THE INDUSTRY'S SOURCE FOR PROGRAMMER OPINION RECORD OF THE WEEK

Alice In Chains Unplugged, "Over Now" Columbia/CRG

Without the signposting of crowd applause or other typical "unplugged" scenario, Alice In Chains produce a very tight version of this tune in an acoustic context. The disciplined mix makes it sound killer on the radio, and obviously Active is all over it for #1 adds OTB. KEGL's Duane Doherty, "This is very important to us - it's almost like a greatest hits record"... KQRC's Doug Sorensen, "I like it a lot, although I play a ton of AIC already. It adds a different dimension to the whole thing"... WRIF's Doug Podell, "In the end, this could overtake the actual album out now"... And this offering, from WKLQ's Andy O'Riley: "They could belch right now and have a hit."

KEGL (B 16-10 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Duane Doherty

"Still as strong as ever. Moved out of nights and into afternoons. Testing on it is pretty good, better than I thought it would be with our audience. The phones are still really strong."

KICT (B 9-10 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Sherry McKinnon

"Getting some nice early requests. They seem to have a real fan-base here. The week their record came out it was in the Top 10 locally. Getting more spins this week."

KNCN (A 10-7 PPW WKS-ON:7) APD/MD Matt Vaughn

"It has exploded. Anyone not playing it needs to friggin' wake up. This thing is in the Top 5 phones. You can play this 24 hours a day - don't kid yourself."

KQRC (B 8-13 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Doug Sorensen

"I've had a good run with that. It is still incredibly active."

KSPQ (B 6-6 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Randy Bailey

"That is really starting to move. We've been on it a few weeks, and may be increasing the spins in a couple of weeks. Positive on the phones and in sales."

WCPR (A-7 PPW) MD Scott Fox

"Love it. That is an A. Big phones. We really waited on it because of the rap element, but we decided to go for it. No negs."

WDRK (C 10-10 PPW WKS-ON:10) OM Addison Wakeford

"Working well at night. Good requests and activity. They are going to do a show in town, too."

WDZR (B 10-12 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"This is just blowing out at retail. Since we got on it, it went up ten-fold. Young, but the biggest reaction record we have on the station. Play it - get phones."

WHMH (B 20-24 PPW WKS-ON:10) PD Scott Klohn

"It's catching on. A little Alternative for our audience, but while it's a borderline tune, it's picking up."

WJRR (B 8-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Pat Lynch

"We are seeing massive, massive phones on this, albeit pretty much a low-end male thing."

WKLQ (C 7-8 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Andy O'Riley

"It's got a fresh hip sound on the air, and it generates great phones. At first, I didn't hear it, but now it sounds fantastic."

WQLZ (B 9-11 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Jon Terry

"Performing very well. Came out the gate hard, then we slowed it down, but now it's way back up there again."

WRRV (B 13-13 PPW (WKS-ON:10) PD Greg O'Brien

"It's alright. Getting a big response. It's a little harder than we usually go."

WSFM (A 15-20 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD John Stevens

"Getting a lot of lower end phones. I think these guys are the next Superstars."

WTFX (C 3-5 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Michael Lee

"Good sales, and no phones, which surprises me."

WTGE (A-14 PPW) MD Spencer Kane

"Re-added it for the third time, good to see people stand up and notice. A golden A for us."

WXRA (C 12-11 PPW WKS-ON:11) PD Tim Satterfield

"This had a couple of good weeks on call out, and phones are picking up again. There seems to be a new wave of interest in the song. Our market Soundscan is up. With the video play, we're happy to be on the front of this song."

WZAT (A 13-17 PPW WKS-ON:9) APD Kevin Mitchell

"Not sure if they will make daypart progress, but they're a favorite at retail. The requests are coming in during the day as well. A-."

ZROC (B 16-18 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Pat Dawsey

"Decent phones, and sales were solid again. Opened up the day-part to late afternoons aside from just evenings."

KUPD (C 20-23 PPW WKS-ON:10) APD/MD J.J. Jeffries

KRXQ (Too New 17-18 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Curtiss Johnson

KRZZ (B 25-26 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Greg Bergen

WZZO (B 35-36 PPW WKS-ON:3) APD Kevin Mitchell

"Slow starting. I like it personally, so it's easy to put it in. Not seeing what I hoped for, but it's building. B-, and I'm anticipating good things. The timing is right for them."

KICT (Just Added) MD Sherry McKinnon
"I love it. We played it as an album depth track, and this sounds great."

"Not too much phone reaction yet, but the versions we're using sound great. In the end, this could overtake the actual studio album."

WRRV (Just Added) PD Greg O'Brien
"We lean more Alternative than anything, but AIC is still important. I think the idea of unplugged doesn't mean that much, but it is a pseudo new record for AIC, so there's going to be interest."

WTFX (Just Added) PD Michael Lee

"On that for a long time. Getting sales, and calls are picking up."

WCCC (A 32-34 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Mike Karolyi

"Really great record for us. In all dayparts, lots of spins and still getting requests. This could be our summer song. Not seeing burn, but they are still becoming familiar to some listeners."

WRRV (A 28-28 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Greg O'Brien

"Huge. One of those records that's just a hit. No explanation for us."

WRUF (B 18-19 PPW WKS-ON:13) PD Harry Guscott

"This is still doing well, upper demos."

WSFM (Too New 24-25 PPW WKS-ON:12) PD John Stevens

"Some curiosity calls. Playing more for adult appeal."

WTFX (C 5-4 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Michael Lee

"This is one that everybody else is having success with. Starting mid-days and work force vibe."

WZTA (B 9-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Heidi Hess

"Playing it, nice midday-ish touch. Jakob Dylan is the hottest."

KNCN (B 5-9 PPW WKS-ON:1) APD/MD Matt Vaughn

"I really have grown to like this. This is another one that gives you great format separation."

KTUX (C 22-20 PPW WKS-ON:9) APD/MD Mojo Mason

"Still hanging in there. Requests aren't as big, and research is in the middle of the pack - which is up."

WCCC (B 14-10 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Mike Karolyi

"Initially everything was great, but it has slowed down a bit. He has a base. They are really into him, but other than that it's not doing great or bad. Great song, some phones. Good for all dayparts though. A little flat."

WDRK (B 16-16 PPW WKS-ON:7) OM Addison Wakeford

"Good record, been played in all dayparts. Album solid the whole way through. Sticking with it. Everyone's surprised at the adult appeal of the album."

WNDD (C 21-18 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Jon Byrd

"Not doing as well as I would like. A good solid conservative record. It is holding for us."

WRCQ (C 7-10 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Ann Thomas

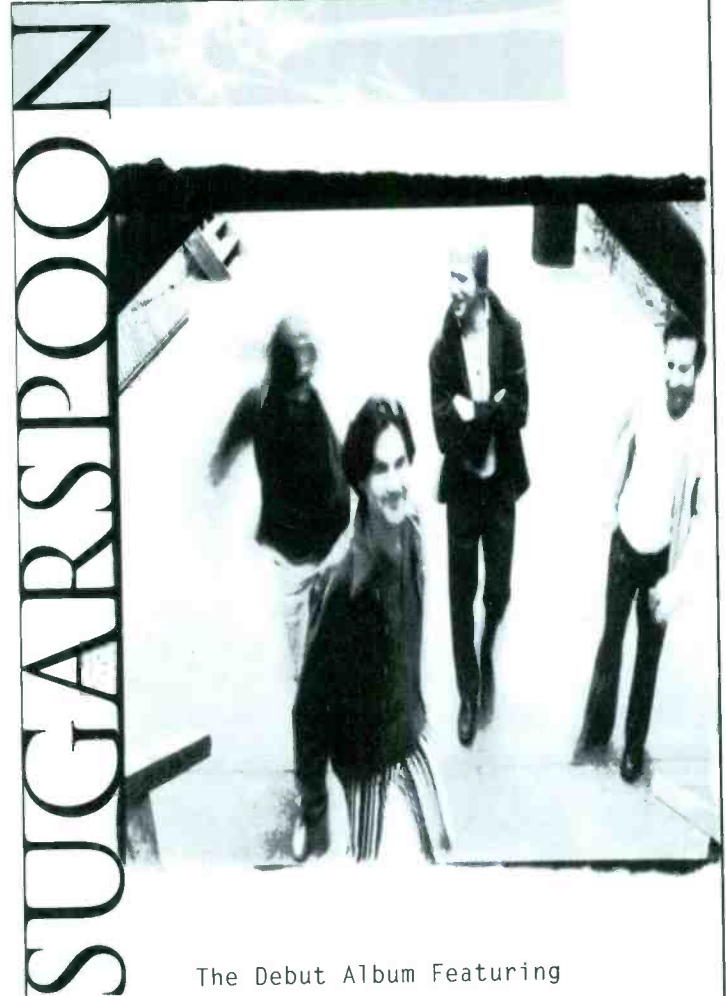

"Great summer sounding song. We have it running all day close to recurrent, but still getting calls."

WZAT (B 30-35 PPW WKS-ON:7) APD Kevin Mitchell

"He came in for a show. The local support for him is strong. Great requests, so we think this will be in for a while. B+."

WZZO (A 25-20 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Robin Lee

"Doing really well. Gets an A in this market with its research and phones. A lot of excitement."

THE OTHER COVER

ALTERNATIVE / AAA

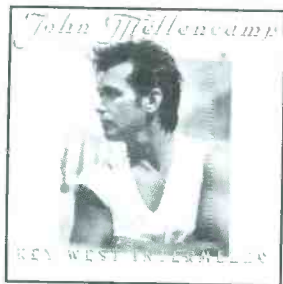

RECORD OF THE WEEK

Pearl Jam, "Who You Are" Epic

It is fairly ironic that with this first single from the new record, Pearl Jam takes a musical turn nobody would've been able to call. With tempo and sound texture-breakers reaping the rewards at Alternative these days, it is by virtue of the prevailing guitar-based soundscape that these records succeed. We have Pearl Jam to thank for a lot of the guitar-driven sounds, and now we can thank them for helping to alleviate the painful monotony. Here's hoping that the album isn't full of this sound. We'll eventually need a signature PJ song for airplay to the masses, and we don't need boatloads of copycat experts running around with this sound in their heads. Out of the mouths and hands of Pearl Jam, this works just fine.

CHOICE CHOICES

MERCURY

JOHN MELLENCAMP
"Key West Intermezzo (I Saw You First)"
With MTV rotation out of the box, Mellencamp maintains his relevance at both rock and AAA. Expecting a large week.

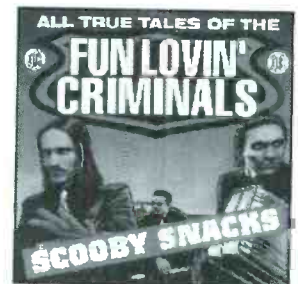

ELEKTRA/VEEG

BETTER THAN EZRA
"King Of New Orleans"
Crowned #1 Most Added at Alternative, with a 30* debut. Destined for the top.

COLUMBIA/CRG

ALICE IN CHAINS
"Over Now"
The unplugged version really retains the energy and power of the original, save for the electrics. Ringing up adds everywhere.

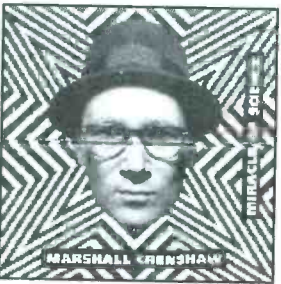

EMI

FUN LOVIN' CRIMINALS
"Scooby Snacks"
Hey, it's a Scooby reference. Wasn't that part of the oath we took to get our licenses?

COLUMBIA/CRG

ELEANOR MCEVOY
"Precious Little"
She's restructured the image, and AAA is responsive for #1 Most Added this week.

RAZOR & TIE

Marshall Crenshaw
"Starless Summer Sky"
An amazing radio record from a classic artist.

DREAMWORKS/SKG

EELS
"Novocaine For The Soul"
Slipping into a 49* Alternative debut, with a handful of AAAs following suit.

ISLAND

Tracy Bonham
"The One"
Could just follow in the footsteps of The Mutha, and produce major airplay numbers.

Peter Himmelman, Stage Diving, Plump

A live record that showcases his brilliance as a performer better than anything he's ever released.

Jason Falkner, "I Live" Elektra/EEG

Jellyfisher scores radio one by one, and he deserves a listen.

Ferron, Still Riot, Warner Bros.

With sassy presentation and soulful eloquence, Ferron might have serious mainstream potential in these grooves.

Alejandro Escovedo, "Crooked Frame" Ryko

Rootsy tempo is a sturdy feature of this track, and the sampler is full of airable options.

Paul Kelly, "Pouring Petrol On A Burning Man" Vanguard

Australia's gift to our airwaves should not be overlooked. He's a genius, and deserves a spin or two.

Bill Morrissey, "When Summer's Ended" Philo/Rounder

Bill's that rare bird who mixes story and song with equal merit. Distinctive, and (unfortunately) timely.

Dave Alvin and The Guilty Men, Interstate City, Hightone

This live record has all of the rootsy fire and brimstone that Alvin has been kicking out from the stage for years.

Red House Painters, Songs For A Blue Guitar, Island

Simply elegant songwriting for those of you who venture into the mellow tempos.

The Gathering Field, "Lost In America" Atlantic

They've been gathering steam in Pittsburgh, and are testing well for radio there. Ask Greg at 'YEP, or Gene at 'DVE.

Alice In Chains Unplugged, Columbia Unplugged

It's Alice, it's the hits, and it's very well-produced. Strong night record, at least.

Glen Burtnik, Palookaville, Deko Music

An amazing record from one of the true unheralded talents in the music industry. It's radio-friendly as hell.

KRCC (M- 4 PPW) MD Jeff Bieri
"Album dropped to medium this week, but the title track is still really strong for us. Disappointed that we can't play a few of the cuts because of FCC regulations."

 "Expected more of an audience reaction from this record. A lot of Elvis fans haven't been jumping up and down about this record. Performance-wise give this a B because it is Elvis."
KTHX (M- 6 PPW) MD Ken Allen
 "Currently working 'You Bowed Down' in a medium rotation. Hasn't received a lot of response. Playing it because we like it."
WIII (M-15 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Dave Ashton
 "'You Bowed Down' performed at the level expected — not jamming the phone lines, but the fans are out there, and want to hear his material."
WRLT (M-12 PPW WKS-ON:10) PD Jon Peterson
 "That portion of our demo is really passive. Sounds great."

 "Playing it, loving it. Perfect Olympic stuff."
KRVM (B-10 PPW) PD Don Ferrell
 "Straight ahead hard rock n'roll on this album — the radios are gonna be loud playing this material. They consistently put out strong rock n'roll. Very good feedback."
KTAO (B- 6 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Joann Orner
 "Working on the recognition, but people haven't responded yet. Sounds great on the air. We're gonna hang in light until we get the full. Don't want to totally burn the single."
WHPT (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Chuck Beck
 "Generated early question calls; now the calls have died down. My take on it is that it's a pretty good record, but it's got a long way to go if it's gonna make it."
WIII (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Ashton
 "Excellent song. Haven't seen a ton of response yet, but it sounds great on the radio. One of my favorite new songs. Rock fans becoming AAA fans."
WMMO (N) MD Jessie Scott
 "I think it's great. Sounds like the Stones. A step-up maturity-wise for this band."
WRLT (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Jon Peterson

"Slowly building for us. Just starting to show some reaction — curiosity calls."

WVAY (M- 4 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Debora Lee
"Chose 'Where Is My Soul' because it sounds more like the Finn Brothers — the other tracks sounded like they were trying to be somebody else. Performance-wise, this has been okay."

KPFT (B- 4 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Mary Ramirez
"A really healthy album — been getting lots of calls from listeners. 'Shadowboxer' has been working the best for us."

KTAO (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Joann Orner
"Really like this project. A phenomenal talent, can't sweep this one under the rug. Response has been great."

WVAY (B- 4 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Debora Lee
"'Shadowboxer' is doing really well. Give this a B+, because she is a new artist, and because the rest of the album is very dark. This track is the most radio-friendly for what I'm looking for."

WXLE (M- 7 PPW) PD Cliff Nash
"Audience reaction is slow. We're willing to give it a chance. Will bump 'Shadowboxer' up this week."

KPFT (B- 4 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Mary Ramirez
"Doing well — getting a lot of phone response. Familiar to our audience — they play Houston a lot. Anticipate a spin increase in a few weeks. Know they're selling well in the market."

KRCC (M- 4 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Jeff Bieri
"Has a great surfer, Spaghetti Western-type of sound that has been made popular by the Pulp Fiction soundtrack and the line of Dick Dale releases."

KRVM (N- 3 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Don Ferrell
"Fun record, should grow on us more. Curiosity calls."

KTAO (N- 5 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Joann Orner

KFXD (M-12 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Greg Roberts

"Just had 'em through town (good show). Solid record. Performing where we expect."

KPFT (M- 4 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Mary Ramirez

"Their more acoustic tracks work well for us (i.e. 'Say That You Love Me.')

KRVM (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Don Ferrell

"Great album, very pleased with the performance. Already four deep. Very well known in the area, audience is glad to hear from them."

WMMO (B- 4 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Jessie Scott

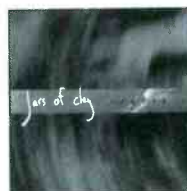

"The reaction's good. 'Trials' is a great record, and they're a great band."

WRLT (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Jon Peterson

"I think 'Trials' has the potential to be a big hit. Their image is coming together by adding a fourth member. A good folk/rock sound for males."

WXRC (B- 9 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Anthony Michaels

KERA (B- 9 PPW WKS-ON:5) Acting MD Abby Goldstein

"A! A! A! Solid record, gets phones. Another great record. Expectations have been exceeded — although, expectations are already high when it comes to Keb Mo. Favorable reaction; 'Who was that?' type calls."

KFXD (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Greg Roberts

"Super. The guy can do no wrong. The audience eats up everything that we play from him."

KINK (B-34 PPW WKS-ON:5) APD Anita Garlock

KPFT (B- 4 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Mary Ramirez

WXRC (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Anthony Michaels

KMMS (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Colter Langan

KPFT (B- 7 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Mary Ramirez

KRVM (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Don Ferrell

KMMS (M-14 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Colter Langan

KRVM (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Don Ferrell

"The Neil Young sound is still going strong, and this area loves their Classic rock n'roll. You can't go wrong in Eugene by playing Neil Young."

"Very strong out of the box. Not totally unexpected."

KTHX (N- 4 PPW) MD Ken Allen

ON MUSIC

It was a pleasure to see Nicklebag perform at Coney Island High in NYC over the weekend. The Iguana Records band features Rolling Stones keyboardist Bernard Fowler on vocals, and Stevie Salas on guitar. Salas is incredibly efficient in his role. Fowler is fuckin' amazing. The MAC-fest crowd was digging it (sold-out show). Backstage I had the pleasure of meeting keyboard wiz Bernie Worrell, and guitarist Carlos Alomar, both of whom were overwhelming in their praising of the band's show. Track #1 on their CD is gaining stations at Active Rock, but it's definitely worth an Alternative look-see.

Speaking of Iguana Records, there is a major weaselfest surrounding the upcoming Tuesday night 7/30 Mercury Lounge appearance of Vibrolush. The phones at the Iguana ranch have been ringing off the hook from major label A&R heads. Iguana wants to hang on to the band, but maybe there's a joint venture possibility...we'll see.

Mike Peters and company were shooting the first video for his upcoming Select Records release Feel Free over the weekend in NYC, as well. They spent an early Friday morning under the cameras and lights in the fashionable Tribeca section of NYC, then moved on to studio locations in midtown Manhattan. The first track from this excellent record is "Shine On," and will be in your gritty little paws on short order.

Odyssey Communications is shaping its future these days. VP of Programming Steve Blatter just announced the appointment of Phil Manning as the PD of Y-107, and WRGX recently hired Promotions Director Jason Steinberg from WMRQ/Hartford. Both are great assets to this growing stable of talent, and will give the stations the extra edge in all phases. It's good to see Phil back at work, and it looks like Jason got out before a major shake-up at 'MRQ, which left Brian Kryscz and others on the street and a competing PD in the chair (format change??).

And as of last Wednesday, KAEP's Allison Strong has resigned her MD position at the station. "I'm gonna take a much needed vacation after 6 months of 7 day weeks," said Strong, who is suffering from a sort of radial nerve damage in one of her hands. "I'm going to work on getting my hand back to 100% before I take another job. I think the world of my ex boss (Scott Souhrada). We had fun, we put Spokane on the map, and I'm proud of it. I have never worked so hard in my life. I definitely feel like I accomplished a lot of good up there."

For the second annual X-Fest that WRZX is throwing in Indianapolis, their lineup is bitchin'. The second stage will feature Super 8, Reacharound, The Nixons, Goldfinger, and Prong. The main stage will host The Verve Pipe, The Why Store, No Doubt, 7 Mary 3, Spacehog, and Everclear. The show is on August 10th at Deercreek Music Center.

And congratulations to all the lucky Arbitron winners. With sympathy to all the rest. Someday there will be a system that actually measures audience listening. Wow. What a concept.

RANDOM THOUGHTS:

*Note to those who face those who doubt the course of their AAA: It is possible to play music at a commercial AAA that isn't yet out on VH-1. Position music properly, rather than dropping it altogether. Remember, the music will get blamed in the end. And that's so wrong. Especially if you know the music's really worthy. Be selective.

*Why don't you ever see The President using a flip phone? If he doesn't have one out all the time, why does the jerk at the table next to you in the restaurant need to make a call between courses?

Britain's New Musical Express reports that Sylvan Richardson, formerly of Simply Red, is the new guitarist in the Stone Roses. Richardson is a jazz musician who played on Simply Red's first two albums — "Picture Book" and "Men And Women." The band's first concert since the departure of John Squire will be at a festival near Madrid, Spain, on August 2.

Tom Waits, Tonio K., T-Bone Burnett, Sam Phillips, Charlie Sexton and Alejandro Escovedo will play a benefit concert at the 600-seat Raven Theater in Healdsburg, California, next month. The show is to raise money for the defense of the club's owner, Don Hyde, who is facing federal drug charges in Kentucky.

Television co-founder Richard Hell has published his first novel, "Go Now," with a central character named Mudd, who Hell says is "a pretty unpleasant guy." Hell, who used intravenous drugs for nine years, admits the book and its detailed descriptions of heroin use are a bit autobiographical. "His condition is one I know firsthand and intimately," he says of Mudd. Hell also played with Johnny Thunders' Heartbreakers and went on to front Richard Hell & The Voidoids. He was married to singer Patty Smyth, formerly of Scandal, and has a 1 year-old child he sees three days a week. Hell will appear as a guest singer on the upcoming Talking Heads album, and sings a song called "Dudes Of Steel" in the upcoming film "Last Call." Hell says warning today's youth about the dangers of heroin will have limited success. "Some people have that inclination. No amount of threats or warnings are going to have any effect. You can only find out for yourself if you're driven in that direction," he says. "When you're a kid, you feel like you're never gonna die. You want to show off, you want to tempt fate, and, with drugs, it's about defying authority....Once you get dependent, it's so hard to pull back out."

A massive concert is being planned for next summer in Ireland, to commemorate the country's 1840s famine. The June 1 show is expected to attract 100,000 people and be broadcast worldwide with a subsequent CD release. No big artist names have been announced, but U2's Bono is on the board of directors for the event.

David Gahan of Depeche Mode says he's lucky that he didn't suffer the fate of the late session musician Jonathan Melvoin, who had been touring with Smashing Pumpkins. "I was clean for a few weeks when I came back (to Los Angeles) from New York where I was working with the band," Gahan says, describing the Memorial Day weekend when he overdosed on heroin and cocaine at the Sunset Marquis Hotel. "I went out and shot a speedball one time. The dealer left and I went green. Luckily, there was someone to call 911. When I left the hospital, I said to someone that I'd overdosed, and they said, 'David, you died. They revived you three times.' I could have had permanent brain damage. When I think about the insanity of this little powder — three minutes of euphoria....You don't have to be a lifetime user. It only takes one time. People seem to believe the myth that if you just do it once you're fine, and now many people seem to be going straight to heroin, bypassing pot and all that and going straight to the devil. It's really scary." Gahan is currently undergoing addiction treatment and is scheduled to appear on court on July 30 on drug possession charges. "All I can do is hope my actions will speak much louder than the crap that's come out of my mouth the last few years," he says. "I don't want to be running around expecting to save anyone. I'm hanging on by my teeth myself, but every day is better. I don't have anywhere to go. I lost my house, even lost the visitation rights to my son. But all that will come back if I stay clean."

Copies of Iggy & The Stooges' "Raw Power" album in record stores will get fresh stickers reminding people that the song "Search & Destroy" is used in eight different 30-second commercials for Nike that are airing during the Olympic Games. The 1973 song is not identified during the commercials, which each highlight a different sport.

Donovan won't be able to go on tour with Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan as planned, because the American Embassy in London rejected his request for a visa, citing his 1966 misdemeanor marijuana conviction in England. Donovan applied for a waiver but it was approved only after he canceled his plans to start touring in New York on August 1 to promote his upcoming album "Sutras."

A Canadian company, Cruise Holidays of Oakville, Ontario, is promoting a week-long Caribbean cruise to mark the 20th anniversary of the death of Elvis Presley on August 16, 1977. The company has invited Presley to come along. If he shows up, everyone who booked "Cruise Cafe's Elvis International" gets their cabin free.

Kim Thayil of Soundgarden was arrested after the band performed at a Lollapalooza concert in North Carolina. He was arrested after getting into an altercation with guests at the hotel where Soundgarden was staying, but the band's record label says Thayil was being harassed by people who had gotten drunk at a wedding party. The label says Thayil was trying to tell hotel management that his hotel room had been burglarized, and that Thayil had grabbed the camera of a group member who had tried to take his picture. A statement from the label says Thayil "deeply regrets his actions and losing his composure as a response to the group's provocations."

Darius Rucker of Hootie & The Blowfish has been recording with Randy Foster of country duo Foster & Lloyd. Rucker is contributing backing vocals for a song on Foster's upcoming album. They've also recorded a demo in Nashville of a song they wrote together called "The Trouble With Love."

808 State are to release a double album called "Don Solaris," which will include several remixes of "Azura," about to be released as a single in Britain. The first single released from the LP, "Bond," featured the voice of Doughty from Soul Coughing, but Graham Massey says it didn't do well because it was a departure from the band's style.

A British band has been forced to change its name of Urusei Tatura internationally after publishers of the Japanese Manga comic of that name complained, preventing release of the band's debut album "We Are Urusei Yatsura." "The woman who came up with the name is a comic writer in Japan and very protective of the characters she's created," says singer and guitarist

Graham Kemp. "We didn't want her to think we're taking the piss because she is somebody we respect, and we don't want to be in a position where we're coming into confrontation with her." The band was planning to change its name to Urusei, but Kemp says that means "shut the fuck up" in the parlance of Japanese organized crime group Yazuka. The band will continue to call itself Urusei Yatsura in Britain but will change its name to Yatsura elsewhere.

Guns N' Roses are working on a new album, according to bass player Duff McKagan. The band is working on new songs and will go into the studio this summer for its first sessions since covering the Rolling Stones' "Sympathy For The Devil" for the soundtrack of "Interview With A Vampire."

Boo Radleys release a new album in September called "C'mon Kids."

Perry Farrell's 15-city ENIT Festival begins on August 9 in Cleveland, Ohio. It will feature Porno For Pyros, Black Grape, Love & Rockets, Lady Miss Kier, the Orb and Buju Banton.

Michael Jackson performed at his first-ever free concert, in front of 60,000 people in Bandar Seri Begawan, Brunei. Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah, the world's richest man, paid Jackson an undisclosed sum for the party. The sultan himself did not attend the concert, preferring to dine with Prince Charles, but his two wives and their children came to the show at an open-air amphitheater built for the event.

"No Code" is the name of the 11-track Pearl Jam album coming out at the end of August, preceded by a single called "Who You Are."

The Three Tenors — Luciano Pavarotti, Placido Domingo and Jose Carreras — are considering recording a version of Oasis' "Wonderwall." They had planned to give their operatic version of the song at a concert in London earlier this month, but didn't have time to rehearse it. Noel Gallagher of Oasis says "the best of luck to them." The song has already been successfully covered, in schmaltzy form, by the Mike Flowers Pops.

A new album of remixes of tracks from Bjork's "Post" album is slated for release early next year, featuring dance artists Black Dog, LFO and the Future Sound Of India. The tracks will also come out on 12-inch discs, but with a limited edition of only 1,000 pressed.

The Chemical Brothers will go on their first-ever headlining tour of England in October. The duo is working on a second LP for release early next year.

British band China Drum achieved its goal of becoming the first British band to play in Bosnia since the Yugoslav civil war. They played two nights at the Kuk Club in Sarajevo after a three-day trip over land, during which their tour bus had to be rescued by the British Army after it collided with a car outside Mostar. Bass player Dave McQueen says it was "the most amazing thing we have ever done. The spirit of the people here is absolutely astounding. The city has been destroyed, but everyone is still getting on with their lives."

There's speculation that former Stone Roses guitarist John Squire will debut his new band at one of the Manic Street Preachers' two sold-out shows at Knebworth, England, next month. The Prodigy, Ocean Colour Scene, the Chemical Brothers and the Bootleg Beatles are already on the bill for the August 10 show. The Charlatans, Cast, Dreadzone and Kula Shaker will be the other acts on August 11.

After meeting with Nelson Mandela in Pretoria on Mandela's birthday, Michael Jackson says he's writing a song about the South African president. "This is a wonderful, lovely man," Jackson said. "I love Nelson Mandela very much." There were rumors in South Africa that Jackson was planning to announce that he's developing a theme park in Sun City, but he didn't mention it during a brief news conference. Instead, he said he would play Cape Town, Durban and Johannesburg in January.

Chet Atkins, Steve Earle and the Goo Goo Dolls participated in an unsuccessful attempt in Nashville, Tennessee, to break the world guitar marathon record of 1,320 guitarists playing together, which was set in Vancouver, British Columbia, in 1994. The Nashville musicians did break Vancouver's time record, playing Elvis Presley's "Heartbreak Hotel" for 79 minutes and 30 seconds.

Bernie Taupin says his new album with Farm Dogs, called "Last Stand In Open Country," gave him the chance to explore recording acoustically. The four members of the group agreed they didn't want to use electric instruments such as synthesizers. "I realized the kind of music that I grew up listening to when I started out was very simple music," Taupin says. "I've always gravitated towards blues, folk, and country — music that is rootsy and authentic. That music has always stayed with me. Like my life, I think I wanted to simplify my music and create the kind of music that really influenced me in the first place. I've never really had the opportunity or the channels to do that."

Drummer Derek Pierce of Weapon Of Choice is recovering from injuring his hand when he took a tumble down some stairs while carrying his laundry. Backing vocalist and percussionist Mary Harris will fill in on drums for the tour. Pierce, a former member of Philadelphia rap group the Goats, is undergoing therapy after surgery.

REM's "Road Movie," which premieres at a film festival in Edinburgh, Scotland, includes a number of new songs written during the band's 1995 "Monster" tour, including "Wake Up Bomb," "Revolution" and "Undertow." In addition, the film also includes performances of "Losing My Religion," "Man On The Moon" and "Everybody Hurts." The movie was recorded in Atlanta on the last three nights of the tour.

Deep Purple performed their "Smoke On The Water" for the first time in Montreux, Switzerland, earlier this month, marking the 25th anniversary of the song about a 1971 fire at a Frank Zappa concert the band was attending.

Jon Bon Jovi says Bon Jovi are taking a break for a couple of years. Bon Jovi will have a solo album out in September. "Touring is something you have to love and I have loved it for a lot of years. But just like any good lover, it is time to start cheating on her," Bon Jovi says. He says he's written 15 songs while on the set of his second film, "The Leading Man," which opens early next year.

Smashing Pumpkins have announced they have decided "to sever our relationship with our friend and drummer Jimmy Chamberlin. This may come as a shock to some, to others not, but to us it is devastating. For nine years we have battled with Jimmy's struggles with the insidious disease of drug and alcohol addiction. It has nearly destroyed everything we are and stand for. We have decided to carry on without him, and we wish him the best that we have to offer. The three of us plan to seek an immediate replacement and to finish the touring that we started at the beginning of this year."

Neil Finn says the end of Crowded House really came after the release of the "Together Alone" album in early 1994. Sheryl Crow was the opening act for the band as they toured in support of the LP. "We noticed the difference between what her record company was doing in every city, and what ours was," Finn says. "We'd arrive in towns and there'd be big window displays of Sheryl's record, and we would struggle to find ours in the shops at all. That was discouraging, to say the least. I wouldn't overstate it and say that was the reason the band broke up, because although we're ambitious for our music — I love tapping into the ol' mass psyche — it wasn't the be-all and end-all for the existence of the band. We also had other places, like England was very successful for us, Australia and New Zealand were still good, and Canada to some extent." Finn says the band's lack of success may have contributed to drummer Paul Hester's sudden departure in the middle of the tour.

Eric Clapton has the highest chart debut of his career with "Change The World," a song on the "Phenomenon" soundtrack written by a trio of Nashville songwriters and produced by Babyface. It's not the first time Clapton has succeeded with a song written in Nashville. "Tulsa Time" was written by Nashville guitarist Danny Flowers and was a number one country hit for Don Williams, while "Cocaine" was written by former Nashville resident J.J. Cale.

Randy Newman says he hasn't made any money yet from his updated version of "Faust," which he worked on for a decade. The stage version of the opera goes to Chicago next. "I can't afford to keep writing stuff like this," he says. "So far, there hasn't been any payoff. I haven't made a dime. It's the first time since I was probably 16 that I haven't made any money on something I've written....But there's nothing like opera. It's so difficult. That's why I like musicians in general. It's not often you can be with a group of people who spend all that time alone. Practicing."

A jury in Long Beach, California, has acquitted Nate Dogg of one count of armed robbery. Jurors were hung 9 to 3 on a second count. Dogg, who contributed vocals to LPs by Dr. Dre and Snoop Doggy Dogg, had maintained his innocence in the case.

After 12 weeks of release, Hootie & the Blowfish's second album "Fairweather Johnson" has sold about 1.6 million copies, falling far short of the band's debut which spent more than six months on the top ten.

The Red Hot Chili Peppers plan a Labor Day concert atop a refitted icebreaker at the North Pole.

Britain's Sunday Mirror newspaper reports that Bobby Brown and Whitney Houston took a second honeymoon on St. Barthlemy in the Caribbean. The couple were married four years ago.

Tennis player John McEnroe is now billing his rock music performances as the Johnny Smyth Band, taking the name of his girlfriend, former Scandal singer Patty Smyth. "I don't want to use her name in any way, shape or form to help my musical career but I quite enjoy the reverse psychology of the (band's) name," McEnroe says. "She's definitely not in the band." The Johnny Smyth Band is working on an album of original material for release this fall. "I'd like to compare my sound to — in the ideal sense — a band like Soundgarden," McEnroe says. "To me they're the best band around. In my dreams I sing like (Chris Cornell). That guy to me is unbelievable. I loved Nirvana and, of course, Led Zeppelin, the Stones, Van Halen."

Jay Kay says the third Jamiroquai album, "Travelling Without Moving," benefits from better circumstances than 1994's "Return Of The Space Cowboy," which sold over a million copies worldwide. "On the last one, we were convincing ourselves that things were fine when they obviously weren't. We had a new drummer and were going straight into a big studio without really having done much groundwork," says Kay. "On this one, the reason why we've been able to go up a gear is that we've had our own pre-production time in my studio, just working things out with drums and bass. So, we've actually got to the proper studio with things part finished rather than panicking."

Neneh Cherry has recorded a track called "Woman," based on James Brown's "It's A Man's Man's Man's World." She says the song gave her the chance to "celebrate womanhood in a nice way and feel okay about it." Cherry says the new LP will be less dance-oriented. "We definitely wanted to bring it into an area where it was more live again, where we were doing things in a more spontaneous form," she says. "It's nice to be in a position where you've got a pit in the middle where you can throw ideas into. It makes you go to new places."

Barry Adamson, formerly of Nick Cave's Bad Seeds, has released a new album called "Oedipus Schmoedipus," after two years of work delayed by hip replacement surgery and work on music for David Lynch's upcoming "Lost Highway" film. Jarvis Cocker of Pulp, Nick Cave, and Billy Mackenzie, formerly of the Associates, make guest appearances on "Oedipus." Adamson says he accidentally ran into Mackenzie on a London street and says Mackenzie's vocals on the song "Vermillion Kisses" made the hair stand up on the back of his neck.

Beck says he's still dogged by the image created by his first hit, "Loser." "I was in a record store today and they had my section — the sign said, 'Beck, that wacky loser,'" Beck says. "I love the song. It was a great thing to do, I had the time of my life, and I hope that's what communicates to people. But people making it into some kind of theme or anthem, there's something really dangerous about that — to think that a song could really speak for a wide range of people...It's not music's job to represent a person's life, their thoughts and everything summed up in a dumb little song. All (the success) has done to me is make me want to work more, put more of myself into it, put as much as I have into it."

Van Halen's manager denies Sammy Hagar's claims that he was fired from the band after disagreements with Eddie Van Halen. "He resigned more than he was fired," says Ray Danniels. "Edward called Sammy and said, 'I can't work with you like this,' and Sammy interpreted it as he was fired and then went right to the press. This would have never happened if he was a team player." Danniels says he's talked to Hagar about a "cooling-off period" after which they could work together again. "But he's not the first lead singer who's not very good at listening," Danniels says. David Lee Roth is working with the rest of the band on several new songs for an anthology record coming out in October, but Danniels says Roth's involvement isn't necessarily permanent.

Drag queen RuPaul has finished work on a new album of dance material, tentatively entitled "Foxy Lady."

A book about Whitney Houston is coming out in October, said by the publisher to have been written by "a man who had a four-year affair with Whitney's publicist." "Good Girl, Bad Girl: An Insider's Biography of Whitney Houston," was written by Kevin Ammons, former boyfriend of Houston's former publicist Regina Brown. A Houston spokeswoman says Brown hasn't had any contact with the singer for more than five years. The publisher claims the book will offer details on Houston's "sexuality and why she really married Bobby Brown."

Jane Siberry says starting her own record label (Sheeba Records) has forced her to be a little more serious about the music business. "I haven't even had time to not be who I am," she says. "It is a clearer, stronger voice coming through. Not no-nonsense, but more to-the-point. It's like my dress has been burned off a little bit, just because of the intensity of the workload." Siberry released an album called "Teenager" on her own label after being dropped by a major record company (Reprise Records). "I was already looking for an out," she says. "I was really lucky. That gave me an out, because they wanted to change the contract. I just kept my fingers crossed, my mouth shut, and then the due date came up and they wanted to renegotiate." Siberry, who says she never made any money on her major-label releases, is currently touring Canada to raise money for her new label. "You know, there's a lot of quirky things, first time things, that we're going through," she says of her new independent label. "We really have to really be on our toes." Siberry also plans to release a live album, and then later repackage her older work and publish some stories.

Sonic Boom, also known as Pete Kember of British band Spectrum, has a new project called Experimental Audio Research, which has released an album called "Beyond The Pale." Guests on the LP include Kevin Shields of My Bloody Valentine and Kember's former Spacemen 3 bandmate Jason Pierce, who is in Spiritualized.

Crosby, Stills & Nash will have a private reception at the Las Vegas Hard Rock Cafe for people who buy tickets to an August 13 concert to raise money for Operation USA, an international relief organization working to remove land mines in Bosnia and replace musical instruments destroyed during the war.

k.d. lang says she might start releasing records on an independent label. "It could happen sooner than you think. Let's just leave it at that, I'll never stop making music, put it that way, but you will just have to mail-order it." She adds she has no idea of the direction her next album might take. "It changes every day. There is no point in saying," she says.

A French guitarist named Marcel Dadi, a friend of Chet Atkins, was among the 230 victims of TWA Flight 800. Dadi helped make country music more popular in Europe after starting his career in 1972. He once played at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, an honor rarely accorded to foreigners, and played with Atkins in Paris several times over the years. Dadi was 46 and used the same style of "flat picking" as Atkins. Others killed in the crash were Anna Maria Shorter, the wife of jazz saxophone player Wayne Shorter and Dalila Lucien, the Shorters' niece and the daughter of jazz singer Jon Lucien. Shorter, formerly of Weather Report, immediately canceled his European tour to return to the U.S.

Chastity Bono says she's happier being a gay rights activist than a performer. "It's definitely a hell of a lot more rewarding than making records," she says. Bono, who lives in San Francisco, says that it was Cher, and not Sonny, who became distraught when she told her parents when she was 18 that she was gay. "I told my father first," she says. "I was very close to my Dad at the time. I was scared to death to tell my mother. We had that mother-daughter frictional teenage thing going on. We weren't close then. I thought she would disapprove. You grow up hearing your whole life that homosexuality is a really bad thing. You grow up thinking you are bad and wrong. To tell that to people, especially your parents, whose approval you want, is very scary." A couple of years later, the tabloid The Star, reported she was gay. "It was a terrible time in my life. It was a terrifying time in my life," she says. "I'm against outing, but then having come out on my own later, I'm very much in favor of that. It's very liberating. But at the time I was just starting my record career, and wasn't ready."

A Lollapalooza concert date in northeast Tennessee took place as scheduled, even though church groups tried to block the event. The Cocke County Legislative Body was presented with a petition with 3,975 signatures asking for an injunction against the show. The Reverend Larry Wells said the community was upset by "the shame and reproach" the concert would bring the county, because of the "evil influences" of the performers. "Drugs, violence, satanism and suicide cannot be classified as righteousness," he said. About 20,000 people turned out for the 1 hour show at the Forks of the River Entertainment Showpark. Beer wasn't for sale because the concert took place on a Sunday. The biggest problem was heat exhaustion, which at one point, filled all the beds in the medical tent with fans who had been overcome.

Paula Yates and Michael Hutchence have a daughter, named Heavenly Hiraani Tiger Lily Hutchence, she was born last week, INXS frontman Michael Hutchence said, "I was helping to deliver and it was fantastic. Paula was great and our baby is beautiful." Heavenly was born in the bathroom of the London home the couple share. Hutchence commented, "I was a bit surprised she arrived so soon as Paula was only in labor for a couple of hours. She just kinda popped out in the bathroom. We are both overjoyed and relieved." Heavenly is Paula Yates' fourth daughter and Hutchence's first child. The father of Yates' other three children is former Boomtown Rat's singer Bob Geldof, from whom she recently divorced... Elastica have announced a new line-up. The band have expanded to a five piece with the addition of a new keyboard player and bassist. They are Dave Bush and Sheila Chipperfield. The band received hundreds of applications from bass players to replace Annie Holland, who quit Elastica last year. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Elastica guitarist Donna Matthews explained how Chipperfield was recruited: "Sheila's twin sister came up to me after a gig and said, 'Are you still looking for a bass player? My sister plays bass.' I gave her a number to call and Sheila came along to my flat to audition. She was a big Elastica fan so she knew all the songs. When she came around, Perry Farrell had just dropped round. She's also a big Porno For Pyros fan and she auditioned there and then. I thought if she was able to do that, she'd be okay." Elastica is Chipperfield's first band. New keyboard player, Bush was previously in The Fall. Elastica will play UK dates in August and will begin recording their second album in the fall. It is scheduled for an early 1997 release... Chas Chandler died on Wednesday July 17th of a heart attack. The former Animals bassist died in his sleep after spending five days in hospital. Chandler played on such Animals' hits as "Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood" and "House Of The Rising Sun," before moving into management after the band split in 1967. His first success was Jimi Hendrix, who he persuaded to come to England after seeing him in a New York club. He went on to manage Slade, the '70s UK glam band who enjoyed a string of number one hits. Subsequently, he launched a number of labels and developed the Newcastle Arena in northeast England as a major venue. He is survived by his wife Madelaine and four children... Advance tickets, including access to camp site and parking facilities, for the three days cost 60 pounds sterling (approximately $90.00), days tickets cost 27 pounds sterling (approximately $37.00)... Baby Bird, also known as Steven Jones, continue to pick up strong press in the UK. Baby Bird has released a series of low budget releases in the UK over the past year and is now signed to Echo (the label which is also home to Julian Cope). Comparisons for Baby Bird's sound have ranged from Leonard Cohen to U2 and Johnny Cash to Burt Bacharach. Steven Jones puts this partly down to having to use imagination when faced with low budgets: "If you've not got much money you just become more resourceful. Using a shitty little four-track recorder is great. You go away and play with things, do things with your voice, detune the guitar, bang it with a spoon, whatever. It just makes it more experimental." Baby Bird's new single, "Goodnight," is released this week... The Jam's history is revisited with The Jam Collection, recently released via Polydor. The album features 25 tracks including, for the first time on CD, "Liza Radley." Former Jam frontman, Paul Weller, will headline the V96 festival at Hylands Park, Chelmsford, near London on Sunday August the 18th and will release a new single, "Peacock Suit," on August the fifth... Glen Matlock says reforming The Sex Pistols has stopped him promoting his solo album, Who's He Think He Is When He's At Home. The album was released recently via Creation, and Matlock says of the project: "I'm not trying to use the Pistols link in any shape or form and it's a sod because I'd rather my album came out and the Pistols thing happened later." Speaking to Total Guitar, Matlock also says he decided to sing on the album himself because he could not find a frontman, "I spent a long time looking for that elusive singer. When you've worked with the likes of (Johnny Rotten and Iggy Pop), everyone else seems to pale into insignificance. So I thought I'd do it myself." The Sex Pistols recently released a live version of "Pretty Vacant" (recorded at London Finsbury Park in June) as a single in the UK via Virgin... Peter Green, the former Fleetwood Mac guitarist, is reported to be planning a return to live action at the North Bucks Blues and Folk Festival, which runs from August 16th to August 18th. Green has not played live for fifteen years, but is said to have lined up a band featuring Cozy Powell, Neil Murray and Nigel Watson. Green quit Fleetwood Mac in the late '60s. At the time, there were rumors he was suffering from mental health problems... Downset's Chris Mills has been talking to Metal Hammer about the rap/rock crossover band's new album, Do We Speak A Dead Language? Mills says that Downset is still as political as on their 1994 self-titled debut, but are now less direct: "It is still political, but it's more subtle. We're still talking about the same things, but instead of actually complaining about the problem this album is more - this is the problem and we think this is what we can do to change it." Downset will play on the main stage at August's Reading Festival... Bush are set to record their second album with Steve Albini. According to Bush vocalist Gavin Rossdale: "He's the best producer of bands I like and I want to capitalize on that. This is the kind of record we want to make — real rootsy and gutsy but without losing that melodic edge; although I'm certain that he'll give me a run for my melodic money." The band have written 16 new songs and plan to enter the studio in early August and Rossdale hopes to record the LP quickly: "You'd expect a band like us to take six or eight months off writing and then spend ten months in the studio making the record. Instead, we're going straight in and making the album in three weeks." The album should be in stores by the end of the year. MCA/Interscope recently released Bush's debut album, Sixteen Stone, in the UK... Iron Maiden will release a compilation album, The Best Of The Beast, via EMI on September 9th. The album will feature tracks chosen by the band to represent the best moments from their twenty years together. Speaking to Metal Hammer, bassist Steve Harris said: "Fans have been asking us over the last couple of years to release a compilation album. They seem to like the idea of a special package. We felt that, as 1996 is the 20th anniversary of the band's formation, now would be a good time to do it." The album will be preceded by a newly recorded single, "Virus," in store on August 19th. A compilation video will be released to tie in with The Best Of The Beast... Gene's Martin Rossifer has hit out at a number of the Britpop bands for dwelling too much on the past. Speaking to Melody Maker, Rossifer commented: "I think all of us are just extremely bored with one trick ponies in pop. There is a huge void in ideas. I'm just waiting for the Ocean Colour Scene flares revival. Then flares must be sitting in a closet somewhere along with their baggy tops. I vowed to myself that I'd come to the phone and I wouldn't slag anyone off, but I can't help myself because it's vile, it's horrible and it must be stopped. Kula Shaker as well...it just reminds me of Top with a prettier singer. It's repulsive and it just stinks of having cash thrown at it. I find it all extremely upsetting." Gene, who have themselves received criticism for sounding like The Smiths, are currently working on a new album in London. The LP should be in stores early next year. Gene will release a new single in the fall... Urusei Yatsura, the British alternative band, have been forced to change their name for Japanese and American releases. The band are named after a Japanese comic and the publishers threatened legal action. The band's next UK release will be a single, "Phasers On Stun," available via the UK Independent Chc on August 12th... Underworld have been working with actress turned Labour Member of parliament Glenda Jackson. Jackson's voice features on a version of the band's single, "Born Slippy," which will be used in a cinema advertising campaign to fight racism... Longpigs may be forced to change their name for Malaysian and Indonesian releases because Muslims may find the name offensive. Polygram UK have received a fax from the label's representatives in those territories advising that many people might object to the name. Apparently, the band are considering releasing their debut album under the name The LP's instead... The Chemical Brothers have issued a statement giving details of their collaboration with Oasis' Noel Gallagher. The influential dance duo claim press reports of their collaboration have been distorted. The statement reads: "The Chemical Brothers and Noel Gallagher recorded a track together in February 1996. The track features a Chemical Brothers instrumental and a vocal written specifically for their music. After completing the lyrics, Noel went to the Chemical's studio and recorded his parts." The Chemical Brothers press office denied rumors the track contains a Beatles' sample, but confirmed it did have a similar feel to The Beatles' "Tomorrow Never Knows." It is uncertain when the track will be released as legal problems with Oasis' and The Chemical Brothers' record labels need to be resolved. The Chemical Brothers are currently working on a new album and will tour the UK in October.

He raised his hands above his head and said, "You have the wrong man." In 1975, Paul Hill, a twenty-one year old man from Northern Ireland, was sentenced to a lifetime in prison for pub bombings in Britain. It was the longest such sentence by a British court. As the years were taken from him, Hill could do nothing but hold onto his innocence. Fifteen years later, including four years in solitary confinement, Hill was set free when the British government finally admitted that officers lied at the original trial. It might not have happened without the help of family, friends, and Amnesty International.
