SINGLES

Prince stays at #1, but Michael Bolton is inching closer and closer. PM Dawn and Boyz II Men continue to gain quickly.

8

DIALOGUE

Elektra/Pendulum boss Ruben Rodriguez was an irresistible force until he met HITS' unmovable object of derision Daina "Dizzy" Darzen.

38

PM Dawn's hip-hop psychedelia trips up HITS' resident PoMo poobette Erin "Woolly Bully" Culley.

48

POST MODERN

Nirvana's the story. Ivana's in her glory.

51

JAMS

Motown's Shanice Wilson sings "I Love Your Smile," but she sure wasn't referring to JAMS' curmudgeonly Graham "Shackle" Armstrong.

Polly Wanna Hit

Epic Sr. Promotion VP Polly Anthony spent the week trying to keep the wolves at bay and plugging leaks as she deftly positions Michael Jackson's "Black Or White," the first single from the Gloved One's new "Dangerous" album. The hard-working music exec can now count the adds, while keeping a steady tally on her other fast-rising Top 40 projects, like Gloria Estefan, Shabba Ranks, Firehouse and Tony Terry. Goez, the only thing that could possibly spoil Polly's party is having to escort Bubbles to the next Grammy awards.

On The Cover

Tattooed love gods Motley Crue go from the heights of last week's Wildcard pick to the depths of this week's HITS' cover nod.

Top 40 Gets Michael & U2 This Week

ADD 'EM UP!!!

Jackson vs. Jackson

Pirated versions of brothers Jermaine and Michael Jackson's new songs mysteriously showed up at L.A. radio station KPWR this weekend, and were played back-to-back. Jermaine's "Word to the Badd," from his just-released Arista-distributed LaFace album, "You Said," is a pointed condemnation of his superstar sibling for trying to alter his looks and turning his back on the family. The song includes the lines, "Once you were made/You changed your shade/Was your color wrong," which were changed on the album version to "You changed your ways." Ironically, Michael's "Black Or White," from his upcoming "Dangerous" album, is a plea for racial harmony. An 11-minute video for the track, directed by John Landis, starring Macaulay Culkin, George Wendt and Bart Simpson, will premiere November 14 on Fox. Fight promoter Don King has offered to promote a pay-per-view "diss-off" between the two at Caesar's Palace in Vegas on New Year's Eve. LaToya Jackson will serve as the stupid bimbo who walks around between rounds.

Doesn't like Oliver North

Southside Johnny: IMPACT at the cash registers.

It'll be quicker to count the Top 40 programmers who don't add these two records next week.

Those programmers complaining about a drought of hit cuts oughta roll up their pants legs 'cause when it rains it pours. Arriving on their desk this week is Michael Jackson's long-awaited "Black Or White" and U2's "Mysterious Ways."

"It'll be interesting to see who DOESN'T report the Michael record," said one industry observer who didn't want to be identified because he was hoping some other trade publication would call him for a quote.

"Who is Michael Jackson?" queried WPGC MD/Brain Surgeon Albie Dee, once again demonstrating why people like him for his personality, not because they think he'll ever become a Program Director.

"Meaningful," said Island Sr. VP/GM Andy Allen, who is optimistic about U2's chances at Top 40. "I feel this will be a very meaningful week."

"They'll have to test better than Reba McEntire before I add them," said KKBQ Programmer Dene Hallam, who can't even remember the last time anyone cared about him.

Is this story over yet?

PIC OF THE WEEK

Chuck & Tuck - Who Gives A...

WB's Tucker Williamson (r) finally realizes that all those people who told him he looked "just like Chuck Norris" (l) were only trying to sleaze free Traveling Wilburys CDs from him, during one of those moments when superstars think to themselves, "If I looked like this schmuck, my films would gross less than 'Cool As Ice.'" One of these guys has no trouble finding dates.

Quick Hits

MTV adds Hammer ("Adams Groove") (Capitol), Jermaine Jackson (Arista) and Tone Loc (Delicious Vinyl). Rod Stewart (WB), Chris Whitley (Columbia), Chesney Hawkes (Chrysalis) and Lita Ford (RCA) receive rotation increases, while VJ Downtown Julie Brown simply rotates.

WILD CARD
 JODECI (UPT/MCA)
There may be a ballad glut, but this one's so big it's hard to ignore. It's #1 on the JAMS chart, Top Ten nationally in singles sales, Top 25 in album sales, and already #1 at WPGC and FM102, #2 at KMEL and #3 at KBXX. It explodes 9-5 WWHT, 9-6 B95 and scores major market adds at KKFR, PWR106, KHTK, Q99.5 and PWRPIG. Welcome a major new artist broken for Xmas. MCA scores!!!!

Sherwood Forests Sony Software

"You'll have to excuse me, I'm still recovering from last week's USC -California game."

With those words, after removing (52-30) his Trojan helmet (52-30) and dismounting his Trojan horse, USC alum Bob Sherwood turned down coach Larry Smith's job and instead joined Sony Software Corporation in the newly created post of Vice President Sound Technology Marketing. The announcement was made by the company's President, Michael B. Schulhof.

Said Schulhof: "Bob's experience and contacts will be vital in helping us introduce this exciting new format to the music industry when he's not watching old videos of OJ Simpson and Todd Marinovich."

Prior to his appointment, Sherwood was Sr. VP International Marketing for Sony Music Entertainment. He was also Sr. VP Marketing at Columbia and President/COO for Phonogram /Mercury. Before joining Columbia in 1973, Sherwood was a d.j. and PD for several radio stations, including KROY, WRIT, WYSL and WGCL.

Said Sherwood: "The potential offered by this latest step forward in sound technology is extraordinary. We're convinced consumers will totally embrace the Mini Disc. Now, out of my face. If we beat Arizona, Washington and UCLA, we've still got a shot at the Prune Bowl."

Bob Sherwood: Can get you a deal on your used CDs.

One Clown, Two Bozos

Zoo VP Artist Development Bud Scoppa (r) tries to convince Paul Brennan, drummer for Zoo act the Odds (l), and Clownzo The Clown that, despite the fact he's evolved into a sweaty, spineless, record company hypemonger, he was once a very meaningful journalist. Said the the one-time hero of downtrodden music journalists, "Screw meaningful... what's the interest rate on my money market account?" Bud used to like music.

Two Photos From A Dinner We Weren't Invited To

When Warner Music Group Chairman Robert J. Morgado is honored as Humanitarian Of The Year at the AMC Cancer Research Center Benefit Dinner in New York, three things happen. The first is that a lot of people line up to kiss his butt. The second is that all the guests stuff the pressed chicken into their pockets, before actually eating dinner at the River Club and feeding the pressed chicken to their oh-so-trendy Sharpeis. And the third is that we're not invited. Pictured on the

Quick Hits

The Most Added singles of the week at Top 40 radio are #1 Mariah Carey (Columbia), #2 Stacy Earl (RCA), #3 Marky Mark (Interscope),

#4 Color Me Badd (Giant) and #5 Lisa Stansfield (Arista). The Party (Hollywood) continues to grow and spread.

Facing The Butt Of Our Jokes

Thanks to Elektra Sr. VP/GM Brad Hunt (l), Elektra artist John Campbell (c) and Elektra VP of A&R Howard Thompson (r), who not only sent us this incredibly beautiful photo of their incredibly "unique" faces, but also permitted us to sell those faces as the official 1992 poster for the National Association Of Proctologists. (Ed Note: Not the least bit funny, but it may finally get our Editor-In-Chief into the National Association Of Proctologists. Thank you.)

Hendrix In Hall

This year's Rock and Roll Hall of Fame should be a real guitar jam, with Jimi Hendrix and the Yardbirds' Jeff Beck, Eric Clapton and Jimmy Page all being inducted. Hendrix and the British blues group topped the list of seven acts to be inducted into the Hall this January. Others chosen by the 500-member voting body included Bobby (Blue) Bland, Booker T. & the MG's, Johnny Cash, the Isley Brothers and Sam & Dave. Bluesman Elmore

James and New Orleans piano man Professor Longhair will be inducted as pre-rock influences, while songwriter Doc Pomus and guitar developer Leo Fender are to be honored as non-performing inductees.

Among those who will have to wait until next year are David Bowie, who had announced after the vote was taken he wouldn't accept the honor, the Velvet Underground, Cream and the 1910 Fruitgum Company.

Bay Area Salutes Bill

More than 300,000 rock fans flooded Golden Gate Park's Polo Fields last Sunday to pay tribute to the late rock impresario and Bay Area icon Bill Graham in a five-and-a-half hour concert dubbed "Laughter, Love and Music." Among those who performed were the Grateful Dead, Santana, Joan Baez with Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, Jackson Browne and John Fogerty. Bobby Mc-

Ferrin opened the event with an a cappella version of the National Anthem while Robin Williams led the crowd in the wave and a chant of "Yo, Bill." An airplane dropped hundreds of carnations on the crowd, who seemed intent on turning the event into a celebration of life. Dead guitarist Bob Weir called Graham "the most important non-musician in music."

Poopsie!?!

ADD-IT-OUT-OF-THE-BOX
NOVEMBER 18 & 19

The Collective IQ Of The Group Is...?

NARAS gathers what they call "label executives, journalists and musicologists," along with three pretty lame sketchings that a bored, underpaid publicist thought would be funny, at the Universal Hilton to review Grammy nominations, and to make sure the recordings are eligible and placed in correct categories. This year, the group decided to move Jethro Tull from the Heavy Metal to Best Country Duo category. Look at this group and understand why the Grammys consistently maintain that cutting edge. So, how many awards did Anne Murray win in 1974?

Quick Hits

Video Jukebox reports their top requested cuts as #1 2 Live Crew (Luke/Atl), #2 Geto Boys (Rap-A-Lot), #3 Jodeci (Uptown/MCA), #4 Boyz II Men (Motown) and #5 NWA (Priority). Hot jumps are recorded for Chubb Rock (Select/Elek) and Ice-T (Sire/WB). Most Requested rock clips are #1 Nirvana (DGC), #2 Ozzy Osbourne (Epic), #3 Kiss (Interscope), #4 Megadeth (Interscope) and #5 Stevie Nicks (Atlantic).

OK Joe At PLG

Joe "Chicken" Riccitelli has been re-named Guido and made Sr. Dir. Nat'l. Promo. for PolyGram Label Group by the company's Sr. VP Sales & Promotion John Barbis "Of Seville."

In his new position, Riccitelli will cover for his newly hired promotion staffer Danny Ostrow, who wouldn't know a radio programmer if one dropped him in the crotch.

According to Barbis, "Joe is not only a skilled promotion man, but an excellent administrator. And after being duped into hiring an unskilled loser like Ostrow, he better be."

According to Joe, "After hiring that bozo Ostrow from HITS, they better promote me!!!"

Joe Riccitelli: Has a staff inflection.

Shopping Malt

Add the Geto Boys and Ice Cube to the list of rappers who have cut commercials for the controversial St. Ides Malt Liquor. Hot on the heels of Chuck D's denunciation of the practice of marketing the drink to young blacks on the new Public Enemy album, the Geto Boys and Ice Cube paired up to do spots for the west coast beer to the tune of the former's hit, "Mind Playing Tricks On Me."

Bigmouth Strikes Again

If he was miserable before, think how he feels now. Gloomy British celibate-rock bard Morrissey, whose followers are among the most fervent in pop music, is being blamed for a riot that took place during his concert at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion in which 48 people were injured, including 22 who were treated at the campus medical center for a variety of minor cuts and bruises. The trouble started when Morrissey urged his followers to "get up out of your seats" and "come down here," crushing fans at the front of the crowd against wooden barriers, touching off a near-panic. House lights were immediately turned on, the audience ordered back and the band escorted off-stage, which led angry patrons to knock down a souvenir sales tent outside the venue, and pilfer T-shirts and posters. There were also charges that campus security guards roughed some fans up while evacuating the building. It was the first concert at Pauley Pavilion in a decade. Don't hold your breath for the next one.

Pucker Up For Paula

All they want for Xmas is to suck face with Paula Abdul. A national marketing firm released results of a survey which revealed Paula as the woman they'd most like to kiss under the mistletoe. Paula captured 21% of the vote, followed by Julia Roberts, Michelle Pfeiffer, Candace Bergen, Madonna, former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and Long Dong Silver.

since the shot might get in the trades and they might get a better job at a better station in a better market. Thank you for your understanding. The photo on the right shows someone urinating on a tank. As always, we hope you enjoy both these fine, fine photos.

Mama Said Renegotiate

Virgin sensation Lenny Kravitz receives one of those nifty little plaques signifying Gold for his "Mama Said" LP and Platinum for the "Let Love Rule" album from (l-r): Co-President Jordan Harris, VP International/Artist Development Jacquie Perryman and Co-President Jeff Ayeroff. The appreciative, altruistic, globally-concerned musician responded by demanding to see the contracts of Janet Jackson and Paula Abdul, insisting on having Allen Grubman renegotiate his deal, and threatening not to deliver another project unless he got his own custom label. Let love rule!!!

a rundown of executives on the move

Velasquez

Seidenwurm

Slomovitz

Munday

At Atlantic, where they've taken the death of Fred MacMurray really hard, "Do You Want To Buy a Or" Lisa Velasquez is promoted to the post of Vice President Pop/Special Products. Lisa's first special project will be to get that gnarly wad of chewing gum out of Doug Morris' beard.... Amy "The Early Bird Catches The" Seidenwurm and Charles "The Guy Moves In" Slomovitz have been appointed Nat'l. Dir. Alt. Promo. and Nat'l. College Promo. Mgr., respectively, for Virgin Records by the label's Sr. VP Promotion Michael "Ball Point" Plen. Prior to their new gigs, Seidenwurm was an extremely precocious nine-year-old and Slomovitz was Promotion Assistant in Los Angeles, where he held court at the Seventh Veil topless dancer bar on Sunset Blvd... At Imago, where things are merry with Terry, Ann "Happy" Munday has been named VP/GM of Imago Songs, Inc., it was announced by the company's Chairman/CEO Terry "Terry Bo Berry Banana Fana Fo Ferry Me My Mo Merry Terry" Ellis. In her new post, Mundy will have Fridays on her mind... Michele "My Bell, These Are Words That Go Together Well" Mena has been promoted to Director

East Coast Publicity for Columbia Records by the label's VP Nat'l. Press & Public Information "The Wind Cries" Mary Ellen Cataneo. In her new capacity, Michele will be in charge of airbrushing Don Jenner photos... At A&M, where all employees start the day with a piping hot cup of instant Cafaro, Aubrey Moore "Than The Greatest Love A Man Has Known" has been appointed VP of Production and Manufacturing by the label's President/CEO Al "De-" Cafaro. Moore will continue to be responsible for placing subliminal pitches for Orville Redenbacher popcorn on all label product... Michelle Taverna "On The Green" has been named Publicity Coordinator for Mercury Records by the label's VP Publicity "Delta" Dawn Bridges. In her new post, Taverna will arrange for photo shoots and assign all label artist bios to Roy Trakin... Alexandra Saraspe "Rella" has been appointed Mgr. A&R/Artist Relations at SBK Records by the label's Sr. VP of A&R Don Rubin "Dub Dub Three Men In A Tub." In her new post, Saraspe will get that luminous shine in her long, brown hair from using Vidal Sassoon conditioner and beer.

HITS

NEAR TRUTHS

By I. B. Bad, Los Angeles

Without question, it was a MAJOR week in the biz, with chattermongers capping off a week of nonstop chatter by floating the name of A&M President Al Cafaro into the Mercury scenario. Unless you were in a coma last week, you know that Mercury Co-President Mike Bone departed the label, leaving Co-President Ed Eckstine solo at the helm. The Cafaro chatter centers around some type of involvement at Mercury without him abdicating the throne at the Chaplin Lot. Just conjecture? Maybe. Others are pointing to "a new Mercury," led solely by Eckstine. Stay tuned.... Despite the timing, Bone's exit had no connection to last Sunday's L.A. Times piece on sexual harassment in the music biz. Observers are saying that the "Co-Presidency" structure simply didn't gel, and that the move was inevitable.... Said story earned "Most Faxed" honors for the week.... The much-talked-about leak of the Michael and Jermaine Jackson tunes has speculators speculating that someone close to the Jermaine camp leaked both records, with a massive PR bonanza as the payoff. We may never know.... Has the shine left the star of one high-profile, West Coast industry label veteran? Questioners questioning whether an early contract settlement is impending, or whether everyone will wait it out.... Major buzzing that Paul Russell may be exiting his Sony United Kingdom throne in the near future.... Virgin's renegotiation talks with WEA over its distribution deal, which is up in June, have ceased completely amid reports of an impending sale of Richard Branson's company. Said reports once again center around EMI as Branson has reportedly been meeting recently with Colin Southgate. However, insiders are saying not to count out MCA, which would stand to gain a much-desired global presence through a Virgin acquisition.... Speaking of Virgin, is the $45 million Virgin/Rolling Stones number real? Will some of that guarantee be mitigated by the cross-collateralizing of catalog royalties?.... The Wilson-Phillips management derby is heating up with the names of HK Management's Trudy Green and Ron Weisner rising to the top. What exactly will Peter Lopez's role be?.... Producer Armon Milcham ("Pretty Woman," "War Of The Roses") reportedly prepping for a major, big-money entry into the music fold.... With Vanilla Ice parting company with Tommy Quon, will he be repping himself instead of seeking a new manager?.... And tons of fingerpointing over why the planned pay-per-view Elton John/Bernie Taupin extravaganza won't be going down.... Names in the Rumor Mill this week: Derek Shulman, Jerry Edelstein, Susan Clary, Larry Solters and Jennifer Azoff.... and the beat goes on.

Solo?

Ed Eckstine: Less need for his Laker seats.

FAR TRUTHS

By Danny Fields, New York

Getting To Know Arty

Dear HITS:

I am an attractive SWF, 29 who is into caring, sensitive, humble men who dress like the late Andy Gibb. After seeing last week's photo of new HITS' Special Projects wizard Arty Simon (Issue 266, p.16) holding Elvis' lovechild against his supple breast, I'm interested in meeting him. Could you give me some information on his religious background?

Karen Simion
Bowmans Records
Merlin Park, Ohio

HITS Replies: Karen, despite the fact that Arty looks like a nice Jewish boy who wears suits and has nice hair, we've uncovered the following photographic evidence of his days as barefoot and pregnant trailer trash (that's the Art-Man on the left). There was a time when the Art-ster made David Duke look like Gandhi.

Did Arty Shower With Ellie Mae?

Dear HITS:

Saw last week's photo of your new guy Artie Simon after he gave birth to the King's daughter. Call me crazy for asking, but didn't we see Artie in a legendary 1960's television program?

Byron Hontas
Capitol Records
Hollywood

HITS replies: Very perceptive of you Byron. Hard to understand why everyone thinks you're such a loser. Yes indeed, our own little Arty was indeed cast as the original Granny in the Beverly Hillbillies, but was unceremoniously dropped after three episodes because he refused to stop yanking on Jed's Clampett.

No Wonder Ken's Always Horny

Dear HITS:

That Arty Simon — whatta doll!!!

Tracy Horton
Elektra Records
New York City

HITS replies: Indeed he is Trace. In fact, your letter is so insightful that we think we'll throw a shrimp on the Barbie.

Why They Call Arty Beefcake

Dear Dave:

Would you please run a photo of Arty Simon's face on a cow's butt?

Ken Friedman
Arista Records
New York City

Dave replies: Only true legends get that treatment Kenny. And without question, our lovable Arty is a true legend. So thanks for recognizing true brilliance, and here's our guy:

Now entering the full flower of his neo-modern-post classicist phase, Paul McCartney and entourage SST'd into town to talk about the forthcoming Carnegie Hall North American premiere of his "Liverpool Oratorio" (now #1 on the U.K. serious music charts), and not incidentally to attend the riotous opening of his concert movie, "Get Back." A press conference at the hallowed Hall itself, attended by Capitol President Hale Milgrim, was intimate and casual, and followed by a reception at which McCartney and the lovely Linda (now a frozen food magnate) mingled freely with journalists amidst the trappings of a luxurious vegetarian buffet, including camembert and walnut cheese over crackers, brie in pastry, veggie and mozzarella balls, and a free-flowing open bar. The next morning, the glam couple entertained Linda's family, including brother and sister-in-law John and Jodie Eastman at a sit-down veggie brunch at their penthouse suite in one of N.Y.'s finer hotels. The movie preem featured police barricades, thousands of roped-off fans, klieg lights, strobes, screaming, free popcorn, assorted industry titans like Ron Delsener and Melani Rogers, and certainly more than a hint of Beatlemania redux... The spectacular and mystical Winter Garden at the World Financial Center was the site of the AMC Cancer Research Center's 21st Annual Humanitarian Award Dinner, honoring Warner Music Group Chairman Robert J. Morgado, and, as might be expected, it was a tout le monde. Toasts were made by Time/Warner's Nick Nicholas and Steve Ross, Hon. Hugh Carey, Warner Music Int. Chmn. Ramon Lopez and Leslie Morgado, and the introductory speech came from Michael Schulof. Other machers gracing the gorgeous space included Tom Freston, Doug Morris, Ahmet Ertegun, Allen Grubman, Bob Krasnow, Irving Azoff and Mo Ostin, so you get the picture of heaviness that this was. The menu starred terrines of wild mushrooms in walnut vinaigrette, filet of salmon in woven potato nest and Bavarian strudel with fall berries for dessert. Most delish of all is the fact the dinner raised over $2 mil for cancer research. Accolades to the program book designer, Marc Friedland of Creative Intelligence... Crystal Gaynor of BMG and Vida Nash of RCA hosted a musically magnificent showcase at the New Yorker Club for vocalist Gene Rice and jazz saxist Marion Meadows. RCA/BMGgiants included Michael Dornemann, Joe Galante, Pete Jones, Skip Miller, Randy Goodman, Roland Edison, Miller London, Marilyn Lipsius, Nancy Farbman and Charlotte Hunter; media-ores included WBLS' Vaughan Harper, Hal Jackson, Champagne and Curtis Waller, WKRKS' Charles Warfield, Toya Beasley, Carol Ford, Chris Walsh and Terry Hargrove and more. Food? Honey roasted turkey, sugar-cured smoked ham, golden chicken strips, roast beef, fish filets and, for the veggie-inclined, crudites.

LIGHTER SHADE OF BROWN

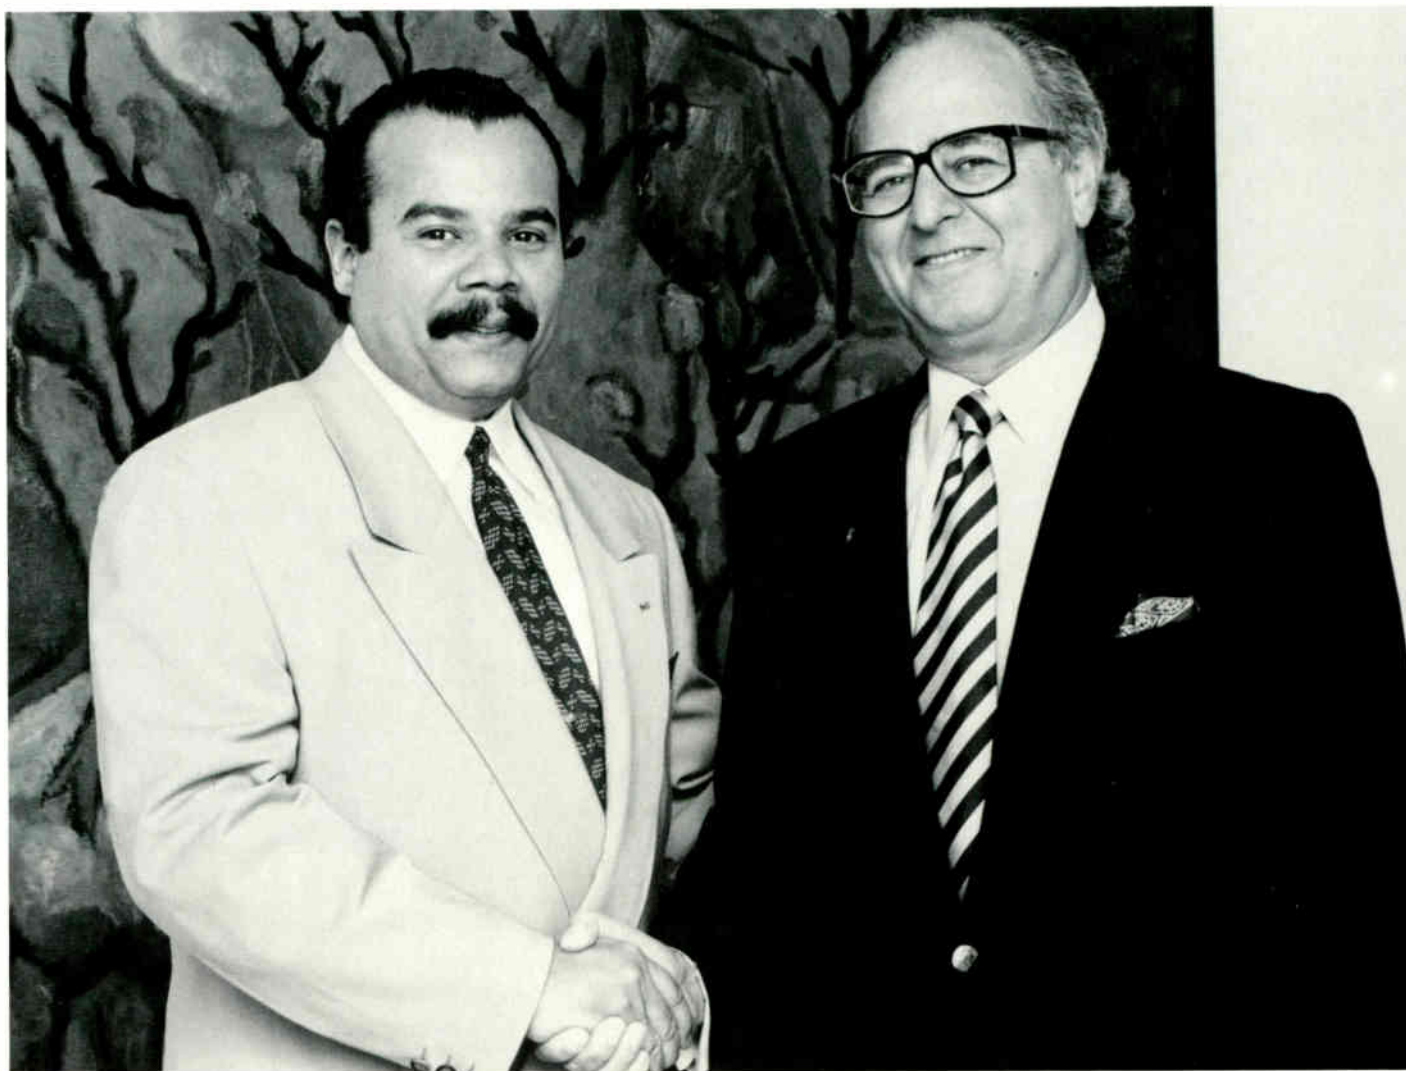

On A Sunday Afternoon

Ruben News

Ruben Rodriguez started his career as the drummer for the Scorpions. Honest. The place was the projects of Brownsville, Brooklyn, the drums came courtesy of Mom ("I told her I wouldn't be on the streets as much that way," he explains). The rest of the instruments were borrowed from the blues players who lived in the building. Eleven-year-old Ruben didn't know to copyright the name, much to his regret. "I could have sold it to the other Scorpions years later," he laughs. He doesn't really need the money, anyway.

Currently President/CEO of the newly-formed Pendulum label as well as Sr. VP of Urban Music at Elektra, Rodriguez was managing his local record store while attending John Jay College of Criminal Justice with ambitions to be a lawyer. He'd probably be a good one — Rodriguez is incredibly passionate about everything. Most guys talk about their new artists — he pops in a tape and plays you a couple of cuts. Get him going about Pendulum's newly signed acts, and you won't have to ask another question for 20 minutes. His independent merchandising experience as a college freshman earned him a gig at Motown at the age of 18, working all radio formats, "even country & western." Neil Bogart and Cecil Holmes lured him to Casablanca, where he rose to National Director of Promotion and Marketing, working with Donna Summer, Cameo and Parliament-Funkadelic, among others. When Bogart sold that label, Ruben followed him to Boardwalk as VP of Promotion, Marketing and A&R. After Neil Bogart died, Rodriguez moved on to Island, then Columbia. Originally VP of Promotion and Marketing there, Rodriguez was promoted two years later to Senior VP of Black Music, which entailed "overseeing all aspects of promotion, marketing, artist development, press and video — the whole ball of wax." On the other hand, HITS' correspondent "Someone's In The Kitchen With" Daina Darzin has enough trouble chewing gum and walking at the same time.

Elektra Entertainment's Ruben Rodriguez and Bob Krasnow shake hands shortly before both get clocked in the head with a huge Pendulum and come up with the name for Ruben's new label.

NO SWEAT: Rodriguez (c) cops a few hot Wall Street tips from label artist Keith Sweat (second from r) at a double-platinum presentation for his hit album, "I'll Give All My Love To You" as (l-r): mgr. Hiram Hicks, Vintertainment's Vincent Davis and Elektra Entertainment Chairman Bob Krasnow eavesdrop.

What's the most important thing you learned at Columbia?

We weren't just marketing and imaging our artists to the black audience. We had everyone at Def Jam — the LL Cool Js, the Public Enemy's, you name it. We marketed those acts to the masses because the masses are into that genre of music. Lisa Lisa & Cult Jam had a big pop audience as well. I worked with a great many crossover artists like George Michael, who had the first #1 album on the black charts by a non-black artist, which was very exciting. I'm happy that I had that opportunity — marketing an artist is about maximizing their potential as opposed to just gearing that audience to one particular situation and taking it to the next level. I was able to start something and see it all the way through. That was a unique situation and I'm glad I had that kind of training and background — it's really helpful in what I'm doing today.

How do you make sure that you're including all the potential parts of someone's audience?

First, you solidify the base. That's very important. Then you build new audiences by the marketing of that artist, by the various places you go. Right now, many urban stations have a share of the pop audience. If you look at the charts, urban music is the pop music of the '90s.

We have an artist right now on Pendulum named Chris Walker. There's already a big buzz about this artist because he was Regina Belle's musical director. He performed a duet with her, "All I Want Is Forever," from the movie "Taps," which was a #1 record for her. Every time they performed that song, they'd get a standing ovation. We feel very fortunate to have him. His single, "Giving You All My Love," is currently Top 10, and he has already embarked on a major promo tour, where we introduced the album and had him perform. And the response was fabulous. We want to let the music speak for itself, because Chris Walker is a mass-appeal artist. He's 23 years old, with a voice that's incredible. He wrote nine out of the eleven songs on the album and produced five of them, with Nick Martinelli producing the other six. The album's called "First Time." He also covers "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face," which is a song you just don't cover unless you can back it up with a great voice. Roberta Flack heard it and just loved it. She said, "Chris Walker is just unbelievable." The whole WEA family is excited, and when WEA presses the button, they sell some records. The Adult and pop departments can't wait. Hen-Gee & Evil-E are two rappers whose album is called "Brothers," which they are. They're bilingual rappers who are part of Ice-T's Rhyme Syndicate and are very true to the music they do. Their current single/video, "Lil Trig," is booming up the rap and vid charts. They have incredibly creative minds, and they're good people, too. And then there's Fun Foundation, a group currently living in Europe, whom we feel will have a strong club base.

Describe Pendulum's relationship to Elektra.

It's a joint venture. This has always been my dream. The kids today just knock on a record company's door and say, "Here's my tape, you gotta listen to it." When I was a youngster growing up in the projects, I always wanted to meet someone in the record business that was honest and passionate about the music, and committed to whatever I wanted to do creatively. God works in mysterious ways. The person I wanted to meet is the person I am today. I believe in karma and I believe things happen for certain reasons. I'll never forget going to the Apollo Theater on amateur night and seeing so much talent, and thinking, one day I'll have my own record company so I can showcase some of these individuals and give them an opportunity to express themselves. I'm very grateful that now I have that opportunity, thanks to Bob Krasnow as well as Aaron Levy and David Ginnert, who first put us together, and Time Warner. I'm not only lucky to be doing what I'm doing, I'm lucky to be alive. So many people [I grew up with] were just as talented as I was, but because of the Vietnam War and drugs and other things, never got a chance to express themselves. So when I do it for me, I do it for them, too.

"Urban music is the pop music of the '90s."

As President and CEO, what are your specific responsibilities?

I oversee all aspects of marketing and A&R as well as promotion. I still talk to radio and retailers. I'm very involved with the artists. I'm working on Howard Hewett's album right now and I'm executive producer on the Shirley Murdock album, an artist whom I've loved working with. I'm very much involved in terms of picking songs and producers and being in the studio. I love what I do. My day starts early in the morning and ends very late. I'm working with Mel'isa Morgan as well. It's been awhile since her last record was out on Capitol, but when this record's released, people will say it was worth the wait.

We're looking for songs that are in your face. That you can't wait to go to radio and retail with. I told Meli'sa Morgan, we're in no rush. Haste makes waste. She was looking for commitment, and that's something we promise all our artists at Pendulum and Elektra. They're my family. Howard calls me on Sundays when I'm on my way to church. That's the kind of relationship I love having with my artists. Same thing with Lisa Fischer. We have one of the best rosters in the music business at Elektra, if not the best. Look who's here — Anita Baker, Natalie Cole, Teddy Pendergrass, Keith Sweat, Deee-Lite, Tracy Chapman, En Touch, Kid N' Play, Howard Hewett, Shirley Murdock and A.K. — brought to us by Larkin Arnold — to name but a few. Chris Walker's album features a duet with Lisa Fischer as well as an appearance by Shazzy, the female rapper. Shirley Murdock wrote a song for Chris Walker called "There's No Place Like Love" that's unbelievable. Hen-Gee & Evil-E co-produced their album with Carlos Alomar. You want to encourage and build those artists who have the potential to be songwriters and producers as well. You want someone who will tour whether they have a hit record or not. A great many people these days think that, with radio, MTV and a depressed market, touring is of secondary importance. I still think it's very important. You want to have people be able to touch you and see what you're all about. They want to know you're real. It's important for Chris Walker to play live, so people get to know him in an intimate way.

"It's about motivating talent and letting the creative come out."

Tell us about the strategy behind Natalie Cole's best-selling album. From the start, Natalie Cole, Bob Krasnow and Tommy LiPuma were all on the same page. The album was a creative joy. We had a great video, a fantastic promotion department and a great press department. Sherry Ring is the best — she really is. The one thing we weren't really sure of was how radio was going to react. We knew it was going to be tough in one sense, because [the album] wasn't about format, it was about something that was musically brilliant. We were hoping that radio would accept it. When they began playing it, the phones were ringing off the hook, and the story just spread. It was a multi-format hit — urban, R&B, Adult, pop, everything, and huge with retail. God knows where that album's going to end up.

I've worked with some of the biggest entrepreneurs in the business and now I have the privilege to work with a man I've heard so much about and whom I'd watched develop artists for a long time in Bob Krasnow. I'm a lucky guy. There are some labels that just go with the routine — this is what radio's doing and this is what you should be doing as an artist as opposed to, who are you really? It's important to the artist's music that a true sense of them comes out in their records. My grandmother used to say when I was a kid, no one can be you but you. That's what we pride ourselves in at Pendulum and Elektra — I encourage that with all my artists. It's about motivating talent and letting the creative come out. Don't be afraid.

SHIRLEY YOU JEST: It's a little known fact that (l-r) Elektra Entertainment recording artist Shirley Murdock, Bob Krasnow and Ruben Rodriguez often enjoy mixing and matching outfits.

Did it bother you when MTV wouldn't play Brand Nubian's first video?

I couldn't understand it. In the end, they came around and played it. I thought they should have played it out-of-the-box, but it didn't hurt, either, because we're around 300,000 on the album and Brand Nubian's one of the most talked-about rap groups in the business. They're like the Doors of rap — there's a certain mystique about them. It took awhile for radio to accept them, and that's baffled me. I have to especially thank the local TV stations across America, because they really broke this group, as well as press. We approached press in a very aggressive way, because they could capture what the band was about, and hoped radio could pick up from retail that the record was selling. We also put them on tour and that's how we built them. Our A&R man, Dante Ross, also did a brilliant job of bringing us great music like Brand Nubian.

How about Chubb Rock and Leaders of the New School?

We just entered into a deal with Select and another one with KRS-One, who has a new label, Edutainment, that's going to be exciting. We also expect great things to come from Maurice Starr and his new Boston International label.

Chubb Rock has already built a major fan base through his records on Select. We want to take him to the next level. Video outlets love him because of "The Chubbster," "Treat Her Right" and the new single, "Just The Two of Us." His records are radio records, and he's made a lot of new fans on the road.

With Leaders of the New School, video played a major role. We have very visual bands — when you see them, the audience reacts to them. The kids see them on their TV screens and can relate to them immediately. And musically, they're there. Add press, a strong retail campaign and have them out there touring and that's going to create sales and new fans. With rap music, if you have something that's happening, word-of-mouth plays a very important role. Whenever Leaders of the New School leave a market, you feel it at retail. We're going to keep them on the road with a back-to-school campaign, where they'll perform at schools, because they're so energetic on-stage, kids'll buy the record and tell their friends about it. You can play in front of just 1,500 people, but that 1,500 can multiply in sales. ☉

Well the big surprise at radio is that programmers love the new Mariah Carey (OK, it's not too surprising) while retail is totally behind the second release from Hammer. Big mentions this week for rockers Queensryche, Southside great supplement, bad magazine.

Johnny, and Dire Straits at both retail and radio while PoMo faves Red Hot Chili Peppers have people talking. Look for major market support on new dance act Stacy Earl who is already getting a lot of airplay.

The charges of a church-singing mom and a conga-playing stepfather who did a stint in an early incarnation of Kool & the Gang, Prince Be and DJ Minutemix were destined to be musicians from Day 1. By the time he was a teenager, Prince started writing songs and, with his brother, began d.j.'ing parties around the neighborhood. The boys eventually financed a demo tape of "Check the Logic" (thanks to Prince's night job as a security guard at a shelter for the mentally ill) and PM Dawn was launched.

The brothers were signed to the U.K.'s Gee Street label, who released their "Ode to a Forgetful Mind" in late '89, where it was a huge underground hit. The following year, PM Dawn entered the Gee Street Studios in London to record perhaps the longest-titled debut ever from a band, "Of the Heart, Of the Soul and Of the Cross: The Utopian Experience," featuring everything from Spandau Ballet samples to musical moods that run the gamut — dance, hip-hop, rap, funk and a twinge of psychedelia thrown in for good measure. HITS' own gamut-running correspondent Erin "Do The Hully" Cully dropped acid, kicked back and saw God.

● HIP ● ● POP ●

Most people label your music as "rap," but there's really so much more to it.

Prince Be: We don't even call it rap at all. I just write songs and they just happen to come out closer to rap than anything else, so everyone's like, "that's a rap song," but musically and lyrically, it's not. We wanted to spread out music-wise without leaving the hip-hop vibe, so I guess we got what we got.

Why did you decide to go all the way to London to record the album?

Prince Be: We tried to record over here but...

DJ Minutemix: It just didn't work out the way we planned.

Prince Be: You just get such a weird vibe hanging out in New York, we had to get out. When we got to London, it just really mellowed out. You get to do whatever you want, mood-wise. You can hear the difference between the songs we did over here and the ones we did in London.

DJ Minutemix: [Laughs.] Yeah, the ones we recorded here didn't make it on the album.

Prince Be: They were really good songs, but the mood was just really morbid and dork. You'll hear them — one of them's gonna go on the second album and one's gonna be a b-side.

"There's only one band in America who are still writing songs and that's R.E.M."

What about touring?

Prince Be: We just did a couple of dates in London with De La Soul and A Tribe Called Quest and musically, we stuck out like a sore thumb. Everybody thought we sounded like De La Soul, but when we got together, you could vividly see the difference. It was weird — like Luther Vandross playing with Big Daddy Kane or something.

I understand you guys are into author/prophet Edgar Cayce.

Prince Be: My mom hipped me to Edgar Cayce — she reads him a lot. It's just interesting to find out how logical Edgar Cayce sounds. It's really interesting, especially when he talks about the future.

DJ Minutemix: He also has a remedy book that's quite fascinating.

Have his ideas influenced the way you think at all?

Prince Be: Quite a lot, actually. I like knowing what was going on before and what will go on after.

You've also said how you'd like to get things right in this life so you can stop being reincarnated.

Prince Be: I went to a psychic once in Brighton Beach, England, who told me I was a gospel singer in one life, a judge in another and a king who always let people get off the hook for doing messed-up things that the people didn't like. She said I earned this life from a lot of other lives. It was really weird stuff — I just checked it out and soaked all the information in. It leaves you with this big question mark on your face. She only charged me $10 and I was there four hours!

DJ Minutemix: She didn't want him to leave.

Were the two of you raised as Christians?

Prince Be: Totally — went to church and all that jazz. I didn't really get to love God 'til I left. It's weird. Church basically is for people who really need to hold on to something. But there's no need for it... I mean if you're gonna love God, you've gotta love God totally and that's the same thing as worshipping God.

Who are your favorite rap groups of the moment?

Prince Be: I like Black Sheep, LL Cool J, the U.M.C.'s, Stereo MCs and KMD. I just like it to be really true to the music. Like in the U.K., you can hear people who are really into the music — like Blur or Happy Mondays. It's a really cool vibe — you can see that they actually wrote the song because they like it and that's the way it is. It wasn't a money-making thing. There's only one band in America who are still writing songs and that's R.E.M. ♦

POST TOASTED By Ivana B. Adored

ANGELS FLYING TOO CLOSE TO THE GROUND: To quote a favorite artist of mine, "When this is over, over and through. And all the changes have come and passed. I want to meet you in the big sky country..." I guess that means when I finish deadline I can head back to Austin! Many hurrahs to Paul and the gang; KNNC sounds great! (And yes, you can pick up the signal in town). KGSR is as awesome as always and I will

TRULY (Madly, Deeply):

adore Jody Denberg "Bis ans Ende der Welt"!.....For you unstudied types, that means "Until the End of the World," which is also the soundtrack from which Jody added the Jane Siberry/KD Lang song, "Calling All Angels".....If you think it's not PoMo to blow off the CMJ Convention to see Chris Whitley in concert (sorry Leshay, really), hang with the world's biggest Jimmy Webb fan (besides me), drop a ton of $$ at Waterloo Records, meet the gang from KNNC, and see

Mark Pickerel Is A Babe!

Lee Harvey Oswald's daughter tending bar (emis), then you don't have a clue!.....What did I miss? Blur playing live? Faith Henschel "bad-vibing" me? Elitist college-radio types souring on Nirvana? Gee, sounds tres PoMo to me. (At which point, I'd usually add NOT!, but now that my fave phrase is being used in a Brian Setzer beer commercial, oh well).....It was incredibly swell of Krim to up the rotation of Chris Whitley's video. Wonder if he did it for me? Let's see him "Justify My Love" by putting Primal Scream, Soundgarden or Right Said Fred into BUZZ BIN, how 'bout it?.....Hey Rick, "I'm Your Fan".....Not only was it awesome of Bruce Flohr to send me a fruitbasket in honor of Brian Boyd's birthday, Tod Elmore sent me the import of the Leonard Cohen tribute album, featuring Ian McCulloch singing "Hey That's No Way To Say Goodbye," which was #4 "Most Added" this week. For the ultimate in bummer experiences, listen to this album while reading the Brian Wilson autobiography. Wheee!.....Is Ivana a self-proclaimed J.A.P.? Check this out: I'm leaving for the UK in a few hours and fortunately, my new clothes just arrived from Tweeds, J. Crew and Smythe & Co. How can I possibly meet This Picture if I hate my clothes?.....Truly, and their Jon Auer produced EP, could very well make you forget about the "N" band, if only for a while. Greater "sassy" quotient, too.....Jellyfish need a guitar player. Think you're cool enough? Cool as, say, Jack Wild (a Ken Stringfellow suggestion). Nintendo airplay guaranteed. Call for details....

POMO PICKS

Edited by Karen Glauber

Paleface, "Paleface" (Polygram/PLG): Befriended by King Missile's John S. Hall during open-mike performances at ABC Not Rio in NYC's "Alphabet City," Paleface became a fixture in a group of some of the most creative, brilliant, lost souls since the days of the Exploding Plastic Inevitable. "Burn And Rob" was first found on "What Else Do You Do," a Shimmy Disc compilation, which explains Kramer's involvement in Paleface's debut LP. Paleface rages against the perceived sanity of an insane world. Incongruous and ingenious.

The Dylans, "The Dylans" (Beggars' Banquet/RCA): Remember when Tim Buckley was a guest on the Monkees? No type of drug could replicate that vibe; now add New Order to the mix, played through a kaleidoscope, and you've touched upon the "godlike" impression left after listening to the Dylans. Looking as though they just stepped out of a Star Trek convention, this Sheffield combo write songs with melodies, not just swirling layers that render most bands disposable. Like their namesake, these guys will be around for a long time!

Carter The Unstoppable Sex Machine, "30 Something" (Chrysalis): Glauber made me review this because the title, "30 Something," made her squeamish. I'll have you know that these guys have sold more t-shirts than any other band in England. Carter USM. A band to be taken seriously and listened to repeatedly. Known by some as the "drinking man's Pet Shop Boys" (Ed note: if I have to hear the Pet Shop Boys, I need a drink), Carter jams through another LP of foot-tapping, head-bouncing, nail-biting, unstoppable masterpieces. (NB)

Nymphs, "Nymphs" (DGC): Any band whose lead singer can get away with taking a whiz on her A&R weasel's desk is O.K. in my book. Especially since her golden shower spawned such a mighty powerful November flower. If Joan Jett had gone to art school and dropped some primo window-pane, she would have cranked out something just like this tasty platter. They ride the grunge train perfectly—guitars crush, the beats pound slow and low, and the whole affair leaves me feeling more drained, yet at the same time more ecstatic, than my last colonic. Investigate LA's finest immediately! (MF)

POMO MUGS

BEAUTY IS IN THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER: The wonderful thing about the PoMo world is that no matter how butt ugly you are, you still have a chance at superstardom. Take this week's poster boys for cosmetic surgery, Carter The Unstoppable Sex Machine, who took time out of their busy schedule of frightening young children to stop by and visit with Chrysalis' own bundle of beauty Jerry Rubino. Fortunately for these guys, their Unstoppable Sex machines never leave the comfort of luscious photos of Teaneck, N.J.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN TIM HYDE AND MIKHAEL GORBACHEV?: Gorbachev knew the names of the eight guys who screwed him during his last vacation! Thank you. We feel better. Now we can present this amazing shot of PoMo gods the Neighborhoods, who've finally made the leap to major label-land after years of struggling in Boston clubs, watching HITS' own Keith Chagnon drooling in the front row.

PLEASE KEEP YORE LAME ATTEMPTS AT SELF-PUBLICITY TO YORESELF: Well kiddies, its no secret that the average reader of this rag would have a hard time getting through "Highlights," or even "High Society," but we at least expect that when artists like Don Henry shamelessly beg for a little attention, their publicists could spell their signs right. If Don's not careful, he'll get a visit from Ivana the Dominatrix Of Mensa, who will make Don sick her heels until he can properly spell "I'm a useless piece of human garbage who was put on this planet only to serve your every desire, that is, unless Holly Gleason needs me first!"

Motown Rocks Up Another Monster!

SHANICE SKYROCKETS!

Every once in awhile a JAM will INSTANTLY hit you. One you just KNOW is destined for the T-O-P.

Shanice Wilson's "I Like Your Smile" is that type of JAM. But since we know you won't take the word of people who have never mastered toilet training, we decided to ask a few intelligent folks as well.

Gregg Diggs, APD at D.C. powerhouse WKYS, predicts, "It's a #1 hit!" WXYV Baltimore PD Roy Sampson echoes his sentiment, adding, "Its excellent demos make it look like it has what it takes to go all the way."

On the retail tip, legendary Boston proprietor Skippy White takes time out from horfin' down baked beans and blowin' customers out of the shop to report, "Nothing but solid requests on the single, which translates into excellent sales!"

If these three pillars of the music industry can't convince you to get on this MULTI-FORMAT SMASH, then we'll have to throw in the heavy artillery — Over 90% of our reporters on it, a SIX-POINT AVERAGE MOVE and DOUBLE-DIGIT JUMPS in many major markets.

Motown Sr. Promo VP Paris Eley has the last word. "This woman is destined to be a fixture on the entertainment scene. She will endure."

Luckily, the same can't be said about us.

NO SELLOUT, JUST SALES: Like it or not (and we like it a whole lot!), you CAN'T fail to be impressed by the phenomenal power of RAP at the cash registers. Check out the LP chart and be amazed. The AWESOME blitz by the folks at Capitol takes Hammer straight to #1 in his first week out, with Ice Cube blasting in on his coattails at #2, the result of a powerfully effective street-level campaign by the folks at Priority, an extremely loyal fan base, and almost no radio support. If that isn't enough, catch the performance of Mr. Smooth, Big Daddy Kane, who comes in strong out-of-the-box at #13. Still not convinced? Then the fact that HALF of the Top 20 LPs are hip-hop releases should prove once and for all that the music has an undeniable impact on our people, who have voted with their wallets in massive numbers this past seven.... WONDER WOMEN: The superstar ladies of the '90s have swept the hearts of programmers and listeners alike this past seven, with Jody Watley's "I Want You" grabbing the Most Added throne, and Mariah Carey, Karyn White and Whitney Houston rounding out the Top 4, not to mention Ex-Girlfriend and Marva Hicks joining Prince, Luther Vandross, Level III and Big Daddy Kane among the leaders in collecting mondo calls.... INCREASE THE PEACE: Our sincerest condolences go out to the folks at EastWest, and the friends and family of Chris Bender, whose budding career was snatched out from underneath him by a gunman this past week. SEEING THINGS FROM A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE:

As we speculated last week, our sources report the deal to bring Third Stone VP Kevin Fleming into the top slot at Jimmy Jam & Terry Lewis's Perspective is a lock. Look for Kevin to grab the VP/GM title, and to move into his offices as early as December 1. There's no word on who his replacement at Dick Rudolph's crib will be, but they will have some mighty big shoes to fill.... Will the folks at Chrysalis be filling their new National slot with a body from a crosstown competitor?... And when will Louil Silas, Jr.' rumored power move be going down?... HELLO EMI: The folks at EMI are looking for a creative genius to cruise the streets of money-makin' Manhattan for them. Give Ron Fair a jingle if you've got the golden ears.... EMI Music Publishing in Smogtown is looking for a talented acquisition monster.... I CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT MY RADIO: The continuing saga at Jacksonville's WZAZ is still unfolding, with the station changing its calls to WJBT - The Beat, deciding NOT to bring in Buffalonians Dwayne Landers and David Michael Wilson, and instead giving the green light to new PM driver Doc Brown and evening ruler Paul Dancer....

IT'S COLD UP NORTH: At Buffalo institution WUFO, GM Lenore Williams takes hold of the PD throne as well, replacing Mr. Wilson, who now looks like he's a free agent.... Eric Mychaels is the new afternoon king at KMJM.... The much-rumored-about sale of Wichita's KBUZ has fallen through, putting both its format and employees in limbo.... BEACH BLANKET BLIZZARD: Much movin' and shakin' at WRBD Ft. Lauderdale, as PD C.J. Harris moves to Promo Dir. and Kelly Davis exits his MD slot to become Asst. Promo Dir. Bum-rushing the "in" door are consultant Craig Anderson, who grabs the OM reins, and new MD and midday jock Erick D., who breaks North from Miami's HOT105. Look for the new personnel to steer the station into a more adult format.

SOFT & WARM

STORM WATCH: This week, our Quiet Storm research goddess Kandace Taylor is chillin' with David Alexis' sexy "You Are The Lady" (Esquire) and Karyn White's sterling "Tears of Joy" (WB) while she sits back and acts like she's really, really interested when small market radio legends tell her their most intimate sexual fantasies. WKSV Norfolk PD Chuck Woodson has a keen interest in sheep, as well as superstar Mariah Carey's "Can't Let Go" (Columbia) and the Aretha Franklin/Michael McDonald duet, "Ever Changing Time" (Arista). On to Baton Rouge, where we find Q106 PD Lou Bennett dreaming of knockin' boots with Marsha Warfield, while Boyz II Men's awesome next single "Uhh Ahh" (Motown) and Dee Harvey's smooth "As I Am" (Motown) set the mood. See ya in seven.

TRAILER LOAD A WEASELS: We love to run pictures of reggae dancehall king Shabba Ranks! Especially when he's accompanied by Epic's Mid Atlantic goddess Lynda Penn (SCHWING!) and WHUR powerlord John Blake! In fact, we love everyone in this business. All of you bring a smile to our faces and give us that warm, tingly feeling in our drawers. Then again, so does smearing our bodies with pollen and running naked through a beehive.

WHAT BECOMES A LEGEND MOST?: In this classic shot, RAL rhythm Sidney Reynolds, one of the driving forces behind Sid-N-B. Ton, and the only one on this planet who understands the "Word" and "Down Wit" columns in this sleazy rag, hangs in the studio with legendary trumpet master Miles Davis, who was finishing up a new record right before his untimely death a month ago. Much respect to Miles. 'Nuff said.

SQUARES AT THE GARDEN: When such powerbrokers as Billy Bass, Hank Caldwell, Dave Glew, Luther Vandross and Shep Gordon attend a party together, you know that they didn't even think of mailing us an invitation. After this shot was taken, the assembled execs each tried extremely hard to come up with a reason why they couldn't accept Shep's invitation to come over to his house for cheeseburgers and a private screening of "Cool As Ice."

THE COMFORT ZONE: Here's the lucky Tony Terry, who got to hang with the gorgeous and talented Vanessa Williams during the recent "Family Affair" convention. Unfortunately, our own Darryl Lindsey wasn't so blessed, and amazed conventioners described him circling the lobby trying to proposition anything that moved, and even some things that didn't. Now, Darryl's a good looking guy, but unfortunately he hasn't learned that mentioning where he works, and droning on about how many times he has to bend over to get things done his way, makes people head for the nearest exit faster than Heavy D can house a free buffet.

DRESSED TO KILL: What could be better than viewing a shot of WPEG Charlotte GM Wayne Brown, MD Frankie Darcel and PD Michael Saunders? Bar-b-queing your butt on a hot fire? No. Licking hot sauce off your partners stomach? Maybe. Knowing that this is the last stupid caption you'll have to read for the next seven? Definitely!

Based on college radio and commercial mix show airplay

ON THE SERIOUS TIP: Before we get started, we want to give props to those of you at college and mix show radio who have turned in consistent, accurate reports week after week. The section works, and our culture continues to progress, because of people like you who care about the music, and walk-the-walk as well as talk-the-talk. However, those who don't feel the need to maintain a timely and hype-free list can get the Willie Bo-Bo as far as we're concerned. Since we MUST maintain a credible set of reporters and charts, we've got no time for those who aren't true to this.... CRUSHIN' AT CHRYSALIS: Lindsay Williams' new team at Chrysalis is runnin' thangs, and has picked up the smokin' indie JAMMIE, Showbiz & AG's "Diggin' In The Crates," which has worked its way up from the streets to rule New Jack City, pullin' in the #1 Request slot on Red Alert's WRKS mastermix party, Dre & Ed Lover's WBLS institution and Bobbito's slammin' WKCR hip-hop roundup. Expect this

DOWN WIT'...

PATRICK "SINCERE" THOMPSON:

Though the man has just made the power move from the lean street environs of hip New York indie Wild Pitch to the corporate tower at PLG, there's no way you're gonna' see him frontin' when it comes to pushin' quality hip-hop. He runs down the real deal, stating, "Major labels need to be in touch with the street. They can't take true hip-hop artists like Kool G. Rap and Eric B. & Rakim and just go after Black and Pop radio. It won't work! Many labels throw crazy dollars into gimmicks and radio promotion, and then wonder why the acts don't sell. They need to establish a base on the street, work mom & pop retail and college radio, build word-of-mouth, and build a career in the process. Pop rap is for the moment, street acts are for a lifetime." On the strength.

WHEELS & DEALS

BY NEIL HARRIS

QUESTIONS! QUESTIONS! Is there a distribution switch in store for West Coast institution Rhino, and is Ahmet's house the likely winner?... Speaking of Atlantic, look for a major Left Coast creative appointment before the turkey drops.... Did you hear the one about A&M New York goddess Susan Henderson? Too juicy to print, even in this garbage.... Epic Records.... What's up with Capitol's Rob Gordon?... And how about Elektra ruler Howard Thompson?... Are Peter Koepke and the folks at London close to luring away a rocket scientist from another label to fill their vacant creative slot?... And who will EMI creative ruler Ron Fair score to fill his need for an ex-

Nothing that registers even a slight guffaw will be rejected!... BOARD MEETINGS: Sonic Youth are about to re-enter the studio to record their follow-up to "Goo."... INXS are in Sydney working on their next studio LP with longtime collaborator Mark Opitz.... MOVIN' ON UP: Word is the much-sought-after Subject To Change seem to be headed to a powerhouse New York institution.... Smogtown buzz funkies Whose Image have been scooped up by Qwest, and are heading into the studio pronto to record their debut.... Look for label action on La La Land combo the Tearaways, who have linked with veteran knob twiddler Tom Werman, and have a West Coast VP eager to jump in on the action.... Expect talented West Coast triple threat Ron Day to make the jump to the majors in the very near future.... BOY DID I REALLY F*K UP: A few weeks ago I boneheadedly gave Billy Deutch sole credit for the Natural Selection inking at East-West. Props must also be given to money-makin' Manhattan creative genius Toby Emerich, that's T-O-B-Y E-M-E-R-I-C-H, I said TOBY MUTHA*®@IN' EMERICH, who acted as point guard on this transaction, finessing the deal that brought the Top 5 act to the label, and East West ruler Sylvia Rhone, who came in for the slam-dunk. I want to apologize to these fine, fine people, and tell y'all that Toby "really, really loves his gig." He went on to give me a million reasons why Atlantic is the utopia we all know it is, but I'm sure you'd have more fun reading the phone book. Or Hitmakers. In the meantime, do me a favor and worship the ground Toby walks on. He truly deserves it.... THE BUZZ IS ON: Don Grierson, Emerald Forest Publishing, Eagle Eye Cherry, Paul Kremen, Marilyn Manson & the Spooky Kids, I.L.Y.K.P., Dead Surf Kiss & Surgery.

NEW ARTISTS

Gerald Levert

Title
"Private Line"

Label
Atco/EW

Lead singer of smash R&B outfit LeVert and son of legendary O'Jays vocalist Eddie Levert gets a chance to stretch out and express himself on this debut solo venture for which he co-produced and co-wrote all eleven tracks. Gerald's vocals are raw, soulful and heartfelt throughout, especially on the hooky jams of the title track, the plaintive "Just Because I'm Wrong" and the emotionally moving "Baby Hold On To Me," which features a guest vocal from his dad. His influences range from the O'Jays, of course, to Marvin Gaye, Stevie Wonder, the Isley Bros., Michael Jackson, Prince and the Doobie Bros. (!) Don't worry, though, Gerald's not about to leave LeVert. "This is just a chance for me to try a few new things," he says.

Suggested Cuts

The groove-laden "Private Line" looks like a sure thing to make the Top 40 cross.

Comments:

Guest analyst is Catskills comic Jackie Mason, who said, "Yes, but can he sing 'Hava Nagilah' and dance the Hora is what I wanna know."

Stacy Earl

Title
"Stacy Earl"

Label
RCA/RDJ

This Boston-born teenager combines a multi-octave voice with an unmistakable signature style to create ten slabs of party-hearty dance tunes penned by the likes of Glen Ballard, Siedah Garrett, Danny Sembello, Oliver Lieber, John Bettis and Andy Mendelson, among others. Brought up on a musical diet of everything from "the blues to Frank Sinatra to Billie Holiday and Motown." She's been singing for audiences she was 15, encouraged by her father, who had her singing at bat mitzvahs and weddings. After graduating high school and a brief stint in college, Stacy set her sights on a musical career, writing and recording more than 60 songs, 15 of which she co-wrote and eventually cut down to the ten best for her major label debut.

Suggested Cuts

The sprightly "Love Me All Up" is the perfect showcase for Stacy's catchy enthusiasm and a good Top 40 bet.

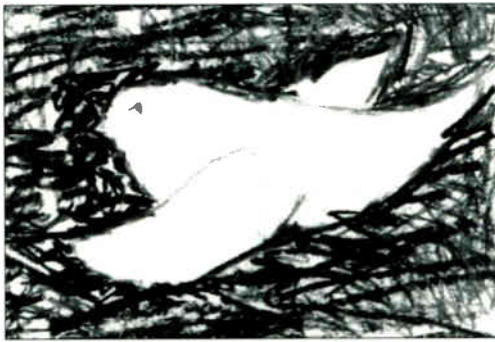

Comments:

Commented Mason: "A nice Jewish girl who sings at bat mitzvahs? She could be the next Barbra Streisand... or at least Julie Budd."

Wouldn't It Be Great If Every Holiday Card You Received Was The Same?

Once again this holiday season, the T.J. Martell Foundation and the Neil Bogart Memorial Laboratories for Leukemia, Cancer and AIDS research are fighting disease with greeting cards... and we ask for your participation.

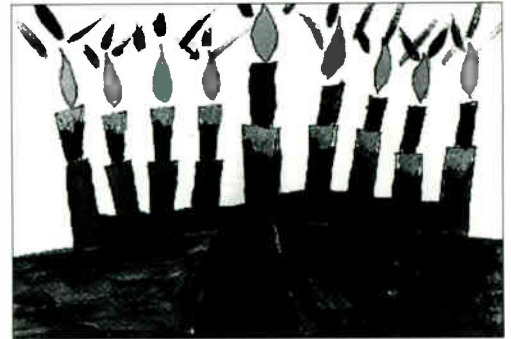

All the art for the cards was done by boys and girls receiving treatment at the Children's Hospital in Los Angeles and they truly capture the spirit of the season. These kids deserve our support.

BREAKOUTS

Hot new or resurging albums as reported by the nation's leading record merchandisers

While radio continues to complain about rap music, retail just continues to sell, sell, sell the music. This week's top three winners are all street-talkin' their way to the cash registers. Video giant Hammer edges movie star Ice Cube to take top honors, but both are flying out of the stores. Big Daddy Kane takes the third slot, just ahead of Paul McCartney's "Russian" album. But keep an eye on the "New York Rock & Soul Revue," featuring the mysterious Donald Fagen.

RERAP

By Mitch Perless

NARM announced that "Go For The Gold" is the theme for their 34th Annual Convention, which is scheduled to take place March 13-16, 1992 in New Orleans. The organization, which made a statement in the past by taking their wholesale conference out of Arizona during the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day fiasco, should definitely start looking for another venue if David Duke wins the election on the 16th. While NARM officials state that it may be too late to move the convention, there are strong indications that many labels and retailers would not attend if Duke wins... Wherehouse maven Jim Dobbe really enjoyed the recent Curtis Stigers showcase at the Roxy. "He's absolutely great live. It was the one of the best shows I've seen in a long time." Heavy praise, indeed from Jimbo... Congrats to Music Plus Director of Store Operations Rochelle Seidman on her recent engagement to Scotty Palmquist... Ya wouldn't know that local LA record chains were in the music biz by the five ads that appeared in the L.A. Times Calendar section last Friday, as only The Wherehouse advertised music. Big price wars on the

"Robin Hood" and "Fantasia" videos, both of which "exploded" at Transworld according to spokesman Dave Roy... One local chain advertised Hammer at $7.99/$12.99 the weekend before the product arrived, drawing the wrath of one national maven at CEMA. He feels that, because of the strength of the product, they would have sold just as many units out of the box at either their regular ticket price or a higher sale price, thereby allowing them to make a profit on the title. They could then use the heavy advertising to bring people into the stores after the initial rush. A spokesperson for the chain said that they chose the lower price "because we were the first to advertise, we didn't want to be perceived by the consumer as a high priced store."... Great party on the A&M lot last week for Perspective's Sounds of Blackness. The A-list was out in force to hear Terry Lewis and Jimmy Jam's first signing, including Sinbad and the rest of the "Different World" cast. Retailers in attendance included Tower's Dave Morteze, Manny Moreno, and Leslee Painter, as well as Violet Brown and David Mitchell of The Wherehouse. Abbey Road's George Hunter and Lisa Jones headed up the one-stops in attendance and urban retailers Royce Fortune of Fortune Records, Robert Johnson of Delicious, Crains Steve Crains, V.I.P.'s Alvin Buckhalter, and Record Retreat's Connie Fomalont all witnessed a great performance by the group. PGD's Mark Grindle, Betty Logan, and Bill Follette schmoozed with the retailers, as did A&M's Bill Gilbert, Nick Stern and Mike Regan.

Four out of our five debuts are Rap, highest one being Ice Cube at #5, just beating out Hammer at #6 with Big Daddy Kane coming in at #43 and the House Party II soundtrack making a mark at #50. With new single & tour, Paula Abdul jumps back in at #48. Nirvana goes to #4 and the Elton John tribute "Two Rooms" makes a nice jump from #25 to #17. Jodeci climbs to #23, with a #1 JAMS single crossing. PM Dawn is at #42 and continues to climb.

Virgin

WAVELENGTH

by Lenny Beer & Mike Murphy

New surveying estimates from Arbitron will be effecting the results of the current monthly ratings beginning to trickle out. What it will mean can only be evaluated after all the numbers are in. In LA, new weightings seem to have hurt KKBT, which drops sharply 4.9-3.8. KIIS' upward growth continues 5.2-5.7, causing Bill Richards smile to approach the width of his shoulders. KPWR' s new positioning and aggressive marketing blitz (as well as a Hispanic weighting increase from 29.9% to 33.2%) is probably helping already 3.5-3.7..... Howard Stern began to kick-in in LA with a jump from 1.8-2.2 at KLSX, while he finished #1 in NY at WXRK with a 7.8..... Other NY numbers: HOT97 4.2-4.6, Z100 steady at 3.8 and MOJO up 2.3-2.5. Also of interest, Ron Parker auditioning on air at Z100 and WEGX Philly..... At Z90 in San Diego, Monroe Greer is no longer MD..... This week's Top 40 format evacuee is WRQN Toledo, who jumps on the Oldies bandwagon. PD JJ Riley and MD Ken Benson are both under contract and are in the process of forging a settlement agreement.... Two key subjects at radio were the Michael & Jermaine leaks and controversy and the question of which Hammer cut is doing what and which one Capitol is promoting. On the Jackson front: Michael's record leaked first at MOJO in NY, was then serviced in the city. Then it leaked in LA at POWER and was serviced around town. HOT in NY also leaked the Jermaine cut in which he takes shots at Michael, playing the two back to back. Arista then chose to respond to radio's demand for the cut by servicing those asking for it. At presstime, label officials were considering sending out the cut everywhere. On the Hammer front, label officials are responding to the tremendous request burst at radio caused by the massive video exposure of "2 Legit 2 Quit" (which precipitated adds at KIIS, WPGC and PWR96 and a debut on our Requests chart at #18) by re-committing themselves to this cut. "Addams Groove" is still available for play..... Congrats to Island's Dave Darus and wife Terri on the birth of Sarah Elizabeth, 11/4, and to PLG's Joe Ric- citelli and Atlantic's Lisa Velasquez on their promotions..... Blowin' In The Wind: Phil West and Mark Feather..... Here's "El Bandido", Scott Shannon, taking another leak in the Big Apple.

"A great up-tempo, feel-good kind of record I can play all day. Top 15 phones already!"
