INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

This week Dave Sholin takes a restful week off. Sitting in is Keith Z.

First, a little chart talk...This week GEORGE MICHAEL pulled a tighter grip on the top spot after edging out JOHNNY HATES JAZZ by the narrowest margin last week. DEBBIE GIBSON made the strongest entry into this week's top ten, Look for CHEAP TRICK to do the same next week. Next week should be a pivotal time for both CHER and TIMES TWO since MICHAEL JACKSON and BRUCE HORNSBY could stage giant moves behind them next week. Besides being two great image records for Top 40, PRINCE and LITA FORD both posted double-digit adds again this week. On the bottom part of this week's chart, a few should be watched for future momentum. ROBERT PLANT at #36, is starting to really prove himself as a viable Top 40 crossover, while BARDEUX, PEBBLES and POISON show great potential as well.

BETWEEN A ROCK AND A HARD PLACE...Last weekend I went to my favorite musical hangout--the legendary Fillmore in San Francisco--to catch THE CHURCH. As the band tore it up, I was somewhat relieved about two things. First off, progressive music has returned to a more traditional guitar point of view. Secondly, isn't there more rock n roll on the Top 40 airwaves these days?

Maybe so. But after speaking to more than a few programmers this week, we found it's not necessarily so. Many stations, particularly in smaller and medium markets, say they're having trouble balancing their overall sound with what they see as a bumper crop of quality ballads being released. For the majority of stations not entrenched in heated urban/major market ratings wars, balancing ballads with rockers can be a tricky situation.

Sure, CHEAP TRICK, MIDNIGHT OIL, THE CHURCH, POISON, LITA FORD, DEF LEPPARD and VAN HALEN are threatening, but a glance at the high end of the chart still shows a high concentration of urban and ballad-flavored songs.

Dena Yasner at 95XXX in Burlington agrees. Dena sees the national trades emphasizing urban and ballad smashes, while quality rock tunes like a HONEY-MOON SUITE struggle to gain respectable chart momentum. Dena feels that her rock-oriented market in Vermont needs all the help it can get to balance such hot new singles as the new ones by BILLY OCEAN, SADE, TAYLOR DAYNE and RICHARD MARX. Doesn't this phenomenon generally occur when we have so many second and third singles off albums? Is today's rocky road paved only with ballads and crossovers?

AROUND THE HORN...Bob O'Dell at WZIX-Starkville thinks the new BARDEUX single is "red hot," charting it 26-16. Initially hesitant to add it, he now likes the female demos the record is attracting. Jim Nelly at KXGO-Eureka agrees. He's rarely seen a power ballad test so well its first week out. Jim reports number one phones and needless to say, KXGO added it this week. Jon Olson at KDON-Salinas reports a 26-19 move and it looks like the record could take off nationally next week. And speaking of lovely ladies, our crazy Aussie mate Rob Taylor of WWUF-Waycross is flippin' over THE COVER GIRLS. Heavy phones and a hit where it's played.

Across the border into Quebec, our French-Canadian connection Guy Brouillard of CKOI-Montreal reports

MIDNIGHT OIL at number one for the third straight week. Guy says the album is number two in album, single and CD sales. Vachement formidable!

Top 40 radio is hyperventilating over the new single from BREATHE. Jeff Ryan at KIQY-Lebanon expects it to chart well for him next week. John Ivey at KIKK-Davenport likes the audience response for this passive but strong sounding song. The record picked up a solid 43 adds this week and Bill Summerville at 94Q-Atlanta compares its sound to, pardon the pun, an Air Supply record.

And speaking of 94Q, Summerville says that there's top ten retail action on ZIGGY MARLEY--the album much more than the single. 94Q charts it 23-19, with a bigger leap forthcoming. Good young adult interest. Along with the Euro-hit single by ASWAD, Top 40 seems to be having a curious flirtation with reggae-mon sounds. Rastafari. Jah lives on Top 40!

CHEAP TRICK exploded this week, closing in on the national top ten with a 24-16-12 move. Jon McCormick at KDOG-Mankato (home of "the Dog Tags") charted it 15-8 with top five sales and number one phones for the last three weeks. Look for the comeback story of CHEAP TRICK in an upcoming school's-out Gavin issue.

Last week's Record To Watch by that smooth-talking Bahamian, JOHNNY KEMP, picked up some impressive call letters. Z100-New York charts it 11-9 and the best is still yet to come. Add to the list, WXKS, Z94, WEGX, Z93, WHYT, KRBE, FM102, KIIS, KMEL KPWR, etc. One of Fresno's finest, Kevin Carter of KMGX wonders if he's the first to go number one on A&B. SURE! Also, Kevin reckons that the new one by SEQUAL is an overlooked gem. A few miles up the road, Eric Hoffman at FM104-Modesto likes the "female BON JOVI sound" of LITA FORD. Eric hopes there's more great material on her album to follow up the success of "Kiss Me Deadly." LITA is currently battling neck and neck with PRINCE as the strongest climber in the center of the chart.

Finally, this week's Record To Watch is an unusual and challenging sound from TRACY CHAPMAN. Hailing from Boston, this singer/songwriter is making major demographic inroads on Album Radio. Even stations that play hard rock n roll are playing it. Also, the record just charted top thirty in our A/C section.

As usual, we appreciate all of your comments and valuable research input each week. We know it takes a real commitment and we salute you. Meanwhile, stay well. Keith Z.

WRESTLES WITH THE WILD TRUTH

"I wanna talk about the wild truth."

With T Bone Burnett, you never know. He might be referring to the song of that name off his current LP, The Talking Animals, or maybe to the wild truth in general. We talked just before his departure for Ireland to start production on Elvis Costello's first Warner Bros. album. This will mark Elvis and T Bone's third studio collaboration, counting the impromptu C&W Coward Brothers and the heralded King Of America LP. Currently awaiting release is Sam Phillips' (aka Leslie Phillips) debut as an "acid pop" singer on Virgin Records. T Bone has also just finished work on Kris Kristofferson's new album, which has yet to be released due to the political nature of the material, and an LP is in the works with blues legend Willie Dixon for Bug Publishing's label on Capitol.

T Bone is uncomfortable "talking music," opting instead to draw oblique political and social analogies to his music. Our first session was mired in reluctance and moody introspection. However--bingo!--we struck paydirt the next time around as T Bone described his music in terms of dim, fascinatingly paranoid views of society in decay.

Finally, we coerced the maker of such soul-o and solo classics as Truth Decay, Trap Door, Proof Through The Night and The Dot Country Album to comment Freudian-style on his work and a few of his famous colleagues (including Bob Dylan). These descriptions (few of them serious) typify T Bone Burnett's odd sense of humor.

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

KZ: What made you change your mind about doing this interview?

TBB: I wanna talk about the wild truth. I figured that since I haven't been doing any interviews, this is something that I can do that is palatable. Most of the stuff, I really can't do. They want me to go on the Johnny Letterman Show. But I can't do any of that.

KZ: Do you detach yourself from the promotion process?

TBB: I try to, because if you pay too much attention to it, it gets too debilitating. You want everyone to like you. But it stands to reason that everybody isn't going to like you.

KZ: You definitely have your fans, both fellow artists and listeners. A lot of the rest probably perceive you as a critic's darling.

TBB: I got stuck early on with the reputation of being a moralist. But people make judgments all the time about what they think is right and wrong. That's what a moralist is. I think--and this may be my paranoia or fear--that there are times when people want to take a hard look at things, and times when they don't. This is one of those times when people don't want to take a hard look at things at all.

KZ: So far, all your recorded work has been within an era in America where people don't seem to want to take a hard look at issues.

TBB: I started solo recording about the same time Reagan

THUMBNAIL SKETCHES OF T BONE'S WORKS AND COLLEAGUES

A TYPICAL DAY: "Usually just when I wake up, I count my money, which takes most of the day. Then I put on my tuxedo and get ready for dinner with a gorgeous young woman the studio sends over. After dinner, I drink a lot of champagne. I go to the studio about two in the morning and work for about fifteen minutes, then go home and watch videos. I play Nintendo for a few hours before I go to sleep."

THE TALKING ANIMALS: "This record was made and didn't come out for about nine months. By the time it came out, I was already used to it. I like it. I can stand it. It's interesting watching it all go down. I did get pretty detached from it."

TRUTH DECAY: "The dust we breathe at the end of the age of enlightenment."

BOB DYLAN: "Great bridge player, a scratch golfer and a wreck on tour beyond reproach."

LOS LOBOS: "Not your token Chicanos. I think David Hidalgo and Louis Perez are two of the best writers in the country. David is also an amazing multi-instrumentalist. Cesar and Conrad swing like mad."

KRIS KRISTOFFERSON: "Right-wing fascist. Three of the four top airplay songs in the history of BMI are his. He gives 'Waltz Across Texas' a new dimension."

SAM PHILLIPS: "The best tap dancer since Eleanor Powell. She does a great version of Jo Stafford's version of 'Long Ago And Far Away.' She grew up in the shadows of the Hollywood studios destined for stardom."

BODEANS: "They know how to splinter that honky-tonk hardwood floor. Sammy's got one of the great voices in the history of rock n roll. If only there wasn't so much fear among our white brothers."

ROY ORBISON: "Another dimension of great rock n roll voices. Tom Waits said, 'He wrote songs about dreams, he wrote songs that are dreams.' Tom also said, 'Burma Shave; Roy uses it and so do I.'"

ELVIS COSTELLO: "Not at all the misanthropic curmudgeon that people imagine him to be. One of the best pure songwriters to come along in thirty years, forty years or fifty years! Also a great lead guitar player. Not many people know that."

WILLIE DIXON: "One of the inventors of what we once called rock n roll. He added a chorus and an arrangement to delta blues, turning it into a whole new form. Everyone since then, including Motown and the Beatles, has been affected by his vision. One tough customer."

TONIO K: "He is the ruthless curmudgeon that people imagine him to be. Also one of the wittiest on the cultural horizon in the latter half of the twentieth century."

PETER CASE: "A gifted, sensitive character with a brilliant imagination and a real gift for storytelling."

PROOF THROUGH THE NIGHT: "A lot of free publicity at all the baseball games."

THE DOT COUNTRY ALBUM: "A mere suggestion and probably my favorite of the records that I've made."

BONO: "The kind of voice you'd hear while walking through the desert at two a.m., and you don't know where it's coming from. Most people don't know this, but he has three ears."

JAMES BURTON: "He has one hundred and nine cars and a watch that Elvis Presley gave him. He is one hot guitar picker and a funny man."

WILL TAKE OVER ABC'S AT-40 THIS SUMMER SHADOE CAST OVER KASEM

After sifting through a thousand applications, ABC Radio has named Shadoe Stevens to replace Casey Kasem as host of "American Top 40." Stevens, who became a fixture on L.A. radio at KRLA, KROQ/FM and KMET before moving to "Hollywood Squares," will begin his seven-year contract this summer.

"Shadoe Stevens is the personification of the 'American Top 40' show," said ABC Radio Network President Aaron Daniels. "He is contemporary, fresh and a real music authority. After thorough research, we were delighted to find Shadoe not only enriches the program enjoyment of current 'American Top 40' listeners, he'll attract new interest from young people as well."

"The minute I heard Shadoe audition, I knew we had found the perfect host," added Tom Cuddy, the network's VP/Entertainment. "In the future, when people want to know what America's number one song is, the answer will be, 'The Shadoe knows.'"

Commented Stevens: "Being named host for 'American Top 40' is truly a dream come true."

Kasem has hosted the show since its inception in 1970. Last February, ABC announced the two parties were unable to agree on financial terms for a new contract. The next month, Kasem announced he was joining Westwood One. His last show on ABC could be his Fourth of July special, exactly 18 years after his debut.

BIRCH CLAIMS SURVEY UNAFFECTED TELEPHONE MELTDOWN HAS ILLINOIS RADIO SCRAMBLING

A Mother's Day fire at a telephone switching station outside Chicago has local radio stations scrambling to cope with the sudden loss of both local and long-distance service.

Despite reports of widespread outages, the folks at Birch Radio say their telephone surveys have been unaffected. "No problems," asserted Birch spokeswoman Renee Smith. "We have a centralized facility (in Coral Gables, Florida) and are calling into the area, not out."

Stations in the affected area report a different story. "I'm surprised you got through," said WBMX's Lee Michaels. "We don't get very many long-distance calls." So how is the station coping? "Not very well," he acknowledged. "We can't really call outside Oak Park, which is the suburb where we're located. It's really affecting our bottom line because we can't get calls from advertising reps. About the only thing we can do is have our sales office in downtown Chicago set up a conference call, but we only have one line that can handle that."

Seventy-five miles southwest, WJLK-La Salle was forced to rely on a phone in GM Peter Miller's car for long-distance calls. "I can't call out and they can't call in," said PD Jeff Geessen, "but for some reason cellular phones work." A few areas may be without full service until mid-June.

IMUS TO DO RANGER GAMES? EMMIS' WFAN MOVING TO 660

Emmis Broadcasting is close to selling WFAN-New York and moving "at least some" of its all-sports format to WNBC, which it acquired from NBC as part of a five-station deal last February. Emmis President Jeff Smulyan said he has made "a tentative deal" to sell WFAN's 1050 dial position to the Spanish Broadcasting System for WSKQ, currently licensed to Newark, NJ. Smulyan said WFAN's Knicks, Mets and Rangers broadcasts will move to WNBC's 50 kw clear-channel 660 frequency, "but how everything else shakes down, I'm not exactly sure." Can we expect current WNBC morning man Don Imus to be handling play-by-play? "That's likely," Smulyan deadpanned. "We think Don will probably be doing a lot of the hockey work."

MONDAY MORNING: 8:30 A.M. MUSIC MEETING

PD: Can you believe that Warner Bros. is trying to get this new RANDY TRAVIS single played on A/C radio? It's just too country for us!

MD: RANDY TRAVIS, haven't I seen him winning a lot of music awards lately?

PD: Yeah, but he's too country for us!

MD: You know, my wife likes RANDY TRAVIS!

PD: Oh, your wife listens to country radio?

MD: No, she's never listened to country radio!

PD: Yeah, but he's too country for us!

MD: You know, I hear that he's sold over 4½ million albums and everywhere you look, you see his face! Maybe we could give this record a try?

PD: Nah, he's too country for us! OR IS HE???

INSIDE A/C

With 95% of its play in HEAVY rotation, the Johnny Hates Jazz single keeps a comfortable distance from the competition for one more week. But stormin' George Michael and Ranger Bruce Hornsby should make a serious threat next issue. Stay tuned.

Boz Scaggs makes a silk degree entrance into the top ten. Only the Hornsby record received more airplay mentions than the Boz. That's 220 stations in five weeks and a staggering 91% HIT FACTOR to boot.

We haven't figured out the resistance to the Jets' ballad, "Make It Real." It should be well over 200 A/C stations by now. The problem may be too many ballads, but this one should make any cut. How "real" does it have to be?

The George Harrison, with no help from Top 40, is doing quite nicely in A/C. HIT FACTOR's up to 78% and it's moved 30 to 17 in the past two weeks.

Julio & Stevie continue to rip up the chart. A 70% HIT FACTOR in four weeks from 173 A/C stations tells a tall story. New this week for KOST, WEBC, KLOO, WLKX, KLLY, KLDI, etc.

Biggest record of the week has to be "Paradise" by Sade. In a little over two weeks she/they have tallied 152 adds, and it was clearly this week's highest chart debut at #27.

Eric Carmen doesn't need a movie to have a hit, as evident by the instant success of "Make Me Lose Control." Once again a MOST ADDED in two formats (Top 40 and A/C), it's destined for a single digit future on both charts.

Breathe's "Hands To Heaven" has re-debuted in UP & COMING four months after its initial release. It peaked at #23 on March 18th with an 83% HIT FACTOR from 132 Gavin A/C stations. Now developing Top 40, the momentum could bring it back A/C.

Richard Marx, no foreigner to the A/C chart (pun intended), debuts at #30 with a 37% HIT FACTOR. Adds this week include KLSS, WJON, KFQD, B100, WRMF, WMT/FM, KOLL, WQHQ and KWAV.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, "Two Occasions" by The Deele, debuts on the chart with a 44% HIT FACTOR and adds from KYJC, WTWR, KKRK, KBMG, WJXL, KTYL, WMMG, etc and serious rotations from KEZR, WHTX, WZNY, WAFL and B100.

"Forever Yours" by Tony Terry, this week's RECORD TO WATCH, debuts in UP & COMING with 33 stations including KYLT, KSKI, WCVQ, KVIC, KYJC, WRFC, WFMJ, WIUO and WLIP.

GLORIA ESTEFAN AND MIAMI SOUND MACHINE

GLORIA ESTEFAN & MIAMI SOUND MACHINE

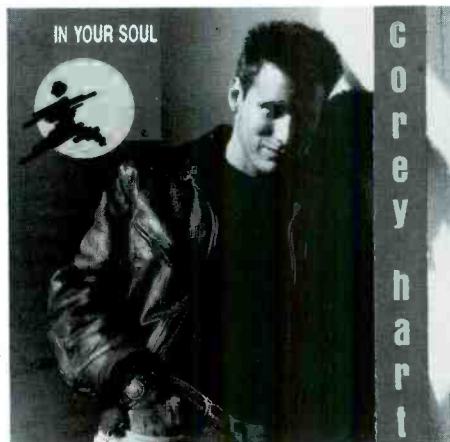

1-2-3 (Epic)

Count on this one to liven up tired playlists. Whether you play the original album version or this new punched-up version, you and your listeners will benefit. It's a refreshing counter-play to the plethora of ballads out there right now.

COREY HART

In Your Soul (EMI-Manhattan)

Still caught up in a James Dean mode, Corey writes of one man running - sometimes into the wind and sometimes with it at his back. The arrangement gives him more of a beat and, if imitation is the most sincere form of flattery, a certain Mr. Springsteen should say "thanks."

IN VINO VERITAS

This is the story of a good lesson one of my students taught me about management.

At the University of San Francisco, where I teach in the MBA program, this is the last week in the semester. Last Monday night was the final meeting of a course I teach which is the "capstone" in the MBA program, so it was one of the last class periods before graduation for nearly all the students.

A few hours before the class, I had the idea of bringing the students some wine as a kind of last hurrah. They'd worked really hard during the semester and were getting ready to wrap up college careers, and a little wine seemed like a nice way of saying goodbye.

Greg Kennedy, one of my students from another course, kindly agreed to walk to a nearby liquor store with me to help haul the wine back to campus. Well, when we got to the store, I received a couple of rude shocks.

First of all, in order to properly lubricate 37 students, I was going to have to buy a lot more wine than I anticipated. Secondly, unless I was prepared to purchase Night Train or Thunderbird, the cash outlay was also going to be a lot more than I planned. Thirdly, since the white wine had to be kept chilled for several hours, I would have to go to the neighboring grocery store to buy a storage cooler and ice. Then I'd have to buy cups and, of course, nonalcoholic beverages for any students who might not want to imbibe.

At this point, I thought to myself, "Why the hell am I going through all this? Nobody expects wine, and besides, I'm not even sure it's legal to bring alcoholic beverages to the classroom. Even if I buy wine that's only a shade above jug vintage, I'm going to spend double what I anticipated, and the students might even be insulted because I have no intention of buying a case of 1961 Mouton-Rothschild. On top of everything else, it's going to be a hassle to transport. So why bother? Let's just forget the whole thing."

I voiced my thoughts to Greg, who came right back with the following: "You've always taught us that it's the symbolism that counts--that employees remember the little gestures a leader makes to show appreciation for the team. It doesn't matter whether the wine is great or not. It doesn't matter if it's not perfectly chilled. Students will remember that you did it, and that's exactly why you ought to do it."

He was absolutely right. In the minds of the students, as with the employees, the vintage or the taste of the wine wouldn't be nearly as important as the fact that I had showed them a gesture of my appreciation for them as people, and for the work they had done the whole semester.

Yet, as leaders, how often do we take a few bucks from our own pockets to reward people, as a group or individually? How often do we set aside a little chunk of our own budget for rewards or small celebrations? Often we don't think about it. Or we rationalize away our failure to do these things, just like I started to do before Greg brought me back to earth by reminding me what I had taught his class.

Students and employees recognize and deeply appreciate such gestures. Of course, these gestures don't replace employees' need for decent pay and benefits, or interesting work (or superb wine). But they are an important part of the effective manager's repertoire.

And when such gestures are linked to specific events, such as an outstanding performance by an individual or group, they are powerful reinforcers. That is, the rewards and celebrations are an excellent investment because they encourage people to continue doing the very things that are being celebrated. One company, for instance, recently held a "Zero Defects Day" to celebrate a significant improvement in the quality of goods its employees had produced over the past year. People received prizes, bands played, and the hoopla reinforced the company's commitment to top quality. On a smaller scale, one very effective manager regularly brings coffee and donuts to his people whenever a team goal, no matter how small, is achieved.

In my case, I was simply acknowledging my students' hard work and wishing them the best in their future careers. Greg was right. It was a good decision to go ahead with it. I think the students will remember it, and everyone--including me--felt really good about it.

(Postscript: To top it all off, I was left with a couple of bottles of wine, which I promptly took home. My girlfriend, upon seeing them in the kitchen, said, "I'm sure

Celebrations are an excellent investment because they encourage people to continue doing the very things that are being celebrated.

it was a wonderful gesture, but the reason you had the wine left over is that you bought crummy wine!" Well, the guy in the liquor store assured me it was good stuff, but I guess it was the thought that counted.)●

by RON FELL

MICHAEL JACKSON

He has chosen Kim Wilde to open his 27-date European tour.

BOZ SCAGGS

The singer/restaurateur will open a new jazz and blues club in San Francisco in late June, and begin a summer tour the next week.

RANDY TRAVIS

His 1986 Storms of Life album has sold more than two million units and has been certified multi-platinum by the RIAA.

JOHNNY KEMP

At the age of 13, Little Johnny Kemp was performing in casino nightclubs in his native Bahamas.

THE RASCALS

Original members Felix Cavaliere, Dino Danelli and Gene Cornish will begin their first tour in two decades June 21st in Columbus, Ohio. Opening many of the shows will be the legendary Mitch Ryder.

LITA FORD

She is managed by Ozzy Osbourne's wife, Sharon.

THOMAS DOLBY

As part of an out-of-court settlement with Dolby Labs (which wanted him to change his last name), Thomas agreed not to endorse any recording equipment.

FOUR TOPS

Their next album, due early this summer from Arista, will include tracks produced by Narada Michael Walden.

VAN HALEN

They want to file suit against Foxboro Stadium near Boston, where the band's Monsters of Rock Tour was cancelled by vote of the town's Board of Selectmen. The group feels its freedom of speech was violated.

NU SHOOZ

CAMPER VAN BEETHOVEN

"PEACE IN OUR TIME"-THE SUN AND THE MOON (Geffen)

After all the legal fuss over the name "Chameleons," England's Mark Burgess and John Lever start anew with two fresh reinforcements. "Peace In Our Time" is a provocative debut and a warm, optimistic thought.

SOUL ASYLUM

HANG TIME-SOUL ASYLUM (TWIN TONE/A&M)

This must be Soul Asylum's fifth release as the side designation on the label reads "9" and "10." Like their Twin Tone soulmates, the Replacements, Soul Asylum play it loose and loud. Producers Lenny Kaye and Ed Stasium only perpetuate that attitude, keeping things live-sounding and rambunctious. After a few spins, "Sometime To Return" still rings truest, with "Cartoon" and "Jack Of All Trades" placing and showing.

the Metal Years²

THE DECLINE OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION

PART II: THE METAL YEARS (CAPITOL)

If you saw Penelope Spheeris' Decline Part I, you'll recall that the movie focused on hardcore punk bands like Black Flag, Fear and X during their early days. Part II zeroes in on the metal subculture of Los Angeles. The opening track off the soundtrack features Alice Cooper and shards of Guns N' Roses resurrecting the Cooper band's "Under My Wheels." Strictly for those people like Ikky Bop at KLOL-Houston who have already exhausted the Guns N' Roses album.

OUT OF ORDER-ROD STEWART (WARNER BROS.)
I like how Rod Stewart taunts guitarist Andy Taylor during the lead break on "The Wild Horse." It's a sample of a renewed energy that the Album Radio community recognizes in Rod's new music. Stewart uses a few players from his past in addition to gathering a few tips from Robert Palmer (whom he acknowledges on the sleeve). Other names overlapping between Out Of Order and Palmer's Riptide include Taylor, guitarist Eddie Martinez, Bernard Edwards and Tony Thompson. KZEL's Al Scott slyly recommends "Almost Illegal," which shows up as a bonus track not to be found on vinyl. Rod's in good voice and is looking quite healthy. If this LP flies, maybe he'll be able to spring for some new trousers.

SOUTH-SHONA LAING (TVT)

Australia's Shona Laing debuts as an album months after Larry The Duck first hipped us to "(Glad I'm) Not A Kennedy." The final verse fades with the voice of RFK reminding us that we should "not prematurely or unnecessarily risk the course of worldwide nuclear war in which even the fruits of victory would be ashes in our mouths." With the twentieth anniversary of RFK's murder, this could be considered a timely tribute.

EYE OF THE BEHOLDER-CHICK COREA AND THE ELEKTRIC BAND (GRP)

Eye Of The Beholder is a magnificent landscape featuring the fleet fingers of Chick Corea. Joined by bassist John Patitucci and Eric Marienthal on sax (who also have recent solo releases), the Elektrik Band beautifully completes the cycle from Corea's Yamaha synth to our trusty Yamaha amp.

This time around, Jimmy sounds more like the vibrant singer from Cold Chisel. Though he's helped along by a stable of Journey-men, tracks like the opening "Driving Wheels" and Dylan's "Seven Days" have that Australian rock n roll savvy that's so respected in the USA.

OTHER ROADS-BOZ SCAGGS (COLUMBIA)

The polished nature of Boz Scaggs' new album prompted a rock remix of "Cool Running," which in its original form conforms to the cool groove of the rest of the tunes. Other Road's most interesting aspect is still the pairing of Scaggs and New York street poet Jim Carroll. While Scaggs seems to be set on "medium cool," Carroll asks questions on each of his lyrical contributions. In fact, the entire album literally asks questions, like the opening track, "What's Number One?" (a common query around here). Meanwhile, Boz's new nightclub opens soon with Omette Coleman headlining the first show. That ought to tell you something about the man's interest in music.

JUDAS KISS-THE DEL LORDS (ENIGMA)

With the release of "Judas Kiss" as a single, it's hard to resist another mention of this fine song. It's one of this year's killers. Get a copy, give it a blast and let your audience know that you're a lord of the airwaves. Good anti-crack mention to boot.

TOTAL CONTROL-JOHN NORUM (EPIC)

John Norum is a refugee from Europe, the first Scandinavian delegation to penetrate the retail charts since Abba earned substantial shares of potato futures. Relying on a grittier sense of orchestral rock maneuvers, Norum picks a mean guitar on tracks like "Let Me Love You" and "Back On The Streets." There's also a touching cover of Phil Lynott's "Wild One." As with Europe, expect Norum's base to start with loyal orch-rock fans. KZ

LOOTERS

Their Island
Records Debut
FLASHPOINT

LOOTERS' music takes you to all corners of the globe. Lurking beneath their urban funk you'll find the back alleys, street corners and bars of Trinidad, Puerto Rico, Kingston, Lagos and Managua. Fueled by a social vision as challenging as their upbeat music is compelling, LOOTERS offer a reassuring fix on the global heartbeat.

THE SUN AND THE MOON

“PEACE IN OUR TIME” THE SUN AND THE MOON. ACHIEVE IT NOW.

DO-GOODERS

A round-up of some of the less mercenary aspects of our industries:

•Dionne Warwick, who with her friends raised $1.5 million for AIDS research with her recording of "That's What Friends Are For," will host an AIDS Benefit Weekend in Washington, DC, June 10-12th. Among the highlights of the weekend-long event will be a Sunday concert hosted by Whoopi Goldberg and featuring performances by Elton John, Gladys Knight, Mary Wilson, Rita Coolidge, Barry Manilow, Luther Vandross and, of course, Warwick herself

ANIMAL RIGHTS MUSIC FESTIVAL

•Elsewhere in the capital that weekend, an Animal Rights Music Festival at the National Mall will cater to a slightly different crowd. The B-52s will host the June 11th rally, with performances by Howard Jones, Guadalcanal Diary, Exene Cervenka of X, Natalie Merchant and Robert Buck from 10,000 Maniacs, as well as European rockers Lena Lovich and Nena Hagen, who contributed "Don't Kill The Animals" to the Animal Liberation album. Speakers include "Golden Girl" Rue McLanahan.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

Germ's Choice-A KUSF COMPILATION

(Germ Records) Many things make San Francisco unique. One of them is the music – it is bursting with talent. The Germ (host of the KUSF Demo Tape Show, from which these songs were taken) recently produced Germ's Choice. The twelve groups on this album comprise a small portion of artists in SF who have broken into the Alternative radio and club scene. M-1 Alternative's selection is a mellow moody piece that balances out the rawness of Primus. Everyone's favorite track is The Mud Puppies' "Your Stoned Man." For best results, crank up the volume.

Up Periscope-EL GRUPO SEXO

(Chameleon Music Group) The second album by seven twisted geniuses from Southern California. The variety on this dance floor-stomping vinyl is amazing. Hot jazz on "Sprechen Sie Be Bop" with killer solos that are all too short. "Dorkin' the Muffin" is one of the funniest songs I've heard in a long time. "Wo, Dude" rocks with edge but no where near the edge of "Dr. Zeus, King of the Gods." For that mellow moment, "Your Eyes." The album sleeve alone will make you wonder.

started his whitewashing. We've sort of had parallel careers.
KZ: Did you ever think that the election of Ronald Reagan would make rock n roll more rebellious?
TBB: No, I never thought that.
KZ: Well, I did, and I guess you were right. It didn't. In fact, we don't hear a lot of protest music these days.
TBB: I'm not writing Sixties protest music, but I am writing songs saying that this civilization is crumbling. Usually, people ignore me. I don't feel like a critic's darling at all.
KZ: Yet what about being viewed as a moralist?
TBB: I think people look for easy tags. There has been a trend for a long time towards using things like market research, causing all sorts of market fragmentation.
KZ: So you do somewhat understand radio and the media.
TBB: I just don't think it's a good idea for any society to become fragmented. Yet I think this society has become fragmented. Fragmentation puts up walls between people and furthers an evil trend.
KZ: Let me be the devil's advocate here. There are different cultures and points of view that relate directly to the things that folks buy and the music that they listen to. Shouldn't there be an easy way to program music or market products that effectively reach a given audience or consumer group?
TBB: That's the case now, but it wasn't the case when I was growing up. And I'm glad it wasn't. We now have a ghetto mentality--a rich white ghetto over here, a poor black one over here and a riotous Chicano ghetto over there. It's fragmentation. Radio aside, what fragmentation does is makes us increasingly afraid. Look at all these conservatives. You can see the demagoguery in someone like Orrin Hatch when he tries to control, sway, move and motivate people out of fear of what he fears, be it communism or whatever. What's happening in this society is that we're running away from each other out of fear. And that just breeds more fear. It's leading to a very unhealthy state, with leaders at the top telling us we are healthy while people starve in the streets.
KZ: Does the song "The Wild Truth" have anything to do with all of this?
TBB: I think that's exactly what the song's all about. Do you know that ten years ago there were over three hundred communication companies and networks in the United States? Right now there are just over twenty. That's who controls radio, television and newspapers. Everything is getting bought up. Ronald Reagan used to be a spokesman for General Electric. General Electric is now the biggest defense contractor in the United States. NBC was doing an investigation into wasteful defense spending. General Electric bought NBC. That investigation was then immediately shut down. Here we have a case of the government--the industrial/military complex--running the press. We're very close to absolute tyranny where we no longer have freedom of the press. I feel that the press is absolutely in the most conservative phase it's ever been in. And I want to stress that I'm not a liberal.
KZ: I recently heard an arch-conservative on the radio complaining bitterly about the liberal press.
TBB: That's demagoguery in a nutshell. The press has never been so conservative in my lifetime. This "liberal press" business doesn't wash. It's a good thing to say to alarm people and undermine the credibility of the press. But who do you think owns the press? Do you really think liberals own it? Ninety percent of it is owned and controlled by conservatives. However there are a few token liberal coke-head press people. This is why I wanted to talk to you. I really wanted to address all of this and this seemed like a good forum.

KZ: Then why do you term the truth as "wild"?

TBB: Because I wasn't talking about the mundane truth, like the sky being blue. I was talking about the wild truth, like the sky is red. I wasn't talking about the mundane truth like there being stars in the sky. I was talking about the wild truth, like the skies are going to roll down like a scroll. This place we live, this dimension we live in--whatever it is--is not at all as we perceive it. It's something much wilder than anything we perceive as being wild.

KZ: So where does the artist enter in? Is it enough to merely put forth a view of the world or hold a mirror up to the inconsistencies or the injustices?

TBB: No, I don't think it's enough. You can put forth a view of the world and say it's a horrible, awful place. Hopefully, an artist should and can give a point of view that inspires. I feel we're increasingly living in a completely imaginary world. During the early days at Walt Disney's EPCOT, there was a talking robot of Thomas Jefferson. He was sitting behind his desk framing the Declaration of Independence. So he stands up from behind the desk and says, "It's time for America to start thinking more positively about itself." Now here's the Disney people putting words in Thomas Jefferson's mouth! That's a terrible thing to do! I wouldn't be surprised to see one of those characters like Jerry Falwell erect a Bible amusement park where there's a robot of Jesus who stands up and says something like, "Today in America, the secular humanists are trying to overrun the schools. So Ollie North needs to be freed from prison." People would then accept that, in one sense, as Jesus' words. You see what I mean? This is what media tends to do. They are representing life to us in that same way as putting words and ideas into the mouth of a talking head of Jesus at Bibleland saying, "Free Oliver North." I know it's slightly futuristic--by about twelve minutes. Do I sound like a crackpot?

KZ: I don't know. I guess that's for our readers to judge. Relating all of this to the state of music and radio, isn't it encouraging that the number one band in America is U2, a band that is complex both in its spirit and philosophy and in its musical direction?

TBB: U2 is number one in some ways, but remember that Bon Jovi sold more records.

KZ: Yet isn't it amazing that a U2 or T Bone Burnett can make records that are experimental in nature, yet reach a mainstream audience that we constantly sell short?

TBB: I feel a lot of the popularity U2 enjoyed on their last record was the same popularity Bruce Springsteen enjoyed with "Born In The USA." He sort of became the thing of the moment. Bruce Springsteen probably has thousands and thousands of fans who don't know much about him at all, but just want to be there. A lot of those people might not care much about him as a man or his work as a writer. Yet, at the same time, a huge number of people care about life. I think these are the people who are consistently ignored by the media. I'm frequently accused in the press of being cynical. And I don't think I am at all. I think people who program television for the lowest common denominator are the cynical ones. I don't think I'm cynical. I care about life. I also think life is hard. It's a rugged uphill journey. But it's eminently worth living.

KZ: We often think, when listening to music, how tough it must be to be a kid these days.

TBB: That's what I think. But you know, I've noticed something about kids. Most children, if you tell them there's a better way, will try it, because they want their lives to be better. And that goes for everyone else. Most people would like their lives to be better than they currently are. Right now, because we live in a materialistic society, we're told the way to make our lives better is by having more money. Then people make more money and find that it's not true. There are ways to have a better life that you can try everyday. That's what I'm talking about in my songs. And that's what that song, "The Wild Truth" is about. That's what this whole record is about.

KZ: I have to ask you about a line in the song, "Euromad." I'm referring to the line, "Were it not for Mr. Gordon and his fine distillery." That line is unlike you, considering what a wimpy drinker you are.

TBB: (laughs) I wasn't one on that trip.

KZ: Gin is rough stuff.

TBB: It is. It's blues juice, you know? I grew up on it. I wasn't always a wimpy drinker. I just recently became that over time. Drinking is like exercise. You can build up your muscles by lifting weights. If you drink for a couple of weeks straight, you become a heroic drinker.

KZ: Didn't you start your musical career very young, not as a musician but actually as a producer?

TBB: I was a musician, but I started producing at about age sixteen. I realized very early on that I wasn't cut out to be Elvis Presley.

KZ: Most people expect a producer to be a seasoned and experienced traffic director at a session.

TBB: It is sort of like that, actually.

KZ: But as a youngster, you produced singers like Delbert McClinton. What makes a young person become a producer, as opposed to strapping on a guitar and going for the girls?

TBB: I was fascinated by the whole process of the studio. At the time, it was 1965, the beginning of the technological explosion. I mean, this was the very beginning of rock n roll starting with four tracks. You could really play with things. You could turn tape around and cut it and do tricks. We used to play with things a lot. It was terrific good fun to put one sound against another and make this crazy thing. I started doing that, and I loved it! I then chose it as a life. I realized I was too insecure to go onstage.

KZ: I remember seeing you with the Alpha Band. You didn't seem that withdrawn or timid to me.

TBB: Oh, but I was! Those tours were torture. They still are. It's torture for me to go onstage. But I got better when I went out solo for a year. I finally learned what it's about and I began to enjoy it. In order for me to do it again, I'd probably have to get acclimated. It's hard to put a record out and then perform it live. I saw a study a few years ago that stated that one of the most stressful things a person can do is to be a teacher, public speaker or a musician. It talked about how stressful it is to get up in front of your peers and be judged. You see, I just don't have that "thing," that rock star "thing" inside me.

KZ: What else are you excited about?

TBB: Sam Phillip's new record is really wonderful. You can quote me as saying that this is my best work as a producer.

KZ: Better than Los Lobos?

TBB: As a producer, by far, yes. I think she's about the best writer to come around since Elvis Costello. That's what I think. You can call it acid pop, okay?

KZ: Give us a hint as to how Elvis Costello's record is going to sound.

TBB: It's going to be wonderful. Elvis has written some really great songs. The album is not going to be anything like King Of America. Remember how he used to write hip pop songs? They sounded like classic pop songs.

KZ: Like "Oliver's Army"?

TBB: Yeah, like that stuff. This record will be a lot like that. These songs aren't as vague as his recent stuff. His writing is getting more concise again, but it's got a depth that he's never had before. Very interesting songs. I'm very excited about working on that record. Also, I'm getting very inspired about music. I've found some old music that's inspired me enormously.

KZ: What kind of music is that?

TBB: I'm not gonna say. But I've found some music that has inspired me again, and I've started writing again. I'll probably do another record next fall. I'm glad to be worked up about something again. It's that feeling, that crazy feeling. Living in Hollywood, all events conspire to make you think about everything you shouldn't think about, and nothing encourages you to think about what you should be thinking about.

KZ: So why do you live in Hollywood?

TBB: I don't. I've been here and I'm getting out as soon as I can. I've been looking at Virginia. It's beautiful there. Meanwhile, I'll be in Ireland for three months working on Elvis' record. We're gonna work hard to make a good record. ●

INSIDE COUNTRY

COUNTRY CONCERT CRAZE. We're moving into a solid month of major Country events, starting with the KLAC/KZLA's Country Fest May 21st and 22nd in Los Angeles. Among the acts will be Rosanne Cash, Desert Rose Band, the O'Kanes, Patty Loveless, Earl Thomas Conley, Rodney Crowell, Michael Johnson, Jerry Lee Lewis, Dan Seals, Eddie Rabbit and the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. The first week of June, Nashville will be all a-bustle with Fan Fair activities, and almost every major label will be sponsoring it's own showcase during the week. And finally, Alabama's annual June Jam takes place in Ft. Payne on June 11th and will feature Alabama (obviously), Exile, K.T. Oslin, Eddy Raven, Steve Earle, the Bellamys, Sawyer Brown, Mel McDaniel, Restless Heart, David Lynn Jones, Sweethearts of the Rodeo, and more. Whew - what a month!

GAVIN COUNTRY WELCOMES AND CONGRATS. The Gavin Country Crew welcomes two new stations to our reporting family this week. Jennifer Page will be reporting to us from KYGO-Denver, and newly named MD Keith Langley will be calling from WPPI-Carrollton, GA. Len Shackelford is now MD at WSSL-Greenville. And, finally, special congratulations to Kevin Stuart at KXKW-Lafayette, who just graduated from the University of Louisiana (with a 3.4 GPA, no less).

PROGRAMMERS ARE TALKING ABOUT... Bruce Hornsby requested more than Randy Travis? Strange but true, according to Joe Langdon at KYXE-Selah/Yakima. Joe says Bruce is already at number four with very heavy requests... Johnny Randolph at KTDO-Toledo has put together a Statler's medley of old song. It's about four minutes long, and Johnny reports it's drawing "gangbuster calls"... Everyone seems to be having fun with the Burch Sisters record, playing "angry dedications" from listeners... Jim Quinton at WCHK/FM-Canton reports immediate response to Dolly's "Everyday Hero" off the Rainbow LP... Kelly Thompson at KMDL-Kaplan is reporting heavy sales on the Jeff Dugan single... Sean Lisle at KNBA-Vallejo is playing Rhonda Fleming's "She Must Be Beautiful" from the Signatures (Songwriters) album, and says the song should do well in any seaport town...

Talk to you next week. The Gavin Country Crew

REVIEWS

By Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

RICKY SKAGGS - Thanks Again (Epic)
Ricky's sentimental salute to Mom and Dad is already a hit with concert audiences. It should have the same effect on your listeners.

VINCE GILL - The Radio (RCA)
This single finds Vince still missin' his wife, Sweethearts of the Rodeo's Janis Gill, and finding solace hearing her songs on "the radio." You know, your typical two-career couple problem.

THE MCCARTERS - The Gift (Warner Bros.)

Another pretty ballad from the ladies of the Smoky Mountains. Nancy Montgomery's, lyrics benefit from a female interpretation, as Jennifer, Lisa and Theresa give it their all.

Album Of The Week**

SWEETHEARTS OF THE RODEO - One Time, One Night (Columbia)

The aforementioned Sweethearts have done a beautiful job with their second LP, from the cover art, to the song selection, to the sisters' perfected harmony. The album cooks along, with lots of cuts to choose from. Taking on songs of the Beatles, the Everlys and Los Lobos, the Sweethearts come up winning every time. Our favorite, "Blue To The Bone," is just tough enough to be convincing. We also recommend "We Won't Let That River Come Between Us," "Don't Look Down," "I Feel Fine," "Gone Again" and the title cut.

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY got a lot of attention this week—along with being the most added with 42 adds. Jimmy Smith, KKDA-Dallas, commented: "This single is the best move D'Arby has made for Urban radio. It can't miss—will be the biggest thing here for him." Mike Archie, WHUR-Washington, D.C., says watch this one—it's going places.

VANESSA WILLIAMS would be next in line for getting the most response from reporters. Rick Stevens, WCKX-Columbus, can think of 100 reasons to watch that one. Then Ray Boyd, V103-Atlanta, stated that all this talent should have been exposed long ago. Mickey Arnold, WRDW-Augusta, voices his opinion: "Her voice is only exceeded by her beauty, which is unsurpassed." Phillip David March, WJYL-Louisville, had to say "She has all the right stuff," and Costee McNair, WBIL-Tuskegee, agrees, making it his RTW.

SADE has made major progress, with Tony Wright, WJIZ-Albany, saying "Glad to see her back with a great song for Urban Contemporary radio as her first single." Alton Palmore, WQIC/FM-Meridian, predicts: "Sade's single will sneak up and get to the top of the charts in no time."

BOBBY BROWN wins big this week as second most added. Victor Savage, WYLD/FM-New Orleans, gives his impression of this ex-New Edition member with three words: "It is kicking!" Frank Barrow, KRIZ-Seattle, was grateful: "Thank Bobby Brown for a big hit—getting top requests here—all demos." Earl Mikki Spencer, WKIE-Richmond, had reports of continuous calls: "Keep your eye on this one. In less than a week, the kids here are ringing the phones off the hook, making it number one phones." Gary Young, WLUM-Milwaukee, makes it his RTW, and so does Bobby Rush, WZAK-Cleveland.

Earl Boston, WFXM-Macon, likes D'KRASH's new single, "Trapped In Phases." Says Earl, "A driving record, this song has a groove you have to move to."

Joe Bullard, WANM-Tallahassee, calls in his RTW as THE TROOP, which also qualifies as one of our top three most added. Jimmy Smith, KKDA-Dallas, singled this one out, too, saying "I really like it." P.C. Wiley, WGSW-Greenwood, wanted to be quoted: "The Troop is going to be a nice summer record. Everybody should pick up on it before it's too late."

A few of our correspondents wanted to mention left-fielders, now that baseball season is in full swing: Lee Green, KWTD-Little Rock, says RJ'S LATEST ARRIVAL is "a smash out-of-the-box." L.D. McCollum, XHRM-San Diego, repeats what many have said earlier: "This DIANNE REEVES is going to sneak up and be a big one. It's our most requested after two weeks of airplay."

Melvin Jones, KRNB-Memphis, wants to recommend THE DEELE, saying, "It's got that all-American type of sound that all types can relate to." Tony Scott, WEKS-Atlanta, says the OHIO PLAYERS is hot. Greg Beasley, KMJM-St. Louis, says give another listen to the "beefed-up remix of the MORRIS DAY. It's great!" Jay Jefferies, KXZZ-Lake Charles, likes the GUY single, and so do his listeners: "It's leading all other requests three to one, after only two weeks. Number one phones and number two sales here," says Jay.

Remember Memorial Day we'll be closed (May 30th) but we'll be here all day Tuesday to take your reports.

Ciao for now, Betty

REVIEWS

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

SHIRLEY MURDOCK - Husband (Elektra)
Sounds so familiar - almost like a cover of something else - but it's not. A sweet ballad produced by Gavin cover guy Roger, without the famous voice box.

TAYLOR DAYNE - I'll Always Love You (Arista)

Taylor Dayne decelerates from 100BPM and coasts into a ballad. Urban stations shouldn't have trouble taking to this third release from her debut album, "Tell It To My Heart."

PAUL JOHNSON - Every Kinda People (CBS)

Paul Johnson gives this remake of Robert Palmer's Top 40 hit of ten years ago a treatment suitable for Urban radio - a la two Al's, Green and Jarreau, that is.

DAVID SEA - Love C.O.D. (Magic City)

Alabama native David Sea gets sax assistance from Ronnie Laws, beginning with the first refrain. Should segue well with Teddy's Pendergrass' "Joy."

SIFDAH GARRETT - K.I.S.S.I.N.G. (Qwest/Reprise)

The unmistakable charm of Mr. Jackson's duet partner comes through loud and clear in this, our spelling lesson of the week. Michael's influence is apparent on the first single from her forthcoming LP, "Kiss Of Life."

UPWARD MOBILITY'S DOWNSIDE

Responding to the "Programming Philosophy" of Chip Moseley detailed in this column, Bill St. John, PD of WGAD in Gadsden, Alabama writes:

"Chip is right on! If this philosophy is implemented at any station, I'd venture that that station would become a winner. I'd also like to venture a couple of other opinions: (1) There are plenty of other programmers out there with a similar philosophy who will never get the chance to prove themselves (in large markets) because there are too many management types with the 'short-playlist, no-research, moneymaking-promotions-only, any-jock can-do-it' mentality. And (2) It's not necessarily bad not to get that chance.

By that last comment, I mean being in a smaller market can make you happy. I know. This is the largest market I've ever worked in, and if I never leave, it will be okay. I know what I can do; I've proven it, and I believe in myself...On top of that, this is a great town to live in, and my family is happy here.

"So if I get the chance to program a 'biggie,' great. If not, I'll be happy here, working with good people, trying to make a good station better."

I salute Bill for knowing what most only find out when they get to the "biggies"--that there is a lot to be said for being in a smaller market, which is one reason so many people "make it big" and then move back to a smaller market, often as owner or manager. Of course, there is something to be said for a larger market, too, particularly the bigger bucks. But in radio, as in any facet of show business, the bigger your paycheck, the more you are expected to earn it with solid (and, all too often, fast) results. Programmers in big markets frequently are forced to live and die by the next ratings book, which is one reason I have been railing against the statistical unreliability of Arbitron's results for two decades now.

Major-market success as a programmer can make you a national figure, but, as Bill suggests, it is dependent on working for a management which has sufficient confidence in you to let you institute your "programming philosophy"! At a big-market broadcast property, billings are more dependent upon small changes in ratings, and the station's value when sold varies enormously with small ratings changes, so there is a tendency to lean toward the tried and true, rather than gamble with original thinking.

I don't think things are quite as bleak in large markets as Bill indicates, but any programmer moving from a smaller market to a larger one certainly has to be prepared to change his or her manner of relating to management. First and foremost, be conscious of that bottom line I mentioned. Second, seek input on the expected goals, and make sure everyone is in agreement on them--and on what can reasonably be expected and when--because you will be evaluated as a Program Director on how well you meet those goals. Believe it or not, many programmers go into large markets assuming they were hired for what they've done before--on their abilities alone--and are embittered when shortly afterward they are fired for failing to meet goals which management felt they should have known, and which they never thought to help establish.

Third, develop your "people skills," since you will be evaluated also on how well you get along with your boss, the people you are responsible for, and others in positions of importance at the station. This does not mean you need to be as obsequious as Bill suggests, but it does mean that if you are inclined to work alone, issuing edicts from an ivory tower, you are more likely to get away with it in a smaller market than at a "biggie."

While on the subject, I'd like to reiterate that the only programmers who ever got famous copying other people's winning ideas were those who caught on very fast. Quite a few PDs became legends by being the first in major markets to copy the Gordon McLendon concepts of Top 40 in the late '50s. A very few pulled off the same trick by copying Bill Drake, who himself incorporated into his "Boss Radio" format elements originated by Ron Jacobs, who competed against him in Fresno, and later worked for him.

But the exceptions prove the rule: The successful innovator is the one who emerges. That's why I stress the value of being a "contrarian." You seldom beat #1 by copying #1. But if you can come up with a not-currently orthodox approach that works, you can not only win, but your competition can help you win, by messing up their own successful formula in reaction to your success. ●

As in any facet of show business, the bigger your paycheck, the more you are expected to earn it.

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

With Dave Sholin on vacation, this week's reviews are by Ron Fell:

CHICAGO - I Don't Wanna Live Without Your Love (Full Moon/Reprise)

A change of producers (Ron Nevison replaces David Foster) and shazaam!!! Chicago makes a powerful, rock-ribbed ballad, complete with a burnin' guitar solo to go with Bill Champlin's lead vocal.

GLORIA ESTEFAN & MIAMI SOUND MACHINE - 1-2-3 (Epic)

Re-arranged and re-mixed from the album version, "1-2-3" now has a serious dose of horns and a splashy rhythm track to accentuate its conga attitude. Coming off a number-one single and an album which is still bearing fruit a year after its release, Gloria & the Machine can't miss.

COREY HART - In Your Soul (EMI-Manhattan)

Using a lyrical shorthand, Corey has written another special song with a "You-can't-kill-the-dream-in-a-dreamer" slant.

PAULA ABDUL - Knocked Out (Virgin)

If you're lookin' for hooks, this is it. Produced by L.A. Reid and Babyface, the arrangement lends itself to multi-format potential. This former Los Angeles Lakers cheerleader and choreographer for the likes of Janet Jackson is gonna be big.

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

ROD STEWART-Out Of Order (Warner Bros.)

This album couldn't have come at a more appropriate time. Rod's recording career needed a kick in the paisley pants right about now and "Out Of Order" delivers. Produced with Andy Taylor and Bernard Edwards, the album fulfills the expectations of those who demand rock credibility and a pure passion in the medium. There are four special moments within this very consistent LP. Otis Redding's TRY A LITTLE TENDERNESS captures the soul and inspiration of the 22-year-old original. Side two's opener, DYNAMITE, ignites the entire side of vinyl with its scorching guitars and heavy timbre kindling of bass and drums. The first single, LOST IN YOU is a prancing ode to the bliss of the kiss and FOREVER YOUNG (not the Dylan song) sounds like a four minute toast at the last supper of a relationship. Rod's back and the entire spectrum of rock 'n' roll radio benefits.
