STEVE RIVERS AND FRANKIE BLUE
LEAD BY EXAMPLE,
PROGRAMMERS PICK THE HOTTEST
STATIONS IN THE COUNTRY, AND GAVIN SPINS OUT NEW CHARTS.

This Week.....

We don't need no education...we don't need no thought control...Rock and roll has always been about breaking rules. Radio, seeking to reflect the music and culture, tries, too, to rebel against the teachings of the pioneers, those who came up with the first Top 40 surveys, the first rotations, the theories about playing the hits and saying what you're playing. With the massive changes that have taken place in radio in recent years, more programmers are beginning to wonder: Is it time to get back to the basics? In the view of two whose views should count, it's high time.

Steve Rivers and Frankie Blue

have been winners for many years and several stations, and, in this issue's continuing focus on Top 40, they lay out their thoughts on how to put the "top" back into Top 40. Need more role models? A panel of programmers pick out the hottest Top 40s around. And, to serve radio better than ever, our Top 40 editor, Dave Sholin, introduces a revamped set of Top 40 and GO (Gavin-Only) charts, based on spins. In News, the focus continues, as the Duke visits the Seattle-based Kidstar radio, where 'Great Scott' (Top) and fellow staffers are superserving the radio listeners of today; the teen demos of tomorrow. Top 40 kingpin Rick Dees (above, right) has millions of reasons to learn his ABCs. On the GO Chart, Collective Soul, Michael Bolton, (above) and Stevie Nicks can spell hits.

Howard Stern Unplugged

BY BEN FONG-TORRES

The FCC can't shut up Howard Stern, but a rival station in Cleveland did—at least momentarily.

In a stunt that recalled radio pranks of the old days—not to mention Watergate—Stern was knocked off the air Friday (June 10) while broadcasting his show from the parking lot of a strip club in Cleveland, where his syndicated program airs on WNCX-FM. He was in the birthplace of rock and roll to celebrate his show's number one status. As he has in other cities where he's gone Number One, he was conducting a "funeral" for rival stations—in this case, WMJI and WMMR/FM (recently partnered via duopoly).

But in the midst of the show—attended by some 10,000 screaming fans who crowded the parking lot outside Tiffany's Cabaret—and in the middle of an interview with guests Joey and Mary Jo Buttafuoco, someone cut the broadcast lines at a satellite truck.

Suddenly, Stern was silent in the 16 markets that carry his show, and confusion reigned until Stern, using phone lines, returned to the air. Dressed in military garb and calling himself the "conquering general" of Cleveland morning radio, Stern shouted: "We are under attack! This is radio D-Day! By the power invested in me by the FCC, I now declare, 'This is war!'"

It didn't take long for police to come up with a suspect: WMMR engineer William Alfred, who was reportedly spotted by WNCX GM Walt Tiburski, who knew the engineer when he was manager at WMMR. Alfred was immediately taken into custody. Alfred, who reportedly secured a press pass to the Stern remote and talked about it at WMMR the day before, was charged with breaking and entering, disruption of public service and possession of criminal tools. Deliberately disrupting a broadcast is a federal offense punishable by up to ten years in prison.

Alfred, who has been released on $10,000 bond, has been suspended indefinitely from WMMR. Carl Hirsch, president of 'MMS' owner OmniAmerica Communications, said the suspension was "related to his disobeying the order of two senior management people" to stay away from the Stern show. Hirsch, who spoke to Mel Karmazin, chief of Stern's employer, Infinity Broadcasting, assured Karmazin that he had no involvement in the stunt.

Earlier in the day, Stern was broadcasting from the site of the future Rock and Roll Hall of Fame when his transmission was jammed by another, obscenity-laced signal. He had to switch to a cellular phone linked to a satellite. The jam forced him to cancel live-broadcast appearances with other media. The earlier incident has not been connected with the Tiffany's cutoff.

Stern's day ended in triumph, as he returned to the air with a parade of wild guests. Besides the Buttafuocos, the Cleveland fans greeted, with varied responses, Roger Clinton, the Cleveland State University cheerleaders, and David Lee Roth.

Branson Loses FM Bid

Britain's Radio Authority has decided not to award its 105-108 FM frequency. The decision was a blow to former Virgin Records owner Richard Branson, who was lobbying to pick up a frequency.

Until 1990, British Radio was monopolized by the BBC, but that year the government put up for sale one FM and two AM frequencies. In April 1993, Branson debuted Virgin 1215, an AM album-oriented station, and made it no secret that he was eyeing an FM frequency as soon as one was made commercially available. He even went so far as to say that if he got an FM frequency he'd return the AM slot to the BBC.

But the Radio Authority decided earlier this month that the last available section of the British FM spectrum will be split between metropolitan stations in large cities and small community services. Virgin 1215's head of promotions Tony Barker reacted angrily. "The RA has decided to protect the existing ILR (Independent Local Radio) stations' revenue because a national pop station would have been so strong," he said.

Well-received by both critics and the public, Virgin 1215 suffers from reception problems inherent in the AM band. In March the station mounted a massive "Get Virgin on FM" campaign, and asked listeners to sign a petition. Music industry executives and advertisers lobbied for Virgin 1215 to move to FM, and for a national commercial pop station.

Shortly after the Radio Authority decision, Virgin 1215 chief David Campbell met with his legal advisors, who advised him to challenge the ruling. "Our lawyers' view is we should proceed legally but, at the end of the day, (the RA) is the regulator and you have to accept its decision," he said. "It disappoints me that the wishes of the listeners and the music and advertising industries have been ignored, and it is sad Britain is the only country in the free world which is not allowed a national FM commercial rock radio station."

Campbell says the company now plans to install transmitters to improve its reception. Branson denied reports that he may close Virgin 1215.

Branson, meantime, is reportedly getting back into the record business. He bought a 50 percent share in Sound Solutions, a company that specializes in overstocks and deletions. Though the company doesn't have any labels, it's planning to launch a spoken word, budget and mid-price wing.

ABC Gets Dees

ABC Radio Networks has pulled a switch on its weekend countdown show, dropping Shadove Stevens' American Top 40 in the United States and hooking up with Rick Dees.

ABC and CD Media, Inc. reached agreement on a multi-year, multi-million dollar deal for ABC to market and distribute Rick Dees Weekly Top 40 domestically and internationally.

The show, now on 330 stations worldwide, is hosted by the KIIS/FM-Los Angeles personality. Dees and Westwood One's Casey Kasem, who originated American Top 40 but left in 1988 to go with Westwood One, are the leaders in the syndicated countdown game. AT40, which Stevens took over from Kasem, has about 200 affiliates.

American Top 40, ABC said, will continue to be offered internationally, and Radio Express of Los Angeles, which distributes the Dees show internationally, is expected to buy the rights for the Stevens show, which is in 125 countries.

David Kantor, executive vice president of ABC Radio, took note of the changing market for Top 40 in his announcement. "In a time of growing fragmentation within the domestic (Top 40) marketplace nationwide, Rick Dees Weekly Top 40...has not only weathered the storm, but has managed to flourish."

Dees, a winner of numerous awards for his work on KIIS, has done the countdown since 1983.

Sell 3,000 Units And You're Gold—Somewhere

Gold records may never be a dime a dozen. The first year the RIAA calculated them, there was one winner—the soundtrack of Oklahoma!—but now they're easier to come by than ever before.

Especially if you can sell records in foreign countries.

In the U.S., it still takes 500,000 units sold to go gold; twice that for platinum.

But in one small country, 3,000 is gold and 7,500 means platinum (see chart).

Outside the U.S., the first country to follow in the RIAA's inception of gold records in 1958 was the U.K. (1973), and one of the most recent to award gold and platinum is South Africa (since 1992).

As GAVIN's sister publication, Music Business International, notes: "The number of units to qualify for each level of award is generally based on market size rather than on population. The health of a country's economy and the extent of commercial piracy and counterfeiting heavily influence market size in certain areas of the world, in particular India and Southeast Asia, resulting in lower unit sales requirements for awards than might be expected, considering their large populations."

How low? See for yourself. Of course, whether it took a record 7,500 or a million sold to hit platinum, it looks pretty good on the wall.

P.S. The first rock and roll gold album was Elvis, in 1960. Presley also copped one of the first gold singles ever—in 1958, for "Hard-Headed Woman." First platinum album? Eagles—Their Greatest Hits (1976), according to the Contemporary Music Almanac.

Aerosmith Gets Grip on Info Highway

BY DAVID BERAN

Two million users of CompuServe will be able to get a free record—off their computers—on June 27.

That day, Geffen Records will download, in broadcast quality, a previously unreleased Aerosmith song, "Head First," a track recorded for, but not included on Aerosmith's Get A Grip album.

Once it's downloaded (by modem), CompuServe members maintain access to the song for several weeks. Because the downloading process takes anywhere from a half hour to an hour CompuServe is waiving connect-time fees, and Aerosmith is waiving all song royalties.

Aerosmith's Joe Perry is an avid CompuServe user, and in a 1993 interview he told GAVIN that the band was working on an information highway project and experimenting with music-oriented interactive games.

Adds Steven Tyler: "If our fans are out there driving down that information superhighway, then we want to be playing at the truck stop."

Through CompuServe, Geffen has already allowed users to tap into files containing artist bios and pictures, new release and tour date information and short electronic sound samples.

Fan Fair took place this year from June 7-20 at the Tennessee State Fairgrounds. The event is limited to 24,000 tickets, which sold out in January before any artists were announced. Despite the heat and the crowds, there were few problems; the biggest this year was the number of fans who found a way to get backstage. One gray-haired woman claimed she paid $500 for her backstage pass just for the chance of seeing Alan Jackson.

As usual, several artists pulled marathon signing sessions. This year the prize goes to Reba McEntire, who had her annual Fan Club party at the Municipal Auditorium, showing up at 11 a.m. and leaving at 5 a.m.—18 hours and 6,000 autographs later. Billy Ray Cyrus (the focus of a tell-all book, Some Gave Too Much, released during Fan Fair) hosted his annual Fan Club picnic at Hermitage Landing, performing and signing autographs starting at 1 p.m. At 5 the next morning, there were still 50 fans waiting, so Cyrus took them all out to breakfast at the Waffle House.

Alan Jackson was the big winner at the TNN/Music City News fan-voted awards presented June 6. He won for Entertainer Of The Year, Male Vocalist Of The Year, Video Of The Year, Single of The Year ("Chattahoochie,") and Album of the Year (A Lot

Other winners included Reba McEntire, for Best Female Artist and Entertainer of The Year, Tim McGraw for Best New Artist, and John Michael Montgomery, who won both Single Of The Year and Song Of The Year for "I Swear." Johnny Cash received the Legend award.

KIIS Hacker Could Get Top 40—Years, That is

A hacker who cut into KIIS/FM-Los Angeles' phone system and won two Porsches from the station pled guilty to computer fraud on Tuesday (June 14) and faces up to 40 years in prison and a $1.75 million fine.

In addition to fleecing KIIS/FM, Kevin Poulsen, aka "Dark Dante," fraudulently won $20,000 in cash from KPWR and at least two trips to Hawaii and $2,000 in cash from KRTH. Besides cracking into radio stations, Poulsen, with two partners, gained access to information to undercover business of the FBI and stole Pacific Bell access codes. In all, he pled guilty to seven federal charges that include conspiracy and mail fraud. He originally faced 19 charges that could have net him a maximum of 100 years in jail and fines of $3 million.

According to KIIS/FM's Karen Tobin, Poulsen figured out a way to become the station's 102nd caller. "This guy is beyond your computer nerd," she said. "He's a genius."

Poulsen's partners have also entered guilty pleas and are awaiting sentencing.

On Radio, The Kids Are Alright

BY DAVE SHOLIN

Whitney Houston sang of children being the future on her 1986 hit "The Greatest Love Of All." Children are certainly our future radio listeners, but since Arbitron doesn't survey anyone under 12, that demo has been of little importance to broadcasters.

But I recently visited KidStar 1250, a Seattle radio station superserving the under 12 crowd with a unique blend of music,

Scott Curran: The Great One

news, games and other programming, and has been on the air from 6 a.m. to midnight since its debut a year ago.

"We're a lot more than a radio station," says Bill Koenig, president of the station's parent company, Children's Media Network. "The station acts as the centerpiece to our KidStar magazine and interactive 'Phone Zone,' which has logged more than a half a million calls."

KidStar's operation is funded by corporate sponsors including McDonalds and Microsoft, and its home in downtown Seattle is a state of the art facility.

KidStar's on-air staff are all adults, with kids popping in as guest DJs and by phone. MD and afternoon host Scott Curran aka "Great Scott," notes that "all the rules go out the window with this audience." As to the station's criteria for what music to play (See sidebar), Curran says Kidstar does search out pop material, while "gut feel" plays a big part in the decision-making process.

News director Maura Gallucci, formerly at K-101 in San Francisco, says she looks for "bright stories...good stories." But the station also deals with events like Kurt Cobain's death and a recent shooting at a local school, the reports allowing kids to give their perspective. A three-minute cast is featured every half hour until 7 p.m., then once an hour until signoff.

Because theatre of the mind is critical in such a venture, a large part of the KidStar sound falls on the shoulders of production director Klem Daniels, a market veteran who spent 15 years at KJR. Daniels says that he, like his colleagues, is sensitive to not hyping or talking down to the audience.

Mary Elder VP, print and program development, echoes Daniels. "Kids have very sensitive BS detectors," she says, "so it's important to be honest." By summer's end she expects circulation of KidStar magazine to reach 100,000.

Keen on "utilizing technology to get our information out" director, interactive services Bob Hensel maximizes the many features of the "Phone Zone" including the "Contest Zone" "Friends Zone" (talking with other kids or celebrities), "Laugh Zone," and "What's Up Zone."

Until a rating service supplies information on this demo, phones are its only method of measuring reach. Veteran programmer and consultant Rick Scott has been instrumental in the KidStar's launch and feels the "multi-media approach combined with its emphasis on entertainment, personalities and information" will work. In fact, says founder Koenig, KidStar plans to go national, and he is looking to be in the top ten markets by year's end.

The station, says Curran, needs product, especially Top 40, A/C, Country and soundtrack releases aimed at children. They can be sent to: Children's Media Network, 1334 First Avenue, Suite 150 Seattle, WA 98101-2003.

Kids Jazzed by Joshua Redman

BY BEVERLY MIRE

Joshua Redman was clearly out of his element.

Instead of playing to hipsters and elegant jazz aficionados, the acclaimed saxophonist was trying to hold the attention of squirmy teenagers. Instead of a smoky jazz club, he was in an East Oakland, Calif. junior high school, a school that is testimony to America's decaying public school system: a fence around the playground keeps kids out instead of letting them in. When a motion detector went off in the parking lot, a photographer there for the event callously remarked, "They're already breaking into the cars out there."

But "they" weren't. "They" were sitting in the school's gymnasium, watching as Redman played a short set designed to introduce them to jazz.

The program, Get Jazz-Ed, was one of a series of programs produced by Jazz station KJAZ-Alameda/SF designed to introduce elementary, junior high and high school students to jazz.

It was a tough crowd to woo. During the question and answer portion a male student asked, "Can you play any rap?" Redman didn't pause. He urged the students to "find the sounds that are right for you," and stressed jazz's individuality. "When I was young, I thought that jazz was the music of my parents and grandparents," he said. "But I learned that jazz allows you to play what you want. You just heard us play a song, but within it, we were able to improvise."

Redman didn't completely win over the crowd, and after a brief closing set he seemed a bit reflective. It was a good idea, he said, and he was glad he did it, but pre-teens find it hard to focus on jazz.

As he sat on the makeshift bandstand, a smiling young man dressed in his best "urban" attire, baggy shorts, oversized tee-shirt, droopy socks and high tops, walked over. "Hey man!" he said to Redman, and the two high-fived. Redman's face lit up. A connection had been made.

SHO-TALK

Best wishes and get well to Jello Biafra who was assaulted outside a Berkeley, Calif. club on May 7. Biafra suffered a broken lower leg, extensive knee ligament damage and head wounds. Berkeley police are searching for as many as seven people. At that evening's show, a dancer who had been throwing people into the club's furniture landed on Biafra's leg with his full weight. When Jello stood up, his leg buckled backwards. Biafra asked the dancer to identify himself, hoping to avoid police intervention. Rather than cooperating, the assailant refused to identify himself and told Jello that he had no regrets about injuring him because he was a "rich rock star." An argument ensued and Biafra was thrown to the floor, held down and kicked repeatedly in the head. During this assault his attackers shouted, "Rock star, rock star, sellout, sellout, kick him some more." Biafra will require extensive knee surgery and rehabilitation that will last a year or longer. His Canadian spoken word tour has been cancelled and prognosis for full recovery is guarded at best. Get well cards can be sent to Jello Biafra at Alternative Tentacles Records, P.O. Box 419092, San Francisco, CA 94141 or fax (415) 431-5699...

Inside Top 40

As Scott Shannon (right) and Mike Joseph (left) began round two of their face-off following a story about the viability of broad-based Top 40 in the New York Daily News, Shannon made the point that Mike's brand of Top 40 worked when "you didn't have Adult Top 40s programmed and marketed properly, didn't have the Urban and Churban competition of today."

When Joseph brought up the fact that in the old days markets like Philadelphia and Chicago had six and nine A/Cs respectively Shannon replied, "It's not how many but how effective."

"The problem," Joseph said is "too much importance is placed on 25-54s, going too heavy on gold, cutting back on promotion and marketing, and muzzling personalities. That's not Top 40 the way it should be." "We don't play music only teens like," Shannon replied. "They have stations that play their favorites all day. That makes it harder to daypart."

Arguing he never played extremes in music, Joseph was relentless in his defense of a format that, he said, "Can win and win big by playing the best of all genres of music." The two also couldn't agree on the value of retail information. Mike is in favor of it saying, "All the major superstars started in the record store." "Not all listeners buy records," Shannon responded.

In separate conversations after the fact Joseph stated bluntly, "There is no such thing as Adult Top 40. WPLJ is winning by default because there is no mainstream Top 40 in New York. I'd topple them and pull seven or eight-shares and 'PLJ would be the first to go. They just happen to be the closest thing to Top 40 right now."

Shannon responded, "I looked in my deejay handbook, but didn't see Mike's name listed under 'lord of defining formats.' Call-out research shows adults consider WPLJ to be Top 40. In the '90s, listeners like to be superserved. In the May trend 'PLJ is Number One 18-34. Whether or not we fit Mike's definition, our listeners think we're pretty good. He ignores everything but reality. As for winning by default, that's an insult to the broadcasters of New York. He's been hanging out with Ronnie Milsap too much; he's lost in the '50s tonight."

While it's clear they'll never see eye to eye on this issue, Shannon told the self-proclaimed contrarian who says he "likes to do what the other guy isn't doing," that "There's no one in the country whose accomplishments and abilities I respect more." At that point Mike returned the compliment, but their minds remained unchanged.

What's Going On

An overview of early indications from a select panel of GAVIN Only Correspondents

DAVE EVAN, WILI/FM-WILLIMANTIC, CONN. Aaliyah has been Top Ten requests and sales for three weeks. Women are calling for it middays. Starting to test Da Brat at night. We got calls before we or anyone else in our area played it. Atlantic Starr is nearly Top Ten on the phones.

REX HOLIDAY, WHHT-BOWLING GREEN/GLASGOW, KY. Audience has demanded fulltime power rotation on Collective Soul. Pink Floyd is selling well. G.O.L.'s "Soma Holiday" from the One A.D. album is generating 3-1 positive response. Rex also notes he'd love to rave about how well Counting Crows and Aaliyah are doing for him, but he can't get serviced with either release.

DAVE ROBLE, KFMI-ARCATA, CALIF. Spin Doctors taking off. Put it in

The New Music Challenge on June 1st...it won three nights in-a-row. It became a fulltime test the next week (11 spins) and has been on our Power Nine At Nine every night getting requests from women 18-plus. ADDING it this week.

DAN WATSON, KSIQ (Q96)-IMPERIAL VALLEY, CALIF. Keith Sweat is the single we were waiting for. Don't overlook "Here We Go" by Juvenile Style on Quality. Phones, sales, research! This is our perfect record to kick off summer.

MIKE STEELE, KIXY/FM-SAN ANGELO, TEXAS Sales and/or requests for Tonya Blount, which moved to a power after only three weeks of play. One of our most requested across the board. Aaliyah has been Number One in the Top Nine Countdown for the past week— instant phones. Tons of adult phones on Shai, both male and female. Jimi Jamm's pick of the week is Tevin Campbell's "Always In My Heart. Mike picks Joe

Top 40

ON TOP

We've reached 1994's halfway point, and to paraphrase Joe Walsh: "Life's been good to Top 40 so far." And while the public's musical tastes keeps evolving, our industry continues to change and adapt to meet their needs.

Last week, part one of this two-part series focused on the record community: reliance on actual airplay information and their views on the importance of secondary markets in this "new age of reality."

This week, radio takes center stage as this year's GAVIN Top 40 Major Market Award winners Steve Rivers from KISS 108 (WXKS/FM)-Boston and Frankie Blue from Z100 (WHTZ)-New York explain how to stay on top. In addition, several of the country's top programmers talk about the stations they think are the hottest in the country. Finally, we offer an overview of GAVIN's new Top 40 charts making their debuts in this issue.

STEVE RIVERS: BOTTOMLINE BASICS

BY STEVE RIVERS

There's no shyness in our industry. Ask a question and you'll get a load of opinions. But for advice on the fundamentals when it comes to winning at Top 40 radio, we decided to call on a programmer whose thoughts are backed by an unquestionable track record of success.

We seem to have reached a point where some feel that all the rules we've learned over the years no longer apply. While it's true that stations need a '90s attitude, there are some basics that never go out of date. As GAVIN "Top 40 Major Market PD Of The Year," and one of the most respected broadcasters in the country, Steve Rivers has never faltered in his belief that Top 40, when executed properly, can lead to a big share of audience.

Following are Steve's thoughts on the foundation required if a station chooses to be in this format. (P.S.: Readers should take special note of the sentence on Item #1 that precedes Steve's suggestion to clock your TSL.)

When Dave Sholin first asked me to write this article, he stressed the need for young programmers to learn more about what we call "the basics." These rules are the cornerstone of every radio format, not just Top 40. When executed properly, they always guarantee ratings growth.

I entered radio in 1972. I jocked for a while and then became a program director in 1975. Along the way I've had the good fortune to have either worked, or developed associations with some of the best programmers and managers in the business. At every stop in my career I made it a point to learn as much as I could from the people I was working with. I was a sponge, soaking up as much information and knowledge as possible. I became a devoted student of the business, and I still think of myself in that regard. I learned from experimentation. I studied airchecks of stations that were successful, both past and present. I read everything I could get my hands on regarding radio. I attended conventions and listened to every word said by people like Buzz Bennett and Scott Shannon. Over time, I started to understand what made these programmers and their stations consistent winners.

The more I applied those basics to my own programming style, the more successful my stations became. Kent Burkhart taught me the importance of focusing one thought per break with the "five to seven word method." I learned how to balance music flow when I worked as a jock for Jerry Clifton. I followed Scott Shannon at Q105 (WRBQ)-Tampa at the time when Z100 (WHTZ) was being created in New York. Scott left behind a treasure chest of systems and ideas. In addition, a morning show concept that ended up being copied coast to coast. The list goes on and on. If I had to distill all of the knowledge I've been able to accumulate, it comes in the form of these next five items. This five-point map I am borrowing from Mark Driscoll (who borrowed it from Buzz Bennett, who in turn borrowed it from Bill Drake). Mark has used it successfully to help launch 95.1 The Edge in Charlotte. I've added my own thoughts following each point. You might want to retain this list for your files.

(1) REPETITION WITH VARIATION

This applies not only to management of your music database, but it's also vital in selling the essence of your station to its listeners. Hammer home your positioning statement. Sell your promotion with exciting, creative promos, but most of all—hammer home the hits through repetition with variation! If your Top 40 station is on target, you're playing a very tight list. Your total library should be less than 250 titles. How do you create "variety?" Recycle your music: overnights into middays, mornings into nights and so forth. Move those titles through different dayparts and different hours. Nobody listens to your station 24 hours per day. Remember, if you are playing the songs your audience wants to hear most often, their favorites, your station will still get the credit for having "variety."

Besides, if you are not getting complaints from playing the same songs over and over, my guess is you're playing too many stiffs. Check your TSL.

(2) BREVITY

The programmer credited for applying this element to the Top 40 format is Bill Drake. At a time when most DJs were interested in seeing how much mic time they could earn each hour, Drake concentrated on playing "more music" and making every talk set count. Do yourself a favor; grab some old KFRC-San Francisco, KHJ-Los Angeles or WRKO-Boston airchecks to study. Those jocks were able to communicate, be funny and exciting—all over an eight-second intro. "One thought per break" is still the most important thing you can tell a jock.

(3) HUMOR, WHEN IT HAPPENS

This means taking advantage of what's creating talk around town. If it's really a hot button, that usually smells like a promotion. Also, it means coaching your jocks so that forced humor is eliminated, which will allow their natural sense of humor to surface more often.

(4) CARNEY

Creating a magical sense of "you never know what will happen next" is extremely important. Use the art of "carney" to make all your promotions bigger than life! For reference, grab airchecks of Jack McCoy's promos for KCBQ's Last Contest.

(5) HONESTY

Admit to your audience when you've made a mistake. Take the offense and you control the situation, not the press or your competition. You'll also create goodwill for your station with your listeners. Make sure all your promos and sweepers are truthful in content.

Finally, if I could add a sixth point to this list, it would be the credo for all formats: Play The Hits! By definition, this means rotating songs, and other programming elements that are important to your audience, often enough to satisfy their needs. The station that does the better job in this area wins the ratings. That after all, is the name of the game.

THIS FRANKIE HAS NO LITTLE TOWN BLUES

Winning is never easy no matter what market one happens to be in, but winning in New York is the ultimate challenge. With his low-key manner and attention to detail, Z-100's Frankie Blue, winner of this year's "GAVIN Top 40 Major Market APD/MD Award, rarely has the inclination to be interviewed. In fact, this is the first time in six years that he's shared his thoughts in print.

Dave Sholin: Would you run down your personal history at Z-100?

Frankie Blue: I've been at the station for ten years—the fastest ten years of my life. Michael Ellis (then music director) hired me to monitor the studio lines. This opportunity forced me to step up right out of the box. I was soon promoted to assistant music director. A number of months later, the MD position became available and I earned that title soon after. Two years ago, Steve Kingston (Z-100 director of operations and programming) appointed me APD/MD.

What was it like for you, personally and professionally, to be part of Z-100's musical transformation?

The transition has been very exciting—I call it a recharge. Any time you face change, it's a challenge. You've got to dig deep and call upon your professional skills, and most of all be very open-minded. As long as you keep the passion for the music and a close eye on who is accepting and appreciating the music, you'll stay on course. Finding that sweet spot where musical tastes are at the moment has always been fun and exciting. What is your advice to aspiring music directors when it comes to the musical selection process?

Stay focused on your station's musical strategy, and when listening to a song, think about how your target will hear and accept it. In making music decisions here at Z-100, Steve Kingston, Andy Shane (assistant MD) and I meet continuously throughout the week and pour over a bunch of research (call-out, requests, BDS monitors, and the national music picture on record performances).

How do you feel about the emphasis on actual airplay versus station charts of the past?

I applaud those who concentrated, kept focused and developed the new chart methodology. Now both radio programmers and record executives have the facts they need to track the real history of a single. When you read the sports page, you see teams ranked on their real win and loss record. No bought hype, just the facts. Performance is what ought to determine ranking order, and that's what we're getting now. Let's use it and be proud of it.

Some are claiming that Alternative/Modern Rock is the "new" Top 40. What is your assessment?

Hits are hits. The fact that there are only a few Modern Rock/Alternative music radio stations in major markets makes this genre more attractive to mainstream Top 40 as long as the songs are hits. That's not to say you shouldn't play Ace Of Base, Mariah Carey and the Janet Jackson's of the world.

How do you feel about being considered a trendsetter and about other stations following your lead? Also, are there any misconceptions about Z-100 you'd like to clear up? Well, I hear that we're trendsetters, but I don't think anyone's ego feeds off of that. We just continue to work hard and do what is best for Z-100. My opinions and decisions on music are based on how a song will serve our station and not on how I'll affect the development of a certain record. I really have blinders on when it comes to Z-100's impact on other stations.

Being the big ship in New York, one just has to expect that. But with our cume, we can't afford to make mistakes, therefore we're extra careful. That increases our chance for success, and if you're successful in New York, people look at you more closely.

The best way for anyone to clear up misconceptions about Z-100 is by listening to us. Some have said we're Alternative, but what we can best be described as is pure excitement of today's best music, reaching females 20-30. We're highly researched and very focused. We feel that by staying on target success will follow.

Lastly, it's hard to fully appreciate what it means to be part of a station like Z-100. While we're here performing our jobs day in and day out, the focus is just on doing whatever it takes to win. I probably won't truly understand what a special place this is until the day I'm not here. ♦

WHO'S ON TOP OF IT?

Who's hot at the half-way point of 1994? We surveyed some successful programmers on their picks for the top three Top 40's in the country right now, the visibility of the format, and winning promotions.

MARK BOLKE, program director, KDWB-Minneapolis

JERRY DEAN, program director, KLUC-Las Vegas

CLARKE INGRAM, assistant program director, B94 (WBZZ)-Pittsburgh

BOB PERRY, program director, HOT 97.7 (KHQT)-San Jose

MIKE SOMMERS, program director, WSTW-Wilmington, Del.

MIKE STEELE, program director, KIXY/FM-San Angelo, Texas

JAY STEVENS, program director, WPGC-Washington, D.C.

As you read on, you'll find that Top 40's dependence on playing the hits is a common theme with our eight panelists. They're all passionate about what they do and believe the format can stay strong if we continue to learn from each other.

Q: IN YOUR OPINION, WHAT ARE THE THREE HOTTEST TOP 40 STATIONS IN THE COUNTRY RIGHT NOW?

BOLKE: WXKS-Boston, WNCI-Columbus and KDWB.

DEAN: Not to brag, but I think KLUC is certainly one of the hottest Top 40 stations in the country. During the past year, KLUC has been able to demonstrate that Top 40 is far from dead. We have been

Number One 12+, Number One 18-34 and Top Five 25-54. Stations in any format (especially Top 40) would be very pleased to have that kind of ratings picture. Plus, we just won the GAVIN Award for Top

Jerry Dean

40 Station Of The Year.

I'm gratified to know that others in our industry hold KLUČ in such high regard.

Otherwise, one of my all-time favorite stations is KMEL-San Francisco. They've always done a great job of representing a "lifestyle sound" for their listeners. I found that to be true again when I listened to them when I was in town for the GAVIN Seminar back in February. KMEL is always cutting edge in their on-air approach and you can tell that a lot of thought and planning goes into their execution. They're certainly a one-of-a-kind radio station.

My on-air staff took a recent weekend "jock" trip to San Diego and as you can imagine, we listened to a lot of radio on the drive over. I must say, I'm still a big fan of KHKS-FM in Los Angeles. Their liners and on-air promos are always fresh and innovative. I think Rick Dees is one of the great personalities in the format and my friend Bruce Vidal sounds as good now as he did 20 years ago when we started in radio together at KCH-Washington, Iowa. Whenever I drive to L.A. and as soon as I head down the El-Cajon Pass and the L.A. stations start to come in, the first frequency I listen to is 102.7 FM.

INGRAM: I'd have to start with Z-100 in New York City, not just because of Steve Kingston's incredible programming savvy and their many promotional and marketing coups, but because they've engineered an incredible turnaround over the past year. Even more remarkable is that this turnaround involved throwing out, for the most part, the Z-100 we all knew and loved in the '80s. It was an incredibly gutsy move, and it paid off.

Also on my list would be WXKS/FM (KISS 108)-Boston. Like Kingston, Steve Rivers is obviously one of the best programmers in the country, and has built on the KISS dynasty in a most impressive way. Instead of retooling it in his image, Rivers took the time to understand what made KISS work and took it to the next level.

Finally, I'd include KHKS-Dallas for proving a number of things: that it is still possible for a Top 40 start-up to succeed in a Top Ten market; that there isn't anything wrong with fast rotations in this day and age; that a Top 40 station can be adult without being wimpy or lacking in personality; that when the parent company (Gannett, in this case) supports the format, it wins; and that you don't have to go broke doing it, either.

PERRY: The three hottest Top 40 stations in America? Well, two of the three are my direct competitors: KMEL and WILD 107 in San Francisco. Both radio stations are extremely well programmed. Also,

Bob Perry

I believe that HOT 97 (WQHT)-New York is one of the three hottest Top 40s in the country. HOT 97 had the discipline to select a well-defined target audience and utilize both conventional and unconventional thinking to win that audience.

SOMMERS: STAR 94 (WSTR)-Atlanta, WNVZ-Norfolk and WSTW-Wilmington.

STEELE: Top 40 is going through another transition period. The stations that are playing the hits for their markets are going to be the big winners in years to come. Stations like WPGC, are playing the hits for Washington, D.C.; KKRZ is playing the hits for Portland and KHKS is playing the hits for Dallas. Although none of those stations sound alike, they are all successful in their markets. Just because a song is a hit in New York, doesn't mean it's going to be a hit in San Angelo, Texas. The above mentioned stations have all been able to look through the hype and play the hits.

STEVENS: I think HOT 97-New York City is one of the hottest three stations in the country. Steve Smith has done a great job with that station, creating a real "streetvibe". I love how he has tons of celebrities involved with the station—and hiring Dr. Dre and Ed Lover is hot. Also KISS 108-Boston. I respect any station that can be consistently Top Three 25-54, while doing this format—Steve Rivers is doing a great job. Finally, WPGC 95.5 in D.C. How could I not give a vote? It may sound egotistical, but we have such a great vibe and such a great air staff. Plus, we've been able to stay Number One or number two 25-54 for the past year and a half. What else can I say?

Q: IS TRADITIONAL, WIDE-VARIETY-OF-HITS TOP 40 STILL VIABLE?

BOLKE: Without question, traditional Top 40 is still effective and viable in certain markets and competitive situations. The format beyond music is still about energy, excitement and personality. The different slants and niching that have kept former mainstream stations alive in crowded markets, while considered a violation to Top 40 purists, has allowed the essence of the format to survive.

DEAN: Yes, it is. There are a number of stations around the country that are very successful with a more mainstream approach to Top 40. It all depends on what will work in an individual market. Mainstream Top 40 seems more successful in the midwest, whereas an Urban-leaning Top 40 works better on the West Coast and down South. I also think that mainstream Top 40 will be more successful in a market where there isn't already a strong Adult Contemporary station established. A strong A/C will always give a wide variety Top 40 station a battle for the upper demos. I think the big mistake most A/Cs make (and some Adult Top 40s, too) is that they are so conservative on-air. They're so concerned about doing something their listeners won't like that they end up with a bland, boring sounding station that isn't fun to listen to. Just because a listener is in their thirties or forties doesn't mean they don't want to have fun and keep up-to-date when listening to the radio.

INGRAM: Sure it is. If anyone doubts that mass appeal Top 40 radio still works, let them come to Pittsburgh, where we play Celine Dion, Aerosmith, Snap and the B-52's in the same quarter-hour without choking! For modesty's sake, I didn't nominate B-94 in the list of stations above, but we have been (and continue to be) a great example of a heritage, mass-appeal Top 40 station. Buddy Scott has aimed this station right down the middle, and it works.

Furthermore, I'd suggest a variety of hits from all formats is what makes Top 40 work in the first place. Otherwise, it's not really Top 40. In my book, WPGC isn't a Top 40 station, and neither is KROQ. This isn't to deny their success (which is considerable) or to suggest that what they're doing has no place. It obviously does. But in the final analysis, I think most people would agree that WPGC is an Urban/Churban station and KROQ is an Alternative/Modern Rock station.

PERRY: I think traditional, wide-variety Top 40 is still viable, but only under these circumstances: Lack of competition from well-focused Top 40s that are doing a good job of super-serving one end of the spectrum or the other and if you have identified, through research, a large enough target audience that wants a wide variety of Top 40 hits format. However, with the quickly changing ethnic makeup of a lot of markets, this is becoming increasingly hard to find.

SOMMERS: Yes. Mainstream Top 40 takes from all formats. We play the hits. We can be uptempo with Ace Of Base or play a ballad from Joshua Kadison. Variety is the key. Be mass appeal.

STEELE: Yes. For the smart, street programmers that know what their market wants to hear, the variety is available. I think record companies have been doing a great job of keeping a good flow of product available. Even though some of the biggest records we have on KIXY would be considered chart stiff, they research, request and sell. My music director Jimi Jamm and I look at the individual song, the sound, the feel, the texture and fitting the mix. We don't care if it's being played in New York or L.A., will it work in San Angelo, Texas? A great example is Babyface's "And Our Feelings." Last week it was number two in call-out overall and Number One in women 18-34! The variety is there if you get away from playing the chart game and instead play the hits for your market!

STEVENS: I think the days of a Top 40 station playing everything like "Convoy" into The Carpenters into Rick James into Deep Purple are over. However, I think that within a niche there is still room for variety. For example, some stations are getting away with playing some of the best urban and rap product mixed in with a few smash alternative/pop cuts appealing to 18-34 year-olds. I think that listeners are now looking for something more exciting than what we have to offer. There is burnout on all of the R. Kelly cuts and Toni Braxton cuts and even the Snoop cuts. We need to be searching endlessly for new fresh music for our audience—that means hanging out at record stores and talking to record store counter people asking what people are talking about and vibing on. Many times the records that are being released by the record companies are not the best cuts for our audience. I think that sometimes to be successful in this format today, we need to be "AOH stations—Album-Oriented Hit stations," playing two or three cuts from a hot artist as well as the single. We have to be more creative in finding and playing hit music!

Q: WHAT'S THE BEST PROMOTION YOU'VE HEARD OF IN THE PAST YEAR? (WE DIDN'T REALIZE THIS QUESTION WOULD STUMP SOME OF YOU).

DEAN: I think Howard Stern running for governor of New York is pretty good, if you consider that a promotion. It's certainly got him a lot of press, and I'm sure that everyone in New York is talking about it. If he wins, it will turn into an even stronger promotion.

INGRAM: Let me answer this question in a general sense. To me, the best Top 40 promotions are those that drive the marketing image, drive the strategic intent, drive the positioning of the radio station. For example, the Phrase That Pays-type contests have been winning for years when executed properly (although Arbitron has come up with some new rules which make it more difficult to achieve the desired results).

The other promotions that catch my ear are those that break the mold, push the envelope, or lead the audience into new expectations from the station. Z-100 has been brilliant over the years in coming up with these, but never more so than in the past year or so. Imagine taking the Michael Bolton/Rod Stewart station and turning it into the place for Pearl Jam and Cracker. They broke the mold AND ended up driving the strategy.

PERRY: It has to be Mancow, WILD 107's former morning maniac, stopping traffic on the Bay Bridge. A promotion is successful only if it makes your target audience talk and if it has a direct impact on making the ratings go up. In that sense, Mancow's bridge stunt was a promotion and a very good one.

SOMMERS: We did the WSTW Cashcall Contest this past Fall with great success. The jackpots we gave away were in the $700 range. Listeners are still calling about it, even though the contest has been over since January!

Mike Sommers

STEVENS: Not that I condone what he did, but I think what Mancow did in San Francisco last year was great! He jumped on a subject that everyone was talking about, and made the most of it by stopping traffic on the bridge and getting a haircut to dramatize President Clinton getting a haircut on the runway in L.A. You could never quantify in dollars how much free publicity that earned the station—and it put them on the map. Until that stunt, WILD 107 was an also-ran to KMEL, and, since then, they've had the biggest numbers in recent history.

Q: DO YOU HAVE ANY ADDITIONAL THOUGHTS ON THE STATE OF TOP 40 THAT YOU'D LIKE TO SHARE?

DEAN: The last two years have been tough for Top 40, but I think the industry brought a lot of that on themselves. Advertising agencies dictated a lot of 25-54 buys to radio and that's a tough demo for most Top 40 stations to deliver. As a result, many Top 40 stations changed formats. Now, it looks like younger demos are on the way back and agencies are starting to realize that 12-24 year-olds have significant amounts of money to spend. The stations, like KLUC, that hung in there over these past two years are now starting to see the benefits. I think the music industry would be in rough shape without the Top 40 format. Top 40 is the main format for exposing new hits. Plus, if you'll look at ratings from around the country, the Number One come station in most markets is the Top 40 station. That says a lot for the format's strength. I think the future of Top 40 is bright. Country seems to have peaked and that should throw the spotlight back onto Top 40 as radio's most exciting format.

PERRY: The music product still needs to get better. The 12-34 female is telling us, "We want more dance music, less rap." If there are artists and/or record companies that can deliver dance records (that are really hits), let's hear it. It seems that too many of us are having to rely on '70s and '80s dance music in order to have dance records on the radio—that are really bits with the audience. Finally, radio programmers need to get out of the office. Too many radio people are talking to their co-workers or other radio, record, media people about what's hot and what's not. Go talk to the regular people, your target audience, it's their opinions that count, period.

SOMMERS: Mainstream Top 40s have seen good growth in the past year. I think if the record product is there, and you keep your station exciting and in the foreground, listeners will continue to come to you for entertainment and music.

STEELE: The opportunities for Top 40 stations is great, as long as we remember who we are and try not to be something we aren't. Top 40 is not a cookie-cutter format and those stations and consultants that are using an "old school" approach are going to continue to experience stagnant ratings. Top 40 has always been a format of excitement, personality, top-of-mind promotions and the hits. While the hits, due to fragmentation, may not be as cut and dried today as they were five years ago, they are still there. Take a chance!

STEVENS: I think if we continuously keep looking for fresh music and promotions, this format will always be dominant. Listeners come to us to feel good, to be entertained, to party, to be hip, to get the vibe and to stay young. If we fail in any of these areas by playing safe, stale music or having our jocks read liner cards, or not having a vibe promotion on the air at any given time, then we will lose. It's a format that can be competitive 25-54 and make your sales department happy—we've proven it here! ♦

LET'S TAKE IT FOR A SPIN

It's changing. After 37 years of determining song popularity on the GAVIN Top 40 by compiling reporters' numbered lists, the chart has been revised. Starting this week, it will be based solely on the total number of spins from the previous seven-day period. Rather than listings of 1-5, 6-10, 11-20, etc., rankings will be grouped by reports of 70 plays or more, 50, 30 and ten. Underlines are awarded to songs trending up or remaining flat in total spins with all songs receiving ten spins or more being researched.

As in years past there won't be any weighting of individual stations, although the GAVIN-Only GO Chart, with its focus on small markets, can be used as a comparison with the main Top 40 list. A designation of DP with an asterisk (*) will be for dayparted records in the interest of fairness to big hits that, due to appeal, may never warrant full-time airplay.

A new feature called What's GOing On, has replaced the Airplay Analysis section. Forty GO correspondents have been selected to pass along information on new tracks generating significant early interest. That may include songs being tested. A station's track record of success in identifying success early on was used as the gauge in choosing this panel.

As representatives from the record industry noted in last week's issue, reality is the goal. But by the old method or new, it seems huge mainstream hits rise to the upper reaches of the chart. With this system they'll just stay around longer. There's also bound to be some fluctuation in a song's ranking with the possibility a song may drop slightly one week and go back up the next. Any questions or comments are welcomed.

P.D. NOTEBOOK BY ERIC NORBERG

GENERATION "Y"

There was a fascinating article in the business section of the April 24, issue of the Portland Oregonian about Art Spinella, who has become an acknowledged leader in the field of auto leasing research. Spinella is president of CNW/Marketing Research based in Bandon, Ore.

The article detailed how the information highway has enabled Spinella to run a successful business from a rural location, and reported the results of some of his research, which has real relevance to radio programmers.

Concerning the current preoccupation radio has with Generation X—young people now in their 20s—Spinella said, "Don't attach too much importance" to them. "They're similar to 1950s teenagers, directionless apart from their own group. Generation Y—now 16 and under—represent a turning point in mental attitudes. They're much sharper and more outward looking, and incredible readers compared to Generation X kids."

To me, that indicates that Top 40 has a new opportunity—if they play their cards right.

Here's another interesting item: In

"Have you ever thought of giving away mutual fund shares to listeners?"

1984, consumers' wish lists started with a new car (29.7%) followed by new furnishings (19.0%), and buying a new home (16.5%). If your contest prizes still reflect those priorities you should know that eight years later, in 1992—the most recent year for which Art Spinella has data, the priorities had shown a major change.

The new top item on consumers' wish lists was home electronics and computers (35.2% against 15.6% in 1984). Home furnishings are still number two (22.1%) followed by personal investment (16.5%)—perhaps reflecting the aging of the baby boom, and more consideration being given to retirement savings. (Have you ever thought of giving away mutual fund shares to listeners?) Completing the new top 5: Buying a home is down to fourth place (11.3%) and a new car is fifth (10.8%).

Perhaps one reason why "a new sidering giving away a vehicle, it should be an RV or something that may still be considered desirable but an indulgence; something that it's hard to justify spending money for.

Spinella also reveals that "fully 28 percent of us are considering working for ourselves...compared with 14 percent in 1984; 16 percent are self-employed, up from 4 percent in 1984." This may suggest that such office-type equipment as fax machines and copiers may make attractive contest prizes for some stations. They carry the cachet of potential self-employment while being an extravagance.

All this is certainly food for thought. For those doing their own research, by the way, Spinella notes that the most common error in wording questions is inadvertently biasing answers by the way you word them. In the recent past, Northeastern researchers tended to ask questions that took the depth of the recession for granted and got different answers than researchers based in other parts of the country did when they were polling residents in the Northeast. Make sure your questions are "emotionally neutral"! ●

SMALL MARKET SUCCESS

Welcome back to "Small Market Success." This week we travel to the upper midwestern part of the United States to

Bismarck, N.D. and KYYY (Y93). There we catch up with industry veteran and longtime program director of Y93, Bob Beck, who tells us more about the only Top 40 in North Dakota's state capitol. (And for you American history buffs, it was the home of President Theodore "Teddy" Roosevelt for a time, too.)

After being in this business for 34 years, why Bismarck?

I was in radio for 22 years before I came to Bismarck. In those 22 years I worked with 17 different stations. I learned that if you want four weeks vacation, a 401K, a great community, reasonable income and all the rare benefits in this business, they are more likely to happen here. If you can build your own niche in a small market and stay there, you can have good security. I have a very solid structure here at Y93 and if your ego can deal with the small market numbers (population), then you can be happy.

What about the majors?

Well, I definitely recommend spending time or trying out a major market before settling down in a smaller market.

Being that you've been doing this a while, do you have tricks that up and coming programmers don't know?

Any secrets you want to share?

I'm doing the same thing now that I've been doing throughout my tenure in radio. Nothing different, just re-applying the same techniques.

Give me an example of some of these techniques?

A lot of what you may have heard before.

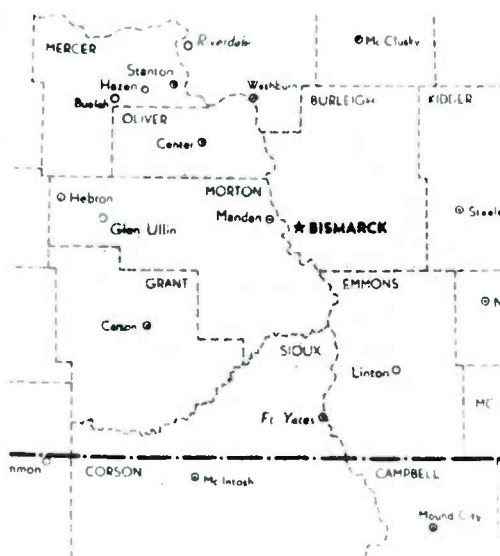

The main goal is to reflect your market. I'll give you a brief overview of Bismarck as an example. Bismarck is conservative and community-oriented, and therefore most of our promotions and activities are community service events.

Every year the opening of the state zoo is important, so this year we were there for eight hours broadcasting live. The zoo gave us a family yearly membership to give away and we had a lot of fun doing that. What it does is it puts you where the community is. If you're with them, then they're also with you.

We ask our audience to come out and star in our commercial, we stay active in Walk America for March Of Dimes, and even have people call in from the stands of local sporting events. We sound like we're everywhere. Y93's image is the good old warm and fuzzies. I've recycled a lot of old promotions that I used in other markets, and they work in Bismarck. Just do it a lot and do it well.

You seem to have assembled an on-air team that has had major market experience but chooses to be in Bismarck. What do you have in Bismarck that they want?

Our music and our personalities make us different. This is a fun place to work and we work well together. We have no card readers. We have an air staff that is high-visibility and I let them do their jobs. I am a firm believer in the saying that it's easier to pull them back than boost them up. We run a common sense format. Open that mic and talk to your audience. We want to relate to them and what's on their minds.

Then you must be playing the right music.

In this market we have three Country stations, a Classic Rock, an Oldies/Talk, an A/C and there's one frequency still up for grabs. Our audience trusts that we are playing the right music. We're careful, but you can't be afraid to go with your gut. My music director, Jon Norton, helps me do that. We don't always agree, but we do respect each other's gut instincts. That's important when you're a team. We've had a number of local hits that haven't made it nationally—and that's when we know we're in tune with the wants and needs of our market.

Even a Country crossover hit?

We played "Indian Outlaw" by Tim McGraw. Initially we got a lot of negative response, but that was a minority. My advice is don't overreact to the negatives and stay with your gut. "Indian Outlaw" ended up doing extremely well for us. We had a lot of concerns about it, but our gut told us it was the right record to play.

How do you feel about how different trades categorize radio?

A relationship between a radio station and a record label should be one to one—and there shouldn't be a trade between you. If labels are willing to take the time to know the station, there's a mutual respect. I have an advantage with time, but in the long run it's the same for everyone. If you have a story to tell, they will listen. But you need to compile that story first before you go out and sell it. Work hard for it now—don't wait for it to come to you. Make sure you take the time to keep the relationships alive. It's said that the new jobs are already filled by the time they hit the trades. Communication is how you get there.

How do you feel about Y93's sound?

I feel like the station sounds bigger than the market. We have a great bunch of people working here.

What do you feel you can improve on?

I may not be tolerant enough sometimes, but I have a very short fuse with people who lack common sense. I'm working on that.

Any advice?

It's simple. If you ain't having fun, you ain't doing it right.

WASCALS "Class Clown" b/w "Hard Rhymes" (Delicious Vinyl)

Skirling, swarming bee-styled horns whip you into this skritty li'l ditty that plays like a '94 West Coast interop of "P.T.A.". Buckweed, St. Imey, A.L.Phie and Spit-anky are the four scholastic fools who rip, twist and spit on the mic like The Little Rascals gone rabid. The J-Swift production is xtra frosty, delivering the right amount of bass, rhythm guitar and brass. On the flipside, the four-some lace up the waffle stompers and kick out the "Hard Rhymes."

The boys get busy over some zoot-suited, swing-styled horns that riff and mingle with deep, brooding bass and tweaked piano snippets. The Wascals stir up that crispy, blunted & bugged So. Cal stylee that'll leave ya more delirious than Hitchcock. Dig it! Contact Carmilita @ DV (213) 465-2700

BUSHWACKASS Who's Wylin' (Pallas)

Fish B-1 and crew have a live one here. The vocal sound of the east meets the countrified funk of a rippling organ and twangy guitar sample, and before you know it, you're chanting "It's a Bushwack attack! It's the Bushwackass baybeh!" The bass groove is infectious, and the drum kick is insistent. This jam is testing a new formula that is not to be slept on. Fish B-1 has some crazy lyrics, too. HERE TO DO

DAMA

by Thembisa S. Mshaka

JERU THE DAMAJA has topped the GAVIN Rap chart twice: first with his aqua-sonic anthem "Come Clean," then with "D. Original," the cut that confirmed who the first Dirty Rotten Scoundrel was. All this from a lyricist whose debut album just dropped May 24. Hard to believe? Not when you reflect on hip-hop's power to propel itself ahead against the odds—in radio and especially in media. Jeru is a professional who does just fine without all the hype. So I just chilled and listened to his mind spray...

● How does it feel to have to make music for business? Does it take the joy out of it for you?

No, but I find a lot of people try to criticize. That's the worst part of the job, everybody talkin' about what they oughta see. I get offended when people try to tell me how to do my job. You can't tell a magician how to do his tricks.

● What goes into makin' Jeru one of a kind?

I know myself, and I don't care what people think. People talk about bein' down with hip-hop, but most of the time they only know what they heard about.

● What is the difference between rap and hip-hop?

Anybody can rap, and rap is dependent on the industry. That's why there are so many rap groups. Hip-hop is not dependent. Hip-hop is raw, and it uses the raw materials, beats and mics. In hip-hop, brothers use their voice to vent frustration in a non-violent way.

● Is writing for an album different than writing for self or for pleasure?

It's natural to me. I started when I was four, so I've been doin' this longer than I've been doin' anything else.

● What is your opinion of freestyling?

Freestyling used to be what hip-hop was about. But now it's nothin'.

This is not 1979, this is not a park. This is the record business, and I do this to get paid now. Brothers ain't just "stylin' for free." Plus, you never know who will take your rhymes. People are starvin' for material in this rat race. These days freestylin' in a battle is an aggravated assault to start a fight. Only a man who's not confident in himself has to battle the next man. I know about my skills, and I show you what I want you to see. It's a misconception that freestylin' makes you da man. How are you supposed to last if all you do is freestyle?

● What makes a beat worth rhyming over?

I know what's dope to me. I only use Premier (Gang Starr). I don't use nobody else, 'cause I don't like anybody else's beats. He makes music. He doesn't do anything on purpose, his dope-ness just comes out in his music. He's real. I don't listen to much hip-hop because it influences you.

● What about music videos? Do they add to or take away from one's imagination?

I love videos. A video is a representation of how I picture my music. I do it for the brothers around the way. As long as it's cool for them nothin' else matters. I'm not on an ego trip.

● What changes are there in hip-hop to look forward to?

The real brothers are comin' out, like Nas and M.O.P. They're turning rap back into hip-hop. They don't try to be rappers or have a certain style. I'm not the same person every day, so I'm not going to have one style.

● The Sun Rises In The East finally dropped. What can people expect?

It's hard to explain...Just good music, nothing like what's out now. Pure hip-hop.

Jeru The Damaja will be on tour with Gang Starr this summer. ●

BRANDING THE RADIO STATION

Conjure up the image of being branded. The cowboy throws the calf to the ground and applies a hot branding iron to its skin. The purpose: so ranchers would know whose cattle was whose. It was a way to identify property.

When marketing products in an open, competitive marketplace, brands are used so that consumers can easily identify them. Radio stations can and should be thought of as brands. The Franchise, a new book published by the NAB, written by Lew Dickey of Stratford Research called The Franchise, explains how to build a radio brand. Dickey says, "Listeners need a convenient 'mental folder' to process the impressions gathered through product usage and exposure to marketing. This folder is provided by a consistent brand identity that is comprised of (A) the brand name and (B) the brand personality."

Dickey goes on to state that "the objective of branding is not to provide the next 'great name' for radio stations. Rather it provides a set of tools and techniques to help make any name (calls, frequency, etc.) work as a powerful asset."

The job of market research is to measure the effectiveness of the branding or to test for the potential of branding a specific product. The key measures of effectiveness are (1) brand loyalty (2) brand switching and (3) brand awareness.

BRAND LOYALTY

Brand loyalty by definition is the customer that either uses the branded product exclusively or uses it more than any other similar product. It also refers to consistent purchase of the specific brand over time. Loyal customers are satisfied that the branded product best matches their needs and desires.

Arbitron rating data can be used to measure of brand loyalty, but not just by using the book. Fingerprint was the first Arbitron product that recognized the power of brands. It breaks out the radio station's audience into First, Second and Third preference levels. The astute analyst can produce a profile of the core listener to the radio station and target the audience by Zip Code for both the station and format category. Maximizer can now examine preference listening.

"Listeners need a convenient 'mental folder' to process the impressions gathered through product usage and exposure to marketing."

The PD PROFILE[®], which is the registered trademark of the audience analysis tool produced by Research Director, Inc., can be used to measure brand effectiveness. The PD PROFILE[®] not only allows the user to see the first three preference levels, but also evaluates the total audience by adding a fourth+ preference level. That was an important development because many stations have 25 percent of their total audience who are "samplers" (fourth preference plus listeners).

AccuRatings is reporting brand loyalty as its second measure. The respondent is asked to identify the radio station they listen to most now and the one they listened to most six months ago. The answer to this data measures a trend in brand loyalty.

Arbitron ratings data measures consistency of purchase (days of listening) and amount of purchase (time spent listening). Using the Programmers Package you can find out the percentage of cume that listens by day of week and measures brand loyalty by recycling by daypart, recycling by listening location and quarter hours of listening by location.

BRAND SWITCHING

Brand switching is another measurement of a brand's effectiveness. What other radio stations do your listeners listen to? In the back of each Arbitron book there is a cume duplication table that starts you on the process of measuring this aspect of brand effectiveness. Since the winner of the ratings game is the brand that gets more quarter hours of listening than any other, a better measure of sharing is by alternative quarter-hour listening. The PD PRO-choices; Among the third preference listeners, which stations are their first and second choices?

BRAND AWARENESS

The most often used measure of brand effectiveness has been brand awareness. That can be measured in an Arbitron diary review by identifying how clearly the diarykeeper knows the station's name. Awareness can also be measured by other research techniques that determine how well the consumer can recall the brand and its function. This approach is prudent when trying to measure non-users of the product.

The ratings analysis tools are available for the radio broadcaster to measure brand awareness, brand loyalty and brand switching. What is needed is radio broadcasters to manage the radio station as a branded product. ●

New Releases

N-PHASE
"Spend The Night"
(Maverick/Sire/Reprise)

N-Phase are five young men harmonizing their way out of Rock Hill, S. C. whose smooth and sensual debut, "Spend The Night," was written and produced by R. Kelly. N-Phase's rich vocals will set the mood quickly.

BRIGETTE MCWILLIAMS
"I Get The Job Done" (Virgin)

Brigette McWilliams, daughter of Luther Vandross' back-up singer Paulette McWilliams, makes her recording debut with help from Jermaine Dupri, one of Atlanta's top producers. The funky, mid-tempoed "I Get The Job Done," with its four mixes, makes it hard to decide which version to play, but start with "On Top Of The Job Mix" and move on from there. Early adds at WJDY and KGRM.

KEITH SWEAT
"When I Give My Love" (Elektra)

When I received Keith Sweat's new single "When I Give My Love," I noticed the "Edit of LP Version" was a lengthy four and a half minutes. Sweat has his seductive croon working overtime on this ballad, and when the song fades you think, "4:30 is too short."

WEST END GIRLS with HOWARD HEWETT
"Reunited" (Calibre)

KOLORZ
"...If I Had A Wish" (Scotti Bros.)

The Bay Area's homegrown group Kolorz, release their second single, "...If I Had A Wish." Give this one a spin or two.

Radio Basics: Call Letters and the Weather

By John Lund

Last issue, John Lund of the Lund Consultants continued his series on Radio Basics and "Mechanics of Your Format," covering format options, promoting songs and features, and time checks, which took us through III-E. In his syllabus.

Now, Lund continues.

CALL LETTER ASSOCIATION

Associate calls or station name with every element:

1. References to news, air, traffic, sports talents, news persons.
2. Elements of information (weather, voicers, etc.).
3. Promotions, giveaways, contests ("Calls Say It and Win Game").
4. Program specials ("Calls American Country Countdown").
5. Miscellaneous features ("Calls Information Line"; "taking a [Calls] request").

WEATHER

1. Morning drive: Every other break should contain full forecast or abbreviated mention of what will happen today.
2. Provide current temperature with all forecasts, weather mentions, but temperature only is insufficient; include sky conditions, chance of rain, etc.
3. Schedule weather after all news (including network) programs.
4. Talents should rewrite forecast for their show. Thus, they can relate (not read) it.
5. Provide station's "weather guarantee" (every 10 minutes, 4 times per hour, etc.).

6. Begin and end with call letters or station name.
7. Avoid extraneous detail that tends to complicate copy and confuse listeners ("Calm wind conditions, barometric pressure, precipitation probability").
8. Only provide Celsius temperature references if audience includes Canadians.
9. Typical weather schedule outside of AM drive is 2 x hour unless severe conditions prevail.

PUBLIC SERVICE

1. Genuine community involvement contributes to the good image and perception of the station. Select, rewrite, and present Public Service Announcements in such a way that they become an asset to the station.
2. As part of daily show preparation, talents should select PSA topics and rewrite them for their personal use.
3. PSA should be treated as interesting information or "relatable" items that are of concern to their listeners and the community.
4. Don't treat these announcements as "formal" PSAs (as they were prior to deregulation). Rather, the talent should personalize the items like he would a concert, a public appearance or a weekend music special.
5. Don't bill this information as a "public service announcement," "community bulletin board," "a message in the public interest," etc.
6. Delete phone numbers, addresses, zip codes, and detailed information. Instead, the talent can suggest to call the station for more details.
7. These "local relatives" should be short, succinct, sincere-sounding reminders that are

8. All information should be local and relate to the target demographic
9. TLC defines a PSA as follows: "A positive description of an attraction or activity to see or do in the greater metropolitan area that is fun, interesting or informative and has appeal to the target audience."
10. Scrutinize recorded PSAs; many stations feel that the only place for a produced PSA is to fill an unsold network avail. If produced PSAs are aired, make them custom for your station with a spokesperson who reinforces the call letters and station's involvement; don't air spots that also run on competitive stations.
11. Schedule each PSA often enough to get impact and results for the client.
12. Be highly selective as to which few PSA clients get coverage
13. PSAs must have a good feeling and reflect the positive enthusiasm and fun of the radio station, and is so delivered.
14. A PSA policy includes saturation campaigns for specific local events which shows listeners that the station is community involved, cares about listeners, and makes a difference.

Please refer to The Lund Consultants' "PSA/Local Relatable" Stylebook for additional information and applications. Next Week: Our continuing Radio Basics article outlines liners, how to write 'em and deliver 'em, and why they're important.

The Lund Consultants can provide information and station success stories. Call John Lund at (415) 692-7777.

Inside A/C

It's not unusual that a single from a movie soundtrack is #1 on the A/C chart. What makes Elton John's "Can You Feel The Love Tonight" so special is that it got to the top of the chart before the film even came out. The song is three stations short of unanimous as 218 of our 221 stations are on board.

A mere 24 HEAVY reports and 16 stations separate the top four on the chart. Huey Lewis & The News (above) are only 4 HEAVY behind Elton, and Kathy Troccoli, at #4 for the third straight week, has nearly 80% of all her play in HEAVY.

Only one new record penetrates the top ten and that's John Mellencamp & Me'shell NdegeOcello's "Wild Night." With about 30% of the format not playing it you'd think it would be languishing in the 20s, but it shines because more than half are reporting it in the all-important HEAVY rotation.

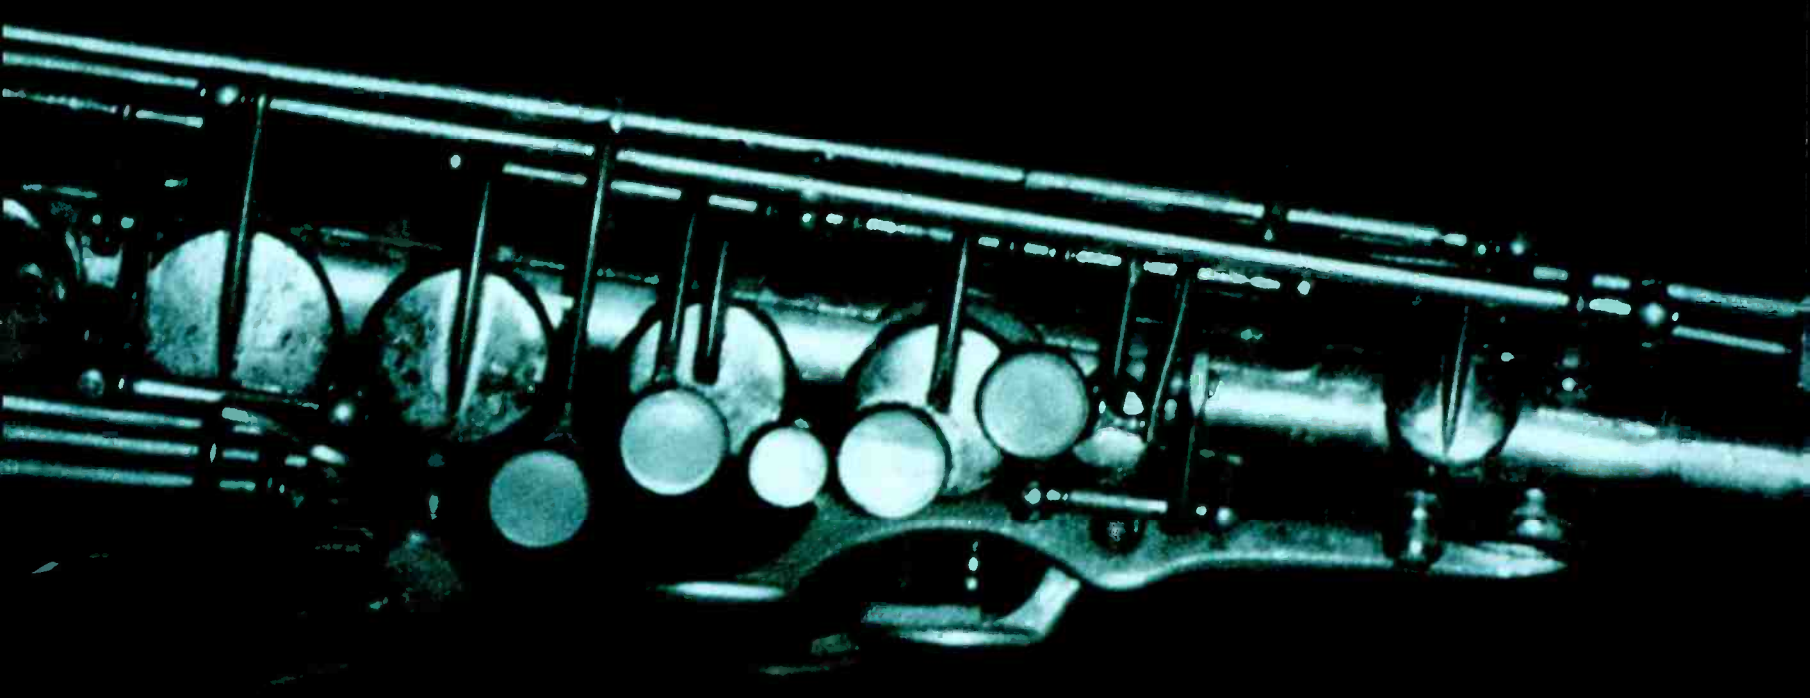

HOTTEST track in the format over the past two weeks is Stevie Nicks' triumphant comeback single, "Maybe Love Will Change Your Mind." In the past ten working days it has gone from 22% to 73% in HIT FACTOR and that has resulted in a 24-point chart gain (#39 to #15.)

Wet, Wet, Wet joins Nicks as a debut in the top 20. The Wetmen do it by making a 71% HIT FACTOR while scoring another 11 ADDs. The

New Releases

BOZ SCAGGS

"I'll Be The One" (Virgin)

In the tradition of the great songs on Silk Degrees, "I'll Be The One" glides along, cutting the coolest groove this side of "Lowdown."

RICHARD MARX

"The Way She Loves Me"

(Capitol)

Richard Marx's new single starts off with Beach Boys-type harmonies (compliments of Lionel Richie and Luther Vandross) and proceeds to rock into the sunset. Even the acoustic version on the Pro-CD is a bold contradiction to Richard's usually hushed ballads.

LAURA BRANIGAN

"How Can I Help You To Say

Goodbye?" (Atlantic)

If there's still such a thing as a "woman's song" this would certainly qualify. A few weeks ago Patty Loveless' version was #1 on the GAVIN Country chart and now Laura Branigan takes it to heart with a delicate production that's unique to the format and to the moment. It was written about co-composer Burton Banks Collins' grandmother.

MARCELLA DETROIT

"I Believe" (London/PLG)

A powerful getaway single for one half of the old duo, Shakespeare's Sister. Ms. Detroit is a veteran vocalist who preceded her Shakespearean days with a number of years in Eric Clapton's band. She knows where to take a song.

JOE COCKER and BEKKA BRAMLETT

"Take Me Home"

(550 Music/Epic Soundtrack)

Mr. Cocker, up where he belongs, teams up with the newest voice in Fleetwood Mac for a dynamic ballad taken from the soundtrack to the new film, Blown Away.

DAVID SANBORN

"Got To Give It Up" (Elektra)

A good-time party record featuring a wacky rhythm section and Sanborn's soulful alto sax. This 1977 song was the last Motown hit for Marvin Gaye before he left for Columbia Records.

AROUND FAN FAIR...

Congratulations to Neal McCoy, who not only holds the number one slot this week, but is also the proud daddy of a brand-new son.

Christian Swayde was born to McCoy and his wife of 13 years, Melinda, on Saturday, June 11.

Earlier in the week McCoy had co-hosted and performed at the Atlantic Fan Fair show, and was scheduled to perform at June Jam in Ft. Payne, Alabama Saturday.

Though McCoy has become a June Jam favorite, the crowd understood, and gave it up for the Marcy Brothers, who stepped in to take McCoy's slot...

Sawyer Brown's Mark Miller also became a father during Fan Fair, when his wife Lisa gave birth to a seven-pound, 14-ounce boy, Aden Gunnar Augustus Miller.

The prior night Sawyer Brown were named Vocal Band of the Year in the TNN/Music City News Awards...It must be something in the air, for Martina McBride also is expecting her first child, an announcement she made on stage during the RCA Fan Fair show.

The baby is due in December and Martina plans to continue touring through the end of November.

New Releases

TERRY MCBRIDE AND THE RIDE "Been There" (MCA)

The first single from this newly revamped group focuses (not suprisingly) on Terry McBride's lead vocals. It's a sweet, sad song about lost love.

DWIGHT YOAKAM "Pocket Of A Clown" (Reprise)

Stations have been chomping at the bit for the release of "Pocket Of A Clown" since Dwight performed it on the ACMs. Dwight is an undisputed original, as he demonstrates here.

DAN SEALS "All Fired Up" (Warner Bros.)

The title says it all. A lot of programmers are saying this is going to be the one to put Dan back on the charts, and it sounds like they're right. Look for the dance clubs to jump on this one.

JAMIE O'HARA "It Ain't Over ('Til Your Heart Says It's Over)" (RCA)

Jamie's debut RCA album, Rise Above It, is bound to end up on many critics' year-end "best of" lists. This beautiful, understated song is just one of ten reasons why.

FRED HERSCH THE FRED HERSCH TRIO PLAYS... (CHESKY)

Since we're nearly the same age as pianist Fred Hersch, we can relate to his choice of material for this disc, which features the fundamental compositions that influenced Hersch to become a professional jazz musician: Miles, Monk, Diz, Herbie, Trane, Sonny. This is a mass appeal jazz record all the way. While we've always admired Hersch's role as a technician and someone who likes to carefully tinker with arrangements, he preserves spontaneity by recording his tunes in groups rather than grinding them down one at a time. For instance, Miles's "Milestones" doesn't overtly swing like the original; it floats along, even though the tempo hasn't been slowed down. "Con Alma" is played sans Diz's trademark Afro-Cuban/Bebop seasonings. Hersch's henchmen, bassist Drew Gless and drummer Tom Rainey, help in this reconfiguration process, particularly on the two tempo-twisting Monk pieces, by deftly adapting to Hersch's occasional penchant for throwing in kinky 3/4 time signatures that are not played in waltz time. In his notes, Hersch acknowledges a jazz educator named Oscar Treadwell for early inspiration. That's similar to what the San Francisco Examiner's Philip Elwood did for us in college—played the classics and turned on our minds of mush to the giants of jazz.

MILT JACKSON THE PROPHET SPEAKS (QWEST/REPRISE)

With MJQ's high profile anniversary disc safely in recurrent, Milt Jackson stings the charts again with his second Qwest/Reprise solo effort. Milt's vibes are a welcome break from the usual jazz woodwind/brass/keyboards routine, but it doesn't stop there. Three tracks feature fine vocal performances by Joe Williams, culminating with a reworking of Joe Cocker's "You Are So Beautiful." Williams rephrases the basic melody and puts a lyrical satin finish atop Cocker's original note-squeezing, angst-ridden performance. If that's not enough, half of The Prophet Speaks is bolstered by Josh Redman. Our favorites, definite dinner jazz chestnuts, are the romantic ballad "Come To Me" and the dapper "Wonder Why." Cedar Walton and Jackson croon away as Redman and Williams lay out. Billy Higgins and John Clayton round out the veteran rhythm lineup. 1994 continues to be a banner year for Milt and the MJQ.

ARTIST PROFILE

NORMAN BROWN

FROM: Kansas City

LATEST RELEASE: After The Storm

LABEL: MoJazz/Motown

EVOLUTION OF A STYLE:

"My style is a blend of three elements. Live, you hear the high energy thing—bending the strings—that Jimi Hendrix was doing. You hear the Wes Montgomery influence with the octave stuff and playing with my thumb. Then there's the scatting and picking from the George Benson style."

ON SELF-PRODUCING:

"Motown gave me creative control and let me produce the record. Norman Connors, when he produced the first album, had different ideas in terms of the songs' directions. The first record came out sounding raw. This time I wanted the closest interpretations to the actual tunes I wrote. I picked from the cast that was playing with me on the road—Herman Jackson, Land Richards, Gail Johnson. (Bassist) Freddie Washington didn't play on the road, but I liked his sound and style."

ON "LYDIAN": "I wrote that tune from the bassline that was buzzing around my head. Originally, based on the demo, Motown wasn't sure if they wanted that one on. I put it in a sequencer and eventually the melody and everything came together. That kalimba part is actually sampled keyboard."

The Gavin A³ Bulletin Board Reminder

Lots of new things will be happening inside the Gavin A³ section in the weeks and months to come, including:

1. Gavin A³ Special Anniversary Issue. It will be our issue dated July 1st. Response to our faxed questionnaire has already been great! If you haven't filled out your Anniversary Issue Questionnaire, please do so immediately. Radio, please answer the two questions. Promotion folks, answer the same questions plus send us your tentative release schedule. If you're wondering what this is all about and haven't received the fax, call us and we'll fax you one pronto. Deadline is now!

2. Gavin A³ Strategy Summit, August 25, 26, 27. Lots of you are calling about our second annual soiree. Here's a progress report as well as a bit of clarification. Right now we're looking to firm up the three nights at the Fox Theater (Friday is already booked solid!) and Clarion showcases by the last week of June. Some of you who attended last year are already setting up sponsorships and booking your rooms. Don't forget to ask for the GAVIN rate. However please remember, like last year, the Summit is by invitation only. Unlike our February Seminar which is open (come one come all), the Summit is an exclud strategy retreat that GAVIN uses to determine our yearly A³ course, hence attendance will be limited due to physical room and ticket constraints. We expect to mail out invitation/registration information by the first week of July. Stay tuned.

JIMMY LAFAVE

Highway Trance

"Highway Trance puts Jimmy LaFave in the first rank of roots rockers to emerge from Austin, Texas... His vocal tone and texture suggests Gasoline Alley-era Rod Stewart, his phrasing recalls Sieve Forbert, his songwriting shows equal passion for road-house rock and romantic balladry, and his Night Tribe band is a killer."

12 COOL DISCS THAT SLID BY AND WHY VOL. I

Okay, okay! "We'll try to get to it next week." That's what we all say, but do we always succeed? Here's a collection of discs that were never written up but are certainly worthy of special attention. Better late than never, as the saying goes.

PETE DROGE
Necktie Second
(American Recordings)

Necktie Second is an example of some of the strongest New American songwriting lost amid the Zimmermen's office rubble. "Fourth Of July" is the best treatment of that holiday since Aimee Mann and Dave Alvin each took a pen to Independence Day. While "Sunspot

"Stopwatch" mentioning Rickie Lee Jones makes me feel a little bit old, it's nonetheless a great song. "Two Steppin' Monkey" is unabashed, vintage Costello. Hell, the damned record went 50-36 by the time I finally cleared my desk top.

LLOYD COLE
Bad Vibes (Ryko)

An import of this one has been lounging in the Zimmerman abode since last December. Now out on Ryko, domestic mingo-Lloyds can stay in touch with Cole's New York output by tracking this through. In addition to singing, Lloyd's been posing with super models on the side. Life is tough.

YARDSALE
(Western Front)

We keep coming back to this indie disc cut by Chicago's Yardsale. It's raw, melodic and pounding. Stations who like that alternative edge should check this one out. Better yet, have a Yardsale!!!

THE IGUANAS
Nuevo Boogaloo
(Margaritaville/MCA)

The debate rages, two or three "o's" on "Boogaloo?" We'll go with three, just like it's spelled out on the spine. As I learned from my Texas buddies, Bob "Daddy-O" Wade and Detective Kinky Friedman, the iguana is a tropical critter not unlike this music, which you might find refreshing. Finally, you can rock and rumba simultaneously!

Steve James American Primitive

STEVE JAMES
American Primitive (Antone's)

The closest thing to a new Robert Johnson blues record you're liable to ever get. Steve James is an exceptional acoustic blues master in the white traditional stylist role that John Hammond pioneered in the sixties.

DAVID KNOPFLER
The Giver (Mesa)

TISH HINOJOSA

FROM: South Texas

LATEST RELEASE: Destiny's Gate

LABEL: Warner Bros.

CONTACT: Jon Grimson, (615) 214-1418

BRIEF OVERVIEW: During high school, Tish began recording jingles and regional Top 10 singles for the Latino market. In 1979, under the influences of progressive country, she moved to the mountains of New Mexico. After a frustrating two years in Nashville, Tish returned to New Mexico in 1985, and cut an independent cassette, Taos To Tennessee in 1987. After moving to Austin in '88, Tish recorded Homeland with Steve Berlin for A&M Americana. 1992's Culture Swing on Rounder was voted Folk Album Of The Year by NAIRD. Destiny's Gate marks Tish's triumphant return to Nashville. She sings on behalf of groups like United Farmworkers, AIDS awareness, Hispanic school children and Central American peace groups.

ON BALANCING LOVE AND POLITICS: "I thought, okay, if I'm going to write songs, I'm really going to scratch up against my real soul and see what's in there. Of course, I wrote the love songs, or hurt songs, or whatever the romantic thing is, but also, another challenge was to write about the social issues I feel strongly about. It's a mixture that worked out well for me. And the new result is on the album."

After exiting Dire Straits post-Making Movies, David Knopfler opted for a normal life. Well, almost. The Giver is David's sixth album. He's got that Knopfler vocal growl, but the music is less Straits cinematic and more DK intimate. Who's that playing guitar on "Domino?"

WAR
Peace Symbol (Avenue)

War?! Why the hell not? During the underground radio daze, War was one of those bands who broke down barriers just as underground radio's commercial muscle was being felt. War navigated the Chicano/Gringo/R&B/rock n roll wave of diversity decades before "multiculturalism" became a PC cliché. While the low riders and hip hoppers are laying a claim to the band, there's some cool rock n roll to be reckoned with here. Yes, that's Jose Feliciano wailing on our favorite track, "East L.A."

LIVE
Throwing Copper
(Radioactive/MCA)

Eric Lowen (of the well-traveled Lowen & Navarro duo) swears this is really him standing next to Vice President Gore as opposed to a cardboard standup.

Better R.E.M. than even R.E.M. turns out these days. KKSF's Steve Feinstein recommended "Selling The Drama" over lunch last week. Damned if he isn't right. Cool album, too.

KISS MY ASS
Classic Kiss Regrooved
(Mercury)

While we were never exactly Kiss army recruits, we have loads of respect for the band's legacy which they earned the hard way. Here's a Kiss-sanctioned collection of covers. Linda Ryan swears by Garth Brook's cover of "Hard Luck Woman." We prefer Gin Blossom's "Christine Sixteen." For a special message, lift off the black part of the CD jewel box.

DISAPPEAR FEAR
In A Moment (Philo/Rounder)

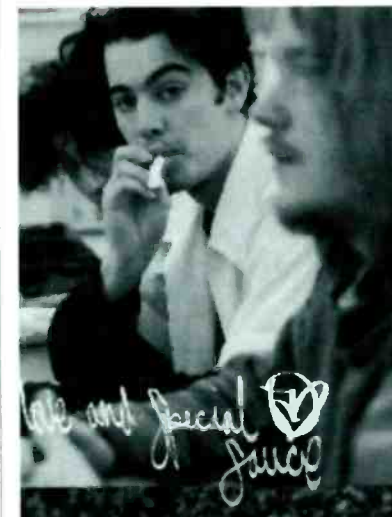

We see the emergence of a punk, renegade folk music brewing on the horizons. Disappear Fear sounds like the next generation of such a movement started by the Roches, Steve Forbert, George Gerdes and later the Washington Squares. This is edgy stuff as heard on "Fix My Life"—"Your cool black case of HIV/Attacking our society/Condoms became a way of life/without it, man/your dick's a knife." Like the recent 22 Brides, Disappear Fear rock out, reggae a little, generally escaping an easy folksy category. Guests include Janis Ian, both Indigos. Produced by Craig Krampf (who produced the first Melissa Etheridge album).

B-TRIBE
Fiesta Fatal
(Atlantic)

Admittedly it's a little like low rent Gipsy Kings meets Enigma meets Deep Forest. B-Tribe (short for Barcelona Tribe) is intriguing nonetheless. Some of the A³ biggies already have this in secret weapon rotation.

G. LOVE & SPECIAL SAUCE
(Okeh/Epic)

Don Strassberg of Boulder's Fox Theater warned us, every Coloradoan into cool music is raving about G. Love. In the spirit of the old Okeh label (now revised with this and Keb'Mo'), G. Love is a white boy making great race music. It's Howlin' Wolfish, Little Feat, beat Beefhearted, strange and cool, Beastie Boys meet Lowell George. Dig "Blues Music."

MARILYN MANSON

"Get Your Gun"

(Nothing/Interscope)

A combination of industrial and metal, Marilyn Manson brings their screaming, pulverizing rock sound to you from the deep South of Florida. You'll find plenty of squealing guitars, bashing drums, vibrant bass slams and scathing vocals on "Get Your Gun" which is from the album Portrait Of An American Family due out July 5. The demented lyrics compliment the band's hard edge sound. WKNC, KDUK, WSOU, WMW, WSGR, WCWP, WEOS, KZRQ, WVBR and WMHB are already giving this some spins.

COVEN

HOMEBASE: Seattle

LINEUP: Paul Hash, guitar/vocals; Dean Babbit, bass; Jay Clark, vocals; Jason Moody, drums, Russ Stefanovich, guitar

ALBUM: Boneless Christian

LABEL: Ever Rat/Red Light Records

PRODUCED BY: Coven

MIXED/ENGINEERED: Mike Foss

SINGLE: "Boneless Christian"

DEAN BABBIT TALKS ABOUT:

RECORDING: "We recorded Boneless Christian in two weeks and were in the studio only 40 hours. It was done on a 16-track digital setup. It's just straight guitar, bass and drums."

THE MIXING: "It's very important that you're able to hear our lyrics. They're unusual and they're tongue-in-cheek. They wouldn't work if they were growling lyrics. Paul really sounds angry when he sings and he gets the songs across just right."

THE PRODUCING: "We've tried to get producers, but no one will touch us. Maybe producers are looking more to projects that will be selling lots of records. We write that off by having our kind of lyrics. Our music could be mainstream, like Pantera, with a heavy double bass and speed guitar with a groove. We know how we should sound so we just do it ourselves."

THE WRITING: "Paul has been fine-tuning his lyrical abilities for a while. Our second album on Ever Rat Records was called Blessed Is The Black and it was all satanic humor with some tongue-in-cheek lyrics. Enigma/Medusa signed us in 1989 and since they wouldn't print any obscene words we mellowed out a bit. The music got more technical, but the lyrics got more serious. We lost something there so Coven broke up for a while and formed another band. Now we're back on Ever Rat Records with Red Light distribution. We were told we could do anything we wanted. So we thought a lot about what kind of lyrics to write. They had to be offensive. When things get too serious they turn into a joke and so we use our twisted sense of humor. Paul is responsible for most of the lyrics and he writes a lot of the music."

ARTWORK: "A friend of mine, John Van Deusen, did the artwork. He came into my shop one day with some artwork he'd done for a band called Forced Entry. I meet a lot of artists because I run my own t-shirt business. I could tell that he was a great artist even though what he showed us wasn't at all like our cover. John is an excellent air brush technician and he does the human form better than anyone I've ever seen. The artwork on Boneless Christian ties into our first album. If you get the cassette you can see the entire sketch and it's also complete on the t-shirt that I did. John actually works eight hours a day airbrushing people from a photo onto tombstones."

AIRPLAY: "To most people this is our first album, and musically, we've never been ready until this record. We've never had a full package with the music and production on the same level. We've finally found our niche. We didn't try as hard this time and it turned out much better. Today even some of the best bands aren't getting airplay. We didn't count on airplay with tunes like "Christcycle/Reaming The Pope" "Satanic As Hell" "F*ckin' A Nun" and "Organic God," but we hope it'll turn around."

TOURING: "We're still looking for a good booking agent. We played some shows in Chicago and we were really mismatched. Evidently, the booking agent didn't even listen to our music. Our ideal tour would be with Slayer. Our music and Slayer's music would really fit together. Even Pantera would work because I'm sure they have a good sense of humor."

Hard Rock Releases

CYCLONE TEMPLE My Friend Lonely (Monsterdisc)

Blasting out of Chicago's metal scene is Cyclone Temple, delivering a barrage of full-scale hard metallic rock. The single "My Friend Lonely" has been out for a few weeks and has received a good amount of airplay on college radio and deservedly so because it capitalizes on the type of luring grind metal listeners find irresistible. Now it's time to dig your teeth into the full album, and revel in the deep canyons of guitar-driven metal that traverse through each song. Cyclone Temple (Greg Fulton, guitar; Scott Schafer, bass; John Slattery, drums; Sonny Deluca, vocals) offers a sound that may be similar to notorious metal bands like Pantera or Prong but they keep things original with quick time changes, massive guitar hooks and scratchy vocals that go hand and hand with the grisly rhythms and thick melodies. Fulton is the band's backbone, writing all the lyrics and music and displaying impressive guitar grinding abilities that has gotten the nod from the likes of Pantera's "Dimebag" Darrel, 24-7 Spyz's Jimi and Sepultura's Max Cavalera. Some pretty good references, wouldn't you say? All tracks except "My Friend Lonely," "Comfortably Superficial" and "Time Heals All" have previously been released as an EP on Progressive Records which is now out of print. The tracks have been re-recorded and feature Deluca's vocals. Deluca joined the band after EP was released, so this is a fresh album. Listen for the hidden track after "Time Heals All". A commanding hard rock/metal band with potential. Enjoy.

HELMET Betty (Interscope)

The Crow soundtrack is shining the spotlight on bands like STP, For Love Not Lisa, Rollins Band, Pantera and of course Helmet, whose "Milktoast" has already captured praise from many a station

(This track is slightly different on the album and single; it appears as "Milquetoast"). The single has made the rounds to rock radio leaving listeners drooling with anticipation for more new material. Now that you have the full album in your hands, you may play God and provide your listeners with several of Helmet's rockin' tunes. Sift through and see what Betty has to offer. You'll discover that the band has kept its original sound intact while adding a whole new dimension of psychedelia and sputteral guitar feats with the addition of new guitarist Rob Echeverria. Vocalist and guitarist Page Hamilton treats us to persuasive vocals that can glide smoothly or rip through Henry Borden's patented bass romps and John Stanier's crashing drum beats. Betty offers tunes that will attract alternative, rock and metal listeners, and hopefully it will achieve the commercial success that bands like STP and Soundgarden are currently enjoying. All the tracks are worth a listen, especially "Rollo," "Wilma's Rainbow," "Biscuits For Smut," "Tic" and "I Know."

REPULSA (S.O.B. Entertainment)

Spawned from the seething pulpit of San Francisco's sleazy underground music scene, Repulsa, is one of the more intimidating perpetrators of extremist rock. Mean as a banshee and emitting more attitude than Howard Stern and Rush Limbaugh smashed together, Repulsa delivers spitfire vocals loaded with venomous universal loathing that screeches across gritty guitar rhythms, smashing drums and metallic bass lines. Not for the easy listener, Repulsa will appeal to listeners who have a perpetual need to mosh and bash the hell out of each other. This self-titled debut could stir the comatose with tracks like "Sex Pig," "World Gone Mad," "Fuck Yourself," "I Want You Dead" (the focus track), "Bag Lady," "Dead Bitch," "Big Lie" and "Everyday Psycho" (the inspiration for this song probably came after a walk down Haight Street). Not one iota of subtlety can be found on this album because there's no room for such trivia and it just doesn't fit with the fire-branding persona of Repulsa and company who emit rakish thrash metallic rock without mercy. If you feel your station can handle such a force call S.O.B. Entertainment at (510) 841-4762 and demand your copy.

Inside Alternative

It was five years ago this week that I received a phone call from GAVIN's Kent Zimmerman and former GAVIN-ite Lee Michaels telling me I "got the job." I was nervous, but I clearly remember them telling me over the speaker phone that there were a couple office-type rules I had to follow: 1) Nothing hung on the wall unless it was framed and mounted. 2) No pictures of naked men. I was really nervous, and squeaked back, "Right. No naked men unless I've mounted them." It took a full five seconds before either of them laughed—those were the longest five seconds of my life. Five years. Whew.

What a weekend! More music, more sun, more screaming fans than any one person could ask for. Some of the highlights at Live 105's BFD included amazing sets from James, Beck and The Pretenders, who raised quite a few eyebrows. Also raising eyebrows were local boys Green Day, whose singer Billie Joe had such a splendid time showing off the, uh, fourth member of the group onstage in S.F. that he reprised event the next day in L.A. and again in San Diego. Hey Billie Joe, that's not what they meant by Weenie Roast and Big Friggin' Deal. Although GAVIN's Seana Baruth might disagree. She was quite impressed with the whole display. "He's huge," were her exact words. I believe.

Other highlights of KROQ's Weenie Roast included Beck ("I'm a goldfish baby, so why don't you feed me."), Afghan Whigs (below with KROQ staff), James, Pavement and Offspring, who all but tore down the house. My ears are still ringing. I also enjoyed talking to KPOI's Ted Taylor, X-96's Seanboy, WZRH's Christain Unruh and 91X's Mike Halloran. I'm told that KTCL's Mary Moses and KDEO's Ken Flynn were there too, but I couldn't find 'em anywhere.

Cooliest T-shirt: KROQ's Rodney Bingenheimer's brand new Oasis T (see above) that he got in while London checking out Creation Records' Undrugged concert extravaganza. He waxed glowingly about the acoustic concert, which featured a slew of Creation bands including The Boo Radleys, whose set was augmented by a huge choir. Catch The Boos on Lollapalooza this summer—choir not included.

ALTERNATIVE

I didn't make it out to 91X-San Diego's Sun Fest, but from all accounts it was a smashing success. Aside from the usual suspects, The Church, Maggie Estep and The Smitherens shared the stage, but once again, it was James and Green Day who brought the house down. In fact, James almost incited a riot when Tim Booth invited the crowd to "come a little closer." And Green Day, who never have trouble getting close to their fans, invited a joint-throwing fan onstage to smoke with them. Needless to say, no one was surprised when Kevin Stapleford and his wife Dawn Gallagher took off for Alaska as soon as the hoopla was over. Now that's a smart idea.

Don't ask me what possessed me to go from the Weenie Roast to another concert, but I did. Must've been the sun. Anyway, I saw a very hot show from April's Motel Room. Look for their CD-5 on your desk at this very moment.

If you haven't checked out the July issue of Spin with super-cute Beck on the cover, what are you waiting for?

WOXY-Cincinnati is the station featured in this issue's A Day In The Life Of Rock And Roll installment. Sounds like Jim Greer (that's Kim Deal's hubby, I believe) had a blast hanging out with the WOXY gang!

Speaking of WOXY, check out

I'm feeling supersonic, give me gin and tonic. Since we mentioned the Creation band Oasis a few paragraphs ago, let me just say for the record that their single,

"Supersonic," is the best thing to come out of England in quite some time. I've wasted more money on crap New Wave Of New Wave bands. it's ridiculous. (And Oasis aren't even New Wave so I don't know how they got stuck with that tag.) New Wave Of New Wave. How desperate must the English music press be to come up with something like that? And the weird thing is, they're obviously trying to kick-start a scene currently overrun with American talent, so why venture into the whole new wave/punk rock thing? Don't they realize that with bands like Green Day, Possum Dixon, Offspring, Weezer and The Figgs, we'll kick their butt?

WAPS-Akron's Becky Wagner has indeed left the station in search of that omnipresent "industry gig." The lucky girl is going to drive across the country on what she's dubbed a "no reservations allowed" tour first, and will hopefully have some interesting Kerouac-type stories to share by the time she hits Tinseltown. Anyone with job ideas should get in touch with her after July 1 at (714) 898-0079.

Former KKDJ-Fresno music director Sat Bisla faxed me an update on life in Fresno these days. He's booking his brother's nightclub (called Bisla's) and is looking for talent. They're having a grand opening party on July 1, and industry folk are most welcome. Give Sat a call at (209) 263-4824 or 436-8753 and let him know you're coming. Sat's also looking for promotional items to give away on opening night, so if you can help him out, he'd really appreciate it.

Do yourself a favor and make a point to catch The Gigolo Aunts, Buffalo Tom and The Lemonheads while they're touring

THE FIGGS

Low-Fi At Society High (Imago)

With a rallying cry of "Step back and let's go pop," The Figgs pin the cool-o-meter needle in the red, exploding in a flurry of guitars and bouncing bass. A couple of years ago—hell, make that last year—this album wouldn't have been thought of as a commercial venture, but the phenomenal success of Green Day (not to mention Possum Dixon, the Offspring and Weezer) has changed the rules, and opened a few doors in doing so. Enter The Figgs. Armed and loaded with 15 buzzing sugar-bullets, The Figgs will rob you of your senses and take your CD player hostage. Chances are, at some point during the perusal of Low-Fi..., you'll hit the repeat button to prolong that amphetamine-laced, manic pop thrill. Good thing The Figgs are just as potent on the first listen as they are on the fifth, the tenth, or the twentieth. This is fun, damn it! Favorite tracks include "Cherry Blow Pop," "Favorite Shirt," "Slow Down," "Wasted Pretty" and "Stood Up!," which clocks in just under one-and-a-half minutes. Pogo, anyone? —LINDA RYAN

VELVET CRUSH "Hold Me Up" (550)

I hate to sound redundant, but is it my imagination or is commercial radio embracing power pop like never before? Well, okay—like not since 1982 or something. And I doubt that one really has anything to do with the other, but Mitch Easter has come out from behind his production board and signed on with Velvet Crush—at least for their live shows. Timing is everything, and Easter's addition to one of the finest bands to walk the Earth can only mean better things to come. "Hold Me Up" is one of those fun songs you sing along to without realizing it. Soaring harmonies and jangly, ringing guitars abound on this track, and although it's not exactly the best production job we've heard (the drums are a bit muddy and the backing vocals could've been brought forward in the mix more), we'll take it. And if you want to hear some killer slide guitar, check out the two non-album tracks, Gram Parsons' "One Hundred Years From Now" and "Don't You Slip Away From Me." —LINDA RYAN

REDD KROSS "Visionary" (Mercury)

It isn't often that a band is publicly lauded by the likes of Sonic Youth, Stone Temple Pilots and (yikes!) Def Leppard, but Redd Kross isn't exactly your ordinary, run-of-the-mill sort of band. Redd Kross are, in fact, larger than life, and so are the records they make. Case in point is their latest single, "Visionary"—a wonderful ruckus underscored with a cool organ and plenty of guitars. On the road all summer with Stone Temple Pilots and The Meat Puppets. —LINDA RYAN

MEDICINE Sounds Of Medicine (American)

The Sounds Of Medicine is a six-song EP consisting mostly of remixed versions of some of our favorite Medicine songs. On "Time Baby 3," the band has enlisted the help of production guru Robin Guthrie, but he's not the only Cocteau Twin to make his presence known on the track, as chanteuse Elizabeth Frazier also leaves her vocal imprint behind. As far as commercial radio goes, this beautiful track is the one for you. It is your spoonful of sugar to help the Medicine go down. Everyone else will enjoy a slightly more dissonant sound on tracks like the Billy Corgan-produced "She Knows Everything," and "Little Miss Drugstore," as well as two new songs, "Little Slut" and "Zelzah." —LINDA RYAN

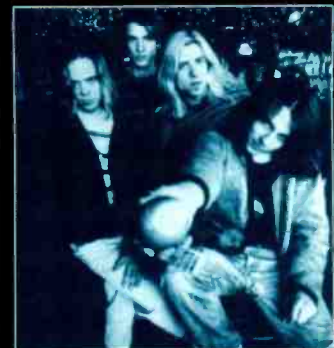

VARIOUS ARTISTS Rock Instrumental Classics Volumes 1-5 (Rhino)

Not one, but five (count 'em!) discs comprise this set of 90 instrumentals. Strange how technology can sound more primal than a human voice, but these tunes evince the instrumental's undeniable power. Volume 1: the fifties delves into the roots that would soon distangle into surf, soul and classical-tinged pieces. Preston Epps' classic "Bongo Rock" features a flurry of bongos, and a sparkling guitar sets the stage for inspired percussion blitzes. The frenzy of Link Wray's "Raw-Hide" laid the tracks for surf music, and essentials like The Champ's "Tequila" and Santo & Johnny's "Sleep Walk" are cornerstones in the instrumental pantheon. In Volume 2: the sixties, more experimental areas of reverb and distortion are embraced by forward-thinking groups.

GIGOLO AUNTS

FROM: Boston, MA/Potsdam, NY

THEY ARE: Dave Gibbs, Steve Hurley, Phil Hurley, and Paul Brouwer.

AVERAGE AGE: 26

AVERAGE SHOWS PER WEEK: 5

CURRENT RELEASE:
Flippin' Out (RCA)

HOW THEY GOT THEIR NAME:
Dave Gibbs' dad suggested his favorite Syd Barrett track on Barrett.

BANDS THEY OPENED FOR: Big Star, the Cranberries, Suede, & The Wonder Stuff. This summer: Counting Crows & Doughboys.

FACT: Alex Chilton asked Dave and Phil to join Big Star, but European dates clashed with the offer.

ON ENDURANCE: "Everyone in the band is obsessed with making music that will sound as good twenty years from now as it does at this moment...songs about enduring human concerns and feelings...we aspire to be timeless." —S.H.

ON BEING POP MISFITS: "In our own way, we sort of fly in the face of what's fashionable and cool. The only thing we worry about is being good. We're a little too weird to be a mainstream commercial act, but we don't really fit in with the slacker mode on account of we work too hard." —D.G.

IT'S BEEN SAID: [Flippin' Out] "It's glorious music; absolutely, the Gigolo Aunts are much better than the Fanclub—beautiful singing, tuffer guitars, cleverer songs." — Select

BAILTER SPACE

Vortura (Matador)
As the Gordons (an earlier version of New Zealand's Bailter Space) the band is said to have influenced and shaped the sound of Sonic Youth and others on the Blast First roster. However, they've languished largely unlauded while the pastoral pop of their countrymen has received the bulk of the recognition. Maybe that's about to change, because this week Bailter Space's Vortura makes a weighty debut at #21.

RECORD TO WATCH

THE JESUS LIZARD

Show
(Collision Arts/Giant)
Long time college faves and live legends the Jesus Lizard offer a live record, Show, as their major label debut. Eleven adds this week include KUCI, WBNY, WNUR, WNYU, WRFL, WRVU, WTUL, WUNH, WUSC, WUTK and WKRR. Expect more action in the weeks to come. Expect an all-new full-length on Touch and Go in the fall.

Memphis' Grifters shoot into the top ten this week from #19. The band's biggest support comes from WTUL-New Orleans, where, says co-MD Anthony DelRosario, Crappin' You Negative has held the #1 spot for three weeks running.

For those of you wondering about Tim Cook, formerly the infamous radio promo guy at Seattle's C/Z label (although the way people turn over at college stations, I'm not sure how many of y'all remember Tim), he's up and started his own label. Tim, along with ex-C/Z co-workers Greg Belmap and Terry Farrel (no relation to Perry), has formed the El Recordo imprint, and their first three releases will be Silkworm's Libertine LP (August 15), The Frogs' Racially Yours disc (October) and an as-yet-unnamed effort from the August Sons. Contact El Recordo at 1916 Pike Place #12-370, Seattle, WA, 98101-1056. Phone: (206)467-6483. FAX: (206)621-8397.

As of this week, KUGS in Bellingham has a new music director, Chris Bothel, who's a Scorpio—so stay on his good side. Chris replaces Bryan Ritter, who'll return to the station as a DJ in the fall. Call Chris at (206)650-2936 and welcome him aboard.

Palace Songs/The Palace Brothers (above) make #3 Chartbound this week, a somewhat unusual feat for a vinyl 7". In fact, spunky Errol Kolosine at WVFS-Tallahassee proclaims it the station's hottest record. Indeed, it's their #3 Heavy and it received almost as much airplay as both Sonic Youth and the Beastie Boys. If someone out there can clear up the name change confusion that this release has wrought, please call me so I don't have to (gulp) call Drag City. And, speaking of WVFS, although he didn't feel like putting it in writing, Errol wanted to agree with last week's anti-college-chart-by-spins-per-week argument by WNYU's Laure Parsons. Spins-per-week, Errol asserts, would "further encourage college radio's homogenization." Alright, y'all, let's consider the jury out on the SPW issue.

While ex-Beggars Banquet promotions person Scott Perry is in between jobs, he's decided to apply his prodigious promotional talent in another arena—product promo. It seems that Scott's got a part in an upcoming Snapple commercial. Cool!

Finally, Akron's WAPS has announced that they're changing position on the FM dial. A "bigger, stronger, clearer" WAPS can be found at 91.3 later this summer. Catch 'em at that frequency when you vacation in Akron in August.

Hallmarks include B. Bumble & The Stingers madcap keyboard romp "Bumble Boogie" and Jorgan Ingmann's haunting "Apache." The Markett's definitive version of "Out Of Limits" stretches the possibilities of the genre using guitar, horns, a triangle, a kettle drum, maracas and an organ. Volume 3: the seventies takes a little of the edge off and devolves into disco, but the stabbing funk of Billy Preston's "Outa-Space" or the anthemic crunch of Gary Glitter's "Rock And Roll, Part 2" (now a fixture at sporting events) can still make a body behave like a hooked worm. My favorite disc is Volume 4: Soul which drenches every cranny with soulful bastings. Booker T. & The MG's "Green Onions" sets the pace, the rumbling bounce of the Mar-Key's "Last Night" works like an ear massage, and Alvin Cash's "Twine Time" will have catatonics taking up aerobics. Finally, comes Volume 5: Surf. When liner note writer Teisco Del Ray thanks goodness that there were no music videos during surf music's heyday he hits on surf's strong suit—that it allows the listener space to conjure images in his own mind. Check out the Pyramid's perennial "Penetration" and Dick Dale's rattle-rousing "Miserlou." The tumble-wet rumble of Johnny Fortune's "Soul Surfer" shoots a wet volt, and staples like the Chantay's "Pipeline" or The Surfari's "Wipe Out" have aged gracefully. The informative, engaging liner notes to all volumes make me want any of these writers to ink my obituary and make it sound cool, but the bottom line is that these tracks will evoke the muse in everyone.

HELMET
Betty (INTERSCOPE/ATLANTIC,
10900 WILSHIRE BLVD., SUITE 1230,
LOS ANGELES, CA 90024)

Helmet breaks some new ground on their second full-length for Interscope, a concisely entitled LP called Betty. Although they're still flexing the heavy, bulging muscles they toned at Amphetamine Reptile, Page Hamilton and company seem to have relaxed just a tad and have occasionally tapped into a long-dormant reverence for groove, a slight transformation for which producer T-Ray may be partially responsible. T-Ray, who's known primarily for his work with hip-hop acts, was behind the board for Helmet's collaboration with House Of Pain for the Judgment Night soundtrack, and he shares producing credits with the band on this disc. Most of the cuts I prefer here lean heavily on rhythmic bass grooves, especially the single, the awesome "Biscuits For Smut," "Milquetoast" (a version that's slightly different from the one on the advance EP), and "Rollo." Also noteworthy are "Vaccination," which balances a spuzz-heavy guitar riff with a delightfully boxy snare; the relatively low-key, smarmy "The Silver Hawaiian" and my absolute fave, the twangy (yes, twangy) "Sam Hell." As my little sister from North Carolina would say (she regularly mixes slang terms) this effort is "one fly Betty."

JAVELIN BOOT
For Those About To Pop
(P.O. BOX 50241, AUSTIN, TX 78763)

Warning: Don't listen to this album if you've (a) recently split from your true love, (b) lost your best friend, or (c) are having an identity crisis. These songs sound cheery enough, but the lyrics are all

"remember when" heartache; they belong on dedication shows, like, "Uh, hi, my name is Sally and, uh, I'd like to you to play 'Everywhere' for Bobby 'cause I really, really miss him." Then, when the DJ plays it, poor Sally sobs into her pillow to the line, "Then she's happy on the phone/Til she asks 'Are you alone/ and he says 'No.'" Ouch! With non-stop strummy guitars and buckets o' layered choruses, Javelin Boot have already popped—now they're oozing love-lorn goo on gluttons like Sally and me. I recommend sending "No Regrets" to your love, "Sometimes" to your ex-best friend (love those Mike Mills-y vocals), and the reaffirming "Lana Knows" to your most-recently-ditched acquaintance. Keep the chanting chorus of "Let Me Down," the guitar rambling of "Hollywood Ending," and the swinging "Sugars" for yourself. Most memorable moment here? This lyric: "There's a million fish in the sea, but most of them are floating on the top."

MAN...
OR ASTRO-MAN?
Destroy All Astro-men!!
(ESTRUS RECORDS, P.O. BOX 2125
BELLINGHAM, WA 98227)

Any band that thanks boss instrumental groups like Huevos Rancheros and The Flat Duo Jets, chalks up 19 irrepressible instrumentals (plus two vocal tracks) and features the prowess of Coco The Electronic Monkey Wizard must be doing something right. Welcome to the Astro-world of a guitar that gargles with reverb, bizarre T.V. sound bites and arresting percussion. "Joker's Wild" scales the heights with a relentless guitar that never lets on which direction it will fly to next, and "Intoxica" surges with sections of guitar volleying back and forth between chords in true surf fashion. Instead of dying by misadventure, MOA seems to live by it, and headfirst dives like the rocking "Bambora" have no heed for safety or convention. Check out "Reverb 10,000's" fluidy sound snippets, lunging guitar work and fluttering drums, and "Of Sex And Demise's" countrified yawl. Don't miss "The Heavies (Let's Surf The River Of Blood's)" spastic bass line, and "Madness In The Street's" cartwheeling high end organ. I've heard that MOA live performances mix the media of television and silly putty in a unique way. Dave Bob

Singles

YOUSSOU N'DOUR & NENEH CHERRY 7 Seconds (Chaos)

Music to stir the senses combined with lyrics that make a powerful case for our common humanity. "7 Seconds" is especially powerful in light of recent events in South Africa and it's made that much more riveting by the melding of these two voices. It's worth spending some time with this amazing track.

TEVIN CAMPBELL Always In My Heart (Qwest/Warner Bros.)

Already showing up with significant airplay, young Tevin is doing just what many expected he would. Follow one hit after another off I'm Ready. Chalk up number three.

BILLY LAWRENCE Happiness (eastwest)

Judging by this debut effort, we can plan on hearing the name Billy Lawrence a lot for years to come. Only 22, she co-wrote and co-produced this brilliant release that our Urban editor Bill Speed has been screaming about for weeks. Easy to understand why.

CECE PENISTON I'm Not Over You (A&M/Perspective)

Some artists have a way with setting just the right mood. That seems to be a gift that CeCe's been blessed with, and she has no problem putting this song through its proper paces.

KEITH SWEAT When I Give My Love (Elektra)

A summertime slow jam for lovers only. Well-versed at infusing infusing sensuality into his ballads, Keith Sweat has taken his art to a new level.

MICHAEL DAMIAN Time Of The Season (Wildcat/Uni)

Television star turned Broadway sensation, Michael was barely out of kindergarten when The Zombies took this song to Number One in 1969. He resurrects this title song, from his new album, with a smooth contemporary approach.

D:REAM U R The Best Thing (Sire/Reprise)

In what may be a first, here's a track that has appeared on this page twice in the last year. D:Ream has a new label affiliation, so we'll try it one more time. A huge hit overseas, it's had some spotty regional success but now, hopefully it'll get the full-court press.

WARREN G. Regulate...G Funk Era (Violator/RAL/Def Jam)

Warren G. brings the sound of his Long Beach 'hood to stereos across America in grand, mackadocious style. The talented producer/vocalyticist distinguishes himself from his homie Snoop Doggy Dogg (Snoop Rock as he was called in his pre-platinum days) and from his brother Dr. Dre with flavorful acoustic soul samples on "And Ya Don't Stop" and "This Is The Shack." Warren's songflow style gangsta leans o-so-nicely against "Do You See" and "What's Next," two cuts destined to follow the smash-hit path the "G-Child" has laid with "Regulate" and "This D.J." Appearances by Lil Malik, ragga mama Lady Levi and newcomers Jah Skills, The Twins, and The Dove Shack are refreshing touches. This one's red hot for '94.

—THEMBISA S. MSHAKA

SARA HICKMAN Necessary Angels (Discovery)

We all need an angel once in a while and for Sara Hickman it was the volunteer army that helped her buyout her contract with Elektra so this album could be heard. This set, the third of her big league career and first for Discovery, is typical of Hickman's Trojan Horse-like approach to music. Waif-like and acoustic, she almost contradicts the strength and vivid imagery of her literate and moving music. Hickman is equal doses poetic genius and psychiatric couch "potatoe."

—RON FELL

GRANDMASTER FLASH Message From Beat Street: The Best of Grandmaster Flash, Melle Mel & The Furious Five (Rhino)

Following in the footsteps of their successful Street Jams Electric Funk & Hip-hop From The Top series, the archival masterminds at Rhino have put together an 11-song retrospective honoring one of hip-hop's founding groups. This compilation features classic material culled from the early '80s. The liner notes provide a historical breakdown of each song. Excellent source material for those just discovering the rich world of hip-hop culture. —SPENCEDOOKEY

PATTI LABELLE Gems (MCA)

Patti LaBelle has managed to raise a family, be a businesswoman and a spokesperson while having a successful musical career that has already spanned three decades. Not to mention the fact that she celebrated her 50th birthday last month and is still looking good, which leads me to believe after hearing her new album, Gems, that she should have titled it "Age Ain't Nothing But A Number" (no offense, Aaliyah!). At least six jewels stand out in this treasure trove of song, but you'll need to discover them on your own.

—JOHN MARTINUCCI

BILLY DEAN Men'll Be Boys (Liberty)

What's better than playing Cowboys and Indians? Why, being in a "Cowboy Band," of course! From the opening notes of that lead track and current single on Billy Dean's latest album, to the final beats of the John Durrill/Snuff Garrett standard, "Misery And Gin," it's clear Billy has created another well-crafted volume of work full of great songs. It's hard to pick favorites, but among this album's best are the aforementioned, plus the wistful "Wish You Were Here," the David Gates (of Bread fame) co-written "I Can't Find The Words To Say Goodbye" and the rollicking title track. Check it out and find your own favorites.

—ANNETTE M. LAI

RICHIE HAVENS Cuts To The Chase (Forward/Rhino)

Rhino Records, the imaginative oldies company, has a custom label dedicated to new recordings called Forward. It's now home to the legendary flat-pick strumming balladeer Richie Havens. Havens is best known for his cover interpretations, and for Cut To The Chase, Havens does just that when it comes to selecting tunes. Check out Richie's reworks of Jackson Browne's "Lives In The Balance," Kris Kristofferson's "The Hawk," or Bob Dylan's "The Times They Are A-Changin'." —KEITH ZIMMERMAN
