THE SPIRIT OF RADIO LEANS TOP 40

TORONTO'S CFNY AIMS AT MASS APPEAL

Toronto's CFNY, which for years has billed itself as the cutting edge "Spirit of Radio," is moving towards the center. "Management is tightening the format considerably," says MD Ivar Hamilton. "The playlist will probably be reduced 60-65 percent. We will probably be the tightest AOR in Canada."

While CFNY has achieved respectable ratings, Hamilton says they have flattened out in the past few years, and owner Selkirk Communications would like to make the station number one in the market among 16-34s. "To do that, we obviously must put more emphasis on upping the rotations and narrowing the playlist," Ivar says. "But we won't ignore the bands we've built in the last 10 years, like R.E.M., Simple Minds, New Order and Depeche Mode." No personnel changes have taken place yet—except for the addition

RETURNS TO MIAMI

ISLEY ICES HOT105 PD JOB

Eighteen months after leaving WINZ/I95, Keith Isley is returning to South Florida, as PD of Miami's HOT105. "We had a lot of highly qualified applicants," said VP/GM Bill Gilreath, "but when it came down to it, his knowledge of the market and his winning track record here was the decisive factor. He's a smart music man who knows that it takes to win." Isley, who has been working at WOHO-Toledo, OH, starts August 8th.

THE SHADOE BOWS

Shadoe Stevens ran into Gavin cover guy Elton John (right) while both were making promotional appearances in Chicago. Shadoe will make history the weekend of August 13-14th, when he takes the helm of "American Top 40," replacing 18-year host Casey Kasem. AT-40, produced by ABC Watermark, is heard on more than 1,000 stations worldwide. ABC is supporting Shadoe's debut with a $2 million national TV campaign. Stevens will also embark on a multi-city promotional tour over the next six months, while holding down his chair on TV's "Hollywood Squares."

of a computer to replace the jocks' freedom to choose what they play. As for listener reaction, Hamilton says, "They'll go crazy for a couple of weeks, then forget about it. Isn't that always the way it goes?"

RADI-O-RAMA

G105/WDCG-Durham, NC, hires weekend air talents Jeff Cochran and Don O'Brien ... John Pellegrino is now MD at WRNY-Rome, GA ... WMOH-Hamilton, OH, is looking for a new PD, now that Sam Wilder is moving to the sales side ... Missie Kemper joins WAZU-Dayton/Springfield for overnights, as Nancy Wilson moves to afternoon news ... KIIK-Davenport, IA, Operations Manager Gynny O'Hara has retired, saying: "It's been a

MASON DIXON STICKS WITH Q105

'QXI PD CHAIR STILL VACANT

"That's baseball," shrugs Jerry Blum, whose search for a PD is beginning to resemble the Braves' pennant quest. After hiring and firing Bob Linden, Blum signed Mason Dixon, OM at Tampa's legendary Q105. That deal is now off, with Dixon electing to remain with Edens Broadcasting and a multi-year, multi-million dollar contract. Says Blum: "I'm back to square one."

CHILDS VEEPED

Carole Childs has been named VP/A&R-West Coast for Elektra Records. "Carole Childs comes to Elektra with an industry-wide reputation for uncovering important new talent," said label Chairman Bob Krasnow. "This company can only benefit from her knowledge, enthusiasm and genuine love of great music."

wonderful career, and I'd like to see if I can do anything else—like be a human being for a while!" ... At KGLI-Sioux City, Rick Elliott moves up to MD and Matt Thompson to Promotions Director.

Robert Roll rocks into the Operations Director job at L.A.'s KMPC/FM ... Claire West joins Burns Media as Director of Sales & Marketing ... KKXX/FM-Bakersfield is now known as POWER105, reflecting its move from Top 40 to a more dance-oriented sound. PD Chris Squires and MD Dave Christopher remain, with Emmis Broadcasting doing the consulting ... Angie Bennett is the new News Director at KDES-Palm Springs ... At KKOR-Gallup, NM, Brian Mason is the new MD as Eric Allen moves over to News Director ... Morning man Pat Reynolds takes on PD title at Y97-Santa Barbara and is looking for killer Top 40 air and production talents.

ROTATIONS

Adam Somers has been promoted to Senior VP/Creative Services for Warner Bros. Records. He's been with the label for 17 years. Board Chairman Mo Ostin commented, "A glance at Adam's history here is proof enough of his commitment to and qualifications for this key post."

Former Primitive Man Records dynamo Sam Gennaway is currently looking for a record label position in either A&R, Artist Development or Promotion. You can reach him at (714) 962-0854.

DIEHARD LABOR

WYMJ-Dayton contest winners Linda and Terry Kasten expected to be thrilled when they attended a sneak preview of "Die Hard"—and got more than they bargained for. Midway through the Bruce Willis adventure film, Linda started going into labor—a week ahead of time, and ended up in the delivery room before the closing credits. Mother, father and their eight pound, 13 ounce baby boy are doing fine.

Mary Ann McCready

WILLING & ABLE

CBS Records/Nashville promotes Mary Ann McCready to Vice President, Sales & Product Development. She has been with the label since graduating from Vanderbilt in 1974. Five years ago, she became the youngest person and first woman to win the Country Music Association's "Founding President's Award," and was honored again by the CMA for her special service in 1986.

NAMED PD AT WQUE IN NEW ORLEANS
BOB WEST HEADING SOUTH

Former KROY-Sacramento programmer Bob West has signed on as PD at New Orleans' 93FM/WQUE. He replaces Jay Stevens, who left to be OM at KOY-Phoenix last month. According Dale Matteson, VP/GM at the Clear Channel outlet, West got the job "because of his continuing relationship with consultant Jerry Clifton, who consults this station. Bob and Jerry have worked together for 10 years. Bob knows how to win and understands this particular crossover format. We didn't want to have to retrain somebody on our game plan." West was scheduled to start work August 1st.

HUDSON TO HANDLE RESEARCH
KEYES LOCKS UP Z104 MD JOB

Gavin Award-winning MD Matt Hudson has a new job at Z104-Madison. He now answers to the title of Sales & Programming Research Director, and will keep his afternoon drive airshift. "Matt's a computer freak," explains PD Jonathan Little. "This will make best use of his talent." The new MD is evening host Fletcher Keyes, who also hosts Z104's Sunday night "Beat of the City" show.

ZISKROUT HEADS EAST. BROSID DIRECTS WEST ARISTA REVAMPS ROCK DEPT.

Arista Records National Album Promotion Director Jay Ziskrout is heading back to the Big Apple. After a year on the West Coast, Jay is relocating to Arista's New York headquarters, where he will assume expanded duties. According to VP/National Album Promotion Sean Coakley, "In the three years Jay has been with Arista, he has developed into one of the best record promoters in the business. I'm delighted that he's agreed to come back to New York to increase his responsibilities, both at radio and in developing overall game plans for our growing rock roster."

Joining Arista as Manager, West Coast Rock Promotion is Hilaire Brosio. He's been with Frontier Records since March, and before that worked for Big Time and KUCI-Irvine, CA. Coakley's comment: "As our rock presence increases daily, Hilaire's background in college radio and his experience in promoting developing acts on smaller independent labels will be a most valuable asset."

Hilaire Brosio

HOT TOPIC IN SAN JOSE DANCE LIVES!

No sooner did last week's issue hit the mail than KHQT-San Jose PD Steve Smith was on the phone declaring that his dance-oriented outlet is no one-book wonder. Noting KWSS PD Mike Preston's assertion that his station's 2.6-6.0 rise 12+ was fueled by heavy teen numbers, Steve said, "That's not all—we were number one among women 18-49, and right behind KWSS in 18-34 adults. And we fared very well with adults 18-49." Despite the recent drought of high-charting dance product, Steve says the genre has never been healthier. "I wish you could spend 15 minutes answering our request line. If anything, dance music—at least on the West Coast—has never been hotter." His next task is building those upper demos—and outperforming a crowded Top 40 field that has gotten a lot more competitive. "KWSS is a great-sounding radio station now," says Smith. "Competition encourages great radio."

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

It was nice to hear your reactions to the magazine's most recent facelift. Readers viewed it as a fresh change, and we're glad. By adjusting the flow and readability, the GAVIN REPORT will now have an easier time adding more meaningful content in future issues.

In this week's chart, momentum continued on practically all of last week's underlined titles. Two records, PETER CETERA and NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK, managed to debut onto this week's chart. But things should heat up again next week as Chartbound is fortified with a few more songs that are racking up impressive airplay totals. Most programmers I spoke with this week seem to be coping with the summer ballad glut on a week-by-week basis with adequate results. With less than six weeks left for upbeat summer programming, there's still enough time and interesting product on the horizon to keep things hot.

Take, for example, BOBBY McFERRIN's "Don't Worry, Be Happy." There's been formidable response to last week's cover artist. This week he makes Top Tip status with 55 adds and a 4% Hit Factor. Ray Kalusa at KCPX-Salt Lake City said he and Lou Simon were initially hesitant to even add the record. But heavy AM drive response turned into all-day requests, so McFerrin debuts in at #25. This seems to be the story everywhere--skepticism followed by success in attracting adult listeners' attention. In other words, don't worry, just play it!

Some of you are familiar with KZZP-Phoenix's success with UB40's "Red Red Wine." Yes, the song is from the Labour Of Love LP, which is more than three years old. A&M Records cooperated by making sure the LP was stocked in the stores, and the result was the station seeing the album hit #3 in their sales research for the Phoenix market. Gene Baxter says UB40 is #2 in requests and is their number one research record for all demos. Stations in San Diego, Modesto, San Jose and other areas have followed suit, even though a single release is not planned. Gary Weinstein at KATD in San Jose added the record and logged number one requests. By the way, Gary noticed breakthrough action with our co-Certified, New Kids On The Block, by debuting it on his chart at #26.

Keith Richards at KAKS in Amarillo is having good luck with VAN HELEN's latest, charting it 31-23. On our national chart, the Monsters Of Rock tour put Van Halen into the top twenty--25-19--with much more momentum in sight. KC101 in New Haven charts it 25-21 amid their heavily log-jammed chart with hopes of moving it even higher next week. Other action includes: WXXX 20-15, WSPK 16-12, B94 14-12, WAVA 19-16, WHSY 15-10, WKLQ 17-12, KZEV 15-11, WIFC 20-13, WPXR 13-8, Z104 12-10, KEGL 10-8, KYVA 19-15, FM104 19-14, KATD 8-7, KWSD 14-10, KIQY 17-13, KZHR 8-6 and OK95 14-9.

ROBERT PALMER

The ROBERT PALMER and TRACY CHAPMAN singles continue their awesome, almost tandem climb up the charts, 17-12 and 18-13 respectively. Palmer's 37% to 65% Hit Factor raise makes it one of the most active summer records. Tracy Chapman is an incredible success for at least half of our eight formats--Album, A/C, Top 40 and our new Adult Alternative. John Raymond of KIXY in San Angelo is one of many programmers who like the JOAN JETT single. John likes the way it sounds on the air and is seeing single sales after charting it at #10. John's number three record, STRYPER, is the top-selling album in his market. Mike Tinnes at WKLQ-Grand Rapids sees heavy Stryper sales as well, and expects the single to chart well on his playlist next week. Ken Calvin of KKEZ-Ft. Dodge has put Joan Jett on heavy rotation with great response. If given the chance, Joan's record could draw well rounded male-female-teen interest. Nationally, Top 40 programmers see active sales research for GUNS N' ROSES, currently on tour with AEROSMITH. As sales accompany number one requests nationwide, our research shows almost a third of its total reports in the 11-20 slot, with 100 more stations close behind. Nowadays it takes a tremendous amount of chart fuel for rock records to overtake ballads and Urban crossovers on the way to the upper reaches of the chart. Guns N' Roses, Van Halen, REO SPEEDWAGON and PAT BENATAR just may break fashion during the next few summer weeks.

Last week's Record To Watch, ERASURE, is having a great go towards hit status. The record is working well for many stations and their American Tour is doing sold out biz. This week we saw two dozen new believers including: WJLK, WPST, WXXX, WAIL WCGQ, WRTB, WYTZ, Z104, KITY, KOZE, Y108, KPSI, KSJQ, KIQY, KQEN, WCLG and more! Check out this chart activity: KITS 17-8, KYOS 9-7, KRBE #9 and 93Q 30-22.

At the same time, NEW EDITION, last week's Top Tip glided into Chartbound this week due to a healthy 15% Hit Factor. Expect New Kids On The Block, New Edition and THE JETS to be the next teenaged Top 40 success stories during August.

This week's Record To Watch, BLUE ZONE UK is a flashy pop song, that, given a shot, should cultivate more chart activity in future weeks. Early call letter action includes, WNYZ, WRKC, WTIC, Z94, 106X, K104, WK WKSP, WAGQ, WBBQ, WWUF, KPHR, KROC WDBR, WYTZ, KTUF, KAKS, KIXY, KOZE, KTRS, KZFN, KDON, KMEL, KMGX, KSLY, KXPW, KACI, KAGO, KHSS, KTMT, KZZK and KZZU, to name more than a few.

Dave Sholin will be back this week from vacation, and as usual, it's a blast sitting in for him. Take care. Your pal, Keith Z.

INSIDE URBAN

NORMAN CONNORS featuring
GABRIELLE GOODMAN - Lovin' You
(Capitol)

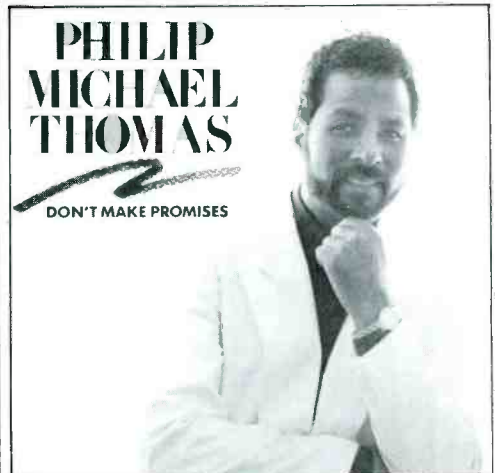

How many of you remember the original version. It was a big hit for Minnie Riperton back in 1975, when she hit those seldom-reached high notes. Gabrielle does an awesome job on this remake. Our congratulations!

MAC BAND featuring THE McCAMPBELL BROTHERS - Stuck (MCA)
Award-winning producers Babyface and L.A. Reid expend their talents on a stroke of sheer funk - something to follow up their hit ballad, "Roses Are Red," that should have no trouble finding its way into your power mixes!

D.J. JAZZY JEFF & THE FRESH PRINCE -
A Nightmare On My Street (Jive/RCA)

Next week's cover will feature these two talents, along with some of their more notorious peers. This release is definitely one of their more clever topics, and we expect it to do as well or better than "Parents Just Don't Understand."

PHILIP MICHAEL THOMAS - Don't Make Promises (Spaceship/Atlantic)

Florida not only produced Gloria Estefan and Miami Sound Machine and Will To Power, they also have other Vices! Philip Michael Thomas returns to the wax with this mellow single from the album "Somebody."

NEW RELEASES by Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

Thank you for all your wonderful comments and compliments on Gavin's new look and our new position in the magazine. This week brings the onset of a weekly feature: phone numbers are now printed after our radio correspondents' names, cities and call letters. This will make it easier for everyone to call you, which helps in keeping you serviced with the latest product on the market, as well as enabling you to call your friends in radio more easily. All formats, including our new Jazz and Adult Alternative sections that premiered last week, will have numbers listed. Please check your own phone number and correct us if we're wrong. It's very easy to correct these at a moment's notice.

JEFFREY OSBORNE was the name on most of your responses when we asked you what you record to watch was going to be. Andrew Bailey, WYNN-Florence, says, "'She's On The Left' is going straight up the middle to the top of the chart." Michael Saunders, WPEG-Charlotte, and Rob Morris, WVKO-Columbus, both made it their RTW. He has an amazing 38% Hit Factor after only one week's airplay. CHAPTER 8 had a great week, too, on the phones and in the airplay department. Alton Palmore, WQIC/FM-Meridian, says it's one of his most requested tunes, "This lead singer could go on to fame like Anita Baker did--she's that good!" Chris Clay, KQXL-Baton Rouge, reports, "Great phone response already from all demos." Getting into the newer product, D.J. JAZZY JEFF & THE FRESH PRINCE's "A Nightmare On My Street," arrived this week to a welcome applause from our correspondents. "After one play it's one of our most requested--top three requests--which makes it hotter already than their last hit," reports Kevin Morrison, WDKX-Rochester. Ron Davis, WQIS-Laurel/Hattiesburg, lists DJJJ&FP as his RTW, also indicating that the new MAC BAND sounds like a winner. Doc Holiday, WQMG-Greensboro, also likes the Mac Band, and notes that KEITH SWEAT is getting number one phones. Getting back to some really new product, Greg Beasley, KMJM-St.Louis, reports the LEVERT is "already a hot one."

Hozie Mack, WFXC-Durham, mentions the J.J.FAD is drawing major requests, young demos, especially males. "I feel it will be a hot rap song," says Hozie. Ricky Lyles, WRAG-Carrollton, says "My Prerogative," the expected new single from BOBBY BROWN, is already creating massive phone response. TYRONE DAVIS' "It's A Miracle" gets input from Melvin Jones, KRNB-Memphis: "An excellent R&B tune that Urban radio can and should play." Mad Hatter, WGOK-Mobile, likes the MARVA KING "Back-Up," which he says is "movin' up" to the top in Mobile. Larry Gipson, KRUS-Ruston, reports calls already for STACY LATTISAW's "Ain't No Mountain Enough."

Our Record To Watch, KIARA's "The Best Of Me," merits a remark from K.J. Holiday, WJDY-Salisbury: "It's my record to watch this week--one of the best I've heard." It's nice to hear your comments on our "Top Tip," which is a new listing added last week. When you have tips for us, we're ready to listen. Remember, 100% of our information comes from you, radio. So when you talk, we listen.

Ciao for now, Betty.

INSIDE A/C

In less than six months, GLORIA ESTEFAN and MIAMI SOUND MACHINE have had three number one A/C singles as "1-2-3" wins a close race over an ebbing BILLY OCEAN, a tenacious RICHARD MARX, a rolling WINWOOD, a herculean ELTON JOHN and an aspiring BREATHE.

Baby Boom Baby

JAMES TAYLOR's latest, "Baby Boom Baby," has now reached 200 A/C stations and is HIT FACTORed at 89% of them. Few records have cleared 200 of our reporters in just eight weeks, but JAMES did it, and ELTON nearly did it.

Nine of the top 17 records in the chart moved just one position in ranking and only three of that top 17 show serious erosion, which just makes next week's chart that much more critical than usual. HALL & OATES, TAYLOR DAYNE and HUEY LEWIS will run up against the logjam next week, so expect even the great ones to crawl for numbers next week.

JOHNNY HATES JAZZ has quietly climbed 15 rungs of the A/C ladder in the past two weeks and HIT FACTOR has shot from 12% to 62%. "I Don't Want To Be A Hero" has now been conscientiously accepted by 133 Gavin A/C stations, including new recruits KFMB, WACO/FM, WGOL/FM and WJXL.

The view from here on HORNSBY's "Look Out Any Window," is clear, as nearly half of its 135 players are HIT FACTORing, and it ranks fourth in PLUS FACTOR.

PETER CETERA, for the second week in a row, wins PLUS FACTOR, this week adding 28% in HIT FACTOR.

A pair of two three-week-old records look unstoppable. NATALIE COLE's "When I Fall In Love," debuts at number 34 and gets the 5th MOST ADDED award, while BOZ SCAGGS' "Cool Running" comes in at number 38 and ranks second in PLUS FACTOR.

The BEACH BOYS are this week's highest chart debut (at 32), thanks to a 50% HIT FACTOR and 21 adds, including WKMI, KFOR, KKJO, 3WM and KQIP.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, "Loving Arms" by LIVINGSTON TAYLOR, is this week's second MOST ADDED, thanks to 37 A/C's including WWMJ, WQHQ/FM, WFMJ, KRLV, WKYE, KGY, WEBE/FM, WTUN and WIOU.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, "Don't Worry, Be Happy" by BOBBY McFERRIN, is

HOLLY KNIGHT

Heart Don't Fail Me Now (Columbia)

She wrote "Soul Love" for Hall & Oates, "Love Touch" for Rod Stewart and "Better Be Good To Me" for Tina Turner, but she's saved at least one good one for her solo debut.

MICHAEL BOLTON

Walk Away (Columbia)

His first single, "That's What Love Is All About," went top 5 in A/C last November, and this one benefits from the name value he's established since then, as well as from the two songs' striking similarity. A soulful, powerful ballad.

CHRISTOPHER CROSS with

FRANCES RUFFELLE

I Will Take You (Reprise)

From Christopher's forthcoming album, "Back Of My Mind," comes a song destined to be adopted by soon-to-be-marrieds as a remembrance of the time when a commitment was a lot more than a contract or license. Frances Ruffelle was the star of the Broadway musical, "Les Miserables."

OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN

Rumor (MCA)

At least one drought is over. Olivia's back makin' hit records aided by an amazingly bright piece of writing from Elton John and Bernie Taupin. This one cooks faster than a microwave oven. Just set it and forget it.

receiving considerably more play than reported, with many stations treating it as a morning drive novelty. That'll change rapidly as two months from now it should be everyone's favorite HEAVY rotation record. Already on B100, WSKY, WMT AM&FM, WAFL, WBLU, KEZR and KSKI.

CHEAP TRICK's re-make of the 33 year old Otis Blackwell classic, "Don't Be Cruel," debuts in UP & COMING with 22 stations, meaning it's moving more quickly than "The Flame" did.

Thanks for your feedback on the changes in The Gavin Report's look in general and the improvements in A/C particularly. We're confident that the new section, PLUS FACTOR, will be a useful, qualitative research tool for you.

HIT FACTOR

DELIVERS A

PUNCH

BY DAVE SHOLIN

Within thirty seconds after I entered his San Francisco hotel suite, Elton John handed me a CD of his current fave band in England, Fairground Attraction, giving it an A+ recommendation. An avowed oldies aficionado, he leaves no doubt about his knowledge of and love affair with pop music. Beginning with "Your Song" in 1970, Elton's string of top ten hits was unsurpassed by any other single artist of the decade. Fifteen years after its release, his Goodbye, Yellow Brick Road album is still considered one of the finest recordings in history. His songwriting partnership with lyricist and longtime friend Bernie Taupin managed to cross musical boundaries, scoring at Top 40, A/C, Album, and Urban radio at various times.

But the '80s haven't been as kind to EJ. While some of the singles he released achieved top ten status, album sales were disappointing. Elton freely admits that 1987 was an awful year, personally and professionally. Things began to turn around late in the year, as his live version of "Candle In The Wind" began to climb the chart, adding impetus as he put the finishing touches on what many believe is his finest project in years, Reg Strikes Back.

Dave: Were you surprised at the success of "Candle in the Wind"?

Elton: I was very surprised. When MCA told me they wanted to take a single off the live album, I thought, "I can't see ever having a live hit single. Look what happened to Peter Frampton!" When the single was released, they said, "We're gonna work it for four weeks in A/C, see what happens and then take it to Top 40." I was astonished. Their faith in the project was magnificent. That was happening while we were making the Reg Strikes Back album. It gave us even more momentum. You need that commitment from a record company, and boy, they've been brilliant.

DS: The original was a hit in England, but never released in the U.S.

EJ: It was the one I wanted to put out, but (former MCA promotion chief) Pat Pipillo said, "We're gonna put out 'Bennie and the Jets.'" I said, "You must be joking! No way!" To this day I can't see "Bennie and the Jets." They said it was the number one black record in Detroit. I said, "Release it! If it fucks up, you're putting your own head on the line." That was why "Candle in the Wind" was never released as a single. I don't think it would have been a hit if it had been out before, but you never know.

DS: What do you think it is about that song?

EJ: The (live) album was a very emotional one. I had no voice left, and it all came from the last show. If I'd had a normal voice, maybe the evening wouldn't have been so passionate. I mean I was crying in between the songs. I was a completely tired, an utter wreck. I knew my voice was going wrong, and various things were going wrong personally in my life.

DS: What happened to your throat?

EJ: It was quite a simple thing—17 years of hard singing, a lot of touring, a lot of recording, and not

THE GAVIN REPORTERS

THE MOST TRUSTED NAMES IN RADIO

*A handbook guide to our family of Gavin reporters.
This week's adds and rotations.*

JOHN

really resting it properly. You know, if you drive a car for 17 years and you don't have it overhauled occasionally it's gonna fall to bits. It was going throughout the whole American tour. I had to postpone the first date of the tour in Detroit. I had to postpone shows in Madison Square Garden. I couldn't speak for two days in New York. I had to walk around with one of those kid's slates that you write on. The doctors didn't really want me to do the Australian tour at all, but I was so looking forward to it. And the only show I've never fulfilled in my life was in Perth, Australia. I was in tears because I just could not sing. I got through the dates in Sydney by just will power. The doctors said it was a non-malignant growth, which is easily cured. They showed me exactly what it was. It looked very easy to deal with--in fact, it was a ten to 15-minute operation.

DS: What's your voice like since the operation?

EJ: I haven't really done much--two or three songs in charity shows here and there. I'm going to do this six-week tour in September to see how it goes. I'm putting a new band together. If that goes well, then I'll know it'll be all right. It's changed a bit. The timbre has gotten a little rougher and a little deeper, which is great. It's stronger, much more powerful.

DS: What will you do after the tour?

EJ: Go back into the studio with Chris Thomas. I'm going to Denmark to record an album at a place called Puck Studios, which is supposed to be wonderful. It's where George Michael did most of his work.

DS: From what I detect, Chris was really a big part of this album.

EJ: It was a very happy album to make. He'd had just finished the INXS project, and it was already storming away in every territory. He was in good spirits, and I'd had a horrible year with the press in England. I didn't want to go back to work and write little mournful songs.

NEW RELEASES by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

ROSANNE CASH - Runaway Train (Columbia)

Classic Rosanne fare here, with simple production, great lyrics and exceptional vocals. Mr. and Mrs. Crowell are definitely leaving their mark on 1988 vintage Country Music.

DARDEN SMITH - Want You By My Side (Epic)

Now here is a man who sounds desperate. Darden wrote this story of love lost and longed for, and he wails it. He's got it so bad that even his friends can't face him.

DAVID BALL - You Go, You're Gone (RCA)

Seems like David aspiring to be the King Of Texas Tonk, following the same swinging path as his first single, "Steppin' Out." This stuff is so good, we can't wait to hear more.

DON WILLIAMS - Desperately (Capitol)

Team Don Williams with a Jamie O'Hara song, and you've certainly got a winning combination. Don sounds more laid back than desperate, but his smooth vocal style will surely convince listeners of his sincerity.

KIM CARNES - (Speed Of) The Sound Of Loneliness (MCA)

Not your average Contemporary Country artist, Kim Carnes found herself a brilliant John Prine song. The simple country backing contrasts with the pain and pride in the lyrics: Kim knows her lover is "runnin' just to be on the run."

NEW RELEASES by Keith Zimmerman

TRUE NATURE - MARK SLONIKER (SANDSTONE MUSIC)

Mark Sloniker's True Nature has caught the attention of a few Jazz/AA musical opinion leaders this week. Most like this pianist from Ft. Collins because his sound successfully straddles the fence between jazz fusion and melodic Adult Alternative. "Lighthead Suite" has the most commercial potential, but "Lifestream" captures the CD's most adventurous moments. "Smiles" is touching as well. Contact Sandstone Music (a division of Dunhill Compact Classics) and tell Frosty Horton you're interested. Dial 818-993-8822.

MARK O'CONNOR

ELYSIAN FOREST - MARK O'CONNOR (WARNER BROS.)

Some Jazz music with a Nashville shine. "Light The Fire" features some fine resonator guitar by multi-instrumentalist Mark O'Connor. Mainly, though, O'Connor is a violinist and plays his axe in proper Jazz form, i.e. no vibrato in the vein of Jean Luc Ponty. But the comparisons end there. Check out "Idle Rain" and a fragile version of Joni Mitchell's "Both Sides Now." This set makes me wonder: Does anyone remember Richard Greene and Sea Train?

THE REAL ME - PATTI AUSTIN (QWEST/WARNER BROS.)

This will break up an instrumental set in a big way. No doubt, this was a musical blast for Austin and a long way from the soap opera classic hit, "Baby Come To Me," for which Top 40 radio remembers her best. The Real Me features expert production from former Ambrosia singer/guitarist David Pack and utilizes a broad line-up of Southern California musical all-stars. "I Can Cook Too" does exactly that, while some Jazz programmers might also lean towards "Lazy Afternoon." There's also some airplay potential for Quiet Storm here. The Real Me is one ambitious project. Check out the old photos on the sleeves.

JUMP START - RICK STRAUSS (PROJAZZ)

Rick Strauss began his recording career with Jazz/AA chart-toppers Spyro Gyra. Since then, Strauss has studied guitar with Joe Pass and developed his arranging skills. On the title track, his jagged lead style rocks out a bit, the Pass influences come through on "Toronto." Strauss' formidable arranging talents and divergent compositional capabilities gives the listener a clear choice of direction, be it clean or mean.

PARKER'S MOOD - SADAO WATANABE (ELEKTRA)

Just as Patti Austin rediscovers her roots, Tokyo's Sadao Watanabe tackles his classics on a live bandstand. Each track stretches out to the tune of eight or nine minutes and this collection of Bird classics might arrive in time for Clint Eastwood to debut his movie on the famous king of alto anarchy. Check out "Billy's Bounce."

NEW WORLD - KARLA BONOFF (GOLD CASTLE)

As a songwriter, Bonoff has been in good company since the early Seventies' Southern California Renaissance. You might remember those times when half of the record industry successfully migrated from New York to Los Angeles. It was moguls like Joe Smith and David Geffen who signed that great stable of songwriter/singers that included folks like Bonoff, John David Souther, Jackson Browne, Andrew Gold and Wendy Waldman. With Karla's latest, there are some definite Adult Alternative possibilities, most notably "New World," "Way Of The Heart" and "Tell Me Why" which features some solo guitar work by Peter Frampton. Keith Z.

INSIDE JAZZ/ADULT ALTERNATIVE

Thanks to all of you for your kind words and encouragement. We heartily appreciate all of you who supported us going out of the gate...

It's interesting to compare the musical textures of both charts. While Spyro Gyra, the Yellowjackets and the Crusaders embellish both top tens, Branford Marsalis and Billy Childs tear up the Jazz chart exclusively. While making way for artists like Grover Washington and Eliane Elias on Gavin Jazz, Richard Elliot powers handily into the top ten on Adult Alternative. Kenny Vance debuts high on AA, while Max Lasser's Ark breaks past the top fifteen barrier. Ambidextrous talents like Doc Severinsen, Chick Corea, Stanley Clarke, Patrick O'Hearn and Robb Mullins continue to post well on both formats.

Around The Horn...WEMU's Linda

Yohn thinks "Healing The Feeling" and Bourgeois Boogie" are two accessible tracks for Ornette Coleman. Bob Hammond of KANU echoes the most common Jazz rave of the week: "Grover Washington's 'Then And Now' is a smash!" It's an effort that also caught WCLK's Claude Motely and WNAA's Yvonne Anderson by surprise. Geoff Fisher of LOVE 94 featured four Djavan tracks and likes "Bird Of Paradise" and "Carnival In Rio." Bob Parlocha of KJAZ is amazed with Windham Hill's quality jazz offerings with the red hot Billy Childs, Tuck & Patti and Denny Zeitlin Trio. Rick Forrest of WMOT says Branford Marsalis' "Crescent City" is a little long but well worth playing and Bob Church of WLOQ recommends the sophisticated sounds of Leata Galloway on Columbia. Bob likens her to a robust Anita Baker. KOAI sponsored a sold-out benefit concert featuring Suzanne Ciani. Proceeds go to the Dallas AIDS Resource Center. Jo Ann Urofsky of WAER is doing well with Eliane Elias concentrating on "Campari And Soda" and "Coming And Going." Cerphe at WBMW lists his hottest: Sanborn, Special

DUKE DUBOIS OF GRP PASSIONATE ABOUT JAZZ'S ROOTS

If you ever sit in Duke DuBois's GRP offices, you notice that his rapport with Jazz and Adult Alternative radio folks is natural. Along the window sill of his office is a row of photos and postcards showing a fondness for tropical islands. Duke's real passion, though, is Jazz—a love affair that dates back to his early years as a drummer and avid fan of the New York jazz scene in the... well, let's just say he's been around a while. We chatted about his feelings about music, where it's been, where it's headed and the changing times. In addition to his promotion work with ABC, Impulse, Blue Note, CTI and Verve, Duke co-produced Kevin Eubanks' latest success, a logical extension of his love of music.

KZ: Anyone who talks to you tends to notice that you have an energy level that's usually associated with pop music promotion.

DD: That's because I worked pop music. I did everything. When I started out after leaving the streets as a salesman, my first job was with ABC Records. When I was with them I did everything—pop, R&B, jazz, gospel, Ray Charles and the Mamas & the Papas. So when I went on the road—man, I did a lot of travelling then—around 1964 until 1967, I would visit every kind of radio station—Country or whatever. Today we specialize. You only do R&B or A/C. Bullshit! I did everybody.

KZ: So when did you specialize into Jazz?

DD: I've been involved in Jazz since I was nine years old. That's 1939, baby. I liked drums and I liked trumpet players like Harry James at the time. All my life, I've hung out with Jazz people. I was attending Jazz at the Philharmonic in New York back in the '40s. Not that I didn't like popular music, but somebody like Patti Page didn't move me at all. Ella, Billie Holiday or Sarah Vaughn—that was the music that I dug. At the time, my brother-in-law was the music director for the Harry James Band. I used to go down with him when Harry James would play the Paramount in New York. I used to jump up on stage with this big band blowing all around me. I was thinking, "Holy Christmas! This is great!" Harry James was tall, with a long face. I used to call him "Horseface." I took piano lessons. I don't know why. I was a drummer. I used to belong to Local 802 over here and Local 47 in Los Angeles. I hung out in all the joints —Birdland with Clifford Brown, Charlie Parker—just name them. If they came through, I was there.

KZ: When did you join GRP?

DD: In 1978 I was working at Roulette, before that RCA and Bell. I stayed there for a year with no records to work. In 1978, Larry Rosen and Dave Grusin were putting GRP together. They didn't have any idea who to get for promotion. They were unknown at the time. They knew me from my Blue Note days in '75, working with Earl Klugh. We struck a deal, and I joined them. We got things off the ground. Our first project was Angela Bofill, back when Arista distributed GRP. We also worked with Tom Browne, Dave Valentin, Roland Vazquez and Scott Jarrett. I left in 1980 to go on my own. At the time, Jazz wasn't as widely accepted as it is now. It was tough working alone. In 1983, Creed Taylor asked me to work with him. I worked at CTI with Creed Taylor for a while. Things got tough. I remember I threw a box of albums at him and left at the end of 1983. I then got a call back from GRP and returned in March of 1984. I've been here since. We've been pretty successful with quite a few number ones.

KZ: The first time I ever saw a promotional CD was on GRP.

DD: In 1985 we came up with an idea to press CDs. Since the other companies were lagging behind, we sent players to a group of stations. Larry struck a deal with JVC and we got our hands on 54 CD players. The stations were happy! I sent the machines to radio, telling them to hook it up to their boards and play CDs over the air. We started out sending CDs on a subscription basis. Eventually it occurred to me that radio was doing a service to us playing these CDs. We were one of the first companies involved. We were making a statement. So I spread CDs all over the country before any other company. I would tell the folks I wasn't charging. "Now don't tell anybody." Of course it spread like wild fire which is what we wanted.

KZ: You must believe acoustic Jazz is on the rebound. That philosophy is evident in your work on Kevin Eubanks' newest album.

DD: Absolutely.

I criticize a lot when it comes to music. I've been telling Kevin for the longest time, "Get back to the acoustic guitar. You're a great guitarist!" There's a ton of excellent electric guitar players. You can start with George Benson and go right on through. But when it comes to acoustic players, you really have to think. Every time I heard Kevin's albums, I always wanted to hear more acoustic. Do something different. Finally he came around. We told him, "Don't bring an electric guitar to the sessions." If I was going to work on this album, it had to be all acoustic. He agreed. He played a prototype made by a guy in Seattle. The record is his fastest selling record since he's been here. More stations are playing this record than any other. A/C stations that are into Jazz can fall back on this album.

KZ: Are you dealing with more Jazz stations now than ever before?

DD: I talk to stations out of the backwoods—you know, Charlie Twang! I'm happy they're into it. They need a little guidance, but that's okay. Every week someone new calls me: Clovis, New Mexico, Fayetteville, Arkansas. These stations find they get a lot of calls from people hungry for good music. Music by David Benoit or Dave Grusin connects with these people.

KZ: What keeps you going?

DD: As long as I live, I will never give up the fight to keep traditional Jazz alive. It's been maligned. They try to bury it. But it's a Great American tradition. People like (Columbia's) Dr. George Butler and the rest of the folks out there will not let it die. I'd like to see more education, particularly in the schools. We need to recognize folks like Charlie Parker, Coltrane, Ellington, Basie as geniuses. The people who contributed from day one, some who are gone, shouldn't be forgotten. Jazz will evolve into all sorts of forms, but it always goes back to the roots. If you kill the roots, you kill the tree. And if you kill the tree, forget our music. Never let it die. It's part of America. Since I knew and loved Clifford Brown, I'll be damned if I'm gonna let anyone forget him. And that's the way it's gonna be. I'll be doing this until it's time to take my drums and go upstairs...or go downstairs, where ever I end up.

EFX, Shadowfax, Dave Samuels, Tracy Chapman and Patrick O'Hearn. Rick Petrone at WJAZ gained a solid 2.0 in his latest Arbitron going from a 1.4 to a 2.5 for 25-54 demos. KPRT's Jeff Charney was happy with his station's 1.7 to 2.5 rise. Steve Williams at WJZZ draws incredible phones when he plays "Gold Mine" and "Spread Lovc" by Take 6.

So goes Brazil...Dori Caymmi visited KCRW as an on-air guest. Joe Cohn of KPLU tells us that Brazilian star Simone stands 6'5" and is a known basketball player in her native country. New digs for KQPT at 10910 Olson Drive, Sacramento, CA, 95670. Kate Hayes tells us that the station posted #1 nighttime numbers for 25-54. Chris

Owens at KDAB likes the Missing Links with their unique cover version project. John Hayes is six tracks deep on the new Patti Austin LP. Gary Vercelli of KXPR likes "Lazy Afternoon." Darren Hellewege at KBIA is doing well with Earth City Express and prefers "No Cares No Worry" for its great sax work. Ed Budanauro of KZPS likes the new Max Groove album on Optimism.

Congrats to Michael Fischer as WNUA names him OM and MD. And finally, promo ace Vic Lentini has left Passport and is available for his next challenge. Phone him at 818-241-4686 and help him out. Let's take care of our friends in the industry! Stay well and live the straight life.

Yer pal, Keith Z.

It turned out to be opposite, it turned to be a very upbeat album. It's a bit "Don't Shoot Me"-ish—it's got a lot of fun in it. And it was a real easy album to make—very enjoyable. Chris is a great producer. The only reason I'd stopped working with Chris for a couple of albums was because of his commitments with Pete Townshend and INXS. It's great to be back with him. We used to go to the Royal Academy of Music together when we were 11. Do you realize we've known each other now for 30 years!

DS: When did you begin working on Reg Strikes Back?

EJ: Last September. A little less than a year ago.

DS: Is there any significance to the title?

EJ: Yeah a bit. As I say, last year was pretty awful. It's a tongue-in-cheek thing. I don't mind the word "Reg" anymore. Everyone calls me Reg. Eric Clapton calls me Reg. Paul McCartney calls me Reg. Mick Jagger calls me Reg. There was a period when I thought, "Reg? Ugh! No way!"

DS: Is the cover work a statement that the flamboyant Elton John is a thing of the past?

EJ: It's more or less saying goodbye to all the sequins and the feathers and the ridiculous costumes. That era's gone now. I won't be wearing anything like that on stage. I felt a little uncomfortable on the last tour. I knew that was going to be the last time I was going to wear those sort of things. Some of the costumes really made me feel silly. The Mozart costume was great. You actually felt you were going on to play with an orchestra. But some of the other ones I felt like Tina Turner's grandmother. I'm not just getting rid of them. I'm getting rid of all my artwork and possessions, and starting again. After 18 years as Elton John I was being stifled. My house was full of great stuff, but I had nowhere to move. I felt that, if you want to start fresh, you've got to start from scratch and get rid of everything from your past. The only way to do it is by being completely cut-throat about it.

DS: You and Bernie are also working together again.

EJ: Well, we never stopped working together. That's the great myth of it.

DS: But things are really dicking for you two. Is there any difference in the songwriting process?

EJ: I think Bernie and I are closer now because I think we have given each other the freedom to write with other people. Bernie has written "We Built This City" for Starship and "These Dreams" for Heart, and he had his own album. We love each other dearly, but that can also lead to jealousy. A lot of songwriting partnerships seem to break up because there's no room to maneuver outside that particular partnership. When we write together, it's so easy, and then when you write with someone else, sometimes it's not so easy. We're closer because we've spent a lot more time together, and he's more involved in the actual album process. He's got ideas because as a musician he's made his own albums now.

DS: You sound like you were surprised really at how it turned out. It doesn't sound like you went into it saying, "This is going to be an upbeat album."

EJ: Honestly, I didn't know what the mood was going to be. I had known what my mood had been all through the year, and it had been pretty depressed. But always when I've been depressed, I've gone back to work. That's the thing that makes me happy.

DS: What was the first song that you came up with?

EJ: "Since God Invented Girls," which is a complex song, chordwise. I wrote it all the way through without stopping, which is the first time in my whole life with Bernie. I wrote it at home, and my engineer at the studio at home had luckily taped it. That was the first song I wrote coming out of my depression, and I went out the door of the studio and I was just punching the air. I knew it was good, but to actually write it all the way through without stopping, that had never happened to me before. When Bernie wrote the lyrics, I thought that it was going to be an uptempo song—it always happens like that sometimes. I looked at the lyrics and went, "Hmph, great ballad." "Since God Invented Girls" has gotta be a romantic song, and then it's got the Beach Boys in it. God, I love the Beach Boys anyway. There have been a couple of songs in my career—"Don't Let the Sun," "Someone Saved My Life Tonight," "Chameleon" off Blue Moves—where I've actually used them on it. They've been written in the Beach Boy style.

DS: Was it conscious at the time?

EJ: Well it's just I loved those chords Brian Wilson always used, and I've been influenced by his writing so much, and I thought, "This has gotta be a Beach Boys-type song." I never ever will lose that influence in the way I write, because I do love those old records.

DS: And some of the songs were written in the studio?

EJ: "Town of Plenty" and "Mona Lisa and Mad Hatters, Part 2" were written in the studio, but they were bonus tracks. (Chris) Thomas wanted me to do two extra tracks. I didn't want to. In the past, we'd recorded 14 or 15 tracks and the people always argue over which ten tracks go on. It's a nightmare. So I wanted to do maybe just 11 tracks, but Chris made me write "Town of Plenty." We used to start 11 in the morning and finish at eight each night, and I would come in at 9:30, do the demos, and the song would be finished by 10:15, when he got in. That's how quick it is nowadays. It really is funny.

DS: Another track which is getting a lot of reaction is "A Word IN Spanish." A lot of program directors out there would love to hear Elton John cut that in Spanish.

EJ: I'm gonna do that. We're working with someone on the lyrics at the moment. I've done things totally in French, and had hits in France, so why not? Spanish is an easy language to speak, and a beautiful language to sing in.

DS: "Mad Hatters" really is a switch from the original "Mona Lisa."

EJ: When Bernie gave me this song and it said "Part Two," I thought, "That's fun. It's like 'Rambo, Part II,' isn't it?" And it was a great idea because it was New York 15 years on from the first one. In fact we got a review in one of those tipsheets, saying that it was a great new version of the original song. What a great idea it was to do a different version. That's probably my favorite track on the album. It just has a great New York feel.

DS: You've been on the road for listening parties.

EJ: Eight in all. I've also done a hell of a lot of TV promotion. In one place we just rented the satellite and did 36 ten-minute interviews with stations all over the country. I wanted to meet the people who sold records and the radio people, and if you make an effort to go to them, it always helps. I always have fun doing this sort of thing. I've done it in England quite a bit and it's nice to do it over here. It's my way of saying thanks to MCA and their belief in the record. Album Radio is beginning to happen. That means a lot, because we haven't had any big Album play for years, and we've put the product out that could've been played. I'm beaming from ear to ear at the moment, because it looks as if you give something to somebody you think is worthwhile and they think so too, and the two of you together go as a team, go up there and make it, you know make it happen, it's really satisfying. That's the whole point of being with a record company is to work together, to do the best thing for your product and that's exactly what's happening on this record and on the live album.

DS: You have always been close to radio. Have you noticed any differences in both the way radio is reacting to things and what radio sounds like, compared to 10 or 15 years ago?

EJ: I really can't. When I'm in America I always switch from station to station. I kind of got fed up with radio a bit because it was so formulated. That seems to be changing for the better. I like hearing Aretha Franklin next to the Pet Shop Boys, next to something else. At one point, you could turn on rock radio and it would just be heavy metal. And I can't stand that all the time, just as I can't stand rap records all the time. So I think it could still do with a rocket up its backside. I think there are some good things that don't get played on pop radio.

DS: How about the music coming through from the '70s to the '80s?

EJ: I think it's gone through a stale period the last couple of years, but there are some really interesting things, like Tracy Chapman and this Fairground Attraction out of England. There are some brilliant songwriters, like George Michael, a return to great songs instead of just disco junk. There's a boy in Aztec Camera—Roddy Frame, Nick Kershaw, Debbie Gibson, and Tiffany had that great, great ballad.

DS: It comes down to songs?

EJ: It does. The songwriting artists are coming into their own.

statement" attributed to him in an interview conducted before the start of the tour. It was printed as "Jimmy Page was not one of my influences," but Stagg claims what he really said was, "Jimmy Page was not one of my bigger influences." Stagg cites Jimi Hendrix as his number one influence, but all his brothers and friends bought Led Zeppelin albums which he listened to, and was impressed with. The official statement from Stagg: "I would have to be very naive to think I could get away with such a ridiculous justification of Kingdom Come's music and, in particular, my playing." Stagg holds Page in the highest esteem, as he does Robert Plant, who dedicated "Heaven Knows" to Kingdom Come.

The Grateful Dead are celebrating their first platinum album, In The Dark, and have completed more than half the material on the follow-up. The Dead will begin an East Coast tour with four shows in Washington, D.C., on September 2, followed by four more in Philly and an unprecedented nine shows at Madison Square Garden—the last night will benefit the Rain Forest Coalition and Greenpeace.

Shine your boots and mark your calendars for the 22nd annual Country Music Association Awards on Monday, October 10th. Dolly Parton, who has won her share of awards, will host the CBS-TV coverage, which will be extended to two hours this year.

August will be the month of some great releases from the Country folk including Dwight Yoakam with his Reprise LP, Buenas Noches From A Lonely Room. The first single, an upbeat duet with Buck Owens called "Streets Of Bakersfield," is already moving on the charts. Look for Buck to drop in on a number of dates along the tour.

The Oak Ridge Boys are scheduled for a late August release of their MCA album Monongahela which will include the first single, "Gonna Take A Lot Of River" from the newest Oak, Steve Sanders. The Oaks are readying a tour that will carry them along 37 U.S. rivers...by boat.

UNI Records artists Eric B. & Rakim have their new 12", "Follow The Leader," in the stores and on the charts. Their "Dope Jam Tour" of the U.S. is boot:ed solid up to the August 28 date in Atlanta, with more dates to come. The show also features Doug E. Fresh, Kool Moe Dee and Ice-T.

Bryan Adams set an attendance record by drawing 30,000 fans in Lisbon, Portugal, playing for over two hours in the 96-degree heat. Bonnie Tyler jammed on the "Straight From The Heart" and "No Way To Treat A Lady." Now that the second leg of the "Into The Fire" European tour is complete, Adams is working on the next A&M release with producer Steve Lillywhite (U2, Talking Heads, Rolling Stones) for early 1989.

Andy Summers of Police fame is about to embark on a five-week tour as special guest for Tangerine Dream. While Summers will include material from all his solo albums, the bulk of the show will be improvised, with the show changing each night. The tour kicks off August 25 at Chicago's Poplar Creek, ending in Canada the end of September.

Now Hear This: Dokken will be mixing their new Elektra "live" LP in August with producer Mike Wagener. Tesla will enter Bearsville Studio in Woodstock next month for their second LP for Geffen, with Mike Barbiero and Steve Thompson producing. Tom Petty's Songs From The Garage LP will be out on MCA by mid-September. The LP was actually recorded in Heartbreaker Mike Campbell's garage with guest appearances from the other Heartbreakers, George Harrison and Roy Orbison. Petty, Campbell and Jeff Lynne produced.

Former Husker Du drummer Grant Hart is the first to come out of the studio with material since the demise of the group. SST Records will be releasing both a 12" EP and a CD. Hart will follow with a long player in the fall. He has been seen around Minneapolis working as singer/guitarist with The Swallows.

Gavin Gab: This issue was helped along with musical vibes from Virgin Records artist Paula Abdul, who stopped by to meet the staff and sign autographs. Later in the week, Chrysalis musicians Boo Hemedine and Neill Maccoll from The Bible performed acoustically to soothe the workers putting the finishing touches on the magazine. ●

by Tony Richland

The July 16th TV Guide contains an interesting piece about the pressures with which celebrities have to live.

The pressures are different than those afflicting hardhats and McDonalds counter people, but nonetheless, they are pressures. Many of the major TV stars (mostly in the 10-to-50 thou a week salary range) are unable to leave their homes without being harassed by Joe and Jill Sixpack. They're hounded for autographs, stared at, hassled and unable to make a simple trip to the Safeway without having to meet the public. It's sickening and something they should not have to endure.

We thought it interesting that the celebs TV Guide chose to interview were NOT Joan Collins, Johnny Carson or Bill Cosby, but rather the illustrious and legendary Bronson Pinchot and Joe Penny! In case you missed that, we'll repeat: two guys named Bronson Pinchot and Joe Penny!! We and everyone we've queried have never heard of those two guys, and wouldn't recognize them if their names were printed on their tank tops. Our mother hasn't heard of them...Mrs. Hollywood hasn't heard of them.

It seems that Bronson Pinchot is on a show called "Perfect Strangers," and no human being we've questioned has ever seen the program. We thought you'd enjoy some of Bronson's quotes: Wistfully looking out the window of his Malibu home, he says, "I can't go out there...I'd LIKE to go out there, but I can only watch people walking on the beach. If I went out there, some stranger would come up and follow me, and if I tried to explain to him or her why I wanted to walk on the beach alone, it'd only make matters worse." Pinchot then sighs, "People who are probably nice in most circumstances see someone they watch on TV all the time and suddenly start behaving like kids."

Bronson, baby, read our lips: YOU CAN WALK ON THE BEACH! You are not Magic Johnson or Cyndi Lauper! NO one will bother you...unless MAC's Michael Reading is on the beach. He'd stop Barbara Bush for an autograph.

Moving along to the showbiz legend called Joe Penny. Seems ol' Joe co-stars on something called "Jake & The Fat Man," and we know most of you work your schedules around Jake's airtime. Joe says, "It's a day-to-day balancing act. Outside your home, privacy is eliminated. Strangers sort of explode at you. Whether you're in a restaurant or buying a toothbrush at the drugstore, there's no downtime. Sometimes people think you're being difficult, and all you're doing is fighting for your balance."

Joe, we'd like to inform you that YOU DO NOT HAVE TO FIGHT FOR YOUR BALANCE! Get out there...BUY your toothbrush and linger at the dental floss counter. You're in a dream world.

Now let's get to the stressful situations which must be endured by REAL celebrities. For these people, we offer some real sympathy. Since we're in the same room with ourself at the moment, we'll begin with ourself. When we began this column four years ago, our photo made several appearances at the top of the page. You haven't seen it lately, and for a very good reason. We demanded that Ron remove it, because we had instantly become a prisoner in our own home. At numerous record functions, we were surrounded...virtually SWAMPED by well-meaning industry-ites wanting to stare at us, touch us and bask in the reflected glory of our aura. We were initially astonished, but soon realized it was perfectly understandable.

The ciphers and sycophants literally want a piece of you, and in our case they hovered around us, quoting our material and sometimes asking us to sign their bras! What the GIRLS did was even more disconcerting!

We ceased all public appearances posthaste.

When the picture stopped appearing, we were able to slowly make our way back to the public arena that the rest of you so cavalierly take for granted.

We CAN tell you that Harvey Mednick, whose photo has appeared regularly in Gavin, hasn't been seen on a public street or in a restaurant for at least a year. Harvey sends out to Domino's for all his meals and hasn't been near a dental floss counter for as long as he can recall. The price of REAL fame.

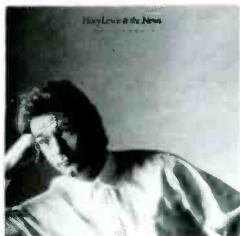

As far as Bronson Pinchot and Joe Penny are concerned, we have this advice to offer: Stop deluding yourselves. You'd have to tug at Mr. Sixpack's arm and TELL him you have a program down in the low Nielsens to get any attention. But whatever you do, don't let anyone talk you into writing a Gavin column with photo included. You'll have enjoyed your last peaceful meal at Wendy's. ●

NEW RELEASES GENERIC BLUES ALBUM

GENERIC BLUES-
MAURICE JOHN VAUGHN (ALLIGATOR)
Generic Blues was first released in 1984. Though the concept was born out of economic necessity, this updated version of that album displays a raw-edged seriousness not to be confused with the concept of "generic" as "nondescript." Maurice John Vaughn is a multi-instrumentalist. He plays a stinging lead guitar as well as an aggressive saxophone. Trax like the title track, "I Done Told Ya" and the self-explanatory "Wolf Bite" explains the raves first heard from both Album and Jazz radio correspondents. "Wolf Bite" is the closest thing you'll hear to standard blues. The lion's share of the rest of the material is modern, sharp and funky.

SMALL WORLD-
HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS (CHRYSALIS)
At a Huey Lewis concert these days, it's hard to figure out whether it's the younger fans bringing their parents or the parents bringing the younger fans. Still, Small World is the latest "News" that features some of the band's broadest attempts at maturing their sound. Cases in point: "Old Antone's," with its exotic zydeco flavor featuring Bruce Hornsby on squeeze box. "Small World," especially "Small World (Part Two)" has master saxophonist Stan Getz helping out. (Both parts will be combined and specially released as an extended piece.) Very much on the commercial edge, Small World will still surprise radio programmers with its adult appeal. I see trax like "Walking With The Kid" (once again featuring the singing San Francisco 49ers) and "Give Me The Keys" reinforcing the two "World" songs in Album Radio airplay. Also worth noting is the frequent use of instrumental trax. "Slammin'," "Bobo Tempo" and "Small World (Part Two)" not only flavor the album with some sure chops, but could conceivably supply network sports shows with some catchy highlight soundtrack work.

'WAITING FOR THE BIG ONE'- FEMME FATALE (MCA)
Here's a band hipped to me by a phone call from Midland, Texas. Femme Fatale play it pretty straight-forward. Amidst all the leather and chains is a tame but mean female vocal. I like how the vocals personify youthful impatience and energy. This one gets this week's Best Use of Fishnet Stockings award.
LET IT ROLL-LITTLE FEAT (WARNER BROS.)
Little Feat let it rip on Let It Roll. This is their first complete album without the late Lowell George (not counting the incomplete Down On The Farm LP) and, while there are a few spooky soundalike vocal and guitar licks, Let It Roll sounds almost exactly like the band resumed things without missing the beat or messing with the formula. While I can't help thinking that Lowell George (A) would have probably gone solo or (B) taken the band into a different direction, this group aggressively contributed to the New Orleans junkyard sound for which the Feats were most famous. Yet songs like the sad "Hangin' On To The Good Times" and the rockin' "Let It Roll" plow new Feat territory. By maintaining their two-guitar assault (by adding guitarist Fred Tackett), there is definitely a sense of power at work even on the ballad-heavy side two. A spot check of several longtime Feat fans shows this new line-up keeping an important integral appeal and many heartfelt votes of confidence.

'ANCHORAGE'-
MICHELLE SHOCKED (POLYGRAM)
Here's another refugee from that Gavin Rising Stars issue. Michelle Shocked, best known for her Campfire Tapes folk LP, records indoors with Pete Anderson, Dwight Yoakam's studio wiz and guitar-picking sidekick. "Anchorage" is a plodding ballad to Seward's Folly, using acoustic guitars and a nice organ flavor. A closer inspection of the advance tape (LP is due August 15) reveals a wide assortment of gems. Put Michelle Shocked on your "must check out" list. She's part of the American music explosion that's currently purifying the new world of Country, folk and rock n roll. KZ

20 YEARS OF JETHRO TULL (CHRYSALIS)
It's hard to believe that it's been twenty years since first buying This Was on the Reprise label. But checking the impressive color booklet, sure enough, Tull is two decades young. Though Tull has a history of chronicling itself, possibly for reasons of self-evolution, this is the ultimate example of public archivity. By splitting 65 trax into three categories—Radio Archives and Rare Tracks, Flawed Gems, and Essential Tull—the sheer volume of the songs is still overwhelming. Jethro's evolution from blues enthusiasts to modern music purveyors is well documented. Classicists will find lots of relief and options on the Essential disc. Historians will prefer the Radio Archives. Those who find rock institutions merely mortal will appreciate the Flawed Gems.
PEOPLE-HOTHOUSE FLOWERS (POLYGRAM)
Listeners may hear traces of U2, Van and Dexy, but Ireland's Hothouse Flowers are very much a band of originals. Though they rock like the early scuffles of Van Morrison's Them, there is a shadow of '60s R&B that hotly serves as the key Hothouse influence. Heavily arranged, the opening "I'm Sorry" displays the band's sensitivity. Like U2, Hothouse Flowers is a very "inward" collection of rock n rollers. Their music frequently ponders the very essence of existence. In addition to "Sorry," I found "Don't Go" and the epic "Ballad Of Katie" to be ingredients of something great. The poetic flow of the vocals are a keen example of the importance stream of consciousness has on timely rock n roll.

'I'M NOT YOUR MAN'-TOMMY CONWELL & THE YOUNG RUMBLERS (COLUMBIA)
First featured two years ago in our Gavin Rising Talent issue, Philly's Tommy Conwell releases his first major label debut. With plenty of practice wowing crowds all over the Northeast and mid-Atlantic regions, Conwell seems to have grown more into a bluesy, rather than punky, rock n roll stance. "I'm Not Your Man" is a strong opening statement that Album Radio should take to instantly.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

It was great to see the faces behind the voices last week in New York at the Ye Olde Tripple Inn. Special thanks to Mark Cohen-Elektra, Nan Fisher-MCA, Michele Block-Arista, Fred Erlich-CBS, Mike Mena-A&M, Tim Hyde-PolyGram and Harry Levy-Capitol who provided the beverages for everyone. Welcome to two new Alternative reporters...Ann Delisi with WDET-Detroit and Ned Horton at Rebel 100-Nashville.

Shriekback maintains a narrow lead as The Sugarcubes refuse to fade (with many stations reporting excellent sales). Iggy and Patti continue to grow and may make a move for #1 next week. Big Audio Dynamite is the Hottest with mega-response noted by Jeanne Atwood-WDST ("lots of calls on the eight minute version"), Joe Simon-KTCL and Bob Showacre-WHFS. Siouxsie & the Banshees are certainly top 10-bound behind heavy response from Bruce McDonald-WFNX ("#1 requested"), Sean Maxson-WXCI, Kim Saade-WRAS ("Most requested"), John Pernick-WFIT, Doris Duwe-WTSR ("Lots of requests") and Damen Stewart-KJET ("Lots of calls").

A high debut makes Style Council this week's Top Tip. Our Most Added record, In Tua Nua, is this week's Record To Watch. Don't overlook Fatal Flowers, who were just behind In Tua Nua in adds and airplay. On the Import/Indie front, Bong Water is boiling over for Tim Zeigler-KUSF, Sharon McKenzie-KDVS and Chris Crowley-WUSB. Walter Salas-Humara's (of the Silos) record was a big topic this week for James Lien-WTUL ("One of '88's most striking records") and Brian Gix-KBVR ("Just Added, an instant hit"). For the latest developments at CFNY in Toronto, read our Gavin News on page 3.

NEW RELEASES

Shibumi-TUESDAY BLUE
(EMI-Manhattan)

Tuesday Blue were selected as one of a handful of groups to record for U2's Mother Records label in 1986 (the others being In Tua Nua and Cactus World News). Shibumi, their first release in this country, booms a highly produced sound that revolves around seeping bass lines, timely keyboard chords and Michael Ryan's sometimes sultry voice (which resembles Julian Cope in tone). The proficient production by David Richards (David Bowie, Iggy Pop, Echo & the Bunnymen, etc.) gives them a Simple Minds polish. Lead tracks include "Love Me Simple," "Tell The Boy" and "Cut and Dry."

SINGLES

Dave was on vacation this week but reviewed the following before departing.

Olivia Newton-John - The Rumor (MCA)

Whatever you do, don't judge this release before you listen to it. All Olivia needed was the right song, and now she's got it, compliments of Elton John and Bernie Taupin. Elton also plays piano and assists with background vocals on the tune's killer chorus. Olivia's one-hour HBO special plays through the month of August.

Def Leppard - Love Bites (Mercury/PolyGram)

They've perfected the art of making melodic metal music and in the process have won over Top 40 mass listenership without turning off their stable of hardcore fans. The lyric content of the song from "Hysteria" deserves to earn them new respect, and this is one reason why.

The following reviews are by Ron Fell.

Jeffrey Osborne - She's On The Left (A&M)

Already on the Gavin Urban Contemporary chart after just two weeks, this one can and should cross to the generic pop formats right about now. Jeffrey's strong voice is complemented by clever, but not gimmicky production.

Holly Knight - Heart Don't Fail Me Now (Columbia)

One of Top 40's most successful songwriters of the past few years has finally gone solo. She steps in giant, confident strides with this mid-tempo glide through love's minefield. That's Daryl Hall singing back-up.

INXS - Never Tear Us Apart (Atlantic)

After rockin' the house for the better part of the last twelve months, the band backs off the throttle for a smoldering ballad, supported by sweet strings and Kirk Pengilly's sexy sax.

ALBUMS

RESTLESS HEART - Big Dreams In A Small Town (RCA)

While they may hold onto their Country music roots with tenacious pride, they've also crossed over and sold through, figuratively and literally, to a larger, less-specific audience. Their music is a healthy mix of tight and thick vocal harmonies and arrangements which avoid the cliches of traditional Country music. The songs on Big Dreams In A Small Town are an eclectic, restless anthology of suburban cowboy pop and eighteen-wheeler, open-road rockers. The album's first single, THE BLUEST EYES IN TEXAS, has already logged in as expected as a number one in Country radio, and I'd think their Midas touch will remain intact with its successors. But it's also refreshing to hear the boys stretching their boundaries to attract an even wider audience with songs like CALM BEFORE THE STORM and the title track.

KARLA BONOFF - New World (Gold Castle)

If I have a soft spot in my jaded reviewer's heart, it's for music with thoughtful lyrical passages, sensitively arranged. The attitudes and ambience of Bonoff's music have become the exception to the rule that the only way for a successful artist to get attention is with tabloid theatrics. The songs are of love in various states of fracture or repair, the most charming and disarming of which are NEW WORLD and WAY OF THE HEART. NEW WORLD is thematically similar to Patti Smith's new anthem, "People Have The Power" (to dream), but rather than have her song decorated with power chords and an anvil chorus, Karla's dream power play is set to the feathery instrumentation of a foggy synthesizer and a crystalline acoustic piano. WAY OF THE HEART waxes philosophic about the proverbial fork in the road encountered by friends and lovers. For a change of pace, side one's TELL ME WHY, with Peter Frampton on guitar, is kind of a low-calorie, Southern California Country rocker in the Eagles/Poco/Ronstadt vein. This is one album I'll still be listening to long after I have to.
