JAZZTIMES CONVENTION A VITAL MUSICAL GATHERING

Special Report by Kent and Keith Zimmerman

JazzTimes magazine held a very successful meeting of the Jazz minds in the form of their Seventh Annual JazzTimes Convention, held October 3-8 at the Universal Plaza Hotel in Los Angeles. Attending was a collection of Jazzers including radio and promotion executives, musicians international and domestic, and fans. The convention was JazzTimes first venture to the West Coast. Besides a mixture of radio and jazz boosting panel sessions, this year boasted impressive talent showcases.

Highlights included a heartstopping set by Tuck & Patti, performances by Eliane Elias and Denny Zeitlin and a rousing radio panel led by Brenda Winfield of Optimism Records. Harold Childs of Warner Brothers Records and James Lewis Marketing hosted a bus trip to a posh Beverly Hills restaurant, Muse.

JazzTimes, a newspaper that publishes comprehensive Jazz information and articles, and its founder Ira Sabin, hosted and extremely musical convention brimming with enthusiasm and excitement. With Jazz and its related music fields gaining momentum, we feel this to be a vital yearly gathering.

SUMMER ARB RELEASED

The ratings have begun to trickle in, and as usual there are some big surprises and some big disappointments.

NEW YORK: The top six stations all registered gains from their spring books. Top 40 WHTZ moved to 6.2 from a 6.0 and keeps a lock on #1, followed by WPAT (EZ) and WWPR (T40). At #4 HOT97 (T40), the Emmis-owned powerhouse climbs to a 4.5 ("Stepping up our run for number one."—GM Stu Layne). Next is WNEW/FM (ALB), whose jump to 4.4 gives the station its best ARB numbers ever. WINS (N) comes in with a 4.3. Seven through ten are WOR (T), WRKS (URB), WCBS (GOLD) and WBLS (URB).

LOS ANGELES: #1 KPWR (T40) held steady at 7.4, while KIIS/AM&FM (T40) climbed from 6.5 to 6.9. The rest of the top ten are KABC (T), KOST (A/C), KLOS (ALB), KBIG (A/C), KJOI (EZ), KROQ (ALB), KFVB (N) and KLSX (Gold).

SAN FRANCISCO: The story here begins with perpetual #1 KGO (N/T) staying that way despite a drop from 8.4 to 7.1. Top 40 KMEL moved up an inch from 5.7 to 5.8, maintaining its status as number one music station. KCBS (N/T) follows at 4.7, dropping down a bit and registering a down-trend for SF's news/talk outlets.

Rounding out the top ten are KNBR (A/C), K-101 (A/C), MAGIC 61 (BIG BAND), KSOL (URB), KSFO (GOLD), KOIT/F (A/C), and KYUU—now X100—(T40).

SAN DIEGO: For the fourth straight ratings period, KKLQ/Q106-San Diego (T40) is the most listened-to station in that area. They came up with an 8.9 share of the San Diego market. Coming in second was KGB (ALB), followed by B100 (A/C), KJQY (EZ), KSDO (N), B100 (A/C), KSON-FM (CTRY), KYXY A/C, XTRA (GOLD) AND KIFM (AD ALT).

SAN JOSE: In an odd move, HOT 97 jumped to #1 even though it slipped from a 6.0 to a 5.6. KSJO (ALB) moved up to #2 scoring a big 5.3, up from its Spring 3.1 ("Agressive morning programming carried over to cause numbers to swing up throughout the day."—PD Ken

GLASNOST REVISTED

As reported in the Gavin Report two weeks ago, CFNY-Toronto Music Director Ivar Hamilton was one of a handful of Canadian industry folks to accompany Big Country to Moscow for their October 1 concert at the Lenin Sportstadium. The concert was the first privately-funded concert staged in Russia.

According to Hamilton, the trip was at times great, at times frustrating and always remarkable. The concert was attended by approximately 5,000 fans, some of them uniformed soldiers. This left the Sportstadium half empty, even though there were fans outside trying to get in. "There were problems with ticket distribution," said Hamilton. Money was apparently a factor. "Tickets were ten rubles, and some Russians make 250 rubles a month. Extras like this are too expensive."

The performance itself got off to a shaky start. After the appearance of five "avant-garde, in no way mainstream" Russian bands, Big Country took the stage, and due to power problems had to start three times.

Hamilton's trip wasn't without shining moments. He met Russian music lovers who have heard of such groups as Metallica, Depeche Mode and Genesis. "I met a guy who knew all the rap bands!" he said. "He was into Run-D.M.C., Ice-T--all the latest rap music."

And what good radio person doesn't leave his or her station's mark? "I put stickers on tour buses, army jeeps--even on an amphibious assault vehicle," said Hamilton. "I tried to put one on a cop car, but that didn't go over too well. But I do have a picture of the cop holding the sticker."

Gavin Goes Heavy Metal

by Sheila Rene

The Foundations Forum '88 held in Los Angeles, September 30-October 1 at the Universal Sheraton was a good news/bad news affair. The first annual (we hope) meeting of the Hard Rock and Heavy Metal tribes had sell-out crowds for two days of panels and parties. Concrete Management and Marketing, RIP Magazine and Metal Blade Records put on a nearly flawless first effort. Jim Cardillo and his co-workers made it happen smoothly and the staff and head office of the hotel were impressed with the gentle, friendly participants. The Gavin Report sent its metal maven, Sheila Rene, to cover the action, and here's her report:

The bad news: Artist/Manager Sharon Osbourne hurt her leg helping husband Ozzy make a video the day before and had to bow out as keynote speaker. The good news: Mike Bone, President of Chrysalis Records, agreed to be designated hitter. Mike Bone is a well-respected advocate of all music, and has been instrumental in the success and direction of groups who have "made it," including Krokus and the currently very hot platinum-plus Metallica. He made the decision only moments before he left New York to moderate his already-scheduled Producer's Panel.

The most important point in Bone's speech was his reference to the Child's Protection and Obscenity Enforcement Bill (H. R. 3889 and S. 2033). Bone humorously declared that the H.R. did not stand for Hard Rock. He said "Who wouldn't be for a bill with this name? I am all for children's protection!" He went on to explain that the proposed legislation allows for government seizure of "any property, real or personal," used, or intended to be used, to promote what the bill would deem "obscene" albums. Every record store would have to know every lyric to every song, for if they didn't and a record (CD, tape or video) was deemed obscene, the store, inventory, cash register, and livelihood would be seized.

The RIAA, NARAS, BMI, Howard Bloom's Music In Action and many musicians, most notably Frank Zappa, have been organized and pressuring all levels of the music business to put a stop to this First Amendment infringement. "Our First Amendment rights have never stopped the Federal government in the past, so what'll stop them now?" Bone commented. The subject was also addressed by the Credibility and Respectability panel with Mike Green of NARAS noting that Tipper Gore and the P.R.M.C. currently have over 200 sponsors, and this is an election year. If you are concerned you can get more information by contacting the organizations mentioned, or writing to your Congressman or Senator.

Wendy Dio

More news from Bone: Metal and hard rock is selling better than ever, but the charts don't do the medium justice. Album Radio, designed to serve the 18-24 demographic plays only 26% (eight cuts out of thirty) metal or hard rock selections. Top 40 averages seven cuts out of forty--even though groups like Metallica, Guns N' Roses, Judas Priest, Bon Jovi, Van Halen and a host of others continue to rise up the Top 100.

Bone on radio: Z Rock will satellite to more stations, but under the leadership of (the missing) Lee Abrams, there will be fewer new groups getting exposure if the success of Abrams' SuperStar format is any criteria.

According to Bone, MTV "the biggest Album Radio station America," plays only 13 metal or hard rock cuts out of 66 videos in current rotation. Even though it is their #1 show, the "Headbanger's Ball" airs at the evil hour of midnight on the East coast.

With this varied format coming on stronger than ever, Mike Bone believes we'll continue to see escalating sales, but he fears a lot of labels will widen the already saturated market with even more acts, which will further dilute the quality. As for independent labels, they are getting better distribution through the larger labels but, as Bone sees it, "the independent record labels and distributors are the farm team for the majors." He had no immediate solution, but believes it is to the benefit of all concerned to see this network continue, since most of the top groups of today were discovered through independents.

On the technology front, Bone is in the minority since he likes DAT (he thinks "it's cool").

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

By a wide margin (more than two thousand points), PHIL COLLINS tops the chart with a song that's almost as old as George Michael or Whitney Houston. Over the past two weeks numerous (more than ten) programmers have expressed concern over listener backlash to the current crop of remakes. The multiformat appeal of these songs no doubt contributes to burn-out and overexposure, but it's important to point out that the artists and producers have taken pains to make these songs their own. New arrangements such as WILL TO POWER's treatment of "Baby I Love Your Way/Freebird" take a fresh approach to a familiar melody. Fletcher Keyes at Z104 Madison, WI says that with so many good young songwriters, he finds it hard to agree with those who say there just isn't enough strong new material to go around. New songs showcased in original form will always be vital to sustaining interest in current popular music. However, after more than three decades of the rock era and Top 40 Radio, there is plenty of room for today's talent to offer their interpretations of yesterday's classics. It remains the programmer's responsibility to pick and play the best of these, with balance always a prime consideration.

Quick take off for CHICAGO as they soar in HIT FACTOR from 11% to 34%. Climbs seven places or more for WSPK Poughkeepsie 24-17, WQLK Richmond 26-17, WQUT Johnson City 27-16, KIXX El Dorado 25-17, Y108 Denver 20-10, KSLY San Luis Obispo 27-16, KPLZ Seattle 29-21, WKNE Keene 27-20, WKZQ Myrtle Beach 37-24, WIQQ Greenville 26-16 and KQAA Aberdeen 26-17.

Whether it's a frantic dance track or a romantic love ballad GEORGE MICHAEL can do no wrong! Like previous singles from the "Faith" album, his latest is receiving immediate positives. Steve Kingston at Z100 New York flashes a hot 28-21 gain with other strong moves at WJLK/K94 27-20, POWER 105 22-14, B93/FM 31-19, KBEQ 29-15, LG73 28-18, KWSS 26-19, KMEL 30-20, WCIL 25-19, Q102 28-23, Y106 28-20, PRO/FM 26-19, etc.

Last week's MOST ADDED effort by DURANDURAN isn't slowing down one bit. Debuts top twenty-five at EAGLE106 Philadelphia, Z93 and POWER99 Atlanta, KZXQ St. Cloud, WSTO Evansville, Y108 Denver, LIVE 105 San Francisco, KZFN Moscow, KIMN Ft. Collins, POWER 104 Houston, KKYK Little Rock, KUBE Seattle, and Z100 New York. Top thirty debuts at WWFX, WJET, KC101, KMEL, KS104, KGOT, KBQ, WKTI, KMCD, WCLG, WFMF, B94 and KOY/FM.

200 reports in three weeks for PET SHOP BOYS, who debut at #19 at KZZP Phoenix and #22 crosstown at KOY/FM. Strong gains at KKQV 32-21, 93Q 28-19 and KNIN 13-6. New on WYAV, 100KHI, POWER99, KHOK, WLRW, KKXL, WPFR, WHKW, WDJX, KAKS, KRRG, KEZY, KWTX, KXRA, KIIK, KBIU, WHSB, KDWZ, WVAQ, KEEZ, KQHU, KQHU, WGBQ, WNNO, KZMC, KYNO, KLYK, etc.

Another good week of airplay growth for IVAN NEVILLE, who moves 26-23 at WROQ Charlotte. Adds include KZZU Spokane, KCPX Salt Lake City, POWER 105 Albuquerque, KKYK Little Rock, WTBX Duluth, KWIN Stockton, KPSI Palm Springs, WIGY Bath, Y106 Orlando, WQIO Mt. Vernon, WPRH Columbia, KFMW Waterloo, Z100 Portland, KSND Eugene, KMGZ Lawton and KEGL Dallas. Debuts at Y95 #35, KNIN #26, KIIK #30 and Q104 #38.

One of the most talked about couples of the year become one of the MOST ADDED records of the week. BARBRA STREISAND and DON JOHNSON chalk up instant airplay at 92X, Z95.5, KUBE, KWSS, KIXY, KCPW, WXKS, WAVA, WBBQ, 95XXX, WMJQ, PRO FM, KBIU, KOY/FM, KZZP, KYA, Y108, KSND, KKYS, WMMY, YES97, K104, EAGLE106, WNYZ, WRCK, KC101, etc.

Newcomer JUDSON SPENCE is making a lot of noise in a very short time. Tremendous reaction and acceptance by programmers across the country have gotten this one off to a great start. Over 100 stations now on it with new believers including WDJX, KZZK, KUUB, FM104, KXXR, WDEK, WCIL, KLYV, WAZI, Y106, WWFX, WILI, 95XXX, POWER 105, KREO, KGOT, KIQY, KMON, KZZO, etc. Debuts at KOZE #30, WTBX #28 and KKEZ #30.

Along with upward growth in their hometown of Detroit, WAS (NOT WAS) is starting to spread nicely. Gains at WHYT 17-15 and Z95.5 34-28 plus hefty moves at 100KHI 33-24, YES97 40-32, KAGO 35-30, Y108 debut #27, KOZE 21-18, KNIN 29-19, POWER 104 25-23, KMGX 31-26 and WLLI 22-16.

Novel entry from L'TRIMM is scoring big in several markets and corners a 44% HIT FACTOR. Top five at KKQV, KSTN (#1), KDON, KGGI plus debuts #18 at KIIS Los Angeles and #21 KMGX Fresno. Added at B93/FM, K100, KRQ, WMMZ, POWER 106, KWIN, KWSS, and KXFM.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH continues to pick up confirmation as one of the hottest reaction tunes around. SIOUXSIE & THE BANSHEES move 5-2 at K106 Beaumont TX. where Pam Pace reports "big sales and top five requests." Same story at KATD Los Gatos San Jose with Gary Weinstein saying it's in power rotation and is his number one requested title. POWER99 Atlanta is also reporting "great positive response." Adds include WWHB, POWER99, KSTN, 96/76, WJZQ, WPFM, WCGQ, KWTX, KZMC, and KTDR. Debuts at #25 for Buzz Bennett at Y95 Dallas.

Look out for ALPHAVILLE! Only 13 reports so far, but Guy Zapoleon at KZZP says it's his third most requested song. George Feloa at KAGO/FM mentions it's in his "top ten at ten every night and the LP or CD version draws better male response than the pop remix." Debuts #30 at WKTI, #26 KZZP and gets added to KIIS Los Angeles.

It was Mr. Ed Lambert at KDWB who first hipped me to GOOD QUESTION. Top ten again at KOY/FM 9-8 with debuts at KZZP #27 and KDWB #29. Adds include WHKW, WLTV, WWKF, KWSS, KKXX, K100, Z100 Portland and KQIX.

THE MOMENT IS NOW!

WHITNEY HOUSTON

Whitney Houston's emotionally-charged smash "One Moment In Time" is taking the world by storm, shaping up to be her biggest hit ever. Here are just a few of the major moves the single is experiencing.

TOP 40 ACTION

Z-100 22-15	Q106 13-6
WEGX 13-9	KZZP 9-5
KRBE 17-11	Q-107 14-8
PWR95 11-9	KBEQ 27-18
KDWB/FM 21-15	WHYT 10-8

SINGLE SALES

TOWER (National) 22-8	MUSICLAND GROUP 21-7
TOWER (South Region) 26-5	SAM GOODY (East) 19-10
TOWER (Southeast) 14-4	SAM GOODY (East)
TOWER (Boston) 30-3	CASSETTE SINGLE 20-8

INTERNATIONAL ACTION

In England, the single has exploded from 24-8-3-1! In Germany, the story is equally as impressive, soaring to #2 in just four weeks! The single has also just bulletted Top 5 in Norway, Finland, Sweden and Denmark.

All of this makes it totally clear. "One Moment In Time" is a confirmed worldwide smash that's going the distance! From One Moment In Time, the platinum plus 1988 Olympics Album.

P.D. NOTEBOOK

by Eric Norberg

PLAY WHAT YOU SAY YOU PLAY

Another letter! This one from Michael K. Johnson of WCVQ/FM in Clarksville, Tennessee:

"I would like to take a moment to respond to your column concerning playlists, and how they should be constructed. First off, let me explain a little about myself and my station. I am WCVQ's Music Director and have most, if not all, control over the current playlist. This is my first Music Director gig, and I have held this position for a year now. WCVQ is an 80,000 watt Adult Contemporary FM located inside a metropolitan area of 160,000 people. We report to the Gavin Report and two other trades.

"First and foremost, my policy is to play all songs that I report, regardless of rotation rank. I believe it is my obligation to our listeners to play only the 'best' music available, and to report records I deem the 'best.' I determine rotations based on several factors—including airplay, charting local album and CD sales as well as singles, requests from our demo, national trends and predictions, and a bit of a 'sharp ear.' I am strongly against the idea of consultants. I believe that only someone who receives feedback daily from listeners, through on-air contact in addition to community relations, can honestly and effectively decide what is appropriate for his/her audience.

*"On the subject of paper adds, I think that it is a crock of '&*#@' for a programmer to involve him or herself in. Adding records simply to get a promoter 'off your back,' if you will, is not only lessening your credibility, but short-changing your audience as well. And a record promoter who turns up the heat just to see a station's call letters under their song in a national trade is not concerned with the things I think they should really be thinking of: The song's true value to the listener, and the artist's potential impact, be it good or bad, on the audience. [ED NOTE: Plus, they will not see the song sell when the stores in that market are stocked, because it isn't really being exposed there—and that costs the record company money.]*

"A final note: I believe this issue of 'honest' playlists should continue to be a focal point for everyone concerned with the radio/record business. The very life of the whole system depends on integrity and honesty, as well as on creativity and talent. A weak programmer makes for an even weaker branch in the collective music tree."

I thank Michael for his letter, and invite any additional thoughts you may have on these topics. I might also mention that at about the same time, I received a letter from a programmer who wrote that in trying to report to a trade publication all the records he had added, he was told "that's too many records...give me just a few of those," or something to that effect. He wrote me, saying he felt that it would be dishonest to avoid reporting all of his legitimate adds. I agreed with him. I feel that if a station is accepted as a reporter, its own add policies should be recognized, even if they appear unorthodox to the publication. I discussed the matter with the publication in question and hopefully the problem is now solved.

I also received a letter from a station objecting to the lyric of a hit record, and commenting, "one of our local Top 40 stations had added it and thrown responsibility to the wind." I am of two minds about printing it, since I am more interested in discussing the issue of lyrics, than arguing about a specific record's lyrics. I certainly do feel that each station should consider the lyric of a record in deciding whether to play it or not, and consider the impact of the record on the audience of the station (in this case specifically children, because Top 40 stations do have a substantial number of children listening, whether or not they have any interest in reaching that demographic). And of course, the FCC requires consideration of lyric before making the decision to play a record (although after the consideration of the lyric, the FCC is inclined to respect that decision, unless prodded by the listening public to do otherwise). But different programmers are likely to come to different decisions about the same records. Perhaps it would be more productive to do a future column on how these decisions are made, and what considerations apply—if you'd care to share yours? Drop me a letter if you do. ●

MARKETING

by Harvey Mednick

ARE YOU EXPENDABLE?

Recently, in the business section of The Los Angeles Times, a headline noted that when companies are forced to react to economic pressures by trimming staff, they almost always concentrate their efforts on those departments and individuals who do not directly contribute to the bottom line. The article went on to say that most often the area that is hardest hit is marketing!

In their defense, I'm sure that most companies don't underestimate the value of their marketing/public relations/promotion departments. I'm equally as sure that, given their choice of using a different barometer than pure bottom line impact, they'd look elsewhere in their organization for those dollar cuts that will satisfy their upper management.

What I'd like us to do in this week's column is take a hard look at not only what we're doing, but whether or not our actions set us up for extinction. Beyond that, we'll work toward formulating a strategy that will position our department as an indispensable element in the overall business plan of the station.

1. Do you have fiscal responsibility for your department? If the answer is "no" then you're on the launching pad. Irrespective of who you report to, or what the scope of your influence is, if you don't control (or at least heavily influence) the dollars in your department—YOU REALLY DON'T MANAGE. And, if you don't manage, you probably won't survive any wholesale purge. So the first rule for survival is: take charge of your department. Now, this may require some delicate re-negotiation of your deal with whomever you report to, but it is imperative. It also reinforces the basic notion that you really are a "director," the title of choice to those who sit in our chair.

2. For whom do you work? This goes back to the way the position was established when you came on board. I advocate only one position—the promotion director reports directly to the GM and no one else! You may work closely with the sales department or the PD, but when it comes to justifying your professional existence, you want the line between you and the person who determines whether you live or die to be as straight as possible, and that means the GM and no one else!

3. Is your department a profit center? It only makes sense that if your vulnerability is based on dollars out not being offset by dollars in, you have to look at changing that. Some departments inside a station can never generate revenue. But yours can--and with relative ease! Make your number one priority for 1989 an investigation of exactly how you can at least justify your salary, if not the bulk of your department's budget, through revenue-producing activities. It only makes sense that if you are making a positive impact on the bottom line, you are also making a positive impact on the corporate hierarchy which judges your station's performance.

4. With whom are you aligned? If you consider yourself a part of the programming department, you might be in deep trouble. If, as we discovered at the BPME this past June, our "Yellow Brick Road" to the top is through sales, then that's the team you want to play for and there's a number of reasons. That's where the dollars are generated, that's where 99.9% of all managers come from, and that's where you stand the greatest chance of being most easily understood.

5. Have you set up a system of accountability and measurement? One of the constants in our industry is that we are "the keepers of the cume," and that our primary focus is on helping generate greater cume figures. If that's true, it's good news and bad news--the good news is that we have an area of our performance which is measurable, the bad news is that the area which is measurable is a "dollar out" area, only validated after research ($), design ($), media purchase ($) and confirmation through ratings ($) results. What you need to do is hop down the hall to the sales department and sit with the sales managers, general/local/national, and the individual salespeople at your station, and work out a deal whereby WHENEVER A SALE RESULTS FROM YOUR PARTICIPATION IN THE PROCESS YOU ARE GIVEN CREDIT--IN WRITING. (ed note: caps mine)

One further thought: if you have reached a point where your salary has maxed out and can only be increased by the perfunctory "cost of living" index percentage, perhaps you can cut a deal with your GM that works like this--whenever you are credited with positively influencing a buy by virtue of your participation, you can get a piece of the action (commission) as an incentive. This way you can not only help bring in bucks, but make some at the same time.

Remember this: you're only as valuable to your station as you make yourself--and make one of your goals for '89 to make sure your value is measured in dollars and cents impact on the bottom line. In this way you'll never be expendable! ●

Henry Lee Summer wrapped up his 1988 tour schedule by opening for Chicago. Earlier in the year he supported Richard Marx and Cheap Trick. Summer grew up listening to Chicago, and in a phone interview praised the band for their full support, on and off stage. The recording for his next CBS/Assoc. LP began the week after the tour was over, in his new state-of-the-art studio in his home. All of the songs have been written, and if the record company likes what they hear on his first demo Henry Lee will produce, using a super engineer. Summer guarantees three hits off the next album: "Don't Leave", "Hey, Baby" and "Don't Want To Live This Lie No More."

Boz Scaggs' third single, "What's Number One," has been released. It comes off his Other Roads LP. The soulful rocker was written with poet/songwriter Jim Carroll. Scaggs first became aware of Carroll through his book, "The Basketball Diaries." Scaggs' San Francisco jukejoint, "Slim's," is becoming his second home. Everyone knows that when Presidio Slim is playing, it will be a great night...Dream Syndicate recently played as a part of Finland's massive festival "Rock Ruis," debuting material from their brand new Enigma LP, Ghost Stories. Elliot Mazer, of early Neil Young fame, produced. During the next few months the band will be playing approximately 50 dates in 12 different countries throughout Europe...Tom Cochrane and Red Rider made their official debut on RCA with the Victory Day LP. Don Gehman (John Cougar Mellencamp, R.E.M.) produced this sixth album with great songs galore. The first single (just in time for the World Series) is "Big League." Cochrane, who has been on a three week talking tour of the U.S., was the third artist to stop into the new Gavin headquarters. He told us that "Big League" is a "metaphor for ambition" and taken from a true story about hockey... Frontier Records, in conjunction with Tower Records Pulse! Magazine, is compiling some new and old gems on an album titled Diamond At A Discount. New cuts include "Bad Liquor" by American Music Club, from their forthcoming album California; "Fight," by Mallet-Head and "I'm An Artist On Frontier" by The Young Fresh Fellows available only on this record. The album is only $1.99...Rykodisc has signed an agreement with Grateful Dead percussionist Mickey Hart to release a series of recordings entitled The World. Hart is the producer on all the titles and the first album was recorded in a diverse range of locations from the Nubian desert to the Arctic tundra. Each album has been digitally remixed from original masters, and features extensive liner notes detailing recording procedures. The Grateful Dead continue recording their next Arista LP at various studios around the Bay area--in between concerts...It's no great surprise that U2 made a tremendous showing with their Rattle And Hum album the first week out. They can also be heard on one cut from the soundtrack to the new Irish film, "The Courier." The soundtrack also features eight instrumentals by Elvis Costello, and six songs from new Irish groups. Cait O'Reardon (Mrs. Elvis Costello) stars in the movie. The U2 cut, "Walk To The Water," was previously available only on a B-side...Night Ranger's first video for "I Did It For Love" features a cameo from Morgan Fairchild. They hired Penelope Spheeris to direct, since they were looking for a rougher treatment than rock ballads usually get. Filming took place in Bell Canyon (near Los Angeles). Former Eddie Money, Aldo Nova keyboardist Jesse Bradman has signed on for the Rangers' tour. Bradman, who played on the album, will have to put a few producing jobs on hold since the tour kicks off November 5th in Hawaii...After seven years, Fish has left Marillion in pursuit of a solo career. Meanwhile, the band will release a live double album while they work on material for a new studio album and find a new vocalist... R.E.M. will have two albums out this fall. Warner Bros. Records will release their new studio album, Green, on November 8th and a greatest hits collection titled Eponymous will be released by I.R.S...The readers of Guitar Player Magazine have voted Stevie Ray Vaughn Best Electric Blues Guitarist for the fifth time in the last six years--1983-1986 and now again in 1988--making him eligible for the Gallery Of Greats along with Jimi Hendrix, B.B. King and Eric Clapton. Vaughn is the only guitarist to win the poll four years in a row... Warner Bros. artist Gardner Cole stopped by the Gavin to celebrate his new album Triangles. The first single is "Live It Up," and the video was directed by Russell Mulcahey and filmed in Thailand. Look for Cole to be the subject of a six page spread in the December issue of In Fashion magazine. His producing and writing talents are represented on current albums by such artists as Madonna, Jody Watley, Brenda Russell, Times Two, Amy Grant, Jane Weidlin and Nick Kamen. ●

by Ron Fell

•JOHNNY CASH

In the premier episode of the NBC series Davy Crockett, Johnny Cash stars in the title role. He plays a 50-year-old Crockett in the opener, and in succeeding episodes, a much younger Crockett will be played by Tim Dunigan.

•MARILLION

The group is working on their next album in London, but their lead vocalist, Fish, has left the band to pursue a solo career.

•WAS (NOT WAS)

David Weiss is the Golf Editor of City Sports magazine in Los Angeles.

•LOU RAWLS

Twenty-six years after signing his first recording contract with Capitol Records, Rawls has renewed his association with the label. His new album will be his first for Capitol since 1969.

•RICK ASTLEY

A fire at PWL Studios in London resulted in $500,000 damage. The fire destroyed master tapes of the nearly complete Rick Astley album scheduled for release in November. Fortunately for Rick and PWL, prior to the fire all the material had been transferred to disc and stored elsewhere.

•DON JOHNSON

Currently starring in the film Sweet Hearts Dance with Susan Sarandon, Johnson's next film, Dead Bang, casts him as an undercover cop infiltrating a white supremacist organization.

•PATTI LABELLE

A song with the exotic title, LOVE 69, is scheduled for her upcoming album. The song was written by Sheena Easton and Prince.

•TIFFANY

Her next single, ALL THIS TIME, will receive its world premier on NBC's sitcom, Growing Pains, on October 19.

•MARLENA SHAW

She was the first woman to sign with the legendary Blue Note Records. Prior to signing with Blue Note, she sang with the Count Basie Band for four years.

•ROBERT CRAY

He appears in the John Landis-directed film, Animal House as the bass player in the band Otis Day and the Knights.

•KENNY RANKIN

Fifteen years ago Helen Reddy had one of her biggest hits with a Kenny Rankin song, PEACEFUL.

Congrats to our good friend Chuck Southcott on his appointment as P.D. of the Los Angeles soft oldies outlet KMPC. We know he'll distinguish himself as always, because it takes on helluva programmer to determine if Jerry Vale should follow or precede Eddie Fisher!

Four cliches we fervently pray we'll never hear again once the Presidential campaign mercifully ends:

1. "A heartbeat away from the Presidency"
2. "It's just the tip of the iceberg"
3. "...and that's what America is all about."
4. "If they can send a man to the moon they oughta be able to (fill-in)."

Advice to the candidates: You'll get nowhere without a good nickname. Think about "The Boss," "The Chairman of the Board," "The King," "The Great Communicator," "The Round Mound of Rebound" "The Tooz." See? It works in sports and music and it worked with Bonzo's Dad. Here are our suggestions:

- DUKAKIS: "The Human Eyebrow"
 BUSH: "The Thousands Points of Slight"
 BENTSEN: "Old Marble Mouth"

QUAYLE: "Bizzaro"

The long awaited video release of ET just arrived at our local video store, Irv's Video and Grill. We didn't see it when it was new and we have no interest in renting or buying it now. Here's why:

1. We're not crazy about weird furry creatures, Dukakis notwithstanding.
2. Bronson Pinchot and Joe Penny aren't in it.
3. We only have time to watch 2 tapes a night and they're always "Reefer Madness" and "Citizen Kane."

Item from today's L.A. Times--and we're not making this up:

"Father Junipero Serra of California has been moved one step closer to sainthood." We're certain that the good Father, who died some one hundred years ago, but who lunches weekly with Danny Davis, will be pleased to hear THAT news!

Larry Bird will soon be re-signing with the Boston Celtics for some $3,000,000 per annum to take elbows in the throat for eight months a year. We hope this doesn't upset The White Shadow, but he should know that Oprah Winfrey out-salaries him by about $27,000,000, takes NO elbows in the throat, and earns her money by interviewing lady wrestler-transvestite-surrogate mothers.

Former radio guy Gerry Cagle has just completed a novel called Payola and the movie's being cast even as we speak. The punchy expose of the record and radio industry will feature Don Anti as a friend of Scott Shannon, Roseanne Barr as the entire staff of KIIS-FM and Gold Castle's Jeff Heiman as Morty, the cub reporter.

WSKY's Brian Lee ruined our day recently by sending Mrs. Hollywood and me an in-depth report on the San Andreas Fault and the likelihood of The Big One coming along any minute. Lee is a sadistic sort and we don't thank him one bit, but we do predict that the entire Asheville area will soon be visited by Hurricane Seymour.

CBS's promo-domo George Chaltas recently visited Australia. And why you ask? Because the Brisbane City Management put out an emergency call for someone more macho than Paul Hogan. George arrived in a surly mood, and the local phrase "put another shrimp on the barby" was never uttered within his hearing.

Good to hear from top CD exec and ex-trade publication guy Spence Berland, who actually faxed us at The Gavin Report with comments about a recent column. It's encouraging that people in Berland's age category can comprehend such modern equipment. We're still having trouble figuring out the technology of yellow legal pads.

Speaking of legal pads--this one's filled. Bye.●

The DAT cassette is 60% the size of a regular cassette, and will give you not a generated copy, but a digital clone. He's encouraged that Japan has come up with a chip that will read the cassette after the first copy and not allow another. Although the lack of a comprehensive royalty and copyright procedure, at this point, makes the idea "pretty scary", Bone remains optimistic.

On to the panels: The only discomfort in this "nearly flawless" affair was that there were two to three panels going on at the same time on both days. The conventioners were constantly jumping from room to room, never knowing what they might be missing. Lots of basic information was passed along to the audience through each of the panels. For instance Wendy Dio, who participated on the Managers/Lawyers Panel, brought a list of responsibilities to pass out to other future artist/managers.

Producers Rick Rubin, Max Norman, Tom Werman, Terry Date, Beau Hill and Tod Howarth moved through mountains of technical and street-wise food for thought. Since bands today are making more money on merchandising, that panel was very timely, as was the Metal Marketing Panel.

Diarmuid Quinn of Epic Records moderated the well-attended Artist Development Panel and the A&R Panel, featuring the talents and wisdom of Tom Zutaut/ Geffen Records, Bob Skoro/ PolyGram, musician Billy Sheehan and Rachel Matthews/Capitol Records.

Everyone was there--rock stars who've made it and those on their way; labels big and small. Radio and press spread the word in the hallways, but kept the partying to two nights at the Country Club and the hotel bar. The Second Annual RIP Party had the highest attendance, and was filmed for MTV's "Headbanger's Ball."

Interviewed were Glenn Tipton/Judas Priest; members of Guns N' Roses, Anthrax, Ratt, Metal Church, Grim Reaper, Rock City Angels, Slayer, House of Lords, Dokken, Megadeth and lots more. Atlantic Records' Wrathchild and MCA's Femme Fatale performed with The

INSIDE URBAN

STAY IN SCHOOL, PLEASE!

During a recent promotion to urge youth to stay in school, Bobby Brown made a guest appearance at the winning Greenville County school and talked about the importance of staying in school. WHYZ-Greenville, SC, put on the promotion and the winning school sent in over 10,800 cards to win, while the station received over 30,000 in all. Shown with winners are (l-r) President of WHYZ Martin McClung, MD Rocky Valentine, PD Janice Henderson, Principal of the winning Southside High Judy Davis, Bobby Brown, MCA's Ron White, and MCA's Novice Johnson.

RENE MOORE received a warm welcome from radio when debuting his first single since his departing the duo Rene & Angela. Lisa Lipps, KACE-Los Angeles, was one of those radio types who says it's a good debut for him and Roscoe Miller, WXVI-Montgomery, says it's going to do well. Top Tip goes to actor-turned-singer DORIAN HAREWOOD helped by a comment made this week by Herman Anderson, WKXG-Greenwood: "Luther and Freddie had better look over their shoulders at the new baller on the block. This guy can sing as well as he acts." Herman is of course referring to Dorian's lead role in The Jesse Owens story, as well as his acting done in Roots' Second Generation.

Record To Watch is ANGELA BOFILL and Costee McNair, WBIL-Tuskegee, was raving about it when he called and Terry Alexander, WQQK/FM-Nashville, says, "This Angela Bofill was worth waiting for - she came back with a tough one!" KENNY G is popular on the phones, says L.D. McCollum, XHRM-San Diego, and B.K. Kirkland, WIKS-New Bern, likes the new LATOYA JACKSON. "You're Gonna Rock' has a mean groove to it - the title says it all." JEFFREY OSBORNE's new single, "Can't Go Back On A Promise" is the record to watch for Frank Barrow, KRIZ-Seattle, who reports "females are already calling for this one - it's on the rise." Ciao for now, Betty.

NEW RELEASES by Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

SHEENA EASTON - The Lover In Me (MCA)

We haven't heard from Sheena since "Eternity" so she must have gotten a "Deele" she couldn't refuse. The heavy beat produced by this year's dynamic duo, L.A. Reid and Babyface, who are now commonly known as "LA'Face", is a killer.

FOUR TOPS (Duet with Aretha Franklin) - If Ever A Love There Was (Arista)

Teaming Lady Soul with this classic four is like paying tribute to old home week. It's a pleasure to recommend this to anyone shooting for upper demos.

RENE MOORE - All Or Nothing (Polydor/PolyGram)

Does this name sound familiar? Maybe the first name? This is Rene of Rene and Angela fame. His first effort since the split-up has already chalked up fifteen adds from very alert programmers. Intro is dynamite.

D.J. JAZZY JEFF & THE FRESH PRINCE - Girls Ain't Nothing But Trouble (1988 Single Version) (Jive/RCA)

With the recent success of D.J. Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince with "Nightmare..." and "Parents...", what better time than now to re-release their very first single? Even Jeannie (Barbara Eden) wouldn't "dream" of using this familiar theme in rap form. Don't pass on the '88 version!

KEITH SWEAT - Don't Stop Your Love (Elektra)

This picks up where "Make It Last Forever" left off. The mid-tempo beat sounds so sexy, and from Sweat's track record, we'll bank on this one following the rest of his hits to the top of the chart. (Do you think this guy sweats all the way to the bank?)

JAMES "D-TRAIN" WILLIAMS - Runner (Columbia)

One of D-Train's stronger singles. Its thumping rhythm track carries the song from beginning to end. "Runner" has an uptempo blend of musical elements that should attract listeners from all demos, especially the ones who like to shake their thang.

RAPS TO CHECK OUT...

ROYAL FLUSH - Dance Or Die (Rap-A-Lot)

KURTIS BLOW - Only The Strong Survive (Mercury/PolyGram)

A GAVIN INTERVIEW WITH RANDY NEWMAN AND MARK KNOPFLER

by Kent and Keith Zimmerman

Randy Newman is truly one of America's living songwriting masters. Yet his association with radio has been both successful and tentative, although his last album produced "I Love LA," a song that went on to become a Southern California cultural anthem. Today Randy is on a serious musical upswing. Mark Knopfler, a longtime fan and admirer, joined in to the tune of producing eight of the twelve songs found on Newman's latest autobiographical offering, Land Of Dreams.

In the past, Randy Newman has chosen to explore the human experience through the faraway eyes of song characters created out of Randy's own sometimes acerbic imagination. These characters could include a misunderstood Southern "redneck" of the Good Ole Boys LP or someone as complex as a befuddled and paranoid South African white supremacist in the song "Christmas In Capetown." Land Of Dreams, however, sticks closer to the home roots of the Newman family. Songs like "Dixie Flyer," "New Orleans Wins The War," "Four Eyes" and "It's Money That Matters" are affectionate family portraits with traces of fictional spice.

Our conversation was wildly entertaining. Halfway through, Mark Knopfler gladly joined in. Randy Newman is wonderfully witty, outspoken, insecure and playfully perplexed over the hand that life has dealt him. Mark Knopfler is urbane, refined and contemplative. In many ways, Land Of Dreams faithfully reflects both of these celebrated de-meanors, which gives this new album a sophisticated glow and far-reaching subject matter.

KZ: We're unclear as to your lineage. But Southern culture seems to have been a fixation in your music for many years.

RANDY NEWMAN: Half my family on my mother's side is from the South. It's like I said in the song ("Dixie Flyer"). I lied a little, but not much. We did go to New Orleans when I was two days old because that's where she's from. My father went to school there and my parents met there. I've always liked the South—I like the artists down there. The type of music I like is New Orleans kind of stuff. I LOVE Fats Domino better than anything. I don't think it has anything to do with being from down South, but when I write a song, I almost have to fight against it being a shuffle. I've written more shuffles than anybody. Unfortunately drummers hate them and the public hates them.

KZ: That's not necessarily true.

RN: Oh yeah? Is this a shuffle? (sings) "I CANT GET NO SATISFACTION"

KZ: Do you remember when the cover photos were taken?

RN: Are you kidding? I don't even remember the Sixties! I do remember the cowboy hat, but I don't think it was that color. That photo looks tinted. I remember the baseball photo on the back. That was taken at Beverly High. My family lived in an apartment across the street.

KZ: How did Mark Knopfler get involved?

RN: I needed a producer because Lenny (Waronker) was kicked upstairs to be president of the company. I heard through a lawyer that Mark was interested. I knew he was a fan of mine and I was a fan of his. We got together and it was great. He's a great guy. Much nicer guy than I am. His instincts are really good. He's very conscious about his work and he's unaffected by his success. I didn't even know how big he was before working with him. A couple of years ago we were on Entertainment Tonight. That was one of the first times I'd talked to him at any length. So we're supposed to be talking for the cameras. I ask him, "Where are you going?" He said, "Australia." I told him that I'd just done a couple of shows in Australia. I asked him how many shows he was playing. He said, "Forty-six." I said, "FORTY-SIX!!" And they had to stop the show.

KZ: "Roll With The Punches" and "Follow The Flag" are opposing songs that are quite similar in meaning. They both deal with patriotism.

RN: I don't know what to make of "Follow The Flag." Usually in my songs I may have someone with whom I don't agree portraying a character and it's clear that they're the bad guy. They'll use a bad word, or something. But with this "Flag" song—I don't agree with one single word in it—you can't tell. I don't believe in following any kind of symbol—well, the Japanese flag, maybe. I don't believe in that kind of overt flag patriotism. What for? Yet it sounds like I do and I like it. You can make whatever you want of it. "Roll With The Punches" is clearer in that I don't believe that every black kid should have to live with junkies. They shouldn't have to roll with any punches at all.

KZ: You use a lot of satire and heavy sarcasm. Does it ever bother you that sometimes the masses may misunderstand your meaning?

RN: I only noticed that when I had a really big record. It happened with "The South,"

"Redneck" (off the Good Ole Boys LP) and songs like that. They loved those songs in the South. And they understood what I was saying. They were both pro-Southern songs. With "Short People," I'd run into people like on some television dance shows that didn't get it. Recently it's gotten easier. People understand me better. Mark Knopfler's "Money For Nothing" is a perfect example. That was a monstrous hit and most people got it, so things are getting a little better when it comes to satire.

KZ: How did Randy Newman come to record a rap like "Masterman and Baby J"?

RN: Rap interests me tremendously. First and foremost is the amount of bragging. You hear Run-D.M.C.'s follow-up and "Moon River" is not on there. It's "We're Run-D.M.C. and we're great." Track two is, "We got the worst posse and we're doing great." You'd never see that—even in rock n roll. Salt 'N Pepa is one of the best records I've heard all year. Boogie Down Productions, LL Cool J—I've heard some great stuff. The songs are like writing your name on a wall.

KZ: Tell us about the single. It's more than just a "money isn't everything" song. The lyrics about creative people just eking by are very moving, but then it takes a hard left turn into a rock beat.

RN: My sympathy is with people who, for instance, work with public radio. As for the narrator's view, I hope it's not quite true, but money is how things get measured. The trouble with this country is that you get your face rubbed in it if you don't go for the money. Why has this fat old guy got this beautiful girl? Why has this little guy got this giant house? I mean I read Dostoyevsky and everything, but somehow it all rankles me. I don't wanna have to look at it. Let's say I'm smarter than this guy, let's say I'm a better person than this guy. I may be a better writer or better musician. But why is he so much better off? Even if you say that money is not an accurate way of measuring, you can't help but notice it. I did this thing with Billy Joel. Farm Aid. He's got a plane. I'm thinking, "Jesus Christ, we're doing the same thing. He thinks I'm better than he is. Maybe I am better than he is in some way." I just can't say he's okay, I'm okay, everything's just great, because there are 80,000 people happy to see him who don't know who I am. You constantly run into it.

KZ: One song I couldn't understand was "Red Bandana."

RN: It's just about a dumb guy who goes to L.A. and gets affected in some peripheral way. What I like is the chord progressions and the fact that all his mother can say to him after he's been around is, "What's that you got on your head?" It so simple that it alluded you. It's about a guy who's a little slow and it's a song in which I come out strongly against women for the first time. I took a real position against them.

KZ: Why?

RN: Terrible things have happened. Couldn't have been worse. A fatal accident is the only thing that could have been worse.

KZ: So you've had a bad experience in the--

RN: In the old heart sweepstakes

KZ: The last song, "I Want You To Hurt Like I Do" is a deeply meaningful song about human beings.

RN: I think it may be true of people in general that if they're in a hole, they'll want you to climb down in the hole with them. I know I feel that way sometimes, but I try not to do it. I like the end of the song where it's an anthem like "We Are The World." I can imagine Kenny Rogers and all these guys singing, "I want you to hurt like I do." That would be so hip. Michael Jackson could sing a little part of it. That song and "Dixie Flyer" are my favorite songs.

KZ: Why is it that in your music you always seem to confront issues of race? A song like

RANDOM THOUGHTS ON RADIO

MARK KNOPFLER: We've been optimistic about this record because it seems like radio and press people want to see Land Of Dreams happen. That's great. It makes me feel like maybe the nineties are going to be a better time for radio than the past ten years or so. Maybe radio is going to get a bit more adventurous again. I feel that something is happening that will get us away from this format and marketing profile stuff. Obviously I sympathize with radio stations who want to keep listeners and advertisers, and who want to keep the money coming in. It's very competitive. But, man, if you keep on giving people what you're told they want and if you go on appealing to that lowest common denominator, in the long run, it's not going to work. But meeting all these radio people, I find they want a record like this to happen. And it's not just because they've always loved Randy Newman. It's more than that. I think that there's a feeling that a record like this can get played now, whereas maybe a few years ago, it would have been much harder.

RANDY NEWMAN: I've always wished that I had more of a presence on American radio than I've had. I get tiny ASCAP checks. Some of the best things that I've written—like you said, "Christmas In Capetown," "Davy The Fat Boy"—will never be played or earn more than six cents in their lifetime in this country. I've always wanted to be on the radio more in places like in Florida or Ohio. You hear Neil Young and Van Morrison. I'm an equivalent in terms of quality. I'd like to see some Classic Rock station play "You Can Leave Your Hat On." Why not? (laughs) ●

"Christmas In Capetown" is an example. Race is something that's generally avoided in polite conversation.

RN: It's something America avoids. I've always been interested in race. Even during the Vietnam era, I always thought that the worst thing was that if you go into a town and see a bad neighborhood, you know who lives there. America shouldn't be like that. It's always genuinely bothered me in a visceral way. I mean, I didn't like the war and lots of other things, but racism is unbelievable. In Germany you don't see slums that are identifiable by race. People get taken care of better.

KZ: Do these feelings have any link with your "Southernness"?

RN: Maybe. Maybe because my mom was very sick and a black woman brought me up. I don't know what it has to do with. There's no prejudice in my family. I've always thought that if I were black, I'd rather be in the South. It's harder in the North in a lot of ways. There's always been a myth that things are better in the North when they aren't any better at all! The fact that racism isn't so institutionalized in the North, that it's de facto, is almost as bad. I've written about it. When I was nine years old in New Orleans you'd see water fountains marked "colored" and "white." Or an ice cream truck. One door said "white" and one door said "colored"--spelled wrong with two "r's." It always bothered me. I always think I'm done writing about it, but I always come back to it with songs like "Roll With The Punches," or "Redneck," or "Sail Away" or "Christmas In Capetown."

KZ: In the song "Christmas In Capetown" you use some strong images like "the Star Wars lunchboxes" held by the black diamond mine workers.

RN: I liked that part. I imagined it all. It makes me a little nervous, those images about the yellow eyes. I put real hate in the song. You have the guy make his case, not making him a complete monster, but just paranoid, as I think you might be if you lived over there.

MARK KNOPFLER ENTERS CONVERSATION

KZ: How was it producing a person like Randy Newman?

MARK KNOPFLER: It was a pleasure going to work everyday. In fact, we were having such a good time, Randy used to say, "This is better than my life."

RN: So is getting your wisdom teeth pulled out.

MK: I hope we can work together again.

RN: I worked with Lenny Waronker for twenty years. This was different. Mark is a musician. He would take care of things completely. Much of "Masterman and Baby J" is his. Some of this music is less me in some ways, which is great. In some ways this is the best record I've ever made. Mark dealt with subtleties like, for instance, how big is the bass going to be? How much space is the snare going to take? I learned a hell of a lot from him.

MK: I became a fan the very first time I heard the 12 Songs album. That's what it's all about for me--songwriting. I don't know how to promote records but I want to promote this record because I feel the same way about Randy as a lot of media people feel. It's time that Randy be viewed as one of the foremost American writers--not just now but at any time.

KZ: Mark, we remember you during the first Dire Straits tours. You were fairly shy.

MK: I'm not the promotional type. But it's much easier for me to promote something I believe in, like this album. I never really liked anything that I've done enough to want to promote it like I would promote this.

KZ: How much spontaneity occurred with these songs?

MK: "Money That Matters" was originally built around a piano lick. But I thought it was too much of the same, so I came up with a guitar lick instead. On "Masterman and Baby J," Randy was hitting these notes on the piano, any note he could find. The lyrics were delivered. I thought the demo had this brilliant musical concept. Finally he asked, "What are you going to do about the music." So we built up the music from point one. By and large, most of the other songs that I worked on came to me in a highly developed state. But that doesn't alter the fact that you still have a pile of work to do. Having something so

THE GAVIN REPORTERS

THE MOST TRUSTED NAMES IN RADIO

*A handbook guide to our family of Gavin reporters.
This week's adds and rotations.*

developed often brings even greater demands in a way. You can't use the same tricks. So it gives you even more to do. It's like film. The demands of working on a good movie are far greater than working on a bad one. The demands of interviewing a dumb person are far less than interviewing somebody who's got some intelligence. In terms of producing a Randy Newman song, the demands are then greater. It was a lot of fun. Usually we were laughing all the time. I remember having sore ribs every night. It never got pretentious. We never sat around and agonized about the use of a red jump suit for more than five minutes. Randy Newman takes great care over every detail of his work. That fact that he takes responsibility--I mean, I thought I took responsibilities for what I said and what I wrote, but not to the extent that Randy does. It's not so much the bass and drums, but lyrics and the precise meaning. What does this mean? Should I do this? He's constantly thinking aloud. And when he's thinking aloud I have the chance to get involved.

KZ: We were talking about strong images in music. Isn't it risky using emotions and images that are sometimes hateful? Isn't there a risk of the public misunderstanding?

RN: Sometimes you think about it when you're writing, you don't want to make a mistake. With a song like "Roll With The Punches," you want the listener to know what you mean. But I don't care so much about that anymore if I know I've done my job well. It's not a risk for me because satire is my natural form of expression. For me it would be more of a risk to record a straight love song.

MK: If I was playing "Money For Nothing" in a rehearsal, I'd use the real language that the character used. I don't think that it's ever been recorded. I would use the real language and it was a lot more offensive than what made the record. In fact, I did have a hand in discouraging Randy from using "fuck" in "Masterman and Baby J."

KZ: Does it ever bother you when you get the opposite response to a song you've written?

RN: I don't mess with social engineering. I do what I do and say what I think and put it down on paper. I'll play "Redneck" and hear applauding, whoopee whoopee, but I think they get what I'm saying.

MK: The moral dilemma about how an audience around the world relates is a good argument. But in Mexico and in Nigeria, I'm sure people's definition of what is corrupt and what is not is completely different from ours.

RN: The obligation is to get it right. If you're going to create some character, make him a human being.

KZ: You've never lost control of a character in your songs?

RN: Yes. I've made mistakes. I do it all the time. When it comes to building a character, I feel I succeed. I just heard a song on the radio by Michelle Shocked called "Anchorage." She took tremendous risks. She was this character and though it wasn't completely successful, in my opinion, she did a brave thing. It was a great effort. An acting performance like that is hard work. The song was scary. It's very good.

MK: You can introduce the character. Suzanne Vega did a thing where she starts with, "My name is Luka," which is another approach. You can become somebody else and there's no confusion. You become someone else immediately and that works. Randy's pointed out that he quite likes the character in "Money For Nothing." It makes sense to him. Not necessarily the stuff about "faggots," but the stuff about the difference between rock stars making millions of dollars--seemingly on television--while these workers are shifting all these heavy refrigerators around all day. RN: The character in "Money For Nothing" makes a very persuasive argument. I mean, how do you think it looks?

MK: However revolting you find his outlook on life, however objectionable you find him, there's a lot that's amusing about him. There's affection for the character. And I'm sure the song doesn't offend my gay friends. It offended the editor of Gay News in England who said it was "below the belt." That's how he described it, which goes to show that you can be editor of a magazine and be an idiot.

KZ: We think a lot about music beyond "baby, baby I love you."

RN: Traditionally, a lot of pop songwriting is like that. It doesn't interest me as a writer although I like a lot of songs and I don't even know the lyrics. I never particularly cared what Hall & Oates had to say, but I like the sound of their records. Ninety percent of what I write is not "I love you, you love me." Ninety percent of pop literature is "I love you, you love me."

KZ: I like the way a writer can use a song to create characters much like a fiction writer. Someone like Raymond Carver can make himself a housewife, an old woman--anyone he wants to be. That's why I wasn't sure that "Dixie Flyers" was even a true story.

RN: That's what I often wonder about. Why don't we have the same freedom that Raymond Carver had? He didn't always have to be Raymond Carver. He could be a woman, a murderer, whoever the hell he wanted to be. And why not? I don't want to write about me. We should have the latitude that you'd have writing a short story.

MK: I agree. I'd rather write about things that strike me, like the "Sultans Of Swings." I'd rather write about a Jazz band in a pub than write about myself.

RN: I saw something that interested me tremendously. They calculated the national median and discovered that the average American is a thirty-seven year old woman who's married to a machinist living outside of Dayton, Ohio. Now I'd be very interested in what she had to say. More interested, in some ways, than hearing Rod Stewart writing about Rod Stewart. Writing as a thirty-seven year old in Dayton is very hard to do. But why not do it? Or else write as an older person. I don't know enough older people. There's lots of stuff to write about, but I guess love is still a big deal. It's hard to write love songs with a very different slant. There's people who are very good at it. This novelist, Larry McMurtry, is very good at writing about women and love.

KZ: Maybe you can write more about love next time around, using a unique slant.

RN: Maybe. The only reason I was sort of autobiographical was because I'd never done it. I read about myself as being distant, writing in the third person. But I've always figured that you could know more about what I was like as a person, without meeting me, by listening to my songs--songs that aren't confessional, like Neil Diamond or (Paul) Simon. You know how the hell I think about everything because I just say it. ●

REVIEWS

THE TRAVELING WILBURYS

Handle With Care

(Wilbury/Warner Bros.)

This quintet of household names can prove to be big fun for your listeners. Now can they guess the artists? The answers are, of course, George Harrison, Roy Orbison, Tom Petty, Bob Dylan and Jeff Lynne. These co-conspirators are the right elements for a strong A/C rotation mover.

CHRIS DeBURGH

Missing You (A&M)

One of the masters of mood is Chris DeBurgh. Like Bryan Ferry, DeBurgh is for the true A/C music connoisseur. Wine, roses and Chris' English charm brings us sheer romance on this remixed single from his "Flying Colours" album. It has a simple message that we all can understand and appreciate.

FOUR TOPS

DUET WITH ARETHA FRANKLIN

If Ever A Love There Was (Arista)

As if the Five Tops (with Aretha Franklin as the fifth wheel) isn't enough, Kenny G takes the sax break on this one. Aretha Franklin is one of history's premier female voices, but give Levi Stubbs his due also. His vocal track is so strong it sounds as if he recorded "Reach Out" only yesterday.

JEFFREY OSBORNE

Can't Go Back On A Promise (A&M)

With "the right" dominating the political scene, Jeffrey scored big time on our Urban chart with his single, "She's On The Left." "Can't Go Back On A Promise" is a significant follow-up. Ross Vannelli (brother of Gino) shared a hand writing and producing this gem.

EDIE BRICKELL & NEW BOHEMIANS

What I Am (Geffen)

Building her base from Alternative Radio, Edie comes to Adult Contemporary with her first single effort. Don't let the Bohemians part throw you. Edie, musically is straight forward, a kin to the best of Rickie Lee Jones.

album "Coming To America." I haven't seen the movie but the album has had successful Urban Contemporary and Adult Contemporary appeal. New stations include WFEB, WLLH, KIZZ, KKJO, WASK, WJEH, KTHO, KXRO, WTWB, WRCO and WJMQ.

Taking this year's prize for the most added in one week is BARBRA STREISAND & DON JOHNSON. The closest was back in April with 87 adds for BRUCE HORNSBY'S "The Valley Road." BARBRA & DON collected 92 adds and if your station didn't add it perhaps you didn't receive it. Their voices compliment each other and this one looks like a bonafide number one record.

INSIDE A/C

WHITNEY HOUSTON hits number one for the second time in '88 with the single "One Moment In Time." Her previous reign lasted three weeks and she'll probably surpass that. The HEAVY rotation and additional ADDS leaped her over STEVE WINWOOD, whose chance for number one has fallen short.

BREATHE has taken no short breaths in its quick jaunt towards the number one slot. Next week it should have 200 total stations and threaten Ms. HOUSTON's stay at the top.

ELTON JOHN's "A Word In Spanish" is also crowding in on the top slot. His last single hit number one, and the only word for his newest effort is ole.

ANITA BAKER has definitely given us her best. In five weeks she is on the verge of breaking into the top ten and converting rotations into HEAVY.

GEORGE MICHAEL's "Kissing A Fool" is the HOTtest single in the past two weeks. With 29 new adds, an 85% HIT FACTOR and a place at the top of PLUS FACTOR for the second week, this single has smash written all over it.

"Red Red Wine" by UB40 has taken A/C by surprise. With 21 new adds this week and a 72% HIT FACTOR, it's bordering on vintage status. Among the new tasters are KHOW, WMBA, WTRG, WLAM, KEZR, WMOH, WAEB, KROC/FM, KMGM, KBOI etc.

PM's "Piece Of Paradise" started off with double digits the past two weeks. Stations in HEAVY rotation are KOKO, WSER, WAFL, KWSI/FM and WQXC. New this week are KWUN, KUIC, WSKY, KJOY, KCSY, WMVQ/FM and WSKY.

Our highest debuts are two women with distinct vocal styles. KIM CARNES' emotional "Crazy In Love" increases with 21 new ADDS. KARLA BONOFF's "New World," her first successful song this year, should pick up more ADDS and continues her growth on the chart.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, WILL TO POWER's "Baby I Love Your Way/Freebird Medley," has powered 25 new ADDS from the likes of KCSY, KVVN/FM, KUKI, KLSQ, KKIQ, KBIG, KYLT, KATA, KYLT, WDIF WGMX, WCEM/FM to name a few.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, "Come Into My Life" by LAURA BRANIGAN and JOE ESPOSITO, is from the soundtrack

INSIDE COUNTRY

TRIVIA, TRIVIA, TRIVIA. We're into the third week of our Country Quiz contest sponsored by MJI Broadcasting. Be sure to answer those questions - whether one week at a time or all at once - in order to qualify for the grand prize drawing. Besides winning the Casio, the winner will also win a big place in our collective Country heart.

AND THE WINNERS WERE: Monday night's CMA awards gave many deserving artists reasons to celebrate. For the few of you who weren't able to catch the show, here's a brief rundown of the winners. Duo - The Judds. Group - Highway 101. Vocal Event - Trio. Horizon - Ricky Van Shelton. Female Artist - K.T. Oslin. Male Artist - Randy Travis. Single - Kathy Mattea's "18 Wheels And A Dozen Roses." Song - K.T. Oslin's "80's Ladies." Album - Hank Williams Jr.'s Born To Boogie. Entertainer - Hank Williams Jr. This year's Hall Of Fame inductees were Loretta Lynn and Roy Rogers.

GAVIN CONGRATS.

WCAV/FM-Brockton's Mark Burns keeps raking in those awards. This time the Massachusetts Country Music Association named him the "Most Enjoyable Air Personality." An admirable choice!...Congratulations also go to Clif Desmond at WTRS-Dunnellon on being promoted to corporate Music Director for Asterisk Communications... to Deborah Razo on being promoted to Marketing Manager at Curb Records... and to Walt Wilson on being promoted to VP of Marketing at MCA/ Nashville.

CHANGES, CHANGES, CHANGES. Buddy Baker is the new Program Director at WJST-Panama City...Dave Combs has been promoted to Music Director at KAFF-Flagstaff...Ron Casey moves from WKJN-Baton Rouge to the afternoon drive shift at KRRV- Alexandria ... KLXX-Bismarck will no longer be a reporting station. They've gone to an All Gold format. Good luck Charlie - we'll miss you!

PROGRAMMERS ARE TALKING ABOUT...Gordon Stack at KWYO-Sheridan reports incredible response to the new Statler Brothers single...Dave Davis at WWRK/FM -Elberton tells us that Cheap Trick's "Don't Be Cruel" is one of his most requested records...Johnny Randolph at KTDO-Toledo is getting great response to "The Andy Griffith Show" from The Bellamy Brothers LP. (We bet T.Graham Brown's getting a kick out of that cut too!)..."Rodney Crowell's new single is exploding here" reports KEKA-Eureka's Ken Conlin, and adds, "I haven't seen anything this hot in awhile"...Skip Davis at K92/FM-Destin says, "K.T. Oslin's "Hold Me" is setting my phones on fire!"...

The Gavin Country Crew

PROMOTIONS

RACING FOR CHARITY ▲
FM98-Laredo's Tina Marie recently hopped aboard her little pony to participate in a Celebrity benefit horse race for a local rehabilitation center. As you can see, Tina's horse is off to a great start, and with intense excitement, Tina and horse ended up being PULLED across the finish line. Okay, maybe not in record time, but they did finish. The race itself was a stampeding success, with over $15,000 bucks raised.

COUNTRY'S CUTEST COUPLE ▶
KWDJ-Riverside's Lou Lunden and Mickey Mouse got very chummy during Lou's week-long stay broadcasting her show live from Disneyland. The broadcast was in celebration of Mickey's 60th birthday (he doesn't look a day over 20, does he?) and was highlighted by a five-part series Lou put together entitled "The Walt Disney Story."

Country Quiz

QUESTION #3

Can you name the singer whose voice is so powerful she once nearly blew out electrical circuits during a recording session?

DO YOU KNOW THE ANSWER TO THIS COUNTRY QUIZ QUESTION?

In celebration of COUNTRY MUSIC MONTH, the Gavin Report presents Country Quiz exclusively to Gavin Report subscribers. Guidelines are as follows:

1. Only Gavin subscribers may enter.
2. Four different questions will be given during the four weekly issues of Gavin during COUNTRY MUSIC MONTH. Subscribers may mail in their answers or phone them in when calling in weekly reports.
3. At the end of the four weeks a winner will be drawn from those subscribers who have submitted four correct answers.
4. MJI Broadcasting is responsible for the delivery of all prizes.

NEW RELEASES by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

HANK WILLIAMS, JR.

HANK WILLIAMS JR. -
Early In The Morning And Late At Night
(Warner Bros. /Curb)

You don't get much hotter than ol' Bocephus. He won "Entertainer Of The Year" for the second year in a row at Monday night's CMA Award Show; His album continues to sell like hotcakes, and his concerts are SRO all over the country. This new single was one of the most played cuts from his LP. No controversial lyrics here, just prime Hank. Any risk with this add? We think not.

KIM CARNES - Crazy In Love (MCA)

Here's a beautiful ballad that'll bring tears to your eyes. Co-written by Even Stevens (Eddie Rabbitt's writing partner), it's already doing very well with A/C radio, debuting on this week's A/C Chart.

J.C. CROWLEY - Paint The Town And Hang The Moon Tonight (RCA)

J.C. does his best Jerry Lee and rocks the house. This is the second single off of his forthcoming Beneath The Texas Moon LP, and features rockabilly slap bass and Country vocals. As he says, it's just the cure for those couch potato blues.

HOLLY DUNN -

(It's Always Gonna Be) Someday (MTM)

The followup to "That's What Your Love Does To Me" is a ballad which Holly tears into with all the passion that a preacher's daughter should. The song was co-written by Dunn, Tom Shapiro, and Holly's brother Chris Waters.

AIRPLANE FAME ◀

NETWORKING IN MILWAUKEE ▼

KEYS TO THE CITY ◀

Hall and Oates were traveling to Austin, Texas, on a leg of their "Oh Yeah" reunion tour and were greeted by the Mayor and the keys to the city of Austin, at a live B-93/FM broadcast

VISITING JACKSON GETS ◀ SMILES

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

ANGEL STREET - TONY WILLIAMS (BLUE NOTE)

Tony Williams teams up with a fine engineer and co-producer, Jason Corsaro (Steve Winwood, Ryuichi Sakamoto, Iggy Pop), to record a frisky acoustic Jazz album. Wallace Roney on trumpet and saxophonist Billy Pierce provide the frontal assault, navigating Williams' complex charts. In between the long works are drum solo snippets titled "Touch Me," "Kiss Me" and "Thrill Me." Our favorite, "Touch Me," rolls right into "Red Mask," Angel Street's "go-for-the-jugular" track. Although Williams holes himself up in mellow Marin County, his music is far from that. While his drumming has had the edge, so has his arrangement style. "Dreamland" is a melodic burner with super rhythm and bass work.

MORE THAN FRIENDS - JONATHAN BUTLER (JIVE/RCA) 7TH AVENUE - JONATHAN BUTLER (PROJAZZ)

Two "new" releases from Jonathan Butler, and Jazz/AA is interested in both. More Than Friends is legitimately Butler's newest effort and like George Benson, Jonathan's hot vocal talent forces Jazz/AA to have to share him with Top 40, Urban and A/C. MTF, with Butler looking a little bit like Mike Tyson on the cover shot, has two fine instrumentals, "Take Me Home" and "Sekona." It may be stretching things a bit, but "Sarah Sarah" and "It's So Hard To Let You Go" are vocal performances that may be worth an audition. The best thing on 7th Avenue is the title track, with "Felicia" and "Just Too Much" also-rans. Originally released in 1982, 7th Avenue is JB during his salad days.

ALL MY TOMORROWS - GRANT GEISSMAN (TBA)

Grant Geissman is a talented guitarist who has performed with names like David Benoit, Chuck Mangione and Air Supply. "You Can Call Me Al" is a vibrant remake of the Paul Simon hit that's suitable for both AA and Jazz. All My Tomorrows showcases Geissman's virtuosity in an extremely affable and programmable light. Sandwiched between "Al" and Sting's "Fragile Child" are eight Geissman originals of which "Flamingo Isle," "Girls With Pearls," "One For L.C.," "Samba Dreams" and the title track are confident Jazz/AA performances. Turn it up.

GREETINGS FROM JOHN BAYLESS - JOHN BAYLESS (MEGAFORTE/ATLANTIC)

John Bayless gives classical piano interpretation to the music of Bruce Springsteen. I must confess that a concerto treatment of "Rosalita" sounds a bit alarming, but according to the pianist, this project is an honest attempt to feature Springsteen's music to old, new and non-fans in an engaging fashion. Indeed, some of Bayless' re-enactments border on the Liberace, but "Candy's Room," "Sandy" and "Rosalita - Variations II & III" (!?) are entertaining concepts. The opening strains of "Born To Run" is guaranteed to draw an innocent burst of laughter. This could possibly match the phone response of Stanley Jordan's "Stairway To Heaven."

SEVEN YEAR ITCH - ETTA JAMES (ISLAND)

One of the finest blues albums of the year. Etta James has chosen a contemporary path of rock n roll and blues. Since we're catering to adults who thrive on quality, here it is. We love this voice and how it mixes with a tight group of sessioneers including Art Neville, Jim Horn and Steve Cropper. This may be a bit on the rocky side, but give it a righteous blast!

A PERFECT MATCH - GEORGE SHEARING & ERNESTINE ANDERSON (CONCORD JAZZ)

After guesting on George Shearing's last LP, Ernestine Anderson records a full blown blues/Jazz duet with this piano master. The material selection alone spans the '30s, '40s, '50s and '60s. Shearing's incidental genius (after all, he is the master accompanist) and Anderson's careful phrasings fit together nicely. "I Remember Clifford" is a sad but vital remembrance of the late, great Clifford Brown.

SUMMIT - SUSAN MAZER & DALLAS SMITH (BRAVE DOG)

Though it might not mean a hill of beans to your listeners, the fact that Summit was recorded live without sequencing makes this effort more musical and believable. Susan Mazer is an "electro-acoustic" harpist, while Dallas Smith plays a variety of woodwinds and "wind" synthesizers, a technology that is now starting to blossom. Trax: "Full Circle" and "Magic Garden." Call Brave Dog at 800-634-7948.

LEATA GALLOWAY (COLUMBIA)

Here's some great Jazz/AA/Quiet Storm vocal prowess from vocalist Leata Galloway. She has the same sensuality in her phrasing as Anita Baker, but her voice is a tad stronger. "Fascination" chills to the bone. Leata's spellbinding vocals will make you put down your pen, look up, sit back and listen. Also check out "One Of These Nights." This is the most expressive singing we've heard since Karla Bonoff's fine New World CD. The production and vocal overdubs kill.

REUNION - MEL TORME AND THE MARTY PAICH DEK-TETTE (CONCORD JAZZ)

Ommagawd! It's the incredible Mel Torme singing Don Fagen's "The Goodbye Look"! Now run into the control room and slap it on right after that Hoops McCann song! And that's not all...midway through side one Mel does Fagen's "Walk Between Raindrops." This deluxe release features Torme's great reunion with conductor Marty Paich—the man who arranged the late Art Pepper's Plus Eleven fifties Jazz classic. And speaking of classics, Torme/Paich's treatment of "Sweet Georgia Brown" and "The Trolley Song/Get Me To The Church On Time" are superbly tasteful and classy. Both these chaps have given us decades of great sounds. The world owes these guys a huge marker!

SPIES (TELARC)

Here's a company after our own hearts. In introducing Spies, Telarc describes the music as "...well, we will let you decide." You'll get no easy description from us except that there are lots of electric instruments, a few vocals and canyons of fidelity. I know Telarc prides themselves on their fidelity, but jeez. Pick up the phone immediately, dial 800-321-7152 and ask for John Awarski. Check out the disclaimer on the disc: "for the protection of your equipment, lower levels are recommended for initial playback until you're sure we aren't kidding." First turn up "Music Of The Night" or "Orient Express" and see if they aren't kidding. Believe me, they aren't. This is powerful stuff.

"WAY BEHIND ME" - THE PRIMITIVES (RCA)

Wow wow wow! After releasing their number one Gavin Alternative LP, the Primitives regroup and come up with their best yet. So good, in fact, that RCA is going to repress the album to include this blockbuster. So if you're like Bill Evans of KTAO, who saw this strange video with a song not on the album, just hang on. American Radio will have a shot at this soon enough.

LUCINDA WILLIAMS (ROUGH TRADE)

If there's experience behind the voice of Lucinda Williams, that's because she's been around a bit. Williams recorded two albums on the Folkways label in '79 and '80, but most recently included a song on Enigma's Town South Of Bakersfield compilation by Pete Anderson. In between all that, Williams has pounded the New York and Left Coast folk pavement. Her music is tough like leather, not unlike early Bonnie Raitt. The back-up band is superb, including refugees from John Fogerty's band, the Plimsouls, Yoakamites and Clover. Start with "I Just Wanted To See You So Bad," "Big Red Sun Blues" or "The Night's Too Long."

"PUT OUT THE FIRE" - PRIVATE LIFE (WARNER BROS.)

If anyone knows how to start up a guitar like a lawn mower, it's Eddie Van Halen and Donn Landee. "Put Out The Fire" is far from merely being hard rock. This young quartet benefits from some keyboard counter melody and female vocals. Eddie and Donn produce.

"SOMETHING SO STRONG" - JIM CAPALDI (ISLAND)

This isn't "Something So Strong" by Crowded House, although the texture and melody structure isn't entirely unlike something Neil Finn might cook up. The guitar lead sounds like Steve Winwood's basic approach. After all, he's credited. The title makes for a strong vocal hook.

PATTERN DISRUPTIVE DICKEY BETTS BAND (EPIC)

One day the clouds swelled up, a storm thundered and this album was born with a flash of lightning. Well--not really, but maybe. The Dickey Betts Band re-emerge with a solid set of intricately arranged rockers. The instrumentation is concrete and crafted with mountains of quick changes, turnarounds and harmony lead lines. Every band member pulls double his share of the weight. Trax like "Rock Bottom," "Time To Roll" and the fantastic instrumental "Duane's Tune" head off Gregg and his gang at the pass. Very impressive.

STOUT AND HIGH - WAGONEERS (A&M)

A solid synthesis of what's great about rock and what's real about Country. On the title track, los Wagoneers enlist the help of some boardroom brass in the form of Herb Alpert to blow a twenty-five second horn solo before all hell breaks loose. Speaking of hell, "Hell Town" is another goodie. I like how the Wagoneers combine a sense of western pride and history with their brand of rock n roll. Don't be put off by the western airs this band puts on. This stuff's for real. Also try "I Confess," no relation to the English Beat.

ROUGH NIGHT IN JERICHO - DREAMS SO REAL (ARISTA)

Producer Bill Drescher (who worked magic with Jules Shear and Rick Springfield) puts some meat on the bones of this Athens, Georgia trio. Rough Night In Jericho is an accelerated debut. The title track, along with "Bearing Witness" and "Heart Of Stone," forms a triad of energy and melody. If you're expecting a jangly, twangy trio, you'll be surprised.

AMNESIA

AMNESIA - RICHARD THOMPSON (CAPITOL)

Here's Richard Thompson's most vibrant collection of songs in a long while. Mitchell Froom gives Richard Thompson and his music the big picture. An assemblage of players like Jim Keltner, Jerry Scheff and Tony Levin provides Thompson with a wall of talent support. With sounds and production as bright as this, the low lyrics come off as a paradox. Cheer up, Richard. Things are sounding great. Trax: "Turning Of The Tide," "Gypsy Love Songs" and my fave, "Reckless Kind."

LA PISTOLA & EL CORAZON - LOS LOBOS (SLASH/WARNER BROS.)

Talk about Jekyll and Hyde. Los Lobos "re:jax" by recording traditional Norteno chestnuts. Staunch Lobos fans will find the transformation fascinatingly intense. This sounds like a completely different band! Never has their skills as multi-instrumentalists and group vocalists been more magnified.

THE OFF-WHITE ALBUM - DENNIS MILLER (WARNER BROS.)

Off-white? How about off-color! Unfortunately Dennis Miller (nationally known for his current work on NBC's Saturday Night Live) and his work as a stand-up comic is way too blue for radio to recklessly air. What's playable has been reduced to tiny snippets on a promo CD. Still, you have to track the album during a private moment. Miller is hilarious with a deadly wit. KZ

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO by Peter Standish

Siouxsie & the Banshees hold off a previously surging Let's Active to widen her lead to 11% in chart points. The Cocteau Twins are gaining rapid momentum from programmers like Maggie McCabe-KCMU, Ann Delesi-WDET, Marcia Woytaszek-WUSM, Scott "Ayers Rock" Carter-KCPR, Gina Galli-WBNY, Kim Saade-WRAS ("#1 requested"), Glen Boothe-WXYC, Joe Simon-KTCL and Brad Thiel-KRCK. Billy Bragg is one of the biggest gainers on chart. It's clear his current live gigs with Michelle Shocked are helping raise both their visibility and the consciousness of their audiences. Fishbone finally breaks loose from last week's congestion. There would be no denying U2 of Alternative top 10 status. Commercial Alternative stations are playing it so frequently that they may wear out their CD's! Lloyd Cole may not be in the "mainstream" yet, but he's certainly getting plenty of Alternative exposure and support from Josh "which New York team do I root for now?" Rosenthal-WCDB and Mark Miller-KABL ("Finally kicking in"). Oingo Boingo is HOT and on a roll behind the play of Mike Summers-KJQN and Drew Ross-KOTR. The Huxton Creepers are creeping up toward the top 20. This was one of the biggest weeks for debuts as 14% of the chart changes hands (i.e. seven new debuts). These new faces include They Might Be Giants, Voice of the Beehive, Keith Richards, Balancing Act, Camouflage, Big Country, Dreams So Real and Was (Not Was). Last week's Record To Watch, Screaming Trees, had an impressive debut at #31 and is racking up mega-airplay from Josh Henig-WPRB, Phillip Griffin-WRUV and James Lien-WTUL. That Petrol Emotion is our Record To Watch, Most Added and is sure to make a major mark on the chart. Ivar Hamilton returned from behind the Iron Curtain and England last week. Check out some of his observations in our News section. Musically Ivar is thrilled about Art of Noise's cover of Prince's "Kiss" which features Ivar's childhood hero Tom Jones on lead vocals. He also had the opportunity to see the Wonderstuff live in England and said, "they were one of the best live bands I've seen this year."

Manakin Moon - WAXING POETICS (Emergo)

It's no secret that the southeastern seaboard has been a rabbit farm for some of the most exciting new Alternative bands the past five years, but don't categorize the Waxing Poetics as just another southern "twang" band. Manakin Moon contains a few frenzied pop-rock songs like "Ghost Writer," "Side By Side" and "Iodine." But it's the slower groove songs like "Where Is Your Name," "Baby Jane" and "Don't Tread On Me" where the band hits their stride melting jangly guitars with a funky New Orleans junkyard backbeat. Formed in '83, this Norfolk, Virginia band's first album "Hermitage" was co-produced by REM's Mike Mills and Mitch Easter.

INSIDE ALBUM by Kent Zimmerman

BLUE SKY WITH A BULLET. It's an international event when U2 releases new material. Let's face it folks, it could have been a live soundtrack, but U2 went the extra mile and made it so much more. By the way, on its very first week on the chart, the Rattle and Hum album racked up the most rotation points of any album, debut or not, of any record in Gavin Album history. Not only that, U2's lead over the number two record (an up and climbing Keith Richards solo album) is over 40%! Here are some of the track selections I was able to pick up from our radio reporters.

AROUND THE U2 HORN. Willowbee at WMJY selects "All Along The Watchtower," "Love Rescue Me" and "When Love Comes To Town"...Across the country in San Jose, Patty Martin at KSJO chose "Angel Of Harlem" and "When Love Comes To Town"...Magic Mike at KLAQ favors the haunting closer, "All I Want Is You"...Back at the Big Apple, WNEW/FM is airing "Angel Of Harlem," "When Love Comes To Town" and "All Along The Watchtower"...JD at WONE deified "God Part II" and "Angel Of Harlem"...KXRX is peppering the Seattle airwaves with "Helter Skelter," live "Bullet The Blue Sky," "All Along The Watchtower," "When Love Comes To Town" and "Angel Of Harlem." So far the winner is "Desire," then "Angel Of Harlem" followed by B.B. King burner "When Love Comes To Town." More info as the picture becomes more focused. Congrats to all those who jumped out-of-the-box. That's what I say. Why wait?

FAIR WARNING. Jody Peterson adds the Balancing Act, who now record for the IRS label...Chris Pool at KBPI is looking for a new Winger track with "Seventeen" maybe filling the bill. Also hot at KBPI is Cinderella...Keith James at KGKG has blues-itis. He warned me about the new John Mayall and Alligator's Tinsley Ellis. He recommends "You Picked A Good Time" by Tinsley...Bob Wayne at KJKJ has some metal warnings including Metallica's "Eye Of The Beholder" which has torn up their Alternative Metal show...The Carterman at WBCN warns us about something not even released. Cactus World News, now on the UNI label, are recording their latest in upstate New York state. "Look out," warns Hurricane Carter. ...Mike Schmidt at KXUS/FM reports recent visits by known rockers to the station. Sighted on the premises were Cheap Trick, White Lion and Stryper...Steve Cole got Etta James, Toots Hibbert and John Mayall in the same box and added them to the KSPN playlist... Two more U2 track recommendations include Alan "Trammel" White at KILO who added "Helter Skelter," "Bullet The Blue Sky," "When Love Comes To Town," and "God Part II"...Bill Evans at KTAO calls it his "Album Of The Year" finding something for all dayparts including "Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For" and "Heartland." Bill calls "God Part II" a Lennon tribute. By Jove, I think he's right. Let's give Bill the last word, shall we? Stay well. Yer pal, KZ

OUT-OF-THE-BOX CLUB PART 5 CHICAGO LINE JOHN MAYALL'S BLUESBREAKERS (ISLAND)

Be honest now. Who turned you on to the blues? Most of us certainly didn't buy Muddy Waters records with our Cream records. John Mayall is as well known for his Bluesbreakers as he is for his English blues interpretations. Tell me, where would Eric Clapton, Peter Green, Mick Taylor, John McVie, Mark/Almond, not to mention countless other British musicians be if they hadn't first seen the world as a Blues-breaker? After many "turning points," this is one of Mayall's finest comebacks. Those on board include KOME, WDHA, KTCL, KSPN, WKXL, KGKG, WHTG, WKXE, WCIZ, WBRH, KTAO, WHFS, WMJY, KOTR and more.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO CONTINUED

"Im Nin'Alu" - OFRA HAZA (Sire-12)
Originally released about two years ago, this original piece of music combines eastern European culture with a western flair for Alternative dance grooves. As Alternative music outlets on radio and in clubs search for new sources of creative sounds, artists like Ofra Haza and Le Mystere Des Voix Bulgares (Bulgarian women's choir) should provide an open window for them to branch out and diversify.

That's the Church's Marty Willson-Piper with Laurie Gail from WDRE-Long Island/New York during a recent NYC Beacon Theatre gig.

Scott Carter and Dave Sparks of KCPR-San Luis Obispo pose in front of an instore display featuring the station's Top Ten. The sign reads, "Peter-Ayers What?? Mondays wouldn't be the same without you." Awwwww.

The Pursuit of Happiness have a catchy song called "I'm An Adult Now" due out soon. Here's the crew responsible: (L-R) Mgr. Jeff Rogers, vocal Leslie Stanwyck, drummer David Gilby, producer Todd Rundgren, bassist Johnny Sinclair, guitarist Kris Abbott, A&Rtist Kate Hayman and lead vocalist Moe Berg.

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

RANDY NEWMAN - It's Money That Matters (Reprise) Teamed with Dire Straits' Mark "Money For Nothing" Knopfler, who produced this track, Randy offers his perspective on the almighty dollar as only he can. He reveals his interpretation of the song in this week's cover story interview which shouldn't be missed. Since I've been touting the "Land Of Dreams" LP to just about everyone, it's no surprise to find this tune reviewed here. Simply in a class by itself and another reason why Newman and his music can be classified as nothing less than a national treasure.

MAXI PRIEST - Wild World (Virgin) This became Cat Stevens' first hit and it exposed his innovative style to Top 40 audiences. Now, some seventeen years later, here's a new treatment that's somewhat similar to what UB40 did to "Red Red Wine." Already an international sensation, I caught this while listening to KWSS one night last week and it sure sounded good.

VOICE OF THE BEEHIVE - I Say Nothing (London/PolyGram) Beware of the buzz gettin' louder for this entry. From the very first line it's clear that this song won't go unnoticed when it hits the air. Extremely clever lyrics and a unique melody lead the way for a group fronted by a pair of great looking singers.

EUROPE - Open Your Heart (Epic) Intensity builds on this ballad/rocker that showcases the vocal artistry of Joey Tempest. Highlighted by one hot chorus, it should warm up some of those cold fall and winter nights ahead.

CROSSOVER PICK

CAMEO - You Make Me Work (Atlanta Artists/PolyGram) That big bass line is back and hard at work. Once again, judging by the debut at #27 on URBAN CONTEMPORARY'S ranking this week the word is definitely up for a track that's getting an expected "OW" reaction.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

THE BANGLES - EVERYTHING (COLUMBIA)

As far as Top Forty Radio goes, the Bangles are consistent winners. As for Album Radio, I feel compelled to come to this band's defense. Their new album, especially side one, with songs like COMPLICATED GIRL, IN MY ROOM, BELL JAR and ETERNAL FLAMES ranks among their best work. Lately Album Radio has shown that female rock n roll is a viable if not intensely necessary audience-grabbing ingredient. As newcomers like Melissa Etheridge, Michelle Shocked and Edie Brickell storm the walls, wouldn't it be a waste to let this fine album slip by unnoticed on the Album Radio level, especially considering what this group has accomplished against all odds? As IN MY ROOM slides over the two hundred station mark at Top Forty, there are many more moments worth considering. All four members have put together a fine album. The group harmonies on ETERNAL FLAME make me hope they stay together forever. Bravo Bangles! KZ

JUDSON SPENCE (Atlantic)

This is a very special project that showcases an amazing new talent. Judson Spence is a young white-boy with an unbridled passion for black music. Spence has all the dynamic qualities of a superstar—composer, arranger, performer. This LP, his freshman effort, is a brilliant collage—no two songs sound alike. Side one is one of the five most magical sweeps of music I've heard this year. The two extreme examples of his creative genius on that side are IF YOU DON'T LIKE IT (with Billy Preston on a Hammond B-3) and a chilling break-up song, LOVE DIES IN SLOW MOTION. The joy of having a place to write reviews is that over the thirteen years I've been doing this, I've had a place to rave-up the up and comers. Judson Spence will be over the top in no time. Take this one to the bank! RF
