RADIO GUIDE

This is the first time that we find a Greek record in our Euro-Crossover list. Although the name of the artist is very hard to pronounce, 'Charitodiplomenos', the title of his song Lost In The Night makes more sense to us. A catchy song with a European sound that deserves to be heard and has good chances (if released!) in Germany, Austria, Switzerland and the Benelux. Also new and ready for Crossover is the second single for the Italian band Scotch, who scored very high in Germany last year with Disco Band. No doubt that their new song Delirio Mind will be welcomed by those who had too much drinks the last few days during the German carnival festivities. We love the new Fox The Fox single Stealing My Heart Away, it is a very good follow up to their last hit (and currently still a hit in France) Precious Little Diamond. It is time they do make some more impact in the UK!
Mick Jagger continues to be Europe's hottest artist, with his album She's The Boss about to be released this week and already receiving lots of tips, Just Another Night safely holds the number 2 spot in the Airplay Top 50. Especially the title track of this remarkably good album is very hilarious in lyrical contents and deserves to be heard. But more about that next week...
Madonna's follow-up to Like A Virgin, Material Girl is already record of the week on various major European stations and will be added to the European Airplay Top 50 very soon. The video shows a spoiled little girl acting as a new Marilyn Monroe (reminds us of MM's Diamonds Are A Girl's Best Friend). We never thought that Killing Joke's Love Like Blood would be picked up so fast by the Continent. It is a heavy guitar-dominated track and not a very logical choice for MOR programming. Jenny Burton's disco track Bad Habits is one of our sure hits this week and we reported earlier on this strong track in our radio guide. Virgin act Dark City has a nice disco single out called False Alarm and especially the 12" with its extensive percussive overdubs is worthwhile to check.

SMOOTH SOUNDING SINGLE

MCA act New Edition are added this week to the bottom of the European Airplay with their single from the Beverly Hills Cop Soundtrack; Mr. Telephone Man. No doubt this smooth sounding single will continue to be picked up by other European stations in the near future. Another artist contributing to Beverly Hills Cop is Junior, called by the Americans 'The Crown Prince of British Funk' (in the US he sold more than 1 million copies with Mama Used To Say). His single Do You Really is new on London Records and one of our Sure Hits of this week. Change Your Mind by Sharpe & Numan is another Hot Radio Add this week. Contrary to what most people think this is not a cover of the Raffaele Riefoli's (alias Raf) version but a collaboration between Bill Sharpe (of Shakatak fame) and Gary Numan. Highest new entry in the European Top 100 Albums are the Talking Heads with the live album Stop Making Sense. And although this album is out for already many weeks, due to the good ratings of the film the album is now charted in the UK, Germany, Holland and Switzerland. Van Morrison's ode to the literary legends of our times, A Sense Of Wonder is this week's fastest mover in the album charts, in 3 weeks time the album is up to 26.

GIANNISSIMA !!

UK act The Smiths have 2 albums in the Top 100 at the moment. While Hatfull Of Hollow is up to 75, their latest release Meat Is Murder is this week's second best entry. Other new entries this week include The Commodores, The Kane Gang and Gianna Nannini's live album Tutto Live ('Giannissima' !!). Jumping into the top 5 singles (from 13) this week is The Power Of Love By FGTH. This unusual big move is mainly due to a re-entry in the UK and strong showing in e.g. France. As expected Bailey, Jagger, Henley are the prime movers in the Singles Top 100, followed by Howard Jones, Al Corley (suddenly moving in France and Italy), Commodores and Modern Talking. Highest entry is for Hall & Oates' Method Of Modern Love and, as was the case with Out Of Touch, the song needs a couple of plays to make it memorable. Prince 4th single from the Purple Rain album (and his fifth released in less than 8 months if we count the rerelease 1999/Little Red Corvette as well) is new at 55; this single was always one of the more obvious single choices of the album as was proven in the US where the track did extremely well. And.. of course Pia Zadora's Let's Dance Tonight is new at 68, we were convinced that it was the right track for Germany and the Benelux.
