RICK SKLAR DIES AT 62

Legendary programmer Rick Sklar, who turned WABC-New York City into the most listened to radio station in the country, died on Monday (6/22) as a result of complications during minor surgery. He was 62.

It was Sklar who, after holding positions as a disc jockey and in promotion and programming at stations in New York state, made WABC the station to listen to in New York. Its format, coupled with distinctive jingles and logos, garnered the station a listenership of over 6,000,000. His style of tight-playlists and high-profile disc jockeys was emulated on Top 40 stations all over the country.

Sklar programmed WABC from 1962 until 1977. During that time he worked with some of the best air talent ever to hit the airwaves, including Bruce ("Cousin Brucie") Morrow, Dan Ingram and Ron Lundy.

After leaving WABC, Sklar was vice president of programming for ABC until 1984 when he founded a media consulting firm, Sklar Communications. He was also a vice president for The Interep Radio Store in New York. Interep is the country's largest full-service sales and marketing company. In addition, he held positions with MusicNet, Inc. in San Francisco and with Stratosphere Broadcasting, L.P. in New York.

Larry Berger, who worked at ABC as program director of WPLJ-New York City during the early '70s, remembers Sklar as a mentor. Super disc-jockey Dan Ingram, now with WCBS/FM-New York fondly recalled Sklar's style. "Remember, WABC was already number one when Rick came to the station," he told the Gavin Report. "But he made it a superstation. One of his strengths was he trusted his disc jockeys to be themselves." Ingram smiled when he gave the Gavin an anecdote. "Rick never drank. He'd have maybe a half glass of wine—that was it. Well, one night he had his half-glass and I had a few beers. We walked outside and saw the WINS news mobile unit. We had one of those stickers that you put into water and peel off, so we put it on the WINS unit. It stayed there for at least a month. That's the kind of guy Rick was. He liked to have fun."

Sklar won numerous industry awards, and was inducted into the Broadcast Promotion Hall of Fame in 1989. He wrote his autobiography, "Rocking America: How All The Hit Radio Stations Took Over," in 1984.

Rick Sklar is survived by his wife Sydelle; his mother Cecille; his son Scott; his daughter Holly; and his sister Ruth Sklar.

Monds Upped to APD

KKBT's Stradford Nabs Stripes

Mike Stradford, PD at KKBT (92.3 The Beat)-Los Angeles since 1990, was upped to Vice President of Programming this week, while MD John Monds has been handed additional duties and a promotion to Assistant P.D.

Before joining KKBT, Stradford programmed Majic 102 (KMJQ)-Houston and KMJM-St. Louis.

"Mike has demonstrated his knowledge and dedication to this format and to The Beat and deserves this recognition for a job well done," said KKBT Vice President and General Manager Craig Wilbraham. "I have no hesitation in giving Mike the responsibility needed to take the station to the top."

John Monds started at KKBT two years ago as afternoon drive personality. Last year he became music director, a position he held until this recent promotion. Before working at KKBT, Monds was afternoon personality/music director at Power 99 FM (WUSL)-Philadelphia.

"John had all his fingers in all aspects of programming since he started at the station," said Wilbraham. "He has earned this new title, the responsibility and the respect associated with this new position."

A SAVAGE DEAL

Savage Records and BMG Distribution have cemented a long-term distribution deal, and Savage has also inked a licensing agreement with BMG International. Savage recently severed their deal with MCA Records/Uni Distribution "on mutual agreement."

The deal calls for Savage to handle its own A&R, promotion and marketing. BMG International will be responsible for the label's overseas marketing and promotion.

"It took us some time before finally finding a home where I feel very comfortable with the people involved," said Savage Founder/CEO David Mimran. "BMG has been extremely enthusiastic since the inception of this deal...BMG shares our commitment towards the success of Savage Records."

Savage, whose roster includes Gene Loves Jezebel, Dannii Minogue and Soho (International), was formed in England in 1988 and opened a U.S. operation in 1990. Frank DiLeo Management LTD. is housed under Savage. DiLeo, who once managed Michael Jackson, represents an artist roster that includes Laura Branigan, Taylor Dayne, Jodeci, Richie Sambora and Al B. Sure!. He also serves as a consultant to Paisley Park Management.

"I am extremely excited about Savage Records because they have the resources, executive talent, roster and desire to be a major player," said BMG Distribution President Pete Jones. "We look forward to being a part of their success."

Twentieth Century Fox, Twentieth Television, BMG Unite

More news from BMG this week: The company has inked a multi-year agreement with Twentieth Century Fox and Twentieth Television to form a new label, Fox Records. The deal will cover all future soundtracks from Twentieth Century Fox pictures and Twentieth Television programming, on a worldwide basis. The label will sign new artists, and that product will also be distributed through BMG.

"This venture will allow Twentieth Century Fox to combine our film assets and executive talent with BMG's marketing and distribution experience to enter the recorded music business," said Strauss Zelnick, President/COO of Twentieth Century Fox.

Said BMG Chairman/CEO Michael Dornemann: "Bertlesmann Music Group is pleased to enter into a partnership with a major entertainment force like Fox. The opportunities this partnership offers BMG are great, and I am proud to welcome the new Fox Records label to our family."

Miura Returns To The Island

Howie Miura, who for the past year has been Alternative Promotion Manager for the PolyGram Label Group (PLG), is returning to Island Records as Alternative Promotion and Marketing Manager for the company's independent labels. Before working at PolyGram, Miura spent two years in Island's Alternative Department.

Miura will be working product released on Mango, Great Jones, 4th & B'way and the newly-formed Indigo.

"Howie is uniquely qualified for this position," said label general manager Andy Allen. "His history with our roster, combined with his knowledge of the marketplace and tremendous energy, makes him a welcome addition to our family of independent labels."

"Howie's enthusiasm and passion for all types of music makes him perfectly suited for this position at Island," said label chief Chris Blackwell. "He has a his-

RAPPERS GET FLAK

Ice-T and Sister Souljah are the latest in a rich tradition of rappers to come under fire for inflammatory lyrics and controversial views. Police officers in Texas and Los Angeles, the National Rifle Association, Alabama's Governor Guy Hunt, and a group of U.S. House Of Representatives have leveled a protest against the Body Count song "Cop Killer," written by Ice-T. "Cop Killer" contains the lyrics "I'm 'bout to dust some cops off...Die, die, pig die!"

The Texas officers are organizing a demonstration for Time Warner's July shareholders meeting in L.A. to convince Time to pull the song from future albums and issue an apology to policemen. L.A.'s Joel Oscar Bryant Foundation, consisting of about 350 black officers, is also calling for Warner Bros. to stop distribution.

After Governor Hunt urged

Alabama record store owners to cease selling the record, two major chains, Trans World and Super Club, lifted the title from all of their stores.

Ice-T took the opportunity to respond to the flood of protests at the recent New Music Seminar in New York. "The enemies are racist people, the KKK, parents—no matter what race you are—if you teach racism to your kids, and brutal police. And if those are my enemies, so be it." Addressing the "Cop Killer" controversy, he pointed out, "I don't have nothing against all police. I feel that if the cops were a total legit organization, not corrupt, I would probably be a cop."

Democratic presidential contender Bill Clinton deplored remarks made by Sister Souljah who said in an interview, "If black people kill black people every day, why not have a week and kill white people?" Clinton characterized Souljah as being "filled with hatred" and she responded with a statement printed in the June 22 issue of Impact. The statement describes Sister Souljah as a rapper, activist, and lecturer, and systematically attacks Clinton, calling him "an agenda-less draft dodger who was irresponsible in his personal dealings." Souljah claims that Clinton is using her as a tool to distance himself from Jesse Jackson. Clinton's claims that she is a racist are groundless, she says.

POSTSCRIPT ON AM RADIO

As I've pointed out before, over half the radio stations in the United States are on the AM band; 80% to 85% of all radio listening is done for music. There has to be a future for music programming on AM because that's what the audience wants. Fortunately, mainstream music formats still work on AM when done responsibly. Since the two bands are perceived differently by the listener, this means AM stations can't just copy FM programming techniques to succeed; in fact, that breeds failure. FM radio evolved for the listener from the hi-fi/stereo system, and tends today to be used as a background texture (yes, even rock) for stations when something active, requiring attention and even concentration—is going on. On the other hand, people today (even in the 25-34 demo, as ratings results have repeatedly shown in many markets, believe it or not) turn to AM for entertainment when they are engaged in boring, monotonous activities (such as driving). To prosper, AM needs more personality content and announcements (but not talk for talk's sake; stations must remain music-intensive), regular (but brief) newscasts, more musical contrast and variety from song to song, and a more "produced" sound. I have supervised this approach in the A/C format on AM in several larger markets from coast to coast, and I can tell you, if you do it, they will come!

This seems like a good opportunity to bring you up to date on a few interesting developments about AM. First, Japan has now adopted the Motorola C-Quam AM stereo system as its standard; this has already resulted in receivers becoming available in Japan, and with luck it should result in more receivers equipped with AM stereo being made available here, although not the same receivers, because the Japanese AM band features 9 kHz spacing, rather than the 10 kHz spacing used in the western hemisphere. The Japanese band also uses different frequencies).

In addition, I've seen reports that the Japanese are showing interest in the NAB-sponsored "AMAX" receiver standard, which incorporates the NRSC noise-reduction receiver, characteristic, variable bandwidth, pulse-noise blanking and—optionally—AM stereo. If you are among those who feel that AM sound is inherently inferior to FM, even on the 18,000,000 AM stereo receivers currently being driven around the United States in recent-model cars and pickups, I suggest you go to a G.M. dealership, sit in one of the new vehicles equipped with AM AMAX stereo reception and allow your mind to boggle gently.

The FCC has ended its freeze on new AM applications and has adopted a new international standard of classifying AM stations: Clear channel stations, formerly I-A and I-B, are now Class A. They are still protected from interference out to 750 miles at night, to serve rural areas. Stations of up to 50 kw on these frequencies which are not protected outside their groundwave coverage contours at night, formerly Class II, are reclassified Class B—as are all the former Class

III "regional" stations that formerly were limited to a maximum power of 5 kw. The former Class IV "local" channels—1230, 1240, 1340, 1400, 1450 and 1490 kHz, are now Class C—still limited to 1 kw power. Note that the former Class III stations can now increase power up to 50 kw! However, any power increase on AM is now predicated on reducing interference caused to other stations by at least 10%, which may make it hard for many stations to take much advantage of this.

As a sidebar to this opportunity and problem, the consulting engineer who can legitimately be considered the "father of audio processing," having developed most of the techniques in use today back in the '50s and '60s, George Frese, P.E., of Wenatchee, WA, has recently installed a radically different AM antenna system that requires less height, less land and a less stringent ground system, with ecological advantages, and probably no need for lighting. It's known as a "Paran" antenna. It's nondirectional but uses four short towers in a box shape, with a network of wires at the top. The groundwave is excellent, but there is some evidence it has a reduced skywave; when the measurements are completed on the skywave component, such a reduction could mean higher power without directionalization at night, since it would reduce skywave interference to other stations.

For more information on this antenna, contact George Frese at (509) 884-4558 during business hours in the Pacific Time Zone. ●

HEAR &amp; THERE

by Sheila Rene

It was at least a 55-65 water bucket show with two moons (one to each side of the sold-out audience) thrown in for good measure. It was the farewell solo tour of Ozzy Osbourne, who wants to move on to another plateau. Consider a 23-year or so career that has never been in better shape; consider Ozzy's Epic album No More Tears still producing crossover singles. So inspired by the "Theatre of Madness" tour with its energy so high, Oz and bandmates Zakk Wylde, Randy Castillo and Michael Inez wrote six more tunes that will be released alongside live material from the current tour. Backstage after the show, Ozzy pointed out one of his paintings had been used on the numbered interview CDs he autographed for a group of dedicated music biz fans. Maybe the mighty Oz will juggle his career a bit and do some new projects, but he'll never be too far away from the action...

Slaughter is out on tour with Ozzy and proud of it. They've got a hot selling album for EMI Records Group, and a new stage on which to perform, and that's easy for any band to take. Plus they had an offer to work with Ann and Nancy Wilson on their new Heart album, being recorded in Seattle. The band hopes to work it into the schedule. Slaughter has added something special for their fans this time around. Members of their fan club will receive a unique band laminate that will allow them backstage access immediately following their performance on stage. This comes when most bands are cutting back to a quick dust off or nothing at all...

Bits & Pieces: Carlos Santana and Gerardo were honored at the 22nd Annual Golden Eagle Awards in Los Angeles with the "Best Latino Achievements in Entertainment and Media." Gerardo was named "Outstanding Performer" and Santana for the "Legend Award" for his 25 years in the music business...Dannii Minogue continues work on her new album in New York using five producers—Kenny Hairston, Eric Foster White, Alvin Moody, Carl Bourelly and Steve Hurley. Before returning to the States from England to begin recording, Minogue signed on to design a new clothing line for young people ages 15-24...Don Was is back in the news with word that he'll produce Paul Young's new album for MCA Records...

Mary's Danish is currently working on their new album for release this fall. Peter Asher, known for his work with James Taylor and Linda Ronstadt will produce...Francis Buchholz made his final appearance with The Scorpions last month at an awards ceremony in Europe. The Scorpions have not announced if there'll be a permanent replacement for Buchholz, who's played bass in the group since 1973. Summer-time will be spent recording their next album due for early 1993 release...

Shrapnel subsidiary Blues Bureau International have announced their second release will be guitarist Pat Travers. Guest artists on his album of Blues standards will include harmonica master Little John Chrisley and guitarist Michael Lee Firkins. Mid-June will also see releases from former Racer X members who've all graduated to major label success, Paul Gilbert (Mr. Big), Scott Travis (Judas Priest), Jeff Martin (Badlands), John Alderete and Bruce Bouillet (The Scream), remixed the tracks to the new album entitled Extreme Volume Live - II. Tony McAlpine's new release, Freedom To Fly is an instrumental album...

Soundgarden's five-song EP called "Satanoscillatymetallicsonatas" became available last week as an addition to their A&M Badmotorfinger album. The EP includes covers of Devo's "Girl U Want," The Rolling Stones' "Stray Cat Blues," "She's A Politician," and "Slaves And Bulldozers." The fifth song is Black Sabbath's "Into The Void," along with a reprint in the liner notes of a letter written by Chief Sealth, the Indian Chief for whom Seattle was named. The letter is a response to a government inquiry regarding the purchase of tribal territory... ●

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Just in case you missed it, summer officially began a few days ago—y’know, that time of year when everyone kicks back, soaks in a few ultraviolet rays and awaits the results of the spring book.

It seems the overall mood in Top 40, as best as I can tell, is cautiously optimistic, which is quite an improvement from just six months ago.

Call it coincidence, but as the country comes out of the recession (a number of economic indicators point to healthy growth), BILLY RAY CYRUS and his “Achy Breaky Heart” enjoy hero status, with major press coverage and appearances on shows like “Arsenio Hall.” Besides putting the first major Country crossover on Top 40 in half a decade, he’s also inspired something else long overdue—a new dance craze!

Sure, there was promotional and marketing muscle behind all this, but give the public credit for knowing what they like, not just liking what they know. Ask anyone who’s playing this song and they’ll say it gets people responding, waiting to hear it played again and again.

At WCIL Carbondale, IL, it remains their most requested song with SIR MIX-A-LOT’s “Baby Got Back,” the opposite end of the spectrum, in at number two! Even allowing that they both are reaction records, it’s nice to see them co-exist on the same playlist in “middle” America.

Diversity and acceptance of new or unusual music is becoming more widespread as not only the variety, but the quality of releases keeps increasing.

What does it all add up to? Let’s just say the winds of change are being felt not only politically, but culturally. Top 40 radio stands to benefit in the process.

Well on the way to their first success at Top 40 and closing in on 200 reports, TOAD THE WET SPROCKET blows into the Top Ten at KWOD Sacramento 14-10. Hot at 102 ZOO 28-21, WLWY 24-17, KCCQ 26-18, KIHK 33-27, KKCK 26-21, WGBQ 24-17, WXLC 34-27, KQKY 32-24, Q107 28-19, KMOK 29-22, WCIL 26-19, etc. ADDs include: WYAV/FM, WNNJ, Forecast for the summer—a lot of “November Rain.” Most requested at WHDQ Claremont, NH, GUNS N’ ROSES blast into the top thirty 34-25. ## NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

PHD - I'm Flippin' (Tuff City) A story about hustling in the fast lane doesn't offer a good first impression, but if you lock your mids and lows into the beats, you'll definitely flip flava for club heads. Piloted by a slow banging bassline and break, "I'm Flippin'" has the musical substance to grab some East Coast attention on the underground street level. PHD may not present anything original on the verbal attack, but he does give you hardcore rhymes that fit the music bed perfectly. Contact Sha at (212) 262-0385 BAS

DETROIT'S MOST WANTED - Tricks Of The Trades: Vol II (Bryant/Ichiban) The debut album from this Detroit-based group has already garnered a buzz throughout the Southwest off the strength of their first album "Tricks Of The Trade." The debut single, "The Money Is Made," kicks a hardcore braggadocio storyline tapered with a thumping bassline from Roger's 1983 classic, "Dance Floor." D.M.W., aka Motsi Ski (lead rapper), MC Lee and DJ Duncan Hines package the harsh realities of surviving gangsta life in Motortown, from dealing Ya Yo to rape. The explicit rhyme schemes of D.M.W. are novice from track to track, including a couple contradictory lines about not being labeled as a rapper. Cuts worth checking out are "Suckers To Sleep," "Backstabber," and "All About Ya Yo." For College and Community radio, drop in the PSA skit "Rape (Scene II)" for some positive knowledge. Contact Jimmy Olsen or Helen Urriola at (404) 419-1414. BAS

LADY FRESH - Blow My Mind (Valley Vue Records) Pittsburgh diva Lady Fresh arranges a funk-laden track that incorporates a Roger Troutman-laced chorus and a P-Funk beat. Taken from her debut album, A Word 2 The Wize, "Blow My Mind" finds Lady Fresh on a mission to promote positive awareness to women young and old. The single carries itself off on the strength of Lady Fresh's subject matter—be strong and be careful of promiscuous boyfriends. A graduate in Communication Studies from the University of Pittsburgh, Lady Fresh spends a great deal of time as a part-time counselor helping local organizations such as the United Way and the Women's Help Center. Contact Terry Washington at (619) 778-6510. BAS

K-SOLO - Times Up (Atlantic Street) It's been a little while since we heard from the Hip-Hop spelling ace, but K-S-O-L-O is back and he's rippin' up the mic with his heavyweight, hypnotic, in-ya-face rhymes. Once again, Solo sought the production help of EPMD, and it contains all the elements of a successful package. Picking up where his debut left off, Solo blasts off and drains his listeners into his world of anecdotes. Addressing various issues from black-on-black crimes in "Who's Killin' Who?" to an escapade with the maid in "Household Maid," Solo, with his crisp delivery, flows on and on without missin' a beat. Another cut to check out is "Sneak Tip," which is a trippy fantasy about sneakers coming to life. But the dopest track on the album is "Letterman," which was produced by the untouchable Pete Rock, with Solo-kickin' mad spelling skills over funky organ chords. Contact Eric Skinner at (212) 275-2291. K-WOO

ERIC B. & RAKIM - Don't Sweat The Technique (MCA) Since their 1986 vinyl debut, Eric B. & Rakim have been one of the few groups to adjust to Hip-Hop's musical transitions. The rhythm break should have this record spinning at mixshows and clubs throughout the summer, while the bassline will keep jeep head's woofers pumping. The twelve-inch offers additional remixes, but neither beat the flava of the album mix. Contact Brute Bailey at (818) 777-0514. BAS

MAY MAY

from stand-up to breakin' it down

Many rap artists write lyrics drawn from their life experiences, and newcomer May May is no different. The twist is that for May May, daughter of boxing champion Muhammad Ali, many of her life experiences come from the boxing ring. Like when she was at a Sugar Ray Leonard/Thomas Hearns boxing match, and a guy stormed into the ladies room looking for his 'woman.' "He was yelling and screaming, out of control," says May May. "So I yelled, 'Hey, mellow out Alpoman.'" The women in the restroom broke out in laughter, so May May wrote about the incident, hence the rap, "Alpoman." "That rap is about men who don't treat women right," says May May. "Instead of saying 'you're a dog,' I say 'Alpoman.' It's said in a humorous way, it's not offensive."

Even though May May was raised by her maternal grandparents, she holds a very special place in her heart for her father. "I'm like my dad," admits May May, "He's very spiritual and very down to earth." And she is as passionate about her music as her father is about boxing.

May May became inspired to write raps back in 1979, when the Sugarhill Gang came out with "Rappers Delight," and writing has been a passion ever since. When she finally decided to search for a record deal, she knew it wasn't going to be easy, but she also knew she wasn't going to give up. "I know when I'm going to do something, I'm going to do it - period," says May May. "I'm going to get it done no matter what it takes."

May May feels a sense of purpose with her music. "My talent and my record deal were a blessing. I want to be uplifting and positive through my music, because I feel responsible for what I feed millions and millions of brains. Most artists will say they're not responsible for what fans say or do because of an artist's lyrics. I think that entertainers have a powerful impact on kids." She continues, "Kids listen to entertainers more than anybody else; more than politicians or their parents. If you look in a kid's room, all you see are entertainers on the wall. To me, it's very ignorant and selfish to deny that kids are influenced by who they admire."

"I'm like my dad," admits May May, "He's very spiritual and very down to earth."

Like her father, May May follows the tenets of the Islamic religion. "It's everything I do," she says, "from the way I dress to what I talk about. In my religion, entertainment of all kinds, especially music, should be uplifting, refreshing and positive."

Her Scotti Bros. debut release, The Introduction, is all that and more. May May is able to display her spirituality and her sense of humor on the twelve-song collection.

Humor is a big part of May May's presentation, and it's no wonder, as she spent a portion of her life on the comedy circuit. "I did stand-up comedy four years ago," says May May. "The first time I went to a comedy club, I thought 'I can do that.' I was in Philly doing a demo tape, and one night we went to the talent night at the Hollywood Palace. All you had to do was sign your name. My friends kept telling me to get up there, but I wasn't sure, so I signed and erased my name seven times," she laughs. "The crowd was not nice, but I got up there and killed 'em."

"So when I went back to L.A., I went to the Comedy Store, the Dance Factory, to all these places where people were afraid to go, but I just didn't care. I thought 'I did it in Philly, and they were a hard crowd, so I know I can do it here.' Everywhere I went I killed 'em. The first fifty shows I did, I would log them; writing down what I did, what the reaction was, what I shouldn't have done. I took it very seriously. So I was able to become polished as a comedian and I became a regular at these places. Within four years, I was a paid regular and started going to Vegas. Two years ago I did a tour called the 'New Faces Tour of the Comedy Store,' with Tommy Davidson, Pauly Shore, Chris Rock and myself. This is before these guys got their breaks; before Pauly got MTV, Tommy got In Living Color and Chris got Saturday Night Live...so I knew I had to be next!"

May May knows it takes determination to be successful. "To be the best at something you have to concentrate on it for awhile," she says. But before May May does anymore comedy, she wants to establish herself as a rap artist. "That's where my focus is. I like comedy, but I don't love it like I love music. Comedy was a great learning experience and I'm glad I did it, but music is where my heart is." ●

INSIDE URBAN

PROUD SMILES

LUTHER VANDROSS AND JANET JACKSON's "The Best Things In Life Are Free" remain a strong number one. Last week's Record To Watch, LORENZO's "Real Love," grabs the highest debut spot on the chart, becoming our "Hot" listing with six new adds. This week's Top Tip by former Gap Band member CHARLIE WILSON, "Sprung On Me," is pulling in the adds: WCDX, WOWI, WVCB, KYEA, KFXZ, KGRM, KJMS, KQXL, WVEE, WBLX, WFXA, WJMI, WKGC, WQKI, WWDM, WJFX, WRNB, WTLZ, WVOI, KDKO, KLGV, KBMS, and KKBK. Stan Boston, WNHC-New Haven, says TLC's "Baby-Baby-Baby" is hot. "Requests are really starting to kick in from female listeners and I think it's an excellent choice for their follow-up single." Casey McMichaels, WVOI-Toledo, makes AL JARREAU's "It's Not Hard To Love You" his pick saying, "Long-awaited arrival of Al's single—good to see him back with the right idea and the right kind of groove." Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson, makes RALPH TRESVANT's "Money Can't Buy You Love" her RTW saying, "From a soundtrack full of goodies this is just one of them." Chris Clay, KQXL-Baton Rouge, likes JABULANI's "Shine Your Light" because "It's a very good inspirational record—will generate adult listeners as well as teen listeners." Pamela Hall, WHUR-Washington, D.C., makes KISS THE SKY's "Living For You" her RTW saying, "We're getting major phones—18+ demos." Curtis Carter, WKGC-Panama City, makes TEVIN CAMPBELL's "Strawberry Letter 23" his RTW saying, "I remember the one by the Brothers Johnson and this one deserves as much credit and success." Our Record To Watch, M. C. BRAINS' "Brainstorming" is currently on at WHUR, WJDY, WKYS, WOWI, WUSL, KYEA, WBLX, WJMH, WKGC, WPEG, WWDM, WCKX, WNCI, WKKV, WRNB, WTLZ, WVOI, WZND, KJMZ, KKDA, KJMQ and KBMS. Ciao for now, Betty.

SOUL II SOUL - Move Me No Mountain (Virgin)

On the second release from Soul II Soul's album "Volume III Just Right," Jazzie B and his funky dressed crew feature the vocals of U.K. artist Kofi. This laid back house-flavored track with Kofi's smooth vocals score Soul II Soul another multi format pleaser. Former Snap member Penny Ford assists with background vocals.

CHAKA KHAN - You Can Make The Story Right (Warner Bros.)

There's something about Chaka's voice that perks my ears up, and on this follow-up to "Love You All My Lifetime" she grabbed me on the second listen. A mid-tempo story of a lover's infidelity and how the partner reacts finds Chaka's narrative vocals webbed with dramatic music.

TOTAL LOOK & THE STYLE - Room 252 (P.R.O.Division/RAL/Columbia)

A debut for these five ladies from Dayton, Ohio on executive producer Chuck D's label, P.R.O. Division. Total Look & The Style drop a simple funky mid-tempo track that doesn't distract from the ladies' vocals. "Room 252" is where trust and honesty ran out.

MELI'SA MORGAN - Through The Tears (Pendulum/Elektra)

Meli'sa takes a realistic look at the situations that face our society today. "Through The Tears" offers several mixes of this Reggae-flavored track that has raps by Daddy Freddy.

DA YOUNGSTA'S - Pass The Mic (Atco/EastWest America)

Although they may be youngsta's, they're definitely not to be taken lightly. Off to a slow start, Da Youngsta's are back with their second single, "Pass Da Mic." Remixed by Pete Rock, this single should hit real hard with summer at our heels. Flippin' lyrical skills, this trio is bound to light up those phone lines. If you sleep on this one, you might as well go on vacation for the summer. K-WOO

NUBIAN M.O.B. - Farway To Go (Cold Chillin'/Reprise)

Summer has arrived, and the Nubian Mob is here to kick it off with this R&B/Rap cut. Silky smooth vocals mixed with some funky-flowing rhymes make this a perfect cut to cool off the summer heat—not to mention the extra-thick bassline that makes it easier to groove back and forth. Ivan M. Rodriguez

Lionel Richie

By Beverly Mire

A few weeks before this interview took place, Lionel Richie released his first new single in six years. The song, "Do It To Me," which is already a monster hit, is taken from a greatest hits package, Back To Front, that is far from complete. We say that because every single person who has listened to the set has at least one more song they want to hear.

In addition to "Do It To Me," two other new yet unmistakably Lionel Richie compositions—"My Destiny" and "Love Oh Love"—are on the album. And when you listen to the package, you know, are sure that even though there are three new songs on Back To Front, it's truly "Lionel Richie's Greatest Hits."

The first question to ask Lionel is obvious. The last time we saw him was in March of 1987 on the telecast of the Academy Awards as he walked offstage with an Oscar for "Say You Say Me." That trophy was the latest in a long line of awards for Richie. It joined five Grammys, fifteen American Music Awards and a Golden Globe Award. But, as we said, that was the last time we saw him.

He needed a break. But most breaks are taken when a career is stale, on the slide, or both. Lionel stepped down as his career was peaking. How did he have the strength to stop on top?

Lionel, his voice resembling a pleasant sigh, said it wasn't strength but lack of it that forced his sabbatical. "I hadn't realized it, but I had worked, I would say, fourteen years in a row," he says. "That means through the Commodores and into my solo career. I was having to ask questions like, 'Mom—how old are you?' I came to realize I missed about eight or nine Christmases in a row. I was doing well in the success line, but poorly on the private line."

He was doing so poorly, in fact, that what happened to Lionel Richie immediately after he walked off with that Oscar reads like a sad romance novel: His marriage broke up; doctors discovered a polyp on his throat (he was treated successfully); his father died. "That was a period when I was definitely not a happy camper," he says. "It was definitely not fun."

So he took five years off. Stepped off the pedestal and took some time for himself. "I had the chance to explore a bit," he reminisces. "I had been doing world tours based on where I was playing—I'd do Paris touring, I'd do London touring. But never did I hang out—so while I was off, that's what I did."

There was never a point, though, that Lionel was truly removed from the industry. He knew he'd go back to work, and he kept an eye on music and kept making plans. "I discovered a lot about my music and what I needed to do next. And during that time, believe it or not, nothing changed except Lionel Richie the personal guy."

"Because I took that time off I discovered a lot about my music and what I needed to do next," he continued. "Before, I was always thinking I had to go to the next level, but I found that all I had to do was take three steps back and continue on."

Armed with the advice of a friend, an energized Lionel Richie began to work his way back to the studio. "The greatest advice I got was when a friend said to me, 'When you stopped recording, was your thing working?' I said, 'Yeah, very well.'

And he said, 'Then don't try to find something new, just keep going. Take up where you left off and just keep moving.'"

Lionel laughs when asked if what might have happened if he didn't take that advice. "It could have been 'Richie Raps' or something like that..."

Believe it or not, the event that brought Lionel back to recording was the moment in the 1992 Grammy Awards when "Unforgettable," sung by Natalie Cole, was named "Song Of The Year." Lionel was shocked. "I said, 'Wait a minute! Wasn't that written in nineteen-whatever?'" All of a sudden I knew I had to get back to work. If an old song like 'Unforgettable' was winning awards, then it was time for me to get back into the studio."

Love of performing was another factor that brought Lionel Richie back. "I missed the stage," Richie sighs. "I decided that I had been to the last concert that I didn't walk onstage myself."

Re-vitalized, Lionel took to the studio to record three new songs, and select the hits to be part of Back To Front. With a catalogue of songs that spans three careers—the Commodores, solo, and collaborations—the process wasn't easy. "I left off 'Stuck On You,' I left off all the songs on Zoom," he says. "This is my last album with Motown under this deal and I wanted to make a statement with a period. That's why I didn't come back with a new, slammin', jammin' Lionel Richie. I wanted to say, 'This is what I did before, and this is what I'm about now.'"

The first single, "Do It To Me," was written, Lionel says, as a reaction to people who didn't know he was ever a Commodore. "While I was on my break I was surprised to learn how many people thought my career started with Kenny Rogers and a song called 'Lady.' And I knew I had to take drastic action," he recalls incredulously, "when a person called me up on the phone and said, 'Lionel! A Dick Clark special is on and the guy that used to be the lead singer of the Commodores could be your brother!' And to top it off, the person who called isn't a kid—he's fifty-some odd years old!"

"I also knew I was in trouble," he continues, "when I was sitting in a studio one evening and a kid was working with a great rhythm sample. I said, 'Where did you get that from?' He said, 'Off a Commodores' album.' And I thought, 'You don't have to sample the Commodores—I'll play it for you!'"

Those incidents made it painfully clear to Lionel that some people had no idea where he came from; there were people who didn't know he had R&B roots. The hurt was transformed into "Do It To Me." "I wanted to remind not just my fans, but also me, how much fun my time with the Commodores was."

The second new track, "My Destiny" is a tribute to Motown, a Motown Lionel Richie—even though he's spent his career on the label—never really knew first-hand. "I was kind of disappointed when I first joined Motown because the Motown I grew up with was changing," he says honestly. "Berry (Gordy, Motown founder) had moved to L.A. and they were developing a new thing. And surprisingly enough, I couldn't get hold of that great old Motown feel that was characteristic of the days in Detroit."

"For years I've been wanting to do something that reminded me of a great 'Motown-y' thing, and I think 'My Destiny' is it."

Like "We Are The World," a project in which Lionel Richie played a major role, Back To Front's third new song, "Love Oh Love," is a statement-of-the-times anthem. "'Love Oh Love' is one of those songs that ten years ago might have been considered too syrup-y," Lionel admits. But in the past five years everything has turned upside down—the Berlin Wall's come down, Mandela's out of prison. 'Love Oh Love' is talking about the changes in time. And it's not only describing what the problems are, it's also describing what the solution could be."

Although he admits, albeit reluctantly, that Sting is one of his personal favorites, Lionel Richie loves the direction music headed in while he was off. "I love the word street," he enthuses. "What's happening right now is an amazing kind of cross-culture, because rap has met technology, and through that, Middle America is now listening to what the real vibe is on the street. I love rap for the fact that it educates the kid in Beverly Hills."

But does that mean Lionel Richie might consider rapping? "I was going to consider some other kinds of things," he confesses. "I found myself sampling this and sampling that and I thought, 'What am I sampling for—why don't I just play?' But it was extremely important that I worked those things out in my head. This is an extremely competitive business and sometimes you can make mistakes—take the wrong sort of fall."

"Each time I put out an album it's a statement about my frame of mind—where I am at the time."

Where Lionel Richie is now is in that anxious period that comes before a major tour. "I'm holding myself back," he says impatiently. "I'm going to be everywhere in 1993. Once I leave town, I probably won't be back for awhile because I want to play on the world/street level."

Well, maybe Lionel Richie won't be back in his home for awhile, but he's back in his fans' homes. And that's just where we want him.

Welcome back! ●

| 25      | 2    | 3     | LINDA DAVIS - He Isn't My Affair Anymore (Liberty)       |

VINCE GILL - I Still Believe In You (MCA)
Whew! This is a powerhouse of a song, on the level with "When I Call Your Name." It's Vince at his best.

GEORGE STRAIT - So Much Like My Dad (MCA)

Put aside your preconceptions about this song—it's not just another tear-soaked tribute to momma and daddy. The song packs an emotional punch by telling a very real story.

DIAMOND RIO - Nowhere Bound (Arista)
Diamond Rio's gold debut album continues to yield hits. This, the fifth single off the collection, sounds as fresh as "Meet In The Middle."

BILLY RAY CYRUS - Could've Been Me (Mercury)

"Could've Been Me" was a good choice for Billy Ray's crucial follow-up single. It's a heartfelt lament about a sweetheart who marries another.

DOUG STONE - Warning Labels (Epic)
Doug makes the most of this lighthearted song, which warns against the misery content of "those sad Country songs."

CURTIS WRIGHT - Hometown Radio (Liberty)

Liberty wisely snatched up Wright, who had some exceptional material out on an independent last year. Who could resist this celebration of small market radio?

JUDY FIELDS - Eyes Of Love (Dreamwest)

Judy co-wrote this beautiful song, and got some of Music Row's best—Vince Gill, Mark O'Connor and Jerry Douglas—to back her up.

eos for RCA/Nashville will be closed captioned for the hearing impaired...In an unprecedented move, Columbia Records released two videos on Stacy Dean Campbell's debut single, "Rosalee." # JAZZ NEW RELEASES

AND I'LL SING ONCE MORE - CHRISTOPHER HOLLYDAY (NOVUS/RCA)

Alto sax star Christopher Hollyday is burnin' with productivity. After whirlwinding through the last couple of years with three major label smashes, Hollyday is not about to bump his head on the ceiling. And I'll Sing Once More moves him to the next logical step—big band ensembles. Longtime cohort Ron Savage remains behind the trap set while Kenny Werner plays piano. You'll notice immediately that the orchestral arrangements take on a Gil Evans/Miles Davis-style relationship between the soloist and large band. Rodgers/Hammerstein's "Sound Of Music" is given a moody Jazz recital treatment—a bit on the melancholy, after-hours side. The intro to "Storm" reminds us of Philip Glass' early, acrobatic, repetitive riffs. Hollyday goes ballistic with this self-composed musical obstacle course. For mid-sixties styled big band textures, how about Wayne Shorter's "Nefertiti?" Stylistically, And I'll Sing Once More is Hollyday at his most death-defying and risky. Look out below.

FULL HOUSE - PHIL WOODS QUINTET (MILESTONE)

If you're looking for some brand new Phil Woods, look no farther than Full House. Since he broke up the star-studded outfit that featured Tom Harrell and Hal Galper, Woods has been out of sight. Full House is a rollicking one-night live recording where the only other horn player on the bandstand is a trombonist. The shortest track is eight minutes, so the solos are spread around generously. The tongue-in-cheek "Empty House" packs a laid back beat. But midway through, Woods rattles with intensity and lets loose some spiraling free Jazz/bop. He turns the heat up and down at will into the final chorus. Full House will make Jazz Radio itchy for the prolific Woods' next studio fling.

TODA AMERICA - CARLOS GUEDES (HEADS UP)

Originally from Caracas, Venezuela and now living in Dallas, Carlos Guedes tore up the Adult Alternative charts with his previous effort, Churun Meru. On Toda America, a salute to all Americas—and not just the fifty States, Guedes continues to use a wide range of different music styles to stay current. Ricardo Silveira appears on two tracks and dusts off a few electric cameos. Jorge Strunz polishes off one of his patented acoustic guitar buzz-saw solos. Alex Acuna supplies some luster to some of the rhythm tracks. Guedes, along with Strunz & Farah and others, gives Jazz/AA some potent World Music vision that's commercially viable and musically credible. We like "Halloween," "Para Luisa" and just plain old "Luisa."

THE HUNTER - JENNIFER WARNES (PRIVATE MUSIC)

Jennifer Warnes' career has been full of consistency and hesitation. After encountering success, she always seems to hang a sharp left turn. It happened after her first hit record, 1975's "Right Time Of The Night," when she resisted Linda Ronstadt mold. After performing four (!) Oscar-winning songs, she could have lounged in the pasture and crooned movie songs forever. Rather, she recorded her "famous" Leonard Cohen cover album at the dawn of the digital age. Years and a few contract hassles later, The Hunter emerges proud, brave and eclectic. Ranging from a sweet soul song ("Rock You Gently") to an original Donald Fagen big city anthem ("Big Noise, New York") a cover of a song written by Mike Scott of the Waterboys ("Whole Of The Moon"), Jennifer stylistically careens the off-roads, blind-folded at the wheel. Along with its spectacular mix, The Hunter has collaborative moments. No one less than Jennifer and Leonard Cohen finish the exotic unfinished Amy La Television song, "Way Down Deep." Guitarist Eric Johnson appears on two trax, including the concluding "I Can't Hide." Van Dyke Parks arranges the Steven Fosteresque "Lights Of Lousianne." Ultimately, The Hunter is dense with talent, ideas and precious cameos, with many of the ten songs dead-on-target. It's good to have her famous breaking, lilting voice back on the adult airwaves.

HEAVEN AND EARTH - AL JARREAU (REPRISE)

With his talent as a mass-appeal artist, Al Jarreau has a very wide audience to please with each and every release. On Heaven And Earth, while he and master producer Narada Michael Walden cater to a pop and urban audience, there are moments that could definitely mix with a stunning adult or Jazz set. Besides trax like "Heaven And Earth" or the emotional "Superfine Love," check out the final two trax, "Blue In Green (Tapestry) Parts I and II," on which Al, Narada and band bring the house down with a deep emotional suite. Partially credited to Miles Davis, here's six minutes of music that knows no borders or frontiers. Jarreau's voice flirts beautifully with the acoustic instruments and live strings, becoming as much an instrument as a conduit for the lovely lyrics. "Part II" ends things on a vibrant, emphatic note.

COMMON PLANET - BRIAN KEANE (MANHATTAN)

This one is already off to a hot start on AA. We first met up with Brian Keane at KIFM's recent birthday celebration. Keane was not only there on behalf of Common Planet, he was playing in Heather Mullen's band. A youngish veteran journeyman and producer, Keane has worked with guitarists as splendid as Paco DeLucia. His last solo album appeared on Lining Fish. Holed up in upstate New York, he has several movie scores to his credit as well. Common

Planet could be his biggest production, as scores of players and instruments span the globe, giving Keane's American music a massive international expanse. While sticking close to the six string nylon guitar, Keane isn't shy about branching out electrically when it comes to textures and sound beds. The deeper into Common Planet you go, the more uncommon the world influences, as entire continents collide even within songs. Eugene Ruffolo puts in a nice James Tayloresque vocal on "Girls In the Neighborhood." Other trax include the spaced "Prelude To Common Planet" into (of course) "Common Planet." With the remainder of the material deep in studio technology, "In A Quiet Place" offers a live-to-DAT respite. We also dig "At The Airport," which is where you'd have to go if you wanted to taste a lot of these influences firsthand.

TIME AND AGAIN - MULGREW MILLER (LAND-MARK)

Mulgrew Miller is one of the very best modern Jazz pianist on the planet. Whether he is emulating the classical lushness of Jamal, the complexity of Powell or the power of Tony Williams, he is a player who adapts. However, as a leader, this is Miller's latest trio effort. Time And Again is Miller running the store, right down to the two solo piano pieces. On "Broad Street," bassist Peter Washington plays head-on with the leader, setting an aggressive walking tone that is exciting and marvelous. So effective is the chemistry between the two, on "You And the Night And The Music" Washington even carries the melody. Both inside the trio format (rounded out by another familiar name, Tony Reedus) or on his own as a moody stylist, Mulgrew Miller is a joyous acoustic warrior.

Suffering from the same old thing? We have The Antidote.

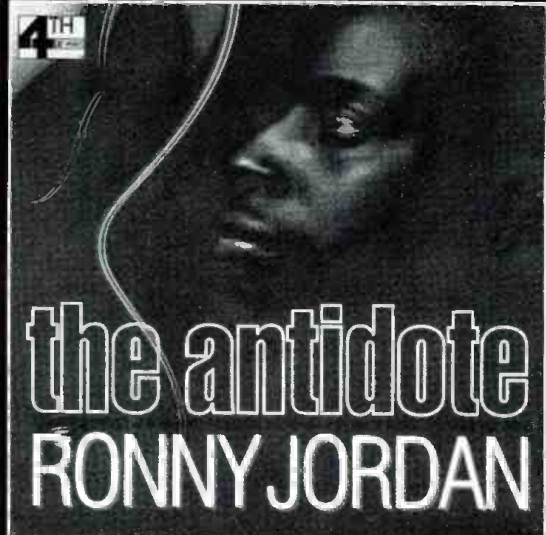

Ronny Jordan is a hot new noise among jazz guitar players. He has crafted his sound from the vibe he picked up in "The Groove Academy" that is North London. He learned the intricacies of melody from years playing in his church choir band. He embraces the spirit of Wes Montgomery and the cool pop sensibility of George Benson. The end result is a remarkable musician with a sound that is uniquely Ronny Jordan!

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

"HEAVEN SENT" - INXS (ATLANTIC)

"Heaven sent/that's what I call you." That's what you can call this. On the first day of summer, what we all need is a stiff dose of INXS. Guitars. Drums. Reverb vocals. No dance. No prance. Nothing but the straight stuff.

GOOD STUFF - THE B-52's (REPRISE)

Last album's happy accident turns into this album's winning formula. By splitting the production duties down the middle between Don Was and Nile Rodgers, the B-52's get good direction from two separate production philosophies. On "Good Stuff" and "Is That You M-Dean?" Was and the band bathe in analog warmth. On tracks like "Tell It Like It T-I-Is" and "Revolution Earth," Rodgers brings in the digital snap. Not to discount the band's contribution (one member lighter due to the departure of Cindy Wilson) Good Stuff is solid stuff, stem to stern. Last round's success seems to have rejuvenated their approach. The tracks are still quite daffy while the lyrics are sexy and kitschy with the occasional Green message thrown in. The B-52's are still the best purveyors of white dance trash. As for gratitude, no one was overlooked. No less than seven people associated with look and make-up are thanked, as are the vocal coaches.

"100%" - SONIC YOUTH (DGC)

Sonic Youth are the closest current examples of total rock improvisation. It's rare when a band embraces the same spirit as many avant-garde Jazz players, particularly when they test the limitations of their instruments. Little wonder they're on tour with Sun Ra. Still toying with weird tunings and off the wall subject matter, SY team up with midwestern producer Butch Vig, fresh from his success with Nirvana. Not to worry, the results are still wild and unleashed.

EAT YOURSELF WHOLE - KINGMAKER (CHRYSALIS/ERG)

Here's a splendid major label debut from Kingmaker, a new English band from Hull. A compact trio consisting of Loz Hardy, Myles Howell and John Andrew, the three use strictly a guitar/bass/drums approach. However, it's their sense of dynamics that sets them apart from the pack. Linda Ryan hears a definite Wonder Stuff influence. I hear an energy reminiscent of the first time I saw Paul Weller with the Jam. Like the Jam, Kingmaker have the capability of making a spare instrumental line-up sound special and full. Singer Hardy has the dramatic vocal effect of a singer like Bono—stretching for the high notes, cock-sure in the mid-ranges. Immediate favorites include "Freewheeling," "Where You Stand" and "Eat Yourself Whole."

"OLD RED EYES IS BACK" - THE BEAUTIFUL SOUTH (ELEKTRA)

Holy Paul Buckmaster, I love those strings! The Beautiful South make beautiful use of an orchestra and piano that could have been torn from Elton's Tumbleweed Connection songbook. "Old Red Eyes Is Back" is actually a serious song about abuse, though not written in a preachy, condescending manner. Rather, it's a sad song written from the sideline point of view. It'll take a second play to get into the story line.

HOLD YOUR FIRE - FIREHOUSE (EPIC)

This is the second set of songs from this Carolina four-piece. The opening "Reach For The Sky" shows the pop power reserve that Firehouse draws from. As for power chords and drum sounds, songs like "Get In Touch" shows that Firehouse can play as tight as any rock-'em-sock-'em quartet. The band does have its pop side. "Sleep With You" could certainly have been cut in Cleveland by Eric Carmen and the Raspberries. The style with which Firehouse layers their vocals gives them any number of options from which to operate.

MANIC FRUSTRATION - TROUBLE (DEF AMERICAN)

When you see the Def American label, you expect no punches pulled. That's what you get with Trouble. Produced by Rick Rubin, you get industrial-strength rock n roll a little to the left of AC/DC, a little to the right of Slayer. A great majority of the material is relentless. Songs like "Fear," with its industrial-filtered vocal is for hard core slammers only. However, believe it or not, there's a sensitive side. You'll hear that on tracks like "Rain" and especially "Breathe," a Pink Floydian composition that choruses out to the final strains of Donovan's "Atlantis."

STRANGE WEATHER - GLENN FREY (MCA)

Don't judge this on first listen. On the surface, Glenn Frey's Strange Weather is a pretty album. Co-produced by Frey and Elliot Scheiner (who worked on Donald Fagen's Nightfly and Jennifer Warnes' newest), the songs seemed tailored for sleek adult listeners. But the undertones are more ominous. It's hard to imagine a song better timed than "Long Hot Summer." The opening verse paints a scary picture that looks a lot like current Los Angeles. Even the single, "I've Got Mine" contrasts uptown and down-and-out street living, using sweet saxophone tones and a warm mix. Again, the message is pretty much the opposite, almost a joke on those who may enjoy the song in a lap of luxury. Things finally get crustier and dirtier on "Love In The 21st Century." "He Took Advantage" is a acid-soaked blues song dedicated to Ronald Reagan. Written on two levels, it's a pretty strong indictment. Lemme put it this way, don't look for Frey on the George Bush campaign trail. Eventually everything ends on solid ground with a souped-up version of one of last year's best radio moments, "Part Of Me, Part Of You" from Thelma & Louise. Take your time with this one. On a casual listen, you may miss the points that Frey is trying to bring home.

ALTERNATIVE INSIDE

BY LINDA RYAN

I don't think I mentioned this last week, but another highlight of the R&R convention weekend was getting to hear some of the new SOUL ASYLUM album. TODD BISSON and BENJI GORDON played me a few songs and it totally smokes! Tracks like "Runaway Train," "Black Gold," "99%" and "Somebody To Shove" all sounded like real winners, and one of those tracks will most likely be the single to be released in mid-August.

If you're an import fanatic like me, it might interest you to know that both WDRE and KROQ are playing—and reporting—THE UTAH SAINTS' latest single, "Something Good."

KKDJ—The Edge—is already two cuts deep on the brand new SOHO album. Aside from the single, "Ride," the Fresno station is also playing "Radio Soul Groove." Sounds like a winner.

KNND—The End—had great success with their acoustic concert featuring JOHN WESLEY

HARDING and E. The crowds packed Seattle's Pioneer Square, and Midday air personality BILL REID registered over one-hundred people to vote. Stay tuned for details of their first-ever END-FEST coming in August!

Imagine my surprise when the world famous TATTOO answered the phone at Salt Lake City's KJQN! He's officially the MD/APD and is, as you might expect, going crazy trying to juggle both positions—as well as being mid-day airtalent! Good luck, Tattoo.

KUKQ in Phoenix, has announced the line-up for their Fourth Of Julyfest. The "theme" for this celebration is Environmental Awareness. Eight bands are scheduled to play, with some of the proceeds going to environmental organizations. The line-up is: PETER MURPHY, CRACKER, THE LEVELLERS, SOMETHING HAPPENS, THE NYMPHS, SOHO, UNCLE GREEN and THE SEXTANTS.

Look for MATT PINFIELD's (WHTG) smiling face in the July 4th weekend episode of MTV's hottest new show, REAL WORLD. The Pinster plays himself as he interviews mega-hunk Andre and his band.

Congratulations to Mercury's TIM HYDE who's been upped from Manager, Alternative Promotions to Director of Alternative Promotions.

Rumor has it that DGC's MARK KATES is getting promoted to the Alternative Marketing department. JOHN ROSENFELDER will step in as National Director of Alternative Promotion and an as-of-yet unnamed person will then fill his vacated position.

O.K.—I got this DREAM SYNDICATE re-issue that Rhino put out, only the damn thing won't play in my CD player. This seems to be happening quite a lot these days—is it just me? Maybe I need a vacation. Speaking of which...

By the time you read this, I'll be in England at The Glastonbury Festival. SEANA BARUTH will be in charge of the Alternative section while I'm gone. Please be nice to her. See ya in a week!

SPIREA X - FIREBLADE SKIES (4-AD/REPRISE)

Formed by ex-Primal Scream guitarist Jim Beattie, Spirea X came together as a three-piece in Glasgow in the summer of 1990. Putting a contemporary spin on a blend of '60s pop with early-seventies' soul, the band—which has expanded to a five-piece—have recorded a killer debut album which is being unleashed in America this week. Included on Fireblade Skies are the band's first two singles ("Chlorine Dream" and a new version of "Speed Reaction" that has a cool intro, thus avoiding the "cold" start of the original) and a handful of beautifully bent snatches of pop. Favorites include "Confusion In My Soul" and "Sisters And Brothers" (which sounds like a warped, modern-day Mamas And Papas or Fifth Dimension), "Sunset Dawn," "Fire And Light" and "Nothing Happened Yesterday." This one you gotta hear! LINDA RYAN

THE CHILLS - SOFT BOMB (SLASH/REPRISE)

I have to admit that I go hot or cold on The Chills—I either love them or have no time for them. Their current album, Soft Bomb, definitely gets put into the "love it" category. For me, The Chills really click on the out-and-out pop songs—of which there are quite a few on the new album. As usual, producer Gavin MacKillop has attained a clean, well-spaced sound and enhanced some of the songs with soft strings and other instrumentation not usually associated with the New Zealand group's sound. Favorite tracks include "Ocean Ocean," "The Male Monster From The Id," "Sleeping Giants," "Halo Fading," and "Double Summer." For the most part, the songs I just mentioned are the straight-ahead pop songs on the album, but I also like the sparse "Song For Randy Newman Etc.," and the blusey "Entertainer." Enjoy the crystal blue, breezy pop of The Chills as Summer officially begins. LR

INXS - "HEAVEN SENT" (ATLANTIC)

Another offering from the Southern Hemisphere is Australia's INXS who return to the airwaves with the single "Heaven Sent." This is a solid pop song—definitely earmarked with the INXS sound, and yet unlike anything the band has done before. Perhaps it's Bob Clearmountain's (Aerosmith, Rolling Stones, etc.) touch, I don't know. In any case, "Heaven Sent" has a very "live" sound—it's a little tougher and the guitars are up front in the mix. And of course, INXS' pop sensibilities are as sharp as ever! Nicest surprise of the week. LR

PJ HARVEY - DRY (INDIGO)

These guitars bite in a distinctly un-British way; this girl sings in a decidedly un-ethereal fashion; these arrangements are pared down and visceral. This is harsh. This rocks. I like it. Add Polly Harvey's uncompromising, woman-empowering lyrics to the primitive, aggressive grind of her guitar and the unpredictable jerking of her rhythm section, and the result's a sure sell to any punk-weaned, intelligent, wry-humored, amerindierock lover or Scrawl fan. Dry fulfills the promise of PJ Harvey's first two singles, "Dress" and "Sheela-Na-Gig" (my favorites on this disc) and is a release strong enough to sweep aside the lurking, distasteful (to me) mega-hype in the UK press. This one stands on its own. Check out the aforementioned two singles, "Oh My Lover," "Hair," "Fountain," ...hell, try the whole thing. SEANA BARUTH

WOLFGANG PRESS - QUEER (4AD)

If one is by land and two is by sea, three signifies that the British are coming by way of a soul invasion by the irrepressible Press. Blessed with an infectious beat and rousing guitars, the first single, "A Girl Like You," oozes with charming Mick Allen vocals. The sound bites from Velvet Underground tipping the scales of "Birmingham" come off more like homages than ripoffs, and a snaking bass grooves relentlessly. Donning headphones will reveal subtle subtleties such as "Question Of Time's" xylophone and "Honey Tree's" high octave piano chords, but palpably soulful rhythm provides the main setting for these richter benders. If you didn't check into last year's overseas release of Queer you'll be kicking as well as dancing with yourself when you hear this official U.S. one, which features two new tracks and a bevy of remixes. Look for a Stateside tour come fall that may isolate the next undiscovered element as groove. DAVID BERAN

SONIC YOUTH - 100% (SINGLE) (DGC)

An in your face rocker is the first single from the forthcoming release, Dirty. As Thurston flips off popsicle-cool vocals, tandem guitars proceed to completely wig out and immolate with distortion. Kim's bass lunges and sways against the spine of precision percussion. "100%'s" accessibility and kissability is undercut by nastily gnashing guitars, signaling that Sonic Youth is not about to turn its back on its roots in experimental dissonance. DB

VARIOUS ARTISTS - FORTUNE COOKIE PRIZE: A TRIBUTE TO BEAT HAPPENING (Simple Machines, P.O. Box 10290, Arlington, VA 22210)

The "power to the little people" credo of this tribute to Beat Happening holds special importance in these days of waning and folding indie labels, and this project is true to the spirit of small scale. Among the stellar attractions are the Cannanes' "Tribute" with a tumble-for-ya bass and ecstatically jangling guitars. Velocity Girls' "Tales Of Brave Aphrodite" features groovy Sarah Shannon vocals, a pulsing guitar and lively percussion in the Beat Happening tradition. Seaweed does double time on "Foggy Eyes," mutating it into a rocker, and Thurston, Kim and Epic twist "Black Candy" into a noise fest. Other mentionables include Superchunk's formidable "Nancy Sin" and Scrawl's ornery "Bad Seeds." Eighty percent of this CD's proceeds will go to Washington, D.C.'s Sasha Bruce House for troubled teenagers, which adds to its happening allure. DAVID BERAN

FASTBACKS - THE QUESTION IS NO (SUB POP 1932 First Ave. Suite #1103, Seattle, WA 98101)

Had I not been listening to this advance cassette for the past two months (thanks, Sub Pop), it would have been hands down the best in the batch of music sent to me (in Switzerland) by the benevolent Seana B. Cunningly arranged in reverse chronological order and placed amongst some amusingly ancient industry babble (a sure sign that one of the Fastbacks is being edged out of his or her living

indie

edited by Seana Baruth

space by an elephantine record collection), the fact that most songs are recycled nearly escapes notice. Avid 7" heads will note that the first tunes come from the Fastbacks' initial Sub Pop project, a double 7" set. "Pop," that dirty word in the lexicon of many a music critic (certainly not Linda Ryan's-ed.), skips happily alongside the thought-provoking "Lose" (previously released on a Gas Huffer split single) and the cheerful kiss-off song "Everything That I Don't Need." Bringing up the rear are some previously unreleased tracks that are an evolution—with the most marked trend being toward more delicate introspection; check out the sensitive "3 Boxes." This record, a learn-to-love-yourself fest, ends with the instrumental (another icky word) "Breakup Theme," that's a truly well-crafted thing of beauty even if the Fastbacks' dense but missing harmonies are usually your raison d'être. BICYCLE FACE - TRUST AND OBEY (Moist Records, P.O. Box 3597, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515)

If you have a tendency to take life too seriously, do not -- I repeat -- do NOT Trust and Obey. This album is strictly for foot stomping, long-n-twisted funny bone folk. Lyrically, Bicycle Face turns many a stone in mockery, taking shots at televangelists, "typical" teen problems, p.c. musicians, the chronically depressed and (gasp!) Dave Kendall. The music 'neath the words falls nigh a step behind in punchiness. The bass races everywhere—completely relentless. Even mild-mannered me was tempted to jump around my room doing the "I've-got-a-broken-neck" thing. The guitar, meanwhile, sticks it to you distortion style. Guaranteed to get your guchie-goo going: "The Struggle to be Extraordinary," "Mitchell McGirt," and "Morcilla." And then to make you giggle and spurt: "Ballad For Humanity," "I'm The Devil (AND YOU'RE NOT)," and "Big Fat Wally." Now—put on your best Bicycle Face and follow along!! BLANE M. MALL

ALL - PERCOLATOR (CRUZ, P.O. Box 7756, Long Beach, CA 90807S)

Percolator is the best power-pop album I've heard in a long, long time. Up to a point. The point is the ninth song here, where this happy tale takes a sad turn. But this record is definitely worth checking out for its opening string of flawless, bouncy tunes, the best of which, "Minute," is also one of the record's shortest. Others that will play over and over in your head include "Wonder," "Nothin'," "Dot" and "Empty." Percolator's two instrumentals, however, interrupt that would-be-perfect stretch of songs ("Birds" is particularly disappointing), and from "No. 63" to "Heybug" there's not a whole lot of exciting material in evidence (is it just me or does "Hotplate" sound way too much like Van Halen?). Despite those dull spots, Percolator is one to give a listen, and All does come close to redeeming themselves for that shameful stretch with the last song, "Breathe," an excellent spoof of a bar-room ballad. Extra notes: "Can't Say," a B-side on the "Dot" CD single may be better than anything on the album, and All is a must-see live show. JAN LARSEN

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

MICHAEL JACKSON - Jam (Epic) Millions gathered in front of their TV's last week to catch the premiere of the video featuring the two most famous Michael's in the world—Jackson and Jordan. As hot as the song is, the video only enhances it that much more. Slam dunk—no problem!

RALPH TRESVANT - Money Can't Buy You Love (Perspective/A&M) Can't buy the kind of excitement that surrounds both the release of the movie "Mo' Money" and the music from it. Ralph T.'s smooth approach, in effect as usual, reinforces the message of the soundtrack's first hit, "The Best Things In Life

Are Free." He co-wrote this track with producers Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis.

A.L.T. AND THE LOST CIVILIZATION - Tequila (Atco/EastWest America) One of the best-known instrumentals of all time, The Champs' 1958 hit gets a real makeover for the '90s. A cleverly written storyline serves up the names of drinks such as Margarita, Tom Collins, Jack Daniels and Sex On The Beach as characters. Here's what has to be the party song of the summer! Jamie Hyatt and Carey Edwards debut it at #17 for Y95 Phoenix, while crosstown at KKFR, Steve Smith and Dena Yasner confirm immediate response with a 26-22 jump. ADDs at: POWER 106, B95, POWER 102, WYAV/FM and KJYK.

DELAMITRI - Always The Last To Know (A&M) This song is for every lover who's been cheated on or left behind and that's an awfully large segment of the population. This Scottish quartet got Top 40 to react very quickly to their debut hit, "Kiss This Thing Goodbye," and this follow-up from a new album, Change Everything, features another hot chorus.

SIOUXSIE AND THE BANSHEES - Face To Face (Warner Bros.) Must be the week for soundtracks. Last weekend's box office take for "Batman Returns" was the biggest in motion picture history, outdoing the former champ—yup, "Batman." The soundtrack's producer, Danny Elfman, co-wrote this mystical melody with the group known for their unorthodox approach. Fresh appeal combined with the opportunity to tell listeners, "We've got music from 'Batman Returns' comin' up!"

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

PETER CETERA - World Falling Down (Warner Bros.)

Everyone seems to go through some sort of self-examination and re-evaluation during and after a divorce, and Peter Cetera is no exception, except that he can write and/or sing about it, for better or for worse. His recent divorce, after eighteen years of marriage, is grist for the musical mill, and his thoughts may best be composed on the track EVEN A FOOL CAN SEE, a logical successor to the set's first single, RESTLESS HEART, after it runs its eventual chart-topping course. Listen for the Chicago-like horns on the track—how ironic since his solo career has flourished since he left the band with the trademark horns. More than half the songs, and most of the good ones, are not actually hopeful songs of new love, as the set is merely punctuated with the breakup variety. The discovery process is in full flower with tracks like the powerful FEELS LIKE HEAVEN (a duet with Chaka Khan), THE LAST PLACE GOD MADE and WHERE THERE'S NOTOMORROW, a full-bodied pop rocker.

RODNEY CROWELL - What Kind Of Love (Columbia) Toss aside any preconceived notions you might have about this artist and listen with an open mind. Not only has Rodney got a song with the potential to get him his first hit at Top 40, he's delivered a phenomenal album as well. Roy Orbison had this tune half written before his untimely passing, so Rodney and Will Jennings completed it. A gem that features Booker T. on organ along with background vocals from Linda Ronstadt and Don Henley.

COLOURHAUS - Moving Mountains (Interscope/Atlantic) Those looking for the next wave of Pop writers and performers can't help but spot this duo. Scoring initial success with "Innocent Child," English producer Phil Radford and his Australian partner Sherrie Krenn can expect to climb even higher with this powerful follow-up.

JADE - I Wanna Love You (Giant/Reprise) Kid N' Play's latest movie, "Class Act," features a solid soundtrack from both new and familiar names. On the new side is this track from Jade, which could be subtitled, "I Wanna Sex You Up '92." PD Stacy Cantrell popped it early at KS104 Denver, and this week it takes a strong 20-15 gain. Top thirty at Q106, HOT 97.7 and Y95, plus ADDs at: KTFM, KKFR, BOSS 97 and KHTN.

THE WILLIAMS BROTHERS - It's A Wonderful Life (Warner Bros.) There's an unmistakable harmony created by siblings like Don And Phil Everly, or Barry, Maurice and Robin Gibb. That's just part of the magic behind brothers Andrew and David Williams. They not only sing, they write and play music that audiences find relatable. Here's an uptempo production raising serious issues, but just like Jimmy Stewart did on film, they remind us, "It's a wonderful life."
