — New York's Civic Hall Preservation Project Corp. (CHPPC) a subsidiary of the New York State Urban Development Corp., has retained Rogers and Cowan, Inc., as consultants. The CHPPC was established "to insure the present operation of Radio City Music Hall and to conduct a feasibility study of long-term financing arrangements." Rogers and Cowan will serve the CHPPC board of directors on the interim and long-term programming of Radio City Music Hall.

NMPA Covers Copyright Law At Annual Meeting

NEW YORK — Educating music publishers to the complexities of the new U.S. Copyright Law was a central issue at the annual meeting of the National Music Publishers' Association (NMPA) held last Wednesday in the Terrace Room of the Plaza Hotel.

The law, which went into effect January 1st, is the first revision of the copyright law since 1909. Described as a "major overhaul" by NMPA publicist Joel Vance, it was the subject of at least four speeches at the meeting, attended by over 150 music publishers.

NMPA president Leonard Feist and attorney Peter L. Felcher reviewed the implementation and effects of the law as well as the educational program sponsored and directed by NMPA to familiarize members with it. He announced that a questionnaire will be sent to members this Fall to sample their experience with administering the law. Feist also announced upcoming workshop seminars in New York, Los Angeles and Nashville, titled "Copyright Revision Revisited."

In addition, Ernest L. Farmer, chairman of NMPA's Printed Product Committee reported that the committee will disseminate the booklet, "The New U.S. Copyright Law: A Guide For Music Educators."

Feist also announced that the Association enrolled 45 new members since the last annual meeting in June 1977, bringing their total to 170, the highest in the organization's 61 year history.

Officers elected to serve NMPA for the coming year were: Leonard Feist, president; Ralph Peer II, Wesley H. Rose and Michael Stewart, vice presidents; Sidney Herman, treasurer; Leon Brettler, secretary; and Al Brackman, assistant secretary.

Warners To Distribute ECM In No. America

LOS ANGELES — Warner Bros. Records and ECM Records have recently signed a U.S. and Canadian manufacturing and distribution pact. Under the terms of the agreement, ECM product will be manufactured and marketed in North America by Warner Bros.

Eight albums are scheduled to be released soon under the Warner/ECM agreement. These albums include: "Gateway 2" by John Abercrombie, Dave Holland & Jack DeJohnette; "Silent Feet" by Eberhard Weber and Colours; Dave Holland's "Emerald Tears"; "Pat Metheny Group"; "My Song" by Keith Jarrett; "Sol Do Meio Dia" by Egberto Gismonti; John Abercrombie's "Characters," and "Of Mist And Melting" by Bill Connors.

Thorogood Re-signs With Rounder Label

LOS ANGELES — Rounder recording group George Thorogood and The Destroyers has re-signed with the label for two more albums to be delivered within the next two years. One of those albums has already been recorded and is scheduled to be released in September.

In addition to albums, Rounder is releasing Thorogood product on tape, singles and EPs.

Calello, April-Blackwood Announce Agreement

NEW YORK — April-Blackwood Music has entered into a co-publishing agreement with Charles Calello's publishing companies, Calello Music and Space Cowboy Music.

Black Stations Aim Formats At General Market Audiences

by Carita Spencer

LOS ANGELES — The composition of black radio station formats are basically the same as any tightly formatted radio station, according to a recent nationwide survey conducted by WDAO, the only black radio station in Dayton, Ohio. Statistics released by the stations program director, John "Turk" Logan, indicate that a vast majority of black stations build their programming around a "general market" format, meaning that the programming is more similar to the contemporary Top 40 stations.

The question and answer survey was conducted in April, 1978 in the form of a mail-out which was sent to over 105 stations across the country. According to Logan, over 60 percent of the stations responded to the survey. Some of the stations which participated were WMBM-AM in Miami, Florida; KOAD-AM in Lemoore, California; WOIC-AM in Columbia, S.C.; WBAD-FM in Greenville, Mississippi; WJPC-AM and KDAY-AM in Los Angeles as well as KATZ-AM, St. Louis, Missouri and WBLS-FM in New York.

Findings

Interestingly, the survey found that a number of Top 40 stations are also programming black music. Based on the response from the black stations 70 percent contend that non-black stations in the markets surveyed play black music. Seventy four percent of the black stations said that the Top 40 stations in their respective markets play music by black artists only after they (the black stations) have taken the record off their playlists.

"This problem was prevalent at a lot of the black stations that responded to the questionnaires," says Logan. "This is good for the artists because they have the opportunity to crossover. From a programming standpoint, however, it's not too good because the Top 40 stations begin programming this music as 'new music' and this is seemingly strong during the ratings periods because listeners will tune in to these stations."

A Solution

As a possible solution to counter-program Top 40 stations Logan suggests that once a certain record is taken off the playlist, it should be placed in an "oldies" or lower rotation in the format. As a result, the record can continue to receive airplay even though it's not in the regular survey. At the same time, the station retains its listeners.

The questionnaires also revealed that 62 percent of the stations surveyed utilize a playlist of 40 or fewer tunes, with one-third of the stations having a list of thirty or less which include (along with the popular tunes) "hit bound" and "extras" (tunes which have hit potential). Additionally, the majority of the stations feature a significant number of new album selections plus some sort of gold (oldie), generally two an hour.

Logan also points out that most or almost all of the black stations feature some form of gospel programming, generally on Sunday morning. Jazz programs are also scheduled, he says, for the most part on Sunday's or late in the evening. By contrast, only a few of the stations feature programs devoted to blues, while nearly every station features the more popular blues in its regular rotation.

Says Logan, "A lot of stations play blues when they want to as opposed to featuring it as an integral part of their format. We're trying to hit the over 35 market with good gut-bucking blues, so we make our announcers

THE RHYTHM SECTION

UP TO BAT for the third time, Rose Royce (with two platinum successes, "Car Wash" and "In Full Bloom", in their discography) is set to release a single "I'm In Love (And I Love The Feeling)". That will occur within the next week or so with the album "Rose Royce Strikes Again" to follow in August. Kenny Copeland, trumpeter/vocalist steps forward on the aforementioned single while guitarist Kenji Brown handles the vocals on "Help" (not the Beatles version). Of course, Gwen "Rose" Dickey contributes her inimitable vocals on several numbers including "Love Don't Live Here Anymore." It's definitely more versatile than they have been in the past, producer Norman Whitfield says it's their "best yet" . . . Johnny Bristol stopped by CB to deliver copies of his new Atlantic LP "Strangers" which he produced and also wrote/collaborated on all the material. You might be attracted to the side with the already popular single "Waiting On Love" but be sure and check out "You Can't Have Love (Without Complications)" and "I'm So Proud Of You" . . . At a recent showcase at the Roxy in L.A., ABC recording artists Shotgun, armed with double-barrel funk, gave an exuberant performance not to mention the encore of "Good, Bad and Funky" from their current LP. Their next effort is in the planning stages.

COMMUNICATORS OF TOMORROW and the Rod McGrew Scholarship Fund, Inc. are organizing the male Communicators With A Conscience Award, a testimonial dinner commemorating the first anniversary of the scholarship fund which aids aspiring communicators with their college tuition and fees. The dinner is designed to acknowledge communicators in the music industry for their conscientous efforts in creating music. It will be

'Elvis: Memories' To Air August 13 On ABC Network

LOS ANGELES — "Elvis: Memories," a three-hour music and interview program featuring the singer-movie star's biggest hits, will be broadcast over ABC Radio's American Contemporary Network on August 13. The program will be broadcast from 3-6 p.m. in all U.S. time zones.

Hosted by WABC air personality George Michaels, the program marks the first time since her husband's death that Priscilla Presley has agreed to discuss publicly her years with Elvis. In addition, Elvis' closest friends and members of his personal staff will talk of their experiences with "the King." Those granting first-time interviews include Joe Esposito, best man at the Presley wedding, and Charlie Hodge, an old Army buddy who now works for the Presley estate.

Recording stars Tom Jones and Neil Diamond discuss the man and his music on the show, and film producer Hal Wallis sheds light on the man and his movies. Conversations with Carl Perkins and Billy Swan are also included.

Polygram Keys Multi-Label Theme

(MGM), "Tommy" (Polydor), as well as a host of MGM musical LPs highlighted by "Doctor Zhivago" and "Gone With The Wind."

"This is the first opportunity we've had to put together a program of this nature," Peisinger said. "The rapid growth of the organization within the past year has made it impossible until now to hone in on certain segments of our catalog. If we achieve nothing more than getting the catalog from out of the back of the stores and into displays, the campaign will be a success."

The soundtrack campaign — the initial promotion from the firm's recently-created marketing development department — will carry a 5% invoice discount from July 1 through July 21. Polygram will also support the program with a "Dateline" four-color poster for in-store display in addition to display materials for the individual program albums.

held at the Century Plaza Hotel on July 21, tickets are $100 and $75. For info call the communicators or the scholarship fund at (213) 466-2466. . . . The 4th annual Jackson Music Awards were held recently at the Mississippi Trade Mart Center in Jackson with the Soul Children and Dorothy Moore performing. Moore received a warm welcome in her hometown, capturing three awards for Female Vocalist of the Year, Best Recording by a Single Artist (for "I Believe You") as well as the Entertainer of the Year. . . . Millie Jackson incorporates music, comedy and magic stunts into a show she produces titled "Get It Out 'Cha System" (also the title of her latest LP on Spring). The show centers around material from this and previous LPs and will begin a national tour of major cities in August. The Moments and ventriloquist, Starvin' Marvin will also be a part of the action.

LAYING DOWN TRACKS, Chaka Khan is in the studio on the east coast, with producer Arif Mardin. Her debut effort for WB is scheduled for an October release. . . . Meanwhile Rufus made a guest appearance at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion for an October release. play it. At WDAO, we play the hard core blues that you don't see on the trade charts. We've gotten positive responses from our audience, even from our younger listeners."

Sources

Logan adds that according to the survey, 70 percent of the stations use the audience (call-outs) as their source for selecting music. However, Black Radio Exclusive was the most popular source used. As with other major market formats, most black stations feature music on their lists from two to seven weeks and hold contests at various times throughout the year.

As program director since 1976, Logan feels that the "hit bound" category is significant in that it provides an opportunity for a record to eventually move into the regular survey. The extras category, he says, is an opportunity for local groups to get airplay, additionally serving as a means of testing audience reaction to a record. (Sun, Heatwave, Faze-O, Slave and the Ohio Players are some of the more popular groups to emerge from the Ohio area).

In sum, Logan feels that from the air personality standpoint, the fact that black stations have become more general market oriented, is good because it results in more advertising and subsequently more dollars and ultimately higher salaries.

"From a ratings standpoint," he adds, "it's good in the long-run but not at this point because this isn't being reflected in the ARB books. At this point they (Arbitron) are being challenged by a number of stations because they don't give an accurate reading of the general market outside of the ethnic breakout. This only measures listeners in relation to our specific format, but doesn't take into consideration others who may be listeners and may not be black."

At a recent promotional activity on behalf of the station, a "Meet The Air Personalities" day held at the courthouse square in downtown Dayton, Logan says that over 2,000 people turned out for the event. "Approximately 30 percent of the people there were white," he says, "all of our air personalities are black."

"WDAO is a 50,000 watt, FM stereo, black-owned station," he continues, "but we play all good music. If it's good and fits our format, we'll play it. And that includes Andy Gibb and the Bee Gees."

Hubbard Gets Back To Jazz

was fortunate the album came out as good as it did under the circumstances."

While not a return to strict '50s and '60s mainstream jazz, Hubbard's new album, "Super Blue," re-creates the jam session style of that period with a basic combo comprised of Ron Carter, Jack DeJohnette, Joe Henderson, Hubert Laws and Kenny Baron. "I like this album because it's more of the direction Freddie Hubbard wants to take," he said. "Now, I'm not saying this is the only style I'm going to play, but on this particular album I wanted people to know that Freddie Hubbard is still playing his music, his roots — instead of trying to become a rock 'n' roller, which I'm not."

"It was very difficult when I made that decision (to return to straight ahead jazz) because I thought I might lose all the rock fans I had accumulated over the last few years. But everywhere I went on my last tour, the kids were coming up and saying 'When are you going to play your music?' I said 'Why don't you like this?' They said 'It's not really you.'"

In Hubbard's opinion, this is one of the major drawbacks faced by crossover artists — a loss of identity as all the music begins to sound the same. "I think guys are losing themselves in it because there are so many other musicians that can take electronic instruments and get the same sound," Hubbard mused. "It's very difficult to inject feeling, which is basically what jazz is — more feeling, I would say than technique — and it's hard to keep an identifiable sound."

Experience

Hubbard went on to note that experience is another indispensable ingredient in jazz music. Citing Miles Davis as an example, he explained. "Miles' music is a reflection of life, something that grows until the music is part of you. When Miles is playing you start thinking about Harlem, St. Louis, everybody hanging out, drugs — it's a whole big scene."

Besides rekindling his interest in mainstream jazz, Hubbard said playing last summer with Herbie Hancock's acoustic VSOP band made him more aware of his role in carrying on the tradition that began

National Endowment For The Arts, told the federation's 1,200 delegates that if Congress approves the full funding level proposed by President Carter for the endowment ($150 million), funds available for music programs will jump to $17.3 million, representing an increase of $3 million.

"This represents a commitment on my part to the field of music," Biddle said in his address. He also made note of the fact that opera will become a separate program within the endowment. Should Congress grant the full appropriation asked by the President, Biddle said that the union's orchestra funding would increase to $8.4 million from $6.8 million.

Artists On The Air

RCA's Bonnie Tyler appears on "The David Frost Show" July 5.

Jose Feliciano guests on "The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson" also on July 5.

Motown group Rare Earth is featured on Dick Clark's "American Bandstand" July 8.

ABC Records group The Four Tops will guest on "Good Morning, Detroit" July 14.

Helen Reddy hosts NBC's "The Midnight Special" July 14 with performances by Linda Ronstadt, the Bee Gees, Earth, Wind & Fire, Kris Kristofferson & Rita Coolidge, Neil Sedaka with The Captain and Tennille, Aretha Franklin, George Carlin and a salute to Alice Cooper.

Ronnie Milsap guests July 28 on NBC's "Today Show."

Leo Sayer hosts "The Midnight Special" July 28 edition with guests Randy Newman, Bonnie Tyler, Demis Roussos, Chuck Mangione, Raydio and Gary Busey, star of "The Buddy Holly Story."

Bar-B-Q Records artist Caroline Peyton makes her national television debut July 31 on "Dinah!"

The Bay City Rollers appear in NBC's "Krofft Superstar Hour" which debuts September with Louis Armstrong and King Oliver and was passed on through people like Charlie Parker, Dizzy Gillespie and Davis. "I'm one of the guys who has to carry on this music," he said. "If I stop, who's going to play it?"

"Over the years, jazz in this country has been put into a box; now that box is beginning to open. But if I stop playing the music, an important part of the culture will be lost."

When asked about touring, Hubbard said he was leaving for Europe the following day, hence the barrage of interviews all at once. He added that economic pressures make it extremely difficult to put a top notch band on the road today. "I'm accustomed to playing with musicians like Ron Carter and Herbie Hancock on my albums," he said, "but when it comes time to perform the music live, you run into a lot of complications because most of the really good guys don't want to travel unless they can make a lot of money."

As a result, he continued, "You end up getting some young guys, having them listen to the album and more or less try to emulate what they heard. And it doesn't always come off as well as, say, starting with musicians like George Benson and Harvey Mason and guys like that who have experience."

But Hubbard is confident this won't be a problem with his current outfit, which includes Carl Burnett (drums), Hadley Caliman (sax and flute), Larry Klein (bass) and Billy Childs (keyboards). "Everybody except the piano player have been with me for about a year," he pointed out, "so by the time we play the Roxy in August we'll be really tight. We're going to be playing most of the music off this last album."

Hubbard admists that the life of a jazzman is not an easy one. "If I would have known what it's like being a jazz artist, I think I would have finished school and tried to be a teacher or something," he joked. "You wouldn't believe the headaches."

So, what is it that keeps him going? "When I'm playing this music with my band, I feel I'm doing something that nobody else can do," he said. "That's the satisfaction I get — playing the trumpet, the band sounding good; it's the best high you can get."

Rock Promoter Honored

LOS ANGELES — Bill Gerber, promoter of the free rock concert series at the John Anson Ford Theatre presented by radio station KWST from late April through mid-June, was presented an Award of Merit by county administrator for the Music and Performing Arts Commission, Jay Foster, recently. The award cited Gerber "for his efforts to create an extraordinary arts venture, combining county government, nationally prominent artists, musicians union local 47 and private business, to produce the United States first free public rock concert series."

Wilson sustained only minor injuries and is expected to be working again in late July . . . The United States Committee for UNICEF and International Year of the Child has named Kirshner recording group Kansas as Deputy Ambassadors of Goodwill in Perpetuity. The lifetime appointment is the first ever given to a music group. The presentation of the honor was made June 28 just before the band's Madison Square Garden concert that evening. The title was awarded Kansas because a large portion of the proceeds of the concert were donated to the Children's Fund of the United Nations and also because the group has volunteered to participate in a series of UNICEF-related activities throughout the world during 1979.

BOB'S BACK PAGES, FRONT PAGES TOO — "Bob Dylan: An Illustrated History" (Grosset & Dunlap, $6.95) is a comprehensive, photojournalistic look at Dylan's career from the time he was just another student at Hibbing High School in Minnesota up to and including "Renaldo and Clara" and his recent Playboy interview. The 150-page book, produced by Michael Gross, contains 120 photos with text written by Robert Alexander. The text underlies the tie between the social and political events of the times and Dylan's development in music. One of the interesting stories is how when Dylan's first album sold minimally at first, for a short time he was referred to as "Hammond's Folly" by some people who thought John Hammond had erred in signing him to Columbia. There is also critical discussion of many of Dylan's key albums, plus a chronology of events (at the end of the book) from 1940 (the first entry: "Smokey Robinson born") to 1976 (last entry: "Gary Gilmore executed, Salt Lake City"). Following Dylan's recent Amphitheatre stint, by the way, numerous celebrities, as expected, wanted to go backstage and meet or talk to Bob. There was, however, only one person Bob said he really wanted to meet: Elvis Costello, who went backstage twice and came away suitably impressed. Dylan decided of Elvis, "He's a pretty normal guy" . . . Rafferty-mania: on the heels of Gerry Rafferty's "Baker Street" success, a number of related items will be appearing shortly. A&M Records will release "The Best of Stealer's Wheel" (Rafferty's old band), while ABC will re-issue Rafferty's first solo album, "Can I Have My Money Back." And London Records has put out a single by Jim Rafferty, Gerry's brother, produced by Gerry.

SHORT TAKES — The Doobie Brothers are working on a new album at Wally Heider Studios in San Francisco with Ted Templeman producing . . . Upcoming concerts in Los Angeles with Angel, Chuck Mangione and Village People, will be recorded for (separate live albums) . . . Jem Records importers have a new collection of "CBS Rockabilly Classics Vol. 1," featuring 20 cuts from almost a dozen rockabilly artists . . . Wolf & Rissmiller Concerts reports that tickets for Van Halen's Long Beach Arena concert July 9 sold out within three hours of when they went on sale. That is 9,200 tickets . . . The Joshua Light Show, former mainstays at the Fillmore East among other venues, will appear in 20th Century-Fox's "The Rose" starring Bette Midler . . . Casablanca's The Sylvers have signed with the William Morris Agency for representation in the personal appearance and television fields . . . The 2nd Annual Chicago Beatles Fan Convention is set for July 7 and 8 at the Palmer House Hotel in downtown Chicago . . . Capricorn's Stillwater is in the studio with producer Buddy Buie working on a new album entitled "I Reserve The Right," due for September release . . . The Preservation Hall Jazz Band performs at UCLA's Royce Hall July 7 and 8 . . . Neil Sedaka will co-produce his next E/A album with Artie Butler. It is set for September release . . . Ron Wilson, a caterer who has handled parties for several record industry, as well as non-industry functions, has been named catering director of the French Market Place. He can be reached at (213) 654-6194 . . . Another benefit for L.A. new wave club The Masque is slated for July 3 at the Stardust Ballroom in Hollywood featuring several local punk/new wave groups.

UP IN THE SKY, OUT OF THE BLUE — Electric Light Orchestra, in keeping with its summer concert theme of outer space, is featured in a new "spacey" television ad for the "Out Of The Blue" LP. The spot shows two people sitting in a truck when suddenly strange things begin to happen in a scene reminiscent of "Close Encounters of the Third Kind." It was produced by Alan Metter . . . LATIN BEAT

The Fania All Stars' sold out concert June 23 at Madison Square Garden was not only the celebration of their 10th anniversary, but also the fifth time they had sold out the Garden.

The 20,000 plus crowd began cheering even before the ladies of Latin Fever hit the stage. If there had been any doubt that the first all female Salsa band would be able to hold an audience of that size, it was soon dispelled by vocalists Nancy O'Neill, Rosa Soy and Ada Chabrier, dressed in shimmering satin and backed by the Latin Fever band and an additional string section. The enthusiasm continued to grow with Orchestra Harlow, with "El Judio Maravillosa," himself, Larry Harlow coping magnificently in spite of the full cast on his leg, the result of a motorcycle accident earlier in the month.

Then the Garden, bathed in colored lights and packed to the roof tops, was ready for the main event, as the All Stars, one by one, poured on to the stage, each one greeted with healthy applause.

The following is from Robert Palmer's review in the New York Times June 26, 1978:

Naming every participant would be impossible in a review of this size, but one should mention the remarkable collection of vocalists — Adalberto Santiago, Pete "El Conde" Rodriguez, Ruben Blades, Cheo Feliciano, Ismael Miranda and Santos Colon — who backed each other with lusty choral responses and each got a number as lead vocalist. And the sections of the big band were first class, with the brass biting down hard and the rhythm cooking furiously.

The highlight of the evening, though, was a riveting appearance by the Cuban born vocalists. Celia Cruz ... (who) ... effortlessly dominated the stage, swirling and dancing in her glittering green gown and singing in her astonishingly rich and powerful voice.

... One might mention Yomo Toro's flamboyant, progressive solo on the cuatro and Papo Lucca's dense, invigorating piano improvisation on Ruben Blades' vocal feature as additional musical highlights. But there were many others; more, really, than one would ordinarily expect from such a collection of diverse solo artists

This is the basis of the excitement of the Fania All Stars the very fact that such a collection of talent could be on one stage at one time. And it was the case Friday night at Madison Square Garden ... Roberto Roena, Johnny Pacheco, Willie Colon, the artists named above, Pupi Legarreta, Nicky Marrero, Lewis Kahn, Pedro "Puchi" Boulong, Tony Cofresi, Wilfrid Vargas, Louis Ramirez, Louie Ortiz and the King, Tito Puente, who got a standing ovation for five minutes ... an amazing show, and amazing, once again, that they would just all be on the same stage at the same time

Latin Picks

ENTRE AMIGOS — Camilo Sesto — Pronto 1034 — Producer: Camilo Sesto

Camilo Sesto has picked Spain's best and brightest from the pop music scene for both arranging and composing duties, including Juan Carlos Calderon, Oscar Gomez, Albert Hammond and Rafael Perez Botija. Sesto himself contributed two compositions to the album which is richly appealing overall. Though distinctively European in texture, the arrangements take on a rock feel in parts thanks to an overlaid electric guitar.

MACHO MUMBA — Saoco — Salsoul — 4117 — Producer: Fiol, Millan, Cain

Saoco is a young New York aggregation led by Fiol and Millan which cements its place on the traditional end of the salsa spectrum with this LP. One of the reasons for Saoco's success is the talented combinations of co-leaders Henry Fiol and William Millan. The multitasking Fiol is not only a vocalist congero and gifted artist but he is also the composer of five selections on this album. The musicians in this album are excellent, all cuts are superb.

SIN-LIMITES/UNLIMITED — Alma — Alhambra 152 — Producer: Alberto Guerra

This Miami based group in its second LP offers an interesting blend of Latin pop/salsa/rock. Good background vocals and good solo's by musicians. Four of the LP's seven cuts are group originals. One of the cuts is a Carlos Santana original called Europa. Nice arrangements for strings. If promoted right it could go pop all the way.

Argentinian News

BUENOS AIRES — Sicamericana's president Nestor Selasco reported to Cash Box that his company will launch a new label, Sazam Records, devoted to local rock music. Sazam will have two producers, Oscar Lopez and Billy Bond, and its initial artists, according to Selasco, will be Charly Garcia, Nito Mestre, duet Pastoral and also Billy Bond ...

Adrian Berwick is the new international label manager at Phonogram in Buenos Aires. He will handle the product coming under the Philips and Polydor labels from other countries. Under the new Polygram structure, all the Latin American area will report to Baarn, in Holland ...

Brazilian star Jorge Ben is expected this week in Buenos Aires, to appear on stage and at the recently opened Bauen Hotel, which, as we have already mentioned, features a plush entertainment complex and plans to turn into a high quality night place. RCA is releasing Ben's latest LP, recorded for Som Livre in his country ...

Composer and producer Francis Smith has traveled to Brazil and afterwards to Europe. The latter tour is related to SADAIC, the local composing rights society, of which Smith is an executive member. In the local market, Francis has started his own label, distributed by Cabal. His first singles are by group Los Bribones and soloist Christian.

CBS' Hecio Cuomo flew to Brazil for a meeting of general managers of the group affiliates in the area on June 7. In Argentina, CBS has obtained several strong hits lately and is also successfully opening a new market with its Epic/Portrait/Orfeo branch, directed by Eduardo Bueno.

Italian chantress Iva Zanicchi has been very successful in Buenos Aires appearing at the Coliseo Theater and the Bauen Hotel. Her records are released by Microfon, and she has also toured the country with SRO results.

Canadian Booking Firms Predicting Banner Year Despite Winter Slump

by Kirk LaPointe

TORONTO — Music Shoppe International, which a few weeks ago predicted 1978 would be its biggest year as a major Canadian booking firm, has reported a marked slump in club activity during the past winter season, particularly in the central Canadian market.

Ron Scribner, president of Music Shoppe International, told Cash Box that the excessively long, cold winter season, coupled with a slumping economy in some cities due to unemployment, has created a "depressed situation" for clubs in the central region of Canada. "Outside of Toronto, as we get further north into Ontario, the situation seems to get worse," said Scribner. Many bands, he added, balked at traveling through the northern Ontario and western Canadian markets because of bad driving conditions through the winter months. Once the winter ended, the lucrative campus markets had used up their entertainment budgets, and there was not as much work for club acts.

Both Music Shoppe and The Agency, the

CRIA Announces May Certifications

other major Toronto-based booking firm, report good business in the Toronto area. However, David Bluestein, president of The Agency, says that business has picked up in the Toronto club circuit due to increased competition for consumer dollars. "Whereas once there was only one or two high-profile contemporary music clubs, now almost all the major clubs are having to go into booking bigger and better acts in order to compete," he said.

Encouraging Sign

Bluestein cited the rapid upgrading in the caliber of talent booked by the Horseshoe Tavern in Toronto as an encouraging sign in the Toronto entertainment scene. "More and more clubs are going to have to become top-flight showcase facilities because more international acts are getting keen to play Toronto clubs like the El Mocambo and The Colonial, due to their ever-increasing reputation." The Horseshoe has played host recently to such acts as the Talking Heads, Etta James, Mitch Ryder, The Dictators and Richard Hell. Plans are almost set for appearances by Blondie and Ultravox within the next three months.

"We've been trying to bring in acts that no one else will bring in," says Gary Topp, co-manager of the Horseshoe. "We're finding now that we've gotten caught up in a heavily competitive situation against the El Mocambo and The Colonial, and we've had to consciously escalate our profile. We want to break some acts in this city, but we can't afford to have too many obscure acts because of the stiff competition."

The Colonial, meanwhile, underwent its second series of renovations in late May and early June, and has re-opened with a much more low-keyed approach to its booking policy. The El Mocambo, though, has forged ahead, and continued to bring in up-and-comers, with recent appearances by U.K., Kate Taylor, The Tom Robinson Band and the Ian Thomas Band.

Both Bluestein, whose firm books the El Mocambo and The Colonial, and Ron Scribner agree that the disparity between the Toronto and central Canadian markets exists because of poorer facilities in the smaller markets. "Many bands are just content to stay in Toronto," says Scribner. "They can make a good living here, and don't want to take to the road that much. Consequently, the best Canadian talent, and almost all the international talent, is staying away from touring very often outside of this city."

Nevertheless, both booking firm presidents assert that 1978 will be their best year. "The band prices haven't increased this year, as in past years," says Scribner. "But the summer and fall are expected to be extremely heavy booking periods, so we aren't expecting to fall short of our targets."

PLATINUM SLEEPER — Little River Band's new album, "Sleeper Catcher," recently became the first LP to ship platinum in the history of the Australian music industry. LRB also received a gold award for the "Diamantina Cocktail" LP. Italian News

MILAN — Rain of gold for Grace Jones. Her big hit "La Vie En Rose" has sold over a million copies in Italy.

More popular than ever in this country, ex-model and actress Amanda Lear has recently received her first gold record for one million sales of her album "I Am A Photograph."

Dylan fever hits Italy. Rome-based Tourland Agency, in association with CBS Dischi, is rapidly selling out tickets for the open air-festival that will star Bob Dylan, Eric Clapton, Sonny Terry & Brownie McGhee and Lake in Nuremberg, Germany, July 1. The price — 115 U.S. dollars — includes traveling by bus, hotel and the ticket for the concert. Due to the drastic shortage of foreign acts performing in Italy, especially after last year's dramatic Santana concert in Milan, it seems the only way now for Italian rock-fans to attend major concerts.

Nippon Columbia Sales Hike Told

TOKYO — Nippon Columbia has reported a 7 percent increase in sales for the period from Mar. 21, 1977 to Mar. 20, 1978. The results were reported to shareholders at the regular conference held on June 16, 1978 at the headquarters office in Tokyo.

According to company president Takami Shobochi, the total sales for the period were 50,320,000 yen or $228 million.

This result includes record, tape and audio equipment revenues. Record division sales rose 6 percent over the previous year, the company announced.

The net profit was 1,115,000,000 yen, up 38 percent over the previous year.

In an address to shareholders, Shobochi attributed the increase in sales to a variety of factors, including new product development and market expansion in foreign countries.

with CGD/Messaggerie Musicali, WEA Italiana goes independent on June 30.

After signing a new deal with United Artists in the States (their previous album, "Jet Lag," was released by Asylum last year), Italian band PFM were forced to cancel their one-month-stay in Los Angeles where they were supposed to cut the English version of their latest album, "Pas-sapartu." Plans were reset for next September.

Ex-lead guitarist with Genesis, Steve Hackett, has been recently in Rome for promoting his new album "Please Don't Touch" on Charisma Records.

MUSEXPO Holds Video Seminar

LOS ANGELES — For the first time, a video programming seminar will be held at MUSEXPO at this year's 4th Annual International Record and Music Industry Market. The seminar will be organized by the International Tape Association and panelists who are leaders in the field of video programming and manufacturing in the U.S.

The workshop/seminar is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 7 at the Konover (Hyatt Hotel, MUSEXPO headquarters in Miami) MUSEXPO dates are Nov. 4-8.

Almo Announces New Publishing Agreements

TORONTO — Brian Chater, head of BJC Management, and general administrators/professional managers of Irving-Almo Music in Canada, has announced the signing of sub-publishing agreements between Irving-Almo Music and Angel-Parke Music Ltd., plus Andrew Heath Music Ltd.

Chater said that the British publisher have catalogs containing a wealth of suitable material for recording by Canadian artists, and expects many of the songs with "hit potential" to be recorded imminently.

NAMA Names Regional Coordinators for National Apprenticeship Program

CHICAGO — Three regional coordinators have been appointed by the National Automatic Merchandising Association (NAMA) to carry out the National Apprenticeship Training program for vending machine mechanics in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Labor.

G.H. Tansey, NAMA administrator, announced that the following are now functioning from the respective NAMA offices: Eastern office — Harrison H. D. Sieberg, Jr.; national office — Henry Frank Fowler; Western office — Bernard Soboloff.

Vernon I. Jacobson, Chicago, earlier was named as national coordinator.

The newly named coordinators are in the process of explaining the program at NAMA state council meetings and are in direct contact with vending service companies. They are also in touch with state employment offices and state labor departments.

At the same time, the NAMA staff is in the process of finalizing training manuals and other necessary materials.

Interested companies can contact the coordinators at the NAMA headquarters in Chicago and at the regional offices in Reston, Va., and in Los Angeles.

Bally's 'Strikes & Spares' Pin Bows In Huge Chicago Promo

CHICAGO — A full-scale promotional effort including a radio sweepstakes promotion, a charity pinball tournament for local residents and a cocktail reception for city officials and dignitaries was launched by Bally Manufacturing Corp. June 27 to mark the official Chicago premiere of the factory's newest pinball machine, "Strikes & Spares."

Phase one of the promotion was a two-week Strikes & Spares sweepstakes involving three dozen bowling alleys, under the auspices of the Chicagoland Bowling

Atari Unveils Its New 'Sky Diver' Video Machine

SUNNYVALE — The exciting sport of sky diving is the theme of the latest Atari video game called "Sky Diver." One or two can play the game, the object being to accurately guide a plane and jumper to the target area to successfully complete the jump.

For more challenge, the target value increases and its size decreases as the jumper freefalls, so the player must pull the ripchord and, as the parachute opens, guide the direction toward the target. Precision is called upon, since if the chute is not pulled in time the jumper will crash and be taken away by ambulance.

Points are scored for each successful jump and there are many added challenges to consider, such as wind direction, which is indicated by a flag near the target; and the proximity of the plane to the target, for as the score increases the planes fly lower, making it more difficult to complete a successful jump.

Spellout Feature

As an added incentive, the game has a spellout feature whereby one letter in the name Sky Diver will flash on screen each time the jump button is pushed and remain lit if the jump is completed on target. The score doubles when all the letters are lit.

Sky Diver offers several operator options and has the Atari built-in self-test system and Durastress tested solid-state electronics for reliability. Samples of the new model will shortly be shipped to the factory's distributor network.

Proprietors Association. Official contest blanks were available at all participating alleys and permitted bowlers to compete not only in the sweepstakes but in a special two-day Strikes & Spares tournament at the Haymakers Club in suburban Wheeling, Illinois.

Two Strikes & Spares machines were installed at Haymakers for a six-day period or a pay-for-play basis, with all proceeds including the $2 entry fee going to the Mental Health Association of Chicago.

Approximately 150 contestants participated in tournament play on the machines and the 50 players with the highest Strikes & Spares scores being eligible for the finals, which were being held on premiere day at Haymakers.

Advertising Support

A schedule of over 200 commercial spots on WLUP-FM, a pop-rock radio station in Chicago, promoted the sweepstakes and tournament, with supportive advertising in the Chicago Tribune and various suburban publications such as Near North News, North Loop News and Readers.

Each of the two tournament finalists with the highest scores will win one of the two grand prizes — the Strikes & Spares pinball machines used in the tournament, plus a winner's citation. Third, fourth and fifth place winners will receive a selection of 10 major artist record albums. Among other prizes being offered are: 25 AMF bowling balls and bags; 100 Hilton bowling shirts; 25 one year subscriptions to "Bowling Journal"; 50 Don Carter bowling gloves; 50 copies of "Winning Bowling" by Earl Anthony; and 300 copies of a poster-size version of the machine's backglass.

Reception

A cocktail reception at Haymakers was the main social function of the big event and was attended by industry executives, WLUP-FM officials and air personalities and a delegation from the Mental Health Association of Chicago.

The entire promotional effort was developed and implemented for Bally by TRG Communications, Inc. of New York. TRG, sales promotion and marketing agency, also supervised the Sweepstakes drawing.

The AMOA Government Relations Committee, whose chairman is former AMOA president Garland B. Garrett, Sr., appeared before the Copyright Royalty Tribunal in Washington, where a special hearing on the tribunal's proposed "access regulations" for administering the new copyright law was being held. Also in attendance were subcommittee members Don Van Brackel, who is the current AMOA president and Wayne Hesch, the association's 1st vice president, along with AMOA's legal counsel Nicholas Allen and James Bailey.

D. GOTTLIEB & CO. has developed a new piece of test equipment called the Test Prom, which is designed to aid technicians and service people in the troubleshooting of the factory's solid state pinball games. Just recently the factory introduced its Playboard Simulator, which has proven to be a valuable tool for pinpointing defective circuit boards or wiring in a game and, used in conjunction with the new Test Prom, the Simulator can determine individual circuit troubleshooting at the board level. Explicit instructions on the use of the Test Prom, including voltage and waveform references at various test points, are available in Gottlieb's recently published Service Manual. Latter may be secured through Gottlieb distributors, and for more information just call the factory direct at (312) 562-7400.

FOLLOWING A JUNE 27-28 service school at Monroe Distg. in Cleveland, Midway Mfg. Co.'s service manager Andy Ducay will be making ready for the short trip to Green Bay, Wisconsin where he will conduct a Midway school for Empire Dist. Inc. July 10-11. For the benefit of those planning to attend here are some of the points Andy will cover in class: grounding, static and line noise; coin, cable and jack problems; basic logic gates and IC removing; 8080 and Z80 power supplies and system; and self-testing procedures, to name a few.

"WILLIAMS STRIKES PAYDIRT WITH WORLD CUP" expresses the sentiments, verbatim, of World Wide Dist.'s Fred Skor, one of the many, many distributors who are unusually enthusiastic about the new solid state pin. The machine is proving to be a real winner for its numerous exciting features, as Fred pointed out, not the least of which being the dual electronic sounds system which provides a choice of two distinctively different sounds, to suit specific location requirements. Player reaction has been fantastic, he said, and the models are selling faster than they can keep 'em in stock out there.

ATTENTION PHONO OPS: Here's a tip from Gus Tartol of Singer One Stop For Ops on a potential jukebox hit. Title is "You're All I Need To Get By" and its by the winning duo of Johnny Mathis and Deniece Williams (Columbia) who are still prominently on the charts with "Too Much Too Little Too Late." The new effort, Gus noted, is also one of those "all types of locations" tunes with mass appeal and, recalling that he really pegged their last one — what more can we say.

EASTERN FLASHES

As a follow-up to the highly successful Irving Kaye Co. Hurricane Soccer Championship in White Plains, New York, a similar event was scheduled July 1-3 at the Cannonsburg Ski Lodge in Cannonsburg, Mich. with Miller-Newmark Distg. and Contra Games (both of Grand Rapids) co-sponsoring. Once again a total prize purse of $5,000 was being awarded and the proceedings were being supervised by tournament coordinator Jim Ferguson of the U.S. Players Table Soccer Assn.

THE ONE PRODUCT that seems to be moving with the most consistency these days is the jukebox, according to Bob Gatlin of Rowe-Int'l.-Albany, with emphasis of course, on the popular Rowe models. Bob said he recently held a very successful phonograph school out there following which the distrib, in co-sponsorship with Robert Jones Int'l., hosted three Gottlieb schools on solid state pins, in Buffalo, Syracuse and Albany, respectively, with the factory's Dick Finger conducting. Regarding the latter series, more such classes are on the planning board since "we recognize the fact that solid state is here to stay," Bob said, "and operators are anxious to learn as much as they can about it, so we intend to contribute to their knowledge by scheduling solid state schools as regularly as possible."

REFERRING TO WILLIAMS recently released "Topaz" solid state shuffle alley, Sid Gordon of Northern Star-Albany noted that it's been earning "record collections in top locations" and is, indeed, a very popular seller for him. Ops are doing super business with it at straight quarter pricing and Sid added that in some metropolitan areas the machines are being very successfully tested on one play for 50 cents. On the subject of "World Cup," here again Sid noted that collection reports are fantastic. "In my opinion," he said, "World Cup is the most exciting solid state pin ever produced." With special summer promotions currently in progress Sid added that he's been "wheeling and dealing across the territory" with Seeburg phonographs and selling quite a few, as a result.

EUROPEAN SEMINAR — During his recent 16-day European tour, Midway Mfg. Co.'s service manager Andy Ducay joined the firm's director of marketing Stan Jarocki in attending the IMA Berlin show and stayed over to conduct the factory's first major program of overseas service schools. The accompanying photos were taken at a two-day session in Hanover, Germany. Ducay (seventh from left, standing) focused his instruction on the Seawolf II Z80 system and

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Record producer/songwriter Mandi Martin, who began an assault June 26 on the existing world record for continuous play on a pinball machine, is attempting to surpass the five day 18-hour mark on Atari's new "Middle Earth" solid stater. "Middle Earth is a super machine," Martin noted, "and I should know since I've played just about every machine around." An 18-year veteran of the music industry, she added, "I'm grateful for the response by the people at Atari whose help has been invaluable in my effort to break the record."

A CROWD ESTIMATED at between 75 and 100 was on hand for the first day of C.A. Robinson Co.'s two-day seminar on the Gottlieb electronic pinball system. The factory's seminar leader, Dick Finger, was joined by vice president of engineering and product development, Wayne Neyens. Finger's oral remarks, which focused on Gottlieb's latest four-player, "Sinbad," were augmented by an instructive slide presentation. In addition, participants received a copy of the factory's instruction manual.

SPEAKING OF SEMINARS, Scottsdale, Arizona-based Circuit Engineering Corp. is offering an August 23 session on the status of the integrated circuit industry. A portion of the session will be devoted to a series of short market studies and reports of specific market areas, including video games. The seminar fee of $175 includes the publication "Status '77 — A Report On The Integrated Circuit Industry" and Lunch. For additional information contact Mel Eklund, Integrated Circuit Engineering Corp., 6710 E. Camelback Rd., Scottsdale, AZ 85251.

NYSCMA Training Class Set

NEWBURGH, N.Y. — The New York State Coin Machine Assn. recently instituted a special membership service, which is available to member firms and their employees. The program is aimed at upgrading and increasing the knowledge of the mechanic via regularly scheduled professional instruction.

At present there are approximately 20 employees of member companies enrolled in the NYSCMA school program. Classes are held every Saturday morning at the Holiday Inn in Newburgh, New York.

Instructor is Art Seglin, a professional teacher whose knowledge of the coin machine business was acquired during his many years in the industry. In line with the state association's desire for an "innovative approach to teaching," Seglin developed a program that would not necessitate absence from the job for extended periods of time and one that would provide the maximum of instruction in the minimum of classroom hours.

"Rather than have the mechanics away from their jobs for long periods to attend school, we have brought the school to them," Seglin explained. Saturday morning was selected, he said, so that everyone would be fresh and not suffering from fatigue after a full day's work. Each session runs for about three hours, according to Seglin, who notes "this is about the maximum time the average student can successfully absorb and retain information."

Sessions In Progress

Ten sessions, covering flipper games from the electro-mechanical to the solid-state, are currently in progress. Subsequent sessions will deal with other subjects, determined according to the needs of the students. Seglin noted that some "one-shot" classes will be held in certain areas the state.

Mike Mulqueen of Mulqueen Enterprises and NYSCMA president Millie McCarty were instrumental in launching the program and Mulqueen has been personally attending the various classes, not only as a coordinator but as a student; well, along with employees of his company. Other member firms represented at the sessions include Catskill Amusement Square Amusement, Hudson Valley Amusement, Nekos Vending, Kupry Brothers, Modern Vending, Highland Amusement, Cortland Amusement and A&N Vending.

Vending Machine Shipments At New Dollar High In '77

CHICAGO — G. Richard Schreiber, president of the National Automatic Merchandising Assn. (NAMA), said last week that the shipment of new vending machines reached an all-time high in dollar value in 1977, according to an industry survey just released by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

The value of 1977 shipments total $289 million, up 28 percent, from $226 million in 1976. The previous highest dollar value of $241 million was recorded in 1975, Schreiber said.

The number of machines shipped was the highest since 1968, advancing to 53,760 from 468,114 in 1976. Total shipments before 1968 usually were higher because the large number of lower-priced snack bulk confection and charm vending machines then included in the total.

Schreiber Comments

"Obviously, 1977 was a very good year for the manufacturing segment of our industry," Schreiber said.

Beverage vending machine shipments were valued at $197 million, an increase of 35 percent from 1976 and machines for confections and foods totaled $61.9 million, up 25 percent in 1977.

Canned beverage vending machines, freeze-dried coffee venders and bagged snack machines registered the highest percentage increases in 1977.

Exports of U.S. vending machines have increased steadily during the past three years, amounting to 14 percent of machines shipped in 1977 (72,700 machines) and to 7 percent of the total dollar value ($19.8 million). Comparison figures for the two previous years: (1976) — 61,881 units, $17.1 million; (1975) — 51,935 units, $14.5 million.

The U.S. Bureau of the Census projection is based on reports from 52 manufacturers and the cost was underwritten by NAMA.

is opening in Akron.

"In almost all cases a super-store has to be a free-standing store," Bressi said. "This is because of the huge inventory that has to be maintained, and in most cases, the relatively higher cost of renovating a new site. Also, there will be a necessity for discounting records to generate customers.

The Durham-based chain Record Bar has also swung to free-standing stores. President Barrie Bergman commented, "There's been a major slowdown in mall building. We were affected last year by the Nixonian money crunch, which resulted in a distinct building slowdown. So we've gone back to look at some free-standing stores and have found some. And even though we anticipate an increase in mall openings next year, we'll also open some free-standing stores.

Bergman elaborated on another reason for Record Bar switch. "We found that small, free-standing stores, in the 2,000-3,000 foot range can be extremely profitable in the right places; primarily college campuses and military bases."

But the mall retailers have not been the only ones experimenting. The Oklahoma City-based chain, Warehouse, which has used free-standing stores almost exclusively, has opened up a mall store. Kay Moran, Warehouse's vice president, explained the firm's attitude. "We're a price-competitive chain, and you really can't operate that way in a mall because of the higher price overhead you have to pay." Nevertheless, Warehouse has opened a mall store as part of their Cheapers chain. Warehouse is looking at other malls as well. "It's an experiment," Moran said. "We're going to try it and see what happens."

Russ Solomon, president of Tower Records, articulated the differences in philosophy that have tended to segregate mall-oriented and free-standing oriented retailers in the past. "Malls in general have a built-in safety factor to the merchant in that they provide the traffic to the store and minimize the store's need for advertising. The building of malls is also projected on a growth pattern, so that the future of the market is safe. Of course, for the benefit of the mall's traffic, you pay higher rent than you would for a free-standing store. To sum it up, you go with malls if you want the safe way. If you want to take a chance and see if you can't generate the traffic yourself, then you want a free-standing store."

"But," Solomon concluded, "the '70s has seen the growth of both the mall and the free-standing store. If there is any trend in the retail business, it has been simply one of growth."

Pacific Arts Label Appoints Distributor

LOS ANGELES — The Pacific Arts Corp. label has completed its network of independent distributors with the addition of Alpha Distributing, which will handle Pacific Arts product in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine. he went to the Palomino just for some fun. He happened in on a "talent night" and decided to get up on stage, but gave the name "Billy Wade" and then cut loose with Willie Nelson's "Night Life," wowing the unsuspecting crowd. After his impromptu performance, the audience was let in on the joke . . . Chrysalis has a two-record Jethro Tull live set scheduled for fall release. The label last week also hosted a listening party for UFO's new album at Griffith Observatory with a dazzling laser visuals. The group will perform with Blue Oyster Cult at the Forum soon.

CAPITOL'S NEW LADD — Cheryl Ladd, of ABC-TV's "Charlie's Angels," was the subject of an elaborate party thrown last week by Capitol Records for the release of her first album. Cocktails and dinner were served at the London Club in Los Angeles, at which time Cheryl's album was previewed for a packed house. Following the eating and listening, everyone in attendance got their feet moving to the disco set up at the club . . . Pacific Arts Corp., based in Carmel, is looking for someone to fill a vacant national promotion post for the label . . . It is reportedly definite, after months of an on-again, off-again situation, that Steely Dan is signed to Warner Bros., still owing ABC an album or two . . . Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis Jr. said to have signed with CBS . . . When the Crusaders play the Roxy July 28-30, ABC plans a major nationwide radio broadcast along the lines of Todd Rundgren's recent concert broadcast from the Roxy . . . Direct from NBC's "Saturday Night Live," in their Southern California concert debut, come The Blues Brothers, (or as their alter egos are known, John Belushi and Dan Aykroyd). The duo is slated to open for Steve Martin when he plays the Amphitheatre in September. Can we hope to see a live-on-stage appearance by those w-i-i-i-i-d and c-r-r-a-z-y swinging Czechoslovakian bachelors Jorge and Jortag?

wider demographic appeal than does 'Fever.' Our current projection for the 'Grease' soundtrack is six to eight million units, however there's really no way of telling how long this phenomenal pace will keep up. But with Travolta's 'Sandy' and his and Olivia's duet on 'Summer Days Summer Nights' coming out as singles, we honestly expect things to continue at this incredible pace."

Other Films

Three other music-oriented films now in circulation are enjoying box office and record sales success. The most prominent of these is the Casablanca-Motown production of "Thank God It's Friday," being distributed by Columbia Pictures. According to Variety's 21-city listing of movie grosses, "TGIF" has taken in almost $5 million dollars in its first five weeks. The 21-city listing usually represents approximately one third of total national billings. The Casablanca soundtrack LP, #10 on this week's Cash Box LP chart, has sold more than a million copies.

"The Last Waltz" and "The Buddy Holly Story" are also doing well. "Waltz" has taken in almost $1.23 million according to Variety's 21-city listing, while "Holly" had billings of $123,000 after one week at only seven theatres. The "Waltz" soundtrack on Warner Bros. made it into the top 20 on the Cash Box LP chart, and two albums — the "Holly" soundtrack on Epic and "20 Golden Greats" by Buddy Holly & The Crickets on MCA — are benefiting from the Buddy Holly movie.

Another music-oriented film, "FM," has received a lot of attention recently. But despite a soundtrack LP on MCA which has sold more than 1.3 million copies, the Universal film has not been a hit at the box office. Similarly, Paramount's "American Hot Wax" failed at the box office and its soundtrack on A&M was not a big success either.

Some observers have accused the motion picture industry of ripping off the music business with its current flock of music oriented films. But RSO's Coury sees the trend toward music films as an example of business as usual.

'Typical Of Hollywood'

"It's typical of Hollywood to jump on the bandwagon after a picture is a hit like 'Saturday Night Fever.' They aren't ripping off the music industry, they're just doing their thing."

The Stigwood organization has yet another major music-oriented film due this summer, "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Heart Club Band," starring Peter Frampton and the Bee Gees. There is some speculation that the release of "Sgt. Pepper's" less than two months after the release of "Grease" may cut into the latter's strength. "Grease" on the other hand, was released six months after "Fever." But Coury isn't worried.

'Blockbuster'

"'Sgt. Pepper's' is the most important music-oriented film ever made," says Coury, who has seen the film and heard the soundtrack. "It will be the blockbuster top all contemporary music films."

While the veracity of Coury's claim remains to be proven, the remarkable success of music-oriented films such as "Saturday Night Fever," "Grease" and "TGIF" is an established fact. So while RSO has no plans for music-oriented film beyond "Sgt. Pepper's," it is a safe bet that the marriage of motion pictures and pop music will bear many more off-spring.
