EDITORIAL Grammying Extra Sales

With the 21st Grammy Awards taking place this week, it is interesting to note the creative state of the industry pared down to five nominated records. Similarly, the film industry reduces its artistic efforts to five, but the comparison ends there.

The motion picture industry has marketed the "Oscar" in grandiose fashion, and as a result there is a solid public knowledge of its significance. With considerable help from the various studios and affiliated people and industries, the film business reinforces the Academy Award nomination importance to the consumer with a constant bombardment in print and other advertising forms.

The record industry has not capitalized on this phenomenon. With a huge built-in audience for the television show, the labels, managers and others should perpetuate the NARAS recognition throughout the year as do their counterparts in film.

Utilizing stickers on album shrink wrap as well as continual reminders in advertising should help to boost sales, in the same way it works to increase film attendance.

Maximizing every possible sales tool is already a byword in the record industry. Taking advantage of Grammy awards and nominations is only an extension of this philosophy.

Considering that the record industry outgrows the film business, it seems appropriate that we regard our awards system at least as importantly as the film business.

Capitol-EMI Buys UA Label, Boosts Profile In U.S. Market

Mazza Heads Renamed Liberty/United Label; Mogull And Rubinstein To Consult

by Alan Sutton

LOS ANGELES — The ownership of United Artists Records changed hands last week for the second time in less than a year, when Capitol Industries-EMI, Inc. acquired the label from Arthur Mogull and Jerald Rubinstein's M&R Music Corp. for a reported $3 million.

Under terms of the agreement, announced Feb. 5 by Bhaskar Menon, chairman, president and chief operating officer of Capitol-EMI, Mogull and Rubinstein, formerly co-chairmen of UA, will become consultants to the label and sit on the newly-created board of directors for the re-named Liberty/United Records, Inc.

Mogull and Rubinstein purchased UA from its former parent company, Transamerica Corp., reportedly for $30 million last spring. EMI provided financing for the purchase, and has been manufacturing and distributing the label worldwide since May 1978.

Directing Liberty/United is a 10-member board of Capitol and EMI execs, headed by Menon, who was named president and chief executive officer of the label.

Mazza Appointed

Jim Mazza, president of EMI America Records, becomes general manager and chief operating officer of Liberty/United, effective immediately.

Other members of the board of directors include Robert Carp, vice president and general counsel for Capitol Industries-EMI, Inc.; Ken East, joint managing director of EMI Music Operations, based in London; Don Zimmermann, president of Capitol Records; Charles Fitzgerald, vice president of finance for Capitol-EMI; Hal Posner, corporate director of business planning for Capitol Records; and Fred Willms, vice president of business development and assistant to the president of Capitol Industries.

In an interview, Mazza said Liberty/United will remain a separate label, rather than have its artist roster integrated into the Capitol-EMI America framework. "The companies will operate autonomously," he said.

"The important thing is that we don't lose any momentum or activity on (UA) artists," Mazza continued. "In fact we should, because of our financial resources, be able to embellish those acts and be able to perform a little more effectively in that regard."

Rogers Hot

Currently the hottest act on UA is country-pop singer Kenny Rogers, whose "The Gambler" LP this week appears simultaneously at #1 on the Country Album chart and #34 bullet on the Top 200 Album chart. The title cut from the album stands at #16 bullet on this week's Top 100 Singles chart. In addition, four other Rogers LPs appear on the Country Album chart this week.

Other UA artists showing chart activity this week include Ronnie Laws, whose "Flame" LP appears simultaneously at #4

Simon Pays CBS $1.5 Million In Settlement Of Suit

NEW YORK — In an out-of-court settlement, Paul Simon has paid CBS Records $1.5 million. The singer will not have to record another album for the Columbia label. This settlement resolves the court action taken by Simon last year to terminate his contract with CBS so that he may begin recording for Warner Brothers, his new label.

Included in the settlement was the agreement that the rights to the "Paul Simon Songbook" album would revert to the singer/songwriter in 1982.

Unresolved, however, is a complaint filed by Simon against CBS, asserting that the record company provided him with inaccurate sales figures and failed to pay him royalties due. Simon is seeking damages of more than $10,000.

LA Radio Survey Finds AMs Losing Audience To FMs In Nation's Most Fragmented Market

by Joey Berlin

LOS ANGELES — With more than 70 stations competing for listeners, the Los Angeles radio market is probably the most hotly contested in the world. The biggest stations use extensive television and billboard advertising, even between ratings sweeps, and even so only one music station had better than a 3.1 share in the fall ARBs. The key word here is fragmentation.

A survey of music station programmers uncovered differences of opinion as to the importance of personalities, day-parting and the variety of formats on the air, but the survey also revealed many shared beliefs.

Bee Gees' 'Spirits Having Flown' LP Debuts #4 Bullet

by Peter Hartz and Ken Kirkwood

LOS ANGELES — The Bee Gees' new album, "Spirits Having Flown," debuted this week on the Top 100 Album chart at #4 bullet, indicating that the Bee Gees are in for a remarkably short flight on the way to their first #1 album. The debut was the highest on the Cash Box Album chart since Stevie Wonder's "Songs In The Key Of Life" debuted at #1 in 1976.

Released Jan. 25 and benefiting from a full week of sales, "Spirits Having Flown" garnered unusually quick rack jobber response. Many racks did not even delay the LP long enough to properly ticket the album. Exact sales figures will likely require physical inventory checks.

One-third of reporting accounts listed the album as the #1 seller while for most accounts the LP was an out-of-the-box Top 10 reporter. The strong response is in no small measure due to the success of "Too Much Heaven," the first single from the LP which climbed to #2 on Jan. 27 after its Nov. 18 release date. The single has enjoyed considerable foreign success also.

Internationally

The Bee Gees are a decidedly international phenomenon. "Spirits Having Flown" is already the #1 album in Norway, France, Denmark, and Switzerland, in addition to showing immediate muscle in many more markets. In England, more than 100,000 copies were shipped.

"Tragedy," the second single from the album, is poised this week at #21 bullet after debuting last week at #32 bullet. In the international sector, "Tragedy" is also totaling impressive scores. Advance orders in Japan were 100,000 which is reportedly a high-water mark for international releases in that market.

The consensus is that as a market, L.A. is slow to go on new records, loaded with air talent and a bad place to be an AM Top 40 PD.

For the first time, the fall Arbitron ratings showed FM listening exceeding AM 51-49 in average quarter hour shares, including the news, talk and beautiful music stations on the AM band. One station's research now shows that almost two-thirds of the 12+ audience is reached by FM radio. According to John Sebastian, recently ousted as PD at the top-rated AM music station, KHJ, "AM radio without drastic changes is dead in L.A."

Fragmentation

"The most unique aspect of the L.A. radio market is the number of stations, which prevents big shares," says Steve Marshall, KNX-FM PD for the past six years. "There's a proliferation of rock 'n' roll formats on AM and FM and it makes the fragmentation of the record-buying audience worse here than probably anywhere."

"There's more competition here than in any other market in the world," agrees John

Rook, PD at KFI. "I see at least five or six stations that compete directly with my format (mass appeal)."

Many programmers feel that with so many stations on the air, broad spectrum programming is now impossible because too many segments of the audience will be chipped away by specialized formats appealing to more sharply defined groups. As a result, every known format is now represented in L.A.

Another unusual aspect of radio in Los Angeles is the signal problem shared by all the stations. "Everyone here has multi-path problems," says KWST operations manager Steve Downs. "It hits everybody here and there."

But L.A. has one station with no signal problems, 50,000 watts clear-channel KFI. When it was sold to Cox Broadcasting five years ago, it brought the highest price ever paid for a radio station, $15.1 million, thanks to a signal many believe is the strongest in the country.

Another factor that can't be overlooked is the dominant business in L.A. — the enter-

Elektra/Asylum Bolsters Quality Control Efforts

LOS ANGELES — Elektra/Asylum Records is placing three quality control technicians in its California, Indiana and Pennsylvania pressing plants in order to bolster the plants' quality control efforts, according to Keith Holzman, E/A vice president of production.

"When you are mass producing an item," says Holzman, "you want to better control it before it gets out the door. That's why we are adding quality control personnel to aid the pressing plants. Our volume of manufacturing has increased so much in recent years that our methods of achieving a fine product must keep pace."

The three quality control persons will monitor pressings at the PRC plants in Compton, California and Richmond, Indiana, and at the Warner Communications-owned Specialty Records in Olyphant, Pennsylvania. They will report to Terry Dunavan, E/A mastering and quality control engineer.

Holzman pointed out that the label already insists on artist and producer approval of test pressings and that two additional people will be added to the quality control staff at E/A headquarters in Los Angeles. Additional quality control measures are also being studied.

Spot Checking Product

The quality control personnel at the various plants will spot check E/A product as it comes off the presses and in the event of problems will consult with the plant quality control personnel. The E/A technicians do not have the power to shut down a press but rather function in an advisory capacity, examining the pressings and the quality of materials used.

"There has been a tremendous vinyl problem in our industry in the last few months," says Holzman. "The government agency OSA (Occupational Safety Administration) requirements that apply to vinyl manufacturers may have improved health standards in the plants but it has made the quality of vinyl rather unpredictable. Some of the plants have had to reject vinyl shipments recently."

Drake-Chenault Tests Out New Automated Disco Format

by Leo Sacks

NEW YORK — Following the lead of TM Programming, which recently adopted a WKTU-type syndicated disco format for many of its stations, Drake-Chenault last week informed its clients that the company would institute a new format called "DC Disco." Jim Kefford, executive vice president and general manager for Drake-Chenault, said that the firm is already consulting a major U.S. station that recently switched to an all-disco format, but declined to identify the pilot station.

Drake-Chenault's entry into the disco consultancy comes on the heels of the test-marketing of its "Night Fever" series, an eight-hour weekend special instituted last month in markets ranging from Baltimore and Detroit to Norfolk, Va., Madison, Wisc., Raleigh, N.C. and Walla Walla, Wash.

Using the format created by Burkhart/Abrams (under the programming direction of Wanda Ramos), TM Programming recently signed an agreement with the Atlanta-based consultants to syndicate the WKTU format as "TM Pure Disco." The format, available for either live-assist or automated broadcasting, has already been introduced in nine major markets, including Los Angeles, Detroit, Chicago, Boston, Houston, and Phoenix. TM has sold the format to stations in 15 markets to date, according to Jim Long, president of the firm. He predicted that, within six months, stations in 45 more markets will be using the "Pure Disco" format.

Intensity Level

Bonneville Broadcast Consultants is also giving thought to syndicating a disco format. Frank Murphy, director of creative services for the company, said that Bonneville

Chrysalis Enacts M'dsing Programs

by Marc Cetner

LOS ANGELES — Recently released albums by the Babys, UFO and Blondie have prompted new merchandising campaigns by Chrysalis Records. An advertising program is also being developed for Michel Colombier, a new jazz/R&B artist.

Marketing materials available on the Babys' new "Head First" LP include: silk tour jackets, note pads, tee shirts and motorized display posters of the album's graphics. The battery run unit will keep one of the lady's legs, seen on the album cover, constantly in motion. The merchandising drive coincides with the Babys' concert tour which began on Feb. 11.

'Flying 45'

A unique marketing aid, the "flying 45," will be used by Chrysalis to promote UFO's "Strangers In The Night" LP. The "flying 45" is a frisbee-like object that is made of cloth and shaped like a seven inch disc. The UFO

D.C. Retailers Are Helping UNICEF

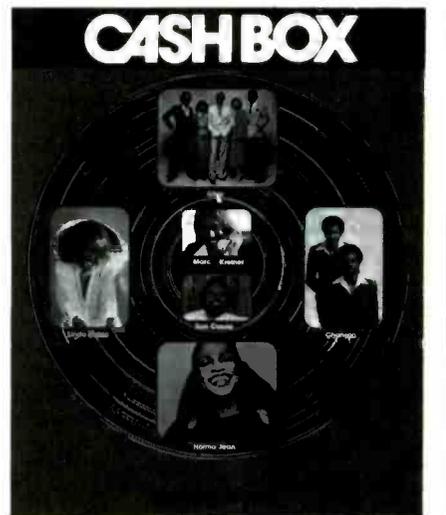

LOS ANGELES — Record retailers in Washington, D.C., Baltimore and outlying areas have initiated a special campaign in honor of "Music For UNICEF." John Mathews, Records & Tapes buyer and John Olsson, Records & Tapes owner conceived the idea of donating 10¢ to UNICEF for each copy sold of the Bee Gees' album, "Spirits Having Flown." Many retailers in the area have agreed to participate in the worthy cause.

The "Music For UNICEF" project was inaugurated earlier this year with the NBC-TV special, "A Gift Of Song." The unique fundraising concept was created in 1978 by the Bee Gees, Robert Stigwood and David Frost. The concept joined famous musical artists who donated the copyright royalties for one song to the UNICEF Fund.

NARAS Honoring Goddard Lieberman

NEW YORK — The late Goddard Lieberman has been selected as the recipient of NARAS' Trustees Award. The award, which recognizes individuals or contributions to the recording industry that do not fall within the framework of NARAS' Grammy Awards categories, has been presented only nine times in NARAS' 21-year history.

Lieberman, who was president of Columbia Records, was cited by J. William Denny, president of NARAS, for his "leadership, sensitive support and consistent encouragement of the very highest artistic standards in the field of recording..." Denny also noted Lieberman's "pioneering of the recordings of original casts of the musical theatre and of the complete works of modern classical composers..." and described Lieberman as "the renaissance man of the world of recording."

MK Dance Productions, founded less than two years ago by Marc Kreiner and Tom Cossie, has established a remarkable record. Beginning with "Dance, Dance, Dance" by Chic on Atlantic and following up last year with "C'est Chic" and the #1 song "Le Freak," MK burst onto the scene with a vengeance.

Norma Jean, former lead singer with Chic, left the group and joined Bearsville where her MK produced material established her as a strong female disco contender.

Chanson on Ariola is another MK production whose "Don't Hold Back" captured the fancy of dancing audiences across the country. David Williams and James Jamerson, Jr. of Chanson also produced Linda Evans for MK and Ariola. Her first single "Don't You Need" just shipped.

Kreiner and Cossie, who also head MK Dance Promotions, a leader in disco promotion, with a long list of major label clients, have also recently opened Ocean Records, Ariola's first custom label.

NEW FACES TO WATCH

Marc Tanner Band

Marc Tanner may have been born and raised in Los Angeles but it wasn't until he arrived in England as a high school exchange student that he lost his soul to rock 'n' roll. The energy, if not quite the style, of the classic British Invasion sound has been captured and transformed on his Elektra/Asylum debut album, "No Escape."

"I was 16 and totally on my own at the time. No parents around to tell me what to do or anything," Tanner recalled. "I was attending Bath University in London but every opportunity I could get I would spend listening to records and attending shows by the Kinks, the Rolling Stones, David Bowie and Rod Stewart. I knew that was where I wanted to be."

Upon returning to California, Tanner went through at least a dozen English copy bands and it finally got to the point where he was talking onstage with an accent. "It was a psychological thing, an obsession," Tanner observed, mimicking the famous Cockney drawl. "I had to stop and change things around."

A succession of day jobs followed, first as a kindergarten teacher, then as a waiter, truck driver and delivery boy. Tanner continued to rehearse and play clubs at night. Lightning didn't strike until 1977, when E/A president Steve Wax heard him at a showcase. Wax was suitably impressed and asked him to come back when he'd developed some more songs.

Working feverishly with producer Nat Jeffrey, they put together a demo and basically laid the groundwork for "No Escape." The most important part of the puzzle, however, was yet to be found.

"I really hadn't envisioned myself as a single artist, since I've played as a part of bands all my life," noted Tanner. "I felt that I could supply the central energy but I knew it wouldn't happen without a real strong band behind me, people who believe and are involved in the music."

Tanner ran into high school buddy Bob Glaub on the street and asked if he would sit in. As Mike Baird joined on drums, William "Smitty" Smith and Glen Spreen on keyboards and Richie Zito providing sonic guitar licks, the band finally took shape. To whip a few of the first tracks into shape, Gary Mallaber added his talents on drums, courtesy of the Steve Miller Band. Jeff Porcaro, Steve Lukather and David Paich of Toto also helped out.

Initially, Tanner was concerned that all of that talent might clash and the original sound he was trying to get in the grooves would be lost on studio musicians who rely on charts more than emotions.

Happily, that wasn't the case, according to Tanner: "To me, it didn't come off as a group of heavy session guys." The music contains a true belief in the spirit of rock and the spark of enthusiasm to make it roll. Above all, "No Escape" reveals Tanner's passion and caring for the music he truly loves.

Cooder Browne

There is no one in the Cooder Browne band named Cooder Browne. However, "Drunken Cooder Browne" is a saying that originated in Victoria Texas and has since become a regional expression. The saying embodies the rock 'n' roll spirit and Texas swing that is ever present in the band's music.

The history of Cooder Browne is best told by bass player and lead vocalist for the band, Skip Tumbleson. "Dale (drummer Dale Bolin) and I go way back to high school in Sherman Texas," Tumbleson recalls. "We played in garage bands. I went to a British boarding school in Germany where I learned about guys like Jimi Hendrix and Cream. I came home and that music became the rage here. Dale and I then met up with David Haworth (the band's pianist) and Larry Franklin (Cooder Browne's fiddle player) and formed Cooder Browne."

"Nothing was happening in Sherman, so we moved to Austin. We met up with Buster Doss (the band's manager) there. We played with Willie (Nelson) at a gig in Texas and he liked us. A friend, then, took our tape to Willie. He listened to it about five times, and then called our manager. Since then we have skyrocketed. We're getting airplay everywhere, not just country stations but FM rock stations too."

Cooder Browne's self-titled debut LP is a musically proficient and fully realized work that brings new life to the already exciting "Outlaw Country" genre. The band demonstrates its versatility on the album by being able to play a breakdown like "Lonesome Rider" and switch to the calm rhythms of the Latin-Caribbean tinged "Isle of View." The Little Feat influenced "Dancin' With The Armadillo" is Cooder Browne's contribution to the Lone Star sampler LP, "Lone Star Six Pack."

"We are very much influenced by Ry Cooder and Little Feat," says Tumbleson. "They play slide, sing the blues and sing about American history. We'd love to be identified with those cats."

Cooder Browne records on Willie Nelson's Lone Star label. It is as at home playing old country swing classics like Bob Wills' "Milk Cow Blues" as its own future classic, "Two Trains Of Thought Runnin' On The Same Track." The song combines Tumbleson's "Two Trains Of Thought" with the traditional "Orange Blossom Special." The interesting medley is Cooder Browne's next single. The foursome corral influences as diverse as Gene Autry and Charlie Daniels, and rolls them into one glorious expression of rock 'n' roll.

"We've had tours offered to us by Heart and Marshall Tucker," says Tumbleson. "Right now the thing that is most important to us is getting our music together. So, when it comes time for us to tour we'll be able to wow 'em all. Whether it's Willie's crowd or Led Zepelin's, we have the capability of pleasing everyone."

Multi-Talented Foster Helping Others Realize Creative Ideas

by Dale Kawashima

LOS ANGELES — During the past two years, David Foster has served as an arranger, keyboard player and co-songwriter, but for Foster all of these different vocations are simply part of his regular duties as a versatile, multi-skilled record producer. Foster, who most recently has produced "From The Inside" for Alice Cooper and "Along The Red Ledge" for Hall & Oates, makes available to his artists the full gamut of his musical resources to help them fully realize their own creative ideas for each particular album project.

Two years ago, Foster, now 29, was strictly a session pianist who thought he had the ability to make the transition into producing. He was already helping out at some recording sessions as an arranger, although he was not receiving an arranger's credit for his efforts.

"As a session keyboard player, I was often asked to help arrange a track, but I only received a pianist's credit, not an arranger's credit," recalled Foster. "I'd go home after a session and think, 'Hey, I changed the whole song around; I came up with the intro and contributed some good background ideas.' Yet I wasn't getting any credit for it. This often happens with studio piano players, because if a producer is short on ideas, he'll usually call upon the pianist first for help on the arrangement."

So finally, Foster decided to become more directly involved with arranging, playing an important role as an arranger and keyboardist on Gary Wright's breakthrough album, "Dream Weaver." Foster received considerable recognition for his work with Wright, and was hired to do other arranging jobs, but he soon after concluded that he would proceed to the next logical step and become a producer.

The first four artists Foster produced were Jaye P. Morgan, Danny Peck, Lisa Dal

David Foster

Bello and the Keane Brothers. Despite the modest commercial success of these albums, each served as an excellent learning experience for Foster, allowing him to grow and develop as a producer.

Good Experience

Noted Foster, "The majority of those early production projects turned out well and I enjoyed working with those artists, but I was still learning the different facets of producing. I was learning that producing does not just entail arranging, but involves acquiring a good sound quality for the LP and being able to select solid material that will suit the artist."

For Foster, his maturing production skills all came together on his album project with Bill Champlin, the former leader of the Sons of Champlin. Although the album did not sell strongly, it gave Foster recognition within the industry as being a producer who was coming into his own.

"We had a great time working on the Champlin album; there were no battles or bad vibes," recalled Foster. "Right about this time I really started to get my sound together as a producer. I started to learn about the studio board, because up until then I'd been a bit ignorant of the technological sound aspects of the studio."

Despite the importance of becoming fully aware of the complex, technological aspects of recording, Foster wants to insure that he will always strive to capture the feelings and visions of each of his artists rather than overly concentrating on achieving a polished, technically-admirable sound.

ASCAP Suing So. Cal. Lounge Owners

LOS ANGELES — The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers has charged four Southern California lounge owners with copyright infringement. The defendants in the suit were alleged to have allowed the performance of copyrighted compositions without the consent of the owners, who are ASCAP members.

The Point After West, the Ivy House Restaurant in Laguna Beach, the Stagedoor in Oxnard and the Basin Street in Lakewood, co-defendants in the suit, had been offered a blanket license by ASCAP and told they could deal with the individual copyright owner, if they wished. When neither request was complied with, the suit was filed.

TAKE A DISCOVERY BREAK.

Discover The Jan Park Band.

Here's a new alternative to the East Coast sound, the West Coast sound, the Memphis/Atlanta/Miami/Chicago sounds. It's The Jan Park Band sound. The Jan Park Band is a more professional sounding congregation than you're probably used to hearing from a rock & roll band on their very first album.

That's because these people are pros, who have spent years playing every type of music imaginable. But their heart is here, playing rock & roll, and making Columbia Records for all the world to hear. And despite the fact that this will probably triple the number of unsolicited demo tapes arriving at our A&R offices, we confess that Jan Park's amazing voice was "discovered" by mail. Now it's up to you to discover The Jan Park Band.

Produced and arranged by Eric Holtze.

JC 35484

Discover Bighorn.

Here's a group that's doing it right. They tour with a grand piano. The lead guitarist built his instrument from scratch. They've got three lead singers...each one would justify having a whole band built around him, alone. The Vancouver Sun got an advance pressing of the Bighorn album and we'll let them say it for us:

"The Bighorn album has snatches of Styx, Kansas and Queen, with the major debt owed to the sophisticated production of Boston."

Bighorn has already established themselves as a major band throughout the northwest (they're from Seattle, and they were "discovered" in Vancouver...shades of Heart!).

As for their effect live, the Vancouver Sun continues:

"The impressive thing about Bighorn is the fact that it can duplicate the sound (of their album) on stage."

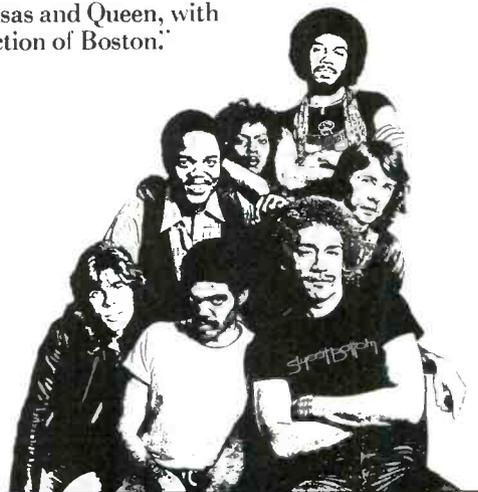

In the coming months reviewers all over the country are going to say this...but let us be first:

Bighorn is going to be big.

Produced by Martin Shaer.

JC 35613

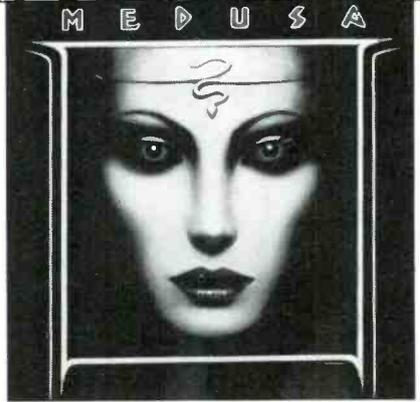

Discover Medusa.

This is the kind of crossover album you rarely find. Because it's the musicians—not the music—that've crossed-over. Frontmen John Lee and Gerry Brown have been the rhythm section behind people like Chick Corea, Stanley Clarke, Larry Coryell and a long list of others. But now they're carving their reputation in rock—with a new band called Medusa.

It's the kind of music they've always wanted to play. And play they do—on a debut album that brings new meaning to the term "hard rock."

Medusa has already turned us into firm believers. Listen once and you'll turn into a fan.

Produced by Skip Drinkwater with John Lee and Gerry Brown. Executive Producers: George Butler and Jerry Schoenbaum. A Product of Zembu Productions, Inc.

Pa. Cutout Dealer Entangles WCI & Arista In Lawsuit

by Ken Terry

NEW YORK — Scorpio Music Distributors, Inc., a Pennsylvania-based cutout wholesaler, has sued Surplus Records and Tapes, a New Jersey-based cutout dealer, and Herbert A. Linsky Associates on anti-trust charges. The suit, filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, also names Warner Communications Inc. and Arista Records as "non-defendant co-conspirators."

Scorpio alleges that Surplus "entered into an illegal conspiracy . . . to purchase the surplus stock of WCI and foreclose Scorpio from such purchases from WCI." It is also claimed that "in late 1978 and January of 1979, defendant Linsky entered into a conspiracy with Surplus to arrange for Surplus to purchase through . . . Deerfield (Communications) and Arista all of the existing surplus stock of Arista and foreclose Scorpio from such purchase."

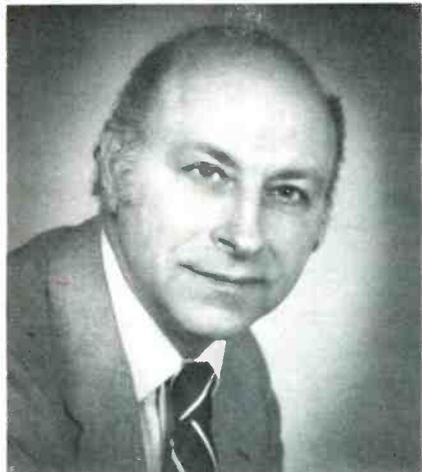

In addition, the Scorpio suit alleged, Surplus has tried to monopolize the cutout market by a variety of means, including "price-cutting on records it has received from the non-defendant co-conspirators and other manufacturers, disparagement of Scorpio products, and threats of refusal to deal." Scorpio also maintains that Surplus has compelled its subdistributors (including Scorpio) to resell records purchased from Surplus at a particular price level. This, claims Scorpio, is price-fixing.

Alleging that Surplus presently controls 60-70% of the U.S. cutout market, the Scorpio suit claims that "plaintiff was induced by threats and duress to purchase certain record albums from Surplus." It is also alleged that Surplus demanded "extortionate prices" for these records, threatening not to deal with Scorpio at all unless they complied.

According to the attorney for Surplus, "My client has denied categorically that they're engaged in any acts of anti-trust or anti-trust violations of any kind. And my opinion is that these facts will be borne out as the thing progresses." He added that Scorpio was recently sued by a credit insurance company employed by Surplus for $35,000. This is the amount that, according to Surplus, Scorpio owes them for goods delivered under contract.

Herbert A. Linsky also denied Scorpio's allegations.

WCI and Arista had no comment.

Charles Kreussling

Kreussling Named Executive VP For Shorewood

NEW YORK — Charles Kreussling has been appointed executive vice president of manufacturing for the Shorewood Packaging Corp. In his new position, Kreussling assumes responsibility for Shorewood's total music and consumer packaging and manufacturing operations. He joined the company in 1962 as production manager and was promoted to vice president of manufacturing in 1968.

Commenting on Kreussling's appointment, Paul Shore, president of Shorewood, said, "Chuck is a dedicated and innovative executive, and has been an integral part of the company's growth during his (17) years with the firm."

Injunction Sought By RCA Against Magnetic Video

NEW YORK — RCA Corporation has sought an injunction in New York Federal Court to prevent Magnetic Video Corporation, a Michigan firm, from continuing to manufacture, advertise, sell or distribute tape cassettes that feature performances by Elvis Presley.

RCA has also asked the court for an accounting and payment of profits that Magnetic realized on the Presley tapes, as well as damages and court costs. In addition, RCA has requested that Magnetic either destroy or turn over to RCA cassettes, masters, or other devices which contain Presley songs.

EAST COASTINGS — AND THE DISCO LIGHT SHINES EVER BRIGHTER — The hype was to call the party at Studio 54, ushering in Warner Brothers' new RFC label, the "dawn of the disco age." That, as we know, was several years ago. But aside from its media-hype function, the party did serve as a reminder that in the (disco) beginning there were . . . the indies. And in this year of consolidation, let it not be forgotten that it was the indies who worked disco up from the club cult when precious few majors would touch it. Ray Caviano, of course, combined shrewd marketing and a superb street feel to bring home hit after hit for Henry Stone at TK. Ray's reward, obviously, has been his deal with Warner Brothers for his very own label. So is Henry upset? Hell no. Stone was at the Studio 54 bash exclaiming, "It's fantastic, man, just fantastic." When asked if he thought the affair was a landmark for disco or just another lavish party, Stone eagerly replied, "We've gotta hear the product first, man!" Indeed. And on hand to hear an earful were numerous industry notables like Kent Burkhardt, Clive Davls, Seymour Stein, Jacques Morali and Jerry Wexler. Celebrities milling about included Diana Ross, Melba Moore, John Oates, Gloria Gaynor and Garrett Morris. Other highlights: confetti, balloons, X-rated dancing, delicious food and . . . to put icing on the cake, there'll be a Newsweek cover story on disco before the end of the month.

A FRIEND OF FRAMPTON'S — Lee Marvin isn't the only one having trouble with former lovers. Now Penny McCall, who was Peter Frampton's live-in mate for six years is suing the rock star for half of his earnings. The reason? Well, the two are no longer together, and pretty Penny apparently feels she has been left out in the cold. In her claim, filed in White Plains Supreme Court, she asserts that Frampton "requested" that she leave her husband (who was managing Humble Pie at the time) to live with him in 1972. She also lists "various services" that she performed for Frampton, including — "public relations and promotion work; aiding in costuming of Frampton and associates; managing Frampton's personal finances and traveling with Frampton during tours conducted by him." When they first became a couple, McCall claims, Frampton promised that "they would be equal partners" in his rock music earnings.

NAMES IN THE NEWS — Alright Frank! Zappa's first album on his Zappa label will be titled "Sheik Yerbouti" . . . "Rendezvous" is a Bruce Springsteen song that he has done occasionally in concert, but has never recorded. Now Greg Kihn will put the song on vinyl, with Bruce's blessings . . . Eddie Kramer will be scouting AC/DC to see if they can get together for the group's next studio album . . . Arlo Guthrie will be out with a new album by spring. He's recording now in the idyllic setting provided by Long View Farm studio in central Massachusetts . . . Leah Kunkel (that's Russ' wife), who has been touring with Art Garfunkel, will be out with her own Columbia debut album in March . . . Cham-Ber Huang, classical harmonica virtuoso, has been invited to tour China, becoming one of the first Americans invited since our resumption of relations with that country . . . Dave Lambert, ex of the Strawbs, will have his debut solo album out shortly . . . Rena Scott, who appeared on Michael Henderson's album, "In The Nighttime," has been signed by Buddah and will have an album out shortly . . . Comeback time for Flash Gordon. Yes, the sci-fi hero will be the subject of an NBC-TV series, as well as a multi-million dollar movie produced by Dino DeLaurentis. On the vinyl side, kiddie label Wonderland Records will be putting out a new series of Flash records . . . Jon Tiven, managing director of Big Sound Records and lead guitarist for the Yankees, is set to marry Sally Young, rhythm guitarist for the Yankees . . . And this just in: Eric Stewart of 10cc suffered a fractured skull and a severe concussion as a result of a car accident in England. 10cc's scheduled tour of Australia and Japan has been indefinitely postponed.

WHERE WERE THE VOICES. PLURAL? — The Village Voice held its second annual luncheon for the record industry at Tavern on the Green last week. The idea, of course, is to hype the weekly paper as an advertising medium for record companies, and the pitch this year was visual rather than vocal. But, hard sell aside, the luncheon provides a rare opportunity for public debate between record companies' employees and some of the country's more controversial (and influential) critics. So why was the opportunity wasted? Especially with critics like Robert Christgau, Richard Goldstein and Gary Giddins on the podium? Christgau bluntly stated that his Riffs section of the paper had an "adversary relationship" with the music industry, and then he haughtily differentiated between those who were involved with the "art of the music rather than the profit." Amazingly, with the exception of Ray Caviano, no one from the audience of 100-plus music business people questioned him about these and other flamboyant statements. In fact, the only meaningful dialog occurred when ECM's Bob Hurwitz took Giddins to task on several of his assertions about the jazz marketplace. But that was about the extent of it. How can a roomful of publicists be tongue-tied? Were they afraid, apathetic, or in agreement?

LOCAL NEWS — The Rubinoos, not Carl Perkins, will open Elvis Costello's Armed Funk tour. Angry El arrives at the Palladium March 31 . . . Mighty Joe Young, an ace but obscure electric bluesman, comes to the Lone Star Feb. 19 and 20 . . . The Dixie Hummingbirds come to town March 11 for a sanctified Sunday night concert at Avery Fisher . . . Elvis Presley will be on the tube in N.Y. all week on channel 7's 4:30 movie . . . Ira Robbins' Trousers Press celebrates its fifth anniversary next month. Co-founder Robbins began selling mimeographed copies of the mag in front of the Academy of Music, and now T.P. has become one of the last outlets

LET'S DO IT AGAIN!!!

Stuns Tahoe Audience

Soul Queen Stars

By MEL SHIELDS

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE — It is a tribute to the massive talent of Aretha Franklin that she overcame the obstacles she did opening night at Harrah's Tahoe and still stunned the audience with dynamic sound. This was her northern Nevada casino debut (which ended last night).

The Brian Farnon Orchestra, misguided by H.B. Barnum, did not keep up with Franklin when the going got intricate or rough, and this is a rarity with an ensemble so professional. The problem had to be in the direction.

There was some difficulty with mikes and getting the right sound level. The backup singers weren't closely enough synchronized. And the audience had to endure an obnoxious announcer who, when Miss Franklin walked off, strutted on stage to shout her name over and over and scream for more applause like some carnival barker.

STILL, Franklin emerged a winner. Her vocal stylings are among the most powerful in the world today. She is a unique artist, tagged the "queen of soul" because she helped set many of its styles and most of its standards. It is her music that largely comprises the beginnings of modern disco; all they've done is keep the beat and drop the meaning, the infinite variations and most of the excitement.

Franklin is special in live performance because she's full of surprises. She includes a variety of numbers, a few of which seem most unlikely — how often does one hear a black sing "Swanee," for instance? But why not? Franklin takes the essentially-Garland arrangement and soars with it. And "Anything Goes" is her opener — hardly a tune readily associated with the woman who had her first big hit with "I Never Loved a Man the Way I Love You."

There's even a little dancing. To "Elegance" from "Hello, Dolly," an un-introduced man struts stylishly on stage to do some posing around her and her three backup singers who all hold fans and sway and sashay. Franklin looks a bit out of her element at such times, but who expects Ann-Margret?

IN FACT it is precisely the ability to look a little lost and out of place that gives Franklin her own stance. Rarely has this stage seen such a gentle performer physically. Despite her size and age Franklin has a remarkably girlish face, one that can project innocence as well as experience, two of the basic ingredients of a terrific soul lyric.

The show hit its peaks with a medley of the big numbers and "Angel Sparkle," the latter including lyrics of living like "Submission isn't easy for me." Such non-musical subjects are the meat here. It's easy to see why Franklin has been on top of this field so long; relating to what she's singing is so natural. Forget all the hype and the intricate analyses of the sociological and psychological impacts of this type of "soul" music — it works because it's true. Simple and pure in sentiment; outstanding in execution.

She sang "You Light Up My Life," too, and it's a song finally. It's no longer a piece of schmaltz; it's from the heart, and Franklin's version contains not only the thrill of love but the pain of getting it. Besides, here's a bet no one yells "Right on, sister" when Debby Boone sings it.

THERE WERE a couple of tunes she self-accompanied on the piano — "Brand New Me" and the phenomenal "Bridge Over Troubled Water" which could go on forever and nobody would mind.

Take the best in talking blues, singing blues, gospel and scat and combine them all into Aretha Franklin.

Harrah's should have Aretha Franklin back again and again.

Aretha gets big applause at Harrah's

By ALLAN K. RISDON

Aretha Franklin is proving why she's the "Queen of Soul" through Tuesday night in the South Shore Room of Harrah's Tahoe.

Her opening night performance Friday brought the audience to its feet three times — twice during the show and once after.

With a mixture of blues, soul and jazz — from quiet and moving to loud and rocking — Miss Franklin kept the audience clapping and listening during her Northern Nevada debut.

The "First Lady of Soul," as she's also called, entertained the enthusiastic crowd with an assortment of her own hits and songs made famous by other performers.

Dressed in a sparkling white gown, Miss Franklin opened the show with "Respect," the song which in 1968 earned her two Grammys for Best Rhythm and Blues Recording and Best Female Rhythm and Blues Singer of the Year.

The song also brought her a gold single in April, 1967.

A powerful and innovative singer, Miss Franklin proved her versatility with "Angel Sparkle," a beautiful ballad, then moved into a medley of golden moments.

The medley included "Midnight Train to Georgia," "Darling, You Send Me," and "Ain't No Mountain High Enough." It also brought the singer's first standing ovation of the evening.

Then a quieter selection, Debby Boone's hit "You Light Up My Life," brought another standing ovation.

Miss Franklin does more than sing. She also plays the piano — and does a good job of it, singing and playing "Brand New Me or Swanee."

So it was not surprising when she garnered her third standing ovation with "Bridge Over Troubled Water," the same song which brought her another gold single in March, 1971.

ARETHA FRANKLIN

Harrah's Hotel, Lake Tahoe

It's time for Aretha to discard the tag she earned more than a decade ago as the first lady of soul. While it may be true, Aretha has matured and outgrown the title. Her show now transcends all barriers and pigeon holing no longer fits.

She unveiled her new show here Jan. 26 to a packed South Shore Room. The well produced, tight performance was 100% first class, and Aretha threw in some surprises.

The orchestra, conducted by H.B. Barnum, consisted of the 20-piece Brian Farnon Orchestra and her own five-piece rhythm section (Rahn Coleman, keyboards; Wali Ali, guitar; Harold Mason, drums; Joe Clayton, percussion; and Kevin Brandon, bass).

The well balanced show moved like a roller coaster. She knew exactly when to change pace in her hour-plus, 16-song set. There were happy songs, sad songs and songs for just about every mood.

Aretha moved gracefully across stage, knowing she had the audience in the palm of her hand.

She had a male dancer who appeared at the appropriate time and never overstayed his welcome. Aretha joined in dance routines with him along with her three female background singers, Brenda Bryant, Margaret Branch and Vanetta Fields, spotlighted on "Respect Yourself." This number had Aretha imitating Mavis Staple of the Staples. Aretha outdid Mavis doing Mavis.

She also took off on Gladys Knight for "Midnight Train to Georgia." Then, for her Diana Ross image, she donned a pink feathered coat for "Ain't No Mountain High Enough."

There also was an Earth, Wind & Fire offering on which she invited the audience to boogie with her, her background singers and dancer. She was personable and close to her audience as she sashayed into the crowd doing her dance routine with some of the males in the audience.

Highlight of the show was the grossly over-worked "You Light Up My Life," but somehow Aretha gave the song new life. Other standouts were "Ain't No Way," a medley of hits, "Sparkle," "Bridge Over Troubled Waters," and a spectacular closing, a Judy Garland takeoff, "Swanee."

Broadway 'Romeo & Juliet' Is Latest Costandinos Project

by Peter Hartz

LOS ANGELES — Alec Costandinos, a prolific European composer/producer who has created a string of Casablanca disco albums, is poised to launch in October a new aspect of his career with the debut on the New York stage of a Broadway musical based upon his "Romeo And Juliet" album.

To those acquainted with Costandinos' pioneering 48-track production techniques and the theatrical nature of his recent work, the move to Broadway is a logical extension of his conceptual approach to music. During the last several years, he has been immersed in the creation of a "modern classics" series.

In late 1977, Casablanca released "Golden Tears" which featured French group Sumeria. The LP is a futuristic love story about a space traveler who lands on earth. "Romeo And Juliet," which was released in early 1978, is a contemporary pastiche of the heroic story by Shakespeare. Recorded and mixed at Trident Studios in London, the LP was one of the first 48-track recordings ever made. The "Sphinx" LP, a biblical tale of Simon, Peter and Judas, was the next work in the series. Most recently, Casablanca released "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," a dramatic musical interpretation of the novel by Victor Hugo.

Sid Vicious Dies In New York City Of OD At Age 21

NEW YORK — Sid Vicious, the bass player for the now-defunct Sex Pistols, died of a drug overdose in a Greenwich Village apartment on Friday, Feb. 2.

Vicious had been at a party celebrating his release from jail on bail in connection with charges that he murdered his girlfriend Nancy Spungen on October 12, 1978 in the Chelsea Hotel in Manhattan.

Vicious had earlier tried to kill himself by slashing his arm while in jail. After he was initially released on bail, Vicious was incarcerated again and charged with slashing Patti Smith's brother, Todd, in the face during a late-night nightclub brawl.

After his second release from jail on February 1, Vicious attended a party at the apartment of his new girlfriend, Michelle Robinson, at 63 Bank Street. According to police, Vicious injected heroin around midnight and died of a seizure around 2 a.m.

Vicious had been a controversial figure with the Sex Pistols, as he often cut himself on stage or lashed out at members of the audience. The Sex Pistols, one of the premiere punk bands, recorded one U.S. album for Warner Brothers, "Never Mind the Bollocks, Here's The Sex Pistols."

On Dec. 20 of last year, after extended negotiations with a group of interested Wall Street investors, Costandinos signed contracts for the transformation of his "Romeo & Juliet" album into the musical base for a show which will be produced by Ted Richfield and Patrick Montes. The slated budget for the production is $1.5 million. Following his return from MIDEM, Costandinos met with principles in New York. Theatre Now has been signed as general manager of the production with Joel Arnold serving as attorney. Both were previously associated with "Grease." Steve Bedell, vice president of publishing for Casablanca which will handle copyrights, also played a role in the formation of the "Romeo And Juliet" project. Costandinos has firm ideas on the nature of the show.

'Machine Guns'

"The aim is to take the essence of Shakespeare and condense it and avoid the unnecessary idiosyncracies of the 16th century. The costumes will be futuristic with the exaggeratedness of traditional costumes streamlined. Because it is 'Romeo and Juliet,' I know the traditionalists will come with machine guns but they will be won over."

New Music

The project will require additional compositions by Costandinos. The original "Romeo & Juliet" album ran 34 minutes in length. The show will be closer to two hours. Due to the nature of the project, Costandinos says the music will have several appeals.

"The disco element will be strongly felt; however, the subject matter eliminates the idea of total disco. The show will have situational music. While a dagger fight may have a pressing disco beat, the music for the marriage scene will have classical overtones."

As a result of the show, Costandinos expects the release of a double live LP which will include the original album performed live and the new material. The Broadway show is expected to start rehearsals in May and June and later begin a two-month road tour with the New York opening tentatively expected in October.

Other Projects

In addition to pursuing the Broadway connection, Costandinos has composed and produced several other projects. Released recently by Casablanca is the soundtrack to the French film "Troadero Bleu Citron (Lemon Blue)." The album is a collection of disco-oriented orchestrations and slower ballads. Originally released in August in Europe, the movie is currently being dubbed for possible American release.

Costandinos is also working on the soundtrack for a one and one-half hour

POINTS WEST — BROOKLYN DREAMING — Casablanca Records recently held a luncheon at L.A.'s Ma Maison restaurant in honor of Brooklyn Dreams and its new album, "Sleepless Nights." One of the band's guiding lights, Donna Summer, was also on hand for the festivities. Among the topics discussed over salmon were Brooklyn Dreams' plans for hosting the "Midnight Special" on Feb. 19, writing and performing the music for "Hollywood Nights" (the sequel to "American Hot Wax") and embarking on a U.S. tour March 15. The band, which wrote the "Street Man" theme for David Cassidy's "Man Undercover" series, has also done background vocal work for Bobby Womack, Ringo Starr and Summer. Brooklyn Dreams member Eddie Hokenson said, "I'm still in a dream with our new success. But if it all ended tomorrow, I could still go back to New York and be happy driving a truck."

Summer told Cash Box staffer Marc Cetner that she was presently involved in producing her sister's first album. As far as her own new album is concerned, Summer said, "I can only tell you that it is going to be different." Asked if she was going to maintain her allegiance to disco, Summer replied, "You can't type an artist, you can only type a song. As far as disco is concerned I will be doing it until it dies. But, rather than die out, it will evolve into a new sound as music becomes more synthesized in the future." Summer who has been an integral part of Brooklyn Dreams' success commented on the band as friends. "They were the people who brought me to myself. When I came here from Europe, I had a lot of success laid on me. I couldn't see my goals. They made me start fighting again."

THE ENVELOPE PLEASE — The second annual Bay Area Music Awards were given out recently at a gala attended by the cream of the Northern California music industry. Ben Fong-Torres and the Tubes' Fee Waybill co-hosted the affair, broadcast live on KSAN, which was highlighted by performances by Greg Kihn, Norton Buffalo, Jo Baker & Annie Sampson, Bobby Freeman, Waybill and Terry McGovern & Isabel West's rendition of "You Don't Give Me Bruises Anymore." The winners and their categories were: The Grateful Dead, group; Jefferson Starship's "Earth," album; Greg Kihn Band, club band (as a write-in for the second consecutive year); Jesse Barrish, debut LP; David Bromberg's "Bandit In A Bathing Suit," folk-country-bluegrass LP; Van Morrison, male vocalist; Joan Baez, female vocalist; "Linda Tilley," small label record; Bishop Norman Williams' "Bishop's Bag," jazz LP; Neil Schon (Journey), guitar; Ross Valory (Journey), bass; Mickey Hart (Grateful Dead), drums; Jullan Priester, horn; Cory Lerlos (Pablo Cruise), keyboards; Jules Broussard, reeds; and Taj Mahal,

FEATURE PICKS — It looks as if there'll be no end to 1978's best of lists. Now Feature (formerly Crawdaddy) has put out its winners list, and it includes a few unusual categories. For example, if the Bee Gees are "group of the year," how can the Rolling Stones be "best group?" Feature itself wins the overkill award for laying the Renaldo & Clara award on Jerry Brown and Linda Ronstadt and the best Dylan imitation award to Bob Dylan.

IF AT FIRST YOU SUCCEED — While Richard Pryor's "Wanted" live LP on Warner Bros. is moving up the pop and R&B album charts, a filmed version of most of the material on the LP has opened in 50 markets nationwide. "Richard Pryor Live In Concert" was filmed just last month during two sell-outs at the Long Beach Terrace Theatre and it's a totally uncensored picture of the comedian in action. After its initial run, which began Feb. 2, the movie will be released to an additional 350 theatres Feb. 23.

REEL ROCK 'N' ROLL — A series of features tracing the history of rock 'n' roll through cinema is set to begin Feb. 17 at the Egyptian Theatre in San Francisco. "The Reel Rock 'n' Roll Show" is the brainchild of Chris Knab, in cooperation with Aquarius Records, KSJO/San Jose and the Egyptian Theatre. Starting on the 17th and continuing on alternate Saturdays, the series will include both rare and classic films featuring the likes of Elvis Presley, Eddy Cochran, Gene Vincent, Chuck Berry, the Beatles, the Stones, the Animals, the Who, Jimi Hendrix, David Bowie, Devo and Blondie. The Feb. 17 show is a double bill, "That'll Be The Day" and "Stardust." March 3 will offer the premiere of "The Original Punk Rock Movie," starring the Sex Pistols, the Clash and Generation X, among others. Knab also hopes to show record company promo films and is eager to talk to anyone who has such material (not on video tape). He can be reached at (415) 641-1726 or (415) 863-6467.

MOTORING TO THE TOP — It's been an incredible first year for E/A's The Cars, whose third single off the once-again-bulleting "The Cars" album, "Let The Good Times Roll," will soon be available as a 12" EP. The quintet is up for two Grammys and a couple of the group's songs have been picked for the soundtrack of "On The Edge," the story of an uprising of bored teens in a wealthy California suburb, due out this summer. Also coming up are guest spots on "Saturday Night Live" and "Midnight Special" as well as a "Talk of the Town" profile in New Yorker magazine.

UPCOMING RELEASES — Grammy-nominee Gerry Rafferty has completed his follow-up to "City To City" in his native Scotland. "Night Owl" is due from United Artists in March. . . . Another UA Grammy-nominee, Chris Rea, is also set for a March release. Rea's new LP will be called "Deltics." . . . Harry Nilsson's first new studio effort in quite some time is slated for an April release on UA. Guests on the LP include Ringo Starr and Steve Cropper. . . . ABC's the Keane Brothers, the youngest entertainers ever to host their own prime-time variety show, have just released their second LP, "Taking Off," produced by Lamont Dozier, David Foster and David Paich. . . . Pacific Arts is releasing an album to benefit the Greenpeace/Save The Whales organization. "Don't Fight The Seas" will include songs donated by Tanya Tucker, Michael Nesmith, Paul Winter, Celebration, Charles Lloyd and a new recording by Jan And Dean produced by Mike Love. . . . Also from Pacific Arts, look for a rock 'n' roll album from Nesmith.

IN THE STUDIO — At Filmways/Heider Recording in Hollywood, Jerry Lee Lewis supplying finishing touches to his first E/A LP with producer/engineer Bones Howe, producer John Florez mixing down Helen Reddy's latest for Capitol and final overdubs on a new Alan Price single for Jet, also with Howe. . . . Rod Stewart's drummer, Carmine Appice is producing Japanese singer Carmen Makl for Kitty Records at the Record

FEATURE PICKS

ERIC CLAPTON & HIS BAND (RSO RS 910)
Watch Out For Lucy (3:15) (Stigwood Music — Unichappell Music, admin. — BMI) (E. Clapton)
 "Promises" reached into Top 20 territory and this follow-up single with its shuffling beat, harmonica, bright electric guitar work and easy singing by Clapton and Marcy Levy has a good shot to follow suit. The lyric is a work-a-day tale of heroes and dangerous women.

RICK JAMES (Gordy/Motown G 7164F)
High On Your Love Suite (3:26) (Jobete Music — ASCAP) (R. James)
 "Bustin' Out Of L Seven" is the title of Rick James' new album. This first single has a dynamic mix of congas, guitars, synthesizer, horns, vibra slap and catchy singing. James is one of the premiere funksters around today and this driving track ought to bolster his reputation. Perfect for partying, this song is suited to R&B and crossover lists.

ALICIA BRIDGES (Polydor PD 14539)
Body Heat (2:59) (Lowery Music — BMI) (A. Bridges/S. Hutcheson)
 Alicia Bridges burst onto the scene with the elegant disco-influenced "I Love The Night Life (Disco Round)." This single has a rock and roll disposition with stout guitar chording and perky beat. Keyboard backing and background singers bolster Bridges' unique vocals. Suited to rocking lists. Top 40 and assorted pop.

BARRY MANN (Warner Bros. WBS 8752)
Almost Gone (3:59) (Screen Gems-EMI Music/Summerhill Songs — BMI) (B. Mann/C. Weil)
 Barry Mann's songwriting credits read like a roll call of pop's greatest hits. Now Mann, produced by Gus Dudgeon, sings a new song his way. Elegant piano playing, soul searching lyric, build-up production and good singing make this a fine MOR, pop add.

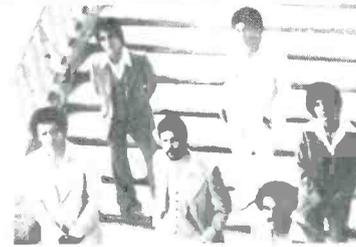

GREGG DIAMOND BIONIC BOOGIE (Polydor PD 14536)
Chains (3:32) (Diamond Touch/Arista Music — ASCAP) (G. Diamond)
 With a dramatic fuzz synthesizer line and catchy chorus, this danceable single from Diamond is headed for across-the-board action. Attention R&B and Top 40 lists. This is a hit. Funky rhythm currents, horns, outspoken bass and fine singing make this a winner.

THE THREE DEGREES (Ariola 7742)
Woman In Love (3:57) (Chappell & Co. — ASCAP) (D. Bugatti/F. Musker)
 Produced by Giorgio Moroder, this song from the "New Dimensions" album has a delicate quality in the lead vocal and a shivering attractiveness to the harmonies. Easy beat, strings, horn solo, and tasty guitar fills make this of interest to Top 40 and R&B lists.

CURTIS MAYFIELD (Curton/RSO RS 919)
This Year (3:18) (Mayfield Music — BMI) (C. Mayfield)
 This single is the first fruit of a recently signed Curton/RSO deal. Steady beat, background horns and strings, ticking guitar and silky singing by master Mayfield make this well-suited to R&B and pop playlists. The track is a sophisticated blending of rock, jazz and soul influences.

FOXY (Dash/TK 5050)
Hot Number (4:16) (Sherlyn Pub./Lindseyanne Music/Buckaroo Pub. — BMI) (I. Ledesma)
 Foxy made a mark with the fun and irreverent "Get Off." This title track from the "Hot Numbers" album has a demanding beat, skillful mix of guitar, bass, synthesizer and vocals. The rhythm is here. For R&B and pop lists.

SINGLES TO WATCH

WALTER EGAN (Columbia 3-10916)
Unloved (3:17) (Melody Deluxe Music/Swell Sounds Music/Seldak Music — ASCAP) (W. Egan)
 This is a newly remixed version of a song from Egan's "Not Shy" album. With subtle Caribbean tastes and an excellent lead and backing singing this track has a good pop shot. Acoustic guitars, nice electric solo and rolling chorus make it work.

PAUL KORDA (Janus J-277)
More Than A Friend (2:55) (Transport/Geoff & Eddie Music/Blackwood Music — BMI) (Korda)
 Co-produced by Spencer Davis, this is an interesting outing by Korda that ought to spark Top 40 interest. Vibrant drumming, horns, punctuating guitars and a singing style vaguely reminiscent of Joan Armatrading make this a good spin. Check it out.

RANDY VANWARMER (Bearsville BSS 0334)
Just When I Needed You Most (3:58) (Fourth Floor Music — ASCAP) (R. Vanwarmer)
 Vanwarmer delivers an inviting ballad on this effort. A layering of acoustic guitar, keyboards, strings and gentle vocals effectively transmits a sensitive mood. This track is well suited to MOR/AC and Top 40 action.

COOPER BROTHERS (Capricorn CPS-0315)
Away From You (3:17) (Oboe/Maestro Music — CAPAC/Tamiami Music — ASCAP) (R. Cooper)
 Expressive steel guitar work, slow swinging beat and strong vocals make this a solid ballad worthy of country, pop and AC attention. Piano, broad chorus and a rebuttal to Stephen Stills' "Love The One You're With" make this a good add.

RAMONES (Sire/Warner Bros. SRE 1045)
Needles & Pines (2:20) (Metric Music — BMI) (Bono/Nitzsche)
 Yes, this is the classic "Needles & Pins." The punk/camp rockers the Ramones treat it with respect and the result is an engaging remake which may garner the group much needed Top 40 visibility.

VAN DUNSON (Bicycle Music TBMC 1)
Introductions (3:03) (Kohaw Music/Audio Arts Music — ASCAP) (V. Dunson)
 Van Dunson is a talented writer and singer. Beautiful piano lines open this sensitive ballad about feelings of wanting and vulnerability. The set-up to the chorus is effectively simple. Van Dunson is a shockingly fine singer. Worthy of immediate MOR and pop attention.

NEIL SEDAKA (Elektra E-46017)
Sad, Sad Story (4:02) (Kiddio Music/Don Kirshner Music — BMI) (N. Sedaka/H. Greenfield)
 Taken from his "All You Need Is The Music" LP, this single from Sedaka features his characteristic bright vocals and uptempo emphatic piano chording. Guitars and backing vocals and contemporary touches to this track from the pop pro. For pop lists.

BOMBERS (West End WES 1215)
(Everybody) Get Danclin' (3:22) (Mandingo Music — BMI) (M. Jones/M. Simon)
 If your playlist is interested in the dancing beat and hot new songs, this may fit the bill. Steady kick, synthesizer moods, strings and expressive singing make this one work. This track is currently rising on the disco charts.

NANCY BROOKS (Arista AS 0385)
I'm Not Gonna Cry Anymore (3:11) (Mandy Music — ASCAP) (B. David)
 This song entered the pop chart this week. Dramatic "countrified" singing, firm rock 'n' roll beat, guitar fills and a complement of horns are the stuff this good outing is made of. For pop and country lists.

SHERON WILEY (Free Flight/RCA JA 11485)
So Close (2:58) (Chappell/Sailmaker Unichappell — BMI/ASCAP) (R. Goodrum/B. Foster)
 This is the first single from Nashville native Wiley. A sensitive ballad with circling guitar lines and stout beat, this effort will appeal to AC and other pop formats. Strings and back vocals enrich the arrangement.

FLB (Fantasy F-849)
Boogie Town (Parker Music/WMOT Music — BMI) (L. James/D. James)
 FLB uses a vocal synthesizer on this song dedicated to guess what. That's right. Herein is found steady kick drum, raucous horns, handclap beat, swirling rhythm guitar and general partying. Suited to R&B lists.

OSIRIS (Warner Bros. WBS 8758)
Consistency (3:25) (Star of David Music — BMI) (O. Marsh)
 Taken from the album "Since Before Our Time," this track has the funky ingredients for R&B lists and possible crossover. Understated rhythmic muscle, synthesizer strings and garrulous vocals bring this one home.

THE STAPLES (Warner Bros. 8748)
Chica Boom (3:06) (World Music — ASCAP) (J. Cameron/V. Cameron)
 "Unlock Your Mind" is the name of the Staples' album. Quality, soulful singing has long been the mark of the Staples and this track with funky guitar and horn backing is highlighted by powerful vocals. For R&B and other lists.

VERNON BURCH (Chocolate City CC 017)
Brighter Days (3:47) (Unart Music/Sand B. Music/Rick's Music — BMI) (V. Burch)
 A former member of the Bar-Kays, guitarist Burch handles guitar, lead vocals and some percussion and keyboard work on this track from his debut "Loveathon" LP. Brisk pace and funky feel make it suited to R&B, pop and dancing lists.

HEAVEN AND EARTH (Mercury 74041)
Let's Work It Out (3:54) (Jahmillla Music — ASCAP) (R. G. Massey/L. Hanks)
 Taken from their namesake album, this ballad has a talking style, conga backing, muted horns, nice guitar fills, silky and soulful vocals. The combination is suited to R&B lists.

TALENT

Pointer Sisters

MIDEM FESTIVAL, CANNES, S. FRANCE — An audience consisting almost entirely of music business personnel must be a tough conquest for any act, no matter how talented or experienced they may be. The three Pointer Sisters — Anita, Ruth and June — proved conclusively that instant conquest by sheer talent, energy and style was very definitely the name of their game.

Backed by six well-seasoned pros — Eric Bikales/keyboards; Jim Laing/keyboards; Scott Chambers/bass; Will McSarlane/guitar; Lony Eisenbarger/guitar and Bobby Guidotti/drums — the sisters captivated the audience with a chic banquet of sight and sound. The program of songs consisted mainly of uptempo, funk-rock material, held together with the Pointers' brand of gospel and jazz-type harmonies. Standout numbers were "Lay On The Line," "Come And Get Your Love," "Happiness," "Echoes Of Love," and their latest single, which has gone gold in the U.S., "Fire." The Pointers' versatility shone through when they performed one of their own compositions, a country and western song entitled, "Fairy Tale," a Grammy award-winning song also recorded by the late Elvis Presley. Otherwise, most of their act consisted of material from their latest album "Energy," aptly titled to spell out the simple effective ingredient which these girls have no shortage of.

Individually the sisters have very separate identities and very different personalities. Ruth strutted and boogied around the stage, teasing the musicians with all the decadent panache of a sophisticated punk-rocker; Anita performed softly and smoothly with warmth and well-controlled style; while June stayed vivacious and energetic.

They ended their set by thanking the record industry for developing their careers and dedicated a song to the music business entitled, "Everybody Is A Star."

Cooder Browne

PALOMINO, L.A. — The Cooder Browne band brought its special brand of honky tonk-high energy, beer drinkin' music to L.A.'s Palomino recently, and the occasion was cause for an all stops out Texas celebration. The four-piece band not only showed how much fire a new flame can bring to the already burning musical genre of "Outlaw Country," but was also joined onstage by such eminent Texans as Willie Nelson and Tanya Tucker.

The Lone Star recording group combines the diverse influences of Charlie Daniels and Bob Wills into one beautiful expression of country rock. The band is so fully realized and musically capable that, at certain moments during its performance, one could actually discern the individual elements that lead to the musical synthesis from Gene Autry to Willie and Waylon and the boys.

The band injects the flavor of Texas into all of its songs, and elements of Little Feat and Charlie Daniels can be found in tunes like "Lonesome Rider" and "What In The World." The foursome displayed its versatility by shifting from standards like Bob Wills' "Milk Cow Blues" to its own Caribbean flavored "Isle Of View."

Although Cooder Browne supplied enough electricity onstage to totally enrapture the audience, extra volts were supplied by the red headed stranger himself, Willie Nelson. Nelson performed a sweat drenching 1½ hour set that included such classic songs as "Whiskey River," "Blue Eyes Cryin In The Rain" and "Til I Gain Control Again." Sultry Tanya Tucker also joined her fellow Texans for a smoldering version of "Sunday Morning Comin' Down" and "Texas (When I Die)."

However, the new foursome (comprised of Skip Tumbleson on bass and vocals, David Haworth on piano, Dale Bolin on drums and Larry Franklin on fiddle) proved it was truly "Cooder Browne Night" by treating the awed crowd to a rousing encore of "Dancin' With The Armadillo" and "Two Trains Runnin' On The Same Track."

Jesse Collin Young

THE ROXY, L.A. — It's been almost 15 years since Jesse Collin Young recorded his first album, "Soul Of A City Boy," but judging from a recent appearance here, his joyously rustic rock 'n' roll has lost none of its potency.

The former Youngbloods leader, best remembered for the anthem-like "Get Together" of the mid-'60s, set the casual tone of the evening by sliding easily into "When The Morning Sun Has Come." While many of Young's lyrics unabashedly celebrate the beauty of nature, they do so with a sincerity that helps avoid the pitfalls of the cliché. "Ridgetop" and "Maui Sunrise," two fine examples, were imbued with an airy, jazz-tinged quality, perfectly complementing such themes.

Much of the show was dominated by material from Young's recent "American Dreams" LP, including the 18-minute "American Dream Suite." The opus, which Young could only describe as "a big piece of music," is perhaps his most demanding work to date. Combining metaphors of imprisonment and escape with dynamically shifting musical textures, the piece initially caught the audience off guard. By the end, however, they were warmly applauding many of the complex instrumental breaks.

Informing the crowd that "how high we get playing depends on how high you get listening," Young proceeded to kick the show into overdrive with a classic rock medley that included "Rave On," a Buddy Holly standard, Eddie Floyd's "Knock On Wood" and Hank Williams' "Jambalaya." He encored with "Light Shine," a spiritual which builds into a swinging rocker, and had the crowd singing along by the song's stirring finale.

Young's backup band rightfully received their accolades for an air-tight performance with the largest ovations going to veteran reed man Jim Rothermel for his inspired sax and flute solos and Pete Walsh for his animated lead guitar work.

All in all, it's gratifying to find that artists like Jesse Collin Young are still delivering solid, no-frills shows.

Eddie Rabbitt

THE PALOMINO, NORTH HOLLYWOOD — Eddie Rabbitt is big news and rightly so. With a succession of country and western chart-toppers already under his belt, Rabbitt's latest single, the title cut off the "Every Which Way But Loose" soundtrack, is bulleting up the Top 100 singles chart.

If success has gone to his head, you'd never have known it from the series of sold-out shows here. Grabbing his audience from the start, he slammed right into "Crossing The Mississippi," letting the good ol' guys and gals know just where his heart was. He astutely followed it with his self-proclaimed "Drinkin' Medley," which included "Two Dollars In The Jukebox," "Plain As The Pain On My Face" and the hit, "I Can't Help Myself."

Rabbitt's talents as an all-around performer were highlighted in another medley, this one a group of old and new C&W classics such as, "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry," "Don't It Make My Brown Eyes Blue," "I Can't Stop Loving You" and his own "Kentucky Rain," which Elvis Presley recorded and made a million-seller. Accompanying himself on guitar, Rabbitt seemed totally at ease and his between-songs patter was engaging and thoughtful, a rarity for even some of the most seasoned talents.

The evening lulled slightly, however, when Rabbitt was joined by Sondra Locke, co-star of "Every Which Way But Loose." After a brief rendition of "I Seek The Night" from the soundtrack, Locke and Rabbitt did a couple of unrehearsed duets and the lack of preparation seemed apparent. Undaunted, they laughed off the errors and the crowd hardly noticed.

Sensing that the audience was ready to move now, Rabbitt swung the band into a rollicking cover of "Orange Blossom Special," joined by road manager Bill Rehrig on fiddle, which set the energy level for the rest of the evening. The fiery "Rocky Mountain Music" closed out the show on an upbeat note, with the crowd stomping and hollering for more.

Mary K. Miller

THE PALOMINO, L.A. — On a cold, damp night when most of L.A. was shivering, a host of celebrities, press personnel and entertainment executives warmed up as Mary K. Miller made her west coast debut here in a one-hour show bristling with energy and showmanship.

Conway Twitty, Dennis Weaver and Hee Haw's Sam Louvello were part of the capacity crowd which welcomed Mary K. to L.A. Backed by the brilliant, versatile TCB Band and a three-piece vocal backup group, Mary K. hit the stage at top speed and moved easily through her mixed set of ballads and rockers.

Using the TCB Band as a perfect balance for her strong voice, Mary K. sounded equally convincing on any type of song. Actually, her voice is so good she could improve her phrasing and texture by underplaying, rather than overplaying her voice. But slim and freshly scrubbed in jeans and a colorful satin blouse, Mary K. had no problem pleasing the crowd with powerful versions of "Georgia," "I Can't Stop Loving You" and "Handcuffed To A Heartache."

A surprise and a highlight of the show was the moment Mary K. lit into the throbbing, pounding disco hit, "Last Dance." Possibly the best number of the night, "Last Dance" let Mary K. soar with her voice and squeeze the most out of the TCB Band and backup vocalists.

The TCB Band is Elvis Presley's old backup group, and Mary K. chose to end her set with the driving "Mystery Train," one of Elvis' early rockabilly hits on Sun Records. Spotting the extraordinary guitar work of James Burton, Mary K. left the stage with the TCB Band still rockin' and the audience wanting a longer look at the pretty lady with the big voice.

Angela Bofill

CELLAR DOOR, WASHINGTON, D.C. — There was enough enthusiasm over the discovery of Angela Bofill to warrant her being held over here. And for good reason: this 24-year-old, unknown artist is destined for bigger and better things.

Bofill is a natural. Her dancing and direct contact through eye and facial expressions totally involved the audience. But all that is secondary to the range of vocal talents she displays, from Top 40 to Al Jarreau-style scat songs, from emotional ballads to Latin-flavored rockers.

Her versatile songwriting deserves praise as well. She began the show with her "Under The Moon And Over The Sky," among her best jazz-tinted pieces accompanied by her mesmerizing movements. "Baby I Need Your Love," which she also penned, showed off her MOR vocal talent mixed with acting ability.

"Just One Wish" was sweet and counter-balanced "People Tryin' To Get Over," a mean rhythm number. Bofill moved easily from Ashford and Simpson's "Rough Times" to the dramatic "This Time I'll Be Sweeter," and from a funky "People Make The World Go Round" to her own dream scenario, "Children Of The World."

With this multifaceted vocal talent, Bofill's GRP Records debut album, "Angie" (produced by Dave Grusin and Larry Rosen), should do well. And her flair for dramatics should continue to make her concert engagements exciting.

Gil Scott-Heron Brian Jackson

THE ROXY, L.A. — The evening at the Roxy with Jean Carn opening for Gil Scott-Heron, Brian Jackson and the Midnight Band was a multilevel musical experience. Beyond captivating entertainment and an invitation to dance, it was a night of warm, thought-provoking human communication.

Jean Carn's voice is one of those rare musical instruments on which they say all the others are based. It is high and clear, strong, sassy and sparkling with the sunny personality that shines in her countenance.

Backed by the six-piece Jean Carn Ensemble, highlights of her performance were "(No, No) You Can't Come Back Now" with close harmony on scale work, followed by "Dindi," a moody jazz piece and then two Gamble and Huff pieces, "There's a Shortage of Good Men," a talky, brassy and quick-tempoed song and an urgent "Don't Let It Go to Your Head."

Gil Scott-Heron began quietly with a beautiful song for his daughter, accompanied only by himself and the Doctor on Latin drums. After "Delta Man (Where I'm Coming From)" he was then joined by the rest of the Midnight Band for the remainder of the performance which included "Madison Avenue," "Angel Dust," and "In the Bottle." The high point of the evening, though, was "Johannesburg," which featured the Doctor dancing and simultaneously playing a traditional rhythm instrument that soon had the audience clapping along.

ON-TV To Air Elektra/Asylum Mini-Concerts

LOS ANGELES — Through-out the month of February, National Subscription Television (ON-TV) will present a group of "mini-concerts" by Elektra/Asylum recording artists for its 120,000 viewers.

Sherry Goldsher, E/A video director, announced that the 45-minute show, which was produced by the label itself, will feature Joe Cocker in a live San Francisco performance singing "Lady Turn The Light Out," "Fun Time" and "Whiter Shade of Pale." Also included in the program are Andrew Gold, doing "Go Back Home Again" and "Never Let Her Slip Away," with Queen performing "Bicycle Race," "Fat Bottomed Girls," "Somebody To Love" and "Bohemian Rhapsody."

Rounding out the production will be Warren Zevon, covering his hit single "Werewolves of London" and, on the disco side, Donald Byrd with the hit "Thank You For Funking Up My Life."

Elektra/Asylum is the first label to work with ON-TV using the mini-concert format and has further agreed to supply the service with footage for future shows.

Lyons Forms Cachet

NEW YORK — Jude Lyons has formed a new agency called Cachet Advertising. The company will serve a broad range of industry clients, including John Scher's Monarch Entertainment concert promotion firm, the Bottom Line club, and Midsong Records. Cachet is located at 677 West End Avenue, New York, N.Y., tel. (212) 864-7796.

TASTY PRODUCT — MCA Records is inviting collegiate talent buyers for the upcoming NECAA National conference to "bite into" some of MCA's new product. Part of MCA's presentation will include a Sampler LP entitled "A Taste Of MCA," featuring artists such as Dyan Diamond and the Blend. MCA staffers display the album above.

MCA To Offer Budget John LP's

LOS ANGELES — Four of Elton John's LPs — "Here and There," "Rock of the Westies," "Empty Sky" and "11-17-70" — are to be incorporated into MCA's Mid-Line Series. The Series, which has a manufacturers suggested retail price of $3.49 for LP and $3.99 for tape, was created in 1978. The Mid-Line Series followed the success of the company's two-fer program which was instituted in 1975.

The 10-month old series has produced an increased revenue amounting to six times the sales these LPs had received at their original price. MCA feels it can offer substantial product, offer the consumer savings and show the same profit. The Mid-Line Series consists of 250 titles including country product as well as jazz repertoire.

New Galway Album Gets Full RCA Promo

NEW YORK — The American release of flutist James Galway's album, "Annie's Song," the first classical album by a solo artist ever to be certified gold in England, will be supported with a major "Showcase" advertising-promotion campaign by RCA Records.

The Showcase Album concept includes marketing the album at a low suggested price, with a sticker reading "showcase" along with the price. Merchandising accessories include 4X4-foot blowups of the album cover, a four-color, point-of-purchase, easel-sized photograph of Galway and an 18X38-inch streamer reading "Showcase album" along with the special price.

The campaign will be coordinated with Galway's upcoming American tour and appearances on the Tonight Show (February 6) and the Mike Douglas Show (February 16).

Ocean Records Opens Beverly Hills Office

LOS ANGELES — Ocean Records, MK Productions-MK Dance Promotions has opened its new west coast offices. The new headquarters is located at 9300 Wilshire Blvd. in Beverly Hills. The addresses for the New York and Boston offices remain the same.

Hartman 45 Is Gold

NEW YORK — The single, "Instant Replay," by Blue Sky recording artist Dan Hartman has been certified gold by the RIAA, signifying sales in excess of one million units.

A new album written and sung by Bill Withers on Columbia Records and Tapes. For dancers, lovers and dreamers. For you.

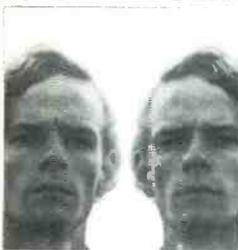

CHEAP TRICK AT BUDOKAN — Cheap Trick — Epic FE 35795 — Producer: Tom Werman — List: 8.98

The import version of Cheap Trick's Japanese live LP was such a success that Epic has come out with virtually the same package for American consumption. The album includes eight high-energy cuts from Cheap Trick's first two albums, along with Fats Domino's "Ain't That A Shame" and a new cut, "Need Your Love." An extra bonus is the booklet from the Japanese album, complete with lyrics in Japanese. Should be an AOR staple.

THE BEST OF AND THE REST OF — Be-Bop Deluxe — Harvest SKBO-11870 — Producers: Various — List: 10.98

The story of Be-Bop Deluxe finally comes to an official end with the release of this double greatest hits package. Spearheaded throughout its six-LP history by the often dazzling musical approach of guitarist/song writer Bill Nelson, many a medium-sized hall rock with this band's special brand of prog-rock and many an FM outlet gained avid listeners when a majority of this package's tracks were released in their original configurations.

ECHOES — Livingston Taylor — Capricorn CPN-0220 — Producer: Jon Landau and Ed Freeman — List: 7.98

Veteran folksinger Livingston Taylor has lived in the shadow of brother James for most of his recording career and it's about time this talented songwriter and performer be noticed. "Echoes" may be the album to do it, a fairly comprehensive "best of" package which features the stunningly beautiful "Carolina Day," the truly rowing "Get Out Of Bed" and the tender "Lost In The Love Of You." In fact, all the songs have an endearing pleasantness that provides a memorable listening experience for all. A definite for Adult Contemporary and MOR formats.

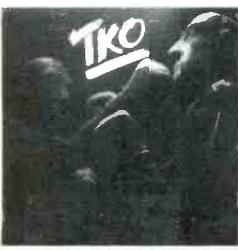

THE POLICE — Outlandos d'Amour — A&M SP-4753 — Producer: The Police — List: 7.98

The Police embody the best elements of the new wave. The band incorporates steady rock and reggae rhythms with sardonically witty lyrics, interesting harmonies and lead vocals full of frustration and conviction. This debut album puts them miles ahead of most punk bands. There are lots of influences on this band, but the threesome is totally original musically and lyrically. Of the many great cuts on the album, the best are: "Roxanne" "Be My Girl-Sally" and "Peanuts."

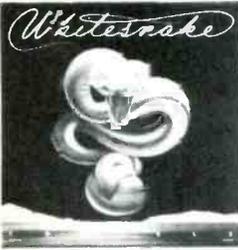

SINFUL — Angel — Casablanca — NBLP 7127 — Producer: Eddie Leonetti — List: 7.98

This group of five heavy-metal rockers have taken an additional step in exploring different musical techniques in their latest effort, by utilizing concert tracks as a basis for a studio LP, succeeding in making the album even hotter than their studio LPs. Producer Eddie Leonetti has succeeded in bringing out the fine musicianship of these artists, often overlooked due to the band's highly theatrical stance. This album should get the attention of Top 40 and AOR playlists.

LET IT ROLL — TKO — Infinity Inf 9005 — Producer: Mike Flicker — List: 7.98

Infinity tosses its hat into the heavy-metal ring with the debut of TKO and it looks like a unanimous decision. Hard edged instrumentation with gruff, passionate vocals to match, the band has a sound very reminiscent of the Who at their rocking best. With Heart's Mike Flicker sitting behind the boards, rock hard gems such as "Ain't No Way To Be" and "Gutter Boy" receive the polish necessary to make them hits. For AOR and pop formats.

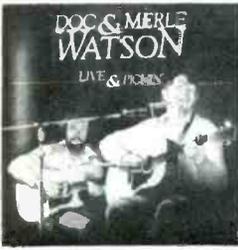

WHITESNAKE — Trouble — UA-LA937-H — Producer: Martin Birch — List: 7.98

The blitzkrieg rock 'n' roll that thundered through the music of Deep Purple and Free yesterday and Bad Co. and Rainbow today, is what White Snake is all about. The album features ear assaulting lead guitar, John Lord's pulsating organ work and the confident vocals of David Coverdale. An instrumental called "Belgian Tom's Hat Trick" is the showpiece on this heavy metal masterpiece. The album should do well in AOR formats. Stand out tracks are: "Take Me With You," "Free Flight" and "Day Tripper."

FIRE POWER — Legs Diamond — Cream CR-1010 — Producer: Walter P. Marriner, Jr. — List: 7.98

Legs Diamond is a hot new five-man band from California that plays heavy-metal rock and roll the way it should be played — hard, fast and fun. The quintet has been around for a number of years, building a big following in the Southwest, and its experience shows in the graceful way it handles the powerhouse material. Top cuts for AOR are "Help Wanted" and the classic "You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'."

DOC & MERLE WATSON — Live & Pickin' — UA-LA943-H — Producer: Mitch Greenhill — List: 7.98

There is nothing quite like the feeling one gets when Doc Watson's haunting voice and mournful Appalachian rhythms fill a concert hall. However, some of that magic is captured on the new Doc and Merle Watson LP. The album was recorded live and features the smooth pickin', country swing and blue grass reels that has made the duo one of American folk music's supreme acts. "Let The Cocaine Be," "Wild Bill Jones" and "Leather Britches" are the classics on this classic live effort.

LA Radio Survey Finds FMs Surging While AMs Struggle

tainment industry. The dreams inspired by the entertainment capitol of the world (Hollywood is part of the core of L.A.) has helped to draw some of the nation's top air personalities and programmers to Southern California. And the dominance of the entertainment industry in the city has its effect on programming as well.

"You can't separate that show biz orientation of the community from what you put on your radio station," says KWST's Downs. "There's a lot of excitement in this town and people want to know what's going on. A station has to stay on top of all that."

KMET

One station that has done a good job of staying on top of what goes on in L.A. is KMET-FM. By airing live reports from the Rolling Stones' summer stadium appearance in Anaheim, from the spring Cal Jam II festival that drew a quarter of a million rock fans and from the World Series that captivated the whole city in October, KMET has established itself as the station that reflects the lifestyle of a large number of Angelinos.

"They're picking the right things to do and they're doing them well," explains Art Laboe, a fixture on the L.A. radio scene the past 30 years, the last three as PD of KRLA. "They've also got the best concert connection in town, with Wolf & Rissmiller, and have managed to keep their personalities long enough to establish them with the audience."

Many competing programmers cite KMET's personalities, including B. Mitchell Reed, Jeff Gonzer, Mary Turner and Jim Ladd, as the key to the station's success. John Felz, assistant PD at KMPC, often thought of as the personality station in L.A. with its adult contemporary format hosted by such reknowned DJs as Gary Owens and Dick Whittinghill, says, "We consider KMET to be the only other personality station in town. They're what we were 20 years ago to our audience. In fact, I'd say they're even stronger than the book says."

And the book says KMET is very strong indeed. Under the direction of PD Sam Bellamy, who describes her station's format as "rock 'n' roll radio" (with no day-parting), the Metromedia outlet has moved away from the pack of contemporary music stations. The fall ARBs showed KMET to be the #1 station for men and women 12-49, men 18-24, men 25-34, women 18-24 and teens. The station's 4.9 average quarter hour share was almost two points higher than the next best music station (excluding background music stations such as KBIG and KJOL).

Bellamy points to KMET's secret research system, which utilizes retail reports and concert feedback, as one reason for KMET's success, but she adds that "our personalities have brought us to where we are."

"We feel that everything has got to be right, and right now I believe that we are doing 99-100 percent right," says Bellamy.

Fighting For #2

Behind KMET, there are 10 stations in the AOR, soft rock, mass appeal and Top 40 spectrum trying to move up to challenge the leader. These are KLOS-FM, KNX-FM, KZLA-FM, KWST-FM, KRTH-FM, KIQQ-FM, KHJ, KFI, KTNQ and KRLA.

KLOS, the ABC-owned album rock station, was the leading FM music station just a few years ago, but stepped up competition cut into its audience. An ill-fated shift to a softer sound last year resulted in a loss in cume and average quarter hour shares (from 3.6 to 2.4 in nine months), but PD Frank Cody now has the station back on a hard rock course. Cody does some negative day-parting ("I'm concerned with inappropriate songs.") and is a believer in personality radio.

"The trend is back toward personality, especially on AOR with personalities who empathize with the audience," notes Cody.

Cody says KLOS' attempt to get more 25-34 listenership last year by going more pop was a mistake. "Now we're rocking again and we have some surprises in store for '79 — and I don't mean disco."

"L.A. is a young, rock-oriented market. Disco hasn't made much headway here yet. Southern California is healthy, youthful, and rock 'n' roll relates to its lifestyle."

No More Mellow

In recent years, L.A. has been tabbed as a "mellow" city and for a while KNX-FM billed itself as the "mellow sound." Now the CBS O&O has dropped that ID and the fall book saw the station move up to a 3.1 average quarter hour share, #1 in women 25-34, while maintaining a soft rock sound.

"We don't say 'mellow' anymore because the word's dated, but we're still on the mellow end of the spectrum," indicates PD Steve Marshall. "We program an AOR format with lots of new music and new artists, trying to lead in a market of followers."

"KNX goes on new product faster than anyone in the market," concurs Tom Mazzetta, western regional promotion director for London Records. "Their soft-rock format has succeeded in the rating and in selling product for the record companies."

KZLA (formerly KPOL-FM) also programs a soft-rock format that is

GOLDEN EGG IS HATCHED — If you're a programmer looking for some new special programming, there's a new syndication company that just may have what you're looking for. The L.A.-based Golden Egg is now offering two new weekly shows, one for mass appeal stations and one for stations currently playing disco or looking to get in on the disco craze. Larry Yurdin's Special Programming Services is consulting the Golden Egg, headed by former KOME/San Jose owner Ron Cutler, and they are now lining up stations for an April 14 start-up date for the two weekly series. The mass appeal show is called "Hot Tracks U.S.A." It's a three-hour countdown of the week's top 25 singles and cuts from the top 10 albums, mixed with occasional oldies and up and coming tracks and in-person visits from many top recording artists. "Hot Tracks U.S.A." is hosted by former KSAN/San Francisco personality Terry McGovern and it looks like it might give some real competition to the granddaddy of syndicated shows, "American Top 40." "Steppin' Out" is the name of the two-hour disco show, hosted by Raechel Donahue, ex of KWST and KMET in L.A., among others. "Steppin' Out" is a sweep of major discos from coast to coast, spotlighting the hottest cuts from each club along with guest appearances by leading disco performers. Each song is introduced by the DJ who picks it, or the artist who recorded it.

Demos of "Hot Tracks U.S.A." and "Steppin' Out" are now available from the Golden Egg. Both shows are free to stations in ARB-rated markets, or they may be bought by small market and foreign stations, always exclusively to one station per market. For further information, contact Yurdin at (213) 476-9475.

WEAM's NON-STATEMENT STATEMENT — In response to the recent commotion over stations like WPGC/Washington, D.C. being flagged by Arbitron for making ratings survey statements, WEAM in Washington has come out with the first on-air non-statement statement: "You may have heard on other stations about the audience survey presently underway in Washington . . . These other stations are telling you how important these ratings surveys are to stations in the area, and how you should be very careful to provide accurate information about your radio listening habits . . . While this may sound innocent, or perhaps even potentially beneficial, the truth is the ratings survey company has urged all stations not to make such announcements. In the opinions of the ratings company, these appeals will tend to distort the survey findings and possibly provide an unfair advantage to stations making such announcements. Since we at WEAM radio do not advocate this kind of "unfair broadcasting practice," we urge you to forget the announcements you may hear on other stations about ratings . . . This way you will help keep the ratings "fair" . . . Of course, you'll have to forget this announcement too."

WEAM's director of programming and operations, Herb Hunt, predicts his station will be the first to be flagged for a non-statement statement.

STATION TO STATION — WCAR/Detroit has announced that it will go country sometime in March and is awaiting FCC approval for a call letter change. The change in formats has been initiated by Golden West Broadcasters' WCAR's signing of top country radio personality, Deano Day . . . In honor of the Second Annual ITT/American Cancer Society Dance Marathon held at the Playboy Towers in Chicago, WDAI/Chicago provided commercial free disco music for its listeners from 11 p.m. Friday — 1 a.m. Saturday and again from 10-midnight on Saturday. WDAI had air personalities Tom Graye and Danae Alexander on hand to emcee the disco party at the Playboy Towers and to give listeners updates on the marathon festivities . . . WRVQ/Richmond (Q-94) recently held a "Boston Free Party." Before a local Boston concert, Q94 jocks hosted a special dinner for winners of Boston concert tickets and albums . . . KFMD/Dubuque is holding a "Winter Warm Up" drawing. Winners have the choice between six trips for two to sunny vacationlands like Jamaica and Cancun Caribe, Mexico. KFMD, the Love Rock of Dubuque, will be giving away a real love rock for Valentines Day. It'll be a $900 unmounted diamond . . . WNBC/New York was recently paid a visit by Christopher Reeve, the man who portrays "Superman." Reeve apologized for the manner in which he dropped in by telling jocks Scotty Brink and Richard Belzer that he would repair the damage to the station's roof. When asked why he wasn't wearing his famous costume, the man of steel replied, "It's in the cleaners and won't be ready until Thursday."

NEW JOBS — Lee Armstrong, acting operations director for WNOE/New Orleans' FM and AM stations, is temporarily replacing the former AM PD Marc Summers. Armstrong was the station's FM PD. Nick Bazoo is WNOE's new assistant PD and MD. . . . Terry Long, former MD and top midday man at WBJW-FM/Orlando, is the new PD at WAIV/Jacksonville (V-97) . . . Ms. Bobbin Beam has recently been appointed to the position of MD at WLPX/Milwaukee . . . Former Dallas Cowboy linebacker, Dave Fonteno, is WPLJ-FM/New York's new 2-6 a.m. personality. Fonteno comes to WPLJ from FM rocker KLOL/Houston . . . Charlie Van Dyke is the new morning personality for WRKO/Boston. Van Dyke comes to WRKO from KLIF/Dallas and was formerly the PD at KHJ in Los Angeles . . . Samuel W. Beasley, Jr., former account executive/field merchandiser for WEA, has joined the staff of the Baltimore Radio Show, which owns and operates WFBR-AM and WBKZ-FM . . . Rae-Carole Fischer is the new account executive for WNBC/New York . . . James Corboy, former salesman for Eva-Tone Soundsheets, has been named director of promotional development for WLS/Chicago. Kezios has been with WMAQ as a sales account executive since the station changed to its country format in 1975 . . . WIFE/Indianapolis is looking for a morning jock. Tapes and resumes to Steve Cooper, 1440 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis . . . There is also an opening for an air personality at WTUE-FM/Dayton. The crazed and quick witted can send tapes and resumes to Chuck Browning, 11 S. Wilkinson, Dayton, Ohio . . . WKDD/Akron is in need of a sales representative. Tapes and resumes to John Demeter, 424 Sackett Ave., Akron 44313.

Jarre Promo Tour Hits Northwest

LOS ANGELES — Polydor recording artist Jean Michel Jarre is set for a brief promotional tour of the Northwest, covering Portland, Oregon Feb. 14 and Seattle, Washington Feb. 15. Jarre is scheduled for on-the-air interviews at radio stations KINK-FM in Portland and KZOK in Seattle in addition to autograph sessions at record stores in both areas.

Promotion plans for the European instrumentalist will also include an in-store giveaway of two synthesizers, supplied by the ARP Synthesizer Company, and four pairs of binoculars, courtesy of Cameras Unltd., as a tie-in with the cover artwork on Jarre's "Equinoxe" album. Radio spots and print advertising are being utilized to back up the tour.

Siegel, Steele To Host N.Y. Grammy Bash

NEW YORK — Joel Siegel of WABC-TV and Alison Steele of WNEW-FM will host the Grammy Awards Celebrations and Presentations Ceremony of NARAS' New York chapter on Feb. 15 in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Biltmore.

Also scheduled to appear are Renata Scotto, Gerry Mulligan, Garrett Morris, Genya Ravan, Lou Reed, Mary Travers, Sarah Dash, Morton Gould and Professor Irwin Corey.

The presentation ceremonies will begin at 5:45 with a cocktail presentation. Ticket reservations may be obtained by calling NARAS at (212) 755-1535.

DIR To Introduce Robert Klein Hour

NEW YORK — "The Robert Klein Hour," a new bi-weekly syndicated radio show presented by DIR Broadcasting, is set to premiere Feb. 28 on approximately 200 FM radio stations.

Klein, best known for his work as a comedian, and currently starring in the Neil Simon Broadway play, "They're Playing Our Song," will host the show, described as a "Tonight Show"-type format. In addition to an opening monologue and interviews with rock stars, the show will feature a Top 20 album countdown.

The show's announcer will be Dennis Elsas of WNEW-FM in New York.

Cox Posts '78 Income

LOS ANGELES — Cox Broadcasting Corporation has reported a 1978 net income of $34 million, equal to $5.07 per share. This represents an increase of 43% over 1977. Net income for the year 1977 was $25.5 million, equal to $4.11 per share, including non-recurring earnings of $1.5 million or 29 cents per share. Operating revenues for 1978 reached a new high of $230 million, a gain of 24% over revenues of $186 million a year earlier.

Network Report Issued

NEW YORK — The fourth annual Arbitron Radio Nationwide Network Report has been released to the four subscribing radio networks — ABC, Katz, Mutual and NBC. The report covers 210 localities within the continental U.S.

MANAGERS SERIES

Personal Concern For Artist Is Sign Of A Good Manager

by Aaron Fuchs

NEW YORK — Bob Schwaid believes that a manager should be like a member of the artist's family, although, in the course of his professional career, he has managed performers like Al Green and Van Morrison whose reputed tempestuousness would be certain to test the love of a mother. Still, they are characteristic of Schwaid's high-quality artistic taste, and today, guiding the career of Evelyn "Champagne" King, among others, Schwaid has found a perfect balance of artistic excellence, personal compatibility and professional success.

Schwaid himself couldn't have predicted his entry into the business of management. "I was working for a publishing company, Fred Fox Music, in 1968 when one of his artists, Miriam Makeba, asked me to manage her. I said 'yes' almost without realizing it. Her career was at a low ebb — the Belafonte era was over — but she felt that I was personally involved with her. I put her in the studio with Jerry Ragavoy, and the result was a hit record, "Pata, Pata," which rejuvenated her career, and got me per-

NMPA Sets Seminar On Copyright Law

NEW YORK — The National Music Publisher's Association has scheduled the first session of its "Copyright Workshop '79" for the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles on March 15. The session has been dubbed "Copyright Revision Revisited," and will present several discussions led by noted Copyright authorities.

The workshop's morning session will feature a talk on "Copyright office procedures in operation" by Marybeth Peters, chief of the information and reference division of the Copyright Office in Washington.

Jon Baumgarten, chief counsel of the copyright office, will address the workshop's luncheon group on the first 15 months of the new copyright statute. The afternoon session will be addressed by John C. Taylor III, general counsel for NMPA, who will discuss "how the copyright law is affecting business decisions."

Admission charges for NMPA members or Harry Fox Agency clients will be $20, and non-members will be charged $50. Checks with registration forms must reach the NMPA at 110 East 59th St., N.Y., N.Y. 10022 no later than March 9.

Copyright Workshop '79 sessions are also planned for Nashville in April and New York in June.

manently involved with management."

Beyond helping Makeba, the success of "Pata, Pata" secured Schwaid's relationship with Warner Brothers, to whom he brought his next act, Van Morrison. "I met Van through an immigration attorney, Van was an alien trying to obtain citizenship. I got him off Bang and onto Warners. I had had experience with various jazz musicians running a studio called Music Makers, and organized the sessions that resulted in the 'Astral Weeks' album. I stayed with Van through the 'Moondance' album."

New Client

Schwaid managed several other acts during that period, including Al Green, Tommy James and Jackie Lomax. Schwaid also handled the Independents and introduced the group's lead singer, Charles Jackson, to the woman whom he would successfully produce, Natalie Cole.

But Schwaid's most far-reaching managerial decision came last year, when he took on management of Evelyn "Champagne" King. "I met Evelyn through her producer, T. Life, who I was also managing as an artist and producer. This was in June 1978, and 'Shame' had not yet broken pop.

Heilman Convicted In Federal District Court

NEW YORK — David Heilman, president of E-C Tape, has been found guilty of 18 counts of copyright infringement, and will be sentenced on March 21 in U.S. District Court in Chicago. Heilman faces a maximum jail sentence of 18 years and/or a fine of $18,000.

Heilman, who was charged with willfully duplicating copyrighted musical recordings, asserted that the law was so vague during the period that he engaged in the practices that he could not be charged with willful and knowledgeable infringement.

Judge John F. Crady acknowledged that, if the acts under question had been committed before the 1972 Duchess Music Corp. v. Stern case, Heilman's claim may have been substantiated. But he also noted that, by 1975, Heilman's actions could reasonably be determined illegal.

Heilman also contended that he had not willfully infringed songs, because he had offered to pay publishers the statutory two cents mechanical royalty. However, Judge Grady described the offer as a "scheme . . . to give the appearance of legitimacy."

Personal Concern For Artist Is Sign Of Good Manager

The first thing I did was set up a tour with the O'Jays. This demonstrated to a massive audience that Evelyn could really sing and was a talent beyond being a voice on a disco record. This, combined with RCA's massive tour support, brought 'Shame' and Evelyn all the way home."

At a time when record companies, through the function of product management, appear to be taking an ever-increasing role in the handling of an artist's career, Schwaid feels the manager's role is still crucial. "It is undoubtedly true that the success of a record lies with the record company, but I can take that record and parlay it into a career. In fact, record companies today actively seek experienced managers to take an artist beyond what they can do. You can't expect a product manager who's got ten acts to work to be able to deal with an artist as comprehensively as a manager who has only two or three of its best. It's a give-and-take situation. There are times when Ray Harris may call me for consultation, and I will certainly notify RCA the minute I have secured a promotional appearance or concert date.

"With Evelyn," Schwaid says, "my aim is to groom her to maturity. She is only going to be 19, and in March we are taking time off to revamp the show according to her increasing maturity as a performer. I am optimistic about Evelyn's long-term success, because she has a supportive family unit to fall back on and has maintained an attitude of 'I'm still Evelyn' through it all.

"My philosophy," Schwaid continues, "is that a manager must be perceived by the artist practically as a family member; as a person who is intimately involved with, and cares about, the artist's personal life. The best way to inspire that is to work with a select few." The only other act that Schwaid has taken on recently has been the reformed Orleans, who he has already pacted to Infinity Records for an imminent album release.

"The manager," concludes Schwaid, "must also be seen as a quarterback. He is the man with the best overview."

TK, Amherst Ink Distribution Deal On HDM Label

NEW YORK — TK Records has signed a distribution deal with Amherst Records covering the latter label's subsidiary, HDM Records. Eddie Horan and Black Ice, both produced by Hadley Murrel, will be distributed by TK under terms of the pact.

While Infinity Records now has first refusal rights for distribution of a product by any act on the Amherst roster (see separate story), TK Records has its pick of HDM/Amherst artists if Infinity passes on them.

Unlike the production deal with Infinity, Amherst's distribution agreement with TK does not provide for inclusion of the Amherst logo on TK-distributed product. Nevertheless, artists picked up for distribution by TK will remain signed to Amherst. David Parker, who runs Amherst for its parent company, Transcontinent Record Sales, likened the arrangement to a "licensing deal."

Carlin Pacts With Cars, Infinity For Publishing

LOS ANGELES — Carlin Music has entered in to an agreement with Elektra/Asylum group, The Cars, and Infinity Publishing Inc. allowing Carlin the rights to sub-publish their catalogs. Negotiations for the Cars, a top new American rock band, were conducted through Lido Music, which represents all songs written by Ric Ocasek, songwriter and member of the group. Rich and Lou Ragusa handled the deal for Infinity.

Kenny Rogers Special Set For Easter Week

LOS ANGELES — Kenny Rogers' first television special, "A Special Kenny Rogers" will air on CBS sometime during Easter Week. Rogers is scheduled to start filming the show later this month in the Houston, Texas area. The program will feature an in-concert segment of Roger's appearance at the Houston Livestock and Rodeo show before an audience of more than 100,000 people.

JAZZ

ON JAZZ

Already it appears as though 1979 will be an ominous year. No sooner were people getting over the death of Charles Mingus than two other important jazzmen died.

Sonny Payne was only 52 when he died, and in recent years he had often been featured with Harry James' band. But it was his tenure in the Count Basie orchestra of the '50s that brought him to attention. Without question, Payne was one of the great flash drummers of all time, and in pieces such as "Old Man River," he demonstrated a solid stickmanship. But it was not really the solo pieces that made Payne so valuable. He actually redefined the role of the drummer in the Basie band (where the rhythm section has always been most important), and his shadow will be cast upon Basie drummers for years to come.

Perhaps even a more tragic story is the death of Grant Green Jan. 31 of a heart attack. Green was the least known of that tremendous trio of guitarists who came out of the organ group scene of the '60s (Wes Montgomery and George Benson were the others), but his abilities were at least equal to the others. He recorded for Blue Note in every possible setting during the '60s but took a couple of years off to kick a narcotics habit. When he returned to action in 1969 he went more in an R&B direction (his "Visions" album was a big hit in 1971). He moved to Detroit the same year and was popular on the jazz club circuit throughout the country, but especially in the Motor City. He did an album for Kudu in 1975 and one for Versatile in 1978. In the summer of '78, he was hospitalized for several months, and he lost over 100 pounds during that period. Yet, by December, he was well enough to be released and immediately resumed a heavy touring schedule which may have triggered the attack that killed him.

Michael Cuscuna, after a trip to California spent assembling unissued Blue Note masters, reported that there existed a Green album with John Coltrane's rhythm section that "was the best album Grant ever made." There could be no more fitting memorial to the man than the release of that LP.

Vanguard has a new LP by the Players Association. Titled "Turn The Music Up" it features Tom Harrell, Bob Berg and Bob Mover among the soloists.

California-based Pausa Records has announced an arrangement with German-based MPS Records to issue jazz product here. In the first release will be "Richard Davis — The Jazz Wave"; "Momentum" by guitarist Jimmy Raney; "Alto Summit" with Lee Konitz, Phil Woods, Leo Wright and Pony Poindexter; "Midnight Mood" by Mark Murphy, and two volumes, "Oleo" and "On The Trail," recorded some years ago at one of Dick Gibson's Jazz Parties with an all-star cast.

Club and concert news: Scott Hamilton and Buddy Tate cooked up a storm at the Village Vanguard, and Richie Cole sizzled Seventh Avenue South. The Jazz Emporium had David Friesan-John Stowell, followed by Teruo Nakamura, while Keystone Korner in San Francisco has the Heath Brothers and will have Ted Curson later this month.

Slide Hampton leads a 13-piece band at the 92d Street Y in New York on February 20. Featured will Curtis Fuller, Clifford Jordan, Idris Muhammad, Frank Strozier and a number of other heavies.

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

JUST BEFORE AFTER HOURS — Hilary — Columbia JC 35547 — Producer: Wayne Henderson — List: 7.98

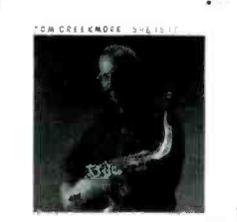

Female jazz artists rarely get signed to major labels, so when Columbia issues an LP by an artist like Hilary, you can bet she's something special. The pretty young flute and soprano sax player is just that, a gifted player and composer with a flair for funk ("Do It") who also excels at creating soft, melodic moods ("Evening Essence"). It's nice to see a good-looking woman on an album cover who's not just there for show.

AFTER THE BEFORE — John Coates, Jr. — Omnisound N-1021 — Producer: none listed — List: 7.98

Pianist John Coates, Jr. is one of those artists who carefully limits his exposure, which makes this, his third solo piano effort, that much more rewarding. Coates is an extremely gifted pianist as evidenced by the feeling dripping from this LP. Side one contains four original tunes, while side two offers interpretations of three familiar standards.

SHE IS IT — Tom Creekmore — Discovery DS-791 — Producers: Albert Marx and Dennis Smith — List: 7.98

Creekmore is a relatively unknown saxophonist who has assembled a very tasty mainstream album with a group of equally unknown musicians. Creekmore and his writing partners are restrained, but the playing is surprisingly emotional. Joe Felix on piano, Joe Diorio on guitar, Don Felix on bass and drummer Nick Martinis supply firm support on this winning LP. Top cuts are "Strawberry Wine" and "3 For All."

LIKE SOMEONE IN LOVE — Buddy DeFranco — Progressive 7014 — Producer: Gus Statlras — List: 7.98

DeFranco is one of the great clarinet players in the history of jazz, but for many years he was buried under a Glenn Miller ghost band. This is the strongest LP he has made in 20 years, and the music is dynamic and alive throughout. Tal Farlow's mercurial guitar helps, and there is first-class rhythm support. For any jazz fan!

ALL BLUES — Ray Bryant Trio — Pablo 2310 820 — Producer: Norman Cranz — List: 8.98

Bryant is perhaps the most versatile pianist in jazz, being equally at home with mainstream or bebop. Here, with bass and drums, he essays seven approaches to indigo. Two are his own tunes, and Ellington, Miles Davis, Lester Young and Charlie Parker are other composers represented. A firm understanding of the blues idiom is evident throughout, and the performance is as good as it gets!

MUDDY "MISSISSIPPI" WATERS LIVE — Blue Sky 35712 — Producer: Johnny Winters — List: 7.98

An interesting collection of six Waters tunes, some old and some new, plus Sonny Boy Williamson's "Nine Below Zero." Backing is by Muddy's band, plus guests, and the performances are solid, idiomatic blues. However, the album does not say where it was recorded. Doubtless, the club owner or concert promoter will be less than thrilled with that omission.

New Music Association Aims To Boost Non-Country Music

by Jennifer Bohler

NASHVILLE — The Progressive Music Assn. (PMA), a new organization created to promote pop, rock, disco, R&B and other forms of music originating out of Nashville, garnered additional credibility recently with the selection of a board of directors and the election of officers.

Glen Snoddy, Woodland Studios, was elected president of the association. Other officers include Jim Rushing, Hawkline Music, vice president; Maggie Cavender, Nashville Songwriters Assn., treasurer; and Donna Emmons, Red Sky Productions, secretary.

The board of directors includes: Steve Bauer, Studio Instrument Rentals; Jim Black, SESAC; Ron Bledsoe, WWKX owner; Jimmy Bowen, Elektra/Asylum; Connie Bradley, ASCAP; Tony Brown, Free Flight; Del Bryant, BMI; Debbie Cobb, Peer-Southern Organization; Robert Delagarza, Earthquake Productions; Bonnie Garner, CBS; Sanchez Harley, Mackharba Productions; Don Keirns, API; Mike Lawler, Mighty High; David Ludwick, attorney; Steve Messer, LSI Studio; Will Mitchell, Red Sky Productions; Jim Rushing, Hawkline Music; Phil Segal, Red Sky Productions; Glen Snoddy, Woodland Studios and Ashley Warren, Pros-Vortex, LA.

Concerts Planned

The PMA also held the first of a projected continuing series of benefit concerts in which $1,900 was raised for the organization. According to PMA executive director David Luna, this money, coupled with the membership fees ($25 per year per person) already collected, will be used for operating expenses.

PMA spokesman Phil Sigal said the organization will pursue its goals through publicity, promotion and possible displays of PMA approved products in nation-wide record stores. Sigal said the PMA will also act in an advisory capacity towards artists who seek its aid.

While response was not tremendous at the outset, the PMA is beginning to come into its own, with possible endorsements from the Rolling Stones, Frank Zappa and Rod Stewart, according to Sigal (An "endorsement" will involve financial as well as moral support, Sigal said).

As an organization designed to promote non-country music, the PMA could be construed as an adversary for the Country Music Assn. (CMA). But Sigal said the PMA respects the CMA and will not compete with the organization.

"We will not be in competition with the CMA," Sigal said. "Nashville is a cauldron of talent, and I think there is room for everybody, be it a country singer or rock singer. I have nothing but respect for the way the CMA helped the country music in-

Hall To Appear At Smithsonian

NASHVILLE — RCA Records artist Tom T. Hall has been selected as the first performer for this season's Smithsonian Institution American Country Music Series of concerts, to be held on Sunday evenings from October 1979 through May 1980.

Hall, who was inducted into the Songwriters Hall of Fame here last fall, will perform Nov. 18 for the national museum, whose theme this year is "Country Songwriters." With 20 albums to his credit, Hall has written such songs as "Harper Valley P.T.A.," "The Year Clayton Delaney Died," "Old Dogs, Children and Watermelon Wine" and "I Love." He has also written a book titled "How I Write Songs."

Harold A. Closter, country music program coordinator for the Smithsonian, said, "Tom T. Hall's contribution to country music as a singer and songwriter is well known; his reputation as a significant force on contemporary American culture is one which we hold in the highest esteem."

Closter added that the institution's musical programs are "modest vehicles for the recognition of artists who have made substantial contributions to American and world culture... and occasionally changed the course and texture of the world's art."

45 — REVIEWS — LP

JANIE FRICKE (Columbia 3-10910)

I'll Love Away Your Troubles For Awhile (2:37) (Music City Music, Inc. — ASCAP) (J. MacRae/Bob Morrison)

Janie Fricke again proves she is not only one of the best back-up vocalists in Nashville, but can easily be recognized as a single artist in her own right. A nostalgic yet funky tune written by Johnny MacRae and Bob Morrison.

JERRY REED (RCA PB-11472)

Second-Hand Satin Lady (And A Bargain Basement Boy) (2:59) (Guitar Man Music — BMI) (Dick Feller)

Chip Young co-produces this cut with Jerry Reed and again a classic Dick Feller tune surfaces. Smooth arrangements and catchy lines highlight this single.

JOHN CONLEE (ABC AB-12455)

Backside Of Thirty (2:33) (House Of Gold Music, Inc./Pommard Music Co. — BMI) (John Conlee)

Conlee is coming off two Top 5 singles, and this release is sure to get immediate attention at many country stations. Conlee's pure country style shines on this third single from the LP "Rose Colored Glasses."

Clement Studio Adds Equipment

NASHVILLE — Jack Clement Recording Studio B has undergone complete renovation and remodeling to expand its facilities from 16 to 24 tracks.

Designed by Tom Irby of Studio Supply under the direction of Clement manager Jim Williamson, the studio reopened Jan. 5 after a two-month shutdown.

In its third week of operation, Studio B is operating at 84% occupancy, with Dolly Parton, Don Williams and Pal Rakes listed among the clients who have used the new facilities.

Equipment

New equipment in the full-service recording studio include a 28-input, 32-output Harrison console with the new transformerless preamps, an A-80 24-track Studer tape machine with 16-track capability, 24 tracks of Dolby noise reduction, a Studer mixdown machine and THE 1 monitors from THE Company (John W. Gardner, Inc.).

J.M.I. SIGNS ROONEY — J.M.I. Records manager, Bob Webster (l) and president Jack Clement (r) celebrate the signing of Jim Rooney to the Nashville-based label prior to their departure to the MIDEM Conference in Cannes, France. Rooney's first release is the Mick Jagger/Keith Richards song, "No Expectations."

The studio is redecorated in shades of brown with wood and carpet construction to enhance sound reproduction and provide a relaxed atmosphere. The walls are done primarily in oak, with a lava rock-embedded wall surrounding the control window. The studio handles up to 10 musicians.

"We can now offer to the many clients who have enjoyed working in Studio B an even better atmosphere and professional-quality studio in which to continue recording," Williamson explained. "The renowned 'magic' of Studio B is not gone. It has been enhanced."

CBS Promotes Lyrics To Paycheck Single

NASHVILLE — CBS here has distributed manuscripts of the lyrics of Johnny Paycheck's "The Outlaw's Prayer" to press personnel and several radio stations as a marketing and promotion tool. Listed at #43 bullet on this week's Cash Box Country Singles chart, Paycheck's Epic release is a recitation aimed at hypocrisy in organized religion.

In the western region, the first 11 stations that programmed "The Outlaw's Prayer" received 100 copies of the lyrics and 25 "Armed and Crazy" LPs for giveaway use. Twenty-five other copies of the lyrics have been sent to stations playing the record.

According to Rich Schwan, E/P/A promotion manager, Nashville, the response to the lyric manuscripts has been favorable, and many of the stations are utilizing the lyric sheets in their offices. "They are being used for giveaways primarily, but a lot of the stations are hanging them in their offices and studios," he said.

ARE YOU SINCERE? — Mel Tillis — MCA-3007 — Producer: Jimmy Bowen — List: 7.98

Mel Tillis is beginning to stretch out and really sing on his newer records, and Tillis fans will be happy to know this LP contains his best vocal work yet. Under the production reins of Jimmy Bowen, Tillis is moving away from straight country music toward a mellow, pop sound. However, "Last Cup Of Coffee" and "Remember Me" keep this LP on a country base. "Send Me Down To Tucson" and "Unchained Melody" are also included here.

LOVE'S SWEET PAIN — John Wesley Ryles — ABC-AY-1112 — Producer: Johnny Morris — List: 7.98

A lack of strong personal identity probably keeps John Wesley Ryles from becoming a big star, although he has one of the best voices in country music. Backed with a strong rhythm section and a generous horn section, John Wesley covers country, pop and light R&B on this pleasing album. "Love Ain't Made For Fools," "Finders Keepers, Losers Weepers" and "Patches" stand out.

SAINT SEBASTIAN — Chip Taylor — Capitol — ST-11909 — Producer: Chip Taylor & John Pallidino — List: 7.98

Every so often, through talent and sheer creative energy, an artist will complete a piece of work which is truly fresh and original. Chip Taylor may have written and recorded a bath of songs to please himself, but this LP can hold its own against anything on the country/folk market. "One Night Out With The Boys" and "Saint Sebastian" are the cream of this redeeming work.

THE OUTLAW — Johnny Paycheck — Little Darlin' — LDA-0781 — Producer: Aubrey Mayhew — List: 7.98

This is the first of many albums Little Darlin' plans to release in the next couple of years on Johnny Paycheck. Recorded sometime between 1964-71, these Paycheck masters trade heavily on Paycheck's 'outlaw' image. Drinking, honky tonks, violence and tough country music are the fare on this LP, which sounds much more current than one might expect.

New Hotel Will Cater To Musicians

by Jennifer Bohler

NASHVILLE — Close Quarters, the first of a chain of hotels designed specifically to accommodate touring artists and bands, is set for a May 1 opening here. The hotel is the brainchild of Steve Bauer, a partner in Studio Instrumentals Rentals and McLaughlin Productions, a firm based in Los Angeles that provides planes, buses and trucks for rock groups on the road.

The 17-suite facility, located at 913 20th Ave. South (not far from Music Row), is the former site of an apartment building. Bauer estimated that $300,000 is being spent in the renovation of the complex.

Close Quarters will have such facilities as 24-hour room service, a rehearsal studio, an equipment repair service, a limousine service and a private lounge — the Back-

Princeton Will Host 1st Country Festival

NASHVILLE — Princeton University's Palmer Stadium will be the site of a full day Country Music Festival June 23. Promoted by Marny Goodman of Marny Goodman Inc., in Fort Lee, New Jersey, this event marks the first time the Ivy League College has allowed any outside interests to use the 50,000-capacity stadium for a show.

According to Goodman, six or seven performers will be signed for the show within the next two weeks. Each artist will perform a one to one and one-half hour set, making the entire program about eight hours.

Having promoted such acts as Melba Moore and Richie Havens, this is the first country show Goodman has ever promoted.

"Country music is the new market of the world," Goodman told Cash Box. "It's been virtually untapped up here. There are many fans in this (Princeton) area who haven't had a chance to see country music performers. Now they will."

If the concert is a success, Goodman said she hopes to make the festival an annual event.

stage Pass — which will be open to hotel guests and a limited membership of 300 music affiliated persons.

One of the primary features of the hotel is the 10,000 square feet of fenced parking space reserved for buses and trucks belonging to the touring band.

"This hotel will make staying in Nashville more pleasant for a touring band," Bauer said. "No one here really caters to the hours someone in the music industry keeps. Our hotel is designed specifically to do just that."

Bauer plans to hold a grand opening party for the hotel in the last week of April.

WEA 45 Experts Meet In Nashville

NASHVILLE — WEA branch singles' specialist met here Feb. 1-3 and reviewed and analyzed black music, country and disco through panel discussions, seminars and workshops.

Bob Moering, director of marketing services for WEA, chaired the meeting which centered on new techniques for increasing effectiveness in exploiting local and national marketing developments. Oscar Fields, WEA's vice president of black music marketing, conducted seminars on the development of R&B music.

In addition to the various meetings, participants attended an Elektra/Asylum country recording session, toured the Country Music Hall of Fame and saw a performance of "The Grand Ole Opry."

Included at the meeting were Mark Maitland, Warner Bros. national single sales manager; Stan Byrd, Warner Bros. national country sales/promotion director; Lou Maglia, E/A national singles sales manager; Norm Osborne, E/A national country promotion director; Ewell Rousell, E/A director of country marketing and sales; Larry Yasgar, Atlantic's national singles sales director; Henry Caldwell, Atlantic's national promotion marketing coordinator; and Teddy Acosta, Yasgar's secretary.

COUNTRY

THE COUNTRY COLUMN

Mel Tillis has released his new LP, "Are You Sincere," which contains a re-mixed version of his #10 bullet song, "Send Me Down To Tucson." Producer Jimmy Bowen has added a smoother, fuller texture to the song, incorporating the use of some very fine strings.

Kenny Rogers has purchased a nightclub formerly owned by singer George Jones. The club is located on Nashville's famous Printers Alley, and will reportedly continue to operate as a nightclub.

Speaking of Jones, he recently appeared at the Austin Patio Dude Ranch, Grapevine, TX, Jan. 31 before a SRO crowd. Jones is getting it back together after a few personal problems. He also appeared at the Western Swing, the Yellow Rose and ended his tour at the Kicker Palace in Poteet, Texas, where he reportedly had to do an extra show because the fans would not have it any other way. When asked how it felt to be back at it, Jones replied, "Fantastic, now that I'm handling my own business. Any foul-ups from now on will be mine and I can not blame anyone but myself." Jones is scheduled for an extensive tour in March through the eastern United States and is also appearing in Macon, Ga. Feb. 23 with Jerry Lee Lewis.

Mel Tillis

If anyone went to the Exit/In Jan. 31 expecting Porter Wagoner to get down and boogie, they left a bit disappointed. Only one factor distinguished the old Porter from the new — he was backed by rock band Mighty High instead of his usual Wagonmasters. This is not to say Porter's show was not entertaining — it just wasn't disco.

This seems to be the month for Wagoner being linked to an unusual partner. It is rumored that the Godfather of Soul, James Brown will appear with Porter on the Grand Ole Opry Show. CMI, representatives for Brown, would neither confirm nor deny the rumor, saying that they have been approached about the idea and something may be in the works. And maybe if Brown's appearance goes well, the Rolling Stones playing the Opry won't be such a far fetched idea?

The Rainbow Music Hall in Denver celebrated its grand opening Jan. 26-27 with the appearance of Jerry Jeff Walker. Scheduled for shows in February are Elvin Bishop, Willie Nelson, Tanya Tucker, Commander Cody and Nicolette Larson.

Piano virtuoso Floyd Cramer and saxophonist Boots Randolph will team up for a tour of the great northwest Feb. 7-10, playing at the Opera House in Seattle Feb. 7; the City Auditorium in Portland Feb. 8; the Queen Elizabeth Auditorium in Vancouver, British Columbia Feb. 9 and the Opera House Theatre in Spokane Feb. 10.

Producer Don Davis was in his office playing an unmixed tape of Tommy Cash's "Six Feet Tall And Handsome," (Cash's newest single) when Waylon Jennings heard it and said, "Boy, I'd like to be singing on that." Davis assured him he could be and arranged for a trip to the studio where Jennings' voice was added.

The vocal harmonies of Margie and Marcy Cate are familiar to country listeners. For years they were background voices on recordings by Johnny Cash, Ronnie Milsap, Floyd Cramer and Jessi Colter. Holders of masters degrees from the University of Missouri/Kansas City, the Cates have released their Ovation Records debut single "Going Down Slow."

Royce and Jeannie Kendall will return to their native St. Louis March 18 to perform two benefit concerts for a local hospital. The show will take place in West County Shopping Center, where Jeannie at one time worked in a hat and wig store.

Last week T.G. Sheppard was enroute to Quincy, Ill. for a concert date when an 18-wheeler loaded with 16,000 pounds of steel plowed into the back of his touring bus during a heavy snow storm. Fortunately the band members were in their bunks and suffered only minor injuries. While T.G. was in the State Trooper car giving the accident report he heard a familiar voice over the C.B. — it was country music singer Freddie Hart. T.G. sent out an SOS to Freddie, who was also on his way to Quincy for the concert date. Hart loaded T.G. and his band and all their equipment onto his bus and took them to Quincy.

Tracy Nelson

Rex Allen, Jr. just completed 22 performances at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Ft. Worth, Texas. Every show was a sell-out.

Con Hunley appeared on the Bob Braun Show Feb. 8, prior to three concert dates with the Oak Ridge Boys (Feb. 9-11) in Cincinnati, Dayton and Columbus. Hunley's debut Warner Bros. album titled "Con Hunley" will be released March 2.

Larry Gatlin will go home to Texas for the 10th annual Abe Lincoln Awards March 1 at the Tarrant County Convention Center. He will be the featured entertainer during the awards program which honors broadcasters nationwide. The event is sponsored by the Southern Baptist Radio and Television Commission. Comedian Bob Hope will be guest of honor and receive the Distinguished Communications Medal.

Epic/Portrait/CBS Associated Labels, Nashville is shipping the first record on Portrait Records to be serviced country. According to Joe Casey, director, promotion, CBS Records, Nashville. "It Takes A Fool To Love A Fool" by Burton Cummings generated initial interest in San Antonio and throughout the southwest as a cut off his current Portrait album, "Dream Of A Child." "We hope to take that interest and spread it nationally. I'm looking forward to this being a successful debut with Portrait in the country market," Casey commented.

Jimmy Jay, general manager of United Talent in Nashville, has announced the appointment of Chip Peay to head the newly formed pop music division of United Talent and Roger West to direct a newly established rodeo division. With the addition of the Bellamy Brothers to the United Talent roster, the agency is moving into the field with Peay concentrating on booking college campuses and pop clubs throughout the U.S. and Europe. Jay said that the agency intends to add several more country/pop acts to the new division in the future. The further specialization of the agency with a rodeo division will put a greater emphasis on booking the agency's country acts into the rodeo circuit.

With 15 albums and more than 12 years of recording experience to her credit, Tracy Nelson is still going strong. Dating from the San Francisco Mother Earth Days, Tracy has been recording in Nashville for the past 10 years. Her latest release from Audio Directions, "Doing It My Way" (which utilizes the direct-to-disc process), is receiving extensive airplay across the country. Her concerts are reaching sell-out status, and at a recent engagement in New York, she was approached by representatives of the Saturday Night Live crew to appear on their show.

dusty. As a matter of fact, we will be seeking their help in promotion. They did a great job. My hat is off to those people."

The PMA established certain policy guidelines. For example, the organization will not take on any managerial responsibilities, although it will act in an advisory capacity. It will act as an aid and help new artists to get in contact with record companies.

Showcase Groups

Sigal said the PMA would frequently try to showcase new groups in concert productions. He added that the PMA has several attorneys on staff, who will be sponsoring legal clinics to enlighten artists about the legal aspects of the music industry.

Another project Sigal said the PMA will pursue is getting the Nashville product to the attention of the public. The PMA hopes to accomplish this with the aid of such national record distributors as Woolworth/Woolco chain and Pickwick International.

McCLAIN, GATLIN TOUR — Epic recording artist Charly McClain this month will begin a series of select tour dates with Monument recording artist Larry Gatlin. The 22-year-old Memphis native will join with Gatlin for appearances in coliseums and civic centers throughout the major markets of the central south. Pictured are (l-r): Gatlin and McClain.

Mary Lou Turner Moving On

WHEELING, W. VA. — Mary Lou Turner, who recently left the Bill Anderson Show after six years as a regular touring member, said last week the decision was hers alone. Turner said she needed to establish her own identity as an artist.

"I think a lot of people are reading a lot into this move, but the decision is mine and it has been made," said Turner, backstage at Jamboree U.S.A. where she made a recent appearance. "I am concerned about my own career. I have suffered a loss of identity since I left here (Turner was a former member of Jamboree U.S.A.), and now I have decided I want to have my own show and my own band."

Turner explained that the Bill Anderson Show is regularly booked for a lot of package shows, and she rarely could sing more than one or two songs by herself. This allowed her no time to develop her own act. But Turner said she had matured during her tenure with the Anderson Show.

"The last six years have been very educational in all aspects, and I have learned what to do and what not to do," said Turner, who was discovered by Anderson on Jamboree U.S.A. nearly seven years ago. "I don't want to offend anybody, but I know I must do my own thing now and that's why I will put my own band together. I will have a show equal to anything that comes out of Nashville because I will make it that way."

Turner mentioned that she was negotiating for a new record label, and is receiving encouragement from friends like Dolly Parton.

"I am receiving a lot of support and encouragement from a lot of people," Turner said. "Dolly Parton and I were talking recently, and she offered encouragement. There have been a lot of pressures in the past, so I feel that I can handle anything that comes along. I have learned. I've got my music, and now it is time to sing it."

Nancy Hirth Joins Republic Records

NASHVILLE — Republic Records president Dave Burgess has announced that Nancy Hirth will join the label as promotion coordinator.

Hirth will be responsible for secondary radio contact as well as working with Republic's independent promotion staff. She will report to Gary Branson, Republic's national promotion director.

Prior to joining Republic Records, Hirth worked for Tree International Publishing.

RABBITT DAY — Elektra/Asylum artist Eddie Rabbitt became the first performer named to the Country Music Hall of Fame outside the Palomino Club in North Hollywood Feb. 1, which was declared Country Music Day by Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley in honor of the occasion. The achievement was marked by a plaque with the Palomino horseshoe logo bearing Rabbitt's name, which was embedded in the sidewalk. Pictured above kneeling by the plaque are (l-r): actress Sondra Locke; Rabbitt; Bill Boyd, chairman of the board of the Academy of Country Music and Tommy Thomas, owner of the Palomino. Shown presenting Rabbitt with a proclamation declaring Country Music Day is Wanda L. Morre, executive assistant to Mayor Bradley.

ARMORED DELIVERY — WHN Radio in New York received the first copy of Susie Allanson's new single, "Words," by two Brink's armed guards and an armored delivery truck. "Words" is Allanson's first single for Elektra/Curb Records. Accepting the record from a Brink's guard is WHN program director Ed Salamon.

FCC Changes It's License Ruling

NASHVILLE — A recent ruling by the FCC has eliminated a written examination as a requirement for broadcasting over commercial airwaves. Previously, a third class license with a broadcast endorsement was a requirement for operation of equipment at a commercial radio station.

A restricted operators permit (application card 753) is now necessary in order to broadcast and operate station equipment. The permit can be obtained by writing the FCC and stating that an individual is aware of the rules and regulations governing standard operation broadcast stations. The restricted operators permit also requires that an individual be aware that he, not the station, is liable for his conduct.

Date Extended For Seminar Registration

NASHVILLE — The deadline for advance registration for the 1979 Country Radio Seminar has been extended to Feb. 14.

In order to qualify for the reduced advance rate of $80 for registration and for the group rate savings on rooms at the Hyatt Regency, registrants must call Sandi Smith at (615) 329-4487 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

CLASSICAL CLIPS

NEW YORK — Symphonicum Europae, the embryo of a projected international orchestra, will give a gala benefit concert March 3 at Carnegie Hall. Among the members and directors of Symphonicum Europae who will be performing are Jorge Bolet, Maureen Forrester, Jose Greco, Nana Lorca, Yehudi Menuhin, Jean-Pierre Ramnal, Andres Segovia, Jose Ferrer, Gary Graffman, Byron Janis, Jeremy Menuhin, Roberta Peters, Ruggiero Ricci, Peter Ustinov, and Piero Gamba conducting the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra. In attendance will be the U.N. ambassadors of several nations, as well as Pierre Elliott Trudeau, prime minister of Canada.

A live recording will be made of the concert, and the album will be released on Symphonicum Europae's own label, with proceeds going to the orchestra.

Symphonicum Europae was created in Monte Carlo in 1964 under the patronage of the late Queen Elizabeth of Belgium. More than 30 musicians from notable European orchestras have signed agreements with Symphonicum Europae, according to the organization's press agent. With the help of the proceeds from the upcoming concert and private donations, it is hoped that a 100-member international orchestra can debut in 1980.

BERMAN LIVE — Lazar Berman's March 11 recital at Carnegie Hall will be taped by Columbia Masterworks. DC is planning to release a new Berman studio recording to tie in with his spring tour, which will cover 18 U.S. cities. The DC album, featuring the original piano version of Mussorgsky's "Pictures At An Exhibition," is scheduled for release February 25. Claudio Abbado has just signed a new contract with Polydor International (which includes DG). The conductor, who has recorded for Polydor the past 12 years, will continue to record Italian operas with La Scala; as the new music director of the London Symphony, Abbado will record more Stravinsky ballets. Abbado's recording plans also encompass Pergolesi's and Rossini's "Stabat Mater," Prokofiev's "Alexander Nevsky," and a continuation of his Mahler cycle with the Vienna and Chicago symphony orchestras.

SEATTLE STRIKE — The 92 musicians of the Seattle Symphony have gone on strike after the breakdown of negotiations that had been going on for almost two years. The strike also affects the Seattle Opera... Vladimir Horowitz, who had to cancel his February dates so that he could convalesce from a recent operation, will be back on the road in March... Leonard Bernstein to conduct the newly formed Mexico City Philharmonic in Mexico City February 15. Both President Carter and the president of Mexico will attend, and the concert will be telecast sometime later on PBS in the U.S.... The Vienna State Opera will make its first U.S. visit next October, starting with a two-week engagement at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. The visit will include performances of "Fidelio," conducted by Bernstein. And, for those

London Ups List On Two Operas

NEW YORK — Two new opera sets on London Records, a "Pag/Cav" starring Luciano Pavarotti and the just-shipped "Ariadne Auf Naxos" featuring Leontyne Price, carry a list price of $8.98 per disc. Other full-time London albums list for $7.98.

According to Richard Rollefson, head of the label's classical division, there are "no definite plans at the moment" to upgrade the price of any other new London releases. Part of the reason, he said, for increasing the list on the two opera recordings was the cost of printing their librettos. He added that the declining value of the dollar in Europe, where London presses its records, was also a factor in the list price rise.

DG and Phillips also import their records from Europe, and both have felt the impact of the unfavorable exchange rate of the dollar against European currencies. Nevertheless, neither label contemplates raising its list price from $8.98 to $9.98 per disc within the near future.

"We just had a price increase," commented Jim Frey, vice president of DG in charge of U.S. operations. "It's not even a year and a half old." He added that the increase to $8.98 had been planned to cover future inflation.

CLASSICAL ALBUM REVIEWS

KOTO HANDEL: Water Music and Royal Fireworks Suites. New Koto Ensemble of Tokyo, Yoshikazu Fukumara, conductor. Angel S-37620. List: $7.98.

Playing Handel on kotos is about as appropriate as performing Beethoven's Fifth on kazooes. But this is pleasant enough background music, evoking associations with baroque guitar suites. And, considering the popularity of the New Koto Ensemble's past renditions of Western music ("Koto Vivaldi," "Koto Mozart"), it is likely that the album will be a big seller.

SCHUBERT: Symphony No. 9 in C. Bavarian Radio Symphony Orchestra, Eugen Jochum conductor. Quintessence PMC-7100. List: $3.98.

Recorded in 1959, this stereo reissue typifies the high quality of the releases that have been coming out on Quintessence lately. Although the sound is a little boxy, like much early stereo, the performance is absolutely first-rate. Jochum's thrilling account of the first movement eschews the broad pace often favored here, but does not slight the many small details of dynamics and color. Likewise, the playing in the other movements is always sharply focused and carefully thought out.

MOZART: Complete Lieder. Ely Ameling, soprano; Dalton Baldwin, pianist. Phillips 6747.483. List: $17.98.

While Mozart is not often thought of as a song-writer, his genius for writing beautiful melodies was rooted in song, as these lieder demonstrate. Since they were written at a number of different stages in Mozart's career, their quality varies considerably. Nevertheless, Ameling and her equally distinguished accompanist make each stand out as a miniature gem in this double set.

NAMES IN THE NEWS — MK Dance Productions has closed its Boston office and restructured the New York operations. John Luongo, head of the Boston office and national director for MK, has left to form his own production company, La Bongo. John has been increasingly active in recent months producing and mixing. Tam Hatch and Tad Bonvie of the MK Boston office are reportedly joining Luongo in his new venture. In wake of Luongo's departure, Audrey Joseph has been named national director of promotion for MK. "We are restructuring our operations and dividing the country into smaller areas to establish more personal contact," says Joseph who recently added Denny O'Connor, Joanne Mallas and Lisa Guerrero to the New York staff. O'Connor, under the new structure, will handle the northeast, Louisiana, Indiana, Ohio, Miami and Pittsburgh. Mallas will handle D.C., Maryland, Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Alabama. Guerrero will handle Texas, Florida, Mississippi, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan. David Jeffries has been hired for western region promotion to assist Rusty Garner. Marc Kreiner says that MK will open an Atlanta office in several weeks . . . Don Warshow, who worked local promotion for MK in L.A., has reportedly been named national disco coordinator for MCA. . . Jackie McCloy has resigned from his position with the Uncle Sam chain and has crossed the street to the Decameron club where he spins alternate shifts on Friday and Saturday nights. Joe O'Brien is a regular DJ. McCloy says he will be coordinating promotions for the club in addition to his Long Island Disco DJ responsibilities . . . The office of Disco Den Record Pool on 125th St. in N.Y.C. was destroyed by a fire of suspicious origins on Feb. 4. File cabinets were reportedly saved and Disco Den has relocated to Park Avenue. Danae Jacovidis who spins in Boston is in this week's DJ spotlight. Danae may be the only DJ who plays at two clubs simultaneously. The DJ at the Twelve Seventy Club in Boston, Danae's set is also piped in live to the nearby Sporter's club. Both clubs are operated by the same owner. Twelve Seventy draws a mixed crowd while Sporter's has an older gay clientele. "Spinning" at two clubs at once creates some interesting problems. "It's hard because I can't see the floor at Sporter's," says Danae, "and it's strange when people tell me I was great last night. I say 'I didn't see you at Twelve Seventy' and they say 'no at Sporter's'."

REVIEWS

LINDA EVANS — Don't You Need — Ariola PRO 7739 — List: 3.98

David Williams and James Jamerson Jr. of Chanson produced this track by Evans. Handclap beat, 124 BPM groove, popping bass which walks the line, strings, horns and emotional vocals by Evans make this a good building record. Tasty interplay between piano, organ and strings. Simple percussion break allows easy exit. 5:57 and 3:11 double A sides.

ROMANCE — Dance My Way To Your Heart — Prism PLP 1002 — List: 7.98

Prism recently picked up this Simon Soussan production from Barclay. If you didn't get the import, check out this one. "Dance My Way To Your Heart" in the 130s BPM has a clipping beat, ticking guitar backing, strings and silky vibrato vocals. This ought to be a hit. "Tower of Love" with its keyboard hook line, handclap beat and shimmering vocals is another grabber. The use of echo on the strings is particularly effective. Side two has a romantic energy which flows from cut to cut. The combination of sweeping strings, steady kick, rhythmic layering and unique vocals makes this progressive LP worth repeated spins.

CHER — Take Me Home — Casablanca NBLP 7133 — List: 7.98

Cher has discovered disco on her first album for Casablanca. Produced by Ron Dante and arranged by Bob Esty, the album has several cuts of interest. The title track (6:47 at 129 BPM) features bright vocals, shushing high-hat, muscular rhythms and overhead strings. "Wasn't It Good" has a vigorous bass line and some special effects. Ernie Watts kicks in a nice sax line. "Say The Word" has a sweeping romantic chorus. All songs on Side A have steady dancing kick drum.

on the Top 40 Jazz chart, #23 on the Top 75 Black Contemporary chart and #117 on the Top 200 chart; Gerry Rafferty, whose "Home And Dry" single is listed at #43 on the Top 100 chart and whose platinum-certified "City To City" album is at #197 on the Top 200 chart; Crystal Gayle, whose "When I Dream" LP is #9 bullet on the Country Album chart; and Charlie Rich, whose "The Fool Strikes Again" single and album are listed at #33 and #49 bullet, respectively, on the Country Singles and Country Album Chart.

Personnel Intact

Mazza indicated there won't be any major personnel changes or staff reductions at the label as a result of the takeover by Capitol-EMI. "I doubt very seriously whether we will make any changes," he said. "My view of the situation, in the short time that I've been here, is that there are a lot of very talented people and they've had a lot of success with Kenny Rogers, Gerry Rafferty, Chris Rhea and Crystal Gayle."

According to Mazza, Don Grierson, EMI America vice president of A&R, will be "looking after things at EMI-A" for approximately the next 90 days while Mazza oversees the transition at Liberty/United. "I'll be spending 50% of my time here and 50% of my time at EMI-A," said Mazza.

Meanwhile, statements attributed to EMI in the London press recently quote the music and electronics giant as saying the UA buyout was necessary "to enable the continuance of (the company) as a going concern" and "to protect EMI's security in the music repertoire of the United Artists label."

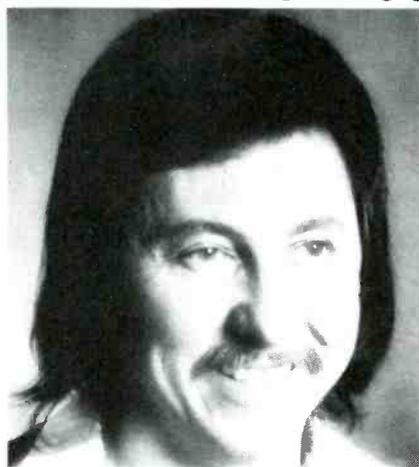

According to the same news accounts, EMI assumed liabilities of $32 million in taking over the UA operation, which had undergone an audit in recent months.

Menon, in a statement included in the U.S. announcement of the purchase this week, said: "Our objective is to improve the financial position and operational strengths of UA Records while retaining fully the distinctive style and image of the label."

CRI Begins Major Cheap Trick Push

LOS ANGELES — CBS Records International is preparing a major international marketing and promotional campaign in support of Epic group Cheap Trick. The increasingly popular band is currently in the midst of concert tour that will cover the U.K., most major cities in Europe and Japan, where the group has an exceptionally strong following.

Along the way, the group will appear on several important European TV programs, including Spain's "Aplausio." France's highly-rated "Chorus" and the noted U.K.

Jim Mazza

In return for the considerable liabilities EMI will have to shoulder under the agreement, the takeover provides "an important extension to (EMI's) stable of American performers," according to one account in the London press, which added "this has been a priority for some time."

'Offer Alternatives'

Similarly, Mazza told Cash Box, "EMI's overall world interest is to offer alternatives in terms of artist acquisitions. We should have more companies with distinctive styles and different places for artists to feel comfortable."

Liberty and United Artists Records were merged into a single operation by Transamerica in the late '60s, with Liberty's then president Al Bennett retaining his title and gaining a position on the UA board.

Liberty was founded in 1955 by Sy Waronker. Bennett joined the label in 1958 as general manager and became its president two years later.

Among the labels Liberty had acquired were Imperial, World Pacific and Blue Note Records.

Mogull became president of UA Records in June 1976, and with Rubinstein, purchased the label from Transamerica in April 1978.

Special "Rock Goes to College."

Further promotional plans will include the rush-releasing of their recent live album, "Cheap Trick At Budokan," worldwide. The LP was previously available only in Japan. CBS U.K. is printing the record on yellow vinyl and enclosing lapel buttons. In some countries, Japanese-style parties will be given where geisha girls will distribute copies of the album to the press.

Cheap Trick's new studio LP, "Dream Police," is expected to be released shortly as well.

Jacovidis also makes weekly tapes for the noted bar Chaps. "Ring My Bell" by Anita Ward is a "fabulous new record," according to Jacovidis. He has been playing an acetate of the soon-to-be-released TK track. Danae reports that people are not only doing "The Rock" to the record but also the latest dance, "The Drop." As a recipient of the Jimmy Stewart Memorial Award, Danae has a scholarship and is attending an engineering course at the Audio Workshop in Belmont. The final project is handling a mix on a 32-track board.

SOUTH EAST REGIONAL POOL MEETING — The southeast region of the National Assn. of Record Pools held a 1-7 pm meeting Feb. 4 at the Dauphine Orleans Hotel in New Orleans. Those in attendance were Al Paez of the New Orleans Disco Assn., Bo Crane and Bruce Hard of the Florida Rec. Pool, Artie Jacobs of the Southeastern Disco Assn., Jim Knapp of the Tampa Bay Disco Pool, Ralph Duncan of Deep South Assn., David Wright, Southeast Disco DJ Assn., William Cook of the Sherlock Rec. Pool, Dave Smith of the Atlanta Music Pool, Sundance of Seemingly Better Productions and Joe Butler of the Virginia Disco DJ Assn. After reviewing the points of the Miami NARP meeting, the participants decided to police themselves by exchanging rosters to eliminate duplication. No minimum requirements were established for DJ admittance to a pool in the region. Due to individual market differences, requirements were left up to the pools. The Florida Rec. Pool, for example, requires a DJ to spin four nights a week while other pools have varying nights-per-week requirements. Letter of employment from club owner and duration of employment are standard features shared by all. The meeting established minimum requirements for admittance of a pool to the regional list: service from no less than 15 record companies and an agreement by two-thirds of the regional membership to admit the applicant. No sponsor is necessary. Applicants must submit rosters to regional representatives at a regional meeting. Results will be posted at the next meeting. The members of the southeast region agreed to meet once every three months for the next year. The next meeting will be in Washington, D.C. sometime in April. Meanwhile, the NARP will hold its second meeting Feb. 25, tentatively at the New York Hilton, prior to the Forum. The regional representatives will meet 6-9 p.m. while all pool directors are invited to a 9-12 p.m. meeting. A major comment at the southeast regional meeting was the desire of pools heads to "participate" at the upcoming NARP meeting and subsequent regional meets. The "observer" status has been an irritant to several usually vocal pool heads. While no standardization of feedback sheets was agreed upon (or desired), different pools sheets were passed around to compare notes. A special party was held later Sunday night at the Civic. Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis Jr. made an appearance. The next night, many of the pool heads shuttled north for the RFC/WB party at Studio 54.

SERIOUS FUN ON SKATES — Casablanca has quite an evening in store for participants of the Billboard Disco Forum in New York. Rumor has it that Casablanca is sponsoring a roller disco party for 2,000 people at the Empire Roller Rink in Brooklyn on the evening of Feb. 26. Reportedly, 20 buses have been hired to transport the willing to and from the 18,000 sq. ft. roller rink. Howard Merritt is going to spin at the rink while Ellen Bogan of Sahara is co-ordinating the logistics of the monstrous party. Jorge Vilardell who handles lights at Flamingo and Ice Palace will handle the special light show at the rink. A collection of Casablanca artists will skate at the party. Ken Friedman of the label will sit on the Forum disco roller skating panel later in the week. . . . The Forum party schedule also includes a bash at Paradise Garage on Feb. 28 hosted by Frankie Crocker for Le Joint and MCA. Van McCoy, Zulema and Chuck Brown are planning to perform. The Beck Family will also take a bow.

POT L.A. ON THE MAP — Anticipation is running high for the Third Annual Southern California Disco D.J. Assn. Awards which will be held at the Los Angeles Biltmore on Feb. 14. A.J. Miller and Brad Blalr of the pool think the bash will "really put L.A. on the map." Confirmed performers scheduled to attend are Chanson, Linda Evans, Arpeggio, Alton McClain & Destiny, Loleatta Holloway, Love & Kisses and Edwin Starr. Label and pool representatives are flying in from across the country to attend.

NEW PRODUCT — RCA is releasing this week a promo only 12" of "Bang A Gong/Witch Queen of New Orleans" by Witch Queen. Last week brought a "Dance With You" 12" by Carrie Lucas. Coming in several weeks from RCA is "Night Time Fantasy" by Vicki Sue Robinson. . . . A&M is releasing Feb. 19 a promo only 12" of "Get Up And Dance" by the Raes. LP to follow. . . . West End is outing next week a Larry Levan remix of "Work That Body" by Taana Gardner. "Bombers II" will be released in two weeks. . . . Polydor released last week a Jim Burgess mix 12" of "It Must Be Love" by Alton McClain & Destiny. . . . Feb. 12 is release date by Prelude of the "Sticky Fingers" LP and a commercial 12" by Claire "High On Love". Prelude is offering unique two 12-inch packages on both the "Sticky Fingers" and the recently released "Fire Night Dance" by Peter Jaques Band. By making LPs into two 12-inchers, Prelude hopes to improve fidelity and make access to the tracks easier. . . . "My Baby's Baby" by Liquid Gold, produced by Joe Long and remixed by Richie Rivera will be out on Parachute Feb. 13. A "My Love Is Music/Save Your Love For Me" 12" by Space is coming in two weeks on Casablanca. Coming soon is a 12" of "Take Me Home" by Cher.

OH WHAT A NIGHT — RFC and Warner Bros. Records celebrated their joint venture with a bash at New York's Studio 54. "Do I know this many people?" was the response of Ray Caviano, president of RFC Records and executive director of WB disco department who played host to a who's who cast of thousands. Pictured (l-r) are: Warner/RFC artist Gino Soccio; Caviano; Bob Siegel, assistant to the president; Jim Thompson, midwest regional promotion, Warner/RFC; Tom Draper, vice president black music marketing, WB; Ed

Rosenblatt, senior vice president sales and promotion, WB; Jerry Wexler, senior vice president of WB; Vince Aletti, vice president A&R, Warner/RFC; Veronica Brice, vice president and general manager, RFC; Caviano; David Horowitz, office of the presidency, Warner Communications; Bob Krasnow, vice president of talent, WB New York; Caviano; and Candi Staton, WB recording artist. Record pool representatives and DJs from across the nation also attended.

IMPENDING LAWSUIT? — Clarence McDonald, former writing partner of Deneice Williams, has sent out letters to several radio stations demanding payment for playing more than 34 songs that he and Williams wrote together with one other person. McDonald was involved with Williams a few years back in a publishing partnership, and he claims that over the years everyone was paid for the material written except himself because he never joined BMI, the organization that is responsible for collecting royalties from persons utilizing the songs. McDonald has taken it upon himself to collect the money for the songs from the individual stations, which, Williams' attorney Allen Leonard says, is confusing the stations. Leonard explained, "We are presently in negotiations to resolve this matter, however the area of my immediate concern is that this incident does not create so much confusion at the radio level that the stations stop playing any of Deneice's songs. There is no present lawsuit, but that could possibly become a reality if McDonald creates so much confusion that it in fact inhibits airplay." Leonard explained further that if McDonald went to BMI today and joined, he would get all the money due him.

MADDOX PROMOTED — Jim Maddox, GM at KMJQ in Houston, has been promoted to senior vice president of the Amaturio Group, which KMJQ is a part of. Joe Amaturio, president of the firm, says, "Jim will be responsible for overseeing all company properties, including WSDO in Ft. Lauderdale, KKSS in St. Louis, KMJQ in Houston and two television properties. We will seek to expand the company as much as possible, because Jim's expertise allows enough flexibility so the company is not restricted to any particular radio format."

CEBA HAS CO-CHAIRMEN — Edward N. Ney, chairman of Young & Rubicam Advertising and Earl G. Graves, president of Earl G. Graves Ltd., have been named co-chairmen of the 1979 CEBA Awards. This competition is sponsored by the World Institute of Black Communications to honor excellence in advertising and communications geared to black audiences. CEBA stands for "Communications Excellence to Black Audiences." This program was established last year as a symbol of achievement in the black media market.

BLACK RADIO DOES IT AGAIN — The new single by Cher, entitled "Take Me Home," has been added out of the box at several top black oriented stations across the country, including: WKTU in New York, WDAS and WCAU in Philadelphia, KKTT and KDAY in Los Angeles and KMJQ in Houston.

NAB TASK FORCE ON MINORITY OWNERSHIP — The National Association of Broadcasters Task Force on Minority Ownership is meeting Feb. 13, to vote on members to serve on the board of trustees, which will direct an investment fund to assist minorities in purchasing broadcast facilities. Task Force chairman Donald A. Thurston, who is president of Berkshire Broadcasting, explained how the fund would operate, saying "by combining equity and guarantee commitments, the fund could generate an excess of $300 million in transaction." New Ownership — Arnie Schoor, who was formerly the GM at KKTT in Los Angeles, has applied to the FCC to purchase WOKB in Winter Garden, Fla.

PENDERGRASS TO MOVIES — Teddy Pendergrass has been slated to star in upcoming film "The Otis Redding Story." The film will be produced by Shep Gordon, president of Alive management and Phil Walden, president of Capricorn Records and Redding's former manager. A double album soundtrack will also be released featuring Pendergrass singing all the Redding hits plus some never released Redding compositions. The film will go into production as soon as Pendergrass has completed his commitments, which will be in about three months.

DOUBLE GOLD AT BUDDAH — Buddah Records has launched the recording careers of two vocalists who appeared on gold LPs of other Buddah artists. Michael Henderson and Phyllis Hyman provided vocals on the Norman Connors LP "You Are My Starship", and with the result of the success of this LP, Buddah signed both Henderson and Hyman to solo contracts. Recently, Rena Scott was singled out for a solo recording contract following her debut on Henderson's gold LP "In The Night-Time." cookie amerson der. "Blondes Have More Fun" by Rod Stewart continues this week as the #1 album. Bolstered by the success of the ribald, disco-flavored "Da Ya Think I'm Sexy" which has been the #1 single for two weeks, the LP is cited as the #1 seller at approximately 45 percent of reporting accounts. It is also #1 at the rack level.

'Spirits Having Flown' By Bee Gees Debuts On Album Chart At #4 Bullet

Warner Bros. is demonstrating considerable muscle with several albums that are bulleting in the Top 15. "Minute By Minute" by the Doobie Brothers stands at #11 bullet after nine weeks while the namesake debut album by Dire Straits is #12 bullet after ten weeks. Nicolette Larson's "Nicolette" album is #13 bullet this week after 16 weeks of action. The key to the success of all three albums is the exposure power of hit singles.

'Sultans Of Swing'

"Sultans of Swing," an unusual single from Dire Straits, jumped onto the Top 100 Singles chart Feb. 3 at #61 bullet. The radio active track stands this week at #30 bullet. "What A Fool Believes" by the Doobies is also showing well, radio active at #24 bullet after four weeks. Nicolette is holding firm this week at #8 with the smash "Lotta Love," written by Neil Young.

An indication of the strength of the Dire Straits LP is that it bumped Rod Stewart this week as the #1 Top FM Rotation album. With the Doobies holding the #4 spot. Warner Bros. dominates the Top 5 on the FM Rotation chart.

Columbia is also demonstrating substantial strength with albums by Billy Joel, Earth, Wind & Fire, Barbra Streisand and Toto in the Top 10 on the Top 100 Albums chart.

Several other albums made substantial jumps this week based upon the acceptance of spin-off singles. "2 Hot!" by Peaches & Herb on Polydor catapulted to #40 bullet based upon the across-the-board reaction to "Shake Your Groove Thing," which peaked at #2 on the Disco Top 30 chart weeks ago. It is this week's #17 bullet on the Top 100 Singles chart and #4 bullet on the Top 100 Black Contemporary chart. The LP stands this week at #11 on the Black Album chart.

Infinity Picks Up Amherst Acts In Production Pact

NEW YORK — Infinity Records has signed a production deal with Amherst Records, owned by Lenny Silver, president of Transcontinent Record Sales.

Under terms of the deal, which was celebrated last week at the Buffalo, N.Y. flagship store of Silver's Records Theatre retail chain, Amherst recording artists Spyro Gyra, Solomon Burke and Flyer will have their product manufactured and distributed by Infinity, itself an MCA-distributed label. All product by Amherst artists will bear the Amherst logo, whether or not it is distributed by Infinity.

Another clause of the contract establishes Amherst as a talent scout for Infinity, with the latter label getting first refusal rights on distribution for all new Amherst acts.

Spyro Gyra, a progressive jazz group, had a good deal of chart success with their self-titled previous album. Their new LP is expected to ship in mid-March. Solomon Burke, who had big hits in the '60s, with "Got To Get You Off Of My Mind" and "If You Need Me," has recorded a new album called "Please Don't You Say Good-bye To Me." Flyer is a new pop/rock act which was recently signed by Amherst.

whose album is riding high based upon the single "I Will Survive," which jumped eleven places to #5 bullet on the Pop Singles chart this week. The LP "Love Tracks" is #25 bullet on the Top 100 LP chart, and #7 bullet on the Black LP chart.

Perhaps one of the more unusual success stories on the Top 100 Singles chart is "Music Box Dancer" by Frank Mills on Polydor. The beautiful music sounding instrumental stands at #47 bullet. Previously released in 1974, the record broke out of the southeast and has continued to spread despite considerable puzzlement by many programmers.

Kool Super Nights Plan Announced By Wein

NEW YORK — Kool Super Nights, a month-long 15-city concert tour featuring Sarah Vaughn, Paul Anka, Gerry Mulligan and Mel Torme, will get underway March 7, when Anka plays the Civic Plaza in Phoenix, Ariz.

The tour will be sponsored by Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation, manufacturers of Kool cigarettes, and produced by noted jazz impresario George Wein.

At a New York press conference last week, Wein announced that Anka would play three dates in Phoenix, Omaha and Minneapolis on March 7, 9 and 10, and that the rest of the tour would feature Vaughn, Torme and Mulligan playing in mediumsize venues in Denver, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Washington, D.C., New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Dallas, Houston and Milwaukee.

Highlights of the tour, Wein announced, included special guest appearances by Betty Carter and Eddie Jefferson on March 23 at Carnegie Hall, and an appearance by Count Basie at the tour's last show in New York on March 30.

Wein also stated that Kool is considering sponsoring a large-scale music festival to be held in New Jersey's Meadowlands Stadium this summer.

POINTS WEST

Plant and various Japanese studios. . . Lee Ritenour is in the studio working on his next solo LP, with his band Friendship as well as guest appearances by Patti Austin, Steve Gadd and David Foster. . . At Burbank's Kendun Records, Johnny "Guitar" Watson is overdubbing horns and vocals, Marcy Levy is doing vocal overdubs for her RSO debut LP with ever-busy producer David Foster, and Arista's Norman Connors is also overdubbing. Also at Kendun, Phillip Mitchell is producing himself for Atlantic and Andre Lewis (better known as Mandre) is mastering his next Motown LP. . . Illinois-based Screams, recently signed to Infinity, has begun recording its debut album at the Record Plant Studios in Sausalito. Terry Luttrell is producing.

ON THE ROAD — After a gig in Glasgow, Scotland, a couple of weeks ago, some members of UA's Whitesnake came back to their hotel, only to find a thief rummaging one of their rooms. Former Deep Purple-member David Coverdale, the epitome of an English rocker, was so outraged he went after the intruder and proceeded to beat the hell out of him right then and there. Rock on. . . Kiss has been chosen to be Grand Marshall at this year's Mardi Gras in New Orleans Feb. 23-26. The quartet will ride on a special float in the Endymion parade Feb. 23, and for once the costumed rockers will not stand out due to their appearance. . . E/A's Martin Mull returns for his second appearance as guest host of the "Tonight Show" Feb. 26. Mull is also going to headline the Roxy March 6, and the performance will be taped by Home Box Office. . . The Rubinoos are replacing Carl Perkins as opening act for most of the current Elvis Costello tour. . . Cream's Legs Diamond is supporting its new "Fire Power" LP with a 17-date Texas and Oklahoma tour which began Feb. 6 in Corpus Christi. The band is also doing in-store appearances with the Sound Warehouse chain.

SHORT TAKES — A hand-painted Blues Brothers poster was stolen hours after it was put up in front of the Tower Records store on the Sunset Strip. A few days later a second Blues Bros. poster was also ripped off, bringing the total loss to more than $300, making the crime a felony. "Joliet" Jake would be proud. . . Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Susan Fox of the Columbia publicity office, whose leg is in a cast following a recent car accident. She's apparently well on her way, as she was spotted rooting her Kings to victory at a hockey game a few days after her accident. . . Randy Bachman has terminated his producer relationship with MCA's Trooper. Bachman and Trooper both deny reports the group may leave MCA for Legend Records. . . Despite banner headlines in most major newspapers reading "Shah goes Into Exile," the Warner/Curb group insists the former Iranian despot is not joining the band, nor will he be with them on their new tour with Heart beginning Feb. 16 in Cincinnati. . . Joan Armatrading will star in two one-hour TV specials abroad, one on Germany's national TV outlet, WDR, and another for the BBC.

TRAGIC COINCIDENCE — "A Song For Guy," set for release Feb. 23, is the second single from Elton John's "A Single Man" album. It is a particularly meaningful song for Elton, as he describes on the sleeve graphics. "As I was writing this song, I imagined myself floating in space, and looking down at my own body. I was imagining myself dying. Morbidly obsessed with these thoughts, I wrote this song about death. The next day I was told that Guy, our 17-year-old messenger boy, had been tragically killed on his motorcycle the day before. Guy died on the day I was writing this song."

LATE DEPARTURES — Two executive departures were reported just before press-time. Michael Lippman, vice president of west coast operations for Arista Records, has left the label to resume his management career. Lippman, who formerly has managed David Bowie and Leo Sayer, will now be managing two of Arista's biggest acts, Eric Carmen and Melissa Manchester, as well as lyricist Bernie Taupin. . . And Frank Miko has resigned his post as executive vice president of Nehi Distributing Co., the parent company of Peaches Records. "I've been here 15 years," says Miko. "and the time has come to make a move. After a short vacation, I'm going to resume my career in the music business, but it won't be with another retail operation."

GRAMMY GATHERING — When the 21st Grammy Awards show ends on Feb. 15, more than 3,000 members of the record biz will retreat to the Biltmore Hotel for a lavish celebration. Six of the hotel's banquet facilities and the entire Biltmore Bowl level will house the private celebration, featuring disco, jazz, country, classical and mariachi music. Count Basie, a six-time Grammy-winner, will perform with his orchestra in the Biltmore Bowl. . . The most recent list of participants in the Grammy ceremonies, to be televised live on CBS from the Shrine Auditorium in L.A., includes Barry Manilow, Olivia Newton-John, Andy Gibb, Steve Martin, Paul Williams, Lily Tomlin, Oscar Peterson, Johnny Paycheck, Barbara Mandrell, Frankie Valli, The Imperials and A Taste Of Honey, who will be performing their Grammy-nominated hit, "Boogie Oogie Oogie" . . . The first nominated song to be performed on the show will be Alicia Bridges' "I Love The Night Life."

NTA Account Goes To Beckworth Music

LOS ANGELES — The Beckworth Music Company was named recently in a joint statement to handle all exploitation and collections for music owned by National Telefilm Associates.

The announcement came from Lucky Carle, head of the Beckworth Music Company, and Bud Groskopf, executive vice president of NTA, who added, "NTA has acquired substantial amounts of music over the years by virtue of its acquisitions of feature film libraries, such as Republic. The exploitation of this music, particularly in soundtrack albums and publishing, and the collection of performance royalties, has been allowed to lie dormant. Beckworth will pursue all those areas on our behalf."

The first deal of this new affiliation has been entered into with Snuff Garrett and his Nostalgia Merchant Company for NTA's soundtrack album rights on the 82 Roy Rogers pictures that Republic made.

Drake-Chenault Testing New Automated Disco Format

is currently in conversation with several of its 125 stations to institute live-assist disco programming, though he did not preclude the syndication of an automated format.

"The taped format might work very well, but we're not totally convinced that it's right for disco radio at this time," Murphy said. "The flow and control of the intensity level in the disco format is extremely important, and you don't have that kind of flexibility on tape."

He suggested that, while Bonneville is currently monitoring the rated markets to see how the all disco stations are doing, "our job won't be all that clear-cut, since we won't be the first competitor in the disco marketplace. Right now the straightforward disco sound on KTU predominates, but, as disco stations begin to compete in the same market, different styles of disco programming will have to emerge as the listening market fragments."

Estimating that there are 150 markets in the country capable of converting to an all-disco format in the next few months, Keford observed that, while "TM is basing their format on the success of one station in one market on one book, the 30 markets that went with 'Night Fever' were spread out enough to reflect the best possible cross-section of listeners. We didn't isolate our research to a particular mega-market. To look at the New York or Los Angeles markets and say that they reflect America's tastes as a whole is a big mistake."

Will the syndicators enforce any kind of censorship with material that could be deemed obscene by local communities? Each of the spokesmen for the broadcasting companies agreed that, while the ultimate responsibility for questionable material lies with the licensee, the syndicates will no doubt have to exercise unusual care in the programming of tapes for the more conservative parts of the country.

Broadway 'Romeo & Juliet' Is Latest Costandinos Project

animated film which deals with Greek mythology. The project is tentatively titled "Winds Of Change." Pattie Brooks is expected to participate along with the Brecker Brothers.

As a prolific disco composer, Costandinos has faced a problem which is unique to disco composers: having created a sound, the producer must create a group. Love & Kisses is such a group.

In 1977, Casablanca released the "Love & Kisses" LP which was produced by Costandinos using an assemblage of studio musicians. A follow-up album created more momentum for the non-existent group. For the third Love & Kisses album, which is scheduled for an April release, Marc Simon, vice president of Casablanca special projects and choreographer Bob Talmadge, in conjunction with Costandinos, assembled four singers to become Love & Kisses. Talmadge is currently perfecting an "image" for the group which will debut at the Southern California Disco DJ Assn. Awards banquet in L.A. on Feb. 14.

Costandinos is also involved with a jazz-rock project for Casablanca by a studio aggregate called Bad News Travels Fast. In addition, Casablanca has Costandinos projects by Alamo and Simms & Stratford coming in June.

To represent his Ibis label and coordinate his expanding American interests, Costandinos opened a Los Angeles office in December which is headed by Ibis vice president Sheryl Feuerstein. Currently in the process of buying property in L.A. and New York, Costandinos expects that his current projects will require him to spend more time on this side of the Atlantic.

"flying 45", which can sail up to 200 yards, will be used in competitions at various retail stores in the upcoming weeks. Other UFO marketing items include: four color posters and four color streamers. In reference to the flying disc, Brendan Bourke Chrysalis' national merchandising coordinator said, "It's unique and I'm surprised we've beat retail to it." K-Mart plans to market the item next month.

The resurgence of Blondie's "Parallel Lines" onto the national charts, initiated by the success of the "Heart Of Glass" single, is the incentive for a new Blondie advertising campaign. The principal item of the new

Int'l Disco Expo Set For Coliseum In June

NEW YORK — Stephen Metz and Joseph Rapp will present the First International Disco Exposition at the New York Coliseum from June 21 to 24. The exposition will include disco fashions and beauty and make-up seminars, the latest in audio and video equipment and photo and camera paraphernalia and displays of stereo and in-home lighting equipment. Live entertainment will also be presented nightly.

Micky Gensler, who publishes the Metropolitan Report, will be coordinating the event with the retail record industry in New York and the tri-state area. Exposition space will be handled through Terry Stevens and Toni Carroll, who can be reached at (212) 581-6162.

campaign is a heart shaped, soft board poster of Blondie's lead singer, Debbie Harry.

In March, Chrysalis is planning an extensive ad program for Michael Colombier. The company will send in-store copies of the jazz/R&B artist to 1000 accounts. "We're doing this because jazz albums usually spread by word of mouth," said Bourke. In addition, Chrysalis is sending album packages with poster pullouts to 6000 retail accounts. Other plans for Colombier's program include empty jackets, ad minis and radio spots. Because Colombier is relatively unknown, teaser cards will be sent out prior to the album, which ships Feb. 27. Jazz artists such as Herbie Hancock, Tom Scott and Larry Carlton will join Colombier on his new Chrysalis release.

Marketing campaigns are being prepared for the upcoming album by Generation X, entitled "Valley Of The Dolls," and Auracle's new album, "City Slickers." Regional advertising campaigns are being planned for these two new albums.

Banner Signs Jay Lacy

LOS ANGELES — Jay Lacy, veteran session and touring musician, recently signed an exclusive recording contract with Banner Records. Lacy's first Banner LP will be produced by Don Gere vis ECU Productions division. Lacy is known for his guitar work in tours with Emmylou Harris, Ian Matthews and the Everly Brothers.

LATIN

The initials "T.P." are legendary in Latin music and jazz circles, and they can mean only one person: Tito Puente.

Though many superlatives have adorned this versatile veteran of music, the one which has stuck throughout his 30 years as a bandleader/conductor/composer/arranger and artist has been "The King of Latin Music."

Credited with bringing the vibraharp into the forefront of Latin music, for spotlighting the timbale solo (the double tuned drums played with sticks) and for setting the standard in timbale playing in N.Y., the silver haired King is an agile, precisioned player who embellishes his impeccable style with decorative mannerisms while on stage. He cues his band by whipping the sticks of his drums over head or forming imaginary figure eights, flashing the sticks midair above the drums. All this executed with the grace of an unfettered pro; Tito is known as the only man who can pose, dance and play at the same time.

He plays a variety of instruments including piano, timbales, saxophone, vibes and many others.

Tito Puente

Puente's career ran parallel to the big band, mambo, Palladium era and he is credited for the merging of Latin and American cultures here during the post-WWII period. He is known the world over for bringing Latin music into the best and biggest concert halls and dance ballrooms. Unquestionably, he is the best goodwill ambassador Latin music has ever had.

He was born Ernesto Puente, Jr. in East Harlem ("El Barrio") April 20, 1923. His mother Ercilia spotted his musical talent and enrolled the youngster in private piano studies when he was seven. As Puente recalls, "Lessons were 25 cents an hour then."

By the time he was ten, Tito began studying drums and percussion. Drums became his forte, and his teachers quickly realized the gifted child's talents were strongest in the rhythmic aspects of music.

Educated in public schools, by age 13 Puente was already playing "semi-pro" at the famed Park Palace Club on 110 St. and Fifth Ave. with a group called the Happy Boys. At age 15, he began drumming for a society band in Miami Beach, Fla., and at 16, he joined the popular Noro Morales orchestra as a drummer.

Puente remembers his father taking him to sit with the band at dances in his early teens, when the young musician would inevitably begin dozing off around midnight on his small musician's stool.

Around this time, Puente was already creating an aura around his name and consequently the neighborhood was talking about "El niño prodigio" (the child prodigy).

It didn't take long before the relatively unknown young artist began making mucho noise on the Latin scene for his stirring rhythmic compositions and arrangements. The dance arrangements of "How High The Moon," "Earl Wilson Mambo," "Cuando Te Veá," "Pilarena" and others led to many assignments from prominent bandleaders of the time. Even Tito Rodriguez, who became a bandleader while Puente worked with Frank Marti at the Copacabana, hired Puente to arrange four recordings for him.

In 1947, after an apprenticeship of professional playing with NY's top Latin bands, Puente formed his own nine-piece aggregation, "The Picadilly Boys" (a pun on picadillo, a tropical chopped meat dish which later became the title of one of Puente's biggest hits.)

But it was at the Palladium Ballroom (formerly the Alma Dance Studio) at 53rd St. and Broadway where the "mecca of Latin music" was created in the early fifties. Only three doors up from the Birdland jazz club, many jazz artists including Dizzy Gillespie, Woody Herman, Stan Kenton and George Shearing would drift from one spot to another picking up on Latin polyrhythms. Charlie Parker, Gillespie, and Marlon Brando, who plays congas, would sit in with the Puente Orchestra. Puente, who also played at Birdland as well as Roseland, in turn picked up on the jazz rhythms. Many of his recordings are Latin/jazz compositions for which he is noted, employing an amalgam of instruments.

Puente headlined a 14-year stint at the now legendary Palladium ballroom which featured four nights a week (Wednesdays being the most popular) of Latin dancing and live entertainment. Appropriately, the club was dubbed the "home of the mambo."

Today, T.P. is accredited with over 120 recordings of his orchestra and backing other singers on the Tico and RCA labels. He has more than 400 compositions penned and or co-written to his credit. His hits of "Mambo La Roca," "Babarabatiri," and "Cuban Mambo," have become standards. His most popular effort, "Dance Mania" on RCA released in 1958, has been re-issued twice and is still a top selling LP.

The walls in Puente's living room are covered with awards from Down Beat, Metronome and Playboy magazines. He was also awarded the medal of Bronze by the then Mayor of New York City, John V. Lindsay, who declared August 18, 1969 as Tito Puente Day during an afternoon ceremony at City Hall.

Two of T.P.'s compositions, "Oye Come Va" and "Para Los Rumberos," were catapulted into international pop acceptance in the early seventies by a young rock artist, Carlos Santana.

The King of Latin Music — still playing and recording — is one of the few veteran artists who keeps right on top of the musical changes taking place around him. He played boogaloo in the 1965 boogaloo craze and is now incorporating hustle, disco, merengue and other modern music concepts into his already progressive style.

He continues to play nightly with his 15-piece orchestra, enlarging it to 30 pieces for his recordings and major concert performances.

He was nominated for a Grammy award for his LP on Tico entitled, "La Leyenda" in 1977 and in 1978 has been nominated again for his LP entitled "Homenaje A Benny More."

His most recent accomplishment has been the winning of the Daily News' Latin music poll for "Best Orchestra of the year."

With all this to T.P.'s credit, the best accolade for "The King of Latin Music" would have to be "Long Live the King."

LATIN PICKS

with Lebron Brothers... de sus homajes

THE NEW HORIZON — Lebron Brothers — Cotique 1098 — Producer: Ralph Lew

Multi-talented Lebron Brothers outshine themselves in this album of salsa and boleros, including rhythmical changes to rhythm and blues with a Latin flavor. Most of the album consists of moving salsa numbers, especially "Como Fue." There are two numbers sung in English which could crossover to rhythm and blues. The vocals by the Lebron Brothers are superb. Special credit to the trumpet solos. The best songs are "Eres Tu," "La Memoria," "Theme From A Poor Man," "Tengo Testigo," "Como Fue" and "Survive."

DE AHORA EN ADELANTE — Rocio Jurado — RCA Spain P135194 — Producer: Manuel Diaz Pallares

Veteran songstress Rocio Juado gives her heart and soul on this album of love songs, which she handles superbly. Great backing by the orchestra is demonstrated on songs such as "Si Amanece," "Lo Siento," "Mi Amor," "Mi Amante Amigo," "De Ahora En Adelante," "No Cierres Los Ojos," "Nino," "Vete Ya" and "Fiel." Without any doubt this album should go high on all the charts in Spain.

SALSA ON ICE — Ralphy Santi — TR 142 — Producer: Rey Roig

Ralphy Santi debuts with this beautiful album of swinging salsa tunes. On this album he is surrounded by the top Latin musicians in the business. There are excellent solos throughout as well as good back-up vocals. The lead singer is superb. The best selections are "La Caminante," "Deseo," "El Guanguanco Callejero," "La Primavera," "Si Comprendieras" and "El Rubon." This album should not be overlooked in any retail store.

Japan Label Execs See Problems In 1979, But Remain Confident

TOKYO — Recent policy statements by the heads of Japan's three leading record companies — Victor Musical Industries, CBS-Sony and Polydor of Japan — point to an aggressive industry stance in 1979. But the executives also list several factors that could have an adverse affect on sales in the coming months, among them:

- The growing influence of imported records, which cuts into sales of domestically produced discs.
- The continuing upward valuation of the Japanese yen in comparison to the U.S. dollar.

Nippon-Phonogram Pacts With Arista

TOKYO — Nippon-Phonogram has acquired exclusive distribution rights for Arista Records in Japan. Previously Arista had been marketed in Japan by Toshiba-EMI.

According to Nippon-Phonogram, a special department will be set up within the company to handle Arista product. The company has targeted Arista sales of 10 million LPs for 1979.

Nippon-Phonogram sought the pact because of Arista's strong adult contemporary catalogue, including such artists as Barry Manilow, Melissa Manchester and Eric Carmen. According to a spokesman for the company, there is a shortage of adult music in Japan.

"The secret behind the United States music industry's upward sales year after year, I think, has been in the development of the adult (market)," the spokesman said. "So, it is indispensable for us to reach adult buyers in order to sell more international repertoires in this country. I believe the Arista repertoires are well suited to adults."

• The lack of suitable adult repertoires.

• The increased price of oil.

Industry On Trial

Norio Ohga, president of CBS-Sony, touched on some of the problems currently facing Japanese record manufacturers, including a slower rate of economic growth and creeping unemployment. "Under these conditions, the record industry of Japan is going to be on trial for some years to come," he said.

Nevertheless, the executives reported increased sales in 1978 and pointed out that revenues for the industry as a whole rose 9% last year.

Seyiyichiro Koo, president of Polydor of Japan, was the most bullish of the three executives. According to Koo, Polydor of Japan posted 1978 revenues of more than 17 billion yen, an 11% increase over the previous year.

20 Billion Sales

Koo, who has set a sales target of 19 billion yen for 1979, noted that "we'd like to achieve 20 billion sales annually by 1980."

Saburo Watanabe, president of Victor Musical Industries, in a statement delivered at the company's Aoyama studio here, termed the 9% increase in 1978 "unsatisfactory because this was supported by the unexpected growth of tape."

Watanabe went on to conclude, though, that the music industry's 9% growth was better than the 5% rate projected for the Japanese economy in 1979.

Irving-Almo Ships First Sampler LP

TORONTO — Irving-Almo Music Canada Ltd., recently shipped the first sampler album of songs by writers signed to the Canadian arm of the international publishing companies.

The album, which includes 30 songs by domestic writers, will be serviced to Irving-Almo affiliates world-wide, as well as major North American producers and other record labels.

Pickwick Honors Two Retailers At MIDEM

LONDON — Pickwick International held a celebration at Midem to present two retailer awards. Managing director Monty Lewis presented the awards, the first of which went to Hans Puls of the Dutch firm Vroom Dreemann Communications for sales of Pickwick records and tapes amounting to a total of 1.5 million units in 1978.

The second award went to Bob Egerton of F.W. Woolworth UK Ltd for his sales over the last five years of more than 30 million records and tapes.

GOLDEN ROCKETS — French recording group the Rockets recently received a gold record from CGD-Messaggerie Musicali for sales in excess of 150,000 units of its "On The Road Again" album. Pictured above are (l-r): group members with Maurizio Cannici, CGD international product manager; Claude Lemoine, Rockets producer; and Johnny Porta, CGD promotion manager.

LONDON — The latest album from Slim Whitman on United Artists titled "Ghost Riders In The Sky," has just been certified U.K. Gold. The LP was released at the end of December, and UA released the title track as a single Feb. 9. Three weeks hence, Whitman flies into Britain to undertake another major tour. . . . Polydor's Paul Evans is currently in London for ten days of radio and press interviews plus an appearance on BBC TV's "Top Of The Pops." While here, Evans is to be presented with a silver disc for U.K. sales of 250,000 of "Hello, This Is Joannie" — a current top ten hit.

Island Records is stirring up a buzz for its one and only white rock 'n' roll band — Eddie & the Hot Rods. The band will play four shows this month in preparation for its British tour starting early March. To coincide with the tour, the latest album from the Rods, "Thriller," will be released and backed by a massive marketing campaign. Guitarist and writer for the Rods Graham Douglass told Cash Box, "The new album is a great step forward from the last one. It is an exercise in urban paranoia."

Virgin Records has signed Sparks and is releasing a first album on the label due March 2. The LP is entitled "No 1 In Heaven" and was produced by Giorgio Moroder. . . . Following the announcement of the purchase of the ABC Record company by MCA, Anchor Records issued a formal statement to the effect that they have not been informed of any changes concerning the operation of either ABC or Anchor Records. Both companies are remaining completely autonomous. Any further details will be released by the Music Corporation in New York.

More Midem deal conclusions — John Spalding, Carole Broughton and Howard Huntridge were at Midem placing masters of their new singer/songwriter Kevin Kitchen and concluded deals with RCA for Australia, Interglobal for Canada, Discamate for Japan and Teldec for Germany.

Brazilian gold artist Malcolm Frost clinched deals for publishing his title "Nobody Else In The World" in Scandinavia, France, U.K., Italy and Benelux. . . . French recording star Gilbert Becaud has returned to the states to write songs with Stevie Wonder. Becaud recently had a No. 1 hit in France with a recording entitled "In September," which he wrote with Neil Diamond.

A new single from David Essex, London's rock-theatre performer whose last role in the hit musical EVITA won him instant acclaim, entitled "Imperial Wizard," will be out Feb. 16 on Mercury. . . . Also in theatre — Peter Straker is currently in rehearsal for the new stage production of Pete Townshend's "Tommy" at the Queen's Theatre, London.

WEA's Mike Berry has recorded an obscure Buddy Holly composition entitled "Stay Close To Me," which was released on the Lightning label Feb. 2. This release date coincides with the date Holly died 20 years ago.

Ed Benou recently joined WEA as general manager of manufacturing. . . . Much to the annoyance of London new-wave labels Stiff and Criminal, an official Midem Press release read: "Let us forget the New Wave. The disco scene leads the world. This is the general opinion of the 5,500 Midem participants."

Records Fall at '79 Midem Gathering

CANNES — The final statistics for the 13th annual midem festival broke all previous records, reflecting an increase in the number of participants as well as the volume of business concluded.

The official Midem tally showed that the 1979 event attracted 5,552 participants, up 10% from 5,050 last year. The number of participating firms increased 11% to 1,366 from 1,238 in 1978.

The first 10 countries and number of firms represented were as follows: 1) U.S.A. — 293; 2) U.K. — 236; 3) France — 226; 4) West Germany — 94; 5) Canada — 69; 6) Italy — 50; 7) Japan — 50; 8) Australia — 38; 9) Belgium — 38; and 10) Netherlands — 37. In all, 51 countries were represented.

Countries participating for the first this year included Iceland, Nigeria, Liberia and Angola.

A record 563 journalists from the press, radio and television covered Midem '79, during which approximately 90 million francs were exchanged.

Phonogram To Reduce Album, Cassette Prices

LONDON — Phonogram is reducing the prices of 350 of its current full-price popular albums and cassettes, effective this week, with the introduction of a two-tier price structure designed to emphasize back catalog product. The new structure should help back-catalog work compete with current discounted product.

Under this new system, product will be released at full-price level while catalog will be available at a reduced price.

Japan Label Execs See Problems In 1979, But Remain Confident

TOKYO — Recent policy statements by the heads of Japan's three leading record companies — Victor Musical Industries, CBS-Sony and Polydor of Japan — point to an aggressive industry stance in 1979. But the executives also list several factors that could have an adverse affect on sales in the coming months, among them:

- The growing influence of imported records, which cuts into sales of domestically produced discs.
- The continuing upward valuation of the Japanese yen in comparison to the U.S. dollar.

Nippon-Phonogram Pacts With Arista

TOKYO — Nippon-Phonogram has acquired exclusive distribution rights for Arista Records in Japan. Previously Arista had been marketed in Japan by Toshiba-EMI.

According to Nippon-Phonogram, a special department will be set up within the company to handle Arista product. The company has targeted Arista sales of 10 million LPs for 1979.

Nippon-Phonogram sought the pact because of Arista's strong adult contemporary catalogue, including such artists as Barry Manilow, Melissa Manchester and Eric Carmen. According to a spokesman for the company, there is a shortage of adult music in Japan.

"The secret behind the United States music industry's upward sales year after year, I think, has been in the development of the adult (market)," the spokesman said. "So, it is indispensable for us to reach adult buyers in order to sell more international repertoires in this country. I believe the Arista repertoires are well suited to adults."

Industry On Trial

Norio Ohga, president of CBS-Sony, touched on some of the problems currently facing Japanese record manufacturers, including a slower rate of economic growth and creeping unemployment. "Under these conditions, the record industry of Japan is going to be on trial for some years to come," he said.

Nevertheless, the executives reported increased sales in 1978 and pointed out that revenues for the industry as a whole rose 9% last year.

Seyiyichiro Koo, president of Polydor of Japan, was the most bullish of the three executives. According to Koo, Polydor of Japan posted 1978 revenues of more than 17 billion yen, an 11% increase over the previous year.

20 Billion Sales

Koo, who has set a sales target of 19 billion yen for 1979, noted that "we'd like to achieve 20 billion sales annually by 1980."

Saburo Watanabe, president of Victor Musical Industries, in a statement delivered at the company's Aoyama studio here, termed the 9% increase in 1978 "unsatisfactory because this was supported by the unexpected growth of tape."

Watanabe went on to conclude, though, that the music industry's 9% growth was better than the 5% rate projected for the Japanese economy in 1979.

Irving-Almo Ships First Sampler LP

TORONTO — Irving-Almo Music Canada Ltd., recently shipped the first sampler album of songs by writers signed to the Canadian arm of the international publishing companies.

The album, which includes 30 songs by domestic writers, will be serviced to Irving-Almo affiliates world-wide, as well as major North American producers and other record labels.

Pickwick Honors Two Retailers At MIDEM

LONDON — Pickwick International held a celebration at Midem to present two retailer awards. Managing director Monty Lewis presented the awards, the first of which went to Hans Puls of the Dutch firm Vroom Dreemann Communications for sales of Pickwick records and tapes amounting to a total of 1.5 million units in 1978.

The second award went to Bob Egerton of F.W. Woolworth UK Ltd for his sales over the last five years of more than 30 million records and tapes.

GOLDEN ROCKETS — French recording group the Rockets recently received a gold record from CGD-Messagerie Musicale for sales in excess of 150,000 units of its "On The Road Again" album. Records Fall at '79 Midem Gathering

CANNES — The final statistics for the 13th annual midem festival broke all previous records, reflecting an increase in the number of participants as well as the volume of business concluded.

The official Midem tally showed that the 1979 event attracted 5,552 participants, up 10% from 5,050 last year. The number of participating firms increased 11% to 1,366 from 1,238 in 1978.

The first 10 countries and number of firms represented were as follows: 1) U.S.A. — 293; 2) U.K. — 236; 3) France — 226; 4) West Germany — 94; 5) Canada — 69; 6) Italy — 50; 7) Japan — 50; 8) Australia — 38; 9) Belgium — 38; and 10) Netherlands — 37. In all, 51 countries were represented.

Countries participating for the first time this year included Iceland, Nigeria, Liberia and Angola.

A record 563 journalists from the press, radio and television covered Midem '79, during which approximately 90 million francs were exchanged.

Phonogram To Reduce Album, Cassette Prices

LONDON — Phonogram is reducing the prices of 350 of its current full-price popular albums and cassettes, effective this week, with the introduction of a two-tier price structure designed to emphasize back catalog product. The new structure should help back-catalog work compete with current discounted product.

Under this new system, product will be released at full-price level while catalog will be available at a reduced price.

Mike Rudd's band, Instant Replay, will go to America following their tour of NSW in March. They will leave for the U.S. on March 25 after finishing their Sydney gigs on the 18th.

Singer-songwriter Richard Clapton will start recording his new album in Los Angeles next month. He will make the album with producer Dallas Smith in Smith's Los Angeles studio, the Chateau.

English band Colosseum 11 is expected to include Australia in its world tour, which begins in March. The tour will follow the recording of a new album in London, the first to feature guitarist Keith Airey, who replaced Gary Moore when he joined Thin

Lizzy.

The annual Australian Country Music Awards turned into a family affair this year. Slim Dusty, his wife Joy McKean and daughter Anne Kirkpatrick all won Golden Guitar Awards at the presentation ceremony at Tamworth Town Hall Jan. 28. Dusty was named Best Male Vocalist, Miss Kirkpatrick Best Female Vocalist and Joy McKean jointly won the Best Composition Award with Tom Olliver for "Beat Of The Government Stroke." Slim Dusty's name was also added to the Country Music Roll of Renown. The 1,500 people who crammed into the hall broke into wild applause as his name was read out.

Dusty has won 12 Golden Guitar Awards — more than anyone else.

Piracy Convictions Send Brothers To Jail

NEW YORK — Two brothers were sentenced to jail terms in U.S. District Court of Chicago by Judge N. Bua, following their conviction earlier this month on 20 counts of copyright infringement and one count of interstate transportation of stolen property.

The older brother, Barry Berkwitz, was sentenced to six months imprisonment and four and a half years probation on the felony charge of interstate transportation of stolen property and was given a concurrent one-year probation on the charges of criminal copyright infringement.

The younger brother, Mark Berkwitz, currently enrolled at the Yeshiva University of Los Angeles, was sentenced to spend three months in the Metropolitan Correction Center in Los Angeles with work release privileges. His probationary period was set at three and three-quarter years.

During the trial, for which assistant U.S. attorney Theodore Scudder was prosecutor, more than a dozen record companies sent witnesses to testify that the Berkwitz Brothers had duplicated copyrighted sound recordings without authorization.

Finally, this note from MIDEM — Atlantic Records president Jerry Greenberg may have corralled the most influential managers in the U.S. aboard his 110 foot yacht for a lavish party when he brought together Bud Prager (Foreigner); Paul Ahern (Boston); Fred Lewis (Cars); Stuart Young (ELP); and David Mintz (AWB). The first complete recording of Mozart's "Betulia Liberata," a Phillips release, has been awarded a "Grand Prix De L'Academie Nationale du Disque Lyrique 1978." The Yale Philharmonia Orchestra under guest conductor John Mauceri will present an all-Hindemith program at Carnegie Hall March 11. The concert will feature the American premiere of the six-song cycle, "Das Marienleben," with soprano Phyllis Curtin. The members of the Cleveland Quartet are currently celebrating their tenth anniversary with a three-concert series at Carnegie. Last summer, they completed a three-year project of recording all 17 Beethoven quartets, and RCA will release them this season. RCA is also scheduling a new album of Fats Waller selections, performed by the Canadian Brass, for spring release. If the group's recent concert at Alice Tully Hall here is any indication, the record should be a huge success. ken terry

"I think some producers get so hung up on how their albums will 'sound' that they neglect the emotions and feelings of an artist's work, which to me should be heart of the album," stated Foster. "I just want to stay one step ahead of the layman in regards to knowing about studio technology.

"I believe the best producers have been people who are not really musicians, but just people who love music," added Foster. "I'm a classically-trained musician, but I still prefer things that are simple. I often have to keep myself as a producer or player from making a record unnecessarily complex or sophisticated."

During his two years of producing, Foster has almost completely by accident developed into an accomplished songwriter, simply becoming one because the artists he produced were in need of songwriting assistance in finishing their compositions. With the exception of Hall & Oates "Along The Red Ledge" album, Foster has co-written songs with every artist he has produced.

As a result of his co-writing work with his artists, he has now begun to expand his songwriting duties, collaborating with such artists as David Paich of Toto and Maurice White of Earth, Wind & Fire to compose material for the Emotions, Cheryl Lynn and Earth, Wind & Fire. Notably, Foster and Paich joined forces to write "Got To Be Real" for Lynn, a Top 10 pop single.

In addition, Foster has now composed material for his own group, Airplay, which he formed recently with session guitarist Jay Graydon. Their debut album, composed and produced by the duo, should be released on RCA Records in April.

Breaking A New Act

Although Foster has established himself as a successful producer, who is also a composer and musician, he will not be fully satisfied with his work as a producer until he takes an unknown artist and makes him or her a success, something he has yet to do.

"I suppose the most difficult feat as a producer would be to successfully break an unknown artist," said Foster. "I've produced hit albums for Alice Cooper and Hall & Oates, but I haven't really broken a new artist yet.

"Right now, I'm producing an album for Marcy Levy, who sings with Eric Clapton. If she breaks for me, then I'll call myself a real producer, because I've taken someone that's previously unknown and made that artist a hit."

N.Y. Court Upholds Paragon, Outlaws Pact

LOS ANGELES — The New York County Supreme Court handed down a preliminary injunction Jan. 18 to American Talent International (ATI), Charles Brusco and all others acting in their interest, restraining them from acting as agents for recording group "The Outlaws".

The action was brought about by the Paragon Agency against Outlaw manager Brusco and ATI after ATI began booking the group in 1978. The court declared that the contract, granting exclusive rights to Paragon for representation of the group, was still valid. That contract extends from June 1, 1975 to May 31, 1980, with an option to extend the term to May 31, 1982.

The court ruled that a copy of paper presented by the defense, dated Apr. 28, 1978, allegedly releasing two members of the original group (signatories to the original contract), was invalid, as Paragon was not a signatory to this "release". The court further ruled that the contract between Paragon and the Outlaws "was not changed in any way by the so-called 'release'".

PIZZA TIME THEATRE

Bushnell Bullish On Marriage Of Fast Food & Coin Games

LOS ANGELES — Nolan K. Bushnell, who recently exited his post as chairman of Atari, Inc., a company he founded in 1972 and subsequently sold to Warner Communications in 1975, is looking to expand his fortune by combining coin-operated amusement games and fast food.

"It's a matter of public record that we sold Atari for $30 million," said Bushnell, "and I'm predicting this new idea will make me even more."

Currently in operation at two locations in San Jose, Calif., Pizza Time Theatre combines the popularity of a quality pizza restaurant with coin-operated games and amusements and a unique system of three-dimensional, computer-controlled cartoon characters with voices and an original musical score synchronized to animated movements.

1,000 By 1980

As envisioned by Bushnell and his staff, some 1,000 of these centers will open across the United States during the next five years. To create the sophisticated electronic technology needed to handle 450 computer instructions per second, Pizza Time Theatre has already expended $1,500,000 on research and development.

"We've done something Disney should have thought of years ago. Pizza Time Theatre," added Bushnell, "is really Disneyland carried to American families at the local level. In fact, we're the only place outside Disneyland where you can enjoy a computer-animated show."

The concept for Pizza Time Theatre was the brainchild of Bushnell, a pioneer in the video games industry. The first location, planned as a prototype, opened in San Jose, Calif., in May, 1977 (Cash Box June 25, 1977).

During its first year of operation, Pizza Time Theatre was a division of Atari. In

PIZZA & GAMES — The Pizza Time Theatre in San Jose features computer-controlled animated cartoon figures, shown in the top photo, and more than 100 of the latest video, pinball and arcade games in the Fantasy Forest Game preserve, pictured in the bottom photo.

June, 1978, Bushnell purchased all assets and rights from Atari and formed Pizza Time Theatre as a California corporation.

Bushnell serves as chairman of the board for Pizza Time Theatre. President and chief operating officer of the company with headquarters in Mountain View, Calif., is Gene N. Landrum.

Franchise

According to Bushnell, plans are to franchise 90% of the pizza parlors in key geographical areas across the country. The company will retain ownership of the other 10%. In addition to the first two in San Jose, a third location is planned for Concord's The Willows to open in March and a fourth unit scheduled for June in Southern California. Franchises are being considered for Marin County and the San Joaquin Valley areas of California.

With franchisees, Bushnell will retain the name and concept, while providing owners with plans, formulas, training and installation of leased Cyberamics system with the characters.

"Within six months," Bushnell explained, "we'll be manufacturing the cartoon characters for our new locations and fran-

Williams Joins Stern Electronics

CHICAGO — Harry Williams, regarded as one of the founding fathers of the coin machine industry, has joined Stern Electronics, Inc., where he will work closely with the firm's executive vice president Sam Stern in the design of future games for the company. The combined experience of both men totals about 100 years and, individually, each is noted as a major contributor to the growth and development of the industry.

Williams began his career in 1929, and after several years founded United Manufacturing Co. with the late Lyn Durant in 1941. Two years later he left the firm to start Williams Manufacturing Co. and in 1946 Sam Stern became a partner at Williams, ultimately buying it out. In 1964 the company was sold to Seeburg and the name changed to Williams Electronics, with Sam Stern remaining as president.

Stern's tenure in the coin machine business goes back to 1931. He started out as an operator and later went into the distribution of pinball machines. In addition to the years spent at Williams, he served as executive vice president of Bally Manufacturing Corp. for a brief period and was president of Seeburg just prior to the formation of Stern Electronics, Inc.

Pinball Innovators

During their years of association, Harry Williams and Sam Stern produced a number of pinball machines that have become classics in the industry, and are responsible for many innovative developments. The "tilt" feature is credited to Harry Williams; the "drop target" to Sam Stern, and the list goes on, encompassing innovations in design and play features.

"We are very pleased with the addition of Harry Williams to the Stern team," commented company president Gary Stern. "With the help of Harry Williams and my father, Sam Stern, we hope to establish and maintain industry leadership in the design of coin machines."

Williams will continue to reside in Palm Springs, Calif. but will travel to the Stern headquarters several times a year. In addition to designing new games, he and Stern will also devote time to teaching new designers on the staff.

PHOENIX — A new company called Intermark Industries, Inc. has been established by John L. Walsh, former board chairman and president of Mirco, Inc. The firm is located at 8625 N. 19th Avenue in Phoenix and the first product being introduced is a coin-operated, upright unit called "The Poker Machine," which is themed after the popular draw poker card game.

'Sport' Pinball Assn. Planned

CHICAGO — Jules Millman of the Aladdin's Castle arcade chain has been contacting the major manufacturers of pinball machines to muster support for the formation of a national Pinball Contest Association. The purpose of the organization would be to establish pinball as a national sport, of similar stature as tennis and other sports. Millman's experience with the highly successful, nationally publicized Bally Super Shooter contest prompted the move and response thus far has been "positive," he told Cash Box.

"What we are trying to do," Millman said, "is open up the (Bally) Super Shooter contest to all manufacturers." A voluminous documentation of the contest, complete with related mass media coverage, was presented to each of the manufacturers and Millman pointed out that all of the publicity, coupled with personal appearances of contest winner Ken Lunceford, generated a great deal of public interest and reflected a very positive image of the pinball industry, which will help a great deal in promoting pinball as a sport.

IRS Ruling

Of some concern at present is the IRS ruling which prohibits charging an entry fee for a pinball contest or charging an individual for playing the game. Millman feels, however, that establishing pinball as a sport should serve to influence a reversal of this ruling and that more recognition of

Piracy Convictions Send Brothers To Jail

NEW YORK — Two brothers were sentenced to jail terms in U.S. District Court of Chicago by Judge N. Bua, following their conviction earlier this month on 20 counts of copyright infringement and one count of interstate transportation of stolen property.

The older brother, Barry Berkwitz, was sentenced to six months imprisonment and four and a half years probation on the felony charge of interstate transportation of stolen property and was given a concurrent one-year probation on the charges of criminal copyright infringement.

The younger brother, Mark Berkwitz, currently enrolled at the Yeshiva University of Los Angeles, was sentenced to spend three months in the Metropolitan Correction Center in Los Angeles with work release privileges. His probationary period was set at three and three-quarter years.

During the trial, for which assistant U.S. attorney Theodore Scudder was prosecutor, more than a dozen record companies sent witnesses to testify that the Berkwitz Brothers had duplicated copyrighted sound recordings without authorization.

MORE BEATLE MEMORIES — Feb. 24 and 25 are the dates for the next Beatlefest, a Beatles fan convention sponsored annually by Mark and Carol Lapidos. Although John Lennon has already summed up the absurd extremes to which nostalgia-waxing like this has gone, there nonetheless is some interesting fare for the hard-core Beatle fanatic. Guests include Klaus Voorman, as well as authors of Beatles' books, and there will be 13 hours of films and old TV clips. Also — a flea market and trivia contests. Bring your own lunchpail.

Finally, this note from MIDEM — Atlantic Records president Jerry Greenberg may have corralled the most influential managers in the U.S. aboard his 110 foot yacht for a lavish party when he brought together Bud Prager (Foreigner); Paul Ahern (Boston); Fred Lewis (Cars); Stuart Young (ELP); and David Mintz (AWB). Multi-Talented Foster Helping Others Realize Creative Ideas

"I think some producers get so hung up on how their albums will 'sound' that they neglect the emotions and feelings of an artist's work, which to me should be heart of the album," stated Foster. "I just want to stay one step ahead of the layman in regards to knowing about studio technology.

"I believe the best producers have been people who are not really musicians, but just people who love music," added Foster. "I'm a classically-trained musician, but I still prefer things that are simple. I often have to keep myself as a producer or player from making a record unnecessarily complex or sophisticated."

During his two years of producing, Foster has almost completely by accident developed into an accomplished songwriter, simply becoming one because the artists he produced were in need of songwriting assistance in finishing their compositions. With the exception of Hall & Oates "Along The Red Ledge" album, Foster has co-written songs with every artist he has produced.

As a result of his co-writing work with his artists, he has now begun to expand his songwriting duties, collaborating with such artists as David Paich of Toto and Maurice White of Earth, Wind & Fire to compose material for the Emotions, Cheryl Lynn and Earth, Wind & Fire. Notably, Foster and Paich joined forces to write "Got To Be Real" for Lynn, a Top 10 pop single.

In addition, Foster has now composed

PIZZA TIME THEATRE

Bushnell Bullish On Marriage Of Fast Food & Coin Games

LOS ANGELES — Nolan K. Bushnell, who recently exited his post as chairman of Atari, Inc., a company he founded in 1972 and subsequently sold to Warner Communications in 1975, is looking to expand his fortune by combining coin-operated amusement games and fast food.

"It's a matter of public record that we sold Atari for $30 million," said Bushnell, "and I'm predicting this new idea will make me even more."

Currently in operation at two locations in San Jose, Calif., Pizza Time Theatre combines the popularity of a quality pizza restaurant with coin-operated games and amusements and a unique system of three-dimensional, computer-controlled cartoon characters with voices and an original musical score synchronized to animated movements.

1,000 By 1980

As envisioned by Bushnell and his staff, some 1,000 of these centers will open across the United States during the next five years. To create the sophisticated electronic technology needed to handle 450 computer instructions per second, Pizza Time Theatre has already expended $1,500,000 on research and development.

"We've done something Disney should have thought of years ago. Pizza Time Theatre," added Bushnell, "is really Disneyland carried to American families at the local level. In fact, we're the only place outside Disneyland where you can enjoy a computer-animated show."

The concept for Pizza Time Theatre was the brainchild of Bushnell, a pioneer in the video games industry. The first location, planned as a prototype, opened in San Jose, Calif., in May, 1977 (Cash Box June 25, 1977).

During its first year of operation, Pizza Time Theatre was a division of Atari. In June, 1978, Bushnell purchased all assets and rights from Atari and formed Pizza Time Theatre as a California corporation.

Bushnell serves as chairman of the board for Pizza Time Theatre. President and chief operating officer of the company with headquarters in Mountain View, Calif., is Gene N. Landrum.

Franchise

According to Bushnell, plans are to franchise 90% of the pizza parlors in key geographical areas across the country. The company will retain ownership of the other 10%. In addition to the first two in San Jose, a third location is planned for Concord's The Willows to open in March and a fourth unit scheduled for June in Southern California. Franchises are being considered for Marin County and the San Joaquin Valley areas of California.

With franchisees, Bushnell will retain the name and concept, while providing owners with plans, formulas, training and installation of leased Cyberamics system with the characters.

"Within six months," Bushnell explained, "we'll be manufacturing the cartoon characters for our new locations and fran-

Williams Joins Stern Electronics

CHICAGO — Harry Williams, regarded as one of the founding fathers of the coin machine industry, has joined Stern Electronics, Inc., where he will work closely with the firm's executive vice president Sam Stern in the design of future games for the company. The combined experience of both men totals about 100 years and, individually, each is noted as a major contributor to the growth and development of the industry.

Williams began his career in 1929, and after several years founded United Manufacturing Co. with the late Lyn Durant in 1941. Two years later he left the firm to start Williams Manufacturing Co. and in 1946 Sam Stern became a partner at Williams, ultimately buying it out. In 1964 the company was sold to Seeburg and the name changed to Williams Electronics, with Sam Stern remaining as president.

Stern's tenure in the coin machine business goes back to 1931. He started out as an operator and later went into the distribution of pinball machines. In addition to the years spent at Williams, he served as executive vice president of Bally Manufacturing Corp. for a brief period and was president of Seeburg just prior to the formation of Stern Electronics, Inc.

Pinball Innovators

During their years of association, Harry Williams and Sam Stern produced a number of pinball machines that have become classics in the industry, and are responsible for many innovative developments. The "tilt" feature is credited to Harry Williams; the "drop target" to Sam Stern, and the list goes on, encompassing innovations in design and play features.

"We are very pleased with the addition of Harry Williams to the Stern team," commented company president Gary Stern. "With the help of Harry Williams and my father, Sam Stern, we hope to establish and maintain industry leadership in the design of coin machines."

Williams will continue to reside in Palm Springs, Calif. but will travel to the Stern headquarters several times a year. In addition to designing new games, he and Stern will also devote time to teaching new designers on the staff.

PHOENIX — A new company called Intermark Industries, Inc. has been established by John L. Walsh, former board chairman and president of Mirco, Inc. The firm is located at 8625 N. 19th Avenue in Phoenix and the first product being introduced is a coin-operated, upright unit called "The Poker Machine," which is themed after the popular draw poker card game.

'Sport' Pinball Assn. Planned

CHICAGO — Jules Millman of the Aladdin's Castle arcade chain has been contacting the major manufacturers of pinball machines to muster support for the formation of a national Pinball Contest Association. The purpose of the organization would be to establish pinball as a national sport, of similar stature as tennis and other sports. Millman's experience with the highly successful, nationally publicized Bally Super Shooter contest prompted the move and response thus far has been "positive," he told Cash Box.

"What we are trying to do," Millman said, "is open up the (Bally) Super Shooter contest to all manufacturers." A voluminous documentation of the contest, complete with related mass media coverage, was presented to each of the manufacturers and Millman pointed out that all of the publicity, coupled with personal appearances of contest winner Ken Lunceford, generated a great deal of public interest and reflected a very positive image of the pinball industry, which will help a great deal in promoting pinball as a sport.

IRS Ruling

Of some concern at present is the IRS ruling which prohibits charging an entry fee for a pinball contest or charging an individual for playing the game. Millman feels, however, that establishing pinball as a sport should serve to influence a reversal of this ruling and that more recognition of chisees." He hopes to make his cast of four-foot figures as familiar to American youngsters as Smokey the Bear, Superman and Mickey Mouse.

Singing and joking in a vaudeville format are emcee Chuck E. Cheese, a street-wise, Jersey-born rat; Jasper T. Jowls, a banjo-strumming, country-singing hound; Pasqually, an Italian chef who calls out birthday wishes; and Mr. Munch, a furry purple purloiner of pizza. Helen Henny, a rock singer, is among the guest stars whose appearances are rotated. Employees, costumed as the characters, also appear regularly to greet special guests.

"What also makes us different," Bushnell continued, "is we're the only national fast food outlet encouraging group sales. That's a statement even Ray Kroc (McDonald's) can't make. We're able to do it because of the size of our units, which average 8 to 10,000 square feet, and because of our extraordinary entertainment package."

Menu

The menu includes a variety of pizzas, sandwiches, salads and beverages, as well as a make-your-own ice cream sundae bar. In areas where it's legal, beer and wine will be offered.

Entertainment is continuous with shows every eight minutes in the main dining room, where the characters "live" in gilded frames above the atrium.

Special event activities for birthdays, anniversaries and other celebrations may be arranged. The party package includes an appearance by Chuck E. Cheese (in costume), computer-led cheers and sing-alongs and free game tokens.

Game tokens are another Bushnell innovation and are given as premiums with individual food orders or may be purchased five-for-a-dollar from a dispenser. Quarters may also be used to play the 50 to 75 video, pinball and arcade games in the Fantasy Forest Game Preserve. A special free area for youngsters has been set aside with a "cheese" slide, rocker horses and Puppy Pong.

To preserve an atmosphere of wholesome family entertainment, controls have been established to ensure that only restaurant patrons play the games.

Bushnell says food and beverage operations in each Pizza Time Theatre are tailored to provide high quality at a reasonable cost to the consumer, while permitting the individual operator to retain margin levels above those prevailing in the pizza industry.

"We've done our homework," concluded Bushnell, "and we're targeting in on the pizza-eating segment of our population between the ages of 18 and 40, generally with children. By incorporating the three elements — a popular food product, participatory games and amusethe game will also help along these lines. It would be very beneficial, he said, to hold contests in conjunction with various national charities. "Charge for each entry blank and donate all of the proceeds to a charitable organization," Millman explained.

A meeting to further discuss the project will be held within 30 days, Millman indicated. If the plan materializes, the association would consider taking a booth at the next AMOA convention for promotional purposes and also solicit interest at the IAAPA show towards running a national contest in May of 1980.

said, explaining its play features. "Single or multiple coins can be inserted prior to dealing with one to ten credits to be played per hand. Players can stand pat or discard and draw with a reshuffled deck every deal."

The Poker Machine is equipped with a unique sound system which projects an individual sound for each of the various cards played. An ace has its own particular sound, for example, as does the king and the other cards in play. An arrow appears on the screen to signal the winning hand.

The game's service features include a power interrupt protection provided by a battery backup system to the main computer memory, an automatic logic reset for tamper override, as well as a credit register.

CHICAGO CHATTER

With a few exceptions, most Chicagoans who attended the ATE convention in London were back in their respective home offices as we were going to press last week. Among those remaining overseas were Midway's Andy Ducay, who had a full docket of factory service schools scheduled for after the convention; and Williams' Ron Crouse and Bob Prinzing, who were also doing some schools over there. Despite adverse weather conditions hereabouts, the local turnout was as big as ever this year but returnees brought back a number of complaints, not so much about the show itself as about the environs — Alexandra Palace, it seems, leaves much to be desired. One factory rep said it was so cold and damp he had to wear his coat for the entire run of the show. Another mentioned that London experienced a slight snowstorm just before the show started and this made for very uncomfortable conditions, since accommodations for the most part lack insulation and London is just not equipped to cope with such weather. Additionally, there was a trucking strike which made it difficult to get equipment to the show (applicable on the local level); a train strike which created overcrowding on the tubes and greatly effected the opening day attendance at ATE and other minor transportation difficulties. As one Chicagoan put it, "It was like being at home during the 'blizzard' of '79 when truck's couldn't get through, transportation was all messed up, etc." Another said that coping with 25 inches of snow in Chicago is more palatable than with 2 inches in London. This show, however, does attract people from all over the world and continues to maintain its significance among Americans, because it gives them the opportunity to make contact with countries not normally represented at other trade functions and the further advantage of doing a good deal of after hours business.

DOMESTIC SHIPMENTS OF Stern's exciting new "Dracula" 4-player are currently in progress, as we learned from marketing vice president Steve Kaufman. Based on "super" test reports and the machine's built-in appeal, the factory's preparing for a very big run with it.

CENTER OF EXCITEMENT at D. Gottlieb & Co. these days is the new "Solar Ride" pin — just released and doing extremely well, internationally, according to Tom Herrick.

BALLY's Tom Nieman and Bill O'Donnell, Jr. timed their round trip to London just perfectly for the ATE, with no delays on either end but Tom said he heard a lot of horror stories out there from those who were not so lucky. On the homefront, it's "Playboy" all the way.

SAID A QUICK HELLO to Midway's marketing director Stan Jarocki on his return from London, where "Space Invaders" was quite the hit of the ATE.

WE WISH A SPEEDY RECOVERY to Seeburg's general manager Bill Adair, who is convalescing at home after undergoing surgery. He's coming along nicely but will remain in sick bay for at least another three weeks — if they could hold him down that long.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Just back from the recent ATE show in London, Exidy marketing chief Lila Zinter said the factory's current hit, "Star Fire," is still very much in production despite frustrating component shortages. Star Fire attracted a lot of attention at ATE, as did Exidy's new "Ripcord" video, which Lila said will be in full production by next month.

EAST COASTINGS: Frank DiMarsico of the recently-opened All-Service One Stop in Union, N.J. is ready, willing and able to take care of all jukebox operators' needs. The firms, which specializes in "the finest jukebox programming in the country," makes it a point to "inform the operators about the records and where to place them," according to DiMarsico. "There's no such thing as black and white music," he says. "Take Chic's 'Le Freak' single, for example. That was a smash at all locations." And with more than 20 years in the business, he knows what he's talking about. To reach Frank, contact All-Service One Stop, Inc., 530 Chestnut St., Union, N.J. The telephone number is (201) 686-3500.

ATARI WESTERN REGIONAL SALES MANAGER Don Osborne is hard at work these days coordinating the factory's annual distributor meeting, slated for April 15-21 at the Mauna Kea Hotel on the island of Hawaii. According to Don, the meeting will include new product presentations with the accent on sales and promotion of Atari equipment. While on the subject of new games, he mentioned that Atari's new four-player flipper, "Superman," should be available by the end of the month. Don said the game is based on the legendary comic book figure and that it features "a completely new pinball design and electronics package."

EASTERN FLASHES

An expansion program is currently underway at the Mondial-Springfield premises, as we learned from Tony Yula. They're building a new area exclusively for solid state equipment, a new shop, a new sound room, etc. Business, however, is continuing as usual while all the work is being done. Atari's "Football" remains in the video spotlight and Tony said the new Gottlieb "Solar Ride" is testing out just beautifully and should be a big seller. At presstime, a Seeburg service school was in progress.

SORRY TO HEAR THAT John Ard of Rowe Int'l.-Syracuse is in the hospital. John injured his back in a fall and will probably be confined for a little while. The distrib is also minus gal Friday Karen Capozzi, who was hospitalized a week before John's accident. We wish them both a speedy recovery — and Whitey Martin, who came off the road to handle things in the office, has his fingers crossed that bad things don't really happen in three's. On the bright side, Whitey told us that business has been picking up nicely. The Rowe "Disco 200" phonograph is doing very well and he anticipates that Gottlieb's new "Solar Ride" will be a very hot seller.

BALLY NORTHEAST-DEDHAM recently sponsored a highly successful two-day service course in Upstate New York. Sessions were conducted by Dave Tucker, the distrib's service manager, and the subject matter dealt exclusively with solid state pins. For the past couple of months, phonograph sales have been exceptionally good, as Bob LeBlanc pointed out, which says much for the current Seeburg model. Among table pins in the spotlight are Game Plan's "Foxy Lady" and the Allied Leisure "Take Five" and "Hearts & Spades"; upright hits include "Playboy" and "Phoenix."

Antique Games, Ltd. Opens Store

CHICAGO — Stanley Levin, who has been in the coin machine business for some 33 years, recently embarked on a new venture, Antique Games Ltd., where he sells antique slot machines as well as a variety of other coin-operated products for home consumption. Levin says his customers are mainly collectors and items for sale include slot machines, pinballs, phonographs and various arcade pieces, with some of the stock dating back to the early 1920s. Prices range from a low of $1,000 to as high as $20,000 or more for rare collectors models.

A collector himself, Levin has a number of machines in his home and about 40 or 50 were on display when he opened the store. Antique Games Ltd. is located at 2750 Dundee Road in Northbrook. In addition to the display area the store houses facilities for repairing and restoring equipment.

It was not until recently that slots were legalized in Illinois for individual ownership, the stipulation being that the models be classified as antiques rather than gambling devices and be at least 25 years old to qualify under the new law. Illinois' governor, James Thompson, an antique collector, was instrumental in securing passage of the bill, which he signed in September 1978.

GamePlanEurope Opens

CHICAGO — Game Plan, Inc. of Addison, Illinois has established a branch in the European market. The new operation, Game Plan Europe, is presently based in Sweden and will serve to coordinate sales, service and factory representation throughout Europe, to further strengthen the company's expanding network in that area of the world. On staff to administer the new branch are Lars Høglund, Rolf Danielsson and Sten Siegbhan, who are prominently known in the international trade.

Steve Yonkowski, national sales manager of Game Plan, advised that two additional foreign distributors were recently appointed to represent the company's product line. They are Freddy Bailey's Automatic Games & Music Co. Ltd. of Dublin, Ireland and Barry Noble (Coin Machines Ltd.) of England.

Valley Enters Pinball Market With 'Spectra IV'

BAY CITY, MICH. — The "Spectra IV" pinball table made its initial impact at the 1978 AMOA convention as one of the star attractions in the Valley Company exhibit. The introduction of this model marked the prominent pool table manufacturer's entry into the production of this type of equipment. Spectra IV has since become a much sought after game in both the domestic and foreign markets, as indicated by Valley's director of sales Emil Marcet.

The model offers the traditional pinball play features, is designed to comfortably seat four players and has a manually operated rotating table for complete player control.

automated except for 6-9 a.m. and p.m. The Capitol Cities outlet maintained its usual 2.0 share in the fall ARBs, although PD Jack Popejoy points to the station's #1 ranking in quarter hours per listener per week. Popejoy uses in-house call-out research and information from Burkhart/Abrams and tries to pay close attention to local as opposed to national sales.

"KZLA tries things out," says Chris Crist, Warner Bros. L.A. promotion director. "If it fits their format they keep it in, which is really all you can ask for."

Changes At K-West

Century Broadcasting's KWST (K-West) has undergone a number of format changes in recent years, from heavy-metal to soft-rock. The station is now being consulted by Tom Yates, who was responsible for much of KLOS' success a few years back. Yates describes the format as lifestyle AOR, "It's like a big party and the jock is the guy who brought the record player."

K-West operations director Steve Downs is another believer in the return of personality radio. "We recently overhauled our on-air staff because we wanted to make our personalities more important. We're making a concentrated effort to establish our personalities, but it takes a year to do it, at least."

"We've had a string of lousy books and that's why we made format and staff changes. But the key to our new format is quick adds with good rotation."

K-Earth Coming On

One station seen by many to be making headway on the crowded FM dial is RKO's KRTH (K-Earth). PD Bob Hamilton calls his format contemporary, aiming for 25-34s by day-parting and using a wide variety of research tools. Hamilton says music is the main thing on the former oldies station, with personality just an added feature.

K-Earth enjoyed a good book in the fall, with a half-point gain to a 3.0 share, an increase in cume share and a #1 ranking in men 25-34 (tied with KMET).

"K-Earth is moving up on the pop front," says Warner Bros. Crist, "and it's the station I'd most like to see on my disco records."

Former Drake-Chenault programming VP Lee Bailey became PD at Outlet Broadcasting's KIQQ, better known as FM-100, just before the fall book. He now calls his format Southern California young adult contemporary and says his target audience is women 18-34 and men 25-34.

"We won't battle KMET and the rest for the 18-24 men," says Bailey. "We're trying to turn our demos from a teen-oriented Top 40 to adult and we were real happy with the fall book." FM-100 had a 1.8 share in the fall ARBs.

AM Stations

Although FM listenership barely edged out AM for the first time in the fall book, few observers believe AM radio will be able to reverse the trend toward increased FM listening. Many believe that AM in L.A. can only survive with talk, news or highly specialized formats.

"There's no question but that AM's future in music is bleak," indicates KRLA's Laboe. "The handwriting is clearly on the wall — AM has to be innovative or it won't survive."

Laboe has taken his own advice to heart and KRLA has one of the most innovative formats on the dial. He calls it an oldies/contemporary mix with some subtle day-parting. But with the current disco craze in full force, Laboe has added disco, with a generous mix of old dance numbers, from 7 p.m. to 5 a.m., except for an hour of Elvis Presley from 11 to midnight.

"The disco thing's an experiment and there's still a thread of the regular format running through it with the oldies," notes

Laboe. "But we're the only AM disco station at night, so I'm anxious to see how we do in our first book (Jan.-Feb.) with disco."

In the fall book, KRLA had a respectable 2.6 average quarter hour share. The station is licensed to the Broadcast Foundation, an interim licensee waiting for seven license applicants to get together and form a new owner.

"We'll last as long as we give people what they want and can't get elsewhere," summarizes Laboe. "We're relatively safe because our audience isn't big enough to encourage competition. If someone took half our audience we'd both go broke."

Lame Duck Ten Q

Another station with a cloudy future, at least as a contemporary music station, is KTNQ (Ten Q). The personality Top 40 station has been sold to K-Love, Inc. and is expected to go all-Spanish this year, possibly in June.

PD Mike McVay reports that the spirit at Ten Q is quite high, despite the fact that the staff knows its days are numbered. And with virtually no promotion budget, Ten Q took a big jump in 18-24 men and finished behind only KMET in teens in the fall book, with a 2.1 average quarter hour share.

"I believe in research and personality going hand in hand," says McVay. Ten Q personalities include Charlie Tuna and Machine Gun Kelly.

Top Top 40s

While Ten Q sinks slowly in the West and KRLA clings to the past, KHJ and KFI are battling it out for AM supremacy.

KHJ, long the king of AM in L.A., is still the station most racks use to add their records, but the RKO station is slipping in the ratings. In the last ARBs, KHJ hit a five-book low in cume, lost ground in most demographics and fell almost a full point to 2.7 in average quarter hour share.

Where the station is headed following the recent firing on John Sebastian, who brought a touted passive research system to KHJ, is an often-heard question in L.A. music circles.

"What happens now at KHJ is going to be interesting," says one local promotion person. "It used to be if KHJ added your record you were home, but that doesn't exist anymore. Under Sebastian they were adding records off local sales, so I don't know how anyone could say they were selling their records. But they were adding more out of the box just before he got axed. KFI is the AM station for selling product."

According to PD John Rook, it was only this past summer that KFI, with the strongest signal in the market, switched to mass appeal in all seriousness.

"We're like a giant Sears with our clear channel signal," notes Rook.

KFI has one of the country's top morning teams. Lohman and Barkley, and Rook says that music and personality are equally important to the station. He also believes that KFI's entry into the pop arena in recent months has scared a lot of stations away.

"Since we entered the market as a true mass appeal station, KIIS has gone disco, Ten Q has quit, and KNX has added a lot of drama and new records. They're getting out of pop music because we're too tough, like WLS or WABC."

"There's new impact from KFI," says Cream promotion vice president Don Graham. "Six months ago there was no impact, but John Rook is winning with morning personalities mixed with Top 40, which everybody said couldn't be done. For years KFI was a sleeping giant, but Rook is waking them up."

"KFI is so strong it's hard to say how much they sell," adds RCA promotion director Chuck Thagard. "I've heard them in Seattle."

Rook believes that KFI is hurt in the ARBs because the L.A. market is considered by Arbitron to be only L.A. and Orange Counties. KFI does its sales from Arbitron's consolidated metro book, which adds Ventura County and the western parts of nearby Riverside and San Bernadino Counties.

"The only reason L.A. is limited to a two-county book, while San Francisco includes six counties and San Diego four, is because stations with signal problems have fought expansion tooth and nail," insists Rook. A spokesman for Arbitron says the reason only two counties are in the L.A. metro survey is that L.A. County is one of the largest in the country and Arbitron uses the Standard Market Statistical Area (SMSA) for its metro survey.

Black, R&B and Disco

Like Top 40, AOR, soft-rock and every other format, the black and disco stations are highly competitive in L.A.

"Before 1974, there was really only one black station in town, KGFJ," recalls Steve Woods, PD at KDAY, the leading black AM. "Now there's KDAY, KUTE-FM, KACE-FM, KJLH-FM and the Kat (KKT, formerly KGFJ) dividing the minority audience and sharing a lot of listeners."

Woods calls KDAY a black contemporary station, noting that his audience is 70% black, 20% white and 10% Spanish. KDAY moved up to a 2.5 average quarter hour share last book, and is rated #3 overall in the market in Burke's three-month sweep, according to Woods.

KDAY, owned by Rollins Broadcasting, went on the air in 1974 and its success forced AM competitor KGFJ to regroup and change its call letters last year to KKT, better known as the Kat. The Kat is in the process of being purchased by Inner City Broadcasting, along with its sister station, KUTE.

The Kat is now being programmed by Walt "Baby" Love, who describes the station's showing in the last book as "terrible."

Sister station KUTE, the first station in the market to jump on the disco bandwagon, is enjoying more success in the market. KUTE made a big jump in the spring book and held on in the fall with a 2.6 average quarter hour share and an increase in cume. KUTE's R&B/disco format is programmed by PD Bill Stevens, who does a lot of checking with other programmers around the country, such as KMJ-Q/Houston's Jim Maddox, in markets with large black populations.

But according to Walt Love, the black community is not the strictly loyal audience it was a few years ago.

"People have to realize that black people are more educated now and are listening to a wide variety of stations, like KMET and KHJ," argues Love. "It's not like it was for the old black R&B stations, which really ended five or six years ago, anyway."

Of course, the main difference from a few years ago is the explosion of disco on the scene. Although disco hasn't had the impact in L.A. that it's had in markets like New York, stations like KUTE, KKT and KDAY play a large percentage of disco.

KIIS-FM

One of the most talked about stations in L.A. is Combined Communications' KIIS-FM, which went all-disco in November, just after the fall sweep. Mike Wagner is the PD and the station is consulted by Burkhart/Abrams. But despite its disco format, most of the black stations in L.A. don't view KIIS as competition.

"Disco was started by black artists and was later patronized by the gay community," explains KDAY's Woods. "Disco is 95% black. KIIS refuses to play some songs that black people want to hear, Peabo Bryson and Funkadelic for example, and the teen and male demos especially want to hear that sound."

But others say that KIIS is already having an impact on the market.

"KUTE still is responsible for more sales, but KIIS is coming on very strong," says

London's Mazzetta. "The labels haven't been merchandising disco effectively here and KIIS' music director Sherman Cohen is talking to labels, indie distributors and retailers about improving their efforts to merchandise disco product. KIIS' potential is phenomenal because disco hasn't peaked yet here."

Among the stations competing for the black/disco audience, KACE and KJLH are cited by many record company promotion reps as factors in the market.

"KACE, with an improved signal under Alonzo Miller's guidance, has gone to progressive black music and has become a definite record-selling station," comments Cream's Graham. "And KJLH (recently purchased by Stevie Wonder) has a good signal and a great musical mix that I think is getting more listeners than the surveys show."

Jazz

Saul Levine's KKGO, formerly KBCA, is the top jazz station in L.A. Its only competition is from the many college and public stations in the area and, to a degree, KJLH. But KKGO, which is programmed by committee, is not a ratings giant.

"I think there are more jazz listeners than is reported," opines Gordon Potter, a member of KKGO's programming committee. "The in-bred, exclusive feel of jazz kept people away for a long time, but now, behind the success of artists like Chuck Mangione and George Benson, jazz is booming."

Other stations cited by record promoters for their impact in the market include KMPC, KROQ, and KLAC. KMPC, the Golden West Broadcasting outlet that has a large upper-demographic audience for its adult contemporary format, exposes a lot of product with its 60-song playlist.

KROQ is the most new wave oriented station in L.A. and it provides the only outlet for many albums that can't get on KMET and the other AORs. It has signal problems, but it is still strong in men 18-24.

KLAC is the top country station in the market. The Metromedia station enjoyed an excellent fall book, with a 3.9 average quarter hour share and big cume jump. Together with sister station KMET, it gives Metromedia an impressive one-two punch that doesn't compete with itself.

Constant Change

The stations discussed above represent less than a third of the stations on the dial in L.A. With so many signals in the market, one inevitable part of programming in L.A. is constant change.

"Unlike most of the rest of the country, on any given day any one of the 72 stations can get hot under a new format," says FM-100's Bailey. "So as a program director, it's one hell of a market to find out if you have it or not."

ROGERS & BOONE IN VEGAS — Kenny Rogers and Debby Boone share a congratulatory hug after their recent successful opening at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas, which resulted in capacity business for the hotel.
