Killing Joke, "Millennium," Zoo Entertainment Before there was a Ministry or Nine Inch Nails, or any so called "industrial" movement, there was Killing Joke. The true innovators of what has now become a fireball of musical activity, Killing Joke were the first to derive the ultimate in noise-works. Rising out of the late '70s and early '80s, understandably they stood out from the early alternative crowds and the fast rising metal thrash pack. How unique then, that they managed to bridge the two formats, even expanding beyond them into more global realms, at a time when it certainly was not considered "pc" to do so. Despite not having topped any of the charts at the time, they were quickly recognized as one of the most artistically significant artists of their kind. And today they reconfirm that they are the true patent holders of this explosive and growing musical hybrid. While "Millennium" (the first single from the excellent Pandemonium album), may be your first exposure to the band's deluge of sound, it should become readily evident who the true masters of the industrial age are. Interestingly, the album was partially recorded in the King's Chamber in the Great Pyramids of Egypt, in keeping with the band's geographical, boundary-crossing history. "Millennium" challenges you to not get caught up in its rolling waves of crunch riffs, the expansive middle-eastern flavored back-drop or the insistent versatile vocals — which range from raw and primitive to harmonic and captivating. The song is a moving, living beast, savage yet serene — a hypnotic and motivating piece of work, hailing in the new "Millennium" with unbridled passion.

HARD ACTS To follow

Cracker, "Let's Go For A Ride," Virgin From the moment their highly acclaimed debut hit (with its hit single "Teen Angst" first), Cracker's future was sealed. Actually, the stage had been set long before, in the 6 album career of Camper Beethoven (the cornerstone of vocalist David Lowery's humble musical beginnings). Of course, who knew then how brilliantly Cracker would devastate the charts and buzz bins with "Low" (the first single from Kerosene Hat). After all this time, the song still causes a flutter of excitement to spread through any crowd gathered anywhere, or hell, even when cruising alone in your car. The band just has that kind of magnetic, jovial effect on their listeners. And speaking of cruising, the band's follow-up is "Let's Go For A Ride" — a full tilt drag race of guitars and the raspy torn vocals of Lowery. A studied contrast from the darker, more dangerous terrain of "Low", the new single derives a rootsier feel in the boogie beat, and it's much more flighty and aggressive nature. Where "Low" careened in and out of a monster chorus, "Let's Go For A Ride" speeds head first into a much simpler streak of a chorus, with loads of harmonies surrounding it, and a percolating bass line embedded just below. A full tilt "let's crash around and have a great time" song, it's also drenched in seething irony and a darker sentiment than one might expect. Bottom line — it cranks. WDHA gets the early bird award on this one.

Smithereens, "Time Won't Let Me," (from TIME COP) RCA Yet another soundtrack is about to launch at the radio masses, this time for Time Cop — a new sci-fi-ish thriller starring kickboxing phenomenon, Jean Claude Van Damme. Once you understand the main gist of the film, the lead track takes on entirely new meaning. The flick is about time travel, and the ramifications of going back in time to try and effect change in one's own favor — politically, financially and/or personally. The concept is heavy duty and can become quite a maze within itself, as has been demonstrated with other films built around a similar concept like Back To The Future. Yet, the movie promises to be a suspenseful ordeal and poses some deep questions about time and space, destiny and fate. As for the lead track — New Jersey's own, the Smithereens, supply the surprisingly upbeat and chunky rocker, "Time Won't Let Me". A love song adapted to the cause, the song rocks merrily along a trotting bass line, thick guitar and organ, tambourine and the now, signature vocals. The Smithereens have a classic sound that merges a strong pop influence with enough current energy to keep them viable for the '90s, making their sound all the more appropriate, as the lead track for Time Cop. You could say, their song has a very "timeless" and catchy ambience — radio tailored and ear friendly.

Royal Hunt, "Running Wild," Royal Records A product of Denmark, and a successful act across Europe and Japan (where they were voted the #2 Best New Up And Coming Band), Royal Hunt are now hoping to break on these shores. The band (Steen Mogensen-bass, Kenneth Olsen-drums, Henrik Brokmann-vocals and Andre Andersen-keyboards/guitar/songwriting), recall a style of rock and roll that was brought to public notice on our shores, by the likes of Yngwie Malmsteen, TNT, XYZ, early Dio, Europe, John Norum and other classically influenced artists, and to a lesser degree, on the pop end of the spectrum, Bon Jovi. The music divines a very commercial pace, punctuated by cascading scales on both guitar and keyboard, not to mention the power rock vocals. Fancifully structured, the band's lead single, "Running Wild", is dramatic and theatrical, and maintains a very arena rock ambience. They are apparently well versed in classical teachings — with progressive structures, very much their calling card. The style recalls a time in rock's history when attention was tightly focused on musicianship and ability — before words like "grunge" or "dirge" had ever surfaced in the public consciousness. Check it out.

The Hatters, "Sacrifice," Atlantic This funky bunch formed in Philly in 1988, relocating to the Big Apple not long after, quickly settling into the local scene with a bluesy and funky rock brew that had heads turning in no time. The Madcap Adventures Of The Avocado Overlord, while revealing the band's clever brand of humor, also represents the band's major label debut (they had previously self-released Mock Turtle Soup and an EP called Live Thunderchicken). While their sound overall draws on a folksy instep, with acoustic guitars married to lightly tripping keyboards, and soft compelling vocal treatments, "Sacrifice" kicks off the introductions with a jazzy boogie beat and funky rock feel. Bolstered with heaping helpings of the blues, "Sacrifice" totally smokes, with soul wrenched emotion dripping from the great vocals and the tons of chunky guitar thwapping. The band's eloquent chops are easily demonstrated throughout and you get the feeling pretty instantly, that The Hatters are destined to make headlines and cross formats with their eclectic blending of earthy styles. Also included on the CD are acoustic versions of "The Last Walt" (a beautiful "Waterfallish" kind of number) and "For Tomorrow/Bring That Wagon 'Round" (a countrified, on the front porch, easy going kinda ballad, in the Allman Brothers mould). Great little band with a big future.

Live, "I Alone," Radioactive If you've seen this band play live, then perhaps you've begun to know the magic behind their enormous attraction. Maybe it's the themes of alienation, frustration, and anger dispersed throughout moments of hope, life, destiny and love, that they latch onto. Maybe it's just the down to earth, four kids from York, Pa., with alterna-metal haircuts vibe that gets them going. More importantly, it's probably Live's unique ability to balance beauty with brashness. Their songs exude a knowing, cathartic tension that rips at the soul, while alternately lulling you with subtle bays of melody and almost folk breaks. Lyrically they paint intuitive and realistic visions of simple life complicated by relationships, death, friends, drugs, enemies and other everyday traumas. Following up their successful debut album (which produced the mega-hit "Operation Spirit"), might seem a difficult task, and yet these youngsters matured into even finer artists on Throwing Copper. "Selling The Drama" is still perched at #4 on the Hard Hundred, but "I Alone" is now set to join it at the top. A crowd favorite, the song blasts along a guitar caterwaul, professing strength, individuality and anger, with an arresting chorus that finds life in infectious rhythmic jolts. It is captivating in much the way "Selling The Drama" is, yet heavier. The entire album is in fact, something very special.

Stabbing Westward, "Lies," Columbia One of most promising of all the up and coming industrialized hard rock bands, Stabbing Westward deploy a phenomenal rhythmic style and melodic sense that consistently keeps them a few steps ahead of the pack. Blasting out of the confines of Chicago, the band first approached radio with the popular "Nothing" (from their debut LP Ungod). A genuine crossover success, the song, helped substantiate the radio nation's move toward, heavier, darker music, and Stabbing Westward's place in that progression (alongside the likes of Nine Inch Nails and others). Now the emphasis is being shifted to the new single, with eyes turned specifically toward the COR/AOR ranks. "Lies" treads a heavier, more direct mix, with pummeling guitars radiating over a thick bed of live drums (accented by tribal percussion and a variety of drum sounds). Moody and surly, the song seethes with aggression and pent up anger, coiling upward in power and intensity, before unraveling in an assaultive chorus. This is not to say melody and harmony have been overlooked — as one of the best attributes Stabbing Westward have to brag about is their atmospheric and ethereal fusing of melody within an otherwise steel-like mesh. Crushing. Already on WRZK.

Weezer, "Undone-The Sweater Song," DGC A seemingly humble and unpretentious bunch of musicians, Weezer have been popping wheelies around industry circles (figuratively speaking) an awful lot lately... That is, the word is out that they are the next "big" thing — having effectively eked their way into a stake of the "Buzz" title now also held by recent mondo breakthroughs, Offspring and Green Day. And so amidst a swelling undertow of raves and tags, comes reeling, in mellow somewhat bizarre fashion, the first single from Weezer's self-titled debut album. "Undone" reveals more than the average story line, with little bits of hazy dialogue interspersed between a soothing layer of vocal ambiguity, which eventually erupts into a pool of guitars, teaming with great little leads (the album was produced by Ric Ocasek). Crunchy, twisted, and just plain unusual, "Undone-The Sweater Song" reveals a band (Rivers Cuomo-vocals/guitar, Matt-bass, Brian-guitar, and Patrick Wilson-drums), with a fully developed sense of humor, and who are the sure heir apparents to the alternative double-take award for creativity. The song floats a little to close to novelty for comfort, but quickly gets pulled through by a wave of guitars and diverse, nicely contrasted vocals. We get the feeling we'll be hearing lots more about Weezer in the weeks to come.

MOST ACTIVE

Soulhat, "Bonecrusher," Epic "Another great band from Texas. Take note!" warns KNCN's Matt Vaughan. Yep, look's like Austin's latest export, Soulhat, are off to a fine start at AOR radio, with what WKDF's John Nagarya calls, "An incredible piece of music". Indeed, the funkified rocker, "Bonecrusher" easily snagged #3 Most Added this week with 23 stations coming on board, among them: KATP, KEYJ, KLPX, KISW, KSJO, WAOR, WDZR, WHJY, WMMR, WRUF and WSHE. They also knocked back a handful of spincreases at KILQ, KISS, KLBK, KMOD, WJRR, WKDF and WLLZ. If you like 'em snarly and jammin', Soulhat have certainly got your ticket in hand, just ask KATP's Dale Miller who states, "This tune has all the ingredients to be a smash. An instant audience grabber". WTPA's Chris James calls it "An obvious instant night record for us".

Stone Temple Pilots, "Interstate Love Song," Atlantic A world class marksmen couldn't nail a hit the way this band seems to be able to. KATS' Chris Squire agrees and comments, "We've been doing so good with the band, they could fall into a pile of shit and still come up smelling like flowers". KATP's Dale Miller put it a little more subtly, with "Each release gets stronger and stronger. This is a mass appeal rocker that can get pounded and pounded". Following up their still Top 3 first single ("Vasoline"), is the more mid-tempo smash, "Interstate Love Song" with a move from 34-23* on the Hard Hundred and 26-14* at COR. Helping were 43 monster adds (#1 Most Added, naturally) including CILQ, KATS, KFME, KIBZ, KISW, KLPX, KLAQ, WMMR, WIXV, WHMH, WRDU, WRFX, WSHE, WTPA and WZZR. Six held steady (KUPD, WCGY, WIOT, WRZK, WRZX and WXQR), while 40 upped the spins (Top Requests at KILQ, WTKX and KQRC).

BBM, "Waiting In The Wings," Virgin "Bow down!" claims KATS' Chris Squire. BBM is certainly... in the house. With nearly 70 stations now bolted into place and "Waiting In The Wings", BBM's race up the chart continues. 16 more adds rolled in (among them CHEZ, KDKB, KEZE, KQWB, KYYS and WIMZ), on top of 44 massive increases (including WIMK-0-21, WRCX-0-19, WXQR-0-15). KEYJ, WDHA and WIMK all reported major phone response as well. Because of all the action, BBM cruised like lightning from 79-39* on the Hard Hundred, and KFME's Paul Maloney calls it, "Cream with another great guitarist — back to that classic sound". WRKI's Mike Rappaport adds, "One smokin' song. Bruce, Baker, Moore — what a collection! Cream of the '90s. The sound is hot". You betcha.

Bloodline, "Stone Cold Hearted," EMI The heat is on and without a doubt, "Stone Cold Hearted" is sizzling hot this week. Rob Hurt at KMOD calls it, "Probably the hottest track we're playing right now. The phones are great and we love it". KNCN's Matt Vaughan shares the affection — "I'm in love with this song. Great young talent, with an extremely talented guitar player". Prize winning lineage aside, the members of Bloodline have tipped the scales with their talent and experience, so not surprisingly, radio is responding. 10 more adds hit home this week (KATP, KCLB, KDKB, KEZE, KJKJ, KSPQ, KXFX, WHDQ, WRUF and WTPA), plus at least 18 increases, with Top Phones reported at KXFX, KEYJ and WTUE. And with a solid whomp o' the bass, Bloodline land square on the Hard Hundred at 76* this week. Sez WTUE's John Beaulieu, "Top 5 phones! We're playing the hell out of it."

Great White, "All Right," Zoo The all new sounding Great White continue to regain ground, with the second single from their amazing new, acoustic driven album, Sail Away. Warm and crisp the song derives a sound that seems to have been the band's secret calling, so not unexpectedly, the record's doin' "All Right" so far. KEZE's Belinda Simmons sez, "It's got a really positive vibe and I think that's really cool," and KUFO's Bill Prescott agrees, "I like the stylistic change they've made". Apparently, KATP, KEZE, KILQ, KLOS, KQWB, KRQC, KUFO, WDHA, WHMH, WIMK, WRCQ and WTUE all agree, since they added the tune this week. Plus, KIBZ and KJKJ upped its spin time.

Pantera, "Planet Caravan," EastWest Wow, how about all the action happening with this one?

Unstoppable, unbreakable, righteous and now a commercial success? Yessir friends, the mighty Pantera have calmed the fears of the AOR nation, with their sublime, if not sedate, cover of Black Sabbath's "Planet Caravan". Chris James at TPA puts it best when he says, "Whoda thunk we'd play Pantera midday". 13 more adds clicking in on top of 40 huge increases (with hot phones at WTKX, WDZR and WKDF), helped hoist these heavy hitters from 52-35* on the Hard Hundred/40-32* Hard Albums and 27-12* COR. Can total world domination be far behind? Check with Drew over at KBAT as he professes, "They're already major stuff here... It's been the year of the breakthrough and it's about time Pantera got their break. The same thing that happened to Soundgarden and Metallica is going to happen to them. They're in another league now!" All hail Pantera.

Mother Earth, "So Gently We Go," Capitol For anyone who has followed this band's progress over the last year or two, it's wonderful to see them finally catching on at mainstream radio. So many people have sung their praises, as "Rain Will Fall" and "Not Quite Sonic" made important inroads at AOR. Now "So Gently We Go" has lifted them to 41* on the Hard Hundred, with the momentum only just beginning to kick in... and that is a very welcome sight. Like Paul Maloney at KFMZ says, "It has a great groove to it, and it's very atmospheric". At the week's close, 9 more stations had been won over (KSJO, KWHL, WDHA, WEGR, WKLC, WKLL, WRCQ, WTKX and WTUE), and 34 others all granted IME increased spins. Now on over 56 total, and still going... Dom Nardella at WNCD swears, "The night time phones go crazy for I Mother Earth. They just can't get enough".

Green Day, "Basket Case," Reprise The favorable outcome of anything attempted, to prosper: Green Day; the definition of success. Buzzing louder than Jesse James Dupree's chainsaw, Green Day continue to expand their sphere of influence, with what could arguably have been the lead track from "One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest" — "Basket Case". One would have to question your mental health, if you aren't already one of the 60+ stations already jammin' to this ranting punk smash. 13 new stations are in, 23 increases are on the board, up 46-37* Hard Hundred, 25-19* COR and #4 Most Requested in the nation. Hmmm. I don't know, maybe you ought to wait until there's some kind of story here. Duh. Reports Matt Vaughan (KNCN), "It's already sparking the phones and we haven't even played it yet!" Well, get on it man.

Mother Station, "Hangin' On," EastWest When it comes to hard rockin' the old fashioned way, Mother Station has got it locked. Their swinging, soul-ripping mixture of blues rock can send you reeling back in time, as easily as it knocks you headfirst into the '90s. Their latest single, "Hangin' On" has the added edge of being so damn catchy and raw — ya gotta love gritty hard sung, hard played songs like this one. KISS and WPLR popped it in this week and KDKB tossed it into a higher spin bracket... so what are you holding out for? Try "Hangin' On" for a helluva ride.

Biohazard, "How It Is," Warner Bros. So, there are some hearty urban souls out there, willing to give these Brooklyn bruisers the time of day. With a message as timely and important as the one contained within "How It Is", and the growing sentiment about crime and fear within our nation, it's good to know there are people out there willing to let something like this be heard. WBTZ, KZRZ and WVCR (already getting Top 5 phones on it) are the few, the proud, and hopefully, just the beginning. It ain't pretty or sweet or "alternative" but this is about as real as it gets.

Pink Floyd, "High Hopes," Columbia It's good to know that the album rock format is still willing to play an 8 minute song now and then, especially when it's of this caliber. Pink Floyd, almost more than anyone (cept maybe the Stones) have earned the right to more than a few minutes of airplay at a time. And so, it's with pleasure we report that "High Hopes" continues to sail up the charts (Debut 41* COR/41-25* Hard Hundred/#8 Hard Albums). So says KKEG's Mark Wilson, "For me, this song was one of the highlights of the show, and I'm glad to see it come".

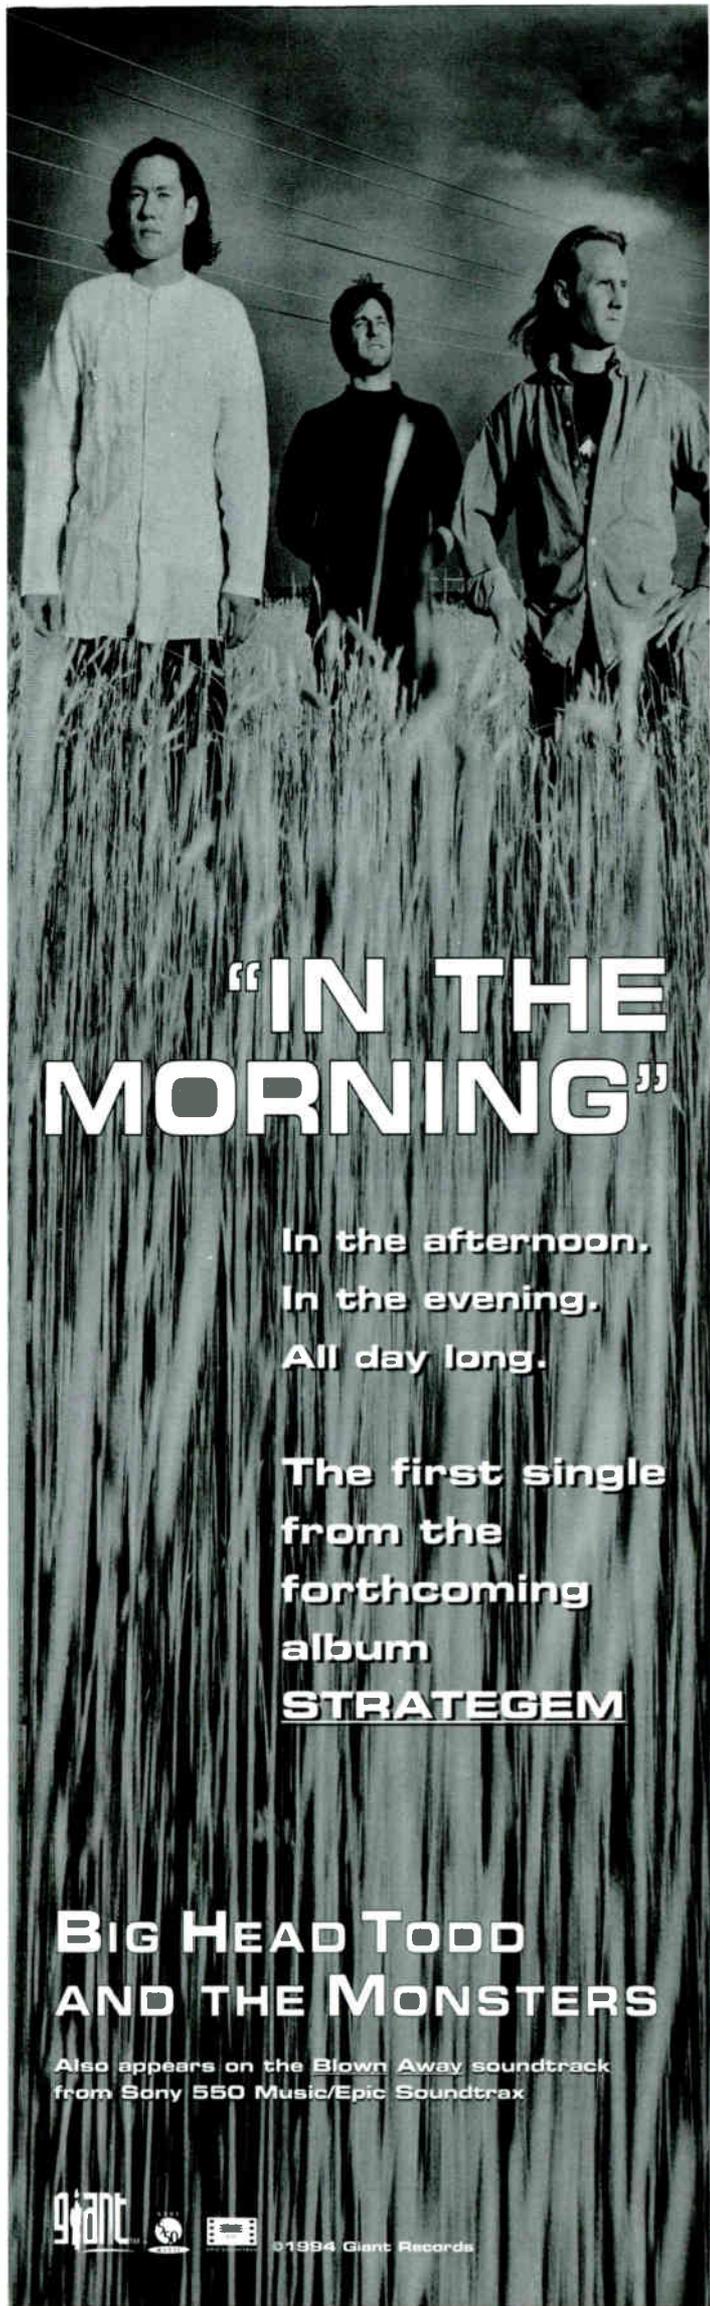

Big Head Todd/Monsters, "In The Morning," (Blown Away STK) Giant/550/Epic Soundtrax The wonderful acoustic magic of "In The Morning" has already set the domino theory in motion, with airplay quickly stacking into place across the nation. 14 more stations jumped at the new Big Head Todd track (including KATP, KJKJ, WCCC, WIOT, WOZN, WRCQ, WRXK and WXBH), while 19 more saw fit to give it better spin action (WAOR reports Top Five phones). Chartside it all translated into a 89-57* leap up the Hard Hundred, with still lots of room to roam. KSFZ's Tony Clayton puts it pretty succinctly, with "Wow! Big hit!". We couldn't have said it better.

Gin Blossoms, "Allison Road," A&M The Blossoms it seems, can do no wrong... song after song they sweep back onto the airwaves, with mellifluous balm for the ears. In a time of harsh realities, their harmonious, uplifting sound (even if a lot of the songs are hard luck stories), is a much welcomed breath of fresh air. Perhaps WTPA's Chris James is correct, when he states, "It's the Byrds of the '90s." So radio now rallies around "Allison Road", this time, with 16 more stations on the entrance ramp, and 18 accelerating the spin quotient by big numbers. What does it all mean... really? How about a debut at 65* this week on the Hard Hundred. Smash song #3 now on route.

Crosby Stills & Nash, "Only Waiting For You," Atlantic It was a special moment when CSN took the stage at Woodstock '94 this past weekend. While standing in contrast to the super commercialization of the event, the band played as if it was the first time — energetic and apparently riding high on the electrifying flow of support from the 250,000+ in attendance. Nice way to round out your 25th year together don't ya think? Karmically enough, the band's latest, "Only Waiting For You", is already on 25 stations, with 6 more (KLaw, KMJX, WBFL, WIMZ, WSFL and WXRZ) joining the cause this week.

THE END OF MO OSTIN'S WB ERA

After 31 years at Warner Bros., the label he built and has run for the last 25 years as CEO, Mo Ostin will leave the company when his current contract expires on January 1. Ostin will go on to serve as consultant to parent company Time Warner Inc., working with Chairman Gerald Levin and other key executives. Following Ostin's departure, Lenny Waronker, appointed President by Ostin in 1982, will take on the additional duties of CEO. "With Lenny at the helm I have complete confidence that Warner Bros. Records is in good hands," remarked Ostin. "His twelve years as President have been a time of unprecedented growth for our company, growth that is certain to continue into the next century under his leadership. He's a man who understands music, and the business behind music, and will continue the winning traditions of Warner Bros. Records — traditions he's done so much to establish." Commenting on his new position at Time Warner, Ostin said, "Jerry Levin is a gifted leader whose vision for the future of Time Warner makes the prospect of working with him and others in the company an exciting one indeed. I'd also like to extend my best wishes to Doug Morris, who has done such an exemplary job at our sister company Atlantic Records, in his new role at Warner Music Group. I look forward to continuing my long and cordial relationship with him there." Levin said of Ostin's move, "Mo Ostin's extraordinary success during his many years at Warner Bros. Records has been so steady and so consistent that it almost obscures the true nature of his achievement. Building a successful record label is not nearly so simple as Mo made it appear, and he's done it year after year for more than three decades." Robert J. Morgado, Chairman and CEO, Warner Music Group, remarked, "Mo Ostin's achievements over the years have established him as an institution in this company and in the music industry. Certainly, his contribution to the sustained success of Warner Bros. Records is the bedrock that has anchored the growth of Warner Music. Mo leaves a catalog of music that is one of the richest and most diverse in the music business. Warner Music Group will be a different place without him, and we will all miss his dedication, his wisdom and his creativity. I wish Mo the best." Doug Morris, newly appointed President and COO of Warner Music-U.S. commented, "Mo's departure marks the end of a remarkable era, both for Warner Bros. Records and for the music business. With Mo's great gift for dealing with creative as well as business matters, he established in Warner Bros. Records an indisputable safe haven for artists, not to mention an enormously successful label." CEO-designate Waronker remarked that, "The opportunity to continue the tradition of artistic excellence and corporate integrity established by Mo Ostin is one I approach with both pride and humility. Proud, because of the unique opportunity I have been offered, humble because, let's face it, these are big shoes to fill. I speak for the entire company in offering my very best wishes to Mo in the next stage of his remarkable career."

HOROWITZ ELEVATED TO COO

Zach Horowitz

Zach Horowitz has been promoted to COO at MCA Music Entertainment Group, up from Executive Vice President. In making the announcement, Chairman and CEO Al Teller commented, "Zach has played a crucial role in the tremendous growth of the Music Entertainment Group. During his tenure as Executive Vice President, we have expanded our scope with both acquisitions and the development of new business. I am pleased that the Group's growth and success have created this opportunity for Zach to take on chief operating officer responsibilities." Horowitz joined MCA eleven years ago as head of Business Affairs and General Counsel of MCA Records. He was promoted to Executive VP of the Music Entertainment Group in 1989. "I am delighted that Al has show this confidence in me," said Horowitz. "Global development and new technological opportunities make this a particularly exciting and challenging time for both MCA and our industry."

KEZE OM GARY ALLEN EXITS

Gary Allen has exited his Ops Manager post at Spokane's KEZE/KJRB where he was also KEZE's morning man. Gary has been with the station since it went on the air in October of '81. Gary basically worked his way up from weekends, through overnights, to morning man to PD to Ops over the past decade plus. Personal reasons were cited for Gary's decision to opt for a somewhat less complicated lifestyle. In the meantime, the station carries on, with MD Belinda Simmons handling most of Gary's duties. Charlie West, by the way, is KEZE's new consultant, replacing Jon Sinton.

PHILPOTT SEGS TO SPRINGFIELD

Jay Philpott is the new PD at WYMG/Springfield, replacing Bryan Jeffries. He starts September 12th, and perhaps even sooner. Jay was at WNOR almost three years to the day, hired by Buzz Knight in August, '91. He became APD three months later, became MD in September of '92 when Heidi Hess left for Indy, and served as interim PD between Buzz's exit and Harvey Kojan's arrival. Prior to WNOR, Jay was at WLZR from November of 87 till April of '91. Saga, meanwhile, has transferred Bryan Jeffries to their Champaign/Urbana WLRW/WIXY Hot AC/CHR duopoly for sales duties. As for Jay's replacement, expect Mr. Kojan to at least interview actively outside the station.

BRAVERMAN AND VENABLE JOIN EMI

Braverman joined Chameleon in 1991 as VP/Marketing and Sales. Dar's career began in 1980 as MD at WRAS/Atlanta. HOW MANY "N"s IN ANNOYING?

Not surprisingly, Jeff Pollack's candid cover interview last week has caused tons of talk on the circuit, particularly in regard to his assessment of L.A.'s FM 101.9. In response, this from Dennis Constantine: "Jeff is an old friend. I like him and have respect for all his work in radio. Feedback is always positive, even when it points out how different you are! We're having a great time here at FM 101.9 and I just hope our listeners are getting into what we're doing." From FM 101.9 PD Mike Morrison: "Mr. Pollack has been in this business a very long time. I hope he's wrong." Finally, this somewhat lengthier response from KGSR PD Jody Denberg:

"While I'm sure Jeff Pollack is quite knowledgeable about many radio formats — after all, he consults more than 100 stations — his Hard Report interview shows that he knows very little about Triple A. His comments about L.A.'s AAA, FM 101.9, were mean-spirited and simply put, wrong. First he bemoans "...a lot of incredibly unfamiliar and not very good new music," then he says "Why play so much old music?" When I heard FM 101.9, I was delighted by its deft blend of quality new songs and artists and choice library selections, but alas, none of the burned out crap Pollack probably pushes down the throats of PDs. That's neither here nor there. Truth is, he spewed his venom for FM 101.9 and AAA in general with such vengeful force, I must question whether he had some (poorly disguised) personal agenda or axe to grind.

Also, in reference to the Triple A station in Austin I program, KGSR, Mr. Pollack said: "The Austin station trails KPEZ 25-54, too." Well, yes, we do. In the Spring 1994 Arbitron ratings, 25-54, KPEZ, a classic rock station, had a 5.8; KGSR a 5.6; and the AOR KLBJ, which Pollack consults, trailed us both 25-54 with a 5.3, a fact Mr. Pollack conveniently omits!! Being .2 away from being the top ranked upper demo rock station in Austin has made us a successful signal — despite Mr. Pollack's distortion and omission. (And, by the way, in the 25-49 rankings for the city of Austin/Travis County, KGSR has a 7.1 and is ranked 4th; KPEZ 6.9 and is 5th; and KLBJ-FM was a 6.0 and is ranked 7th.)

Numbers go up and numbers go down, but we are able to sell time on our radio station to plenty of advertisers, because we have acquired a base of satisfied, desirable listeners who enjoy our eclectic programming.

Please tell Mr. Pollack I'd appreciate it if he was informed about our station and market before he misrepresents us (and the AAA format) in a national publication."

While in NYC filming the music video for the single "Rockaway Beach," that appears on the Forward album, Godchildren of Soul: Anyone Can Join, shagmaster General Johnson (left) gives some very soulful orders to Joey Ramone, and lets him know just who is the real Chairman of the Board.

BLOODLINE

RADIO RUMBLE

KUFO/Portland announced the hiring of AI Scott as midday air talent for the station and APD/MD for both KUFD and Alternative KBBT.

WNCX/Cleveland added Lisa Dillon to the airstaff. Dillon, who will be working as a weekend warrior for NCX, is a veteran of the Cleveland airwaves, having worked at WMMS in middays and afternoon drive, as well as hosting various shows on WHK-AM. "Lisa is a welcome addition to the 'NCX staff,'" said PD Doug Podell. "She is an excellent talent that I look forward to working with." In related news, WNCX announced the departure of Rocco "The Rock Dog," who is leaving to join the staff at WENZ. Rocco has been working for WNCX for the past two months, doing airshifts on the weekends and fill-in work.

KFMF/Chico signed Jim Naylor for morning co-host duties. Naylor comes to KFMF from Sacramento, where he was recently working at KSMJ/KSFM. Jim also worked at KRFD in Marysville and did part time work at KZAP before the station went country.

WMMS/Cleveland's former assistant engineer William Alford will have his day in court on September 7th, when the alleged wire cutter's trial begins. Alford is accused of cutting a satellite feeder cable that disrupted Howard Stern's nationally aired radio show on Friday, June 10. Alford was indicted by a Cuyahoga County Grand Jury on June 30, and arraigned on 2 fourth degree felonies — breaking and entering, and possession of criminal tools — plus 1 third degree felony of disrupting public services.

WBAB/Long Island gives the local workforce a chance to give it back to their bosses at this year's annual WBAB boat party! It's the BAB "The Boss Walks The Plank Cruise." Winners to the invitation-only event will enjoy a dinner buffet and music on a three-hour dinner cruise aboard the Bay Mist, and they get to bring along ten co-workers, plus their boss — who might just have to "walk the plank."

WMMS/Cleveland finalized some on-air shift changes on Monday (8/15): B.L.F. Bash regains the helm of overnights, moving from his current 10am-2pm slot; Lou Santini shifts from afternoon drive to middays; and Spaceman Scott Hughes takes over afternoon drive. Also debuting on the Buzzard is "Love Phones," a live, two-hour call-in show from the studios of Z-100/New York hosted by Dr. Judy Kuryanski. The show will air Monday through Thursday from 10pm-midnight.

Westwood One Entertainment will be commemorating Labor Day with multiple broadcasts to air throughout the holiday weekend. Listeners will be treated to several specials, including The Rolling Stones: Life In The Voodoo Lounge for rock audiences; Hard Working' Country for country music lovers; Phil Collins: Both Sides for AC listeners; and two special for solid gold audiences — The British Invasion...1964-1970 and American Bandstand's Salute to The Four Tops & The Temptations Starring Dick Clark.

WAQX/Syracuse PD Steve Brill and his wife, WHEN MD/midday personality Karen Justice (Brill) are the proud new parents of a baby girl, Darby Elizabeth Brill, born August 10. Congratulations!

Action hero/Planet Hollywood mogul Bruce Willis (right) stopped by Evergreen's WRCX Rock 103.5 (formerly The Blaze) to welcome morning host Mancow Muller (left) back to the Chicago airwaves.

WMMS showed the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame their support by showing up in force at the "Top The Rock" ceremony. The last steel beam of the museum was raised into play after thousands of Clevelanders had auto-graphed it. WMMS PD/OM John Gorman (left) and GM Dean Thacker (right) were able to sign the beam moments before it was hosted into place.

Steve Perry spent some time in the WDHA studios with air talent Terrie Carr, talking about his new solo album, For The Love Strange Medicine, and his experiences with Journey.

Thousands of Pink Floyd fans enjoyed WRIF's hospitality as the station opened "The Pink Floyd Cafe" at the Pontiac Silverdome during the bands sold-out concerts July 14 and 15.

16,000 Attend WLUP's Loopstock

Danny Bonaduce and Garry Meier began the day at 12 noon with a live broadcast from the Poplar Creek Plaza, which featured such attractions as a Bungee Jump simulator, the Gyrotron, sand-court volley ball, virtual reality golf cages, a celebrity dunk tank, and pig roasting. Two local bands, Avocado Jungle Fuzz and The Bushwhackers, performed their original music for the Plaza crowds, as well.

Meier opened the mainstage at 6pm with a ventriloquist act, at the end of which, he "shot" his imaginary sidekick "Cliff." Newsman/Bluesman Buzz Kilman then took the stage with his band Buzz Kilman and the All Bubba Blues Band. Morning man Kevin Matthews performed with his band Ed Zeppelin. Bonaduce arrived on the mainstage via his infamous Dodge Viper, performed the obligatory dropping of his pants to show off his tattooed butt, then executed a magic trick which involved being sealed inside a wooden crate that eventually blew up. Johnny and the Leisure Suits took the stage as headliners and the final act of the evening.

Brandmeier's gift to the 16,000 listeners was a surprise appearance by Donny Osmond. Johnny was stunned when an angry Danny Bonaduce suddenly joined them on stage and began to taunt Osmond. Brandmeier, unaware that Osmond and Bonaduce had constructed the bit backstage, stood by while the two stared each other down, then ended their year-long battle with a hug. Osmond later joined Johnny and the Leisure Suits for the encore.

The surprise was on the Loop's Jonathan Brandmeier as he concluded the station's day-long festival and concert, Loopstock, shortly before midnight on Saturday (7/30).

Loopstock fans.

WLUP's Wendy Snyder introduces Avocado Jungle Fuzz.

VIRGIN'S DAWN HOOD

By Spiro Phanos

Dawn Hood's career in the music industry started in 1985 at FMQB. And, when BH started this magazine, he made Dawn his first employee; she oversaw aspects ranging from running the alternative department to advertising to layout and everything else in between. In 1990, she headed up the Alternative radio department at Charisma and, when Virgin and Charisma merged in 1992, she moved out to Los Angeles to do the same at Virgin. She's recently been promoted to Senior Director of Alternative Promotion, and she's played a major role in the label's bevy of successes in the past year, including Smashing Pumpkins, Cracker, Lenny Kravitz, Enigma, UB40, and many others. We figured there was no better time than now to sit down with Dawn and get her perception on the state of things Alternative and beyond. We start with a topic dear to her heart.

How long have you been riding?

Dawn: Since I was 10.

And how old is your horse?

Dawn: He just turned four.

What's his name?

Dawn: His name is Zack and he sometimes helps me regain sanity after a long day of work. After putting 180% into my career, it's important to have an outlet or another interest. I'm not ready to become burned out and one dimensionally, quit and grow flowers in Paducah, Kentucky for a living.

I've actually heard that Paducah is not a bad place. How long have you owned Zack?

Dawn: Since November of last year. A good friend who was head of Virgin publicity at the time knows someone who raises Thoroughbreds and this one didn't work out for the racetrack so I sort of adopted him. He's so young now that we can retire someday together and ride off into the sunset.

What do you do when you're on the road?

Dawn: He watches Mark (Neiter) for me. Actually, Mark and I have to alternate road trips now - especially as new home owners.

You've obviously been in this format since day one. Your impressions on its evolution?

Dawn: The format seems to be growing by leaps and bounds in the larger markets to where many stations are Top 5/18-34, doing heavy billing and major events and promotions and can really pose a real threat to their mainstream competitors. When I started soliciting Alternative radio reporters for the Hard Report in 1986, one of my first calls was from Jonathan Rosen at KEYX/Phoenix. That's a relationship I've enjoyed for eight years. Which leads me to another observation, being the dedication of people like Jonathan to keep this format alive and loyal to the music and artist. The dedication factor is unbelievable. I am however, disappointed that the number of Alternative stations in this country is so limited after more than a decade. On the other hand, it's one of the most potent formats out there. Obviously the increase of breakthrough "alternative" acts the last 4-5 years has put such an overwhelming focus on Modern Rock radio. But there are still a number of stations fighting the same battles they were five years ago.

Why do you think that is?

Dawn: There are a myriad of reasons why and they are individual to each station. But a strong sales and promotion staff are just as crucial as the music programming department, and I can't say that the world at large has mastered the art of selling this format. Great music will always be there but it's not the whole story. Because Arbitron ratings are such a rough entity to control or at least manipulate, that the music can be an easy thing to blame or change. You can change whatever you want, but without strong promotions pulling your core out to events and aggressive sales people selling the station, you're not a player these days.

Do you really find that people in the format blame the music?

Dawn: Not generally, but in specific instances where a new format is put into place without 100% dedication and knowledge of how it works, the first thing that gets blamed is the music if there is no understanding of how to sell it or make the station interesting and important to its listeners.

What has impressed you about the format?

Dawn: I'm really impressed by the way the format has impacted the music industry and tapped into a new youth culture. For such a small base of radio stations to reflect what's happening on the street back to a monstrously big music industry and get them to rethink agendas, A&R and marketing decisions is impressive. The format's influence on MTV and album sales is unbelievably powerful when you consider its size. When all the pieces are in place you can see what happens... we've been fortunate enough to experience this with the Pumpkins. In terms of sheer numbers of records that can be sold in the Alternative realm without ever crossing over to Mariah and Whitneyland, this gives the format power that is uniquely its own. Modern Rock radio has been able to identify and help musically shape a young generation of people that seven or eight years ago were sort of displaced, listening to classic rock and punk rock. Now there's a population outright dictating its likes and dislikes and we have a way to measure that.

Speaking of deviating from reality, what are your views on the chart game?

Dawn: I care about charts and I don't care about charts. There is so much more to a project that goes on outside the realm of a chart and it's just a piece of the puzzle. Charts are a barometer and nothing more. Obviously it's nice to have an artist on the charts, especially on the top, but it doesn't shape the way I promote records and I don't evaluate my job based on chart successes and either do my bosses. If I worried about charts, I would have stopped working the Cracker album months ago - but look at 'Eurotrash Girl'. The project is starting up all over again one year later and the album is nearly platinum. When you take a band like the Smashing Pumpkins and say, was it number one or did it sell three million records - which is more important? And with so many niches at radio and new artists breaking from various sources, charts only tell part of the story sometimes. I think it's still more important than ever that programmers look at what's happening in their market than letting charts dictate the music. Anyone who programs a successful Alternative station cannot be a lazy programmer guided solely by the charts. It still distresses me to see records being worked at Alternative radio when a label isn't sure where a project fits or to try to give an artist alternative "credibility". The artist should have its own credibility before it gets worked at this format. The charts are also more hit oriented than ever before. I remember Buckwheat Zydeco being in my Top Ten when I was editing the Hard Alternative section in 1987. I will never forget that. Now the stakes are higher at Alternative Radio and the charts are more in line with national sales and requests. You can spend all day trying to work the charts or trying to put together great promotions, increasing actual spins and communicating with as many people as possible. I put my energies toward the latter every time.

But you still find that radio cares about numbers?

Dawn: Radio cares about chart numbers when they are undecided about a new act. For example, eighteen Modern Rock stations are playing 'Baby I Can't Please You' by Sam Phillips, including KROQ, WDRE, 99X, KPNT, WENZ, KXRX etc... I have an artist that is reacting in the marketplace with album sales over 100,000 copies and a critically acclaimed tour with Counting Crows under her belt. An artist poised and ready to skyrocket and a successful campaign that has worked like a charm for over six months. All of these results were achieved without chart numbers driving the project. So look out!

So you handle Triple A as well?

Dawn: We sort of do it by committee here. Jeffrey Naumann and myself are the organizational team and Chuck Slomovitz and Stephanie are actively speaking to the majority of the format each week.

Tell me how the department has been restructured.

Dawn: Basically, Chuck's responsibilities have been increased placing more pressures and stress on his cranium. He has an incredibly magnetic personality you know...

And the best laugh in the business.

Dawn: That too. Chuck is endearing, honest, has a heart of gold. Now that he's on the road he's going to hit full stride. Chuck makes friends everywhere he goes. Amy Fisher even writes him letters from jail. He's friends with Kirk of Metallica you know, that's the real reason he got the promotion. And he knows Eddie Vedder's home phone number.

What about the rest of the personalities running the promotion department at Virgin. How do you think they are perceived by the world at large?

Dawn: I can only speak for my own perceptions and I sense that these "personalities" greatly affect the radio world at large every single week (in more ways than one you can imagine!). Jeffrey Naumann, the AOR Veep who graced the cover of The Hard Report NUDE not too long ago, has a reputation that precedes him. Jeffrey's sense of humor is unmatched and he never fails to outdo some of his own jokes and keep us on our toes. In the Naumann Dictionary under the heading "Attack Hamster" you will find Michael Plen the head of promotion at Virgin. Michael is a visionary who maintains high standards for this company and possesses strong dedication and commitment to the artist. He's a strong leader and affords me all the creativity in the world to get the job done. He is just as interested in breaking The Verve as he is with multi-million selling artists on the label. He also provides great insight and guidance, being so dedicated to the alternative format. He has a lot of musical knowledge and experience to draw upon — with his involvement in helping to break acts like The Police, Go-Go's and R.E.M. early on. John Boulos oversees the field staff and keeps us focused and basically sane! He approves promotions (or not) and manages the never-ending challenge of funneling many releases through one regional staff. When he's not doing that, John can be seen partying with Pumpkins or anyone else brave enough to take him on. For some reason we keep Jeffrey and John on separate coasts. Something about earthquakes... There is an interesting mix of personalities that make this department work.

How exactly does it work?

Dawn: I'm not really sure, but I believe that the vibe comes from the top and that's Phil Q. Phil is loved by everyone at the label. He's very accessible and surrounds himself with people he trusts to get the job done. He is an excellent motivator, a kind person and extremely smart and supportive. Our marketing meetings might be a little too long, but everyone gets out in the open at least. With so much input and feedback to draw upon, the end result speaks for itself.

How would you characterize your personal style of doing promotion?

Dawn: Well, I don't have a whoopee cushion or morning breeze or bars painted on the walls of my office like Jeffrey does, but that's natural for him and it makes people either laugh, run or both. I just try to be consistent, patient, nurture my relationships, help stations out and try to approach projects on a long-term basis. I put a tremendous amount of pressure on myself to come through for my bands and try to be accountable for getting the music exposed to the best of my ability and I feel a personal commitment to our artists. After all, it's their art and their life. Actually, I missed my calling as a nun. Only Thursdays will I shut the door, crank up Slayer and scream at stations, 'Report my record or I'll never speak to you again.' Kevin Stapleford of 91X will confirm this.

Especially in this format, and honestly, I think in the industry overall, selling used cars just doesn't work anymore.

Dawn: Never worked for me. It's important to back up everything you say, so if you don't mean it, don't say it and if you do, take it back! Not everything I work is going to be Top Ten on the Billboard Albums chart, but I really won't ask a station to play something they are absolutely sure they can't deal with. You are not only accountable to your artist, but you are accountable to the programmers who are helping you break new ones. So if you promise that something is a hit, you better make sure you are doing everything you can to back up that statement.

It's been quite a year for the company, success-wise. Is there any one thing that you can pinpoint and attribute Virgin's success for the past year or so?

Dawn: A label is nothing more than the people that make it work and the artists who are represented on it. Music is the bottom line. Strategies, marketing techniques and all the math and long term commitment are another thing entirely. How a company pools its resources and implements a game plan, and changes that game plan as a project develops is what determines the degree of success they are going to have. Virgin Records is not a sprawling mega-corporate, departmentalized company. There is a great deal of teamwork, communication, debate, and long-term commitment to each act here. Success stories like that of Smashing Pumpkins at Alternative and Enigma certainly don't hurt. The company has experienced tremendous growth and change over the past three years. Under the direction of with Ben on a local level in Los Angeles nearly six months before the release of Welcome To The Cruel World. The album sales are nearly 6,000 in L.A. alone based on a strong street campaign and planting those seeds early on. Ben is so unique and special that his music must be promoted one step at a time. We have an army of interns on the street spreading the word on campuses, in clubs and coffee houses too.

Jeff Pollack made some pretty heavy comments about 101.9 in last week's issue. What are your impressions of the station?

Dawn: There has been a lot of criticism in the air about the 101.9FM, and the fact is that no one knows what the future holds for the station. I hope that it thrives in Los Angeles, not only for the sake of the Adult Alternative format at large, but to be another source for people to hear new music in this town. I'm thrilled to hear Pete Drobe, Van Morrison, Sam Phillips, Wild Colonial, Elton John, Mazzy Star, Jeffrey Gaines, Live, R.E.M., Rickie Lee Jones and Seal in the context which it's delivered here. My 30 year old friends enjoy it too. They aren't listening in the same way I do, they just know they enjoy the station and that's really the bottom line, right? Between KROQ, KCRW and 101.9FM there is a good balance of Alternative music on the radio here and there is room for everybody. When artists or songs overlap, it only strengthens their viability on the air. Say what you want to, but if more stations in this country don't branch out and reinvent themselves they're going to dry up and blow away. Pick a format, any format, but make it something interesting! As far as growing pains and some criticism, big deal. They are never going to please everyone but they shouldn't be criticized for trying.

You mentioned the strength of Virgin's A&R. Does A&R incorporate the other departments in terms of what they sign or who they're thinking of signing?

Dawn: Sure, when A&R is looking seriously at an artist they will introduce them to the rest of the company. They want as much support from the label as possible from the start. We're always invited to check out bands when they come through town and let A&R know what we think. Obviously there is a lot they don't tell the rest of the company because of bidding wars and politics and simply because we're swamped with current projects. But there is a lot of interaction between A&R and Promotion.

What's your feeling on tossing promotional dollars around to stations?

Dawn: I don't like tossing dollars period. I support stations who have a collaborative working relationship with me. That doesn't mean I only support stations that "do what I want." It just means that I'll follow through. That means help-

Ken and Nancy Berry and Phil Quartararo, Virgin has risen like a phoenix and we intend to keep this momentum indefinitely. Virgin is a place where new artists want to be and that's a great feeling.

Another thing is you don't have records tripping over each other. Virgin gives its releases room to breathe.

Dawn: I'm glad that's your perception! We've had a very demanding release schedule over the past year but Michael Plen is doing a great job spacing everything out. We definitely try to let our artists grow at their own pace, like Ben Harper. Ben is a very gifted artist with an amazing future. He's prolific and his music takes hold slowly, but when it does you never let go. We started working ing break new artists and not just playing the hits. Just because someone played Smashing Pumpkins doesn't mean that I become tick- etmaster...

And give them 100,000 Lollapalooza tickets.

Dawn: And a trip around the world! Sure we're supporting stations for Lollapalooza but the policy here is when you spend money, spend smart money. Don't just do it for an add and walk away. I'm not into that. If a station isn't committed to a record and working with a label to break it, no amount of perks and goodies is going to get the job done. We'd be out of business if we entertained every ticket request and Rolling Stones catalog request. On the other hand, if a station is genuinely excited about breaking an artist we'll go to the wall for them. Relationships can't be one-sided or there is no relationship as far as I can see. It's nearly impossible to break records with smoke and mirrors these days. We don't want our artists to be in hock when we're finished with a project. We want to build on past success and move ahead.

What's your main motivation for spending money at radio?

Dawn: We try to tie almost everything we do in with retail and get involved in new artist campaigns and programs that stations set up with retail. WBRU and Strawberries, WHFS and Kemp Mill etc... it's also important for stations to be vocal about their support of an artist and remind a label when it's time to come to the table. We have an understanding of the amount of money on tickets for a show, I'd much rather support them with a time buy or a retail promotion, or a little of both.

I personally believe that time buys, done ethically, are the best form of support a label can give a station.

Dawn: I wish more stations felt that way. It seems like they're more hot on getting bands to play radio festivals these days. I don't mind doing this when it makes sense financially and benefits the artist. But record labels are not banks with endless cash reserves. The amount of money it takes to really break an artist is mind-blowing, and piling up a string of festival dates on top of that can be cost-prohibitive. There are many other creative ways to do successful promotions that we try to concentrate on.

Unfortunately, the level of expectations coming from radio in regards to promotional dollars has gotten disturbingly high.

Dawn: It depends who you're dealing with. But in general, radio stations whose programming is determined by what they can get in a given week are really hurting themselves in the long run. We don't do much business with them either. We'd rather invest our energies elsewhere. My perception is that these stations are definitely in the minority.

We've seen many stations fall victim to that mentality.

Dawn: There are plenty of resources out there to make a radio station successful. And there is a wealth of great music and fun to be had as well. It's a matter of being selective and filtering out what's good for you a tit-for-tat mentality, we try to stay away from that. Believe me, it gets brought up more than you know.

How heavy is your contact with the field staff?

Dawn: Everything we do at radio filters through the regional promotion staff. They're our eyes and ears out there. I have a close working relationship with every one of them and there is a constant exchange of ideas at work. We have to be on the same page with the regional staff or give it up. I give these people all the credit in the world. They're on the front line. They are part of the decision making process from start to finish.

What's your view on indies?

Dawn: We only use the best. Ha!

How do you think the past two years in Alternative has reshaped the realm of indie promotion?

Dawn: The past few years have been great for indie promoters. They can make a ton of money because the labels will spend it on the Modern Rock format to get results. I don't feel sorry for the indies at all, only that competition is fierce and a lot of large independent promotion companies are opening Alternative departments. I generally use indies to help me assemble information so I can plan strategies, etc... (but I really use 'em so I don't have to call add lines all day). We close our own records at Virgin and don't expect anyone else to do that job for us.

What's the scoop on the Vernon Yard deal? Do you work everything on Vernon Yard? Do they have their own promotion staff?

Dawn: 90% of what is released on Vernon Yard comes through Virgin except for releases like...

S*M*A*S*H...

Dawn: Yes. Smash will be distributed through Caroline Records. Other VYR artists that are going through Caroline are Low, These Animal Men and Daryl Ann. Vernon Yard is a great A&R source. They are a brand new label that was launched with the release of The Verve last year. They have a very strong roster and are growing in leaps and bounds. Keith Wood is the president and he's formerly of Caroline. VYR also shares projects with The Hut, which distributes Smashing Pumpkins in England. The next Vernon Yard release is the new album from David Gray next month which is going to be distributed through Virgin.

So the deal with Vernon Yard differs from, say, Atlantic's deal with Mammoth and Matador in that Vernon Yard was created with Virgin in mind.

Dawn: Yes. Vernon Yard is a label that was created within Virgin. Mammoth and Matador are entirely independent labels with distribution/promotion deals with Atlantic. Vernon Yard is a place within Virgin that new acts can inate Alternative press; MTV consistently plugs Shonen Knife in news bits and 120 Minutes. There are definitely Shonen Knife fans at Modern Rock radio. They just haven't swept the format off its feet... yet. The foundation is laid and we will continue to support them because they really ARE loved by the Alternative community. They might not be Top 20 in Billboard but so what. How many artists design such great costumes for themselves and make so many people smile? How many girls on this earth can get Jeff and Steve McDonald of Redd Kross to follow them around like Shonen Knife can? How many artists can get Michael Plen to dress up like Mr. Tomato Head in their honor? That's impressive in itself!

Obviously, you have the Bryan Ferry project coming up. You must be excited about that.

Dawn: Absolutely. Not only to work with an artist with a rich history but one that so many people will respect and anticipate new music from. This album is the first one he's worked with Brian Eno on in 20 years. And with Manzanera and McKay involved there is a lot of rumor and speculation going around about a Roxy Music reunion. Only Bryan can confirm or deny this and so far he hasn't really done either. For now he's concentrating on this album. Bryan sets high standards for himself in the studio and the new album Mamouna reflects that. When he was in New York a few weeks ago doing radio interviews, everyone kept asking what Mamouna means. It means "good luck" in Arabic. The second favorite topic was fashion and the women in his videos!

What else is going on artist-wise at the label?

Dawn: This answer could take up the whole book but I'll keep it brief: Bryan Ferry is touring the US in November. We signed Royal Trux who are in the studio recording an album with David Briggs producing, and I'm hearing that the results are going to make us rethink the concept of "Alternative". The Trux album comes out Spring of 1995. A Smashing Pumpkins B-sides album will be out October 4th and it's called Pisces Iscariot, and a full length video called 'Vieuphoria' will also be released. We'll pick up distribution of Gish this fall. The new Simple Minds album will be released in January 1995, as well as the new Massive Attack album. My phone has been ringing for Massive Attack already. The David Gray album is really wonderful, and he's opening for Shawn Colvin on the road this fall. And there's no denying that Sam Phillips and Cracker are stars in the making!

How do you pick and choose what gets distributed through Virgin and what gets distributed through Caroline?

Dawn: Keith Wood and the A&R department do that. It depends on a lot of factors like the release schedule of Virgin I suppose. Take a band like Low who have received a lot of recognition and credibility with a release on Caroline and after more than half a year of marketing them to college radio and indie retail. Now they really have a foot in the door. And they sound lovely on KCRW in the morning!

I want to touch on some of your artists. Why has Shonen Knife been such a tough sell to radio?

Dawn: You're not the only one who wants to touch my artists, Spiro. Radio underestimates the street credibility of Shonen Knife and the loyalty of their fans. They toured with Nirvana; are on Lollapalooza this year; continually sell out clubs when they headline; dom-

What do you feel is your proudest accomplishment professionally, so far? Aside from surviving the Hard Report, that is.

Dawn: (Laughs) It's hard for me to say because I don't think that I've accomplished it yet.

If you fail to play this record, we can't be held responsible for the consequences.

Pete Drogé, "If You Don't Love Me (I'll Kill Myself)," American Of all the great songs on Pete Drogé's stellar debut, Necktie Second, this was the one that stood out as our favorite. Dal Hunter WKOC, "I love this song! It's got perfect energy for our radio station. It seems to be the reaction song off the CD. We've been playing it for about two weeks now, and we've been getting a lot of calls. If you get a chance to see him live, go see him, his show is wonderful." Greg Hills WNCW, "This is simple, moody, and with a brilliant lyric twist. Pete Drogé has found a happy home, 'Neckties' and all, on Triple A." Jon Peterson WCBE, "If their ever was an Alternative artist who is deserving of Triple A airplay, it's Pete Drogé. Incredible drive, passion, and melodies. 'If You Don't Love Me (I'll Kill Myself)' rocks great for night-times, and 'Northern Bound Train' scores on all day parts." Bruce Ranes, The World Cafe, "This is one of the best singer/songwriters to come around this year. His album is captivating. As a matter of fact we're playing the record right now on the Cafe. Look for Pete Drogé's recorded live broadcast on the Cafe." Bob Terrill KCSU, "Necktie Second has great lyrics, and melodies. We're discovering more and more things about it all the time, which is the mark of an enduring record."

THE HOT CORNER

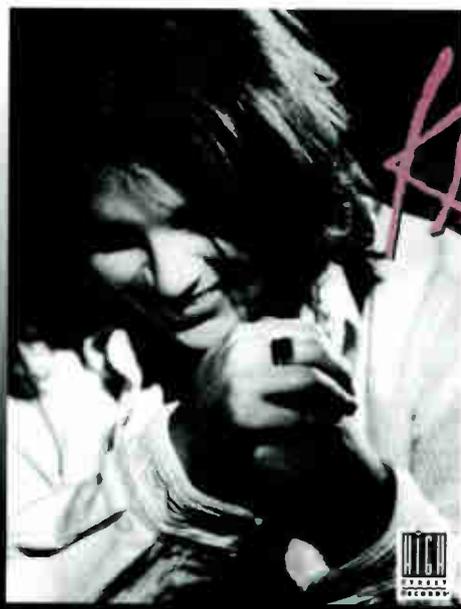

Happy Rhodes, "Building The Colossus," Aural Gratification Happy is back with her signature multi-octave vocals and enigmatic lyrics on an album that we feel is some of her best work yet. Jody Denberg KGSR, "We've chosen 'Collective Heart' as the track to start with from Happy. Her distinctive production and high pitched vocals always invoke a positive listener response." Greg Hills WNCW, "This is a brilliant mixture of dark and light. Listeners are never sure whether they should be glad or terrified while listening. Don't worry about the Kate Bush comparisons, Happy Rhodes has made the technology all her own." Bruce Ranes WXPB, "Look for Happy Rhodes on the World Cafe this week. We are very excited because of all the past success she has had with us." Sybil McGuire WMMM, "I love Happy Rhodes. Anyone who listens to Kate Bush can relate to Happy. As always, she stretches her range on this album. I bet her range is five octave. She has a remarkable great voice." Dave Leonard WKZE, "I love Happy Rhodes! This album is innovative for Happy, and different than her previous albums. This one should expose her to larger audiences."

Sinead O'Connor, "Fire On Babylon," Chrysalis/EMI Jody Denberg KGSR, "I have heard Sinead O'Connor's entire CD, Universal Mother, and it's a gorgeous, breathtaking piece of work, which will remind us all what we loved about Sinead to begin with. 'Fire on Babylon' is the most upbeat track on the album and a good place to start" Bruce Ranes WXPB, "I love it! It's infectious, and it's very radio friendly. A perfect end of the summer hit." Chris Douridas

KCRW, "This is an unbelievable album. The most beautiful record she has ever done. It's a soulful, spiritual quest highlighted by the new single, and a cover of Curt Cobain's 'All Apologies.' We can't play it enough." Don Ferrell KRVM, "This is a great record and our listeners love it. This single is putting her right on track and back on the radio where she belongs. And maybe some day she will let her hair grow long and keep away from controversy... maybe not."

Stepping down as Program Director at WNCS has been a difficult decision, but it seemed about time I got a life. So, welcome to new PD Glenn Roberts, a true kindred spirit. I'd feel remiss in not thanking all of the friends I've made in radio, especially Messrs. Bradley, Rahn, Skibitsky and Benson at SBR in Boulder and all the record industry people who have been so supportive, particularly those who stuck with us in the early years, game enough to play 25 words or less when we attempted to describe a format that was yet to be born. Let's not try to lose sight of the excitement we feel in doing something different and our love of the music, in all its diversity, as we strive to compete in the radio marketplace.

Please help me out by circulating this new telephone number for music calls here at WCLZ. The number is (207) 721-0989. It's a brand new direct music line designed specifically to reduce stress on the office staff. That same dedicated hard-working office staff will be decidedly nazi-like when calls come in on the wrong line. Now if we can just reduce the stress on me...

Thanks to Elektra's Lisa Michaelson for treating us to a night in the Big Apple and an electrifying performance by Katell Keineg. Kelli and I managed to escape the city unharmed and with our jewelry intact because we had to skip the dinner and get back to the corporate cabin and the ever-present deadline. We were sorry to hear that Lisa and the Triple A radio people in attendance were held up at gunpoint and robbed of their valuables during dinner at a local restaurant. Fortunately, no one was physically injured, but they were all left with a healthy fear of New York City and renewed frustration with insurance claim forms... Thanks to Mercury's Dave Einstein for an evening with Rusted Root. If you haven't

- seen this band live yet, make sure you catch them in Boulder at the Fox Theater
- Showcase on Saturday night, I guarantee, it will be an unforgettable performance. I'm still having a hard time believing that the band originates from
- Pittsburgh. With their tribal rhythms, multi-percussions and David Byrne meets
- Youssou N'Dour vibe, they just don't sound like your typical Pittsburgher... And
- a final thanks to Helen Leicht for bringing John Flynn by The Hard Report
- for a private acoustic performance. After a few songs, John's great baritone
- vocals and narrative lyrics had us wanting (and asking for) more. Check out his
- independent release, Haunted By The Ghost Of A Chance, and if you don't have
- a copy, call Helen at (215) 238-5195.

It's Lewis

Paul Kennedy, WWDX, Detroit, MI

There are a lot of cities whose names have become synonymous with the blues: Chicago, Memphis, St. Louis, to name a few. How 'bout adding Lubbock, Texas? I did after listening to Lewis Cowdrey's second solo effort. "It's Lewis" on Antone's Records. Now, whether or not Lubbock becomes a blues citadel is immaterial. What is material is that you pick up "It's Lewis." Cowdrey roared out of the Lone Star State in the 60's heading for the West Coast with Angela Strehli and to do stints with the Fabulous Rockets and The Jets. Upon returning to Austin and a burgeoning blues scene, Cowdrey assembled the legendary band The Storm, which included luminaries such as Jimmie Vaughan, Keith Ferguson, drummer Doyle Bramhall and guitarist W.C. Clark. The 70's brought Lewis & the Legends, a collaborative effort with Don Bennett and a solo album on New Rose. Old fans of Cowdrey's will be pleased with this Antone's release. I'm a sucker for the blues with a rockin' edge to it, and I know I'm real happy with it! Cowdrey penned most of the 14 tracks on the CD; Notable are the two searing instrumentals ("Skin to Skin" and "Wade In The Water"); blues smokers ("No Flats" and "From Any Angle") and a pair of really nice covers (James Brown's "I Don't Mind" and the Holland/Dozier/Holland classic "Wonderful One."). He's joined by former Storm mates Keith Ferguson (ex. Thunderbird bassist and currently with the Tail Gators) and W.C. Clark. Throughout, Cowdrey's searing harp and high-lonesome vocals burn clear through to the soul. Plus, how can you go wrong with a song titled "Itchy & Scratchy?" Bart Simpson would be proud!

Studebaker John and the Hawks

Too Tough

Blind Pig Records

Peter Simon, host of syndicated program "Peter Simon's Blues Jam"

They may be about to do away with Maxwell Street as it has existed, but here's some of it's legacy. The first Blind Pig Records release from Studebaker John and the Hawks is raw but refined. The raw reference concerns the "Texas Style" vocal delivery of Studebaker John Grimaldi, while the refined part comes in when you fire up the Hawks. The resulting combination makes a sound that could only come out of the collective blues history of Chicago. The "bluest" selections show themselves as "This City (cut 2), "Real Love" (cut 4), "Somebody Forgot To Tell My Heart" (cut 8) and "Flame Of Desire" (cut 10), on which you would watch the volume when it comes to the last 58 seconds (unless you have plenty of "in-line" fuses for your monitor system). In the "Keep you rockin'" category are "Your Hoodoo Man" (cut 1), "Somewhere In My Heart" (cut 3), "Boogie Walk" (cut 5), "Too Tough" (cut 7) and "Out of Control" (cut 9, instrumental). The band members include bassist Ron Regnas, a Hawk for ten years; Rick "Jr." Kreher, and original Hawk and Muddy Waters' guitarist; Joe "Piston" Pink, Hawk guitar, Harmonica and vocals. Finally, during this current Revolution of Remakes, a CD full of originals is refreshing and when it's this hot...Mrs. O'Leary's cow would be proud.

BLUES REVIEWS

Nothing But The Truth

Alligator

Bill Mitchell, KZON, Phoenix, "The Blues Hangover"

I've established a tradition on my trips to the Chicago Blues Festival. After a long day at the fest, I head off to some Northside club to see Son Seals.

Positioning myself right in front of the bandstand, I easily lapse into a trance-like state, fueled in part by the consumption of several Old Styles and the fatigue from the day's ten or so hours of blues at the fest, but mostly from the sheer intensity of Son Seals' music. Now you know how I feel about Son Seals. The man is one of the best. Since he seldom goes out on tour, I have to be content with seeing him on my occasional trips to the Windy City. That's why his too infrequent albums are always so welcome at my house. Nothing But The Truth, his first since 1991, maintains the same high quality that Seals fans have come to expect. There are no surprises on this disc, but just the usual biting, intense guitar licks and gruff, "in your face" vocals. Nothing But The Truth contains nary a weak cut. My favorite song is "Life Is Hard", which is as close to a catchy tune as this kind of music gets. If you like your blues slow and heavy, check out "Your Friends", featuring nice horn work from Son's regular bandmates, or "Can't Hear Nothing But The Blues". Seals also does a nice tribute to Hound Dog Taylor on the Dog's Saddle. Nothing But The Truth is solid Chicago blues. It's not music to relax by, but break open that six-pack of Old Style, put this CD on your Diskman, and get totally immersed in the music of Son Seals.

Robert Ealey

If You Need Me

Topcat

Norman Davis, Blues Barbeque, KHEZ, Boise (208) 853-1633

Around Fort Worth, Texas, Robert Ealey's is almost as well known as Davey Crockett's. He is revered as the patriarch of Fort Worth blues and is a must-see for any visiting blues fan. Ealey began singing blues professionally in Dallas at the age of 15, even though his parents, both religious, were firmly against it. He moved to Fort Worth with The Boogie Chillen Boys and settled in for a long run at the New Blue Bird Nite Club. Later, he managed that now-legendary juke point for a number of years. A few months ago, a group of Texas musicians and producers who are long-time Ealey admirers made plans to record an album by this captivating singer. The results are mighty satisfying. Ealey croons and howls in top fashion, backed up by a superior collection of musicians including, Mike Morgan, CoCo Montoya, Jim Suhler and Hash Brown. Ealey's 12 original songs range from rock-solid gutbucket Texas-style blues to soulful ballads. He romps on "One Love One Kiss," "Goin' To New York," and "Havin' A Party." Slow-burners "I Had A Dream," and "Please Mr. Johnson," are poignant and passionate. If You Need Me is a wonderful introduction to this Texas treasure. It is astonishing (but gratifying) that a record company would take a chance with a virtually unknown artist who is 70 years old this year. Right on Topcat!

Blues Dialogue

Derek Ault, Alligator Records, (312) 973-7736

By now you should have the release, Nothing But The Truth, from the legendary Son Seals. Let me know if you are interested in speaking with Son over the phone. I'd be glad to set something up. Arriving the week of 8/28 is Storm Warning from Tinsley Ellis. We will be offering you a taped interview (w/cues) w/the Tin Man and also one with Michael Hill. These cassette interviews will also be transcribed for your convenience...Upcoming in Sept.: "Hoodoo Moon" from Kenny Neal.

Edward Chmelewski, Blind Pig Records, (510) 526-0373

We're quite pleased to present Going Back Home by noted singer Frankie Lee, an uncommon vocal talent who ranks with the likes of Otis Redding, O.V. Wright, Bobby Bland, and Little Johnny Taylor. The New York Daily News said, "Frankie Lee is a compelling performer. On this new release, Frankie shows he can take it either uptown or back in the alley, demonstrating his power on stirring soul tunes (with lush production values, a larger horn section, and a full complement of backup singers) as well as on basic blues numbers. Backed by a superb musical cast (which includes Bobby Murray, Richard Cousins, and Jim Pugh from the Etta James and Robert Cray bands), Frankie Lee shines on this album like he never has before.

Jennifer Dirkes, Delmark Records, Chicago, IL

Arthur Crudup meets master blues bassists consists of material recorded during Arthur's first sessions with Ransom Knowling for "Look On Yonder's Wall" (Delmark 614), plus the best material from a date with Willie Dixon. This CD presents Arthur as his usual relaxed self, letting the blues come through his guitar and voice on 15 duets, including many unissued performances. Additionally, Arthur jives around with Willie Dixon and the then-newlywed Koesters on one track. Excellent liner notes by Bob Koester compliment the recording. Sweet Home Chicago showcases artists Magic Sam, Luther Allison, Louis Myers, Big Mojo and Eddie Shaw, to name a few. This West Side Chicago blues collection of sessions, produced by Shakey Jake and Bill Lindemann in the late 60s, included sides not on other Delmark recordings. Furthermore, these were the first recordings of Luther Allison and Big Mojo Elem.

Killing Joke, "Millennium" (Zoo)

You know, we just can't get enough of this song over here at the Hard Hut, and judging by the early response at metal, alternative and some COR stations, it is clear that we aren't alone. Margaret Zakoor of WBTZ agrees and states, "We like that song - it's a little early to gage a response - but we dig it and we will be on it for a while!" Other early believers include Q104, KZRX, and K100 who have jumped on the chunky riffs and Asian inspired melody of "Millennium". This band has been breaking new musical ground for twelve years, and laid the groundwork for what is now modern industrial rock. Now the forefathers are back to educate the kids on how to really rock. This track is going to break through huge, so take this opportunity to join in on the buzz with Killing Joke.

Bad Religion, "Stranger Than Fiction" (Atlantic)

While Offspring and Green Day have been soaring their way up the charts and selling millions of records, one of the founders of the pop-punk sound, Bad Religion have been preparing their major label debut to hit the streets. For years the band has been selling out shows across the world and releasing critically acclaimed albums on Brett Gurewitz's owned label Epitaph - which is now the home of Offspring. The driving, razor sharp guitars and grabbing melodies of Bad Religion helped to mold the now popular punk scene in California. With K10Z leading the way, Bad Religion are poised to receive some of the success that they so readily deserve. If you have "Longview" in your playlist, then you should definitely give "Stranger Than Fiction" a few spins - we are sure that the reception will be warm, if not hot.

Stabbing Westward, "Lies" (Columbia)

With a growing base of fans created from Stabbing Westward's airplay at both metal and alternative, a significant amount of touring, and a good amount of airplay at COR from the first single "Nothing", you have a stable foundation to build on. With memorable songs, passionate vocals, prominent tribalistic percussion, and a touch of modern technology to give "Lies" that added spice, the musical blend of Stabbing Westward is a unique creation that will peak the ears of your listeners. WRZK is the first out of the gate to unleash the intensity of "Lies" on their airwaves, and if you can handle the live wire electricity of this Chicago band, then don't tell any "Lies" and start spinning this song.

Gods Child, "Everybodys 1" (Qwest/Warner)

It seems that everyone is talking about the Woodstock anniversary and looking back at the peace and love vibe of the '60s. Well, little do they know that the warm, dreamy atmosphere of that music is being recreated today, but with the pizzazz of the '90s. The surreal ambience of "Everybodys 1" has begun to heat up airwaves all across the country, especially at COR, where the song jumped from 36-30" with new adds at KUPD and WDZR. In addition, increases were shown at K10Z, KNCN, WMMS, WKLQ, and WHMH, whose Bob Burt feels that they are "probably the most requested group we've got. It's definitely one of our top 5 phone requests with massive female appeal. Phenomenal response!" The flowing melody and the smooth, beguiling voice of Chris Seefried will pull you into the song's trance. The only danger in playing this song, is that your dazed state increases the possibility of missing the segue into the next track!

Heretix, "Taste" (Cherry Disc)

Cherry Disc records once again plucks up some of the fine talent of New England music, this time with the Boston band Heretix. This quartet — made up of Ray Lemiex on vocals and guitar, Brian Hill on lead guitar, Marvin Huffman on drums, and Mike Welsh on bass — is actually on their third national release, The Adventures of Super Devil, and have been working their local scene for six years now. With great reviews in Creem, Rip, and Alternative Press for starters, the band apparently sold their soul to the devil, because ESPN plucked up their music for the intro to the Surler Magazine show, and the interest in their music began to slowly rumble. The single for COR, "Taste", which is already seeing some airplay on KZAK, is a slow, sultry groove that will slide its way into your head and stay there for hours. Have a taste of Heretix, and your appetite will be satisfied!

Not many things could be as cool as getting the Smithereens to stop by and play a free show for you just because you spun their LP, A Date With The Smithereens, more than any other station. And, you know, that is exactly what happened for those at KRRK/Omaha. Enjoying the special moment are K-Rockers Nikki Boulay, Nick Melloy, Pat Dinizio (Smithereens), Jim Babjack, Allison Steele, Dennis Diker (Smithereens) and John O'Hara.

How cool is it that the folks in Omaha not only welcomed the Smithereens to their midwestern town but they also got Mother Station to drop by. Smiling pretty in front of the K-Rock banner are Paul Brown (Mother Station), Allison Steele, Nick Melloy, Gwin Spencer (Mother Station) and Susan Marshall (Mother Station).

Wow, another K-Rock snapshot — this one of those at KRQC/Santa Cruz. Looks like morning man Glenn Schuck and mid-dayer Joy Gregory took on the local authorities when they threatened to take Schuck to jail. Bail was set at a mere $900 and was raised to benefit the American Cancer Society. Yep, we bet those crimestoppers put the K-Rock bumper stickers on their patrol cars.

Thought we'd share this on-stage action shot of Glenn Danzig belting it out with Metallica's James Hetfield as they toured together this summer. We also thought we try and get you stoked by telling you that the highly anticipated Danzig 4 album is due out September 13th.

Metal Pick

Obituary, World Demise (Roadrunner) For those of you who are looking for something light and airy to add some happy-go-lucky spunk to your airwaves, just go ahead and turn the page. This is now the territory of Obituary, and there is nothing soft or nice that will get by them, they just won't stand for it. But if you are excited about hearing new music from the top echelon of the death metal genre, then today is your lucky day, because Obituary are back from the grave (well, actually they are back from Florida, but who's checking!) to wreck havoc on thousands of rabid fans everywhere. Recorded at Tampa's Morrisound Studios with producer Scott Burns, who is as respected by death metal bands and fans alike as much as any band in the genre, World Demise takes Obituary a step further in their development as death pioneers. Just check out tracks like "Redefine", "Solid State" and "Kill For Me", to hear their progression with different rhythm styles and more groove-oriented songs. The first single, "Don't Care", has whet the appetite for Obituary fans - whether they be listeners or programmers - and has already powered up to notch #13 in the Hard Hitters chart with top 5 requests at WAIF, WBAU, WBGU, WFCS, WVBR, and WWSP plus heavy airplay at KZRX, KEYJ, KIOZ, WBGU, WCWP, WDW, WFCS, WJUL, WLFR, WNHU, WNYO, WSMU WVBR, WVUD, and WXTB. With early airplay this heavy, and a massive tour already underway with grindcore originals Napalm Death, and labelmates Machine Head, the band will be giving American audiences the one-two punch of a ferocious release in World Demise, and their intense live performance. The topical changes are also evident on this release, with John Tardy's vocals becoming a notch more understandable - while still gravelly, growling, and guttural - because there is a serious message on the state of things that the band want to get across in both their lyrics and their artwork. The band has come a long way since their demonic beginnings with the surreal horror imagery of releases Slowly We Rot and Cause of Death. The emergence of The End Complete in '92 established the band as force to be reckoned with in death metal with their top 5 performance, but it will be the style and songwriting of World Demise that puts Obituary on a higher level of artists to be remembered for more than just the volume.

demolition hammer, time bomb (Century Media)

This New York band has been tearing up the metal airwaves since 1990, when they released their debut Tortured Existence. While developing their base, they toured with Obituary and played at the now famous bastion of brutality - Milwaukee Metallfest - in 1991. Their second release in 1992, Epidemic of Violence, saw them touring with Deicide and continuing their assault on metal audiences, until two original members of the band left. That would be a crippling blow to many groups, but without missing a beat, they added drummer Alex Marquez - who had worked with Malevolent Creation - and streamlined themselves to a brutally effective three piece. With songs like the opening cut "Under the Table" (sans the intro), the slow bludgeoning grind of "Waste", the mammoth power of "Time Bomb", and even a cover of the Devo song "Mongoloid", this is an easy decision for any of you programmers out there who like it heavy. We mean really heavy. With six early adds at KQAL, KWUR, WAIF, WKNH, WNHU, WVCR and KEYJ to fuel the fire, we predict that this time bomb will be exploding on many playlists.

Savatage, Handful of Rain (Atlantic)

The names may have changed over the years, but with the artful hand of Jon Oliva guiding the course, the majestic sounds of Savatage are just as powerful today as they were ten years ago. From the initial response at metal radio, the need to hear new 'Tage has been high, with 28 adds coming in this week, and a chart climb to #32 this week. With the full release in your hands, you have 9 additional reasons to slide them right into heavy rotation. If you cherish the heavy, pounding rhythms of their early work, check out "Taunting Cobras", with its thick, frenzied riffs and "Nothing's Going On", a kinetic, musical cat and mouse game that will leave you gasping for air at the end. For those of you who were moved by Savatage's progressive leanings, the epic lengths and operatic flavor of tracks like "Chance" and "Visions" will be to your liking. One song not to be missed is the musical tribute to the late Criss Oliva, "Alone You Breathe" - a sentimental glance back at all of the emotions surging after the accident. While this is the first day in the rest of the life of Savatage, the band has one foot firmly planted in their heritage, but the other is stretching forward to tread new ground. With airplay building every week, metal radio is intent in joining Savatage on their new adventure.

Kerbdog, Kerbdog (Mercury)

Popping out of Ireland with a bit the luck of the Irish on their side, Kerbdog have taken their brand of melodic, punk tinged power to the metal radio masses, and found more than a few open doors. Pulling in #1 most added status with the single "End of Green", and getting an early debut on the Hard Hitters chart, this quartet, bred on the American indie sounds of Husker Du and Big Black, have melded their huge guitar sounds with catchy hooks, and have found themselves on top of the European critical press. Earning best new band honors in both Kerrang! and Raw - hard rock bibles overseas - and acclaim for their live shows, they are hoping that a taste of this critical success is reproduced stateside. Their self-titled debut was produced by Jack Endino, who is well known for his work with Soundgarden, Nirvana, and Mudhoney; and the raw, aggressive impact of songs like "Dead Anyway" and "Earthworks", or the turbulent roar of "Dummy Crusher" and "Schism" will keep any live audience swirling with movement, and your listening audience begging for more. Don't wipe out on the proverbial curb like the poor soul on the CD cover, Kerbdog have crossed the pond, and are ready to infiltrate airwaves near you!

Accept, I'm A Rebel/Breaker (CMC International)

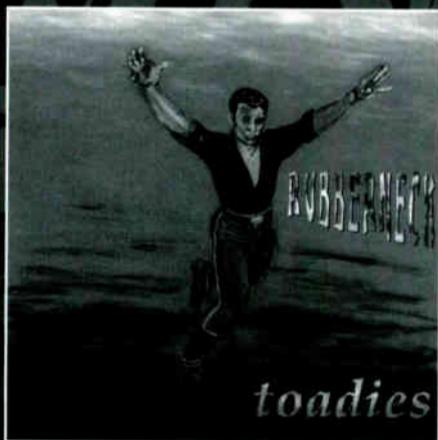

At last year's Foundations Forum convention, this legendary German band came roaring back to devastate and shock the observing audience. After all these years, and even some line-up changes, the original Accept had returned, and droves of London Leatherboy fans came out of the woodwork to hail their return. In their native homeland they never really left - their immense popularity has stayed consistent through all of the years. Many fans of early heavy metal immediately recall "Balls to the Wall" and "Fast as a Shark" when quizzed about old Accept, but as this re-release of hard to find material shows the band has origins that pre-dated even that material. A pairing of the now out of print LPs I'm A Rebel and Breaker on CD format will reintroduce this band as they were before Udo started gargling with razors (how else could he achieve that gritty sound?). Some of these songs may even sound familiar, like "Breaker" and "Midnight Highway", since the Accept live show still includes some material from their early days. In this age of blending formats, and extremes in imagery, speed, and strength, it is a virtual history lesson to go back to the early days of granular vocals and churning guitars and see where much of it began. Here's to Udo and a man named Wolf!

Samiam, Clumsy (Atlantic)

Just in case the three song EP wasn't enough, Atlantic didn't waste any time in getting you the full length debut from Samiam -- Clumsy. With ten adds so far at KNDI, WJUL, WSOU, KQAL, WCWP, WDBM, WEOS, WKLL, WLFR, and WAIF, in addition to rave reviews of their live show from anyone who caught them at New Music Seminar, the early word on this Berkeley, California band has been entirely positive. Mike DiPippa from WSOU states simply that "I don't know much about them, except that they are a great live band." With ear catching melodies and guitars so sharp they could cut through a thick fog, you will be hearing plenty more from this harmonic, punk influenced band with lots on the release for the picking. The tumultuous guitars and frantic drums of "As We're Told" provide a point/counterpoint delivery against the smooth but earnest vocals. For a more frantic and speedy rhythm, try out "Bad Day" - a song that we can all sympathize with from time to time - and "Routine", or maybe a loving ode to an automobile with "Simca". Samiam is a band that finds both humor and sadness in everyday life, and both emotions can easily be beheld throughout the songs on Clumsy. As much as we love him, this week you should forego Dr. Suess for the band Samiam.

Heretix, The Adventures of Super Devil (Cherry Disc)

Cherry Disc records once again plucks up some of the fine talent of New England music, such as Tree and Twisted Roots, this time with the Boston band Heretix. This quartet — made up of Ray Lemieux on vocals and guitar, Brian Hill on lead guitar, Marvin Huffman on drums, and Mike Welsh on bass — is actually on their third national release, The Adventures of Super Devil, and have been working their local scene for six years now. With great reviews in Creem and Rip for starters, the band apparently sold their soul to the devil because ESPN plucked up their music for the intro to the Surfer Magazine show, and the interest in their music began to stir. With twenty five adds on their side already, and a captivating surreal sound with faded guitars and mesmerizing vocals, the air-play can't be too far behind. If you haven't checked this out yet - give it a listen right away. If you are one of the many adds, just keep playing it - or else the Super Devil will be coming to find you!

METAL Filings

Hey, what's shakin'? The way I figure it the entire metal world had better be after this week's arrival of the full Obituary (Roadrunner) album, World Demise. The Scott Burns produced, twelve track opus should be added today!... We're sure the "Handful Of Rain" mini-release was barely enough to satisfy your Savatage craving, so those in the Atlantic Records metal department have sent out the entire LP. Which means you have even more songs to choose from. Do the right thing, add it now... All you Udo Dirkschneider fans will be quite happy to know that those at CMC International have compiled Accept's first two albums in a two disc set for the very first time ever. Featured are the eight songs on the I'm A Rebel record and the 10 found on Breaker... Speaking of August 22nd and 23rd adds, be sure and give the spins necessary to the Heretix (CherryDisc) album, The Adventures Of Superdevil. Add the eleven songs delivered by the postal worker today!... For those of you looking to add a little southern flavored music to your playlist look to the eponymous Bloodline (EMI) album. The record should have hit your desk ready for air-play August 22nd and 23rd... Turn your listeners onto the full length Samiam (Atlantic) record, Clumsy, August 22nd and 23rd. Tons of you have already been spinning the three song CD-pro, now give the rest of the disc the air-play needed to vault the band up the metal charts... Be sure and make some space for the self-titled, Jack Endino produced Kerbdog (Mercury) album... From now until August 29th/30th Schnapp will be wearing nothing but green — that includes his sox, shoes and even his boxer shorts. Why, you ask. Because that is when the single for "Green" from Mutha's Day Out (Chrysalis/EMI) goes for adds. The nifty, snitty CD-pro features the album version along with an ultra cool radio remix... Go ahead and add "Lie", the first tune taken from the upcoming Dream Theater (EastWest) album, Awake, on August 29th and 30th. You got that? August 29th and 30th! Look for the entire record to surface a few weeks later... Did you know that the Body Count (Virgin) album, Born Dead, is scheduled to be shipped to you August 29th? And did you also know that the full CD has been given a September 6th street date? And, a clean version of the "Born Dead" single is slated to be shipped September 16th for adds the 26th. Until then keep on playing the four minute BC medley. Body Count is in the house... An important thing to remember is the mid-September arrival of the new Front Line Assembly (Roadrunner) album, Millennium. The disc features the musical genius of Bill Leeb and Rhys Fulber... Spread the word, a release date for the new Slayer (American) record, Divine Intervention, has finally been given — and it would be September 27th. Remember now, this is the first record featuring the stixmanship of Paul Bostaph. By the way, Mike Meyers happens to be the rabid, avid Slayer fan who gouged the name of the band into his forearm. The color photograph of which will be the in-lay card of the CD jewel box, with the black and white version gracing the actual disc. For those of you in to the world of computers and Slayer, the actual footage of Meyers cutting his arm will be included on the CD-ROM... A up and coming Roadrunner Records act comes in the form of Kevin Salem, who doesn't fit the typical Roadrunner mold but deserves attention anyway. His debut album, Soma City, is slated for a fall release... If the Smashing Pumpkins (Virgin) have been known to make appearances in your playlist at any time, then you will be really happy to know that the Chicago natives are putting together a bunch of b-sides for release under the moniker Pisces Iscariot... Make a mental note of the September 12th/13th add dates for the debut material from Headlock (Pavement) compiled on the It Found Me album... Yes! Danzig 4 (American) from Glenn D. and Co. has been given a September 13th release date. Then, Danzig will be taking off on a headlining tour stopping in venues near you... The scattered ones in Scatterbrain return September 19th/20th with their first Pavement Records release, Mundus Intellectualis... Be prepared for the September 20th arrival of the latest Atrocity (Massacre) album, "Blut". The fifteen song album is the band's follow-up to Longing For Death, dont'cha know... Something else slated for a September release from Massacre Records is Wargasm's EP, Fireball. The EP (slated for hand delivery and adds on the 27th) features live recordings, an edit of "Dreadnaught Day" along with a cover of the Deep Purple tune, "Fireball"... Sick Of It All (EastWest) are on a collision course with metal radio that is scheduled to hit around October 10th. What that means is that the band's new record, Scratch The Surface, will be in your face... All you Solitude Aeternus (Pavement) fans will be sitting pretty in October cuz the band deliver the Through The Darkest Hour LP to the metal masses on 17th... Something new to look for in the month of October comes from New Idol Son (Pavement). The tasty tidbit "Reach" goes for radio play October 24th and 25th... We've heard that Karma To Burn and Thorn (both new to the Roadrunner Records camp) are both doing their studio time, recording their debut albums. More info on them as it comes in. So comes the end of this summer's Lollapalooza Festival. The final dates of the musical extravaganza are August 24th with a showing in Phoenix, Arizona; August 25th in San Diego, California; the 27th in San Francisco, California; on the 30th in Vancouver, British Columbia; and on the 31st in George, Washington... The last show of the DGeneration (EMI) and Ramones (Radioactive) duo just happens to be August 26th with a show at the Continental Divide in New York City. Be there or be square... You can feast your eyes on the freakish beings in the Jim Rose Circus Sideshow (American) as they take on the Nine Inch Nails (nothing/TVT/Interscope/Atlantic) audiences at five shows with Trent R. and crew in September. Prepare to be amazed as the dastardly double bill stops in Muncie, Indiana on September 10th; St. Louis, Missouri on the 11th; in Nashville, Tennessee on the 13th; in Memphis, Tennessee on the 14th and finally, in Kansas City, Kansas on the 17th of the month... Dangerous Toys (dos/DMZ) are comin' atcha live with shows booked all along the East coast. Tune to the Hard tour guide for specific dates and places... Those of you in the Northern part of the country are lucky enough to be able to check out Warrant and Left For Dead as they drop by Allentown, Pennsylvania; Huntington, New York and Old Bridge, New Jersey on August 24th, 26th and 27th respectively... Keep your eyes peeled for upcoming fall Gilby Clarke tour dates, in support of his Virgin release, Pawn Shop Guitars... So, the young lads in Mutha's Day Out (Chrysalis/EMI) were tapped to perform a song in the upcoming motion picture Mortal Combat, so the band took a coupla days off from their hectic touring schedule to lens their big screen debut footage. More info is to be announced. As soon as we get it, you'll read it... In more visual stimulus news, Black Train Jack's (Roadrunner) video for "Handouts" should be gracing the air-waves of your favorite video channel any day now. The clip features Puck, from MTV's Real World 3, and coincides with the release of the "Handouts" CD-pro... One more thing, for those of you who don't know it yet Pete Rosenblum has taken the reigns and is currently in charge of the metal stuff at EastWest. According to him you should all feel free to call him at (212) 275-2860. We plan on it. By the time you read this we will have already seen the Pantera and Prong music fest in Philly. Thankx to Cheryl Valentine and Smitty for hooking us up. Let the wild rumpus start! Peace.

It appeared to be one of those casual studio moments when Dee Snider and Co. in Widowmaker gathered for a photo op. The band were working on Stand By For Pain, their first release on CMC International. Pictured are Dee, Tom Lipsky (CMC), Rick Kerr (producer), Rick Wake (Wake Productions) and Al Pitrelli (guitarist).

Considering this group shot features the mugs of Varga band members do you think the photographer told them to "Freeze, don't move!" If not, they really should have. The other happy people pictured at the WXZR Shockwave are members of Wicked Maraya and the Z-Rock models.

Gumball, "Nights On Fire," Columbia Don Fleming and Co. are back with Revolution on Ice, their second Columbia full-length. And this one places much more emphasis on the band's crafty use of melody. The last record featured a healthy share of bombast, and though it is still present here, the songs are more of the focus this time around. After many months of knob-twisting for other artists, Fleming focused himself on his band and material, also producing this record as well. "Nights On Fire" is a warm, organic track rooted in the pop aesthetic. But then again, there aren't many better at capturing that classic pop feeling than Don Fleming. Jonathan L. comments, "Fleming and his band obviously have crafted a much different record from the last. They seem to have perfected their jangle." And sez KACV's Jamey Karr: "It's a perfect pop tune that references back to Rock and Roll's past. People like to see a connection between the 60's and the 90's."

Sinead O'Connor, "Fire On Babylon," EMI Sinead comes in at #2 Most Added this week, so we figured we'd print some radio feedback: Boy Troy at WFNX comments, "Too often we forget that there are artists on this planet who are passionate about their lyrics and their music because they care about the world around them. You can't ignore Sinead O'Connor and all she's accomplished in getting us to recognize how far we have to go as a people. And you can't ignore the message she's delivering to all of us on "fire On Babylon". Sinead leads the way once again. Will you listen this time? We certainly are." Gary Schoenwetter at WEQX exclaims, "Sinead O'Connor is NOT a piece of rock and roll history. Don't write her off, because she's here to stay. This song is great." And newly named WWDX MD Mark Copeland says, "It's good to see that she didn't keep her promise and retire. Sinead is the kind of artist that you should always look forward to what she's putting out."

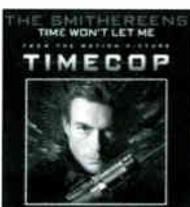

XC-NN, "Young, Stupid And White," 550 Music/Epic Can you say anthem? We'll resist making any demographic references, for that would just be way too easy. Formerly CNN (they had to change the name for obvious reasons), the band desired to name itself after a "multi-national corporation or product, something fast and current." Apparently they've never seen "Showbiz Today." Anyway, guitarist Tim Bricheno, formerly of the Sisters Of Mercy, formed this band in order to do some musical exploration. By taking concepts of what constitutes "goth" music and twisting them, the band makes their own, guitar-based brand of furious noise and feedback, delivered with sheer attitude and a ruthless swagger. Darlings of the English press, it's only a matter of time before they rage over these shores.

The Indians, "Bed of Roses," RCA Sales of the Reality Bites Soundtrack are in excess of 2 million, with each track that's been embraced by radio going on to do extremely well. And the Indians are no stranger to play at the format, what with the impressive success of "Look Up To The Sky" and this track as well. By the time-honored "if it works, run with it" department, it's easy to see why the folks at RCA are going to start working this track on the heels of the soundtrack's success. A great radio track that will undoubtedly please the masses who bought the soundtrack (many of whom relate the song to the movie and not to its previous airplay).

Cotton Mather, "April's Fool," ELM We've craved about this band and their pop mastery for a while now, and after a successful summer of touring, they're ready to hit the commercial side of things. Hailing from Austin, Cotton Mather encompass a style of bright-eyed pop that is well done and endearing, one that's made them prominent members of the Austin scene. Robert Harrison's vocals set the band's tone, as they play off the vibrant guitars and add texture to the tight song structure. Upbeat and direct, "April's Fool" will well serve any playlist. Power pop at its cleanest.

The Smithereens, "Time Won't Let Me," (from TIME COP) RCA And once again from the world of soundtracks comes this one: Time Cop, a new sci-fi thriller starring kickboxing phenomenon, Jean Claude Van Damme. And the concept of the movie, time travel and its ramifications (no doubt done with countless spin kicks and monkey flips) serves as ample reason as to why this track is relevant. Good cover song from a relevant (yes they are) band to the format.

We were shocked to hear that Caroline's Chuck Panossian (and his assistant, John Perrone) were let go last week. One of the most knowledgeable and intellectually aware music people out there, Chuck is hands down one of the coolest guys in the biz. He'll make a total asset to any label looking to enhance credibility, both musically and professionally. Call him at home: (212) 243-3301... Seth Gershman has put in his notice at Atlantic and will be leaving in three weeks. "I'm moving to Miami to pursue other career objectives," says Seth, "and to live off my girlfriend. Cable radio rules!!"... KUKQ hit the airwaves running last Monday, and so far the response has been massive. "The phones are definitely going crazy," says Jonathan L. who describes his station as "if someone gave me the keys to the car, and if I felt like wrecking it into a wall, rearranging the fenders, or painting the damn thing pink, so be it." Among the artists that we heard (via hold-button technology) during a recent 8AM (!) hour were Damn the Diva, New Model Army and Juster. Here's a sample hour: Magnapop "Slowly Slowly", Beck "Beercan", New York Dolls "Pills", Skatenigs, "Regret", Nick Cave/Bad Seeds "Do You Love Me", Black Train Jack "The Struggle", Mary My Hope "I'm Not Singing", Joan Jett/Blackhearts "Insecure", Red Hot Chili Peppers "True Men Don't Kill Coyotes", Moist "Push", Beastie Boys "Sabotage", The Dukes of Stratosphere, "Have You Seen Jackie?", Consolidated, "Cutting". When asked about dayparting, Jonathan looked up bemusedly, furrowed his eyebrows and said, "What the hell is dayparting?" Chuck Artig, the station's General Manager, was so elated with the first two days of programming, that he went out and purchased a congratulatory gift certificate, valued at $100 each to get both Larry Mac and Jonathan some more tattoos. In other Q news, the station hires KEDJ middayer Alison Strong as Assistant MD... Has Westfall landed a gig already? We wouldn't be surprised... Velvet Crush has been selling out virtually all of their club dates this time out. It's only a matter of time (not long) before the band blows up... Listen to "Barbarossa" by Sordid Humor. Can you guess who the mystery backup vocal on the track is? Interesting story behind this record. Much more to come, we think... Who you calling "snippy"?... "Body And Soul" by Love and Rockets shipped last week, and "This Heaven" went to clubs and specialty shows. Look for the release of a new record in February, which features more of a "classic" Love And Rockets sound than the current one... Live 105's Green Team Broom Brigade and 105 homeless people are preparing themselves for another war against litter slated to take place on Friday, September 2nd from 10:00am-12:00pm to kick off Labor Day Weekend. Armed with gloves, goggles and oversized brooms, the LIVE 105 Green Team and 105 homeless will divide into groups of five and sweep up anything in the streets of the covered area. The station has also announced another show in its Free Summer Concert Series. The Gigolo Aunts will be playing two free shows, one on Monday, August 22 in Union Square, in San Francisco. The second one will be the next day at San Jose State University Student Union... WROX announced the winner of their Corona/96X Battle of the Bands. 7 - Mary - 3 hails from Williamsburg, VA. The band can be contacted at 5 Spot Records, P.O. Box 495, Williamsburg, VA 23187, or you can contact Sara Trexler at WROX for more info... Rolling Stone gets in the act of altering pictures for its next issue featuring Trent Reznor. Matt Mahurin, the same artist that artistically enhanced a picture of O.J. Simpson on the cover of Time, has created a similar effect for Rolling Stone's cover to give Trent Reznor a dark, painful image. "I was a classically trained pianist," Reznor says, "I started when I was 5 years old. And it got to the point where I was encouraged to drop out of school, get tutored, practice for 10 hours a day for a concert career. But I'd just discovered KISS, so that was out of the question. I knew I wasn't going to get laid studying piano with a nun." Reznor, who runs Nothing Records with his manager, John A. Malm, Jr., also recently completed the soundtrack for Oliver Stone's Natural Born Killers, which he executive produced and will release of his label, August 23. At Woodstock, Reznor almost had his nightmare come true when a live electrical wire broke loose and landed on the bands bus, almost burning the singer and his band to a crisp. Luckily a Woodstock "peace patrol" squad came running to the rescue. Was it just a coincidence that NIN just shot a video for his new single "Burn," with Trent in flames, watching a series of childlike nightmares? The video is the lead off clip from Oliver Stone's Natural Born Killers Soundtrack. "Burn" will air on MTV next week. Wherever Reznor is there's bound to be electronic problems. Besides the live wire, CNN's equipment broke down for five minutes while interviewing the singer and after the band was rushed to the stage, technical difficulties delayed the band from taking the stage for 20 minutes. That's when the band ran off and wrestled in the mud until the stage was ready explaining why the band was coated in mud. As a sign of changing times, Trent Reznor destroyed six sets of electric keyboards, not guitars, during his set at Woodstock... Tour dates: Richard Thompson: 8/26 Toronto; 8/27 Philadelphia Folk Festival; 9/1 Portland; 9/2 Seattle; 9/4 W. Sacramento. Spin Doctors/Cracker/Gin Blossoms: 8/23 San Diego; 8/24 Las Vegas; 8/26 Irvine; 8/27 Los Angeles; 9/1 Mountain View, CA; 9/4 Portland. Stone Temple Pilots: 8/22 Toronto; 8/23 Warwick; 8/25 New York; 8/27 Philly; 8/28 Washington, DC; 8/29 Richmond; 8/31 Norfolk; 9/1 Raleigh; 9/3 Charlotte; 9/4 Atlanta. Thee Hypnotics/Vanilla Trainwreck: 8/23 Atlanta; 8/24 Tallahassee; 8/25 Tampa; 8/27 Augusta; 8/29 Washington, DC; 8/31 Philly; 9/1 New York; 9/2 New London; 9/3 Boston. Pete Drobe: 8/22 New York; 8/23 Northampton; 8/24 Portland; 8/28 Chicago; 8/29 St. Louis; 8/30 Madison; 8/31 Detroit; 9/1 Cleveland; 9/3 Minneapolis; 9/4 Chicago.

INTERVIEW BY DAVE MORRELL

DOWN TO EARTH DAVE EDMUNDS HAS WORKED WITH EVERYONE IN THE BIZ AND HAS LEGENDARY TALES YOU CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF. I RECENTLY HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO TRAVEL WITH DAVE AROUND THE NORTHEAST, DROPPING BY RADIO STATIONS TO GET IN SOME ON-AIR ACOUSTIC TIME, AND GETTING TO KNOW THIS LEGEND WAS TERRIFIC. BEFORE WE PARTED WAYS I HAD THE CHANCE TO ASK HIM ABOUT HIS NEW RELEASE, PLUGGED IN, ON PYRAMID RECORDS.

of that on the demo, it was a lot simpler.

Why did you go back and re-record 'Saber Dance'?

Dave: I did that for a bit of mischievous fun, really. It is just the weirdest thing to do as a record, and I don't know why I did it in the first place. I did not do a very good job of it on the recording. The tune sort of got revived in the Rhino Anthology and then it got revived again by Cheap Trick, who have recorded a version on for their Japanese release. They sent a couple of mixes for me to pick which one I liked, which is nice of them. That sort of brought it back, and re-validated the whole thing so I thought, the hell with it, I am going to record it myself and do a good job this time.

Is it true you own the publishing on this track?

Dave: I am the owner of the copyright because of

This is your first release with Pyramid Records. How did this come about for you?

Dave: I produced a record for them with the Stray Cats, so that's how I became aware of the label. Joe Walsh is with them as well, and I played a few tracks for him while I was in the process of making the record. I gave a copy to his manager, David Spiro, who played it for the folks at Pyramid, and they were very interested. So we signed a deal.

How did it feel to be recording in your home studio instead of renting outside studios to do this project?

Dave: It's heaven having my own studio. I was often worried. I have seen other successful musicians and rock stars get their own studios and they usually seem to do nothing productive in them. It's difficult to compete with the pro studios, but all that's changed now with technology. So I went ahead and bought my own studio and I'm pretty industrious in it. I don't know how I have lived without it.

How long did it take, from beginning to end, for this solo project?

Dave: I would say six months from start to finish, but there was some time off. I probably worked about 90% of the days out of the six months.

Why the cover of Otis Redding's 'I Got The Will'? Is that a personal favorite?

Dave: Well, I don't consider that a cover version because I don't think Otis released that. I just managed to get my hands on it somehow, but it was not officially released. I try to do songs that even if they are covers, they are obscure.

Did you ever hear Etta James' version?

Dave: No, I think the Etta James version is a different song. I found Otis' song on a publishing demo, a CD that was sent out by Chapel Publishing. It caught my attention, because I am a big Otis Redding fan, and I had never heard it.

And the cover of Jerry Reed's 'The Claw'?

Dave: Jerry Reed is a marvelous, fantastic guitar player who, I think, should do more playing than singing or making films. Several guitar heroes have recorded this, but not all of them do it properly. It's a real tough piece to play and it's just something I've been toying around with for years and it finally fell into place. So I thought I'd get it down and join the club of people who recorded 'The Claw.' It's a very difficult piece and I am looking forward to doing it live as well.

'One Step Back' was written by Jerry Williams and ZZ Top's Billy Gibbons. Did Billy's involvement motivate you using that song?

Dave: Actually I didn't know Billy Gibbons had co-written it. It's funny how he is being credited with it now. It was sent to me by Jerry Williams. Later, when the publisher sent the second demo that Jerry and Billy had recorded together, it said Jerry Williams and Billy Gibbons, so I think it's Jerry song actually, but I don't know.

Where do you pick up this 'Beach Boy Blood' track? What did the demo sound like on that one?

Dave: A very dear friend of mine, and an excellent songwriter, Michael Lanning, and I did a few of his songs on the last album. Later he came up with this Beach Boys tribute that he included on a tape that he sent to me. I heard it and it was a lot different, minus all the harmonies. I put a lot of my own ideas into it, like the bit on the end and bit in the middle, from 'Good Vibrations' and 'Surf's Up.' There was none of the guitar arrangement. The Russian writer was Khachaturian. Western copyright does not apply to Russian compositions. So there you go, if you want to make some money, cover an old Russian folk song.

Who picked 'Chutes and Ladders' as the lead-off track?

Dave: Well, we got a consensus of opinion from the people who are going to work on the record. Very often there is one obvious song which everyone goes for that makes it a lot easier, but in this case there are a lot of good songs. I try to do good, quality songs throughout the album, but that does make it difficult to choose. I have asked seven or eight people which track would make the best single, and I got seven or eight different replies including, 'Better Word For Love,' 'Saber Dance,' 'I Got The Will,' and 'Beach Boy Blood.'

Did you consider putting 'Return To Sender', from the Otis Blackwell tribute, on this album?

Dave: Yes, I did, because I enjoyed doing that. All I had to do was choose any Elvis song and do it. I did it in my studio within a day and it turned out so well that I wanted to put it on my new release, but there is the problem that you can only have 10 or 11 tracks on an American CD. It is the publishing restrictions. However, in Europe, they do it by a different system.

Is there anything unused that you put together in your studio, any interesting b-sides, that you recorded that did not make the record?

Dave: The only thing that I recorded that is not on here is another Al Anderson song that he wrote for me, but it is on the British version because you can have more cuts on European CD than you can on American CDs. That is a very interesting bit of business news there.

What stations do you listen to out in California?

Dave: I don't listen to the radio. I find it impossible with all the commercial breaks, but sometimes in my car I'll listen to the Triple A station out here.

Who are some of your biggest influences?

Dave: All the pioneers of rock and roll, all the obvious ones like The Everly Brothers, Jerry Lee Lewis, and Little Richard.

Who would you like to produce?

Dave: Early Elvis before he went into the Army. I have a theory that a different one came back. I think that aliens got him and they wanted whatever it was for themselves and we got back this shell of Elvis. It is like the Beach Boys, there are two Beach Boys. There is the one that goes on tour now, and there is the one that made the records in the '70s — they are completely different entities.

As a producer, what new music do you enjoy?

D M

Dave: The last ones that I bought were Collective Soul and Enya. I like the Enya record. She was in a group called Clannad, which is an Irish band. I'm in Tower Records every week stocking up.

We have talked about some of your influences. Who are some of your favorite live performers?

Dave: Rod Stewart. He is one of the best that I have seen live, and ZZ Top, just by virtue of what they do that makes it work. Personally, I like to go see Chet Atkins, that's the guitarist in me. I can sit and watch him for hours. I just played with him in Pasadena recently, he's a great performer.

So he is familiar with your work?

Dave: Yes, with the stuff that I have done with The Everly Brothers and Carl Perkins. I think that the word got around Nashville and he became aware of me.

If you could produce an artist like Chet Atkins, what would you do to make it special?

Dave: The thing is, with anything like that, you have to find something to make the record irresistible. Once you have made a record irresistible, you are made for ever, the world will beat a path to your door. I did it once with 'I Hear You Knockin', and to the lesser extent, I have done it since. Some people can do it, like Collective Soul just did it, and it is absolutely irresistible. The Rembrandts' record 'That's The Way It Is' is also irresistible. I don't know if it is the song, the production, or the combination of the production, the song and the artist.

Why have you backed off producing the last couple of years?

Dave: There is nothing that has grabbed my interest, and I don't think that I have grabbed anyone else's interest either. Producing is a thing that you have to be asked to do, you cannot just decide that 'I am going to produce so and so'. When I was asked to do the Stray Cats, that was great, and I knew that was right for me. The Fabulous Thunderbirds was great, because I had known them for ten years, and that was good fun. I don't want to go into the studio and get myself in the middle of some kind of nightmare, which you can often do, with particularly with younger artists. They are not quite sure of themselves, and their ego gets in the way. With the old, established guys there is none of that nonsense like throwing tantrums in the studio and storming out.

How do you feel about making videos?

Dave: I'll make videos as long as someone will watch it. I have spent many 18 hour days and it is just grueling stuff doing those videos and sometimes it never sees the light of day or gets one spin. I don't know, personally I prefer a record without a video. Very often if a good record comes on MTV I'll avert my eyes so I can just listen to the record without getting sidetracked with the video. There are a lot of my favorite records from the past that I would hate to have seen as videos, because you can get stuck with that image.

How do you feel about the new country scene in Nashville?

D S

Dave: I am a bit disappointed with it in a way. It is bugging me because it's too mainstream, too formula. The same song being written all the time with the same tempo, and the same guy singing about their Brothers came out of country music. I used to listen to George Jones before the Beatles got together, or at least before they started making records. I have a recording of George Jones, I must have been 17 or 18 years of age, and it's called 'New Favorites Of George Jones', that's a fabulous album, and it's much more of a varied kind of country.

Let's set the record straight on Rockpile.

Dave: Well, people think that Rockpile was a band that Nick Lowe and I put together, that's not quite true. Rockpile is the name of my first album, which I made before I ever met Nick. The credit on 'I Hear You Knockin', which was my first hit single, was Dave Edmunds Rockpile. Rockpile, being the name of the band, was John David on bass, Mickey G. on guitar, and myself. Then it expanded to Andy Fairweather Low and Pickwithers, then after that came the Nick Lowe and Dave Edmunds sort of scenario. So that was Rockpile II or III. Rockpile is the name of my band, so when they ask if Rockpile will ever get together, it is very likely. Will I ever work with Nick again? No.

When do you plan to hit the road?

Dave: I'm looking for a band to put together, hopefully I could get it going in September.

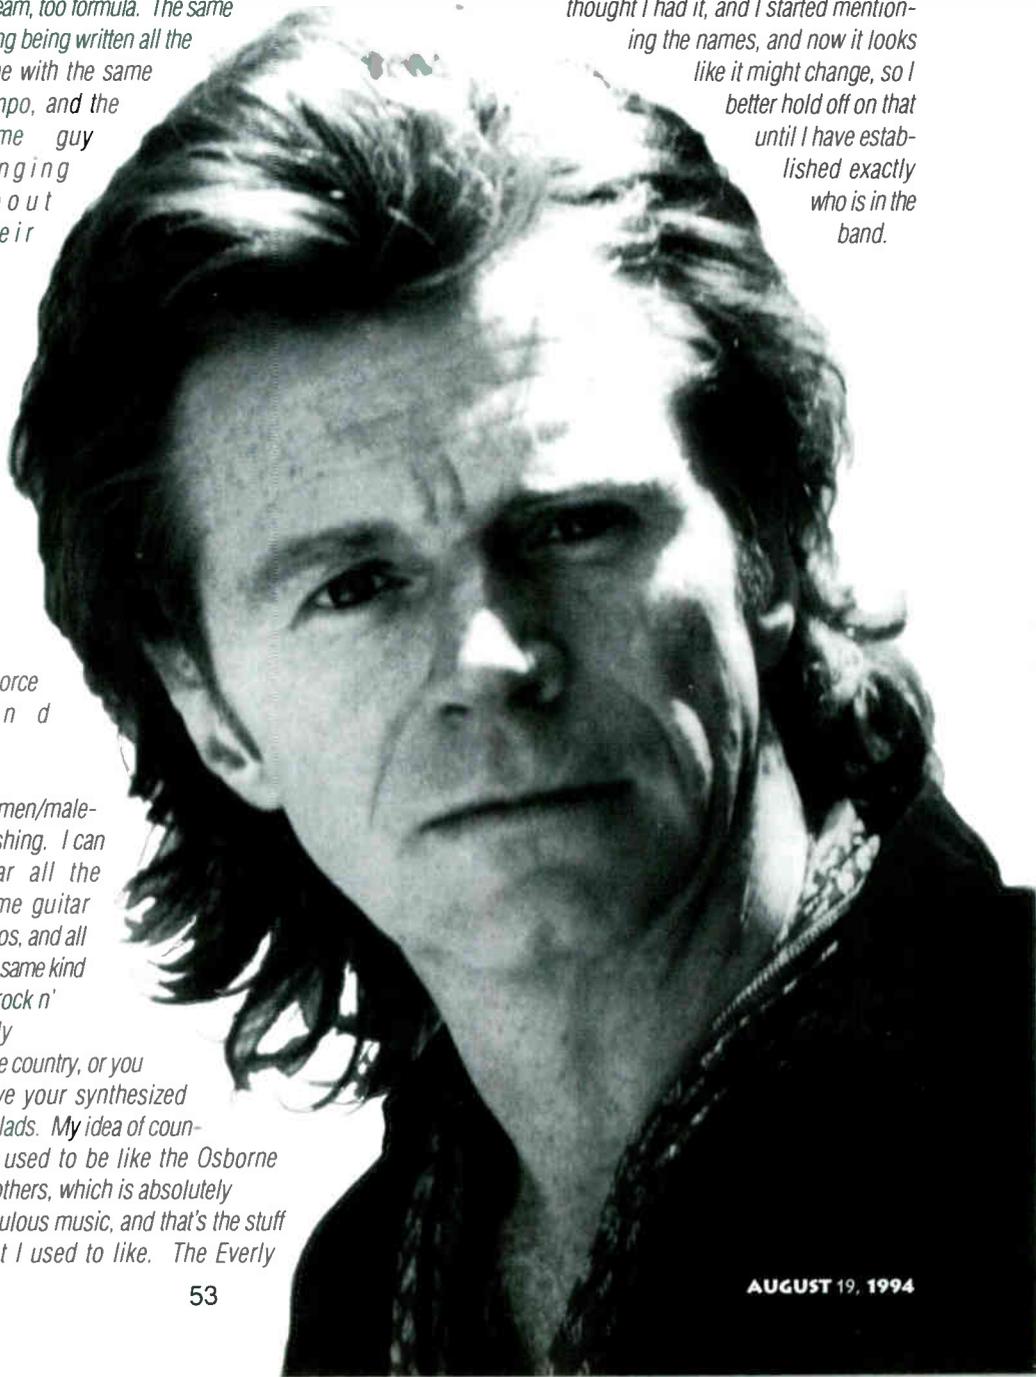

Any names you can mention right now?

D S

Dave: I can't because it might change. Finding availability isn't that easy with music people. I thought I had it, and I started mentioning the names, and now it looks like it might change, so I better hold off on that until I have established exactly who is in the band.

women/male-bashing. I can hear all the same guitar solos, and all the same kind of rock n' roll type country, or you have your synthesized ballads. My idea of country used to be like the Osborne Brothers, which is absolutely fabulous music, and that's the stuff that I used to like. The Everly

The band's publishing company says the group has "vehemently resisted any commercial use of their songs." "They have now received numerous telephone calls from their fans questioning why they had 'sold out' for a sneaker commercial," the publishing company says in a letter to Reebok and its advertising agency.

Six of Hendrix' multi-colored jackets were sold to anonymous telephone bidders — including an orange jacket which went for $63,000 and a striped wool jacket which sold for $38,000. An elderly couple canceled a planned vacation in Woodstock, England, because they thought it was the site of the anniversary rock concert being held in the U.S. "They asked if they could change their weekend and I asked if there was a reason. They said they couldn't put up with the crowds and the loud pop music," says Marlborough Arms Hotel manager Mike Davis. "I told them there was a classical concert at Blenheim Palace that weekend which wouldn't really cause any problem, but they said: 'No, we've seen it on the telly — it's a huge pop concert. There's no way we're coming this weekend — we couldn't put up with all the louts.'" The British Automobile Association says it got telephone calls from travelers concerned about traffic.

Pop Will Eat Itself take a shot at the Queen of England on their new album, "Dos Dedos Mi Amigos," with the "Familius Horribilus," about the Queen's claim that she's had a bad year. "Horrible Family is a mock of the royal family," says guitarist Adam Mole. "They all get a little mention in there. Like most people under 60 in Britain we feel that the royal family is a waste of money, a bit pompous and ancient. Prince Charles just had this documentary about him and he seems just as pissed off as anybody else about the royal family." The album's title was inspired by a slogan about "two fingers" of a brand of tequila.

I never saw the band with Lisa. I met her a few times. She's great. I respect her for going solo. It's like starting over again." Jostyn plays violin, guitar, harmonica and accordion. She's already played or toured with the Hooters, Donald Fagen, Billy Joel, Joe Jackson, Laura Nyro and the Story. "I've been playing music literally my entire life," she says. "My mom started me on piano at three. They (her parents) were aware this was an aptitude for me. My family was always very encouraging. They were always just 100 percent behind me as a musician. I've never really aspired to do anything else."

Billy Joel says he may ask his attorneys to look into why tickets he gave away an hour before his show to people who had "nosebleed" seats ended up being sold for $200 each. Joel says the tickets for his show with Elton John in the Alamodome had been sold by independent ticket agents in advance. "They maybe paid $200 for those tickets, and they sit there and expect me to deliver $200 worth of entertainment," Joel quipped. "I'll tell you, I'm not worth $200."

The wife of an Englishman who changed his name to 57 words that include the names of Level 42's band members and the group's album titles has decided to do the same with her name. Sabine Hicks is changing hers to a 481-word name using, among other things, the names of singles and albums by U2. "It's my own tribute to U2," she says. "I am quite close to getting the order of the names sorted out. I just started by doodling with the idea but then the list became longer and longer." Since Wally Badarou has produced records by both bands, the Hicks can still share the same last name. Sabine says she's always been a fan of U2, even though she's never seen them live.

Estimates are that about one percent of the 24 million cable television subscribers who were offered the program purchased it. "Early indications are that this was one of the most successful pay-for-TV musical programs ever," says PolyGram Diversified Ventures spokeswoman Patricia Kiel. The pay-per-view broadcast received incessant promotion on MTV's broadcasts from the event.

A judge in New Orleans has dismissed charges against Eddie Vedder of Pearl Jam. Country Joe McDonald stuck around to give an extra performance at the site of the original Woodstock concert at Max Yasgur's farm in Bethel, New York. About 1,500 people refused to leave the site, after about 25,000 people attended a free concert featuring Arlo Guthrie, Richie Havens, Canned Heat, Mountain, Melanie and the Rascals. The "official" Bethel '94 concert was canceled because of poor ticket sales. "I didn't plan to play again today, but we're here and the audience is still here," McDonald said. "We'll play for those departed souls who are hovering over the site — Vietnam vets, Janis Joplin, Max Yasgur. Entertain them a little bit."

Don Henley telephoned an Eagles fan who was injured in an accident while en route to one of the band's reunion concerts in May. While fixing a flat tire on the freeway, a car veered off the road and crushed his legs. Gonzalo Rios spent two weeks in a coma and his legs were amputated after the accident. The Eagles have offered to pay some of Rios' medical bills. "I just said, 'Ga-Ga-Ga-God!' I couldn't talk," Rios says of the call from Henley. "I said, 'Man, it's so nice to hear your voice...I've been a fan of yours for a long time...' He just said, 'Well bud, hang in there.'" "Michael is a sham if he can turn his back on his hometown," says state representative Charlie Brown of Gary, Indiana. "It angers me to think they put up all these promotional activities for Michael — and it's all good — but how could he turn his back on the community where he was born?" Brown says that Jackson has never done anything to help Gary, which he left in 1969 when he was already a star at age 11.

Oasis' guitarist/songwriter Noel Gallagher had to be treated for a wound to his head after violence erupted at a show by the band in Newcastle, north-east England. The gig was the opener on Oasis' current UK tour and the incident happened after only five songs. A man climbed on stage and attacked Gallagher, punching him in the face before jumping back into the 500-strong crowd at the Newcastle Riverside venue. Noel and brother Liam tried to chase the man and the show was stopped. Afterwards, a crowd of around 300 people gathered outside and damaged Oasis' van. It appears the band did nothing to provoke the incidents. Noel, who had to receive treatment at the Newcastle Royal Victoria Hospital, commented: "I've got a bit of a headache, a bit of a lump gathering over my eye but if I have another 75 cigarettes and a couple of bottles of gin I'll be sort of all right, I might go to sleep tonight. It was really good atmosphere until the middle of 'Bring It On Down.' Then I was doing my guitar solo and a guy just appeared and he was about two feet away from me and I thought he was a stagedriver. It happened just like that and all of a sudden he had this big ring on and he just smacked me in the eye." The band's record company Creation say that security will be increased at future shows. Indeed without such measures, it does seem likely Oasis' reputation for "ladishness" might attract similar incidents.

Hole's first UK show since the death of Kurt Cobain will be at a 'secret venue' in London on August 25. A warm-up act for their appearance at the Reading Festival. The Lemonheads, will also perform. Elsewhere, a spokesperson for Hole has denied the band's plan to recruit former Fall and Adult Net member Brix Smith as a replacement for bassist Kristin Pfaff. Rumors suggest Kat Bjelland of Babes In Toyland will perform at Reading as a temporary replacement.

Suede have denied rumors that guitarist Bernard Butler's replacement Richard Davis has been the name on many people's lips, but representatives of the band insist that auditions are still taking place. This is not a changed man, I am a more aware man."

Primal Scream, Manic Street Preachers and Henry Rollins all contribute exclusive tracks to the latest Volume CD/magazine. The latest edition is devoted to artists appearing at the Reading Festival, with Bloggers ITA as the only band featured who will not perform at the event. Primal Scream have given a live version of 'Jailbird,' the Manic's track is a live version of 'PCP' and Rollins contributes a spoken word diary. Other bands featured include Senser, Cypress Hill, Sleeper, Terrorvision, Salad, The Wedding Present, Helmet, Shed Seven, Kitchens Of Distinction and Deus.

REM's new album will be called Monster and tapes featuring new tracks have been circulating in Los Angeles, according to a report in Melody Maker. The paper lists the album's tracks as 'What's The Frequency, Kenneth?', 'Crush With Eyeliner,' 'King O Comedy,' 'I Don't Sleep, I Dream,' 'Star 69,' 'With Love Come Stranger Currencie,' 'Tongue,' 'Bang And Blame,' 'I Took Your Name,' 'Let Me In,' 'Circus Envy' and 'You.' The album is scheduled for a September 27 release by WEA. 'What's The Frequency, Kenneth?' will probably be the first single; the band have been recording a video to accompany the track.

Orbital are planning to appear 'in the round' whenever possible on their forthcoming UK tour. The techno act will be using 3D SurroundSound and also promise a massive video and lights show. Carter The Unstoppable Sex Machine are urging their fans to attend a series of sponsored walks against vivisection. 37 walks will take place on September 23. Dream House are a new band formed by former Waterboy Martin Swain. A recent show at London Kilburn Paradise featured guest appearances from World Party's Karl Wallinger and Aimee Mann.

There are growing fears that some CDs may be unplayable within five to ten years. Dave Townsend, who organizes the Compact Concern Campaign (CCC), says: "We want to warn the music buyer that there may be a long-term problem. CDs are not indestructible, if they were record companies would offer a lifetime guarantee." Particular attention is being focused on CDs made in the Far East. These CDs are made for as little as 45 cents, but campaigners question their quality and durability. This latest report comes after a long series of complaints about CDs, particularly over their pricing within the UK. Dave Townsend and the 3,000 members of CCC have begun a campaign to highlight these issues. They are urging people not to buy CDs priced at more than £9.99 and Townsend says: "CDs are a massive rip off and they are killing new music. People can't afford to make experimental purchases because discs cost anything up to £15 and people on low incomes can't afford to buy CDs at all. The record industry is making long-term problems for itself." As CCC prints t-shirts with the slogan "50p to make £15 to you - five years to fall," the industry attitude remains that a well taken care of CD will last for many years.

David Bowie, Billy Bragg, Andy Partridge of XTC, Shane MacGowan, and Neil Tennant of Pet Shop Boys are amongst artists who will contribute to an art exhibition and auction for Brian Eno's War Child charity. Eno hopes to raise around $2.25 million to start a hospital in Sarajevo. According to Eno: "Some people think it sounds like jungle and others think it's fusion. It's a hybrid. It's very dramatic."

Manic Street Preachers have been talking to Melody Maker about the recent hospitalization of guitarist/lyricist Richey James. According to Nicky Wire: "Richey just reached a point where something clicked. His self abuse has just escalated so fucking badly - he's drinking, he's mutilating himself, he's on the verge of anorexia... There's a line in 'Yes' - 'Hurt myself to let pain out' - Richey has just found it so hard to say no to anybody and that really was his way of letting out pain." Frontman James Bradford adds: "...he has a very acute perception of things and you can't lose that perception. It's just a matter of how you can channel it. And this is it. It sounds insultingly flippant to say, 'Ooh, these things happen' or something, but - basically, what it is, we all say Richey's problem was getting to a stage where things were gonna get very, very nasty, and now he's gonna go to a psychiatrist. There is no question of Edwards leaving the band, with Wire pointing out that the guitarist contributes 70 percent of the lyrics on the forthcoming album The Holy Bible."

Marilyn Manson, the Florida hard-core band, criticized by a British Conservative Member of Parliament John Blackburn, plan to release their new album Portrait Of An American Family on September 5, the 25th anniversary of the infamous Manson murders. Marilyn Manson's members are all named after mass murders and Blackburn, a devout Christian, says of the forthcoming album: "I think it's appalling. I would ban this sort of thing tomorrow, it's breaking up society. It's disgraceful that they are capitalizing on the Manson case."

Pete Dinklage's drummer Joe McKechnie was shot in Liverpool on Tuesday, August 9. The bullet hit him in the arm at the elbow and exited at the wrist. There are fears the musician may not recover its use.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

Woodstock weekend?!?!...hell...KISW had a very big weekend in store for Seattle listeners (and it didn't even rain). Friday afternoon, our afternoon guy, Jon Ballard got a street named after him in his hometown of Edmonds, Washington. "Jon Ballard Ave." was the result of months of petitions, listeners sending letters to the mayor, and just plain bugging her until she gave in... Friday night KISW presented the first of 5 nights at the intimate backstage where Heart recorded their next live album. In addition to the Heart "standards," covers included "Love Hurts," "What is and What Should Never Be," and "Ring Them Bells." The album is produced by John Paul Jones (Led Zeppelin) and features the strings from the Seattle Symphony. Wait until you hear the result... Saturday morning, KISW's Twisted Radio hosted "Nudestock 94." They pumped in music from Woodstock and instead of rain and mud, everyone enjoyed sun for their bare buns... Saturday night, KISW welcomed Soundgarden, Screaming Trees and Reverend Horton Heat to the outdoor Memorial Stadium. Awesome show!... Sunday, the KISW Flys softball team kicked Ticketmaster's ass 24-6. Admission for the listeners was free and there was no service charge!

J.D., WONE, AKRON

The-Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week... Neil Young & Crazy Horse "Prime Of Life."

DOUG KUBINSKI, MD/APD WMMS

Fresh off their inspiring performance at Woodstock '94, "Green Day" (With opening acts TBA) is slated for a Buzzard Low-Dough-Show (actually the continuation of Buzzard-Palooza) at Blossom Music Center on September 10!... Tickets are only 5 Bucks and went on sale on the 13th. Although Northeast Ohio was besieged by a monsoon on Saturday, Buzzard listeners came out in droves to area ticket outlets and scarfed up 11,400 tickets in 2 days- a number exceeding all expectation!... Cleveland airwaves will never be the same as "Love Phones" made it's debut Monday night on the Buzzard. Thanks to Dr. Judy, Steve Kingston, Sam Milkman, Chris Jagger and Steve Pepe' for making the debut flawless!... We recently made a few changes to our jock line-up: Lou Santini moves to midday's and the BLF bash regains his throne as the King of overnight Cleveland Radio. "Spaceman" Scott Hughes brings his twisted self to the afternoon drive slot!... Check out the Neil Young and Crazy Horse Tune "Piece of Crap"-Neil's still angry! Moist's "Push" and Mazzy Star's "Fade Into You" continue to be big success story's- Check 'em out!!

GUY DARK WHDQ

Sometime in the middle of the next decade we'll be surfing through the 200 plus channels we'll have at our disposal, and lo and behold, a familiar face will appear on the screen. There will be a few flecks of grey in the thirty-something woman's wild mane. Her eyes look different from what we remembered, then we'll realize, it's because she's wearing contacts! WHY IT'S KENNEDY! She's bouncing around, her size three bod still proudly intact, and she's telling us how obsolete compact discs are and why we should run to our interactive computers to purchase the best compilation around—"Those Grungy Nineties," now available on DAT tape!... Freddy Johnston's "Bad Reputation" is getting curiosity calls. If your station leans a little adult, a little alternative, or if you don't give a damn about categories and just want to expose your listeners to good music, give it a spin!

CHRIS MCKEE, WRFX, CHARLOTTE

Still recovering from the WRFX Fox Birthday Bash '94 on Saturday...as are 10,000 of our closest friends! Thanks to Yes for a most memorable show...hats off to our bud Peter Wolf who blew 'em away as always...but how bout Hootie & The Blowfish goin' and stealin' the show! Thanks to Myra Simpson at Atlantic for all the help. Love ya - mean it!.. Hootie's no longer just a southern treat...they are for real. The new album Cracked Rear View is simply awesome... P.S. if you're a very smart programmer and in need of a morning show...can you say John Boy and Billy? I knew you could. And if you're not that smart...they can make you look that way! Call 704-338-9970 and ask for me or Randy Brazell.... See Ya!

CHRIS KELLY, WNYO

First of all let me set the record straight. I did not hook up with a lesbian, or at least she never said she was. Granted that her name was Butch, but that didn't mean anything...did it? These rumors are out of control, no thanx to Marc Mellonballon, and Sherri at Energy... Anyway, Harborfest was an incredible weekend. Marc Meltzer was a fish swimming in alcohol, Jamie the computer god acted like Dave Letterman all weekend long, and our Program Director Matt Simon drove 6 hours, stayed for 3, then drove back home...what a tool!! We had our party truck giving away shit to people, and some of us walked around handing out cool stuff... I gave Prong away to a mailman during his route, and some four year old got herself a Sepultura cassette!! At one point we drove around town throwing things at people, and in open vehicles. It was sick!! But we could not have done anything without the help of you industry people... We would like to thank Smitty, Cheryl, and Brian at Epic, John at Columbia, Wendy at Geffen, Jesse and Casey over at Century Media, Maria at Metal Blade, Jay at A&M, Brian at Mercury, Joanne at AIM, Sudi at McGathy, Egal at Interscope, Sue at Zoo, Marni at Roadrunner, Sherri at Energy, Deborah from Rock n Roll Tattoos, Beth formerly of Mechanic now at Mausoleum, Schnapp at EMI, Munsey from Skateboard Mkt., and anyone else we forgot... By the way, I will return to the station on August 23rd, and should be reporting the following week... Missed ya all, see ya soon.

TRACY LEA, MD, KZRX, PHOENIX

Greetings from Phoenix where it's suppose to be a "dry heat!" Well, I'm finally getting settled in with my new duties although I'm upgrading the chaos factor from zoo to safari status which I'm actually enjoying!.. Music call hours are Wednesday and Thursday from 3P-5P and I can be reached at 602-848-7735... We've had a slew of killer shows in town - I'm still recovering from the Slayer show in Tucson as well as an awesome show with Sugartooth, Mutha's Day Out, and Godspeed - sorry I didn't get a chance to see Mutha's Day Out bizarre human tricks while they were in Phoenix, nonetheless the show kicked our ass!.. Offspring, White Zombie, and L7 continue to set the phones on fire!.. I'm diggin' the Killing Joke, RPLA, and Kyuss and am sure Phoenix will dig 'em too - and of course Suicidal Tendencies giving it to us again with "Love Vs. Loneliness".

DAVE CIANCIO & SCOTT HAMMER, WDBM, EAST LANSING

Question: If I melt dry ice, can I swim in it without getting wet? Yesterday Pantera and Prong performed for us in Kalamazoo. Prong was awesome! It would've been better if the sound guy wasn't a bass-a-holic. Pantera was rough (no surprise) but it was like watching "Naked Gun" for the second time. You know exactly what was gonna happen next, but it was still good. My favorite parts were Prong/Pantera doing "Walk" and "Snap Your Fingers..." Have I said it enough times yet?.. The new Overkill is by far my favorite album this year metalwise. D.O. Verni - bassist of the year? C'mon, give it up for the only true metal 12 stringer!.. I just heard the line up for the Sabbath tribute album! Holy Shit! Be sending me a signed copy of the new Motorhead video. Lemmy and his little buddies rock! Motorhead used to be produced by John Entwistle of The Who. You don't get cooler than that. That is the standard by which all things cool are weighted against. "Born To Raise Hell" and "Feed The Gods" by White Zombie are two great songs to crank while you are driving on the highway... Look out for the Treacherous Human Underdogs. So say Scott and I. Less than two weeks until Overkill and Pro-Pain take over Michigan... Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes! As far as non-metal music goes I have one word multiple times...Sponge, Sponge, Sponge, Sponge, Sponge...these guys are phenomenal... I gotta get goin' over to fax this before Jodie (she is very cool and I do not want to anger her) kills me for turning it in to late. Call me if any of you squeaky rats have questions. Until next week: Be sure you "don't wake up pants unbuttoned!" RUH!

BRUCE WARREN, WORLD CAFE

Music...Yes true believers it's still about that, really. So there I am sitting in the Tin Angel last night totally entranced in spiritual enthrallment listening to Jeff Buckley and his band perform songs from his debut Grace, and it hit's me (as it has every time I've seen or heard Jeff play) that Buckley's talent is one of those rare gifts, a beautiful, impacting contribution to modern music that comes along- without the rush of the corporate hype- once in a very long while. It was last winter - with Mike Morrison and Columbia's Todd Bisson that I first heard Jeff's music. I was immediately hooked and realized that for the first time in years, this was music that spoke to me and hit me hard... Just like London Calling and The Wild The Innocent and The E Street Shuffle, The Replacement's Tim, Husker Du's Warehouse, Fugazi's 13 Songs, Miles Davis's The Birth of Cool, The Doors' Morrison Hotel, Dylan's Blood on the Tracks, A Tribe Called Quest's People's Instinctive Travels did and continue to do for me... Sure, Buckley's music alludes to the brilliance of Jim Morrison or Howlin' Wolf or Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan or Led Zeppelin or Miles Davis, but Buckley is amalgam of all that. You see, I'm sitting and watching Jeff doing songs like "Last Goodbye," "Mojo Pin," "Grace," "So Real" and his cover of Big Star's "Kangaroo" (done up Ornette Coleman style), and I ask myself what it takes to translate your own personal passion for an artist so that it works for others. It's like you've got an incredible secret and you want to share it with the rest of the world. That's how I feel about Jeff and his music. So, before you put Jeff's Grace in your player and make the decision for your listeners that he may be "too hard" or the songs may be "too long," or there's "not enough hooks" or the songs take "too long to build," allow yourself to hear Jeff's voice. If you're as mesmerized as many of us are, then you'll become a believer. If you can find a song, or two or three to play on your radio station, then that's even better. But you know, a secret shared-like a good book or a piece of art or a genius body of work- as Jeff Buckley's Grace is- is what this is all about. Thank you and goodnight... Bruce Ranes and I will see you in Boulder...

DEAN CARLSON, KMTT, SEATTLE

Only in Seattle. The Indigo Girls played two sold out shows this week, only to witness their fans rush the stage and form a mosh pit at their feet...Needless to say the show was unbelievable and I'm about to cast my vote for Swamp Ophelia as album of the year, but then I haven't heard the new Clapton yet. Big thank you's go out to Debi Lipetz at Epic for bringing the Indigos by The Mountain for a chat and a couple of songs...our phones never stopped ringing... Great adds this week: Depth cuts from Neil, CSN and Edie Brickell. The Widespread Panic is a hit... and I'm ready to play several tracks off the new J.J. Cale...but we'll start with "Hard Love"... also made room for the Buckwheat Zydeco... and check out Rusted Root...they're a five-piece from Pittsburgh that sound like a mixture of medieval folk and shamanic grunge...it's great! We're playing "Send Me On My Way"... Top 5 phones lead with Jackpierce, then Sheryl Crow, Neil Young, Indigo Girls and The Subdudes.

JOHN LENAC & KEVIN KLINE, KTOZ, CHANNEL Z

Hi There, My Grandmother always told me; "Live music is good for the soul." Not really, but she sure could bake a mean apple pie! She would have definitely enjoyed the two free shows we had this week... Danielle Brisebois came in town on Tuesday and This Picture was here Thursday. Both sounded fantastic on the air in the afternoon and blew everyone away at the shows. Big, Big, BIG THANKS to them for stopping by and playing for us and many, many happy listeners. Thanks also to Charlie Foster, Graham Hatch & everyone at Arista and to Peter Catsus, Q Management & everyone at Epic... Mudfest '94...I mean, Woodstock '94 was also a big part of our week. We broadcasted nightly sound-checks all week and hours of live coverage throughout the weekend, in addition to daily Woodstock minutes and feature programs we've aired for the past two months. We flew a couple of winners to this monumental event and they, as if you wouldn't have guessed, had a stellar time! Huge thanks to everyone at the Media America Radio Network for everything, especially for helping us to steal new listeners from other stations...5Channel Z has a new addition to our family. His name is Kevin Kline, (No...not the actor, that's his uncle...really) and he'll be doing nights, seven to midnight. He's also the Music Director. You can reach him Tuesdays and Wednesdays from one to four. He says hi to all of you and is anxiously awaiting your calls... Until next time...

DUG, WPUP, ATHENS

Hiya! Flooded streets really suck on a motorcycle. Tornado watches and warnings kind of blow chunks too. My feet are wet and I'm in danger of dying. You?.. Saw the Bosstones and Black Train Jack last week in Atlanta. The show rocked. BTJ is impressive live, and sounds great on the air. Maybe the rest of the country will figure that out in 6 months or so, kind of like the Gigolo Aunts. Seems to me that I was playing "Bloom" off of the In Bloom EP a long fucking time before everyone else caught on. Can't wait to see which big city programming genius gets credit for discovering them... I have a place to live next month. Hurray. This means that I'll probably get hired somewhere halfway across the country tomorrow... My bike got 47 mpg yesterday. Your gas guzzling car?... The University of GA has no idea how many students will be here this year, but it looks like it is up a lot. There are no apartments open anywhere. I wouldn't be surprised if enrollment was over 30K this year. This would be big news for our station...If it were 5 am, I would talk more... Ask anyone who's ever gotten one of the billion page letters I send out in the middle of the night could tell you that. But no, the sun is up. Somewhere... I'm covered in a tropical depression and it's the middle of the day... So leave me alone...I'm going to go away now...Do you realize it's been 2 months since I've had even a veiled suicide threat in these things...I must be ill.

DAVE LOMBARDI, WARNER BROS.

I'm sitting in the airport in Nashville, and I'm waiting for a connecting flight back to Los Angeles. The events of last night compel me to reach for my new Powerbook, so I'm sitting here, like a technogeek, tapping out what I'm sure all my fellow airport dwellers must think is some sort of urgent memo or document or threatening letter to American because of the food (actually, it was okay), but of course they'd all be wrong, because I'm writing about my bands... Now, let me explain what it was like going on the road last fall and winter with Candlebox, while they played club dates for a whopping 40 people in Philly and even less in Providence. In a word, it was disheartening, especially when you believe in the music and you can't bear to think, that as a music professional, your instincts are that wrong. But you persevere, because you have that belief, and the band is so hopeful and you realize you have the belief of key people in the industry, and some of those are in radio. So, in time, the Cathy Faulkners and Peg Pollards and Ron Valeris and Greg Mulls and Russ Mottias, to name a few, have their impact. And it comes to pass that Candlebox plays to 15,000 people in a torrential downpour in Washington state, and they play at Woodstock, and they play to an overstuffed, turn-away crowd at a wedding reception facility, a show that effectively serves as the Baltimore swan-song for Russ Mottla, the man most instrumental in turning his town into the second-most fervent Candlebox market in the country, after the band's hometown. That show happened last night, and it was just another exclamation point in the less-than-a-year path of unbelievable development this band is following to double platinum and beyond. As gratifying as all this continues to be, we find ourselves on the verge of doing it again... Opening last night's show was NYC's Gods Child, who took the stage amid cheers for Candlebox, and who, by the end of its 45-minute set, left that stage in considerable triumph, audience screaming for more. It was the first time I saw the band perform, and I'm grateful it was away from the glare of N.Y. and L.A., and I'm even more grateful with the actual performance. The band is unlike anything currently on the circuit, but there's no gimmick. These guys have a unique musical expression, epitomized completely by Chris Seefried's transcendent performance as singer and lead guitarist. They jam. They transfix. They expand gratifyingly upon the album material. They won over thousands of people in Baltimore last night, people who'd never heard of the band, who had no idea whatsoever what to expect. But perhaps the best thing I can say is that I can say is that they will be going on the road, soon, on a yet-to-be-announced tour. Then, you can see and hear for yourself, like you did with Candlebox. And then you'll know precisely what I mean... I'm out.

SCOTT DOUGLAS, VIRGIN, 212-332-0418

People dressed in plastic bags...directing traffic...some kinda fashion...The Stones are still A-M-A-Z-I-N-G!! "Love is Strong" is in heavy at MTV, and VH1!! And, the Budweiser tour ad campaign has kicked in. This song is about to test through the roof!.. Cracker is damned near platinum and "Let's Go For A Ride" is out for Rock Radio this week. They are kickin' ass out on tour with Spin Doctors and Gin Blossoms and selling records as they go!! So there you have it...rats on the westside, bedbugs uptown...watta mess!!

MARK FISCHER, ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-272-2085

Well, I'm really sorry for all you baseball fans who have to suffer with players who make too much money and owners who don't want to share any more. But hey, the real sport that people care about is almost upon us. Football!!!! How 'bout them Cowboys. As a transplant Texan to the Big Apple I must say, "I may not live in Texas anymore, but Texas still lives inside me." Go Cowboys!!! (Oh, by the way, the Giants are allowed to come in second, and for the Jets... The Jets who???) Next!.. Now for the real stuff. To everyone out there a hearty thanks for making Collective Soul platinum and counting. If you have not begun to play "Breathe" here are some reasons. First, you can play both "Shine" and "Breathe" together. This was highly successful for STP, and I don't believe anyone regrets that programming decision. (2 million and counting, Hello!!) Second, this record will be Top 10 in less than two weeks. Third, MTV has the video with Aerosmith this week. Fifth, (are you getting the point), Collective Soul played at Woodstock which was viewed on television by millions. As we say, "Play it and they will come." (A slight modification from a saying in a movie about baseball. If you haven't figured it out by now, I hate baseball!!) This week we are impacting an artist that has been on the road all Spring and Summer with Collective Soul, The Hatters... The opening track, "Sacrifice" from The Hatters debut album is the next track we are introducing to radio. For you guys looking for great catchy rock-n-roll, The Hatters are worth a spin or two. That's all for me, keep an ear out for things to come from your local Atlantic person, (Bad Religion and Liz Phair to name a couple.) See ya!

CHRIS WOLTMAN, COLUMBIA PROMOTION

Pink Floyd's "High Hopes" is flyin' high with an amazing close out week - big boys like WEBN and KLOS are in this week along with some amazing secondaries. On the COR side, the stories are starting to develop with stations like WXTB, which just bumped the rotation up, WQFM and KQRC this week. It truly is an amazing song... Toad the Wet Sprocket's "Fall Down" is still doing great at AOR Radio...We are moving over 25,000 records per week at retail off at this first track from a project that is filled with great music...FYI "Something's Always Wrong" will be the follow up track the first week of September... Steve Perry continues with another solid week...Well over 30,000 units last week at retail... Make sure you are tuned into Stabbing Westward's "Lies" - this is the first official week coming off of an amazing club tour where many of you witnessed first hand how this band really rocks... Listen for Corrosion of Conformity's "Albatross" and get ready to get involved with this band - they delivered a record that kicks ass and will put them where they deserve to be in our rock 'n' roll world...that's it for now.

MARK ABRAMSON,
ROADRUNNER RECORDS,

So, I went out and saw that damn Forrest Gump movie that everyone is saying is so brilliant and thought it was the most "just OK" movie I've seen in a while, The Mask on the other hand... Anyway, you are all expecting me to give you the update on the reaction record of 1994, Type O Negative's family are: KMOD, KLBJ, KRAB, WMMS, WAAF, KIBZ, KLPX, KOMP and KZRR. This is a record where no one loses: It will bring top phones, great research and lots of sales. It's almost a no-brainer!.. Black Train Jack is kind've like finding a ten dollar bill on the street. It's so easy and beautiful that you start to wonder if the bill is real or not. This bill is real! This is the perfect summer song, short, and they are currently on tour with the Bosstones! Simple, short, catchy, fun, positive - where do you go wrong? Add "Handouts." Gotta go, see ya!

JOHN NARDACHONE ATLANTIC

Am I the only person who had an absolutely killer time at Woodstock!?! I've heard nothing but bitches and complaints from negative people who wouldn't know how to have a good time if it stuck them up the ass!! In my mind, two days and three nights of very solid live music including Nine Inch Nails, Metallica, Collective Soul, King's X, Jackyl, Candlebox, Rollins, Santana, (just to name some), is one hell of a grand party!.. My thanx to Jason from WBCN, Princess Lea Pisacane, Rob from Devistation (don't scratch that poison ivy, dude), and who ever else that my messed up Monday morning mind has forgotten, for their hospitality, kindness, and genuine well being...

MICHAEL J. SCHNAPP, EMI RECORDS,

...And as I arose from mud village, it hit me! I had the feeling. This special feeling. A Woodstock feeling. I was muddy! But it was good! Those crazy muddy kids! I walked along the muddy river, thru tent city. Phew, it stunk! Youth bonding rituals can be such fun, but mud is mud. All in all the show was fun. Cool bands. Cool people. Cool mud... Now that I'm over my Woodstock shock, I'll tell you that Mutha's Day Out are on tour with Sugartooth and Godspeed. Mutha's Day Out go "Green" for adds and metal airplay on August 29th & 30th. Go "Green" for me! Mutha's Day Out just finished the video for "Green" and continue to tour. Get out on the road and see this show... Bloodline are slammin', jammin', guitar wailing with "Stone Cold Hearted." Everyone that I play the CD for loves it. Listen and love it too! The full Bloodline LP will arrive soon - and they are touring now... And soon, you'll all be Moist. Listen and look for "Push" from Moist. Hey, they'll be touring too. Come and have a Moist road experience... DGeneration is fresh off a handful of Ramones date. DGeneration limited edition 10" Red Vinyl is available now, so call me or Stephanie for 'em! DGeneration is out late September, but take an Airhead hit now!.. And, soon you will be overcome by the sounds of Butt Trumpet! Remember I need cool 8-Track tapes... Anybody got an extra copy of Woodstock on 8-track... mine got muddy...

The Napalm Death tour has begun and the houses are packed! If you would like to experience a little mayhem for yourself ring me up and we'll sort you out... Speaking of a brutal live show, Stompbox continues to steamroller over all that come within their path. Now "What it's Worth" is the new track coming soon... Feeling adventurous? Check out Sponge's Plowed and Neenah Menasha from their debut Rotting Pinata... Thanks to all for the overwhelming support of Live—now following up the #1 smash "Selling the Drama" with tremendous success of "I Alone"... After a summer reprieve from goofy flyers, the fall brings the return of those sons of the shamrock, Fatima Mansions. Their first U.S. release since 1992's "Viva Dead Ponies" is an EP of eclectic sociopolitical barnyard tales dubbed "Popemobile To Paraguay." Consider it a reintroduction, and a prelude to the upcoming full-length... Baseball strike!?! Now what do I do with my nights? Oh well, at least those wretched Yankees fans are suffering... Paul O'Neil hates indie rock, you know.

TOM GATES, ROADRUNNER, (212)219-0077

I never really cared that much about baseball anyway. Let's all play Lawn Jarts instead. In fact, let's start a Lawn Jarts League (the LJL) where we can play the best jarters a gazillion dollars and then sell the TV rights to Fox so they can run promos every minutes about the upcoming Lawn Jart season. Nike could make special steel-toed sneakers so that no one gets lanced it the toe. We could have Henry Rollins and Milla do play-by-play. It would be fun... Not as fun as Black Train Jack (couldn't resist), but darn fun indeed.

Just back from a few days at home in Jersey, Skatenigs totally kicked as during their 5 date jaunt across the southeast. Thanks for all radio support!.. We have Skatenigs and The Pleasure Elite going on the road together with another band tba starting in October... Sarkoma will be on the road at that time as well. Be prepared to pump up the airplay for these bands over the next few weeks in preparation for these tours. We will be doing tons of publicity on our end so we need your help to play the records to get your listeners hyped for the shows... Next up we have the debut release by Delaware's own Solitude. These guys have a huge following around South Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware area and it's well deserved because they kick ass live. They are so heavy and brutal I can't even tell ya! They will be playing at CMJ I believe Sat. with Madball. You'll be the first to know. I'm outta here.

A.C. is wrapping up the last few dates of a two week tour that kicked off at Milwaukee's Metalfest. From there they wreaked havoc causing mayhem and destruction in select cities across the US, including a show in Juarez, Mexico at a club appropriately called "The Noise". Thanx to all who supported A.C. - just a few giveaway goodies left in the till for the first few stations to call in... Bolt Thrower are also still out-n-about declaring aural warfare - making their long awaited NYC appearance at Wetland's "Deathstock" on Aug. 21st. If anyone is in need of tix for any of these shows - call me... The fall shall bring new releases by fellow noise gods Fudge Tunnel and Brutal Truth so be on da lookout! Also my wonderful new assistant Shana (pronounced Shay-na) Kusin will be taking Kevin's place. Kevba - I miss you already. Alright, I'm outta here... Oh, Slash - glad to be home after weeks on the road with them down home Buzzov*en boys? Betcha miss 'em already... till next time folks.

Well, it's time to add Obituary's World Demise LP this week. About time-huh! The first week of their tour with Machine Head and Napalm Death went phenomenal. I love when EJ gives me exact numbers on how many people show up for each venue day in and day out, like he did with the Life of Agony/Carcass tour - killer guy! Anyway, keep "Don't Care" in heavy rotation, and giveaways will be available... Thanx so much to those who did interviews with Obituary so far!.. Machine Head are tearing it up right along side with Obituary. To have a brand spank'n new band receive mega listener response the first couple of weeks out honestly means a great deal. Remember now, here is a band with a first record and no, never toured, which means no prior exposure what so ever. Then came press who ate them up, by giving them features and two thumbs up for their debut release Burn My Eyes. Don't you see - they will be huge, and then comes you DJs believing in them and getting the record out there. Just look at the chart numbers. This record is definitely working itself... Now the other band that has taken us by surprise is Madball. Their debut LP Set It Off is proving that raw talent still exists in the hardcore genre. It's nice to know that the true essence of Agnostic Front still lingers within Madball! They fuck'n rule... Buzzov-en will be heading back out on the road in September, and I will be setting up interviews. If you like extreme, then you'll like Buzzov-en. G-bye!

Wow!! Whew...!! What a show!! The Uptown Horns rocked the Bottom Line. They performed with special guests - Peter Wolf, Vernon Reid, Bernard Fowler, Ben Houston and Soozie Tyrell. They packed the house. People screaming...noise escalating...the crowd yelling and stomping for more...a mass of heads leaping to their feet...totally blown away. The CD is a-rolling!! Don't miss it. The third cut "Imaginary People" performed by Bernard Fowler is key... R&B is a-ok...check it out. I'm still in a horn fog...XOXOXO

Be the programmer I've always dreamed about...take the incredible new 2-song single from Tinsley Ellis (on your desk now!) and pop it in your player. You'll soon find out what the next generation of blues rockers is all about. Give a listen to "Wanted Man" & "To The Devil For A Dime." Tinsley Ellis plays the kind of crossover blues that your listeners dig. Early believers include WXXV, WZEW, KKOS, KFMG, KFAN and WBFL. Great reviews upcoming in CD Review, Downbeat, Request, Guitar World, more. National ads are being placed in Guitar Player, Guitar World, Best of Guitar Player and more... Hey, quit reading this and listen to the music! Thanks. Buenas knockers!

So Body Count is in fact in your face dude. The 4 song medley is going for adds now. The single will be in your face the end of September. For those of you who did add the treacherous Human Under Dogs, you should. Melvin Gibbs from Rollins produced the record. It's way cool + way heavy. Wicked Maraya heads out on the road with Cyclone Temple on 8/31 in Lansing, MI... The new single from Wicked Face In the Mirror hits the end of the month... Gilby Clarke will have tour plans soon. Check out this record big time... Criss is going to be touring in the fall. The full length album should be on your desk by now. Take a listen to it, there is some real cool tracks on it... Rhino Bucket is also in your face, don't forget about them... The Toys tour is rolling in. Maybe some of you are the eggs and toast-type, maybe you're from the granola school of thought. Me, I'm a coffee achiever. No coffee = no attention span. Every morning I stop into 7-11 for a 16 oz. cup o' Joe., 84 cents, every morning. Today, my cup of adrenalin cost me 95 cents. Just thought we'd raise the price on ya, sorry 'bout that. Hello?! That's an extra 11 cents per cup, every day, five days a week. Do I get 11% more coffee for my extra 11 cents? Heck, no. Those bastards at 7-11 have me by the balls and they know it... Lots of live music hitting the pavement in August and September: call us for tour info on Magnapop, Sky Cries Mary, or Love Spit Love... Bad Religion's Stranger Than Fiction and Killing Joke's Pandemonium CD's are clearly the absolute monsters you'd expect from bands whose contributions to the "alternative" format are undeniable. It's not a respect thing, it's a music thing...see for yourself... Don't be a sheep. Tripmaster Monkey's Goodbye Race isn't about following the herd, it's about honesty. More brutal honesty than Pillsbury's got crescent rolls. Spend 44 minutes and 32 seconds in the world of Tripmaster Monkey...Thanks to all who've supported Melting Hopefuls' Space Flyer. Some lucky MD's have already gotten phone calls from the band's luscious vocalist, Renee' LoBue. Want one, too?... Got a chance to hear the new House of Freaks' CD Invisible Jewel this week... And buzz, buzz, buzz: new music from Hoodoo Gurus and The Cramps before Xmas!

Since it's inception, FM 101.9 has been referring to itself by it's frequency and the slug line, "Southern California's Album Alternative." The KLIT call-letters are finally going to be buried (and for a good reason!). Pending FCC approval, the station's call-letters will become KSCA within the next month or so. We'll let you know when... To date, the Coyote has been broadcasting on two frequencies, one for Santa Fe one for Albuquerque. Next Monday (8/22), KLOT will consolidate to one signal at 102.5 and go to a full-signal 100,000 watts from the mountain between the two cities called Sangria Crest. The signal will be a monster blowtorch, and will get into areas where the Coyote has yet to howl... Our friends in Austin have once again had more honors bestowed on them. Congratulations to KGSR, named "Best Radio Station to listen to at Work" in the annual Austin Chronicle Readers' Poll... We were sorry to hear that the A3 dinner in New York on Thursday after the Elektra Records show by Katell Keineg was interrupted by two gunmen who held up the entire restaurant (basically the 14 people at the A3 table) at gunpoint. They took all of the valuables from the diners, including some of our A3 friends like Dave Rahn, Brad Hockmeyer and Andrea Karr. Luckily, no one was hurt, but it did shake everyone up a bit... The new collection from Crosby, Stills and Nash, After the Storm (Atlantic), is full of well-written songs with great harmonies (unlike their harmonizing at the Woodstock '94 festival). For starters, try the Nash tune "Find a Dream," and the Crosby-penned song "Camera." Also check the title song and the beautiful "Unequal Love." An excellent album from start to finish... The best song of the week comes from Edie Brickell's new album Picture Perfect Morning (Geffen). "Tomorrow Comes," is a catchy, upbeat number that makes you feel good. The album is full of great music, such as the bluesy "Stay Awhile," the very hooky "Lost In The Moment," "Hard Times," "Another Woman's Dream," and "In The Bath." Paul Simon's guitar, Dr. John's piano, and David Bromberg add a nice touch to this fine album... If you're looking for really strong songwriting, check out the new album by Jules Shear, Healing Bones (Island). "Bird In The Cage" is a song you'll be singing along with the first time you hear it. There's not a bad song on this disk, but if we have to choose, try "A Prayer (For Those Not Here)," "Healing Bones," and "Two Friends." Jules also does a nice remake of the Walker Brother's classic, "The Sun Ain't Gonna Shine Anymore." ...Cover Girl (Columbia) is the latest album by singer-songwriter Shawn Colvin. This time she decides to record other folk's songs. The lead track is "Window To The World," perfect for AAA radio. Willis Alan Ramsey's "Satin Sheets" gets a fine new treatment, as do the songs "Killing The Blues," "Someday," "Your Gonna Make Me Lonesome When You Go," and a cover of Talking Heads "This Must Be The Place (Naive Melody)." ...Neil Young and Crazy Horse are in raw form on Sleeps With Angels (Reprise). The production is quite muddy, even for Neil, and there is no lack of depressing material on this one. "Prime of Life" is the early standout. It sounds like a cross between "War of Man" and "Rockin' in The Free World." "Train of Love" is a nice ballad that could be from Harvest Moon. "Western Hero" is the token country flavor on the disc. Neil is at his storytelling best on "Trans Am." Crazy Horse records are notoriously unfriendly for radio play, but this one does give us a few tracks to play with... Fast Track to Nowhere (A&M) is a collection of songs from Showtime's "Rebel Highway" that features bands doing remakes of 50's tunes. The highlight Los Lobos' version of "Lights Out." It's a great rockin' remake that really captures the essence of the band's live sound. Others of interest include Concrete Blond doing "Endless Sleep" in their usually dark mood... Sheryl Crow's wonderful drugged-sounding rendition of "I'm Gonna be a Wheel Someday," and "I'm Walkin'" from harp virtuoso John Popper and Blues Traveler... "Snail Shell" is the advance track from They Might Be Giants' forthcoming album John Henry (Elektra). It's quite alternative leaning, but it grabbed us immediately. The chorus has a memorable hook, and the band has achieved an original sound, blending alternative and melodic pop... Around The Next Dream (Virgin), the new Cream—oops, I Mean BBM—album arrived this week. This is really Gary Moore's album, but the effect of two-thirds of Cream behind him is felt throughout, especially on tracks like "Waiting in The Wings," and "City of Gold." The bluesier tracks, like "Where in The World," "High Cost of Loving," and "Naked Flame," are where Moore and the band really shine... Blues/Boogie veteran Marcia Ball is back with Blue House (Rounder), and the lead track "Red Beans." As always, Marcia is cookin' on this one, and her penchant for good time music is a welcome slice of AAA pie... For some nice acoustic-based music, check out Littledeath (Mesa/Bluemoon) from Love and Money. The songs are hooky and melodic, and feature prominent mandolin and fiddle harmonies. Try "The Last Ship on The River," "Pray for Love," and "Love Is Like a Wave." ...Bob Mould is back with his latest band, Sugar, and a new album called File Under Easy Listening (Rykco). The single, "Your Favorite Thing" is signature Mould power-pop from one of the most overlooked songwriters around... It seems like since the release of Gordon, the Barenaked Ladies have gone through puberty, and are now experiencing the darker side of relationships and life—innocence has been lost. Many of the songs on Maybe You Should Drive (Sire/Reprise) deal with more serious subjects like lost love, egotism, rocky relationships, family rifts. "A" is a terrific song, dealing with self-evaluation. "Life, In a Nutshell" sounds more like their first album, with great analogies and images. Also give a listen to "Intermittently," "These Apples," and "Great Provider," a touching song about a father/son relationship.
