RADIO GUIDE

Watch out! French chart ratings have been updated, and with the new 'Nielsen chart' (Europe 1, Canal Plus, Tele7jours), we are able to give you a more accurate picture of France. This change is reflected in the singles chart. We are now combining the new chart with the various other lists (rack-jobbers; radios) and can thereby include more singles from the French market giving it equal chances to the other major European markets UK and Germany. You will therefore find an extra number of re-entries in the European Top 100 Singles. (Queen, Mike Oldfield, Wham!, Art Company). In the Tip Lists on this page we now print 2 titles for some artists. This is the case for the Everly Brothers, Alison Moyet, The Cars and Fox The Fox. We do so because for those artists different singles are active in the respective European countries. Enough movement this week in the European singles chart. Billy Ocean moved into the Top 10, due to France, Boney M.'s version of Kalimba De Luna makes a jump from 30 to 11 this week, and Private Dancer continues its move to the top. For the fifth week charted it now moves up to no. 12 (striking to see that the other Tina Turner single What's Love also moves up again this week due to high entries in France); in 3 weeks time the Eurythmics are up to no. 31, leaving no doubt that they will automatically reach an even better position in the European charts as other countries will follow. And again the 'slow' market of France is responsible for the fact that Big In Japan, Alphaville's first ever single is moving up again this week; the same goes for When Doves Cry and surprisingly Agadoo, the former UK no. 1 by the group Black Lace is now making chart impact in France as well.

NEW ENTRIES IN EUROPE

New entries this week as expected, for Madonna, Shakin' Stevens, Pat Benatar and Kool & The Gang. Frankie's The Power Of Love is this week European Hot Radio Add. And for something softer, the Everly Brothers are following an erratic path through the German charts: two weeks ago their Nightingale single entered, then dropped out the week after only to make a re-entry at no. 50 this week. For the Benelux there is already a new single called The Story Of Me. Some of our earlier reports did not show too much enthusiasm from European Radio for Duran's Wild Boys, but this single is moving up to no. 4 in the European Top 100 this week (in spite of the fact that it did not reach an expected no. 1 in the UK). It made an enormous jump in the German chart. No doubt their live album Arena will reach very high sales across Europe before the end of the year. We should not blame the French for always having such a slow market, because they were the forerunners in choosing Still Loving You from German rock band The Scorpions as favourite track for pop programming; the single reached no. 1 for several weeks in France and only recently the rest of Europe (notably Germany and Holland) had discovered the impact of this great ballad.

WE LOVE ALISON

We are glad with the new single release of Alison Moyet Invisible. This Lamont Dozier penned song is the most commercial tune from the album. With already a lot of tips coming from our English correspondents, we expect this single to be huge! Last week we pointed to the new Shalamar single and this week one of our Page 1 Sure Hits is Jody (Wattley), the gorgeous ex-singer of Shalamar who goes her own way with a single called Where The Boys Are. The other Shalamar member Jeffrey Daniel who joined the successful Andrew Lloyd Webber Musical Starlight Express as the dancing robot seems to have left this production already. A large share of the success that Shalamar had in 1982 (3 successive hit singles in one row), was due to Jeffrey's impact on tv. Already in 1982 he demonstrated for the European Television audiences his magnificent body popping technique. We are tipping it already for a few weeks: The Honeydrippers version of the Phil Phillips song Sea Of Love and mainly thanks to the UK it starts to get the well deserved attention, although a chart entry has still to come. There are not too many contenders for the Euro-Crossover list this week. Peter & Siobhan's single Besoin De Rien Is Europe's biggest national seller with one million copies sold, but most probably not suitable for Crossover. Tullio De Piscopo (Italy), which we tipped already weeks ago, finally makes an impact outside its own market with an entry in Germany. Other newcomers include Gazebo and Scotch, both from Italy.

TURNTABLE TIPS

Jennifer Rush - Jennifer Rush- CBS
The American born Jennifer Rush is one of those Euro-artists deserving to break outside her home market Germany. She has a definite strong and rough voice and her material varies from mainstream US rock to mid tempo AOR material. Best tracks: Madonna's Eyes, Ring Of Ice and Nobody Move.

Philip Bailey - Chinese Wall- CBS
For his 2nd album, ex- E.W.F. singer Philip Bailey lines up with producer Phil Collins, resulting in a sound that is suitable for all types of programming. Easy Lover, the duet with Phil Collins, is the obvious single and I Go Crazy and Time Is A Woman are further strong hit tracks.

Toto - Isolation- CBS
After 2 1/2 years Toto comes up with a new singer (Fergie Frederiksen) and an album that is far more rockier than their last one. They still possess that specific feel for straight rock combined with outstanding musicianship shining brilliantly in tracks like Endless, Carmen and Angel.

Bryan Adams - Reckless- A&M
With his 3rd album, Adams kicks off even harder than his (in the US) so successful Cuts Like A Knife album. His 'heavy metal pop' sound is best exemplified in tracks like Summer '69, Kids Wanna Rock, (the Tina Turner duet) It's Only Love and Ain't Gonna Cry.

John Waite - No Brakes- EMI America
Ex Babysinger John Waite delivers a very remarkable rock album. Side one is hard, rocky and full of power containing highlights in Euroshima and Dreamtime/Shake It Up. Side two continues this guitar orientated rock though containing some softer spots as well (Missing You, Restless Heart).

Duran Duran - Arena- Parlophone
No doubt that Duran Duran's loyal following will pick up on this new live album. Their best-known tunes are included (Hungry Like A Wolf, Union Of The Snake) plus the studio version of The Wild Boys and it is striking that the sound is more rock orientated than one might expect.

Pat Benatar - Tropico- Chrysalis
Although We Belong is a logical follow-up to Love Is A Battlefield, the rest of the album sees Benatar in a more softer and sophisticated direction. The production is excellent and we recommend tracks like Painted Desert and Love In The Ice Age as very suitable candidates for the Pop Route.

Paul McCartney - Give My Regards To Broadstreet- Parlophone
Apart from the latest single No More Lonely Nights, this 'soundtrack to the film' album contains two new tracks only. Paul gives his charming vaudevillian spirit to old Lennon & McCartney and to some of his own songs.

Meat Loaf - Bad Attitude- Arista
Though it will be hard to beat the chart impact the Bat Out Of Hell album made (more than 300 weeks in the English charts) 'mighty meaty' sure has a good album to re-establish his career. Recommended tracks: Bad Attitude, Cheatin' In Your Dreams and Sailor To A Siren.
