92 Stations

Low Power Radio was added to the market mix by the FCC several years ago. While we do not track these stations the same way as the other stations found in this directory, we did think it might helpful and/or interesting to some to at least show basic information about this class of stations. Let us know what you think or what might be more helpful.

THE M STREET JOURNAL

Industry news summarized in an easy-to-read weekly fax newsletter format. This publication reports the news of radio stations in the U.S. and Canada with expert analysis. www.MStreetJournal.com reports each day every change in format and network, call letters, LMA, ownership and station facilities, new frequency allocations, translators, construction permit activity, station applications, grants, FCC regulatory news and headlines. An online version is available via PDF on the website.

CUSTOM MAILING LISTS & LABELS, AND FAX LISTS....Available Now ONLINE @ www.RadioTVData.com.

Updated daily, we customize our services to meet the needs of our clients. You can license the database, giving you access to more than 100 pieces of up-to-the-minute information on every station in the U.S. and Canada, and receive it as often as you need it with built-in flexibility that allows you to easily tailor reports to fit your needs or link to your own station information. If you need a station list one-time only, we can sort or pull data in list form or printed on mailing labels by: format, market, and more. BROADCAST FAXING for your list is also available...

THE M STREET RADIO DIRECTORY

The most complete resource for Radio addresses, phone numbers, personnel, format listing, facilities, ownership (current and pending), markets, Arbitron ratings and M Street rankings for more than 15,000 stations and nearly 400 radio markets across the U.S. and Canada. This is the industry bible! Easy to read alphabetical listings by state with frequency, market, call sign, and past call sign indexes.
