RADIO GUIDE

= 50 (volle Schirmbreite) Times

This first Basic Report also introduces our weekly Radio Guide which is meant to help you with the programming of your show! The hottest new addition on European Radio this week is David Bowie's Blue Jean, over 75% of our reporting stations have put it on heavy rotation. This will be a major hit and comes straight in at nr.5 on the European Airplay Top 50 this week. Watch out for his new album Tonight (due to be released end of September, recorded in Canada, it features nine new tracks and three cover versions). Special attention should be given to the Euro successes of Giorgio Moroder: not only is his own single Reach Out nr.1 in Germany for the third consecutive week but he also produced Limahl's Never Ending Story (at nr.10 Germany) and Diana Ross' latest single Touch By Touch. If that was not enough he is also the masterbrain behind the successful movie and soundtrack Metropolis featuring Freddie Mercury, Bonnie Tyler and Jon Anderson, enough Moroder productions to give you material for a radio special!?! Talking about movies, have you seen Purple Rain by his Royal Highness Prince? This film, which has broken all records in the USA has just opened in most European countries and gives you the opportunity to start playing the follow-up single Let's Go Crazy. The first hit from the album, When Doves Cry was the best sold single ever in the history of Warner Brothers!! This single was nr.5 on the European Top 100 without the film backing. Now that the movie is here, Let's all Go Crazy! The whole Prince entourage is getting lots of attention in the media with Sheila E, Apollonia 6 (Former Vanity 6) and The Time. Prince is own his way to become the next 'phenomenon' after Michael Jackson.

UP & COMING

Remember all those 'summer holidays hits' each year? In 1984 it seems quiet from the Southern European front with only one possible hit reaching big chart placings in the rest of Europe. Sandy Marton may be the winner with People From Ibiza. Other records produced in Europe with cross-over potential include Alex Conti's Under Arrest (origin Germany), Dolly Dots with Trick Of The Eye (Both Holland) and Laurent Voulzy & Veronique Jannot with the beautiful Desir Desir (France). In England the follow-up to Bronski Beat's Smalltown Boy, Why is getting big airplay and should chart high next week. Many of you suggested Home By The Sea as one of the strongest single candidates from the latest Genesis album. We all had to wait some time, but here it comes. The single is released this week in Central Europe so this is your chance to prove your point! This follows immediately on the heels of the Phil Collins Megahit Against All Odds. Beautiful tunes do not need Big productions. There is a definite radio trend for easy sounding good melodies with the last Stevie Wonder and George Michael singles presently holding the 2 top slots on our Airplay Top 50 and our Pop Route. Although sophisticated productions, they mark a departure from the lush full production sounds dominating the charts for so long. More hits in this vein include Lionel Richie's Hello, Dolly Parton with You Are and the duets of Julio with Diana and Willie.
