If it is WORTH LISTENING to
it is WORTH APPLAUDING

Snap! goes the switch . . . the tubes glow . . . one degree more and you tune in . . . and as the golden notes fill the room with "linked sweetness long drawn out" you sit back at ease and let your soul delight. The artist ceases . . . Twirl!—and you are on the next setting . . . the artist forgotten. Is it ungratefulness or just a careless habit?—this indifference to the artist's longing for a word of praise; this failure to help the stations build better programs? Isn't it just forgetfulness?

Only by TELEGRAPH can you place your written comments IMMEDIATELY
in the artist's hands

Praise that cools for days in the mails, or that reaches the artist second hand, lacks inspiring freshness. How different the telegram is! You lift your telephone receiver . . . ask for the Western Union Office . . . dictate your warmest praise . . . and in a few minutes the little yellow blank is in the artist's hands in the same city or a thousand miles away. That's speed . . . that's modern . . . that's the easy way to meet the unwritten obligation.

TELEGRAPH COMPANY

NOTE: It is obviously impossible to print in this small folder a complete list of broadcasting stations. To the best of our knowledge the following list was correct on October 30, 1925.
