DE FOREST CROSLEY

IS THE LOGICAL RADIO
FOR YOUR HOME

Because

1. More people are buying De Forest Crosley than any other radio. There are over a quarter of a million enthusiastic Canadian owners to confirm your judgment in selecting a De Forest Crosley radio.

2. Large scale production has meant increased specialization and standardization. The resultant economies have reduced De Forest Crosley prices to record low levels.

3. A wide range of new radio and radio phonograph models to choose from — offering Canada's greatest radio values in their respective price fields.

4. Precision methods and rigid tests are applied to every detail in manufacturing to ensure a quality product that will give permanent satisfaction.

TO DEEPEST BASS

5. When you buy De Forest Crosley you are buying a 100% Canadian radio built to meet Canadian broadcasting conditions and using Canadian labour, capital and materials.

Dale Wimbrow, "The Mississippi Minstrel," whose "Down South" voice and intimate way has won great response over CBS.

Above—Dainty Helen Nugent, whose contralto voice has been heard on various Columbia programmes.

"Down by the Old Mill Stream" — you've heard it — with Nelson Hatch handling the baton for the Old Mill music from CFRB.

Right—Kate Smith, Columbia's crooner, and answer to Amos 'n' Andy. She's as full of fun as she is big.

Right—
Ted Husing of Columbia, is just as much at home broadcasting marble competitions as he is when handling the reports of world series or important rugby tilts.

Oh! Oh! Here they are!
Amos and Andy and their good friend, Bill Hay.
You already know them.

Moonshine and Honeysuckle, heard over CKGW every Sunday afternoon in real stories of Southern Mountain life.

You just can't be blue when
Little Jack Little
(above) radiates
his bright songs.

217 words a minute! That's talk-
is their source, with his tales of adventure.

The latest aspirant to the crown of King of Crooners is Russ Columbo, a product of the Pacific Coast. His nightly broadcasts over an NBC-WJZ network are rapidly gaining widespread popularity.

Jack Miner, Canada's famed bird man, who broadcasts his intensely interesting story over a chain of stations from Halifax to Winnipeg.

Left—A striking view of the wild fowl which annually take refuge at the Miner Sanctuary, near Kingsville, Ont.

George and Blossom, who are heard in a comedy sketch each week-night from CFRB. In real life they are Dr. and Mrs. Frank Carlton.

Jesse Crawford, the poet of the organ, whose broadcasts from the Paramount Theatre, New York, are heard over Columbia network and CFRB.

Kathleen Stokes, the popular Canadian organist, who is shown at the keyboard of the Imperial Theatre organ, and who is heard regularly over CFRB.

Lower Centre—Wes McKnight, the popular young announcer of CFRB, Toronto.

Below—Guy Lombardo's Royal Canadians, (Guy, Carwin, Lebert and Victor) four brothers from Canada heard several times weekly over Columbia network and CFRB.

Mary Miles, Radio's Charming Personality. A favorite over C.K.C.L. Toronto, Ont.

Maurice Rapkin, Chief Announcer at C.K.C.L. who has gained great popularity with Canadian fans, and as co-writer with Jimmie Kay of the Famous "Goofies," wherein Mr. Rapkin portrays the Master of Ceremonies, "Dr. I. M. Brainless."

Edith Meiser—popular radio artist—who appears in the Sherlock Holmes mystery play, Thursday nights, over N.B.C.

Gamble Brothers, known as the "Pep and Harmony Boys," who delight C.K.C.L.'s listeners.

"The Gloom-Chasers," whose sudden rise to fame over the N.B.C. is well deserved.

The Wizard Pianist, "Archie Cunningham," whose fan-mail over C.K.C.L. runs in the thousands per week. "Nuff-sed."

Rev. David A. MacLennan, Minister of Emmanuel Church, Montreal

Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon, DD., minister of Erskine Church, Montreal

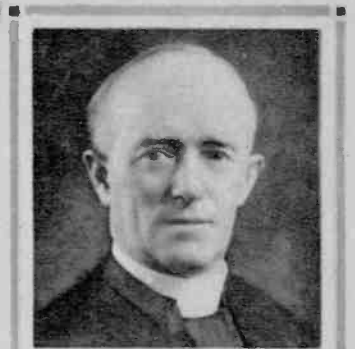

The broadcasting of Church Services featured by CHYC, the Montreal Station of the Northern Electric Company, Limited.

Rev. G. H. Donald, DD.M.A. (Edinburgh) pastor of the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul.

J. Stuart Richardson, announcer of CHYC, Montreal.

Canon Allan P. Shatford, DD., O.B.E., rector of St. James the Apostle.

Rev. M. J. Clark, DD., pastor of St. Andrew Church, Westmount, Que.

The Broadcasting of Church Services a C.H.Y.C. Feature

C.H.Y.C., the pioneer 500 watt station, signed off in July, 1928, not expecting to resume operations, but the demand for the broadcasting of church services each Sunday was so great that a petition for the resumption of this service was drawn up and presented to the President of the Company. At the same time a movement was on foot for the organized broadcasting from a number of the city churches under the direction of a Central Broadcasting Committee. The result was that C.H.Y.C. returned to the air on 5,000 watts, 100% modulated, broadcasting in turn the Sunday morning and evening services of eight of the leading Montreal Protestant churches of various denominations, with some added features from time to time as announced.

Rev. Carlisle, DD., D.C.L., dean and rector of Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal.

Rev. Lloyd C. Douglas, DD., pastor of St. James United Church, Montreal

Rev. Kenneth M. Munro, minister of the American Presbyterian Church
