Van Stone to KHMx

Zapoleon Opens Own Consultancy

Longtime Nationwide Communications programming chief and MIX 96.5 (KHMx)-Houston program director Guy Zapoleon, who is one of radio's most respected veterans, has decided to start up his own consultancy. Nationwide will be his first client.

"My goal is to offer a customized, full-service consultancy," Zapoleon told the Gavin Report. "My slogan is going to be 'custom, not cookie-cutter.' I don't believe you can go in and just take the same format or the style of the format and pigeon-hole it into each market. Every market is different and you have to customize your approach to that marketplace and the competitive environment."

Zapoleon has been with Nationwide in various capacities since 1985. He was named group program director in 1986 and national program director in 1988. He has been program director at MIX 96.5 since 1990. Nationwide president Steve Berger praised Zapoleon by saying Guy has "been a student of the radio business all of his adult life. He's seen and heard it all and is ready to share his knowledge with other people. It's rare that an individual can take his passion from childhood into his adult life like Guy has."

Zapoleon plans to specialize in Hot A/C and Top 40, and will officially put out his shingle on November 15.

Taking Zapoleon's place as program director at KHMx is Dave Van Stone, who has been working with the Pollack Media Group since May. Van Stone headed up the company's four-month-old Top 40 division. The move took the industry, and Van Stone himself, by surprise.

"I had no intention of leaving," said Van Stone, who in 1985 and 1986 was Nationwide's Group Director of Programming Services. "Jeff's (Pollack) been great. This came out of left field."

"I know everybody there—it's like going home. I've got some pretty big shoes to fill—Zapoleon is a tough act to follow. This is the ultimate situation. There are so many strengths—the station's doing great—so it's going to be an exceptional experience to get in there and work with so many great players."

Van Stone will start at KHMx on September 21.

MOJAZZ FROM MOTOWN

Motown Records this week announced its first foray into the jazz world with the debut of MoJazz.

"MoJazz is an idea whose time has come," said Jheryl Busby, President/CEO of Motown. "We're merely answering the call to acknowledge this great American art form."

Heading up the new division is Steve McKeever, who's title is GM/Sr. V.P. of A&R, Motown. MoJazz was McKeever's brainchild. "The new label is a bold experiment in music," he said. "Mo Jazz artists are keeping the tradition of jazz alive, thereby preserving a slice of Americana."

The label's first release, already on programmers' desks, is Norman Brown's Just Between Us. Other acts already signed include Norman Connors, pianist Eric Reed, multi-instrumentalist Foley, vocalist Milira and the Brazilian jazz group Terra Sul.

LABELS WON'T TAKE RAP

Time Warner's decision to accept Ice-T's decision to pull "Cop Killer" from the Body Count album, after it sparked a national controversy, is causing a ripple effect, and other labels are becoming gun shy to release rap projects dealing with the sensitive issues of police brutality and violence.

Consider:

A&M has asked rapper Tragedy, also known as Intelligent Hoodlum, to remove a song from his upcoming release, Black Rage. The track "Bullet" chronicles a retaliatory police shooting.

Hollywood Basic Records (distributed by Elektra Entertainment), has forced the group Boo-Yaa Tribe to drop the song "Shoot 'Em Down" from their new EP, Rumors Of A Dead Man. "Shoot 'Em Down" purportedly could be interpreted as a call to violence against police officers.

Rapper Paris is readying his second release for Tommy Boy, and the label is taking heat over possible cover graphics. The picture in question portrays President Bush in the sights of a gun.

Did Time Warner's "Cop Killer" decision set a precedent that other labels are sticking to? A&M's President Al Cafaro told Tragedy

Introducing Core Call Out Research.

A New Call Out Company that Targets Your Station's Core Listeners.

Core listeners represent up to 80% of your Arbitron AQH. That's why America's leading programmers and consultants agree that targeting core is the strategy for the 90's.

Introducing Core Call Out Research. A new company that tests your core listeners, the people who matter most.

More Core. By Far.

Core Call Out Research samples are 100% your cume listeners and at least 50%—and up to 100%—of your core. Every week. Guaranteed.

Stations complain that most call out companies don't include enough core listeners in their research—as few as 20% in a weekly sample.

% of Your Core

And when 80% may not even listen to your station or format, there's no way to accurately evaluate your Currents and Recurrents, much less tell a Power from a stiff.

Imagine . . . AOR listeners rating AC songs. It's a joke.

Quality Research. From Companies You Trust.

Core Call Out Research is a joint venture of Coleman Research, Inc., and Music Forecasting, Inc.

Coleman Research is one of America's top two radio research companies.

Music Forecasting is the leader in new music testing for the recording industry.

Core-Driven Radio.

Core drives ratings. Core should drive your call out.

Al Dame, Owner
WRVV(FM), The River
Harrisburg, PA

Well, with the help of Jay Albright and Jim LaMarca, we've ended up with a great radio station. Jay helped us make exactly the right format choice. Jim and our Operations Manager Chris Tyler have worked extremely well together. In three months and one book, we went from #10 to #3 in the market*. But revenues were the first to show the station was doing well: billings have been doubling every month. We've built one of the most outstanding Rock AC stations in the country. And the most exciting experience in my 45 years in radio.

Call John Sherman, VP/Sales and Marketing. He'd like to give you a quote.

Cloudy Skies at Fairmont

Contrary to earlier reports, Fairmont Communications has announced that it has "voluntarily" filed Chapter 11 to preserve assets and reorganize its capital structure.

According to a company spokesperson, it will be business as usual for Fairmont, which currently owns one stand-alone FM station and four AM/FM combos.

"Our advertisers, listeners and employees should not see any difference in our operations," they said. "The filing was made for reasons related only to the capital structure of our company...no staffing reductions are anticipated."

Fairmont's money woes stem from its failure to obtain permanent financing and, according to the spokesperson, "the company's creditors' inability to reach a consensus on restructuring outside of court." Apparently Fairmont has been trying to stabilize its financing since as far back as 1987. The recession, which brought down ad revenue, didn't help either.

The Marine Midland Bank has assured Fairmont that it will work with the company's current management "while the company's financial structure is reorganized under court protection."

THRASHER TO REPRISE AS VP

This week Eric Thrasher was named Vice President of Black Music Promotion at Reprise Records.

Thrasher, whose career began in 1975 when he was manager of Soul Brothers Records in his hometown of Little Rock, comes to Reprise after spending six years at Motown, most recently as National Promotion Director.

"I am very excited about the opportunity to work with the Warner/Reprise family and with music industry leaders such as Benny Medina and Ray Harris," Thrasher said. "And, of course, I look forward to working with all the high-caliber artists found on the Reprise label."

"Eric is truly a natural resource in black music promotion," said Benny Medina, Warner Bros. Records Sr. Vice President A&R/General Manager, Black Music Division. "Exceptional experience, enthusiasm and know-how combine to make him one of the most respected names in our industry. I join with the rest of the company in extending him a heartfelt welcome to Reprise."

Tanter To KSRF/KOCM as MARS/FM Goes Jazzy

Well-known Los Angeles programmer Lawrence Tanter has been named program director of 103.1 FM. 103.1FM includes two stations, KSFR-Santa Monica and KOCM-Newport Beach. KOCM simulcasts KSFR's programming.

Though station officials declined to give detailed information, the outlet's new jazz programming replaces techno-rock station MARS/FM which breathed its last last week. The format switch will take place on September 7.

Tanter, who is known to Los Angeles Lakers fans as the public address announcer for the team's home games, has programmed KACE/FM, KLIT/FM, KUTE/FM and KJLH/FM, all in Los Angeles. "We are pleased to welcome a professional of Lawrence Tanter's caliber to the new team," said station owner Ken Roberts.

Bisson Upped at Columbia

Columbia Records exec Todd Bisson has been promoted to National Director, Alternative Music Promotion. He was National Manager, Alternative Music Promotion.

Bisson, who is located in New York, will not only run Columbia's Alternative and Adult Alternative promotion department, but he will coordinate the efforts of the Sony College Rep Department and Progressive Music Marketing that "if you want to put 'Bullet' out as is, you can take it to another label." Tragedy feels that as the Ice-T situation flared up, A&M backed down on the song and eventually he complied with Cafaro's request. Although the cut will not appear on Black Rage, Tragedy has indicated that he is taking the same approach to "Bullet" as Ice-T is to "Cop Killer," and intends to distribute tapes of the song at concerts and perform it live.

Boo-Ya Tribe Co-Manager Ian Fletcher describes "Shoot 'Em Down" as a song "about what's going on in the streets of Los Angeles." WEA President Henry Droz told the Gavin Report that the Ice-T decision "set a new awareness, but I don't know that it set a precedent," and added, "WEA has never made any recommendations to any labels to pull songs—that's an A&R function." A spokesperson for Hollywood Basic related, "these were not ordinary circumstances. We were rushing to put this release in the marketplace to support Boo-Ya Tribe's performances on the Lollapalooza tour. Discussions about 'Shoot 'Em Down' threatened the timeliness of the release and all parties concerned agreed to pull the song rather than risk delays." The label declined to comment on whether the "Cop Killer" decision influenced theirs.

Neither Marcus Clemons, manager of Tommy Boy rapper Paris, nor Tommy Boy officials responded to our inquiries.

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

From its earliest days, two "T's" have gone together—teens and Top 40 radio. Sacrificing a loyal base of teen listenership has proven disastrous for way too many stations over the years. Today many programmers are still scratching their heads, wondering what happened and what they can do to recover.

Consultant Garry Wall, in his weekly newsletter "Media Madness," sends along some fascinating information, compiled by Northridge, Illinois-based Teenage Research Unlimited (TRU). TRU has completed ten years of studying teenage behavior and attitudes, and some startling changes have occurred.

Here's their Top Ten list: 1) TEENS ARE LESS MATERIALISTIC. In the past five years, equating money and success has declined by 50%. Only 32% of teens think money is important in 1992. 2) TEENS CARE MORE ABOUT SOCIAL ISSUES. Nearly two-thirds say that they care more about making the world a better place. Biggest issues: AIDS, drinking and driving, the environment. 3) TEEN ATTITUDES TOWARD FAMILY/RELIGION IN DECLINE. Though a majority still find both important, each issue finds teens 20% less likely to agree than five years ago. 4) RAP EMERGES AS A CULTURAL FORCE. Almost 80% of teens say that rap is "in," making it their favorite kind of music. 5) AFRICAN-AMERICAN INFLUENCE IS POWERFUL. Extending to entertainment and fashion as well as music; it's even spreading into mainstream television "Fresh Prince..." "In Living Color," "A Different World." 6) TEENS TEND TO PERSONALIZE THEIR OWN FASHION. Unlike past generations, today's teens tend to dress individually. As a result, teen fashions encompass many styles. 7) SPORTS ARE IN. Both for males and females. Ten years ago, it was mostly males and a few females. Today, most teens like sports. Boys average ten hours a week playing/attending sports; girls average six hours. 8) TEENS ARE ECONOMICALLY MORE POWERFUL. Since 1986, teen earning power has increased by 50%, and tops $95 billion annually. 9) TEEN POPULATION IS ON THE RISE. For the first time in seventeen years, the number of twelve-to-nineteen-year-olds is growing as a group. The census bureau projects this trend to continue until at least the year 2005. 10) ADVERTISERS ARE RECOGNIZING TEENS MORE THAN EVER. From MTV to teen magazines and other alternative advertising. Sponsors want the teen market. Radio doesn't get its share, and maybe it's because radio doesn't recognize the real value of teenaged listeners, or how to reach beyond media buyers.

Next week, Garry shares his views on the reluctance of owners and GMs to embrace the teen audience. He'll also be printing a special issue of "Media Madness" for those attending the NAB. I would especially urge you to get a copy and read his first commentary, "Re-thinking Research."

MD Chuck Tisa at EAGLE 106 Philadelphia flashes that THE HEIGHTS (band from Fox Network television show of the same name) are generating about thirty calls an hour. Fox has been playing the song in promos for the show and they've bought tons of radio time around the country. Buzz is getting loud and Capitol says it should be on your desk soon. Official ADD date is September 21st.

Also, an election year special is causing a lot of interest—"Hard Times" by FRESH BUSH AND THE INVISIBLE MAN on I.R.S. Will Bill Clinton demand equal time?

In my last article, I explored the concept of bias in probability surveys. We know there is bias in every survey. We just need to know what the nature of the bias is, and the degree that it might affect the results. Research companies routinely employ mathematical models to remove bias; however, my article also admitted that such bias remains.

I hear many broadcasters using terms like "truth" and "accuracy" when referring to the numbers printed in an Arbitron report. First of all, we don't know what the "truth" is. We believe the research companies are measuring radio listening behavior, but we don't know that for a fact. The last time the radio industry tried to validate radio listening measurement techniques was in 1965 with All Radio Methodology Study (ARMS). Much has changed in the radio industry and in society in the nearly thirty years since ARMS. It may be time to find out whether Arbitron's diary, or any other method, is really measuring the public's tuning behavior.

We can quickly learn the accuracy of the survey the way Arbitron measures accuracy. They look at data gathering as a process. They just calculate the actual number of human mistakes. For example, they may compare data entry work to the actual diary or check edits versus the Station Information files. They will always track to find out if the stated methodology was followed. Accuracy as used by many broadcasters connotes that the survey results are correct. Researchers use a term called "reliable" that measures the "goodness" of the number. Reliability answers the question as the chances of the same number occurring again if the survey was repeated. The back of the Arbitron book has a reliability table. For every cume and average quarter hour rating in the report, you can go to the trouble of calculating the range that number has. For example, a 3.0 rating may mean that in 95% of the cases should this survey be repeated, the resulting estimate will fall between 2.5 and 3.5.

So, the radio survey has bias. Most research companies want to remove as much bias as possible because they want to properly represent the population they are measuring. Can they remove all bias? No. Some bias cannot be accounted for. Human nature being what it is, we can at least say that a certain type of bias may be consistent from survey to survey. For example, the percentage of people who lie about their exact age. As long as it does not seriously affect radio listening estimates, it is tolerable.

How is bias removed? Another dirty word to radio broadcasters is applied here. "Weighting" is the mathematics used to remove bias.

by Rhody Bosley

YOU CAN'T SEE IT, BUT IT'S THERE

The process is called simple balancing. It considers certain attributes of the respondents that will not allow them to count for more than their fair share of the population. In an Arbitron radio survey the controls for bias are age, sex, race/ethnicity, and sampling using (county, portion of county, HDDBA, HDHA). These are called the "marginals." The process weights up or down the value of each diary based on the percentage of the population it represents. In the Arbitrends there is also balance for a month. No single month's sample can represent more than one-third of the three-month survey.

Check page 3A of an Arbitron Local Market Report. You'll note that for each demographic group there is an estimate of the population as a percentage of all those 12+. There are sixteen marginals for age and sex. You'll then see the percentage of diaries returned to Arbitron from each population group (% Unweighted). We know that radio listening behavior varies between men and women and by age group. Therefore, if any one group is over- or under-represented, it could distort the findings of the survey. Hence, if fewer diaries are returned from an age/sex cell than the percentage of this group in the populations, these diaries are weighted up. For example, if the population of Men 18-24 represents 6% of the total 12+ population, but only 4% of the unweighted in-tab percentage, these diaries are then weighted up 50% to adjust for the under-delivery of the sample for that age/sex cell.

There is also a marginal for each sampling unit within the Metro, TSA or ADI. Check page 2B to find out whether a particular sampling unit was weighted up or down. Compare the percentage of in-tab by sampling unit versus the percentage of population.

If you get the Station Mechanical from Arbitron, you will see that each diary has an individual weight which is the cumulative effect of the sample balancing process. This weight is called the Person-Per-Diary-Value (PPDV). You will learn that in relation to all other diaries that are in-tab, this diary represents this many "people." Notice the hedging remark in the previous sentence. This one diary's PPDV is relative to all other diaries in-tab.

The full name for this statistical process (for Arbitron trivia buffs) is "Iterative Marginal Weighting." In marginal weighting, the balancing is against 12+. When the computer calculates one marginal, it causes the other marginals to change. In order to balance against the population, the computer keeps refining the estimate. Each pass of the sample through the computer is called an "iteration." Most markets require about six iterations in order to balance.

Is all this sample balancing good or bad? Yes and no. It's good to remove the bias of differential return of sample by critical determiners of behavior like age and sex. It is good to remove the effect of differential return from ethnic and racial groups whose choice of stations and listening patterns are known to be different. It is also good to remove the bias of sampling unit and differential return. Stations that can cover only one part of a metro area versus all counties are mighty glad that some compensation is made to adjust the survey so that one portion of the metro versus another is neither over nor under-represented in the final analysis. Weighting is bad if the percentage of diaries from one of the marginal classes is extremely low by comparison, or if the actual number of diaries in-tab are so few as not to give a meaningful reading. We've all seen "Strange Numbers" from time to time. Too few diaries is often the case. And, their impact is heightened by them being weighted up.

This is just the tip of the iceberg in understanding "sample balancing" within the ratings system. At least you now have a better appreciation for the process of getting the diaries to represent the population. ●

NEW RELEASES

by John Martinucci

PM DAWN - I'd Die Without You (Gee Street/Laface/Arista)

The Boomerang Soundtrack is set adrift once again with help from the laidback duo PM Dawn. Prince Be and DJ Minutemix put together another beautiful ballad where smooth beats and piano patter create a dreamy atmosphere that could easily find you taking a mental vacation.

EnVOGUE - Free Your Mind (Atco/EastWest America)

Ever since I saw Cindy, Terry, Dawn and Maxine 'rock the house' on Saturday Night Live with a hard-hittin' version of "Free Your Mind," I've been sold on it. After talking to some of the 17 programmers who added EnVogue this week, I decided that if any of you guitar-shy questionables played any of Michael Jackson's guitar-laden tracks, Janet's "Black Cat" or have contributed to the Isley Brothers success, then these fiercely funky divas have three words for you—"Free Your Mind."

JOE PUBLIC - I've Been Watchin' (Columbia)

Joe Public is coming with the third from their self-titled debut album. The foursome keeps it coming with a hip-hop flavored R&B groove laced with a helluva hook.

KRIS KROSS - I Missed The Bus (Ruffhouse/Columbia)

The two Chris have been heating the airwaves since their debut back in February. "I Missed The Bus" is the third release from their multi-platinum album, Totally Crossed Out. The duo's braggadocio style is put on hold as they comment of the mishaps of missing the bus. Check it out: Kris Kross (who are pushing 13!) already have a biography out. It's available in your local hip bookstore.

THE "HALLELUJAH!" CHORUS (Various Artists) - HALLELUJAH! (Reprise)

Quincy Jones conducts an all-star chorus featuring performers from the secular and Gospel music worlds. Because there's so much talent contributing to this powerful track, there's just not enough space to list names. Adapted and composed by Michael O. Jackson and Take 6's Mervyn Warren and Mark Kibble, this lead selection is part of the Handel's Messiah, A Soulful Celebration project whose proceeds will benefit the Children's Defense Fund. Prepare to be uplifted.

Music for the Contemporary Adult in 1992

It's the summer of 1992. That means anyone who was a fan of Top 40 radio in its early days (the mid-fifties) is, at the very least, in his or her mid-forties. Chances are that person has outgrown today's Top 40 and has sought refuge in other forms of contemporary music radio. If recent reports can be believed, Adult Contemporary, the most listened to music format in American radio, has absorbed the fallout over the past decade.

Yet Adult Contemporary radio is perceived as a format with relatively insignificant impact on music sales. The format is still in search of a meaningful identity, and still suffers from being defined by its detractors by what it doesn't play rather than by what it does play. Such perception is hardly universal, but there's enough of a consensus to prevent the format from claiming its appropriate place in the hearts and minds of the record industry.

The "conventional wisdom" goes something like this:

- A/C radio has no demonstrable enthusiasm for the current music it plays. Few currents are played per hour and those chosen are already proven and are "risk-free."
- A/C radio listeners don't spend much money on pre-recorded music or live concerts, nor do they watch much MTV or VH-1.

• The only remaining activists among adults who patronize new music are Country fans. All other adults want classic oldies.

• Adults are not made to feel comfortable in record stores and those adults who do patronize retailers are only there to continue their conversion of favorites from vinyl to compact disc.

Some of the above "wisdom" is, unfortunately, still true. The format is not current-driven, as most successful A/C stations win by playing more music from 1991 and earlier than from 1992. A/C can, and does, become a validator of certain adult-appealing records by its desire and ability to play the true format hits, not for weeks at a time, but for many months at a time, whereas its more youthful competitors, such as Top 40, burn hits to a crisp and often have to retire even great records a few weeks after introduction.

The commonly held belief that adults recently re-entered the marketplace only to convert their vinyl to compact disc is true, but changing at the same time. Adults are slowly regaining confidence in retailers, and their faith in the technical excellence of the hardware has completely re-awakened the recently disenfranchised audiophile who had given up on vinyl and didn't accept the metal cassette as a fair substitute.

According to recently published data on pre-recorded music sales in the U.S., 58% of all dollar volume in sales is attributed to adults over the age of 25, and nearly 40% of all sales were made to persons over 30 years of age. When you consider that this is a nearly $8 billion industry, the adult must become a target of any intelligent record company.

Since we last took space in this magazine to create a forum for A/C radio, perhaps the biggest single positive statement made about the music has come from within the corporate bosom of major record companies as many—not all but many—have given capable men and women the title Vice President of Adult Contemporary Music. We salute the companies on their wisdom and are happy to see some parity coming to play within the hierarchy of companies who have had VPs in lesser formats for decades.

We recently polled national Adult Contemporary promotion executives at the leading record companies on these and other A/C-related issues and found, not surprisingly, that conventional wisdom comes up short on reality.

Adult Contemporary radio does sell music and can do so in large numbers. Among the scores of recent examples cited were:

Natalie Cole's Unforgettable With Love album

Bonnie Raitt's Nick of Time and Luck of the Draw albums

Jennifer Warnes' "Rock You Gently" single

Bette Midler's "Wind Beneath My Wings" single

k.d. lang's "Constant Craving" single and Ingenue album

Beth Nielsen Chapman's self-titled debut album

Celine Dion & Peabo Bryson's "Beauty And The Beast" single

Kenny Loggins' Leap Of Faith album

John Secada's "Just Another Day" single

Denny Mosesman of Warner Bros./Reprise notes, "There is no question that A/C radio sold Beth Nielsen Chapman. We had no video, no tour, no TV exposure, no Top 40 airplay and we sold well over 200,000 albums. I can give you a list of markets where sales immediately followed airplay on certain A/C radio stations. The fact that some A/C stations refused to play Beth in light of this information is truly surprising to me."

Claire West, Geffen's National A/C/NAC/Jazz Promotion Director, besides citing numerous examples of acts broken at A/C radio, notes the secondary importance of A/C radio as co-supporters, along with Top 40, in the development of such format staples as Richard Marx, Elton John, Mariah Carey, etc. Says West, "When an artist breaks at A/C...they stay broken because of the time and effort it takes to establish an artist at the adult level."

"Retailers have responded by changing the look and feel of their stores, making them more consumer-friendly."

-- JERRY LEMBO

The survey came to the conclusion that it would be more healthy for Adult Contemporary music if radio could find ways to play more artists more often. One of the most severe criticisms of A/C radio is its unwillingness to play unproven music often enough for it to prove itself. And equally frustrating is the mixture of "too much" older music at the expense of "fresh" new music. RCA's Bonnie Goldner, a Vice President of Promotion, is among the many who'd like to hear more new music. "It would provide more opportunity for songs to cross over to other formats," she said "Conversely, I have seen hit records, such as Alabama's, sell an additional 100,000 plus units when A/C airplay kicked in after the album had been a success at Country."

If you want to wind-up Denny Mosesman, ask him about the one thing that gets his goat. Denny will tell you, "I still can't believe so many A/C stations will not play a record because it has no Top 40 play. In many cases the A/C station is watching too closely a Top 40 station that has its own problems." Denny goes on to note that some major A/C stations are "afraid of being the only station in town on a particular record. It's very sad."

It's certainly in the record companies' best interest to sell more music. When asked what record companies thought A/C radio could do to further promote the success of adult music, the suggestions were wide ranging. Atlantic's Mary Conroy said, "Programmers need to develop a dialogue with the local record store. Let the manager know what records have been added to the playlist," and Epic's Lynn Forman suggested a special program on new music once a week. Columbia AC-tion Captain Jerry Lembo's laundry list included: "Work aggressively with local label reps for time buy support on core and developing artists. Sponsor in-store appearances and events. Identify music played on the station as a listener service. Publish a station playlist and distribute it at retail and remotes."

Also noted was radio's continued lack of on-air identification of new music. Laura Hinson of the PolyGram Label Group wonders if radio got the message during 1989's WHEN YOU SAY IT PLAY IT campaign. Hinson pleads with A/C radio to back announce and/or pre-announce new artists.

Admittedly, Adult Contemporary radio is a broadly-encompassing umbrella of infinitely different formatics. Common among the majority are these desires: To reach contemporary adults; to take audience away from and/or accept refugees from Top 40 radio; to provide a music intensive, familiarity-based playlist that creates a comfort zone for the post-adolescent radio listener.

The newest incarnation in the ever-widening spectrum of A/C is what's known as Hot A/C. No definition exists for "Hot A/C." From all appearances, the energy level is kicked-up a notch or more from more conventional A/C. Some, including yours truly, would call a majority of self-professed Hot A/Cs closet Top 40s. Ideally those Hot A/Cs could best be pegged as playing those songs that appeal to both traditional Top 40 listeners and true Adult Contemporary listeners. There's no secret that, with the advent of Rap and, to a lesser degree, Dance, some Top 40s have bailed on the traditional concept of true Top 40.

"A/C has gained so much recognition recently within the record companies due largely to the fact that we can break new artists through the format."

--KERRY WOOD
& BILL CASON

Irene Vargas of Warner/Reprise thinks Hot A/Cs play the artists who are true "mainstream Top Forty." Arista's Mark Rizzo praises those Hot A/Cs that credit their audience with "still having a pulse and wanting to hear some crossover music."

RCA's Goldner says these stations are "part of a broader movement to further fragment the format as a whole" and "are primarily concerned with adapting certain types of Top 40 records to their own programming." Elektra's Linde Thurman calls Hot A/Cs "the wave of the future."

Geffen's Claire West has identified the impact of Hot A/Cs. She says they appeal to the active record buyers and seem to put new music in the foreground.

The format's critical need to develop its own music and artists was articulated by RCA's Goldner: "It's important for A/C radio to develop its own new artists. A/C radio cannot depend upon Top 40 to develop the adult artists of the future. It would therefore be prudent for the format to take control of its own (musical) destiny and break its own artists (such as Warren Hill)." Atlantic's Conroy takes it a step further by warning, "If A/C doesn't develop and support adult-appeal artists, they will be forced with having to choose from more youth-oriented acts that Top 40 is supporting." A/C's recent efforts to develop its own music has gotten the attention of Mercury's Kerry Wood and Bill Cason, who proudly note, "The A/C format has gained recognition from record companies because we can break new artists through the format."

Noting the tremendous sales figures for Country acts like Garth Brooks, Wynonna Judd, Billy Ray Cyrus, etc., we wondered if record companies thought Country music was getting more attention at A/C radio these days. The opinions were mixed, ranging from the affirmation of Claire West to the reservation of Mary Conroy and A&M's notes that it's a response to today's economic and social climate. "Times are tough and adults are responding to the lyrics and simplicity of melody that definitely shows through in Country music." West also offered a note of caution: "The only danger I see with this movement is the blurring of musical lines that obviously distinguish two very competitive formats."

Conroy feels that although there is no apparent move toward Country music at A/C radio, "There should be. If the artist enjoys high visibility (Garth Brooks, Wynonna, etc.) and the record fits, A/C shouldn't hesitate to play it. A&M's Paulini doesn't hear a specific trend toward Country but said, "There does seem to be a trend to produce Country records with more of a Pop feel, creating possibilities for crossover."

Even if A/C radio can and does motivate its listeners to shake disposable dollars out of their recessionary wallets, some of the better-known retailers and lesser-known mom 'n' pops have to re-invent themselves as professional retailers with an environment in which an adult music purchasers can feel comfortable. We wondered if the panel felt retailers were making a conscious effort to regain adult consumers.

Lynn Forman sees a big difference between two kinds of stores. Lynn says, "I've always believed that the mall stores cater more to adults than the free-standing store." Bill Cason and Kerry Wood think the average music retailer is still somewhat "intimidating" to adults—a point further confirmed by Claire West who spoke of the damage done by indifferent sales clerks, "Unfortunately, many record stores and chains have almost gone out of their way to blow off the adult buyer," she said.

Arista's Mark Rizzo has been there when "an adult consumer with money to spend didn't feel at home in a store filled with purple-haired employees." He further adds, "Putting adult-appealing product in a more convenient, more visible spot is a smart move." Columbia's Lembo cites the currently exceptional sales of Country music, Pop boxed sets, etc. as proof that retailers are coming around to making their floor adult-oriented. "Retailers have responded by changing the look and feel of their stores and clerks, making them more consumer friendly," he observed.

Warner Music Group Chairman Bob Morgado, though not interviewed for this piece, did set a fresh new tone during his keynote address at this year's National Association of Recording Merchandisers (NARM) convention in New Orleans, when he implored merchants to re-introduce themselves to a currently unattended mass of potential buyers. Morgado said, "Traditionally the music business has been content to let each successive generation of consumers ride off into the sunset as they age. We can no longer afford to allow that to happen."

Before our friends in A/C radio get upset with our rather one-sided look at a critical relationship, let us assure you that the Gavin Report has every intention of sampling radio executives' opinions on the state of A/C. We welcome comments and suggestions from radio, and promise to make similar space available for the other side of the story in an upcoming issue. Stay tuned. ●

*Reading, Writing and Eurythmics
by Ron Fell
with editorial assistance from Cyndi Hoelzle*

Little could we have known that the 1990 Eurythmics album, We Too Are One, would be the last from David A. Stewart and Annie Lennox. One of the eighties' most prolific and bountiful collaborations may have thrived and even succeeded on equal doses of contention, competition, friction and the violently creative mood swings of its twin towers.

The androgynous Scot, Annie Lennox, and her mystical partner, David, created such timeless classics as SWEET DREAMS (ARE MADE OF THIS), HERE COMES THE RAIN AGAIN and WOULD I LIE TO YOU?, and backed them up with adventurous videos and live performances. Though filled with creative differences the Eurythmic partnership endured because both Stewart and Lennox understood the fine art of giving their music marketable depth through shameless self-promotion and exotic, boldly visual performances.

While David's restlessness could be satisfied with outside production chores, Annie had no apparent outlet until the group played its last gig in Rio de Janeiro. At that point, Annie, who had recently married German filmmaker Uri Fruchtmann, decided to take some time off to have her first child, a daughter, Lola, now a year and a half old. Lola's birth seemed to re-vitalize Annie; she decided that developing a solo career should be her next move.

With her feet firmly planted in the future, Annie Lennox is out promoting her debut solo album, Diva, recorded with producer Stephen Lipson. The album's first single, WHY, has been widely embraced as one of the finest and most enduring singles of her entire career.

As the album's second single, WALKING ON BROKEN GLASS started to take off, I talked with a happy and self-assured Lennox.

ANNIE

RON FELL: Your solo album, Diva, comes after nearly a three-year absence from recording. When the Eurythmics broke up, did you have a solo career mapped out?

ANNIE LENNOX: No, not at all, far from it. I had no plans, and I didn't want to have any plans. I just had a nice empty diary which looked very healthy to me.

RF: How did you feel after the Eurythmics farewell concert in Rio?

AL: I felt a lovely sense of relief.

RF: How would you characterize the decade of collaboration between you and Dave—were you satisfied with the result?

AL: I was totally satisfied with it in the creative sense. I think it was incredibly fruitful, and despite all our differences and our difficulties, I think we managed extraordinarily well—we kept our heads above water while keeping sane and making music. I'm quite surprised, really, at the extent of our work and I think the quality of it was consistent.

RF: Which Eurythmics songs are you most proud of?

AL: I'm very fond of a song called "You've Placed A Chill In My Heart," which never struck a chord in terms of hit material here, but in terms of music and content I think it was an incredibly powerful piece of work. "Here Comes The Rain Again" was the song that really launched us in the international sense and I still really love that song. I think it works very well still, even though it was twelve years ago.

RF: Legend has it that that song was created in a half-hour session filled with total frustration between you and Dave.

AL: Yes, it was. Very often creative tensions do bring forth creative results, and very often those were the sort of situations we were in. Dave was always very enthusiastic, so I would be the one saying "no" and he would be the one saying "yes." Between the two of us, we created something that had some quality.

RF: You've said that writing lyrics for some of your songs is like doing a crossword puzzle.

AL: It depends. It's always very elusive, it's a very strange thing. Perhaps people think it's a simple process to sit down and write a song, but I've never found it to be so, I've always found it very exciting.

RF: There seems to be a completeness in the way you've been describing your professional breakup with Dave. You've said that it is not likely that the Eurythmics will ever play again. Is that still true?

AL: I would say so, yes.

RF: How different is it working solo?

AL: The writing process is different. When there is just you and the walls of the room that you're in and the blank piece of paper—I find it very daunting, frankly. But in another sense, once the ideas have been forthcoming, there is a certain sense of freedom, because I am ultimately responsible for the work that I do. So I don't have to be concerned with another person's tastes or agreeing with another person.

RF: Tell me about the album's producer, Steve Lipson. I don't know his work.

AL: Steve Lipson has worked a great deal with Trevor Horn, and he worked with Frankie Goes To Hollywood and Simple Minds. I hadn't actually heard of Steve myself, because I don't know who people are who do these kinds of things. But it was suggested to me that I meet him. We started to work together, and I think he was a very good choice.

RF: Different producers bring a different set of skills to the project—what do you think Steve's strengths are?

AL: Steve is a craftsman, and he's totally dedicated to the work at hand. He works incredibly hard and he's there at every moment. He's not someone who is on the telephone half the time. He's listening to the original ideas, making suggestions for arrangements at every stage of the song. He has an incredible work capacity.

RF: Has the birth of your daughter Lola changed you?

AL: Well, of course. The simplest way to answer that question is to say it's changed me as much as it changes anybody. To a degree, my life is much more stable. Not only because I have a child, but because I have a marriage that seems to have been working pretty well for the past four years. In that context I am supported very well emotionally. I don't have the instability of living my life out of suitcase like I had for so many years.

RF: Do you have any plans for touring?

AL: No.

RF: In the past, the Eurythmics created an album's worth of videos in advance. You've done that again with Diva.

AL: I see the video medium as being connected to what I do musically. Since I had no plans to tour, my manager, Simon Fuller, came up with the idea to make a longform video. It seemed to be the obvious thing to do. Sophie Muller, who directs the videos, and I are very good friends, and we have a very good understanding of each other. Our approach is very simplistic. We don't go in for elaborate storyboards and incredibly high budgets—in fact we do a lot of our work spontaneously. It wasn't a marketing ploy, just a way to get the songs across in a visual sense.

RF: You've always been visual.

AL: It's something that I'm naturally inclined to.

RF: What's next for you?

AL: I don't map anything out. I'm in a unique position. I can play the game my way, and that means that I can allow myself the luxury of being a human being, as opposed to being some kind of robot. It is a fantastic situation because I call the shots. That's quite special. I'm not saying that I am a dictator—it has nothing to do with that. I'm a realist; I realize that people do want to see me, but I never wanted to live this, and I've made that decision. I'm giving the record company the best that I can and they realize that. I have the benefit of going away and playing things by ear, as opposed to having these full diaries and schedules that just dictate your life. ●

How To Read & Use The Gavin A/C Pages

by Ron Fell and Diane Rufer

The Gavin Report established its A/C pages in 1967. At that time, a reporter panel of approximately fifty adult pop music stations were participating. Our research was tabulated in pencil on note pads and calculated on a manual adding machine. Many years later, our panel is up to more than two hundred and twenty-five stations and the information we receive is processed on a sophisticated Hewlett Packard office computer system.

Our research is only as good as the information we're able to input. Each of our reporting stations does its own research to determine what it plays, and how frequently. Most Gavin A/C stations report their currents in three rotations: HEAVY, MEDIUM and LIGHT. Stations also report their ADDS and all DROPS (records which have been reported in rotations previously but are being taken out of current rotations).

Once a station's playlist has been entered, our computer system gives each HEAVY rotation mention seven points, each MEDIUM mention five points, each LIGHT mention three points, each ADD one point and each drop (whether to recurrent or off-air entirely) minus one point.

The computer-generated data summaries allow us to rank the forty most active records in the format, thus creating the chart itself. Part of the necessary analysis done by the Gavin's A/C department (Diane Rufer and Ron Fell) is to interpret the growth and the fatigue of each record in its statistical profile and to determine its potential for continued growth. Any charted record the editors feel is likely to look better next week will have the artist's name in bold type with an underline. Thus, an underlined record is one which has the stats to actually have a higher number rank next week. There is a critical difference between an underline on Gavin and records highlighted in other trades and tipsheets. To the best of our knowledge, such highlighted records elsewhere are being designated for their performance that week and such a highlight is by no means a projection for the following week.

Beyond the chart itself are other critical points. The MOST ADDED may be the simplest and most understood category. Pure and simple, this category ranks the five most added records in the format that week.

The TOP TIP category is a record which, in the opinion of the Gavin A/C department, will be the next issue's highest chart debut. Since this category was initiated, we've been correct more than 90% of the time.

RECORD TO WATCH is a hunch call. A record chosen for this category is never an obvious play in Adult Contemporary radio. Such records are usually and unfortunately prejudged as being less than perfect for the format by many programmers. In our educated opinion, such prejudices should be re-evaluated. Often these RECORDS TO WATCH have proven themselves in other formats first or are just plain too good to ignore, even though their popularity in the format has yet to be validated. Quite often a RECORD TO WATCH will accumulate more than twenty ADDS the week following its designation as RECORD TO WATCH, and nearly all go on to prove themselves as significant chart plays.

CHARTBOUND records are those with enough early airplay and/or significant rotations commitments to chart the following week. Usually it takes more than 50 reports to make CHARTBOUND, yet on rare occasions, records with more than one hundred reports may still be in CHARTBOUND because they may not yet have the total points necessary to rank in the top forty of A/C stats.

UP & COMING represents other popular A/C records which have yet to make it to CHARTBOUND or the chart. The minimum number of stations required to make UP & COMING is twenty, but a record may not remain in the category if the number of DROPS exceeds the number of ADDS. Any record may re-debut in following weeks if it maintains more than twenty total stations and once again has more ADDS than DROPS.

INSIDE A/C is our attempt to give some personality to the statistics. In this section, we choose to highlight records that are extremely active. Often their mere movement doesn't tell the whole story.

A few years back, Gavin instituted the HIT FACTOR portion of our pages to create a means by which programmers can determine how well a record is doing once it has been played. HIT FACTOR is a percentage of those stations who've added a record that are committed to significant rotations. As an example: if a record is part of the reported playlist at 100 stations and among those 100 stations 30 stations report HEAVY rotation, 26 stations report MEDIUM rotation, 29 stations report LIGHT rotation and 15 stations report it as an ADD, the record's HIT FACTOR is calculated by adding only the number of HEAVYs and MEDIUMs together and dividing by the number of total stations. The math on that would be 30 plus 26 divided by 100 = 56%.

HIT FACTOR is Gavin's way of qualifying rather than quantifying information. We feel that the truest barometer of record's success is not in the accumulation of stations, but in the success ratio from only those stations who have played the record. Smart programmers will look to HIT FACTOR to judge a record's true performance.

Last, but certainly not least, is our PLUS FACTOR category. PLUS FACTOR is merely a ranking of record based on their weekly increase in HIT FACTOR. PLUS FACTOR reflects the conversion upward in rotation from LIGHT rotation and ADDS to significant rotation (HEAVY or MEDIUM).

We hope that the above explains to your satisfaction any questions you may have had about Gavin's Adult Contemporary section. If we haven't answered everything, please let us know. ●

A/CSTATS

Twice a year we like to look back on the performance of records that receive special certification on the Gavin A/C chart pages.

We look at the final peak performance of each week's MOST ADDED, TOP TIP and RECORD TO WATCH.

As you can see from the following tables, those records that were #1 MOST ADDED peaked at an average of #3 on the chart. That group included nine eventual #1's and only one record failed to make the Top Five.

TOP TIP, the record that the Gavin A/C department felt would be the highest chart debut the following week, averaged a peak of #7, including seven eventual #1's, and only one record failed to make it to a Top Sixteen peak.

The weekly RECORD TO WATCH is always a hunch call and never includes an obvious adult hit. It resulted in an average chart peak of #27. The following tables represent results for the first half of 1992.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN

Famous for his long live concerts, Bruce Springsteen's personal record is four hour and thirty eight minutes set on New Year's Eve 1980 at Nassau Coliseum on Long Island.

OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN

In the U.K., the Olivia Newton-John duet with John Travolta, YOU'RE THE ONE THAT I WANT, is still the fifth-biggest selling single of all time.

GARTH BROOKS

When Garth Brooks' album, Ropin' The Wind, sold five million copies in its first three months of release last year, it became the biggest and fastest selling non-Rock album ever.

WILSON PHILLIPS

After rejecting the names Leda and Gypsy, Wendy Wilson, Carnie Wilson and Chynna Phillips decided on the group name of Wilson Phillips.

BILLY JOEL

The new Billy Joel single, ALL SHOOK UP, the Presley classic from 1957, was written by Otis Blackwell who a year earlier provided Elvis with another huge hit, DON'T BE CRUEL.

PETER GABRIEL

Ralph Gabriel, father of singer/songwriter Peter Gabriel, helped develop the first Pay-Per-View cable television system in the world. The system, known as Dial-A-Program was created in the late 1950's in Hastings, England, but its patents expired before it could be properly exploited.

ANNIE LENNOX

Before launching her post-Eurythmics solo career, Annie Lennox had two opportunities to sing duets. In 1985, the white Soul diva sang SISTERS ARE DOING IT FOR THEMSELVES with Aretha Franklin and in 1988 she sang PUT A LITTLE LOVE IN YOUR HEART with the Reverend Al Green.

CAROLE KING

The 1971 album, Tapestry, Carole King's second solo album, remains as one of the biggest selling albums of all time, as sales have exceeded 14 million copies worldwide.

MEGADETH

The very first Megadeth album, "Killing Is My Business And Killing Is Good," released in 1985, featured a cover of THESE BOOTS ARE MADE FOR WALKING, the Nancy Sinatra hit. The Megadeth version can be heard on the soundtrack for the film "Dudes."

BOBBY BROWN

Robert Baresford Brown made his stage debut at the age of three when his mother reportedly shoved him on stage during an intermission of a James Brown concert in Boston. Eight years later he was a founding member of the group New Edition.

WAS (NOT WAS)

The next Was (Not Was) album will feature a Kim Basinger and Ozzy Osbourne duet.

SHAKESPEAR'S SISTER

Marcella Detroit of Shakespear's Sister used to be known as Marcy Levy, and a decade ago she was singing backup for the likes of Eric Clapton. Levy/Detroit is also listed as co-author of Clapton's LAY DOWN SALLY.

PETER CETERA

The first two times Peter Cetera released solo singles he went to number one. His debut came in 1986 with THE GLORY OF LOVE (from the "Karate Kid II" soundtrack). His follow-up, three months later, was THE NEXT TIME I FALL, a duet with Amy Grant.

HERB ALPERT

Herb Alpert's 1979 single, RISE, was the last instrumental to reach number one on the Gavin Report's Top 40 chart.

SWING OUT SISTER

Corinne Drewery and Andy Connell, better known as Swing Out Sister, scored their biggest hit to-date with their first single, BREAKOUT, in 1987. At the time, Swing Out Sister was a trio, with Martin Jackson as its other original member. Jackson left after the group's debut album.

DEF LEPPARD

In 1977 the group Def Leppard formed in Sheffield, England. They were originally known as Atomic Mass, but soon changed their name to Def Leppard after passing on a different, but more common spelling of Deaf Leopard.

BEACH BOYS

Beach Boys' producer Terry Melcher, a long-time friend of the band, is the son of actress Doris Day.

GUNS N' ROSES

W. Axl Rose's real name is either William Bailey or William Rose, a situation that comes from the fact that his biological father's last name was Rose, but he grew up in a family where the father's last name was Bailey. Axl is a nickname he adopted while playing in his earliest Lafayette, Indiana Rock bands.

I have always believed the the program director should be responsible not only for what is programmed but for the visceral impact a station has on the listener. This takes the PD into the realm of audio processing, and, for the most part, I've found chief engineers being receptive to the idea of PDs becoming involved in the station's actual sound. Nothing beats the teamwork of a good program director and a good engineer!

I've always been interested in ways new technology and new audio concepts can be applied to broadcasting. In the August 17, 1990 issue of the Gavin Report, I wrote about the Q-Sound spacial stereo enhancement technique. As it turned out, that was shortly before we began to see it used in mastering records. Q-Sound is a computer-directed re-imaging process that allows sound to seem to come from outside (and above) the sound field. But, as I pointed out to them, it has to be customized for each recording, and thus has no application in a radio station audio chain. (Subsequently, a couple of bad mixes, which cancelled the vocals in mono, have put Q-Sound under a bit of a cloud; but the process does not inevitably cause such problems, and wouldn't have in these cases if the engineers who mixed them had checked them in mono to be sure of broadcast compatibility.)

But today brings to your attention a device that appears to work when placed in an audio chain where inputs vary, suggesting it may have a place in broadcasting. In an industry where expensive "stereo enhancement" devices have been sold which, to my ear, often have little or no perceptible effect, this one could be revolutionary. But, so far, I have heard of no radio station experimenting with it, and I haven't had the

In the midst of their current sold-out U.S. tour, The Black Crowes performed for two hours at Toronto's G. Rose Lord Park for 75,000 fans, thanks to Q-107. The police estimated that the fans filed into the park at a rate of one thousand per minute for the few tunes, and the show had to be postponed for 45 minutes to allow the largest number of people to get settled in for the free concert. It was a peaceful day with an organized food drive whose donations exceeded all such previous events...

Skew Siskin (German slang for crazy bird) lead singer Nina C. Alice gave a call recently to share her excitement over her new Giant Records album and her tour. Alice has been working on her career for 15 years, writing and playing in various bands in Berlin. In 1981, she was playing drums in a punk band, but now, because she wants to react with the audience she's lead vocalist. Around 1989, guitarist Jim Voxx became part of Alice's dream, and he stuck with her through many demos and one of them ended up with Aerosmith manager Tim Collins and Bon Jovi manager Doc McGhee. About their first meeting, Alice remembers, "All of a sudden three limos pulled up in front of our basement studio in Berlin. We didn't know who they were chance to do so myself; so, at this point, I'm nudging it in your direction, and suggesting that if you have the opportunity to borrow the device or trade it out from an audio dealer in your area, and try it out, I would love to present the results here, good or bad.

It's the "Hughes AK-100 Sound Retrieval System." (SRS). Hughes is the aircraft company owned by GM, and although I don't know whether this technology is being used in General Motors' car radios yet, it has been incorporated successfully into a high-end Sony stereo TV receiver, to expand the stereo image beyond the close-spaced speakers necessarily found in stereo TV sets. In reading reports about this product (which lists at $449), the only drawback I have seen mentioned is a possible bass rumbling when used in mono. It's not clear whether this noise, if it exists, is the result of stereo processing of a mono signal, or a byproduct of mono decoding of a SRS-processed stereo signal. Either could be a problem for radio. In any event, this is something you would want to listen for if you elect to give this a try on the air.

Since the device has a fairly low input-overload ceiling, it would probably be placed after the program compressor, and before the peak limiter with the outputs an inputs adjusted to protect the unit, yet yield satisfactory modulation on the air.

The most thorough test of the device I have seen was done by Julian Hirsch in Stereo Review magazine. If you want to look it up in your local library, it's on pages 32 and 33 of the March, 1992 issue. Hirsch, who has been testing high fidelity product for longer than the majority of Gavin Report readers have been alive, and is highly respected in the field, commented that "the SRS processing had an unmistakable effect whose magnitude and specific characteristics depended on the relative and absolute settings of the CENTER and SPACE controls. To some degree, the processing did extend the sound stage. The resulting sound was certainly different, and it might well appeal to many listeners." The sound stage appeared extended mainly when the speakers were close together, which could mean the primary benefit might be for "boom boxes" (and perhaps in cars?), without—Hirsch seems to imply—much negative effect on those listening on conventional stereo systems or on headphones. This alone would be a considerable benefit for broadcasters, making the station stand out from others on some types of stereo receivers, without disadvantages on the rest.

It also seems clear from Hirsch's testing that overdoing the processing may make the sound bass-heavy in a way that may not improve station sound on all receivers. So if you're testing this device on the air, keep the effect subtle, and judge it primarily on "boom box"-type receivers, making sure the sound is not unfavorably colored on other receivers.

If you want more information, or can't locate the product in your area, write to Hughes Audio Products, P.O. Box 7000, Rancho Santa Margarita, CA 92688.

If you try it on the air, sent me your report and I'll print it! ● at first. We are very lucky and we can be very proud about the people and what they've done for us. We got a lot of help." The next step came in August, 1991 when they spent all their money to fly their equipment to Boston and showcase for a big group of record/management people which led to signing with Giant and finding manager Marty Wolff. About the record, Nina says, "It took three months in actual time, but it was spread over a longer period because bassist Nik Terry and drummer Jogy Rautenberg had normal jobs and I was scheduling gigs and publicity. Jim was earning money recording with other bands." Alice's biggest thrill so far was hearing her first single, "If The Walls Could Talk," sandwiched between Motorhead and AC/DC on Los Angeles radio. The band, and especially Nina, has a healthy appreciation for '70s bands and pay tribute to them on the album with songs like "Out Of Control" and of course the cover of the Kinks classic "All Day And All Of The Night." "My father listened to the Kinks a lot, and I saw them on "Saturday Night Live" fifteen years ago. I have a great respect for them. Actually, our band likes to cover old songs because it helps us to feel that feeling. It's like dedication to our idols—people we really respect a lot. It's helpful and healthy." When asked about her name she explained, "My Mom loved 'Alice In Wonderland—that's where the Alice came from. The "C" stands for Caroline, a great old Southern name. In 1967 my Mom was a wild hippie chick living in San Francisco's Haight Ashbury." There's no doubt that when you hear Nina C. Alice for the first time, you'll hear those strong rock and roll vibes and one helluva voice. The band's equipment is on the way to Los Angeles and after some warm-up dates in California, it's the wide open road for these crazy birds. Final note: Skew Siskin has just been confirmed to showcase the "Industry Night" of Concrete's "Foundation Forum," set for October 1, 2 and 3 at Los Angeles' Stouffer Concourse Hotel...If you're a fan of CBS's "Northern Exposure," be sure to watch the September 21 episode. Two songs by Skew Siskin will be played during the program, and an entire skit has been written into the script around Chris the DJ and this "very hot new German band." What a way to announce yourself to the world ... ●

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

SHADES-JOHN GREINER (ALTENBURGH)

John Greiner is one honkin', bar-walkin' tenor sax dude. He finds an odds 'n sods sheet thing by Wayne Shorter and Coltrane called "Thing In D Flat," and—presto—resurrects "Trane in three minutes fifty seconds flat. Shades is one street smart session, conjuring up the spunk of those low budget, yet pleasingly enthusiastic, foreign films that occasionally tower over the summer blockbusters. Standards are the game here, but his sound is as robust as a pint of bitter at closing time. Hmmm. Make that two pints. We like the brooding original, "Shades." Looking for something charmingly obscure? Try "Like Someone In Love," recorded live on JG's DAT at a Jazz pub in Wausau, Wisconsin. Blow the roof off it, John.

JUST BETWEEN US - NORMAN BROWN (MOJAZZ/MOTOWN)

Mo better, mo Jazz, mo Norman Brown! A new guitar star is born! Out of the gate with the opening "Stormin'" (as opposed to simply "Breezin'"), newcomer Norman Brown wields his axe impressively. Using a combination of octaves, bop tones and tasteful pyrotechnics, Norman Brown juxtaposes his Jazz with a big fat set of contemporary studio trax. Not since George Benson have we heard such an impressive bridge of traditional meets people-pleasing feelgood. By track six, "Too High," hold on to your pacemaker as Brown trades licks with no less than Stevie Freaking Wonder (backed by Boyz II Men), and stands his own ground in an exciting shootout. The drums are kicking! Stevie is wailing on harp and singing the track, making "Too High" more like a lifetime achievement than merely a cover. We enjoyed Just Between Us practically from stem to stern. The soloing is superb throughout—one of those rare examples of traditional playing taking the direct route to the hearts and souls of the people. Easily one of the year's best AA releases!

YOUR MOVE - 29TH STREET SAXOPHONE QUARTET (ANTILLES/ISLAND)

This is the sixth 29th Street Saxophone Quartet release since the group formed in 1982. What makes their albums extraordinary is that sans rhythm tracks, lucky listeners can really understand how special great saxophone playing can be. Of all the saxophone quartets, few have swung so high on the agenda. Songs like "Just One More Thing" show what a national treasure Ed Jackson, Bobby Watson, Rich Rothenberg and Jim Hartog are.

EXCHANGE (MESA BLUEMOON)

One of our very favorite keyboard duos has always been Exchange. You can always count on them to release more of their "mini life soundtracks." With so many hacks ruthlessly bastardizing synth music, it's precious to have the few out there actually doing it right—using the best balance between serenity and drama. Possibly feeling the need to expand, Steve Sexton and Gerald O'Brien have incorporated five vocal pieces (counting the opening "oohs and ahhs" heard on "A State Of Grace" and the spoken words of "In This Place"). However, while there is a shortage of male AA vocals, we still can't help going back to "future classic" Exchange material like "Beyond Reach" or "The Last Romance." I can hear this now, blaring through our rent-a-car speakers, as the Zimmermen navigate the L.A. freeways, listening to The Wave at full blast. Also try "Islands" and the beautiful "Meridian."

2000 - CUSCO (HIGHER OCTAVE)

Cusco, a group headed up by music publisher Michael Holm and keyboardist/arranger Kristian Schultze, releases their most ambitious project to date. Like Cusco's 1988 debut, Apurimac, which was inspired by a trip to the source of the Amazon River, 2000 is comprised of ten themes Cusco composed for one Heinz Sielmann, to be used on his television series on the plight of wild animals and the changes in nature over the last thirty years. This time around, Cusco's music is bolstered by strings, brass and woodwinds.

Love Will Turn You Around

On a recent radio meet 'n' greet through Baltimore, Radney Foster and Arista's Denise Nichols took time out to attend a Baltimore Orioles baseball game. Radney (left)—a baseball nut—was thrilled to find out that Orioles catcher Chris Hoiles is a huge Country music fan, and was even more thrilled when Chris took him on a tour of the O's clubhouse.

ANDREW'S AFTERMATH...Hurricane Andrew certainly took its toll last week. Johnny Walker at KMDL-Lafayette reports that their tower was knocked down during the storm and they were off the air for almost a week. But we're already hearing stories about radio gearing up to help Andrew's victims. At WFMX-Statesville's 3rd annual Country Homecoming Concert on September 12, they are setting up barrels for people to deposit their loose change and calling it "Ante Up For Andrew." WCTQ-Venice—who fortunately weren't hit by Andrew—joined in the relief effort, sending supplies and helping to fly nurses in to the hardest hit areas.

RADIO HAPPENINGS...Craig Cantey is the new Music Director at WSCP-Pulaski. Dan Dunn has moved over to sales...The owners of KFMS-Las Vegas are buying crosstown KEYV, and, until FCC approval, will be taking over the station on Labor Day on an LMA basis. No word on the format yet, but KFMS's Doug Shane has been promoted to corporate VP and KEYV GM Tom Humm will now manage both stations...Congratulations to the good folks at WPOC-Baltimore on being named the CMA Large Market Station of the Year. CMA Award Show co-host Reba McEntire, who was in the area, came to the station to make the announcement...Congratulations also to John Crenshaw, who's been promoted to APD at WSSL-Greenville...The Country Crew sends its best wishes to WRKZ-Hershey's Dandalion, who is recovering from surgery...KJUG-Tulare has a new morning man. Dave Daniels (aka Dave Williams at KFRG-San Bernardino) takes over the slot, while PD Larry Santiago moves to middays.

NEW RELEASES

by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

MARK CHESNUTT - Bubba Shot The Jukebox (MCA)

Well, the wait is over. The wackiest tale from Chesnutt's Longnecks and Short Stories is upon us. Mark is definitely up to the challenge, confidently singing even the stranger lines. Supersonic Country.

BROOKS AND DUNN - Lost And Found (Arista)

It looks like Brooks and Dunn's platinum debut album is about to yield another smash. The fifth single off the collection comes on slow and sly, quickly drawing you in.

JEFF KNIGHT - Someone Like You (Mercury)

We were hooked by the intriguing storytelling of Knight's first two singles. "Someone Like You," a sweet, catchy love song, will hopefully put the spotlight on this modern day Roger Miller.

STACY DEAN CAMPBELL - Baby Don't You Know (Columbia)

We can't help it—this record makes us swoon. Campbell sings with a heartbreaking vulnerability that fits this Jamie O'Hara song perfectly.

CLINTON GREGORY - Who Needs It (Step One)

A honkytonk lament from the man with the silver fiddle. You ask, Who needs it? Judging from the early adds this week, the answer is clear: radio.

TIM MCGRAW - Welcome To The Club (Curb)

We really liked "Holiday In," McGraw's first single, but unfortunately it got lost in the fog. His second effort is even stronger and it looks like the wheels are turning this time.

NASHVILLE HAPPENINGS...Congratulations to our pal Nancy Richmond who has been promoted to Southwest Country Regional Promotion Manager for Columbia, based in Dallas. No replacement has been named...It was a very special evening for selected industry folks when Kathy Mattea performed an acoustic set of material from her upcoming album at the Bluebird Cafe in Nashville last Tuesday night...Two labels have new offices. Mercury's new address is 66 Music Square West, Nashville, TN 37203, 615-320-0110 and fax 615-327-4856. Atlantic's new address is 1812 Broadway, Nashville, TN 37203, 615-327-9394 and fax 615-329-2003.

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

FREDDIE JACKSON

The newly-svelte Freddie Jackson has lost more than forty pounds during the past year.

LIONEL RICHIE

ENDLESS LOVE, the magical duet between Lionel Richie and Diana Ross, still has the distinction of being the biggest selling single in Motown Records' history.

MICHAEL W. SMITH

A decade ago, Michael W. Smith was playing piano and writing with and for Amy Grant. Of his early compositions, FIND A WAY, was a hit for Amy in 1985.

ERIC CLAPTON

Eric Clapton's nickname, "Slowhand," was given to him in 1963 by Giorgio Gomelsky, the Yardbirds then-manager only days after Clapton was hired to replace guitarist Top Topham in the group.

AL JARREAU

Fifty-two-year-old Al Jarreau didn't record his first album, We Got By until he was thirty-five.

RICKY VAN SHELTON

Legend has it that while growing up in Grit, Virginia, another Ricky Shelton lived in the same area and to avoid confusion with things like mail, the soon-to-be-popular Ricky Shelton added his middle name, Van, to make things easy for everyone. Thus, his last name is really Shelton, not the Dutch-origin "Van Shelton."

JETHRO TULL

Those Heavy Metal maniacs, Jethro Tull, should lock up next year's Grammy Awards for hard rockin' if their new live album, A Little Light Music is released in the U.S. before the NARAS deadline, which is the end of September. The album was recorded earlier this year in Europe and the Middle East.

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

SLIDE ON THIS - RONNIE WOOD (CONTINUUM)

While it's an obvious and shameless comparison, Ronnie Wood's Slide On This seems to have been recorded in a similar spirit as Keith Richard's first solo outing. Both push on the envelope of blues rock in an exciting and "out" fashion. While there are obvious pleasers like "Josephine" and the soulful "Somebody Else Might," at this point in his career Wood isn't afraid to experiment with tones, grooves and song structures. No doubt about it, Slide On This contains some pocket groove songs like "Show Me," but it's the experimental stuff like "Ain't Rock N' Roll" (featuring scraps of U2) that keeps the listener on his or her toes. Even the slide solos push the parameters of intonation. In the past, Ronnie Wood has had a tendency to record his records with a sloppy swagger, as if there's a party at Woody's house. While Slide On This does have a festive atmosphere, the tight miking (again, like Keith's solo outing) keeps the music intimate and honestly accountable. No aeroplane hanger mixes allowed.

"I LOVE YOU PERIOD" - DAN BAIRD (DEF AMERICAN)

After an unlikely bout with platinum success in 1986, the Georgia Satellites issued two more albums and then, as leader Dan Baird admits, "I had a real bad attitude so I fired myself." The quotable Baird is back in spades with more of his Faces-induced boogie, this time under the executive helm of Def madman Rick Rubin ("Here's a man who wanted to reunite Foghat, so you've got to figure he likes things basic."). Baird obviously still worships in the church of Every Picture Tells A Story. "I Love You Period" has that clever Rod Stewart/Jack Daniels/Dutch Cleanser grit. Punctuated lines of the week "I love you period/Do you love me question mark/please please exclamation point/I want to hold you in parentheses."

WHY WE FIGHT - JOHN WESLEY HARDING (SIRE/REPRISE)

Having lived with this one for a few weeks, I've come to appreciate British songwriter John Wesley Harding's literacy. Throughout Why We Fight, each song is a freestanding story and style, with a recurring references to God and religion. Harding is currently transplanted in the Bay Area, and Why We Fight is his tribute to quite a few American styles, as he attempts to climb out from under all of those Elvis Costello/My Aim Is True comparisons. Harding seems to have gotten the hang of America, as songs like "The Truth" possess a zany yet authentic denim sensitivity, including describing God's voice like this: "It wasn't the voice I'd expect to hear/It was thin and unclear like Richard Gere." "Ordinary Weekend" is a wordy, uptempo talking blues. Produced by Los Lobo Steve Berlin, Why We Fight is another example of a dedicated outsider's admiration for the kind of homeless American-rooted folk style we tend to take for granted.

"BENEATH THE DAMAGE AND THE DUST" - PETER HIMMELMAN (EPIC)

Add the word prolific to prophetic when you're describing Peter Himmelman. He's relentless about cranking out those songs, as well he should be. I'd rank him as one of the finest unrecognized writers in America. Here's proof. Check out the electric version followed by the acoustic piano rendition. Guitars and pianos aside, the song itself is a beauty.

"BIG GOODBYE" - GREAT WHITE (CAPITOL)

As Great White themselves proclaim over and over on the chorus, "no more lies." "Big Goodbye" (especially the superior 4:18 edit) play it straight from the hip. The chords are big, the chorus infectious, the mix tidy and sweet. If, like me, you find bleached blonde metal bands one of your guilty pleasures, you'll like this one.

MR. REALITY (SBK/ERG)
Two things I like about Mr. Reality. One is that they describe themselves as an "acoustic rock band." The other is that they're willing to take the risk of not releasing a predetermined emphasis track. It really doesn't matter, since "In My Yard" is surfacing as the consensus. Mr. Reality come from New Jersey, and like the Bruces and Jovis before them, they like to mix a little of that acoustic strum to their brand of power rock. Disenchanted with power chords, songwriter/guitarist Gordon Brown, bassist Rob Tanico and singer Peter Scherer have taken a refreshing off-road path.

THE PAHINUI BROS. (PRIVATE MUSIC)

Believe it or don't, the name Pahinui is whispered in reverence around the hallowed halls of Gavin. It was in the 70s that Ron Fell turned us on to the magic of slack key. Not long after, brother Keith Z. went to Hawaii and, in lieu of flowered leis and macadamia nuts, brought back a pile of slack key albums (with Ry Cooder performing on them even back then). As every Hawaiian worth his or her hula dollars knows, musician/highway worker Gabby Pahinui was the undisputed high priest of slack key guitar. In fact, the fear was that Gabby would leave this world without passing on his legacy. Well, it looks like the family lineage has saved the art form. Joining the Pahinui Brothers are luminaries like Cooder, David Lindley, Jim Keltner, Dwight Yoakam and digital master recorder Lee Herschberg. Dig the Hawaiian version of John Lennon's "Jealous Guy."

 "SEEN THE DOCTOR"/
 "STRANGE SEASON"

Resourceful fans can gather up to four new trax from two radio EP's floating around. "Seen The Doctor" is rockin' and Beatlesque. "Strange Season" is a more of an acoustic alternative rock entry.

ALTERNATIVE INSIDE

BY LINDA RYAN

Well, this year's Reading Festival was a cold, wet and muddy affair—and I loved every minute of it. English weather sucks in a major way. I was miserable while I was there, but now that I'm in a warm, dry office thinking about it all, I had such an excellent time. I know, I know—I should just move there and stop waxing romantic about it.

Someone else who should move there is MATT PINFIELD. You don't understand just how big a star this guy is until you walk down the street with him and watch Wonder Stuff fans recognize him from the video, point to him, wave at him and do double-takes as he walks by. It was hilarious! And by the way—the new Pinfield T-shirts (Red Hot Chili Pinfield) have hit the streets!

Ten bands who seriously rocked my world: 1) THE WONDER STUFF. Nothing new about that, I know, but the guys brought comedian VIC REEVES onstage and did "Dizzy." I 'bout near died. 2) THE CHARLATANS—thank you very much, indeed! They even did "Indian Rope"—their very first single. 3) L7—played in the rain on Sunday and ruled! 4) TEENAGE FANCLUB—also played in the rain on Sunday, and did Camper Van Beethoven's "Take The Skinheads Bowling." 5) BJORN AGAIN—did a set of covers by the 'seminal alternative group' ABBA, and I loved every minute of it. 6) SUEDE—I had to see these guys because of all the hype. For the most part, they lived up to it. 7) MEGA CITY FOUR—set the tone for a good time right from the get-go. Awesome. 8) PJ HARVEY—an amazing performance! 9) THE SULTANS OF PING F.C.—have to be seen to be believed. "Where's Me Jumper?" nearly brought the tent down. 10)

SHONEN KNIFE—the love between them and REDD KROSS wasn't lost on the audience, who worshipped both bands accordingly.

BAND WHO WOULD BE KING—It's just not in the cards for me to see EUGENIUS play live. The second stage/tent had to be restrained due to foul weather on Sunday, and their show was cancelled. I also missed THE 25TH OF MAY for the same reason. Why'd I bother getting out of bed so early, then?

I came back to a pile of mail that I have yet to sort through completely, but this is pretty weird. The first three packages I opened contained the SOFT BOYS collection, THE PLIMSOULS collection and a JUST SAY YESTERDAY CD. Can you say "time warp"? And damnit if I don't love them all!

Look for Gavin's second Alternative video compilation to arrive in your mail in about three weeks! Watch me make a ham out of myself, and abuse me accordingly.

I'm glad to hear that, even though they took apart the entire station in preparation, Hurricane Andrew never hit New Orleans' WTUL. Better safe than sorry, even if it was a bitch to put it all back together!

to bet makes more appearances at the top of critic's year-end lists than any other—and with good reason. Most of the songs on Copper Blue have that sort of sugar-coated, barbwire-kisses vibe that endeared many a heart to Husker Du. And while I think Mould's solo work was underappreciated, if the songs on Copper Blue are anything to go by, I think it's given him a certain confidence about his songwriting. He's certainly turned in an articulate, passionate performance on this one! Needless to say, this is the album you'll play at the office, at home and in your car. Rock-solid. Favorites include "Helpless," "A Good Idea," "If I Can't Change Your Mind," "Hoover Dam" and "The Act We Act." This album makes a jet-lagged, two steps behind Tuesday bearable—and there just isn't a greater compliment than that! LINDA RYAN

CHRIS HARFORD - "LIVING END" (ELEKTRA)

What many of you will notice on first listen to Chris Harford's single "Living End" is his unusual vocal style. I think it's safe to say that's what attracted Elektra when they saw him play at the New Music Seminar in 1991. Hey, there really is a Santa Claus! Although he may be unknown to some (fans of the mid/late eighties band Three Colors will remember him), Chris has an impressive list of guest artists on his debut album (Richard Thompson, Loudin Wainwright, members of Ween, The Proclaimers, etc.), which leads me to believe that they've been privy to something special that, until now, has been kept under wraps. Give it a listen—or two! LR

MISS WORLD - "THE FIRST FEMALE SERIAL KILLER" (ATLANTIC)

Here's another debut offering with an impressive "who's who" line-up. Miss World is fronted by the ex-Spiritual Cowboy Jonathan Perkins who enlisted the steady chops of (ex-Pretenders) Martin Chambers, with Jimmy Taylor and Peter Noone rounding out the band. With it's killer intro, the drums initially seduce you and keep you rockin' steady for nearly four minutes. Of course, Jonathan Perkins' vocals have a quirkiness about them that will captivate you on first listen—the same way you were hooked the first time you heard John Astley's "Jane's Getting Serious." And that song went on to sell millions of bottles of ketchup for Heinz! Yes, I think you'll like this one. LR

SHRIEKBACK - "THE BASTARD SONS OF ENOCH" (WORLD DOMINATION)

Shriekback returns with another dark, dungenous dance-pop track guaranteed to get you moving in a manner that only Shriekback can. The band's strength has always been their ability to make industrial-leaning dance good enough—pop enough—for radio and the public at large. With bands like Ministry and Nine Inch Nails breaking new ground at radio, I don't think anybody's going to mind that "The Bastard Sons Of Enoch" isn't as overtly catchy (read: commerical) as some Shriekback singles have been in the past. There are five mixes to chose from, so put on your dancing shoes and pick your poison! LR

MARY'S DANISH - AMERICAN STAND (MORGAN CREEK)

Rolling up like a pack of hogs on a blistering high-noon, Mary's Danish is back in town. With Julie Ritter and Gretchen Seagers' growling/honey harmonies on top and the rest of the band rocking underneath, this album offers much more than "standard" fuel. Take a pilgrimage to the "faith dome explosion" with "God Said" or let yourself be driven through "Leave It Alone"—a relentless kiss-off song. I like the smokey/bluesy "O Lonely Soul, It's A Hard Road" and the cool, sweet harmonies of "The Living End," but also check out "Porcupine," "Weeping Tree," "Under Water" and the unlabeled fourteenth track—a Thelma And Louise-type version of "I Fought The Law." Hell—try 'em all, but watch out—this American Standard just might run you down. BLANEM. MALL

SHINEHEAD - Sidewalk University (Elektra Entertainment)

I love Shinehead. Really. He has a way with words, he mixes genres with ease and his albums, like a John Irving novel or a Whoopi Goldberg joke, get you smiling. However, when you realize the seriousness of some of his messages, you wonder just what it is you're smiling about. That's how well Shinehead sucks you in. Sidewalk University's opening track and single, "Try My Love," is part rap/part new jack swing and cleverly cops a line from a Del-Fonic's song—see if you can find it. "Friendly Advice" quotes Bob Marley and "The Race Of Life" incorporates—of all people—Paul Simon. Also check out the title cut, then move on to "I Can Make It Right" and the re-worked versions of Sting's "Englishman in New York" (called here "Jamaican In New York"), Paul McCartney's "Let 'Em In" ("Let Them In") and Stevie Wonder's "I Just Called To Say I Love You." Isn't that how this started? I have to say it again. I love Shinehead. This'll be up there when I remember 1992's best. BEVERLY MIRE

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

B-52's - Tell It Like It T-I-IS (Reprise) By now, the trademark singing style of Kate Pierson, Fred Schneider and Keith Strickland have become a staple at Top 40 and Alternative radio. If you're in a good mood, they make you feel ever better and if you're down, they're likely to bring on a smile. Last time around, it was Don Was getting the nod as producer, but this time it's Nile Rodgers' turn. Each producer has made this free-wheeling trio's music sparkle.

JON SECADA - Do You Believe In Us (SBK/ERG) With competition as fierce as ever for any newcomer, it's quite an accomplishment when a debut effort is received the way Jon's has been. Aided by producer Emilio Estefan, he virtually exploded onto the Top 40 and A/C scene. The former Miami Sound Machine singer/songwriter now builds on his initial success with this sensational follow-up.

UTAH SAINTS - Something Good (London/PLG) Whoever said sampling isn't an art hasn't checked out this outrageous track put together by two club deejays from London. Energized by a sample of Kate Bush's "Cloudbusting," Jez Willis and Tim Garbutt turn in a production bound to get any listener's attention immediately. ADDED at KS104 Denver this week.

CE CE PENISTON - Inside That I Cried (A&M) After three uptempo releases, some may wonder if it's possible to slow the former Miss Black Arizona down. Well, finally, here's the answer in this soft, pretty yet mournful plead about a final attempt to hold onto that special love. Annette M. Lai informs me it's one of CeCe's personal favorites.

CROSSOVER PICK

SPIN DOCTORS - Little Miss Can't Be Wrong (Epic) Best described to me as Party/Pop Rock, this week's RECORD TO WATCH is one part Black Crowes, one part Tom Cochrane, but most of all totally original and totally exciting. Surprisingly, New York's New School Of Jazz was the launching pad for this crew who already boast impressive retail action. Top Ten at Album radio, it's just the right prescription for Top 40 right now.

ERIC CLAPTON - Unplugged (Duck/Reprise)

The whole MTV Unplugged concept is now becoming an industry unto itself, as any musician with real chops has to prove it can be done, unplugged and not wired. As the antithesis to the infamous "trackdates," a form of performance well-known to MTV and its summer roadshows, unplugged performances reduce the star to the basics and with that comes our opportunity to witness the performance in an intimate environment. Clapton's presentation is a natural, given his certified qualifications as a master guitarist and a curator/preservationist of American roots rhythm and blues. Lead by the recent hit single, TEARS IN HEAVEN, and backed up by the acoustic undertake of Derek and the Dominos' classic LAYLA, this set gets its edge from the assumed spontaneity and improvisation. Those qualities are mixed with the intimacy and the journeyman's knowledge of each song's inner strengths and meanings, which are best projected in an acoustic setting. Another bonus is the healthy ratio of guitar pickin' to singin'. Certainly, in the modern era, Clapton has lived or died by his vocals and here we're only treated to one pure instrumental, the delicate SIGNE. But his resurrection of awesome blues standards by such Depression icons as Robert Johnson and Big Bill Broonzy makes this project vital and reverential in its essence.
