Changes Effective November 11, 1928

Keep Posted on World Progress in Radio!

FOR a full enjoyment of your radio equipment follow the ever changing events of the broadcasting world in the daily and Sunday radio pages of The Milwaukee Journal.

Innovations in radio construction—pictures of your favorite entertainers—last minute news of stations and artists—advice on the efficient operation of your set—many other exclusive and novel features are provided you by "BCL" in The Journal alone, together with intimate sketches of radio life and personalities at WTMJ, The Milwaukee Journal station.

N.B.C. Network Programs Daily and Sunday

The most important features for the entire week are listed in the complete chain station programs every Sunday in The Milwaukee Journal radio section. Unusual network broadcasts are also announced for your convenience in the daily radio pages of The Journal. No other newspaper provides you with such attractive radio features and so timely a review of important radio developments.

For Unfailing Enjoyment Tune in WTMJ

SPARE yourself dubious twisting of the dial and make every moment of your radio entertainment thoroughly enjoyable by first—and regularly—tuning in on WTMJ, The Milwaukee Journal station. Beginning with the morning broadcast of news—through a day crowded with novel features—until the last strains of dance music fade away at midnight—WTMJ provides varied programs for listeners of all ages and tastes.

Features for All:

The twenty-five separate daily broadcasts—timed to suit the convenience of their audiences—include attractions for all. The Journal Housewife at 11:00 in the morning, The Farm News at noon, Secretary Hawkins at 5:30—these are only a few of the special features that supplement the network programs of world famous artists and organizations, broadcast only by The Journal station in Wisconsin. The many local programs broadcast by WTMJ round out a full day of radio entertainment equaled by no other station for Wisconsin listeners.

★ (Hear the Milwaukee Turnverein little symphony concerts. Tune in WTMJ every Sunday at 3:00 p. m.) ★

Unexcelled Equipment!

A giant power transmitter located twelve miles from Milwaukee, two modern broadcasting studios in The Milwaukee Journal building in addition to the thirteen remote control hook-ups maintained—these are but part of the up-to-date equipment assuring WTMJ listeners unusually clear reception.

Wherever events of interest to Milwaukee and Wisconsin radio listeners occur, there you'll see a WTMJ microphone. Broadcasts of sport contests, concerts and all other unusual or outstanding occurrences are always available on the WTMJ wave length. Tune in The Milwaukee Journal station regularly!
