FLOWERS FROM AMSTERDAM

Who needs tulips when you can have Fatal Flowers! Fatal Flowers is a new band from Amsterdam. They play Beat music with lots of guitars. Their 6 track mini album was produced by Craig Leon (Ramones, Jeffrey Lee Pierce) and includes 'Crying Over Sin' and the single 'Billy'.

naive and simple but effective sound, a sound that some consider as typical for Holland; the combination of English pop and Dutch sing-a-long music. Cast in the same mould was Art Company's big success Suzanna in 1984. Other Dutch acts scoring abroad included Golden Earring (Radar Love), Spargo (You and Me), Maywood (Late At Night), ex-Kayak drummer Max Werner (Rain In May), Time Bandits (I'm Only Shooting Love, I'm

Herman Brood - Telstar
In 1979 Dutch rock 'n' roller Herman Brood caused some mediawaves (and hypes) in the US but eventually never did break.

Curtie & The Boombox - RCA
After Mai Tai and The Star Sisters another Dutch lady-group crossing the borders. The group hails from Surinam and their last single Black Kisses Never Make You Blue, after being a hit in the Benelux, even entered the Billboard Top 100 singles. Black Kisses is an excellent dance/disco tune in a fresh production by Peter Koelewijn (who scored Holland's first real rock 'n roll hit Kom Van Dat Dak Af (Get Off That Roof) way back in 1960).

Specialized In Love), the teenie band The Shorts (Comment Ca Va; a song with insipid and schoolboy-like French lyrics that, paradox oh paradox, reached number one in France!), Roberto Jaccetti & The Scooters (I Save The Day), Dolly Dots (very popular in Japan), Fox

The Fox (with the soft disco tune Precious Little Diamond) and Hard Rock band Vandenberg. Dutch rock 'n roller Herman Brood caused some mediawaves (and hypes) in the US but eventually never did broke.

Golden Earring - 21 Records

Golden Earring is undoubtedly Holland's oldest and most popular rockband. The history of the band starts in 1961 and after some changes in bandmembers, the group debuts in '65 with Please Go. In no time The Golden Earrings (they dropped the 's' in their name only in '69) attracted a dedicated group of followers and singles like That Day and Daddy Buy Me A Girl only confirmed the group's status of most popular band in Holland. Singer Barry Hay joins the group in '67 and another string of hits follows. In '68 the band makes their first no. 1 hit Dong-Dong-Di-Ki-Di-Gi-Dong. The band does their first US tour in '69 but real international acclaim comes with the smash single Radar Love, no. 1 in Holland and a big success in England and the US. In the meantime the band has developed itself from a teenie pop band into a serious rock band where not only the music but also the visual aspects of the show are gaining in importance. Their 14th album for Polydor, Grab It For A Second is produced by Stevie Nicks/Tom Petty producer Jimmy Iovine. The album Cut (their 18th) brings them renewed American success and the singles Twilight Zone and The Devil Made Me Do It get heavy coverage on American radio, supported by excellent videoclips. At the moment bandmembers George Kooymans (leadguitar/vocals) and Cesar Zuiderwijk (drums) are involved in different sideprojects with Kooymans having his own rock 'n' rollband doing occasional festival gigs and Zuiderwijk joining up with keyboardplayer Jasper van 't Hof for a project called Labyrinth.

some special mention; apart from writing the Eurohit You're In The Army Now they were also responsible for Falco's rapping tribute to Mozart, Rock Me Amadeus, currently Top 50 in Europe.

STEPPING STONE

And although Dutch product crossing the border is not always progressive and able to set the world on fire, Holland always took a unique position in Europe due to its willingness to accept new trends and styles. Many in the record-industry still see Holland as a steppingstone to Europe. The last 2 to 3 years Dutch eel-sounds seem to be replaced by a more disco-orientated approach; pleasant disco sounds enwrapped in an good solid production are Dutch latest trade-mark. Examples are Time Bandits, Fox The Fox, The Limit, Star Sisters and of course Mai Tai (see separate article on this lady-trio in issue 21 of this year).

Elisa Waut - Megadisc

And new Dutch product is about to break elsewhere, certainly worthwhile your attention. We will spotlight some of this delight and keep a close eye on those hit makers in the future with cross-over impact.

Time Bandits - CBS

Dutch most polished disco-outfit fronted by Alides Hidding. Their trademark is commercial and sophisticated productions scoring all around the world. I'm Only Shooting Love was no. 1 in New-Zealand and Top 5 in Australia, Live It Up a favourite in Billboard's Disco Dance list and other hits included I'm Specialised In You and their latest contender Endless Road. Frontman Hidding is writing songs together at the moment with MCA's Dan Hartman.

FEMALE DOMINATION

Of the five longest charting albums in the first 25 of the European Top 100 Albums, 4 are by female artists. With the exception of U2 (The Unforgettable Fire already 45 weeks in the Top 100), Madonna (37 weeks), Tina Turner (62 weeks), Sade (56 weeks) and Alison Moyet (40 weeks) this has been achieved by females alone. Apart from having the longest charted album, these same ladies also have albums that continue to sell; Like A Virgin even creeps up one notch to 5, Tina to 9 (from 11), Sade stays at 10 and Alf goes to 23 (from 24). And to continue in the same vein... the major part of the album moves this week is taken by yet 3 other women. Laura Branigan's Hold Me jumps in its 3rd week to 26 (from 39), Aretha Franklin finally gets the deserved push and Who's Zooming Who is currently at 42 (from 56) and the other female mover is Whitney Houston (in its 2nd week up to 48 and charted in Germany and Belgium). The second best entry in the European Top 100 Albums is again for a woman, the German rock singer Cosa Rosa (see for review last issue) comes in at no. 90 following the entry of Julio Iglesias (Libra) at 41. Apart from some re-entries there are only two new entries this week which is quite unusual. But when the release schedules of the major companies start in the fall, this will no doubt change. The Madonna craze is now also reflected in European Album Play. More and more album programmers get requests to play Madonna tracks and apart from Like A Virgin, Material Girl and Angel, Dress You Up (the new American single) and Stay are the definite favourites. And with the inclusion of Into The Groove on the new pressings of the Like A Virgin album, Madonna's domination on this weeks most played albums is complete. The Eurythmics are back in the Top 3 and Sting falls back 1 place. Albums of Franklin, Pointers, Bruce, Straits, Collins, Ferry and Supertramp are the other fave albums in Europe at the moment.

TURNTABLE TIPS

Colourbox - Colourbox - 4AD/Virgin

We already wrote about them last week; this band with the contagious blend of Motown, 6T's, Soul and Electro Beats. We were wrong in stating that the cover of the Supremes hit You Keep Me Hanging On was good but superfluous. Wrong, wrong again. It's so infectious one immediately wants to hear it again. And tracks like Just Giv' Em Whiskey, Arena and the single The Moon Is Blue make this one of the best albums since long.

The Motels - Shock- Capitol

The Motels fourth album continues the line of their debut in '79; hook heavy dance-edged pop with Martha Davis' warm and sensual voice taking the lead. Tracks like Shame (the first single), Cries And Whispers, Icy Red and Shock are bound for popformats. To say it rather corny, it's a 'Shame' and a 'Shock' to find out how less stations in Europe are actually playing it!

Saga - Behaviour - Polydor

Already the seventh album of this Canadian symphonic rock formation. A rather drastic change in style, the symphonic elements are replaced by a more rock oriented approach. This change in direction didn't hurt them at all, the week after its release it came in directly at no. 9 in the German charts! Best tracks: What Do I Know (watch the female harmony vocals), Here I Am and Out Of The Shadows.

Singles Guide

We expect a lot from the Swiss band Double. Their single Captain Of Her Heart is already a favourite on many Swiss and German stations and it could be yours too! A beautiful acoustic and moody track with some romantic saxophone overtones and a lingering piano part. Although the band comes from Zurich the band is signed to Metronome Germany and all the signs are positive for a next Euro-crossover smash.

Another German production good for crossover (especially the UK) is the electro-duo DAF. Goerl and Delgado are back together again for this haunting Synthesizer-based track Absolute Body Control (on the new Ariola subsidiary Dean; in the UK on Illuminated). The Swedish band Fake could do well in Europe (most likely in German and Italy) with the lively dance track (and its exalted vocals!) Brick. The original label is DID in Italy and the successful Indie Zyx has picked up the rights for Germany. The Star Sisters deserve our last crossover tip. He's The 1 is another probably successful release of the Dutch Indie CNR (see for details page 8). Madonna's Groove is this week back to no. 1 in the European Airplay Top 50 due to a major amount of FM stations in France adding it to their playlists and continued airplay in the UK, Germany, Benelux and Northern Europe. But the difference with Baltimora is only very small; following the big move in the English chart this week (5-11!), airplay rose considerably on the English stations and together with the support of the other main European markets Tarzan Boy is this week 2nd best played single in Europe.

ST. ELMO

Bowie & Jagger shoot up to no. 6 (from 26) and 3 more records are new in the Top 10; Cherish, Power Of Love and Love Is The Seventh Wave.

Not so many new airplay entries this week apart from John Parr's theme to St. Elmo's Fire (due to heavy airplay in Germany), Princess (with the disco-dance song Say I'm Your Number One and yet another dance record by D-Train

(You're The One For Me).

Watch out for the long awaited Stevie Wonder single entitled Part Time Lover. Already added to a lot of European stations, no doubt the single will be Hot Radio Add next week. With the Supertramp single Cannonball still getting heavy airplay in France, A&M released their follow-up entitled Better Days.

STUTTERING

Other new singles for Scritti Politti, Hipsway (great record!), China Crisis and the Bruce Springsteen sound-a-like John Cafferty with the stuttering C-I-T-Y. Although many accuse him of plagiarism, his heavy and Big City rock sounds do make impact on us. The highest entry of the European Top 100 Singles this week is Thompson Twins' Anti-Heroine Campaign song Don't Mess With Doctor Dream, new at 60; the single is new in England but will undoubtedly get a strong push the coming 2 weeks. Other entries for Madness, Bonny Tyler (with the re-released Holding Out For A Hero, from the Metropolis soundtrack), Laura Branigan, French singer Jean-Jacques Lafon

- Highlights -

UNITED KINGDOM

Surprise, surprise, Madonna's Groove is beaten by Kate Bush's Hill as best played single in the UK. And following the major move in the English charts last week of Baltimora, Tarzan Boy is this week's 4th best played single.

Other additions to the 30 best played are the Bowie & Jagger duet, D-Train and Phil Collins (Take Me Home). Groove is back to no. 2 in the Gallup charts; UB40 takes the no. 1 spot. Strong moves for Baltimora (no. 5 in its 3rd week!; from 11), Princess (7-10), King (9-13), Marc Almond (23-34), Mai Tai's Body And Soul, the re-released I Can Dream About You from Dan Hartman and Amii Stewart.

Major entries for Thompson Twins (22), Madness (30), Bonny Tyler's Holding Out For Hero (the UK loves them: yet another re-release; from Giorgio Moroder's Metropolis soundtrack) and Bryan Ferry with Don't Stop The Dance.

GERMANY

The most added single this week on German radio is Huey Lewis's The Power Of Love, in 2 weeks time already the 5th best played single in Germany. Tina still remains the favourite single on the German airwaves followed by Two Of Us, Falco and Eurythmics. Apart from Huey Lewis also strong increase in airplay for Kate Bush, Marillion (Kayleigh; in the UK their follow up Lavender is just been released), Sandra and new this week is John Parr's St. Elmo's Fire currently no. 2 in the US and it looks like becoming Parr's first European hit.

Another fave on the German airwaves is the single of the Swiss band Double, the beautiful and moody track The Captain Of Her Heart (Metronome). Saleswise, the situation remains nearly the same with Tina on top, followed by Sandra and Madonna. Cherish moves into the top 10 as does the local band Blaeck Foeeess (watch the spelling). Speaking about local productions, a lot of German productions make significant moves in the German Top 75; Purple Schultz, Klaus & Klasu, Blind Date, Leinemann (Toot Toot cover), Max-Him and Nicki all belong to Germany's fast movers and are all sung (with the exception of Max-Him and Blind Date) in the native language. Major entries for Lee Majors (Unknown Stuntman), Roger Whithaker, Rick Springfield (State Of The Heart;

Celebrate Youth is also charted at 24) and Dutch band George Baker (Santa Lucia).

SWITZERLAND

The original version of My Toot Toot by Rockin' Sidney still beats LaSalle's version; the former is Top 10 while the latter is currently at 16. Compared to last week the Swiss Top 10 shows hardly any change with Tina still on top followed by Bad Boys Blue, Round One and Falco. Huey Lewis is new at 15 just as Jeff Beck (People), Bruce (Glory) and Matterhorn Project (Yo-Lollo-Diuh, a yodel song with synthesizer backing). It looks like Opus re-enters the Swiss charts with Live and other bubblers are Depeche Mode (Disease), Sandra, Miama Sound Machine (Conga) and Valerie Dore (It's So Easy).

AUSTRIA

As the only country in Europe Austria is fond of Kim Carnes's Crazy In The Night. It is best played single and entered the Austrian Top 30 last week at 26. Other good airplay for local artist Alex Coibel with the track Siffiphus, Eurythmics, Baltimora, Bruce (Glory) and Duran.

Saleswise, Bad Boys Blue are moving up to no. 1 this week (from 5) and other fast movers for Baltimora (2 - 7), Denise LaSalle (3 - 6), Tina (5 - 19) and new entries for the local artists Sigi Maron on Ariola with his Geh No Net Furt, Joesei Prokopetz (Na Guat Daunn Net on Gig) and Atlantis with Halt Mi Fest on Tirolis.

FRANCE

The Radio Peripheriques, the AM stations, all have added Tarzan Boy last week and the single is therefore the fifth best played single on AM. Other new additions for Jeanne Mas (Coeur En Stereo), French rockband Indochine (Canary Bay) and Ethiopie, the charity single from Chanteurs Sans Frontieres. It is France's second band aid project and this one is exceeding the sales of the earlier single for Ethiopie, Tam Tam Pour Ethiopie. For details see Radio Guide issue no. 13.

The major addition on the FM stations is Madonna's Into The Groove. This makes France together with Italy and Spain as the last markets in Europe picking up on the Madonna mania. Increases in airplay this week also for Supertramp (Cannonball), Matt

Bianco's More Than I Can Bear and Alphaville's Forever Young.

BENELUX

19 records are charted in the 2 Benelux markets with 2 Dutch productions (Benny Neyman and Andre Hazes), one Belgian (the Bond theme What's Your Name by Zinno) and the rest either international or Continental European productions. Tarzan Boy is still best sold single in the Benelux followed by Madonna, Tina, Faltermeyer and again Benny Neyman.

In Holland Kate Bush is one of the fastest movers this week, a record not yet charted in Belgium. New entries in Holland for Bowie & Jagger, the re-released Heaven Must Be Missing An Angel by Tavares, Springsteen (Glory) and finally in the lower parts Matt Bianco with the definite sleeper of the year More Than I Can Bear.

NORTHERN EUROPE

Treating the four separate Scandinavian markets as one territory Paul Hardcastle is charted in all four, just as Duran Duran and Opus. Singles like the US charity single, Don't You and Modern Talking's You're My Heart still fare well Up North.

In Sweden Duran Duran is currently at no. 1 (from 4), and the biggest mover is Eurythmics jumping up from 12 to 3. New entries include Tina Turner, Madonna and Sandra. Europroduct is represented by Opus, the Italian band Scotch with Delirio Mind and the Romanian born (but living in Germany) Michael Cretu (Samurai moving up to 10 from 17).

Apart from the international acts like Modern Talking, Duran Duran, Madonna and Springsteen, a lot of local products can be found in the charts of Finland. Finnish popbands Eppu Normaali is best selling single in Finland at the moment; Kitara, Taifas Ja Tahdet jumps from 24 straight to no. 1. (on Poko). This same label appears no less than 8 times in the Finnish charts as supplied by Suosikki. Further strong upwards movement for Opus, Hardcastle and Finnish group Popedu.

FIGHTING FOR THE DUTCH DELIGHT!

Over the years popular music has always been a delight to the ears of the Dutch young audiences. There is no doubt that Dutch country was the first Continental European market to accept Anglo-American popmusic with open arms and Holland became a 'gateway to Europe'. Many international industry experts claim Holland has lost this position due to a shrinking market, the diminishing of the offshore pirate stations and last but not least the waking up of pop media in surrounding countries. In the past, singles could be hits in Holland for many weeks before starting to make waves in the German speaking markets but this has drastically changed. Mainly because German radio has more progressive playlists as well as video shows.

MEDIA BOYCOT

For its own productions Dutch popacts always had to make a basic decision with regards to choosing a language. Although many artists selected English (already taught on Dutch schools at a very young age) and hoped to conquer the world, others stayed loyal to their own language which incidentally results in bigger sales once you have entered the hitparade. Today there still is a discussion and a regular controversy on the use of Dutch language productions on radio and television. The main pop programs tempted to favour the Anglo-American sound, amidst major protests from the Dutch vocalists and producers. So Dutch groups singing in English have an easier task reaching radio and an added bonus of the possible international hit.

COME BACK

During the last few years the Dutch are trying to make a come back. Pirate stations are trying to beat the very complexed Dutch programming laws; music video channels Music Box and Sky Channel have their biggest European markets in Holland; Dutch musicians are trying to find new ways of mixing the authentic Dutch sound with an international acceptable quality and there are a number of independent labels trying to beat the odds. With total Dutch turnover going down for many years the major record companies are investing a lesser part of their budgets in Dutch productions, leaving room for companies specializing in this field.

CNR & BONI RECORDS

CNR has been and still is without any doubt the most successful independent company producing Dutch hits. Inspired by ex-radio hero Willem van Kooten the company this year again enjoys tremendous successes, not only with Dutch singing artists like Benny Neyman (presently holding number 1 position) but also producing Dutch sounds with crossover potential such as The Star Sisters (see separate section), Mai Tai, Roberto Jaccetti & The Scooters and George Baker Selection.

Another successful, although smaller independent, is Boni Records specializing in disco/dance products. They were the first in the world scoring with Devine as a big retailer but started their own labels in '82; Boni Records specializing in MOR/Pop and Break Records for disco material. Especially in the latter the label fares best. Their own production Video Kids scored enormously in Europe and in Southern America with Woodpeckers From Space, the cartoon figure set against a hip hop background. In the meantime the single sold already a couple of million copies all around the world and is still selling...

Other successful artists include Denise LaSalle (signed on Boni for the Benelux; Epic for the rest of Europe), L-Vira, Glenda Peters (the Randy Crawford sound-a-like) and Digital Emotion (Hi-NRG).

ROADRUNNER & MEGADISC

Roadrunner, the independent, directed by Cees Wessels, doesn't produce Dutch records but is highly influential throughout Europe with hard rock and heavy metal (more about this in our hard rock spotlight October 7th) but Wessels is part owner of the new label Megadisc with Mathilde Santing and Elisa Waut as the main own productions. Dutch singer Mathilde Santing has signed with WEA for the UK and her album Water Under The Bridge gets very favourable reviews where this talented performer is being praised for her sensual voice and the clarity of her compositions. Elisa Waut is a Belgian group signed with Megadisc for the Benelux and Statik for the UK. Waut has a distinctive voice sounding a bit like Plaff, Dietrich or even Siouxsie and her 6 track mini-album got good press coverage in the UK as well (see also issue 25).

But in the meantime let us take a look to see how Holland was doing over the years with regards to local product charting abroad.

FIERCE COMPETITION

Not only is Holland a small and one of the world's most dense countries but it also has an unbelievable amount of popgroups, all living on an extremely bare existence. The Dutch Ministry of Culture claims there are even 70.000 groups involving over 400.000 musicians, so competition for a solid place in the Dutch best selling lists is fierce. To be really profitable artists always had to look over the border.

In the history of Holland's pop-product crossing the borders, the Seventies were in fact the turning point, as in that year Dutch band Shocking Blue reached the no. 1 in the American charts with Venus. Dismissing this same achievement by the singer Willy Alberti in the Sixties (his Napolitan songs are not directly related to pop music) this marked the first time a Dutch band reached such a status.

STARS ON 45

Eleven years later it happened again. Dutch

The Star Sisters - CNR

The Star Sisters are female-trio from Holland, formed out of three very popular dutch solo-singers, Patricia Paay, Yvonne Keeley and (new member) Ingrid Ferdinandus, who already had a lot of hit records on their own. As for a one-time joke, they were asked by a Dutch TV show, if they could do an interpretation of the old Andrews Sisters act, with make-up and dresses the same way as in the old days. The three girls did.... and the next day everybody in Holland started to ask for a record of this unique recording, which inspired their producer Jaap Eggemont (Stars On 45) to make: Stars On 45 proudly presents... The Star Sisters. The single and album of The Star Sisters went straight to no. 1 one in Holland and Belgium and was gold in three weeks. Other markets followed soon and the girls did TV shows all over Europe and entered the charts of Germany, France, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Sweden, Denmark, Spain, Portugal and Greece. After these tremendous successes with old Hollywood and Broadway repertoire The Star Sisters changed their image completely this year for a more aggressive and disco orientated outfit. Successful Mai Tai producers Eric van Tijn and Jochem Fluitsma were asked for the production of the album Danger; the title track attracted a lot of media attention but it looks like the follow-up He's The 1 has the biggest chance to attack the charts.

studio-wizard Jaap Eggermont mixed several Beatles-tracks together into one new mix, Stars On 45, no. 1 in the US and an hit all around the world.

Although it is hard to speak of a Dutch pop/rock-tradition from time to time Holland does produce international hits. The first act actually crossing the borders was the formation The Hunters who had a modest hit with Russian Spy and I and the connoisseurs knew that the amazing guitar solo in the middle was played by Jan Akkerman, the legendary guitarplayer who later joined Focus. This was the year 1966 when the beginning of an own popidentity began to take shape in Holland. And although a wave of new Dutch bands was coming up, only incidentally one of them scored abroad. Most popular bands those days were The Cats, Q 65, Sandy Coast, The Shoes, Tee Set, The Motions, Shocking Blue and of course Dutch pride Golden Earring. Especially with the rise of pirate stations broadcasting offshore (Radio Veronica, Radio Noordzee), local talent got an enormous push.

EEL-SOUND

1968 sees bands like BZN, The Cats and Left Side reaching high chart positions working under what some called the 'eel-sound' (a lot of Dutch band with that particular style came from the fishertown Volendam). Recording almost in the same vein was the George Baker Selection, the first band after some time reaching a top-position in the American charts with the bluesy poptrack Little Green Bag and Tee Set's Ma Belle Arnie also reached top 5. Dutch wave kept on flourishing in the Seventies with new acts like Earth And Fire, Supersister, Dizzy Man's Band, Living Blues, Focus and others continuing their success.

HOCUS POCUS

Probably the most respected Dutch group earning a lot of recognition abroad was Focus. The group specialized themselves in

Powerplay - WEA

Formed from the ashes of the Dutch band Vitesse, Powerplay debutes beginning of 1981 with the album Avanti!, a remarkable album where the melodic Beatles- esque compositions of singer/guitarplayer Jan van der Mey make a good combination with the strong rythmsection. The band is disbanded in '82. But '85 sees the band in a new formation with three new members and Van der Mey still as the centre. The single One Summernight is their debut for WEA and on its way to become a hit in Holland. Another promising artist for WEA Holland is the singer Gerard Joling, whose single Love Is In Your Eyes was top 10 in Holland and stands a good chance to enter the German hitparade. His new single Ticket To The Tropics is his follow up ballad.

instrumentals, and their music had a combination of rock and classical influences whereby especially guitarplayer Jan Akkerman attracted a lot of attention with his fabulous guitar techniques. Tracks like Hocus Pocus and Sylvia brought the group international acclaim. But undoubtedly the most successful Dutch produced record ever was Una Paloma Blanca by the George Baker Selection, selling over 4 million copies worldwide; a very
