COVER STORY

Contraband

BY ALEX HENDERSON

EVERYONE IN CONTRABAND HAS A TRACK RECORD. Contraband, whose self-titled debut album was recently released on Impact/MCA Records, is an all-star band boasting Michael Schenker on guitar, Vixen's Share Pedersen on bass, L.A. Guns' Tracii Guns on guitar, Ratt's Bobby Blotzer on drums and Richard Black (who's been making waves with the L.A. band Shark Island) on lead vocals.

"In effect, what we have with Contraband is a mutual admiration society," Blotzer notes. "We've all enjoyed one another's work over the years, and saw this as a chance to get together, play an album's worth of songs that we like, and have some fun... We thought of Share's right away... She's a tremendous player... I feel she's the equal to any player that's out there, and I've played with a lot of people."

Contraband ranges from originals like the furious rockers "Loud Guitars, Fast Cars & Wild, Wild Livin'," "Intimate Outrage" and "Kiss By Kiss" and the power ballad "Bad For Each Other" to covers of David Bowie's "Hang On To Yourself," Mott The Hoople's "All The Way To Memphis" and Roy Brown's "Good Rockin' Tonight." Guns points out, "It's basically a guitar album. It was an incredible thrill to play with Michael Schenker. I've probably copped more licks from him than any other guitarist alive. And wait'll everybody hears Richard's vocals—the guy is simply one of the best rock singers alive."

MOTOWN TO MCA: STOP, IN THE NAME OF THE LAW: Motown is suing MCA, Inc. over what Motown calls "its failure to live up to its agreement to distribute and promote Motown records." Motown asked that its distribution agreement with MCA, a partial owner of the company through its MCA Record Ventures subsidiary (Boston Ventures Management is the majority owner, with a 70% interest), be terminated.

The suit, filed in Los Angeles Superior Court, claims that, "If Motown (which retained artistic control after the sale) is to prosper and fulfill its potential, it must free itself from a distribution and service agreement that MCA consistently fails to perform." The suit accuses MCA of, among other things, failing to promote Motown artists to pop radio, failing to fulfill orders for the Do the Right Thing soundtrack and for overcharging Motown for CD manufacturing. Motown, which claims to have been attempting to settle this dispute amicably for the past year, calls the suit "a last resort attempt to protect Motown's legacy and its artists." Along with the termination of the distribution deal, Motown is seeking "tens of millions of dollars in damages." Motown—which was sold three years ago by founder Berry Gordy—is currently owned by affiliates of Boston Ventures Management, MCA Record Ventures, Diana Ross and Motown's president and CEO Jheryl Busby.

MCA called the suit "a disguised attempt by Boston Ventures...to renegotiate the agreement that it entered into with MCA when it purchased Motown with MCA three years ago... This lawsuit is one in which Boston Ventures is hiding behind the Motown partnership to sue its co-owner and managing partner and it will serve no purpose but to undermine and weaken the potential growth of Motown. The claims raised...have been invented to create a negotiating position and to assign blame to the wrong party for Motown's lack of success to date."

According to MCA, Boston Ventures, which it says "specializes in making short term investments in entertainment companies and then selling its ownership for profit within several years," is frustrated by the lack of return on its investment, noting that "Motown has not had a profitable year since the purchase of the company three years ago."

But Boston Ventures general partner Martha Crowninshield, voicing the company's support of Motown and denying that is in any way dissatisfied with Motown's performance, issued the following statement: "Boston Ventures is quite satisfied with Motown's financial performance on an operating basis... It is patently obvious that if Motown had not been forced to pay twice for its overhead when MCA failed to perform under the distribution agreement, Motown would be profitable. And, if MCA had adequately serviced Motown in the pop promotion field, Motown would be even more profitable still... Boston Ventures wishes to leave no doubt that it fully supports the vision and long-term goals of Jheryl Busby and his management team."

PYRAMID ENTERTAINMENT GROUP: In a major industry coup, Pyramid Entertainment Group has been selected to serve as the official booking agency for Hush Productions, formerly represented by the William Morris Agency. Pyramid Entertainment will now be the exclusive worldwide agents for Freddie Jackson, Melba Moore, Najee, Stacy Lattisaw, Eric Gable and a host of other prominent Hush artists.

According to Charles Huggins, president of Hush Productions, "When Allan Cooper left William Morris, it created a void for our artists. I feel that Sal Michaels (president of Pyramid) and the agents at Pyramid are best suited to provide the attention and sensitivity that we have grown accustomed to with Allan."

Of the new alliance with Hush, Sal Michaels said, "I have always had a lot of respect for Charles Huggins and his family of artists. He develops solid and lasting music careers. I look forward to our companies working very closely together."

These new Hush artists will join the scores of other celebrities represented by Pyramid. Pyramid's artists include Chaka Khan, Maceo Parker, Cameo, Kevin Paige, Chubb Rock, Adeva, Samantha Fox, John McLaughlin Trio, Frankie Beverly & Maze, Andy Summers, Kool & the Gang, La Toya Jackson, and Candyman.

■ SINGLES

□ LAMONT DOZIER: "Love In The Rain" (Atlantic PRCD 3899-2)

Though he's best known for his work as a member of the legendary Holland/Dozier/Holland team—which wrote hits for The Four Tops, Diana Ross & The Supremes, Marvin Gaye and others who recorded for Motown during the '60s—Lamont Dozier has recorded his share of solo projects over the years. "Love In The Rain," the first single from Dozier's self-produced Love In The Rain CD, is a romantic, sensuous mid-tempo item with a definite '70s soul flavor. Hopefully, both Black and pop radio will jump on this CD single.

□ JELLYBEAN: "Spillin' The Beans" (Atlantic PRCD 3890-2)

Atlantic takes dead aim at the dance and "urban" markets with the self-produced title track from Jellybean Benitez' Spillin' The Beans. This CD single contains two radio mixes and a dance mix. Niki Haris is heard on lead vocals, while James Brown is sampled once again. Serving as associate producers are John "Tokes" Potoker & Slick 180.

□ BABY WASHINGTON: "Is Our Love Worth Holdin' On" (Law-ton CXT-1625)

Justine "Baby" Washington, who's not a baby anymore, has a high-tech R&B song in "Is Our Love Worth Holdin' On." The song was produced by Old School hip-hopper Grandmaster Flash, with whom Washington wrote it. Flash is known for such classics as "The Message" and "Freedom."

■ ALBUMS

□ CONTRABAND: Contraband (Impact/MCA IPTD-10247)

Contraband is an all-star posse consisting of Michael Schenker (guitar); Vixen's Share Pedersen (bass); L.A. Guns' Tracii Guns (guitar); Ratt drummer Bobby Blotzer; and L.A. band Shark Island's head honcho Richard Black (lead vocals). Among the 10-song CD's

AOR-friendly highlights are the sledgehammer rockers "Loud Guitars, Fast Cars & Wild, Wild Livin'," "Intimate Outrage" and "Kiss By Kiss"; the power ballad "Bad For Each Other"; and covers of David Bowie's "Hang On To Yourself," Mott The Hoople's "All The Way To Memphis" and Roy Brown's "Good Rockin' Tonight." Contraband was produced by Kevin Beamish and Randy Nicklaus.

□ WOMACK & WOMACK: Family Spirit (RCA 3072-2-R)

Those in search of the latest L.A. & Babyface clones won't find them in Womack & Womack, whose self-produced Family Spirit has the integrity of '60s and '70s R&B but is hardly retro. Cecil & Linda Womack, relatives of soul legend Bobby Womack, don't shy away from social observations on "Living In A Different World" (which finds Bobby playing a somewhat Isley-ish guitar) and "Keep On Climbing." And the Womacks are equally effective on such soulful, earthy fare as "Danceworld," "My Dear" and "United (In Paradise)." Meanwhile, "Blue Jean Baby" is a straight-up blues song.

□ JOE PASQUALE: Prey (MCAD-10178)

Singer Joe Pasquale makes his MCA debut with Prey, a highly commercial CD. Prey's radio-friendly fare ranges from the relaxed pop of "Believin'," "On My Own," "Paint It Blue" and a cover of Chris Rea's "Fool If You Think It's Over"—songs that could fare well on both CHR and adult contemporary formats—to the more assertive pop-rock of "Love And Medication," "Circle Of Love" and "Faith Of An Age." Pasquale did much of the producing, although three of the CD's 10 songs were produced by Denny Diante. Among the guests are Martika, Paulinho Da Costa, Steve Lukather and The Waters.

□ TEMPER TEMPER: Temper Temper (Virgin 2-91668)

Temper Temper is a male-female R&B unit lead by lead singer Melanie Williams and keyboardist/vocalist Eric Gooden, who handle most of the the songwriting on this self-titled, 10-song CD. Among the CD's highlights are the ballad "Like We Used To" to the gospel-influenced "Happy Days" and the mid-tempo "I Don't Want To Have To Ask You" and the seductive "It's All Outta Lovin' You." As Temper Temper's producer, Gooden takes a high-tech approach and gives the CD a contemporary sound—but the project lacks the formulaic, calculated sound characteristic of other "urban contemporary" music.

□ TRES: Hold On To Your Dreams (Priority CDL 57113)

Priority is best known for a rap roster that boasts N.W.A and Ice Cube; but these days, the indie is branching out into rock, R&B and dance music. Tres, a female vocal trio consisting of the Puerto Rican siblings Glenda, Neida and Mari Torres, aims at the dance, R&B and pop markets with its commercial, slick debut album, Hold On To Your Dreams. "Dancin' On The Mezzanine," "I Can't Hang Any Longer" and "Let Me Feel Your Body" are among the CD's danceable cuts, while "Love Won't Keep Us Apart" is a pop ballad. Hold On To Your Dreams will inspire comparisons to Sweet Sensation, Saffire, Denise Lopez, etc. But unlike those artists, Tres writes its own material. Most of the album was produced by Steve & Marisa Bonilla, while Priority's Guy Manganiello serves as executive producer. For the Latin market, Priority has released a Spanish-language version of the CD.

□ CLAUS OGERMAN FEATURING MICHAEL BRECKER: Claus Ogerman Featuring Michael Brecker (GRP GRD-9628)

Despite the slickness producer Tommy LiPuma (who has worked with Miles Davis, Joe Sample and others) gives this jazz-fusion CD, tenor sax great Michael Brecker has meaty solos on conductor/arranger Claus Ogerman's compositions "Corfu," "Adonia" and "After The Fight." Other sidemen on the date include sibling Randy Brecker (trumpet), Alan Pasqua (keyboards), Marcus Miller (bass), Eddie Gomez (bass), Robben Ford (guitar), Vince Colaiuta (drums) and Paulinho DaCosta (percussion). Serving as executive producers are GRP head honchos Dave Grusin & Larry Rosen.

EAST COASTING

BY LEE JESKE

OH, SAY, CAN YOU SEE: That standing in the portals on the far left of this picture—which shows Larry Carlton tearing through “The Star Spangled Banner” at a recent Mets game—is one Eric Clapton. We kid you not. (Come to think of it, “Slowhand” isn’t a bad nickname for any of the Mets hitters this season.)

NOW HEAR THIS: EAR Magazine is a good magazine that writes about all those people that nobody else seems to write about: avant-gardists, experimentalists, oddballs, beggars, thieves and perverts. We applaud them. But applause is not what they need. Money is what they need. On Tuesday (that’s this Tuesday, May 21st), a bunch of EAR subjects—David Van Tieghem, the Kazue Sawai Koto Ensemble, the Les Miserables Brass Band and one John Cage—are going to assemble at Town Hall for a benefit for the magazine (to be followed by a “gala reception” for the well-heeled), as part of John Schaefer’s worthwhile “New Sounds” series. Go to the show. Support the alternatives, before they’re all gone.

SUMMERSTAGE, AND THE LIVING IS EASY: It’s back: the best summer concert series in New York. Best because it’s free. Best because it’s in Central Park. Best because it’s going to have such things as a Boozoo Chavis/Johnnie Johnson double bill, Los Lobos doing an acoustic set, Ken Kesey doing a reading, and Max Roach and Olodum and the Mekons and Lou Reed and more cool people than you can shake a frozen yogurt at. Best because this year, for the first time, food will be part of the picture (barbecue from Jimmy’s, Caribbean fare from Bahama Mama’s). Miller Lite and Best Health Soft Drinks are sponsoring the series, and we don’t mind telling you that. Rock-It Marketing put the sponsorship deals together for the Central Park Conservancy, and we don’t mind telling you that either. See you at Rumsey Playground (that’s just behind the still-in-renovation Bandshell, and a far better spot if you ask us).

MENTO AS ANYTHING: The Jolly Boys play an old, charming form of Jamaican folk music called Mento (it pre-dates ska and reggae and dance hall and what all else). They have just released a new album, Sunshine ‘N’ Water on First Warning/Rykodisc. It makes me smile (not an easy task these days). They’ll be touring the country all summer. Go see ‘em, they’ll make you smile, too.

SIMON REDUX: Remember John Simon—the guy who produced Music From Big Pink, The Band (one of the greatest albums in rock history, if you ask me), Bookends, Cheap Thrills and a whole bunch of other important records? Well, those of you who remember him might also remember that he was something of a singer-songwriter himself. Me, I can’t remember any of his songs (although he did have a couple of albums out), but he’s now performing them every Sunday at Wilson’s, Amsterdam Ave. and 79th St. The next move is up to you.

ROCKS AND GRAVEL: Beausoleil, one of our favorite bands, has signed to Rhino, one of our favorite labels. We are happy for all concerned. Cajun Conja, the first release, has Richard Thompson as guest... What can we say about Antonio Carlos Jobim going into the Songwriters Hall of Fame next week? It’s about time, that’s what... I liked the Madonna movie. I like Madonna. I can’t imagine why people have such violent reactions to her... Roy Rogers—the slide guitarist, not the cowboy—and Norton Buffalo—the harmonica player, not the beast—have signed to Blind Pig, the blues label. Blind Pig has also just inked its first gospel act, Oakland’s Gospel Hummingbirds... Speaking of gospel, the first volley from Fantasy Records new series of Specialty reissues (they purchased the label recently) is a stunning set of gospel CDs: The Swan Silvertones’ Love Lifted Me/My Rock, the Original Five Blind Boys of Alabama’s Oh Lord, Stand By Me/Marching Up to Zion, The Best of the Pilgrim Travelers, Dorothy Love Coates & the Original Gospel Harmonettes, and a compilation. Can I get a witness?. Coming next: Specialty anthologies of Guitar Slim, Don & Dewey, Sam Cooke & the Soul Stirrers, Lloyd Price, Floyd Dixon and Little Richard, all due later this month... Keep an eye peeled for Aurlus Mabele and Loketo, the wonderful soukous band currently on tour over here. And keep the other eye peeled for King of Soukous (Sound Wave), their rollicking new album... Good new Luther Vandross album. Real good. Really, really good... Remember Danceteria, that hot late-’70s/early ’80s nightspot (where Madonna gave a celebrated early performance)? Well, it’s back. It’s now at 29 E. 29th St. Remember M.K., the hottest place in town a few years ago. It’s closed, shuttered and for rent. The more times change...

LONDON CALLING

BY CHRISSY ILEY

COMMERCIAL CONSIDERATIONS: Cars, lager and Levis have got a lot to answer for: dragging drossy records out of the dustpan and onto the turntable. Almost infallibly, once a record is procured for an advert it becomes a bigger hit the second time around. The Righteous Brothers, The Steve Miller Band, Marvin Gaye, the horrible Hollies, and now the Clash. They managed two weeks at the Number One spot with “Should I Stay or Should I Go,” and when they were the punk rock gods they never managed a single within the Top Ten.

What does that tell us? That Radio One’s power as a service to the charts is dwindling? That you don’t have to sell as many units to find yourself with a Number One record? That you’re better off dead or defunct? Yes, all of those things.

Despite the tedious toiling that goes on in the marketing departments of the record companies, it is easier to have a hit without a band. Without a band there are no silly interviews with one of them shouting their mouths off looking stupid, without a band there is no bickering. There is, in fact, a unified image to buy into.

People buying the Clash record are not buying it because they like Joe Strummer’s bottom. It has become one with its product. Record buyers are buying into an image they think is cool. A rough rock and roll song homogenized with coarse-cut denim. It proves once again that the cut of a cloth wraps up the record and that fashion and music are inextricably linked. Image is what counts.

Despite the Clash song being 10 years old, having it at Number One makes it feel very now. It’s played everywhere, as were the beer songs and the car songs. So when people buy the record it’s not just the record they’re buying, it’s into that product.

There is another reason why those record company marketing departments may be facing a pointless existence, according to MCA’s big chief, Al Teller, a visionary who foresees a complete shift in the working methods of the music industry. He sees the whole game of making the demo tape and passing it hopefully on to the record company as extremely passe and altogether too slow for the mass consumption of the future.

“I don’t see the compact disc as the final evolutionary step in the delivery of music to the consumer. Whether it’s through fiber optics, cable or satellite, new systems will deliver CD quality music directly to the home, without manufacturing it, shipping it or retailing it. It seems perfectly feasible that instead of making garage band demo tapes for a record company, you might make an inexpensive but high quality digital recording, take it to your local satellite deliverer and sell your music without ever going to a record company."

So there you go: Death of the image maker. Death of Mr. Flash A&R Man and his marketing pals. Death of the hype. But does this mean death of the pop star?

In the meantime, you couldn't get more real than Rain, all vibrant tingly and trenchant guitars. All bright young things from Liverpool, on tour now with Green on Red.

STUDIO SAVAGERY: Duuuuuude! Elektra has a release date of August 12 for Metallica's long-awaited follow-up 1988's ... And Justice For All. Poindexter pop critics who diss the speed metalheads may find themselves bound and gagged with a skeezer's fishnets in a mosh pit... Combat/Earache has a release date of July 9 for thrash posse Morbid Angel's Blessed Are The Sick. Morbid Angel should not be confused with Death Angel, Dark Angel or Angelwitch... Yo! Bust this! Hardcore gangster-style L.A. rapper Ice-T's newly released fourth album, O.G. Original Gangster contains a punk rock song called "Body Count." Before the dopejam, Ice drops some science and explains that recording a rock song isn't an un-Black thing to do—especially when you consider that such founding fathers of rock as Little Richard and Chuck Berry are African-Americans. HIGHWAY TO HELL: The soap opera continues. The Black Crowes recently booted Maggie's Dream off their current U.S. tour—the reason being what Chris Robinson perceived as Maggie's Dream's "corporate ties" to Miller Beer. The Crowes had been booted off ZZ Top's tour, which was sponsored by Miller, because of Robinson's on-stage references to corporate sponsorship. The Crowes got booted and did some booting themselves—and folks in the Maggie's Dream camp are countering that The Crowes' actions were "unfair" and "irresponsible." While Maggie's Dream did provide a song for a Miller commercial, a press release from Capitol asserts, "In fact, Maggie's Dream is not financially supported or sponsored by Miller Beer nor any other corporation, and has received financial tour support only from Capitol Records." Capitol's press release goes on to quote Maggie's Dream manager Warren Entner as saying, "It's unfair that Maggie's Dream has become victims of an argument between ZZ Top, Miller Beer and the Black Crowes. It's become increasingly difficult for a band to survive and progress in this industry, and we chose to participate in a national ad campaign to help expose the music of Maggie's Dream. Maggie's Dream are not 'sponsored' by anybody, and it's irresponsible and unethical for The Black Crowes to make such a claim. The only crime here is that The Black Crowes' game-playing is overshadowing the music and integrity of Maggie's Dream." In a previous press release courtesy of Levine Schneider Public Relations, Robinson was quoted as saying, "At this point, I don't think we should even have to say it—The Black Crowes don't want anything to do with sponsorships in any form. That just so happens to mean that when we're headlining, we don't want our opening band to be sponsored by anyone... If you're gonna sing in commercials, do it. If you wanna play rock & roll, you can come sing with us..." Marshall Crenshaw, whose Life's Too Short album was due out on Paradox/MCA on May 14, is scheduled to begin an American tour with shows at the Bearsville Theatre in Bearsville, New York and at Noo Yawk City's Village Gate on May 29... Jeff Dahl is planning a European tour in support of his new Triple X offering, Ultra Under. The tour should begin not long after a show at AI's Bar in smoggy L.A. on May 25. Dahl's band includes labelmate Rikk Agnew (formerly of L.A. punk posers Christian Death and The Adolescents) on lead guitar and vocals; John Duffy on bass for yo' face; and Billy Vockeroth of Angry Samoans fame (or infamy) on drums...

ROCKER HISTORY: Rykodisc has reissued two more classics from the David Bowie catalog: 1975's Young Americans and 1976's Station To Station. Many white pop critics, in their abysmal ignorance and racism, have treated R&B/soul as though it were inferior to rock when in fact, The Rolling Stones, Led Zeppelin, Rod Stewart, Elton John, The Pretenders and numerous other rockers have proudly acknowledged their debt to soul music. Bowie was no exception. Recorded at Philly's Sigma Sound—where many a Gamble & Huff production was recorded—Young Americans underscores Bowie's love of soul/R&B. The ominous funk song "Fame" became a major hit in both the soul and rock markets. In fact, Bowie lip-synched the song on Soul Train. "Fascination" is a too-damn-funky cut that could and should have been a soul hit, and the smooth, mid-tempo "Right" would have worked well on a Marvin Gaye, Curtis Mayfield or Willie Hutch album. But Young Americans, which boasts a pre-solo career Luther Vandross on background vocals, isn't devoid of pop and rock elements—the CD also contains Bowie's captivating remake of The Beatles' "Across The Universe" that features vocals and guitar by John Lennon. The CD's three bonus tracks are "John, I'm Only Dancing Again," a 1974 version of a soul-influenced song Bowie recorded different versions of; and two previously unreleased pop ballads from 1974, "Who Can I Be Now?" and "It's Gonna Be Me" ... Station To Station isn't as consistently soul-influenced as Young Americans; nor is it devoid of soul touches. Station To Station, of course, is best known for the hit "Golden Years"—perhaps the CD's most soul-influenced track. But also quite appealing are the theatrical "Word On A Wing"; the haunting "Wild Is The Wind"; and "Stay" and the title track, both of which are eerie pop-rock numbers with a touch of funk. For bonus tracks, Ryko provides live versions of "Stay" and "Word On A Wing" recorded on the Station To Station Tour... Young Americans and Station To Station join the long list of Bowie titles Ryko has reissued on CD—including Ziggy Stardust, The Man Who Fell To Earth, Space Oddity, Aladdin Sane, Pinups, Diamond Dogs and David Live. And in Ryko's next batch of Bowie reissues, be on the lookout for Low, Heroes and Lodger. Yeah, Bowieeeeeeeee...

The homies' Ain't A Damn Thing Changed album, which may be out in mid-summer, will include a song titled "Fk Daddy"—which cold disses the type of men who want nothing to do with the children they help create. "Behind Closed Doors" deals with an issue that has been examined more than once in hip-hop: police brutality...

ENJA: Mesa/Bluemoon Recordings, who provide domestic distribution for the German jazz label Enja, recently reissued two def titles on CD: Freddie

Freddie Hubbard

Jane Ira Bloom

Hubbard's Outpost and Jane Ira Bloom's Mighty Lights. When inspired, Hubbard's been among the most expressive trumpeters in the post-Clifford Brown tradition—a fact illustrated by Outpost. The acoustic post-bop date ranges from the modal intensity of Hub's numbers "Santa Anna Winds" and "The Outpost Blues" and Eric Dolphy's "Loss" to a soulful reading of the pop standard "You Don't Know What Love Is"... Recorded before Bloom began experimenting with live electronics, 1982's Mighty Lights presents the soprano saxophonist leading an acoustic quartet with Fred Hersch on piano, Charlie Haden on bass and Ed Blackwell on drums. Among the post-bop Bloom originals are the impressionistic "Lost In The Stars"; "The Man With The Glasses," a haunting pretty number inspired by Bill Evans; and the humorous, quirky "I Got Rhythm But No Melody"...

MAXINE SULLIVAN & HER JAZZ ALL-STARS: A Tribute To Andy Razaf (DCC Jazz DJZ-610)

Leonard Feather is best known for his work as a journalist, but his background also includes songwriting and producing—a fine example of the latter being Maxine Sullivan's 1956 recording for Period Records, A Tribute To Andy Razaf. Thanks to DCC Compact Classics, this long out of print gem has been rescued from obscurity and given new life on CD. Sullivan's love of Andy Razaf is evident as she embraces the lyrics he wrote for music associated with Fats Waller ("Ain't Misbehavin'," "Honeysuckle Rose," "Keepin' Out Of Mischief Now"), Edgar Sampson & Benny Goodman ("Stompin' At The Savoy"), Eubie Blake ("Memories Of You") and others. But thankfully, Sullivan's own soulful personality is very much in evidence, making this an individualistic tribute instead of a cliched one. Sidemen on this five-star date include Charlie Shavers (trumpet), Buster Bailey (clarinet), Jerome Richardson (alto & tenor sax), Dick Hyman (piano), Milt Hinton (bass) and Osie Johnson (drums).

SHIRLEY BROWN: Timeless (Malaco MAL 7459)

Shirley Brown is best known for her

1974 hit "Woman To Woman"; and 17 years later, the gutsy belter is still providing passionate soul music. While every song on the nine-track CD Timeless is a winner, special mention should be made of the moving ballad "I Had A Talk With My Man"; the mid-tempo "Share Your Love" and a cover of Al Green's "Still In Love With You." Despite some high-tech touches here and there, Brown remains true to the blues-and-gospel basics that made soul music so thrilling during the 1960s and '70s.

THE GEORGE ADAMS/DON PULLEN QUARTET: Decisions (Timeless CD SJP 205)

George Adams is a master of bringing a gospel feel to mainstream jazz—an example being the tenor saxman's reading of the traditional "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" appearing on Decisions, recorded in 1984 and recently reissued on CD. But that's only part of what Adams and pianist Don Pullen (who are accompanied by Camerson Brown on bass and Dannie Richmond on drums) do on Decisions, which ranges from the mellifluous "Triple Over Time" to "Message Urgent" (an intense number that finds Pullen in an almost Cecil Taylor-ish frenzy) to the CD's only non-instrumental "I Could Really Go For You," a jazz-blues piece boasting Adams on vocals. Russ Musto, the Dutch Timeless label's American connection, can be reached at (212) 529-3655.

B.K.A.: Clever (Profile PCD-1405)

Yo! Hardcore rap duo B.K.A. kicks crazy knowledge on its debut album, Clever. While B.K.A. does its share of boasting, dopejams like "Stay Free," "Kick The Peace," "Take Your Time" and "The Given" drop positive science and give drugs and urban violence the gas face. Xuriss Clark's production is hard, yet homie gives a melodic and harmonic appeal to "Stay Free" and other songs on the 10-track CD.

BROWNIE FORD: Songs From Mountains, Swamps & Honky Tonks (Flying Fish 70559)

Ah reckon that if y'all are interested in hearin' traditional cowboy music, ya might wanna spin Brownie Ford's Songs From Mountains, Swamps & Honky Tonks. The CD's 23 songs aren't modern, Nashville-style country music, but they are the type of songs that certainly influenced it. Like rappers and bluesmen,

Ford is a first-rate storyteller who embraces lyrics focusing on various aspects of American life—and just as a b-boy convincingly raps about life in the projects, Ford sings about Mountains, Swamps & Honky Tonks like he's been there. Y'all come back now, y'hear?

RITA MARLEY: We Must Carry On (Shanachie 43082)

Like rap and salsa, reggae is a male-dominated genre; Rita Marley's work on We Must Carry On makes one wish that weren't the case. "Who Colt the Game," "So Much Things To Say," "I Know A Place" and other songs written or co-written by Rita and/or her late husband Bob Marley recall the simplicity and earthiness of '60s soul music and illustrate R&B's impact on Jah Music. Rita produced most of this CD with Winston Holness. Cool runnin's inna Jah-Maica, mon.

HAL GALPER TRIO: Invitation To A Concert (Concord Jazz CCD-4455)

Despite what its title infers, jazz pianist Hal Galper's Invitation To A Concert wasn't recorded live in a concert hall, but rather, was recorded "live in the studio." The hour-plus CD's title may be misleading, but the music—expressive acoustic bop and post-bop—speaks the truth. Like Tom Harrell, Galper has benefitted greatly from his association with alto sax master Phil Woods. The acoustic pianist (who's joined by Todd Coolman on bass and Steve Ellington on drums) shows his sensitive, lyrical side on the ballads "What's New" and "It Never Was You," but swings intensely on "Hey There." Invitation To A Concert was produced by Concord Jazz president Carl Jefferson.

VARIOUS ARTISTS: KFOG Presents M. Dung's Idiot Show Classics (Rhino R2 70794)

The type of fun '50s and '60s rock and soul that wacky deejay M. Dung plays on his Idiot Show on San Francisco's KFOG-FM is the focus of this 18-track CD, which boasts such goodies as The Kingsmen's "Louie Louie," The Beach Boys' "I Get Around," The Troggs' "Wild Thing," The Hollywood Argyles' "Alley-Oop," The Five Du-Tones' "Shake A Tail Feather," The Surfari's "Wipe Out" and The Trashmen's "Surfin' Bird."

VARIOUS ARTISTS: Club MTV Party To Go, Volume 1 (Tommy Boy TBCD 1037)

R&B, dance music and rap are among the styles heard on this compilation. The 12-track CD leans toward the danceable side of rap with MC Hammer's "Turn This Mutha Out," Digital Underground's "The Humpty Dance" and Vanilla Ice's "Play That Funky Music." And on the dance and/or R&B/pop tips, songs provided include Paula Abdul's "Knocked Out," Bell Biv DeVoe's "Poison," Tony! Toni! Tone's "Feels Good," Information Society's "Think" and DNA & Suzanne Vega's "Tom's Diner."

COCINANDO

BY TONY SABOURNIN

OUR SUBSCRIBERS MUST BE LOOKING FOR OUR COMMENTS ON the hottest issue in Puerto Rico. No it isn't Iris Chacón's bankruptcy case, where La Coolísima and her husband Junior Farías are seeking legal protection against a reported $2.6 million in debts. Nor is it the Tommy Olivencia situation, where the renowned bandleader and his son were arrested by members of the island's Anti-Drug Task Force for the alleged sale of a controlled substance to an undercover operator.

No. The hot topic this week is former Capitol/EMI-Latin executive Benito ("Tim") Valdéz's $350,000 lawsuit against Capitol Industries-EMI, Inc.. According to papers filed in the U.S. District Court in Puerto Rico, the plaintiff was offered a guaranteed position by the label on Nov. 17, 1987 and terminated on July 21, 1989 due to his "refusal to provide a list of broadcasters and/or program directors who would be willing to accept monetary payments in exchange for the playing of their records." Valdéz was not notified of his termination until Aug. 4, 1989.

There was a part of me that didn't totally buy the idea of this lawsuit. For instance, why did Valdéz wait almost two years before bringing his case to court? A Puerto Rican lawyer familiar with the case told me that it wasn't that strange. "A good lawyer," he told me under the condition of anonymity, citing business etiquette, "checks the accuracy of the facts presented by the client."

I tried to pose the question to Valdéz but, naturally, he referred us to his lawyer Peter John Porrata. Before that, however, I managed to talk to Miguel Rivera Puig from El Vocero, who wrote the article on Valdéz' lawsuit. He said that Porrata is a very respected jurist in the federal courts with solid experience from his days in the Brooklyn D.A.'s office. Therefore, Rivera Puig surmised, Porrata must have "some sort of a case."

Porrata, indeed, confirmed that the period between the firing and the filing of the lawsuit were consumed in paper work, document exchanges and facts corroboration. However, another island lawyer familiar with the case said that Porrata had a good chance to establish damages in the breach of contract action.

"Especially if analyzed from the economic view that Puerto Rico's per capita consumption index is far higher than the Dominican Republic's," said the lawyer referring to Valdéz's previous country of residence. The legal savant, who also spoke anonymously, volunteered that Porrata was perhaps the only lawyer to beat a Puerto Rican broadcaster (WQBS) while still a student. "Therefore, he knows the ins and outs of the entertainment law field."

Moreover, the second lawyer concluded, the case will be further established by the fact that although Valdéz is currently employed at Sonotone—an ameliorating element in the damages claim—in his current position he makes less than his previous salary, and has less of a corporate title or a promised future with CEL. This doesn't include the loss of image in the close-knit Puerto Rican music community, which collectively noses in everyone's individual farts.

If I were CEL, I'd cut my losses and do a quiet, out-of-court, documents-sealed, all-parties-gagged settlement with Valdéz for his trans-island inconveniences. And without any admission of guilt on the label's part, of course. (I'd also stand by Olivencia, a recent CEL signee, in his time of need. But that's also asking for human decency.) If not settled, the Valdéz case, is bound to drag on for several years. The label doesn't need the protracted bad publicity it will generate. Trust me. La Isla's hungry media will chew on every bit of the payola issue the way pirañas work the flesh. El Vocero's Rivera Puig put it best.

"For years everyone has talked about the payola problems existing in Puerto Rico. This is the first time someone has raised the issue to a legal dispute."

"PACO IS MY NAME, DISCO'S MY GAME... AQUI CON PAQUITO NAVARRO, MAS SALSA QUE PESCA'O." They are two of the most identifiable radio slogans for Hispa-Yorkers in the thirty- or forty-something brackets. The speaker, Puerto Rico-native Francisco Manuel Navarro—alias Paquito Navarro, aka Paco—was one of the most influential radio personalities in La Gran Apple.

Back in the mid '60s, when salsa was something Goya Foods was struggling to sell through any means, WHOM-AM was the womb of the hot-shots and soon-to-be industry powers. Paquito Navarro worked WHOM's 3 pm shift, warming up the cackles of many young female factory workers who breathed heavy upon listening to his rich baritone, and, in the process, assisting to chisel the term into the public's consciousness and the cultural history's annals.

With the advent of disco and looking for new challenges, Paquito jumped at the opportunity to start all over again with a new name (Paco) at the city's first 24-hour disco station, WKTU-FM. The ratings results were overwhelming, as KTU blew the Arbitrons off long time popular king, WBLS' fabled Frankie Crocker. But disco left with the same vigor with which it came, leaving many victims in its path, including Paco.

He went back to WKTU's Spanish-language sister station, WJIT, as program director. He tried to steer the station through a very competitive period where, for the first time, there were four stations, all vying for non-increasing ad dollars. By then Paquito/Paco was a kinder and gentler man who had seen the many points of light and was willing to give everyone a fair shot.

Paco has been off the scene for the past five years. Those who know why Paco has been away don't need to be reminded. And those who don't know don't need to. After the history lesson and the stirring memories there's one happy fact: Paco will be back among us soon.

I know that out there, in this vast universe we call the Latin music industry, there must be several stations or labels that could use his industry savvy, mike talents and the still immense audience he carries in La Gran Apple.

ON JAZZ

BY LEE JESKE

HEAVYWEIGHTS: Four of these men have just finished making an album for Chesky Records. The other three helped them make it. The seven men are (from left): Steve Kaiser, Norman Chesky, McCoy Tyner, Al Foster, Ron Carter, Joe Henderson and David Chesky.

JEFFERSON PARISH: Carl Jefferson, the man behind Concord Jazz, has begun a new record label, The Jazz Alliance, to acquire and distribute independently-made (usually musician-produced and financed) jazz albums. The idea is to snuff around for fine albums with limited distribution and to give them the benefit of Concord's distribution network. A worthy idea, it would seem. And there's already a subsidiary: All Art Jazz, to specifically put out albums recorded by Japan's All Art Records.

Phil Sheridan has come aboard as vice president/general manager, to take care of this stuff. First out on Jazz Alliance: The Dave McMurdo Jazz Orchestra, a Canadian big band, and The Brass Connection, a Canadian five-trombone ensemble. First out on All Art Jazz: Hank Jones/Shelly Manne/George Duvivier In Japan and Roger Kellaway/John Goldsby/Terry Clarke/Valery Ponomarev In Japan.

Q TIPS: Quincy Jones, for some reason, has signed on as co-producer (with founder Claude Nobbs) of the Montreux Jazz Festival for the next three years. Montreux, of course, is not just a jazz festival: it's a general pop music festival with an emphasis on jazz that sometimes seems to exist to provide live concert and video recordings. Well, this year, the festival's 25th anniversary, is going to produce a bonanza of such materials. It's all being taped in HDTV and some of the programs scheduled are, to put it mildly, mind-boggling. The festival runs from July 2 - July 21, but check out some of these bills (all held in the hot, cramped 3,500-seat Casino):

July 7: "Brasil" with Maria Bethania, Gal Costa, Milton Nascimento and Ney Matogrosso.

July 8: Quincy Jones conducting the George Gruntz Big Band in the arrangements of Gil Evans for Miles Davis, with Miles as soloist!

July 9: "Dance Party" with James Brown, George Clinton, Deee-Lite with Bootsy Collins, and Mahlatini & the Mahotella Queens.

July 10: Bonnie Raitt, Elvis Costello and Etta James.

July 17: "Jazz Night With Quincy Jones" with (among others), Ray Charles, the Count Basie Band, Herbie Hancock, Johnny Griffin, Clark Terry, Toots Thielemans, Jon Hendricks, Al Jarreau, Leon Thomas, Ernestine Anderson, George Benson, Ice T, Big Daddy Kane and Kool Moe Dee!

July 18: Anita Baker singing Billie Holiday and Sarah Vaughan.

July 20: The Dirty Dozen Brass Band, the Marsalis Family, Allen Toussaint, the Wild Magnolias, the ReBirth Brass Band and Champion Jack Dupree.

July 21: "Gospel Summit" with Andrae Crouch, the Mighty Clouds of Joy, the Gospel Choir of Atlanta, Jesse Jackson, Tramaine Hawkins, Billy Preston, the Winans and the Barrett Sisters.

Etcetera.

ALL THE NEWS...: The New York Times has recently begun publishing a compendium of short reviews every day under such headings as "Theatre in Review," "Film in Review," etc. For some reason, classical music reviews appear under the sensible heading, "Music in Review." But anything else (pop, jazz, rock, reggae) goes under "Pop in Review." Yo-Yo Ma makes "Music." Dizzy Gillespie makes "Pop." To new arts editor Paul Goldberger: Wake up!

Also, I'd like to mention Billy Taylor's CBS Sunday Morning story on Leonard Feather. It's about time that somebody paid attention to those who cover the music, along with those who make the music. Feather, who has astonishingly been doing this for more than 50 years, deserved the profile, which, typically, was tidy and entertaining.

IMPULSE REISSUES, TAKE THREE: MCA is once again revved up to reissue Impulse! Records, something it has been doing periodically since Ricky Schultz haphazardly began putting these things on CD five years ago. Schultz is now at Warner Bros., GRP is currently in control of the MCA jazz stuff and Michael Cuscuna—the Blue Note/Mosaic man—has been brought in to do the Impulse! reissues. As they say, "Couldn't hurt."

The first fruits of Cuscuna's labors are upon us, and, in typical Cuscuna style, they manage to collate stray odds and ends to beef up the albums. The major showpiece of this new set is John Coltrane Live in Japan, a four-CD set of Coltrane circa 1966, most of which has only been available in Japan. It's Coltrane at his rawest and most explosively self-indulgent (it's the band with Pharoah Sanders, Alice Coltrane, Rashied Ali and Jimmy Garrison and one of the things they do is "My Favorite Things"—for an hour!). The other major showpiece is a fancily-packaged (like last year's Sinatra set on Reprise) two-CD Impulse! compilation.

Also out: Oliver Nelson's Sound Pieces, Coltrane and Archie Shepp (separately) on New Things at Newport (with a stray Shepp track), McCoy Tyner's Today and Tomorrow (with some added trio sides) and Stanley Turrentine's Let It Go (with three added songs).

COOKIN': Here's Billy Strayhorn's recipe for beans and beer, which was published in the Al Cohn Memorial Collection newsletter, courtesy of Clark Terry: "You take the beans and cover them with beer. Remember, the better the beer, the better the beans. The next day you cook the beans in the beer. If the beans soak up some of the beer, just add more beer. Then, you put in your ham hock or turkey wings, or whatever, and cook them slowly for a long, long time. You've never tasted better beans or, for that matter, better beer!"

RHYTHM & BLUES

BY ALEX HENDERSON

THE HARDEST WORKIN' CDs IN SHOW BUSINESS: Are you ready to get down? I said, are you ready to get down? Well, lemme here ya say "Yeah!" Say "Hell yeah!" Put your funky hands together one time for The Godfather Of Soul, The Hardest Workin' Man In Show Business, Mr. Dynamite, Mr. Please Please himself—Jaaaaaaaames Brown!!!

James Brown

What do Miles Davis, Prince, The Rolling Stones, Ornette Coleman, Public Enemy, George Clinton, Black Uhuru, Chic, Herbie Hancock and Donna Summer have in common? They've all been influenced either directly or indirectly by The King Of Soul? To say that The Godfather has had an enormous influence on music during the last 30 years is an understatement. His influence on soul, funk and go-go is evident—just listen to Parliament/ Funkadelic, Sly & The Family Stone, The Ohio Players, Teena Marie, Tower Of Power, Rick James, Trouble Funk and numerous others. In disco and dance music, everyone from Inner City to Dead or Alive Jimmy Somerville owes him an artistic debt for revolutionizing repetition. It goes without saying that he's the most sampled man in rap, and it's also noteworthy how much he's been sampled in house music...

But he's also had an impact on the jazz-fusion of Miles Davis, Ornette Coleman & Prime Time, Herbie Hancock, The Crusaders, Chick Corea, Grover Washington, Jr., Ronald Shannon Jackson, Joe Farrell, Lonnie Liston Smith and others. And David Bowie, The Rolling Stones, Led Zeppelin, The Pretenders and Aerosmith are among the many rockers he's inspired.

I could go on and on. But if you want proof positive, just listen to Star Time—a four-CD boxed set recently released by PolyGram. Star Time opens with the 1956 hit "Please, Please, Please" and closes with his 1984 duet with Afrika Bambaataa "Unity." There are no dull moments on Star Time—most of the material is outstanding, and at its worst, Star Time is good.

From the '50s and early '60s, you'll hear his pre-funk classics "Try Me," "I'll Go Crazy," "Think," "Prisoner Of Love," "Lost Someone," "Bewildered," "Good Good Lovin'," "Why Do You Do Me," "Tell Me What I Did Wrong" and his interpretation of Jimmy Forrest's jazz/R&B hit "Night Train—a song based on Duke Ellington's "Happy Go Lucky Local." But good God, y'all! Those songs only scratch the surface—the long list of subsequent hits on Star Time (many of them straight-up funk) also includes "Papa's Got A Brand New Bag," "It's A Man's Man's Man's World," "I Got You (I Feel Good)," "Make It Funky," "Cold Sweat," "Out Of Sight," "Papa Don't Take No Mess," "I Got The Feelin'," "I Can't Stand Myself," "Get On The Good Foot," "Mother Popcorn," "Super Bad," "Hot Pants," "Sex Machine," "Body Heat," "Soul Power," "My Thang," "There It Is," "Get Up Offa That Thing" and "Licking Stick."

Brown's recent incarceration doesn't negate the fact that he's long been and remains the embodiment of Black pride. When Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was assassinated in 1968, The King Of Soul stressed that rioting and violence would only work against the African-American community. Among the messages songs presented on Star Time are his #1 R&B hit of 1968 "Say It Loud I'm Black And I'm Proud"; "I Don't Want Nobody To Give Me Nothing (Open Up the Door I'll Get It Myself)," a smoker encouraging African-American self-sufficiency; "King Heroin," which decried junk's viciousness; and "Don't Be A Dropout," a stay-in-school thang. Star Time also boasts such previously unreleased soul food as an almost-seven-minute take of "Papa's Got A Brand New Bag"; a live "There Was A Time" from 1968; and a mix of "It's A Man's Man's Man's World."

It's hard to believe that as much as The Godfather has accomplished, he has his detractors. But if Stanley Crouch, Wynton Marsalis or anyone else has a problem with Star Time, they can get the gas face and the bozack. Suckers who diss JB should try to accomplish even a fraction of the things he has.

But don't take my word for it. Pop any of the four discs in your CD player, and you just might jump back and kiss yourself. You just might wanna get on up, get down and get funky. You might get ants in your pants and need to dance. You might wanna get on up and work that thang like a sex machine.

'Nuff said. Can I hit and quit it? Yeah! Said can I hit it and quit it? Yeah! One, two, three! Owwwwwwwwww!

RAP/DANCE

BY BRYAN DEVANEY

THE FIRST, FIRST, FIRST...: L.L. Cool J, has now become the first rapper to ever to appear on MTV's Unplugged (May 1, 1991). First rapper to hit with four consecutive RIAA platinum albums! First rapper to star as an undercover cop in a Hollywood movie, The Hard Way!

On a "Quik" rise, Profile recording artist "D.J. Quik" just went gold with his debut album Quik is the Name. Currently, he has been given the privilege of being the first rap artist to have his billboard up on the world famous Sunset Strip in Hollywood, California. The large 14' by 48' billboard can be seen at the intersection of Sunset and Horn Avenue.

SUMMERTIME IS ON THE AIR: Rap recording artists D.J. Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince will world-premier their new single and video, "Summertime," on The Fresh Prince Of Bel-Air May 20th. The program airs at 8 p.m. EST, 7 p.m. Central on NBC. It's the first single from the first album these multiplatinum, Grammy Award winning artists are releasing since Fresh Prince Will Smith began his acting career on this tailor-made television series, which has recently been renewed for another season. The as yet untitled new album will be in stores on July 9th.

GEORGE BENSON—I had the pleasure of meeting Grammy-award winning guitarist/vocalist/writer/co-producer George Benson (Warner Bros.) in L.A. this week at Bill Schnee's North Hollywood Studios. Top engineers Al Schmitt (doing the L.A. and Hawaii tracks), Richard Kaye (who did the N.Y. tracks), and some of the best session players in the business (like the East brothers, respectively on bass and keyboards, and Paulino de Costa on percussion), Benson and co-producer/writer Charles Wallert were doing rhythm and string dates for the new album. This project has some of the most diverse arrangers in the business, such as Lee Holdridge, Joseph Joubert, Claude Gaudette and Don Sebesky. Also, great writers like Jimmy George ("I'll Always Love You" by James Taylor and "Just To See Her" by Smokey Robinson) contributed "Love of My Life" and "N.Y. City," Wallert's title cut "Meant To Be In Love," and "The One For Me," co-written by Benson and Dan Hill are just a few of the gems that round out this great project. Meant To Be In Love is scheduled for a September release. Keep your ears open for it, it's special!...

INTERNATIONAL ROCK AWARDS 6/12—Nominees for the 3rd Annual "International Rock Awards" were announced by Rock, Inc. executives Anthony Eaton, Peter Grosslight and William Zysblat. The 90 minute special will be broadcast via satellite from the London Arena in London, England on June 12, at 9:30 pm (EST/PST) on ABC-TV. Last year's event, which included performances by The Rolling Stones, David Bowie, and Eric Clapton among others, was seen in over 50 countries by 75 million viewers. Nominees were announced in each category, with winners receiving the coveted "Elvis" statuette. The "Artist of the Year" nominees are The Black Crowes, Phil Collins, INXS, Jane's Addiction, Living Colour and Neil Young & Crazy Horse. In the "Album of the Year" category, Midnight Oil's Blue Sky Mining heads the list that also includes Goodbye Jumbo by World Party, Neil Young & Crazy Horse's Ragged Glory, The Black Crowes' Shake Your Money Maker and X, by INXS. Contenders for the "MVP Male Vocal" award include Phil Collins, Michael Hutchence (INXS), Chris Isaak, Van Morrison, Sting and Neil Young. The "MVP Female Vocal" nominee list consists of Neneh Cherry, Chrissie Hynde, Chynna Phillips (Wilson Phillips), Lisa Stansfield and Tanita Tikaram. Other categories include "MVP" for keyboards and bass and "Media Event of the Year." The distinguished list of nominees for the "Songwriter of the Year" consists of Don Henley, Chris Isaak, Van Morrison, Paul Simon and Neil Young. The "Newcomer of the Year" list includes Happy Mondays, Jesus Jones, Lisa Stansfield, The Sundays and Wilson Phillips. Last years winners were Aerosmith for "The Artist of the Year," Don Henley for "Songwriter of the Year," The Rolling Stones for "Tour of the Year," Steven Tyler for "MVP Lead Male Singer," and Bonnie Raitt for "MVP Lead Female Singer." The past recipients of the "Living Legend Award" are Keith Richards ('89) and Eric Clapton ('90)...

ICE-T—With three gold albums, his just-released fourth Sire Records release, O.G.—Original Gangster, and a starring part in the "hot" box-office hit New Jack City, you'd think Ice-T would be takin' a break. That's not even close. He's just completed work on the upcoming Joel Silver (Die Hard, Lethal Weapon) film Ricochet, in which he stars with Denzel Washington. The movie is slated for release in early '92. Ice-T's early experience in film included a supporting role in 1984's Breakin', and later composing the title track to the gang-war drama Colors. This summer he will be fronting a metal band called Body Count (Sire), and joined by Jane's Addiction, Living Colour, Nine Inch Nails, and other acts in an arts/entertainment/information festival called "Lollapalooza," that begins touring on July 19, in Phoenix, Arizona. Also, he is directing work on his own long-form music video, scheduled for release in several months, and recently directed a video for the band Hijack. Ice-T is an outspoken and sometimes controversial opponent of censorship in music and the PMRC. He has spoken before the Congressional Black Caucus about the L.A. gang situation. His music exposes urban realities with which he is all too familiar. In his upcoming O.G. album, Ice-T sends the message, "No one lives in the ghetto by choice. Go to school, build your brain. Escape the killing fields."...

CITY SCENE—Producers Theresa Muser and Kristen Daggert of Orion Films, and director Susan Nestor have created an education video about the music business in L.A., intended for all those interested in the how and why, the ins and outs, and the do's and don't's of our complex yet compelling industry. Sharing their experience and knowledge are KROQ DJ Richard Blade, Music Connection senior editor Kenny Kerner, manager of West Coast A&R for Atlantic Records Kevin Williamson, Rhino Records A&R rep Ted Myers, record producer Lee Curreri, "street-wise" songwriter/manager Joey Alkes, Venice Magazine publisher Walter Martinez and some of the members of Relativity Records group They Eat Their Own, are but a few of the contributors. The video is set to air nationally on the Continental Cable show City Scene...

CHECK IT OUT DEPT.—Marc Cohn's (Atlantic) debut single "Walking In Memphis" is gonna be a monster. The self-titled album has already sold over 110,000 copies. This piano-playing singer/songwriter is gonna be a star!...

HOLLYWOOD STARR: WEA-distributed Hollywood Records, a Disney venture, has signed a custom label deal with producer Maurice Starr. A joint venture, Boston International Records' first signing is 17-year-old Rick Wes, who, according to Starr, is a "James Dean look-alike with a deep voice and a touch of Barry White." Industry veteran Cecil Holmes has been signed on as Boston International's senior vice president.

CAPRICORN REBORN: Capricorn Records, which was founded by Phil Walden in 1969 and disappeared 12 years ago, is back, in a joint venture with Warner Bros. Walden remains president, with Don Schmitzerle joining on as vice president and John Curtis as director of artist development. The now Nashville-based label—which in its heyday gave us Southern rock albums by the Allman Brothers, Marshall Tucker Band, Wet Willie, Elvin Bishop, the Dixie Dregs and others—will re-debut on July 23 with an album from Athens, Ga.'s Widespread Panic.

Ernie Singleton

SINGLETON SINGLED OUT: Ernie Singleton, president of MCA Records' Black Music Division, will be honored at the annual Sickle Cell Disease Research Foundation's dinner and auction, June 1 at the Regent Beverly Wilshire Hotel. For information: (213) 299-3600.

ALTERNATIVE SPICE: Spice, that oh-so-trendy Hollyweird nightclub, announces that every Friday night is "Alternatives"—a showcase for unsigned "alternative" bands. What exactly is "alternative?" In a recent press release, booker Mark Goldstein says Alternatives isn't defining the term other than saying its purpose is to "question authority." (Kinda vague, huh?) However, the press release seems to indicate that Alternatives is proud of excluding "techno-pop, hip hop, acid house, rap and heavy metal." If this is the case, some would argue that by excluding rap—revolutionary soul poetry from the African-American community—Alternatives is excluding those who "challenge authority." At any rate, Spice is to be commended for boldly asserting that it isn't on the "pay to play" tip—a scam in which desperate-to-get-signed L.A. bands (most of them headbangers) pay corrupt promoters literally hundreds of dollars in order to get a gig—and for giving at least some unsigned bands the opportunity to play live. For more information, please call Nicole Jacobson at (213) 856-0207.

PUTTING VANILLA ON ICE: "Vanilla Ice Wrongfully Claims Sir Mix-A-Lot Rap Lyrics As His Own?" is the question posed by a recent press release Mix's former label Nastymix Records sent out. The press release alleges that some lyrics Vanilla Ice quotes as his own in his autobiography are quite similar to the lyrics of Mix's "I'm A Trip" (which was released as a single in 1986 and later appeared on his debut album of 1988, Swass). The press release quotes lyrics from both "I'm A Trip" and Vanilla's book—and they are indeed quite similar...

GOSPEL

DeBarge: BACK ON TRACK

DeBarge

DeBARGE WAS ONCE APPLAUDED IN THE SECULAR MUSIC WORLD as one of the hottest groups since The Jackson 5. They were stunning in their appearance and profound in their delivery of song and dance on stage. In a recent interview with TM Records, the question was asked, "Why would DeBarge want to sing gospel, Christian music?" Etterlene DeBarge, mother of the ten DeBarge children, responded, "That is where it all began. They were struggling in the secular world and had to learn that they didn't belong there. They had no piece of mind because they had left behind their ministry to seek fortune and fame. Now, they have gone back to their first love—gospel music." Etterlene adds, "What we did before was to please us; what we are doing now is to please God. This is our real calling. We're Back On Track." That is the title of the new album on TM Records which is based out of Indianapolis, IN.

Praise Home Video Breaks New Ground With Gospel Videos

PRAISE IS A DIVISION OF Xenon Entertainment, which is an international supplier of gospel music videos. Praise Home Video was established in 1988 in order to meet the growing demand for gospel music in the home video market. The company is breaking new ground with the recent taping of the 6th Annual Gospelfest in Los Angeles that features the best of six choirs from a competition that included 79 participants. The show was hosted by Marilyn McCoo & Glynn Thurman.

Cecil Willingham handles sales and acquisitions. He most recently completed a gospel music celebration featuring the L.A. Mass Choir and Rev. Al Green. Stefone Pet'tis is responsible for in house productions for the label. Praise videos has produced and released The Greatest Week in Gospel, The New World Gospel Chor and Vicki Winans. These will be followed by The Winans Live, Commissioned, Clouds of Joy featuring Mighty Clouds of Joy, Al Green: On Fire in Tokyo, Hallelujah, featuring rare clippings of the Five Blind Boys and Inez Andrews never before seen in the U.S.

Future productions include a special six-volume Praise the Light series produced by Pet'tis in conjunction with Lexicon Light. This gospel series features only gospel artists signed to Lexicon/Light Records. The first release will be by Beau Williams, who's introduction into the music video market has long been awaited.

BMG Music On The Move

BMG MUSIC PUBLISHING HAS CONCLUDED AN EXCLUSIVE SUB-PUBLISHING AGREEMENT WITH NEM ENTERTAINMENT for the world outside U.S., Canada and Japan. The announcement was recently made by Nick Firth, president of BMG Music Publishing Worldwide. The Los Angeles-based NEM, headed by Ira Jaffe, is one of the newest publishing companies in the industry. Owned by NEM chairman Kuni Murai, formerly one of the leading writers and independent producers in Japan and prior owner of Alpha Music and Records, the company has grown rapidly through such major acquisitions as Fleetwood Mac, Powerforce, Wishbone and Larry Butler catalogues as well as the signing of established and developing writers and bands. NEM has also made numerous major acquisitions including the Wishbone catalogue of country copyrights with "Old Flame," "Angel In Your Arms" and "If I Had You," as well as the catalogue of Nashville producer/writer Larry Butler with such hits as "Coward Of The County," "Ocean Front Property," "The Chair" and "Miami, My Amy" and Nashville's Magic Castle catalogue. In addition, NEM has signed such noted songwriters as Dave Gibson who wrote Alabama's #1 hit "Jukebox In My Mind" and Tanya Tucker's "If It Don't Come Easy." BMG ACQUIRES KRIS KRISTOFFERSON CATALOGUE, including such standards as "For The Good Times," from Nashville-based Buckhorn Music. "For The Good Times," which has received over 600 recordings, is a BMI 4 million performance song and is the 24th all-time most performed song in BMI. The new purchase was made from Nashville notable Marijohn Wilkin.

Reba McEntire: On The Road Again

AFTER THE TRAGIC LOSS OF McENTIRE'S EIGHT BAND MEMBERS AND TOUR MANAGER, who were killed in the March 16th plane crash in California, the Academy of Country Music Award winner has named six new band members and a brand new tour manager. The new members include Andre Reiss, guitar; Glen Duncan, fiddle and guitar; Bob Mummert, drums; Howard Duck, keyboards; Charlie Anderson, bass guitar; and Trish Arthur, backup vocals. The six join Joe McGlohon, saxophone and Pete Finney, guitar, who were not aboard the plane. Brian Leedham becomes McEntire's new road manager, who was formerly the entertainer's production manager. Following the accident, various country artists agreed immediately to perform in special benefit concerts to raise money for family members of those killed. Over $142,000 was raised by Merle Haggard, Lorrie Morgan, Lee Greenwood, Janie Fricke, Charlie Daniels, Kathy Mattea and Sawyer Brown, all of whom performed on three separate evenings at Pheasant Run Resort in St. Charles, Illinois. Proceeds went to the Reba McEntire Band Fund, with each family receiving nearly $18,000. Other benefit concerts including one held in Nashville's Municipal Auditorium, featured such artists as Kenny Rogers, the Oak Ridge Boys, T. Graham Brown, Exile, Patty Loveless, Gary Morris, Willie Nelson, K.T. Oslin, Ricky Van Shelton and Eddie Rabbitt.

Stars For 2nd Harvest Concert Set

THE THIRD ANNUAL "STARS FOR SECOND HARVEST" concert is scheduled for Tuesday, May 21, on the lawn of Nashville's Belle Meade Mansion. This year's featured entertainers include various recording artists such as Mike Reid, Emmylou Harris, Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Michael Johnson and John Anderson. Second Harvest Food Bank of Nashville, Inc. is a private, non-profit, tax exempt organization which was organized in 1978 to alleviate food waste, route recovered foods to the emergency food programs and agencies that provide meals for the hungry, and to obtain additional support for emergency food in Nashville and Davidson county. Admission for the annual family event is $10, with proceeds again benefiting the food bank.

SHE DID IT! Pictured from (l-r), Naomi Judd, Donald Trump, Marla Maples and Ann Oglethorpe (Marla's mother) make it clear that the point of attention for Super Bloopers & New Practical Jokes is Wynonna Judd. On the TV show, which recently aired on NBC, Wynonna became the latest victim of the practical jokes gang when she was led to believe that she was being interviewed by a fledgling newscaster who is Trump's cousin. The question/answer session resulted in not such an everyday interview. Dick Clark and Ed McMahon host the series.

COUNTRY NEW FACE

Linda Davis

Linda Davis

STEP BACK AS SHE BEGINS TO SING! Despite the petite frame, dazzling smile and congenial charm, this lady just could KNOCK YOUR SOCKS OFF with her soaring vocal explosion! However, when she talks, move up a bit closer—she has a lot to say. Chances are before she's finished, someone will be deeply touched.

New recording artist Linda Davis proves to be one of the few country vocalists who defines the true meaning of a song by the way she sings it. Whether it be through a barreling power-house number wired with gutsy energy, or perhaps through a soft ballad quilted with soul-stirring emotion, her delivery somehow takes on a life of its own and aims directly to the listener's heart.

"There are just so many emotions that run through a song," explains Davis. "I just want people to feel like they've been touched, and not that I've touched them, but that the music has touched them with an instrument—my voice."

Such an instrument has garnered this Texas gal a lot of attention since she was only six years old, when she made her first singing debut on the East Texas Gary Jamboree. Her teen years led her to perform on such stints as the famed Louisiana Hayride and the Texas Grapevine Opry. Of course occasional trips to Nashville with the family certainly didn't flaw the pattern. Eventually, Davis called Music City her home. In return, Music City soon began calling Linda Davis. To say the least, she became a sought-after demo singer, along with mastering such feats as singing commercial jingles for companies like Kentucky Fried Chicken—yep, that was her!

"It seems like I did demos forever," laughs Davis. "But for years, I focused on my vocals the most. Anything challenging vocally used to just impress me to death. I'd think 'Oh, this is a good song,' because I had to stretch hard to get it, but over a period of time those songs eventually leave you kind of empty. The music is fine but that doesn't keep you entertained after a couple of times."

Those words have to be there before you are really going to stick with that song. It took me a while to get past the musical enchantment or appeal to get to the lyrics—because that's the timeless part of the song. The lyrics have to be there to get to me before I can hopefully get to you."

What's getting to more and more listeners everyday is a shimmering voice—glossed with a crystalline texture capable of gripping onto towering notes and emotional spills that send chills to the spine. "I was raised in a church," Davis states with a proud grin. "It was a little Missionary Baptist church, and when you get Gospel music going, there's soul there. If you have that in your roots somewhere, you don't ever lose that—whether you decide to go that direction with your music or country, as I've chosen. In fact, when Gospel music is sung or played, there's just not anything that moves me like that does," explains Davis. "The next thing that moves me is country music and its lyrics, but Gospel is just in my soul. One day I'd love to do a Gospel project of some kind, but country music, I feel, is where I need to be right now."

Such vocal attributes and soul-felt delivery beam from Davis' debut disc In A Different Light, a project of which the song stylist contributed a great amount of input from beginning to end. "I just wanted songs with real-life situations to sing about," Davis exclaims. "I like singing about the real stuff, and I'm not scared to do that." In addition to Davis' current single, the sassy-flavored "Some Kinda Woman" and her first release of the title cut, are various tunes which speak directly to people's emotions, with no glitter or fluff threaded through the lyrics.

"If I Could Only Be Like You" is my all-time favorite on the album and Reba (McEntire) co-wrote it," says Davis. "When I heard that song, I teared up and just sobbed. It hit home so much. I thought about my sister who's 600 miles away and nine years older than me... I really admire her for all she's had to deal with, and if I could be a little more like her, I'd be a lot better person."

For Linda Davis, her current success is indeed the result of much dreaming, hard work and experiencing the many ups and downs on an extremely competitive career ladder. It's also become simply another facet of what she describes as a very well-rounded life. "I think I've finally learned to just take it all as it comes," Davis ponders. "Right now ya know, I'm anxious, but I have a whole life with a family that keeps me entertained and occupied. So I just don't dwell on this business and worry. I feel like I have a very well-rounded life. I'm very blessed and that's the way I wish everybody felt, because no matter where you are you're OK if you have your priorities straight. That's kinda how I deal with it because that's all I know."

The extraordinary talent of Davis speaks very well for itself, but if personality, sincerity and an unusual eruption of down-home friendliness counts in this business—this lady has it all wrapped up.

Country Tid-Bits...

Recording artist Alan Jackson and noted songwriter Michael Irwin recently took home top honors from the Music City News Country Songwriters Awards program, held in Nashville's Grand Ole Opry House. Jackson and Irwin won Song of the Year for their hit entitled "Here In The Real World."

Joe Melson, award-winning writer of Roy Orbison hit tunes "Blue Bayou," "Only The Lonely" and "Running Scared," along with recording artist Roger Ricker, have combined their talents to create R R Productions, which will feature departments such as artist development and audio and video production. The new company is located in Music City's United Artist Tower building.

The southern regional office of The Songwriters Guild of America will be relocating after ten years from its current United Artist Tower location, to 1222 16th Avenue South, suite 25.

NASHVILLE NOTES

"PURE HANK TOUR" BRINGS BOTH HANKS TO STAGE

Hank Williams, Jr.'s recently launched Pure Hank tour is without a doubt pure Hank. Nearly four minutes of never before seen home movie footage of the late Hank Williams is included in Hank Jr.'s $2 million 1991 concert production. Most of the film (which is both color and black & white) was shot by Audrey Williams, the late wife of Hank Sr. and mother to Hank Jr. "While I'm singing, the audience is seeing footage taken of Daddy backstage at the Grand Ole Opry with his Drifting Cowboy band and with people like Ernest Tubb and comedian Rod Brasfield. There are also movies taken at our old Franklin Road home in Nashville. Most of this footage hasn't seen the light of day for nearly 40 years," explains Hank. Soon to be added to the production is footage of Hank Jr. as a young man, when he guested on such programs as The Ed Sullivan Show and The Porter Wagoner Show. The Pure Hank tour will continue through October, 1991.

RICKY SKAGGS GAVE A SPECIAL PERFORMANCE

In A Festival At Ford's, a concert for President Bush held at the famed Ford's Theatre in Washington, D.C. last month. The performance was filmed for a forthcoming broadcast on ABC Television. Skaggs also marks a valuable part of the Grand Ole Opry 65th Anniversary Tour, which includes tour dates such as Detroit, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Chicago and Charlotte. The tour, which began in April will extend through June and features other Opry stars like Minnie Pearl, Garth Brooks, Patty Loveless, Holly Dunn and Clint Black. Skaggs also recently participated in a fundraising event hosted by Bob and Delores Hope for the Hughen Center for the Physically Disabled, in Port Arthur, Texas. Although the artist's schedule has been filled to the brim, he's still allowing enough time to record a brand new album, slated for a late summer release.

CHET ATKINS: SINGER, MUSICIAN AND NOW A STREET?

Country recording artist and prominent musician Chet Atkins recently joined the names of other noted entertainers such as Roy Acuff and Johnny Cash who have been honored with a street or at least part of a street named after them. Numerous music industry people, friends and lucky fans recently turned out for the celebration which renamed Music Row's South Street (blocks 16-20) to Chet Atkins Place. The celebration was presented by the BMI/Nashville offices.

GEORGE FOX ADDS SPICE TO THE LIFE OF COUNTRY MUSIC

One of Canada's top male country vocalists, George Fox, has just completed his second U.S. release for Warner Bros. The soon-to-be-released album, Spice Of Life, was produced by Garth Fundis and features several tunes penned by Fox. The first single entitled "Fell In Love And Can't Get Out" was just released. Fox has also formed a new band of Nashville musicians and is preparing for his first U.S. tour. The Spice Of Life LP is slated for a May 28 release date.

Gone Gold & Past Platinum

THE MONTH OF APRIL witnessed five of country music's top artists reach gold/platinum status, as certified by the Recording Industry Assn. of America (RIAA). MCA recording artist Patty Loveless received such recognition for sales of her Honky Tonk Angel project attaining gold status. Albums attaining the platinum mark during the month of April include: Reba McEntire's Rumor Has It, Ricky Van Shelton's RVS III and Lee Greenwood's Greatest Hits. Garth Brooks also managed to soar to multi-platinum status with his No Fences project.

Following the recent ACM Awards in Los Angeles, which George Strait co-hosted for the third consecutive year, and where Reba McEntire was named Top Female Vocalist for the fifth time in seven years, MCA executives presented three gold and one platinum album for Rumor Has It and gold albums went to Patty Loveless for Honky Tonk Angel, Vince Gill for Pocket Full Of Gold and George Strait for Chill Of An Early Fall. Pictured from (l-r) are: Tony Brown, executive vice president and head of A&R, MCA/Nashville; John Burns, executive vice president of Distribution, Uni Distribution; McEntire; Loveless; Gill; Strait; Al Teller, chairman, MCA Music Entertainment Group; Luke Lewis, senior vice president and general manager of Uni Audio Distribution; and Bruce Hinton, president, MCA/Nashville.

INDIE INSIGHT

Badger Records recording artist Hannah Onassis recently took time to visit with her producer Billy Tim Atwood and Badger Records president Billy Joe Burnette. The celebration was due to the release of Onassis' new single entitled "I've Been Branded." The single moves up to the #83 slot on this week's Top 100 Country Singles Chart. Pictured from (l-r) are Atwood, Onassis, and Burnette.

INDIE FEATURE PICKS

□ RONNIE THOMPSON: "I Feel Like A Country Song" (GBS 816)

Producers: Jack Holder/Ronnie Thompson

Writers: Ronnie Thompson/Chester Storthz

At first listen, this laggish two-stepper is a grabber! GBS recording artist Ronnie Thompson adds the perfect touch to this cry-the-blues tune with his husky vocals, which slightly resemble those of Hank Jr.

□ BLUE TEXAS: "If We're Not In Love, We Don't Have Far To Fall" (Stop Hunger SHR-BTX-1101)

Producers: Pat Borden/Robert Metzgar

Writers: Kent Cherry/Janice Laine

The vocal collaboration revealed here is, without a doubt, one of a kind! This male/female duo bring a natural yet polished flavor to this feel-good number about love. Oh yeah, the "Haggard" guitar licks work extremely well.

□ KIM TSOY: "Now The Lonely Begins" (Townson TO-103)

Producer: Johnny Morris

Writers: Johnny Morris/Jerry Foster

Townson Records artist Kim Tsoy grips more effectively than ever with his latest single about love's lonely side. This traditional ballad slow dances with soothing instrumentation, emotion and is led by hearty-country vocals.

□ TERRY MICHAELS: "An American Song" (Fountain FR-121)

□ JANE HAWTHORN: "Mamas Can't Be Daddies" (ESU 1214)

"Welcome Home Soldier"

Lyrics by Lynn Payne

THANKS COUNTRY RADIO
FOR PLAYING THIS TRIBUTE TO ALL OUR VETERANS!

Welcome Home Soldier
You've Been Away Too Long
Every Hour We Have Missed You
Everyday That You've Been Gone
Twenty Years Ago We Carried Signs
For You To Be Sent Home
But When You Finally Got Back
You Felt Betrayed And All Alone

With these words, this music, a necessary healing began...The first time I heard this song I became aware of emotions that I had suppressed for over twenty years. This song has become the healing agent for wounds that never healed.

Every veteran must hear this soon and often.

Welcome To The Panel!

STILL COMING ABOARD THE CASH BOX COUNTRY REPORTING PANEL are selected stations across the country. In recent months, Cash Box/Nashville has carefully considered those stations which will become greater assets to the strength and growth of its Top 100 Country Singles Chart. KRED's line-up consists of Rollin Treharne & Dana Hall (The Breakfast Club); Dan Alexander (Mr. Wonderful); Buck Buchanan (The Ladies Choice); and evenings with Darryl Campbell. On May 25, KRED will again sponsor the 22nd Annual World Championship Great Arcada To Ferrndale Cross Country Kinetic Powered Sculpture Race. The race is made up of human powered machines that are attached to unique sculptural designs for the more contemporary-art appearance, and covers all-terrain. Similiar races are held throughout the country with this race determining the world champion... Coming to us live from Little Rock's KXIX, from 5:30-9:00 a.m. is The Horse Doctor; from 9:00-Noon is Mason Dixon; from Noon-3:00 p.m. is Jessica James, who is replaced this week by Pat Garret, due to illness; from 3:00-7:00 p.m. is Rusty Clark; the 7:00-Midnight shift is conducted by Dixie Lee; and from Midnight-5:30 a.m., Jeff Walker is "the" voice of KXIX.

Beyond The Mic...

POWERFUL ON THE PLAYLIST—Despite the major video controversy, Garth Brooks' latest single release of "The Thunder Rolls" creates a storming impact on this week's radio playlist across the nation as reported by stations such as KRKT in Albany, New York; KFGO in Fargo, North Dakota; WKEZ in Yorktown, Virginia; WMDH in New Castle, Indiana; and WMZQ in Washington, D.C. As a result, "The Thunder Rolls" leaps 26 positions this week to the #18 slot. Warner Bros. recording artist Randy Travis lures in heavy action this week on his new "Point Of Light" single (this week at #25), as reported by stations like KKAJ in Ardmore, Oklahoma; WYXC in Cartersville, Georgia; WOW in Omaha, Nebraska; WBCA in Bay Minette, Alabama; and KVOO in Tulsa, Oklahoma. With the new release of Hank Williams Jr.'s "If It Will It Will" already on a flight toward the top, it's no wonder the radio response is quite heavy, according to stations WRIX in Anderson, South Carolina; KBAM in Longview, Washington; WKCG in Augusta, Maine and KBEC in Waxahachie, Texas. "If It Will It Will" makes a towering jump this week to #35.

CONGRATULATIONS! In a recent letter from Mark Allen, music director at KFLG Radio in Bullhead City, Arizona, Allen explains that the 100-thousand watt station has been dubbed as being the leading station over the rock-n-roll-formatted KIIS 102.7 FM. The increased reception is due to KFLG's improved signal. Allen also states that KFLG engineers predict the signal will soon be at least 25-percent stronger following the proper adjustment of the station's new 8-bay state-of-the-art tower. "When we say we are the Southwest's country leader, we are not just frogging around," writes Allen. "And to the rock folk..we say 'KIIS our country!'"

NEW SINGLE RELEASES

OUT OF THE BOX

GENE WATSON: "You Can't Take It With You When You Go" (Warner Bros. 4804)

Producer: Gregg Brown

Writers: Larry Cordle/Larry Shell/Bert Colwell

There's a whole lotta shaking goin' on in the latest release from Warner Bros. recording artist Gene Watson. The rhythmic undertones throughout this cut are spiced up and rockin' to a sultry country tempo—complete with guitar licks which leave a trail of smoke. Watson of course wails this number to a commanding finish

FEATURE PICKS

DEAN DILLON: "Friday Night's Woman" (Atlantic 3633-2)

Producers: Blake Mevis/Dean Dillon

Writers: Dean Dillon/Blake Mevis/Buddy Cannon

Long-time tune penner Dean Dillon is certainly on the right track with his recent recording endeavors. This story of how weekend loneliness can result in everyday blues provides a platform for Dean to flaunt his sturdy, traditional vocals at their best. Soft piano strokes and a fiddle's cry also blend superbly with this cut's extremely visual message.

EARL THOMAS CONLEY: "Shadow Of A Doubt" (RCA 2826)

Producer: Richard Landis

Writers: Robert Byrne/Tom Wopat

Conley's voice is immediately identified on this very well produced song about living on love's rocky edge. With an alert, yet relaxing delivery, Conley pours in a performance sure to garner a growing radio audience.

GEORGE FOX: "Fell In Love And I Can't Get Out" (Warner Bros. 4841)

Producer: Garth Fundis

Writers: Mike Dowling/Jan Dowling

All the right moves are beginning to click for this deserving Canadian artist. With his new Spice Of Life disc already creating some noted mentions, a new band, an upcoming tour and this fun-around-the-edges number just released, Fox will most likely witness some overwhelming reception in the near future.

CORBIN/HANNER: "One More Night" (Mercury 846 326 2/4)

Producers: Harold Shedd/Bob Corbin/Dave Hanner

Writer: Dave Hanner

Formerly tagged Gravel, this Pittsburgh duo has long been noted as prominent tunesmiths and vocalists, but their most recent recording project entitled Black And White Photograph, has latched them an outstanding interest and following from today's country audience. With their current "One More Night" single, Corbin/Hanner delivers a ballad at its best. Rootsy harmony, a luring acoustic guitar performance and a love's-over theme melt together for what should result in an audience favorite.

DALE WATSON: "You Pour It On And I Pour It Down" (Curb NR-76849)

Producer: John Jorgenson

Writer: Dale Watson

New Curb Records artist Dale Watson delivers a romantic two-steppin' number with his current release about "taking what's given." Give it to Watson—his deep traditional vocals certainly draw the listening ear. And take this single as an example of what great things are sure to come from this country crooner.

The smiles seemed to have been endless at Burbank, California's KZLA Radio when the staff received a visit from RCA recording artist Ronnie Milsap. The country music legend came by to talk with KZLA's Jim Duncan, prior to his Roxy Theatre showcase in Hollywood. Pictured from (l-r) are: RCA West Coast regional promotion manager Carson Schreiber, KZLA music director Lisa Puzo, Milsap and Duncan.

Irizarry Is Named Chief Engineer At NSM-America

CHICAGO—Jorge (pronounced “George”) Irizarry has been appointed chief engineer at NSM-America, according to an announcement by company president Rus Strahan, who stressed that this addition to the “growing staff” is further evidence of the “upgrading” of NSM’s service facility in Chicago. “We intend to have the finest jukebox service facility in the industry, and we’re well on our way now,” he said.

Irizarry, who holds a BS degree in electronics and was a top graduate at DeVry, was admittedly reluctant to enter the jukebox business, but experienced a change of heart after viewing the NSM electronics. “NSM is, quite honestly, at the cutting edge of computer science technology,” he observed, “and their product shows it. I’ve seen the kind of flexibility they’ve built into the product that leaves all kinds of room for me to apply my electronic and engineering skills.”

Present indications are that Irizarry could play a key role in future communications between the engineering staffs at NSM-America and at NSM’s German headquarters. The factory’s intent is to make certain that the product they’re producing today can be adapted to future technology advances as the industry moves forward.

As he said, “The idea is that jukebox operators should be able to buy an advanced NSM jukebox today and be covered, so to speak, no matter what technological changes come about in the next ten or fifteen years.

“Put differently,” he added, “I think operators will see that the NSM jukebox they buy today will be capable of everything they need or want to do in the year 2000.”

AND THE WINNERS ARE! Sports, an indoor facility that houses miniature golf, batting cages and coin-op games (including four Dynamo Air Hockey tables), hosted the recent 1991 Maryland Amateur Air Hockey Championships. Event took place in Cockeysville (a suburb of Baltimore) with $2,500 in cash and prizes provided by Dynamo, Sports and other local sponsors. Tim Brown of Philadelphia won the tournament. Steve Peacock from Towson State College finished second; Brian Whitt of Cockeysville, third; and Matt Darda of Baltimore, fourth. The tournament received extensive media coverage, including radio spots and a TV news segment aired by a local Baltimore station. Pictured with their trophies (l-r) are: Matt Darda, Tim Brown, Steve Peacock and Brian Whitt. Next scheduled tournament in the area will be the $2,500 Baltimore Amateur Championships, to be held October 19.

AROUND THE ROUTE

BY CAMILLE COMPASIO

THE BILL TO LEGALIZE VIDEO LOTTERY equipment in the state of Illinois (H.R. 1976) received a nod from the Judiciary Committee this past April and is now up for a full House vote. Illinois ops have adopted a very positive attitude regarding the possibility of passage this session. The bill goes to the Senate in June, where a vote is expected by late July. If everything continues to progress smoothly, the machines should become legal to operate by January of 1992.

DATLINE REDMOND, WASHINGTON, where we chatted with “her highness” (and our friend) Jeanne Ballouz, otherwise known as FABTEK’s veepee, upon her return from Hawaii. These tough assignments do come up, don’t they! At any rate, since FABTEK’s split from IREM (at the completion of prexy Frank Ballouz’s contract), this hubby and wife executive team has been scouting around for office space to house the FABTEK operation. Current products include the hot Raiden kit and, of course, Blood Brothers... With respect to IREM, Steve Blattspieler has been heading up the company, as you know, and Drew Maniscalco recently climbed aboard in sales.

SO WHAT. Riverboat gambling will be coming to Illinois in July and will be allowed year-round. The bill that was passed by the General Assembly prohibits the boats from operating when docked. However, the Illinois Gaming Board specified that the boats must pull up the gangplank during the winter season (to avoid any dangerous weather related situations) and continue casino operations, without moving. Cash Box queried a few operators to determine whether this move might create a new source of income for them. Guess not—since the boat owners are buying their own equipment and placing it on board.

THE LEGEND MEETS THE CHAMPS! An exhibition of championship Air Hockey was staged at the National Cable Television Association’s annual convention and trade show (3/24-27), in New Orleans, with AMA Distributing of that city providing a Dynamo Air Hockey table for the match. SportsChannel America, the key cable channel for the National Hockey League, set aside space in its booth for the coin-op version of hockey on air. Also present in the booth was hockey legend Gordie Howe (2nd from left), a Hall of Famer who played 32 seasons in the NHL and WHA. Pictured with Howe (l-r) are: two-time Air Hockey champion Mark Robbins of Dynamo; current national champion Tim Weissman and two-time national champion Robert Hernandez, who were the featured players in the exhibition.

Gottlieb's Cactus Jack's

CACTUS JACK'S, the latest Gottlieb pinball machine by Premier Technology, provides plenty of fun accompanied by some terrific country rock music in an environment of challenging scoring action.

You start out with sizzling country rock music as the ball is sent into the country western surroundings of Cactus Jack's, where Jack and the band are featured. By knocking down the drop targets, you see the fruit value progressing from eggs at first, to bananas, tomatoes, pumpkins and finally, watermelon. These come in handy as you keep playing.

During multiball, the band reverts to polka music, which is the time to start throwing the fruit at it! Throughout multiball, rubber cacti can be seen dancing on the stage behind the playfield, to add to the flavor.

Shooting the right ramp will earn extra ball (while increasing the multiplier); and extra points can be scored during the countdown value of the Banjo Bonus.

Cactus Jack's offers players a boot stompin' good time as they test their pinball skills.

Further information may be obtained through factory distributors or by contacting Premier Technology, 759 Industrial Drive, Bensenville, IL 60106-1304.
